LIGHT OR DARKNESS?

At intervals, for many years, Athenians have agitated for some kind of street lighting. Almost every form of illuminant has been considered, from coal oil lamps to arc electric. Meetings have been held and the cost of power and electrical machinery exhaustively discussed—and then we have settled back into our old dark, devious, dangerous ways.

A couple of years ago Mr. A. E. Donovan obtained a franchise for lighting this village, with a view to interesting outside capitalists in the undertaking, but the franchise was allowed to lapse. Mr. Donovan's idea was to use acetylene gas as an illuminant, and though he was unsuccessful in his purely philanthropic "promoting" his scheme is now likely to be adopted.

Mr. W. F. Earl, inventor, patentee and manufacturer of the Earl Acetylene gas generator, has been doing considerable careful figuring on such an extension of his present system as would enable him to light the village streets, and at the meeting of the council last week he talked business along that line to our representatives.

Mr. Earl is willing to lay pipes and supply the village with twelve or more lights (located as directed), village to attend to lighting and extinguishing them, at $15 per light per annum.

This is a clear-cut proposal, easily read and understood, and if the people of the village are sincere in their expressed wish for street-lighting they should make their views known to the council as soon as possible.

The time of greatest need for street-lighting is already here, and if anything is to be accomplished this fall, action should be taken at once.

Obituary—Vincent Judson

One of the most widely known and highly esteemed farmers of the township of Kitley, Mr. Vincent Judson, passed away at his home near Frankville, Wednesday evening. Mr. Judson was only taken ill on Friday, the last day of Frankville Fair, after his return home, but on Sunday paralysis set in and he never rallied.

Deceased was a native of the township and throughout his long life of seventy-three years followed the occupation of farmer with considerable success. He was a straightforward honorable man, who gained the confidence and respect of his numerous acquaintances. His wife was Miss Cornell, but she died some years ago. The surviving children who mourn his death are Dr. Judson, of Lyn, Harmonious Judson of Frankville, and Malcolm Judson on the homestead. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

A large assembly attended the impressive funeral service conducted in the Methodist church by the pastor.

GAMBLE—KIRKLAND

On Wednesday evening, September 26, a very pretty wedding took place at St John's church, Leeds, when Miss Edith, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkland, Morton, became the bride of Mr. Robert Gamble, prosperous young farmer of Sweet's Corners. As the wedding party entered the church, the wedding march was played by Miss Catharine Jacob. The bride who was given away by her brother, Herbert, looked charming in white luster trimmed with all over lace and bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of white asters. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Fitzgerald. The groom was supported by Mr. Wellie Willis. After the ceremony, the bridal party and about eighty guests departed to the home of the bride's father where awaited them a sumptuous repast, after which all enjoyed a very sociable evening. Mr. and Mrs. Gamble are held in high esteem by a large circle of friends, and all join in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Death of Bernice Young
A peculiarly sad death occurred here early Thursday morning last, Bernice Young, a student at the A.H.S., dying suddenly from an attack of diphtheria at the home of Mr. John Ross where she and her sister Hazel were domiciled.

For several weeks diphtheria in a mild form has existed at Lyndhurst and a number of houses were placarded. Bernice was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Young of that village, and during her visits home contracted the disease, which, in her case, developed a more virulent form. Her father came here on Wednesday evening and the remains were taken to Lyndhurst on Thursday and interred the same day. Steps were at once taken, by the authorities to prevent the spread of the disease, and as no new case has been reported it is probable that all danger is passed.

Alarming stories spread through the county and a number of students were taken home by their parents. In the village little alarm was felt. All the schools were kept open, but a number of children are remaining at home this week. The house where the death occurred is under strict quarantine.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and family have the heartfelt sympathy of all in the great sorrow that has come upon them so suddenly.

The Royal Month and The Royal Disease
Sudden changes of weather are especially trying and probably to none more than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula's bunches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of bodily substance—without thinking of the good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably no city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merits in more homes than one, in arresting and completely radiating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, consumption.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. 111 OCT. 21, 1906

The Parable of the Talents.—Matt. 25: 14-30. Commentary.—I. The servants receive the talents (vs. 14-18). 14. A man—Christ represents himself as a man going into another country, or heaven. Called his own servants.—The outward framework of the parable lies in the Eastern way of dealing with property in the absence of the owner; the more primitive way being for the absentee to make his slaves his agents.—Hom. Com. The apostles, ministers, all true Christians, are the servants of Christ. His goods.—They were to till his land and sell the produce, and use the money which he left them as capital in trading.

