Fascist Agent Has Confessed Killing of Deputy Matteotti B. C. LIBERALS HEAR; FIGHT CLOSE

EXPOSES PLOT THAT HAS SHAKEN POLITICAL ITALY

Defiant at First, Dumini Breaks Down When Evidence Presented.

INVOLVES BIG MEN

Names Three and Says They Ordered the Murder—Five Committed It.

THOS. G. MORGAN. (United Press Staff Cor.)

Rome, June 21.—It is learned that an agent of the Fascist party, named Dumini, has broken down and made a complete confession of the kidnapping and killing of Deputy Matteotti.

At first defiant, Dumini wilted when undeniable evidence was placed against him and he exposed the entire plot.

The confession positively implicated Cesare Rossi, former director of publicity for the Department of the Interior, Filippo Filippelli, editor of the Corriere d'Italiano, and Marinelli, administrative secretary of the Fascist party.

Five Committed Murder. All these are Fascists and, according to Dumini, ordered the killing of the assassin. He admitted that he himself and four others did the actual slaying. The body has not been found.

He said Matteotti was dragged into a motor car which he had hired and was killed a few minutes after getting into the car.

The slayers then drove to the woods surrounding Lake Vico, where the body was tossed out of the car and abandoned. The slayers hurried back to Rome, where Dumini says he rushed into the office of the Corriere d'Italiano and told Filippelli that the murder had been carried out.

Filippelli said it was imperative that the body be hidden and ordered Signor A. Galassi, a staff man on the Corriere d'Italiano, and Signor Volpi, one of the slayers, to drive to the spot and hide the body.

Dumini was rather vague as to what had happened to the body of the slain deputy, but hinted that it had been buried in order to hide evidence of the slaying.

Dumini was one of the first men arrested in connection with the plot. After several days the prosecutor searched his room and found pieces of blood-soaked cloth and a bloody dagger. These were taken as positive evidence that Matteotti was slain, and since that time the prosecutor has almost constantly grilled the Filippelli agent.

It was rumored here today that Cesare Rossi had been captured near Bari. The police have been on the look out ever since the murder. He fled from Rome soon after the alarm was sounded.

Most of the Italian ports have been guarded to prevent his escape from the country.

More Arrests Are Made in Moncton

Moncton, June 21.—Eighty-four more arrests have been made by the local police during the last six months than in the corresponding period last year. The figures, are in 1923, 135, and this year 219.

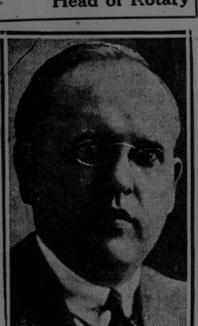

There were fewer arrests for drunkenness. A feature of the arrests is the number of women taken in charge. While there were one or two for each of the most part for offences for which they were committed, were in connection with the prohibition law, the women being both the brewers and the purveyors of liquor.

In the twelve months ended December 31, 1923, there were 389 arrests.

Harvard Receives $300,000 Donation

Cambridge, Mass., June 21.—A gift of $300,000 to Harvard University for a new dormitory, to be named for the late Isidor Straus, of New York, is announced. The donors are Mr. Straus' sons, Jesse I. Straus, Percy S. Straus, and Herbert N. Straus, all Harvard graduates. The gift is made as a memorial to their father and in tribute to Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus, who at their request placed in the dormitory a tablet to be inscribed with the names of the donors.

HAMILTON BLOCK IN GRIP OF FIRE

Four Stores in Ontario City Were Early Destroyed and Others Were Threatened.

Hamilton, Ont., June 21.—Hamilton's business section in South King street, east of James, was a seething furnace this morning, and fire which destroyed four stores was spreading and threatening the destruction of the whole block.

The G. F. Glasco Fur Company's store was gutted, and the flames spread through to Howell Bros., the Anderson Shoe Store, and J. D. Clime's shoe store. Chief James ordered a general alarm turned in at 12:15 o'clock when the fire crept through to adjoining buildings despite efforts to pour water into the structure. A light rain fell, but the blaze tore to have any effect. The building had been struck by lightning.

POSTAL STRIKE IS PROVING A FIASCO, REPORTS OTTAWA

Appears to Have Reduced Itself to Its Germ in Toronto.

MORE RETURN

Fizzling Out, in News From Several Cities—St. John Situation Normal.

(Special to the Times-Star) Ottawa, June 21.—The strike of postal employees appears to have developed in a sort of fiasco, and to have reduced itself to its germ in Toronto. Outside of some disaffection in Montreal, and a few scattered points in Ontario, it never got away to a good start. Both in the East and the West were true to their salt, save for a few scattered points in Ontario, it never got away to a good start.

In Parliamentary circles there is high regard for the postal service and its efficiency, but under all the circumstances in this case, it is not possible to detect the slightest sympathy among any party in the House with the man in which the strike was precipitated. There has been a feeling that a great national utility such as the postal service should be immune from the paralysis which a general strike would bring to the business of the country.

HERIOT CROSSED TO ENGLAND TODAY

He Says the Conference Will Be Personal and Confidential—A Forecast.

(United Press.) Paris, June 21.—Premier Herriot carried out his economy policy in his visit to London today to confer with Premier MacDonald. Learning that it would cost 60,000 francs to go across the Channel in a French ordinary steamer, he crossed in an ordinary steamer.

Well informed groups say that the principal things to be taken up by MacDonald and Herriot will be the Franco-British pact; resumption of relations with Russia; and all outstanding Franco-British questions.

The French press generally refrains from comment, but the question is summed up by the Journal, which says: "Herriot's and MacDonald's inclinations and ideas are so similar that it is almost a certainty that they will agree on all points of generalities."

Paris, June 21.—(Canadian Press)—MacDonald's visit to London today and Monday, when the French Premier visits Chequers Court, will be "personal and confidential," M. Herriot told newspaper correspondents last night. He said nothing would be given out regarding the conference, although the British official may issue a communique if he wishes.

STRIKE THREATENS ON ELECTION EVE

Political and Industrial Unrest in Mexico With Voting Tonight.

(United Press.) Mexico City, June 21.—With the Mexican presidential elections only a fortnight away rumors of political and industrial unrest have again become current.

A general strike is threatened among the workers in the oil fields near Tampico and Vera Cruz, where employees of the Mexican Eagle Co., the British organization, have refused to accept the proposals of the Mexican Federation of Labor for a settlement of their wage demands.

The Federation of Labor is supporting E. V. Lullario Calles for the presidency, a fact which has injected politics into the industrial situation.

Rumors of a split among the Labor and Socialist groups which have been supporting Calles, have been accompanied by suggestions of trouble within the next few days.

Conservatives are clamoring for the disarmament of the agrarian elements who, it is charged, may attempt to prevent the holding of fair elections.

So far President Obregon has the situation well under control and so long as he controls the election machinery, Mexico may be able to elect her new president peacefully.

Metagama Men Not Yet Found

St. John's, Nfld., June 21.—Three men who set out from the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama in search of a landing place after she had collided with the Italian steamer Clara Camus off Cape Race had not been found last night, according to reports from the Cape Race wireless station.

Recluse Leaves Teacher $150,000

New York, June 21.—Miss Elizabeth W. Richman, who received a fortune of $150,000 from the estate of an aged recluse who died last November, in the public ward on Welfare Island, has resigned as teacher in Public School 3, West New York, N. J., and plans to spend part of the $150,000 which she has already received in a trip to Europe. Her only other extravagance was the purchase of an imported roadster of a vermillion hue. She denied that she was a recluse, and said she will not marry for a long time.

She said the fortune was not related to Louis Lehman, who bequeathed her the fortune, and did not know him. He had her best man when her grandparents were married in Germany half a century ago, and he had no relatives.

PLUNGES TO DEATH FROM 4TH STORY

Ohio Supreme Court Judge, 33, Has Skull Crushed on Pavement.

Columbus, O., June 21.—Judge I. M. Wanaemaker of the Ohio Supreme Court ended his life here by leaping from the bathroom window on the fourth floor of Mt. Carmel Hospital. Coroner Murphy said death had been caused by a crushed skull, due to his falling head first to the pavement. He had been suffering from nervous prostration and had been under the supervision of Dr. R. L. Barnes and a nurse, Mrs. Mildred Ewing.

She said the judge entered the room, closed the door and shot the bolt in the lock. Then he turned on the water in the bathtub. Mrs. Ewing, fearing that Wanaemaker planned to drown himself, tried to break down the door. But before she could force an entrance to the room a truck driver reported to the hospital office that Judge Wanaemaker's body was lying on the sidewalk.

Investigation disclosed that Judge Wanaemaker had left the water running while he was on a clear and then to the top of a tall radiator. From this position he had raised the window apparently had slid his body, falling to the sidewalk headfirst.

PLANTATION HANDS SPREADING STRIKE

Filipinos Demand Double Pay—Sugar Industry is Chiefly Affected.

Honolulu, June 21.—A strike of Filipino plantation workers has spread to five new plantations on the island of Hawaii, scores of laborers throwing down their tools. They are demanding that their present wages be doubled.

Three thousand laborers are on strike on the island of Oahu. Most of them have been idle since early in April, when the strike was called. The men now get $1 a day and want $2. Sugar plantations are the most severely affected by the strike.

SIR DAN GODFREY COMES TO CANADA

Famous British Bandmaster Gives Three Reasons For His Visit.

Quebec, Que., June 21.—I am coming to Canada for three reasons said Sir Dan Godfrey in an interview on board the Canadian Pacific liner Minnedosa, here yesterday. Firstly, for my health, secondly to visit my old friend, T. J. Crawford of Toronto, and thirdly to gain some information on things outside of my own profession.

Sir Dan is one of the best known musical directors in the British Isles. He was knighted by the King in recognition of his services in helping to preserve the higher class of British music in the United Kingdom. He will address the Rotary Club of Toronto next week on 30 years of municipal music. Sir Dan, who is also a Rotarian, has specialized in this work in his home town of Bournemouth, England, causing it to become famous as being second only to London in matters of high class musical entertainments.

NOTED NEW YORK PASTOR RESIGNS PULPIT CHARGE

Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, Prominent in Modernist Controversy.

RECTOR 31 YEARS

Storm Over Engagement to Divorced Woman Recalled by Resignation.

(United Press.) New York, June 21.—The Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, noted modernist, has resigned as pastor of the New York Church of the Ascension.

The forest of the modernist-fundamentalist controversies which have torn and disrupted religious denominations since began to encroach upon the announcement of his resignation, have raged around the retiring rector.

Leaky sewer pipes in the rectory are said to have been the indirect cause of the announcement of his resignation. Dr. Grant's resignation, which he has held with prominence for 31 years, was declared that a serious illness suffered owing to the faulty rectory plumbing had caused a 600 per cent. reduction of his usual income.

Dr. Grant clashed with the conservative element of his faith and lost when he was elected to the rectory in 1921. A storm of discussion arose following the announcement of the engagement of the pastor to a woman who had been divorced on the grounds other than those which the church recognized as permitting re-marriage.

N. B. PHYSICIAN ON CANADIAN COUNCIL

Dr. L. G. Pinault of Campbellton Shows Demonstration of Cancer Removal Given.

Ottawa, June 21.—The new president of the Canadian Cancer Council will be Dr. David Low of Regina. He will take office at the next annual convention in Regina in 1925. Members of the council include Dr. G. M. Mackenzie, Halifax; Dr. J. G. McDougall, Halifax; Dr. L. G. Pinault, Campbellton, N. B.; Dr. H. K. Macdonald, Halifax.

An interesting lecture and demonstration on the removal of cancerous growths by means of an endotherm knife, was given by Dr. George P. Wyeth of New York. Demonstrations of the working of the knife, which is an electrical machine and is said to have the power of effecting absolute cures of cancer unless the growth has spread through the system was given in pieces of beef. It was explained that the great obstacle in the surgical cure of cancer had been the regrowth of cancerous cells which had been carried by the blood.

The knife, Dr. Wyeth declared, overcame this by surrounding the growth by a film of secreted tissue which effectively isolated the growth from the healthy organs surrounding it.

When the searing was done another current was turned on and the growth was removed bodily.

ANN LUTHER WANTS $100,000 DAMAGES

Gallagher and Shean Lits Through This Suit in Los Angeles Court.

(United Press.) Los Angeles, June 21.—Ann Luther, who is a former wife of Ed Gallagher of the famous Gallagher-Shean entente, is suing J. F. White for $100,000 damages, charging breach of contract.

White has filed a counter complaint, in which he seeks $16,000, naming that amount as money advanced to Miss Luther when, he alleged, she represented herself as a capable actress, of good reputation and good moral character.

According to Miss Luther's claims, White agreed to finance her career in motion pictures, and has not fulfilled his contract. The case was called in court here Friday, but was postponed a week.

White's counter suit, however, he contended that Miss Luther was of "bad reputation and moral character," and depositions filed on Friday told of numerous affairs in which she was alleged to have played a prominent part. Miss Luther has admitted that she was named as co-respondent in Evelyn Nesbit's suit for divorce against Jack Clifford, but denies that she had lived as his country place in the Adirondacks was entered.

