A CANDID FRIEND.

Mayor Church of Toronto is a good Conservative. He has stood by the party and labored for its success. Now, however, he proclaims his dissatisfaction with existing conditions. He does not like the term "Liberal and Conservative." The old title of Liberal-Conservative is good enough for him.

It is a simple one. The fate of Upper Silesia, according to the Treaty, must be decided by the Supreme Council on the basis of the recent plebiscite. Polish activity has violated the Treaty in that respect. And it is for Poland's best interests that the original situation be restored. Otherwise she questions the Treaty, which is her own charter of nationality, and she sacrifices the needs badly enough in working out the tremendously difficult problems of her national restoration.

Mayor Church modestly observes that he believes he knows something about public opinion in the Toronto district, and asserts that the people are not satisfied. They have a warm feeling of regard for Premier Meighen, but feel that "all is not going well with the party."

It now transpires that Mr. J. W. V. Lawlor was the writer of the letter to Premier Meighen regarding Mr. Veniot's possible entrance into the federal cabinet. Mr. Lawlor wrote and the premier replied, saying he would discuss the matter with Mr. Wigmore, and adding: "I have had no intimation from the party to whom you refer as to his attitude toward the government or toward the paramount federal issues of the day."

POLAND AND SILESIA.

The New York Times recently printed a letter written by Mr. John H. Finley, former commissioner of education for the state of New York, who is in Europe, and wrote from Warsaw, concerning the matter of Upper Silesia. Mr. Finley presented the case from the standpoint of the Poles, who declare the Allies gave them the worst of it in their trouble with the Czechs and Ukrainians.

It is announced that the bids for highway construction, recently opened at Augusta, Maine, show that the highway operations of the state this year will be performed at a much less cost than last year, perhaps some 25 per cent. "Two factors," says the Bangor Commercial, "that have a definite part in the lessened cost of construction are the lowered price of materials and the belief of the contractors that labor costs will be much less."

POST OFFICE ITEMS.

St. John, N. B., May 23, 1921. Editor Times:—The post office will adopt daylight saving service from Monday, 23rd instant—so far as general delivery, money order and foreign exchange offices and registration branch concerns the public. Mails are obliged to be worked with the railway service—on old time—including letter carriers' delivery.

RAILROADS MUST REDUCE EXPENSES.

Washington, May 23.—Railroads must make sharp reductions in their operating expenses if their credit and financial stability are to be re-established, a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which has made a survey of the transportation question, declared last night. "It is recognized by the railroads," the committee report continued, "that rates and fares cannot be lowered."

MEIGHEN WROTE TO J. W. V. LAWLOR RE MR. VENIOT.

Mr. Lawlor Publishes the Meighen Letter and Tells His Version of Negotiations.

A letter from J. W. V. Lawlor of this city appeared in the Globe on Saturday. In the course of it Mr. Lawlor said: On Nov. 29 last I wrote Honorable Premier Meighen and suggested wisdom of giving French-Canadians of the federal cabinet. As a citizen I had a perfect right to do so, and neither I nor any person nor showed my letter out of its contents to any one. It was a purely personal matter. In reply I received the following perfectly worded letter: Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 1, 1920. Dear Mr. Lawlor:—I received your letter of Nov. 29. I will discuss the subject to which you call attention with Mr. Wigmore. I have had no intimation whatever from the party to whom you refer as to his attitude toward the government or toward the paramount federal issues of the day. Faithfully yours, (Signed) ARTHUR MEIGHEN. J. W. V. Lawlor, Esq., P. O. Box 656, St. John, N. B.

St. John Man Meets Death In Bathurst

Death came swiftly on Saturday morning to William McAuley, a well known young St. John man, who has been living in Bathurst since his return from overseas, when he came in contact with high tension electric wires while working on the Nepsiguit bridge.

The unfortunate man was one of a crew engaged by the provincial public works department painting the steel bridge which spans the Nepsiguit River at the eastern end of Bathurst, near the pulp mill. He was working on the top of the structure and a few feet below him and strung out over the side of the bridge, the wires which carry current to the pumping plant of the Bathurst Lumber Company's water supply system were located.

