

NEW QUEEN'S OWN UNIT AUTHORIZED

Ottawa Approves Formation of Two Hundred and Fifty-Fifth Battalion.

SURPRISES COURT

Sergt-Major F. H. Elliott Said to Own Goods He is Charged With Stealing.

Word received from Ottawa yesterday authorizes the new Q.O.R. active service unit to be known as the 255th Depot Battalion C.E.F. and explains that the battalion will be called upon to provide drafts and reinforcements for units now overseas raised by or affiliated with the Queen's Own Rifles.

Mr. Meighen was too intelligent to defend the deal by which the International Nickel Co. has evaded paying its full share of taxation for the past ten years. It has escaped, as we all know now, by illegal agreements, first with Hon. Mr. Cochrane as minister of mines, and then with his successor as minister of mines, Hon. Mr. Hearst. Mr. Meighen absolutely declined to defend the provincial government. He had enough on his hands without attempting that.

It is understood that a few of the officers of the 201st (Toronto Light Infantry) will be absorbed in the 248th. As the Grey Battalion may be the last to go overseas as such, it promises to be a highly popular unit. Already there has been a rush of officers trying for a place with it. The commander expects good recruiting results in Grey County.

The officers conducting the court-martial here, which was presided over by Frank H. Elliott, C.A.M.C. (Base Hospital staff) appeared, charged with misappropriation of foodstuffs valued at $18.04, were given surprise yesterday afternoon when Grayson Smith, counsel for the sergt-major, produced a receipt from the firm, which delivered the goods specified in the order that they had been delivered on the personal order of the sergt-major and were not the property of the hospital.

Returned Today. The court-martial will resume the enquiry at 9:30 this morning. Thirty recruits volunteered for active service yesterday. Fifteen were accepted. The Army Service Corps secured three, the Artillery and 208th Battalion each two and the 188th, 216th, R. C. D., Veterinary Corps, Signallers, Guard, Police, each one.

The 48th Highlanders paraded last night 418 strong under command of Lt. Col. W. C. Darling. Serjt. T. Young has been appointed battalion serjt-major, while serjt-major in the school of musketry.

Major-General Logie will attend the presentation of colors to the 216th Battalion at the armories on Tuesday night. Lt. Col. G. H. Wilkinson, senior district chaplain, and Rev. Dr. James Henderson, pastor of Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, will officiate in the consecrating of the colors and Mrs. Timothy Eaton make the presentation on behalf of the church.

Russia Resolves to "Carry On"

BY FRANK H. SIMONDS. The fall of Sturmer, the Russian premier, and the appointment of a man in sympathy with the duma is the most important incident in Russian history since the czar took the command of his armies after the great defeats that began at the Donajic and ended at the Berezina. This act of the czar put the prestige of the dynasty at stake, and was a final answer to the German hope and the Russian fear that the Germanophile influence of the court and the bureaucracy had triumphed, and that Russia would make a separate peace.

When Sturmer succeeded to power relatively recently and Sazonoff went into retirement, the world was again filled with reports that the German influence had triumphed and Berlin once more began to hint broadly at a separate peace. What has happened since that time has been hidden from the world. All that has come thru has the growing suggestion of unrest and even of revolt in the duma.

Broadly speaking the duma represents the national and the popular emotion of Russia. It not only represents the domestic demand for liberty and progress, it represents the national demand for the prosecution of the national war against the German who is for the mass of the Russians the true enemy. It is the German, associated in his mind with the agents and forces of reaction and absolutism who has the whole-hearted hate of the Russian.

The real peril, so far as the Russian participation in the alliance against Germany is concerned, has always been that the court party would gain control, and there have been many moments when it seemed possible. Germans have never forgotten that a change in czars saved Frederick the Great, and German hope of a change in Russian policy that would eliminate the great Slav foe has endured to the present hour.

Yet we have had many signs recently that the Germans were abandoning this hope. Recently it was pointed out here that the proclamation of an autonomous republic in Austria by Vienna and by Berlin that there was no chance of a separate peace. Still more recently Count Apponyi, in discussing the peace, expressed the view that all differences between the central powers and their allies save for Russia would be agreed upon, and that Russia would remain an enemy to be feared and fought.

At bottom, the present war is a war of liberation for the Russian people. It is the Russian people who, with the spirit that marked the French in their own wars to protect the revolution from monarchical Europe, are at the head of the world, and it is Germany that has been the agent of the Russian reaction and of Russian despotism. But, if Russia would remain an enemy to be feared and fought.

The way Mr. Meighen blamed everything on the admiralty, and made out an alibi for the Dominion Government, resulted the smaller of the two vagrants in the Opera of Ernsto, who was constant, by calling out: "It's a just offence, and I can prove an alibi."

At bottom, the present war is a war of liberation for the Russian people. It is the Russian people who, with the spirit that marked the French in their own wars to protect the revolution from monarchical Europe, are at the head of the world, and it is Germany that has been the agent of the Russian reaction and of Russian despotism.

When German victories led to the invasion of old Russia soil, the Russian people responded as did the French in 1871. In a very real sense the present is the Napoleonic struggle, but now, in addition to the patriotic emotions roused then, there is the emotion stirred by the unmistakable desire of the Russian people to free itself from the old bureaucratic and absolute system under which they have lived so unappetizingly in recent decades.

Already a revolution has taken place and some acute observers suggested, when the czar took command after Russian disasters the front of the road of exile. What the personal wishes of the czar are about his country and its future is not hard to believe that these influences would have triumphed had there not been a national sentiment and emotion too strong to be ignored and too powerful to be suppressed.

In the eyes of the European world, Sturmer, when he came to power, came as the representative of the court, and the friends of Germany. He represented the conviction of the Russian nobility that the one escape from liberalization in Russia was the victory of Germany. The defeat of Germany meant to them the collapse of the main bulwark of the old order, the ultimate triumph of western areas and western democracy.

Conversely the fall of Sturmer will mean in Paris and London, and doubtless in Vienna and Berlin, that the German hope of a holy alliance between Hapsburg, Hohenzollern and Romanoff has gone, and that the present Romanoff has chosen the escape the people rather than by marching with his brother sovereigns.

We know too little about Russian affairs here to draw any conclusions. Yet the best proof of the necessity of what has happened in Russia and of Germany is the victory of Germany. The defeat of Germany meant to them the collapse of the main bulwark of the old order, the ultimate triumph of western areas and western democracy.

Now Russian despatches escaping the censor, not by any accident, one may be sure, have reported a struggle, which is the most important incident in Russian history since the czar took the command of his armies after the great defeats that began at the Donajic and ended at the Berezina.

Stefansson Expects to Remain in North Until Year After Next

Washington, Nov. 24.—A letter came to Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary here tonight from Stefansson, who for three years has been in the far north, at the head of his Canadian Arctic expedition. It has been on the way from the north since December 17, 1915, and part of it was written more than two months before.

Warily thinking the admiral for his refusal to credit rumors reaching America two years ago that his party was lost, Stefansson wrote of his plans for the spring and of his hope to see Crocker Land, reported by Mingos, Peary, despite the failure of the Macmillan expedition to locate it.

Admiral Peary thinks Stefansson probably carried out the program for the last spring and summer and returned to start for his winter base. In a letter received recently, nearly a month after the admiral's director of operations, Donald Macmillan, had held in some detail of his plans, giving notice that he expected to be in the north until 1918, and asked that no relief expeditions be contemplated before that time.

Saturday at Dineen's

Now is the time for men to buy to advantage in Dineen's Fall Hats, Coats, Fur and Fur-lined, and Winter Cloth Coats, Gloves, Gauntlets, Caps and Robes for motoring and driving.

Dineen's are most especially importers of English hats, and their stock is large and well assorted. The predicted early advance in prices will not be applied at Dineen's as long as the present stock lasts and orders placed with the English manufacturers continue to be filled. Friday and Saturday are always busy days at Dineen's. It is then the busiest men's store in Toronto. But there are always plenty of salesmen to give prompt attention.

positions north and south of the river untenable, for they will be able to advance into Bulgaria and to strike for Sofia and Belgrade.

