CONVENTIONS FIND HOTELS INADEQUATE

Railway Trainers Will Bar Toronto Unless Accommodation is Bettered.

A letter to Mayor Church from James Murdoch, vice-president Brotherhood of Railway Trainers, shows the importance of having adequate hotel and other accommodation if big conventions are to be induced to come to Toronto. It is pointed out that for the first time in the history of the organization our city out of all those in nomination, namely, Toronto, secured a majority of all votes cast on the first ballot. Then the letter proceeds: "At the last convention we had 913 delegates present attending the Brotherhood convention, and probably two or three thousand visitors. "The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainers also holds its triennial convention at the same time and place that the Brotherhood convention is held, and the Ladies' Auxiliary convention had at Columbus some 536 delegates, and possibly two thousand visitors. "I am writing you as above for your information in connection with this matter, but beg also to advise you, also the reason that I do not know of a hotel in the city of Toronto that could handle the headquarters requirements of a convention of our brotherhood, and I am not sure that the hall accommodations for meeting purposes within reasonably central location are what the

SCHOOLS MUST PAY CLOAKROOM THEFTS

Judgment Against Board of Education May Mean Added Expense.

In a judgment handed down in the county court yesterday, Judge Morson allowed Nora Stevenson $55 damages against the board of education for the loss of her coat from a cloak-room at Jarvis Collegiate. The coat was believed to have been stolen from the room while the girl was attending her classes. The judgment is one of importance, for if it is upheld by the appeal court it will mean a large additional expenditure for the board. The defendant, having provided cloak rooms for the coats, were under obligation to take reasonable care of the children's clothes.

MAYOR UPHOLDS JAIL DELIVERY

Asks Province to Follow British in Liberating Soldiers.

Mayor Church is in sympathy with the move made by the veterans' societies, requesting that all returned soldiers who are now in jail for breaches of the Ontario temperance act and other minor offences against the law be released in time for the peace celebrations on July 13. His worship, in the course of a communication to the Hon. W. D. McPherson, provincial secretary, and Hon. Arthur Meighen, acting minister of justice, says: "In view of the action of the French and British governments, I am in hopes that you will be able to see your way clear to grant their request. This would be a very gracious act. These men have seen active service at the front, and many of them only accidentally and not intentionally committed a breach of the act. "I may say that I am also receiving many letters from reputable citizens to the same effect, and some of them have asked me to transmit their communications to you, and I promised them that I would do so, in the hope that some action would be taken."

FOUND DEAD IN BED AT STANLEY BARRACKS

WILLS AND BEQUESTS

Pte. Kenneth Walter Wilson, a member of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Stanley Barracks, was found dead in bed at the camp yesterday morning. Wilson had been staying on Sturges avenue, but his home is in Woodbury, Mass. On Feb. 5, 1918, he enlisted here with the R. C. D., and had been attached to the Toronto camp. The body was removed to the morgue, and it is likely a coroner's inquest will be held.

SATURDAY WILL SEE QUEEN CITY GAY

All Toronto Prepares to Celebrate Peace Holiday in Festive Spirit.

Ladies, do your week-end shopping on Friday; gentlemen, buy your tobacco and cigars and that new pipe on the same day, for nearly all the principal stores supplying food, clothes, smokes and prohibition beer will be closed on Saturday for the celebration of peace. The mayor is issuing a proclamation naming Saturday a public holiday, and all the banks and big business houses have arranged to give their employees a holiday. The big works, such as Massey-Harris, will close down for a very holiday appearance over the whole week-end. When it was definitely decided yesterday that a public holiday would be proclaimed, a tremendous number of people got busy arranging for picnics, excursions and other business-time. Some people will go for boat trips, some to the parks to listen to the bands, others to sports to be held at various places—in fact, Toronto is preparing to enjoy itself just as the Queen City can do when it gets out to do it. Motor cars for Saturday are already at a premium for hire, and the street railway is expecting to reap a big harvest—in short, a great deal of money will be circulated, and it only the general who arranges the weather will keep in a good temper and provide a fine day, Saturday next should be the best festive day Toronto has experienced for many years. But remember to do your week-end shopping on Friday.