McAuley slipped in some manner and falling he struck the electric wires, which carry a current of 2,200 volts. Death was practically instantaneous and, as the current could not be shut off for several minutes, the body was horribly burned before it could be removed from its position, much of the flesh being literally roasted and part of the clothing burned off.

Coroner Duncan was immediately notified of the accident and made preparations for an inquest. The jury met on Saturday evening at the court house and, after viewing the body, adjourned until this morning.

The victim of the accident, who belonged to this city, is survived by his wife and two small children. His father, William McAuley, who resides here, received a telegram on Saturday announcing that his son had been instantly killed and left on Saturday evening for Bathurst. The unfortunate victim spent considerable time in France during the late war. He enlisted with the 12th Battalion and went overseas with the 10th Battalion. Later he was transferred to the 9th Battalion, with which he served with distinction until he was killed. Besides his wife and two children he is survived by his mother and one brother, Harry, one sister.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. Alfred Laird, 92 years old, occurred on Saturday, May 21. She had been in failing health for the last few months. She is survived by her husband, three sons, and six daughters, all of whom are in the city.

The death of James Gogan occurred on Saturday, May 21. He was formerly in the employ of the General Public Hospital, is survived by two sons, William and James, and two daughters, Misses Agnes and Molly, all of this city.

TRAGIC DEATH OF SMALL BOY

Iris Graham, Nine-Year-Old Boy, Kills Himself With Rifle.

Iris Graham, the nine-year-old son of Ainsley Graham, of South Bay, accidentally shot himself with a thirty-two calibre rifle on Saturday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock, in the woods back of the Robinson property near Spruce Lake. The boy, accompanied by his brother Ronald, aged twelve, had gone fishing and, in addition to their fishing equipment, they had with them the "32" with which they were supposed to be familiar. The story, as told by the brother Ronald, is that Iris picked up the rifle, saying: "Watch me shoot myself." The older brother was horrified to hear an instantaneous report and see the younger brother drop dead. The bullet entered near the jaw bone and went out at the top of his head, right through the brain. Death was instantaneous. The older brother, terrified beyond words, ran as quickly as he could to the nearest house, several miles distant, where in an incoherent state he finally divulged his story.

Police Officer Sitson was contacted with by telephone and he started out with the intention of meeting the coroner. He first met with the child's father and told him the story. The parents are grief stricken and the whole community has been shocked to hear of the distressing accident.

Coroner Dr. F. L. Kenney said last night that he would view the body today and that an inquest would be held after the public holiday.

There are several other children in the family.

"Dumbells" Show Goes Big on Broadway—New York Canadian Club Turns Out in Force—Sir Arthur Currie Gives Them Sendoff.

New York, May 23.—(By Canadian Press) The Canadians have gone over the top again. They have attained the objective and consolidated their gains. But this time their victory does not lie in the muddy fields of Flanders; it is a Broadway success. In putting over a successful show in New York City, "The Dumbells," that well known organization of former Canadian soldiers has accomplished a notable achievement for professional. Some say that storming from the outset. Their achievement is regarded here as the more remarkable in view of the history of the organization. Beginning their tours of Canada without a single professional in their ranks, under amateur direction, "The Dumbells" have improved their show constantly, although from the first, with no more experience than they had obtained overseas as a concert party, they made a hit with the public. The present metropolitan triumph seems to have brought them to the pinnacle of success in their chosen field.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS HAD ROUGH TIME

A truck load of furniture on its way from St. John to Hampton came to grief in the Robbsey Road near Renforth and spent part of Saturday and most of Sunday abandoned in the ditch. The driver of the team had stopped at Renforth to go into the store and, while he was away, the horse wandered off and dragged the truck into the ditch where it over-balanced. The truck was partly smashed in the accident and was abandoned from Saturday at noon until late last night. The furniture got well washed with thunder showers and should need no more spring cleaning. The owners evidently placed implicit confidence in the honesty of the passers-by.

PASTORAL LETTER URGES SUPPORT OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

Pointing out the duty of the Catholic people to support foreign missions, the pastoral letter of his lordship Bishop LeBlanc, addressed to the clergy, religious orders and laity of the diocese of St. John, was read in all the Catholic churches of the city yesterday.

The pastoral points out that there are about 1,000 million non-Christian people in the world; it declares that the need for spreading the gospel and the chances of success were never greater than at present and enumerates the obligations resting upon the Catholic people which make it a duty for them to assist in the work of the propagation of the faith.

