BURIED BY FALLING WALLS

A NEW YORK EXPLOSION DEALS DEATH IN ALL DIRECTIONS

Many Bodies Recovered From the Ruins and More Thought to be Still Buried —Wonderful Escape of a Little Girl Who Was Overwhelmed by the Mass of Bricks.

New York, Aug. 23.—A most disastrous accident occurred yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock in Park-place, between Greenwich-street and College-place.
At that time the great wall of the people and heavily laden wagons trucks. First a small, white vaporish cloud burst from the ground floor of No. 70, 72 and 74 Park-place, and was heard a dull deep sullen roar, as if some monster was trying to break his bonds. The roar was followed by an eruption and a mass of brick, stone and timber was hurled thirty feet heavenward.

The cries of terror and the almost human screams of horror were only a small part of the terrible scene. A second instantly followed. Not more than a second possibly had elapsed before the front wall of No. 70, 72 and 74 fell crashing into the street. To those who saw the sight it was a horrible sight. The great walls rolled and swelled out with an undulating motion until, slowly at first, but then more rapidly, they gave away and in a moment there was not a stick or a nail standing above the first floor of the dividing walls. The walls of the standing buildings were jagged as the bricks were torn out in places. There did not remain the slightest semblance of what had been three seconds before an apparently strong and well-constructed masonry. Brick, stone and timber fell upon the sidewalk and filled half the width of the street.

In the meantime fire had broken out and was licking the lower part of No. 70. A dozen men had clambered upon the pile of ruins, hoping to rescue some of the unfortunate who were known to be in the ruins. They were driven from their posts by the fire. It had burst out on the side of the ruins and ran rapidly up the elevator shaft at the block. The fire buildings of Nos. 70, 72 and 74 were a part. For a time the fire was out of the fire, but as the flames got out the element made headway.

DO WE EAT INFECTED PORK?

Parents Selling Their Children in Order to Buy Bread.

The Health Department has brought to light a sanitary danger that will be most appreciated by everyone whose palate is tickled with the tender flesh of the hog. Mr. Frank Hagas, an official of the department, whose fifteen years' experience in the commission business gives him an extraordinary knowledge of the matter, has collected a mass of evidence, and he has recently, in the course of his investigations, observed pork on sale that not only was himself to be altogether proper.

Some of this pork he found to possess a peculiar appearance, and he has observed that it was altogether absent from healthy meat. He found that the skin had a reddish color, and that it was not as usual. In short, his suspicion was aroused to such an extent that he felt it his duty to investigate. He laid the matter before Dr. Allen, who like every other physician, has the matter to be investigated.

With this authority, two or three days ago he set out in company with Detective John Cuddy to make a thorough enquiry, and has succeeded in establishing facts that should be of great interest to the public. The Board of Health, but also of the Provincial authorities.

Among the herds of swine raised in the vicinity of Toronto, an infectious disease has broken out that threatens to become a serious pestilence.

MALENTINE'S DISASTER

The number of dead being counted by the hundreds, and all not yet known.

Paris, Aug. 23.—Additional details regarding the disaster at Malentine, capital of Martinique, the French West-Indian possession, which was visited by a terrible hurricane on Tuesday night last, show that the death toll is not only in no way exaggerated, but that it is still increasing. The latest despatches received here announce that 219 people are missing, and that the number of the coast towns of the interior not having been reached, the loss of life in the interior towns may have been as great as, if not greater, than in the coast towns.

The death list by towns as forwarded by Governor Casse up to date is as follows:

St. Pierre, 100; St. Louis, 100; St. Jean, 100; St. Francois, 100; St. Raphael, 100;

TORONTO PRIEST IN PRISON

FATHER HAYDEN ROBE IN NEW YORK WITH EMPTY POCKET

After Taking "Medicine" for Stomach He Sees the Lion and Several Elephants in a Cab—Looked up for Non-Payment —His Irrelevant and Unpleasant Remarks to the Police.

New York, Aug. 23.—A one-horse cab nattled through East Fifty-first-street about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and stopped in front of the Twenty-third Precinct. Police and driver were excited. Policeman Boyle was sent to investigate the case.
Frank Courtney, the driver, said he had a passenger inside whom he had been carrying from the city ever since 11 o'clock. He tried to collect the fare, but the man had at first disputed the amount and finally had refused to pay at all. Courtney wanted him arrested.

