FEVERISH PREPARATIONS

French Are Preparing for the Violation of Swiss Neutrality.

New York, Jan. 20.—A cable to the Tribune from London says:

Feverish preparations are going on along the west front for what both sides expect to be the greatest battle in history. The signal for the outbreak depends on the weather man chiefly.

Interest here and in France centres in the possibility of a German invasion of Switzerland for the purpose of striking at the French army in Alsace as part of the coming struggle. Dispatches from Bern say that General Ulrich Wille, commander-in-chief of the Swiss army, formally has proposed mobilization of all Swiss military forces.

Despite his recent utterances that he believed Switzerland was safe from invasion, apparently he has become alarmed at the concentration of German troops along the Swiss border. The Swiss federal council, however, regards the situation as free from grave danger, though it has so far agreed with Wille as to mobilize the 2nd, 4th and 5th divisions of the army. It is considered possible at Bern, however, that further units will be called to the colors soon.

The seeming optimism of the Swiss governing council is hardly shared in allied circles here and in France, to which the violation of Swiss neutrality would come as no distinct surprise.

Reports persist that German forces are being massed across the line from Basel and that a strategic railroad is being hurriedly constructed in that sector. The belief is strong in French military quarters that the Germans have made all plans for an attack of unprecedented violence on the French lines in Alsace, between Basel and Belfort, and it is realized that such a movement presupposes the invasion of Switzerland.

Seen Running at High Speed
by Crew of Steamer Arriving Yesterday.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 20.—According to press dispatches from Rio Janeiro, a strange steamship with four smokestacks, painted black, has been sighted off Ceara, Brazil, running at high speed. Word of this vessel was brought by the men on a steamship which arrived yesterday at Bahia, Brazil, who say they saw the steamer.

The German raider which has been operating in the South Atlantic, is reported to be equipped with collapsible smokestacks. The number of stacks visible being changed at intervals to disguise the identity of the vessel. The state of Ceara is in the north of Brazil.

Attempted To Escape To Holland, and Will Share Edith Cavell's Fate, Says Official Announcement of Belgium's Government.

Havre, Jan. 19.—By Fred B. Pitney.—Thirty Belgians have been condemned to death by the German military government at Liege because they sought to reach Holland and join the Belgian army.

Four others, who have not yet reached the age of seventeen, have been sentenced to fifteen years in prison. Notice of the sentence has been posted broadcast throughout Belgium by order of the Governor-General von Bisping. News of this latest German outrage, which recalls the murder of Edith Cavell, came to the Belgian Government today through the most trustworthy channels.

Escaping Belgians bring accounts of untold sufferings undergone by many of the deported. According to these reports, the victims of the "slave raids" are forced to work in the German trenches, strengthening the fortifications, and supplementing the pioneer corps of the German armies.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Aylmery, Jan. 20.—Aylmery may be small, and its aspirations are far from those of metropolitan cities, but Billy Sunday was out-Sundayed on Friday night, when 107 converts were recorded at the Hanley-Fischer revival services here. More than 1,500 crowded the "tabernacle" on young people's night, and hundreds were unable to gain admission. The revival is now in its fourth week, and the trail blitters are growing in numbers.

Regards the Adjournment as Petrograd, Jan. 19.—Via London, Jan. 20.—The Imperial ukaz further postponing the convening of the Duma and the Imperial Council, has provided another intermission in the Russian political situation in which it is hoped that some means will be discovered of harmonizing the policies of the government and the legislative chambers. The steady succession of ministerial changes and the events which have taken place since November, when the Duma met, have done little to bring about the desired understanding. On the other hand, the gulf which separates the government and the Duma is very clearly defined.

It became obvious that a meeting of the Duma under the present circumstances would only serve to sharpen the conflict and precipitate a final rupture between the two parties. Premier Dolgov explains the apparent contradiction between his recent utterances regarding co-operation with the legislative departments and the ukaz postponing their reassembling by a statement that he underestimated the length of time necessary to form the government program, and that it is essential for the government to become fully acquainted with the situation before the Duma meets.

The newspapers indulge in pessimistic comment on the situation. The Rech says: "The work of the Imperial Council and the Duma is being more and more energetically paralyzed."

It is unnecessary to state how serious the present moment is and how grave the import is an adjournment even for a short period.

Instructions to the consular officials in this country passed through the Swiss legation here. The divisions will be mobilized on January 24.

According to information obtained from the legation today the Swiss citizens who will be required to join the colors were permitted to leave Switzerland with the understanding that they would return if called upon. The number of Swiss citizens in this country affected by the mobilization order is comparatively small.

Berlin, Jan. 20.—Via Sayville.—The German official statement issued today reads:

"Western Front: Near Wytschaete and west of Ypres, attacks by British patrols last night were repulsed. Reconnoitering enterprises launched between Deller and the Rhine-Rhone Canal were successfully carried out by Wurttemberg troops."

"Rumanian Front, Front of Archduke Joseph: In the Eastern Carpathians, northeast of Belgor, minor Russian detachments repeatedly attacked our positions unsuccessfully. The enemy, who at one point had entered by a surprise attack, was driven off in hand-to-hand fighting."

"North of the Suchitza Valley, the Rumanians repeated their desperate attacks at the same points as on the preceding day. In addition to several dead which are lying before our positions the aggressors lost 400 men in prisoners."

"Army Group of Field Marshal von Mackensen: A heavy snowstorm and sufficient light impeded the activity of our artillery. Nevertheless, the town of Nanesti, situated on the Sereth, was taken yesterday by German troops by storm and in hand-to-hand fighting."

The statement reports that nothing important occurred along the Russian front.

"On the Macedonian front," says the statement, "the day and the night of yesterday passed calmly."

Buenos Aires, Jan. 20.—Pigmy submarines, 78 feet in length, are carried by the German raider which has wrought such damage to allied shipping in Atlantic waters.

The captain of the captured British steamer Netherby Hall, among those landed at Pernambuco from the German prize ship Hudson Maru, was authority for this statement today:

"There are three submarines carried by the raider," he said. "They are capable of operation over a small radius, and are equipped with torpedoes, dynamite and ammunition."

Such additional details as this, indicating the typical German thoroughness with which the raider was prepared and equipped, led shipping circles to predict a long chase by allied warships before the sea scourge is cornered.

Certainly she had not been definitely located today, according to dispatches at South American ports.

Wireless dispatches received today said that the auxiliary British cruisers Macedonia and Orama had arrived off Pernambuco.

DRINA SAFE; REACHES RIO.

Rio De Janeiro, Jan. 20.—The royal mail liner Drina, which had been in the zone of the operations of the German commerce raider, and which, in some quarters, had been reported sunk, entered the harbor of Rio Janeiro this morning.

Regarding the explosion of munitions last night the Evening Standard says:

The minor effects were curious. While many windows quite near at hand escaped, others at equal distance away were broken. Here and there there were rushes of women to places of shelter and theatre attendances were in some degree affected.

