THE COMING BIG MEN.

The Western Fair Board, through Mayor Taylor, has officially invited Lord Aberdeen to visit the exhibition when he comes to London, and the City Council has resolved to ask Sir Henry Tyler, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, to time his contemplated visit to this city so that he may see the novelties in the great show. Sir Donald A. Smith will also be invited.

The exposition this year will surpass all previous displays in point of variety and attractiveness.

"TO BE OR NOT TO BE."

The ADVERTISER has not assumed that there will positively be a general election for the Dominion before another year elapses, but is in a position to state that Sir John Macdonald and his associates have been making every arrangement to spring the elections on the country in the near future should the trade question take a certain shape. The Government, it appears, wishes to be able to have an alternative to the plan of waiting till after the redistribution of seats that will follow on the taking of the census. We hear that Mr. Carling, in his recent visits to this city, has quietly disseminated information to this effect among his followers, and has made other little preparations of the pipe-laying order.

WORKINGMEN AND IMMIGRATION.

A good deal of discussion has arisen over the resolutions passed at the recent Trades and Labor Congress held in Ottawa. The resolutions were generally of a radical character, an example being the demand that, as Canada pays the salary of her Governor-General, the taxpayers should be permitted to select him from among themselves.

Another significant resolution which was passed by the congress was in the following terms:

That whereas the continued systematic and enormous increase of expenditure of large sums of public money in aiding and encouraging the immigration of paupers, vagrants, indigent, orphans and children of vicious, tainted and criminal tendencies from abroad, is a gross injustice to the people of Canada, and a serious impediment to the progress of the Federal Government to prevent the introduction into Canada of such paupers, indigent, orphans and children of vicious, tainted or criminal tendencies, whether they be sent under the authority of the Imperial Government or through any other channel.

On behalf of the Dominion Government, and more particularly Mr. Carling, who is at the head of the Immigration Department, it is contended that the encouragement of immigration does no injury to the working classes, and that there is no ground for complaint. The defenders of the system claim that the workingmen have no right to object to the payments made to professional philanthropists by the Dominion Government, because, forsooth, people living in the country are always ready to receive the waifs and strays of the old world slums, and to profit by their labor. It is all nonsense to say that the workingmen are not injured by the system, or that they are not unfairly discriminated against when their money is taken to promote the influx of a class of competitors that are, as the resolution of the congress points out, physically and morally below the Canadian standard.

As we understand them, the workingmen have no objection to immigrants, provided they come at their own expense, but they cannot reasonably induce a system that works specially to their injury.

THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA.

One of the most remarkable developments of the last few weeks is the growth of the sentiment in favor of greater freedom of trade between Canada and the United States.

The movement is not confined to the Dominion; it is spreading here, and we have no doubt that already an overwhelming proportion of the people are in favor of it. But in the United States the agitation has, for the time being, taken first place in the public mind, and there is now every reason to believe that it is but a question of time and a change of Government when the full fruition of the movement will be attained. First came the Farmers' Alliance combination, one of the planks of its platform being that protection and restriction was not the panacea for every ill that affects the body politic, and that high taxes were an evil rather than a benefit. Then the Blaine pronouncement in favor of reciprocity with the South American Republics. Next it was very naturally suggested that if freedom to trade with South America is in the public interest, it would certainly be advantageous to throw off the barriers that prevent an extension of profitable commerce with a country so close at hand as Canada. Senator Sherman, of Ohio voiced this wide-spread sentiment when he introduced his resolution in favor of reciprocity with Canada, beginning with the commodity of coal, and arranging by joint commission for a full reciprocity of all products, if deemed in the interests of both countries.