They Look to the White House

"Hurry! We can roll eggs on the White House lawn on Easter Sunday." This is the way Dana and Virginia Daves, adopted children of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Charles G. Daves, received the news of their "dad's" nomination for the vice presidency. The children, both pupils of the Miller Public School in Evanston, were adopted by the general and his wife following the death of the Daves' only son, Rufus F. Daves, several years ago. The Daves also have a daughter, Mrs. Melvin Ericson.

Member of Famous "Follies" Takes Ziegfeld to Court and Wins $7,405

New York, June 21.—Barred from the Ziegfeld Follies because she could not enunciate clearly, Mrs. Olive Cornell went to court and convinced a jury that her speech was distinct.

A verdict of $7,405.45 from Joe Ziegfeld was given Mrs. Cornell, and Ziegfeld, whose discriminating eye discerns beauty more perfectly than that of any other was advised that Mrs. Cornell's voice had range and melody but that her words were indistinct and that she had been dropped from the cast after a tryout because of her inability to make the audience understand.

Mrs. Cornell read her song to the juryman to prove the clarity of her speech.

CHECK IN ONTARIO

Redistribution Said to Be Pretty Well Arranged in Other Provinces.

Ottawa, June 21.—Ontario is still the chief stumbling block to completion of the redistribution bill. Quebec is now said to have been agreed upon, including the Island of Montreal, which is to have 13 members. The western provinces are pretty well settled, and no serious difficulty is anticipated in the Maritime Provinces.

In Ontario, however, the schedules are said to be in an "embryonic" state. It is still expected to bring in a bill at the present session, but it is possible that differences in Ontario may make that impossible.

C. N. R. Gets Offer For Hotel Scribe

Ottawa, June 21.—An offer of forty million francs has been made to the Canadian National Railway for the property held by the company in Paris. The offer included free office rent for the railway company. The building was purchased a year ago for $7,200,000 francs.

Burns House to Win Other Man's Wife

(United Press.) Los Angeles, June 21.—Martin Colson has no regrets over his love for Mrs. Clarence B. Walden, which, he told police, caused him to set fire to her husband's home. His theory was that if they were reduced to poverty, Mrs. Walden, who had indignantly spurned his attentions, might change her attitude towards him.

Colson conceived an infatuation for the pretty young woman while working in the Walden home. He is a plumber.

BOTH OLIVER AND BOWSER BEATEN, FARRIS A LOSER

Issue in Doubt, But Liberals May Have Control in House.

NO WOMEN IN

Beer Gets a Big Vote—New Provincial Party Makes Poor Showing.

Vancouver, B. C., June 21.—Returns thus far show that the Liberals of British Columbia in yesterday's general election elected 19 members to the legislature, the largest number of any of the parties, but whether the government of Hon. John Oliver will have a clear working majority in the Assembly will depend very largely on the final results in six ridings which are in doubt.

While the Liberal party triumphed over its opponents, Premier Oliver, its veteran leader, went down to defeat with his three party mates in Victoria, Conservatives in the capital electing their full ticket of four members.

Conservatives 15. From the latest returns available the Conservatives have elected 15 members. The Provincial party, conducting its first campaign election out three members.

Labor elected three, and two Independents were returned. There is no doubt that the Conservatives will have a majority in the House.

The failure of the Provincial party to elect any more than three of its candidates, the defeat of the four Liberals in Victoria, involving the defeat of the Premier, and the defeat in Vancouver of the Conservative leader, Hon. W. J. Bowser, were the surprises of election day.

General A. McLean, Provincial leader, is elected in Vancouver. A. McCreery, another candidate of the Provincial party in this city, was elected.

Farris Defeated. So far as is known this morning there will be no woman member of the legislature.

Mrs. Ralph Smith, who in the general election in 1920 headed the Vancouver list, yesterday just failed of election, and with her W. J. deB. Farris, K. C., former attorney general, went down to defeat. Mrs. Smith's defeat was unexpected. Women candidates in other ridings met defeat.

In striking contrast to their victory in Victoria, the Conservatives were unable to elect any of their six in Vancouver, and for the first time in over twenty years in which he has represented Vancouver in the Legislature, Hon. W. J. Bowser, the Conservative leader failed to secure election.

Apparently all of the cabinet ministers have been returned with the exception of Premier Oliver. Hon. William Sloan carried Nanaimo by a large majority. Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, had a narrow majority in Chilliwack. Attorney-General Manson appears to be safe in Omineca.

Hon. Dr. Sutherland, Minister of Works, won in Revelstoke, and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, and Hon. Dr. MacLean, Minister of Education, won in Prince Rupert and Yale respectively.

Mayor J. R. Calley carried the Liberal banner to victory in Kamloops. Figures on the beer plebiscite were fragmentary, but from the country they showed a "wet" tendency. No figures were available from Vancouver city, but almost every poll in the interior of the province shows beer to have a majority, in some cases the proportion being as high as three or four to one.

When the Legislature was dissolved the standing of the parties stood: Liberals, 26; Conservatives, 14; Labor, 11; Independents, 4, and Socialists, 1. One seat was vacant.

The Government can count on the support of some of the Independents in the House in any move that might threaten its existence.

The Liberals did not oppose Major Burde, elected as an Independent in Alberni, nor did it oppose the return of Paul Harrison, Independent Liberal in Comox. Thomas Uphill, Labor, elected in Fenix, has also given the Government support on most occasions.

LOWDEN TELLS ROTARY ABOUT FARMER PROBLEM

Says Disproportion Between Farm Prices and Those in Commerce.

CO-OPERATION Urges Rotary be Instrument for Co-ordination With General Business.

Toronto, June 21.—The several spasmodic movements toward general prosperity in the post-war years have started when agricultural products had sufficiently advanced in price relatively, but the movement was halted because prices of other products began to advance again, thus destroying the improved position of the farmer.

There can be no permanent general prosperity until the disproportion between the prices of farm products and services and other commodities and services are wiped out, he asserted, and how to "tid ourselves of this disparity is not the farmer's problem alone but the problem of all."

"The disparity between prices of the things the farmer has to sell and the prices of those things he must buy is the main cause of placing agriculture in the hardest lines it has had in the present lifetime of the generation," Mr. Lowden declared.

"On every hand we learn of farm abandonment. If we should avoid this ruin, the farmer must organize. Co-operative farm marketing associations no longer are an experiment. Wherever they are employed you will find agriculture in its best days."

IS INJURED IN A MILL AT SHANNON

Murray Parlee, of Waterford, Kings county, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon while at work in a mill operated by John Bickford at Shannon. He was at work near a circular saw and fell, his arm coming in contact with the saw. He came within an ace of losing his arm, losing a thumb and one finger and having the forearm badly lacerated. He was taken to the Norton Hospital where his injuries were attended to by Drs. Gilchrist and Fraser and last night he was reported as resting easily.

POSTAL STRIKE IS PROVING FIASCO

(Continued from page 1.) The postal service will soon recover from its temporary disarrangement. What the consequences will be to those who took part in the walk-out, and to those who took their places, remains to be seen. It is said that those who go to work this morning will be treated as usual. The substitutes will in some cases, such as Montreal, where it is understood the officials are strongly opposed to reinstating the strikers' leaders, be retained in the service if they show fitness.

MRS. JOSEPH F. STANLEY

Mrs. Margaret Stanley, wife of Joseph F. Stanley of Misses N. B. died in the General Public Hospital this morning, following an operation. Besides her husband, the late Mrs. Stanley leaves four sons, George, Harold, Wesley and Thorne, all at home; and four daughters, Mrs. W. E. Burton of St. John, Mrs. J. H. MacLeod of Calgary, Alberta; Miss Velma and Miss Hilma, at home; also two brothers, Charles E. McKee of Cape Sable and Charles McKee of New Brunswick, N. J.; besides a host of sorrowing friends. The funeral will be on Monday at 3:30 p. m., daylight time, from the family residence, Misses N. B.

PROPERTY EXCHANGE

Commissioner Bullock said this morning that he hoped to have a recommendation to bring to the council very soon in connection with the exchange of properties on the West Side by the city and the Government, which is handling over the C. P. R. wharf and shed for No. 6 extension. A copy of the proposed deed conveying the city property to the Government had been received and a few changes had been suggested by the commissioner. He had also asked for a copy of the deed from the Government to the city and hoped to have this in a few days.

A HOT JOB

An Irish servant girl asked leave of absence to consult a fortune teller. She returned walking dimly. "Did she predict some great trouble?" asked her mistress sympathetically. "Och, ma'am, sich terrible news," moaned the girl wringing her hands. "Tell me what she said," asked the mistress, wishing to comfort her. "She told me that me father works hard shovelling coal and tinders' foires for a livin'."

REPORTED PROTEST MEETING

It was reported this morning that the Temperance Hall, Fairville, had been engaged for a public meeting on Tuesday evening next to take up the awarding of contracts for the paving of Main street, Fairville, objection having been raised by one contractor that his tender was not opened by the Highway Board.

COLLINS' BANKRUPT SALE AT 187 UNION.

Through a typographical error in Thursday's Times an advertisement of the Collins' bankruptcy sale appeared to be conducted at 187 Main street. This should have read 187 Union street, where bankrupt attractions of first quality are drawing great crowds.

EASY PICKING.

Two Irishmen had just landed in New York and like many immigrants, America and money were synonymous to them. While walking from the dock one of them picked up a quarter that lay the gutter and a little further on was fortunate enough to see a dollar that lay on the sidewalk. While stooping down to pick it up his partner called out "Mike, don't bother with that scattered stuff; wait till we get to the pile."

THICK, FOR SURE

A meeting of the district council was in progress to consider a complaint about the muddy state of the roads in the outlying districts. They must have been muddy indeed according to one of the councillors. "Gentlemen," said he, "I was walking by the road in question the other day when I saw a man's hat on the top of the mud. I touched it with my stick and was astonished to hear a man's voice from beneath."

"My friend," I said, "it's a bit thick there isn't it?"

"It ain't 'arf," came the answer, "and I'm on the top of the load of 'av."

WANTED TO FIND OUT.

The scene was an Old Country farm yard, and the farmer's wife stood at the door. Down the country lane a red dog, bedraggled and dirty, made his way. At the farm yard gate he stopped and asked the farmer's wife to give him something to eat. "Come into the yard," said she cordially. "The tramp eyed the bullock that was roving round the yard. The bullock eyed him. "Come in," repeated the farmer's wife. "I dunno about that," answer the tramp. "How about the dog? Will he bite?" "I don't know," said the farmer's wife. "I only got him today, and that's what I want to find out."

Kellogg's Bran delights father by bringing health to children

Poor little kiddies—they needed bran badly. But they wouldn't eat ordinary bran. They didn't like them. Most folks don't. Then their father tried Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. What a difference! He tells the story in his letter:

"Dear Sirs: I wish to express my appreciation of your Krumbled Bran, which I have used for my children this summer. We had a great deal of trouble with them through constipation, and bran had been the most satisfactory remedy but they could not be induced to take the old varieties, because they disliked them so. They enjoy the Krumbled Bran and consider it an essential ingredient of their porridge. No one whose children have not been troubled in this way can appreciate the relief there is in having their bowels more regular." (Name and address on request.)

THE POISONERS.

The statement made to The Times-Star yesterday by a citizen who discovered a sandwich, containing a deadly irritant poison, exposed where a child was just as likely as a dog to pick it up, is a startling one. No one need be a lover of dogs in order to see instantly that the poisoner who takes such a course in the hope of killing a dog is a dangerous criminal whose identity the police should make every effort to discover.

On several past occasions valuable dogs have been poisoned, even a dog that was not running at large but that was accompanied by their owners. Warnings as to the gravity of the practice of deliberately leaving poison about have been issued often enough, but it seems that more drastic measures are necessary. The person who would poison a dog is bad enough, but the one who, in trying to give an agonizing death to an animal of the class which he cannot but recognize—of killing a human being, is a menace to the community too great to be ignored.

The job of discovering the poisoner, or the poisoners, ought not to be impossible by any means. Such outrages sharpen public vigilance. Citizens with young children, dog owners, and law-abiding people generally, will be on the watch. Likely enough the poisoner has peculiar ways which may attract attention and cause inquiry. The police will be on the alert, and they will not hesitate about quietly following up any clue placed in their hands.

THE EMPIRE CRUISE.

The British special service squadron, headed by the Hood, in many respects the greatest warship afloat, which is now on its way to British Columbia, received a wonderful welcome in Australia and New Zealand. The Auckland Herald rightly describes the touring squadron as a "pulsant sign of an Empire united in an enterprise of universal law and order, one nation with one aim the world over."

