TSINGTAU HAS SURRENDERED

BRITISH AND JAPANESE FORCES SILENCED DEFENDING FORTRESSES TOOK MANY PRISONERS AND MARCHED VICTORIOUS INTO CITY

TOKIO, NOV. 6.—IT IS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THAT THE GERMAN FORTRESS OF TSINGTAU HAS SURRENDERED TO THE JAPANESE AND BRITISH FORCES.
IT IS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THAT THE FIRST STEP IN BRINGING ABOUT THE SURRENDER OF THE FORTRESS OCCURRED AT MIDNIGHT, WHEN THE INFANTRY CHARGED AND OCCUPIED THE MIDDLE FORT OF THE FIRST LINE OF DEFENCE. IN THIS OPERATION THEY TOOK TWO HUNDRED PRISONERS.

GOOD HOPE LOST BUT MONMOUTH MAY BE ASHORE

Glasgow Escaped After Engaging Two of Four German Cruisers—Canopus and Otranto Not in Battle, Which Lasted for Hour

CHALLENGE DECLINED BY ENEMY UNTIL FAVORED BY THE DUSK

Good Hope and Monmouth Took Fire Early in Action, Which Was Gallantly Contested—Warship Ashore on Chilean Coast Probably Monmouth.

(BRITISH OFFICIAL)

LONDON, Nov. 6, 10.10 p.m.—The following official statement was issued tonight:
The admiralty now has received trustworthy information about the action on the Chilean coast.
During Sunday, the first of November, the Good Hope, Monmouth and Glasgow came up with the Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Leipzig and Dresden. Both squadrons were steaming south in a strong wind and a considerable sea.
The German squadron declined action until sunset, when the light gave it an important advantage. The action lasted an hour.
Early in the action both the Good Hope and the Monmouth took fire, but fought until nearly dark, when a serious explosion occurred on the Good Hope and she foundered.
The Monmouth hauled off at dark, making water badly and appeared unable to steam away. She was accompanied by the Glasgow, which, and, meanwhile, during the whole action, fought the Leipzig and Dresden.
On the enemy again approaching the wounded Monmouth, the Glasgow, which also was under fire from one of the armored cruisers, drew off.
The enemy then attacked the Monmouth again, but with what result is not known. The Glasgow is not extensively damaged and has very few casualties.
Neither the Otranto nor the Canopus was engaged.
Reports received by the foreign office from Valparaiso state that a belligerent warship is ashore on the Chilean coast and it is possible that this may prove to be the Monmouth. Energetic measures are being taken on this assumption to rescue the survivors.
The action appears to the admiralty to have been most gallantly contested, but in the absence of the Canopus the enemy's preponderance in force was considerable.

ALLIED FLEETS IN BATTLE OFF CHILEAN COAST

Anglo-Japanese Warships Reported to Be Engaging German Ships.

NO DETAILS AVAILABLE

Jap. Cruiser Sinks German Vessel—Another Victim of Mine.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Private shipping agents here from their correspondents in Valparaiso report that an engagement is taking place off Yauyos, between British, German and Japanese warships. Press despatches telling of a previous German-British naval engagement are confirmed in the messages.
No details of the engagement were given. Closer reading of the cable messages seemed to indicate that Yauyos was not the name of a town off which the engagement was in progress but a code word which had been left blank of meaning in the firm's code book. An enquiry to the firm's home office at London, after a translation of Yauyos had brought no answer late today.
This translation was substantiated by the fact that the Peruvian coast of Yauyos first thought to have been intended, is some distance inland, and that it did not seem likely the German squadron would have had time to reach the Peruvian coast in the short time since the first engagement. The firm believes the battle is taking place somewhere off the coast of Chile.
GERMAN STEAMER BLOWN UP.
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 6, 7.05 p.m.—A large German steamer has been blown up south of the Danish island of Langeland, in the great belt, by a mine said to have been placed by the Germans. A number of her crew were lost.
During the past fortnight two German trawlers and one German steamer have been destroyed in this region. There are no Danish mines in the waters where the disasters have occurred, as they were gathered up by a Danish steamer some time ago.