IMPORTANT RULING BY WAR VETERANS

Men of British and Allied Mercantile Marine Granted Full Membership.

OTHER POPULAR ONES Proportional Representation, Restriction of Child Labor and Equal Suffrage.

Comrade Geo. Gustar, secretary of Toronto G.W.V.A.; Comrade B. Brockbank of Central G.W.V.A. and Comrade Ed. Stephenson of Scarborough G.W.V.A. who have returned from Vancouver, yesterday afternoon expressed themselves as more than delighted with the convention in the Pacific coast city in most respects, if disappointed with it in others.

Question of Politics. The question of politics was subjected to spirited discussion at the convention. While both Comrades Gustar and Brockbank were noncommittal in their opinions upon this matter, Comrade Ed. Stephenson expressed the belief that the association would ultimately be compelled to adopt politics as one of its strong programs, and that the time has begun to do so was the present.

Merchant Marine Admitted. Among other amendments noted in the constitution upon this matter, one is that permitting members of the allied or British mercantile marine to join the association. This is hailed as legislation of the right sort since it will help to unite two branches of the marine service, the naval and the mercantile, which hitherto have been distinctly opposed to each other on principle.

Perhaps the most important of all the resolutions passed was that calling upon the government to bring about legislation which would ensure the carrying out of all elections along the line of proportional representation. This was advised to first ensure that the majority should rule through the Dominion and, second, to give the electors representation in true proportion. The government will also be requested to give women suffrage privileges equal to those now enjoyed by mere males.

THE EAST AND WEST BROUGHT CLOSER TOGETHER. Western Canada and the Pacific Coast have now been brought within much quicker reach of the East by the new popular all-sleeping-car train operated by the Canadian Pacific Railway from Toronto and Montreal to Vancouver.

Further particulars from Canadian Pacific ticket agents, or W. E. Howard, district passenger agent, Toronto.

A PIANO OF LOUIS XV. In a most complete way the Louis XV. design grand piano made by the Old Firm of Heintzman & Co. Limited, Toronto, reflects the period of this distinguished French ruler of the seventeenth century.

NINETEENTH BATTALION PLAN DAY AT ISLAND. The 19th Battalion Association held a meeting last night at the Y.W.C.A. with Captain D. O. Rollands in the chair.

To other famous dates in history should be added those in Paris that the Kaiser never kept.

CANADIAN MASONS MEET IN CONCLAVE

Reports Read From All Departments—May Admit Disabled Soldiers.

GRAND MASTERSHIP F. W. Harcourt, K. C., Toronto, May Stand Good Chance of Election.

More than 1,000 members of the craft are expected to be in attendance at the annual meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada, which opened its preliminary session in the Masonic Temple at Yonge street and Davenport road, yesterday.

The board of general purposes opened the session yesterday with F. W. Harcourt, K.C., chairman, presiding. The following members constitute the board: J. F. Reid, Windsor; Thomas Royce, London; W. H. Tudhope, Orillia; W. M. Logan, Hamilton; A. J. Young, North Bay; John A. Howland, Toronto; A. Shaw, Kingston; J. McC. Potts, Stirling; P. T. Coupland, St. Mary's; E. R. Bond, Mount Brydges. Together with these brethren there are also on the board the past grand masters and twenty-five district deputy grand masters.

Among the reports received by the board yesterday were: Audit and finance, presented by R. W. Bro. Little, W. N. Ponton, Belleville; war rates, presented by R. W. Bro. G. S. May, Ottawa; condition of Masonry, presented by R. W. Bro. A. J. Young, North Bay; benevolence, grievances and appeals, M. W. Bro. Hon. W. D. McPherson, K.C., Toronto; constitution and laws, M. W. Bro. J. H. Burritt, K.C., Pembroke; fraternal relations, R. W. Bro. W. M. Logan; printing and supplies, V. W. Bro. R. F. Richardson, Strathroy.