"A little island group on Europe's western shore is seen as the early home of a virile people. The salt spray is in their nostrils, the far horizon in their eyes. They make friends of the winds, and learn to follow the guidance of the stars. Too trait their island fastness becomes, and they seek roads upon the restless sea. To them the treasures of distant lands become a lure and challenge, and they go forth to claim a share of them. Then, prompted by a wanderlust that yet has a homing instinct deep-entered in it, they sail away in companies to make them dwelling-places in those far-off hunting grounds. There, undaunted by hardships and perils, they establish themselves and their law. But ever they keep the sea open to them. Britain is still the home of the race, however its sons and daughters may establish themselves elsewhere; and, as the years grow into centuries, these sturdy children of a loved Motherland, knowing no abatement of their regard for it, seek ways of filial service. A threat of attack upon it makes them leap to arms. Their developing industry prompts them to maintain and foster close commercial intercourse with it. Its language, its customs, its arts and literature are theirs too, and all they prize most in their souls' life binds them to it. So, as the marches of Empire extend, the threading roads upon the ocean become more and more thronged with shipping, and the volunteer vessels of Tudor times give place to a Grand Fleet for the patrolling of the high seas and the securing of unbroken communication where Britons dwell. That fleet becomes peerlessly essential to the national well-being. Without it, indeed, the Empire could not survive."

At the Canadian ports visited by the squadron there will be like expressions of enthusiasm and of understanding as to the meaning of the Navy to the Empire. We in Canada can never forget how the British Navy kept the seas free during the great world war, any more than we can forget the great part it has played in the upbuilding and protecting of the mighty Empire which is today the foremost influence for peace, liberty and justice in the world.

Press Comment

THE EIGHTEEN GREATEST MEN

Who are the men who have given the largest measure of learning and culture to the world? You can probably name two or three off-hand. But could you select eighteen such geniuses adorning as many fields of human endeavor?

- This was the larger order placed before the faculty of the University of the State of Washington. A magnificent new library, now in process of building, is to have the figures of the world's greatest men on its facade. The faculty chose the following representatives: 1. Adam Smith, social science. 2. Beethoven, music. 3. Dante, poetry. 4. Darwin, biological science. 5. Leonardo da Vinci, art. 6. Benjamin Franklin, public service. 7. Galileo, physical science. 8. Goethe, poetry. 9. Grotius, international law. 10. Gutenberg, printing. 11. Herodotus, history. 12. Homer, poetry. 13. Justinian, law and administration. 14. Moses, religion. 15. Newton, mathematics and physics. 16. Pasteur, medical science. 17. Plato, philosophy. 18. Shakespeare, drama.

BLONDES' EYES.

Blondes are cautious people and braggarts go helter-skelter through the world with no thought for the future, if one is to believe the evidence of insurance-policy statistics offered by a large corporation which deals in such matters. In a hundred policies selected at random from the company's records it was found that more than half were held by blue-eyed, fair-haired persons, and that many more had been issued to possessors of gray eyes and flaxen tresses, while the brunettes made a very few of the second.

Such evidence is contrary to most old notions. Blue-eyed men, one had always heard, were the dreamers and far-seekers; blondes and blondes took chances in their respective lines of endeavor, so that there exist the traditions of Vikings exploring distant seas in frail boats, and blue-eyed Romans leading their dark-eyed countrymen to victory. Who has not been told, over the footlights, that blondes are far more deadly than brunettes? And who has not heard it said that almost all the people in hospitals for the insane have eyes of blue or gray?

This discrepancy between practice and theory may, after all, be something altogether different. There are no statistics available to show that the proportion of blondes and brunettes does not hold in everything. If there are more blondes in the world than brunettes one would naturally follow that there would be more blue-eyed policy holders than dark-eyed or gray; most world leaders, from Caesar to Napoleon, had frises of the dreamer's shade. And soldiers and authors, more than anyone else, ought to be heavily insured. Think of the chances they take!

A REFEREE NAMED.

Another step has been taken toward solving the difficult Irish boundary question. Prime Minister MacDonald, as the result of his recent conference at Chequers with President Cosgrave of the Free State and Sir James Craig of Ulster, has sought far and wide for an unprejudiced arbiter to lead the commission to decide the matter and has found him in the person of Justice Feetham of the Supreme Court of the Union of South Africa. The selection was a most judicious one, and the approval of the London Times. "A better choice," says the Times, "could hardly have been made for a peculiarly difficult and disagreeable piece of work. Both factions to the dispute are favorable to the nomination judge and indications were given of most encouraging for some kind of settlement of the dispute."

A CHANGE.

The American Legion has extended an invitation to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to attend its next convention, and the Bangor Commercial remarks that "it is a far cry from the days when every patriotic American orator was expected to tweak the British lion's tail to the invitation" now sent to the Prince. Colonel Lindsley, to whom was deputized the honor of presenting the invitation on behalf of the Legion, said that the welcome from the American veterans "for the Ambassador of Peace would be unequalled by any demonstration that has yet taken place or may come after. The Prince of Wales represents in personal capacity and in his personality all those fine qualities which Americans admire and love."

SAY CAR TRAVEL BETTER.

According to local hotel proprietors the automobile tourist business is better so far this year than it was at the corresponding period last year. They do not anticipate any rush until early in July, when business they think will be good for about eight weeks or more. Already tourists from as far west in Canada as Toronto and in the United States as California have been visitors in town. One party arriving last night, from Boston reported the roads to be in excellent condition with the exception of a few soft spots.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 10 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent. air and 6 per cent. common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, O. E. Johnson, 244 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

FOLLOW THE SEA.

(C. Fox Smith in Ottawa Journal)

"What is it makes a man follow the sea?" "Ask me another," says Billy Magee; "Maybe it's liquor and maybe it's love—Maybe it's likin' to be on the move—Maybe the salt drop that runs in his blood. Won't let his killick lie snug in the mud; What is it makes such poor idjits at me. Follow the sea—follow the sea? Jiggered if I know!" says Billy Magee.

What is it keeps a chap roarin' around.

All his life long from the Skaw to the Sound? Sappin' the weathers from Hull to Rangoom—Doddin' an' westerlies, Trade an' typhoon—Hurricane, cyclone an' southerly huster—in any old drogger as flies the Red Duster? What is it makes a chap follow the sea—

Follow the sea—follow the sea—But me if I know!" says Billy Magee.

What is it makes a man stick to the sea?

Ah, you may ask me!" says Billy Magee; "Stick to it hungry and stick to it cold. Stick to it after he's broke and old, Freeze in the Forties an' sweat on the Line. Shiver an' burn in the rain an' the shine. Stick to it until he can't stick it no more—Curse it an' leave it for something ashore—Chuck up his shore job an' follow the sea—Stick to an' live by an' die by the sea—Search me if I know!" says Billy Magee.

Letters To The Editor

DOGS.

Sir,—I note by your paper that there are a few carping critics of dogs expressing their opinion and evidently they have made an impression on the Commissioner of Public Safety as he has asked for suggestions as to what to do.

Here's mine. Pay no attention to the few "cranks." Those who do not like a dog it will be found hate everything in general including themselves.

For the benefit of the Commissioner and the "cranks" I would like to know if they are aware that there is, or was, in this city a dog that saved lives from drowning and the newborns of the city took up a penny collection bought the dog a collar and paid his license.

I know it is useless to ask, but is there any of the dog critics who can claim to saving or risking their life to save even one life to say nothing of sixty-nine?

Show me the man or woman who does not like dogs and I will show you about the meanest specimen of the human race in existence.

A few years ago one of this specimen wrote to the editor of the New York Herald, complaining about the space granted to a story of a boy and a dog. It was on the front page, an interesting and well written article, and well known to all.

The editor published the letter and referred to it in his editorial column. What he said is too long to repeat here, but he certainly did "crank" out the "crank." To summarize his remarks he said that so long as there was a New York Herald and he was editor of that so long as there was a small boy and his dog and a story, that story would find all the space it required on the front page to the exclusion of any other news. The letters that reached him applauding his remarks were so many that he was forced to decline the publishing of them although he did publish many.

I could fill two pages of your paper to the complete exclusion of all other news with articles on dogs saving lives. Only the other day a dog saved eight lives and lost his own. What about the services rendered by dogs during the war?

The eulogy of the late U. S. Senator Vest on the dog is a classic and so well known to all people that I will not ask you to publish it. If the Commissioner and his complainants have not a copy I will be pleased to send them one. I will also be pleased to send Sir Walter Scott's tribute to the greyhound Rover as told by him in "Talisman." Richard Coeur de Lion is addressing the King of France.

"Royal Brother, recollect that the Almighty, who gave the dog to be companion of our pleasure and our talk, hath invested him with a nature noble and incapable of deceit. He forgets neither friend nor foe, remembers, and with accuracy, both benefit and injury. He hath no share of man's intelligence, but no share of man's falsehood. You may bribe a soldier to slay a man with his sword, or a witness to take life by false accusation, but you cannot make a hound treat his benefactor; he is the friend of man, save when a man justly incurs his enmity."

Isn't it a pity that humans are not entitled to a eulogy the equal of this. Many know no doubt, but too many are not. It is a pity that dogs do not like dogs.

In conclusion, Mr. Commissioner, there are many bigger things that require the attention of yourself and your associates with you in the management of the city than the dog question. Get busy on them and if you have any leisure time there is a question that you might investigate.

Last Thursday night at 2 a.m. I counted eleven cats between Charlotte and Sydney streets on Princess and each and every one was full throated and tuned to high C, equal to the best chorister and each was singing its own iddity. My dog ended it and I await the thanks of the residents on her behalf. I am not a cat lover but those who are I think should look after them at night, instead of as it is now "wind up the cat and put out the clock." King square is full of them at night and they are in the trees after birds. Dogs do not destroy birds.

The former Commissioner of Safety was not a lover of dogs and he went to the "bow wows." If the Commissioner

ASK FOR PURCHASE OF SUN BUILDING

Power Commission Recommends Acquisition—
Price $14,400.

The Civic Power Commission yesterday afternoon decided to recommend to the council the purchase of the Sun Building, 37 Canterbury street, all fitted up for their occupancy, at a price of $14,400, and to notify the council that they were cancelling the contract of the Stephen Construction Company for the distribution system and to request that the balance to the credit of the construction account, on account of the Stephen contract, be placed to the credit of the construction account of the commission.

In the absence of R. A. McAvity, A. M. Rowan presided. Other members of the commission present were John Flood, James Lewis, Commissioner Harding and F. S. A. McMullin.

Roy Willett, accountant-secretary, reported that the meters and street lighting fixtures, the expenditure for which had been authorized by the council, had been ordered. The matter of terminating the contract of the Stephen Construction Company was taken up and it was decided to notify the council that it was the intention of the Commission to terminate this contract and ask that the balance to the credit of the distribution system account be placed to the credit of the construction account of the Commission.

Recommends Buying Building.

Barry Wilson, the engineer, and the secretary reported that they had examined the buildings offered for sale and rent and recommended the purchase of the Sun building, remodelled for their purposes as per the offer of W. E. A. Lawton, for $14,400. This was made up of $8,000 for the building and $6,400 for the necessary alterations which include a heating plant and additional plumbing, new vault and store front and hardwood floor on the street storey. It was moved by Mr. McMullin and seconded by Mr. Flood that the report of the committee be accepted and the recommendations carried out. Mr. Lewis said he was in favor of the purchase of the building direct from the owner and if necessary paying Mr. Lawton his commission on the sale but he was opposed to buying and giving Mr. Lawton the contract for the repairs. The building should be bought and tenders for the necessary repairs asked for.

Predicts Council Will Not Pay It.

It was pointed out by the secretary that calling for tenders would mean a delay of at least three weeks and the owners of the present building were pressing for a definite answer from the Commission as to when they would vacate the offices they were now using. The owner of the building had been approached by the engineer and himself and had referred them to Mr. Lawton. Mr. Lawton had secured bids from contractors for the vault and heating plant and was willing to sign a contract to turn over the building on July 31 at the price named and it might cost more if the method suggested by Mr. Lewis was adopted.

The motion to adopt the report of the committee and carry out the recommendation was adopted. Mr. Lewis declared carried Mr. Lewis made the prediction that it would not pass the council.

DEATHS

Son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Barlow.
Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Barlow in the death of their infant son, William Henry, at the age of four months, which occurred at their home, 218 City Line, yesterday. Besides his parents, one brother survives. The funeral will be on Sunday afternoon from his parents' residence and interment will be in Cedar Hill cemetery.

James R. Hornbrook.
Sussex, June 20.—James Robert Hornbrook, an old and much respected resident of Mount Middleton, died this morning at the home of his son, George, with whom he resided. Mr. Hornbrook, who was 80 years of age, had been in failing health for some time. He leaves his son, George, and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Long, of Sturholm, Kings county. The funeral will take place on Saturday at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his son, Mount Middleton, at which Rev. Canon Shewen will officiate. Interment will be in Berwick cemetery.

Mrs. W. E. Thompson.
Mrs. C. W. Jones of Moncton yesterday received a telegram conveying the sad information that her only daughter, Mrs. William E. Thompson, had passed away last night in Portland, Maine. She was on the nursing staff of the Maine Eye and Ear Infirmary. In July last she married William E. Thompson, formerly of Moncton. She also belonged to Moncton. Besides her parents, two brothers, Arthur and Leonard, both of Moncton, survive. Leonard is a Moncton alderman.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

THE STORY OF THE PANSIES

"Hello!" called a sweet voice.