15. Five talents.—The value of a talent has been variously estimated. The International Bible gives the value of a talent of silver in the Old Testament at $1,146. It has been estimated as low as $972. The talents represent all of those peculiar gifts which God has given us in this world. "There is not a single item of value in human nature—physical health, mental clearness, education, energy, faith in God, time, money—that is not a talent. We shall find that we all have more talents than we had supposed. The power of speech is a talent. The ability to do good deeds is a talent. Hands, feet, eyes, ears, heart, mind, are all talents. God gave them to us, not for our own enjoyment only, but that we might use them for the welfare of others and for his glory. Personal attractiveness is a talent. Money is a talent; for its right use we are responsible. In fact, all that we have may be regarded as talents. Since this is so, we can easily see that there is no one in the world who has not some talent. We are more like millionaires than we had thought. His severer ability—the slaves of the Greeks and Romans were often men of great attainments and skill. "God's graces and temporal mercies are suited to the power which a man has of improving them. To give eminent gifts to persons incapable of improving them, would be to lead them into a snare."

16. Then—"Straightway."—R. V. We are here taught in plainness. Went and traded.—We now see the use that the servants made of their master's goods. Two out of the three improved upon the trust committed to them. They were (1) diligent, (2) faithful, (3) they went speedily, (4) they persevered in the work, (5) they succeeded. Those who do best for God succeed. One who receives much from God must make an improvement upon the whole, while the one who receives little but little is required.

18. Dugged in the earth.—"This is the peculiar temptation of the man who has little ability, and he sullenly retires from a service in which he cannot shine and play a conspicuous part"; but, although God may have given to some but small capabilities, yet the talent that is given should not be buried. Hid his lord's money.—He did not embezzle or squander it, but he hid it. Whatever abilities men possess are not their own; they are but stewards and must give an account. How said to bury one talent.—One of the faithful servants rewarded (vs. 19-23). But while this no doubt refers to his second coming, yet there are many comings—in the great crises of life, in times of trouble, and especially in the hour of death. 19. A long time.—Time enough was given for improvement. Cometh—Christ is certain to come. The time may seem long, but let us not be deceived—he is coming again. Reckoneth—It will be (1) personal, (2) exact, (3) impartial.

20. Brought out five.—The good servant was ready. 2. There was nothing hid; he rendered a full account. 3. He came joyfully. 4. Quickly. 5. Without fear; these people who fold their arms and talk about trusting God will find, sooner or later, that God does not help the idler. 21. Well done.—The master gives his full and hearty approval. Thou good—It is possible to be good even in this sinful world, to be pure and upright within. Faithful—He had been true and trustworthy in the performance of his duties. Faithfulness rather than riches was rewarded. Over a few things—At best we can do but little for the Lord here. A few things are given us, all of which we should use to God's glory. Ruler over many things.—The faithful one is made ruler over a larger sphere. We constantly see this illustrated in the life. Faithfulness in the smaller sphere ever leads to a larger sphere, to new activities, to grander opportunities, to more splendid achievements. Joy of thy Lord—We are not only to have the joy of the Lord in us, but we are to enter into his joy. This is the reward of the faithful.

22. Two talents.—This servant had been faithful and successful as the one who received five talents. 23. Well done.—The rewards were according to his ability. He could not have handled or enjoyed more. 24. I knew thee.—No person really knows Christ who thinks Him a hard master. An hard man.—This servant entertains hard thoughts of his lord. He thinks his demands are severe and that he is difficult to please. The servant, conscious of his own wrong, comes filled with excuses and undertakes to lay the blame of his own actions back on his master. Thus do men think of God as a hard Master, and try to throw on Him the blame of their own wrong doing. Gathering where thou didst not scatter (R. V.)—This was not a true charge, for each one received much more than he had gained; God always liberally rewards all who serve Him.

25. I was afraid.—All sinners are afraid when they disobey. Fear caused this servant to hide the talent his lord had entrusted to him, and now that he comes empty-handed he has double reason to fear. Thou hast thine own (R. V.)—He seems to boast of his honesty and uprightness. 26. Wicked and slothful servant.—His master was not to be trifled with. The servant had been, 1. Idle and unprofitable. 2. Ungrateful. 3. The little work he had done, in digging to hide the money, was strength worse than wasted. 4. He had entertained hard thoughts and said false things about his master. Thou knewest—Out of thine own mouth shalt thou be judged. 27. Thou oughtest.—The fact that he knew what his master required was a reason why he should have used the talent. God appeals to us as "reasonable" beings and tells us what we "ought" to do. Exchangers—"Bankers."—R. V. Literally, "to those who stand at tables," because the bank had tables before them.—Carr. With interest (R. V.)—His master had a right to expect a reasonable profit from the labor of his servant. 28.—The talent from him.—The unfaithful servant is not only reproached by his master, but he is actually punished. He uses what he had failed to use. Give it unto him—Here is another reward of faithfulness. The faithful one does the work left undone by the unfaithful servant, and receives the reward for doing so.