Among ourselves, the hitherto opponents of reciprocal trade profess to be the faculty of trying to oppose the change, and accordingly we have journals which a few weeks ago were telling Canadian farmers that they would be ruined if the largely bogus duties on agricultural products were thrown off, now professing earnest supporters of reciprocity in what they are pleased to call natural products. We have men who denounced Hon. Mr. Longley as a traitor to Canada because he went to Washington and aided in the drawing up of the Sherman resolution assuring their readers that that declaration embraced their views. We have Conservative M.P.s who, at the bidding of the Government of the combines last session, voted down a resolution declaring it to be the duty of the Dominion Cabinet to work to secure reciprocity, now asserting that the Sherman resolution, which is in accord with the discarded declaration, is the very thing needed.

How has it all come about?

It is easy to answer. The majority of the people on both sides of the lines are tired of trade restriction, and they want change. The political leaders who have hitherto stood in the way of improvement recognize this fact, and hasten to square themselves, as far as possible, with the electorate. In many cases their newspaper organs are making a sorry mess of it, exhibiting a lamentable insincerity and rightly earning the title of weather-cocks, driven to all points of the compass by every passing breeze.

The restrictionists have wasted many a sheet of paper in drawing up arguments favorable to the idea that freedom to trade is hurtful to the respective peoples.

"Abolish the taxes on farm products and you will be ruined by Canadian cheap labor," has been the cry of the high tax advocates in the United States. "Abolish the taxes on everything which the Yankee produces," was the parrot-like standing argument of the Canadian apologetes for rule by the grace of the combines, "and you will all be ruined through exchanging commodities with them." But now they confess that the cry has no foundation—that they have been calling "wolf, wolf," but with a much more reprehensible purpose.

Well it is that the confession has come in time for the people to fully understand what it implies. When they do we are assured that they will not long repose trust in men who could so persistently mislead them. To those of us who believe in the greatest freedom to trade consistent with our national obligations, the portents of the men who now control the Governments in the two countries at once set honestly about promoting the freest possible exchange of marketable commodities, it may be taken for granted that they have experienced a change of heart. But we doubt the permanency of the alleged conversion of the Administration in Canada, which owes its very existence to the combines and their financial assistance, and would suggest the propriety of placing much reliance upon the promises of men who, up till now, have used every artifice in their power to thwart reciprocity, and by their official mouthpiece have declared that freedom to sell and buy would be detrimental to Canadian interests.

Unless there is something more than mere pretensions to influence them, when the electors are appealed to they will best promote their own welfare by refusing to support the men who have no long record of action looking to the establishment of freer trade between Canada and the States.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

—According to a medieval story our forefather Adam was 150 feet high.

—England's national debt is now £84,954,150. The greater portion was incurred through foreign wars.

—Jacob Seligman is the smallest millionaire in the world, being hardly more than four feet high. It is only when he stands on his money that he is a conspicuous figure.

—Don't jump on or off a train while in motion. The attempt to do so is always fraught with danger, as was well exemplified in the terrible experience of the young expressman near Old City, Ont., yesterday.

—Sugar is going up in price. Merchants could afford to sell it much cheaper, as consumers would be induced to use a great deal more than they now do if the tax on the commodity were not so enormous. The import is a serious injury to fruit growers because it handicaps the preserving business.

—Who is responsible for the notion that gravity is a mark of wisdom? It is really indicative of a low order of intellect. Schopenhauer says of him "whom systems and champagne are the heights of existence: 'The aim of his life is to procure what will contribute to his bodily welfare. The peculiar characteristic of the Philistine is a dull dry kind of gravity akin to that of animals.'"

—Collectors of postage stamps, play bills, coins, medals, trinkets, and walking sticks have a recognized standing, so it is not surprising to hear of a man whose life passion it is to collect handkerchiefs. A collection of crabs would be of no interest to the world at large, providing it were removed to the distance that lends enchantment.

—While everyone acknowledges the right of laboring men to organize for legitimate purposes, it is certain that drunkenness, negligence or incompetence of a railroad employee is a fitting indication not for arbitration but for immediate dismissal. The slightest mistake or shortcoming in railroad transportation may have tremendous and terrible results, and the strictest discipline should be maintained among those upon whom this heavy responsibility is laid.

