

PREMIER MEIGHEN STORMED THE CITADEL OF LIBERALISM WITH RINGING SPEECH ON TARIFF

PREMIER MAKES DECLARATION OF IMPENITENCE FOR POLICY PURSUED ON CONSCRIPTION

Comes Out With Four-Square Declaration That He Stood for Protection All the Time—Appeals to Canadians to Forget Racial and Religious Differences and Close Unranked Country's Sake—Never Greater or More Enthusiastic Audience Greeted a Speaker—Flayed Menace of Agrarianism and the Dishonesty of Mr. King.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, Que., Sept. 30.—"What I did in 1917 I believed to be right. I have no apology to make for my record. Were I faced with a similar crisis I would take the same course again." With this ringing and courageous declaration of impenitence for the conscriptionist policy which he pursued in the crisis of the war, with a four-square declaration that he stood for protection first, last and all the time, and with a solemn and moving appeal to Canadians to forget their religious, racial and class differences and close up their ranks for the sake of their common country, Premier Meighen tonight stormed the citadel of Liberalism in Quebec. The Monument National, scene of many stirring and historic meetings, never witnessed a greater or more enthusiastic gathering. Mr. Meighen, traduced as the Irish-enemy of Quebec, as the "father of conscription," as the "hangman of 1917," was acclaimed by an audience which packed the famous old political forum to its rafters, an audience which was seventy-five per cent. French-Canadian, but which went wild with enthusiasm as the Prime Minister, speaking with more passion and vehemence than is his wont, stood by his conscriptionist guns, mercilessly flayed the menace of agrarianism and the dishonesty of Mr. King, and appealed to the national spirit and the patriotism of the Canadian people. Tory Toronto itself could not have given a greater pro-Meighen demonstration.

Disarmed the Scorners.
The Premier's unflinching courage disarmed the few who came to scoff. From the first sentence of his speech to the last there was not a word of compromise, not a shadow of pussyfooting, not a syllable of apology, and the splendid courage of the speech, its frankness, its sincerity, its freedom from hypocrisy and cant appealed to the fighting spirit of the crowd. Here, at least, was a political leader that was untraded; and the ranks of Treason could not forbear to cheer.

Protection to the Masthead.
As in London, and in Portage La Proulx and in the West, the Premier's speech was arranged for the masthead of the ship which would carry him to the West. The Wood-Creech alliance, he pictured in sombre colors as a menace, as a threat to the historic policy which had brought the Dominion where it stood, while the policy of Mr. King, the leader of "that party which in the camp of the enemy never dares to fight those foes, who equivocate and smile and pretend to be political in the greatest city, I approach the task, though not with any confidence of extraordinary talents that might make this an hour of triumph, but with a consciousness of having discharged a great public trust with fidelity, and a determination to meet every challenge and every foe with the plainest language and the fullest defence. As a Canadian whose place of abode is a long journey from there, I come to Montreal with a sense of pride in the solid and massive proportions of this metropolis, this capital without a Parliament, this centre of education and finance, this city that has reached the honors of mature development but that finds in maturity only the promise of better days.

The pleasure of this visit is enhanced very much by the presence with me of three French-Canadian Ministers from this province, and of Mr. Dallantyne, who represents the English-speaking minority. Whatever may be the political opinions of the people of Quebec, the minds of all must be broad enough and fair enough to concede that Messrs. Belby, Normand and myself have done the honorable and patriotic thing in taking their place in the Government and giving to this Province and the French speaking population of Canada, the representation to which they are entitled in the interests of this Dominion, and which clearly for the advantage of the whole country should continuously be filled. They will agree with me, that these

Portland, Me., Sept. 30.—The Chamber of Commerce is advised by Senator Hale that an executive order, signed by President Harding, reduces the $10 fee for visiting passports for alien to $5. take our part, because it was our manifest interest to take our part, and because every leader of public thought, and every party agreed that we should take our part. It proved to be a tremendous struggle, making calls upon this and every other country engaged beyond all anticipations, and to the very limit of strength. We conducted the business of government through that time, vast as it was, to the best of our capacity. Having put our hands to the plough we bent our energies and all our energies to win. For my self I know of no other way to conduct a war or an expedition of war. It is a hard and a cruel and a terrible thing, and we are proud to bear it because it is incurred for a good purpose and because it is lighter than thousands of times that would have been incurred had we not taken our part. We find ourselves among the most fortunate of all the peoples of the world. Our finances are the most secure and the most abundant of any of our other countries. Our trade, though disturbed, and passing through trying times, is holding its own steadily and the prospect is a bright one. We have less suffering than any other country that went through the war. We must direct our first and greatest efforts to helping the unemployed and to getting them working. We must do this with a great deal of speed, and we must not forget that, even as respects unemployment, we have less proportion, and we have less suffering than any other country that went through the war. We must direct our first and greatest efforts to helping the unemployed and to getting them working. We must do this with a great deal of speed, and we must not forget that, even as respects unemployment, we have less proportion, and we have less suffering than any other country that went through the war.

three French-Canadian Ministers are credible representatives of their people, fitted both by endowment and by culture for service in public life, and commanding, in point of character the respect of all. I have been gratified, very much, by the favor with which their names have been received, not only in this province but throughout Canada. The time surely has come to encourage a better feeling and to conduct public debates on a worthy plane. If we don't seize the opportunity of this election to lift our thoughts into real living Canadian issues, and away from lifeless provincial and racial rivalries, we may well make our minds up that there is not much hope of better things in our day at least. I believe the people of Quebec want conditions to improve, they want good and good feeling, I have abundant evidence of that desire, but there are some who appear determined that this boon they shall never have. There are some who appear in league with the forces of reaction to the election of this Province to rise up and be revenged on the rest of Canada. I ask, I implore you to remember that the men who make these appeals are politicians. I suggest to you, and I suggest to the people of the other Provinces as well, do not take them to be too much in earnest. What they really seek by these appeals is nothing else but to divide the spoils of the Dominion as it is now divided. It is treasonable in the code or not, it is treasonable to Canada, the land we love.

It is well that I tell you plainly now what I believe is the state of mind of the other Provinces. They do not feel and they never can be brought to feel that there is any case or cause for revenge either way. They want to join hands with the people of this Province, and they want to decide with you the issues of the day and not the issues of the past. They want to take that course not in any spirit of time serving or apology, but because it is best for Canada. I hope I won't be misunderstood when I ask you all to respond to their aspirations. Ask the big men of this Province of both political parties to meet me in this appeal and conduct this battle on a ground that carries no memory of the lamentable divisions of the past. If this hope can be realized and realized now the worst of our dangers is over. If there is failure either way, it may be a calamity beyond repair. The Ministers on this platform enter in this struggle true to their people, the sincere friends of their Province and resolved to work for a united Canada, for a happy and prosperous nation. I express here my gratitude to them for their pledge of help in this crisis. They are worthy successors of those men of another generation whose names are now revered in every home of our country, men who rose up in this Province when the time cried out for leaders and whose labors made possible the Dominion which we are now called on to preserve.

CANADA FEELS RESENTMENT TOWARD U. S.

Unable to Understand Why It Was Not Invited to Attend Conference.

CONFERENCE FOLLOWED PREMIER'S SUGGESTION

Country's Interests Identical With Those of America, and Should Have a Say.

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—Disarmament conference at Washington is more a topic of conversation in Canada than in the United States. Canadians are keenly interested and something in which they are most concerned is the invitation to the conference. They point out that Canada's interests, so far as Japan is concerned, are approximately identical with those of the United States. Canada has a self-interest in the conference, and it is being violated regularly as the people of California. Canada has a thousand miles of seaboard and feels she would inevitably be involved in any difficulty that the United States might have with Japan. Why then should Canada not be represented at the conference? Why not be represented there as a nation with its own particular problem in this case, so nearly identical with that with which the United States is faced, and not merely a representative on the British delegation? Those are questions that Canadians are asking.

Politically informed Canadians maintain that Canada has still a more valid right to be represented at the conference because, as they believe, Premier Meighen is directly responsible for its having been called. It is pointed out that Premier Meighen presided at the conference in London last June, opposed and blocked the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. He is reputed to have taken the position that Canada would vote with Great Britain, and that it did not consult the wishes of the United States, because he believed it would lead to a ruinous armament race. He suggested the conference of all powers having an interest in the Pacific. A week later President Harding issued his call for a disarmament conference and discussion of the Pacific problems. Canadians believe that Canada was not invited because of the stand taken by Republicans during the fight against the Versailles Treaty that the dominions would vote with Great Britain, and thus give her six votes as against one for the United States. They protest vigorously, against this assumption, and point to one action of Premier Meighen who, with some assistance from General Smuts, stood out against the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance as proof of the fallacy of the contention.