After being presented these reports were filed by the district committee, after which they will be sent on for consideration at the hands of the Grand Lodge, which will have its first meeting on Wednesday.

A dinner was to have been tendered to the grand master, W. N. Wardrop, K.C., at the Ontario Club last night, but Bro. Wardrop was slightly indisposed and the affair was laid over till tonight.

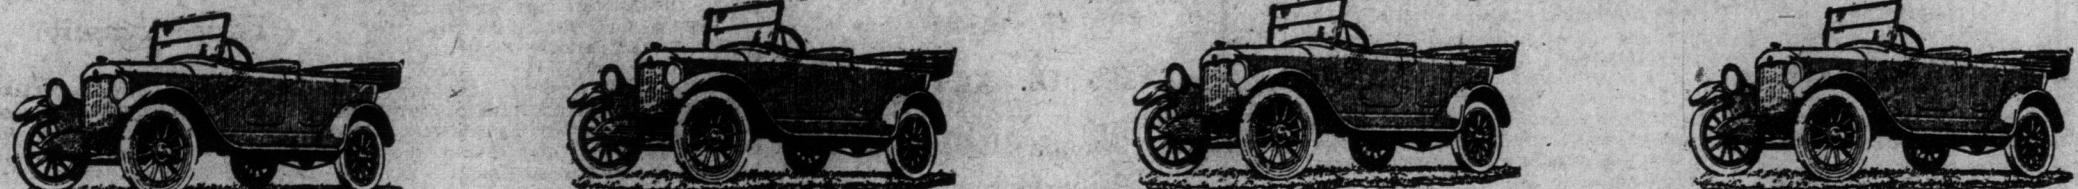

The election of the district deputy grand masters will be held at the Temple on Wednesday night, while the general election of officers will be held on Thursday morning. It is likely that Toronto will have the honor of having one of her members elected grand master, in the person of R. W. Bro. F. W. Harcourt, K.C., who is at present chairman of the board of general purposes.

The candidates for the other offices are: Grand senior warden, Kenneth J. Dunstan, Toronto; John O'Connor, Toronto; E. J. Reppath and Tim Barber, For grand junior warden—Milton Wilbee, Brantford; W. J. Barrie, Sarnia. Grand chaplain—Rev. George H. Purchase, Toronto. Grand treasurer—M. W. Bro. E. T. Malone, K.C., who for many years has acted as grand treasurer, will be re-elected. Grand secretary—R. W. Bro. W. M. Logan of Hamilton, who has been acting grand secretary since the death of R. W. Bro. R. L. Gunn, will doubtless be elected to this responsible office. Grand registrar—A. B. Clarke, Hamilton; George McLeish, Toronto; J. M. Malcolm, Toronto; W. A. Burch, St. Catharines.

As in England. One of the important questions which will come before the board of general purposes this morning is whether or not disabled soldiers who received their disability pensions should be allowed to become members of the craft. Bro. F. W. Harcourt will move that soldiers with disabilities received in the great war be admitted to the great war and is fully anticipated that this motion will be made law by the general body, as the same rule is now being applied to the members of the craft who are disabled in the great war.

Motions amending the date of the annual convention and the constitution, the benevolence perquisites and other matters, will all be heard at the meeting of the general body.

GRATUITY CLAIMS OFTEN INVOLVED

Claimants Asked to Be Specific in Their Information. With reference to a man who enlisted in 1914, who saw six months' service in a composite battalion on active service, then eight months and seventeen days with the C.E.F., 1916-17, then another five months and twenty-eight days in 1917-18, as explained to The World yesterday, the office of the chief paymaster pointed out that the information on the post-card was incomplete, and that it was impossible to state offhand if the man in question had been overseas. If he had been overseas he was entitled to four months' gratuity, having served one year and eight months. It was shown in any case that he had served twenty months. If his suggestion was correct that he had served six months with a composite battalion on active service immediately after enlistment in 1914, the chances were that he had served part of that time overseas, since none of the original battalions organized in Valcartier in September, 1914, had remained in Canada after September 25, 1914.