—Reciprocity with our neighbors we must have, but it should be promoted and maintained by its consistent friends, not by those who, in the interests of monopolies, would try to render it as inoperative as possible. Nothing would so speedily bring prosperity to Canada and more particularly to the magnificent district of Western Ontario, of which London is the capital, as perfect freedom to sell and buy from our neighbors according to our respective necessities prompt.

—Many Londoners who have crossed the Atlantic on the Cunard liner Bosphorus and later on the steamship Umbria, will regret to hear of the death of Captain Wm. McKim, the popular commander, and commodore of the line. Captain McKim, who was 70 years old, succumbed to an illness of a year's duration at his home in Liverpool on Sunday morning last. He was a favorite with ocean travelers, his understanding his bluff manner. He believed in running steamships for all the world, and was ready to risk the ship going the fastest would be least harmed.

—As a result of the inquiry into the death of John Kent, the Toronto man who, when sick, placed himself under the care of a "Christian Scientist," the coroner's jury have returned a verdict that deceased "came to his death through the ignorance of Mrs. Stewart in treating him contrary to the advice of his physician." The moral, as the coroner has already pointed out, is obvious. A sick man, who wishes to regain his health, should follow out the best medical advice within his reach. It is a great mistake to suppose that the adoption of this course in any way exhibits a lack of faith in Providence.

—In the Paris papers much space has been devoted of late to the street car role of politeness, growing out of an incident at Havre. In the Council of that city it was charged that French gallantry was departing because ladies were seen standing in the street cars. A motion was introduced and warmly advocated that the conductors should be required to see that all ladies had seats, even if all the men had to stand up. A majority of the Council voted against the motion. This is deplored by the Paris papers as an evidence of departing chivalry, but the remark might easily be that genuine politeness loses merit without spontaneity. It cannot be enforced by law.

—When Stanley comes to America on his lecturing tour, and visits this city among other centers of population, he will be accompanied by Mrs. Stanley and her young brother, Combe Tennant, whose engagement is again announced to Miss Evelyn, of New York, who has been for many years a friend of his mother, and whose marriage with the same young man was discussed two or three years ago. Hamilton Aide, the Anglo-Greek author, a kinsman and warm admirer of Mrs. Stanley, will also accompany the party, probably as historiographer of the tour. A cablegram says that "the enterprise is regarded with unusual interest in England, not only by the immediate friends, social, artistic, scientific and political, of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, but also in circles that touch upon the sacred precincts of the throne."

Sick Headache

Is a complaint from which many suffer and few are entirely free. Its cause is indigestion and a sluggish liver, the cure for which is readily found in the use of Ayer's Pills.

"I have found that for sick headache, caused by a disordered condition of the stomach, Ayer's Pills are the most reliable remedy."—Samuel C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

"After the use of Ayer's Pills for many years, in my practice and family, I am justified in saying that they are an unsparing and efficient liver medicine."—W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. F. Austin & N. W. Railway Co., Burnes' Park and Queen's Avenue, Toronto.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered stomach and liver. I suffered for over three years from headache, indigestion, and constipation. I had no appetite and was weak and nervous most of the time. By using three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured."—Philip Lockwood, Topeka, Kansas.

"I was troubled for years with indigestion, constipation, and headache. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, used in small daily doses, restored me to health. They are prompt and effective."—W. H. Strout, Meadville, Pa.

A MAN'S LIFE SAVED

I WOULD not be doing justice to the afflicted if I withheld a statement of my experience with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. No one can tell what I suffered for nine weeks, one-third of which I was confined to my bed, with the best medical skill I could obtain in the city trying to remove my affliction, but without even giving me temporary relief. My body was so sore that it was painful for me to walk. I could not bear my clothes tight around me, my bowels only opened when taking purgative medicines, my appetite was gone, and body was as yellow as a guinea. When I returned to the street I was stared at or turned from with a repulsive feeling by the passer-by. The doctors said there was no cure for me. I made up my mind to die, and as I was advised me to try Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I thought if I commenced taking it three times a day, I would find some relief. I took the first bottle and found it did me good. I took the second bottle and found it did me good. I took the third bottle and found it did me good. ## Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla cleans the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAUL, Watertown, Mass.