Canada would like to have, and believes herself in all justice entitled to have, her own voice at the conference. The country has problems in the Pacific that are possibly more akin to those of the United States than to those of Great Britain. Canada also is in this peculiar position in matters: Her interests are directly bound up with those of Great Britain in matters affecting Pacific interests and indirectly, but just as vitally connected with those of the United States. Canada is interested either way and she was not invited to the conference. As a result there is here a certain element of resentment. The nation feels that it has been snubbed and denied voice that could be powerful.

To Organize The Russian Hoboes

America's "Millionaire Hobo" Now in Russia on Union Work.

Moscow, Sept. 30.—James Eads Howe, of St. Louis, wealthy heir to builder of famous Eads bridge there, has arrived in Moscow to organize the Russian Hoboes into a Union similar to American Hoboes union of which he is president. Howe known as "Millionaire Hobo," walked into the foreign office smiling through a three day spree of whiskers. "I certainly look as though our people are coming into their own," he said to an attaché. "I must organize the Russian Hoboes at once. They are the same as American Hoboes in every respect."

WESTERN HUNGARY TERRITORY OUT WITH DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Paris, Sept. 30.—The Hungarian diplomatic delegation at Paris confirmed, tonight, the receipt of a message from West Hungary declaring the independence of that territory.

West Hungary, it is declared, considers itself a Monarchy under the former Emperor Charles, despite the fact that he is detained at present in Switzerland. It is feared the proclamation is paving the way for another coup d'état by Charles.

A despatch from Vienna states the former Premier, Friedrich heads the independence movement. The council of defense has been established and has taken over the administration of West Hungarian government. The proclamation runs upon every man "To do his duty to King, God and Country."

Friedrich is quoted as saying: "Whoever now dares to enter West Hungary without proper authorization will be shot."

PROFOUND RELIEF SWEEPS OVER ENGLAND AND IRELAND AT END OF TEDIOUS NOTE EXCHANGES

Proposed Peace Conference Now a Certainty and End of Warfare Equally Certain.

ULSTER PROBLEM ONE OF OBSTACLES

Ulster Leaders Have Toned Down Their Attitude or Lapsed into Silence.

London, Sept. 29.—A wave of profound relief has swept England and Ireland at the end of a tedious and delicate process of note-exchanging between Eamon De Valera and Lloyd George which left the proposed peace conference in London a certainty and made it equal certain that there will be no reversion to war in Ireland unless the Conference fails in its purpose.

Lloyd George, in his final communication to the Irish Leader, swept away all conditions and all "Explanations" which would throw the slightest obstacle in the way of a conference so De Valera in replying, confined himself to a brief and simple acceptance of the invitation to meet the Premier. "To ascertain how the association of Ireland with the Community of Nations known as the British Empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations."

Throughout England—and in fact throughout Southern Ireland—the belief is growing that the end of the centuries-long warfare between England and Ireland is approaching. Lloyd George's attempt at conciliation has reached further limits than any previous attempt, and Ireland has been offered more than any British Government has ever offered her before. The solution depends upon two things: will De Valera accept the allegiance to Empire and conditions of "Military" union with Great Britain upon being allowed the type of Home Rule enjoyed by other British Colonies, such as Australia, South Africa, and Canada? Will Lloyd George, having reached an agreement with De Valera, find it possible to reconcile interests of Ulster and those of Southern Ireland without taking away from Ulster her non-found-proteges under present Home Rule Act and without enraging Ulsterites?

Pleads Not Guilty To Horsewhipping Hubby's Manicurist

Tulsa, Sept. 30.—"Not guilty" was the plea of Mrs. George Thomas, and Mrs. Orville Thomas when arraigned today on the charge of having whipped Mrs. Billy Daley, manicurist and divorcee. They were released on $250 bail. The horse whipping was administered, it was said, because of Mrs. Daley's alleged association with Mrs. George Thomas' husband. The manicurist was taken to a secluded spot in the country, tied to a tree, clothes torn from her and she was lashed across the back.

U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY NOW HAS TROUBLES

Massachusetts Bar Assn. Alleges He Has Been a Party to Misconduct.

ASK HIS REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Mentioned Prominently in Three Charges Laid Against Other Lawyers.

Boston, Sept. 30.—A recommendation to remove District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, of Suffolk County, from office is the latest step in the Boston Bar Association's "Purification Campaign." It was learned today when Attorney General J. Weston Allen admitted he had received a communication to this effect from the Bar Association. Pelletier has held office for many years and is the Supreme Advocate of Knights of Columbus. About a year ago he visited Rome and received the order of Knights of St. Gregory from the Pope. Pelletier said tonight that he would make no reply until charges had been filed against him, and meantime Allen stated that he expected to have a complete copy of the evidence in the case, which comprises 1600 typewritten pages.

"Fatty" Greeted With Kisses And Hisses On His Return Home

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 30.—Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle hissed and kissed Friday when he came home to Los Angeles. A crowd estimated at about 1,000 greeted him at the station and while some kissed him, others hissed him. While men patted him on the back, others shouted ugly threats.

But, taken all in all, it was decidedly a triumph.

More than two weeks ago he had slipped out of Los Angeles, silently at night, and went to San Francisco and heard the jail doors clang behind him. For ten days he was a fallen hero—almost friendless. Even studios, grave faced, admitted that it looked like Fatty was "through."

Teachers' Institute Closed At St. George

Charlotte County Assn. Had Most Profitable as Well as Enjoyable Session.

St. George, Sept. 30.—The Charlotte county Teachers' Institute was concluded here today with the election of officers for the coming year, and the passing of a number of resolutions. The morning meeting was opened at 9 o'clock and a paper entitled "First Steps in English" was read by Miss Louise Cavney, of St. George. The discussion of the paper was opened by Miss Etta DeWolfe, of St. Stephen. The next paper entitled "Story Telling and Reproduction" was read by Mrs. Mary Trear, Grand Harbor, and the discussion which ensued was opened by Miss Emma Veazey, of St. Stephen. A paper on "English Literature" was read by R. G. Mowat, principal of the St. Stephen schools. Miss Eleanor DeWolfe, of St. Stephen, opened the discussion on this paper. "Primary Spelling" was the subject of a paper read by Miss Ella Veazey, of St. Stephen. The discussion on it was opened by Miss Florence Osbourne of Milltown.

Officers Elected.
The officers for the coming year were elected at the final session of the institute in the afternoon as follows: G. J. Marr, principal of St. Andrews schools, president; Miss Elizabeth Wilson, St. Stephen, vice-president; Sydney Hayes, Welchport, Campbell, secretary-treasurer. Additional members elected to the executive were Miss Etta DeWolfe, St. Stephen; Carroll Grant, Milltown, and Miss Margaret Duff, St. George. The meeting was concluded by the passing of various resolutions.

Premier Makes Declaration of Impenitence

The monthly meeting of the hospital aid committee of the Red Cross was held yesterday afternoon in the Prince William street depot. Those present were: Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Mrs. E. B. Mills, Mrs. James Duddy, Mrs. Frank Paine, Mrs. W. D. Foster, Mrs. W. P. Donald, Mrs. W. A. Shear, Miss Isabel Jarvis in the absence of the convener, Mrs. J. V. Anglin. Mrs. E. R. Taylor, presided.

The regular indent from the hospital were passed and included requests for wash clothes, and socks from East St. John. Mrs. Bonnell reported having secured hammocks, cigarettes, fitted bags and razors for the boys. Mrs. Duddy reported that sixty-one dollars had been given during September and arrangements were made so that the boys were taken to the exhibition. The expense of this department amounts to $14 per week. Mrs. Shaw reported that regular visits had been paid to East St. John and that during the last two months two deaths had occurred. On each occasion flowers had been sent.

Large Attendance At Temperance Rally

Despite the inclemency of the weather there was a good large attendance at the temperance rally held at the Lyceum last evening. The speakers were: Rev. Mr. Goodwin, J. D. O'Connell, R. T. Hayes, M. A. O'Connell, R. T. Hayes, M. A. O'Connell, R. T. Hayes, M. A. O'Connell.