The agencies indicated in the letter through which the people of this diocese may aid foreign missionary work are the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and the Association of the Holy Childhood, for the establishment of branches of which in every parish provision has already been made by the First Synod of St. John.

Bishop LeBlanc begins his letter by saying: "On the first Easter night our Lord said to His apostles: 'As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you' (John XX, 21). And before ascending to Heaven He said: 'Go ye into the whole world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be condemned' (Mark XVI, 15, 16).

The First Missionaries.

His lordship then goes on to point out how the apostles and their successors, faithful to the injunction of their Divine Master, carried the message of the gospel to the heathen peoples of the day and how in spite of pagan persecution, the rise of the Mohammedan power, schisms, heresies and defections, the apostolic seal of mother church ever urged her on to win souls for Christ.

After pointing out the difficulties of spreading the gospel in former times, Bishop LeBlanc writes that "especially the wonderful development in our day of the facilities for cheap and rapid tra-

The continued existence of heathenism is a standing insult and dishonor to the Almighty. I am the Lord thy God—Thou shalt not have strange gods before Me—Thou shalt not adore them or serve them." (Exod. XX, 3, 5.)

Besides this motive for spreading the message of Christ, his lordship adds several others. He calls attention to the positive command of Christ: "Go ye into the whole world, and preach the gospel to every creature." This his lordship says is the last command our Saviour gave on earth and that to refuse to heed it or to lessen its force in any way is "to prove that we have no real love for Him nor for the souls for whom He died."

neighbor at the cost of their goods and even of their life when he is in extreme spiritual need are advanced as reasons why the foreign missions should be supported.

The bishop's letter then names the Association of the Holy Childhood and the Society for the Propagation of the Faith as the agencies through which his people are to help the foreign missions. The Association of the Holy Childhood is engaged in saving children and the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in carrying on their apostolic work.

The Right Rev. J. J. Walsh, V.G., of Holy Trinity parish, St. John, the letter says, has been appointed diocesan director of both these societies, provision for the establishment of branches of which was made by the First Synod of St. John.

The letter includes an exhortation to the laity to co-operate with their pastors in the work of the missions and to pray for the heathen, the missionaries, and for more vocations to the missionary field.

It concludes with a plea for supplementing prayers with alms, for the letter says: "The support of the foreign missions is the greatest charity in the world."

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, MAY 23, 1921

In Honor of Loyalist Founders of the City

The anniversary service of the Loyalist Society was held in Trinity church last evening, and was a deeply impressive one. Throughout it was patriotic in its nature and appropriate hymns were sung. Ven. Archbishop Raymond had prepared an eloquent sermon for the occasion but, being temporarily indisposed, was unable to deliver it, although present at the service. Rev. Canon H. A. Armstrong delivered the sermon and was assisted in conducting the service by Rev. A. E. Gabriel. The Archbishop's sermon had for its text: "The Lord reigneth be the people never so impatient; He sitteth between the cherubim; He is high, never so unquiet." It was, in part, as follows:

"Spared by the goodness of Our heavenly Father to spend the one hundred and thirty-eighth anniversary of the founding of our city amidst the stiller surroundings of the busiest years of my life, it is my privilege once again to address this congregation and in the name of the mother church of the city, honor the memory of those brave men of noble women Loyalists of 1783. We are not alone in our celebration day. Toronto, the Queen City of the Province of Ontario, is the home of a Loyalist Association, which a few years ago, chose for its anniversary day May 15, on the ground that on that day the first contingent of the exiled Loyalists—the founders of English-speaking Canada—landed within the confines of the Canadian dominion at St. John, New Brunswick. The Ontario Loyalist Association is holding its annual memorial service in St. Albans' Cathedral in the city of Toronto today, and will be addressed by a chaplain, the Rev. Canon MacNab, was my privilege to convey to their city on your behalf, a year ago, the greetings of the descendants of the United Empire Loyalists of St. John. Today it is my privilege to convey to you in St. John the greetings of their society in Toronto. The tie between us is more real than any that first thought appear.