FOOTBALL.

The Woodstock College Football Club has organized with the following officers: President, H. S. Robertson; vice-president, W. M. De Cew; captain, H. Benwell; secretary-treasurer, A. S. Glasgow; curator, W. H. Rice.

The Windsor Record talks as follows: "The southwestern part of the Province contains many isolated football clubs and these clubs could be banded together in an association to the mutual advantage of all the clubs going without saying. The football season is here and the organization has been spoken of and if it is to be made it should be done now. How would this do for an association? Windsor, Essex, Sarnia, St. Thomas and Chatham. Windsor is ready and willing. What place will be the next? All speak at once. The secretary of the Windsor team (A. B. Van Zandt) would be pleased to hear from all."

THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION MEETING.

Rule 10 to read, "The player who is on the ground, shall be allowed to use his hand," etc.

Rule 10 to read, "The player shall charge an opponent unless both are on the ball."

Rule 11 to read, "The referee shall have the right to regulate duties and powers of referees."

Rule 12 to read, "The referee shall have the right to define as follows: Throwing or attempting to throw an adversary by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him."

"Free kick" to change so as to read: "The ball must be kicked before it shall be considered played."

THE TRIGGER.
The London Gun Club has just issued a handsome lithographed whole sheet containing all necessary information respecting game and game laws. The bill is mounted by a neat fishing and shooting scene, and reflects credit upon the energetic sportsman who comprises the membership of the club.

THE KENNEL.
Dropping across Mr. Ehrmann, of Spratt's Company, at Wilmington, is informed that he had just returned from a prolonged trip to Canada in the interest of the firm. He reports that everywhere he went he met with an enthusiastic feeling among business men and sportsmen in interest of our friend (the dog), and that in all his life he had not been thrown among a more sport-loving, hospitable set than Canadian doggy men. He visited most of the different kennels, and was particularly impressed by the fine showing made by Mr. Shaw's spaniels and Mr. Davey's setters. From his glowing accounts it is very evident that our friend over the border are indeed doggy inclined, and no one can contradict this when we find four shows to be held this month, and remember that this is the land in which shelters such enthusiastic breeders as Messrs. Niven, Wheeler, Nelles, Laidlaw, Taylor, Jackson, Bell, Charlesworth, Luckwell, McEwen & Gibson, Mitchell, Stone, Campbell, and shall we add, the redoubtable Dan O'Shea?—Turf, Field and Farm.

ATHLETICS.

The bicycle races have been thrown open, instead of being restricted to the city as first intended—and the prize medals doubled in value. SMITH'S PATENT HYDRANT.
This hydrant is acknowledged by all mechanics to be far ahead of all others. Its superiority is shown by the popular favor it has obtained. The public are warned against other dealers who claim to have a hydrant which can be compared to a straight-way valve. A straight-way valve has no seat to be subjected to the action of any liquid, therefore a hydrant to be compared to a straight-way valve must have no seat to be subjected to the action of the water, and there is no other hydrant made except Smith's Patent Hydrant without a seat, and we claim to have the only hydrant to be compared to a straight-way valve. All others have a seat subjected to the action of the water, and the majority of them will have to be dug up and a new one to be required, and at extra cost. This we are prepared to guarantee the users of our hydrants against. For sale by the patentee, price $5. SMITH BROS., Plumbers, 175 King street, London, Telephone, 238.

There are few, if any, in the great army of smokers who have not been, by experience, placed in a position to judge as to the merits of the "Norma" 10-cent cigar manufactured by H. McKay & Co., of London.
In almost every cigar store and hotel in Canada this set of all lovers of 10-cent goods has found its way, and is finding rapid and constantly increased sale. Unlike other similar goods, he finds it not of a transient nature. The "Norma" contains all the merits of the imported cigar, and has in many cases supplanted its more expensive rivals, and each successive season but adds to its host of admiring consumers.
The large establishment of H. McKay & Co. is kept continually engaged in supplying the demands made upon them for the "Norma."
You can get better scribbling and exercise

In addition to this he had a fearful shaking up, so that his teeth are loose. He has been in bed since the accident and cannot help himself.