The famous Amette Kellermann photo-play "Neptune's Daughter" closes its two weeks' run at the Princess Theatre with a tonight today and evening performance tonight. Thousands who have seen this motion picture masterpiece here will have pleasant memories of it.
"The Day" at Dinsen's for Hats.
"The Day" has been looked forward to by the Germans for years to upset and usurp Europe. It is certainly going to be a bad "Day" for them.
"The Day" looked forward to by the smart men of Toronto for hat-buying at Dinsen's, 140 Yonge street, is Saturday. Today values are greater than ever at this season. Hats regularly priced up to $25—soft and stiff—are reduced to clear at $1.95. Every hat is in the height of the fashion and made by world-famed makers. Soft hats are in blues, greens, browns, slate and gray, new crown shapes and bands of self and contrasting colors. Stiff hats are in latest shapes and all sizes—superior quality. ## ENEMY'S ATTACK HAS DECREASED IN VIGOR, AND ALLIES' ADVANCE CONTINUES SLOWLY BUT SURELY

THE FALL OF TSINGTAU

TOKIO, Nov. 6.—The fall of Tsingtau ends the most picturesque of the minor phases of the great world war now raging. On two continents and in many of the islands of the sea where colonies of the warring nations were planted, combats of more or less interest have taken place, garrisons have been captured and towns occupied peacefully, but in the little German concession on the south side of the Shantung Peninsula of China, there has been going on since late in August a reduced scale of war that from all accounts has duplicated nearly all the features of those battles in Europe that have resulted in the capture of fortified positions.
The capture of Tsingtau loses to Germany her last foot of possessions on the Asiatic mainland as well as her last strategic position outside of the German Empire in Europe. For nearly three months the German garrison, amounting to about 7000 men, has held out against the land and sea attacks of the Japanese and certain British detachments of both white and Indian troops that found themselves in China at the outbreak of the war. What the losses of the garrison have been are not known, but the official Japanese and British reports have indicated that Tsingtau has been taken at heavy cost of men on the part of the allies.
It was on Aug. 15 that Japan threw herself into the European war as an ally of Great Britain, after demanding that Germany withdraw or intern all German warships in Asiatic waters and relinquish possession of Kiaochow. In the statement from Tokio that accompanied this declaration, Japan asserted that her intentions were purely military and did not contemplate the retention of one foot of ground on Chinese territory, and later affirmed that she did not intend to extend her holdings in the islands of the Pacific that might fall into her possession during the campaign.
Her demands ignored, when the ultimatum expired a week later, Japan proceeded cautiously with plans to seize the German settlement on the Chinese mainland.

WAR AREA WAS RESTRICTED.
The operations in this isolated far eastern theatre of the war have been reduced to a scale of some 200 square miles, as compared with the whole continent of Europe, but on that account they have been none the less interesting. Aeroplanes and all other accompaniments of modern warfare have figured in both the Japanese and the German operations.
The details of the movements have been secret, but the first general operation undertaken by the Japanese was the sweeping of the waters around Kiaochow for mines, which the Germans had laid. In this connection 100 Japanese women shell divers offered their services, thinking that they, unseen by the enemy, could dive and release the mines. But the offer was declined, since the Japanese law prohibited the employment of women in warlike operations. During the mine sweeping campaign at least one of the Japanese mine-dragging boats was blown up.
GERMAN-OWNED RAILWAY SEIZED.
The next general move on the part of the Japanese was to seize the German-owned railway running west from Tsingtau into the Province of Shantung. This was done under violent protest from the Chinese Government.
The number of the expeditionary forces has never been officially divulged, but it is said to have been upwards of 30000 men. A British detachment, consisting of some 800 men of South Wales Borderers and 400 Indian Sikhs, under command of Brig-Gen. Nathaniel W. Bonardiston, commander of the north China forces, was at their head, and is said to have formed a part of the centre of the Japanese line in the investment of Tsingtau. Fighting continued from the middle of September intermittently until the fall of the fortress today. During this period both the German and the Japanese warships and aeroplanes engaged in the bombardment of each other's positions. In one of the most severe of these engagements on Oct. 1 it was announced that the Japanese loss was 1700 killed and 800 wounded. It was then reported that the general would await the arrival of the siege guns before continuing hostilities. The German casualties were said to be very small. On Oct. 17 the cruiser Takachio was blown up by the German torpedo boat S 90. The Germans had five forts exclusively for shore defences.