To New Brunswick the province of which is indebted for many of her most eminent founders, who made their way in the course of a decade, from banks of the River St. John (where they first settled) to Upper Canada, among the veterans of the Revolutionary war, a very famous Loyalist regiment is known as the Queen's Rangers. It was much service and it was its heart have been in the vanguard of enterprise and the rears of every rear. Its members were given lands causes or the consequences of the American revolution. Enough for us that it was permitted of God and it was ordained that it should succeed. Amidst all the turmoil of the seven years of warfare of the revolution in America God was working His purpose out. Men did not see it then; they some times fail to see it now. The immediate consequence of the revolution was the birth of a new nation only—the United States of America—it meant the birth of another—the Dominion of Canada, and, best of all, it meant the salvation of a third and that an empire on which today the sun always shines.

"The revolution taught King George III and some of his advisors a lesson that probably they would have learned in no other way concerning the liberties of the subject. After the acknowledgment of American independence when the first ambassador from the United States, John Adams, was presented at court in London, King George said to him, 'Sir, I was the last man in England to consent to the independence of America; now that you have gained it I shall be the last to disturb it.' Today another George is king, more truly enthroned in the hearts of his people than his great-grandfather ever was. What, we wonder, would old King George III have thought had he lived to see the day that a Prince of Wales should, on the occasion of his visit to Washington, make use of the observation in his address to the legislature of the great republic, 'Your institutions are as democratic as ours.'

Phenomenal Reductions in Cord and Fabric Auto Casing and Tube Prices

Because Dunlop Tires give exceptional mileage, motorists have been calling for them at prevailing prices, knowing the value was so great as to even preclude consideration of cheap tires. Now that Dunlop Tires have been subjected to such a sweeping price reduction, no motorist can find an atom of reason for experimenting with shoddy or re-built tires.

Compared to a few years ago Tire Users are getting easily double—and even more than double—the mileage in the tires of today than they get from the best tires at that time. Ten, twelve and fifteen thousand miles are just average mileages today. And the records on the road show that Dunlop Cord Tires and Dunlop Fabric Tires are even exceeding these mileages. Now with Dunlop big mileage you have rock-bottom prices and paramount tire quality—a tire quality that is accepted as standard today, and which other makers are vainly striving to duplicate. When you can get a tire with a prestige back of it like DUNLOP, and with practically an unlimited guarantee, why chance your life on a second-rate tire at any price?

Dunlop Double-Life, High-Mileage Cord and Fabric Tires Will Save You More Money Than Ever.

About ninety boys and girls made their first communion at the 7:30 mass in St. Peter's church yesterday morning. Rev. J. Woods, C. S. S. R., was celebrant. In the evening all the first communicants were consecrated to the Blessed Virgin and a very eloquent and instructive sermon was preached on the subject by Rev. Geo. Daly, C. S. S. R., who dealt with the solemnity of the occasion and impressed upon both children and parents the duties and obligations they had undertaken.
A first communion class of some forty young children received the Sacrament of Eucharist at the 9:30 o'clock mass in the Church of St. John the Baptist, Broad street, yesterday morning. Rev. Dr. A. W. Mesban was the celebrant.

VALLEY RAILWAY CASE AT OTTAWA
New Brunswick Matter Before the Supreme Court on Friday—Decision Later.
The case of the Bank of British North America acting for members of the firm of Hibbard Brothers & Co., against the St. John and Quebec Railway Company was argued in appeal by Messrs. Gault, the company, and P. R. Taylor, K. C., for the bank, at Ottawa, on Friday. Judgment will be given later.
This is a case brought by the Bank of British North America, on the ground that a large amount of money, involving about $200,000, had been paid by the old board of Valley Railway directors to Mr. Gault, representing the Hibbard Company, after the Hibbard Company had been liquidated. Notice on R. B. Hanson, K. C., then acting as solicitor for the old board of Valley Railway directors, that this amount should be paid to the Bank of British North America. The Hibbard Company, it is claimed, owned the bank certain large sums of money and had assigned its claims for Valley Railway construction to the Hibbard Company, which was actively connected with construction for the Hibbard Company, present and his authority to collect the amount and the Imperial Bank, to whom Mr. Gault was indebted, retained A. R. Slipp, Mr. Hanson's partner, to collect the amount due the Hibbard Company.
The evidence presented before the court when the case was tried before Mr. Gault and the Imperial Bank and Mr. Hanson's course advising the railway company that the money should be paid to Mr. Gault was most interesting. The evidence of Mr. Slipp as given in the court when the case was tried before Mrs. Justice Chandler was that Mr. Hanson was his hired man, and the supreme court at Ottawa showed much interest in the evidence and argument as it applied to the relations between Messrs. Slipp and Hanson and their clients.
The interesting part is that the Valley Railway Company has paid the amount, and if the supreme court at Ottawa believes that the old board of directors paid it wrongfully to Mr. Gault the railway company will have to pay it over again.