29. Shall be given.—The one who really has powers and abilities and makes good use of them, to him shall be given greater possessions. The careful use of any faculty increases its power. The only way to enlarge our sphere is to fill to overflowing the sphere we are in. The horizon widens as we climb. Shall be taken away—From him that hath not, even that which seemeth to have (Luke viii. 18) shall be taken away. 30. Unprofitable.—He was cast into outer darkness, merely because he was unprofitable and idle and buried his talent. Outer darkness.—Those who fail to obey Christ will be cast from His presence. The punishment of the wicked will be terrible and eternal.

PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS.

I. The talents received. "Received five talents" (v. 20). "Received the one talent" (v. 24). Any gift from God which enables us to bless our fellow men is a talent. No man according to his several ability" (v. 15). A young girl asked, "What talents have I?" All events two, "wisdom and truth. Let these be well used and your crowns will be bright." II. The talents rewarded. After the rupture, the resurrection and the marriage supper, the rewards to the servants seem to be the next in order (Luke xiv. 14). Men are not saved by works, nor rewarded because of works, but the promise is, "Behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be" (Rev. xii. 12; Matt. x. 27). Some rewards of the faithful are:

1. Praise. "Well done, good and faithful servant" (v. 23.) When the Lord comes, "praise" shall come to each one from God (I Cor. 4: 5). A writer beautifully says, "The 'well done' of Jesus crowns the end of the course. Though his faithful ones, its full, public utterance is reserved for the day of glory, pronounced then by God on ways condemned now by men, ways only the Spirit of Christ can guide us into, or the love of Christ makes us happy in, or the faithful grace of Christ sustain us in. Oh, to live for that day! This is faith. This is the single eye. To commit all to him, sure that we are walking in the path which the Lord will approve. His own word is his standard now and then."

2. Power. "Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things" (vs. 21, 23). This is not symbolic but actual. It is the Father's good pleasure that the translated and risen saints should share with Christ the actual administration of his kingdom in governing the world (Luke 12: 32). Isaiah prophesied, "A king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment" (Isa. 32: 1). Daniel declared, "Judgment was given to the saints... the saints possessed the kingdom" (Dan. 7: 22). All who suffer with Christ "shall reign with him" (2 Tim. 2: 12), and all who come up in the first resurrection "shall reign with him a thousand years" (Rev. 20: 6), but not all have the same place in the kingdom, there is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; and one star differed from another star in glory" (I Cor. 15: 41).

3. Pleasure. "Enter thou into the joy of the Lord" (v. 23). "Joy unspeakable and full of glory" (1 Pet. 1: 8). Part of the joy Jesus promised was the joy of the Father's approval (Matt. 3: 17).

4. Profit. "The talent... give it unto him which hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given" (vs. 28, 29). The price of having is us—In the realm of the physical, mental, the spiritual and the financial.

WITTE IN PARIS.

HAS HOPES OF PARLIAMENTARY REFORM IN RUSSIA.

Paris, Oct. 8.—Count and Countess Witte arrived here yesterday from Germany. The count, who has considerably improved in health, attended a theatre last night, his presence attracting much attention. He says he has absolutely no connection with the direction of affairs in Russia, but is following the developments with the keenest interest. Continuing the former premier said: "The Empire is passing through a great crisis, but although I am a pessimist at present I have not abandoned hope of seeing eventually evolved a parliamentary and monarchial regime suited to the needs of the country."

THE POPE'S PROPHECY.

Sees in Future Whole of North America Mainly Catholic. London, Oct. 8.—The Pope to-day received in audience Mgr. Sbarretti, the Canadian Delegate. After hearing the Canadian representative give an account of the great progress of Catholicism in Canada, the Pope remarked that the time was approaching when the whole of North America would be mainly Catholic in religion.

Cow Testing Association

Dear Sir,—Since January, 1906, sixteen cow testing associations have been organized through the initiative of the Dairy Commissioner's Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. Records are being kept of the production of 4,500 cows owned by the 350 members of these associations. The results will be tabulated and published as quickly as possible after the season is finished. This is only the beginning of what should be a great national movement for the improvement of the dairy industry in Canada. Sufficient data have been collected already to show that there is no line of work in the whole range of dairy effort which is calculated to increase the profits of dairy farming to the same extent, as is this matter of the improvement of dairy herds. In order to serve the purpose properly, the work of record keeping must be persistent and continuous, and followed up by intelligent action on the part of the owners of the cows in the matter of breeding and selection.

