THE CUSHING CASE ARGUED

Judge Barker Had It Before Him in Equity This Morning.

The Cushing Sulphite Company matter came before Judge Barker in the equity court this morning. Judge Barker on the 20th inst., made an order appointing the sale of the Cushing Sulphite Company property on May 1st, 1906.

Dr. Earle argued that the court of chancery could not be enjoined by any other court except by statute, and that the statute as argued by H. A. Powell, K.C., did not authorize such an injunction as Mr. Justice McLeod had made by his order. He cited a celebrated case of conflict between the Queen's Bench chancery presided over by Lord Elmore, and claimed that the action of Geo. S. Cushing, the liquidator, and that of the court of chancery, was in violation of the high court of chancery.

HE SAYS HE KEEPS HIS WRATH WARM

Rev. James Simpson of Charlottetown Continues to Pound the Island Prohibition Law -- "Silly Interference With Rights of the People."

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Oct. 23.—(Special)—In St. James Presbyterian church yesterday Rev. T. T. Fullerton delivered to a large congregation, including the fourth regiment of C. A. who paraded there, an eloquent eulogy on Nelson, whom he termed one of the greatest heroes found on the roll of British honor, who is still without a peer in his own particular realm. Without Trafalgar there would have been no Waterloo, no British empire, no colonies as today.

Rev. Jas Simpson is bound to keep warm his wrath against the treating section of the prohibition act. Tonight, in an address given to a crowded church, including people of different denominations, he further defined his position already set forth in the press. He quoted from the Boston Journal a recent date upholding his stand and declaring that the treating clause was a silly interference with the rights of the people. A class resolution that incoherently allowed a committee of the city council to treat a prince and fined a poor man $100 for treating a friend, that permitted liquors to be sold at the Charlottetown club, and vendors and druggists to wink at the law, was made a strong plea for a club for working men conducted on strict temperance principles, after the manner of the "Harbor Light" formerly conducted by Rev. W. W. Brewer and himself, thus providing the true education that makes prohibition possible.

Two aged residents of four score years did very suddenly here yesterday. One was William Goff, son of the late Fude Goff, city probationary. The deceased spent many years in South Africa, returning to the island forty years ago. The other was Lemuel C. McKay, formerly collector for the Charlottetown Light and Power Co. The house, barn and granary of James Leard, at Skinner's Pond was burned to the ground with all his produce and machinery.

Frederick Hostelery Considerably Damaged by Smoke and Water—The Briggs Case.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 23 (Special)—A destructive fire broke out at one o'clock this afternoon in the basement of the Queen Hotel. It caught from the heater used in connection with the cooling apparatus and quickly spread to a pile of wood near by. When the firemen arrived they found it so well established that it was impossible to locate the flames. Three streams of water were turned on the fire, but it did not seem to have much effect. The fire spread to every room of the house. There is a large quantity of coal stored in the cellar and it is believed to be on fire. The flames are confined to the cellar. Landlord McCaffrey's loss will be a serious one. The smoke poured up the stairs so rapidly that guests were unable to get to their rooms to secure their valuables and personal belongings.

The preliminary examination of Mrs. Susan Briggs, charged with causing the death of an infant child in going on the police court today.

Foreigners at Loch Lomond Engaged in a Fight in Which an Axe and Revolver Were Used.

It is reported that a very serious affair occurred at the waterworks one day last week on the Loch Lomond section. It appears that at the head of the tunnel two foreigners commonly called "daggers" entered into an argument which started in a very matter of course manner. As time elapsed, however, heated words were exchanged between the men in their own language. Some of their English brethren were present but not knowing the foreign language did not understand the weight of the language being exchanged between the two men engaged in the quarrel.

Finally the presence of an axe in the grasp of one of the foreigners hands was evidence that the quarrel had become anticipated. The flourishing of a revolver by the other enraged "dagger" raised the other's suspicions. The "dagger" with the axe used his weapon on his antagonist, it is alleged, and had it not been for one of the men present catching the revolver in the possession of the other "dagger" a murder might have resulted.

