HAS BOWERMAN GIVEN UP THE LONDON MANAGEMENT?

Ex-Giant Has Not Been Heard From Since Saturday Night—Mother Is Ill, However, and This Fact May Be Keeping the Manager Away.

The fact that Manager Bowerman, of the London team, has not reported to the club since he left for his home in Romeo on Saturday night, is causing uneasiness among the local directors, while in some quarters it is believed that the former Giant has given up the management of the club.

FRANK BOWERMAN.

On Saturday evening Manager Bowerman declared that he was through after the game with Ottawa, and although he was urged by the directors to stay he did not promise to do so. It is now believed that he has decided to resign.

Manager Bowerman was to have reported at Guelph on Monday, and President Sam Stevely, of the London team, went there to meet him. Mr. Stevely was disappointed at the fact that the manager was not there, and returned to this city fully expecting that the ex-Giant would arrive in London today. However, as Frank has not put in an appearance, and has sent no word to explain his absence, it is now believed that he has given up the management of the club.

Mother Is Ill.

However, there is a probability that Frank is staying over at his home in Romeo for a few days on account of the illness of his mother. Shortly before leaving this city on Saturday evening he received a telegram from his home stating that his mother was seriously ill. The news seemed to upset him, and he stated that he might have to remain in Romeo until Tuesday or Wednesday. He promised to send a message to President Stevely if such was the case. His failure to inform the local directors is now being taken to mean that he has quit. This is further offset by the fact that the management have signed up a new catcher to take Bowerman's place, the new man being "Mike" Boyle, formerly of the Berlin team. Boyle reported to the club today.

Looey Bierbauer is at present in charge of the team, and he has not yet received word from Bowerman of his intentions.

DR. HILL IS NOW SELECTING HIS STAFF FOR THE COLLEGE

Head of the Institution of Preventive Medicine Reaches This City.

Dr. H. W. Hill, formerly of the Minnesota State Board of Health, who was recently appointed to the directorship of the London College of Preventive Medicine, as the hygienic Institute is now known, arrived in London yesterday, and has taken up his residence at 417 Dundas street.

The doctor is now busily engaged with his advisory board in selecting his staff, and while no appointments other than his own have as yet been made it is expected that within a week the administrative department of the college will be ready for business.

A great deal of equipment has also been selected, and will be delivered in London as soon as possible. Plans are to have the college in operation with the commencement of the term of the Western Medical School in September. It is expected that there will then be 100 to 125 students enrolled.

The local institute will be the only one of the kind in Canada, and the Rockefeller Institute in New York City alone equals it.

The courses to be taught here may be listed under the general headings of epidemiology, sanitary engineering, and vital statistics, for more advanced students, and bacteriology, parasitology, and chemistry, as basic subjects.

The degree of doctor of public health is also to be given in London, and this will include special courses in military hygiene, personal hygiene, school hygiene, and kindred subjects. Later it is intended to provide courses for the public, and next winter it is expected that lectures will be given weekly for the public benefit. These will relate particularly to pure milk, pure water, pure food, house flies and other subjects of interest to the people.

SUMMER CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE

Annual Meeting Is Being Held This Week in St. Thomas.

The annual summer conference of the Epworth Leagues and Young People's Societies of the Methodist Church for Western Ontario is meeting this week at the Alma Ladies' College, St. Thomas. Rev. Mr. Hazen, pastor of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, was in attendance at the session held Tuesday evening and reports this year's convention to be a record-breaker for registration of attendance and will be the best yet from every standpoint.

Daily Programme.

Forenoon—6:30, rising bell; 7:15, breakfast; 8:45-9:30, prayer and life talks; 9:30-10:40, intermission; 10:40-11:40, mission study classes; 11:40-12:15, missionary address.

Afternoon — 12:30, dinner; 1:30-5:30, rest and recreation; 5:30, supper, 7:15-7:45, vesper services; 8-9:30, platform meetings; 10, hour of retirement.

Rest and recreation—The members of the school are free to spend their afternoons as they desire: in rest, or reading, or participation in the games upon the spacious college campus, such as croquet, lawn tennis, bowling, basketball, baseball, etc. Electric cars run hourly to Port Stanley. Strolls in the nearby ravine or to the city parks are sometimes indulged in. The social atmosphere of the school is of the most helpful and congenial character.

Departments, Topics, Leaders, Teachers and Speakers.

I.—Prayer and life talks—A series of short addresses on the general theme—"The Spiritual Interpretation of Christ." These will be given by Rev. D. N. McCamus, of London, as follows: Wednesday, July 17, "Spirituality of Christ"; Thursday, July 18, "Christ's Spirituality and Ours"; Friday, July 19, "The Door to the Spiritual World"; Saturday, July 20, "Christ's Spiritual Supremacy"; Monday, July 22, "The Spiritual Supremacy of the Church."

II.—Bible studies—A series of studies in "The Sermon on the Mount," conducted by the Rev. C. P. Wells, B. D., of Comber, as below: Wednesday, July 17, "The New Kingdom's Relation to the Old"; Thursday, July 18, "Coveting God's Favor"; Friday, July 19, "Loving God and Not Mammon"; Saturday, July 20, "Safeguards"; Monday, July 22, "Truth and Falsehood."

III.—Mission Study Classes.

During this hour the school meets in classes in separate rooms, each class under the leadership of a specialist in mission study class work—members are allowed to choose the class in which they prefer to meet. Amongst others the following text books and teachers have been selected: "My Neighbor," taught by the author, Rev. J. S. Woodworth, of All Saints' Mission, Winnipeg; "Our Share in China," (Bond) under leadership of Rev. S. P. Westaway, returned missionary from China; "Decisive Hour of Christian Missions," (Stott) by Miss German, of London; "Sunrise in the Sunrise Kingdom," taught by Rev. W. W. Prudham, of Binbrook; "The Moslem World," teacher, Miss Sifton, of Toronto.

IV.—Missionary Addresses and Platform Meetings.

Each forenoon session will be closed with a short missionary address, and each evening meeting occupied with one or two addresses. The following is a partial list of speakers: Rev. J. S. Woodsworth, Winnipeg; Rev. S. P. Westaway, China; Rev. W. H. Barraclough, B. D., of Sarnia; Mr. Harold Waite, secretary of Pocket Testament League, Toronto; Rev. C. R. Carscallen, B. A., of China; Rev. A. T. Wilkinson, B. A., of Japan; Mr. Arthur McKenzie, Japan; Miss M. E. Switzer, of China, and others.

ARCHBISHOP SILENT, MAY EXCOMMUNICATE

Situation Over Banned Roman Catholic College Reaches a Crisis.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, July 17.—When the condition of affairs at St. Johns was mentioned to the Archbishop of Montreal he declined to make a statement, though it is expected that he will make a move towards carrying out his threat to ban the St. Marie College and excommunicate, not only the priests in connection with it, but their supporters. Further action of the college authorities is also being eagerly awaited here.

IMPERIAL ORANGE COUNCIL.

Glasgow, July 17.—The conference of the Imperial Grand Orange Council of the World opened here today.

Andrew Weir, a New York delegate, assured the assemblage there were 100,000 stalwart Orangemen in America, who were ready to stand beside the men of Ulster foot to foot and financially, in order to wipe out the home rule enemy.

HAD JUST LEFT SOFA WHEN WALL FELL IN Vivid Description of the Recent Cyclone in Letter Received By Mr. Hambly.

HOUSE WAS WRECKED

In Nearby Dwellings Many Met Death and Dozens Were Injured.

Mr. S. Hambly, of Dorchester Station, has received the following vivid description of the recent Regina cyclone from his daughter, Mrs. McKenzie:

"Regina, July 7, 1912.

"Dear Father, Mother and Sisters,—It is just one week today since that awful cyclone struck our city, and I have never been able to write you a line until now. If we could not see our home in such confusion, and the ruins on all sides of us, I could almost imagine it had been a dream. It lasted such a few minutes, but, oh, the destruction in those few minutes!! Hundreds left homeless and lots with scarcely enough clothes to cover them.

A Close Call.

"It was such a hot day that people were lying around with as little as possible on. Leila (her daughter) just had a kimona on, and no shoes as she had been sick all day. She had only been off the couch in the back parlor five minutes when the solid brick wall from the house south of us fell right into our bedroom and the back parlor.

"Mr. Child was lying with only his underwear on, and he, with the rest of us, got in a heap at the foot of the stairs in the hall the only place in the whole house that the glass was not flying.

House Wrecked.

"Our windows are all gone. Both screen doors, all the window screens, blinds, and some of the lace curtains, with poles, part of the roof, some of the verandah, the fence and some of the window sashes are gone completely. But our lives are spared, and not one of us in the house sustained a scratch.

"In the house just opposite us there were five killed, and in a little cottage beside that house, a young married couple were both killed. We sent out mattresses and a lot of bedclothes for the dead and wounded. There were two dead on the north side and two on the south side of our lawn, and others were brought immediately by doctors and nurses on mattresses.

"You will see by the papers how fortunate we were. Another friend near by was killed and his father injured. There was not a bit of their house left standing.

"The electric lights are in running order again, also most of the street cars, but it will be months before we have any telephones, and all our beautiful churches are gone. We had service in the city hall auditorium tonight, and the Methodists in the theatre. We have blankets and quilts hanging before the windows, but we don't mind, as everybody is in the same fix. Our nice garden is under a mass of bricks, shingles, etc. I have told of nothing but the cyclone, as it yours."

G. T. R. CONDUCTORS WERE ARRESTED

Two Toronto Men and One From London Taken at Hamilton.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Hamilton, July 17.—Two Grand Trunk conductors living in Toronto, running between Toronto and Port Huron, and a London conductor, running between that city and Toronto, were arrested here today in connection with a charge of misappropriating funds. There was a similar arrest recently in Toronto.

JAMES E. CHILDS DEAD

Was General Manager of New York, Ontario and Western.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—James E. Childs, general manager of the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad, is dead at a hospital here of heart failure, following the administration of an anaesthetic.

Mr. Childs had gone to the hospital for a minor operation, and his death was entirely unexpected. He was 64 years old.

BARRY SMITH DEAD

Chief Law Clerk of Intercolonial Road Dies at Moncton.

Moncton, N. B., July 17.—R. Barry Smith, chief law clerk of the Intercolonial Railway here, died late this afternoon aged 60 years. He leaves a wife, four daughters and two sons. Some fifteen years ago he was ordained a Baptist minister, and was in the work of the ministry ten years.

ALLEGED HORSE-KILLER PLACED UNDER ARREST BY THE POLICE

Harry Walsh Located But the Other Men Wanted Are Still at Large.

Harry Walsh, one of the four men wanted on a charge of cruelty to animals in beating a horse from Ross' livery stable until it died of exhaustion the following day, was located last night and placed under arrest. He was remanded this morning until Friday.

The other members of the quartette—Emerson Brooks, "Egg" Pyman and John Bragg—have not as yet been served, and warrants are to be issued for their arrest. In the meantime the case stands adjourned on the court blotter.

TWO SOLDIERS "FLEW COOP," ONE MAN IS STILL AT LARGE

Wolseley Barracks Men Complain That the Drill Is Very Severe.

Early Tuesday morning two of the regular soldiers belonging to the Royal Canadian Regiment at Wolseley Barracks sought their liberty. Immediately the vacancy in the ranks was noticed, a pursuit party was organized, with the result that one of the men was caught at the Grand Trunk depot just as he was boarding an outgoing train. He was brought back to the barracks and is now serving a 15-day term. The other is still at liberty and no word of his whereabouts has been heard.

The men have been complaining for some time about the severity of the drill in the warm weather, and doubtless this was the cause of their dissatisfaction.

HOSTILITY TO INSURANCE ACT NOT OF NATIONAL CHARACTER

Some English Conservative Organs Attack Lloyd George's Scheme—Present Confusion Inseparable From Launching of Constructive Legislation.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—A cable from London this morning says:

The Conservative newspapers continue bitterly to attack Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George's insurance act and declare that it is causing loss of work to the classes that it is designed specially to benefit.

The Daily Mail today begins a column article by saying:

"The second day's working of the chaotic insurance act gave further indications of the hardship it will cause among the employed classes who are least able to bear the misfortune."

The Daily Mail continues:

"The scheme that is to cost $25,000,000 a year in administration, a large part of which will be paid by its victims themselves, has already begun to destroy employment. Among the first to lose their situations are older men in workshops and women outworkers. People are doing without servants and charwomen, waiters are engaged by the day, casual employees in many industries, and such of the lowly paid as sandwichmen, are the first to feel the pinch of the enormous new taxes."

The Sandwichmen.

The sandwichman's case is cited as a most striking instance of the act. Some hundreds of these men were employed on Monday, and the employers, who, says the Daily Mail, were unable to understand their responsibilities under the act, had not affixed tax stamps to the men's cards.

When the men applied for jobs at other places yesterday, they were asked if they could produce their tax cards stamped for Monday. They said they could not, and got no work.

In the absence of a pooling scheme between employers to share the taxes these classes of men will receive possibly no employment. In this condition it must be explained that pooling schemes to provide for just shares of casual labor are being arranged by the board of trade, with the double purpose of aiding the proper working of the insurance act, and of providing labor exchanges to decasualize to some extent casual labor.

Started a Strike.

The strike which started at Liverpool on Monday arose from the fact that the dockers misunderstood the pooling plan proposed, and yet the difficulty is still present.

Dr. MacNamara, one of Mr. Lloyd George's stauncest friends, admits that there has been "some slight confusion inseparable from the inception of a great constructive piece of legislation," but says that there has been less confusion than at the time of the introduction of Joseph Chamberlain's workmen's accident insurance act, the benefits of which nobody now thinks of questioning.

Perhaps the most significant fact is that several papers which fought the insurance act tooth and nail until recently, are now moderating their antagonism. For instance, the Telegraph acknowledges that there is no evidence of any national opposition to the insurance law, and jocosely suggests that this fact is due to the heat.

The Times, likewise, counsels obedience to the law of the land, following the advice of J. L. Garvin, editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, that "the attempt to exploit the unpopularity of the act during the six months when payments have to be made, and no benefits are forthcoming, must be strongly resisted if the Unionist party is to acquire or deserve the confidence of the people."

Another Unionist paper, the Standard, today cuts down the "Insurance troubles" to a few paragraphs in an obscure part of its columns.

Impartial observers predict that the opposition to the act will soon end.

STREET RAILWAY BEGINS WORK ON THE NORTH END BELT LINE

Cheapside St. Extension Will Be in Operation by January 1913.

Manager King, of the London street railway, has a gang of men at work on the new north end line. Work has commenced at the corner of Wellington street and Cheapside, and the laying of the rails along Cheapside street to William, and down William to connect with the present line on Oxford street, will be rushed.

It is expected that the north end belt will be in operation by the first of the year. It will be some time later before the line on Adelaide street is built, owing to the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway has to be crossed, and permission will have to be obtained from the railway commission. It is an open question as yet whether or not a subway will be built on Adelaide street.

MONTREAL NEWSPAPERS TO RUN BALL TEAM

Will Make an Effort to Pull Club Out of Basement Position.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, July 17.—The management of the Montreal baseball team, hopelessly tail-end in the International League race, and in the bad graces of the fans, will make a radical departure by not only deposing the present manager, Billy Lush, but by giving the newspapers of the city a chance to run the team in an effort to drag it away from its basement anchorage.

This afternoon President Lichtenhein has called a meeting of the directorate and has invited representatives from the three newspapers to be present and offer suggestions as to the best plan to strengthen the team's playing forces, and to regain in some measure the confidence of the baseball public of the city.

It is not unlikely that Kitty Bransfield, now playing first base for the team, will be given a chance to see what he can do as manager.

DOES AWAY WITH SELF IN MID-ATLANTIC

Wealthy St. Louis Brewer Jumps Overboard From Liner Kaiser Wilhelm.

New York, July 17. — Paul Rathmann, a wealthy brewer of St. Louis, Mo., returning to his home aboard the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., after a futile search for health in the European seas, jumped overboard three hours after the liner had left Cherbourg last Wednesday.

Mr. Rathmann, who was accompanied by his wife, occupied a stateroom on the upper deck. He watched the passengers come aboard at Cherbourg, and after a short promenade retired for the night at 9:30 p.m.

Half an hour later, when his wife was asleep, he stole quietly from his cabin into the lower promenade deck. Although he was 60 years of age and in feeble health he climbed on the rail and jumped overboard.

With the aid of the liner's powerful searchlight the lifeboat's crew made a careful search for two hours. No sign of Mr. Rathmann was found and the men were forced to abandon the hunt. Mrs. Rathmann had slept while the search was being made and was not informed until later of her husband's disappearance. She remained in her stateroom the greater part of the voyage.

BRUTAL MURDER AT MIDDLEPORT INDIAN WOMAN CLUBBED TO DEATH

Police Are Seeking John R. Bennett, a Notorious Member of the Six Nations Tribe—Believed That Woman Was Killed as Result of Drunken Brawl.

[Canadian Press.]

Brantford, July 17.—A brutal murder has been reported to the authorities here from Middleport, 12 miles below Brantford, following the finding of the body last night of Emily Antone, and the police are seeking John R. Bennett, a notorious member of the Six Nations. The woman was beaten to death, her head and body showing the results of all kinds of blows and ill-treatment. Bennett is missing, and County Constable Kerr and Detective Chapman are now scouring the country for his whereabouts. In the meantime George Lowery is under arrest as an accessory.

The affair took place in the house of John Axone during his absence.

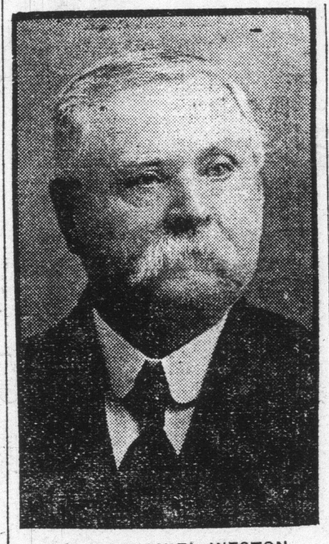

A Drunken Brawl.

Few particulars of the tragedy could be secured by the authorities. It is thought, however, that a drunken brawl ensued some time early Tuesday morning in which Bennett attacked the woman, causing her death. It is also alleged that Lowery supplied liquor to Bennett, a business of which he has been suspected for some time.

Coroner Ashton directed the board to hold an inquest, the remains of the murdered woman having been ordered to be brought to Brantford. The jury will meet on Friday. In the meantime a vigorous search is being conducted for Bennett. The alleged murderer is a half-brother of the Joe Bennett, who was hanged here a few years ago for the murder of Betsy Jacobs.

It is stated here this morning that Lowery was in the neighborhood of the house when the woman received the injuries which caused her death.

Bennett's Indian wife is living on the reserve.

PLAGUE BRINGS GOOD TO PORTO RICANS

Island Is Getting a Grand Clean Up and Much Needed Hospitals.

[Canadian Press.]

Boston, July 17.—A number of reports concerning the bubonic plague have been received from Porto Rico by missionary societies here and in New York. All accounts seem to agree that the disease is spreading rapidly through the island. The societies are planning to raise money to fight its advance.

Baptists heard today that their church in Corilina had been razed in an attempt to rid that section of thousands of infected rats. A few deaths among the natives recently occurred in the town.

There seems, however, to be some good done by the plague. The island is being so thoroughly cleaned that it could hardly be recognized. The visitation will also in all probability result in a spirited movement for the erection of hospitals and similar institutions much needed in all parts of the island.

MORE ARRESTS IN ROSENTHAL CASE

Two of the Suspects Break Down and Tell All They Know of Killing.

NEW THEORY OF POLICE

Now Believed That Gambler Was Assassinated by One of the East Side Gangs.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—Further arrests in the murder case of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who was shot and killed early yesterday, a few hours before he was to make additional charges that police and gamblers were in collusion, were expected today to disclose whether the police or gamblers directly instigated the plot to kill Rosenthal.

A score or more of plain clothes men are searching the city early today for several men whom District Attorney Whitman learned were connected with the shooting. After several hours of grilling Louis Libby and William Shapiro, who owned the motor car that was used in the killing, broke down and told all they knew of the murder.