Thus the campaign in Roumania has resumed a dramatic and an interesting stage. If the allies, fortified by the assistance coming down from the north, can put sufficient punch into their blows they have a chance of relieving their losses and of dealing Germany the worst defeat she has yet seen. On the other hand, delay may be most dangerous even than some persons imagine. The enemy, however, cannot be said to have attained his object until he captures Bucharest. That city has been well fortified on modern lines, and if he attacks it, with a large army of Roumanians and Russians in the field, it will give them an opportunity to attack him at grave disadvantage. Similarly, if he attacks the smaller of the two vagrants in the Opera of Ernsto, who was constant, by calling out: "It's a just offence, and I can prove an alibi."

The German attacks against Russia in the region of Baranovitch, are probably undertaken on account of the withdrawal of Russian troops from this region for service in Roumania. The Germans, by means of prisoners taken somewhere on the Roumanian front, have identified some of the dividers at the Russian lines in order to create nervousness about the safety of this front, so as to affect the situation that is about to develop in the Balkans. No person imagines that the Germans and Austrians are going to walk into that a country without encountering a formidable resistance from the allies. The Russian supports have been slow in their arrival, probably because they had to come 600 miles. Brusiloff does not intend to let go his grip on the German and Turkish armies standing before Lemberg and Kovel, and as soon as he has the Roumanian tangle straightened he will be prepared to resume his forward drive.

Gen. Sarrail is making great headway with his international army in its march into Macedonia, and the satisfactory feature is that the German stigma to stop or even check the advance. The fighting has been ferocious and the allies are pushing on with grim determination. As usual, the Serbians night's communication says that they are winning the most spectacular laurels, miles northeast of Monastir, and that they have severely beaten the Germans, depots, engineering instruments and other material. The French, Italians and into the defenses of the enemy. The Italians, advancing west of Monastir, have reached Nijipole.

Force may have to be used by the allies to compel the Greek troops to disarm and to evacuate strategic positions in the neutral zone about Salonica. The Greek officer in charge at Katrina has refused to withdraw. In the Balkans and German occupation of Seres, before which the British garrisons surrendered on secret orders from King Constantine, it has been learned.

Altho inactivity has prevailed on the French and British fronts during the past week, the Germans interpret it as due to winter conditions and as a sign that the allies have definitely ceased to trouble them. Their correspondents telegraph home that the allies will find the Germans prepared to all the allies could desire would be to find the Germans prepared as they were on the Ancre.

Another hospital ship, the Braemar Castle, has been sunk by a mine or on board were rescued. The British Government has called to the notice of the destruction of the Rappahannock and the loss of all her crew. This outrage is characterized as murder.

"Charles Frohman, Manager and Man"

The Life of the Great Theatrical Manager, by Isaac Marcossan and Daniel Frhman

FEW biographies, not even those of the most finished literary form, have succeeded in being more human and revealing than this life of a great theatrical manager. It is the story of a man who loved the theatre and the men and women of the theatre. First, there is a remarkable foreword of appreciation from Sir James Barrie, a genuine tribute of love to "the humorous, gentle, roughly educated, very fine American gentleman."

From Miss Marjory MacMurchy's reviews of new books.

Amazing Value in Silk Sweater Coats

Marked down in price for early clearance Monday at $3.75.

For this item we cannot take phone or mail orders, the quantity being limited.

SUCH a bargain as you'll only get once in the proverbial blue moon. For not a coat among them but would ordinarily be more than twice the price, and most of them would be three or four times as much.

Besides the colors already mentioned there are emerald, champagne, and white, in silk three coats. Some of them may be seen in a window. They are manufacturers' samples and odd lines, hence the low price.

Evening Gowns From Paris and New York—Very Smart and Very Lovely

And how could they be otherwise when satin, tulle and metallic tissues are employed for their creating and inspired brains and nimble fingers had the designing and fashioning of them?

THE COMING OF THE BOSTON NATIONAL GRAND OPERA COMPANY means a week's feast to music lovers, and a happy revival of things social. Evening frocks will be out in festive array, and to those who have not yet provided themselves with something new and smart, this word of reminder as to the vast resources of the little Rose and Gray Model Costume Rooms will be appreciated.

Paris and New York have contributed some of their most charming productions for evening wear—exquisite confections of satin, taffeta, charmeuse and brocade, made radiant with silver or gold thread embroideries and airy with lace and tulle.

In coral pink taffeta is a charming frock for a youthful wearer, its bodice of coral pink net embroidered in silver, with silver lace peeping down below the full-gathered skirt. It is $40.00.

Very picturesque is a model in black charmeuse, the skirt showing panniers of black net over cloth of silver, and the bodice composed of heavy silver lace, with flowing sleeves of black net. Price, $60.00.

All black is a gown of charmeuse with sleeves and skirt draperies of silk net. Price, $40.00.

The "Armstrong" Boot at The Old Price, $8

As you see in the sketch—a smart fourteen button model in black patent leather with cloth top, welt soles and Cuban heels

AND THIS DESPITE THE GENERAL RISE in the cost of footwear! The exceptional moderation of the price is due to the fact that the order for this particular group of boots was placed many months ago—and you reap the benefit.

If you are one of the many hundreds of our customers who are constant wearers of the Armstrong, you are well familiar with the merits of the shoe. If you are not, let us inform you that for smartness of line and excellence of wear at a medium price it is one of the most popular American makes on the market to-day.

The model now offered at the exceptionally low sum of $6.00 is fashioned of fine quality patent coltskin, with 14-button tops of black cloth, welt soles, and Cuban heels—a modish, comfortable, beautiful-fitting boot for general winter wearing. It may be had in sizes 2 1/2 to 8, and widths AA to EE. The quantity is limited, but while it lasts—price, $6.00 per pair.

—Second Floor, Queen Street.

will be in Toyland Monday from 9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m.

Bring the Children to see him. —Cor. James and Albert Streets.

SOME OF THEM are exact copies of Paris models. Others are the original creations of clever New York costumiers. All are immensely smart in material and line, their variety providing styles suitable for formal and informal use. Included are:

Afternoon and evening skirts in black satin, black brocade and black charmeuse, some laid in pleats with soft draped girdles, others in panier or overskirt effects.

Skirts for general wear in navy and black taffeta and gros grain silk, fashioned along simple straight lines, suitable for use under the long fur or cloth coat.

Skirts of more unique coloring and design—picturesque models in white crepe de Chine banded with beaver fur, models in green, brown and blue plaid and check silks matched with velvet, and others in black and colored velvet, pussy willow, poplin and Paisley silk.

These are skirts of the most exclusive, interesting type—the few models remaining from earlier Fall and Winter shipments. For quick clearance on Monday morning every model in the group will be reduced to half its present price and placed on sale at 10.30 a.m., at $12.50 to $30.00.

—Third Floor, Yonge Street.

Pretty, Dainty Party Dresses for Little Girls

Frocks that would captivate the imagination of any girl, and whose simplicity would delight her mother.

THE Merry Christmas time, with its school-girl gaieties, is almost here. Wherefore it behooves mother to consider the necessary garb; and these little frocks should have special appeal, for not only are they becomingly simple, and made of charming materials, but the prices are most moderate.

A pretty White Organdie Dress for girls of 6 to 10, is embroidered in a most effective needle run design, the bodice showing two panels of this embroidery outlined with Valenciennes lace and insertion, the sleeves and neck similarly trimmed and the embroidered skirt pleated. Price, $5.00.

A sweet little frock of crepe de Chine in pale pink, pale blue, or white, has a fascinating little high-waisted bodice with a scalloped trim peeping out from beneath a narrow belt in which is tucked a gold rose and matching the scalloped flounce of the bodice is a little metallic rose matching those on the skirt. Sizes 10, 12, 14 and 16. Price, $9.50.

