J. L. STEWART,....EDITOR. BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURERS. WEDNESDAY EV'NG, FEB. 19, 1878. Mr. Willis left for Fredericton this morning, and it is believed that he is to be sworn in as a member of the Executive Council. His silence, admits no other interpretation. This will leave ign Painting Mr. Gough the leadership of the Oppoare listening to his denunciations of the new Judas Iscariot. How well he will scorch him in the fiery furnace of his eloquent wrath! Well, we know of no other man so capable of standing demunciation without injury as Mr. Willis. Mr. Gough will thunder, and Mr. Willis will smile.

Mr. Willis has not concealed his ambition to write. Honorable before Edward. The ambition is an honorable one. And yet the course he has taken will not be deemed honorable by all men. GEORGE MURDOCH, If he is in accord with the Government now, he was also in accord with it when Leader of the Opposition. It is a long step for a young politician to take, from the leadership of the Opposition to a seat in the Government, and it will require all Mr. Willis's eloquence to satisfy his constituents that it is seemly. No one will suspect him of having been bought over, but it will be widely believed that the desire to become an honorable" has blinded him to the grave violation of political proprieties ommitted by so sudden a transfer of allegiance. Opposition to Better Terms. Mr. Domville very plainly announce vesterday that the Better Terms Commissioners need expect no aid from him. There may be other M. P's whose devotion to the Government prevents their advocating Better Terms. These gentlemen will render the efforts of the Commissioners harder than they Temperance in Hampton. HAMPTON, Feb. 18, 1873. As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose slimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. jen 15