Rev. Mr. Goodwin, who has been working in St. John, Albert, Westmorland and a part of Kings counties, gave a most interesting report of the temperance work in the country and predicted a sweeping majority for the temperance cause when the vote was counted.

He is gone but not forgotten. Never will his memory fade. Sweetest thoughts will ever linger, around the grave where he is laid. He died in this city on September 30, Robert Lee in the 70th year of his age, leaving two sons, four daughters and three sisters to mourn.

If Stomach is Out of Order — "Diapepsin"

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief. This harmless antacid helps digest anything you eat and overcomes a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach in five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your Druggist a sty-rent Diapepsin. There will be no "other" thing, no "blanching" of undigested food mixed with acid, no gas, or heartburn, no sickness or heavy heaving in the stomach, no nausea, headache or intestinal distress. Protestant institutions are handicapped to anything like meeting the demands made upon them. While we Protestants have been deluged in doing our duty, others have not only provided facilities for their own but, owing to the forces of circumstances, have been compelled to care for our children as well. This may be creditable to them but it certainly is not to us.

FORCED INTO IMMORAL LIFE

Little Girl Tells Story of Tragedy

Portland, Me., Sept. 30.—Marie McDermott, a girl of 15 years of age, with bobbed hair and pink and white complexion, unfolded a story in the Municipal Court today which is rivaled only perhaps by Herbert Kaufman's House of Bondage.

When Gertrude Baker, alias Emma White, and Samuel Baker were arraigned before Recorder Thatcher on the charge of transporting a minor out of the State for immoral purposes, Marie McDermott was the principal witness.

She told of being taken to a house in Lowell, Mass., of which she committed suicide, and of a rape by the police through which she finally escaped from bondage and returned to her home in this city. She told how Mrs. Baker had been "kept" in the house for a long time and of later being told that she might have pretty clothes and everything if she consented to the attention of men meeting at the house in Lowell.

Just before court adjourned at noon James H. McCann, who is associated with J. Devine as attorneys for the respondents, called the charges against Mr. Baker dismissed. He argued that Mr. Baker had not been aware of any wrong proceeding with the respondent to the "red vessel" and that she was innocent as to the respondents were two teenies on the bodies of little girls.

The hearing was continued to this afternoon when the defense will be heard. According to the story told on the witness stand by Marie McDermott, this morning she was 15 years of age, had just turned 15 and she met Mrs. Baker while both were employed in the Star Lanch room. Later they were employed at the Avon Lanch and about a week before the trip was made to Lowell the McDermott girl says she was taken to live with Mrs. Baker who had an apartment on Park street. Marie said she was terrified as she was not living with her husband.

"She treated me like a mother," said Marie "and asked me to go to Lowell to see her. She said she was going to Lowell. Mr. Baker bought the tickets. Marie testified that, arriving at Lowell the trio walked to a rooming house where they met a Mrs. Dixon who greeted Mrs. Baker with kisses, shook hands, laughed and talked with Mrs. Baker. She told of going to a Greek restaurant near the hotel and was told by Mrs. Baker at that time that "this is some of the trade we are going to have." Marie then testified that she had called at the house and given money to Mrs. Baker which she divided with Mrs. Dixon. Then the young girl told of a Greek coming to the house Sunday night and dragging her to a room.

The man asked me to go into the room with him," said Marie. "I did not want to go. Mrs. Baker said to him, 'why don't you bother to go' and he dragged me into the room. I fought with him and scratched him. He came again the next day. Mrs. Baker told me that I had to go to work and make money. She would not let me go out and earn money myself. She got my face black home and told me I must remain there until she left. Marie testified that the house was visited Tuesday night and that she and Mrs. Baker were taken to the police station. They appeared in court and Marie was left in the custody of the probation officer in Lowell where her arranged for her return to Portland. A letter which it is claimed was written by Mrs. Baker to Marie after the return to Portland was then introduced. In this letter Mrs. Baker expressed sorrow for Marie and disclaimed any blame in the matter. One part of the letter Mrs. Baker wrote that in the future their children would be married women and not children. Resuming her testimony Marie said that at one time in Portland Mrs. Baker had told her that she would be foolish to go out with fellows. Under cross examination Marie testified that Mrs. Baker had claimed that the man in Boston was a rich woman.

FORCED INTO IMMORAL LIFE DECLARES CHILD

Little Girl Tells Story of Trip to Bay State—Two Face Charges in Court.

Portland, Me., Sept. 30.—Marie McDermott, a girl, 15 years of age, with bobbed hair and pink and white complexion, unfolded a story in the Municipal Court today which is rivalled only perhaps by Herbert Kaufman's House of Bondage.

When Gertrude Baker, alias Emma Wicker, and Samuel Baker were arraigned before Recorder Thaxter on the charge of transporting a minor out of the State for immoral purposes, Marie McDermott was the principal witness.

She told of being taken to a house in Lowell, Mass., of acts committed there and of not seeing him again until she returned to Portland. She told of being found not guilty in the Lowell court and of coming back to Portland and being met at the station by her mother and of later telling her story to Miss Elizabeth McDonough, the Portland police-woman, Assistant County Attorney Ingalls and other authorities.

She admitted that although she had known Mrs. Baker to go to a man on Spring street and return with money she had believed that Mrs. Baker was a good woman until later she had arrived in Lowell.

Miss McDonough of the Police Department testified that during the conference at police headquarters following the return of Marie McDermott to Portland that Mrs. Baker had asserted that it was all lies, that she did not know Marie was only 15 years of age and she had given the money to Mr. Baker to buy the tickets to Lowell.

Court adjourned shortly before 1 o'clock until 2.30 this afternoon.

Tanlac Accomplishes Remarkable Results In Geo. H. Nickels Case

Prominent Wisconsin Man Says Tanlac Promptly Relieved Him of Bad Case of Stomach Trouble of Six Months' Standing—Gains 27 Pounds and Feels Fine as a Fiddle.

GEORGE H. NICKELS.

It is an unquestionable fact that Tanlac is now being more widely endorsed by well known men and women than any other medicine on the American market. One of the latest to testify is George H. Nickels, well known lecturer, residing at 237 Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"Tanlac has not only completely restored my health, but I have actually gained 27 pounds in weight," said Mr. Nickels in referring to the remarkable benefits he had derived from the medicine.

"For something over six months, my stomach was very badly disordered and of not seeing him again until she returned to Portland. She told of being found not guilty in the Lowell court and of coming back to Portland and being met at the station by her mother and of later telling her story to Miss Elizabeth McDonough, the Portland police-woman, Assistant County Attorney Ingalls and other authorities.

"I suffered terribly from indigestion and dyspepsia. At times I would be in great distress and I would invariably experience an uncomfortable bloated feeling for hours after eating. I had no appetite scarcely and the little I ate would often make me feel sick. My head ached until I felt like it would burst and I was so nervous I trembled like a leaf. When I got up in the mornings, I was so weak and dizzy, I couldn't trust myself to walk around and I just burst all over."

"Tanlac has brought about a wonderful change in my condition for I am now enjoying the very best of health. My appetite is splendid, I eat my meals. Everything agrees with me perfectly. The nervousness, headaches and dizzy spells are all gone and I never have an ache or pain. I am only too glad to tell others about the wonderful good Tanlac has done. It has no equal."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by F. W. Moore and leading druggists everywhere.

Trades And Labor Before The Court

Evidence Heard in Charge of Being Members of Unlawful Assembly.

The case against the twelve members of the Trades and Labor Council, charged with being members of an unlawful assembly, was begun yesterday morning in the police court before Magistrate Ritchie and after hearing the evidence of a number of motormen and policemen was adjourned until October 14.

H. A. Powell, K. C. and J. A. Barry appeared for the Trades and Labor men and H. H. McLean Jr. appeared for the Power Co. Some time was taken up by the counsel for the accused in trying to find out who was behind the prosecution but all the satisfaction they were able to get was that the police were.

Those arraigned in court were Fred A. Campbell, James Pitt, James LeClair, John Wood, John McDonald, Ruddy Kane, Charles Stevens, Percy Moore, Alexander Northrup, Thomas Mitchell and Felix McMullin. E. J. Tighe did not appear and J. A. Barry stated he had not received his notice.