The Fall Mail Gazette says:

The explosion brings the reality of war to the very hearths of this country. Let us remember the victims have given their lives in their country's cause as honorably as if they had fallen in a charge "over the top."

London, Jan. 20.—Premier Clemens of Austria and Premier Tisza of Hungary returned to Vienna on Friday evening after an extended conference in Berlin with the German leaders in regard to the economic problems, according to an American dispatch to Reuters. Representatives of the general staffs of both the German and Austrian armies, as well as the leading statesmen of the two countries, were present at the conference.

The meeting between Premier Clemens, Premier Tisza and the German leaders was apparently distinct from the conference arranged between the presidents of the parliaments of the Central Powers and Turkey, which opened in Berlin Friday.

London, Jan. 20.—The explosion in a munitions factory near London last night involved practically all the explosives in the factory, which was destroyed by a fire which spread to a great distance, and three rows of small houses in the neighborhood were almost demolished.

Between 30 and 40 bodies have been recovered thus far, and about 100 persons are reported to have been injured seriously.

It is announced officially that the explosion occurred in the east of London. All communication with other districts was cut off for a time by the explosion, and the Metropolitan fire brigade could not give aid immediately, the fire not being in the London fire brigade area.

The number of persons killed either in the factory or in the neighborhood has not yet been ascertained. The casualties are not nearly as heavy as was thought at first.

Dr. Christopher Addison, the minister of munitions, visited the scene of the explosion. He has requested the borough authorities to provide immediate necessary relief.

No practical difference will be made in the output of munitions.

In addition to the destruction of the factory and the loss of lives, considerable other property damage was inflicted.

Former German Boat Believed
To Be Tender of Mysterious Auxiliary.

New York, Jan. 20.—The warning sent out by wireless to vessels of the Entente Allies by the British authorities that the captured British merchantman St. Theodore had been converted into a German commerce raider was pointed to today by local shipping men as tending to prove that at least two German raiders are at large in the Atlantic Ocean. It was recalled that a steamship had been sunk south of the equator within eight days after the Samland had sighted a raider, December 4, about 500 miles west of Freetown. For any vessel to have covered the distance in that time, it was said, would have been an impossibility.

In the discussion of what vessels possibly could be supplying the German raiders, the peculiar actions off Cape Hatteras last month of the Portuguese steamer Faro, a former German vessel, were recalled. The Faro formerly was the Galata. The vessel, it appeared, was interned in Portugal when the war started, was seized by the Portuguese Government when she later declared war against Germany, and under the name of Faro was put into the merchant trade of Portugal. Lloyd's classes her as requisitioned by the Portuguese Government.

The American tank steamer Sucrova, which arrived here Christmas day, reported that off Cape Hatteras she sighted the Faro, which steamed across the tanker's bow, then circled and disappeared. According to the Sucrova's officers, the Faro appeared next day and repeated the performance, neither time displaying any signals to explain her mysterious actions. The Faro put into Newport News for coal and sailed from there December 23, since when she has not been reported.

Wait For Escorts.
So far no change has been made in the arrangements for the safety of Allied vessels leaving this port for England or France. When the vessels display any signals to explain her mysterious actions. The Faro put into Newport News for coal and sailed from there December 23, since when she has not been reported.

Indorsement of the action taken at Michel and Hillcrest is being sought from all the locals and the next 48 hours may see organized mine workers quit in a body.

COMPLICATIONS

Gives U. S. Another Grave Marine War Problem Already Brought To Serious Point by Submarine Phase—Americans On Board Yarrowdale When Brought to Prussia and Washington Dispatch Declared Such Eventuality Would Mean Serious Result.

New York, Jan. 20.—Three Americans were members of the crew of the British steamer Yarrowdale, captured by the German raider and taken into a German port by a prize crew, according to the records of the British consulate here.

Dispatches from Berlin last night said that the Yarrowdale had brought 465 prisoners, crews from other captured ships, among them 103 subjects of neutral nations, but no mention was made of there being any Americans among them.

(By Carl D. Groat.)
Washington, Jan. 20.—Danger of complications with Germany over marine problems seems to authorities today to be nearer than for months past. Her capture of neutrals and making them prisoners on the steamer Yarrowdale plus the strong trend of German sentiment toward wider submarining, made these possibilities more ominous.

The official German statement that the missing Yarrowdale, with more than 450 souls aboard, has been brought into harbor as a prize, with a number of neutral prisoners, gave rise to a graver concern than anything that has happened in months of ups and downs of critical relationship.

This involves broad questions of armament, but even more so the infringement upon neutral rights by going so far as to make such subjects prisoners of war.

The whole problem is tied up also with the peace situation.

COMPLICATIONS CERTAIN.
[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Jan. 20.—The German admiralty statement that neutral subjects in the crews of vessels captured by the German raider in the South Atlantic, "have been removed as prisoners of war," will raise a complicated question if any Americans are among them.

The whole question turns on whether an armed merchant ship is a war vessel, and the gulf between the United States and Germany on that question is still unbridged.

Of course, Americans on such ships could be considered as prisoners of war only if the vessels were considered as war vessels.

No indication has been received that any of the vessels sunk by the German raider were other than defensively armed. The state department has had throughout that a vessel cannot be classed as a warship unless it is under naval orders, and the naval flag and manned by naval crews.

The German admiralty statement made just at this time when the armed ship issue between the two countries is becoming more complicated was taken to foreshadow a more pronounced attitude as to the question of Germany's part.

Prussian Port Is Named By Berlin as Yarrowdale's Base

Amsterdam, Jan. 20.—Via London.—According to an official statement from Berlin, says the Cologne Gazette, the British steamer Yarrowdale, carrying the crew of steamers captured by the German raider in the Atlantic, was brought into the port of Swinemunde, Prussia.

The official statement from Berlin Friday night reporting the arrival of the Yarrowdale in harbor on December 31 as a prize did not indicate the port at which she arrived.

HUDSON MARU NOT GERMAN PRIZE.

Rio De Janeiro, Jan. 20.—The Japanese steamer Hudson Maru, on arrival at Pernambuco January 15 with the crews of some of the victims of the German raider, had no Germans on board, according to an official announcement made here today, and, consequently, it is said, the vessel is absolutely free to leave port. Earlier information from Pernambuco had said that the Hudson Maru would remain at that port as a prize, and that the vessel was under the jurisdiction of the German minister, and that the Brazilian naval authorities considered the liner a German vessel.

YARROWDALE'S CARGO WORTH $2,000,000.