District Attorney Whitman believes that the "police system," as it is known, was largely, if not directly, responsible for the slaying of Rosenthal, whose elimination was probably decided upon when it was found that he intended to make further charges that certain of the police were grafting on gamblers. One theory is, according to the police, that one of the East Side gambling gangs hated Rosenthal because of his gambling disclosures, and decided to make away with him.

District Attorney Whitman said today that he would proceed with the grand jury investigation into the charges made by Rosenthal. It was reported that Rosenthal gave the public prosecutor the names of three men who had to be "seen" by the gamblers before they could do business. One of them is said to be a former city official, another a police department official, and a third holding a clerical position in the police department.

SIGHT-SEEING AUTO GOES ON RAMPAGE

Runs Away on Crowded Street and Throws Out Its Forty Passengers.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—A sight-seeing automobile got beyond control on the main thoroughfare of Coney Island shortly before midnight, and after a wild run down the crowded street, smashed itself against a curbing, throwing out its 40 passengers, and injuring 15 persons.

All of the injured are expected to recover. The accident is blamed to a defective steering gear.

BISHOP FALLON REFUSED HONOR

Might Have Been Archbishop of Toronto.

It was stated today that Bishop Fallon had the honor of refusing the Archbishopric of Toronto. The position was proffered him, but the Bishop of London has such important plans mapped out for the Diocese of London that Rome decided to allow him to remain here. His work in the establishing of a seminary in London was the mainspring in keeping him in the local diocese. Toronto was very anxious to get him.

WESTERN ONTARIO NEWS

TASTED NO BREAD FOR OVER 3 YEARS

Walkerton Man Was on the Shores of Arctic Ocean.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Walkerton, July 16. — Mr. Alex. McKay, formerly of Carrick Township, was buried here today in his ninety-third year. Mr. McKay came from Soctland as a young man, being sent out to the Northwest by the Hudson Bay Company, and spent several years in the far north. His experience of five years at the mouth of the Mackenzie on the Arctic Ocean were thrilling. Three years of that time he never ate bread, living largely on fish. He leaves a widow and a large grown-up family.

RIFLE SHOOTING

Missouri Men Made Fine Scores in the Final Match.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Thorndale, July 16.—Nissouri riflemen scored 981 points in the fourth and last shoot of the Canadian Rifle League contest for 1912.

Out of over 40 members of the above association competing in these matches, only five were able to remain in each match during the contest, and each of these will receive a first class marksman's certificate. The following are the lucky men: Kenneth Fraser, of Ballymote, leading by a score of 391 points out of the possible of 420; Joseph Beck, 388; Capt. W. M. Logan, 387; John Taylor, 384; Andrew Mills, 367.

CIVIC HOLIDAY

Listowel People Are Celebrating With aMny Picnics and Games.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Listowel, July 17.—Today is Civic Holiday here, and an unusual number of picnics are being held to surrounding places. The weather is rather cool, but the day is an ideal one for the many races and games.

In a fast game of baseball between the Factories' team and the Maple Leafs in the Town League, the latter won by a score of 8 to 3. Rev. H. M. Langford umpired.

Mrs. James Kincade is visiting in Toronto with her uncles, Dr. Robinson and Mr. George Robinson, editor of the Presbyterian Review, after which she will visit her uncle, Mr. John Robinson, at Bond Head.

Jos. Meyers, of Woodstock, motored up Saturday and is visiting with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Windsor motored to London recently and visited Mr. Frank Windsor.

Mr. James McKeever, Toronto, is holidaying with his parents.

PAINFULLY HURT

Brigden Man Struck By Crank of an Automobile Engine.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Brigden, July 16. — Mr. A. D. Armstrong met with a very painful accident when, while cranking his auto, the engine kicked. Mr. Armstrong was thrown in such a manner as to sprain his ankle.

A very welcome rainstorm visited this section yesterday afternon, cooling the air to such an extent that an overcoat was not amiss last evening.

Thursday is Brigden's civic holiday, and an excursion under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school will be taken to Belle Isle and Detroit. A good day's outing is being looked forward to.

SENT TO JAIL

Drunks Were Discovered in Local Option Town of Merlin.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chatham, July 16.—William Bellaire and Joseph Phillips, both of Chatham, charged with being the worse for liquor in the local option town of Merlin, were brought before Magistrate O'Neil, of that place, yesterday, when they were each fined $20 in all. Neither could pay at the time, and they were both taken to the county jail, and if the money is not put up they will stay there for fifteen days.

There has been much drinking in Merlin and vicinity, and the authorities are bound to put a stop to it; though they seem to be a little in the dark as to the location of the "blind tigers" in operation in that part of the country.

FATALLY INJURED

William Weeks Formerly of Woodstock, Killed in New Brunswick.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Woodstock, July 16.—Mr. T. A. Love received word today that his brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Weeks, aged 35, had been killed in a railway accident in New Brunswick. The late Mr. Weeks lived at Fredericton, and was an engineer on the C. P. R. The accident occurred near Grand Falls, N. B. Deceased is survived by his father and mother, who moved with him from Woodstock fourteen years ago, his wife and two children, and two sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Love, of this city.

POISON TOO EASILY OBTAINED AT PRESENT

Seaforth Jury Will Ask Government to Change the Drug Statutes.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Seaforth, July 16.—At the conclusion of the resumed inquiry into the cause of death of the late Myrtle Cook, held in the council chamber yesterday the jury brought in the following verdict and recommendation:

"That the said Myrtle Cook, on the 22nd day of June, 1912, came to her death by poison administered by herself.

"That owing to the easy manner of obtaining poisonous drugs from druggists at present in vogue under the pharmacy act of 1884 for Ontario governing the sale of poison, your jurors strongly recommend that the law be so enacted as to make it compulsory for the purchaser of poison to be accompanied by two reputable witnesses known to the druggist, and so registered in a book kept for the purpose when purchasing virulent poisons, and that copies of this recommendation be forwarded to Sir James Whitney of Ontario, and to Mr. Wm. Proudfoot, M. P. P. for Centre Huron."

Jas. G. Scott, M. D., coroner; D. D. Wilson, foreman; L. C. Jackson, John Robb, Geo Murdie, Wm. Ballantyne, F. G. Neelin, W. F. Hinchley, John Grieve, Arch. Scott, James Hays.

But few witnesses were called by County Crown Attorney Seager, the evidence showing clearly that deceased had purchased strychnine at Walley's drug store some time before her death, and signed that it was to be used for killing rats. The poison she had divided into two portions, one being found after her death, which was due to her taking the other half.

KING CONGRATULATES PEOPLE OF BERLIN

Telegram From London to Mayor Schmatz Contains Greetings.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Berlin, Ont., July 16. — Mayor Schmalz today received a cablegram from His Majesty King George V., extending congratulations and greetings on Berlin becoming a city. A similar message was received from Hon. Gerhard Heintzman, in Germany.

The city is thronged with visitors for the cityhood celebration, which is increasing in enthusiasm. The two daily aeroplane flights are being witnessed by thousands of people. The big day wall be Wednesday, when Hon. Adam Beck and the mayors and aldermen of many municipalities will be the city's guests.

WILL START FACTORY

Hespeler Plant, Which Had Been Abandoned To Be Used.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Hespeler, July 16.—It is announced today that the immense mill, formerly belonging to the Canada Woolen Mills Company, but for the last eight years idle and unoccupied, has been acquired by a limited liability company for the purpose of manufacturing stove furniture and fittings. The company is composed of five men whose names have not been divulged at the present stage, who have subscribed $50,000 to the paid-up capital of the new concern. The mill property is in the hands of the Dominion Bank, but the present machinery will be disposed of by Oct. 1, when possession is to be given to the purchasers.

It is fully expected that by April next 500 hands will be employed and this will be later increased by several hundred more.

KINCARDINE OLD BOYS ARE HAVING BEST REUNION YET

Fully One Thousand Are Home From Detroit Alone and Every Day Exceeds the Last in Fun—Many Made Long Auto Trips From All Over the Country.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Kincardine, July 17.—Every day of the big Old Boys' reunion so far has exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine members of the home committee, and there is no doubt whatever that the homecoming of 1912 will go down in history as the most successful of a whole long line of successful and enjoyable reunions.

Old Boys and Girls in hundreds are here from all parts of the United States and Canada. Many came in special trains, scores made long automobile trips, but all are here, and are having a delightful time. Many of the contingents brought their own bands with them.

Warmly Welcomed.

On the arrival of the Detroit contingent, 300 strong, with a pipe and brass band, they and hundreds of other Old Boys marched to Recreation Park, where Mayor Patterson read an address, in which he welcomed all and extended the freedom of the town. Rev. Dr. Murray, of Toronto, and Rev. Dr. Johnston, of Montreal, replied, and expressed the pleasure that all feel in being back in their old home town, and seeing old friends again.

Following these proceedings, the hall was cleared and a big dance was engaged in for the rest of the night, an orchestra from Detroit supplying a fine programme.

By this evening it is expected that fully 1,000 Old Boys from Detroit alone will be here. The town is full of all kinds of attractions, and the fakirs are doing a roaring trade.

DREAM THAT FIT.

[Judge's Library.]

"Ever notice how actual happenings sometimes fit into dreams?"

"Had experience. I dreamed I was in my auto on a country road and recall hearing an explosion. An incandescent light globe in the room had burst, and when I woke up I was under the bed tinkering the springs with my wife's manicure set."

The Real Test For Varnishes

The bathroom, with its steam and splashing of water, and its extreme heat, tests a varnish to its utmost.
None but a good pure gum varnish will stand it. We mean varnish without rosin in it, because rosin varnish will turn white in contact with water, will crack and lose the gloss. Standard Paint and Varnish Company's Jap Varnishes are made from pure gum, and stand the most severe wear. Jap Varnishes stand for service. LONDON PAINT AND VARNISH CO., 342 Richmond. Phone 3312

NEW FIVE DOLLAR BILLS ARE NOW IN CIRCULATION

Notes Are Easily Recognized —A Description of the Bills.

The new $5 bank notes of the Dominion of Canada, which were issued on July 2, are now in fairly general circulation, and it is understood that about $2,000,000 worth have been taken up by the banks for issuance as emergency money after Sept. 1. The use of Government notes on which the banks pay 5 per cent interest, is necessitated when the different institutions circulate bills up to the limit of their authorized capital.

The new $5 bill is easily recognized as quite different from any of the notes of the same denomination hitherto in circulation. On its face in each of the upper corners is the figure "5," while between the two the word "five" twice appears in prominent lettering. A picture of a railway train is the main illustration, and in the bottom corners V's are placed.

On the reverse side there is a large V, and on either side the figure 5. The Canadian $4 bill is no longer in circulation.

SCIENTISTS GATHER

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the British Royal Society.

London, July 16.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the institution of the Royal Society was observed today in various ways. There was a service at Westminster Abbey at noon, and a reception of the delegates from other countries in the afternoon in the library of the society. Sir Archibald Geikie, who has been president of the society since 1907, with Lord Rayleigh on his left, and the Right Hon. Sir J. R. Bradford, on his right, made a speech in which he welcomed the "old centres of culture in Europe," as well as the younger.

The society gave a dinner in the evening to the delegates at the Guild Hall. Premier Asquith, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, Cardinal Bourne, of Westminster, Lord Chief Justice Alverstone, Lord Raleigh, Rudyard Kipling, Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir W. C. Crookes, J. J. Thompson, and a wonderful galaxy of distinguished persons were present. Premier Asquith, in toasting the society, said the "history of this society is the history of English science. Hardly a year has passed when the society is not enriched by the addition of a name of a man to whom the whole world is indebted for some, but slow subjection of nature."

Sir Geikie responded.

MOUNT SINAI FOUND?

Berlin, July 16. — The discovery of what is believed to be the real "Mount Sinai" of Holy Scripture is reported to the Academy of Science by one signing himself as Prof. Dr. Al Musil from Damascus. Prof. Musil believes that the extinct volcano, Hal-al-Bedr, in the Hedja region of Northern Arabia, is the Biblical mountain where the Ten Commandments were given to Moses.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, JULY 17.

OUR UNDIGNIFIED LOYALISTS.

Conservative journals and spokesmen in Canada are for the most part at present in a most undignified position as to the navy question. They stand first on one foot, then on the other. They thresh straw and beat down straw-men, mumble, stammer and rant by turns, with intervals of hushed expectancy and mouths agape for the latest word from London.

They are in a huddle-muddle, marking and killing time. For the most part, they do not dare to say what support should be given to the mother country, how much or in what form, or when.

One exception, the Montreal Star, keeps pounding away with long distance advice to the absent premier, raging for the obliteration of Canada's identity in the North Sea fleet. Now, why should Germany be such a bugbear to the Blatchfords and Hugh Grahams? Over in England they thought more about the cricket tests this year than about the German war. But the Star, big dog as it is, will be ready to shut off its bark and turn tail the minute Mr. Borden gives the sign.

Another exception from the crowd of "supes" waiting for orders is Sir Richard McBride, who is quite sure he wants money spent in British Columbia for the cultivation of Dreadnoughts and coast defence craft. Sir Richard's motives may be sectional, though the placing of a squadron on the Pacific coast would be good national and imperial policy, and was contemplated in the Laurier act. At any rate, his attitude is definite enough in contrast to the nebulosity of Mr. Borden's pronouncements and the jelly-backed uncertainty of his eastern followers.

They wait for "thumbs up," and will no doubt be glad when the suspense is over, and they know what they have to cheer for. Three years ago, except for a faction, they were in full chorus for a Canadian navy, when Mr. Borden favored it. When Mr. Borden seemed to shift his ground, under the direction of the Roblin-Rogers influence, they turned found and derided the Canadian navy idea. Now they don't know just what they want.

This is what their boasted loyalty comes to. The Liberal party has at any rate laid down a policy. It cannot be accused of trimming. Sir Wilfrid Laurier won over a majority of his compatriots to accept his judicious course. He has in this done much for the tightening of the British imperial unity. On the other side we have had mere lip service: and just now even that is equivocal.

THE LESSON OF SASKATCHEWAN.

The Kingston Standard (Conservative) is willing to be taught a lesson by Saskatchewan. It comments on the election result as follows:

"The west—and it is a great and growing section, and will in the next election be entitled to a larger representation in Parliament than now—must have larger and freer markets. Its very life depends upon that. It must grow and it will grow—and it will not be content to be held in leading strings for all time.

"Wise statesmen wil take heed of these things. Reciprocity may be dead, as the Conseravtives say, or it may not be, as the Liberals say. All the Standard cares to say is that wider and larger markets and the fight for them are not dead and never will be dead. Trade cannot for long be forced in artificial channels."

All of which should have been said by the Standard before the last election; but better late than never. The Standard is not so hard a loser as the Stratford Herald, which says:

"Evidently Canadian politics are facing similar episodes to those the United States have passed through, with their Populists, Free Silverites, etc. There is need of steadiness in Canadian citizenship at present. Patience, good government, wise statesmanship always win over demagoguery in the long run."

Language like this, if generally used in the East, would estrange the West. It is fortunate for Canadian unity that the West is not isolated, that its views and wishes, expressed in the Saskatchewan elections, are shared by half, or nearly half, the people of the Eastern provinces.

VITA BREVIS.

Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, in concluding his autobiography in the current number of the American Magazine, pays a tribute to the late Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, a very gifted man, who was seized wtih a conviction of sin, politically speaking, and broke out of the ring in the Senate that had served, and still serves, organized greed and privilege. He quotes Dolliver as saying to him:

"From this time on, I am going to be independent. I am going to serve my conscience. I have been lecturing, I have saved my dollars and put them into a farm out there in Iowa. I am going to judgment in the next twenty years, and I am going so I can look my Maker in the face. I do not have to stay in public life. I can take my books, my wife, and my children, and if I am dismissed from the service for following my convictions, I will go out to my farm, and stay until the call comes."

Dolliver died a year later, worn out by his fight against the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, the iniquities of which La Follette lays bare. Dolliver's case is an evidence of the strain of idealism which is permeating American politics, particularly in the national sphere. His words, quoted by La Follette, have a message not for politicians alone. In every walk men carry themselves as if they were going to live forever. It would tend to a more philosophic outlook on life, and a more idealistic one, if they reflected oftener on the brevity of their sojourn in this world.

Former Sultan Abdul Hamid is dying, and there is many a dry eye.

When Lloyd George brings down a new land policy for England, it will be harder than ever for Unionists to make Englishmen dance to the Belfast tune.

"The most feasible plan would seem to be a cash contribution yearly, or otherwise to the upkeep of the existing navy."—Brantford Courier.

Hire other men to protect you? There would be no self-respect and no Canadianism in such a policy.

Mr. Borden says that Canada must be on a footing of equality with the mother country. If he is sincere he must demand that the Canadian Parliament be no longer subordinate to that of the mother country. If he were a Liberal, his present supporters in Canada would be yelling "Treason!"

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Rodolphe Forget hold two seats each in the House of Commons. Sir Wilfrid was estopped from resigning one of his by an election protest. Sir Rodolphe has no ground for continuing to represent two ridings. Parliament will be lacking in self-respect if it allows him to do so for another session.

Our trade with the United Kingdom increased last year $18,342,157; but our trade with the United States increased $63,582,240. We do not like this disparity, but do not know what can be done about it.—Victoria Colonist, Conservative.

A melancholy confession from the spokesman of a party which wanted "no truck or trade with the Yankees." But there is another disparity that could be corrected. Canadians sell a dollar's worth of products to the United States for every three dollars' worth they buy from that country. Why not sell three dollars' worth to the United States, instead of one? That was the intention of the reciprocity agreement opposed by the Colonist.

A GREAT MAN AND HIS MONEY.

[Rochester Union and Advertiser.]

The Hon. John Arthur Johnson spent a part of yesterday in a Chicago bank counting the money he received for beating the head nearly off a fellow man in New Mexico the other day. He counted at a table near a window and the crowd that assembled to see him at the task was so great that traffic was stopped on the street.

Mr. Johnson got $31,000 for impairing the facial beauty of an Italian named Flynn, and he won $5,000 on the mill besides. Why do men work for a living when such splendid rewards are to be had for a few moments' exertion in the prize ring? Mr. Johnson, though extremely black, is a favorite in society, particularly in Chicago. Would half a million people assemble to see any other man count $30,000?

BISHOP'S SIX BROTHERS.

[London Evening News.]

There has just been a notable family gathering under the roof of Fulham Palace, the home of the Bishop of London.

It was the meeting of the bishop and his six brothers, and the family of seven sons met together for the first time for nearly forty years.

The seven brothers, in their order of birth, are:

The Ven. Edward H. Winnington-Ingram, Bridstow Vicarage, Ross.

Mr. Francis H. Winnington-Ingram, Grovesend, Elgin County, Ontario.

Admiral Charles W. Winnington-Ingram, Woodland Lodge, Weston-super-Mare.

The Right Rev. Arthur F. Winnington-Ingram, Bishop of London.

Mr. George F. Winnington-Ingram, Brooklyn, Blatchford, Ringwood.

The Rev. Alfred Winnington-Ingram, Enville Rectory, Stourbridge.

Mr. Gerald C. Winnington-Ingram, Azamgarh, United Provinces, India.

The five brothers who are residing in England have met on various occasions, but the one whose home is in India and the one residing in Canada have been absent.

This year, however, all the brothers are together once more, and the bishop has been celebrating the event by having them all with him at Fulham Palace.

The eldest, it is interesting to note, was born in 1849, and the youngest in 1869. They have one sister, Miss Alice Winnington-Ingram, who resides with their mother at Bickenham, Cavendish Place, Bournemouth, and the bishop goes there every year to stay with his mother.

THE IMMORTAL PIG.

[The Nation, London, England.]

The position of the cottager with a garden who gets him a pig is almost like that of a man who gets the power of turning dross into gold. The animal is a transmuter of all sorts of garden rubbish into bacon.

The sulphurous cabbage-leaves that were an offence to the neighborhood, the empty pea-pods, the potato haulms, and even the weeds are no longer a drug and a disadvantage, but a desideratum. If potatoes are peeled a little extravagantly, no matter. The pig will set that right. If milk goes sour, it is not lost. It goes into the bank at the end of the garden, and comes out gold at Christmas.

DISAPPOINTED.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.]

"He was greatly disappointed in Paris."

"Why?"

"Seems his chief object in going there was to make a pilgrimage to the home of Monte Cristo, and nobody could point out the house."