H. A. Powell, K. C., said his clients claimed they were acting within their rights in holding the parade and taking part in it.

Lloyd E. Reicker, George Wilson, Harry Williams, John Rowley, G. R. Hunter and K. G. Thompson, motormen for the New Brunswick Power Co. told of damage done to the Street cars they were operating during the parade and that in some cases the missiles thrown came from the ranks of the parade and in others they could not tell where they came from. Two of them testified that windows had been broken by the banner poles.

Sergeant Horace McLean and patrolmen John Sheehan, Totten, Lindsay, Young, McNamee and McInnis, testified that they had watched the parade and had seen several of the men in court in it but so far as they could see all of them were conducting themselves in a lawful and peaceable manner. Sergeant McLean said he heard a stone go through one of the windows at the power house but could not say where it came from.

This concluded the evidence and adjournment was made until October 14.

Mayor Takes Up Power Co. Question

Proposed By-Law to Prohibit Parades Meets Strenuous Opposition and Laid Over.

Mayor Schofield yesterday took up statements credited to the Power Co. in connection with recent happenings and stated that unless there was a retraction and public apology he intended to bring suit against the company for libel. The proposed by-law to control parades met with strenuous opposition by the labor organizations and the Orangemen and was laid on the table for further discussion, but one commissioner expressed the opinion that it would die a natural death there.

A special meeting of the common council was held yesterday morning to deal with the by-law proposed by the mayor to prohibit parades unless given on a permit by the mayor of the city. A large delegation from the Trades and Labor Council was present and S. B. Bush, representing the Loyal Orange Order, to protest against the passing of this by-law as an infringement on the liberty of the citizens.

William Mattison, William Eby and J. D. Poirer spoke for the labor men and Mr. Bush for the Orange Order.

After the delegation had withdrawn, W. H. Harrison, acting city solicitor, was called in and the by-law discussed. Mr. Poirer spoke for the labor men and Mr. Bush for the Orange Order. Some discussion it was decided to lay it on the table.

During the meeting Mayor Schofield referred to the statement of the Power Co. that 1,000 violations of the traffic by-law had been reported and no action taken and classed it as a false statement. He also referred to the "secret session" held in his office with officials of the Power Co. and said that the conference was held to establish the responsibility for the article which appeared in the press. He also said that Rev. H. A. Cody will deliver an illustrated lecture on the Yukon. Tuesday of that week a men's rally will take place to be addressed by Rev. R. P. McKim, Rev. H. B. Clark and Mr. William McGowan. Wednesday, the Epworth League and Women's Missionary Society will put on a Missionary programme during which addresses will be given by Mrs. McTavish and Mr. C. G. Poirer. Friday evening October 13th, the choir will lead an old fashioned Sing Song. Friday evening, Rev. H. A. Goodwin will open a series of Evangelistic services which will continue until the end of the month.

WHY YOU NEED IRON

Tomake you strong and "brassy" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs.

Practical Advice on How to Develop Great Energy and Endurance.

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—it is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance. The greatest strength carrier in the body is organic iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and like the iron contained from it—known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist.

If you have been taking metallic iron without benefit such is no proof that organic Nuxated Iron will not help you. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, run down folks in two weeks' time. It is such an extremely valuable product that the Pope at Rome wrote especially of its merits in a communication to the Pharmacie Normale. It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.

THE PLOT THICKENS. On the principle, we presume, that it is as well to be prepared for all eventualities, the Hon. William Pugsley has, in a memorandum, agreed to step down from the gubernatorial chair of this province and contest the constituency of Royal, at present represented by Gen. McLean, the underlying idea of this being that in view of the practical certainty that the Hon. Mackenzie King will be defeated in North York and the party then left without a leader, the Hon. William might be right on the spot to step into Mr. King's shoes.

A REIGN OF HONESTY. One of the strongest points made by Mr. Meighen in his Western address, and one that ought to challenge public reflection, is that in all the millions and billions expended during the past seven years for purposes of war, peace, and reconstruction, never a shadow of suspicion existed that a single dollar had been diverted to other than the proper channels.

Toronto, Sept. 28.—J. Danderine

Grows Thick, Heavy Hair Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthfully bright, lustrous, and just twice as abundant.

DENIES KNOWLEDGE OF PLOT TO EXTORT MONEY FROM ARBUCKLE

Sennacher Threatens to File Suit for Defamation of Character Against Counsel for Film Star.

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—Roscoe (Reddy) Arbuckle, charged with the murder of Virginia Ryppe, and who was shifted temporarily from the center of interest yesterday when charges of extortion were made in court against Alfred Sennacher, prosecution witness, returned his place before the spotlight of public curiosity as his preliminary hearing proceeded today. The extortion charge had been dropped, it was intimated today, by the San Francisco grand jury which last night heard Sennacher's story and "placed it on record." Sennacher denied to the grand jury that he had any knowledge of a plan to extort money from the defendant as was alleged by Frank Dominguez, chief counsel for Arbuckle. Dominguez indicated extortion was the motive actuating Sennacher when he took to Los Angeles torn articles of clothing which had been worn by Miss Ryppe. The grand jury hearing was sought by District Attorney Matthew Brady at Sennacher's request. Sennacher was the only witness. Dominguez and others of Arbuckle's counsel were invited by Brady to appear before the grand jury, but no subpoenas were issued. As he left the grand jury room, Sennacher told a group of newspaper men, suit for defamation of character would be filed against Dominguez. Testimony concerning past actions of Mrs. Barbara Delmont, who swore to the complaint charging Arbuckle with murder, will not be allowed to proceed beyond the point relevant to the case on trial, Judge Spivain T. Lazarus declared. He denied permission yesterday to Arbuckle's attorneys to proceed with questions they said would show details of a friendship between Mrs. Delmont and Earl Lynn, a Los Angeles motion picture actor. "I am not going to try the character of witnesses here in this court," Judge Lazarus announced. Mrs. Delmont probably will be the main witness today, the district attorney declared, and if her testimony is concluded Zeh Prevost and Alice Blake will be summoned.

Large Part of Canada Gets No Supply of Fish

Canada is the best market for our sea products. United States had been second best but it is problematical whether it will figure as prominently in the future in view of the Fordney tariff measure and other equally depressing influences. Canadian fish production must find another outlet, if the handicap on the United States proves too great, and the most logical market to develop is right here at home. During the 1920 it is estimated that not more than 40,000,000 pounds of fresh seafood were moved to the interior. It is doubtful if the entire consumption of fresh fish, including both sea and freshwater, amounted to more than 60,000,000 pounds. When it is considered that the total catch of fish approximates 1,000,000,000 pounds each year it will be realized how comparatively small is the amount of it used in the fresh state. Our system of fish distribution is just in process of development. It is not a great many years ago that fresh fish from the Atlantic first began to find a place on the fish dealer's shelves in Ontario, and the development of the trade from the Pacific coast has been even of more recent date. The growth of the business in fresh sea fish has been free and has allowed the course of least resistance. There are three distributing centres of the first magnitude, viz., Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg, with other less important stations such as Edmonton, Calgary and Quebec. Territory in close communication with Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg or accessible to a supply direct from the coast are tolerably well supplied with sea fish. The rest of the country has little opportunity to benefit by our copious supplies. Of the 60,000,000 pounds of fish consumed fresh in Canada probably four-fifths of it is available to less than a quarter of the population. An extension of the local market, therefore, must mean an increase in the territory and population served. Of course a general readjustment of fish traffic cannot be brought about overnight, but any organized development for the whole population is being considered. The weakness of the distributing system in the United States, which is much like our own, has led to the formation of a company to supply individual purchasers from the coast by parcel post, special containers being provided to preserve the commodity in transit. The theory of the conditions is perfect but under present conditions its practicability is doubtful. The idea is there, however, to make a fish supply accessible to more people. The Fisheries Department is securing a census for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of fish being consumed in different centres throughout the country. This will provide definite information as to what sections are receiving inadequate supplies. It is proposed to have charts, embodying this data, furnished to the wholesalers trade along with suggestions for a more systematic distribution.

Mother! Move Child's Bowels With "California Fig Syrup."

Happy mother! Even a stick child the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Marriage of Mr. Arthur N. Carter

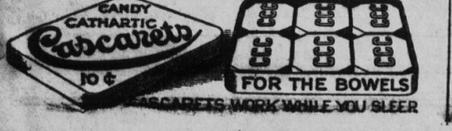

And Miss Ireland Celebrated at Toronto on Thursday—Will Reside in St. John.

