BURGLAR BEATS PASTOR WITH AXE

Feeble Victim, After Battle, Sends Him Forgiveness.

New York, July 12.—The Rev. Dr. John H. Kerr surprised a thief at work in a bedroom of his parsonage in Brooklyn, forgot his sixty-five years and his frail, slender stature, sprang at the intruder and was so badly cut and beaten with an axe that for a time it was feared he would die.

Late at night Dr. Kerr, stitched and bandaged, bruised by kicks and almost too weak to talk, was sending from his sick bed through his wife messages of forgiveness for his assailant and expressions of willingness to give him a "helping hand."

Meanwhile the police of Brooklyn were making extraordinary efforts to catch the man and the fashionable Highland Park section of the borough in which the crime was committed was seething with indignation.

Though Dr. Kerr was able to give only a mumbled, halting account of what befell him, the three-story parsonage here ample evidence of a terrific struggle, in which the preacher, despite his advanced years, had given a good account of himself.

He fought his assailant, or perhaps two of them, probably for twenty minutes.

In that time the battle raged through the bedroom in which it started and an adjoining room. Furniture was overturned, chairs were upset, bed clothes pulled away, ornaments knocked to the floor and walls scarred as the thief swung his axe again and again and the doctor, with no weapon but his bare hands, grappled with him.

Three physicians who examined Dr. Kerr, and detectives who learned the extent of his injuries, were surprised that a man of his years had survived the encounter. His scalp was split, his face bruised and blackened, and his

THE TWELVE-HOUR DAY.

The United States press is not altogether satisfied with the announcement that the American Iron and Steel Institute will "at the twelve-hour day" practice the twelve-hour day. The New York Tribune regards the pledge as a guarded one, and adds: "The steel men say to President Harding that they will give up the twelve-hour day, but they do not say when. Their promise is not more specific than Judge Gary's assurance a week ago that 'we are actually opposed to the twelve-hour day and are hoping that in a comparatively near future it will be eliminated.' The country is as much opposed to that as to the twelve-hour day."

The Tribune wants Judge Gary and his colleagues to set a day, and make it clear there is to be no indefinite postponement of the eight-hour day. The Boston Herald agrees that the promise to abolish the longer day is involved in the phrase, "without undue delay when there is a surplus of labor available," but adds: "And yet this statement does not seem the affirmative note with really definite emphasis. It is a conditional promise contingent upon the labor supply. It is the most definite promise yet made by the Institute, and the Institute first began to investigate the twelve-hour day in March, 1921. The committee which made the report that accused strong resentment throughout the country last May went only so far as to say that 'if labor should be purchased to permit it' and that 'the employer would consent' and 'if industry generally, including the farmers, would approve, why then the Institute would favor entirely abolishing the twelve-hour day.' In that report there were four conditions prior to the letter to the President there is only one which is progress. We do not like to appear unreasonably critical. But it is well known that the great industrial law that shall remove the three percent limit, and the steel men base this demand on a labor shortage. We cannot be expected to overlook the possible relations between this contingent pledge given by the President and this admitted policy of the industry."

It is clear that any attempt to let down the immigration bars to permit an influx of cheap labor for the steel works would be very strongly resisted. The Herald repeats the fact that more than ten years ago the practicability of the elimination of the long day was shown in the report of a Government investigation which was printed as a Senate document, and it adds: "The Iron Company made the change from two shifts to three under current circumstances and found that the new system was a financial saving to the company as well as to their employees." It is clear that public sentiment regarding the change that has been promised, and wants it without undue delay.

SAYS THEY ARE WITH US.

The Toronto Globe approves of the slogan, "Canada's Ports for Canada's Commerce," and says it will not fall on deaf ears in that part of the Dominion. Tuesday's Globe contains the following editorial utterance: "The St. John Board of Trade, in an appeal signed by Mr. R. E. Armstrong, its Secretary, for the use of 'Canada's Ports for Canada's Commerce,' asks that the manufacturers and business men of Upper and Western Canada assist in obtaining a fuller utilization of Canada's open ports. It is urged that the adoption of this suggestion will not only aid in bettering business conditions and in building up Canada as a nation, but will also help to create an absolutely friendly and co-operative spirit among Canadians from coast to coast. Toronto's merchants accepted without protest, and in not a few cases with warm approval, the decision of Parliament to increase the British preferential tariff upon goods shipped through Canadian ports. If there is any adverse feeling throughout the Province of Ontario it has not found public expression. It is better proof than this general acceptance of what is in effect a bonus on imports through Canadian ports could be given of the good-will of Ontario toward Maritime Province ports. Our chief manufacturing centres of imported goods are but a little over five hundred miles from New York. By the all-Canadian rail route we are more than twice that distance from St. John and Halifax. From this time forward, because of the recent change in the preferential tariff, practically all Ontario's winter and spring importations of British goods will be entered at St. John and Halifax. That should sweeten not a little for the people of the Maritime Provinces the tariff that causes them to buy the manufactured goods of Quebec and Ontario, despite the contiguity of the Maritime centres to the manufacturing districts of New England. The St. John Board of Trade's slogan, "Canada's Ports for Canada's Commerce," does not fall on deaf ears in this part of the Dominion."