Made of Georgette crepe over net is a dream of a dainty dress, with a pleated skirt hanging from beneath a baby bodice and girdled with a narrow, black velvet ribbon. The sleeves all made of a series of frills, the square neck is edged with frill, and just to one side is a little metallic rose matching those on the skirt. Sizes 10, 12, 14 and 16. Price, $12.00.

—Third Floor, Yonge Street.

Fur Made to Resemble Silver Fox

Neckpieces and Muffs that are charming in color and design—with a veritable luxury of becomingness.

Do you know the greyish sheen of silver fox, which is one of the rarest furs in the world? Well, in these sets you may see it reproduced in all its silvery tints and shades at about a fifth of the cost. And the muffs and neckpieces themselves are beautiful examples of the furrier's art, and made of the softest, silkiest skins.

A very charming set has a large, flat animal cape-stole, trimmed with head, tail and paws, and held in front by ties of taupe crepe de Chine, ending in little velvet flowers. The muff is a large bell-shape, trimmed with head, tail and paws, finished with velvet wrist frills, lined with crepe de Chine to match the lining, and provided with a cord carrying bracelet. Price, the set, $155.00.

In the same imitation silver fox is a lovely shoulder scarf in the new flat effect, the ends square, and lined with shirred crepe de Chine. Price, $100.00.

Lovely Muffs to match these scarfs are obtainable in large ball styles, trimmed with head, tail and paws, made on down beds, with crepe de Chine linings, and having carrying bracelets. Prices, $85.00 and $100.00.

This is Interesting

"HEE! that takes the cobwebs off my hair," said an old Scotch body after hearing Jessie Alexander press the particular charm exercised by this entertainer who holds so large a place in the affections of Canadian audiences. In her power of arousing breezy, wholesome laughter she has few equals in this broad land of ours. To many people in the smaller towns she represents all that they know of dramatic art. In the larger cities, where artists and attractions abound, her popularity has never waned. With her delicious sense of humor, her keen understanding of human nature, and her big gift of interpretation, Jessie Alexander was well described by the enterprising local committee of the little Western town which billed her in large letters as the "Queen of Canadian Elocutionists."

Assured of a warm welcome then is the little volume lately published, entitled "Jessie Alexander's Platform Sketches." Her old admirers will be pleased to possess their favorite selections in this permanent form, and those who aspire to be reciters themselves will rejoice to find, thus available in a unique and delightful repertoire in prose and verse. Many of the selections are original, such as "London from the Top of an Omnibus," "Coaching in Scotland," and "A Wild and Woolly Westerner." Others are adapted from the writings of well-known authors. Included are "Sandy McTab at the Front"—one of her most recent and irresistible successes—"Mrs. Bateson's Tea Party," "Saunders McGlashan's Courtship," "Friday Afternoon in a Primary School," and that matchless bit of Scotchness, "A Scotch Sermon." The price of the book is $1.00.

Have you seen the latest thing in the way of a cover for a polished table? It begins as a round centre piece, and branches out at either side and either end in gradually widening wedge shape, the whole resembling a Maltese cross, and to place between each wedge are four round dollies. It is in fine linen, made lovely with Madeira embroidery. The price, including the dollies, being $12.00. Closely related to the idea are the table sets of Madeira embroidery in which the dollies are cut in the same wedge effect instead of the conventional circle. One, consisting of centre-piece and half a dozen of these new shaped dollies, is featured at $5.75 the set.

Both will be found in the Linen Department.

Likewise an interesting novelty is the large, square-backed collar of white velvet. Imagine its soft becomingness on a black or navy frock. One smart design is featured at $2.25.

If your Christmas parcel for your soldier overseas is still in the making, you might well include a chambray waistcoat. Men who were in the trenches or in camps in England last winter speak with great enthusiasm regarding the warmth they provide, without any objectionable bulkiness. They are faced with fine khaki flannel and smartly tailored throughout. The price of the style without sleeves is $3.00, and that with sleeves $5.00. They may be had in the Men's Furnishing Department—in the Yonge Street Annex.

TO INTEREST CITIZENS IN MARKET GARDENING

Vegetable Growers Would Like Assistance From Government in Work.

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Speaker Advocates Simplicity of Names and Scores Seedmen.

At the evening session of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association in the railway committee room of the parliament buildings yesterday morning pictures were used to assist the address on onion growing by John Campbell of Leamington. The pictures were taken at Mr. Campbell's farm by S. C. Johnston, vegetable specialist of Toronto.

"Successful Growing of Cabbage," was the subject of a paper by Paul Work of Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. Prof. Work came to Toronto on Tuesday, but as the convention was postponed on account of the death of Hon. J. D. Cox he was unable to remain, so he left his paper.

Frank Reeves of Humber Bay, was in the chair and in his annual address referred to the death of Mr. Duff, and told of the interest the late minister of agriculture had always taken in the "Vegetable Growers' Association." Mr. Reeves also referred to the returned soldiers, thousands of whom would require outdoor work. He suggested the representations be made to the government that gardening would interest many and that assistance along this line be given them.

A. McLean of Brantford, dealt with the matter of home grown vegetable seed and advised the market gardener to grow some seed of their own specialty at least.

Prof. C. E. Durr of Urbana, Ill., gave a paper on the standardization of vegetable names, advocating simplicity of variety names. He scored the seedmen for having several names for the one variety. He urged government supervision and the establishment of different variety types by means of photographs and written descriptions.

In discussing Prof. Durr's paper, Prof. J. W. Crow, of O.A.C., held that the commercial growers' seed requirements were only a small fraction of the seedman's business and the commercial growers' needs would be met by men who would cater to their requirements.

S. E. Johnston of Toronto, reported successful experiments with the control of celery blight by spraying.

Recruiters in Canada for Royal Navy Report Progress

Over 150 recruits have been secured for the Royal Navy in the campaign now under way, but as the campaign is only yet in the organization stage Hon. Rupert Guinness and his workers express satisfaction with the progress made to date, and expect the full quota of men will have been secured by the end of the year. The first of a series of meetings planned for the final stages of the campaign in Toronto will be held in Loew's Theatre tomorrow evening when official views of the navy will be part of an interesting program. Col. Cecil Williams, chief recruiting officer for the Dominion, and prominent citizens will deliver short addresses.

Dr. J. C. Beatty is Convicted Goes to Jail Farm for Week

In the police court yesterday Dr. J. C. Beatty, 368 Brunswick avenue, was convicted of criminal negligence, and sentenced to the jail farm for seven days.

The charge arose out of an accident which occurred on College street, on Nov. 22, when Dr. Beatty, while driving his motor car, ran into and injured John Harry Farrow and Peter McGregor. Eye-witnesses testified that the doctor's car was going from eight to ten miles an hour. Beatty's counsel pleaded for a fine instead of imprisonment, but Magistrate Denison refused to change the sentence.

WATCHMAN IS INJURED.

While making his rounds as night-watchman, at 81 Florence street, shortly before 8 o'clock yesterday morning, John Nelson, 419 College street, fell down a flight of stairs and broke one of his thighs. He was removed to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance.

GOES FOR TRIAL.

When he appeared in the police court yesterday Wilfrid Walker, charged with injuring George Tomlin on Oct. 21, when he struck him with his motor car, was committed for trial.

WILLS PROBATED

The wills and four codicils of Henry Gooderham, who died at his residence, 180 Wellesley crescent, Nov. 4, leaving an estate of approximately $581,750, has been admitted to probate by Judge Morson. Mrs. Gooderham is given household goods, chattels and a legacy of $10,000, besides the income from $175,000. Mrs. Florence G. H. Huestis, an adopted daughter, is bequeathed $5000, and the income from $100,000, which is not to be less than $5000 annually. A reserve fund of $100,000 is set aside to be used for any impairment which the incomes might suffer.

Charles H. and Alfred L. Gooderham are given the income from $8000. Following are other bequests: Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Auld, $1000 each; James R. Walker, Ann Walker, Mrs. Archer G. Watson and Emma J. Harris, $1000 each; Ethel Ramsey, $1000; Holly McCormick, Robert Leitham, Gooderham McCormick and Jean MacVittie, $500 each. One-fifth of the residue is bequeathed to Mrs. Huestis and the four-fifths will be divided equally among her children.