NO NEW BADGES IF OLD NOT DESTROYED

An A., B. or C. Badge Must Be Irretrievably Lost to Be Replaced. Speaking about lost badges, Mr. Richards, of the department of the military district in Toronto, responsible for them, stated to The World yesterday afternoon that if a man lost his badge it would be necessary for him to make a statutory declaration to the effect that the badge had been lost irretrievably, so that no unauthorized persons could get hold of it. "You will readily understand," said Mr. Richards, "that if a man loses a badge upon the street, anyone might pick it up and pass himself off as a claimant for any honors pertaining thereto. But if, on the other hand, it has been lost irretrievably, as would

MERRICK SCORNS KOLDOVSKY'S HOPE

Garment Workers Adamant and Hopeful; Merrick Only Adamant. S. Koldovsky, manager for the Garment Workers' Union in Toronto, stated yesterday afternoon that matters were progressing as well as could be expected with the strike. There was a strong chance of settlement within the next week. Negotiations were still the best. James G. Merrick, secretary of the Association, expressed his hope of himself as by no means hopeful of any settlement whatever. He also stated that there were no negotiations with any of the employers of any sort.

POLICE COURT FINDINGS.

Percy Frith, a seventeen-year-old boy, was sentenced to six months in jail when he was found guilty yesterday morning in police court of theft of two motor cars. On a charge of criminal negligence Thomas Hirst was remanded for one week. Bail of $2,000 was accepted. Hirst was driving an automobile that ran down and killed a little boy named Gordon McPherson. For failing to report for military duty Benjamin R. Hayes was fined $250 and costs or six months in jail when he appeared yesterday morning in the police court. Strange to say, the beacon of home doesn't shine very brightly when people are light housekeeping. Never mind; the men with German sympathies has a good chance to sympathize.

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 15.

Private Ownership Failed.

All the enemies of public ownership are trying to make it appear that the government operation of railways in the United States and Britain during the war and since...

But no privately owned or operated railroad, coal mine or street railway could present an instance of a deficit incurred in order to benefit the public.

Similarly with the coal mines, largely controlled in the first instance by the railroads, or vice versa. They also broke down under the war strain.

Private ownership has nothing to boast about in the railways and coal mines of Britain and America which left them derelict under the pressure of war.

The practice of Economy. A prominent citizen has written The World suggesting that the newspapers might well use their influence in educating the people how to keep down the high cost of living.

Proportional Representation. Manitoba Free Press: Proportional representation is popularly regarded as a very complex system of voting.

Another thing shown in the kaleidoscopes of the day was the declaration of the other old time Liberal organ, The Toronto Star, that it was against Hartley Dewart, that it was for Hon. Mr. Rowell; also that it was for the Unionist government, of which Mr. Rowell—not by its express words, but by its implications—was the second man in the cabinet.

If the newspaper adopted any such method with the majority of their readers, said readers would regard it as weak and read something else. An endeavor to educate the people in economy at the present time would be a direct insult to injury.

life. The street car men are being abused by the capitalists for asking 55 cents an hour. For the more favored this would work out about $30 a week.

The people who talk most about economy are, as a rule, people with a margin. A margin, let us say, is the amount of income a man has over and above his actual needs and expenses.

Our correspondent closes with the shrewd remark that France, always a thrifty nation, is probably in a better position to support the cost of the war than any other country.

Another peculiar kaleidoscope presentation yesterday was that of The Evening Telegram, which declared itself for Sir Wm. Hearst and his government, and their appeal to the country.

The bankers, the big business men, the men whose hands must control the levers of trade and commerce, have set their faces steadily against war.

The common-sense of Germany's business men is the best guarantee of peace in the world today. Trade does not thrive by war, and trade is the life-blood of humanity at present.