Having been disarmed of the revolver the injured "dagger" was carried to the hut, and it was found that he was seriously injured. It was thought expedient to convey him to the city and have his injuries attended to at the hospital. Accordingly he was made as comfortable as possible and driven to the city. Enquiry at the hospital at noon elicited the information that the injured man is getting along as well as can be expected.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE The ferry steamer Ludlow will go on the route this afternoon for a while to enable the crew to become used to the steam steering gear. Considerable trouble is being experienced in docking her, owing to the difference in action of the screw and the paddle wheel. It is thought that the mystery of the steamer will be fathomed in a few days. A new feed pump will be installed as the present one has been found to be entirely inadequate. D. Arnold Fox went to Sussex this morning. Fred N. Chalmers, of 46 Adelaide street, who for some time has been confined to his house through illness, was reported as in a critical condition this morning. Mr. Chalmers is well and favorably known to the residents of the north end and will leave shortly for Boston. Wm. Wallace of the north end has returned to his home in the city. John Day of the north end has returned from Winnipeg. Stanley Golding, formerly in the employ of G. S. DeForest & Son, left this morning for Boston, where he has accepted a position.

NAVAL REVIEW GREAT SUCCESS

Splendid Array of Warships Greets the Mikado

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A special to the Tribune from Pittsburgh says:—Fred Gwymer, president of the defunct Enterprise National Bank, when asked yesterday what the shortage of the Eastern prize would amount to, said:—"It will be very large, much larger, in fact, than we first supposed. From what I know, it will reach $1,500,000. None of the directors, not even myself, thought it would reach such an enormous sum as that."

"The directors have determined, however, that no matter how great the shortage it will be paid and the bank reopened for business. We hope before a month elapses it will be in operation again."

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Legislative Life Insurance Committee, it was learned last night, had decided that ex-Governor Odell shall testify before it, says the Tribune. Paul Morton, president of the Equitable has decided, so a Tribune reporter learned, yesterday, to base a further organization of the Equitable on the legislative committee's investigation of the society. This explains why the Equitable's new management has permitted certain criticized officers and directors of the old regime to retain their old positions. At least five Equitable officers or directors, it was learned, have been told to hold themselves in readiness to testify this week.

The legislative committee is considering the question as to whether in view of the last week's testimony regarding the Mutual Life's Albany house it shall issue subpoenas for all the members of the insurance committee of both the senate and the legislative assemblies of 1905. No decision has yet been reached, however.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The American League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia and three friends from Philadelphia had a narrow escape from being burned to death yesterday in an explosion of gasoline on Mr. Shible's launch which tipped the scales a 318 pounds. The party came from Philadelphia in an automobile. About noon they boarded the launch where they were to have a match to light a cigar. In an instant an explosion occurred and the boat was in flames. The cabin windows and doors were blown out on the head while his companions were thrown into the water. Mr. Shible and his companions were rescued by a dory that was tied to the stern and escaped from the burning hull.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Otto Klotz, a German blacksmith, 37 years old, was stabbed fatally in a hotel at Naperville yesterday by Joseph Raggi, an Italian barber. The men had been twisting each other good naturedly about their nationality when Raggi, angered by the words of his companion, started a fight. Raggi drew a knife and stabbed Klotz twelve times. One wound just above the heart was the cause of death. After the affray Klotz attempted to walk to a doctor's office and fell dead on the sidewalk. Raggi was arrested.

Father O'Keefe, James Stuart and Curran Hargh, witnesses for the defence, were examined. The case of Poulletie vs. the ship Lady Ellen will come up this afternoon. This is an action in rem for $1,625.75. The ship was arrested some days ago and will be heard this afternoon. She claims $1,625.75 for bunk wages, wrongfully disallowed and for disbursements made for her on a voyage to Scotland. J. D. Hazen and Dr. A. A. Stockton appear for the plaintiff, W. A. Howatt of Campbell for the defendant.

RUSSIAN RAILWAYS ARE PARALYZED BY GENERAL STRIKE AT KHARKOFF It Broke Out Today and Communication is Cut Off Throughout Great Section of the Empire—No Change in Conditions at Moscow.

RUSSIAN BYES ... "Tanahwill" of ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 23.—The rail road strike situation shows no signs of amelioration. Traffic across the central belt is paralyzed, while a general strike which broke out today at Kharkoff has cut off communication in another great section of the empire. Kharkoff is the most important railroad centre in Southern Russia. The strike affects among other lines the one to the Donetz coal region, on which Russia largely depended for fuel during the crisis in other regions. Moscow is isolated, except the line to St. Petersburg, while the capital has the international line via Kydinkof open to Berlin. The strike is part of a general scheme of the socialists to compel the emperor to grant universal suffrage and complete political freedom, but the plan of the leaders is to avoid a collision with the authorities. Their present purpose is to make tests of the strength of the various organizations preparatory to the inauguration of a general strike of all classes in support of the radicals about the time the national assembly meets. The congress of railroad employees now in session here has adopted a resolution in favor of universal suffrage, political freedom, amnesty, the right to organize strikes, the liberation of the arrested strikers, an eight hour day, schools for the employees' children and the abolition of martial law, the railroad gendarmery, and capital punishment.