ENTERED BY RAILWAY LINE.
The heights back of the city are penetrated only by the railway line, and it is probably through this path that the allies proceeded into Tsingtau, once the defending fortress had been silenced.
An interesting incident in connection with the fall of Tsingtau is the proclamation which the German Government posted on Aug. 22. In this he said: "Never will we surrender the smallest bit of ground over which the German flag is flying. From this place, where we with love and success have endeavored during the last 17 years to shape a little Germany across the seas, we shall not retreat. If the enemy wants Tsingtau he must come and take it."
JAPS HAVE HAD REVENGE.
In taking it the Japanese have again had revenge for certain phases of their war with China twenty years ago. Victorious, she was forced, at the instigation of Germany, to give up Port Arthur—her main fruit of victory—which eventually became Russian.
Ten years later, in 1904-05, Japan fought Russia and again took Port Arthur. Now, after another interval of 10 years in association with British forces, Japan has seized the German possession of Kiaochow, and wiped out a score which had been a thorn in its side for two decades.

OFFICIAL BRITISH STATEMENT

South of Dixmude and Toward Ghelavet the Advance Has Been Most Marked and the German Defeat on the Yser is Complete—Turkey Has Declared a Holy War Against France, England and Russia—Russians Have Won the Greatest Victory of the War—Afghans Are Menacing India and Turks Move on Egypt—Germans Cleared From Coastal Plain Right Up to the Outskirts of Ostend.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Grand Duke Nicholas has wired General Joffre that the Russians have won the greatest victory of the war. Advances from other sources convey the same information. The Town of Jaroslau, 17 miles from Przemysl, the Galician fortress which has been besieged for many weeks, has fallen, the Russians taking 5000 prisoners. Jaroslau was taken in the early days of the war by the czar's forces and then evacuated for strategic reasons.
Wirballen is now declared to be the only strong fortress which bars the advance of the Russians into East Prussia. A strong flanking movement is now in progress in the zone protected by Wirballen, and there is some likelihood of the German forces there being completely enveloped.
The Austrian army which came up to the relief of the corps dispiriting the western bank of the River San, had a terrible experience in penetrating the passes of the Carpathians, which are filled with snow.

MASSING FOR A DRIVE.
On the centre the czar's cohorts are massing for a drive against the main German forces on the Silesian frontier.
The correspondent of The Times has sent a long message to his paper, covering operations in the east. He says, in part:
"Victory all along the line is today's news from the commander-in-chief and from his staff and line. Not only on the battlefield on the Vistula itself, some 300 miles long, but likewise on the front designated as East Prussia, over a whole expanse exceeding 400 miles in a straight line, the German hordes are broken, defeated and despairing.
"The retreat is most marked at a point where the highest and most vital interests of the Germans required continued defence, namely on their right flank, where alone there was any chance of assisting their armies beaten in Poland.
BAKALARZHEVO IS TAKEN.
"Once more in German territory, thereby cutting off all connection between the East Prussian front and the retreating armies, now nearing the frontiers of Poland, the Russians have taken Bakalarzhevo, selected for tactical reasons by the Germans for stubborn attacks.
"The Germans are now approaching the Polish frontiers. Their rear guard has been beaten out of Kola, still further east by south. The Russians have thrown the German armies past Kielce, capturing six hundred men and all their maxims.
"It seems that the Germans now have the bitter choice between abandoning East Prussia to insure a strong defence of the direct route to Berlin and endeavoring to hold everything at the risk of losing all."
ALLIES STEADILY ADVANCING.
The British official press bureau has issued the following statement: "The enemy's attack has decreased in vigor and the process of pressing them back is making slow but steady progress."
"The advance has been most marked to the south of Dixmude and toward Ghelavet, but the weather has been misty and has tended to hamper operations."
PERSISTENT HAMMERING CONTINUES.
From the region of Ypres to Rheims the Germans today hammered persistently at the allied front, but with nothing that resembled success. French troops in the neighborhood of Roye won important positions commanding the road to Andechy.
Messages from widely-separated points tell of the allied drive into Belgium, and it now seems that the Germans have been cleared from the coastal plain right up to the outskirts of Ostend. The flooded area which completed the German disaster on the Yser is hindering the movement, it being very difficult to move men and guns in such number along the comparatively few highways not under water.
Great movements of troops around Ypres are reported by French aviators. That town was the centre of vicious fighting through the day, the Franco-British lines holding firmly under a terrific artillery