The man in the moon is so short and so fat. He can't bend over that way or bend over that. He has not seen his feet since the Fourth of July. But he says that's his shape, so there's no use to try. That's what Johnny Jump Up was singing in the moonlight.

The Twins woke up and rubbed their eyes. "Is that you, Johnny?" called Nick. "Yes, sir, it's me," said Johnny, doing a hand spring on the window-sill. "Are we going on an adventure?" asked Nancy eagerly. "Are you going to take us on a journey?" "Yes, I am," said the funny little fairy. "That is, if you want to go, and if the titmouse is willing."

The Twins scrambled out of bed and slipped into their clothes and put on their shoes. As usual, they became so little that their chins nearly touched the ground. "Come on," said Johnny Jump Up gaily. "We have a long way to go and the night is waiting. Come."

So they all climbed down the rose vine to the magic garden. Johnny Jump Up led the way. And soon they came to the pansy bed. "Hello," called a sweet voice, and a lovely little fairy appeared right in the centre of the flowers. She had on a purple poke-bonnet and a yellow waist and green skirt. "I've been waiting and waiting," she said. "Who are you?" asked Nancy timidly. "I am the pansy fairy," said the tiny creature. "Do you want to hear the story about the pansies?"

Miss Jessie Peterson, Zelandia, Sask., writes:—"I wish to let you know how much good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. For nearly three years I was very badly run down, had a weak heart, and was so nervous that sometimes I would almost faint away. I heard of many people who had recommended your Heart and Nerve Pills, so I decided to give them a trial. After I had used two boxes I found they had done me good, and after having taken five boxes I was completely relieved. I cannot recommend your Pills enough, and I would advise anyone having a weak heart or troubled with nervousness to use them."

ITCHY ECZEMA ON ARMS

In Pimples. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"My trouble began with eczema which broke out in pimples and spread rapidly. It affected my arms from the elbows to the tips of my fingers. I could not put my hands in water, they itched and burned so, and I could not do my regular work. I could not sleep on account of the irritation."

"The doctor advised me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two weeks I was completely healed. After using one and a half cakes of Soap and one box of Ointment." (Signed) Miss Sylvia B. May, Marshfield, Va., June 5, 1923.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health often when all else fails.

"Yes, yes," cried both the children. "We'd love to hear it."

"Well, once upon a time," said the fairy, "pansies grew wild like violets. The people in France named them."

"At first they called them 'three little maidens under one hood.'"

"Huh!" shouted Johnny Jump Up. "Listen to that, will you. Why it would take all day to say it."

"Do be quiet!" said the titmouse impatiently. "I want to hear the rest of the story myself."

The pansy fairy laughed good-naturedly and went on.

"You are right, Johnny, the name was too long. So the French people changed it. The three faces on the flower looked so solemn and thoughtful that they called them the French word for thought. It sounded so much like pansies that that's what they were called by and by, plain pansies."

"Tired and Worried Nervous and Despondent"

Mrs. M. Chevalier, Belle River, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from despondency and nervousness. Sometimes I could not sleep at night for worrying and the next day I would be so tired that my work was a burden to me. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and can say I am now entirely relieved of the nervousness from which I used to suffer, and things do not worry me as they used to."

Exiled Duke May Return to Estate

Brunswick, Germany, June 21.—Ernest August, Duke of Brunswick-Lueneburg and son-in-law of the ex-Kaiser, who has been living in Gimmund since the revolution waiting for better days, is reported to intend to return to Brunswick and take up his abode in Blankenburg Castle.

This announcement gives evidence of the fact that the province of Brunswick is about to arrange for a final settlement of the problem of disposing of the property of the former reigning house. Like the Hohenzollerns in Prussia, the Brunswick grand-ducal family has been engaged in a law-suit with the state government.

The litigation is so much involved and is costing the state so much money, that a bill has been introduced in the provincial assembly by which the whole problem is to be settled by compromise. By the terms of the bill, the government renounces all claims to Blankenburg Castle, the forests formerly belonging to the grand-ducal hunting estates, certain estates in Heimbarg, Hessen and Lichtenberg, and a valuable stud in Harzburg.

Tortured for Three Years

Helpless from Rheumatism Until Relieved By "Fruit-a-tives"

No wonder people regard "Fruit-a-tives" as a faithful family friend and as eager to tell what it has done for them.

After years of suffering, they appreciate the wonderful powers of this fruit treatment in relieving them of pain and misery and discouragement.

As Mr. P. R. Boissinet, of LaBroquerie, Man., writes: "For three years, I had to give up work; my arms were so swollen and I was so sick, I felt I would never be able to work on the farm any more. But one day, a cousin came to see me and advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. Now, I am in good health. I rest well and do all my work. I can recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' for Rheumatism that made me suffer so much and I thank you for this good remedy."

"Fruit-a-tives" is the wonderful medicine made from the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes and tonics—and is the only complete treatment ever discovered for Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Headaches and other troubles due to the improper action of the stomach, bowels and kidneys.

20 SELECTED FOR LADY BYNG CAMP

Twenty children have been notified to attend the Lady Byng Summer Camp at Riverside when it opens early in July and there are from 20 to 30 other children who are ready to step into the shoes of those of the first contingent who make satisfactory improvement in health and are ready to leave the camp before it closes.

The question of funds is an important one at this time and if the contingent gets a chance of attending camp substantial support must be forthcoming.

Miss H. Meiklejohn, who is to supervise the camp, was in the city yesterday on her way from Fredericton, where she attended the meeting of the Women's Institute, to Hamilton where she will attend two nursing conventions.

GIVEN SHOWER

About 60 of the friends of Miss Jennie Holzman tendered her a surprise shower of linen at the home of Mrs. H. Davis, 48 Spring street, Thursday evening, when the bride-to-be received many lovely gifts.

The gifts were wheeled into the room in a prettily decorated go-cart by little Miss Rose Rozovsky and Master Joseph Davis, daintily attired. The hostess served refreshments. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. L. Eilman, Miss Annie Gilbert and the Misses Ethel and Pearl Bajk.

I First Compounded This Newer Form of Iron For My Own Neighbors

Their Praise of This Remarkable Remedy Has Spread So Rapidly That Now Over 4,000,000 People Use It Annually

Years ago I began to wonder at the great number of my own friends and neighbors who were always ailing, complaining and doctoring, without ever seeming to get any better. Both working men and their wives were frequently all tired out in the evening, and a great many were weak, nervous and run-down. One had pains in the back and another thought he had kidney trouble. Another had pains around heart, palpitations and dizziness, and was sure he was suffering from heart disease. Still others had severe headaches, floating spots before the eyes, tender spots along the spine and a great variety of alarming symptoms.

For years I made a special study of this condition, consulting a great number of physicians and chemists. An immense number of investigations by physicians all over the country showed that three people out of every four meet lack 100% iron in their blood. Lack of iron in the blood is the greatest of all de-vitalizing weaknesses. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food. Without iron, nothing you eat does you any good. Your heart, lungs and kidneys and all your vital organs get their nourishment from the blood stream, and when the blood lacks iron and is thin, pale and watery, you may suffer from a great number of diseases which the real and true cause of all your trouble is a lack of iron in the blood.

In the old days people often took metallic iron, which some physicians claim is not absorbed at all. In compounding this newer form of iron which I call Nuxated Iron, I employed a special form of iron, which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Unlike the older forms of iron, it will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach, and it is ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood. It is the people whose blood is rich in iron who possess great strength, force and energy. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test:

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two 5-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times a day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again. An astonishing number of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, have greatly improved their health and increased their strength, energy and endurance simply by taking this newer form of iron. For sale by all druggists.

SURE RELIEF FOR WOMEN'S DISORDERS 10 Days Treatment Free

Orange Lily is a certain relief for all disorders of women. It is applied locally, and is absorbed into the suffering tissue. The dead waste material of the congested region is expelled, giving immediate mental and physical relief; the blood vessels and nerves are toned and strengthened; and the circulation is rendered normal. As this treatment is based on strictly scientific principles and acts on the actual location of the disease, it cannot help but do good in all forms of female troubles, including delayed and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, etc. Price, $2.00 per box, which is sufficient for one month's treatment. A Free Trial Treatment, enough for 10 days, worth 75c., will be sent Free to any suffering woman who will send me her address. Enclose three stamps and address Mrs. Lydia W. Ladd, Windsor, Ont. DECIDE ON REVISION
OF CONSTITUTION

Executive of Women's Council Hears Report From H. B. Peck.

The executive of the St. John Council of Women yesterday afternoon agreed to recommend the revision or re-writing of the constitution and by-laws, and listened with much appreciation to an excellent paper on the Constitution and By-laws, given by Mrs. H. B. Peck.

In the absence of Mrs. A. W. Estey, president, who had been called to Moncton by the illness of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Young, second vice-president, presided.

Letters read included thanks for greetings from Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, National vice-president for New Brunswick; thanks for the loan of books and assistance of members for tag days from the Maritime Province branch, A. A. U. C. C., and acknowledgement of a resolution with regard to the use of New Brunswick granite for the St. John civic memorial.

The Children's Aid Society sent the nomination of Miss Cora Sinclair for appointment to the Municipal Board, the St. John W. C. T. U. endorsed the nominations of Mrs. J. D. Sealey and Mrs. Staff Captain Ritchie, and the Hospital sent the name of Mrs. J. Boyle Travers.

Mrs. H. B. Peck gave her report as corresponding secretary.

Miss Grace Leavitt, acting treasurer, reported a balance of $17.36 in the general fund. For the free milk fund the Good Cheer Circle of The King's Daughters sent $5. The May bills for this fund totalled $210 and the balance was $1,045.50.

Report on By-Laws.

Mrs. L. A. McAlpine, sixth vice-president, took the chair while Mrs. E. A. Young presented a resolution with regard to Council procedure, which Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson seconded.

The resolution was set aside while Mrs. H. B. Peck, as convener of the parliamentary committee, gave a report on the constitution and by-laws drafted. Applause was given Miss Leavitt when reference was made to the fact that she, who is now honorary vice-president, was a charter member of the St. John Women's Council, formed in 1894. Mrs. Peck's report was thorough and comprehensive, and was greatly appreciated. It is to be presented before the regular meeting. She was heartily congratulated and thanked for the report which was formally received.

Mrs. Young's resolution was withdrawn.

The following resolution moved by Mrs. Richard Hooper, seconded by Mrs. M. H. B. Good, was passed unanimously:

"That as early date as possible the Council take up the revision or re-writing of our Constitution and By-laws, in order that we may be equipped with necessary power and authority to deal with the Council business in the most practical way."

The appointment of a sub-committee on the Constitution and By-laws was left to the next regular meeting next week, as was also the appointing of delegates to the national annual meeting.

WEDDINGS

MacKenzie-Millican.
A pretty wedding will be solemnized at the Exmouth street Methodist church at 5 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Gertrude Millican, daughter of Mrs. F. Millican, will be united in marriage to J. Harold MacKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. MacKenzie, of this city. Rev. H. E. Thomas, D.D., pastor of the church, will officiate. The church will be tastefully decorated with white lilacs and other spring owners, and Miss Mabel Sandall will play the wedding march.

The bride will wear a gown of grey canton crepe with hat to match and will carry a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She will be attended by Miss Elsie Beckett, as bridesmaid, who will wear a dress of cocoa canton crepe with hat to match and will carry a bouquet of roses.

The ushers are young lady friends of the bride. They are Miss May Rowley, who will wear light blue crepe-de-chene with pearl trimmings with a white hat, and Miss Frances Withers, who will wear brown crepe-de-chene with gold trimmings with a black hat.

The groom will be supported by Mr. Ronald Thompson and the bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Robert Millican.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie will motor to Grand Bay, where they will reside for the summer. The popularity of the bride and groom was shown in the array of wedding presents received. These included a dinner set of china dishes from the staff of the post office, where the bride was employed, and a chest of silver from the New Brunswick Power Company, where the groom is an employe.

GIVES NEW IDEA OF CLERGYMAN

New York, June 20—James Thomas a negro, testifying yesterday in General Sessions at the trial of two negroes on a charge of robbing a mail of $35 two weeks ago, told Judge Talley and the jury that there was a difference between a clergyman and a minister of the gospel, as he described himself. He said that an ordained clergyman was a man who rode on trains on a clergy ticket, but that ministers of the gospel did not "accept of such advantages."

New York, in Gay Garb, Welcomes Democratic Guests

DELEGATES ARE POURING INTO THE BIG CITY TODAY

A Welcome and a Host for Everyone Attending the National Convention.

OPENING TUESDAY

5th Avenue Lighting Turns Aristocratic Street Into Golden Way.

New York, June 21.—(United Press)—New York, decked out in raiment of Babylonian splendor, today welcomed the "hosts of Democracy."

Everywhere there were the push and clamor of crowds; the feverish haste of worried officials and the cheerful bewilderment of homefolks on a holiday.