BRUSSELS ST. MEN APPEAR AGAIN IN PAVING MATTER
was in such a financial condition as reported.
Dr. Frink was called on for his views by Mr. Walsh, but he refused to be drawn into a debate.
Suggests New Street.
H. L. McGowan presented a plan for relieving the congestion in Brussels street, it advocated carrying of Padlock street through to Brussels. Only three buildings would have to be removed, one is a livery stable. It also advocated the removal of the buildings at the southeast corner of Union and Brussels street in line with the east side of Carleton street.
Rev. Mr. Brown thanked the mayor for the bearing accorded the delegation. After the delegation withdrew Dr. Frink said that plans and specifications for Brussels street had been prepared. He suggested the council was committed to do this work. It was decided that the plans be considered at a special committee meeting Thursday morning.
The condition of the rails was discussed. The road engineer said if the company would cut off the bad ends of some of the rails a good track section might be secured. He said it had practically been decided to put down asphalt sides with granite or brick in track section.
Cutting Down Staff.
Dr. Frink said his pay roll was running as high as $860 some days and would have to be cut. Thirty men had been laid off Saturday and he intended to lay off forty tonight and also six teams. If Brussels street was egghead it would materially help the situation. A retaining wall would have to be built on the south and east sides twenty feet high and twenty feet deep. The road engineer said it would be a season's work alone to do this.
Mr. Bullock said the council was all of one mind that the work should be proceeded with. It was news to him about the retaining walls and he hoped the work would not be delayed. Dr. Frink explained that the retaining walls could be built after the pavement was laid. If the Power Co. could not go along with the work the track section could be left until later.

Oil Tank Matter.
Mr. Bullock reported that he had received a formal application from the Imperial Oil Company for a license to place a tank at South Rodney Slip. It would have a capacity of from 80,000 to 35,000 barrels. The company also would install an eight inch pipe line to berth Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4.
It was decided the communication be received and referred to the commissioner of harbors and the harbor master to report.
The Mayor announced that he had asked the West End Improvement League and Power Company representatives to meet in his office Wednesday morning to discuss the car tracks in Queen Square. A meeting will be held Friday at 2:30 to discuss harbor commission.
A communication was read from the Canadian Manufacturers Association to the effect that a caucus of maritime delegates will be held in Ottawa, May 31, in regard to the freight rates. The mayor suggested that the city solicitor go with the delegation to represent the city council.
Dr. Frink moved the letter be received and the mayor be authorized to appoint such delegates as he sees fit. Carried.
R. J. Wilkins appeared in regard to damage done to property at the corner of City Road and Marsh street. Mr. Jones said that he thought his department was not responsible for the damage. Mr. Frink suggested that a report be made by the superintendent of water and sewers.

VALLEY RAILWAY TRUST FUND
E. S. Carter, who returned to the city on Sunday, while in Montreal, had, in company with Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., an interview with the President Trust Company, trustees of the loan floated when the Valley Railway was first commenced. Mr. Carter said there was a good prospect for the closing out of the account and the changing of the trustee from Quebec to New Brunswick.

Death Follows In Wake of Electric Storm Which Swept Eastern Section

Arthur Rynax of Tracy Killed and House Burned

One Drowned in Maine When Tornado Hurled Shed Into Water — Norton Man and His Son Injured — Much Damage to Property.

Electric and wind storms attaining proportions of tornadoes visited New Brunswick and eastern Maine on Saturday night and Sunday and besides being responsible for two deaths and minor injuries to several people did a very considerable amount of property damage.

Arthur Rynax, of Tracy (N. B.), was killed and Austin Swift, of Norton (N. B.), had his foot split from heel to toe by lightning. Earl Lemore, a sixteen-year-old boy, was drowned at Doughty's Landing, Long Island (Me.), when the tornado hurled a shed in which he and four others were at the time into the water.