New York, Jan. 20.—The Yarrowdale's crew numbered 97. Her cargo, consisting chiefly of contraband, was worth about $2,000,000, shipping brokers estimated today, and the ship itself, based on the present price of ocean tonnage between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

A considerable easing off in the marine war risk insurance for South American waters prevailed here today, general rates being 4 to 5 per cent on vessels of belligerent nations as compared with an extreme high point of 10 per cent reached immediately following first reports of the German raider's activities. The rate on neutral-owned ships was one per cent today. Transatlantic rates were higher, being about 6 or 6 1/2 per cent on belligerent-owned ships, and neutrals as well. Mediterranean rates remained firm at 10 per cent.

MEASLES HAD LEAD OVER ALL DISEASES DURING LAST YEAR

Whooping Cough Next, But Far Behind.

TOTAL REPORTED, 1,862

School Nurses Helped Health Department by Discovering Infectious Diseases.

Dr. H. W. Hill, medical officer of health, has prepared his annual report on infectious diseases for the year ending November 26, 1916, and it shows that there were 175 cases of chickenpox among civilians, 127 of diphtheria, 752 of measles, 159 of mumps, 152 of scarlet fever, none of smallpox, 152 of tuberculosis, 17 of typhoid fever, 349 of whooping cough, 4 of infantile paralysis, 4 of cerebro spinal meningitis, and 21 of German measles; a total of 1,862 cases.

During the year 1914 there were 219 cases reported, 111 of these being diphtheria, 60 smallpox, 20 scarlet fever, 18 tuberculosis, 2 measles, 2 typhoid fever, and 6 infantile paralysis. Dr. Hill declares that there must have been fully 2,400 cases of infectious diseases during that year, as only a small percentage of cases were reported. He instances measles, where only the deaths from the disease were recorded. Further, he points out, that in 1914 there were 161 deaths from tuberculosis, and only 12 cases registered with the health department.

School Nurses Helped.

Dr. Hill pays tribute to the work of the school nurses, who discovered 20 out of the cases of whooping cough, and reported them to the board. The children would return to school after an absence of some weeks, and it would then be discovered when they returned, that the child was suffering from the disease. The children were then isolated, and the nurse, in looking after these cases, and his co-operation with the board of health. As for the quarantine regulations, every case was decided on its merits. In no case was the quarantined person, unless he was suffering from the disease. No inmate cases were quarantined. The isolation period for measles was reduced from 21 to 14 days.

During the year there were 28 deaths from infectious diseases, 15 from diphtheria, 5 from measles, 10 from mumps, 2 from scarlet fever, 1 typhoid fever, 1 from whooping cough, 2 from infantile paralysis, and 5 from spinal meningitis. There were 175 cases of infectious diseases among soldiers, 3 chickenpox, 97 measles, 69 mumps, 10 scarlet fever, 1 mumps, 2 typhoid fever, 84 German measles, and 2 spinal meningitis. There was one death due to meningitis. May was the worst month for infectious diseases, 35 cases being reported. June had 28 cases, and July had 21 cases of typhoid fever occurred at the Hospital for the Insane.

There were 32 deaths from tuberculosis, also being recorded in July, the largest in any month.

TANCREADE'S REPRIEVE FIRST IN MIDDLESEX AFTER SENTENCE OF DEATH HAD BEEN PRONOUNCED

In All Other Cases Sentence Has Been Carried Out—Some, Believed Insane, Have Been Sent to Asylum Without Having Been Condemned to Death.

Mike Tancreade's case is the first in the history of Middlesex County in which the sentence of death has been commuted, and Tancreade has the distinction of being the first person in this county who ever escaped the death penalty after it was imposed. Several persons have been tried for murder in Middlesex County, a number have been acquitted, others have been convicted, six of these having and a number of others sent to the Hamilton Asylum for the Criminal Insane.

The first case of Tancreade's was on December 15, 1916, which was witnessed by thousands, executions in the early days of the century being public. Cyrus Pritchard paid the penalty on December 28, 1871, followed six months later by Phoebe Campbell, who went to her death on the gallows on June 20, 1872.

The execution was the last at which the public was admitted and the last where the body was jerked into the air by the release of a 400-pound weight. Benjamin Simmons was executed on November 28, 1886 by the drop method, and in use, where the trap door is released by a lever and the body shot below.

POSITIONS OBTAINED BY SOME WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Several Placed at Suitable Work, Thanks To Co-Operation of Employers.

That the efforts of the Soldiers' Aid Commission and others to find employment for the soldiers who have returned to London from the front, have been successful in some cases, where the employers have co-operated with the commission, is shown by the following list of returned men who have been placed in positions since the first of January.

In nearly every case the health and ability of the soldier must be considered before a man can be placed. Among those placed, is Pte. J. Brown, the 1st Battalion man, who through wounds lost the power of speech. As was told in The Advertiser of two weeks ago, he is again learning to talk, and his first words are in his native Yorkshire dialect. He has been placed in a position as a meter reader with the utilities commission.

Pte. A. S. Goss, 1st Battalion, is working at machine shop work with George White & Sons.

Pte. W. T. Whittet, 10th Battalion, is working at S. F. Lawrence and Company's plant.

Pte. C. Hall, 9th Battalion, is working as assistant shipper at the London Bolt and Hinge Company.

Pte. J. H. Smith, 18th Battalion, who lost his memory, is endeavoring to learn his three R's again, and is employed in the clockroom, provided by the utilities commission at the Victoria Park ring, where he is obtaining practice in reading numbers.

Pte. H. Olney, A.S.C., is employed as a shell inspector by the Imperial Munitions Board.

Pte. J. Taylor, 1st Battalion, Pte. W. R. J. Taylor, 3rd Battalion, and Pte. C. H. H. Taylor, A.S.C., are also employed as shell inspectors.

Pte. J. Goodman, 33rd Battalion, H. Taylor, 10th Battalion, and W. E. Kelly, 10th Battalion, have been placed as cleaners under the utilities commission in Victoria Park.

Several others have been placed whose names are not available as yet. A card system used by the commission, when a man applies for work at the commission office, he is given a card introducing him to the employer to whom he is sent. The card gives the man's battalion and the length of time he served, in it. Another space on the card describes the position for which the man is applying.

If the employer engages the man, he is asked to sign and mail the card to the office of the commission, which is a notification that the man has been placed, and the position is no longer open.

If the employer does not engage the man, he hands the card back to the applicant, unassigned. Until the signed card is received at the office of the commission, the position is considered open.

McINTYRE'S CASE TO BE DISPOSED OF NEXT WEEK

Has Been Before Court of Appeal Over Two Months.

Mr. Justice Lennox was to have presided today at an adjourned sitting of the supreme court for the purpose of passing sentence on John McIntyre, who was found guilty of criminal neglect at the fall session, but owing to the fact that the court of appeals has not yet dealt with the McIntyre case the trial was not called.

The case has been before the appellate division since November 24, and the latest word is to the effect that the appeal will be disposed of next week.

McIntyre, who was a rural mail carrier, living east of Glencoe, was tried on a charge of manslaughter and criminal neglect of his daughter, but was found guilty on the latter count only.