It was a reborn New York—a different city than that whose imperviousness to sensation has been traditional. All day the railroad stations roared with the storm of incoming trains, long dusty trains from the west and south.

Taxicabs ran helter skelter from hotel to hotel.

The vanguard of the oncoming thousands is here and the impressive march of the big pack is almost within hearing. Delegates will continue to come Sunday and Monday.

By Tuesday morning, when the convention is called to order in Madison Square Garden, anywhere from 15,000 visitors and political delegates will be here.

If this overgrown party caucus fails to be the greatest convention ever held from any standpoint—it will not be the fault of New York City or its civic leaders. They have spared neither money nor labor to make it the absolute "non-such" of all political gatherings.

Host For Each Delegation

Every state delegation is being met at the train by one member of the general entertainment committee, who makes members of that delegation his guests for the entire tenure of the frays here.

He looks after them, he takes them to their hotels and then moves right in with them. He provides them with theatre tickets to any show they want to see; he arranges dances for them in their hotel; stages tea parties, provides them with an orchestra, all their own.

The list of the New York hosts reads like a directory of New York's wealthiest men. It includes: Col. William Boyce Thompson, former Governor Whitman, Percy S. Straus, William Church Osborn, Charles C. Pettibone, Charles H. Sabin, H. K. McCann, Gen. Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, James W. Gerard, Norman H. Davis, George Gordon Battle, Norman P. Gatliff, U. S. District Attorney, a Hayward, C. H. Forchheimer and others equally well known.

Each man has volunteered to pay the entertainment costs of the delegation awarded him. The list is absolutely non-partisan and includes the city's most prominent Republicans, as well as Democrats.

A sample of fun in store is the entertainment schedule laid out for the Alabama delegation by Eugene F. Moran, its sponsor. It includes a trip around New York harbor, inspection of transatlantic ships in port, buffet luncheon aboard the Majestic or Berengaria, and a theatre party as the guest of Max Kirspatrick, playwright.

Besides the delegation entertainments, of course, there is to be general city-wide entertainment, starting today with a garden party to committee women, given by Mrs. Elizabeth Moran, prominent Democratic worker.

Every arrangement for putting the city in a new holiday suit of clothes has been completed—and what a "suit" it is!

Every building is ablaze with the splendor of flags; every up-town store window is filled with fine silks and the glitter of bright and precious things. Even the workaday downtown world is clean—or at least as clean as is possible in a valley of lowering buildings and 10,000 smoke stacks.

The Lighting Scheme

When the lights go up tonight, visitors will see a transformed Fifth avenue—the aristocrat of streets. The decorators tell their product New York's "Golden Way."

From Washington Arch to 60th street, the avenue will blaze with orange colored lamps. Then there will be blue lamps, and finally white lamps for two and a half miles—the longest stretch of decorative lighting ever attempted. More than 25,000 globes.

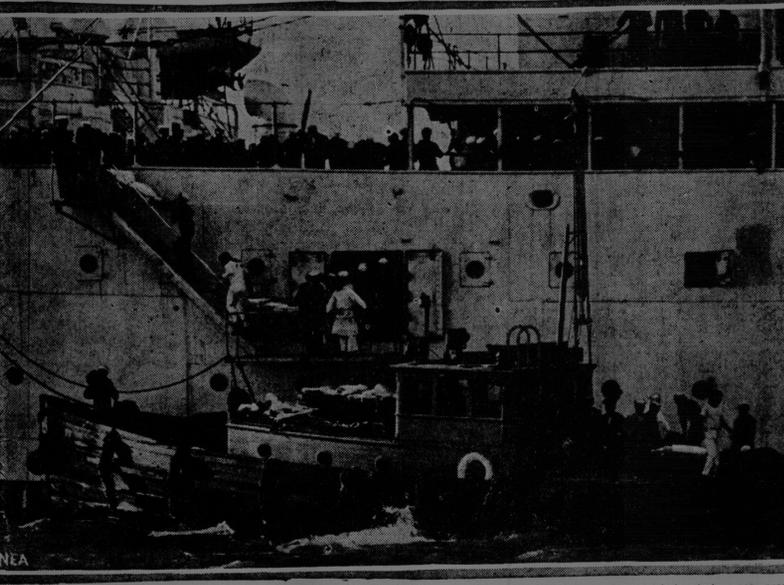

Each block of Fifth avenue will represent some state or territory. Every lamp post already is decorated with four flags, two American flags, and the flag of New York city, and the flag of the state.

Meanwhile, the "business men" who expect to net something more than pocket money from the sale of eatables, drinkables and souvenirs are on hand in force.

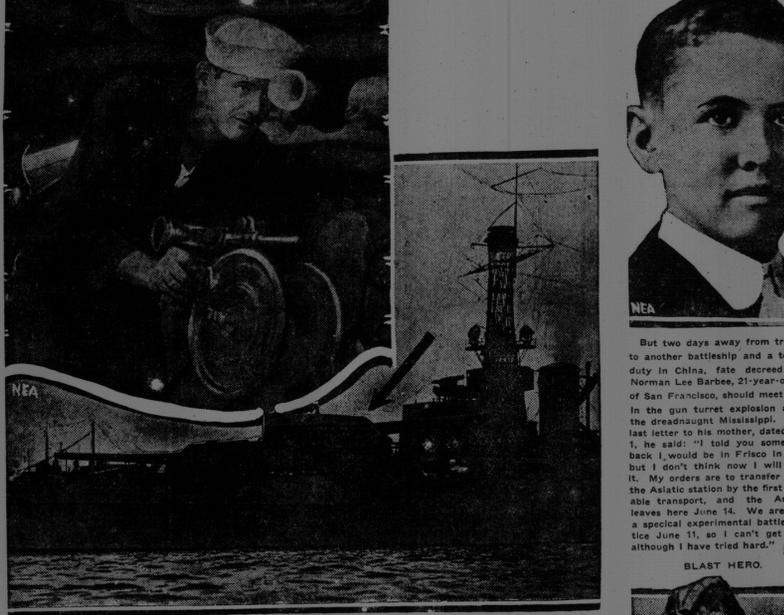

Vendors line the streets and the bootleggers, so the report goes, may be found other places.

For, although R. Q. Merrick, in charge of federal prohibition enforcement has announced the city will be very, very dry during the convention, (Continued on page 11.)

Explosion Victims Being Taken on Hospital Ship

Carrying the dead and injured from the U. S. S. dreadnaught Mississippi to the hospital ship Relief following an explosion during range practice off San Pedro Harbor, Calif. Forty-eight officers and sailors were trapped in a gun turret by the blast when a heavy charge of high explosive flared back from the gun breech, filling the turret with deadly gases.

The turret, indicated by arrow in lower photograph, of the dreadnaught Mississippi, which became the death chamber of 48 U. S. Navy officers and sailors off San Pedro Harbor, Calif., during range practice when a heavy charge of high explosive, mysteriously ignited, flared back from the gun breech, filling the turret with deadly gases. The men had no chance in the withering blast, dying at their posts—one, Lieut. Thomas E. Zellers, with his hand clutching the sprinker control, an act which officers believe may have saved the ship from entire destruction. Upper picture shows Joseph Caviozzi, first class seaman from Los Angeles, who, by a miracle, is the only survivor of any men actually operating the guns in the turret. He was either propelled, or instinctively dived through a momentarily open hatch below the guns to the deck below, with but slight injury.

BUILT GLIDER OF OLD WIRE AND TIN

German, in Experimental Flight, Stayed Up Nearly Nine Hours.

Koenigsberg, Germany, June 1.—(Associated Press, by wire)—Old broomsticks, baling wire and scraps of tin salvaged from milk and bully beef cans were chiefly used in constructing the glider in which Ferdinand Schulz, aged 23, of shattered nerves, flew for nearly nine hours, 42 minutes and 8 seconds and thereby established a world's record for heavier than air machines without motors.

Schulz's seat was made of the lid of a box from America which bore a Chicago label. The sail plane was constructed by Schulz during odd moments when he was not busy teaching a school class here in East Prussia, which is his home. The flight took place at Kossitten.

YOUNGEST SOLDIER DIES

World War Recruit at 14 Succumbs to Nerves in Bavaria.

Rosenheim, Bavaria, June 21.—Otto Cyfka, probably the youngest soldier in the world war, died here this week, aged 14, of shattered nerves.

Cyfka at the outbreak of the war volunteered, insisting on enlistment despite objections to his age, then 14. He fought on the western front and in Poland and was not wounded, although participating in a number of heavy battles.

NOTED OFFICER OF MOUNTIES RETIRES

Colonel T. A. Wroughton Had Stirring Career of 37 Years.

Saskatoon, Sask., June 21.—After a stirring career of 37 years in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Assistant Commissioner Theodore A. Wroughton has retired from the force.

Colonel Wroughton joined the force as a constable in 1887. He was promoted to inspector in 1898 and elevated to the post of assistant commissioner in 1919.

WOMEN CONQUER SNOWY WILDS OF NORTH ONTARIO

Two Widows and Assistant Homestead and Complete Timber Contract.

Fort William, June 21.—With the completion of a contract for the delivery of 400 cords of pulpwood for the Hammermill Paper Co. by Mrs. Kate Bowerman, widow and homesteader of Silver Mountain, Northern Ontario, "finis" is written to an epic story of courageous womanhood and feminine fortitude.

Made Home In Wilds

Out in the wilds of Northern Ontario, populated sparsely by trappers and real "re-egs" Mrs. Bowerman finished her eighth year ago when her bread-winner was taken away from her.

Where many a man has given up the fight against solitude and hardship, this brave woman fought and conquered. With her rifle she supplied food for her kiddies. She wielded her axe with such good will that she soon cleared enough land to put in a few acres of oats.

Started as a farmer, Mrs. Bowerman induced her sister, Mrs. McIntyre, who is also a widow, to homestead also. Mrs. McIntyre decided to become a "neighbor" of her sister and settled on land just 100 miles away.

Own Homesteads

The two women donned men's attire, cultivated their little plots, shot game for meat and eventually finished their homestead duties. They now own 160 acres.

There is plenty of timber in the Thunder Bay district of Northern Ontario, and Mrs. Bowerman saw no reason why she should not make money out of some of the jack pine on her property.

Mrs. Bowerman and her sister built the camp themselves. They came to Fort William and employed men to cut wood. A cousin, Marguerite d'Allard, was employed as cook, and the work started.

The men worked in the early part of the winter. The men worked with a will under their female boss, and there can be little doubt that the cost of cotton goods, largely due to the high price of the raw material, is responsible to a great extent for the poor demand for overseas markets.

Then Marguerite d'Allard came to the rescue. She quit her pots and pans and literally took the reins in her own hands. Every day, storm or shine, she took in a couple of loads, and the last load, delivered practically on the day completed. The women had conquered where many hardy men have failed.

Mrs. Bowerman was born in Keppel Township, Grey County, near Owen Sound, Ontario. As a girl she learned farming. She came to Fort William when about 20 years of age and was married here.

The pioneering instinct seems to run in Mrs. Bowerman's family. Her father, Capt. J. C. Wright, sailed in the lower end of the world and is well known around the River St. Lawrence and the Georgian Bay ports. He is now in Northern Ontario and in the winter time takes out pulpwood contracts himself.

Mrs. Bowerman's sister, Mrs. McIntyre, has also two children. They will take over larger contracts next winter. Marguerite d'Allard makes light of her end of the exploit, dismissing it with "It's a darned sight easier driving a team than baking pies for a bunch of hungry lumberjacks."

RECITAL IS GIVEN BY PIANO PUPILS

The piano pupils of Miss Alice G. Hea gave a fine exhibition of piano playing yesterday afternoon in City Hall before an interested audience of parents and friends of the young performers.

Many were disappointed that Miss Lillian Clark, a former pupil of Miss Hea and recently graduated from Mount Allison Conservatory of Music, was unable to play owing to illness.

Those taking part in the excellent performance were Stewart Sims and Ronald Morgan, Vivien Colpitts, Ruth Morgan, Margaret Dickson, Gertrude and Eileen McCarty, Hazel Currie, Helen Lewis, Elaine Cunningham, Ruth Horton, Dorothy Rice, Mary Sims, Alice Colpitts, Jean MacMichael, Helen Nobles and Muriel Langstroth.

Donning a gas mask he forced the turret trap door weighted with dead, surveyed the ghastly toll in the gas murk, groped through water, over bodies, dissipating the hope that any yet lived.

WEMBLEY DERBY ECLIPSED ALL EPSOM RECORDS

Thrilling Sport and Great Crowd, Despite the Bad Brand of Weather.

LONDON LETTER

Downing Street and Embassies are Keeping Close Watch on Germany.

(From Correspondent of Times-Star.) London, Thursday June 5.—This week's Derby—the Wembley Derby, as it is called—will be long remembered. It easily eclipsed all the Epsom records. All the world and his best girl were there and there were as many varying opinion types on the Downs as at Epsom in 1916.