SULTAN WHO IS A POET

[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

When a king has to act as his own poet laureate the burdens of an onerous office are unduly magnified. But when we add to the toil of composition the melancholy of the poetic temperament, imagine the extra weight upon the soul. Mulai Hafid, Sultan of Morocco, has his executive and family cares; moreover he is a poet, the most renowned poet in the Mohammedan world. Staggering under this double liability no wonder he finds that life is not all sunshine, that black care oftentimes sits beside him on the divan. In his greatest poem, recently translated into Spanish by Senor Ricardo Boetsa, we find this touching expression of the emptiness of greatness:

From the height to which fate has borne me, I see naught but human heads servilely bowed. So high am I placed that my hand outstretched could not encounter any other hand, any friendly hand.

Why is it that so many potentates, from Solomon down, have cried "Vanitas vanitatum!" as they have surveyed the wealth and ease which fortune has laid at their feet? Today the Sultan of Morocco is like a peach wrapped in cotton batten; he wallows in luxury; the faithful regard him as a prophet, a creature almost divine, and a large and well-appointed harem is forever running to put on his beaded slippers when he comes home from the kingly office. But surrounded by all kinds of pleasures, the poet sultan hankers after those old days when he was a poor camel driver, when he slept on his rug in the desert, when he endured the hardships of long journeys, and when there was only one girl in the world for him, his beautiful Bedouin sweetheart, Aneize. So even in the midst of his numerous wives, and perhaps their very numerousness makes him strike his zither with passionate melancholy, he sings this song of Aneize, the Bedouin girl:

"Thy sun-kissed bosom, O my adored one, was adorned simply with a necklace of bronze. She was my only star; my heart was her firmament. Like the gazelle, she gambolled in the field of my vision, and her gaze, wistful and humble, was like to that of a wounded camel. Never will the dancing of my favorites upon the soft rugs of the harem make me forget the light gliding of thy naked feet on the sands of the desert, O my Aneize."

When a man is plunged in such a spasm of melancholy he is apt to do something dangerous. This sultan is even now dreaming of the day when he will deliver his country, in fact all of Islam, from the foreign yoke. He is not satisfied to rule under a protectorate and write poetry on the side. One would think a king would rather enjoy being protected by a stronger power than his own. But Mulai Hafid is a true oriental; the next best thing to being a camel driver afar on the desert with Aneize is to be a despot, an autocrat, a military conqueror. Mulai's fiery poetic soul would like nothing better than to sweep the east with a whirlwind. He has put this ambition into some fervid verse, which being translated runs as follows:

The jackals roam in the vineyard and already the birds of prey circle about my tent. . . . But who shall dare to say that Islam is dead and will never rise again? Black with lies shall be his lips, and filled with foulness his thoughts! The flame is eternal and the ways of the Lord are inscrutable. O people of little faith! Can you still despair when the muezzin calls you to prayer from the lofty minaret, ever erect? Patience! . . . The hour is near, it is near, I say unto you.

"Patience!" Fate whispers to me. And while expectant that the star of ancient days shall shine again, resplendent, over our heads, I shall add pearls, more and more pearls, to the marvellous regalia of Islam; and may the keen edge of the sword of vengeance open to us at the propitious hour the road to the final triumph! Night sings my songs in secret today; but tomorrow they shall be intoned in the broad light, freely, gloriously!

But Mulai, the fire-eyed poet, would do well to let that keen-edged sword of Islam continue to hang against the wall. If he takes it down he will be sure to cut himself.

Ivanhoe.

QUITE COOL IN CANADA.

[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

Senator Gardner, discussing in Washington his bill for taking over express companies and establishing a parcels post, said, with a smile:

"Our opponents exaggerate the difficulties. They are like the man from Canada.

"A man from Canada sat in the lobby of a New York hotel listening to cold weather yarns. These yarns gave very convincing examples of the suffering and hardship occasioned by last winter's excessive cold. Finally the Canadian coughed and said:

"'Your cold weather yarns, gentlemen, make a Canadian smile. You think you've had a cold winter down east here, but up my way, from last November clean through to March—'

"He paused, struck his arm with his fist and said:

"'From last November clean through to March our hot-water bottles froze in our beds every blessed night.'"

BURNS KNEW BETTER.

[Detroit Free Press.]

It is told that an English lecturer in a Scottish town once declared Shakespeare the greatest of all poets. At the close of his address a Scot asked "Didna Shakespeare write, 'Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown?'" "He did, sir," replied the Englishman. "Weel," said Sandy, "that proves he wasna the greatest o' poets. Had oor ain Bobby Burns been writin' that poem he'd kenned kings always take aff their creons before lyin' doon!"

KENNEDY—CODE

A very Pretty Wedding in St. Mary's Church.

A pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. Father McKeon, rector of St. Mary's Church, at a nuptial high mass this morning when Miss Marie M. Code, formerly of Blyth, a graduate nurse of St. Joseph's Hospital in this city, was married to Mr. Christopher F. Kennedy, a bank manager, of Florence, Ont. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Coleman, of Port Stanley, also a graduate of St. Joseph's, while the groom was assisted by his cousin, Mr. M. J. Masterson, of Chatham. Miss Jessie McGregor rendered a solo in very acceptable fashion. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left for a honeymoon trip to Cleveland, Chicago and other points. On their return they will take up their residence at Florence.

TOM LANGBOAT MISSING

Bailiff of Cookstown Is Looking for the Famous Marathoner.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Ont., July 17. — Tom Longboat, Canada's famous Indian Marathoner, is missing, and the bailiff of Cookstown Ont., is looking for him with a writ for damages. Tommy was under contract to race against a trotting horse at Cookstown yesterday afternoon, but he didn't turn up, and thousands of expectant spectators demanded their money back. A summons is now out against him. Much mystery surrounds Longboat's whereabouts at present. His best friends don't know where he is.

ONE ON FATHER.

[Punch.]

Father—Tom, go and fetch the old horse.

Tom—Why the old one, father?

Father—Wear out the old one first, that's my motto.

Tom—Well, father, then you fetch the horse.

WHAT HE RODE.

[Life.]

"What horse is there for me this morning, Pat?"

"Well, ser, the one you rode yesterday is lame and the one you rode the day before is at the vet-inary's."

"What did your master say I was to ride today?"

"He said you was to ride a strate car, sor."

STEADY ADVANCE IN WHOLESALE PRICES

In June They Were 37 Per Cent. Higher Than Average For 1890-1899.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, July 17.—The steady advance in wholesale prices in Canada continued during June, the Labor Department's index number having advanced from 135.9 in May, previously the highest recorded, to 136.9 in June, as compared with 126.1 in June of last year. The numbers, it will be understood, are percentages, in each case, of the average price level prevailing during the ten years, 1890-1899, the period selected by the department as the standard of comparison throughout its investigation into wholesale prices of some two hundred and fifty commodities of a representative character. The estimate of the department for the month of June, therefore, shows prices to have been nearly 37 per cent higher in that month than was the average for the decade, 1890-1899. The chief increase during June were in animals and meats, feeders, fruits and vegetables, hides and leathers, there having been slight decreases in dairy products, prepared fish, sugars, coal and coke.

SWEDES PROVE BEST AT MILITARY RIDING

Germany Took Second Place and United States Third—Olympic Regatta Opens.

[Canadian Press.]

Stockholm, July 17.—The military horse-riding competition for teams at the Olympic games was concluded this morning. It concluded a distance ride of about 34 miles, a cross-country ride of about three miles, an individual steeplechase ride, prize jumping and prize riding. The Swedish team finished first with 139.06 points; Germany second with 138.48 points, and the United States third with 137.32 points.

The Olympic regatta, probably the largest international rowing gathering on record, opened this morning with the race of inrigged fours with sliding seats and with a coxswain. The result of the heats were as follows:

Stockholm beat Christiana by two lengths. Denmark beat Gothenburg by a length and a half. Norway beat France by five lengths.

The race for eight-oared outrigged shells with coxswain, absorbed most of the attention of the spectators. The heats resulted as follows:

Germany beat France by a length and a half. Time, 6 minutes 15 seconds. Germany led throughout.

Australia beat Sweden easily. Time, 6 minues 57 seconds. The race was practically a procession.

READY TO FLIT

Mexican Rebel Leader Said To Have Big Roll in United States.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, July 17.—Copies of a proclamation by some of Gen. Orozcos' men, charging that the rebel leader has $500,000 in El Paso banks, and is preparing to go into the United States to enjoy it, have been received by the state department.

Depredations by 3,000 rebels concentrated near Cuatla, Morelos, have been reported

SON DROPPED DEAD FATHER DIES ALSO

Double Funeral Was Held to Petrolea Cemetery From the Lucas Home.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Petrolea, July 16.—A double funeral occurred today, when Wm. Lucas and his father, George Lucas, were interred in Hillsdale Cemetery.

Wm. Lucas dropped dead in the sandpit on July 12. His father, 86 years of age, was seriously ill at the time, and was taken to the local hospital the same day, and died there on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Hill, rector of Christ Church, conducted the services.

The father, George Lucas, was a native of Dorsetshire, England, and came to Canada about 40 years ago with his wife, and two children, William, now deceased, and a daughter, who later married David Brown, of Petrolea. They remained three years at Quebec, and then came to Petrolea and settled on lot 8, concession 1, Enniskillen, quarter of a mile west of Petrolea, where the family have since resided.

Was Twice Married.

William Lucas (the son) was at the time of his death 51 years old. He had been twice married, first to Anna Roundhill, and later to Eliza Preston, who survives him. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. S. Gould, of Enniskillen, and four children by his second marriage, George, of Saskatchewan, Harriet, of London; Laura and Ernest at home. Ernest is 11 years of age, and was with his father when he died.

Both father and son were members of the Episcopalian Church. William Lucas was for years a member of the Orange order and was also a member of the C. O. F., under whose auspices the funeral was held.

Thomas Kelley has returned from Estevan, Sask., where he has been for the past two months. While in the west Mr. Kelly was laid up for three weeks with blood poison from a slight injury in his leg.

Runaway Accident

On Sunday afternoon an Orange service was held in Portiss' Grove in Sombra Township. Brethren from Brigden, Wilkesport, Petrolea, Oil Springs and two lodges from Dawn were present. An accident, which occurred just before the service, marred what would otherwise have been a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. Alvin Sykes, of lot 34, concession 5, of Dawn, with his wife and three children in a buggy, were approaching the grove when the horse became frightened at an umbrella and overturned the rig into a deep ditch.

Mrs. Sykes, a baby and a girl about 7 years old, escaped unhurt, but Mr. Sykes and an 11-year-old girl were not so fortunate. The girl was badly bruised about the head and remained unconscious for about an hour. Mr. Sykes received a bad cut on the forehead, which required three stitches to close, and other bruises on the face and body. Dr. Galbraith, of Brigden, attended them.

WRECKED ON LEDGES.

Swans Island, Maine, July 17.—The two-masted schooner Ravola, of St. John, N. B., bound from Boston for St. John, light, was wrecked on Little Duck Island ledges in a dense fog last night, and probably will be a total loss. The schooner struck at flood tide and was hung up on the ledges at the bow and stern so that a person could walk beneath the hull. The members of the crew were standing by awaiting orders from the owners. The schooner registers 123 tons net.

SWASTIKAS BLANK THE EVERGREENS 4 TO 0

Seltzer Pitched Great Ball for the Winners, Allowing But One Hit.

The Swastikas defeated the Evergreens last evening by the score of 4 to 0 on the Y. M. C. A. diamond. The feature of the game was the pitching of "Bromo" Seltzer, for the Swastikas. He held the Evergreens to one hit, and allowed only one man to reach third base. The batteries were: Land and Chantler, for the Evergreens, and Seltzer and Arthurs and McAuley, for the Swastikas.

BELLEVILLE NEWSPAPER DAMAGED BY FIRE

Five Thousand Dollars' Loss in Office of Daily Ontario.

[Canadian Press.]

Belleville, July 17.—Fire, which broke out shortly after 10 o'clock last night, badly damaged the office of the Daily Ontario, one of Belleville's two daily newspapers. It originated on the rear part of the second floor, and spread to the pressroom below, but was kept from spreading to the business office, and to a portion of the front on both floors. All the presses, one of the two typographs, an electric motor, and other machinery were badly damaged, also some type and paper was destroyed. Morton & Herity, the proprietors, estimate their loss at $5,000, fully insured. The damage to the building, owned by T. S. Carman, is $1,000, also insured.

PREDICTS BANKRUPTCY FOR RAILROADS

If Increases Are Granted the Various Classes of Employees.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—Many railroads would face bankruptcy if the now pending demands of various classes of employees for increased wages should all be granted, it was asserted by E. A. Worthington today, when he resumed argument in behalf of fifty eastern railroads before the arbitration commission, which is deciding the wage dispute between the railroads and the locomotive engineers.

He said that while only the demands of the engineers are directly before the commission, the firemen have filed an application for an increase which would cost the railroad $20,000,000 a year. He added that shopmen and other classes of employees also expected advances similar to whatever the engineers obtain.

PLAYED ON SUNDAY

Four City Men Were Fined by Police Magistrate Judd.

As a result of a raid conducted by Sergt. Birrell and other officers on Sunday afternoon, four men—Joseph Ellwood, Alexander Doyle, John O'Neil and Fred McKeown—were fined $3 each by Police Magistrate Judd this morning, on charges of desecrating the Lord's Day, by shooting craps on a vacant lot on the northeast corner of Adelaide and Oxford streets. The offence did not occur within the city limits, but was within the limit of the boundaries that permitted the London officers to take action. When the police appeared the men beat a hasty retreat, but a couple of them were captured and furnished several names. It is possible that others of the gang will appear later

ON ALCOHOL AS BEAUTY'S ENEMY

MISS BILLIE BURKE.

BY MISS BILLIE BURKE,
AMERICA'S MOST CHARMING YOUNG ACTRESS.
The first word—LIQUOR NOT ONLY RUINS BEAUTY BUT IT KILLS RESPECT.

The other evening in one of the splendid restaurants in New York I saw a number of young girls, none over 18 or 20, having what they thought was a glorious time. There were six girls and six men somewhat older than themselves and the girls had been drinking wine until their faces were flushed, their voices loud and strident and their manners most noticeable. How I wanted to whisper to these thoughtless maids that if any one of them wished to stand well with any one of the men present she had better make some excuse and go home immediately.

No man on earth wants to see the woman for whom he cares even slightly under the influence of drink, and the man who will encourage a girl to take a drink of liquor does not care what happens to her. She is nothing to him.

Nothing will steal away your good looks as will intoxicating liquor. I have a friend who is over fifty and who when asked the other day how she retained not only her beauty but her youthful contours and expression, answered. "In the first place, I never touch spirituous liquor." Not one young woman in the crowd about her could vie with her in appearance, and not one young woman in the crowd who did not think it necessary to occasionally, at least, sip a glass of wine. It was an object lesson that I am sure they will remember.

Just one last word—LIQUOR MAY EXHILIRATE FOR THE MOMENT BUT IT LEAVES DEVASTATION IN ITS WAKE.

WHERE ARE OUR LITTLE GIRLS?

By "The Nomad."

"Where have they gone to—our little girls,
With the gracious manners, and old-fashioned curls,
Who love their dollies and like their toys,
And talk of something beside the boys?"
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Considering the freakish appearance of the fourteen, sixteen and eighteen-year-old girls on our streets, and the be-rouged complexion which many of them possess, is it any wonder that Ella Wheeler Wilcox laments the disappearance of the old-fashioned girl?

GIRLS USE COSMETICS.

Stand at a street corner in any of our cities, yes, and towns, both large and small—for the country girl invariably follows the styles and manners of her city cousin—and how do we find the younger feminine generation clad? Are there simple gowns cut in loose modest lines, cheeks and lips innocent of cosmetics, and hair arranged in simple braids? Would that it were so, instead of the absurdly tight skirt that displays all too freely the contour of the girlish figure, the high heels, the "peek-a-boo" waist, and the artificial complexion which we behold on nine-tenths of our girls today.

And it is not the factory girl who should be blamed for the outlandishness of the prevailing styles. She adopts them, it is true, but so does her high school sister who prides herself upon her superiority.

WHAT DO MOTHERS SAY?

When one sees a group of these young girls, in their suggestive clothes and made-up complexions, the question always arises in one's mind, "Don't their mothers guide them in the selection of clothing, or is it because they are allowed to choose for themselves that girls are so inappropriately dressed?" But swiftly the answer comes that the daughter is frequently a replica of the mother. Her garments are cut exactly on the same lines as her maternal parent's. However, as some one says, age has privileges, including that of making an idiot of itself, but when it comes to making a caricature of our 16-year-old girls, surely common sense needs to step in and make a radical reform in dress.

AMBITION TO MARRY, THE CAUSE.

Mrs. Annie Nathan Meyer, founder of Barnard College, and a woman well known in America for her educational and philanthropic work, once said: "There is no doubt that many of our little girls of 16 and 17 go about with painted and powdered faces, false hair and suggestive clothes, and the mothers of such girls have much to answer for. But the truth is they don't dare to compel their daughters to suppress the powder puff and the rouge pot for fear the poor little things will miss a trick in the marriage game, and other girls with less fastidious mothers will win possible husbands away from them." Surely this cannot be true, mothers? For although the be-powdered, strikingly-garbed girl may draw the attention and apparent admiration of the men she meets, is it not to her more sensibly-garbed sister they go when seeking a wife? A man wants a companion and help-meet, not an empty-headed doll.

A renaissance of the bright-eyed, young girl, in modestly simple frocks, and with loose tresses, without a thought of the marriage market, cannot come too soon for most of us. By all means, little girls, come back to us.

THE BOY WHO DIDN'T PASS

A sad-faced fellow sits alone in deep disgrace,
There's a lump arising in his throat and tears streaming down his face;
He wandered from his playmates for he doesn't want to hear
Their shouts of merry laughter since the world has lost its cheer;
He has sipped the cup of sorrow,
he has drained the bitter
glass,
And his heart is fairly breaking;
he's the boy who didn't pass.

In the apple tree the robin sings
a cheery little song,
But he doesn't seem to hear it, showing plainly something's wrong;
Comes his faithful little spaniel
for a romp and bit of play,
But the troubled little fellow
sternly bids him go away,
All alone he sits in sorrow, with his hair a tangled mass,
And his eyes are red with weeping; he's the boy who didn't pass.

How he hates himself for failing,
he can hear his playmates
jeer,
For they've left him with the dullards — gone ahead a half a year;
And he tried so hard to conquer,
oh, he tried to do his best,
But now he knows he's weaker,
yes, and duller than the rest.
He's ashamed to tell his mother,
for he thinks she'll hate him, too—
The little boy who didn't pass, who failed of getting through.

Oh, you who boast a laughing son, and speak of him as bright,
And you who love a little girl who comes to you at night
With smiling eyes and dancing feet, with honors from her school,
Turn to that lonely little boy who thinks he is a fool
And take him kindly by the hand, the dullest in his class,
He is the one who most needs love, the boy who didn't pass.

Cynthia Grey's Many Answers

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn as they are received.]

Sailors' Headquarters.

Dear Miss Grey: 1. Will you please publish five or six proper names for a Sunday school class? 2. Do you know of any office in England where the sailors' names are registered READER.

A.—1. "Young Endeavor," "Helping Hand," "St. (whatever your church is) Circle," "The Honor Brights." 2. If it is a sailor in the royal navy, write to the Admiralty, Spring Gardens, London S. W., England. If it is any other sailor write to the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London S. W., England. All sailors sign or are discharged from there.

To Restore Color.

Dear Miss Grey: Tell how to set color, and how to restore color in cotton cloth.
READER.

A.—Fix the color by solutions of alum water, allowing one ounce alum to each half gallon of water. Soak in this for an hour. To remove faded material: One tablespoon sal soda in a gallon cold water will brighten blue and purple, cider vinegar in rinse water will restore blues, pinks and grays. Washing in bran water is also good. Mix two cups wheat bran in cold water into a smooth paste, then stir into it one quart boiling water. Let boil an hour, then strain into a half tub of warm water. Add a teaspoon salt, wash goods and rinse well in warm water. No soap is necessary.

A Wedding Breakfast.

Dear Miss Grey: In order to have a wedding breakfast served at a hotel, is it necessary to engage it before hand? To whom should I apply, and give me an idea what it will cost for four?
J. M. C.