The estate of $1826, left by Mrs. Harriet Norton, who died Oct. 27, will be divided between her children, Charles D. and Florence N. Norton, 62 Montrose avenue.

Children of Mrs. Mary Reddie, who died Nov. 12, will divide the estate of $1502. Their names are Robert J. Reddie, George H. Reddie, Ellen M. Reddie, Margaret Reddie, Agnes Reddie and Sarah Reddie.

SEVERE HEADACHES And Pains in the Back

Resulted From Deranged Kidneys and Constipation of the Bowels.

It is in vain to try to regulate and restore the healthful action of the kidneys until the liver and bowels are set right.

And just here is where so many kidney medicines fail. Kidney derangements almost invariably begin with constipation and torpidity of the liver. The whole work of filtering the blood is thrown on the kidneys, and in time they fail to stand the strain. The poison in the system gives rise to severe headaches, pains in the back and tired, depressed feelings. Because they act directly on the liver and bowels, as well as on the kidneys, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are eminently successful in the treatment of kidney derangements. Mr. William Loney, Marysville, N.E., writes: "I am glad to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anybody who is suffering from kidney trouble or constipation. I suffered for a long

Mr. Meighen's Address

Moderate in tone, and admirable in expression, Mr. Meighen's speech may be taken as a full defence, and perhaps the last word of the government.

Yet we venture to think that to the reading public the able address of the solicitor-general will come as a disappointment. The more they think of his ability, his dexterity and his eloquence, the more they will be surprised that so able an advocate could not make out a better case for his client.

To set up an alibi is usually to fly a signal of distress, and the government arraigned at the bar of public opinion upon the nickel question sets up a defence in the nature of an alibi.

This defence will not appeal to our national pride, but after all in the last resort the imperial government is supreme. It is a surprise, therefore, that Mr. Meighen did not content himself with passing on all the blame to the admiralty instead of laboriously defending such German sympathizers as the International Nickel Company of New York, and the Henry R. Merton Company of London, England.

The solicitor-general tells us that the policy, or want of policy, on the part of the Dominion Government has not proved to be an unqualified success. He says the ideal policy would have been to prohibit the exportation of nickel ore and nickel matte from Canada, but explains that such a course was not feasible in August, 1914, because at that time we had no way of refining nickel in this country.

It would have taken eighteen months to build a refinery. That is, in August, 1914, the government could not get the ideal policy into force for eighteen months. But the eighteen months have gone by; twenty-seven months have gone by, and we have no refinery. One was started a few weeks ago, but, if Mr. Meighen is right, it cannot be completed until 1918.

Nearly all the arguments, statistics, and correspondence produced by Mr. Meighen was handed to him by the officials of the International Nickel Company. They prepared his brief, and he appeared as their advocate. Indeed, he says, the nickel company's forced by the same British admiralty to employ the unspeakable Merton firm. The admiralty is evidently the villain in the piece, the nickel company is an injured innocent, and the Dominion Government figures in the role of Simple Simon.

Mr. Meighen on more than one point seemed to score in his reply to Mr. Dewar's speech of a few nights ago, but Mr. Dewar will have a chance to reply, and the case will not go to the jury until all the lawyers are heard. Mr. Meighen has done his best, and no man is more able, but the best lawyer must have something to go on and some material to work with if he is to make out a good case for his client.

for whom he could not get a verdict of acquittal must be a man who is born to be hung.

A New Forward Party

There is ample material in the platform adopted by the new Forward Party at the Labor Temple on Thursday evening, to furnish all the existing parties with material for some years to come. Of the eleven planks that constitute this progressive program there is not one which the leaders of the old parties would stand up and denounce. Many of them endorse in theory, but when it comes to putting the theory into practice there is always all kinds of excuses and side-steppings. Nobody will for a moment suggest that the time is not approaching when all these planks will be the commonplaces of government, and as inevitable as manhood suffrage and representative government, but all the politicians seem to desire to postpone the day of their recognition in fact until some happier time, when their children, who will be wiser than they, will do that which the present generation has not the courage nor the wisdom to do.

There was some hope of having the labor element of the community declare itself in favor of such a platform, but while labor is practically unanimous about the planks, individually there is a marked hesitation about building them into a platform on which to stand.

There appears to be a reluctance to accept terms from anyone not bearing a satisfactory label, and this reluctance is naturally cultivated and catered to by the old line parties who find in it one of their strongest bulwarks. Socialists of various brands are more hostile to each other than to their common enemy, and labor men continue to place the confidence of childish innocence in the old line parties, rather than take the matter into their own hands and achieve results. But the pioneers have no doubt about the final result. They are aware that always there must be pioneers, and those who will benefit most by their labors are usually the last to assist.

Two Hospital Ships Sunk

For the sake of human nature it will be hoped that the destruction of the hospital ships Britannic and Braemar Castle has been the result of striking mines and not by the deliberate torpedoing of the enemy.

The Berlin despatches say that "of course" they could not have been torpedoed as their character was plainly marked, but we fear that there is a considerable doubt of the German Kultur in this respect. The German policy at present appears to be a desire to cripple the merchant shipping of the allies, not merely for the immediate purposes of war, but with a view to giving Germany the lead in shipping tonnage after the war is over.

If Germany is defeated, which now depends on all the nations concerned putting their whole hearts in the task, and not as in Canada, deliberating whether it would be politic to do so or not—then the allies will exact reparation for every ship destroyed. Under the policy of destroying shipping, there can be no doubt that the great vessel sunk off Zea would be a great prize, and if this were the paramount consideration the question of those on board would not trouble the Germans.

There have been contradictory reports about the cause of the disaster; a circumstantial story about two torpedoes, one on either side, having been discharged, one of which missed, and the other was effective, has been sent over. Another story says that the British authorities state that the vessel struck a mine. Still another declares that owing to her construction no mine could have sunk the Britannic, and that it must have been a torpedo.

TINKERING WITH H. C. OF L.

Editor World: Our legislators have been good to us winners by taking from our pockets the money that the blacksmith with a bar of iron, who heated it, straightened it out, doubled it, fashioned it into many shapes, then before it cooled again plunged it into water—where it is likely to remain under "Old Nick's" care. The same legislators allow some hundreds of trucks of good food and vegetables to remain on the railway sidings to rot, but if there are one or two cases of Johnny Walker, Johnny Jamieson, Johnny Gantcorn, or any other liquor Johnny, the four above said legislators would at once jump to their feet, stampee to the city hall, get all the available P. C.'s fully armed, march to the above said trucks, to watch, wait and see if they could entangle any of our respected hotelkeepers or law-abiding boarding-house owners coming along to claim the precious Johnny liquors. But the food—oh, no—don't tinkle that, let it rot or be kept to be sold at prohibitive prices later on, when it is unfit for pigs to eat, making our poor poorer. Keep the middle class from coming and as for the poor—rich from them—good Lord deliver us.

CARS FOR MOORE PARK.

Editor World: Some little time ago I noticed in your paper a letter re the civic car line, on this new Mount Pleasant road. Are we going to get this? It seems a long time since the money was voted for this purpose; and it is a long distance for the people in Moore Park to walk. Surely something ought to be done. We are only about 2 1/2 miles from Queen and Yonge streets, and yet we have fifteen minutes' walk to get a car. What is causing the delay?

Reader, Moore Park,

"CONGRATULATIONS, SON"

J. M. HICKEY IS DEAD

WELL-KNOWN MERCHANT. Owner of Popular Gents' Furnishing Store on Yonge Street. After an illness of one month, J. M. Hickey, the well-known Toronto gents' furrier and clothier, died yesterday morning at his residence, 183 Alcorn avenue. Seven years ago he entered the clothing business and later went into partnership with Claude Pascoe. Three years later the partnership was dissolved and Mr. Hickey opened a store of his own at 97 Yonge street, known as "Hickey's," and was regarded as one of Canada's best tailors. A wife and three brothers survive. The remains will be taken to Dundas, Ont., for burial.