Our records show that the average yield of milk in Ontario and Quebec is not much over 3,000 lbs. of milk per cow per annum, yet we find herds of 20 cows and over that average 5,000 lbs. In every instance the herds which show a high average of production have been built up by just such methods as the cow testing associations are intended to promote.

The members of the different associations have had an excellent opportunity of comparing the records from the different sections, and different herds in the various associations.

With a view to promoting correspondence between the various members of the associations, I am authorized by the Dairy Commissioner to announce that the name and post office address of the owner of any herd in the records will be given to any person who applies for it to the Dairy Commissioner, Ottawa. The idea is that members may learn from the owners of profitable herds as to the methods by which such satisfactory results have been reached. We think the correspondence idea might be very properly included as a feature of this work. We trust that owners of these first-class herds will be good enough to answer such enquiries in a broad-minded and helpful manner. It is to be hoped that the members of the association will not become slack in keeping the records, as the season advances. These records must be remembered that unless a full record for the whole milking period has been made, a portion of it will be of very little value. Members of the associations must not overlook the importance of the feeding record. This has been touched upon but very little so far in this work, but eventually we hope to see careful records kept of the amount of feed consumed by the cows.

We take this opportunity of again pointing out the desirability of the owners or managers of dairies taking an interest in this work and making the cheese factory or creamery the centre for further organization for the purpose of keeping records and testing. A large amount of correspondence has been received from individuals in localities where associations have not been organized, and many farmers are equipping themselves to do the testing on their own account. A copy of bulletin No. 9, entitled, "Instructions for Testing Individual Cows," will be sent to anyone who applies for it. Yours very truly, Chas. F. Whitely, In Charge of Dairy Records.

Approved, J. A. Rudzik, Dairy Commissioner, Dairy Commissioner's Branch, Ottawa.

WOMEN'S NEGLECT SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

Miss Clara Beaubien.

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, headache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness or other female weakness. These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless checked a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result.

The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Miss Clara Beaubien, of Beauport, Quebec, writes: Dear Mr. Pinkham: For several years I have suffered with a female weakness which proved a serious drain on my vitality, sapping my strength and causing severe headaches, bearing-down pains and a general worn-out feeling, until I really had no desire to live. I tried many medicines, but did not get permanent relief until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In two months I was much better and stronger, and in four months I was well, no more disagreeable discharges, no more pain. So I have every reason to praise the Vegetable Compound, and I consider it without equal for the relief of women. For twenty-five years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful. Address, Lynn, Mass.

PICKED UP FATHER'S HEAD.

Buffalo, Oct. 8.—About 9 o'clock last night Grant Norcross, on a street engine, noticed a man's head on the cinders between the tracks in the yards near Lord street. The engine was stopped and the crew collected the mangled body. A young fellow named Mahoney helped in the work. The man was sent to the morgue, and there a card in the pocket of the vest showed that the unfortunate was Edward Mahoney, of 854 Eagle street, father of the young fellow who had picked up the lifeless head without recognizing it.

The dead man worked as a boiler-maker in the East End and had been in the city late last night, riding on the platform of one of the coaches. It is supposed he tried to jump at Bristol and Lord streets, and fell under the wheels. Both arms and his head were severed from the body.

Toronto: Fall retail trade is now well under way. Wholesale business generally has been heavy and the outlook is beginning to look still brighter for a big trade in sorting lines. Collections are generally better than usual for this time of the year. In dry goods there has been better buying of blankets and heavy dress materials, due to advance touches of colder weather. Values in all lines of woollens and cottons hold very firm. Groceries are moderately active. Teas show an advance of one to two cents all round. The drug markets are firm, with a good business movement. Hides and leathers are firm. The latter is in good demand. Boots and shoes are active at the higher prices. Provisions are firm. Cattle prices are steady. Choice lots are scarce.

Winnipeg: There is a good, healthy tone to general business here and at all points through the West. After the settlement of the bullocks' strike after an estimated loss to all interests of $5,000,000 is a favorable factor. All lines of wholesale goods are reported to be moving well. In dry goods there is a particularly heavy sorting trade, and business is affected by slowness of manufacturers' deliveries. Values hold firm. Hardware is exceedingly brisk. Eastern houses are making large shipments to take advantage of lake and rail freights. The demand for groceries is unusually good for this time of the year.

FAILURES IN CANADA.