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY

John MacPherson, "Lake Sailor," Remanded for Further Inquiry.

John MacPherson, giving his addresses as 14th Street, Grand Rapids, and Port Huron, appeared in police court today charged with vagrancy. He pleaded not guilty and stated that he paid his way at all times. He gave his occupation as lake sailor.

Sgt. Birrell disagreed, and on his request, MacPherson was remanded until Monday for further investigation as to his method of making a livelihood.

"How do you make a living?" asked Bowser Macdonald.

"I work on the lakes in the summer," replied MacPherson.

Sgt. Birrell declared MacPherson's life was not so respectable as he stated.

KNOX CHURCH HAS HAD MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Receipts Were Better Than in Other Years—Officers Elected.

Progress in nearly every branch of the church's work was shown by the reports made at the annual banquet of the members of Knox Presbyterian Church last night. Both missionary and church receipts were better than in any of the other years.

War work by the various women's societies of the church was also mentioned in the report, the majority of the women of the church being members of the larger Red Cross societies.

The officers elected were: Treasurer, John McKie; recording secretary, Dr. J. Stevenson; managers, Dr. J. R. Ferguson, A. Fitzsimons, S. P. McKie, John Stevenson, elected for three years; C. C. Ferguson, C. H. Mitchell, C. A. Smith, (elected for two years); G. W. McKie (elected for one year).

SOCIAL SERVICE HOME FOR RECLAIMING WOMEN AND GIRLS IS PROPOSED

Mass Meeting To Be Held Next Month To Forward Plans.

Those who have looked into the matter of social service conditions among the women of the community, and the province report that there is a great need of a social service home in London for the reclaiming and upbuilding of the women and girls referred to. Recently a meeting was held in Dundas Centre Church to get the work under way.

A mass meeting was arranged for the evening of February 8 to be held in Dundas Centre Methodist Church. Everybody is invited to attend. Rev. Dr. G. Albert Moore of Toronto, general secretary of the social service department of the Methodist Church has been secured to address the meeting. A suitable home will be secured and properly manned to undertake the work. It is hoped that general interest will be manifested by a large attendance on February 8.

A meeting of the women of different societies will be held in the afternoon of the same day and place at 2 o'clock.

TEACH ME TO PRAY

[By Rev. W. Belland, 149th Battalion.] Teach me, dear Lord, how to pray For the Canadian boys, so far away. And for their loved ones at home. Who are waiting for their safe return. Teach me to pray.

Teach me to pray that every day Thou wilt watch them safely through the fray And watch o'er them as they sleep, So far across the ocean deep. Teach me to pray.

Teach me to pray that thou shalt keep An angel guarding whilst they sleep, And bless the wounded as they lie In the trenches as days go by. Teach me to pray.

Teach me to pray that thou shalt bless Our brave young heroes now at rest; And when thou callest us home to thee We shall number peacefully. Teach me to pray.

NERVOUS DISORDERS

If your hand trembles or is unsteady, it is a sure and early sign that your nervous system is at fault. The trouble nervous diseases thought I would not recover. I tried many medicines, but they did not help me. Then I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to drop all other medicine and try them. It was fortunate I did, for in the course of a few weeks I found them helping me. I continued taking the pills for some weeks longer, and they completely cured me. I earnestly advise every weak woman and girl to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, and I am sure they will not be disappointed.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

CALL COMES AGAIN FOR DONATIONS TO RED CROSS SOCIETY

Circulars Being Sent Out to All Subscribers.

GIRLS GIVE UP HOLIDAY

Spending Afternoon Addressing Envelopes and Numbering Cards—Need Urgent.

Last February the men's auxiliary of the London branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society undertook a whirlwind campaign to obtain subscriptions to provide for the work for one year.

Next week circulars urging the continuing claims of the work will be sent out to all subscribers, accompanied by cards for renewal.

The title of the story of the Haron and Erie Mortgage Corporation, the Canada Trust, Silverwood, Limited, and the London Shoe Company have volunteered to give war service this afternoon by devoting their half holiday to addressing envelopes and numbering the cards to be sent out, several of the men of the Canada Trust and Haron and Erie staffs also assisting.

GIRI STUDENTS HELP.

Principal G. S. Rogers of the collegiate institute is enlisting a company of twenty girl students to fold the circulars and prepare the envelopes for mailing on Tuesday next.

The fact that 5,500 subscribers were enrolled for the past year, and will be circulated gives an idea of the proportions of the task. Each subscriber was numbered and the same number will be placed on the renewal card.

So generous was the response of the citizens a year ago to the appeal that the needs of the Red Cross Society, were secured, amounting to something over $80,000. Of the total sum subscribed $70,578.76 has been paid in.

Many Paid Up.

While many have paid in their full subscriptions for the year several have still two instalments to meet. It is expected a large percentage of the pledges will be fulfilled before the end of February.

Sir George Gibbons is the first subscriber to renew his subscription for the coming year at the rate of $40 a month.

The following is a copy of the circular letter to be sent out to subscribers next week:

Dear Sir or Madam,—As this is the last month for paying of subscriptions to the Canadian Red Cross Society, we are forwarding to you, as a subscriber, a statement of the receipts and disbursements to date.

It is hardly necessary to point out that the needs of the Red Cross are more insistent than ever, and that by reason of the great increase in the price of practically all material purchased, Red Cross workers will, so long as the war lasts and for some time thereafter, require quite as hearty financial support as they have had during the past twelve months.

The men's auxiliary, therefore, venture to suggest that those who were generous enough to subscribe to the fund, should continue their monthly subscriptions for another year, or until peace is declared. Inclosed you will find an addressed postcard (No. 1) renewing your subscription; we shall be pleased to have you sign and return this at the earliest date. If you prefer, instead of making monthly payments, to send a check for the year's subscription, in advance, or to remit by half-yearly or quarterly payments, kindly advise the office of the treasurer. It would undoubtedly lighten the burden of clerical help if the majority of subscribers would decide to make their payments not oftener than quarterly.

Increase Welcomed.

Should you feel disposed to increase the amount of your contribution your action in this regard will be highly appreciated. In this event kindly fill in the inclosed subscription form (No. 2) and send it to the treasurer, 412 Richmond street.

It is possible, by reason of removal from London and other causes, a few of the former subscribers will be unable to renew their subscriptions. Notable to the fund will be warmly welcomed. Please telephone No. 5500 the name of anyone who might become a contributor; additional subscription blanks will be gladly furnished.

We should like to make it clear that all funds raised in this manner have been in the past, and in the future will be expended solely "in the purchase of supplies and comforts for soldiers in hospital, prison, field and camp." The other worthy objects of the London branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society, such as furnishing the new wing for soldiers at the Byre Sanatorium, are supported by independent contributions, and do not directly or indirectly draw upon the funds collected by the men's auxiliary. Yours faithfully,

PHILIP POCOCK, Chairman.