It may be added that any person caught in an attempt to slice off a button or any other part of the uniform will be dealt with severely. Mr. Peter Binks states that if he could be kept in the new Y. M. C. A. building he will want a life membership. Nothing less would satisfy his thirst for reform. Only a few tame ones are left about the place.

SPARK CAUSED SERIOUS FIRE

Mrs. Thos. Robinson's House at Maugeville Burned

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 23 (Special)—The dwelling house of Mrs. Thomas Robinson of Upper Maugeville, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a spark falling on the roof. It had made considerable headway before being discovered, but the neighbors took hold willingly and succeeded in saving most of the furniture. This is the second time Mrs. Robinson has been burned out within three years. Her loss is estimated at about $2,000. She has $1,200 on the house and $300 on the furniture in the Norwich Union.

The approaching visit of Prince Louis to this city is being looked forward to with great interest and elaborate preparations are being made for his entertainment. At a meeting of the civic committee this morning it was decided to hold a public reception at the Opera House provided this arrangement is approved of by the Prince. The mayor will present a civic address on the stage of the Opera House and it is proposed to have a reception immediately afterwards.

The legislative buildings are being put in shape for the grand ball to be held in the evening. Two thousand invitations have already been sent out, and it is likely double that number will be issued. People from all parts of the province are expected to attend. Melville Harris and John Verax shot a buck deer at Kingsclear Saturday which weighed 318 pounds. It is one of the largest ever killed in the province. The carcass was brought to the city and sold to George Beatty, butcher.

LOCH LOMOND EXTENSION Work Progressing Favorably On All Sections—May Utilize Silver Falls for Electric Lighting Plant.

Work on the water extension at Loch Lomond is progressing favorably. The Robertson dam will probably be finished inside of two weeks. POLICE COURT In the Police Court this morning Joseph Murphy, for being drunk, was charged by Policeman Marshall with drunkenness. The morning the prisoner said he was not drunk and had not tasted liquor for two weeks. He stated that he had come from the Loch Lomond for a parcel, and that he could not obtain it. He finally went to "Jimmy" Brennan's hotel and went to bed, but on account of sleeping with his light burning Mr. Brennan put him out. The prisoner said he had not been drinking, but before leaving Loch Lomond, he downed the contents of half a dozen Pilseener bottles. Policeman Marshall stated that Guthrie was drunk when arrested, and Judge Ritchie remanded him. Dennis Burke was reported for keeping two unlicensed dogs. He said he had been fined the mand would have been shot now that the law exacted payment for license.

In response to my inquiry, he replied: "They've jammed at the upper bend, jammed bad. The crew's been picking at her for near a week now, and last night Darrell was down to see about some more dynamite. It's worth seeing. The breast of her is near thirty feet high, and lots of water in the river."
"Darrell?" said I, catching at the name. "Yes, he's near here this year. Do you think you'd like to take a look at her?"
"I think I should," I assented.
The house and I jogged slowly along a deep sand road, through wastes of pine stumps and holes of hardwood beautiful with the early spring, until finally we arrived at a clearing in which stood two huge tents, a mammoth kettle hung over a fire of logs, and drying racks about the timber of another fire. A fat cook in the inevitable battered derby hat, two bareheaded coolies, and a chow "booy" of seven-cent-old samaras were the only men being in sight. One of the coolies agreed to keep an eye on my horse.

"You deserve it, every bit," said I. "I'm not going to call you a hero, because that would make you tired. What you did this afternoon showed nerve. It was a brave act. But it was a better act because you rescued your enemy, because you forgot everything but your common humanity when danger—"

SON-IN-LAW OF McCURDY

Was in Church When the Priest Assailed Insurance Officials.

(New York Herald, Monday.)

Taking for his text, "They brought in a man sick of the paley," the Rev. Cornelius Clifford, assistant rector of the Catholic church of the Assumption, in Morristown (N.J.), yesterday in his sermon severely arraigned the managers of the great life insurance companies for their acts as exposed in the legislative investigation.

