ss and frestness of youth. This air is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. The form these learning are to state the scale arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. The form those states are selected as the scale and white STARCH; to see the scale and white STARC cleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 9.

77 A very lean pig, on a windy day, Stood alone by a garden gate; He couldn't get in. for the gate was locked. And sadly he moaned o'er his fate. Then he wiped his eyes with a curl of his tail, And gracefully stood on his ear, And a trembling tear coursed down his spine, Till his face turned the color of cuir.

His snoot grew flat, and gray were his locks, When a knot-hole round he espied; And he sat on the silken folds of his paw. And peered through that loop-hole wide. He saw the sun in a golden beam, Glint its rays on a buoket of mash, And his porcine feelings welled upin his breast And he went through that bole with a dash Then his optic fell on some CATTLE SPICE,

With a relish uncommonly keen. He loaded his skin till it cou'dn't hold more And his sides began to expand His face got cheeky; stout grew his limbs, And he left for his native land. He reached the hole at the side of the gate And jumped for that circular crack When his febrile pulse felt a normal shock And he fell on the broad of his back. And the Coroner sat on the fat remains
Of that porker in his pride:
And this was the verdict the Jury gave:
"Died from a swelled inside."