THOMAS BAKER, SRR GIBB, C. G. GIBBONS, T. W. McFARLAND, A. E. SILVERWOOD, Committee.

HUME CRONIN, Treasurer.

Customers From Out-of-Town Are Finding Out What Smallman & Ingram January Sales Mean To Them

It has been proven again and again by investigation and comparison in almost every line that our prices are invariably lowest for goods of equal quality. This, of course, may not apply to every article, but so frequently and continuously the advantage is shown in favor of customers of this store that there is undoubtedly a year-around advantage assured to those who do their principal shopping here. Now, these January sales, which will run until stock inventory, January 31, mean that much standard, reliable, desirable merchandise will be sold at a considerable reduction from our regular prices, which are always fair and moderate. In the January sales are season-end stocks, as well as new, fresh goods gathered in advance for the chief events of this month preparatory to stocktaking.

IN THE POLICE COURT

The names of three citizens, each charged with intoxication, appeared on the police court blotter today. Two put in an appearance before court, pleaded guilty and each was fined $10 and costs.

Each said he had "touched up" a portion of Montreal whiskey that had been in the cellar for some weeks. Getting to the right degree of cheerfulness, each started out upon the king's highway to announce to the world at large how glad he was to be alive and incidentally at the same time to see how much noise he could make.

A patrolman in each case put an end to the joy and brought them to the police station.

SCROFULA AND ALL HUMORS GIVE WAY

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors, which produce eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptions, can be most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, which are gathered especially for it.

ASSOCIATED KIN TO SUPPORT CLAIM

Enters Legal Lists in Toronto to Aid Soldier's Widow.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The Associated Kin of the Canadian expeditionary forces has decided to launch an appeal against the decision of Mr. Justice Kelly in dismissing the action brought by Mrs. Lancaster to collect $3,000 insurance held by her late husband, who was killed in action. In the application for insurance he named Toronto as his place of residence, whereas he actually lived a few yards outside the boundary of the city. The association feels that it is a purely technical point, and the widow should not be deprived of the money.

Article 3 of the aims and objects of the association provides that they shall assist all rightful claimants in bringing about the prompt payment of legitimate pension claims, insurance and patriotic allowances.

C., city solicitor, that it was considered a menace to the city bridges, and as such, must be removed at once.

"Jangling" that goes on. For my part, I can find good and bad in all countries and among all classes. I have a darling soldier boy in England now, invalided back from the front (and another in training here), and the people in England are very, very kind to him. I think the ones that do the quarrelling over the Mail-Box would do less if they were face to face with the other party. Why not look on the "best" side, and let the worst alone? I think all who have loved ones in this terrible war can sympathize with me, and know how I feel when I say my thoughts are ever there. I am Canadian, but my father was English.

Now, for a question of two:
1. Can anyone tell me what will take black tea stains from table linen?
2. A cure for dandruff?

Hoping I have not taken too much space for the first time, I will sign myself,

Ans.—Well, you see, we are not going to have any more "jangling" on our page, but try to live up to our motto, "For Mutual Help." That's the new year spirit, and we'll try to develop it. Your heart must, indeed, be lonely if we only dared hope for a speedy ending of the conflict.

For the tea stain, have you tried soaking the cloth in a very weak solution of chlorine of lime, washing it out well afterwards? This, with careful bleaching, usually succeeds in removing the stain.
Not Here Yet.
Dear Miss Grey—I understand that London is going to start up a munition factory for girls and women. Any information you can give me about it will be gratefully received. When is it to be started and where could I apply for a position in it?
I am very glad that I enjoy your page very much.

Ans.—While this factory was talked of it has not yet "arrived" in London. If one is opened for the employment of women and girls, no doubt you will read of it in The Advertiser's news columns.

Patriotic Concert.

The usual patriotic concert under the auspices of the Overseas Chapter, will be given in the Majestic Theatre on Sunday evening, the 21st. The band of the 14th Battalion will provide the music, and the following gentlemen will speak: N. F. Davidson, K.C., Toronto; Capt. Kenny, headquarters staff, Ottawa, and Sergt. Maurice Lee, Sergeant Company, 14th Battalion. The soloists will be Mr. Beccroft and Mr. Chris. Pink. These Sunday evening concerts, besides providing information for the public as to the conditions in Europe and the movements of the allied armies, have been of particular service in the way of bringing in recruits. The attendance is very large, composed of young men of military age, and the appeals to their patriotism are generally effective. At a great many of these concerts recruits have come forward for both army and navy. It is doubtful if any patriotic meetings have been held in the city which have resulted in the enlistment of more men than these Sunday evening concerts.

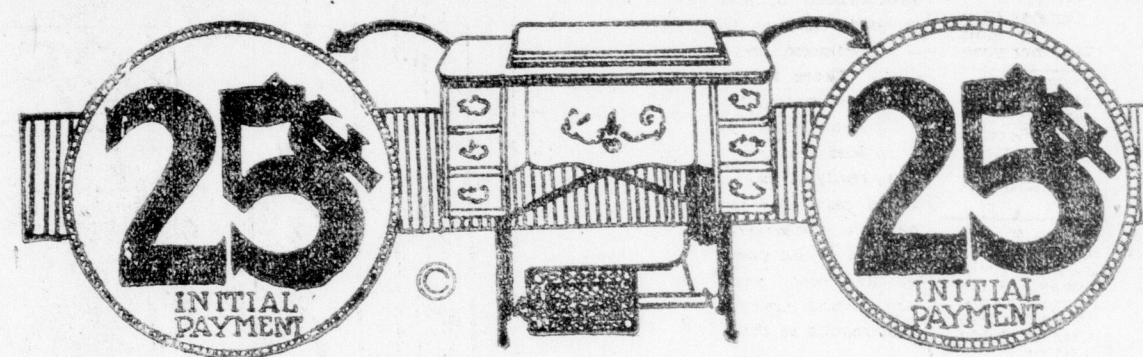

An Act of Honor.
On the evening of January 21 the Campbell Becher and Hamilton Gault Chapters will be at home to their friends and friends' friends, for the benefit of the men in khaki. The treasurer of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., gratefully acknowledges a check for $10 from the Teumessah Chapter, Watford, for the comfort shower held by the order. L. K. C.

Teach Them to Save

Now that the Dominion Government is about to inaugurate a national savings campaign, which is to be extensively advertised throughout the country, the time would seem ripe to have action taken to teach the children in the schools the advantages of saving their pennies, incidentally giving them lessons in thrift and citizenship. Principles of thrift, domestic economy, industry, cleanliness and morality should be inculcated as a fundamental necessity for the child's education, and now that people of all ages are to be urged to save to help conserve the nation's wealth, the occasion would seem opportune to conduct a vigorous campaign along these lines in the schools. Indifference to the things that are to be saved, and the habit of wastefulness, tend to national weakness. On the other hand, saving is a healthy habit, making for robust character and stable citizenship. Thrift involves not only the conservation of wealth, but of health also, and if these facts can be impressed upon the youthful mind a benefit will have been conferred, the value of which will mean much to the community and to the nation. Parents are often taught out of the effects of the children's education, and now that we teach the school boys and girls to save may serve a two-fold purpose—From the Brantford Examiner.