BRILLIANT RUSE BEAT GERMANS

French Reired, Pursued by Enemy Over Bridge, Which Aviator Destroyed, Killing Many.

PARIS, Nov. 6, 3 p.m.—The story of an exciting incident that took place over an important bridge over the Oise, not far from Sempringy, has been received here.
The French were ordered to hold the bridge at any cost. They placed machine guns, which played havoc for 30 minutes in the German ranks and prevented the German advance. Suddenly the bugle sounded for a French retreat and the Germans quickly pursued them over the bridge. A moment later a French aviator, who had been hovering overhead, dropped a bomb which completely destroyed the bridge. The French then delivered a bayonet charge, forcing the enemy into the river.

ATTACKS FAILED AUSTRIANS FLED

Russians Met Terrific Attacks Day and Night Before Enemy's Resistance Broke Down.

LEMBERG, Galicia, Nov. 6, via Petrograd.—Military reports given out in Lemberg set forth that during the past few days the Austrians have been attacking furiously day and night. Their artillery fire has been particularly severe, and leads to the impression that they have been making their last supreme effort. Nevertheless the Russians have repulsed the enemy vigorously and have broken his desperate resistance. At the present time the Austrians are retreating along the River San.

Conscription?

Conscription is the only alternative in the event of the failure of the voluntary system to supply a sufficient number of troops to secure the British Empire from defeat. Lord Roberts and others have been talking about it for years and it is now admitted that the experts were justified in their judgment of the situation upon which they based their advocacy of conscription.

Lovers of peace, and anti-militarists, and people who do not like to fight for reasons into which they do not invite investigation, are not convinced that conscription is now, or ever will be necessary. It is argued and with more weight than is usually allowed, that any nation or empire which will not fight for its own existence, cannot be sustained by compulsory military service. It has begun to go soft, and there is a definite end in view for it.

There is not the slightest good in declaring such talk unpatriotic or alarmist. Patriot is that patriot does, and for alarmist reports we never can rival our enemies in what they say about us. And we may be sure, also, that what the enemy does not know about our weaknesses is not worth telling them.

They are beginning to talk conscription in England. That is to say, it is being more generally talked about than it has been for the last few years by professional soldiers. Hostility to conscription was the result of a belief on the part of many people that no modern nation could go mad as Germany has done. It was thought that civilization and culture and Christianity and other humanizing influences had driven the devil out of international politics, and the millennium had already set in like an early spring.

The best sermon The World has seen on the war is one by Rev. Dr. Whyte of Edinburgh, which was published in The British Weekly a few weeks ago. It likened the Kaiser to David when Satan entered into him and tempted the sweet psalmist of Israel to number the people. Why did he want to number them? To find out how many fighting men he had.

When the king or anybody else begins figuring on his strength, and on whom he can lick, there is always a suspension of millennial progress. This is where the peace propagandists nearly always fall down in their arguments. They say it takes two to make a quarrel. They forget that it is equally true that it takes two to make a peace. When the other fellow insists on fighting there is nothing to be done but to sell in.

Nobody dreamed among the peace preachers that the Kaiser, who was so complacent with all peace preachers and propagandists, would have allowed Satan to get into him. Satan always finds a way to get into somebody when the world is settling down into too hum-drum and indolent a state. If Germany had not, probably China would have broken loose a little later, or the Mexicans under a highly qualified general who had whipped all the other Mexicans might have set out on a tour of world conquest. Somebody would have done it. History shows that there is always somebody.