(Toronto Globe, Sept. 29.) St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, was the scene of a quiet wedding yesterday at half past three, when Rev. Canon Oddy united in marriage, Edith Isabel, daughter of the late W. W. Ireland of Carberry, Manitoba, and Mrs. Ireland, and Arthur Norwood Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter of St. John, N. B. Her brother-in-law, Mr. R. Y. Eaton, escorted the bride to the steps of the church, where she was given away by her mother. She was wearing a Paris suit of midnight blue velvet, with collar and cuffs of grey squirrel. Sweetheart roses and orchids composed her corsage bouquet. She carried a prayer book bound in ivory. The bride and groom were unattended and only close relations were present. Dr. Healy William rendered music before and after the ceremony. Mrs. Ireland's costume was of amethyst chiffon velvet with loops to match and a seal soart. The bride's sister, Mrs. R. Y. Eaton, wore a French frock and fisher tulle. Immediately after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Carter left on a motor trip through the States. Before going to their new home in St. John, they will return to Toronto for a few days.

Stafford Springs, Conn., Sept. 29.—Coroner John E. Her body, with a rope about the neck, was found in the lake.

Socialist Leader Accepts Position

Berne, Sept. 29.—The Swiss Socialists are now at sixes and sevens because one of their leaders has accepted a post on the International Labor office without resigning his position in the Socialist Party. Now, the labor office, being a branch of the League of Nations, is a post of honor, and the Socialists are naturally inclined to oppose it. The recent Socialist conference discussed the matter very fully, but reached no definite conclusion, consequently, the chief Socialist leader in Switzerland, Robert Grimm, member of the Swiss Parliament, and editor of the principal Socialist newspaper, has resigned from the Socialist Party. The Bolshevik section of the Swiss Socialist Party declare that they must support President Harding in his League of Nations, and must not allow any of their comrades to be employed in what they describe as capitalist offices.

Red Cross Appeal For World Peace

Society Asks for Co-operation to Fight Against Spirit of War.

The following appeal has been received by the joint committee of the International Committee of the Red Cross and League of Red Cross Societies at Geneva, July 16th, 1921, and will be published all over the world.

In virtue of a higher law and duty, and of principles above the level of human passions, the helping hand of the Red Cross was stretched forth to all victims throughout the ordeal of the Great War.

Today, the Red Cross owes it to itself and to all its many workers to proceed as an ideal and a practical intention, a struggle against the horrors of war, an attempt to world-wide help and unselfishness definitely to abolish war.

The mere continuation of Red Cross work in the interest of peace is no longer sufficient. It is the wish of the Red Cross to work in the interest of peace. Therefore, the Red Cross calls upon all whole-hearted citizens, irrespective of nationality, religious belief, profession, or social rank, to join as far as lies in their power in a systematic campaign against that spirit of war, which is a constant menace to the world's peace.

During five years, millions of men were killed or mutilated. Today, thousands of ex-soldiers or prisoners at last set free bear indelible marks of bodily and mental suffering. All of them believe that the generations to come would reap the fruits of the great ordeal in a new international life, which would be more brotherly, frank and more full.

Instead, disorder and uncertainty, distrust and greed, hatred and the threat of fresh quarrels are reappearing throughout the world. The spirit of war, unconquered, reigns supreme. Its sinister influence is evident. It inspires lines of policy and press campaigns, which lead public opinion astray and embitter the economic competition among nations.

During the terrible years of the recent war, superhuman efforts were required of the different nations. In order to inspire such sacrifices, a supreme reward was promised—namely, the annihilation of this same spirit of war, which is a peril as old as the world and a constant menace to mankind.

These generations yet unborn would have been delivered from the scourge at the price of the suffering which the war entailed. This hope sustained nations and armies.

Have they hoped in vain? Have millions of human lives and the wealth of nations been sacrificed in vain?

Faced with these questions, the Red Cross recognized a duty.

At the suggestion of Senator C. G. Brown, Chairman of the Italian Red Cross Conference, which met at Geneva on April 1st, 1921, met at the following resolution:

"The International Committee of the Red Cross and the League of Red Cross Societies shall address an appeal to all nations, exhorting them to combat the spirit of war, which dominates the world."

These two organizations call therefore on all nations and individuals to fight with all means in their power this malevolent spirit. May statesmen, writers, school, and university, capital and labor remember that it is their duty, in the interest of mankind, to help peace to conquer the earth. Above all children should be brought up in this fundamental belief.

It is essential that the human mind should once more be open to the broad lines of an internationalism, which teaches all men to respect the existence and the rights of their fellow-men, by bringing into the daily life the individual light of a justice, which is to be in all the world for all the time.

This true internationalism cannot be attained without the active and intimate co-operation of governments, parliaments, voluntary organizations, the press, the clergy, and above all, national Red Cross Societies. To the union of these forces must be added a supreme factor, the power of individual conviction. Every man, as far as lies in his power, must contribute to make peace permanent in the world.

The individual must no longer see the world in the light of his own selfishness, anger, fear, and human passion, but in a spirit of concord and mutual aid.

Thus only can a better future be prepared.

Faithful to the ideal which inspired its founders, and which it has ever served, the Red Cross hereby declares before the whole world, that its work does not end with war. The Red Cross appeals to the heart of all mankind, that each individual may find in himself the needed strength and determination to make and keep universal peace.

Daily Fashion Hint

Coats Are Largely Trimmed With Fur

FOR OUTDOOR WEAR

One of the latest concepts for an out-of-doors costume, consisting of a sleeveless blouse and two-piece gathered skirt. It is developed in silk and wool jersey. A fancy leather belt holds in the blouse, and the blouse is trimmed with large patch pockets. There are tiny tucks at the shoulders and the backs are brought over and attached to the blouse fronts to form a yoke. Medium size requires 2 1/4 yards 48-inch material.

PRETTY BLOUSE OF CANTON CREPE

A blouse that has attracted much attention features a black and white combination, being of black satin with sleeve facing of white Canton crepe. Narrow bands of crepe finish the neck and bottom of the blouse, with a pocket edging in the black. The crepe is set on the blouse at one side, forming a sort of foundation or background for the flower motif made of white patent leather. This blouse is the popular hip length and is a slip-over model, with sash belt tied at the back.

Novel sleeves are the principal features of blouse as well as other garments, and two-color combinations are in high favor.

Crope de Chine, Canton crepe and georgette are perhaps the three most popular for blouses as well as frocks, the garment often being made of the fabric showing the crepe side and trimmed with facing of the satin side.

Sheer nettes are popular for the more dressy blouses, with all sorts of embroideries and headings as trimming, and another very effective decoration consists of combinations of celluloid in vividly contrasting color. These little plaques may be bought in the trimming departments of most stores, and they are also sold in bead stores. Applying them is a simple process and they are a perfect boon to the home dressmaker.

In the line-up of semi-tailored suit blouses, those showing vests or waistcoats continue to be popular.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING.

Miss Keller Honored.

Miss Helen Keller was presented with a bouquet of garden flowers by the Provincial Chapter, I. O. D. E. Thursday evening after the performance at the Orpheum theatre, Winnipeg. The flowers were arranged in a heart centred with a United States flag and a Union Jack. The inscription read: "To that distinguished daughter of the republic who is an inspiration of the world."

I. O. D. E. Provincial Meeting.

No less than nine Ontario cities were represented at the season's first executive meeting of the Provincial I. O. D. E. in Hamilton recently. There was a record attendance of twenty-one members, who gave most encouraging reports of the enthusiasm of members throughout the province for the coming season's work. Arrangements were made for the big provincial meeting in Chatham on Oct. 11th. The executive were the guests of Mrs. Gordon Henderson at luncheon at the Tamahaas Club.

Club for the Blind.

Winnipeg has a Club for the Blind called The Tux in Tenobria. There is a Ladies' Auxiliary of this club.

Disapproving of Tagging.

Disapproving of the practice of allowing girls to collect money on the streets on tag days, the Central Council of Toronto and School Clubs, at a meeting of the executive, passed a resolution expressing their sentiment in the matter. The subject was brought up by Mrs. Roney, principal of Birchcliffe school, who thought that the practice interfered with the highest moral development of the girls. It was decided to request other organizations to unite in opposing the custom.

Better Understanding.