NEW FEATURES IN STREET CARNIVAL

A new phase has developed in the street carnival situation during the last few days. The company has acceded to the request of the employees' union and has distributed the work, Robert Stewart and David Henderson, who were discharged about ten days ago. The company, however, has introduced a new order of working conditions, a new wage scale based on a few minutes, too, the rain waters had been changed into a choppy sea, and it was with difficulty that the downdraft that followed lasted about twenty-five minutes.

Damage to property, while not substantial, was considerable, and extended over the city. A window pane of the factory was broken, two window panes of Vail's laundry, Charlotte street, were demolished, an electric wire near Waterbury & Rialing, King street, was damaged, and some metal roofing and house cornice were torn off by the wind and lodged in the street. A board wall at the Dufferin Hotel was blown down and the doormats of a West St. John citizen were lifted bodily and deposited about ten feet up the street.

MADE HIM FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN

Gibbons Says He's Brimful of Life and Energy Since Taking Tanlac.

"When it comes to building a man up and making him feel like a new man, I am feeling like my old self. For nearly three years I was in bad shape, feeling like a new man. I was in bed for three months and was so weak that I could not get up after a meal and, in fact, suffered so much I decided to get a doctor and get a prescription for me. I took Tanlac and in a few days I was able to get up, eat, and sleep like a new man. I feel like a new man."

GREATEST NEED OF THE FAR EAST

The present great opportunity which the Christian church has to save China and Japan is being eloquently explained by Rev. W. E. Taylor, educational secretary of the M. S. C. C., who gave a short talk for men yesterday afternoon in the Stone church school. Roland Fritch is the chairman. There was a short prayer by Rev. Canon Kibbey, and Rev. Canon Armstrong pronounced the benediction.

To Be Troubled With Constipation

THE CAUSE OF MANY ILLS

If you do not feel well and go to your family physician, one of the first things he will do is to ask you to hold out your tongue. The reason for this is that the condition of the tongue shows the condition of the stomach and bowels. If you find your bowels becoming constipated you will have bilious attacks, sick headaches, coated tongues, bad breath, heartburn, bitter taste, and all those troublesome piles, which cause so much annoyance and misery.

PROROGATION IS EXPECTED MAY 28

Ottawa, May 22.—It is expected that prorogation will take place Saturday, May 28. It is understood that the session will not sit on Victoria Day, May 24.

IF RHEUMATIC DISSOLVE THIS IN YOUR MORNING TEA

Then watch the pains, aches, swellings, stiffness, and other misery disappear. They simply HAVE to, says ALICE LANDES, certified nurse.

Rheumatism can be caused in but one way. That is by acids and impurities in the blood. Chemical analysis and microscopic examination of the blood prove the fact. It is not the result of cold or dampness, or exposure to cold and dampness, or anything of the kind. It is the result of acids and impurities in the blood.

Important Changes In Sales Tax Regulations

Bill Passed First Reading in House on Saturday

Ottawa, Ont., May 22.—Taxation proposals in the budget again held the floor in the house of commons on Saturday. The sales tax was particularly in review, and in this regard some important changes were made. The original resolution provided for an excise duty of three per cent. on lumber. Under a further change in the resolution the tax is now two per cent. on lumber sold and delivered by the Canadian manufacturer and three per cent. on imported lumber.

Banking Service for All

AS the majority of the first directors of the Bank of Montreal, formed in 1817, were Scotchmen or bore Scotch names it was but natural that they should seek in Canada "to extend and to perpetuate for the farmer and the merchant the benefits and stimulus of a system the worth of which Scotland's prosperity could abundantly prove." One of the outstanding features of the system was the maintenance of numerous branches by banks of large capital.

The Bank of Montreal, in adopting this feature from the outset, laid the foundations of a service which branches have been established throughout the entire Dominion.

At each of these branches the full service of the complete organization is available.

Through this service the Bank of Montreal offers to all classes of the community, from the smallest savings depositor to the largest commercial organization, good and adequate banking facilities. Each customer whether his account be large or small is welcome as a client of the institution.