Any man who never loses his temper, nor ever wishes that he had more than some other fellow is entitled to doubt this, but history is a good corrective.

Education and culture and civilization only train men to fight better, that is, more wickedly with more deadly weapons. When any national civilization takes this trend as Germany's has done, the leaders or kings or emperors or generals look around and settle who would be the best mark to try their skill upon. Germany has only changed the conditions by going in on a wholesale scale. The Kaiser might be said to trim the earth. If President Wilson had not been extraordinarily civil he would have declared war upon him too. That was three months ago. He may be feeling differently today. But nearly all this war wisdom comes three months too late. That is why the wise old soldiers say that conscription is necessary to keep an empire together, when the men of the empire are not patriotic enough to fight without being forced. The Germans taunt the British with being unwilling to fight unless they are paid for it. There are very few men in the western world today who will even preach without being paid for it, so this taunt loses its force. We are brought up to think that the one thing to consider is how to change one's activity into money. When there is more money to be had for commercial activity than for military activity it is not surprising that voluntary soldiering is less favored than other, and perhaps gentler, pursuits. And so again, the old soldiers talk about conscription. None of us wants conscription, but if more of us do not get into the army we will not be able to avoid it, or else we may give up the boast of empire.

On the whole it seems best that more of us go into the army, and as quickly as possible. The Black Watch and the Guards Regiments have been about wiped out.

After the Battle

Now that the dust has cleared away it will be observed that President Wilson and his policies still command the respect and confidence of the American people. The Democratic majority in the senate is actually increased, while the control of the house of representatives is retained by a majority of about 30 over Republicans, Progressives and Socialists combined. It is true that this seems like a pitiful showing when compared with the overwhelming majority in the present house, but in the nature of things that majority had to be reduced. In 1912 many of the Democratic candidates washed in from Republican districts; as soon as the warring factions of the Republican party got together those districts were bound to go Republican.

The New York American calls attention to the remarkable change in the congressional delegations from the seven great industrial States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. These States in 1912 elected 105 Democrats and 46 Republicans; in 1914 they elected 99 Republicans and 54 Democrats. The American argues that these States, containing about one-third of the population of the country and doing most of the manufacturing, turned and rent the Democratic party because it reduced the tariff without increasing the export trade or building up a merchant marine.

What The American does not say is that nearly all of those States have been almost always overwhelmingly Republican. The result of their congressional elections in 1912 was phenomenal, to a large extent freakish and bound to be ephemeral. In Ohio, for example, the Democrats in 1912 elected 19 congressmen and the Republicans 3; this year the Republicans elected 12 and the Democrats 10. Surely the 1914 result fairly represents normal sentiment. Ohio cast her electoral vote for every Republican candidate from John C. Fremont to William H. Taft inclusive. The state voted for Wilson in 1912, but it was and is a Republican state. The change, or what seems like a great change, in the last two years merely results from the fact that the Bull Moose vote fell from 217,000 to 40,000.

As we said the other day, the Republican party has come back and it will be in the field against Mr. Wilson in 1916, vigorous, resourceful and sanguine of success. But a great deal of water will pass under the bridge in the meantime. To date the president has fairly held his own.

It may be admitted that Mr. Wilson does not appeal to the imagination of the people; he commands their respect and confidence, but he does not inspire loyalty and personal affection as did Jackson, Clay, Lincoln, Blaine and, to a lesser extent, Roosevelt. The people will pardon a great deal to an impulsive, hot-headed president, even though he be provincial in his patriotism. There is about Mr. Wilson a suggestion of the cosmopolitan and the philosopher, perhaps the idealist. He certainly tried the patience of the people in his dealings with Mexico. The result will justify him in history, but the ordinary voter lacks historical perspective.

Meanwhile the great banking and currency reform is endorsed and goes into effect this month; other progressive policies will be crystallized into

CAVALRY CALLED, ALSO ENGINEERS

Ottawa Sends Expected Order—No Word of Cyclist Corps Wanted.

CANTEEN IN THE DAIRY

Camp is Now Under Way—Visitors Admitted for Two Hours Daily.