A.—Yes. Make your arrangements with the management. The cost will depend entirely on the sort of wedding breakfast you decide upon. It can be very simple and inexpensive or very elaborate and costly. The most satisfactory way will be for you to take up the matter at once at the hotel, determine what you want and get a price on it. You need not have it if it is too expensive.

Cleaning Gloves.

Dear Miss Grey: How can I clean undressed kid gloves?
BLUE EYES.

A.—Use fine cracker crumbs. Button the gloves upon the hands and rub as if you were washing the hands. When the crumbs become soiled change for clean.

Advertiser Patterns

Beauty Pattern Company.

No. 9282—A Cool, Attractive Frock for the Little Miss — Girl's Dress.

This neat, appropriate design was developed in cadet blue linene, with white soutache braid for trimming. A neat black tie finished the front. The shaping of the collar with its overlapping front edges is most pleasing. The waist is arranged with deep plaits over the centre to correspond with the skirt plaits. The pattern is cut in four sizes —4, 6, 8, and 10 years. It requires 2⅞ yards of 36-inch material for the 6-year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

CAUTION.—Be careful to inclose above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 32, 34, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26 or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents in cash or in postage stamps.

A Typical Summer Gown

The gown has several of this year's best features. The material is a fine volle with an even black and white stripe. Inset in the front is a gathered panel of black chiffon, the cuffs and lapels also being of this material. There is a vest of white satin, trimmed with a satin bow and a girdle of burnt orange velvet. Bright Persian embroidery and silver buttons complete the trimming.

SIX SANDWICH RECIPES

Pimento Sandwich.

Grind two small cans of pimentos with two cakes of Neufchatel cheese and season with a little salt. If the mixture is too dry, add a little oil of pimentos. Spread between slices of white bread, cut in fancy shapes.

Tomato Nut Sandwich.

Chop three medium sized tomatoes; add one small green pepper chopped fine and one-half cup chopped walnuts; add a dash of mayonnaise dressing, and place on lettuce leaf between thin slices of white bread.

Caviaro Sandwich.

To a can of caviare add juice of half a lemon and one teaspoon of olive oil; mix well together until a paste is formed. Spread mixture between slices of lightly-buttered white bread.

Ham Fingers.

Put one pound of cooked ham through the meat chopper; season with salt and pepper, and moisten with a little salad dressing. Cut the bread in shape of lady fingers and garnish with a sprig of parsley.

Japanese Sandwich.

Chop fine four hard-boiled eggs and three boned sardines; add a teaspoon of melted butter and rub to a paste; season with pepper and salt and a little mayonnaise dressing; cut in slender strips.

Fruit Sandwich.

With a silver fork mash ripe bananas to a pulp, add a dash of lemon juice, sweeten to taste, and add half a cupful of candied cherries chopped fine. Place between thin slices of bread, and serve at once.

POSTAL INFORMATION.

(Judge.)

"How much postage will this take?" asked the middle-aged lady, as she handed a package marked "Miss Jean De Swellers, Atlantic City, N. J.," to the clerk at the stamp window. The man weighed it carefully. "Any writing?" he inquired.

"Not a line," responded the lady. "It's only my daughter's bathing suit."

"One cent," snapped the man.

TWENTY DISHES—TEN CENTS.

Two dishes of Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes only cost one cent; and there are actually twenty generous dishes in each package.

Seasoning An Art

A pinch, a dash, a 'soupcon" here, a morsel there, and a dish is seasoned to perfection! That is to say, the flavors so well blended and so carefully balanced that no one is predominant, and all are subservient to the natural flavor of the dish.

It is said that fine seasoning is a gift, born with the few, yet with the right array of materials, a vivid imagination and the expenditure of a little patience anyone can season well.

In referring back to the cookery of colonial days we find that while the foods were doubtless delicious, the seasonings were largely natural. Bayleaf, whole clovers and stick cinnamon, mace, nutmeg, lemon rind, dried celery, parsley, mint and marjoram, peppercorns, curry powder, soy sauce, walnut and mushroom catsups, all the fresh herbs of the kitchen garden contributed to old time savor.

The question has often been asked, "What can I substitute for bayleaves? What can be used in place of parsley?" etc, etc. There is nothing that can reproduce a flavor, but any seasoning can be replaced and another result gained when imagination is used. And when seasonings are so inexpensive, any home, unless actually poverty stricken, can afford a goodly supply.

Five cents' worth of bayleaves, for instance, will last for a year or more. Don't think that you can gather them in the fields—for the bayleaves of cookery are imported from Jerusalem. Curry powder is made up of a mixture of twenty different spices cunningly blended, and a twenty-five-cent bottle will last indefinitely. Dry your parsley, mint and celery leaves, storing them in glass jars, and if you have a little extra money buy a package of "soup bags," (little bundles of whole spice sewed in cheese cloth or make them yourself out of pickling spice.

Get a little stick cinnamon and see how it improves your chocolates, giving it the creole flavor, when you boil carrots next add a whole clove or so and a bit of bayleaf—stir a dash of curry into your salad dressing, add a bit of lemon rind to your soup, and a dash of catsup to your Hamburg steak—and see how the flat uninteresting flavor departs.

How much? Well—use your judgment—experience alone can teach you—and remember that good seasoning is to cookery what a black velvet bow is to your new hat or a medallion to your gown—the quaint touch that accentuates the main material.

Shakespeare says, "How many things by season seasoned are to their right praise and true perfection,"—so don't make the common mistake of most beginners and over-season until the natural flavor is lost.

Dainty Neckwear

Short lengths of deep lace are treasures in no way to be despised. These are readily converted into dainty jabots by gathering up the unfinished edge, or pleating it into a neck-band of net the same shade as the lace, while crisp morning neck-wear can be contrived with a lawn handkerchief for its foundation. A few motifs of Irish crochet lace will be required in the way of ornamentation. The handkerchief chosen should have a hemstitched border, and the finished article will look all the prettier if it be already adorned with crawn-thread work. It should be halved diagonally across the middle, and one-half used for the fan-shaped piece, to rest on the front of the tailor-made coat, while the borders taken from the other half and sewn together compose the neck-band.

THE KITCHEN FLOOR.

A kitchen floor should be of well-laid hardwood, so no splinters can scrape up and cause trouble. It should be finished with one of the good kitchen floor finishes made by many of the large paint companies, or it may be oiled with crude or linseed oil at intervals. These floors should not be scrubbed with soap and water, for that makes them splinter, but should be thoroughly wiped with a mop wrung out in half a pail of warm water to which a cup of kerosene has been added.

Under no circumstances should a kitchen floor be slippery. Linoleum makes one of the best possible floor coverings for a kitchen, as it is neat and comfortable and wears extremely well.

Trees and Romance

Everyone ought to cultivate a friendship for trees, and along with his animal friends have a few tree friends. He could do no better to commemorate an event in his family life than to set out a tree and name it with the name of what he would remember—have arbor days of his own.

Where a family has been sentimental enough to do this you will find trees about the house named John, Henry, Susie, Clara, etc., in memory of the birth of the children. You will see a tree somewhere near the gate called the telephone tree because it was planted the year the telephone was put in the house.

There will be another tree somewhere near that one, called the free delivery tree, commemorating the year the mail was first brought to the door. There will also be some small trees, among them the auto tree, in memory of the first automobile owned by the farmer, and the air tree, to remember the thrill experienced upon seeing the first aeroplane.

What romance and interest this adds to rural or suburban life!—Farm and Home.

A SONG.

[J. E. Middleton in Toronto News.]

The rose droops slow in the flame of noon,
And sweet is its weary sigh.
But the perfume lives for an age of suns
Though the timorous rosebud die.

The song of joy in the throstle's heart
Is chilled by the autumn wind.
But it lives in a poet's limpid line
Till the stars are old and blind.

The heart of a maid may cease to beat
And rest 'neath the churchyard tree.
But love will stand in the pride of youth
Till the night of eternity.

THE PROGRESSIVE DRUGGISTS.

We close Wednesday afternoons during July and August.

THE CREST DID IT.

The Irishman is nothing if not ingenious. Here is a good story told of one, a terrible scamp, serving in South Africa under Colonel Hamilton-Browne. On discharge he asked for a character, and was given one by the colonel so bad as should ordinarily have barred him from employment forever. Some time later the colonel met him, a most prosperous man, and about to embark for the mother country, all of which he had achieved through use of the character. "But," said the colonel, "but how was it that people, reading such a character as I gave you, should have been so taken in?" "Read it, sir?" the scamp replied, "devil a one of them read it, and for a very good reason, as not one of them could read a word of English; it was the lion and unicorn fighting for the crown on the top of the official paper that did the trick, and that's what I wanted when I troubled you for a character. So long, major; ther's the 'all for the shore' bell ringing. Good luck, and many thanks, as it's through you I'm in for a high old time."

VERY PARTICULAR.

(London Opinion.)

Mistress (engaging servant)—"I hope you have nice print dresses, and I expect you always to wear caps."

Mary—"Yes, mum; I'm very particular to wear caps. I shouldn't like to be taken for one of the family, mum!"

LONDON LOST THE FIRST GAME BUT SECOND ONE ENDED IN A TIE

Silcox Was Batted Hard in the First Contest and Had To Be Taken Out—Ward, the New Man, Gets Away to Bad Start, But Pitches Good Ball Toward Finish.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Guelph, July 16.—Guelph and London, after being compelled to be idle yesterday because of the big rainstorm, played two games at Exhibition Park this afternoon before a good crowd of enthusiastic fans. The Maple Leafs captured the first game by a score of 7 to 5, after putting up a game uphill battle. The contest was full of good and bad baseball, with both teams doing their share of the bad stuff. Four pitchers were used, two by each team. Silcox started for London, and was hit hard from the first, although good fielding prevented any scoring until the fifth. He was taken out in the seventh after three runs had been made off his delivery on a triple and two singles. Fitzpatrick replaced him, and held the Leafs runless the balance of the game. Schuman started in for Guelph and pitched grand ball up to the sixth inning, when he weakened and was derricked in favor of Campbell, who pitched good ball and prevented further scoring.

The second game was much better baseball than the first, and went eight innings, the score being 6 to 6 when it was called on account of darkness. Ward, a new pitcher, was on the mound for the visitors, and did some good work, although the Leafs were just beginning to get to his offerings when the game was called. Schaeffer pitched for Guelph and he was hit harder than usual, but was steady in the pinches. Both teams pulled off some sensational plays in the field. Umpire Pearson was taken sick at the close of the first game, and Schuman, of Guelph, and Brant, of London, umpired the second game. Both favored their own team, but there was not very much kicking. BLACK CAT WON AT NIAGARA FALLS

Gunmetal Was Favorite in 2:24 Trot, But Lost Out.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 16.—The opening day of the Niagara Falls race meet was favored with delightful weather. The feature race of the day was the 2:24 stake trot for a purse of $2,000, first money being won by Black Cat, owned by J. E. Gray, of Toronto, who surprised the hundreds of backers of Gunmetal, the favorite. The Canadian black mare took three straight heats. In the 2:10 pace Sunderlin's black gelding Auctioneer, from Fulton, N. Y., also took three straight heats in good style. Summary:

Cabole, a beautiful tree that grows on the west coast of Africa, and is also found on the Island of St. Thomas, is said to furnish the most costly wood in the world. It somewhat resembles teak, and takes on a very high polish. Its price is quoted at about $3,500 per cubic meter.

M'MANUS MEETS HIS WATERLOO INDIAN PITCHER BEAT HIM

Garlow, of Hamilton, Wins His Eleventh Straight Victory—Berlin and Brantford Break Even While Petes Beat St. Thomas Twice.

Ottawa, July 16.—Joe McManus, after fourteen straight victories, met his Waterloo this afternoon, the Hams with Garlow in the box, winning an exciting game by 6 runs to 5. Two thousand people attended. Fisher's home run and brilliant fielding by Cook, Callahan, Koerns and Crystal were the features. The score:

BERLIN BREAKS EVEN.

Berlin, July 16.—Over 800 fans this afternoon saw two of the best ball games this season, when Brantford and Berlin divided a double-header. The visitors got the first by a 6 to 5 score, and the second went to the locals by 8 to 3. Both contests were featured by brilliant fielding stunts and hard hitting. In the first fixture, Bradshaw, for the Busy Bees, held Kane's men to two hits up to the sixth chapter. Berlin had a three-run lead, and in the sixth the Red Sox started to bat, scoring two. In the seventh they added three more, one being a home run by Lamond. The Deneauites tied the score in the eighth on Bullock's single and Manager Deneau's home run drive over the centre field fence, the longest hit gathered on the local grounds. In their last period the Sox added the winning run on two singles and a sacrifice hit. Tasker was sent in the last inning to relieve Erb, and prevented the locals from scoring.

In the second fixture the visitors got two in their first on three singles and two passes. Baker, who started to pitch for Brantford, was pulled out in the second when the locals started batting, and scored three runs. In the fourth Tasker was hit hard and often, and five runners crossed the plate. The visitors got their third run in the fifth on a pass to first and a double. The scores:

SAINTS DROP TWO.

St. Thomas, July 16.—The tail-enders grabbed two games from St. Thomas here today, the Saints losing the initial contest by stupid baserunning. Clements outpitched Tracey. In the second Molyneaux, the ex-Hamilton twirler, was on the mound for the home team, but everything broke against him, the White Caps getting out of some very tight holes. With a run needed to tie the score, Kiefel was sent to bat for Molyneaux, and tripled to deep centre, but was nipped at the plate trying to score on Gurney's out to right field. The next two men were easy outs. Tracey twirled both games for the visitors. Scores:

SEVERAL FAVORITES WON AT WINDSOR

Mudders Still Have the Call, as Track Is Deep and Heavy.

IMPRUDENT WAS BEATEN

Font Won the Feature Race of the Day by Capturing a Handicap at a Mile and Sixteenth.

Windsor, July 16.—Well backed horses again swept the card at Windsor this afternoon. The afternoon's results showed five favorites and a well-played second choice first at the finish, and unless a break comes in favor of the books in the next few days, many of the layers will be forced to retire. The conditions today wer more favorable to good sport. Not that the track was in much better shape, but the weather man made amends, and furnished one of his gilt-edged articles, the afternoon being ideal for outdoor sport.

Mudders have the call, however, the footing being deep and heavy. The fields were made up of very ordinary material, and scratches were numerous. The distances in three of the events were framed to suit horses that fancied going a route, and the feature race was a handicap at a mile and a sixteenth. Francis J. Pons furnished the winner of this race in Font, who showed that he was a repeater in the closing event yesterday. He made a runaway affair of his race this afternoon. He was ridden by Willie Hopkins, and won in a canter.

The surprise of the day came with the victory of Chepontuc, who beat a supposed "good thing" in Imprudent in the sixth race. Chepontuc showed a good performance, coming from behind and drawing away into a commanding lead in the home stretch. Imprudent was unfortunate in leaving the barrier in a tangle, and at no part of the trip was she able to get up.

The poor calibre of the field this afternoon resulted in a cessation of operations on the part of the halter men. None of the winners was boosted, and nothing was claimed.

The stewards sustained Dr. S. W. Street's protest regarding Edward Hoffner's claiming of the two-year-old Arcene, and ordered the filly turned over to Street. Heffner and Street both had claims in for Arcene, and after the former beat Street in the toss, he turned the filly back to her owner, J. C. Gallagher. Street protested on the grounds that the claim was a friendly one, and he was sustained by the officials.

The three-year-old White Caps came out of his race yesterday cut down. He was jumped on by Ondramon during the running, and will be on the shelf for a week or two. Highflown was cut down in her race today, and Trainer Frank Weir thinks the injury serious enough to put her out of commission as a racer.

Summary:

FIRST RACE, Canadian bred 2-year-olds, 4½ furlongs — Ondramida, 110 (Schuttinger), 11 to 10, won; Battle Song, 99 (Lounsberry), 9 to 10, second; Stanislowa, 103 (Wolf), 60 to 1, third. Time—58 2-5. Vale of Avoca, Golden Syrup also ran.

LAVENDER AGAIN BEATS THE GIANTS

Large Crowd Saw Cubs Take Another Game From McGraw's Men.

Chicago, July 16. — The Giants stopped off here for one day to drop another game to the Cubs today. The score was 3 to 1.

Jim Lavender was the main guy. The Giants clawed him for a triple, and a pair of singles in the fourth, for a lonesome tally. In the fifth Doyle committed a low heave on Evers, Lavender knocked a single and Sheckard obliged with a triple. Two runs and the game resulted. An assault on Tesreau in the eighth produced the final tally. One of the largest crowds of the season attended. This was Lavender's second win over the New Yorkers on their western invasion, having beaten "Rube" Marquard before. The score:

NEW MAN MAKES GOOD.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 16. — Brooklyn made Pittsburg travel ten innings to win today. Mensor the new Pirate, certainly won a home for himself by his hitting, having singled in the first, doubled the second time, and in the tenth tripled, which won the game as he crossed the plate on Carey's single.

Home runs by Miller and Wagner looked like game-winners, but that fighting bunch of Dahlenites came back and put enough runs across to tie the game up in two places. Cole pitched a grand game until the ninth, when four singles were made, resulting in two runs. Brooklyn put two across in the seventh, when, with the bases filled, Cole threw wild to third The score:

Alexander Pitches Great Ball Against Cincinnati and Reds Fail to Get a Run.

REDS BLANKED.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 16. — Alexander allowed only four hits today and easily shut out the Reds, only one man getting to second base.

Suggs was knocked out of the box in four innings, and Davis, a recruit from Knoxville, finished the game, pitching good ball. The work of Doolan at shortstop was impressive. The Phillies left tonight for Chicago to play a five-game series with the Cubs.

MEN OF LONDON! GET THIS!

A Genuine $5.00 Style Durham-Duplex Razor for 40c

While they last, 10,000 $5.00 style Durham-Duplex Razors equipped with a double-edged blade will be sold in London for 40 cents each.

Durham Derby Set $2.50

THE ONLY LONG BLADE DIAGONAL STROKE RAZOR MADE

THE DURHAM-DUPLEX IN A CLASS BY ITSELF.

The Durham-Duplex Style Razor made its own class at the jump There isn't any other so-called safety razor as good or anything near it. The Durham-Duplex is simply perfection. It's more than a mere "safety razor," because you can use the sliding stroke like your barber does, and you CAN'T cut ANYTHING but beard. It's a razor and NOT a hoe. Regular "safety razors" scrape, pull and irritate the skin, because you can't get the right angle.

THE LONG BLADE DIAGONAL STROKE.

You can't help using the right stroke with a Durham-Duplex.

Ninety-nine men out of every hundred men who shave themselves stick to the good old-fashioned straight-bladed razor, because they can get the diagonal stroke that really shaves. It's only fear of cutting themselves that has driven them to using the so-called "safety razor" with the new-fangled shape and the pipe-stem handle. The Durham-Duplex is this old-fashioned principle made SAFE. You use it NATURALLY at the right angle—and off comes the toughest beard, easily, quickly, and NEVER a cut on your face. The Durham-Duplex is the only razor that will do this. There's nothing to take its place.

THE DURHAM-DUPLEX STYLE.

The Durham-Duplex Style combines the good points of ALL "safety" and old-fashioned razors with none of their disadvantages. It's a REAL razor, with fine steel double-edged blades—tested for quality and thoroughly inspected before leaving the factory. It simply MUST make good, or we make good the price. Isn't that proof of honest intent, and isn't it a SQUARE DEAL? You can shave with a Durham-Duplex, using little more than the sense of touch. It doesn't matter if the light is poor, you can shave yourself easily and shave clean. The motion of a train or boat won't make you cut yourself.

THAT MAKES IT THE ONE BEST RAZOR BUY.

That's the kind of a razor you buy for the ridiculous sum of 40 cents. Go TO it. The Durham-Duplex shaves faster, cleaner, easier than any other razor made. Won't irritate your skin, be it ever so tender.

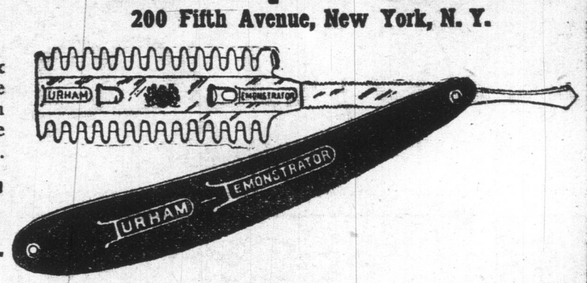

And its simplicity makes it easy to clean. Please think what the Durham-Duplex Style means to you.