Goodyear could make a good looking 30x3 1/2 tire to sell with a profit at $10.00

All-Weather Tires are All-Wheel Tires

There are a number of tire buyers to whom we could sell Goodyear Tires by building a very cheap tire. These men are shoppers—purchasers on a basis of price alone—blind to the true economy of quality and value. They have been the mark for every brilliant salesman with means enough to manufacture a few tires from the market's cheapest materials. Such tires have been legion—here to-day and gone to-morrow, only to be replaced by another "morning glory" under another name. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company from the wealth of its experience as the world's largest maker of tires wishes to convey a frank message to every motorist in Canada.

Goodyear could make a good-looking 30x3 1/2 tire to sell with a profit at $10 — but it wouldn't be worth the price — the cost-per-mile would be higher

Motoring, as a business or as a recreation, cannot stand the high cost of low mileage, quick blowouts, annoyance, and frequently soiled clothes. Over 4,000 Goodyear dealers in Canada are ready to serve you on Goodyear Tires in both Cord and Fabric types, and the new Goodyear Non-Skid Tread 30x3 1/2 Tire. These tires are, each in its class, the finest, strongest and most rugged tires we can possibly produce.

By their use the minimum of annoyance and expense can be obtained. OVER 4000 GOODYEAR CANADIAN DEALERS. GOODYEAR MADE IN CANADA

WEST LOOKING ASKANCE UPON THE MENNONITE

Refusal to Send Children to Schools is Responsible.

The Schools are Empty—The Teachers There Courageous but With Little or Nothing to Do.

Staff Correspondence of The Toronto Globe.

Swift Current, Sask., May 16.—The narrow morning some forty or fifty Mennonite farmers of Saskatchewan will appear in court in this pleasant town and pay their customary fine for the persistent non-attendance of their children at public school. They will come in sullen response to papers served upon them, as in other months, by the provincial police, and the usual of their payments for immunity from observation of Canadian law will be made. The business transaction, I suppose, is not new to them. Whether or not the above is "as bad as it sounds" depends entirely upon one's viewpoint. To the citizens of the west, it is neither here nor there, at least it will occasion among them no comment. It is to them, as to the police, the usual monthly parade of stink-offenders, an event so commonly recurrent as to be nothing more than a nuisance.

Hold Valuable Land. The three or four Mennonite settlements on the prairie comprise huge areas of the finest agricultural lands in the west, and a high valuation has been placed upon Mennonite holdings by the business supervisor or agent who represents his people in all their dealings with the outside world. Definite announcement of a move to Mexico, or anywhere else, of the entire Mennonite population would be hailed with delight by 90 per cent of the people of the west, and the fat lands that they have farmed so thoroughly and with such rich reward, would not long wait for purchasers.

Teacher's View. Last Saturday I revisited that school, found a new teacher—a courageous, young girl from Nova Scotia. She was, I remember her statement correctly, the third or fourth to follow the young man whom I had seen one year ago. She is interested in her work and pleased beyond words that a few Mennonite children were coming to school. Were I of school age coming I asked, "Not by any means; but—this with a slight highly commendable—she was working, she said. With the children she knew she could do something, but for their parents, well, 'You don't see the Mennonites.'"

War Against Disease
Is Failure In Britain,
Says English Expert

Countries of Europe Must Adopt Prohibition Before They Can Hope to Preserve Race From Poisons that Will Bring About Their Downfall, Says Dr. Saleeby—Hope of Empire Seen in Canada.

(Toronto Globe.)
"We're going to get the alcoholic factor out of the way before we can have a fair field for tackling the problems of 'venereal diseases,'" said Dr. C. W. Saleeby of London, England, in an address at night before the National Public Health convention, held in the Physical Building of the University of Toronto.
The late and partly-lamented John Barleycorn never received such destructive criticism from such high sources of authority in Toronto as it did in the address of Dr. Saleeby. He said that he fought against venereal diseases in Britain was a failure—a flat failure. On the other hand, in the United States marked progress was being made in the suppression of the disease.
"In Great Britain we are trying to stop the spread of venereal diseases and recruiting the increase in drinking. In the United States the campaign against venereal diseases is immensely facilitated by prohibition," declared the speaker. "This prohibition seems to me to be the greatest health-making move in history. It is a lesson to Europe and Europe will have to learn it."