Insolvencies in the Dominion of Canada during the first nine months of 1906 were 867 in number, against 939 last year, while the amount of defaulted indebtedness was $6,826,380, against $7,105,495. Manufacturing failures were 212 in number and $2,769,880 in amount, against 208 failures for $2,269,992 in 1905. Improvement was most noticeable in the trading section, where 637 failures occurred, involving $5,615,475, compared with 739 last year, when liabilities were $4,781,320. There were 18 other commercial failures for $441,045, against 12 last year, when the amount involved was only $54,183. Not a single banking failure occurred in the Dominion, whereas one or more failures occurred in the corresponding months of each of the preceding seven years. The largest increase in a comparison by provinces was supplied by Quebec, but this was more than offset by smaller liabilities in Ontario, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, and especially Nova Scotia.

Won at Last

"It is all too pleasant to last," sighed Madame, one gusty, cheerless afternoon...

"Go back to work!" cried the general. "You will kill yourself!"

"When I began to fear I should never see you again," said Lise, in a low voice...

"Chance of what?" asked Mona, threading her needle.

"But I do not want to speak to you alone," she said, looking steadily at her work.

"Then do not say it," she replied, softly. "Do you mean what you say?"

Back again at Craigdarroch, under the murky December clouds, black with the driving rain...

It was a dreary time for Mona. Mary Black had been recalled to her home. The smallness of the little group, isolated as it were on that rugged hillside...

work, and was refreshing myself with a cup of tea, when I walked my general. I sent for another cup, and he sat down cozily to it.

"You are looking very ill," he said, so staccato that he made me jump.

"I do not—never did," said he. "Now, I am rather lonely—so are you! I suppose you come abroad with me and take care of me? It's not much of an offer to a handsome woman still in her prime," said he, very civilly.

"My dear general," said I, "what would I do? I am rather lonely—so are you! I suppose you come abroad with me and take care of me? It's not much of an offer to a handsome woman still in her prime," said he, very civilly.

"I don't think he would give Mr. Cochran the best bedroom."

"If it is Captain Lise I need not look a fright," she thought; "if it is a stranger, my uncle will be pleased to see me at my best."

"That sounds fair reasonable. Has the general any siller. These soldier men scatter mair than they gather. It's just a misfortune to the country to have the like of 'em to support."

"Dear uncle, you must think of Kenneth first; then, if you like to remember me, I shall be very grateful."

"Ah, well, uncle, it will be time enough to talk about refusing Sir St. John Lisle when she asks me. Now I am going to write to madame—what shall I say for you?"

"Mr. Craig's intention of journeying to Glasgow was postponed because he had caught a very severe cold and was obliged to keep his bed. This was a very trying time to the household, as the old man thought he was going to die, and demanded endless attention. It was therefore in the last week of January that, encouraged by a favourable change of weather, he set out on his travels. He only intended to be away two clear days, but on the morning of the second day he received a few almost illegible lines from him saying that he did not expect to get away till the following Saturday."

BAD KNEE CURED BY ZAM-BUK.

A Footballer's Valuable Experience. As an example of the value of Zam-Buk in cases of abrasions and injuries to muscles and tendons, as well as to the skin, the recent experience of Mr. E. Leslie, of Harriet Street, Winnipeg, may be mentioned.

"I'm verra glad to see your mother's son under my roof. This is my niece—Miss Craig. I blessing to you despaired and disappointed of titles."

"There are thousands of mothers throughout Canada who have no hesitation in saying that the good health enjoyed by their little ones is entirely due to the judicious use of Baby's Own Tablets. And there are many mothers who do not hesitate to say that at critical periods the Tablets have saved a baby's life."

LIFE AT MARIENBAD.

Frequented by Austrians and Early Autumn by Summarians and Poles. The town of Marienbad is chiefly composed of hotels and lodgings-houses. The building that contains the main spring is not an imposing edifice, but the colonnade where people walk when it rains. Before this colonnade, and stretching somewhat beyond it, is a terrace where the band plays in fine weather, and the water-drinkers promenade. On high ground close by is a sort of square where the Hotel Wilmars is situated, and there the King resides during his stay. It used to be a somewhat second rate hotel. But it has been improved, and a large suite of apartments has been arranged for the King. The newspapers say that his Majesty was annoyed on his arrival when taking the waters. In London a crowd collected outside Buckingham Palace on the chance of seeing him. The people in Marienbad and the neighbourhood were equally curious. But, having once satisfied their curiosity, they have ceased to interfere with his privacy.

"The question, 'When is a Man Twenty-one Years Old?'"

Sizes of Clothing.

The clothing dealers in New York city who have reduced the manufacturing of clothing to a science, have tabulated statistics of the sizes of clothing worn by the inhabitants of every State and territory in the country, so that they are enabled readily to supply clothing for the people of any section, and not only of the particular kinds required best in just the required sizes. By the courtesy of manufacturers who have gathered such statistics the naval clothing factory has access to information that would quite naturally be denied to other people in the trade, and it is now a quarter of a century's experience of its own. It produces trousers in about as many variations as are found in men's forms, and so is able to fit out ships readily, no matter where the members of the crews come from.