Noble Message to Lord Aberdeen. Mayor Taylor, Capt. A. W. Porter, President of the Western Fair, Mr. G. C. McCormick, and representatives of the two city newspapers ascended the long line of stairways to the top of the McCormick Manufacturing Company's premises this afternoon to engage in a notable undertaking. A beautiful homing pigeon had been procured from the Toronto Industrial Exhibition now in progress, with the intention of sending it to Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who to-day formally opened that show. The bird arrived by the noon express, and Mr. G. C. McCormick, who is an expert in these matters, promptly rolled it up the delicate little missile, inserted it in the quill provided for the purpose, and then tied the tiny little bit of freight under the center feather of the tail. At 12:45 m., the pretty bird flew.

Nothing in the World Like It. Nothing can equal Polson's NERVINE as a remedy for internal, local, or external pain. It is the strongest, therefore the least. Nerve pain penetrates at once to the source of disease, and affords immediate relief. C. B. Allison &amp; Co., druggists, Pictou, speaking of Nerveine state: "Our customers speak of it in the highest terms." An expert in these matters, promptly rolled it up the delicate little missile, inserted it in the quill provided for the purpose, and then tied the tiny little bit of freight under the center feather of the tail. At 12:45 m., the pretty bird flew. The Mayor, on behalf of the people of London, expresses confidence that you will enjoy your visit to the Industrial Fair, and to the city of Toronto, and that you will also visit our Ontario home. Geo. T. W. Mayor, London, Sept. 9, 12:45 m., 1899.

When a burglar asks you the conundrum, "Where's your money?" it is wise to give it up. No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Fergusson's Dysentery Cure for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels, promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

Wilson's Wild Cherry. For nearly twenty years this valuable medicine has been largely used for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Loss of Voice and La Grippe. Those who know its value always recommend it to their friends, knowing that Wilson's Wild Cherry never disappoints. The genuine is sold by all druggists in white wrappers only. It is only natural that the man who is short should find no one to look up to him. Paroled sticks are a little longer this season, but sticks for soda-water remain about the same.

To avoid catching cold, many plans have been suggested. Probably if one never went anywhere to keep in the house, the usual routine of life, they would be free from many of the ailments that flesh is heir to, but this is not a satisfactory solution of the question. People must have recreation and enjoyment, and frequently catch cold in pursuit of them. Wilson's Wild Cherry will cure a cough or cold in the shortest possible time, and by its tonic effects, strengthen and invigorate the system at the same time. Sold by all druggists, in white wrappers.

ABOUT HAIR

Editor of the ADVERTISER:
Sir,—I have, as you know, for some time advertised in Canada, and the States a preparation for the hair called "Dr. Ross's Hair Magic." I have received some thousands of flattering testimonials from those who have used it as to its merits as a restorative of gray or faded hair; also as a promoter of the growth and a certain cure for dandruff.A great many of my correspondents ask the question: "Why is my hair turning gray so early? Why is my hair falling out?" As it is impossible for me to answer every one, I take the liberty of encroaching on your valuable space to make a general reply. A great many persons do not seem to be aware that excessive washing and rubbing is injurious to the growth of the hair; such is the case, however. Constant washing and rubbing the scalp and hair causes which gives strength to the hair, and keeps it from falling out. The hair, under heat caused by the wearing of heavy headgear is also injured. Anything that will tend to dry up the sap or life of the hair will cause dandruff and finally baldness. Of course there are other causes as diseases, hereditary tendencies, etc., but the first mentioned are the main and most common.Dr. Ross's Hair Magic, an eminent German physician, has given to the world after years of study and experiment his now famous "Hair Magic." The object of this preparation is to