ODDS AND ENDS

PICKED UP BY PENLOPE PENN.

I got the loveliest thought the other day in a letter from a girl residing far away on the Pacific coast. Through circumstance, our intimacy was scarcely ever close enough to be called "friendship" although each of us knew and loved a mutual friend very dearly. Here is what she wrote: "I never knew 'each other' very intimately did we? But all that I knew I like so much, and had circumstances brought us together I felt sure always that I'd have loved you much."

Thousands of scores whom we will never know or even see, and who will always remain "each other" for us. But how nice to feel they're in existence anyway!
A Man Person who admires "Walt Whitman" was trying the other day to compose some stanzas a la Whitman, on "The Bird in Winter." He was having a terrible time of it, judging by his wrinkled brow, and when he finally smiled, descended on us in wrath and "You just try-it-yourself-and-see-how-you-like-it" was what he said. We did, and don't you agree with us that our effort is really neat?

The typewriter stands near the window. Far away at the other side of the room is a small fire.
Warm when you are near it, but otherwise scarcely to be felt.

But ever the typist types. She does not love her work, as some might think; it wearies her and she is cold; but dust comes quickly, and bread—it must be bought. Despite the cold—cruel cold!

Now we don't really know what the Man Person actually thought of our effort, but we judged that he was jealous because he snuffed and pointed out meanly enough that two lines were all he could find about the birds. And when we said that was because all the birds were doing their duty cheerfully, lending a hand wherever needed, daily trying to be sweet and good and honorable—there's scores and scores of them.

What a lot of romance is connected with the things about us that we are accustomed to regard as everyday necessities! In the kitchen, particularly, it seems we can always find something new and interesting, if we just try, and cooking need not be considered a commonplace task if we bear in mind a little of the story of the articles used. For instance, there's rice that comes to us from the land of the "heavenly Chinese." Have you ever thought of the process of preparation necessary before it comes to us, white and pearly, neatly tied in a paper bag by the grocer's boy? Of that same paper bag too, by the way, pieces of interesting reading could be written. Spice, shredded coconut, coffee, tea, and ever so many things more, would make our kitchen duties a pleasant geography lesson. If we could know something of the country, peoples and customs from whence each one came.

Some particularly interesting facts about tea comes to my notice. It seems that before 1817 there was no knowledge of tea in Europe, and until after 1810 it was scarcely in actual use, being introduced in England some years later still.
That famous diarist, Samuel Pepys, refers to the beverage under an entry of September 23, 1660: "I did send for a cup of tea (a China drink), of which I had never drank before." In that same year tea sold in London, England, as high as 50s a pound, the cheapest selling for 15s. By 1725 the price had fallen from 12s. to 5s., a high rate of export duty levied in China being responsible for the still prohibitive price.
In China there are three seasons fairly separate. The first picking, considered the best tea, takes place in April before the spring rains. These young leaves are covered on the underside with a soft white down, and the name "pea tea," or "white down," is that borne by the finest black tea. The best green tea, "Hyson," is also picked in the spring. The name is thought to be derived from "yu-sin."

It is said that one of England's kings—one of the Georges, I believe—on taking tea for the first time poured out the brown water and ate the leaves, remarking that he did not care much for tea. You may or may not believe this, but it is claimed for a fact that in Tibet the people cook tea for several hours, and eat it with butter and salt and roasted barley meal.

MUTT AND JEFF—If You've Ever Tried One You Know How It Is

BILLY WEEKS INFORMS BEGINNERS HOW TO BOX

BY BILLY WEEKS,

Middleweight Champion of Canada.

Billy Weeks.

Slightly bend both knees. Now you are in position to step in or out or to the side, as the occasion may demand. To obtain the correct position of the left arm, advance the left shoulder (do not stand broad front to your opponent), drop the arm to the side, and raise the forearm until the hand is on a level with the elbow. Now raise the upper arm until the hand is chest high. Hold the right arm out from the body and across the breast in position to block or guard. Do not cramp yourself. Hold the arms loose, moving them easily and without effort in sparring. When hitting close the first light.

Lower the chin. Turn the face a little to the right. The jaw is the point of attack, and the most vital spot on which to land a knock-out, and therefore it is wise to keep it well covered. By lowering the chin it affords a strong protection.

Always Shake Hands.

Before and at the conclusion of a bout the combatants should salute one another with a hearty handshake. It is a good old-fashioned custom, befitting the friendly feeling that should permeate the sport. A warm shake of the hand dispels what might otherwise grow to an ill-feeling. As the hand is extended, move the right foot forward. At the conclusion of the ceremony throw it quickly behind the left foot and assume at once the correct attitude for boxing as explained.

Why It Pays to Buy Custom

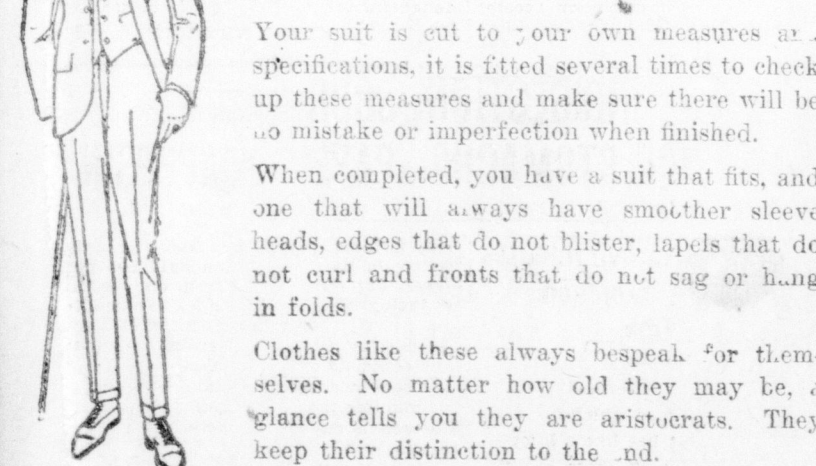

Tailored Clothes

To begin with, canvas, haircloth, linings and goods are all thoroughly shrunk before being cut.

Your suit is cut to your own measures and specifications, it is fitted several times to check up these measures and make sure there will be no mistake or imperfection when finished.

When completed, you have a suit that fits, and one that will always have smoother sleeve heads, edges that do not blister, lapels that do not curl and fronts that do not sag or hang in folds.

Clothes like these always bespeak for themselves. No matter how old they may be, a glance tells you they are aristocrats. They keep their distinction to the end.