Officer Boyle opened the door of the cab and found a short, fat man snugly curled up on the seat and sound asleep. He had to shake him in a pretty lively fashion before he could wake him. The man was taken into the station, where his priestly garb attracted attention. He gave his name as the Rev.
Francis Hayden, and said he lived in the Grand Central Hotel. Thereupon Courtney explained, and had hired the cabman to take him to a hotel. He had been just returned from a trip to the island, and he had hired the
island, and he had hired the cabman to take him to a hotel.

Courtesy told a different story. He said the priest had called him near the Grand Central Station and asked to be driven to a house in "Thirty-first-street." The priest was in a hurry, and when he had reached the house he was told that the man who had been taken to the house was not the man who had been taken to the house.

WHERE IS MR. DOUGLAS NOW?

MR. CALVERT GIVES THE REASON FOR HIS COURSE.

The Editor of the "World" in his article "Where is Mr. Douglas now?" which is a most significant question at this moment, and as you will say, whose appearance would set all minds to rest," for many are very seriously disturbed, and we would willingly contribute freely towards and for bringing him to Toronto
—if only we could be found. We have never heard of him leaving our city.

Report says he is a tall man, dark looking, nearly black hair, retreating forehead, very pleasing manner, stout nose and very long arms and legs. It really ought not to be a very difficult thing to find him.

Our informant, four of them at least, are reliable men, and as you will say, whose appearance would set all minds to rest, for many are very seriously disturbed,
towards and for bringing him to Toronto

CRUSHED AND CRIPPLED

CHATHAM, Aug. 23.—While removing a scaffold yesterday St. Joseph's Hospital, in course of erection, William Draper, son of George Draper, West-street, slipped and fell 50 feet, breaking both legs and injuring himself internally. One leg is completely crushed. There are but slight hopes of his recovery.

The Cheilgates Ship Railway.
AMHERST, N.S., Aug. 23.—Some startling rumors concerning the completion of the railway are causing concern and attracting much public interest. The project has generally been considered as a failure.
It is confidently asserted in well-informed circles that a proposal is under consideration by the British and Foreign States Government to advance the sum necessary to complete the work, the former in two-thirds and the latter in one-third.
Three million six hundred thousand dollars have already been spent on the project, and the sum required for its completion is estimated at $1,000,000.

It is said that the promoters of the project are endeavoring to secure the aid of the Government of the Province of New Brunswick. It is known that the construction of this road have been requested not to accept of the present offers of aid, and to await further developments.

RECOVERING THE BODIES

As soon as the flames were under control the work of recovering the bodies of the unfortunate persons who were buried beneath the ruins was begun.

After 20 minutes' work the men saw the dead body of a man who had been buried under the ruins. The body was found in a position that was not expected. The man was found to be alive, and was taken to the hospital.

Artistic Stealing. Last evening at Elm-street Methodist Church Rev. J. B. O'Connell preached a sermon on the above subject, taking as his text Eph. iv. 28.

At the Musee Theatre. The doors of Toronto's palace of amusements will be thrown open to the public to-night at seven o'clock, and as large crowds have always been the rule at this popular house there is no doubt but that the evening's entertainment will be largely successful.

REV. MESSRS. WILSON AND STARR ON "REGENT REVELATIONS."

They Denounce in Unmistakable Terms "Pilfering and Jobbing at Ottawa and Quebec." No trust should be placed in the honesty of the men who are in charge of the public works.

Rev. W. F. Wilson preached an appropriate sermon at the New Richmond Church last night from the text "We sure you will find us out," Numbers xxxiii. 52.

The sins of the state can be no more hidden than the sins of the home. And the end is not yet. In this country politics are at a low ebb.

Men in other employments have to spend years in preparation. Surely the officers at the town hall here to the officers of the French fleet were the most brilliant ever witnessed at Portsmouth.

Consolidating Export Grain. St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—The Bourse Gazette declares the Russian government has ordered the export of grain to be mixed with more than 8 per cent of rye.