Major-General Lessard, officer commanding the second military division has received instructions from Ottawa to supply one regiment of mounted rifles and 148 officers and men of Engineers' Corps. The cavalry regiment will consist of 544 officers and men to be chosen from the ranks of the G.G.B.G., 9th Mississauga Horse, 2nd Dragoons and 25th Brant Regiment. Recruiting will probably commence immediately.

Expect 5000 Men.
 The Second Canadian Engineers. Under command of Major Biggs of Toronto will supply 110 men and one officer, and the Field Engineers of Hamilton will be asked for 35 men and two officers. Orders are expected for a large quota of army service men, but no instructions are yet to hand in connection with the government's proposal to mobilize cyclist regiments.

It is expected that nearly 6000 men will be stationed at the park before the beginning of 1916. Additional quotas of artillery, auxiliary arms and army service corps will be required. The park will be the parade grounds for a full military section. Some of the army service corps men will be connected with the ammunition and supply column. The artillery will be six-gun batteries, instead of four guns per battery.

More than 1000 troops assembled at the park yesterday, including the G.O.R., 10th Grenadiers, 48th Highlanders of Toronto and 51st of Sault Ste Marie, 19th of St. Catharines and 35th of Brantford. The 20th battalion will arrive today.

The men of the 19th battalion will mess and sleep in the government building. The 20th will have sleeping accommodation in the horticultural building and will mess in Bird's restaurant, near the grand stand. Officers will sleep in the applied arts building. The women's building, near the Jakes front, will be used for a sergeants' mess and the general staff will sleep in the battalion headquarters. The press building will be used as headquarters for the 20th Battalion, and the cottage near the entrance to the park for the staff of the 19th Battalion.

Crates of Uniforms.
 No battalion drill was possible yesterday. The problems of feeding and sleeping were attended to first. Some of the men not required to join the long line of men who carried beds across the park were occupied with squad drill. Uniforms are arriving in large crates and will be distributed immediately. Huge stores of food are piled in the supply stores. Divine service will be voluntary next Sunday. The public will be admitted to the grounds without passes during the hours of 5 and 7 each day. Passes at other times can be obtained at 215 Simcoe street. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew has taken charge of the reading room for the men and the Y.M.C.A. will conduct the canteen. Both of these will be in the dairy building.

Worth of Nationality

This war is without parallel in history. It is a conflict not of armies, but of nations and national ideals. In one, and the only vital, sense Germans have been right in fixing on Britain as their real protagonist among the allies. For reduced to fundamentals the war is a struggle to the death between two diametrically opposed principles. The German wants to impose what he proudly calls his "culture" on the world; the Briton, taught in the severe school of experience, recognizes that the truest union is found, not by the imposition of arms, but by the fostering of that spirit of nationality which is inseparable from self-government. Nothing is stronger than a voluntary union of free peoples based on identity of origin and sentiment and sustained by community of interest.

VARSIITY'S LAST CHANCE TODAY MUST BEAT M'GILL TO TIE

Given a Dry Field, Local Collegians Have a Mighty Good Chance—Argonauts and Tigers Should Win—The Rugby Situation.

The biggest rugby game today is that between Varsity and McGill. The contest is at home, and the Toronto boys must win to tie up with their adversaries and remain in the running for the championship of the Intercollegiate Union.

The Hamilton Rowing Club will tackle the Toronto University squad at Varsity Stadium on Saturday next. Arrangements for this game were completed yesterday and followers of the Hamilton club are highly pleased as a result.

In the Big Four, Argos and Tigers, that are tied at the top, are playing, respectively, at Ottawa and Montreal. The teams are both well matched, and the contest is expected to be a hard one.

The Hamilton Rowing Club are credited with being a very fine club, and they look like champions of the O.R.F.U., and to clinch the title must beat the U.R. and A.A. on their own grounds this afternoon.

The Little Big Four teams play their third and final pair of games this morning, both in Toronto. The ponderous St. Andrews fourteen should finish with three straight against Upper Canada College.

Balmly Beach Rugby team will play Broadview Y. at Kew Gardens Saturday.