Practically all the royal family were there to witness the start of the race. The bookies must have done pretty well, notwithstanding the fact that the race was the fabled horse for the day and started at 9 to 2.

Events in Germany

Downing Street and the embassies are attentively watching Germany. There are ominous signs of a serious potentiality. The first session of the new Reichstag was a Teutonic bear garden.

What struck me most at Tuesday's superb ceremony of trooping the colors was the gallant way in which King George carries his age. Nobody who saw His Majesty ride on his charger to the saluting base on the Horse Guards Parade could have imagined the King was only one year off sixty.

The Duke of Connaught and all the Princes wore Guards uniforms except the Duke of York, who was mounted like the rest, but wore the distinctive dress of the Royal Air Force.

The scene was a convincing proof that London really is crowded for Wembley. The police assert confidently that the crowd was bigger than anything seen on the same terrain since the Diamond Jubilee procession.

Then and Now

It was generally remarked that the Prince of Wales looked extremely fit, and showed no signs of recent wear and tear over the sticks. Those who were present at the Diamond Jubilee occasion recalled that H. R. H., now a dignified Guards Officer and an old campaigner, was then a small boy of three, standing solemnly at the salute on the Horse Guards' balcony while his famous great-grandmother drove past with tears streaming down her cheeks, so moved was she by the heroic homage.

Amongst the onlookers on Tuesday were the Queen and the pretty Duchess of York and Miss Isabel Macdonald with a distinguished Labor party. The trooping of the colors always affords the Guards a gorgeous opportunity for showing their real parade-ground polish, and the old hands again noted steady progress towards the pre-war standards.

Devising a New Gas

Few people are aware of what is in progress within the closely guarded army experimental station at Porton, Salisbury Plain way. Nearly £2,000 a week is being spent there on experiments with gases and their antidotes.

Last year between 600 and 700 cats, goats, guinea-pigs, mice, donkeys and rabbits were requisitioned for the investigations. The army chemists are busy perfecting a gas which they say will produce prolonged stupor sufficient to render a soldier's military value negligible during a long action; and apart from nausea, without leaving any of the fearful permanent effects which marked the use of gas in the Great War.

Though this country is a signatory to the Washington resolution which condemns the use of a human heart and was intended to be of special interest for medical students to illustrate the functions of that organ.

Funny what some people will do to do. A man went to a doctor and said he was not feeling very fit. "Do you think there is anything serious the matter with me, doctor?" he asked.

"No, not at all," replied the doctor; "you have merely a boil on the back of your neck, but would advise you to keep an eye on it."

CATTLE DISEASE GERM REPORTED FOUND

Berlin, June 21.—Bacteriologists throughout Europe have been interested in an announcement here of the discovery of a bacillus capable of reproducing the hoof and mouth disease in animals. Specialists have come to Berlin to investigate further, while there have been many letters and cablegrams from the United States and England, where there have been epidemics this spring.

News of the discovery came from Professor Paul Frosch of the Royal Veterinary College, who has been working on the problem several years in conjunction with Professor Dahmer.

The new bacillus has not yet been subjected to sufficient confirmatory tests to make it possible to say positively that it is the final solution of the difficulty, but medical journals in Germany and England have written enthusiastic articles about it, and various authorities have ventured to predict that this enthusiasm has not been misplaced.

According to writers on veterinary subjects in these periodicals, the hoof and mouth disease is supposed to have been a European malady for more than 2,000 years, though it was not until the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries that positive proof of its presence was found.

COLONIAL COTTON HELPS BRITISH

Is Overcoming Condition Created by Unprofitable Year of 1923

London, June 21.—In nearly every part of the British Empire where cotton is grown conditions were satisfactory last year, according to the annual report of the British Cotton Growing Association.

It is generally admitted, says the report, that 1923 was one of the most unprofitable ever experienced in the history of the cotton spinning industry in Great Britain, due to shortage of raw materials. The great bulk of the mills using American cotton worked on short time, and the earnings of the operatives was seriously curtailed.

This condition is being overcome by the increased production of the British colonies.

After detailing the progress made in cotton growing in various parts of the empire the report concludes that the prospects for a greater production in America appear to be getting more remote every year.

It cannot be denied that the cotton industry in Great Britain has been passing through the worst time it has experienced since the cotton famine, and there can be little doubt that the cost of cotton goods, largely due to the high price of the raw material, is responsible to a great extent for the poor demand for overseas markets.

This largest Bulgarian export is of Greek origin. Its original recorded name is Odessos, subsequently changed to Odessa or Odysopolis. It was founded by Milesian navigators in the sixth century before Christ. Hellenic domination of Varna is recalled by silver and gold coins called "Odysosion" which have been found here.

Rome used Varna, then Odysopolis, as a point of departure and arrival of mercantile fleets and diplomatic and military missions. The only remnant of the old Roman fortifications is a massive tower 25 feet high, which is now one of the sights of the city.

Varna is now the port through which the greater part of Bulgarian sea-commerce and foreign shipping is carried on.

GLASS HEART THAT BEATS

Dresden, Germany, June 21.—A heart of glass which beats by the aid of a little electric motor and sends a red fluid coursing through glass arteries, has been placed on exhibition in the Dresden Hygienic Museum.

The apparatus is approximately the size of a human heart and was intended to be of special interest for medical students to illustrate the functions of that organ.

Funny what some people will do to do. A man went to a doctor and said he was not feeling very fit. "Do you think there is anything serious the matter with me, doctor?" he asked.

"No, not at all," replied the doctor; "you have merely a boil on the back of your neck, but would advise you to keep an eye on it."

26 GRADUATE FROM THE SUSSEX HIGH

Rev. Dr. Kierstead, Chancellor Jones and Mayor McKenna Speak

Sussex, June 20.—At the school closing exercises in the High School yesterday a class of 26 graduates received diplomas which were presented by Dr. C. C. Jones, Chancellor of the University of New Brunswick. Miss Laura Wallace, class leader, gave the valedictory, and Miss Marguerite Carleton, the class will, Raymond Proctor, the class history, and Ward Jones, the class prophecy.

His Worship Mayor J. D. McKenna, M.L.A., gave the address to the graduates and Rev. Dr. E. M. Kierstead, of McFarlane University, Toronto, gave the special address. The programme of the exercises was of exceptional interest and was well carried out. Miss Bernadine Mahaney contributed a piano solo, the school sang the chorus "The Open Road," "School Days" was sung by the pupils of Grade XI.

The graduates were as follows:

With Latin.
 Laura Blanche Wallace, Edith Alice Atherton, Kathleen Drummond Miller, Raymond Albert Proctor, Madeline Mills McFarlane, Mae Beatrice Wallace, Mary Bernadine Mahaney, Harrison Selkirk Murray, Mary Mahaney, Whitfield Louis French, Robert Alexander Murray, Doris Whitney Prescott, Thomas Arthur Glendenning, Joshua Allison Prescott, Marion Elizabeth Perkins, Christiane Janet Willis, William John McLeod and Clarence Burton Cripps.

Without Latin.
 Anna Marion Innis, Gertrude Lillian Manchester, Cyrus Alvin Hawkes, Malcolm Ward Jones, Ethel Mae Murphy, Marguerite Lucille Carleton, Sara Blanche Shannon, Blanche Beatrice Creighton.

Prize Winners.
 The graduating exercises tonight were largely attended, the big assembly hall being filled to capacity. W. J. Mills, chairman of the Board of Trustees, presided. Besides the splendid addresses delivered by Mayor J. D. McKenna, Rev. Dr. E. M. Kierstead and Dr. C. C. Jones, J. Arthur Freeze and others also gave good addresses.

The stage was nicely decorated with bunting and the graduating class, which was the largest in the history of the school, presented a most attractive appearance. The Governor-General's medal was won by Miss Laura Wallace with Miss Alice Atherton a very close second, only a half point behind. She was awarded the Birks medal.

The Standard Business College scholarship, donated by Miss Johnson, of St. John, the principal, given for highest in English, was won by Raymond Proctor. Miss Gertrude Manchester won the domestic science prize, donated by Mrs. J. A. Freeze. The prize for English, donated by Mrs. Gordon B. McKay was won by Miss Kathleen Miller. The Birks medal for the leader in Grade 10, was won by Miss Susie Kennedy.

The trustees' medal, for the leader in Grade 9, was won by Miss Marguerite Carleton. The prize donated by Frank Singer for highest standing in manual training, went to Harry Faulkner, of Grade 2. The prize donated by G. C. Roy for highest standing in Latin in Grade 9 was won by Miss Margaret Joyce.

Assure Motorists of Good Drinking Water

Harrisburg, Pa., June 21.—Analysis of drinking water along state highways has been begun by officials of the State Department of Health. An ambulance converted into a field laboratory took to the road at the extreme eastern end of the Lincoln highway, opening the movement designed to protect the health of motorists who use wayside drinking water.

As soon as the tests are made, the results will be sent to field engineers who will post the drinking places. It is planned to post each source of water supply and, where the water is found to be dangerous to the public health, warning signs will be set up.

Dr. Charles H. Miner, secretary of health, declared the movement is the first of its kind on the part of any state to protect motorists from impure water.

GOT LICENSE

Arthur P. Urquhart appeared in the police court yesterday afternoon, having been reported by Inspector Harris for operating motor truck X 1,484 without a license. He explained that he was unaware that it was necessary for him to take out a license until informed by the inspector, but that he had taken out a license yesterday. This was satisfactory to the inspector and Urquhart was allowed to go.

Ireland's Land System Changes

Dublin, June 21.—At the completion of the Easter law sittings, the entire Irish judicial system, based on the model of the British which has prevailed in Ireland for many centuries, disappeared.

There will be no more lord chancellors or lord chief justices, and the place of lord chief justice will fall to the occupant of the office of chairman of the supreme court. There will be no more judges of assize throughout the country. They will be replaced by district judges holding permanent courts with a jurisdiction more extensive than any formerly exercised by the judges of the county courts.

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED.

The teachers of the East St. John and Little River schools and a few friends were entertained at a lawn party at her home, Tenby Cottage, yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. W. Flewelling. The guests enjoyed croquet and social pleasures and dainty refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss B. H. Flewelling, Miss Edna Franklin and Miss Edith Burditt. Ferns made a pretty decoration for the table. The lawn party was held specially for the pleasure of the teachers before the school closing which takes place on Tuesday.

CONSTANTLY IMPROVED BUT NO YEARLY MODELS

Dodge Brothers Motor Car retains its basic design year after year.

Improvements are made constantly, but there are no radical, annual changes.

This policy protects owners from the rapid depreciation-loss which invariably attends the periodic announcement of new types.

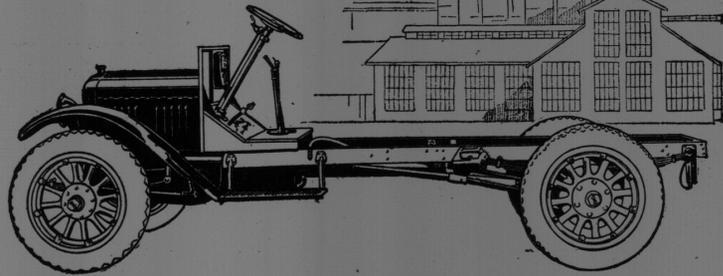

It also enables Dodge Brothers to effect an appreciable saving in manufacture; and this saving is faithfully returned to the buyer in the form of surplus value.

Dodge Brothers Motor Cars now offered in four alternative colors at additional cost.

real proportions. He insisted on traveling up to Baker street to experience the joys of a moving staircase—another London "sight" such as discussed in the "spinning," and confessed that he had waited 20 minutes before crossing Piccadilly to his club. When he was last in London the taxi was still a novelty, and it was difficult to secure. But what struck him most was not the new buildings, the improved standard of dress, or the Continent. It was the remarkable civility of porters, taxi drivers, bus conductors, and waiters. He gave 10 shillings to the porter at Waterloo who carried his bags, simply because he was so overcome by the man's cheerful readiness to please. Coming from India, the politeness of London, he says, is really wonderful.

A Dog Change.
Apparently there is, at all events, one respect in which the war has changed the German mentality. It has led to an almost complete eclipse of the dachshund. Before 1914 that remarkable animal was the national mascot of all hundred-percent Teutons. No German frauken was fashionably equipped who did not own one, at least, of these one-story bungalow dogs, and in the smart Berlin parks, when the military bands played Wagner and Strauss in the evenings, dachshunds were as plentiful as field-grey uniforms and shining pickelhauben. But now you may walk from one end of the German capital to the other without encountering more than two or three melancholy survivors. Other dogs are plentiful enough, including British terriers and Alsatian hounds, but the dachshund has practically disappeared. So even in Germany the war has left its mark.