Denmark has a custom that could be adopted in Canada very easily, states the Woman's Century. It is arranged by the Danish public school boards, and sends thousands of city children to be guests at farms, where there are also children, for part of their summer holidays.

Then at the fall and winter fairs and shows in the cities, the same number of country children come to be entertained in the cities. The railways carry both city and country children free. Denmark claims that this, besides being of benefit to all the child-

MAKE-OVER SEASON IS NOW WITH US

Fashions This Year Convenient for Ladies of the Needle—Aprique Useful.

At this time of year the woman of limited income begins to look over her wardrobe of spring in hopes that there may be some garments she may be able to persuade into being used for another season.

The persuasion this year ought not to be a very difficult task, for fashion has been indulgent and what with her infinite fancies of color and design, it gives a hopeful outlook for adding just that detail that marks a frock as new or passé.

It is understood, also, are showing early evidence of being popular. Wide girdled fashions with a brilliant shade of sateen or georgette, and boasting the long fringed ends that marked the dress of the season, will again take their place in the front ranks of fashion's dictates.

Recently a well-known dressmaker who has made the making-over of slightly passe frocks her new work decided upon a very novel plan for making a serge after the war, broad-crumbs. Try in her droppings of cooking oil. Drain on paper. Serve with tomato sauce or green peas. This cutlet can be prepared and breaded on Saturday and fried on Sunday.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have ringing, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment (double strength) and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar.

Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

French Apple Pancakes.

1 cup flour.
2 1/2 cups milk.
3 eggs.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
Sift the flour and salt into bowl, add the milk and well-beaten eggs; beat 6 minutes. Heat an iron pan very hot, remove from fire put in a teaspoon lard or oil, shake pan so that the oil will cover bottom. Return to fire, pour in a very little batter and shake. So, too, the man to a better will reach all around. Shake pan the same as you would when trying an omelet. When a nice brown on both sides, spread with apple sauce, and sprinkle with cinnamon and roll same as an omelet.

I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills—the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and bilious spells. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicine for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box. All dealers or Edman, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

DRUGS FOR GIRLS' LEMONS

WHITEN SKIN AND BLEACH FRECKLES

Express the juice of two lemons into 2 bottles containing three ounces of Goshard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly thereafter beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rose-white complexion, also as a tinkle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

1/2 cup thick white sauce.
1 cup breadcrumbs.
1 egg.

Put the most through food chopper; add seasoning, salt, and 1 cup of breadcrumbs; mix well. Take a tablespoon into four hands and form into small omelet or shape the size of an oyster; dip in egg, which has been beaten with 1 tablespoon of milk, then in breadcrumbs. Fry in hot drippings or cooking oil. Drain on paper. Serve with tomato sauce or green peas. This cutlet can be prepared and breaded on Saturday and fried on Sunday.

Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.

NOVEL EMBROIDERIES.

Every possible novelty that has been mentioned in connection with the new modes has been employed. Bead embroideries in the most sanctioned beads, namely, crystals, wooden and cabochons, have been especially considered. The simplicity of the black dresses has been reduced to the desirable degree by tasteful usage of these embroideries. One attractive dress employed a border of white crystal beads in conjunction with royal blue cabochons, the crystals applied in dripped lines. Another especially striking dress, and one that has been declared a marked favorite among buyers, shows borders of wadding and at the lower edge in amber colored crystal beads.

Lloyd George being somewhat more used to having the world stare at him has had a considerable advantage over De Valera.

Shareholders Admire Tramways Service

That the services of the Montreal Tramways Company are the most practical and efficient of any organization of its kind in the world was the gist of a resolution passed at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the company at noon today. The resolution was moved by A. F. C. Ross and seconded by A. Piddington and passed unanimously.

E. A. Robert, president, presided and in his remarks dealt with the outstanding difficulties encountered during the past year and the future possibilities of the company stating that everything looked satisfactory and that business conditions would gradually improve. He paid particular attention to the current difficulties that he confronted, due to the abnormal conditions in exchange between the United States and Canada, and stated that his company had lost $200,000 in exchange rates on securities, etc.

Guard The Children From Autumn Colds

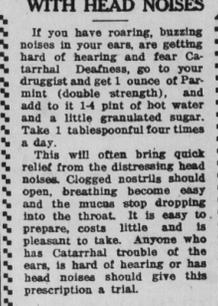

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next cold and wet and unless the mother is on her guard, the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mother's best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet, and occasional doses of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

After all it is pitching which decides a world's series. It is the Matthews, the Adamses, the Combeses and the Hises which have carried teams to world's series glory. A sluggers without good pitching never got far in world's series competition. On the other hand, great pitchers, Walsh, Altrock, White, won a world's series victory for the White Sox in 1906 by hitting a club in the meager behind them.

Despite the fact that Arthur H. the storky little southpaw, is on the Yankees' pitching headlines, he is not particularly the right-hander. The Yankees' series of 1921 is done by right-handers.

In considering the work of the pitchers, particularly the right-handers, the Giants, Indians and Yankees of the season of 1921 it must be admitted that few of them have lived up to their paper reputations. There is little consistency in the hands of any of these staffs, flashes of brilliancy have been followed by the most mediocre efforts.

With Covaleskie, Bagby and Toney in form, we should give Cleveland right-handed trio an over Toney, Douglas and Barnard. Judging by their records of the August and September, the right-handers would deserve big edge over Mays, Shawkey and Hise of the Yankees. On the season work, the two New York staffs fairly even.

Shuffling Phil Dugan.

Though Phil Dugan has not pitched often at Toronto, the writer regards the big "Shuffler" as the dangerous of McGraw's right-handers. He has a wicked splitball, which can map over the corners of the field in all directions. Phil's splitball is as difficult to hit as any ball in National League when the big lefty is right.

Fred Toney, a fast ball pitcher, had his ups and downs this season. The rule forbidding the use of the ball and for weeks he has been ineffective. However, in New York, he is a fast ball pitcher.

After all it is pitching which decides a world's series. It is the Mathewsons, the Adameses, the Combeses and Covaleskies who have carried their teams to world's series glory. A team of sluggers without good pitching never would get far in world's series competition. On the other hand three great pitchers, Walsh, Altrock and White, won a world's series victory for the White Sox in 1906 with the hitting club in the major leagues behind them.

Despite the fact that Arthur Neft, the speedy little southpaw, is one of the best pitchers in the world, the pitching in the fast approaching world's series of 1921 will be done by right-handers. In considering the work of the pitchers, particularly the right-handers, of the Giants, Indians and Yankees for the season of 1921 it must be admitted that few of them have lived up to their paper reputations. There has been little consistency to the right-handers of any of these stiffs, and flashes of brilliancy have been followed by the most mediocre efforts.

Phil's spittball is as difficult to hit as any ball in the National League when the big fellow is right.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Sept. 30.—There was a fair attendance at the exhibition races today. The free-for-all proved disappointing. NEW RECORD FOR ALTITUDE MADE AT 40,800 FEET

Dayton, O., Sept. 30.—Lieut. John A. Macready, test pilot at McCook Field, set a new world's altitude record Tuesday, attaining a height of 40,800 feet in the same Le Pere biplane used by 3,150 feet on February 19, 1920.

Lieutenant Macready was in the air one hour and 47 minutes, requiring all but a few minutes at McCook Field, to reach his mark. At 40,800 feet he formed on his oxygen tank as he pressed on until the altimeter registered nearly 41,000 feet. At this point his oxygen ran out and he descended to the ground. Macready's new record is 2,620 feet higher than that of Schroeder, and in this flight Schroeder's eyes became sore and excessive dilation of the heart kept him in the hospital nearly two weeks after the flight. The flight made today primarily was for the purpose of testing improvements made on the supercharger invented by S. A. Moss, who won the flight prize of $10,000 for a propeller of very high pitch, perfected by engineers at the local field.

Captain G. S. E. Hatfield, chief of mechanical department, and Moss, personally prepared the plane for flight and every precaution was taken to provide auxiliary oxygen tanks for safety of the pilot.

On landing Macready declared he suffered nothing but numbness. He climbed out of the plane unassisted and posed for photographs immediately.

Lieut. Patterson, chief of the official data section of the field, assisted by Lieut. Murphy, took charge of Macready's instruments as soon as accumulated ice was cleared off the ship and following calibration, announced the official altitude as 40,800 feet. The altimeter was on the plane at 39,000 feet caused one oxygen tank to cease functioning, but auxiliary tanks provided for just such an emergency were brought into use and the safety of the pilot assured.