COAL FROM WALES.

The Times a few days ago printed an interesting paragraph from the report of the Canadian Fuel Board on the question of Welsh coal as a substitute for American anthracite. In that connection the following from the Boston Herald is also of interest: "The dispatches from New York some weeks ago contained brief allusions to the increasing importations of anthracite from Wales. Now from London comes a statement by Sir David Llewellyn, a Welsh coal magnate, who is just back home after a business visit to America. He looks to the future with confidence in the performance of the arrangements under way for the sale year by year of a quantity of Welsh coal to New England and eastern Canada. He finds that the cost of transportation from the Pennsylvania fields to New England is double the cost of water carriage from Wales to the same points on this side. Time alone will show the practicability of building up an import business that can compete successfully with Pennsylvania anthracite. For one thing, it probably will be necessary, if these plans are consummated, to prepare the Welsh fuel in sizes preferred by consumers here, which would mean the building of breaking and screening plants in New England and Canada. But the suggestive fact is this, that when prices reach a point so high that consumers are hard pressed to buy coal at all, then other producers make plans to furnish a competing fuel even though they must carry their product across the Atlantic for delivery."

It is regarded as significant that in an election in Minnesota for a seat in the United States Senate the Republican candidate has decided to keep the tariff issue out of the contest. It is recalled that as far back as 1900, when the Republican candidate for Minnesota, opposed the McKinley tariff, and that in Taft's time it was the northwest that chiefly objected to a high tariff. Hence one journal says: "While we therefore see nothing unusual in the attitude of the senatorial candidate in Minnesota, we confess to some disquiet over this as a further evidence of Republican demoralization as the party approaches the presidential contest of 1924. And if the Republican candidate in Minnesota should be defeated next Monday, ever with this concession to the opposition—of which there is some considerable chance—the outcome would be decidedly significant."

HALIFAX ECHO

Halifax Echo:—News that is both cheering and stimulating comes from the North Shore and other central sections of the Province where Principal Cumming and members of the staff of the Agricultural College have been conducting short courses for the farmers. The prospects for good crops are excellent. Especially a large hay crop, as large as the record year of 1922, is assured."

The Prince of Wales will pay an unofficial visit to Western Canada in the autumn, spending a holiday on his Alberta ranch. No official engagements will be accepted, but wherever His Royal Highness is recognized there will be an unofficial welcome such as will warm his heart. Presumably, however, he will not come east of Quebec on this visit.

The progress of Lord and Lady Byng through New Brunswick is marked by a succession of welcomes which show how well pleased the people are with His Excellency as Governor-General and the King's representative. The visit is an opportune time for seeing the province at its best.

Not only England but the world has been waiting anxiously for the announcement regarding reparations which was made by Premier Baldwin in the House of Commons in London today.

James Haney of Murray street has informed the detective department that he was present on the evening of July 5 and saw the accident in which little Mary Madore lost her life. He will appear at the coroner's inquest on Monday evening and tell his story.

Bird songs are hushed, the groves repeat No echoes clear, the locusts in the wheat.
Upon the day's bright edge lay with wilt Their rasping flies, the drowsy meadow will Has sought the shadows of his wood retreat.

Then down the road the quiet dusk is stirred By unseen footsteps lightly speeding by. The aspens glimmer in their dance again. The flaming hills with sudden dusk And peering from his maple shelter high. A joyous robin chuckles at the rain!

At the Summer Carnival in Woodstock yesterday, Mayor Brown presented to Miss Canada and Miss Aroostook, who are the town's guests for the carnival time, handsome pearl pendants.

LOVE NOTE SUIT DISMISSED.

Contract to Buy Back Letters Probably Obtained by Duress, Court Says
Ossining, July 12.—Finding that the contract was probably obtained by duress, Justice Young of the Supreme Court dismissed the suit of Miss Elizabeth Thorne against William Saunders, Yonkers manufacturer, to enforce an agreement to pay her $25,000 in monthly instalments of $200 for the surrender of twenty-four of Saunders's letters written to her. Miss Thorne is a Smith graduate and had been a tutor for Saunders's children. She testified that she had been very attentive to her.

After the return of the letters he paid the instalments under the agreement for a year and then stopped. Miss Thorne sued to compel payment of $400, or two months' instalments. Justice Young in his decision said: "I am satisfied, upon uncontradicted testimony, that the contract or agreement was the basis of this suit was not the free and voluntary contract of the defendant, but that such contract was obtained from him through fear of disclosure of his relations with the plaintiff, such relation being apparently mutual and free acts between them. I think the contract was obtained by duress, and is therefore voidable."