Two Great Cricket Records of 1906.

Hayward. In the whole of his long career, he has never been seen to better advantage than during the season which is just passed. By scoring 3,518 runs he has got a larger aggregate than has ever before been obtained in a single year, beating R. Abel's figure of 3,399 in 1901 by 29, and he has also equalled C. B. Fry's record of scoring 13 centuries in a season. His batting is unique in the history of cricket, and even in these days of records it is an achievement which will probably stand out by itself for many years to come.

A Lack of the Age.

(Guelph Mercury.) A Wellandport school teacher has committed the unardonable offence. He has laid violent hands on a free son of the soil. A few more free sons could be moulded occasionally we might see an improvement in the manners of the rising generation.

Toledo Entertainment

Rev. W. Henderson, Frankville, gave his entertainment to a good audience in the town hall here on his travels in Bible Lands. The graphic address was illustrated with many veritable articles and a chart of the great pyramid on the Nile, and by Jewish and Turkish costumes on three ladies and three gentlemen, with explanations of ancient and modern life—fresh as a sea-breeze and instructive.

Misses Mary and Helen Brown of Addison sang and recited several times in a way that delighted the audience.

"A Tug of War"

One of those delightful and interesting pictures that brings sunshine to one's home is entitled "A Tug of War," and has been selected by the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal as their annual gift to subscribers this season. It is a beautiful gravure, 22x 29 inches, on the best plate paper. It certainly is a gem worthy of the best place on the walls of any home. When one sees the picture and learns that it is given absolutely free to all who subscribe to that great family weekly there is no longer cause to wonder why the Family Herald Weekly Star has five times the number of readers of any other weekly in the country. Any person remitting one dollar for one year's subscription to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal will get the picture free, and from the demand we learn you cannot get your dollar in too quickly. "The Tug of War" is a high class production and would command a high price if sold in the stores, but it is reserved for Family Herald subscribers.

Let Fire Judge Between Us!

Your judgement can tell and do a lot, but it can't fry potatoes. Your judgement can tell who has the best looking and best $10.00 fitting Suits and Overcoats in town; but it can't tell positively whether the suit is cotton or wool. Fire can do that. We claim we'll save 965 days in the year the only all wool $10.00 Suits and Overcoats in Brockville, and we ask fire to decide whether that is true or not. Sir! Madam! Will you employ the fire test; will you please find out for yourself, who is bluffing and who is not? Will you make up your mind right now that you will once and for all find out for yourself to whom you should pay your money in purchasing a $10.00 Suit or Overcoat?

HOW TO APPLY THE FIRE TEST.

Go to any store that makes most noise about the suits they are selling just now for $10.00, get a thread out of the trousers, apply a burning match, if after the thread is consumed you have ashes left, the suit is cotton; if you have a cinder the suit is wool, then call on us, go through the same process, and don't be surprised to find ours all wool and the only $10.00 Suits and Overcoats in town that are all wool—no matter what big reductions are promised, the bigger the promise of reduction the bigger the shame the fire test will reveal.

We are heartily glad that fire will tell the truth, it can't be false, it is our hope. We must win, if people are willing to employ—fire—fire! fire! We will gladly stand by your decision.

SIR! MADAM! ARE YOU WILLING TO ALLOW AN INFALLIBLE AGENT (fire) to tell you where you should purchase your clothing? Any child can tell which is cotton or wool by the fire test. WILL YOU JOIN THE FIRE BRIGADE if you are in doubt as to where your money would be best spent, we urge you to employ this faithful servant—fire.

Yours for a Fire Test

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women Make Healthy Women

The Largest Jack Manufacturer in the World Writes about

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

CURED HER BOY OF PNEUMONIA

Newmarket Mother is loud in her Praises of the Great Consumption Preventative

"My son Laurence was taken down with Pneumonia," says Mrs. A. O. Fisher, of Newmarket, Ont. "Two doctors attended him. He lay for three months almost like a dead child. His lungs became so swollen, his heart was pressed over to the right side. Altogether I think we paid $140 to the doctors, and all the time he was getting worse. Then we commenced the Dr. Slocum treatment. The effect was wonderful. We saw a difference in two days. Our boy was soon strong and well."

Here is a positive proof that Psychine will cure Pneumonia. But why wait till Pneumonia comes. It always starts with a Cold. Cure the Cold and the Cold will never develop into Pneumonia, nor the Pneumonia into Consumption. The one sure way to clear out Cold, root and branch, and to build up the body so that the Cold won't come back is to use

THIS ORIGINAL DOCUMENT IN VERTY POOR CONDITION

THE WASHINGTON OF THE NORTH.