Manitoba Free Press: Proportional representation is popularly regarded as a very complex system of voting, beyond the comprehension of the average elector.

Another thing shown in the kaleidoscopes of the day was the declaration of the other old time Liberal organ, The Toronto Star, that it was against Hartley Dewart, that it was for Hon. Mr. Rowell; also that it was for the Unionist government, of which Mr. Rowell—not by its express words, but by its implications—was the second man in the cabinet.

PAIRING COMPANY

The Globe: I'll tak th' high road, An' ye'll tak th' low road, An' I'll be in Scotland afore you.

POLITICAL NOTES AND THE KALEIDOSCOPES

Political news and rumors were flying fast yesterday; all the morning and the evening papers asked readers to take a peek thru their respective kaleidoscopes.

Another peculiar kaleidoscope presentation yesterday was that of The Evening Telegram, which declared itself for Sir Wm. Hearst and his government, and their appeal to the country.

Next in interest was the sudden clearance of the air as regards certain politicians and certain newspapers.

And not only has The Globe parted company with the Unionist government and Hon. Mr. Rowell and taken Hartley and his boom, but it said that for all practical purposes the Liberal party under the leadership of Mr. Dewart was at least as earnest, perhaps a little more earnest, in the cause of prohibition and the enforcement of the Ontario temperance act than was Mr. Hearst and his party.

All this is more or less interesting and some of these things may be on the point of happening; but the impression that the observer would draw is that both governments are going more or less to pieces, and the public will have to wait a few days longer to get at the real drift of things.

And speaking of Ontario, with the give and take that is going on, no one will care to bank much on the composition of the administration that will have charge of the affairs of Ontario after the general election until they know what the attitude of the various contestants and various parties is.

Men say the days of chivalry are o'er, And that the knightly spirit is no more, And yet today upon a city street...

IDA TALKS TO SOLDIER BOYS

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

We are in receipt of a letter from a chap in the Daville Hospital, asking us to please write something funny, because the boys like to be amused, and that they like the writer better when she is kidding.

Now, in the first place, we are always on the level, so evidently our songs must be mixed, that is, the first two are in that rank of the woods and this part of the population. It would be just as easy for us to be premier of Canada as to be funny.

There is but one opinion among politicians of all shades regarding the provincial general elections. They will come with the referendum. The time, however, remains in doubt.

The circular is issued: "In view of the amendment of voters, (which is now under way for the referendum, and in view of the probability of a provincial general election, the meeting will take place in St. George's Hall Wednesday afternoon."

So that on the whole, for the day, there was quite a considerable effort on the part of these three papers to pick the people to take a peek at their kaleidoscopes, and notwithstanding the changes it is evident in the end that quite a lot of disintegration had taken place.

But we were also told in the several papers of yesterday that Mr. Tomlin of British Columbia, was to be the new minister of agriculture—and they got that out of The World—and that Hon. Dr. Reid was among those retiring from the Borden cabinet—and they got that out of The World.

All this is more or less interesting and some of these things may be on the point of happening; but the impression that the observer would draw is that both governments are going more or less to pieces, and the public will have to wait a few days longer to get at the real drift of things.

ADVANTAGE OF AIR ADVERTISING SHOWN IN DIRIGIBLE TRIP

Electrical Signs of New York Plainly Seen by the R-34.

DIARY OF JOURNEY

Voyage as Forerunner of Regular Exchange of Mail and Papers.

Pulham, Norfolk, England, July 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The log of the R-34 on its eastern trip, as on its voyage westward, was kept by Brigadier-General Edward F. Maitland, representative of the British air ministry on the dirigible.

The log says that after an extremely good "getaway, New York looked wonderful at midnight and was a veritable fairyland in the morning. The searchlights at first made a very unsuccessful search, but finally got us fair and square."

At 10.10 a.m. Thursday the R-34 headed for New Scotland base at an estimated speed of 74 miles an hour, getting the full benefit of a 35 knot wind from the southwest.