Though no names were mentioned, many curious glances were cast in the direction of Louis A. Thebaud, son-in-law of Richard A. McCurdy, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who sat with his wife in their seat in the front of the church.

Comparison was made between the man with play and one stepped in sin, this being the impression of the rector declared Christ wished to convey when he performed the miracle in restoring the man to health.

"There are men all around us in this beautiful city," said the rector, "who wear gentlemen's clothing, but who are so contaminated and whose souls are so paralyzed that they do not realize they are doing wrong."

Mr. and Mrs. Thebaud remained until the service was over, but did not linger to chat with the other members of the congregation, as has been their custom.

Mr. and Mrs. Thebaud have been prominent members of the parish since their marriage, when Mr. Thebaud took up his residence in Morristown, and have been among the most liberal contributors to its expenses. Mrs. Thebaud recently gave an electric fan of one hundred and fifty lamps to the church and paid for other improvements.

She had charge of a vaunderbilt entertainment last winter when, with $7,000 was netted for all Saint's hospital, an institution conducted by the Church of the Assumption, much of this money coming from the Mutual Life, New York Life, Equitable, Metropolitan and other life insurance companies, which paid high prices for advertisements in a programme of the entertainment.

Since the Thebauds became members of the church its collections have been much increased. It was only a few weeks ago that the rector of the church read a letter from Bishop O'Connor congratulating him on having better all other parishes in the diocese in the amount collected for the diocesan seminary.

"Mary, I saw the baker kiss you today. I think I shall go down to see him. I'm sure he wouldn't kiss you, 'cos he promised he'd serve his nobody else but me."

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate Nurse from the Blockley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.
Mrs. Pohlman writes: "I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with nervous bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctor prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would blot after eating and frequently become nauseated. I had an acid discharge and pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad as a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female troubles where all other medicines fail. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine as directed. When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or meet with such symptoms as directed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is free and confidential. Write her at once.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Experience has proved this.

By which we become members of the temperance society in the town of Calais, we solemnly pledge and obligate ourselves thus to act for one year. The females who subscribe to this constitution agree also not to offer wine as an entertainment to their friends and visitors.

There shall be a yearly meeting of the society to be called by the minister of the place on the evening of the first Sabbath in June, when any who wish to do so shall have liberty to withdraw his name, and unless a name is thus withdrawn, the obligation of the person shall remain for the ensuing year.

The names of any, who by their diet have forfeited their membership shall be erased at the annual meeting of the society and a record of the same shall be preserved. THE I. C. R. AGAIN

In Toronto last week Hon. Mr. Emmerson made this statement to a News reporter:—

"I will go this far, that if on one classification of freight for a 300 mile haul, during a limited period of years, the charges had been the same as those on the eastern divisions of the Grand Trunk or Canadian Pacific the earnings of the Intercolonial would have been increased to such an extent as to wipe out the aggregate of deficits on the Intercolonial during the whole period of its existence." Mr. Emmerson pointed out that the low rates on the Intercolonial have been of much benefit to the merchants and manufacturers of Ontario, as they had been equal to a high protective tariff for the Ontario manufacturer, and had given him a market which before was enjoyed by the New England manufacturer in a number of important lines, notably agricultural implements and machinery, and carriages.

Continuing, he said:—"My idea about the Intercolonial is this: That it can be made one of the best assets of the Dominion and one of the most productive. It is within sight that the Intercolonial can be made, if not a paying, at least not a losing venture. It is simply a question of rates after all. Naturally there were some leakages, and these things have to be shaken up once in a while to discover where they are, but these are easily cured. I think it will be shown that the leakages are now pretty well being stopped. It is necessary to have modern methods in handling coal for instance. I can see where savings can be made which will greatly reduce the expenses, and I am preparing for my colleagues a complete statement of the causes of the financial situation on the Intercolonial and shall recommend the application of certain remedies, which if carried out will, I am sure, forever shut any question of the transfer of the Intercolonial to any company or syndicate, or to anyone else."