Macready was clothed in the heaviest furs with special helmet and goggles. To insure clear vision a special gelatine was used on the goggles to prevent collection of ice. The suit was electrically heated through out.

A centrifugal air compressor, operated by gas turbine, forms the supercharger which made the flight possible. The turbine derives its power from the hot exhaust gas of the Liberty motor with which the ship is equipped and air thus compressed is fed to the carburetor at the same pressure as air at sea level.

The biplane was designed in January, 1918, by Captain Le Pere, a French aviator, while working under the direction of the United States Government.

YANKS BELIEVE THEY HAVE WON AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT

Informed Postponed Game Will Not Have to be Played—Philadelphia Manager Will Force the Play—Skill Chance of Cleveland Making a Tie.

Special to The Standard.
New York, Sept. 30.—While the storm of opinion swept baseball ranks the Yankee management leaned back and breathed easily this afternoon, believing they have clinched the American League pennant. I. E. Sarnburn, president of the Baseball Writers' Association assured the Yanks they have won. He declared the game between the Yanks and Philadelphia, postponed at Philadelphia today, did not have to be played, and probably would not be played. E. Barrow, business manager of the Yanks declared he believed the pennant was clinched but was after Ben Johnson for an official ruling. He said he believed Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, might force the Yanks to play off the postponed game. Connie Mack declared he would force the Yanks to play the game in New York on Saturday. If the game is to be played the Yanks can be tied by Cleveland provided the Indians win all their remaining games and the Yanks lose theirs. If the game is not to be played the Yanks cannot overtake.

They have only two games more scheduled, and if they lose both these they would not be within striking distance for the Indians. The Yank Athlete game was called off because of a heavy rainstorm that swept Shibe Park just about the time the teams started to play their last game of the season. The game will be played off as a double header in New York Saturday. Cleveland defeated Chicago three to two today at Chicago and retained its place in the scramble for the American League pennant. The Indians scored their runs in the fifth, bunching four hits off Faber. Coveleskie pitched for Cleveland.

CAN MCGRAW SHAKE JINX WORLD'S SERIES PUZZLE

Glamor of New Record for Copping Big League Flags Will Be Dimmed Unless Giants Capture Classic—How Managers Handle Their Teams.

Can John McGraw, manager of the Giant's shake off the jinx which so relentlessly has pursued all graduates of the old Baltimore school of baseball in world's series competition? That is the question of the hour. The defeats which have been administered by former managers of the famous Orioles have been uncanny in their regularity.

McGraw and his chief lieutenant, Hugh Jennings, alone have suffered seven world's series defeats, Wilbert Robinson, the crack catcher of the old Baltimore champions, has lost both of his world's series in Brooklyn, while Frankie Gleason, pitcher and second baseman on the Orioles, was leader of the White Sox when they went down to their infamous defeat in 1919.

This will be the seventh National League championship for John McGraw, a new record for big league managers. Prior to this year, McGraw and Mack were tied with six league championships. However, defeat in another world's championship would take much of the joy out of setting a new managerial record.

McGraw won his first world's series in 1905, when the great Mathewson shut out the Athletics three times in a week. Since then teams led by New York's little Napoleon have been defeated by the Athletics in 1911, 1912 and 1913. The Giant leader is known to baseball as a snap judgment player. In other words, he usually decides plays of the pilot assured.

McGraw was dressed in the heaviest furs with special helmet and goggles. To insure clear vision a special gelatine was used on the goggles to prevent collection of ice. The suit was electrically heated through out.

A centrifugal air compressor, operated by gas turbine, forms the supercharger which made the flight possible. The turbine derives its power from the hot exhaust gas of the Liberty motor with which the ship is equipped and air thus compressed is fed to the carburetor at the same pressure as air at sea level.

Favor System of Percentage

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—One of the strongest arguments for a rule to force boxers to fight on a percentage basis instead of a guarantee took place here August 31 at the Phillies ball park.

The fans saw three bouts for nothing, and Promoter Louis Malis lost several thousand dollars because Willie Jackson and Johnny Dundee, New York lightweights, who were to meet for the 11th time, couldn't draw a gate big enough to pay them $5,000 apiece. Malis offered the managers of Jackson and Dundee $2,500 in cash and a personal check for the remainder. Dundee's manager accepted, but "Doc" Bagley, manager of Jackson, demanded cash or nothing. The banks were closed and Malis was out of luck. He announced to the crowd that there would be no Jackson-Dundee fracas, and that their money would be refunded. Malis lost $4,000 paid for the preliminary bouts. Jackson and Dundee had fought on a percentage basis they both would have got about $2,000 apiece.

Director of Public Safety Cortelyou, who supervises boxing in this city, is a strong advocate of the percentage basis plan and indicated he may effect here promoters to put it into effect. "The only fair way of conducting a boxing show is on the percentage basis," he said, "Boxers are worth no more than their drawing power. If boxing should be put on such a basis here, and should any fighter refuse to box, no matter how small an amount, he would never box in Philadelphia again."

The percentage basis is the only fair way to the public, the promoters said, to the boxers themselves, Cortelyou said.

Traffic Cases In The Police Court

Yesterday morning the adjourned five cases for violation of the traffic laws given F. A. Campbell, general manager of the Union Bus Co., was before the court along with forty-four new cases. They were all postponed until next Tuesday morning. In the afternoon Byron Melanman, Patrick Hennessey, George W. Craft and A. Miller, were before the court for violations of the traffic laws and each was fined $10 and the fine allowed to stand.

In the 1920 world's series with Brooklyn, and continually kept his fighting team on it. He has met the Giants twice in post-season clashes. In 1906, when the Giants and Red Sox both finished third, Speaker beat New York almost single-handed, while Tris was a big factor in Boston's narrow victory over the Giants in this world series of 1912.

In the event that the Yankees win the American League pennant and play the Giants, Miller Huggins, the midge manager of the Yanks, will get his opportunity to etch as a world's series tactician.

Huggins has been subject to much criticism in New York, and a better manager than he has been given credit for. There is a lot of baseball in that little head of his.

It is true, however, that Huggins lacks the magnetic personality of Speaker and the aggressiveness of John McGraw. He is unable to inspire his team in the same way that these other leaders are able to do.

The little manager of the Yanks, however, has had his difficulties. He has had a team of stars to handle, most whom it was absolutely necessary to show on the ball field, and quite often he had been obliged to cater to the whims of his leading performers.

When Huggins had a team of cast-offs in St. Louis, it was much easier to be a strict disciplinarian than in New York, where he is surrounded with stars.

Hikers To Walk Round The World

Charles Burkman and Fred Shibley, well-known hikers, will start from Halifax next Tuesday on a walk around the world, a distance of 25,000 miles. They will walk all the way except across the oceans.

Their route will be via Windeor, Truro, Pictou, New Glasgow, Oxford Springs, Amherst, Moncton, St. John, Boston, New York, San Francisco, by boat to Australia, Japan, India, China and across Europe to the British Isles, then by boat across the Atlantic. They expect to return to Halifax about December 31, 1924.

APPOINTED CONSTABLE
Roy Clayton, son of J. P. Clayton and a returned soldier, has been appointed constable for the Parish of Simonds, and is now on duty. It was announced yesterday by County Secretary J. King Kelley, K. C., and he will have an eye open for violators of the traffic laws in that part of the county.

CARRIGAN AND MACK RANK WITH GREATEST WORLD SERIES PILOTS

List of Winning and Losing Managers in the Big Baseball Classic Since the Giants' Victory in 1905.

An interesting sidelight on world series of other years is concerned in the managers who were named in the various games as managers. The various games have been one of the invisible yet most potent factors in the great events.

Connie Mack, the sander boss of the Philadelphia Athletics, can lay claim to the greatest world series honors. Three of Mack's teams have won the series since the National commission took hold of baseball in 1905. Twice Mack found himself pitched against the John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants and Mack won on both occasions. Another of baseball's greatest leaders, Frank Chance of the Cubs, led a series to the Mack team who led their teams to world series victory on two occasions. In 1905 and 1906 his Cubs turned back Hughie Jennings' Detroit. Chance's team was defeated in the series of 1906 by manager Jones Chicago White Sox. The Cubs were woefully weak in the series, taking into consideration the fact that they had set a new record for games won in winning the National League pennant.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO AUGMENT UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE FUND

Minister of Health Says 20,000,000 Pounds May Be Advanced to Extend Scope of This Weapon.