When Ottawa—which likes to call itself the Washington of the North—was selected as the capital of Canada, a vast pile of Government buildings were begun.

There was no roadside city design like that of which Washington has been fabled up in spite of itself to be the level of a great capital.

Crowning the boldest promontory that juts into the river, the great Gothic tower of the Library of Parliament soars like a mountain peak into the sparkling Canadian air.

In the foot of Parliament Hill are the locks of the Rideau Canal. It is not often that a canal is one of the attractions of a city; but the Rideau's long flight of stone locks, running up the hill from the river like a giant stairway, is a decorative feature and a source of endless entertainment.

The story of Ottawa is its wonderful variety and extent of water frontages. The Ottawa, here as wide as the Mississippi, there as narrow as the Harlem, flows with an infinite complexity of rugged shore lines along the whole length of the city.

The Rideau enters the greater part of the town, leaping at last into the Ottawa over a cliff forty feet high. The Rideau Canal parallels it a little distance the curve of its river. The Gatineau enters the Ottawa on the other side.

At the other end of one of the greatest natural attractions possessed by any city in the world has been given over entirely to bald commercialism. The Champlain Falls, which for volume of water and sublimity of effect rank second only to Niagara among the cascades east of the Mississippi, remain on the side of all Ottawa's plans of civic improvement.

Like the Rideau Falls, which ought to be another superb embellishment of the city, they have no other present purpose of excitement than to run a saw mill, the purpose of which will have to be recognized.

The Canadian Falls represent 70,000 horsepower at low water and 200,000 at high water. That means too much to the commercial prospect of Ottawa to be thrown away.

HOW MEN DRESSED THEM.

Knickerbockers of New York Wear the Dress of Their Grandfathers.

At a recent period dance in New York all the guests wore suits and dresses worn by their forefathers before the war.

It needed just such a garment exhibition to emphasize the sartorial achievements of the Semi-ready tailoring system in the present period. The contrast was great, but the simplicity, culture, and real lines of art in the evening dress suits made by the Semi-ready Company and sold only in Semi-ready Wardrobes have never been attained in any other era of the world of fashion. Every Semi-ready garment, whether a $15 suit or a $35 Semi-ready Chesterfield, is tailored as an individual work of art.

When buildings were designed practical men at Ottawa thought they were laid out on a scale of wretched extravagance, but the Ottawa girl who has never before seen far from home sees in Mexico to check a cold in the evening.

It is a fact, I don't care whether she can cook or not. Any old thing that looks like a cook will do.

There was nothing wild in the caller's manner, so the lady at the employment bureau desk was rather startled when he told his wants.

"I want to engage a cook," he observed. "Fancy or plain?" she said.

"Plain—honestly as you can," he replied. "In fact, I don't care whether she can cook or not. Any old thing that looks like a cook will do."

"Really, I—"

SIR CHAS. CLIFTON BROWNE

Cured of Bilious Headache by Bileans.

Sir Chas. Clifton Brown, who has toured considerably in Canada, interviewed at his Deal (Kent) residence, admitted that he had spent very great benefit from Bileans.

He said: "I have no objection to your stating that I found Bileans a very fine medicine for biliousness, headache and digestive trouble generally. I suffered frequently from bilious headache, and nothing that I have ever yet tried did me so much good as Bileans. I believe they are a good thing and worthy of success."

In those last few words Sir Charles has aptly summarized Bileans. "A good thing." They are compounded from purely vegetable essences, and are the best possible remedy obtainable for headache, debility, dizziness, indigestion, etc.

NO WASTE IN CANDY BUSINESS.

Scrap Made Use of—Seasoned Confections Best.

There is this similarity between the candy business and the iron business—the scrap is not allowed to go to waste.

It is impossible to work over the candy into its original form, but it can be used in many ways. For example, the chief use to which stale chocolates are put is in making caramels and other chewy confections of scrap.

It's a mistaken idea that candy must be fresh to be good. One manufacturer who makes only for the trade and confines himself chiefly to high class chocolates and bonbons said that candy wasn't fit to eat until it had been seasoned for at least ten days.

This man has no patience with those who assert that colored candy is poisonous. His argument is simple. As he put it:

"What's the use of putting poison in candy when natural and harmless coloring matter costs less? Would you put opium in cigarettes when tobacco is cheaper than opium?"

Every merchant who knows anything at all about his business fits his stock to the public needs. He finds out by observation and experiment what the people want, and then bends his energies to keeping a little ahead of the demand.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

is better than other Soaps but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Follow directions.