The Ancient "Beefsteaks."
The Beef-steak Club, which has just issued its report, is, in spite of its very aristocratic membership, which includes Earl Balfour and Mr. Birrell, probably one of London's most democratic clubs. The present club is the successor of the "Sublime Society of Beefsteaks," founded by Rich, a famous baritone of Covent Garden Theatre, in 1725. The officials of the original club comprised a president, a recorder, and a "boots," the last named being a general "tag," or errand boy, for the rest of the members. The records of the club show that many members of the peerage have held this apparently unenviable office—which was abolished upon the formation of the present club. The Duke of Sussex was the "boots" during 1908. The "Beefsteaks" originally met in a room in Covent Garden Theatre. Their official badge was inscribed "Beef and Liberty," and the oath impressing their duties upon members ended with the words "So Beef and Liberty be my reward!"

writing some frankly outspoken articles on the country and the people. Mrs. Austen Chamberlain, of all people, now steps in and severely raps at him for "superficial criticism unsupported by facts or knowledge." The explanation of this sudden onslaught is that Mr. Chamberlain's wife, before her marriage in 1906 was Miss Ivy Muriel Dundas, and her father, the late Colonel Henry Lawrence Dundas, was stationed for five years at Gibraltar. During that time Mrs. Austen traveled much in Spain, and she retains a great liking for both the country and its inhabitants. But she will certainly hear more from Mr. Bennett. Old Curmudgeon.

A new joke about our English weather has lately enjoyed a prospering vogue in London. "Do you ever get any summer in this country?" asks the overseas Wembley visitor in despair. "Oh yes," responds his London host affably, "last year, if I remember rightly, it was on a Wednesday." On which it may be commented that the current summer, at any rate, has never occurred on a Saturday. Since Easter, we have had an unbroken sequence of six wet week-ends, all the more exasperating because mostly the mid-week working days were fine and sunny. It threatens to ruin the cricket season from the popular point of view, and the trainloads of damp and dispirited excursionists have been pitiable spectacles. If the clerk of the weather were an accessible personality, Londoners would have lynched him. The only hope seems to be another Mr. Willett, who shall persuade Parliament, having shifted summer-time, to wobble the week-ends a little.

DELEGATES ARE POURING INTO THE

those on the "inside" predict there will be plenty of fire-water secretly on tap. In Madison Square Garden.

Madison Square Garden, site of the convention proper, has been ready for several days to receive the delegates following an extensive remodeling. Delegates will be seated in the centre of the big building. Alternates will be at one side of them. Members of the New York national convention committee and guests who obtain seats through the Democratic national committee also will be seated on the main floor. The rest of the crowd must use the balconies.

For each $100 subscribed by New Yorkers for convention entertainment, one seat is given. Allotment of them, however, will not take place until tomorrow.

Hanging from beneath the balconies will be little platforms from which the photographers and moving picture men will do their work. In the basement will be telegraph instruments, telephones and all the conveniences of their own "city room" for newspapermen.

The radio is to be extensively used at this convention. Two companies will do all the broadcasting—the American Telegraph and Telephone Company and the New York Telephone Company, the latter a subsidiary of the former. They will send the programme to 12 stations scattered about the country. They are: WEAJ and WJZ, New York; WCAP and WRC, Washington; WGY, Schenectady; WG R, Buffalo; KDKA, Pittsburgh; WGN, WMAQ and WLS, Chicago; KSD, St. Louis; and WDAF, Kansas City.

The Hotel Association committee today announced that there still are rooms available at prices varying from $2 to $8. New York hotel men say they won't profit.

Bank Evicts
Son of a Peer

Dublin, June 21—Dublin County has seen the unusual spectacle of the eviction of the son of a peer.
The Hon. Hamon Massey, son and heir of the seventh Baron Massey, occupied a picturesque mansion in the Dublin Hills, one of the beauty spots of Ireland. He was evicted by the suit of a Dublin bank. His illness had postponed the execution of the order, but when the doctors certified he could be moved, he was carried by the sheriff's officers to the public road where he remained for some time, afterwards leaving with his wife in a private motor for a city hotel.

N. Y. MINISTER ON TOUR.

Rev. Ivan Rose, pastor of the First church, Rome, New York, with his wife and two children, was the guest of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Freeman at the Charlotte street Baptist parsonage last night. Mr. Rose is one of the leading Baptist pastors in western New York. His congregation is a large and influential one and has now engaged in the erection of a $200,000 church plant. Mr. Rose was on his way to visit his parents in Hebron, Yarmouth county, N. S., and was traveling by automobile. He will cross the bay in the Digby boat this morning.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.
Mrs. G. S. Fisher, the mother of G. Fred Fisher, former Mayor of the city, celebrated her birthday yesterday. The festivities were held at the Pedersen home, Lakeside. There were several guests, who enjoyed a game of bridge and a delicious dinner, served by Mrs. Pedersen. They motored into the city in the early evening.

The pattern on the porch, No. 379, is a pleasing all-over floral design in gray and blue. The 9 x 6-foot size costs but $9.00. This pattern may also be secured in a delightful tan-and-blue color scheme, No. 378.

Outdoors—Indoors
Waterproof, Sun-proof
Gold-Seal Congoleum Art-Rugs

For summer use you'll find no floor-covering so all-round serviceable as a waterproof Gold-Seal Congoleum Art-Rug.

On the porch, showers may beat in on it, the hot sun may glare down on it, but the colorful pattern is unharmed.

Seamless—Easily Cleaned

Made all in one piece with a smooth, firm surface, Gold-Seal Congoleum Art-Rugs cannot take up dirt and sand as woven floor-coverings do. A few strokes of a damp cloth is all the cleaning required to make them spick and span.

So varied are the designs that you can select one of these labor-saving rugs for any room in your home. Gay flowered effects like the rug in our illustration for porch, sun-parlor or bedroom; artistic Oriental motifs for living room; and a neat tile pattern for bathroom or kitchen.

Moreover, Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs lie flat without fastening—never curl at the edges, never ruffle in the wind. With all these advantages offered at such a low price, the great popularity of Gold-Seal Congoleum Art-Rugs among Canadian women is easily explained.

Popular Rug Sizes—Low Prices

9 x 3 ft. $4.50	9 x 7 1/2 ft. $11.25	9 x 12 ft. $18.00
9 x 4 1/2 ft. 6.75	9 x 9 ft. 13.50	9 x 13 1/2 ft. 20.25
9 x 6 ft. 9.00	9 x 10 1/2 ft. 15.75	9 x 15 ft. 22.50

Gold-Seal Congoleum By-the-Yard, 85c. sq. yd.

Prices in Winnipeg and points West proportionately higher to cover extra freight.

If your dealer does not carry the genuine Gold-Seal Art-Rugs, we shall be glad to see that you are supplied. Write us for folder, "Modern Rugs for Modern Homes," showing all the designs.

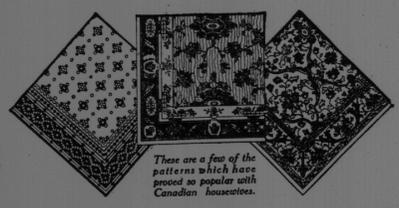

Gold-Seal Congoleum By-the-Yard

The same durable, waterproof material as the rugs, made without border in roll form, two yards wide, for use over the entire floor. Wide choice of beautiful designs; lies flat without fastening.

Look for the Gold Seal

The Gold Seal, shown above, is pasted on the face of every guaranteed Gold-Seal Congoleum Art-Rug and on every few yards of Gold-Seal Congoleum By-the-Yard. It offers the protection of our money-back guarantee and assures you complete satisfaction.

MRS. OSMAN HEADS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Officers Elected at Closing Session—Exhibit for Toronto Fair.

Fredericton, June 20—The twelfth annual convention of the New Brunswick Women's Institutes, ended tonight when several interesting addresses were delivered.

The result of the balloting on the officers was as follows: President, Mrs. C. J. Osman, Hillsboro; vice-president, Mrs. John Harvey...

It was decided that the New Brunswick Institutes this year will exhibit at the Toronto exhibition. All other provinces have exhibited previously, except New Brunswick.

The publication of a New Brunswick Women's Institute paper, at a date as soon as possible, after the present convention, was decided upon.

Arrangements also were made for the establishment of a central provincial fund to be used for special purposes.

Tonight the Women's Institute convention heard a very interesting paper, at a time when the problem of the feeble-minded, the education of backward children was also dealt with in the address.

national at the convention here. The place of next year's convention will be decided tomorrow and the first, second and third vice-presidents of the organization also chosen.

The directors were chosen as follows: J. E. Buckley, Cleveland, Ohio; T. D. Davis, Butte, Mont.; Donald A. Adams, New Haven, Conn.; Paul H. King, Detroit, and J. E. Norman, Huntington, W. Va.

Alexander MacFarlane of Vancouver, B. C., was chosen Canadian director and J. B. Taylor, of London, Eng., British director. Rufus F. Chapin was re-elected treasurer. The secretary will be chosen tomorrow. No opposition to Chesley R. Perry, who has been secretary since 1910, is expected.

Mr. Altalik was a very poor speaker, and after his oratory had run on for over an hour, some of his audience began to leave. As one man slipped out of the doorway, another, who had waited outside, asked hopefully: "Has he finished?" "Yes," said the first sufferer, grimly. "Long ago, but his won't stop."

A Young Man and His Future

He takes his first step in business affairs, is examined by the doctor, and creates an estate of $5,000 in event of death.

He improves the shining hour and impresses upon an important person that he is in possession of an "estate."

His tendency to save and invest is noted by his employers.

He finds his savings of great assistance in buying a home.

And as time goes on he is enabled to enjoy many of the good things of life.

Suppose some day before reaching age 60 you should become totally and permanently disabled through accident or illness. Immediately all further deposits would cease, and you would receive $50.00 a month as long as you live—and the $5,000 would be paid in full at your death. (This feature is added for a small extra payment yearly, which is not returnable with the regular deposits.)

And in addition—

CLIPPERS BEATEN BY ST. ROSE'S, 8-7

East St. John Boys Fail to Break Their Losing Streak.

Five sparkling double plays featured the game between St. Rose's and the Clippers on the Nashua diamond last evening.

The score was 8-7 at the termination of the eighth frame, but both teams agreed to play another inning.

The Saints scored the winning run in this period as Martin drew a pass and Campbell was safe on first on Johnston's costly error.

Machine Gunners LOSE TO ROYALS

Several Fine Running Catchers Feature Last Night's South End Game.

It required some sensational sport for Earl Nelson to pitch the Royals to their second victory of the season in the South End League last night, but the 1,500 spectators will admit the Machine Gunners deserve their win on their fielding alone.

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM THE WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

COMEBACKS

It's Easy for Drama of Twenty-Three Years Ago to Return as Burlesque; But It's Hard for Star to Break Into Movies Again After Two Years

New York, June 21.—"The Fatal Wedding," now playing at the Ritz Theatre, is produced just as it was 23 years ago, and the modern audience enjoys it just as thoroughly, though from a somewhat different viewpoint. Two decades ago "The Fatal Wedding" was a serious piece. The audience would weep when the policeman was about to arrest the little girl whose mother was sick and starving. The villain's devilry would send a shudder through those who had paid 10, 20 or 30 cents admission.

Now the whole thing is, of course, a burlesque and this juror wonders if our serious drama of today won't seem like burlesque to theatregoers of 1947.

Before the show starts many signs requesting ladies to take their seats off, to refrain from loud talking, etc., are flashed on a screen. Before each curtain is lowered on the scene, a whistle blows shrilly. And each appearance of the villain is the signal for violent hisses.

To finish the picture one finds carriages waiting outside the theatre in place of taxis, and so introduced with laughter is the audience that some people actually get in and are driven off amid the shouts of others who have seen the play.

During one of the intermissions, an illustrated song is sung, and this juror joined with the rest in the chorus.

It's a complete revival of everything except the price of admission.

May Allison is tackling the herculean task of a new start in motion pictures. Few screen players have been able to regain their popularity after once quitting the screen. Popularity of this sort is dependent on a continuous appeal to the masses who patronize the jumping flickers.

Our old friend Valentino, not absent from the screen as long as May has been, also faces the same problem.

Miss Allison left the screen for the first time the government has loaned coast guard equipment and personnel to the movies.

And while the jury is considering affairs of the shadow stage it deliberates for a moment on the future of the cinema.

Behold Mr. Sidney Kent. Mr. Kent earns his comfortable livelihood by inducing exhibitors to display Paramount pictures. While the Paramount publicity phalanx shouts at the top of its voice how far photoplays have advanced as an art, Mr. Kent tells the exhibitors that "the title is 75 per cent of the picture."

LEONARD ABANDONS STAGE. Will Begin Training for Several Anticipated Bouts.

New York, June 21.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, has temporarily abandoned his theatrical activities for the business of training himself into fighting condition in anticipation of several outdoor bouts during the summer season. It was announced by Billy Gibson, manager of the champion. According to Gibson, the titleholder is eager to engage in one or two bouts next month, in advance of Leonard's proposed bout against Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, for which negotiations still are in progress. It is expected that definite arrangements for this match will be announced within a fortnight.

Very True Blanche. Says Blanche Sweet: "Caricature of the American home and customs threatens photoplay realism. I should welcome a leading man whose suit is not always freshly pressed, who has a few hairs out of place on his head and a few wrinkles in his coat. Well-to-do Americans do not always don evening clothes to eat home dinners, nor are their homes, as so often pictured, the size of a civic auditorium." We'd noticed that, too.