CAT AND DOG CRUSADE.

Brooklyn S. P. C. A. Collects 10,000
New York, July 12.—The crusade against dogs and cats which started in Brooklyn on June 1 has brought more than 10,000 animals to the S. P. C. A. headquarters at 283 Butler street.

According to Inspector A. G. Heenan, in charge of the Brooklyn office, 2,000 dogs and 8,000 cats were rounded up by a force of thirty men. He said that a cage had been constructed at McCarran Park, Greenpoint, Brooklyn and Betsy Head Park in the East New York section of Brooklyn, where the residents who had rounded up stray dogs and cats place them until they are taken away by agents of the S. P. C. A. He said that 400 animals were secured in the cage at McCarran Park and 600 in the cage at Betsy Head Park during June.

CANADIAN PRESS CHIEF REVIEWS THE SITUATION

day ascertaining that the letter was enclosed in an envelope addressed to the vice-president of the corporation and delivered personally by Dan Livingston, at the company's offices in Gloucester Bay. No doubt Mr. Gray was in possession of this information when he first handed me the letter. Certainly he should have been if he wished to ensure its immediate publication. But it seems that he wanted to score for the company's policy.

When Mr. Gray handed me the John L. Lewis telegram instructing the miners to return to work, I promptly wrote the editor of the paper, giving him my cards on the table. I showed him an understanding of his position, "you mustn't use my name," the conclusion being that the miners should not be informed that Lewis had sent a copy of the telegram to the corporation. Because arguing the point only meant a waste of time, I said, "right," and because I felt that by so dismissing his contention, I had given him an understanding of his position, I re-wrote the bulletins. Now I was impressed with the fact that John L. Lewis did a perfectly legitimate thing in sending the corporation a copy of his telegram to Dan Livingston. The corporation, as on the contract, had appealed to the U. M. W. district executive. I believe that if this had been done, the corporation would have appreciated the reasonableness of the procedure adopted by Lewis. Instead of the telegram on the part of the miners which he had addressed to the U. M. W. district executive, I believe that if this had been done, the corporation would have appreciated the reasonableness of the procedure adopted by Lewis. Instead of the telegram on the part of the miners which he had addressed to the U. M. CRIPPLE HAILED AS HERO.

Saves Life of Girl and Brings Two Bodies Ashore.
Lake Hopatcong, N. J., July 12.—Bena, twenty-year-old, of Chestnut Point, Lake Hopatcong, a cripple for a number of years, was hailed as a hero this week when he saved the life of a girl and brought two bodies from the bottom of Lake Hopatcong.

Three people from Loch, N. J., were thrown into the water about 100 yards from the shore when their canoe was overturned. All started to swim for shore, but two of them, Rose Oliver and Mrs. Mary Giorgano fell behind. Frank Labarbara, on seeing that the other two were not keeping up, went to a swimming hole situated at a point where freights slow down. Frank Labarbara around the head and dragged him to the bottom.

Being one of a hundred spectators, stripped of his coat and jumped into the water. He first saved the Giorgano girl and then went back for the other. Diving, he brought their bodies ashore. Palmoters were secured, but they proved unavailing.

Falls to Stop and Three Who Pealed in Philadelphia Reach Jersey in Bathing Trunks Only.
A Jersey City patrolman found three downcast boys, clad in bathing suits, roaming the railroad yards in Greenville section of the city. They said they were James Rafferty, William Richards and William Arndt, all of Philadelphia.

They had hopped a freight in North Philadelphia, they said, to ride to a swimming hole situated at a point where freights slow down. On the way they took off their clothes and put on bathing suits. When the train slowed down at the swimming hole they threw their clothes to the ground and prepared to follow. Before they could do so the train resumed its speed and the next stop was Jersey City. The police found clothes for them and notified their parents.

DIPLOMACY FAILS, PAYS FINE.

New York, July 12.—Trained in the art of diplomacy, Frederick George Hirschfeld, thirty-two years old, a German living at Hotel Flanders, had a surprise in store for him when he appeared before Magistrate Goodman in West Side Court. He was compelled to pay a $5 fine before he left the court room. He told the magistrate that his father is an American banker.

"What are you arrested for?" the court inquired.

"I am not arrested at all," was the reply. "This gentleman invited me to come with him, and here I am."

The gentleman, Patrolman John O'Hara, explained that Hirschfeld had been standing at Forty-seventh street and Broadway and refused to move when ordered. The prisoner was found guilty of disorderly conduct.

HERICK AND CUMMINGS URGE UNITED STATES TO TAKE HAND ABROAD

Paris, July 12.—Myron T. Herick, American ambassador, who is a Republican, and Homer S. Cummings, former chairman of the Democratic national committee, sat side by side at a banquet here and both spoke, advocating the same thing—America's participation in world affairs.