WHY 10,000 ARE SOLD AT A LOSS.

The price of this Demonstrator Durham-Duplex doesn't pay for its making. We're taking a positive loss on every one of the 10,000 we're selling in London at this price. But we're looking into the future. We want the goodwill of ten thousand of you London men.

Selling these 10,000 at this price is a good advertising proposition, but the word-of-mouth recommendation of 10,000 satisfied USERS to their friends will be a better advertising proposition—the best on earth. It's just that recommendation and the satisfaction of every Durham-Duplex user that will make the sales for the Durham-Duplex $5.00 razor. That's how we'll get our money back.

RED SOX WIN FINAL GAME WITH TIGERS

Collins Again Holds the Tigers in the Hollow of His Hand.

JOE JACKSON INJURED

Cleveland Star Had To Be Carried Off the Field After Sliding Into Second Base.

Boston, July 16.—Boston made it 4 out of 5 by trimming the Tigers in the final game of the series, 7 to 2. Ray Collins was called upon to repeat for the Red Sox, and did nobly, holding the Jenningsites to six hits. Opposed to him was Harry Moran, though hit pretty hard at times, did a creditable job of southpawing. The score:

JOE JACKSON HURT.

Philadelphia, July 16.—Cleveland lost today's game here, 5 to 2, through the ineffectiveness of Gregg, who succeeded Steen in the seventh inning. Manager Davis was ordered off the field for disputing a decision of Umpire Westervelt in the last play of the game. Jackson, who was put out trying to slide into second base, injured his hip, and was carried off the field. Score:

BACK TO THE CELLAR FOR YANKS.

New York, July 1.—St. Louis took two games from the Yankees today, sending the Highlanders into their accustomed place—the cellar position. Baumgartner's fine pitching won the first game, 5 to 1. He allowed only five hits and nobody made the circuit until the last inning, Warhop was effective, and wild by turns. He struck out seven

Davis, the Williams College recruit, was given a tryout by the Yankees in the second game, and, barring one inning, did well. The score was 3 to 1. The scores:

SEGT. DUNKERLY DOES SOME GREAT SHOOTING

Makes Splendid Total of 104 Points Out of 105.

A remarkable exhibition of rifle-shooting was performed on Saturday last by Sergt. Dunkerly, Royal Canadian Regiment. Firing at 200, 500 and 600 yards, he made the splendid total of 104 points out of a possible 105. This is believed to be the record for the range, and will take some beating. In making this fine performance Sergt. Dunkerly used a Sutherland sight, with a Northover peep, being the sight invented by Quartermaster-Sergt. Northover of the Canadian Ordnance Corps. Sergt. Dunkerly needed only 30 points last year to qualify for the Bisley team.

LEAFS CONTINUE TO WIN FROM ROYALS

Lush and Smith Fight Pitchers' Duel, But Lush Got Better Support.

BISONS BEAT HUSTLERS

Beebe Holds Champs to Four Hits — Newark Easily Won From Baltimore.

Toronto, July 17.—While Rochester and Baltimore were feeling the taste of defeat yesterday the Leafs were scalping the Royals for the second time in the series, and thus slowly but steadily advancing to top of the heap—a place that may seem strange to them, but at their present clip they will feel no uneasiness.

There was not much to choose between the two teams yesterday, even if the Leafs did win by the score of 4 to 2. It was a pitchers' battle between Johnny Lush and Frank Smith, the big piano mover, and honors were even, although Smith suffered by two boots of Cunningham, the Royal's second baseman, and both these mistakes were turned into runs. On the other hand, the visitors earned all their counters off Lush. The score:

FOUR HITS OFF BEEBE.

Rochester, July 16.—Fred Beebe held the International League champions in the hollow of his hand today, and the Bisons won out, 3 to 1. Blair's two wild throws to second resulted in runs. Akers also pitched well, but faltered in one bad round, during which the visitors made their two tallies. The score: R. H. E.

Nichols Signs With Petes; Will Be In Game Today

Charley Nichols, who departed from our midst a week or so ago, returned again this morning, and has signed up with the enemy in the form of Mr. Davy Rowan's White Caps, who perform against Mr. Bowerman's Ringlers today and tomorrow. Locals fans will have a chance to see what Charley can do while pitted against his former team-mates, and no doubt the Toledo lad will give a fair presentation of his best work, as the rest should do him good.

Just what position Charley will hold down for the tail-enders is not known. It will likely be second base, however. Nichols is well liked by local fans, and here's hoping he makes good with the Petes.

The Indians returned home from the Royal City last evening. The trip was not a costly one, although the locals did drop a game to the Leafs yesterday. Four games were scheduled, but only one of them was played to a decision. The locals will have another chance at the Leafs when they return to Guelph in August, double-headers being played each day.

Manager Bowerman is expected in London today. He did not go to Guelph with the team, but has been spending the past two or three days in Detroit in an effort to land a couple of good players. There are a couple of weak spots in the infield that need filling, and it may not be very long before a shake-up in the team occurs. The local management realize that to stay in the first division a stronger team is needed, and no effort is being spared to secure some good players. It is also likely a shake-up will occur in the pitching staff before long.

What the Others Are Saying

Glints From Papers on Canadian League Circuit.

WHEN WILL THE BREAK COME?

Hamilton Herald: Ottawa is the luckiest burg under the sun. Fortune used to smile on the football team with its one point victories over the Tigers, and now the baseball team is enjoying the same smile. Yesterday Ottawa was outhit and outfielded but won. The same thing has occurred in many games. When the break comes watch the Senators slump.

A KNOCK FOR NEEDHAM'S LATEST.

Hamilton Herald: Talk about coming back. It has been announced that Fred Applegate, the elongated slabman who used to do work for the Toronto crew when that bunch played at Diamond Park, and before the Island Stadium was remodelled, has been signed to do slab duty for Needham's Guelph bunch. Applegate never was a wonder, and age will not improve him.

THE HEIGHT OF RECKLESSNESS.

Hamilton Times: It is still a debatable question whether an auto racer or an aviator incurs the greater risk and shows the finer courage or greater recklessness, but the recklessness of neither is to be compared to that of a few, who are willing to stake their hard-earned money on the chance of any Hamilton team ever winning anything in Ottawa.

AFTER THE INDIANS' SCALPS.

Brantford Expositor: London plays a double-header here a week from tomorrow. Brantford fans want to see Bowerman humbled in their midst, because the Cockneys are the horseshoe team of the league on their own grounds against Brantford.

MAKING IT VERY CLEAR.

Hamilton Times: In the game at Ottawa yesterday the forces of the enemy leaned successfully on the sphere for eight biffs, making the most of them count in the final returns from the polls, while our artisans got nine. Up to the seventh stanza Mr. R. Schuyler (the expert piano-mover) allowed intimacy with his genius to the extent of only three hits, but lifted off the lid in the seventh and presented the foe with three more, which resulted in three trips across the plate.

A BOOST FOR JO JO.

Ottawa Citizen: Jo Jo Keenan is again with the Hamilton party and is likely to make things interesting at Lansdowne Park today and tomorrow. Cook regards Joe as the best man in a pinch in the Canadian League. It was he who beat Ottawa at the Ambitious City last week.

HEINIE DISCOVERS SOMETHING.

Ottawa Free Press: Heinie Peitz, the old Pittsburg catcher, who is scouting for Cincinnati, was up at Peterboro on the last trip of the Ottawas, and took the greatest kind of a liking to Jimmy Louden. He intimated the "Reds" would be there with a draft on the young utility man.

WELL, WHAT D' YOU KNOW 'BOUT THIS?

Ottawa Citizen: The Ottawas were in high gear as the result of their sweep at London. "We started them on the toboggan," said Manager Cook, "and they are not likely to give us any further trouble."

SOME CHANGES IN CANADIAN SCHEDULE

Berlin and Ottawa Games Have Been Switched.

Berlin, July 16.—The Canadian League schedule has been amended considerably, which will give fans here an increased number of games than otherwise provided for. Owing to the parks in Guelph and Berlin being engaged for Labor Day, the Maple Leafs will play morning games tomorrow and Thursday, in addition to the afternoon games. A double-header will be played on Saturday afternoon with St. Thomas. Berlin was billed for Ottawa on July 26 and 27, but owing to the grounds at the capital being engaged by the lacrosse team, the Senators have transferred the games to Berlin.

ANVIL MAKES FAST TIME AT KALAMAZOO

Won the 2:08 Trot in 2:06½ After Going First Heat in 2:06¾.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 16.—In one of the most remarkable races ever seen at Recreation Park, Anvil won the 2:08 trot today in straight heats. The first mile was covered in 2:06¾, the best time in a trot so far this season, and in the second heat Anvil further clipped the time to 2:06½. Helen Stiles, winner of the 2:07 trot last week, was Anvil's nearest competitor, but at no time was Geers' horse in danger. The first heat was taken without any urging, although on the stretch Helen Stiles was driven to within a length of the winner. In the second heat Helen Stiles acted badly, breaking just after the start. When she settled down, the western mare ran a beautiful race until within six lengths of the wire, when she broke again, permitting Baron May to take second place.

Longworth B. won the 2:08 pace, taking three out of five heats. In the first heat he won by a nose from Walter J. In the second heat four horses went under the wire at practically the same instant, King Daphne leading, followed by Longworth B., Ty Cobb and Walter J. King Daphne won the heat by a remarkable burst of speed in the last quarter.

Not until the judges announced the decision did anyone know how the 2:18 trot ended. It was hotly contested for five heats, of which Zarrine and Dave Hallie each captured two.

The former had the best average standing at the end of the five heats, and was given first money. The summary:

VARNA AND BLAKE WILL PLAY RETURN GAME

Varna Won the First Game by 7 to 1.

Varna, July 17.—The return game of football will be played in Blake Thursday night, July 18. The game in Varna was 2 to 1 in favor of Varna, so Blake expects to win on their own grounds. W. Layton, of Brucefield, will referee.

Manufacturer Who Has Tried the Part Time Industrial School Plan Loud In Its Praise

Mr. John Bath, of the Bath Grinder Company, who is among those Fitchburg manufacturers who use the co-operative course students in their factories, said to the Daily News of that city:

"I was one of those who did not have any faith in the system when it was first proposed here, but I decided to give the plan a trial, and today I will say that it is surely the best thing of its kind in existence. If it is carried out along the present lines, it will surely be a success. A trial has convinced me of this fact, and I give it my most hearty approval."

The parents of the city of London are taking a marked interest in the move here. The circulars describing the proposed part time industrial course were mailed on Tuesday, and applications are already being sent in. Principal Beal will be in the Alexandra School on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week to meet the applicants. All applications will be considered in the order in which they are received.

FRY'S COCOA

"Leave some for me" 53

Secret Service

By Cyrus Townsend Brady

"What!" exclaimed Thorne.

"There is no one in there. It is just one of your tricks. Call the guard!" he shouted toward the hall, and then toward the window. "Sergeant of the guard! Captain Thorne is here, in this house!"

He stepped out on the porch and shouted again with astonishing power for one so painfully wounded as he was. Then the boy felt a faintness come over him. He sank down on a seat on the porch and leaned his head against the house, seeking to recover his strength, fighting a desperate battle, fearful lest Thorne should escape while he was thus helpless.

It was Edith Varney who first replied to his frantic summons by hurrying into the room. She was as much surprised to see Thorne as he was to see her. Her heart leaped in her bosom at the sight of him, and she stared at him as at a wraith or a vision.

"You wouldn't tell me an untruth, would you?" said Thorne, coming closer to her. "He was shot in this room an hour ago, my brother Henry. I'd like to take one look at his dead face before they send me the same way. Where is he? Can't you tell me that much, Miss Varney? Is he in the house?"

Edith looked at his face, shook her head a little, and moved away from him toward the table. Thorne threw up his hands in a gesture of despair, and turned toward the window. As he did so, Wilfred, having recovered from his faintness a little, called out again:

"The guard! The escaped prisoner, Captain Thorne!"

This time his frantic cry was answered. At last they were closing in upon the wretched man. He turned from the window and faced the girl, scarcely less wretched than he, and laughed shortly.

"They are on the scent, you see," he said; "they'll get me in a minute; and when they do it won't take them long to finish me off. And as that'll be the last of me, Miss Varney, maybe you'll listen to one thing. We can't all die a soldier's death, in the roar and glory of battle, our friends about us, under the flag we love. No, not all! Some of us have orders for another kind of work, dare-devil, desperate work, the hazardous schemes of the Secret Service. We fight our battles alone, no comrades to cheer us on, ten thousand to one against us, death at every turn. If we win, we escape with our lives; if we lose, we are dragged out and butchered like dogs. No soldier's grave, not even a trench with the rest of the boys—alone, despised, forgotten! These were my orders, Miss Varney; this is the death I die tonight, and I don't want you to think for one moment that I am ashamed of it; no, not for one moment."

The sound of heavy feet drew nearer. Wilfred called again, while the two in the room confronted each other, the man erect, and the woman, too. A strange pain was in her heart. At least, here was a man, but before she could say a word in answer to his impassioned defence, the room was filled with soldiers.

"There's your man, Sergeant," said Wilfred. "I hand him over to you."

"You are my prisoner," said the Sergeant.

His command was reinforced by a number of others, including Corporal Matson and his squad, and some of the men of the Provost Guard, who had been chasing Thorne through the streets. At this juncture, Arrelsford, panting and breathless, also joined the company in the drawing-room. He came in rapidly, thrusting aside those in his way.

"Where is he?" he cried. "Ah!" he exclaimed triumphantly, as his eye fell upon Thorne, standing quietly, surrounded by the soldiers, "We've got him, have we?"

"Young Mr. Varney, here, took him, sir," said the Sergeant.

"So," returned Arrelsford to his prisoner, "run down at last. Now, you will find out what it costs to play your little game with our Government telegraph lines."

But Thorne did not turn his head, although Arrelsford spoke almost in his ear. He looked straight at Edith Varney, and she returned his glance.

"Don't waste any time, Sergeant," said Arrelsford furiously. "Take him down the street and shoot him full of lead. Out with him!"

"Very well, sir," said the Sergeant.

But Wilfred interposed. He came forward, Thorne's revolver still in his hand.

"No," he said decisively; "whatever he is, whatever he has done, he has the right to a trial."

"The head of the Secret Service Department said to me if I found him to shoot him at sight," snarled Arrelsford.

"I don't care what General Tarleton said. I captured this man; he's in this house, and he is not going out unless he is treated fairly."

The Sergeant looked uncertainly from Wilfred to Arrelsford. Mrs. Varney, who had entered with the rest of them, and who now stood by her daughter's side, looked her approval at her son. The mettle of his distinguished father was surely in his veins.

"Well done," said the woman softly, but not so softly that those about her did not hear; "your father would have spoken so."

Arrelsford came to a sudden decision.

"Well, let him have a trial. We'll give him a drumhead court-martial, but it will be the quickest ever held on earth. Stack your muskets here, and organize a court," he said.

"Fall in, here!" cried the Sergeant, at which the men quickly took their places. "Attention! Stack arms! Two of you take the prisoner. Where shall we find a vacant room, ma'am?"

"Across the hall," said Mrs. Varney, "where the ladies were sewing this evening."

"Very good," said the Sergeant. "Left face! Forward, march!"

Arrelsford and Wilfred followed the soldiers.

"I am the chief witness," said the former.

"I will see that he gets fair play," remarked the latter, as they marched out.

"I must go to Howard," said Mrs. Varney; "this excitement is killing him. I am afraid he will hardly survive the night. Caroline is with him now."

"Very well, mother," said Edith, going slowly up the now deserted room and standing at the window, looking out into the night, thinking her strange, appalling thoughts. They would convict him, shoot him—there was no hope. What had he said. He was not ashamed of his work. It was the highest duty, and involved the highest and noblest sacrifice, because it made the greatest demand; and they would shoot him like a mad dog.

"Oh, God," she wispered, "if some bullet would only find my heart as well!"

CHAPTER XIX.

The Drumhead Court-Martial.

It so happened that the soldiers who had thrust old Jonas back in his closet, whence they had taken him a short time before, in their haste had failed to lock the door upon him. The negro, who had listened for the click of the key in the lock, had at once known of their carelessness. So soon as they had withdrawn from the room, and their search took them to other parts of the house, he had opened the door cautiously and had made his way toward the hall by the drawing-room, which he felt instinctively was the place where the exciting events of the night would soon culminate.

Thorne's entry and the circumstances of his apprehension had been so engrossing that no one had given a thought to Jonas, or to any other part of the house, for that matter, and he had been able to see everything through the hangings. He was a quick-witted old negro, and he knew, of course, that there would be but one verdict given by such a court-martial as had assembled. Now, the men who composed the court would of necessity be detailed to carry out their own sentence. The long room was filled with stacks of guns. Every soldier, even those under the command of Corporal Matson, in Arrelsford's department, had gone to the court-martial. There was nothing else of interest to attract them in the house. Every gun was there in that room, unguarded.

A recent capture of a battalion of Federal riflemen had put the Confederates into possession of a few hundred breechloading weapons, not of the latest and most approved pattern, for the cartridges in these guns were in cardboard shells, but still better than any the South possessed. These rifles had been distributed to some of the companies in garrison at Richmond, and it so happened that the men of the Secret Service squad and the Provost Guard had received most of them. Every gun in the stacks was of this pattern.

In his earlier days Jonas had been his young master's personal attendant, his bodyguard, and as such he had often gone hunting with him. During the war he had frequently visited him in camp, charged with messages of one sort or another, and he knew all about weapons.

As he stared into the long room after the departing soldiers, he did not know Edith Varney was still there, nor could he see her at all, for she was on the other side of the curtain, looking out of the window, and it seemed to him that the room was empty.

Jonas was a very intelligent negro, and while under any ordinary circumstances his devotion to his master and mistress would have been absolutely sure, yet he had become tinged with the ideas of freedom and liberty in the air. He had assisted many and many a Union prisoner. Captain Thorne, by his pleasant ways and nice address, had won his heart. And he himself was deeply concerned personally that the young man should not be punished for his attempt to bring about the success of the Union cause, which Jonas felt to be his own cause. Therefore he had a double motive to secure the freedom of his principal if it were in any way possible. Of course, any direct interposition was out of the question. He was still only a slave. His open interference would have been fruitless of any consequences except bad ones for himself, and he was already more than compromised by the events of the night. What he was to do he must do by stealth.

Specialist Did Skin Trouble No Good

Very Itchy and Disfiguring. Got a Little Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Was Cured.

"For two summers I suffered with skin trouble on my arms, and on my legs from my knees down. My arms were badly disfigured, and I kept them covered. It came like the hives, and was very itchy. I consulted a specialist, who gave me medicine, as well as an ointment, but seemed to do no good. It was beginning to appear on my face.

"I got a little Cuticura Ointment and some Cuticura Soap. The first touch of Ointment seemed to relieve, and before the Cuticura Ointment was finished I was cured. I have not the least sign of trouble. I think it would have spread over my whole body if Cuticura Soap and Ointment had not cured me. I am delighted with them, and do feel pleased to think I have something I have confidence in. I tell all my friends about them, and I think Cuticura Ointment is the best I ever saw." (Signed) M. J. Boddy, 73 McCaul St., Toronto, Dec. 22, 1910.

Cold-Sore Began to Heal With First Use of Cuticura Ointment.

"Cuticura Ointment cured a very bad cold-sore that gave me hours of severe pain and loss of sleep. I tried lots of other remedies but nothing did me any good till I tried Cuticura Ointment, and from the very first application it began to heal and now there is not even a scar left." (Signed) Mrs. W. Boyce, Mermaid Farm, P.E.I., Jan. 8, '11.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded the speediest, safest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp troubles, of young and old. Although they are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a liberal sample of each may be obtained free, from the Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 57 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

BARN WAS BURNED

Heavy Damages By Lightning in Oxford and Kent Counties.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

St. Thomas, July 16. — During yesterday's electrical storm, the $3,500 barn of Malcolm McVicar, Southwold Township, was struck by lightning and burned with contents. The barn of John D. Hellman, Oxford Township, near Rodney, was also struck. One of the farmer's sons had just driven into the barn to escape the storm, and was badly stunned by the shock. The barn and all contents were totally destroyed; loss $2,500, insured for $1,000. The home of a farmer, William Patterson, living near Rodney, was struck by lightning, and S. R. Patterson and Henry Summers, who came in to escape from the storm, were badly shocked by the bolt, which came down the chimney and shattered the wall beside which the men were sitting.