STEAMER ACADIA ON WAY BACK FROM HUDSON BAY

By Staff Reporters.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—The naval service department today received a wireless message from the steamer Acadia, just off Belle Isle, on her way down to Halifax. Captain Fred Anderson reported the party all well. The Acadia has just completed her fourth season of hydrographic survey work in Hudson Bay and straits. This year the party worked at Port Nelson, east along the south coast of the bay and then in Hudson Straits. A large part of these northern waters has now been charted. Another party was north last summer to select sites in Hudson Straits for the wireless stations to be erected there to aid navigation.

BRITISH STEAMER IS HELD AT GIBRALTAR

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Nov. 6, 8.10 p.m.—The British steamer Italia of the Anchor Line, bound from New York to Mediterranean ports, has been detained at Gibraltar. The authorities there state that the Italia has contraband of war aboard. This information is contained in a despatch from Gibraltar to Lloyd's Shipping Agency.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PROBLEMS UNSOLVED

Wards Announce That They Will Not Buy Yankees—The Business Left Over.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The American League, in winding up their annual convention today, left unsolved the two most important problems supposed to be on the program. The question of peace with the Federal League appeared no nearer solution, and no change in ownership was made. In the list of stockholders in the New York club was announced.

Regarding the latter point it was given out that no formal discussion of it had taken place. But it was said that while most of the magnates caught early trains for their homes tonight, Frank Farrell of the New York club and James W. Sullivan of the Boston club, Farrell's leading supporter, stayed over, saying they would start back east tomorrow. A shift-up in the membership of the New York club was considered advisable by some of the magnates as a preliminary step to strengthen the team in the metropolis. Only a pretty definite statement of the club owners of the Brooklyn Federals, would not buy into the New York situation. Everybody admitted that terms on which peace could be reached would not be possible until after long negotiations.

The club owners decided to erect a monument over the grave of Umpire Jack Sheridan, whose death occurred this week at San Jose, Cal. Charles Somers of the Cleveland club was re-elected vice-president of the league without opposition, and the board of directors for the ensuing year will include representatives of the Chicago, Cleveland, New York and Boston clubs. Most of the owners declared themselves in favor of a reduction in the number of players carried. They agreed that twenty was a more convenient number than twenty-five, but definite action was deferred until the spring meeting, and meantime the National League will be consulted on the plan.

Reduction in the price of seats at the world's series games also found unanimous support and the magnates agreed that the pieces carried should exceed the price of general by only a small margin, if at all.

Roger Bresnahan this afternoon conferred for a long time with Charles Thomas, president of the Chicago National, and it was reported, the latter would confirm it, that the Cubs had agreed to stay with the Cubs. Whether he would succeed O'Pry as manager could only be guessed at.

A number of minor league leaders stayed over to leave for Omaha Sunday night to attend National Minor League meeting. It was announced that President Hickey of the Chicago Americans probably would attend the meeting.

Toronto's New Clothes Shop for Men

Claude Pascoe and "Riley" Hearn desire to announce the opening of their Men's Up-Stairs Clothes Shop, on the first floor up in the Kent Building, corner Yonge and Richmond Streets.

Saturday morning at eight o'clock we will open to the men of Toronto our new Clothes Shop. While this is an enterprise new in this city, still the men of the larger American centres have for years been buying their clothes from the up-stairs clothes shops, realizing the saving thus effected over the ground floor store, where rents and other overhead charges of necessity demand a much larger profit in order to defray expenses.

This coat represents one of our many modes at $15.00.

Our ambition is to have this shop known all over Canada as the shop where the finest high-grade clothing is sold at the lowest possible price.

$25 and $30 Suits and Overcoats

Up-Stairs Price $15 Up-Stairs Price

Because of factory changes, this "Diamond" Ware is yours at less than you often pay for "seconds"—LESS THAN FACTORY'S PRICE TO DEALERS. The "Diamond" factory is taking up the manufacture of lines formerly imported, but now shut off by the war, and, to do this, disposed of all their floor stock to us at a very small price. Only first quality ware bears the "Diamond" label. It is the best Canadian enamelled ware produced, and this brand has always commanded a higher price than other makes.