The ambassador declared that isolation was no longer possible, however much it might be desired.

"We have got to take our place in the world," he said, "and America will not be found wanting when the time comes."

The banquet was given by a group of some 40 American bankers from various parts of the country who are on a tour of Europe.

CHAUTAQUA PROGRAMMES ARE MUCH ENJOYED

"Your Community in Revolution" formed the subject of a very fine lecture yesterday afternoon at Chautauqua by Dr. Harry R. McKen.

The speaker dwelt on many phases of community life, and he covered a large field thoroughly. He had a fairly large audience which seemed to appreciate his lecture thoroughly.

A great part of the lecturer's remarks were directed to the average boy in the family and his idea of community life. He urged more attention to the boy's hours of play by the parents and greater concern as to how and where he spends his leisure hours. He said that he was glad to see that the day of the old, musty parlor at home

"O MOTHER, I'M SO HOT"

Thousands of little Canadians will run to mother this summer and whisper "O mother, I'm so hot." A natural condition? Yes, to be hot in hot weather, but not to whimper about it, if the blood condition is right. A child so fed that his blood is acid instead of alkaline, like the adult, with acid blood, feels dehydrated, "all in" on a sultry day. There is but one way to make the blood acid—by improper feeding. "Excess Acid" foods, like white flour, refined cereals, meats, fats, sweets, make acid blood or "heat the blood." If the blood is alkaline there is no dehydrating sense of heat, no depression of bodily or mental vigor, however hot the day. Natural, unrefined foods keep the blood alkaline—whole grain cereals, milk, eggs, nuts, beans, greens, and fruits. These are rich in alkalis and keep the blood "cool" and the mind and body vigorous.

Roman Meal is the only richly alkaline cereal, 400 parts in each 1,000 "Excess Alkali" alkaline enough to correct the acids of white flour, other cereals, fats, meats and sweets. It makes delightful porridge, pancakes, puddings, cakes. Even hot Roman Meal porridge is more "cooling" than any cold, refined, acid-forming cereal. But you can

PREDICTS AVERAGE MAN AS SPRY AT 76

Health Association Expects Great Results from Examination Campaign

Washington, July 12.—The average life of Americans should be considerably lengthened by the national health examination campaign to be conducted under the auspices of the national health council during the next 12 months, in the opinion of officers of the United States public health service, who issued an official indorsement of the project.

"This national health-examination campaign will unquestionably markedly lengthen the average human life," declares the official announcement from the public health service tonight. "Its span in the United States was lengthened from 41 to 56 during the 80 years that elapsed between 1870 and 1920, and it will be lengthened during the next 30 years by at least 20 years more, according to the American Public Health Association, which certainly ought to know what it is saying. This means that 50 years from now the average man will live to be 76 instead of 56, as at present, and that he will feel spry enough to enjoy life at 76—and for a good deal longer."

Many a man stumbles over imaginary things in his path.

'BLIND' BEGGAR SEES IN SIOUX CITY NIGHTS

Corner Croesus, Caught in Bright Light Raid, Pays $100 Fine From Big Roll

Sioux City, Iowa, July 12.—"Blind in the daytime while he begged on the streets and sold lead pencils, but a gay Lothario at night, driving his high-priced motor car and frequenting the places where liquid refreshments and women were on the programme," is the picture painted by the police of C. S. Hannum, who with his smoked eyeglasses has been a familiar figure in the streets for years.

Arrested in a raid, he appeared in court immaculately dressed. The usual fine for such breach of conduct is $15, but in Hannum's case the court made it $100. Hannum took five twenties from a large roll and walked out a free man. On the witness stand Hannum admitted owning several rooming houses in Omaha from which he derived a substantial income.

Five little girls, Ruth Morgan, Louise Cowan, Mary Watters, Heloyse Finley and Ruth Isaacs, have given Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell $5.54 for the camp at Seaside Park. The girls conducted a bazaar and made the money.

SIR C. FITZPATRICK TO RESIGN SOON

Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec Retiring From Public Life.

(Special to The Montreal Gazette) Quebec, July 9.—The Federal Government, it is said, has been advised that Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, lieutenant-governor of the province, would not accept a second term. His Honor, whose term ends on October 21, 1923, will, it is understood, officially tender his resignation in the first week of October, and will not even open the next session, which is scheduled for the 23rd of that month. Whether his successor will be immediately appointed, or a temporary administrator named in the person of Sir Francois Lemieux, chief justice of the province, could not be ascertained. It is understood that after years of activities in politics Sir Charles Fitzpatrick will retire from public life, though he may act as counsel to an important local legal firm. Sir Charles is entitled to his pension as formerly chief justice of the supreme court, which is nearly equivalent to his present compensation. Among those mentioned as his successors are Sir Francois Lemieux, Hon. Dr. Beland and Hon. Adelaïd Turgeon.