LIBRARY INSTITUTE

Next Session Will Be Held in St. Thomas in 1913.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chatham, July 16.—At today's session of the Chatham District Library Institute, three resolutions were passed requesting the Ontario Legislature to pass legislation that will result, if carried out, in library work in the province being given a marked impetus, and will give free access to the library to the farmers in their own neighborhood.

If legislation is adopted along the lines proposed, every library will be taken over by the municipality in which it is situated on petition of ten per cent of the ratepayers.

Where there is no library the municipality will be empowered to establish one on receipt of a petition signed by 30 per cent of the ratepayers.

Each free library will be entitled to a minimum annual grant of one mill on the dollar, up to $200, and one-half mill thereafter. Every library shall be opened to the free use of inhabitants of surrounding country. The resolutions will be forwarded to Toronto shortly.

It was decided to hold the meeting in 1913 in St. Thomas. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:

President—J. A. Short, Essex.

Secretary—W. J. Elliott, Kingsville.

Executive Committee — Dr. Charteris, Chatham; J. W. Hamilton, Sarnia; W. R. Fitzgerald, Watford; Dr. Voaden, St. Thomas; A. Denholm, Blenheim.

Several interesting papers were given during the afternoon, one being by Mr. W. O. Carson, librarian, of London.

YEAR IN THE CENTRAL FOR HORSE STEALING

Young Ingersoll Man Took Outfit From Employer and Drove to London.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, July 17. — A year in the Central Prison is the penalty James Thompson will pay for stealing a horse, buggy and harness a grip, and a pair of patent leather shoes. Thompson, who was brought to Ingersoll from Kincardine by Chief Fish three days after the theft was committed, was arraigned before Magistrate Paterson yesterday afternoon. The outfit which the young man departed with belonged to his old employer, Mr. Peter Cuthbert, of West Oxford. Crown Attorney Ball, of Woodstock, prosecuted, and after the evidence was all offered, the magistrate convicted Thompson and sentenced him to one year in the Central Prison. Thompson is a Barnardo Home boy and has been out from England ten years. He ascribed his escapade to the fact that he had been drinking.

Nearing the End.

The Town League teams are nearing the end of the baseball schedule. The Shamrocks continue to head the procession, but the Colts have been rapidly climbing of late, and there will be something doing when these teams clash again. The Colts have shown wonderful improvement under the tuition of Dr. Ralph Williams, the veteran first-sacker, and with Moulton on the mound, who allowed the Shamrocks only one hit the last time they met, they have fine prospects of overhauling the leaders.

The 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Magee, King street west, was painfully scalded last night. He upset a pan of boiling water, which was spilled on his arm and face, and both were severely burned.

Interest in Bylaws.

It has been a long time since so much interest has been manifested in bylasw here as at the present time. From what can be learned there never was a time when three bylaws were submitted to the electors at the same time, and as one of these—for the installation of a sewerage system—involves an expenditure of $57,000, and the other the loan of $20,000 to the Waterhouse Company, it will be seen that the situation is one of vital interest to ratepayer. The council has effected organization for getting out the vote on the bylaws, and there will be earnest work looking to the passage of the measures.

The Service on Board

It does not begin and end with the first-class, nor even with the second. On board both the R. M. S. Royal Edward and R. M. S. Royal George to England, the same generous and unfailing measure of ample comfort and thoughtful, courteous and ungrudging attention is extended to each passenger, to the end that a reputation for doing more than is expected shall mark the Royal Line.

CANADIAN NORTHERN

To Look and Feel Bright in Hot Weather

[From the Woman Beautiful.]

This is the season when she who would have a rose-leaf complexion, lily-white neck and hands, should turn her thoughts to mercolized wax. Nothing so effectually overcomes the soiling effects of sun, wind, dust and dirt. The wax literally absorbs the scorched, discolored, withered or coarsened cuticle, bringing forth a brand new skin, clear, soft and girlishly beautiful. It also unclogs the pores, removing blackheads and increasing the skin's breathing capacity. An ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, applied nightly like cold cream, and washed off mornings, will gradually improve the worst complexion.

When depressed by the heat and you want to freshen up for the evening, bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. You'll find this more refreshing than an hour's rest. It also smooths out fine lines, affecting even the deeper wrinkles.

BROOKIN'S FIRST FLIGHT AT PORT STANLEY TODAY

Famous Airman Opens Three Days' Event On Erie's Shore—Will London Man Take a Trip.

Negotiations for Mr. Brookins' appearance at Port Stanley Beach for three days, commencing today, have been going on for some days between Mr. Green of the Beach management and Mr. S. W. Mower and Mr. Fanciulli, Mr. Brookins' manager. It was intended to have an aeroplane at Port Stanley last year, but none of the good aviators were available. so the management decided to postpone the event until this summer, when they could secure the best of the flying men. Moreover, this year it is possible to secure the hydro-aeroplane, which is the latest improvement of the air machines.

It is understood, however, that Mr. Brookins will perform all the evolutions in the air that his fame is noted for. Aside from carrying passengers he will demonstrate the use of the aeroplane in naval warfare, by dropping bombs on an imaginary enemy's ship. It will be recalled that Mr. Brookins was the first aviator in the world to fly one mile high; this he did at Atlantic City on July 9, 1910. Up to that time the highest flight that had been made by man was a little more than four thousand feet, which altitude he raised to over six thousand feet.

Thousands of people are expected to witness the flight by Brookins, and special arrangements will be made for the handling of the crowds. The event will be the most noteworthy ever held at Port Stanley. The flights will start from the beach in front of the amusements, and will finish at the same point.

Carrying passengers is one of Mr. Brookins' greatest pleasures. Within the past three months he has carried up for little trips nearly two hundred persons, mostly prominent society men and women in New York. While he was flying at Palm Beach, Fla., last winter he carried as many as sixty persons for trips through the air. It is very likely that Mr. Brookins will carry up one passenger with him each day that he flies at Port Stanley. There is much speculation among people in London and St. Thomas as to who will be the people invited by Mr. Brookins to go up. Certain it is that the first person who takes a ride with Mr. Brookins will have a number of honors showered upon him for his bravery, and for being the first person in this part of the country to hazard the trip in an aeroplane.

PRESIDENT INTERFERED

United States Senate Votes in Disapproval of Mr. Taft.

Washington, July 16.—The Senate late today amended Senator Bailey's resolution censuring President Taft for his attitude and public expression on the Lorimer case, so as to make it impersonal, and passed it 35 to 23. The passages condemning the course of the President were stricken out and the resolution was made to express the Senate's disapproval of "the interference of a President," in its affairs.

KING PLAYS HERO.

Pamplona, Spain, July 16. — King Alfonso this afternoon prevented what might have been a fatal accident. As he was leaving the cathedral after a ceremony, a general's horse bolted, throwing the rider and dragging him along the ground. While the spectators hesitated as to what to do, the king, with great presence of mind, sprang from his carriage, caught the horse, and extricated the fallen general. He was roundly cheered by the populace.

GIROUARD RESIGNS.

London, July 16. — Col. Sir Percy Girouard has resigned his position as governor and commander-in-chief of the the East African Protectorate.

Sir Percy Girouard is a Canadian, the son of the late Judge Girouard, of Montreal. He graduated from the Royal Military College at Kingston in 1886, and entered the British army. His career has been most successful, particularly as a transport officer, having charge of that work in Kitchener's Soudan campaign.

ARCHBISHOP M'NEILL APPOINTED TO TORONTO

British Columbia Prelate the Selection of Holy See For McEvay's Successor.

Rome, July 16. — Most Reverend Neil McNeill, D.D., Archbishop of Vancouver, B. C., has been appointed Archbishop of Toronto.

His Grace the Most Rev. Neil McNeil is the son of the late Malcolm McNeill, of Hillsborough, Inverness, Nova Scotia; his grandparents having come respectively from Barra, Scotland, and Kilkenny, Ireland. He was born at Hillsborough, on the 21st of November, 1851, and was educated at St. Francis Xavier College, Antogonish, the College of the Propaganda, Rome, and at the University of Marseilles. From the latter institution he received the degrees of doctor of philosophy and divinity in 1879, the same year in which he was ordained. His priesthood was conferred in the Basilica of John Lateran, by the late Cardinal Patrizzi.

Dr. McNeill joined the teaching staff of St. Francis Xavier College, Antigonish, Nova Scotia, in 1880, as vice-rector, and became rector of the institution in 1884, a post which he continued to hold until 1891. During this period he was also the editor of the Aurora newspaper, and of the Antigonish Casket. In 1891 he became pastor at West Arichat, and subsequently at Descouse; and in 1895 he was elevated to the bishopric being consecrated at St. Ninan's Cathedral, Antigonish. He was Bishop of Nicopolis and Vicar-Apostolic of St. George's, on the west coast of Newfoundland, from 1895 until 1904, becoming Bishop of St. George's in the latter year.

His appointment as Archbishop dates from January, 1910, when he was placed in charge of the See of Vancouver.

Dr. McNeill has considerable fame as a scholar and scientist, being regarded as among the foremost in Canada in respect of mathematics and astronomy.

TARIFF TOO HIGH SAYS GOVT. ORGAN

Saskatchewan Lesson Is Quite Plain, Says the Kingston Standard.

Kingston, July 16. — The Daily Standard (Conservative) fires another editorial broadside today. Declaring that the result in Saskatchewan is of great political and commercial significance, it continues:

"It will not do for the Conservative party to tie itself irrevocably or even for a brief period to the chariot wheels of high protection. If it does, it may hopelessly lose to itself the entire west, whose very life depends upon wider markets. We must, to be sure, protect our eastern manufacturers, but that protection must be a reasonable one only, and not an excessive one as undoubtedly it is in too many cases now.

"Having had the courage to lower the duty on cement, for instance, in the interests of the consumer—for, disguise it as we may, the consumer, not the manufacturer, pays the tax—the Government must go further and reduce measurably in some cases, reasonably in others, the duties on those manufactured articles of which the west today stands so badly in need, and upon which its growth and its very life depends. The tendency, in short will be more and more toward a tariff for revenue only, making due allowance always for a reasonable, but not an excessive protection for our infant industries.

WESTERN TRAGEDY

Victoria, B. C., July 16.—After following his wife half across the continent to patch up a domestic quarrel and failing in the attempt, A. J. Vanveit, of East Grand Forks, Minn., today walked several paces in front of her on Government street here and shot himself with a revolver, dying almost instantly. The tragedy was witnessed by scores of persons. Vanveit made his will yesterday after an interview with his wife, during which she refused to return to live with him. It was after handing his wife this will today that he shot himself.

TRAILING CHECK FOR THAT $3,000

If Lost Document Turns Up, Travers Says He Will Tell Some More.

STATEMENT BY ROGERS

Head of Provincial Police Declares That Nesbitt Could Have Been Arrested.

Toronto, July 17. — Contrary to expectation, G. M. Atlas was not called to testify at the Farmers' Bank investigation yesterday, but his evidence will probably be taken today, when the hearing resumes at 11 o'clock. Features of yesterday's session were complete denials by Messrs. Stratton, Lown, Nesbitt and Lindsay, that they had suggested to Mr. Travers that he take $3,000 to Ottawa with him to grease the wheels in order to get the Farmers' Bank charter more easily, and reiteration by Travers that the check for this amount was left with the hotel clerk at Ottawa in a sealed envelope, addressed to Peter Ryan. Mr. Travers was asked whether he had ever spoke to Mr. Ryan since he was in Ottawa on that occasion, and said that as recently as June 15, 1912, Mr. Ryan had approached him in the office of G. T. Clarkson, liquidator of the bank, and said: "I will look after your interests." The prison guard, he said, had heard the remark.

Travers Insistent.

Travers repeated strenuously that Mr. Ryan had been the man to whom the check was addressed, but refused to give further light on the matter unless the check was produced, as there was a number on the back of it which referred to a room at the Russell Hotel, and he wished to reinforce his memory before making any statement which could possibly be denied. He had an impression about the movements of the check, but would not make a sworn statement concerning that opinion.

Trailing the Check.

With this in view Crown Counsel F. E. Hodgins examined Magistrate Denison and Curran Morrison, clerk of the police court, to find out the system employed in handling exhibits by the police court. Travers had said that the last time he had seen the check it was in the hands of Walter Duncan, inspector of detectives. Both Mr. Morrison and Magistrate Denison said that they had absolute confidence in the detective department, and not infrequently permitted Inspector Duncan to keep exhibits for a while. When it was necessary for them to go to the higher courts they were taken to Provincial Constable Burns, who signed a receipt for them. They had no knowledge of the check having been lost while in the custody of the police court. It is likely that Arthur Webb, who does the detail work in connection with filling exhibits, will be called today to trace the movements of the check, as the commission is exceedingly eager to locate it.

A startling statement was made by Superintendent Rogers, of the provincial police. He said that three of his men saw Dr. Nesbitt after the warrant for his arrest had been issued, and that if he had been communicated with by the Toronto police department immediately the doctor could have been arrested easily between Muskoka and the Sault. As a matter of fact the warrant was issued on Jan. 14, and he was not officially notified to watch for him until March. He had received word from Crown Attorney Corley on Jan. 26, but that was also too late.

Crown Attorney Corley and Police Court Clerk Morrison both denied that Walter Duncan could not get a warrant when he asked for it because of Mr. Corley's refusal. Mr. Duncan could have made out the papers and had them signed by Magistrate Denison or Mr. Morrison, who is a justice of the peace, without going near Mr. Corley. What actually happened, said Mr. Corley, was that he had told Mr. Duncan a warrant for forgery could not be issued where Dr. Nesbitt had signed his own name to a false document. Mr. Corley had conferred with the deputy attorney general on this point, and Mr. Cartwright had agreed that such an act was not forgery.

Mr. Travers was asked whether the Farmers' Bank directly or indirectly subscribed to the testimonial to the Hon. W. S. Fielding, and replied that neither he nor the bank had ever done so.

TRADE TREATY RATIFIED

Approved by All West Indies With Exception of Trinidad.

Barbadoes, July 16.—The treaty of mutual trade benefits, which was signed at Ottawa last April by representatives of the British West Indies and members of the Canadian Government, has been ratified by all the islands with the exception of Trinidad.

It is expected that Trinidad will ratify the treaty within a fortnight.

TWO WOMEN TESTIFY

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Their Health—Their own Statements Follow.

Haliburton, P.E.I.:—"I had a doctor examine me and he said I had falling of the womb, so I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. All the bearing-down pains have vanished. I have gained ten pounds in weight, the discharge is all gone, and I feel better than I have for a long time. I think any woman is foolish to suffer as I did for the sake of a few dollars.

"You can use my letter as a testimonial. It may encourage other poor women who suffer as I did to use your Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. GEO. COLLICUTT, Haliburton, Lot 7, P.E.I.

Read What This Woman Says:

New Moorefield, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in thanking you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had bearing down pains, was dizzy and weak, had pains in lower back and could not be upon my feet long enough to get a meal. As long as I laid on my back I would feel better, but when I would get up those bearing down pains would come back, and the doctor said I had female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the only medicine that helped me and I have been growing stronger ever since I commenced to take it. I hope it will help other suffering women as it has me. You can use this letter."—Mrs. CASSIE LLOYD, New Moorefield, Clark Co., Ohio.

Naval Announcement

London, July 16.—It is now authoritatively stated that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, will on Monday next make an important pronouncement on the British course of action in view of the German menace.

He will deal fully with the policy of the Government regarding the fleet in home waters and the Mediterranean. He will go out for a united imperial navy.

He has consulted the highest authorities, such as Lord Fisher and Lord Charles Beresford, in addition to his chief professional adviser, Admiral Sir Charles Bridgeman.

The supplementary estimates which Winston Churchill will introduce are expected to contain a provision for the addition of men to the whole fleet, the acceleration of certain ships in this year's programme, and a special programme for the Mediterranean.

JAW WAS FRACTURED WHILE PLAYING BALL

James Mitcheltree, of 884 Waterloo Street, Was Seriously Injured.

James Mitcheltree, of 884 Waterloo street, a car checker on the Grand Trunk, sustained a fracture of the jaw while playing baseball on the Queen's Park diamond last evening. Mitcheltree was on second base when the pitcher wheeled suddenly, and threw the ball to him. Not noticing the play, he failed to catch the missile, and was struck squarely on the jaw with considerable force. He was attended by Dr. Shaw, at Victoria Hospital, and later proceeded to his home.

WEDDED BY SUFFRAGETTE

Rev. Susanna Harris, of Washington, Unites Canadian Couple.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 16. — John Benjamin Nichols and Agnes Walkinshaw Donaldson, both of Toronto, were this afternoon united in marriage by the Rev. Susanna Harris, of Washington, D. C., the great peace advocate and woman suffragist.

Nicholas told Vital Statistician Thomas H. Hogan that he was 63 years of age and lived at 17 Hayter street. He had been married before. His bride had also launched out on the matrimonial sea before and confessed to 46 summers. She gave her address as 35 Balmuto street.

The ceremony was performed in the parlors of the International Hotel, and was witnessed by Wilhelmina Reid, an English suffragist, and Ronald Donaldson, a son of the bride. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served in a private dining-room at the hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols will leave in the morning for Lilydale, N. Y., where they will spend their honeymoon.

According to the city directory, John B. Nichols, 17 Hayter street, is a clerk in the local freight department of the Grand Trunk Railway. The same authority says that Agnes Donaldson, 35 Balmuto street, is a ladies' tailor.

POSTUM

"NO TROUBLE"
To Change From Coffee to Postum.

"Postum has done a world of good for me," writes an Ills. man.

"I've had indigestion nearly all my life, but never dreamed coffee was the cause of my trouble until last spring I got so bad I was in misery all the time." (Tea is just as injurious as coffee, because it contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.)

"A coffee drinker for 30 years, it irritated my stomach and nerves, yet I was just crazy for it. After drinking it with my meals, I would leave the table, go out and lose my meal and the coffee, too. Then I'd be as hungry as ever.

"A friend advised me to quit coffee and use Postum—said it cured him. Since taking his advice I retain my food and get all the good out of it, and don't have those awful hungry spells.

"I changed from coffee to Postum without any trouble whatever, felt better from the first day I drank it. I am well now, and give the credit to Postum." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

It is a pure food drink made of wheat, with a taste much like mild, high-grade Java.

NO LONGER WARD SAYS MR. BORDEN

Canadian Premier Says Full Autonomy of Dominion Must Be Recognized.

PLEDGES HELP IN WAR

Conditions Must Change When Overseas Dominions Take Part in Imperial Defence.

London, July 16.—Right Hon. R. L. Borden, Premier of Canada, declared in the Harcourt room in the House of Parliament at Westminster this evening: "In time of peril I believe every dominion, including Canada, will give a response not less loyal or less earnest than the motherland herself. One realizes, however, that when the day of peril comes the day for effective preparation may have passed. I conceive that those who accept a share in and a responsibility for the definite security of this vast Empire will no longer be considered wards by their self-constituted guardians. The next ten or twenty years will be critical in the history of the Empire. They may be even decisive of its future. God grant, whether we be of these mother islands or of the dominions, we may so bear ourselves that the future shall not hold to our lips the chalice of vain regret for opportunity, neglected and dead."

The occasion was the inaugural dinner of the Empire Parliamentary Association to Mr. Borden, with Alfred Lyttelton presiding, and with a most distinguished gathering of invited guests, including Sydney Buxton, the Marquis of Crewe, Lord Strathcona, Lord Kinnaird, Harry Lawson, Speaker Lowther, Earl Meath, Lord Newlands (Winston Churchill's father-in-law), Sir Gilbert Parker, Sir George Reid, Sir Charles Rose, Herbert Samuel and many ladies.

Proposing the toast of "The Overseas Members of the Association," Alfred Lyttelton remarked in passing that it was fortunate for the French-Canadians that they had developed the genius of their race and pursued liberty under the British flag—something that would have been difficult, if not impossible, had Canada been retained by France and fallen under the sway of the revolutionary movement and the Napoleonic periods.

Premier Borden's Address.