At 10.45 o'clock the R-34 was making 72 knots on four engines, the forward engine having been stopped. "If all goes well," the log continues, "scout, commander of the R-34, will go straight to London to see how long it takes to cross from Broadway to Piccadilly Circus, from the heart of one capital to the heart of another."

Major G. H. Scott, commander of the R-34 in its successful trip across the Atlantic, which ended at Pulham, Sunday morning, July 14, is representative of the British air ministry on the dirigible, being greeted with rousing cheers from the British and more officers of the Royal Air Force and representatives of the war office and the air ministry when they arrived in London this afternoon from Pulham.

A big crowd had gathered at the railway station, and the officers of the R-34 were forced to make their way through the throng to make their chief, Mayor-General J. E. Healy, Major-General J. E. Healy, Major-General J. E. Healy, made a detailed report to the air council concerning the voyage of the R-34.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

AT THE ROYAL ALEXANDRA. "Yes or No" Runs Another Week With Perfected Interpretation by Robins Players.

Another week has been allotted to the exceedingly popular comedy-drama "Yes or No," at the Royal Alexandra, by the Robins players. Last night's performance was naturally smoother and more perfect than a week previously, but it was as spontaneous and as thrilling as ever. Helma Caruthers' lines are as amusing as anything in recent comedy, and the audience roars with laughter over the smart retorts and the apt slang which she applies like caustic to the warts of life. A very notable piece of acting is Robert E. Homans' version of Donald Vane, the deserted husband, in the second act. Thomas McKnight makes a thoroughly contemptible creature out of Paul Darrick Jack Amory, whose Doctor Mallory, has some difficulty in eliminating his comedy vein, following his "invariable rule."

AT THE STRAND. Charlie Chaplin Shows Pathos as Well as Humor in His Comedy "Sunshine".

Charlie Chaplin's "Sunshine" again draws crowds to the Strand this week. The picture is a masterpiece of comedy, ranks high and the humor of it at times is exquisite. Some especially appealing scenes are of Charlie registering wistfulness. Fans here changed laughter to sighs, so vivid is the comedian's acting. Another scene occurs when rendered unconscious and his "dreams" are visited by fairies with whom he dances. Given the material and the story line is unlimited. The picture is up to the usual Chaplin standard and its only fault appears to lie in its brevity.

AT MADISON. "Common Clay" at Madison. "Common Clay," the seven-act Pathé feature, the comedian, "The Militant Suffragette," is also shown in "Sunshine" Charlie is "the help" at a country hotel and on him devolve the various duties of the place, which he performs with a grace and a power, a particularly funny scene occurs when instead of working he falls asleep under a bridge and dreams that he is dancing with some nymphs. His interpretation of the classic dance is most amusing.

FROM NATURAL CAUSES. A verdict of death from natural causes was presented to Coroner Barrell at the morgue today by the coroner, who died Saturday morning in his home at 1230 Dovercourt road. Barrell was stricken with heart failure.

PRISONERS CARRIED PACKETS OF DOPE. Alleged Drug Pedlars Arrested—Police Watched For Three Days. Two alleged dope pedlars were arrested yesterday afternoon by Morality Officers Kerr and Massey, charged with selling drugs. The men arrested were taken to the police as Michael O'Connor, no home, and Reginald Henry, 550 Dupont street. Both men were apparently avenue as they were about to make a sale of a packet said to have contained cocaine. When searched over 40 packages of morphine and cocaine were found on both men.

CHILD STRUCK BY AUTO. When she was struck by a motor car at the corner of Queen and Bathurst streets last night, Lillian Dredwin, aged 6 years, of 25 Bathurst street, was injured about the head. The child was taken to the Hospital for Sick Children, Herbert Block, 182 Birch Cliff avenue, driver of motor car, was not detained by police.

PLAYING TO CAPACITY. Thousands See "Mickey," the Big Photoplay at the Grand Opera House.