Mayor and Council Gain Information on New Bridge

Prior to discussing the whole proposition at the board of control meeting on Monday, Mayor Church and other members of the council visited the site of the new bridge, where it is proposed to construct a new double deck bridge at the joint expense of the city and C.P.R. The structure will give residents of the district another access across the C.P.R. tracks. At North Toronto Station the depot master A. D. MacTier of the C.P.R., from which point the whole party walked the line as far as MacLennan avenue. The members discussed as to whether with the improvement, MacLennan avenue be closed, or a subway or bridge constructed. Ald. McCreid declared land damages would be excessive if the street were to be closed. Foster was in favor of leaving matters as they are.

FEW LOCAL NAMES IN CASUALTY LIST

Only Seventeen Toronto Men Mentioned in Latest Ottawa Reports.

KILLED IN ACTION

Lt. Frank Oliver, Son of Ex-Cabinet Minister, Fell While Fighting.

Seventeen Toronto soldiers are listed in the casualty reports of yesterday. One has been killed in action, two have died of wounds, one reported missing is now "believed killed," one is seriously ill, and twelve are wounded.

Lieut. Claude Cecil Wimpercly, son of H. E. Wimpercly, Hyrie Building, is officially reported to have been wounded on Nov. 18. He was a School of Science student when he joined the C.O.T.C. He went to England with the 116th Battalion, but saw service at the front with a 75th Battalion draft. His home is at Oakville. Lieut. W. M. E. Chester, reported wounded, also went overseas with the 116th, but was transferred to another unit in France. He is a son of J. F. Chester, 588 Yonge. Lieut. John Baker, reported wounded in a telegram received by his wife, 165 Breraving avenue, enlisted as a private in the 96th Battalion, was promoted to be sergeant-major before going overseas and on reaching France was transferred to a 4th Division Battalion and given the rank of lieutenant. Before enlisting he was with the Dunlop Tire Company.

It was believed that Capt. J. G. McLean was killed in action, but the report was based on information which apparently confused Capt. McLean's name with that of his father. The latter, Capt. J. H. McLean, died in a London hospital about a week ago. His son is now serving, and his name has not appeared in any of the casualty lists. Flight-Lieut. M. R. Helliswell, son of Great Hollowell, Toronto, is reported to have been slightly wounded in the right eye. He is now in a Rouen hospital. Lieut. Helliswell was educated at Jarvis Collegiate and Toronto University.

Report a Mistake.

Major Alex Mann, yesterday reported to have been killed in action, is now reported to have died of wounds. Lieut. Allan Oliver, son of Hon. Frank Oliver, former minister of the Interior, has been killed in action, while serving with artillery from Ottawa. He was well-known in Toronto having been a student at St. Andrew's College from 1905 till 1910. Lieut. George Livingston, reported to have died of wounds, went overseas with the 84th Toronto Battalion, but on reaching England was drafted to another regiment. His home was in Hamilton.

Pte. Joseph Parker, of 18 1/2 Ashdale avenue, previously reported wounded, is now stated to have died of wounds. He was a Toronto member of an Ottawa battalion. Pte. Parker was formerly with a Jockey. His brother, W. A. Parker, thinks there is a possibility of a mistake as a year ago Pte. Parker was in Denver, Col. Pte. Bruce Clark, son of Mrs. Clark, 218 St. Vincent street, has died from wounds received in the left thigh over a month ago. He went overseas last September with an Ottawa unit, but was transferred to the C.M.E. Pte. W. Reed, reported as missing for several weeks, is now believed to have been killed in action. His mother who lives at 908 Davenport road has just received this report from Ottawa. Pte. Reed was 18 years old and went overseas with an Ottawa unit. Pte. Alexander Laverty, 419 Caspary avenue, is reported dangerously wounded in the right leg, hip and shoulder. His wife and boy live in Toronto. He went overseas with the 8th Battalion.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

BOSTON NATIONAL

In accord with his invariable policy of presenting the most famous operas, as well as decided novelties, Managing Director Max Rabinoof, of the Boston National Grand Opera Company, has selected for the Toronto season Giordano's Andrea Chénier, the masterpiece of the famous composer of Madame Sans-Gêne and Sibilla. Other offerings during the season of three days will be exceptionally brilliant. Tosca, the opera with which the engagement begins on Monday evening, is Puccini's most dramatic work.

"THE LODGER" THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"The Lodger," a new-season comedy success direct from London, in which the two celebrated young English stars, Lionel Atwill and Phyllis Relph will make their debut here at the Alexandra Theatre, Nov. 30th, Dec. 1-2, is amusing-paradoxical as the statement may seem—mainly because of having to do with a shocking series of murders. "The Lodger" and its premiere at the Haymarket, London, during the present season. It was an instantaneous hit, and still continues as one of the solid successes of the English season, being presented by two companies at the present time.

EDMUND BREESE IN "SCAPEGOATS"

Edmund Breesse, acknowledged one of the most gifted of the younger American actors, will be the featured player in "Scapegoats," next week's attraction at the Grand Opera House. Mr. Breesse has been prominently identified with big dramatic stage successes for nearly twenty years. In "Scapegoats," it is said to have the biggest part of his career.

JOHN MASON IN "COMMON CLAY"

Theatregoers of Toronto will be interested in the forthcoming production of "Common Clay," the sensational New York success, which comes to the Grand Opera House for an engagement of one week, beginning December 4th, with usual matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

LOEW'S

"The Palm Beach Beauties," will be the feature attraction of the coming week at Loew's Yonge St. Theatre. It is the last word in class and feminine beauty, with a cast of 11 people. Plenty of comedy will be furnished by the team of Burns and Kliesen. Ferguson and Sunderland will offer bits of musical comedy in a vaudeville way. Burke and Burke will offer 18 minutes in a laugh factory. Coscio and Verdi, two clever Italian musicians, will appear; also Mae McKee, the wizard of rapings. "The Unwelcome Mother," a five-act photo production, with Walter Law, will be shown.

HIPPODROME

For next week the Hippodrome management announce as the headline attraction, the spectacular eastern sensation "Hoyt's Dream of the Orient," headed by Madame Makarenko, and a cast of ten beautiful singing and dancing girls, Norma Talmadge, the delightful "Triangle" star, will be featured in the dramatic drama of everyday life "Fifty-Fifty." In "The Coon Detective" Charles Stiller and his capable company present a novelty comedy sketch, "La Belle and Williams," in a novelty whirl; Jim McWilliams, the "Dixie Honey Boy"; Naimen, the premier Hawaiian guitar virtuoso; Bill Riverlet, and "Keystone" film comedies complete the bill.

SHEAS

Charles Dickson and his capable company will headline the bill at Sheas's next week in the melodramatic farce "Looking Ahead." Ed Flanagan and Neely Edwards have a happy, snappy little comedy sketch, which they call "On and On." The Alexander Kids are headed by the cleverest juveniles in vaudeville. Julius Tannen, is a clever comedian, who has an entirely new monologue, "Oklahoma." Bob Albright is reputed to be the finest voice of exceptional range. The five Flormonds, the Bolger Brothers and eleven other comedians complete the bill.

THE WEATHER

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY GIVES DRUGGISTS WARNING

Those Convicted of Illegal Sales Will Be Removed From Register.

That the druggists of this province are determined that their profession will do its part to stamp out the illegal sale of habit-forming drugs, was made apparent by the action of their representatives on the council of the Ontario College of Pharmacy in session this week. On Wednesday afternoon three druggists, who had been convicted of the illegal sale of some of these drugs above mentioned, were notified to appear before the council. On presenting themselves, President Johnston informed them that it was within the power of the council to recommend to the Lieutenant-Governor

Nuxated Iron to Make New Age of Beautiful Women and Vigorous Iron Men

Say Physicians—Quickly Puts Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Most Astonishing Youthful Power Into the Veins of Men—It Often Increases the Strength and Endurance of Delicate, Nervous, "Run-Down" Folks 200 Per Cent. in Two Weeks' Time.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY WHICH PROMISES TO MARK A NEW ERA IN MEDICAL SCIENCE.