Children to Regain Health on Farms

25 Start from Nashua, N. H.—125 More to Go.

Nashua, N. H., July 12.—The Nashua county council has sent the first instalment of under-nourished and crippled children for a minimum of two weeks of the country, according to the new fresh air programme, undertaken by the council this year in cooperation with the State Department of Public Health and the Salvation Army to attend to this department of civic welfare.

Twenty-five youngsters comprised the first party to be sent, and they will spend the vacation on farms within a radius of 10 miles of the city. The farms are under the supervision of the public health nurses and the owners are under the supervision of their charges with every care and protection. The children are selected from lists provided by the public health nurses, the school nurses and the truant and probation officers, as well as by the charitable organizations in the city, and it is expected that 150 children will receive attention before the season is completed.

None of the outings will be of less than two weeks and comparative examination of the children before going and after returning. The first of the vacations were made possible by a fund contributed by the Good Will Institute and the proceeds of the industrial exposition recently conducted in this city by the Community Council.

The work is under the active supervision of Miss Kate B. Leavitt, executive secretary of the council.

ARMY FLIER ACCUSED

Charged With Stealing Airplane from Commercial Aviator.

Minneapolis, L. I., July 12.—Charged with the theft of an airplane, Lieutenant Robert Burt, an army aviator, stationed at Miller Field, S. I., whose home is at 822 West 112th street, Manhattan, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Walter R. Jones, James Hatstead of Minneapolis, the complainant, alleged that Burt had stolen his airplane from Roosevelt Field. Burt was paroled in the custody of Chief of Police William Phillips for a hearing next Monday, after pleading not guilty.

According to Phillips, Burt, who sometimes flew Halstead's plane without authority from the owner, took it and flew to Miller Field, head New Dorp, S. I. The aviator's excuse, according to Phillips, was that he had left his hat and coat there and needed them to go home. He had expected to bring the plane back to Roosevelt Field, but darkness came on and made the return trip impossible. When Halstead looked for the machine it was gone and he notified the police. Halstead is a commercial aviator.

GAVE CHILDREN FOR CATTLE

New York State Father Convicted of Trading Daughters and Son.

Covland, N. Y., July 12.—Lark Thornton of Truxton, alleged to have traded his two daughters and a son for a horse, a cow and a calf, was found guilty in Children's Court of improper guardianship.

George Shaw, of Truxton, with whom it was charged, the barter was consummated, recently was released in $1,000 bail on a charge of attacking the younger of the daughters, Belle Thornton. The latter and her brother will be committed to the County Home, the court ordering that the father be compelled to pay for their care. The elder girl, Mamie Thornton, 26, found in the Shaw home, was detained for mental examination. It came to light in the investigation that the children never had seen a railroad train until recently and had been closely confined.

DENIES CITIZENSHIP TO ALIEN CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

Toledo, Ohio, July 12.—To foreign born men who conscientiously object to serving in the American Army during the World War on the ground that they were conscientious objectors American citizenship is denied in a decision handed down by Federal Judge John M. Killits.

"We are unable to see how any applicant who conscientiously objects to bearing arms in his country's defense can take the oath of citizenship without reservations, and we are unwilling to accept an oath that is subject to any reservation whatever," declared Judge Killits.

"Without any intention to reflect upon the quality of the profession of conscientious objectors, we feel that it is enough that the country must endure the native born of that persuasion whose citizenship is a birthright without extending the number by the favor of the naturalization laws," he concluded.

Says Steady Contact With Germs Makes City Folk Immune

New York, July 11.—City dwellers are becoming immune to many diseases because of constant contact with the germs which produce them, said Dr. William H. Park, director of the research laboratories of the Department of Health, in making the observation that subways are an aid to health rather than a detriment. Subway travelers breathe in so many germs their systems become used to them, and the germs in traveling about from home to home lose some of their virulence, Dr. Park said.

Scientific determination of the truth of this statement, Dr. Park explained, resulted from examination of public children for diphtheria germs. Every pupil was examined in the recent campaign to stamp out diphtheria and 400,000 were inoculated with anti-toxin.

The examination disclosed that many children had diphtheria germs. During the period they carried the germs, deaths from diphtheria declined rapidly, partly due to the anti-toxin and partly to natural immunity. In the first six months of 1922 only half as many children died from diphtheria as in the first six months of 1921, a result so encouraging that Dr. Park believes the disease may be definitely stamped out here.

The germ, which is known as a carrier germ, passed from person to person, is much less virulent than the germ developed during the disease. Unless they become disease germs, carrier germs steadily get milder in their effect. If a person catches cold, or gets the measles or influenza, the germs then have an opportunity to develop and the other diseases may follow.