The remarkable film production "Mickey," entered upon its seventh week at the Grand Opera House yesterday to two capacity houses, and there appears to be no let-up to the patronage. If anything there is an increase in demand for seats, and the box office reports say that the indications "point to another week."

"SQUARE DEAL SANDERSON." Romance of "Wild and Woolly" Gives W. H. Hart Unequaled Chance to Show His Powers.

"Square Deal Sanderson," at Loew's this week, features William S. Hart in one of those plays which appear to delight his heart—not to mention his admirers. The western story, and an admirable "wild and woolly" setting. And he puts his personality into an entirely original and gripping story. As the man who refuses to let a gang of crooks steal his sweetheart's ranch, Hart is at his best, and the ingenious trick by which he beats the crook is well acted. The force of the photoplay is undeniable.

MOTHER AND SONS HURT IN COLLISION. Mrs. F. Kettle and her two sons, aged five and three years, were cut and bruised last night when a motor car in which they were driving was struck by another automobile at the corner of Geoffrey street and Sunnyside avenue. A. L. Goodwin, 1289 West Bloor street, was driving a car west on Geoffrey street and was crossing Sunnyside avenue when a south-bound motor car, in charge of Roy Howell, 880 Indian road, struck Goodwin's car, and the latter was hurled into the air.

REFUSE TO REJOICE WHILE COMRADES PINE. No. 1 post, G.A.C., at a regular meeting of their executive last night, passed a unanimous resolution to the effect that the officials opposing taking part in any celebration of peace until such time as all comrades in Ontario jails convicted for breaches of the Ontario temperance act should be released. The resolution was forwarded to the attorney-general.

PLUCKY RESCUE OF EPILEPTIC SWIMMER. A young boy, whose name the police did not ascertain, was rescued from drowning Sunday morning by a police officer on duty at the beach near the shore of the lake. The boy was seen to be struggling in the water. A police officer, who was on duty at the time, saw the boy and took the water at the time, made a plucky effort to save the lad. His frantic struggles, however, prevented her from bringing the boy to the shore. It was on learning of the danger the boy was in, that his father, who was on the beach, saw the boy and rushed to his aid. The boy was unconscious, but he responded to the efforts of bathers to revive him.

"A WOMAN THERE WAS." Tragedy of South Seas at the Hippodrome Features Theda Bara as Heroine.

A man, a girl, a great love, and a chance to sacrifice herself—what an opportunity for the great Fox star, Theda Bara, to put her personality into a play made for herself! In the role of a dusky princess at the Hippodrome this week, Miss Bara reveals in an orgy of romantic passion, which takes place on an island in the south seas. Zava is the reigning princess of the tribes and to the island comes Winthrop Stark, a missionary, whom she at once enslaves. Stark has a white fiancée and Zava loves and a passionate temperament makes her sacrifice herself for the man she loves, which she does when defending him from the anger of her people. The picture is a sequel to Rudyard Kipling's masterpiece, "A Fool There Was," reversing the position of the chief characters. "A Woman There Was" will rank as one of the best photoplays of Miss Bara's production.

"OTHER MEN'S WIVES." Film at Allen Portrays Fashionable Tendency of Idle Rich as Regards Marriage.

"Other Men's Wives" at the Allen Theatre this week is the story of a set of people who have so much money and idle time that they are constantly on the move for new diversions, and so amuse themselves with flirting with other men's wives. The story concerns four people, James Gordon, his wife Viola, Fenwick Flint and Cynthia Brook (Dorothy Dalton). Viola Gordon is tired of her husband and is carrying on a flirtation with Fenwick, who wishes her to divorce her husband. She can find no cause for divorce, so Flint employs Cynthia Brook, a poor girl, who narrowly escapes being an adventuress, to compromise Gordon in order to secure the divorce. She is successful in doing so, the innocently she is really in love with Gordon herself and he with her, Gordon's wife secures her divorce and marries Flint and Cynthia goes to work. In time Gordon comes to her and they confess their mutual love.