The minister also referred to the canal once more, and said to a representative of the Toronto Globe:—"The rates on the Intercolonial were established with a view to stimulating the commerce of the Dominion, and especially the interprovincial and export trade. The canal tolls were abolished with the object of helping the commerce of Ontario and Quebec, and the export traffic out of Montreal and Quebec, without any expectation that it would help the business interests or the export traffic of the maritime provinces. If it is fair to operate the canal of Canada at an annual deficit in operation alone of a million dollars, without mentioning capital expenditure, there is surely nothing very unfair with respect to the operation of the Intercolonial if the results of that operation tend to the advancement of the business interests of Canada."

The Toronto Globe apparently is unwilling to accept Mr. Emmerson's statement that it is a question of rates and the stoppage of a few leakages in order to make the I. C. R. pay its way. It says: "Notwithstanding all that has been said, the impression is firmly fixed that there is extravagant overmanning on the road and in the shops, and that, because of the lack of proper organization and efficiency in the work, it is utterly inadequate to the charge for wages. It is alleged by well-informed friends of the Intercolonial and of the government that the dominant idea in the management is not business, but politics. Men are employed who are not needed and who are not competent. The permanent staff is very large, and in addition there is a very large number on the 'temporary list' who are a permanent charge. There is no discipline, because the men owe their positions not to their own ability or industry as workmen, but to their 'pull' with some local politician or patronage committee. Under such conditions overmanning is inevitable, so is incompetence, and so is inefficiency."

The Globe's remedy as a competent railway manager, appointed by parliament and absolutely free from political influences. Doubtless, unless when parliament meets the minister can submit a plan which promises satisfactory results. The Globe's suggestion will meet with much favor. Large deficits must be prevented. But it is fair to hear the minister's plan before it is condemned.

HE HATH HIS REWARD

Mr. Dominique Monet, friend of Bourassa, and one of the orators of the small anti-British party in Quebec, has been provided for. He has been made proprietor of the district of Montreal, a life position at $4,000 per year. Mr. Monet, when in parliament, was a somewhat fiery Nationalist. Then he went into provincial politics and was made a member of the Parent government, an act which was promptly followed by the resignation of Hon. Messrs. Gouin, Turgeon and Weyr. When Mr. Parent resigned and Hon. Mr. Gouin became premier, Mr. Monet was dropped from the cabinet. There was no doubt a prospect that he would make trouble, and so he is provided with a snug berth. As Mr. Monet is only forty years of age, he should be able to enjoy for many years the advantages arising from a strenuous youthful career in the political arena. His withdrawal from the latter will not be widely mourned.

ed, for Mr. Monet had a regrettable habit of making even his friends uncomfortable, and of stirring up feelings such as do not make for peace and goodwill among men of different races and religions. It would be unfortunate if his reward should give an inspiration to others of his ilk.

A CONTRAST

An Irish-American paper published in New York, referring to the coming reception to the British fleet, charges that a "base Anglo-American alliance" is the object, and declares that "England's friend is Ireland's enemy." It further says:—"The Irishmen in the United States navy would do a nice figure marching arm in arm with the British tars waving the Union Jack and singing 'God Save the King' and 'Rule Britannia.' Their murdered ancestors would rise in their graves and cry 'Shame!'"

Contrast this with the noble words of Bishop Casey at the Cathedral in this city yesterday morning:—"It is already nearly three generations since any penal legislation afflicted our fathers, and no one is ignorant of how large a measure of justice on the part of our rulers we are in the enjoyment of in this country. Our duty then is plain: our glory is in the fulfillment of it. 'Forgetting the things that are past, be it ours to rejoice in the peace, prosperity and security afforded us by our country. In this connection very apt is the declaration of the great Leo XIII, whose luminous words will serve as a beacon light to generations of Catholics yet unborn: 'Everyone knows the power and resources of the British nation and the civilizing influence which, with the spread of liberty, accompanies its commercial prosperity even to the most remote regions.'"

MONEY IS THE KEY

The condition of the stock markets generally is well indicated by what the Montreal Witness says of the market in that city last week. In its issue of Friday the Witness said:—"It is a long time since business on the local stock market was as dull as that recorded on the blackboard of the Stock Exchange during this week. London stocks have been lower, New York has followed, and the market, while not actually making any serious decline, was exceedingly dull, trading being restricted to broken lots in nearly every security on the market. Business has probably not averaged over 500 shares daily on the whole market, so that it is practically impossible to gauge the market value of stocks. The dullness is due to the continued-severe condition of the money market, and although everything is being done to prevent a stringency there is a possibility of rates increasing before the end of the year. It is thought that through the restraint of wild speculation there will be money enough to go round, but in the meantime operators do not feel like taking any chances."