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Since the remarkable discovery of organic iron, Nuxated Iron, as the French call it, has taken the country by storm. It is conservatively estimated that over five million persons daily are taking it in this country alone. Most astonishing results are reported from its use by both physicians and laymen. So much so that doctors predict that we shall soon have a new age of far more beautiful, rosy-cheeked women and vigorous iron men.

Dr. King, a New York physician and author, when interviewed on the subject, said: "There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is pale. The flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone, the brain fags and the memory fails and often they become weak, nervous, irritable, dependent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women the roses go from their cheeks."

"In the most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, table syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, apples, eggs, fat, and cream, there is no iron, no longer is iron to be found. Refining processes have removed the iron from Mother Earth from these iron-rich foods and all methods of home cooking, by throwing down the waste pipe, the water in which our vegetables are cooked, are responsible for another grave iron loss."

"Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by using the best of organic iron. Just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."

Dr. Bauer, who has studied abroad in great European medical institutions, said: "As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away patent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple Nuxated Iron I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver, heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause of most of our ailments is iron deficiency. More iron in the blood means more health, more energy, more vitality. Not long ago it was a young man who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of twenty and the full vigor, vim and vitality of a young man. In fact, a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret, he told me, was Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron had filled him with iron. At thirty he was in bed with health; at forty-six he was careworn and nearly all in. Now at fifty a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to charge food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly-looking. Just like a plant trying to grow in a soil devoid of iron. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron from ten to fourteen days' time simply have seen dozens of you have gained. I people, who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely rid themselves of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. Any doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of iron simply to save a few cents. The iron demanded by Mother Nature for the red coloring matter in the blood of her children is alas! not that kind of iron. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good, otherwise you may waste time and money. Many an athlete and prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron. While he was going down in the ring, while any other had gone down in an ignominious defeat simply for the lack of iron."

Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, another New York physician, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."

EXPECTED WEAK SPOT TOWER OF STRENGTH

Janvri Filled Gap in Red Sox Infield When Barry Was Hurt.

Baseball Magazine: The baseball scene moved restlessly to and fro throughout the length and breadth of the country. They comb the backwoods for likely talent. They are up to secure a pitcher in Texas, a catcher in Washington, an outfielder in Maine. Locality cuts no figure. No distance is too great. But Harold Janvri, star second baseman of the Red Sox Club, was born in the very shadow of Fenway Park.

A month before the season ended I talked with Pat Moran of the Philadelphia team. He was the most valuable man in their line-up," said Pat. "Barry should prove a damaging blow to the man in their line-up." Barry was undoubtedly the loss of Barry was a severe blow to the Sox. It is hard to see how the support of their wickers during the world's series. But it is hard to see how they could have improved very much on the work of Harold Janvri.

This slender fellow worked in superb harmony with Everett Scott and between them they smothered the offensive tactics of the Brooklyn team after time. Surely no greater play was seen around second base than fairly strong arm of the Boston pitcher, the arm of Janvri and Scott.

Harold Janvri was born at Boston twenty-four years ago. In due course of time he entered the English High School, where he was a great football player. He was a great football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed. One season he represented his school in football, and he was a great football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed. One season he represented his school in football, and he was a great football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed.

There is a general disposition to ignore the fact that the English football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed. One season he represented his school in football, and he was a great football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed.

But in the case of Janvri, the Boston management was quick to seize upon him. He was a great football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed. One season he represented his school in football, and he was a great football player, and he is safe to say, will never be surpassed.

Thus it happened that Janvri became a member of the Red Sox squad in 1911. He did not get into games enough to secure mention in the averages for some time to come. Once in 1912 he was farmed to Jersey City, as he could secure more experience in this way than as a bench warmer at Boston. But since 1912 he has been extremely useful to Boston in the role of a utility infielder.

Janvri has been noted from the outset of his career as a brilliant fielder and a rather weak batter. But his speed of catch and intelligence and general adaptability have improved him as a hitter and some day to make him a finished ball player. It was hard on Barry, that his injury prevented his taking part in the series just closed. But after all, the famous Athletic star has had his fair share of world's series glory. Janvri, a young man with his fortune still to make, went into the series as a step child. He was not expected to do much, but he proved, by brilliant play, that he was well fitted to fill the shoes even of the $100,000 infield.

CHEAP POLICY FAILURE OTTAWA WILL BOOST

Dey Finds That He Cannot Get Players for Clerks' Salaries.

Special to The Toronto World. Ottawa, Nov. 24.—A new agreement between the Ottawa Hockey Club and Operator Ted Dey, it is stated, will likely be formed tomorrow night, when a star chamber session is booked to be held at a later hour tonight.

It leaked out at a later hour tonight that Mr. Dey had an agreement with the Ottawa Hockey Club to run the club at this point was passed. The Ottawa directors are going to a certain point, the whole operation, if Mr. Dey was to be anything out of the situation, was the security of a hockey club team.

The players stuck to their guns and wanted money, so Mr. Dey was put in a hole and stood to be lost. As the whole hockey situation is generally admitted here to be in a bad mess something is going to be attempted tomorrow night to patch things up. What the outcome will be anyone is at liberty to guess, but the up tonight is that a new agreement will be made.

A new agreement is sanctioned permitting a larger expenditure for players. It is likely that the "old guard" will return to the fold and Ottawa will be a factor in the N.H.A. race.

Jack Williams, the well-known big half-back, who was a member of the famous Ottawa team, is reported to be in the hospital, according to reports from the militia department, reported wounded.

Lieut. "Bob" Greaves, bank manager, and one of Canada's greatest sportsmen, who was a member of the famous Ottawa team, is reported to be in the hospital, according to reports from the militia department, reported wounded.

Williams comes from Kingston. Greaves is a lifelong Ottawa boy and one of the capital's foremost athletes.

Says India Loyal, Tho Small Grudges Active

Brantford, Ont., Nov. 24.—Murray G. Brooks, general secretary of the C.A. at Colombo, Ceylon, visited the local institution here today. He declared that the great heart of India is absolutely loyal to the British Empire, although there were some private grudges, some who try now and again to stir up trouble. There were more such, than in Canada, or any other British dominion. He stated there were a hundred "Y" secretaries with British Indian forces in Mesopotamia, France, Egypt, and German East Africa, where the Sepoys are fighting.

ONTARIO LIBERALS MEET IN TORONTO

Change Alliance Between the Conservatives and Nationalists.

NATIONALIZE NICKEL

Rowell Says It is Only Method of Keeping Control of Metal.

Ontario Liberals enjoyed a peaceful and happy union behind closed doors in the Temple Building yesterday at the annual meeting of the General Reform Association.

When the name of Joseph Singer was suggested for the executive, M. J. O'Rourke rose and told how Louis Curran and six Irishmen, whom modestly forbade him to name, had asked Mr. Gurofsky to be on the executive, not Mr. Singer, who was a young man, unheard of before that election, said he.

The following resolution was passed: Resolved that: Whereas the persistent insinuations as to the loyalty of Liberalism and Liberal leaders have recently been publicly made at Conservative meetings by presumably respectable partisans, and

Whereas the Conservative party under Sir Robert Borden deliberately allied itself with the Nationalist party in Quebec under Henri Bourassa upon the avowed policy of non-participation in the wars of the empire to endeavor to procure the defeat of the Liberal administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Whereas, following the success of the Liberal alliance, Sir Robert Borden's cabinet recognized and included in its cabinet men selected by Henri Bourassa, Armand Lavergne, and their associates, and

Whereas this alliance helps to explain the weak and vacillating policy of the government in connection with the war.

Whereas Sir Robert Borden will resign in his cabinet two Nationalists, Blondin, the most rabid of them all, and Patenaude, a former Nationalist organizer.