Tendency of city dwellers to become immune was first noticed during the war. It was found at camps that men from larger cities did not succumb to epidemics as easily as men from rural districts. The country dweller is not stricken by disease so often, but when he is the disease is more serious in form. The "great open spaces" do not always make for health, despite the green grass and trees, Dr. Park said. Another reason for the city dweller's resistance to disease is that country

Ideal rugs for summer, too—indoors or on the porch

Indoors, or out, in summer or winter, you'll find no floor-covering so satisfying and so economical as a Gold-Seal Art-Rug.

Out on the porch it stays the whole season through. Showers beat in on it, the hot sun glares down on it, feet scuff over it. But sun and rain, wind and wear, mean little to a Gold-Seal Congoleum Rug.

These popular rugs are made all in one piece with a smooth, sanitary surface that is durable and labor-saving. In the strongest wind they lie flat without fastening—never ruffle at the edges.

And Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs are just as desirable indoors as out. Their rich colorings add cheer and good looks to every room in cottage or camp.

They're so easy to clean, too. A few strokes of the mop is all they need. How much better that is than the tiresome, dusty sweeping that woven rugs require.

First Illinois Woman Sentenced to Death

Chicago Jury Convicts Mrs. Nitti and Sweetheart of Murder of Her Husband.

Chicago, July 12.—Twelve jurors branded Sabelle Nitti, "husband killer" and established a precedent for Illinois, by awarding the death penalty to the woman found guilty of the murder of Frank Nitti. The jury also returned a death verdict against Peter Crucelle, Mrs. Nitti's co-defendant and second husband.

The jury heeded Prosecutor Smith's closing argument to "forget that the defendant is a woman," but up to midnight no one had been found willing to tell Mrs. Nitti that she was the first woman in Illinois to have a hangman's noose made legally for her.

The woman was found guilty of slaying her husband, Frank Nitti, a truck farmer, at Stickney, Ill., by beating his brains out with a sledgehammer. Nitti disappeared a year ago. Six months later his body was found in a catch basin near the Desplaines River, skirting a cornfield on the Nitti farm.

The woman, who is the mother of several children, was convicted mainly on the testimony of her eldest son, Charles.

More than fifty women have been tried for murder in Cook County, but this is the first time in the county's history that a woman has been sentenced to death.

representing Zoran, who was in court on a charge of making counterfeit money. The Gary attorney alleges that Judge Anderson ordered him to show cause why he should not return the fee.

When he appeared ready to show cause he alleges Judge Anderson refused to let him make his statement. The money was not returned, Economoff says, because the order was "arbitrary, tyrannical and illegal."

EXPLAIN USE OF INSULIN.
Dr. Bartlett Says it Relieves Diabetes, but Does Not Cure it.
Philadelphia, July 12.—Diabetic patients may enjoy a ten-course dinner provided they can afford one, without any restrictions as to the kind of food and suffer no ill-effects, according to Dr. Clarence Bartlett, head of the Department of Medicine in Hahnemann Hospital, in which the meal the patient takes a hypodermic of insulin. Dr. Bartlett said that insulin, the newly discovered serum for the treatment of diabetes, injected hypodermically, acts as a solvent of the sugar in the blood. The patient, he declared, is relieved of effects of a superabundance of sugar so long as the serum is present in the system, and for that period his circulation is acting normal.

"SPOON ON TERRA FIRMA"

Court's Advice to Youthful Motorist Who Ran Into Street Lamp.
New York, July 12.—"My attention was occupied," said Harold McSherry, 19, of 1247 Holland Avenue, the Bronx, to Magistrate Bizet in the New Rochelle Court, when he was arraigned on a charge of knocking down a street light Thursday night with his automobile.
"I'll say it was," interjected Policeman MacMillen, who arrested him. "One of his arms was around a pretty girl."
"If you must spoon," the Magistrate advised the youth, as he fined him $4.50, "do it on terra firma."
In paying the fine McSherry said he was employed as a clerk in a brokerage office in the financial district.

SITUATIONS WANTED

"A Joyous Pageant of the British Empire"

Objects of the Coming Great Exhibition at Wembley, England, Are Set Forth.

(By Lt.-Gen. Sir Travers Clarke, K. C., B. K. C. M. G.)

The aim of the British Empire Exhibition is, in the first place, of course, to be entertaining; to be a really interesting, joyous pageant of the British Empire. It must be entertaining or it will fall in its purpose. A sermon in an empty church may be a good sermon, but it is largely a wasted sermon. We want to fill our great exhibition day by day, in the hope that those who come on the first instance merely curious will come the next time interested, and finally come as empire enthusiasts.

It will still be a great task waiting to be done in the way of popular education as to the capacity for production of the empire, and the weak and strong links in our empire economic chain. That task of popular education we hope to carry through at Wembley Park in 1924 with the British Empire Exhibition.