London, Sept. 29.—Sir Alfred Mond, Minister of Health, addressing a newspaper man today regarding unemployment, said that serious as was the situation in Great Britain, it was even worse in the United States. Present conditions, he declared, were due to causes the Government could not control, and the British could only try to stabilize foreign exchange rates and to improve trade between the two countries.

present high prices are checking purchasing. He said indications were, however, that purchasing was improving. He continued:—

"Unemployment insurance has been a big weapon in dealing with the situation, and it is hoped to extend its scope by the Government advancing £20,000,000 to the insurance fund. Suggestions that the Government itself should manufacture goods and hand them over to a disposal board for sale would prove disastrous. Sir Alfred concluded by saying that while the position was serious, he was by no means despondent.

The Canard work now in progress on the Tyne and shortly to be increased by the coming of the Berengaria is very noteworthy. In addition to the Mauretania contract, work is being resumed, as already stated in Lloyd's List, on the passenger vessel for the intermediate class building at the Hebburn yard of Messrs. R. and W. Hawthorne, Leslie and Company, Limited, and similar instructions have been given to Messrs. Swan, Hunter and Wigham Richardson to proceed with the completion of the Laconia, and to Messrs. Armstrong, Whitworth to resume work on the Ansonia. There are other good prospects for the river, Messrs. Armstrong, Whitworth and Messrs. Swan, Hunter and Wigham Richardson have been asked to tender for the new battleships, and local firms interested in the engine tenders are Messrs. Hawthorne, Leslie and Company and the Welland Shipyard and Engineering Company, Limited. It is understood that four local ships are to be placed with private builders, and there are hopes that one may be given to a Tyne firm.

Scarcity of Work in Kiel Shipyards

As the scarcity of work in the Kiel shipyards is maintained further working restrictions and dismissals of workmen have been the result. The chief firm in Essen is endeavoring to procure work from Russia, by means of which further restrictions in the hours of work may be avoided. Home orders for six freight steamers, one large and five small sailing vessels and a Rhine tug boat have been received while three steamers and four Rhine boats and fourteen barges are now in course of construction. The letter is to be built at the new shipyard for river craft recently established near Oldham. About 7,000 persons are now employed in the former Reichs Shipyard (Deutsche Werke A. G.). The working hours are limited to five days weekly, and in some departments even to four days, but notwithstanding this fact, dismissals have taken place.

Work Progressing on Sunken Recruit

Work on the raising of the C. G. M. M. steamer Canadian Recruit, which sank near Stone Pillars on August 18 after collision with the steamer Mackinac, is now progressing rapidly and it is hoped to have the vessel afloat again inside of three weeks, according to officials of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine. Two iron tanks, each approximately 24 feet by 14 feet, are now under construction by Lechance, Limited, of Quebec, who have charge of raising the vessel, and when these are finished they will be taken by barge to where the Recruit lies, then filled with water, one sunk on each side of the steamer and then lashed in place. It is expected that by pumping the water out of the tanks their buoyancy will be sufficient to raise the vessel easily. Mr. J. L. Lechance, of Lechance, Limited, is himself superintending the work, which is being rushed, as it is the desire of the firm to have the Recruit raised inside of three weeks, or at least before the cold weather sets in.

Old Employee to Retire.
Edwin C. McLaughlin, superintendent for the White Star Line at Pier 60, New York, will retire after 23 years in the employ of the line at New York. Mr. McLaughlin, in the course of his business career, has seen ocean steamships increase in size from an average of 3,000 tons to maximum of more than 50,000 tons each. In the old days," he said recently, "when we had a ship of 5,000 tons to load we thought it a monster, and had to work nights. Now it is not uncommon for us to have 50,000 tons of company ships at the docks at the same time, varying in size from 16,000 tons to 46,000 tons. Our next ship to come out, the Majestic, will be 56,000 tons. My only regret on retiring is that I shall not be employed at the docks when she comes in on her first voyage."

First German Liner To New York

The Bayern Scheduled for Arrival There Today.

New York, Sept. 30.—Bayern, the first German passenger steamer to arrive in American waters since the war, is due here Saturday morning. Mayor Hylan has appointed a committee to go down the harbor to welcome the Bayern officially. The arrival marks the opening of German passenger traffic by United American lines which, with the old Hamburg-American line, is headed by W. Averell Harriman and associates.

The Bayern was launched at Bremen, June 4, last, and is the first of three ships to be launched by the old Hamburg-American line, before consolidation with the Harriman line. The sister ships, Winterberg and Hansa, formerly Victoria, Louise are scheduled to arrive here within the next two months. On board the Bayern is Max Warmholz, dean of Old Hamburg-American line's directors.

Only one other German vessel, and this a freighter, has appeared in New York since the war. This was Sophie Rickmers, one of large fleet owned by the Rickmers Corporation.

The Bayern is an oil burner of 1200 tons, with accommodations for several hundred steerage passengers and about a dozen cabin passengers.

Lapland Carried Distinguished Party

Colonel Walter L. Bell, who served as transportation officer for the 27th United States Division during the war, is on the Red Star liner Lapland, which left New York on Tuesday for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Antwerp. Colonel Bell has been appointed assistant to Colonel William Haskell, director of American Relief Work in Russia, and is on his way to join Colonel Haskell, who sailed several weeks ago with a large relief party.

Other passengers in the Lapland's first cabin are Rev. J. J. McClure, D. D., a missionary from Cape Town, South Africa, who is on his way to England; the Most Rev. George J. Carman, Bishop of Porto Rico; Mr. John J. Pulley, president of the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank, and Miss Clara Pulley, of New York; Mr. Theodore J. E. Umbeck, vice-consul at Bucharest; Mrs. Nathalie Laimbeer, Miss Josephine Laimbeer and Miss Nathalie L. Laimbeer; Mrs. William C. Potter and Miss Jean Potter, of New York, and Mrs. Samuel Robinson, Miss A. P. Robinson and Miss K. L. Robinson, of Santa Barbara.

DIED FROM INJURIES RECEIVED.
Charlottetown, Sept. 30.—Emanuel Wedge, one of the men of the car ferry, died in the Prince County Hospital as a result of injuries received last night by being run over by a train he was boarding at Wiltshire station. One leg was taken off and he was otherwise injured.

BANDITS MADE GOOD HAUL.
Carterville, Ill., Sept. 30.—Police are searching for two bandits who had up Lawrence Jerald, substitute rural mail carrier, and made away with $41,500 which sum had been forwarded by a bank in St. Louis to Western Coal and Mining Company at Bush, Illinois.

DISAGREED ON McAULEY CASE, SEVEN JURYMEN FOR ACQUITTAL, FIVE VOTED FOR AN ACQUITTAL

Were Three Hours Deliberating on Fate of John Paris, Charged With Brutal Murder of Little Girl—Able Addresses by Counsel for Crown and Defense—Lengthy Charge to Jury by Judge Barry—Another Trial Expected Late in October.

The trial of John Paris for the murder of Sadie McAuley was concluded at 8:30 last evening, when after three hours deliberation, W. E. Anderson, foreman of the jury, announced that the jury had been unable to agree on a verdict...

When the jury again filed into the court room an hour later, but few of the spectators, who had crowded it during the day were present, but an expectant hush fell over those who were, as they awaited the foreman's declaration.

Paris leaned forward and eyed each juror intently, but never flickered so much as an eye as they made known their conclusion.

When the jury again filed into the court room an hour later, but few of the spectators, who had crowded it during the day were present, but an expectant hush fell over those who were, as they awaited the foreman's declaration.

Paris' housekeeper said he was not home, and she should know, was she telling the truth? John Byard swore he had seen Paris in Truro for a fortnight, his was a wonderful memory.

When the court opened at 2:30 Monday afternoon, the jurors were: W. E. Anderson, foreman; William W. Hawker, Horace G. Black, A. Chipman Ritchie, John A. Driscoll, Frederick C. Wesley, Robert M. Bartch, DeWitt Cairns, Walter A. Adams and George E. Crowe.

Dr. Wallace then delivered the address for the crown. Commenting on the difficulties of the case he said the alibi established by the defense was not irrefragable.