Dr. Saleeby said there were three racial poisons—that is, poisons that do not die out with the individual, but are transmitted to the next generation. One comes from working with lead; the second comes from alcohol, and the third is venereal disease.
It was a phenomenon in history, said the speaker, that great nations came to pre-eminence and then fell in a night. Somehow, some deterioration of the race set in. Dr. Saleeby said he believed France and Britain were heading that way now. In his reply to the vote of thanks he referred to Lord Roseberry's saying that in great systems rot often first appeared in the heart. "I see phenomena today in the heart of the Empire that look like rot. In Canada," he declared, "is the hope of the Empire."
Dr. Saleeby said that eugenics could encourage worthy parentage, and could also discourage unworthy parentage. Some time ago, he said, it became evident that large numbers of feeble-minded, for instance, were the products of damage done to the stock by poisons in recent times. Fifteen years ago he had defined these poisons that struck not only at the individual, but at the race.

What Are Racial Poisons?
He distinguished between poisons that were racial poisons and those that were not. Damage done by measles in leaving after-effects, for instance, had no racial significance. The same thing occurred in wounds or accidents. The damage ended with the individual.
"So much the greater, then," he added, "is the importance to be attached to those few agents that destroy or damage posterity—the racial poisons. We are beginning to think that the next great step is to eliminate these from our national lives."
One of these poisons came from working from lead. It was found that parents employed where there was risk of lead-poisoning became parents of children who also were victims. Hence the poisoning had a racial significance. Hence, also, the regulations in Britain protecting women by prohibiting them from being engaged in those industries.
Then there was alcohol, a typical racial poison. The speaker quoted extracts from a report presented in Britain which showed by experiments that children of non-alcoholic drinkers progressed at a quick rate of development. These same experiments, carried on in various countries of the world, showed that alcoholic damage was more marked in germ cells than in any other cells in the body.

Protect Parenthood.
"It follows then," asserted the speaker, "that if we are to protect from the beginning the health, and above all the mental health, of subsequent generations, we must, in a brief formula, protect parenthood from alcohol."
They had to prevent the damage done to good parenthood by racial poisons. That was striking hard at alcohol, especially as alcohol struck at the adolescent, the pre-parent.
"In England and Scotland the aspect of the drinking of alcohol that disgusts and horrifies me is not the middle-aged man drinking, but, as for instance in one town, 20,000 girls under the age of twenty-one who were drinking. This is called it a stimulant, but it was not. The first thing it did was to narcotise the highest strata of the using, the judgment, for example. It made easier the reflex actions to the lower centres, and reduced the resisting power to temptation."

The speaker summed up five objections against alcohol. It lowered the physical resistance to infection; it interfered with disinfection; it aggravated the symptoms of these diseases, and it interfered with and prejudiced treatment. "On these grounds I believe alcohol to be the leading social accompaniment of these racial destructive diseases."
Drinking Increasing.
Ever since the armistice, drinking had been on the increase in Britain, said Dr. Saleeby. In the United States, since prohibition, the campaign against venereal diseases had been greatly facilitated. In one year after prohibition there, in one large city, he said, there was a decrease of twenty-seven per cent. in new cases, while before prohibition in one year there had been an increase of eleven per cent.

"In Europe our idea that we are going to save youth and the race while we are allowing free access to that which makes discipline impossible would be ridiculous if it were not tragic. Health without discipline is impossible."
"Do you see the epoch-making development in North America as regards prohibition?" he asked. "This prohibition seems to me to be the great health-making move in history. It makes possible the elimination of that complicated and handicapped factor against which otherwise we could not fight successfully."
Lesson Europe Must Learn.
It was a lesson Europe had to learn, he asserted. It might be, he added, that there was involved in prohibition the possibility of creating and maintaining in North America forms of civilization which, unlike all predecessors in history, could endure. Nations had fallen in the past because the quality of the people declined. The Romans who lost the Empire were not the Romans who made it. "Today the cities tended to destroy ed, so that it is safe to be young and complete in a city, it may be that you have solved the great problem of the crowd ed cities had luxury and leisure."

are young." These conditions tended to alcoholism and immorality and the destruction of the race.
"If you can create cities from which these age-long dangers can be eliminated, so that it is safe to be young and complete in a city, it may be that you have solved the great problem of the crowd ed cities had luxury and leisure."