ROSSLEY BOYS ARE REVELATION

Dumbells Jr., in "Robinson Crusoe" Provide Excellent Entertainment.

If Booth Tarkington, the arch-indicator of boyish life as the ordinary household on this continent knows it, had dropped into the Imperial Theatre Jr. went through their varied programme labelled "Robinson Crusoe" he would have been inspired with boy stuff from entirely new angles, new slants at the juvenile male. To find about 30 healthy, frankish lads focussed down so fine and in such admirable control that they put on an hour of swift, artistic vaudeville was surely a new thing not only to this city, but to much bigger places.

Bumper houses saw the boys break into public at the afternoon performance as well as at night, and they received the heartiest of receptions. Like all the Rossley-Imperial productions, the thing was snappy, well dressed and spotlessly clean and fresh. Artist P. W. Springer supplied a desert isle with wrecked ship in the office, tropical plants for the natives to creep from, and then, for the miscellaneous items, with a gorgeous palace "drop" with regal peacock, throne and golden urns—a well set-up.

Like their senior namesakes, the real Dumbells, the Dumbells Jr. opened their show with an introductory chorus, telling who they were. Then dark, stately music, and Robinson Crusoe was discovered by the cannibals lying prostrate on the beach. The story is speedy and to the point—footprints in the sand, Man Friday's arrival, cannibal cooking pot and so forth. Of course there had to be a comely old maid, Queen Beola Beola, and other characters which Defoe forgot to put in his original story. After this prologue, Robinson Crusoe's home-coming was marked by a joyous entertainment. Here's where the big part of the programme comes in.

You've all seen the Rossley girl shows, but with the boys dressed up as flappers and baby vamp, stately dames and just plain, good-looking girls, the boys are giving the real article a run for fame and popularity. In their boyish parts, such as savages, acrobats, newboys and so forth they are naturally quite at home home; no need for camouflage. So between the acrobats, newboys and the straight simon-pure boyishness the show went over with a bang. Songs, choruses, duets, whistling, novelties, graceful dances and colorful stage pictures were all performed with professional precision and artistry, some of the youngsters being especially good.

The element of surprise has always been a distinctive feature of the Rossley shows. In "The Dumbells Jr." it cropped up when a diminutive youngster gave an imitation of Lon Chaney as the Hunchback of Notre Dame and then again did a marvelously clever Harry Lauder imitation—Scotch accent, story-telling and all that side patter. As singers it is only fair to say the boys as a whole are better than the girl shows, which may not be a fair criticism upon reflection, for some of the lads were specially selected for their vocal powers.

PEGGY'S LATEST

All this following week the Dumbells Jr. will be the chief feature at the Imperial afternoon and evening. It is splendid summer diversion for the public, and one can imagine the eyes of U. S. tourists open wide when they see these juveniles perform, for in the United States stage children are a rarity, the child labor laws preventing them from performing. With the Rossley shows it is only part of the Imperial's yearly calendar of fixtures, in which the boys and girls are rewarded. It is an amateur effort, planned not to interfere with school-days or family routine, and always under the careful supervision and cooperation of parents.

Throughout the performance there were many laudatory comments on the skill of direction that brought the performers to such a degree of excellence.

PICTURE ACTRESS SECURES DIVORCE

Tangle in Divorce Laws Involves Man and Two Women.

New York, June 21.—Major Thomas Conover of the United States Army, was stationed at Fort Hamilton, was divorced by Mrs. Theresa Maxwell K. Conover, his first wife, who named his present wife, Mrs. Anna Vooris Conover, as co-respondent. Major Conover obtained a divorce in Pennsylvania in 1923 before marrying a second time, but Supreme Court Justice Wagner held the Pennsylvania decree invalid on the ground that papers had not been served legally on the defendant in New York State.

Mrs. Conover, who is a motion picture actress, said she had never submitted herself to the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania courts, and that, although her husband claimed Wilkes-Barre, Pa., as his residence for two years prior to the date of the Pennsylvania decree, she was herself a resident of the State of New York. She also said she had not been served with papers in her husband's divorce suit.

"The entanglement of divorce laws," said Daniel W. Blumenthal, counsel for Major Conover, to the Court, "which from time to time have resulted in causing suffering to innocent children, has in this case caused much suffering to a good and innocent woman. There is no question that the present Mrs. Conover, who married Major Conover in Wilkes-Barre, and who is a member of an old and noted family, did so in good faith, believing that the decree of divorce granted to him in the State of Pennsylvania was binding in every way."

Mr. Blumenthal said later the suit illustrated the need for a uniform divorce law.

Major Conover testified that he had not abandoned his first wife, whom he married in 1906, but that they separated in 1916 after she told him that she was in love with an Italian Army officer.

Justice Wagner directed that $15 a week alimony be paid to the first Mrs. Conover.

ST. JOHN FOLK BEGIN TO REALIZE BEAUTY SPOTS AT THEIR DOORS

Several Picnics are Being Held at Nearby Places Today.

St. John as a picnicking centre. That is not by any means a new idea nor is it a strange one.

In days gone by every public holiday and at odd dates throughout the warm season long trainloads of picnickers and excursionists would empty into this city and its adjoining suburbs, making the place literally hum with activity and sightseeing gaiety.

Frederickton, Moncton, towns along the North Shore, delegations from upriver points, C. P. R. trips and even backboard parties all looked upon this city as a splendid place for an outing.

The Bay Shore Courtyard Bay shore, and other locations are easily accessible for motor parties and via the railway. Some of the leading Sunday schools are already planning to use them, in fact one of the leading Sunday school bodies is today picnicking at Seaside Park.

At Courtyard Bay Shore

Next week members of the Christian church and Sunday school of Doucette street will motor to Anthony's Cove, Red Head, on the East St. John shore and there hold a good old-fashioned basket picnic. The location is very attractive with one of the finest sea views in eastern Canada and, just outside the boundaries of our twin-harbors, giving an interesting and unfamiliar view of the city.

It would seem therefore that in the evolution of things civic the picnicking trend is setting in for home locations, places near at hand and easily reached by motor. In fact the universal automobile is having a strong influence on just this very phase of summer life.

Next week members of the Christian church and Sunday school of Doucette street will motor to Anthony's Cove, Red Head, on the East St. John shore and there hold a good old-fashioned basket picnic.

It would appear by today's developments that St. John citizens have really awakened to a realization that within city limits and just outside civic boundaries are pleasuring places—picnicking grounds—that not only provide everything the summer merrymakers can possibly desire but make it possible for whole families to attend, instead of only a favored few.

Central Baptists, about 250 of them, this afternoon should have a glorious time at Seaside Park. Since the N. B. Power Co. resumed the use of running to this resort the spot has become semi-private and more like the park of a well-kept estate. Its three-part composition—cottage grove, plateau and sandy beach—make it ideal for picnicking.

Street railway special cars were to roll up to the corner of Princess and Carmarthen a little after lunch hour today to gather up the children and adults and speed them to the city and around by the bridge to the Bay Shore.

Ladies took the dining tables, dishes, food, etc. over to the park earlier in the day and committees of things in readiness—stoves, awnings, baseball bases, etc.—yesterday, all in readiness for the big picnic party.

Sunday School Superintendent Alfred E. Jenner of the N. B. Telephone Co., is in charge of the picnic, with Miss Bertha Brundage convenor of the meals committee. Mr. McCully of the Y. M. C. A. secretarial staff, one of the Central Sunday school teachers, is in charge of the sports, assisted by Eric Golding and others of the Tuxis and Trail Rangers' organizations.

Mrs. Edith Stevens, assistant superintendent of the school, John L. Collins of the Baraca Brotherhood, Mrs. Gordon Sanction, chief of the primary dept., Mrs. R. A. Christie of the St. John department, W. H. Golding of the Intermediate staff and Pastor James Dunlop, assisted by all the other executives of the school, made an effective organization.

The Seaside Park location affords beautiful attractive nooks and groves for basket parties and the cool merry-go-round housing serves as a dining hall as well as the spacious rooms of the park house. There are large, homelike kitchen accommodations and plenty of space for sports and play.

The beach is of course always an attraction down there.

It is expected that during the afternoon many automobile parties of business men and their families will take advantage of the nearness of the picnic and the Baptist outing. Persons having to leave early can be home by traction in a few minutes. Daylight saving makes it possible for picnickers to remain as late as nine o'clock in the evening if desired. The picnic is an entirely free one, the Sunday school paying all the bills and supplying the children with food, ice cream, candy, etc. as if they had paid for it.

At Crystal Beach Today

In another direction today the Baptists of the Victoria street church, North End, are picnicking. They are having their fun at Crystal Beach on the river, just about opposite Belyea's lighthouse at the foot of Long Beach.

The first party left by the steamer Majestic at her regular early sailing hour this morning and the second party was to leave by the steamer Hampton at 2 o'clock. The whole party will return by the new steamer D. J. Purdy this evening.

Supt. William H. McDonald of Northrup & Co. is in executive charge of the outing, assisted by his co-officers and teaching staff as well as by Rev. George H. McDonald, pastor of the church. A fine programme of sports has been mapped out and efficient committees were chosen to look after the well-being of the kiddies. Considerable preparation for the outing has been made by Mr. Palmer of the Crystal Beach grounds.

St. Paul's Outing, Grand Bay

A third outing to-day is that of St. Paul's Episcopal Sunday school, held at Grand Bay. A train left at 9.15 and another will go on at 11.5. F. T. Short, superintendent of the school, was in

GORDON SMITH AND MISS KERR WED

A wedding of interest to many friends took place this morning at Paul's (Valley) church when Miss Alice S. Kerr, daughter of John Kerr of Camden street, and Gordon J. Smith of Boston, formerly of this city, were united in marriage.

Rev. George Larder officiating. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Francis Kerr, presented a charming appearance in a traveling suit of ecru color, with leghorns, to match and fox fur and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret M. Kerr, while William M. Smith, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately after the ceremony on a motor car trip through New Brunswick, Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts, ending at Boston, where they will make their home in Commonwealth avenue. Mr. Smith was formerly a member of the Times-Star composing room staff, but is now employed with the Boston American. He will oversee through the greater part of the world war.

Both he and his bride have many friends here who will wish them every happiness in their married life. They were the recipients of a large array of beautiful and costly gifts.

VISITOR HEARD AT K. OF C. MEETING

John P. Dunn, special supreme agent of the Knights of Columbus, who has been visiting the councils of the order in the Maritime Provinces, arrived in the city yesterday and last evening addressed a well attended meeting of St. John Council in their home in Coburg street. Yesterday afternoon he was guest at luncheon of some of the officers of the local council at the Royal Hotel, after which he was taken for a motor drive about the city.

Mr. Dunn will leave this afternoon for Montreal.

THIS IS THE "LONGEST DAY"

Today is the longest day of the year, known as the summer solstice, when the sun in its apparent northward journey seems to have reached its limit and begins its return toward the equator. While the last few days, and for a few days following, the hours of light seem to be about the same, today is shown by official calendars as having the longest time of sunlight. Between the rising of the sun and its setting 15 hours and 27 minutes will elapse. Towards the middle of next week this margin will begin to grow smaller until late in September, when day and night will be of equal length.

IN THE MARKET. Green vegetables were very much in evidence in the country market this morning. Native beets made their appearance for the first time this season and were quickly snapped up by early shoppers, but beans and carrots are still in the import class. Beans sold for 25 to 30 cents a pound, spinach, 10 cents a bunch, lettuce, two heads for 15 cents and rhubarb, three pounds for 10 cents. The supply of lamb and veal was fair. Lamb was sold at from 30 to 45 cents a pound and veal from 14 to 30 cents, according to the cut.

FURTHER NEWS OF FATALITY. Further information received by Mrs. H. Bartlett of this city, contains the information that Frank M., the 14-year-old son of her brother, Frank Gillet, had been drowned in the Bagin River, near Danforth, Me., on Wednesday, June 11 and the body was not recovered until three days after the accident. He had been fishing from a raft. The Gillet family moved from Little River last fall, as Mr. Gillet obtained a good position in the pulp mill at Danforth. The news was received with deep regret by the relatives and friends both in the city and Little River where Mr. and Mrs. Gillet are well known.

As Hiram Sees It

"I see," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "some of them there politicians in Rhode Island has been gassing me another. Well, politics is mostly gas—an' a politician that ain't got much chance with the other ones. I think the real gas is the one that gets a pension or a bonus. We've all been gassed—over an' over again. I know here in the lower provinces was gassed into Confederation—an' ask fer what was promised us then we're gassed again. The's gonto be an explosion some day, maybe after that we'll strike it. But it does read funny to me when they say a member of a legislature was over-come with gas. I s'pose it was what Me ottomoleed fellers calls a back-fire. Political gas ain't cheap gas—nuthur. The price never goes down. If I could use it to kill cut-worms I'd think more of it—but it don't do us farmers no good at all—By Hen!"