Response of the Dominions. It is very cheerful to note the manner in which the dominions and the colonies have responded to the invitation to this our great family party and great fair of the empire. They all seem to be "on their toes" in a spirit of friendly emulation to out-do one another. Every dominion wants to show that it is an important pillar, if not the most important, of the empire, and the colonies have the same spirit of friendly rivalry. The result of this spirit of emulation is that the demands for space threaten to become greater than we can supply, though I believe our exhibition ground is the largest ever planned. It has been our task lately to point out to applicants for space that there must be adequate room left for visitors, and that we cannot cover our hundreds of acres completely with pavilions and exhibits.

Montreal Business Man Says Tanlac Has No Equal

Thomas C. Lyte, 309 Notre Dame Street, sales manager for the Montreal Towel Supply Company, is another widely known Montreal business man who praises Tanlac, the medicine which has proved so beneficial to him. "Tanlac proved to be just what I needed," said Mr. Lyte, "and today I'm as healthy as a lumberjack. When I got Tanlac I was so thin I was only a shadow of my former self. I had such pains in my back I couldn't stoop over to lace my shoes, my kidneys bothered me and I got so bad off I thought I would have to resign my position."

But I've picked up now so much weight now my friends all comment on the improvement. My kidneys never bother me, I sleep like a log and have a good appetite. Tanlac hasn't an equal." Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 31 million bottles sold. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

PUTS HEALTH AND VIM INTO WOMEN

So Says Mrs. MacPherson of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Windsor, Ontario.—"I was always tired and the last exhibition would go out for a day or two. I had a pressing pain on the top of my head, pain in the nape of my neck, and when I stooped over I could not get up without help, because of pain in my back. I did not sleep well, and was nervous at the least noise. I kept house, but I was such a wreck that I could not sweep the floor nor wash the dishes without lying down afterwards. A friend living near me told me what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for her so I began to take it. With the first bottle I felt brighter and got so I could sweep the floor and sweep without having to lie down. Later I became regular again in my monthly periods, and I can truly say that my wonderful medicine has put health and vim into a woman."—Mrs. JAMES H. MACPHERSON, Greenfield, Bradford, Ont.

If you are suffering from a displacement, irregularities, backache, or any other form of female trouble, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Book upon "All Women's Peculiarities to Women."

Record Breaking Shipment to Toronto

Tamblyn, Limited, gets 60 cases of Drecto by Express to fill demand that couldn't wait for freight shipment. People clamor for Wonderful Remedy.

This medicine now being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King Street; Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward Street, and F. W. Munro, 357 Main Street.

The merits of Drecto's quality as a corrective and health-builder has spread like wildfire. Everyone who uses it praises it to someone else, with the result that Tamblyn Drug Stores have been swamped by eager Drecto seekers. Sheer merit alone could create such phenomenal sales. People do not recommend a medicine to their dearest relatives and best friends unless they know what they are talking about. Everyone who knows Drecto praises it with a sincerity that carries conviction. They have learned from personal experience the wonderful health-building value of this great herbal remedy.

The most obstinate cases of stomach weakness, poor digestion, gastritis, constipation, sluggish liver, biliousness and other system-weakening complaints are quickly helped by Drecto. This fine herb and root medicine tones and regulates all the organs of digestion. It puts them in proper working order and benefits the whole system. Headaches, backaches, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains and a host of other ailments traceable to a run-down system are aided by Drecto.

Drecto is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King Street; Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward Street, F. W. Munro, 357 Main Street, in West St. John by Watson R. Dunlop. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, and by a good druggist everywhere.

Pains in Back Kept Him Awake

St. John Man Claims Drecto Toned Up His Stomach, Relieved the Dizzy Spell, Sharpened His Appetite and Produced Sound Sleep.

The widespread popularity now enjoyed by Drecto has come strictly through merit. Thousands of people today owe their present good health to this herbal remedy. The experience related here will be read with interest by everyone of this city.

"It sure is a wonderful medicine," says Mr. W. L. Lush, of 8 Hanover Street, St. John, N. B., night watchman on the "S. S. Empress" and well known in St. John and Halifax. "Some time ago my stomach began bothering me and I had a pain after meals. I could not eat very much, as everything would sour. Gas would form in my stomach and I always had a bad taste in my mouth. My kidneys and liver would cause sharp pains across the small of my back. I was always taking something to help me, but it was very nervous. This caused me to lose many a good hour of sleep."

My Troubles Are All Gone

St. John Man Enthusiastic in His Praise of Drecto, the Famous Health-Builders.

Mr. John L. Waddell, of 828 Main Street, St. John, N. B., is well-known as a salesman for one of the city's largest bakeries. His work compelled him to be out in all weathers, a condition that was rapidly telling on him until he discovered Drecto, the ideal tonic and regulator that has rid him of all his troubles.

"I was a very sick man, but thanks to Drecto my troubles are all gone and I feel fine. I strongly recommend Drecto." Recommendations of this kind, supported by personal experience, carry conviction in the minds of all thinking people. Drecto is prepared especially as a corrective for all disorders of the digestive system. It acts in a natural way on the organs, because it is compounded solely from nature's own herbs, roots, bark and leaves. It contains no mercury, potash or habit-forming drugs and is at all times a safe and reliable tonic for run-down system.