EDDIE BRENNAN OUTPOINTS SCOTTY JENKINS OF 241ST

Pride of the Scottish Borderers Put Up Clever Defence, But Lacked Training—P. te. Diamond of 149th Makes George Trudell Quit.

Eddie Brennan, London's favorite boxer, outpointed "Scotty" Jenkins, the pride of the 241st Battalion, in a nine-round boxing exhibition at Hyman Hall last night. "Scotty" put up a stiff battle, but time to Brennan's advantage in weight, and the lack of training on the part of the soldier-boxer, Brennan had the advantage.

Never has cleaner, speedier boxer, and had been in training would undoubtedly have given a better showing.

The hall was jammed to capacity, about one-half of the audience being soldiers.

The evening's entertainment was the best yet presented under the auspices of the Sportsman's Patriotic Association, and for future events capacity houses are expected.

The opening round of the Brennan-Jenkins match, which lasted two minutes, opened with Brennan assuming the aggressive, Jenkins shot across a few blows to Brennan's jaw and body, the round closing with both in a clinch.

Jenkins started the second round with several swift drives to Brennan's face, but Eddie came back and drove him back to the ropes. The round closed with both in a clinch.

In the third round Brennan started with a series of blows to Jenkins' face. "Scotty" quickly retaliated and sent Eddie to the ropes several times. In the opening of the fourth round, both came together in a clinch, after striking a few blows apiece, Jenkins drove Brennan to the ropes with body blows, and landed on the head several seconds later by coming back to Jenkins, landing on the face and body and dropping him to the floor.

The fifth round opened with Brennan rushing Jenkins, with the latter following by opening and landing on Brennan's jaw as they were in the corner.

The sixth round the honors were about evenly divided.

In the seventh round Brennan struck Jenkins a terrific blow that put the soldier boy to the ropes. When Jenkins recovered he landed on Eddie with several lightning swings that had the latter in the corner.

The eighth and ninth rounds were clearly Brennan's, the soldier boy's wind having about vanished.

George Trudell Quit.

The other boxing bout was between Eddie Diamond of the 149th Battalion, and George Trudell.

Trudell quit stone cold in the middle of the second round, the ripping, slashing blows of the soldier boy proving too much for him.

Trudell opened the bout by assuming the aggressive, and the first round was clearly his, having put it over the 149th boy in this round.

In the second round though the "149th whirlwind" simply drove in his blows with the speed of a trip hammer. So fast did he box that in a minute and a half he had Trudell "gazing at the beautiful stars" and George threw up the sponge and quit.

The soldiers cheered their hero to the echo. In the report of the preliminary match between "Fighting Joe" Dutton and George Trudell at the time of the Zoccano "Battling" Brown match, it was incorrectly stated that Joe had quit. Such was not the case as "Fighting Joe" has never yet cried quits, and declares he never will, and from past experience it is safe to say Joe will keep his word.

E. McIntosh, proprietor of the Clyde Hotel, refereed both bouts to the satisfaction of all.

The boxing bouts were preceded by three wrestling matches all ending in draws.

The first was between "Banty" Haslam and W. Everett, the second between Al. Egan and Nick White, and the third between "Speedy" Mason and Charlie Esau.

Water Dutton refereed the wrestling bouts.

WESTERN O. A. B. A. TEAM WINS FROM ST. THOMAS "Y"

The Western University basketball five narrowly escaped a trimming at the hands of the St. Thomas "Y" in the Railroad City last night. The local collection managed to pull out a one-point lead, winning the affair 29-28.

As the Western gym has been under repair for some time the college boys were unable to get in much practice, and consequently were not in very good condition for their opening game in the O. A. B. A. five will play the Western boys at the college gym Tuesday night.

COMMENT

The first 300 game was played in the Manufacturers' League last night. Hyman's had the deed. The league is getting faster all the time.

Joe Catalano says he is going to retire at the end of the season. All bowlers will do this, Joseph, until next year. You're not alone.

What is wrong with Alf. Sheers? He hasn't bowled a 500 game for an age. A black cat must follow him home.

The St. Peter's Club will meet the Blue Labels on Tuesday night. There will be a battle for the collar position.

KITCHENER WINS EXCITING CONTEST FROM PRESTON

[Special to The Advertiser.]
PRESTON, Jan. 19.—In an O. H. A. fixture played here tonight between the old-time rivals, Kitchener and Preston, the contest resulted in a draw. Kitchener by the score of 2 to 1. The game was a real battle from start to finish, with both teams playing hockey all the way. Both teams have played excellent hockey so far this season, and neither team has lost a game in their district, and the outcome of tonight's game practically decided the district winners. Every member of both teams did his best to win and every man filled his position well.

Every man on the local line-up worked hard, and never before did they display such an excellent brand of hockey. They were in the game from start to finish and never let up. One of the largest crowds of the season was in attendance at the game, many being present from Kitchener. A number of special cars conveyed the hockey fans to and from Kitchener.

Referee Hewitson of Toronto handed the game to the entire satisfaction of both teams.

Score by periods:
First period—Preston 1, Kitchener 1.

18TH BATTALION SEVEN WALLOPS 153RD OUTFIT

Maroons Grab Easy Contest 12 to 1—Hiller and Edwards Do Most of Scoring—Burrows and Hamilton Best for Visitors.

The 15th hockey gang showed up the 153rd Battalion intermediates at the London Curling Club rink last night, wallopping the St. Thomas seven 12-1. The game was easily the star of the contest. His stick-handling and skating were immense, while his shooting was deadly. He was in on practically all the goals, and his combination work and stick to his position at centre like a leech.

Possibly the biggest surprise of the evening from a local standpoint was the 15th hockey gang showed up the 153rd Battalion intermediates at the London Curling Club rink last night, wallopping the St. Thomas seven 12-1.

He has improved about one million per cent or more since he played the same position against the 153rd Battalion a week ago. Although not a fast skater, he did some great work with his stick, checked back well and altogether outplayed the 153rd Battalion's star, who stacked up against him.

Kelly was shifted back to the defence with Hagerman and showed that when it comes to playing in front of the goal, he is in a class with Granary and Bill Hamilton, who used to sort around these parts several seasons ago. Kelly scored two goals in quick succession in the last period on one clever rush.

George Was Good.

George Arthur's plugged along and worried the visitors with some superb back-checking. He and Hiller were strong on the combination stuff and had not one mistake during the game. The 153rd, been alive and kicking all the time, the score would have been about even had it not been for the fact that the 15th goalkeepers as of yore. The shots that got by him were almost impossible to stop. Burrows on left wing was the best man on the visitors' forward line. He scored St. Thomas' only goal on a 10-second off line wire netting at the end of the goal shortly before time was called. He is a good boy. Gray did not step up as well as he should in the game against the 149th Battalion here last Saturday.