While England was looking forward to the celebration of Trafalgar Day Germany has been looking into the question of the safety of her ports, and has not been well-pleased with the result. It is stated that not long since twenty-seven German warships under the command of Admiral von Koester tested at the mouths of the Elbe and Weser the question as to whether any foreign fleet now in existence could blockade Bremen and Hamburg, thus bringing Germany's sea commerce to ruin. The result, says a Berlin letter, has been far from gratifying to Germany's dreams of naval power. It was shown to be quite possible to blockade the German fleet, the enemy keeping his battleships out of range, and holding the German ships shut up by means of his fast cruisers and torpedo craft. The German fleet could force the blockade only by offering battle on the high sea.

The Prince and Princess of Wales, who have embarked at Genoa on the British battleship Renown, are due to arrive at Bombay, Nov. 9. They will stay in India until March, visiting the principal cities and native states, and receiving the chief and prince on behalf of King Edward. The departure of Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the viceroy who resigned Aug. 20, was postponed in view of the fact that King Edward desired Lord Curzon to remain and officially welcome the Prince and Princess of Wales. Lord Curzon and his wife will therefore preside in Bombay at the ceremonies connected with the arrival of the royal party.

A Toronto bank man is quoted as having said that banks find it difficult to get good junior clerks, and that one bank has advertised in Scotland for applicants. He says he supposes the difficulty in getting good clerks is "due to general prosperity." Possibly if the banks, which are supposed to have some share in the general prosperity, would pay their clerks a salary somewhat in keeping with their responsibility and what is expected of them, the supply would not be so limited.

Membership in the Reformed Presbyterian church, Toronto, has been refused to four persons who refuse to drink fermented wine at the communion table. This appears to be a case where a non-essential is made its assumed undue importance on both sides. It may be hoped that St. Peter is not instructed to apply such tests at the gates of the celestial city.

Men of Saint John. ROBERT MAXWELL, M. P. P.

Robert Maxwell, M. P. P., a leading St. John builder, though still a young man, has had a notable career in business, in politics and in fraternal and other organizations. Mr. Maxwell was born in Fredericton June 17, 1858, and acquired his education at Fredericton under the direction of Drs. Roberts and Cozier and John Moore. He served an apprenticeship with his father in the building trade until 1877 when he came to this city and worked as a journeyman for six years. In 1882 he entered partnership with the late William Causy, who was for sixty years a prominent builder here. The partnership continued until the death of Mr. Causy in 1885. Since that time Mr. Maxwell has conducted business on his own account. Mr. Maxwell has erected many of the

P. finest buildings in St. John and vicinity, notably the Union Baptist Seminary at St. Martins, the Centennial school, St. John's (Stone) church Sunday School; the residence of the late Sir Leonard Tilley, the Main Street Baptist church; W. C. Cross' residence; C. H. Peiser's residence; Geo. A. Moore's building on Brunsell St.; M. B. A. addition on King St. East; Dunlop's residence on King St. East; the Mason and stone-cutters work on the new Free Public Library and several other handsome structures. At present he is engaged in building a fine residence for George A. Henderson on King St. East, and in remodeling the Canada Permanent Mortgage Co., building on Prince William St., as well as a number of others.

Mr. Maxwell was elected to the board of school trustees in 1897, and the board of aldermen in 1898, warden of St. John during 1899, and was deputy mayor during 1900. From 1902 to 1904 he acted as chairman of the public safety board, and during that time was instrumental in making many important improvements in the fire department. It was at his suggestion that the chemical engines were procured. The dividing of the city into six separate sections for the fire alarm service was also carried out under his administration. He has a keen interest in the affairs of the department and it was left in a much better condition than when he assumed the office. He was elected to the local legislature in the by-election of 1904, and has been an energetic member of the opposition. He is a fluent speaker and well informed. In his business as one of the leading builders of St. John Mr. Maxwell employs about forty men. He has been active in fraternal circles, and is a member of the Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance and Past Grand Lecturer of the Orange Society of New Brunswick. He is also a member of the Independent Order of Foresters, the Knights of Pythias and the Ancient Order of United Workmen. In 1878 he married Penelia T. McConnell, daughter of Moses McConnell. To them have been born eight children.

A ST. JOHN MAN Found That Below the Line They Are Inferior in Apples, Potatoes and Scenery.