WEISSMULLER IN HOSPITAL; MAY NEVER COMPETE AGAIN

Chicago, July 12.—Johnny Weissmuller, crack swimmer of the Illinois Athletic Club and holder of all swimming records up to a half mile, is in a hospital here and all engagements scheduled for next month have been cancelled. Weissmuller's ailment has been diagnosed as a leakage of the heart, and it was said it was doubtful whether the aquatic star would compete again. Physicians who examined Weissmuller said it would be necessary for the star to take a long rest. Over-exertion at Decatur last Wednesday, when Johnny swam five hard races, breaking the world's record for 500 meters in one of them, was given as the cause. It was said that Weissmuller probably would not attempt to swim again until the national championships in August.

ENGINEER TELLS OF HYDRO SITUATION

Says Ornamental Lighting Delayed by Canadian G. E. Company

Maybe Part by July 19--Excellent Progress on Distribution System--Cranston Avenue Conditions--Getting to West Side.

The report of Percy Wilson, engineer to the Civic Power Commission, was received this morning at a meeting of the Commission and adopted as a whole. Those present were the chairman, R. A. McAvity, Mayor Fisher, F. S. A. McMullin, A. M. Rowan, John Flood, W. W. Harding, Barry Wilson, engineer, and Roy A. Willet, secretary to the Commission.

The engineer recommended the granting of contracts for line materials, as follows, being the lowest in each case: E. Leonard & Sons, 829 St. H. Hopper, $786.25; Northern Electric Co., $246.19; Canadian General Electric Co., $11,083.71. It is decided to recommend the tenders to council.

Cranston Avenue. The chairman said the Commission recommended to the Public Works Department that the street be put in shape for travel to the sub-station, but no action had been taken. The Commission was paying at the rate of $800 a year for right-of-way over one property which was equivalent to ten per cent, on $8,000.

On motion of Mayor Fisher, it was decided to refer the report to the Common Council and to take the matter up with the present owner of the reserve roadway. F. S. A. McMullin said that property owners had complained that it would be very injurious to them to use what is known as the old street.

Mr. McAvity said he did not think that was a matter for this Commission. Dr. Frink was asking up the matter of the roadway. The engineer recommended with reference to the supplying of light to the Exhibition Association that primary voltage should be supplied at the end of Carmarthen, Wentworth and Sydney streets. He recommended the installation of three large transformers each year. He suggested a charge of two cents per k.w.h. measure on the primary side for the first year. He thought the initial expense would be paid for in a couple of years.

The Power Company owned the poles and wires there and probably would remove them. The recommendation was referred on motion of Mayor Fisher, seconded by W. L. Harding.

With reference to the fire alarm system he found that the boxes could be transferred to city distribution poles and candlepower lights be placed a short distance above the box.

Delay On Work. "In reference to the progress made on the various contracts now in operation," Mr. Wilson reported, "I wish to say that the Canadian G. E. Company delayed the erection of the ornamental system through a delay in the delivery of poles, transformers, switches, etc. The work by July 19. Further, they informed us that all material would be shipped not later than July 1, but I am informed that the last carload of poles had just left Toronto on July 10. The Stephen Construction Co. have now a general superintendent on the job and I feel that any delay experienced in the past will be fully taken care of in the future.

"In reference to the concrete foundations and the erection of the steel structure, we have experienced considerable trouble and delay. As this section of the work is under the supervision of the Common Council or its inspector, your commission has little to say."

Mr. Flood thought it strange that there was no penalty clause in the contract with the General Electric. The chairman said the company had been officially notified that progress was not satisfactory.

Mr. McMullin moved the adoption of the report as a whole, and A. M. Rowan seconded this.

The Mayor asked how early we could have a showing of some of the ornamental system. Mr. Wilson said the delay in shipments had held things up. The Mayor asked if he could take some current through meters from the N. B. Power Commission and was told that it was probable.

The motion was passed. West End. Mr. Wilson said it was hoped to get over to the West Side some time next week. He thought if he were authorized he could make an arrangement for stringing a line through the North End.

The Mayor asked about crossing the river and was told that getting across by Carleton was receiving consideration. A crossing at Navy Island had not been considered.

Mr. McAvity said the committee had been notified regarding progress.

In responding, Judge Ritchie expressed his appreciation of the kind words of Mr. Tilley. He said that as would be eighty years of age next October he felt that it was time to retire. He told of the strain the last severe winter had been on him and the necessity of being on his feet every day in order to carry on the business of the court. He spoke of former days when he had opposed Sir Leonard Tilley in politics, and they had always been bitter enemies. He also told of the large number of people who had spoken to him since he sent in his resignation and of the kind words and good wishes expressed.