Mr. Borden, who followed, noted the similarity of development of the parliamentary institutions overseas with those of the mother country. He then proceeded to develop the argument. In the course of a striking utterance Mr. Borden said that when Canada began to take part in imperial defence then would conditions change and the overseas dominions necessarily be summoned to the councils of the central authority in foreign affairs and naval matters.

He said: "The time when the mother of parliaments was in truth and fact one imperial parliament, in the highest sense of that status, has ceased to exist. Parliament is elected now upon issues chiefly local and domestic, and a parliament which expends a large portion of its time and energy in discussing and determining questions of purely domestic concern can hardly be regarded as an Imperial Parliament in the highest and truest sense. The complete autonomy which has been granted to the great dominions has given them practically complete control of their own affairs.

"As a result, the crown had become the strongest, if not the chief, tie which unites the dominions with the motherland, and preserves the integrity and cohesion of the Empire. In one important respect Parliament and the Government of the mother country still control the relations and destinies of Empire. The policy which settles the issues of peace and war for the entire Empire is formulated and carried out by a Government responsible only to a House of Commons elected by the inhabitants of the United Kingdom.

Question of Supremacy.

"So long as British supremacy of the seas is unchallenged, so long as that supremacy is maintained by Britain alone, there is little cause to criticize this condition, which is supposed to be based upon a theory of guardianship or trusteeship. The dominions in the meantime have been developing their resources, have been expending moneys on public works, and providing means of transportation, in the many necessities which arise from the rapid and unparalleled development of resources and in the establishment of the conditions of modern civilization throughout their great territories. The time is at hand when they may be called upon to take a reasonable and legitimate share in maintaining the security of the Empire's existence."

Hon. George E. Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, and Speaker Lowther, next spoke. They were followed by Lionel Phillips, of South Africa, who deprecated "tinpot navies," and extolled the idea of central authority. He advocated representation of the dominions on the imperial defence committee.

KOLAPORE CUP WON BY ENGLAND

Canadian Took Third Place, Being Only Fifteen Points Back.

THE SCORES AT BISLEY

In Shoot-Off of the Graphic Tie, Mortimer, the Canadian, Took Second.

Bisley Camp, July 16.—The mother country won the Kolapore Cup, which was competed for by teams of eight men in contests at 300, 500 and 600 yards. The winning team scored 761. South Africa was second with 750, Canada third with 746, Guernsey 725, India 724. This cup was donated by the Rajah of Kolapore and the National Rifle Association gives each member of the winning team a silver bowl. Canada has won the cup nine times since 1871.

The Canadians' scores for the three ranges were: Sclater 98, Armstrong 93, Mortimer 87, Smith 86, Foster 99, Mitchell 91, Richardson 94, Battershill 98.

In the Duke of Cambridge match (10 shots at 900 yards), the Canadians made a good showing. Oliven, of the Cheshire Yeomanry, won the contest. The position of the Canadians who won prizes were: Mitchell 21, Sclater 22, Blackburn 57, Dymond 73, Foster 114. The first two won $40 each, and the last three $20.

The Canadians' scores: Armstrong 40, Auld 39, Battershill 42, Blackburn 45, Dymond 45, Forster 43, MacDougall 37, Maggs 41, McInnes 30, Mitchell 47, Richardson 40, Sclater 47, Smith 41, Steele 36, Stoddart 43, Forrest 42, Davidson 36, Keney 42, Macpherson 40, Mortimer 42, Regan 40, Andrews 39, Bayles 33.

Tippins (Essex), won the Alexandra match. Of the Canadians Armstrong, 8th; MacPherson, 13th, and Battershill, 21st, winning $25. Mitchell, 27th; Steele, 76th; Forest, 77th, and Stoddart, 129th, winning $15. Forster, 213th, and Kennedy, 215th, $10. Bayles, 233rd; Mortimer, 259th; Sclater, 268th; Simpson, 309th; Davidson, 320th, winning $5.

Mortimer Second in Graphic.

In the Graphic tie Mortimer and Lieutenant Crane made possibles. Crane then made three bulls. Mortimer scored two inners and a bull, and therefore is second, winning a framed picture and $25.

In the All-Comers' Aggregate (to highest aggregates in the Alexandra, Daily Graphic, Daily Telegraph, and Graphic matches), Canadians scored:

Armstrong	167
Auld	147
Battershill	160

SIR JAMES ADMITS MR. ROWELL'S ACCURACY

Says He (Sir James) Was Not Correct in Statement as to Club Licenses.

Toronto, July 17.—When asked if he had any comment to make on Mr. Rowell's speech at Belleville last week, regarding club licenses, Sir James Whitney made the following statement yesterday:

"I was not quite correct in making the general statement that up to the time we imposed licenses clubs were empowered by their charters to sell liquor. A few were so empowered to sell to members, and the others were assumed to have such right to sell. Let me quote two extracts from the Toronto Globe previous to 1906, showing the situation as it was:

"'They may sell liquor to whoever they please in the case of clubs incorporated before the days of the "qualified prohibitory clause"; in the other case to those mentioned in their charters. . . . The former theory, and one that was honored, was that a club on being incorporated had as much right to keep liquor on its premises and dispose of it to members without question as the head of a family had to keep it in the house for family consumption. Thus there are a number of clubs in Toronto and elsewhere whose charters date back twenty years or so, and who are absolutely untrammelled in every respect regarding keeping and selling liquor on their premises.'

"Since then we have imposed a license and license fees. Mr. Rowell endeavored to convey the impression that there was no power to sell liquor in clubs until our licenses authorized such sale."

What Mr. Rowell Said.

In his Belleville speech Mr. Rowell put the facts very plainly when he said:

"The Prime Minister said that clubs which were in existence when they came into power were acting under charters 'which gave them the power to sell intoxicating liquor.' He (Mr. Rowell had caused inquiry to be made at the Provincial Secretary's department, and while they had not completed their search, the officials of the department, at the time of inquiry, were unable to name any club the charter of which gave power to sell intoxicating liquor. In fact, so far as he could learn, the charters to which Sir James Whitney referred contained absolutely no reference to the sale of liquor.

"There undoubtedly were clubs in existence before the present Government came into power which supplied their members with liquor, but apparently they stood in the same position as dining-cars on railway trains, which sell liquor although not authorized to do so by law."

Sir James' latest statement is an admission of the accuracy of Mr. Rowell's statement of the law.

PICNICKED AT PORT

Large Parties From Aylmer and St. Thomas Had Outings.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Stanley, July 16. — A large picnic, composed of the Aylmer Sunday schools, arrived in Port by special train today. The party soon scattered in pursuit of a variety of diversions, and rejoined again only long enough for lunch near the lake shore.

During the afternoon no definite programme was carried out, but each in following out his or her own inclinations found the day by the lakeside a most pleasant one right up to the time of the train's departure.

The St. Thomas Salvation Army Sunday school picnic was also held here today. About 150 parents and children picnicked together, and all had a splendid day. During the afternoon a fine programme of sports was carried out under the direction of Adjutant Mercer and J. S. S. M. Robert Ware, and the children were all given free rides on the merry-go-round.

The rain received here the first part of the week, after a month's drought, has freshened up the town and country surrounding and done inestimable good to the crops.

RESIDED 77 YEARS IN LONDON TOWNSHIP

Funeral of Mr. Francis Tuckey Was Held in Hyde Park Cemetery.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Hyde Park, July 17. — The funeral of Francis Tuckey, which was held from the family residence to Hyde Park Cemetery, on Sunday afternoon, was very largely attended. An impressive service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Marshall, of Komoka. The pallbearers were all nephews of deceased.

The late Mr. Tuckey was born in London Township 77 years ago, and for the greater part of his life resided on the farm where he died. Besides his wife he leaves ten children.

A most enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Routledge recently, when they entertained the members of the Woman's Institute. The tables were placed on the lawn, and 50 guests partook of a splendid supper. The tables and lawn were beautifully decorated with large varieties of flowers.

Mr. McCrae, son of Rev. Dr. McCrae, of Westminster occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday last.

Services will be held in the Methodist Church while the Presbyterian Church is being improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lumly, of Detroit, formerly of London Township, visited the Misses Jaynes recently.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith on July 24.

A CHARMING GARDEN PARTY AT ST. GEORGE'S

A Large Crowd Spent a Very Pleasant Time in West London.

The garden party held on the St. George's rectory grounds, West London, last evening was well attended, despite the cool weather, and proved a success, financially and socially. The grounds were well lighted, and the various booths, decorated with flowers and bunting, looked very charming. The following committees were in charge: Ice cream—Mesdames Garrett, Tozer, Ruse, Misses Nichols and Jones. Candy—Misses Elsie Smith, Hazel Gibson, Alice Andrewes and Dorothy Turville. Flowers and fruit—Mrs. Hobbs, Misses E. Hodgson, Smith, Calvert and Walker. Grounds—Messrs. Hughes and Hobbs.

An excellent programme was rendered during the evening, including addresses from Rev. T. B. Clarke and Rev. Canon Tucker, and musical numbers by members of the choir, Mr. A. R. Green and Mrs. (Dr.) Kingsmill. Especially appreciated were Mrs. Kingsmill's solos, among them being "The Madrigal," by Chaminade, "The Robin," by Neidlinger, "Will o' the Wisp," by Strauss, and "There's a Land," by Allitsen. Miss Elsie Smith, Mr. John Pope and Mr. A. R. Green also rendered solos most acceptably. Rev. C. B. Sage acted as chairman.

FOLINSBEE—WOOLVERTON

A Wedding on Grand Avenue on Tuesday.

The residence of Dr. and Mrs. S. Woolverton, Grand avenue, South London, was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday afternoon at 5:30, when their second daughter, Miss Elizabeth Irene, was united in marriage to Dr. John Folinsbee, of Edmonton, Alta. The bridesmaid was Miss Laura Woolverton and Dr. F. McPherson, of Edmonton, supported the groom. Rev. H. H. Bingham, of Talbot Street Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Folinsbee will reside in Edmonton.

Post Toasties is the food for me, I'm happy all day long,
And want to tell the world at large the tenor of my song,
'Tis this: eat Toasties every morn if you would healthy be,
The food that's fit for princes is good enough for me.

TRACES OF PIGMIES IN COLORADO WILDS

Scientists Find Bones of a Race That Resembled Apes.

[Canadian Press.]

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 17.—Evidences that Colorado was inhabited by a race of human pigmies not easily distinguished from apes have been discovered in the fossil fields of Florizant by Prof. Farnsworth, of the British Museum, and Prof. Yakishi, of the Imperial University of Tokio. The bones are so small that they could not have belonged to a person over three or four feet in height.

BIG BOXING MEET PLANNED IN NEW YORK

Will Decide All World's Championships on Scale Never Attempted Before.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—A national boxing tournament to decide the championships in all the various classes is to be held in New York next winter on a scale never before attempted. The scheme has the backing of a syndicate of wealthy patrons of the sport.

According to a preliminary announcement, the battles are all to be to a finish and one hundred thousand dollars in purses will be offered, divided as follows: Bantamweight, $5,000; featherweight, $15,000; lightweight, $20,000; middleweight, $10,000; heavyweight, $50,000. The title-holders in these different classes are Coulon, Kilbane, Wolgast, Gibbons and Johnson. The question of selecting the most suitable opponents for these men will be put in the hands of a jury of sporting editors.

JULES POINCRE DEAD

Illustrious Mathematician and Cousin of French Premier.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, July 17.—Jules Henri Poincre, better known as "Jenri Poincare," the illustrious mathematician and cousin of the French Premier, died suddenly today from the bursting of an embolism.

A fortnight ago he underwent a serious operation, which was apparently most successful, and the doctors in attendance foresaw no complications.

M. Poincare was 58 years old, having been born at Nancy on April 29, 1854.

THE WESTERN FAIR

Big Exhibition Will Be Held in London, Sept. 6 to 14.

The Western Fair as a Live Stock Exhibition is in a class by itself. Exhibitors always report good results from showing at London. Surrounded as the city is by such an excellent farming country, there is always a good demand for first-class stock of all kinds. The up-to-date farmer waits for the exhibition, when he can see the best, and make his choice. Every effort is being made by the management to surpass previous years. The prize list has been revised, and made very liberal, not only in classification, but in cash. The prize money will all be paid if the animals are worthy, even should there be no competition in certain sections. Exhibitors are therefore always sure of being well treated at this old and reliable exhibition. Prize lists, entry forms, and all information given promptly on application to Secretary A. M. Hunt, General Offices, Richmond street, London, Ont.

AN UNFORTUNATE FAMILY.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Union, July 16.—A series of accidents happened to the Milman brothers here, all in one day, recently. Alfred had a sunstroke, which has confined him to his bed since; John was kicked in the face by a horse, and Isaac had his arm broken.

COBALT STOCKS.

TORONTO, July 16.—The mining stocks were inclined to be easy today, with Hollinger closing around $12.25. Apparently the stock is receiving no support and is being left entirely to itself. The condition of the market is such that it may sell lower, but from accounts from reliable sources, the results, when they become known, from the operation of the mill, will be a surprise, and the stock eventually should sell on a much higher basis. Nipissing also looks cheap around $7.50, as at this price the return on the money involved is approximately 20 per cent. The company now has a surplus of over a million and a half dollars.

Wall Street, Noon.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Operations in stocks today were of a mixed character, but with a heavier tendency. The market followed the lead of London, where Americans were generally lower, especially Amalgamated Copper, Illinois Central, the Harrimans, Steel and Canadian Pacific. Steel recorded the greatest loss abroad, declining almost a point. Evidently some fear is felt over the forthcoming report of the Stanley congressional committee, which, it is thought, will recommend the disintegration of the Steel Corporation. A few specialties, notably Central Leather, preferred, United Drygoods and Texas Company, were up a point or more. Bonds were steady.

COTTON CASE SETTLED.

New York, July 17.—A compromise has been effected here between the steamship lines and the cotton shippers in the dispute that arose over the action of the steamship companies in deciding to refuse to issue ocean bills of lading for cotton shipments after Sept. 1, unless the railroad delivered the cotton thoroughly covered and entirely free from all evidences of damage. By the agreement reached, this decision of the steamship lines is automatically rescinded, and while the cotton bales need not be entirely covered, the steamship lines will assume no responsibility for damage resulting from imperfect covering. The settlement of the dispute was brought about at a general conference of interests affected to consider the case. Present at the general conference were cotton shippers, bankers, railroad officials, cotton compressors, cotton associations and ethers interested. The decision of the steamship lines in regard to shipments after Sept. 1, was virtually a demand for better baling of cotton presented for shipment. The action was taken because of damage which the steamship lines were often forced to pay to consignees for cotton which they said was damaged before it was received for shipment. The cotton shippers met this demand with the statement that it would be impracticable and unnecessary to cover the sides of bales.

SHELLBROOK, SASK., GOES CONSERVATIVE

One Poll Still To Be Heard From but Result Will Not Change.

[Canadian Press.]

Regina, Sask., July 17.—With one poll to hear from, Meeting Lake, S. J. Donaldson, Conservative, has a majority of 132 in Shellbrook. Meeting Lake is likely to go for McCowan, but cannot change the result as at present indicated.

NO WORD FROM BOVERMAN

Manager of London Team Not Seen in Detroit.

Sheriff James Burns, of Detroit, a personal friend of Frank Bowerman, was called up at his hotel on long distance telephone by The Advertiser this afternoon but had heard nothing of the Tecumsehs' leader. Bowerman had given him no intimation that he intended to leave the team, and Burns is as much in the dark as to the big fellow's plans as any person in this city. An effort was also made to locate Bowerman on the 'phone at his home in Romeo, Mich., but no connection could be obtained.

Royal Order of Moose.

The latest lodge to be formed in London is the Loyal Order of the Moose, and Mr. Joseph Willen, of Detroit, is in the city to assist in completing the work. The Royal Order of the Moose is an entirely different organization from the Social Order of the Moose, and is much older. The Royal Order was formed in Louisville, Kentucky, over twenty-five years ago, and now has nearly half a million members in the United States.

KILLED WHILE AT WORK.

Ottawa, July 17.—According to the Department of Labor, sixty-two persons were killed and 249 injured during the month of June in the course of their employment. A comparison with the records of the previous month and of June, 1911, shows that there were 28 fewer fatalities than in May, and 30 less than in June, 1911. Of the non-fatal accounts, there were eight more accidents recorded than in May, and 137 more than in June, 1911. There were but two accidents recorded involving the death of more than one workman, one of which occurred on June 1, by which eight construction laborers were killed.

DISCRIMINATING ADMIRATION.

[Washington Star.]

"I understand that Mr. Grabwell started in life by borrowing $50. You must admire a man with courage like that?"

"No, I don't," replied Mr. Growcher. "The man I admire is the one who has the courage to lend him the $50."

GRAND LODGE IN ANNUAL MEETING

High Masons Gathered in Fifty-Seventh Convention at Toronto.

TRIBUTE TO CONNAUGHT

The Semi-Centennial Fund Has Now Reached Sum of Nearly $100,000.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, July 17. — The address of M. W. Bro. Aubrey White, grand master, was the outstanding feature of the 57th convention of the grand lodge of Canada in Ontario, which opened in Convention Hall on the university grounds today. The growth of the order to 50,300, an increase for the year of 1,900, the substantial contributions to semi-centennial fund, and the wisdom of the ruling of the grand master, were all subjects for outbursts of applause. The grand master has set his face against the use of Masonic buildings for Sunday weddings, and any and all kinds of Sabbath desecration.

He has also declared against the futility of paroled convicts making application for the benefits of Masonry.

Tribute to Connaught.

The grand master paid a fitting tribute to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught as governor-general of Canada and as grand master of the grand lodge of England. He explained that in keeping with the policy of the late King Edward, who handed the government of the grand lodge of England over to the Duke of Connaught when he ascended the throne, his royal highness had declined to take any active part in grand lodge proceedings, notwithstanding the fact that he was an honorary member of the grand lodge of Canada. A warm tribute was also paid to the late Judge Mabee, of the Dominion railway board.

The 600 delegates who attended the morning session were welcomed by Acting Mayor Church and Ald. McGuire, of the city, and W. Bro. George Smith delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the city lodges.

The general account of the grand treasurer shows total receipts for the year, $51,266; total disbursements for the year, $50,663. The total investments of grand lodeg amount to $109,362, consisting principally of municipal debentures.

The semi-centennial fund has reached $97270, of which $94,851 has bees invested in debentures and bonds. There are 421 lodges in Canada, with a total membership of 50,300. All the principal executive officers will be re-elected tomorrow.

SAYS DARROW DISPLAYED HUGE ROLL OF BILLS

Credibility of Prosecution's Witness in Bribery Case To Be Attacked.

[Canadian Press.]

Los Angeles, Cal., July 17.—The credibility of John R. Harrington, who next to Bert H. Franklin has been the principal witness for the state in the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow, is the next object of attack by the defence. It was expected that this line of questioning would begin when today's session of the trial opened.

Since the prosecution rested more than a week ago, every witness who testified was placed on the stand by the defence with the view of impeaching the veracity of Franklin. Practically the same number of witnesses—about fifteen—will be produced to attack the credibility of Harrington. The first of these was expected to be Police Sergeant Cavanaugh, of Venice, where Mr. Darrow has lived since the McNamara trial.

According to his own testimony Harrington made a statement of what he knew to Oscar Lawler, special federal prosecutor in the alleged dynamite conspiracy, about the middle of last December. Later he was used by the federal prosecutor as a decoy to trap Darrow into making statements, which were overheard and recorded by means of a telephonic device.

The most damaging evidence against Darrow given by Harrington was his statement that Darrow had shown him a roll of bills said to have contained $10,000, with the remark that if he could reach several jurors the McNamaras would never be convicted.

MANN NOT SELLING OUT

Denies That Syndicate Is After the Winnipe Street Railway.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Man., July 17. — Sir Donald A. Mann, in Winnipeg today, denied that the New York-MontrealToronto syndicate would buy the Winnipeg street railway.

"As far as I know, there are no negotiations on new for the purchase of the stret railway stock. At the present time it is worth more in the market than prospective purchasers are offering. To tell you the truth, we are not anxious to sell out but if we did we should turn the money into the Canadian Northern to help with the construction of our main line."

"That is the only reason why we should consider selling at all. In regard to the main line, as things are going now, grading will be completed from Westminster inland for a distance of 350 miles."

DENFIELD.

Denfield, July 17. — Mr. and Mrs. E. Dauncey, of the junction, visited the latter's parents here recently.