Whereas it is therefore resolved that the Liberals of Ontario, in our annual meeting assembled, desire to most emphatically condemn the continuance, in this trying time of war, of this unwholesome Conservative-Nationalist alliance as unfair to Canada and inimical to the best interest of the empire.

Resolution Carried. Charlton, Liberal candidate for East Elgin, and seconded by Robert Hall, of East Peterborough, that Conservative failure to support the Laurier navy policy was responsible for the sinking of the Lusitania, since, if there had been a Canadian navy, the British navy could have been conveying that ship instead of guarding Canadian shores.

"Don't you think that you are paying too much attention to the blabbing of some fellow here in Toronto?" snarled E. W. Nesbitt, M.P.

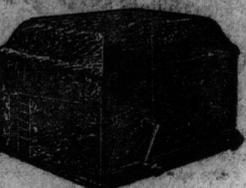

Hon. George P. Graham agreed with him and suggested that the first part of the resolution be struck out, but was and the resolution was carried so.

Mr. Graham then took the platform. He told the Liberals that they could not do their duty in this war by hiding behind somebody else's lack of action. "You can't get to heaven in a coach, and you can't do your duty to your country in a bunch," he told them, insisting on their individual responsibility to strain every nerve to the end and at present importance—the winning of the war.

Sir Robert Borden rather than Sir Wilfrid Laurier was responsible for the lack of recruiting in Quebec, he said. Sir Robert had put Nationalists in his cabinet, men who had gone to their elections on the ground that they should not support Britain since Britain had never done anything for them. How could these men make recruiting speeches now?

Sir Wilfrid had been unable to join in the call from the national services board because Sir Thomas Tait had been forced out of it because he was faced with the necessity of running it. Sir Robert had put Nationalists in his cabinet, men who had gone to their elections on the ground that they should not support Britain since Britain had never done anything for them. How could these men make recruiting speeches now?

arrangement between the government and the company was illegal he declared, and he called upon the cabinet to be just to the people it governed. As for any change in his attitude on the temperance question, while there was room in a democratic party for differences of opinion, there must be no "wobbling" in the leaders. Otherwise they could not hope for the confidence of the people. On that issue he would continue to stand where he had stood. This statement was greeted with applause.

E. M. McDonald, M.P. for Picton, N.S., brought the greetings and regrets of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He reminded his hearers that they had sat under the shadow of an election since August, 1914. Since then the Conservatives had been conspiring about a general election, not with reference to the good of the country, but with an eye single to party advantage, he said.

Ridiculous Exhibition. The Hughes-Borden correspondence was the most ridiculous exhibition ever made under the British flag, he said. Both must be asked in the house to prove the allegations they had made.

Continues Fight. H. H. Dewar, K.C., M.L.A., spoke of his intention of continuing his fight on nickel. He called Hon. Arthur Meighen "the chief apologist for the government," and said that Hon. A. E. Kemp's recent visit to Toronto was like John the Baptist calling in the wilderness, only that Mr. Kemp was different from the prophet in that he was his own "forerunner, advance agent and advertising agent."

There were 17 Dominion constituencies vacant and yet the Conservatives must hold an election in Toronto. "What right have they to force an election just to satisfy the ambition of Albert Kemp to follow Sam Hughes?" he asked. He demanded that elections should be held in all these places simultaneously with that in East Toronto.

All the officers and executive from last year were re-elected with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and N. W. Rowell as honorary members, and with D. A. Dunlap, Toronto, and C. S. Little, London, as new members of the executive.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King moved a resolution of "profound admiration" for the Canadian fighting men at the front. George S. Gibbons, president

Hard Working Women Will Find New Strength Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

It is useless to tell a hard working woman to take life easily and not to worry. Every woman at the head of a home; every girl in offices, shops and factories is subjected to more or less worry. These cannot be avoided. But it is the duty of every woman and every girl to save her strength as much as possible, and to build up her system to meet unusual demands. Her future health depends upon it. To guard against a breakdown in health the blood must be kept rich, red, and pure. To keep the blood in this condition nothing can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They strengthen the nerves, restore the appetite, bring the glow of health to pallid cheeks, and renewed energy to listless people. Women cannot always rest when they should, but they can keep up their strength and keep away disease by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. N. E. Tompsett, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "For several years I suffered terribly from nervous debility and was scarcely able to do a thing. During that time I consulted several doctors, and many medicines without getting any help, and I began to think that I would never get better. One day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised, and thought I would try them. After taking four boxes I was much better, but I continued using the pills for several months when I was again in the best of health. When I began taking the pills I weighed only 100 lbs. While under their use with my renewed health I now weigh 140. I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to every one whom I know to be ailing."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Boys Playing Indian, Shoot Man; Are Arrested

While playing "Indians" at Keele street and Lake Shore road yesterday afternoon, Fred Dolan, 51 Denison avenue, and Frank Welch, 75 Euclid avenue, discharged a 22-calibre rifle, the bullet lodging in the hip of John Caskin, 284 Bain avenue, a city fore-

Smart Arrest is Made by Morality Department Officer

John Marshall, 1027 College street, was arrested yesterday in a downtown broker's office, where he is employed, on a charge of keeping a common betting house. The arrest was effected by Morality Officer Kerr, who noticed a street car passenger mark### ing entries in a racing form, and followed the man to the broker's office.

ARRESTED FOR SHOPLIFTING. Agnes Sutherland, 11 Delaney crescent, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Levitt, on charges of shoplifting from the T. Eaton and Robert Simpson Companies' stores.

MURAD CIGARETTES

TO-DAY—

at this very hour—more smokers are trying Murads for the first time than all other high-grade cigarettes combined.

Almost 100 per cent of these new Murad smokers continue Murad smokers.

What is happening to-day has happened every day since Murads were first introduced.

What is responsible for this?

Not advertising—Quality!

And the endorsement of Murads by one smoker to another, from coast to coast.

Everywhere—Why?

WANT MORE EVIDENCE.

The jury at the morgue last night were of the opinion that insufficient evidence had been submitted regarding the death of Joseph Perrin, who was fatally injured in a fall from a ladder at the Campbell Milling Co's plant and an adjournment was made until next Tuesday night. Seven witnesses were examined.

ASK ESTIMATE OF COST.

The board of control at a private conference yesterday asked the works commissioner to prepare an estimate of the cost of purchasing a right of way along the north side of the C. P. R. tracks from MacLennan avenue to Summerhill avenue, to obviate the necessity of bridging MacLennan avenue.

IN ROUEN HOSPITAL.

Cobourg, Nov. 24.—Word has been received here by the relatives of Sergt. Charles McAllister to the effect that he is dangerously ill in a Rouen hospital with a gunshot wound in the head. Sergt. McAllister went overseas from Edmonton with the 68th Battalion.

SEVEN SUSPECTED OF MOTOR THEFTS

Gang Arrested for Shop-Breaking in Bridgeburg, Ontario.

TO STAND TRIAL HERE

Demolished Machine, Stolen From Toronto, Leads to Arrest.

In the capture at Bridgeburg, Ont., of Murray Kash, 153 Manning avenue, Sidney Bell, 10 Wexley street, Reginald Hughes, 102 Wellesley street; William Johnston, 185 Niagara street; John Dowdell, 164 Hurford street; Harry Jackson, whose address is as 137 Gray street; and Charles Plewa, 24 Mitchell avenue, the police believe they have the gang responsible for the theft of numerous motor cars in Toronto during the past month. The theft of the car belonging to William Toke, 49 Edgar street, from opposite 193 Lyndhurst avenue, Toronto, recently, and the wreck of the same car at Bridgeburg, yesterday, led to the arrest of the seven men. The wrecked car was found lying near the abutment of a stone bridge, against which it had collided.

Just before the smash at Bridgeburg, a policeman had seen the car containing the men speeding along the road. When he arrived at the spot, the car was wrecked, but the men had disappeared.

The men will be arraigned in a Bridgeburg court on a charge of shop-breaking after which they will be brought back to Toronto to face charges of theft.

SHOULD NOT CONSIDER FENCES "OBSTRUCTIONS"

Some at Least Are Artistic, J. D. Allan Tells Works Committee.