(Montreal Witness, Friday.) An elderly, well-educated gentleman named Lee, who hails from St. John, New Brunswick, arrived in the city this morning. For the first time in his life he had been across to the Pacific coast, and returning on the Canadian Pacific. "What did I think of the country?" he said. "Why, I am returning home more a Canadian than ever. It is indeed a great country, and one of which we may well be proud. "The scenery that struck me most was in the Canadian Rocky Mountains. There it was grand, inspiring, much beyond the scenery which I saw in the Rocky Mountains further south, on the outward journey. Another thing I found was this:—I am very fond of a good apple, but I couldn't get any good apples—not what I call good—in the United States. And along towards the coast out California way I couldn't even get good potatoes. I thought at first the potatoes were badly cooked, but it isn't that. They can't grow them. If they want good potatoes or good apples they have to send to Canada for them."

THE FAIR CLOSED

After Very Successful Season it Came to An End Saturday Night.

The Fair of Nations closed its doors Saturday evening and it is estimated that the net proceeds will amount to between three and four thousand dollars. The sum taken for admission and for the high test during the four days was about $1,000, and it is thought that from the fifteen booths the total receipts after deducting expenses will be at least an equal amount. The fair was crowded throughout the evening and at the close the ladies in charge of the booths reported in the majority of cases that they had sold out everything. The City Cornet Band was in attendance and played a well selected programme of music during the evening.

At the close a meeting of the ladies who had taken part was held in the tea room at the instance of Lady Tilley, honorary president, and Mrs. Walter W. White, president of the fair. As a private session among other matters arrangements were made for leaving the booths standing until after the reception on Thursday.

L. P. D. Tilley, honorary president of the Y. M. C. A., then addressed a few graceful words, expressing the thanks of the trustees and board of management to all the ladies who had assisted in making the fair a success.

SANITARIUM FOR INEBRIATES

With or Without their Consent They Should Be Incarcerated. (Ottawa Journal.)

The city auditor is reported to have discovered that within the last year and a half an habitual drunkard has gone no less than nine times to a city hospital, has been registered as a pauper patient, and has had his bills paid by the city. It is charged that in each case his ailment has been alcoholism, pure and simple, and that his friends, unable to control him at home, have chosen the hospital instead of the jail as a sanitarium. The city auditor naturally objects. The man's keep in the hospital has cost the city 40 cents a day; in the jail it would have cost 9 cents. His visits to the hospital have averaged five days in duration. As a faithful servant of the people, the city auditor does no more than his plain duty in reporting the case. But the report opens up the field of enquiry as to the best means of treatment of inebriety, the inebriate, of course, is irresponsible. He is the victim first of an insidious physical ailment. This ailment may be aggravated in many cases it plainly is aggravated by natural "crossness." But modern physiologists, even modern alienists, agree that the tendency to alcoholism is a tendency to tuberculosis. The difference is that the alcoholic is a better man than the tuberculous victim, since until his will power is utterly destroyed he is able to make provision at the time he shakes off. But take the case of the hopeless inebriate. In the nature of things he invites aversion rather than sympathy. If he were to seek to struggle back to the possession even of self-respect, he would find few helpers outside the circle of his immediate relatives, and even those for the large part would set on his behalf in a sense of duty to themselves rather than of obligation to affection for him.

Has is a sad case. It is a case in which an enlightened philanthropy would be properly engaged. The remedy is admittedly hard to find. Highly specialized private institutions are attempting to do the work in the United States, but these institutions are at the command only of the well-to-do. Hospitals for the treatment of inebriates are in operation in Ontario and Quebec, possibly in the other provinces, but again the cost of treatment is prohibitive in the case of persons of small means. There remain the ordinary hospital, the insane asylum and the jail, the last two holding out possibilities of further degeneracy to the victim.

THE EGG TRADE

Montrealers Have Cheap Eggs This Year as Stocks Are Undeniably Heavy.