Mr. Benjamin Matthews, of Ailsa Craig, is helping Mr. Joseph Linden with his work on the farm.

Mr. Wm. Hadcock, who is preaching here in the Baptist Church in Mr. T. E. Meldrum's absence, preached a very acceptable sermon on Sunday.

Mr. A. Haskett had the misfortune to have over half a hundred good-sized turkeys killed in one night recently.

Miss Rose Harding visited recently with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. D. Hodgins.

Mr. Robert McBlain made a business trip to Lucan recently.

Mr. George Layng was an Ailsa Craig visitor on Monday.

His winter trade brought him a roll,
So now he'll peddle ice.

CUSTOM NOT FOLLOWED IN NESBITT'S CASE

Toronto Police Not Informed in Proper Time of Issuing of Warrants.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, July 17.—Donald A. Yeates, former stenographer to Inspector Duncan, of the Toronto detective department, and now secretary to Chief of Police Cuddy, of Calgary, testified before the Farmers' Bank commissioners at this morning's session to the effect that access to the Farmers' Bank paper had been granted to a representative of the Toronto World.

The police court clerk, who has charge of the issuing of warrants, testified that the one for Beattie Nesbitt had not been entered up in accordance with custom, and that consequently the police stations had not been notified of the warrant in proper time.

DISORDER MARKS FACTORY LOCK-OUT

Strikers and Sympathizers in Demonstration at New Bedford, Mass.

[Canadian Press.]

New Bedford, Mass., July 17.—A disorderly demonstration by a crowd of 1,000 strikers and strike sympathizers occurred today before the gates of the Butler mill in connection with the strike and lockout affecting twelve cotton-cloth mills of this city and resulting in 13,000 persons being out of work.

For more than an hour the strikers and their allies held a position near the mill, and refused to allow operatives to enter the gates. During the disturbance three arrests were made, one of the offenders being a woman, who vigorously resisted being taken into custody.

John Finley, superintendent of the Butler mill, while attempting to drive away the strikers, was handled roughly by the crowd, but escaped injury. The three policemen near the mill were unable to hold the crowd in check, and a squad of reserves was sent from police headquarters to disperse the strikers. Nearly everyone participating in the demonstrations were members of the Industrial Workers of the World.

TWO THOUSAND VOLTS STUN WINGHAM MAN

Bell Telephone Lineman Had a Close Call From Being Killed.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, July 17. — Mr. L. Hudson, a lineman employed by the Bell Telephone gang here, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday when stringing telephone wires across Josephine street. Mr. Hudson was leaning over the big steel wire that holds the cable, when a wire carrying 2,000 volts, belonging to the Wingham Electric Company, broke and in falling fell across the wire he was leaning on. He was knocked senseless for five minutes and part of his clothes were burned. He suffered considerably from the shock for a time, but no serious results are anticipated.

ALLEGED ASSAULT

Serious Charge Will Be Heard in Wingham Court.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, July 17.—Last Sunday afternoon on the 5th line of Morris, about twenty men, some married and some single, occupied a vacant house, and were enjoying themselves with a keg of beer. A young man by the name of Nichol being curious as to what was going on about the house started to find out. Some of those inside took after him, and, it is alleged, gave him an awful beating. Some people passing by noticed the row, and came to Wingham, and laid a complaint before Provincial Constable George Phippen. The lad's father swore out a warrant, and in a short time after Mr. Phippen had some of the ringleaders rounded up. He also found where the parties got their beer. There are a number of witnesses also summoned, and the case is arousing much interest. It will be tried before Magistrate J. A. Morton on Saturday afternoon.

LONDESBORO.

Londesboro, July 17. — Mrs. W. Tamblyn, of Toronto is visiting here with friends.

Rev. J. H. Osterhout and family motored to London yesterday, where the family will visit, while Mr. Osterhout will attend the summer school at St. Thomas.

Miss M. McCool, of Toronto, is spending her holidays at her home here.

Miss M. Lyon is attending summer school at St. Thomas as delegate from the league here.

Arthur Brunson, C. P. R. operator, London, visited recently at his home here. He left today for Vancouver, B. C. and other points in the west. His mother will accompany him as far as Hartney, Man.

Miss D. Walker, of London, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. Robert Haggitt motored over from Pigeon, Mich., and spent a few days at the home of Mr. Jas. Woodman.

Mrs. W. L. Merriee, of London, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. G. Coombs.

WINNIPEG HOTELS SOLD.

Winnipeg, Man., July 17. — Three Winnipeg hotels, the Bell, the Pacific, and the Dominion, were sold yesterday for $300,000.

LOCAL ITEMS

PORT STANLEY SUBSCRIBERS.

Mr. V. T. Mooney will look after The Advertiser's interests at Port Stanley this season, and the same satisfactory arrangement regarding news items and delivery of papers that has been in force for the past four years is assured for this season. Londoners spending their holidays at Port can secure their favorite paper by writing the Circulation Department, telephoning 3670, or notifying V. T. Mooney, Port Stanley.

Building Permit.

Mr. John Putherbough has taken out a permit for a residence to cost $3,500, at 1006 Wellington street.

Altar Boys' Picnic.

The altar boys of St. Mary's Church are enjoying their annual outing at Port Stanley this afternoon. They are accompanied by Father McKeon and Father Tobin.

Attacked by a Dog.

A small boy, residing in South London, received a slight scratch on his leg this morning, when he was attacked by a dog, after stepping on the canine. The youth was attended by Dr. Cowan.

Death of Infant.

Marie Clare Dwyer, the 11-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dwyer, of Richmond street, died yesterday at the parents' residence. The funeral is to be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to St. Peter's Cemetery.

Policeman Resigns.

Policeman Russell Fulcher, who since his appointment to the department has been known as an efficient officer, has tendered his resignation to Chief of Police Williams to take effect almost immediately. Mr. Fulcher will continue to reside in London. Albert Cox, a young Englishman, has made application for a position, and will probably be sworn in as a constable tomorrow.

Williams—Hansen.

The marriage of Miss Ida Pauline Hansen, of Denver, Colorado, to Mr. Stanley Williams, of Hamilton, took place at the Talbot Street Baptist parsonage on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. H. Bingham performed the ceremony, the young couple being unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside in Hamilton.

Way Out of Difficulty.

It is expected that a way will be found out of the court of revision trouble, other than the appointing of gentlemen to act for Messrs. John Torristal and J. W. Jones while they are away. It is understood that if Sheriff Cameron can secure the consent of his absent confreres, he can alone act on the matters up for adjudication, and it is expected that this consent will be received at once.

Buried in Mount Pleasant.

The remains of the late Miss Jessie Richardson Milne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Milne, of 176 Wharncliffe road, were interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The pallbearers were Ernie and George Cotton, Lorne Churchill, Ed. Rose, Earl Stephenson and Chester Dinsmore. The services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Mitchell, of St. James' Presbyterian Church. Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the sympathy of relatives and friends.

Death of Mrs. Parker.

The death occurred in Toronto on Monday of Ruth C., wife of Leonard W. G. Parker, after a long illness. Mr. Parker was formerly of this city, and a son of Mr. Thomas Parker, for many years C. P. R. agent here. The funeral was held from the G. T. R. depot this morning upon the arrival of the 11:28 train, to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. N. D. Drew acting for Rev. Mr. Whiting, of the First Methodist Church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Fred Greenaway, R. I. Watson, Will Macgregor, Ronald Gray, George Millar and Birnie Smith.

Sunday Band Concerts.

The sum of $125 is required if the Sunday band concerts are to be continued the next three Sundays. Mrs. (Dr.) Kingsmill has nearly reached the bottom of the fund subscribed. If the eight or ten thousand people who heard the concert last Sunday evening would contribute only ten cents each, there would be more than enough money to provide an excellent concert every Sunday evening in Victoria Park during the entire season. Mrs. Kingsmill yesterday received an anonymous donation of $5 through the mail. She requests that when sent through the mail the money be registered. Next Sunday evening Mrs. Kingsmill will sing, one of her numbers being "The Holy City."

CONNAUGHTS COMING EAST

Given a Splendid Send-Off by the People of Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 17.—The Duke of Connaught and his royal party left for the east this afternoon, after one of the most remarkable demonstrations in the history of Winnipeg. There was an auto parade, a mile in length, and the streets were lined with cheering crowds. The duke gave a luncheon to agriculturists at noon. Last night the social event of his visit was a garden party, at which 500 were present.

WILLIAMS---HANSEN

Hamilton Man Takes a Denver Bride.

Mr. Stanley Williams, of Hamilton, and Miss Ida Pauline Hansen, of Denver, Col., were united in marriage on Tuesday afternoon at Talbot Street Baptist Church parsonage by the Rev. H. H. Bingham. The young couple were unattended and after the ceremony left for Hamilton ,where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams first met in Denver. She was on her way to Hamilton to be married, but Mr. Williams met her in this city yesterday and they decided to get married here.

JAIL FOR 20 DAYS

For Man Who Broke Into G. T. R. Car at Wingham.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, July 17. — Yesterday evening as the London way freight was working its way to Kincardine, a Brantford man giving the name of Gordon Attridge was caught by one of the train crew trying to get to Kincardine in an empty car. He had broken the seal on one of the doors, and when he saw that he was chased made his way down the street.

Chief of Police Allan was at once notified, and in a short time had his man at police headquarters. He also had a companion, who got through to Kincardine by riding betwen the two engines which hauled the special train. He was tried before Justice of the Peace MacKenzie, Mr. J. A. Morton, police magistrate, being absent, and Mr. MacKenzie gave him 20 days in Goderich jail for vagrancy. Chief Allan took his man there today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greer (formerly Miss Ethel Musgrave) have returned from their honeymoon and have taken up their residence on Francis street.

Mrs. Coutts, of Scott street, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Beattie, of London.

PROTEST AGAINST PRELATE'S RULING

Catholic Mass Meeting Tells Bruchesi Banning of College Was an Injustice.

St. Johns, Que., July 16. — Headed by His Lordship Justice Monet, scores of Roman Catholic citizens gathered together in a mass meeting of protest tonight against the action of Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal, and Bishop Bernard, of Ste. Hyacinthe, in causing to be read in the churches of their respective dioceses pastoral letters interdicting the priests who conduct the Ste. Marie Monnoir College here, and threatening parents with dire ecclesiastical penalties if they should send their children to that institution.

Judge Monet spoke earnestly and at great length on what he termed "pronouncements so unjust that I would be indeed a coward did I not come forward to explain the question from the standpoint of the priests concerned."

Eighteen priests, he declared, had, through ecclesiastical machinations, been literally thrown out on the streets, and had not even been granted the right to defend themselves. Eighteen priests had been placed in the position of renegades through the unjust ecclesiastical pastorals.

Never, he declared, had he heard of so great an injustice, and it was to rally good Catholics to the defence of these priests that he had consented to come to the meeting and express his views.

His lordship went on to say that the true facts of the case had long been kept secret, because the press had been kept in ignorance through ecclesiastical influence, and through the instructions of those situated in high places the truth had been held back.

JULIA CONNOR'S SLAYER COMMITTED SUICIDE

Body of Nathan Swartz Was Found Floating in the Hudson River.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 17.—The body of a man found floating Monday in the Hudson River, and taken to a morgue in Hoboken, was today identified as that of Nathan Swartz, indicted for the murder of the child, Julia Connors, in the Bronx, on July 7. The identification was made by Frank Alexander Swartz's brother-in-law.

Swartz was indicted yesterday, when his father appeared before the grand jury, and acknowledged that his son had confessed to him that he had killed the child.

RETREAT OF INSURGENTS HARD ON FOREIGNERS

Americans and Others Will Suffer Greatly by Destruction of Mexican Railway.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, July 17.—Extreme agitation exists among the American and other foreign citizens along the line of the Mexican Northwestern Railway as a result of the retreat of the insurgents army. No serious trouble is expected, however, as long as the United States adheres to its present policy of strict neutrality. It is pointed out here that the people in that secion of Mexico are now undergoing the same annoyance and distress that was suffered for many weeks by the foreign element in the Chihuahua district along the line of the Mexican Central Railway. It is part of the fortunes of war, and so long as American citizens do not suffer actual violence they must rest content with a knowledge that they will be amply repaid for any pecuniary losses inflicted upon them as a result of the rebellion.

NICK ALTROCK GIVEN HIS RELEASE BY KANSAS

Former White Sox Pitcher Was Let Go Unconditionally.

[Canadian Press.]

Kansas City, Mo., July 17. — Pitcher Nick Altrock, former star of the Chicago American baseball club, and at one time with Toronto, was today given his unconditional release by the Kansas City American Association team. Altrock signed with Kansas City in the spring of 1911.

Mrs. E. G. Whittaker and Miss Whittaker, of Wharncliffe road, are spending two weeks in Muskoka and Toronto.

Miss Agnes MacKenzie, formerly of the London kindergarten staff, and now of Truro, N. S., with her mother, is visiting in the city at present.

The friends of Mr. Will Robinson, of Princess avenue, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, for the last month, will be pleased to know that he is rapidly recovering.

Dan Delarey was committed for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction by Squire Chittick this morning on a charge of assaulting Julia Waucash. He furnished bail and was allowed his freedom until called upon to appear at that court.

SOCIALISTS ARRESTED.

Calgary, Alta., July 17.—Followed to the doors of the city prison by a crowd of nearly two thousand persons, Charles M. O'Brien, M. P. P. for the constituency of Rocky Mountain, and William G. McCloskey, a laborer, were locked up last night, after they had been arrested for haranguing the crowds on the street on the subject of socialism. They were released at midnight on $20 bail each. Obstructing the streets will be the specific charge the men will answer to.

LATE NATHANIEL WESTON

Had Been in Canada Over Half a Century.

The death occurred in this city, at his late residence, 437 Ontario street, on Monday morning, July 15, of Nathaniel Weston, in his 76th year. He was the fifth son of Eenry Weston, manufacturer, of Calne, Wiltshire, England. Mr. Weston came to Canada when a young man of 22 years. Later he was married to Ellen Miller, only daughter of the late James Miller, of Brantford, who survives him. The family includes one son and five daughters—Harry, of London; Mrs. Wm. T. Yates, Toronto; Mrs. Woodsworth Mann, of St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. G. W. Armstrong, of Chicago; Mrs. S. J. Hunter, of Detroit, and Nellie, at home.

For 45 years Mr. Weston was in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway, making him at various times a resident of Brantford, Goderich, Midland and London. He was a lifelong member of Gore Lodge, No. 34, I. O. O. F., Brantford, He was a member of Centennial Methodist Church. He was beloved by all who came in contact with him. His genial nature endearing him to all his acquaintances, meeting them with a smile and a kindly welcome at all times.

The funeral was held today to Woodland Cemetery.

GALE AT PARKHILL DAMAGED ORCHARDS

High Wind Stripped Shingles Off Barns and Blew Over Trees

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Parkhill, July 17.—The splendid rain which fell recently in this vicinity will be a great help to crops, which were badly in need of it. A severe wind followed, which did a little damage to orchards by uprooting trees and stripping off shingles on barn roofs. A tree standing close to Donald McKinnon's house at Parkhill was blown on top of his dwelling.

Neil McIntyre, of concession 10, East Williams, met with a very painful accident recently while unloading hay at his brother's place on concession 12. Something went wrong with the hayfork. Mr. McIntyre climbed up on the beam to fix it, and by so doing caused the bundle to hit him. He was thrown to the floor and painfully injured his right side, and received cuts about the head. At present he is doing nicely.

L. P. McDonald, of West Williams, lost a valuable three-year-old mare while taking in hay with the hay loader. He had not worked the mare in some time, and she being very spirited, got so excited and frightened at the loader that she dropped dead in the harness.

Geo. Cowie, teacher at Springbank school, is at present taken a six-weeks' course in military drilling and physical training at Wolseley Barracks, London.

Peter McCormick, who has been sailing on the great lakes for a few months, has arrived home.

James Watson, of the Dental College, Toronto, is spending his holidays at his home on concession 12, East Williams.

John Cowie, teacher at Preston, is spending his holidays with his mother on concession 10, East Williams.

John A. McPhee, who has been working in London for some time, is at home helping his brother take off the harvest.

Miss Ellinor Jordan, of Seaforth, is at present visiting with her sister, Mrs. Dougal McCormick, of West Williams.

Mr. Ivan Jones left Saturday for Preston, where he has secured a position.

The Parkhill Musical Society is running an excursion to Toronto Island on Thursday, July 25.

Miss E. Gaffney, of Stratford, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tudor.

Mr. L. Green and daughter, Edith, have left on an extended visit to Fernhill.

A frame house on the town line east of here formerly occupied by Mr. J. Kenny was burned to the ground last evening.

LOOKING AFTER HIS BOOKS.

Apropos of the recent negro troubles in Cuba is an oldtime incident in the history of Guiana during the days of Dutch misrule, mention of which is made by Mr. James Rodway in his new book on that colony. February of the year 1763 was signalized by a sudden revolution of the natives, and so great was the fear of the European community that at Fort Nassau only the governor and one planter were inclined to resist, the burghers fleeing on sight of the revolting blacks. "Now came news," we are told, "from the lower part of the River Canje that the negroes were revolting, and this brought on another panic. Even the secretary took away the books and placed them on board one of the vessels, so that when called to read the minutes he could not produce them. On being rebuked, he said he was not bound to remain there and be shot for twenty guilders a month."

DAVID CARLYLE, Esq., Contractor, Toronto, President Carlyle & Beck, Limited, Director Equity Fire Insurance Company.

BANKERS—The Canadian Bank of Commerce.
SOLICITORS—Watson, Smoke, Chisholm & Smith, Toronto.

PROPERTY.

The Company is purchasing 100 acres at Streetsville, close to the C. P. R., with practically an unlimited supply of the finest quality of Shale Clay, which will make the highest grade of bricks.

PLANT.

It is intended to erect a plant capable of turning out 100,000 bricks daily, with building and power equipment for increasing output to 125,000 daily. Electric power is available at very low cost from the plant of the town of Streetsville.

CHARACTER OF OUTPUT.

The plant, equipment and clay will enable the Company to supply a very superior, high-class common brick, and the very best quality of face brick. Analysis of the Shale Clay has been made by Thos. Heys and Canadian Laboratories, Limited, and show same to be most suitable for making high-grade brick.

MANAGEMENT.

The Company has in view for manager a man of long and successful experience, who has made good in the highest sense.
Mr. J. W. McReynolds, one of the directors, is a public works contractor of wide experience, and is thoroughly conversant with the requirements necessary to turn out the very best product in the way of brick, at the minimum of cost.
Mr. McReynolds organized one of the largest brickmaking plants in the United States, which plant has never obtained a price higher than $8.00 per 1,000 for its brick, and yet has never paid less than 25 per cent per annum dividend since its origin some twenty years ago.
With brick at $12.00 to $18.00 per $1,000 delivered as obtained in Toronto, a plant of this capacity should return unusually large dividends to shareholders.

ESTIMATED EARNINGS.

Based upon only five days per week and forty weeks per annum, and basing the average price to be obtained for the Company's output at the conservative price of $10.00 per 1,000, the estimated earnings will be as follows:

100,000 BRICKS PER DAY FOR 5 DAYS PER WEEK.....	EQUAL.....	500,000 PER WEEK
500,000 BRICKS PER WEEK FOR 40 WEEKS PER ANNUM.....	EQUAL.....	20,000,000 PER ANNUM
WHICH, AVERAGED AT $10.00 PER 1,000.....		$200,000 PER ANNUM
LESS COST OF MANUFACTURE, SELLING AND MANAGEMENT EXPENSES		$100,000 PER ANNUM
LEAVING FOR SURPLUS		$100,000 PER ANNUM

Which would pay over 25 per cent upon the entire capital.

OFFERING.

The shares offered for sale, together with bonus, are all ordinary shares, and not limited as to dividends.

Shares will be alloted in order as received, and as far as possible all applications for 25 shares and under will be alloted in full.

The right is reserved, however, to allot only such subscriptions or for only such amounts as may be approved.

The directors' intention is to list the Company's stock on the Toronto Exchange as soon as progress warrants such.

PROSPECTUS AND SUBSCRIPTION BLANKS may be obtained by mail from the Company, or from E. C. Hill, Financial Broker, at 43 Victoria street, Toronto, or by filling in the coupon application below, and forwarding same, together with check for 10% of the subscription, to E. C.