118TH SEVEN PLAY IN SARNIA TONIGHT

SARNIA, Jan. 19.—The 118th Battalion hockey seven will make their debut on the local ice Saturday evening, when they clash with the local intermediates. Although they were defeated in their home rink by the local squad the soldiers have added to their strength, and are coming to this city in hopes of a victory.

The defeat of the locals at the hands of the 153rd Battalion is not taken seriously, when they clash with the 118th in the local, which demonstrated the team's desire to win. The 118th will be in the city in time for the contest Saturday, the local managers have arranged to secure the services of Hamilton of Detroit, or MacLennan, the great rover, who will be on hand to mind the nets for the locals.

The team which lined up as follows:
Referee—W. Twails.

Four Goals in Second Period.

The locals ran in four more goals on the bus Mr. Hamilton in the second period. Hiller getting two. George Arthur and Edwards poking in the others. The boys were going great guns toward the end of this period and played phenomenal hockey. The skating of Hiller was a treat to watch, while the combination of Hiller and Edwards was a real snappy and brought cheers from the fans.

Just to show that they had it on the St. Thomas gang was a real snappy and brought cheers from the fans. Just to show that they had it on the St. Thomas gang was a real snappy and brought cheers from the fans.

One of the local boys called out in an alleged jovial voice, "Has anybody here seen Kelly?" and that gentleman responded by hitting in two goals in three minutes. The boys gave the good-sized bunch of visiting rovers a chance to yell by beating one on a hot one. One Edwards and Hagerman combined on a rush with a minute and a half to go and Gray chased the rubber in for the last score.

CHINESE NEW YEAR
OF ANCIENT TIMES
BEGINS ON MONDAY

But Most of Local Residents
Here Now Celebrate
January 1.

The old Chinese New Year, the year 2465 after Confucius begins on Monday, January 20.

Formerly this was celebrated by the Chinese citizens of London as a whole with visiting, feasting and merry-making, but great changes have taken place in less than a decade. Only a very small proportion of the Chinese community will recognize the 23rd as New Year's day, and these among the older people. The representatives of the younger generation are Republicans, one and all. They celebrated with Canadian fellow-citizens, January 1, the beginning of the sixth year of the Chinese Republic.

Charlie For, one of the most prominent of the local Chinese, stated today to The Advertiser:

"The men of 40 or more cling to the old ways here as they do in China. There are a few of these scattered through London who will celebrate with parties and in other ways on Monday."

"The younger men, and it is safe to say all between the ages of 20 and 30, are Republicans, not only here but pretty well through Canada and the United States. In the bigger cities, like Vancouver, New York and so on, in this continent, there will be enough who stick to the old ways to make it a great day. In China, there is a whole week's holiday for the New Year. We used to go to the temples to pray and offer sacrifices to idols, sacrifices of meat and fowl something like the Jewish customs in the Old Testament. It was a great time for feasting and visiting, the men calling on their friends and the women on the women. Wine, sweets and fruit and sometimes tea were offered for refreshment. Then there were the noisy games with fireworks and firecrackers."

"Even before I came to London, a Chinese Reform Association had been formed among the young men here who saw the need of more progressive ways in China, and were working for that object. But until the declaration of the republic and the changing of the time in China, we were working for the New Year by doing as you do now, holding parties and inviting our friends to dinners."

DISMISSSES ITS CHARGE
AGAINST TORONTO MAN

St. Louis Store Backs Down on Forgery Action.

St. Louis, Jan. 20.—The St. Louis department store that brought an attachment suit against A. H. McAlley of Toronto, Ont., today has made a complete check, alleged to have been passed at the store on December 30, has dismissed the suit. The dismissal was thought after depositions had been taken.

Counsel for McAlley said he thought the case had been dismissed because the depositions showed that McAlley did not pass the check.

TWO RAIDERS
OFFICIAL WARNING BY BRITISH AUTHORITIES.

Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 20.—The British authorities have issued a warning to shipping companies that the captured British steamer St. Theodore has been converted into a German commerce raider and is cruising along the Atlantic coast.

Re-assuring reports have been received at Pernambuco in regard to the 3,000-ton British liner Ortega which was taken by the German raider and was feared to have fallen a victim to the German raider. According to the reports in shipping circles the Ortega has reached safety, but her location is not known.

It is reported from Pernambuco that a British squadron composed of auxiliary cruisers has joined the light cruisers in a search for the German commerce raiders. The total command of the squadron is 26,000.

WASHINGTON WORRYING
OVER ST. THEODORE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Dispatches to the state department late today from Rio de Janeiro said it today stated that the steamer St. Theodore, captured by the German raider, was in the South Atlantic, armed with guns and manned by a German crew, was cruising as an auxiliary to the raid.

Earlier in the day a cablegram from Consul Stewart at Pernambuco, announced the landing there of the St. Theodore's crew, including nine Americans, by the Japanese steamer Huden Maru, another of the raiders' prizes. The consul said that the ships captured were believed to have had no Americans aboard.

Others May Be Armed.

The report of the arming of the St. Theodore, a British vessel, was given out with the explanation that the raiders' armament had no means of determining its accuracy. Officials were inclined to credit the story, though, and to look for word that the captured ships would be similarly used.

Despite the intense interest with which the raiders' work is being followed here, official dispatches do not yet indicate that American risks have been violated in any way, or that the cruiser has exceeded her privileges under international law.

The report of the arming of the St. Theodore, a British vessel, was given out with the explanation that the raiders' armament had no means of determining its accuracy. Officials were inclined to credit the story, though, and to look for word that the captured ships would be similarly used.

BALTIMORE HARBOR
CLOGGED WITH SHIPS;
NONE GOING OUT.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 19.—Since news of the operations of the new German raider was received two days ago, not a ship of the belligerent nations has passed out of the Virginia Capes from this port for Europe.

In the last 24 hours nearly 25 ships have entered here during the last two days, bringing the total in port up to 71. Many of the ships have been forced to anchor in mid-stream because of the lack of wharves to accommodate all. The majority of the vessels fly the British flag.

BETTER STOCK.

A Philadelphia paper mentions that 300,000 men from Canada for the war is equivalent to 5,000,000 from the United States.

POACHED EGGS AND PEARLS.

"Poached Eggs and Pearls" is the title of a current play, quite topical, and not nearly so queer as it seems. Very soon poached eggs and pearls will be the same price.

COTTON BULLS LOSE SWAY
ON ACTION OF BRITAIN

[Reported by Thomson & McKinnon.]
New York, Jan. 19.—Early news was favorable to a further advance in cotton. Cables were good and the gains were estimated by the American Ginners' Association to be sufficient to make the market a becoming state. The rise was caused by short covering and little new buying developing. In addition to this the new start for the cotton in the Government, prohibiting the public light exchange, and confining operations strictly to the trade and for its requirements, can have but one effect of reducing an already scanty buying power. Under the circumstances it becomes exceedingly discouraging to the market. The present looks like it might continue to work over.