(Montreal Witness.) It is difficult to determine from the signs of the times just what the prospects are for the coming winter in the egg trade. Some who are in a position to know are emphatic in their opinion that Montrealers will not get the best of the winter, giving as their reason various large figures representing the number of dozens of eggs which were packed in storage in the season. It is impossible to get any reliable estimate as to the stocks that actually exist, but unless the "knowing" ones are very far astray, the eggs held in Ontario, in the London and Toronto centres, to say nothing of the Montreal and other minor holdings, are greatly in excess of the anticipated domestic demand. Those who are not the confidants of low prices state that a firmer foreign market would have the effect of drawing out large quantities of eggs which the dealer, glad to be clear, would sell very close, and now that the laying season is nearly over, an active export trade has been going on for some time. The principal objection advanced against this theory is that the prospects are by no means bright for a brisk export trade. Shipments of eggs to Great Britain, at least but a trifling number, are made. They are practically at a standstill owing to the wide difference in price between the producer and the consumer. A despatch from a firm of British importers received on Tuesday by a local shipper offers to bid to be per cent along hundred (100 eggs); while the price asked on the side is about 6d. c.i.f.

Three Men Fight Desperate Battle on Flying Electric Car

New York, Oct. 22.—Three men fought a battle with pistols on an Eighth avenue car today, in the course of which all of them were seriously injured. While the fight was being waged the car ran at top speed for a mile, with the gongs sounding an alarm and the passengers being flat on the floor to escape the shower of bullets. Thomas O'Brien, a truckman, jumped aboard the car at Thirty-first street and clapped a revolver to the conductor's head, ordered him to run the car full speed, as he was pursued by a gang who intended to kill him. A moment later two more men leaped on the car and attacked the motorman, one of them using a pistol. When their weapons were empty they clashed and fought with the butts of their pistols. The car rushed on down the avenue, the motorman pounding on the gong and the conductor shouting for the police, as far as Twenty-sixth street, where several policemen boarded it and secured the three combatants, all of whom were too badly injured to offer any resistance. O'Brien was found to have received a bullet in the neck. His assailants gave the names of Henry Prang and Thomas Sullivan. The former had been shot in the neck and the latter in the leg and arm. All three were taken to a hospital.

What woman isn't proud of such a compliment? A good house must have a good foundation—the foundation of ironing is starching. If the starch is good—if it's Colman's Starch, the ironing is sure to be all right—the kind a woman is proud of. Don't say you can't iron if you haven't tried

LAUNCH CAPSIZED; SIX WERE DROWNED

Sad Accident of Pleasuring Party in Delaware River Yesterday Afternoon.

Beverly, N. J., Oct. 22.—A launch containing nineteen, all of Philadelphia, collided with a barge in the Delaware river off this place late this afternoon, resulting in the drowning of six of the occupants of the little boat. The other three were rescued by the crew of the tugboat Bristol, which was towing the barge when the accident happened. Those rescued are Captain John Winch, the owner of the launch; W. F. Russell and J. Rutherford. At a late hour tonight the names of only three of the victims were ascertained—William Winch, son of the owner of the launch; John Ellis and a man named Rutherford. The launch was hired by eight of the men, most of whom lived in the northern part of Philadelphia. The older Winch took his son along to assist him in running the boat. The day was spent near Crofton, on the Pennsylvania side of the river. The start was made late in the afternoon. Opposite this place the launch met the tug Bristol, in command of Captain Mott, which was towing a barge to Bordentown. Whether or not Captain Winch saw the barge is not known; nevertheless he attempted to cross the tug's stern and Captain Mott halted him and tried to prevent him from doing so. Captain Winch was standing at the wheel of the launch as he went around the stern of the tug. The barge of the tug struck him and knocked him overboard. Before the captain's son or any other member of the party could take the wheel to steer the launch clear of the barge the latter struck the frail craft, capsizing it. The launch rolled under the barge and its occupants went with it. Captain Mott put the tug about and went to the rescue, but the crew threw ropes and life preservers to the struggling men in the water, but they were unable to save any of them. The rescued men were landed here by the tug and cared for at a hotel. They left for Philadelphia late tonight.

MARITIME EXPRESS KILLED POLICEMAN

Martin Foley Met a Tragic Death at Chatham Saturday Night.

Chatham, N. B., Oct. 22.—(Special)—Martin Foley met his end in a very tragic way last night. He left here to spend Sunday at Barnaby River with his family and at Chatham Junction, in company with John Quilly, station agent at Barnaby River, went on a hand car and they started down the I. C. track for home, a distance of four miles. They were run down by the Maritime Express and Foley, who was sitting with his back to the engine, was thrown under the train and killed, his body being terribly mutilated. Quilly was injured, but not fatally. The deceased was a son of the late Martin Foley of Barnaby River and had been a policeman here for several years. He was aged thirty-three years and leaves a wife and two young children.