The board of works reconsidered their decision to consider all lawn fences as obstructions and yesterday voted to leave it to the discretion of the works commissioner to demolish the more dangerous ones.

Among the citizens who appeared to protest against the order for removal of all fences was J. D. Allan, Wellesley and Homewood avenue, who said that his fence cost $9 a foot. It was an ornament, and not an obstruction, he maintained. He complained that when notice was served on him he was treated like a criminal by officials of the works department.

When Ald. Robbins opposed proceeding with the work on the Bloor street fill, Ald. McBride accused him of not playing fair with the seven citizens who were paying for the viaduct. The committee decided at the request of H. H. Sutherland to proceed with the work.

Heavy Gales Bring Every Signal in Canada Into Use

Every storm signal in Canada was out yesterday. According to the weatherman this is an unusual thing, but heavy gales necessitated this precaution. The storm centre was down at Father Point, and there was a vast sweep of 1700 miles of gale blowing from Lake Superior to Newfoundland. At Long Point, on Lake Erie, yesterday morning the velocity was 48 miles an hour, and at Buffalo 56. Snow fell north and south of Lake Superior, Quebec and the maritime provinces had rain. Today will be bright and cold.

SPECIAL WAR SERVICES.

Archbishops Propose Interspersed Prayers for New Year's Eve Watchnight.

The Archbishops of Canterbury and York announce that in accordance with what was done through England on the first Sunday of the years 1915 and 1916, it is proposed that in the cathedrals and parish churches of England on Sunday, December 31 next, special prayer should be offered in connection with the war, and thankful recognition be made of the devotion which has been shown by the manhood and the womanhood of our country. We think it right that the utmost elasticity should, under due diocesan sanction, be allowed as to the prayers and the services. We suggest that the collections be given to the Red Cross work.

SEND GIFTS TO MEMBERS

School of Practical Science Class Remembers Students.

Seventy-four members of the School of Practical Science are fighting in France, and the class of 1917 at the college are sending Christmas greetings.

A. Caccioppola, a student of the University of Toronto, is serving the allies in Rome, Italy, where he is secretary to the general in charge of the largest military hospital in that city. Mr. Caccioppola was a graduate of philosophy at the university and also pastor of the Italian church.

CONCLUDES MISSION.

Cobourg, Nov. 24.—Rev. W. W. Craig, D.D., of St. Martin's Church, Montreal, who was accompanied by a dress and a purse of gold by the members of St. Peter's Church here. He has just concluded a mission at the church.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HIGHLANDERS TO ATTEND UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL

Will Honor Members Overseas at St. James' Square Presbyterian Church.

Special services for the 48th Highlanders Battalion will be held at St. James' Square Presbyterian Church, Gerrard street, Sunday morning, when Rev. Andrew Robertson will unveil a memorial tablet honoring the members of the church who have gone overseas. The Highlanders will meet at the armories at 10.15 o'clock and march to the church by way of University, Queen, Jarvis and Gerrard streets. The officers of the regiment will leave for Hamilton on an early Sunday afternoon train, where they will attend the memorial services for the

Buyers Become Intimidated by Move Among U. S. Congressmen.

EXPORT CALL REVIVES

Rains in Argentina Improve Crop Outlook in Antipodes.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Embargo prospects gave such an advantage today to the bears in wheat that rallies, due to European buying, failed to hold. The market closed weak 1/4¢ to 3/4¢ net lower, with December at $1.78 1/2 to $1.78 3/4, and May at $1.85 1/2 to $1.85 3/4. Other leading staples, too, all showed setbacks—corn 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ net, oats 1/4¢ to 1/2¢, and provisions 1/4¢ to 3/4¢.

Increased attention to the chances of an embargo seemed to be evident throughout the day in the wheat pit. Some of the bull leaders took the position that the proposed amendment would prove to be a bluff, but a majority of traders appeared to evince concern over an opinion current that the delay and that, as an emergency measure to protect the domestic crop, the government would buy wheat for export to the United States, a move which would prevent the enforcement of the statute. Likelihood of another increase of the U. S. viable supply took on Monday counted also against the bears, and so did the prospect of a revival of export business led at one time to a pronounced improvement in wheat values. Speculators were advised from Argentina that the rains in southern Argentina had been heavy and that the real benefit, as an effect with little delay, and that, as an emergency measure to protect the domestic crop, the government would buy wheat for export to the United States, a move which would prevent the enforcement of the statute.

Provisions advanced a bulge that was due to higher quotations on hogs, it was said that export trade was smaller and southern demand poor.

FOUR ACTIVE STOCKS MAKE HIGH RECORDS

Mining Issues in Strong Demand With Volume of Business Increased.

With the volume of business running well over 200,000 shares and three or four of the active stocks making new high records, the mining stock market at the Standard Exchange yesterday gave every indication of developing into a big affair.

For the past week or two, there has been a broadening tendency in the mining stocks with business getting gradually heavier and the public favorites methodically climbing to higher levels. At times there have been reactions, which was but natural, but good buying has invariably developed in recessions which usually resulted in strong rallies.

Up till the last few days no much interest has been centered in the New York market and the local industrialists that the mines have been neglected and where there has been a general advance in the metal stocks generally, the gold and silver stocks have not by any means had a fair share and according to well informed traders, are selling considerably below the prices that the unprecedented conditions warrant.

The fact that silver is again on the rise and this time the advance is more methodical and therefore more lasting, has given an added impetus to trading in the silver stocks.

In yesterday's market, new high records were established by Vancouver Gas at 115, Schumacher at 89, Newray at 17 and West Dome at 34.

Vancouver Gas is the star performer continuing its latest spurt to 135, an advance of 7 points over its former high made on the previous day and about 23 points gain in two days. New York was as usual the big buyer of the stock.

The fact that there is but a small amount of Schumacher out, is an important factor in the advance of this stock. Buying has been persistent, and this coupled with the small amount of offering has naturally sent the price soaring. At 60 yesterday the stock was approximately 30 points above the level it was at not more than a month ago.

Newray advanced two points to 117, an advance of 17 points in about two weeks' time.

Strong support has been given to West Dome and this issue continued to trend upward swing to 55. There seemed to be no news in explanation of the advance. The property is well situated in Kirkland Lake and has some good ore bodies, which are being developed vigorously, while the mill is waiting for the completion of the new power line.

Apart from the above stocks, the list in both Porcupine and Cobalt was generally firm and active. The McIntyre group of stocks seems to be just marking time until something more definite is given out on the proposed merger. McIntyre sold down to 175, but was firmer in the afternoon. McIntyre Extension was active around 11 1/2 and 52. Jupiter closed at 27 1/2 bid. Big Dome was lower, selling around $22.75 in sympathy with New York. Holly Consolidated held steady around $5.50. West Dome came in for some heavy trading at 24 to 34 1/2.

In the Cobalt list, Timiskaming went up to 67 1/2, but closed earlier at 64. Beaver held all points above 46. Beavers Lake was stronger, selling up to 19 and Shamrock displayed unusual activity at 16 1/2 to 15 3/4. Westhauser closed at 14 1/2 bid. Ophir touched 12 and closed at 11 1/4 bid.

STANDARD ISSUES HAVE MORE FIRMNESS

General Electric and Russells Strong, But the Specialties Are Weak on Liquidation.

Liquidation was continued in a number of issues on the Toronto Stock Exchange yesterday morning and prices received in those issues in which support was wisely withheld when stock was not desired. Steel of Canada dropped to 75 1/4, but when offerings were out of the way the price was advanced accordingly. Dominion Steel was well advanced at about the previous day's price and substantial buying of General Electric raised the price to 125 1/4. This is one of the old industrialists whose dividend capabilities have been tested and its advance has been modest compared with other and newer enterprises. Russells firmed up strongly on the afternoon board, the common reaching 108 and the preferred 134. The prevalent feeling in the market is that the specialties have exhausted themselves and that any price improvements from now on will be in what are generally understood as the standard issues.