First—Dip the article to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water, draw it out on a washboard and rub the soap lightly over it.

Next—After looking the full time rub the clothes lightly out on a washboard, and the dirt will drop out; turn the garment inside out to get at the seams, but don't use any more soap.

For Woolens and Flannels proceed as follows—Shake the articles free from dust. Cut a tablet of Sunlight Soap into shavings, pour into a gallon of boiling water and whisk into a lather.

For the most delicate colors may be safely washed in the Sunlight way.

VANISHING FORESTS.

A Billion Feet of Lumber Wasted Every Year in the Northwest.

In the Pacific Northwest, nearly 200,000 men are employed in cutting down the last primeval forests of this country and slicing these stately armies of spruce and fir and cedar into 5,000,000,000 feet of lumber and 6,000,000,000 shingles every year.

This timbered area is the richest natural treasure of the American continent, compared with which the gold mines of Alaska and Nevada are of pignone value for this and for coming generations.

The logging camps of the Cascades differ as strikingly from the lumbering centres of northern New England as the electric gold droppers of the Sacramento Valley contrast with the placer diggings of the Forty-niners.

Something New and is Delighted. Feels Like a Boy.

Mr. M. N. DAFON, 29 Colborne street, Toronto. "I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia for years. I have been treated by doctors and have taken many medicines with only temporary relief."

Hardly Worth the Expense. It is still a question, even with the more enthusiastic chauffeurs whether the prestige accruing from being arrested for violating the speed limit is really worth the fine that is imposed.

Calling Up a Husband on the Telephone.

Calling a husband up maliciously on the telephone day and night, has been ruled in Massachusetts not to be an actionable misdemeanor in a wife. The judge added, however, by way of gratuitous observation, that she think that one having a telephone in her house could enjoin a person from continually ringing him up day and night upon important matters which he had no right to do to the loss of sleep and rest to the occupant and to his great annoyance."

Getting Over a Difficulty. An instructor in a certain boys' school is noted among his pupils for his difficult examination questions. One of the youthful students, after struggling over a particularly strenuous list of questions in geography, came upon the following query, which completely stumped him.

Should Be Graded. There are, of course, unions of unskilled labor in which the men employed are fairly on an equality. Fix a definite amount of work and they are on the same footing. But in every trade worthy of being so called it is a clear injustice that the efficient and skillful and the inefficient and dull should be paid alike.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH.

Mr. Cherrily Discovers It, and Imparts Secret to a Seeking World.

"The fountain of youth, I am persuaded," said Mr. Cherrily, "springs in our own bosoms only. The mistake we make in searching for it, as we do, is in looking for it elsewhere."

Here it is, as one might say, right under our noses; but that fact we never realize, and we all go searching for it, near and far, as Ponce de Leon did centuries ago in Florida.

Here's the trouble, the real trouble. The fountain within ourselves, if we don't watch out, is likely to get scaled up; and it is when it ceases thus to flow that we begin to look for it elsewhere, always with increasing weariness, for it is worthy that prompts us on this vain search, and that leads us farther and farther away.

Used Every Possible Effort. "Is it a fact that your mother-in-law threw herself out of the third-story window when you did nothing to restrain her?"

One Cold and Another

The season's first cold may be slight—may yield to early treatment, but the next cold will hang on longer; it will be more troublesome, too. Unnecessary to take chances on that second one. Scott's Emulsion is a preventive as well as a cure. Take when colds abound and you'll have no cold. Take it when the cold is contracted and it checks inflammation, heals the membranes of the throat and lungs and drives the cold out.

FOUNDERING OF THE STEAMER CHARTERHOUSE.

Twenty-Three of the Crew and Two Women Adrift for Forty-Three Hours.

Chief Engineer Dowse Gives a Thrilling Account of Their Experiences.

The Vessel Was Struck by a Typhoon and Went to the Bottom.

Hong Kong, Oct. 8.—Further details have been received of the wreck of the emigrant steamer Charterhouse, voyaging between Hoihow and Hong Kong, which foundered off Hainan Head, Sept. 30, with the loss of more than 80 lives. The North German Lloyd steamer Kohschang picked up a raft belonging to the Charterhouse on which were Chief Engineer Dowse, 23 of the crew and two women, after they had been drifting for 43 hours. They had almost collapsed from exhaustion and were carried on board the Kohschang being unable to walk. Chief Engineer Dowse has been removed to a hospital. The crew of the Kohschang gave unbounded attention to the survivors.

she was overtaken by a typhoon and preparations were made to ride out the gale. The officers were posted at their respective stations. The wind increased, carrying away the masts and the vessel was tossed like a cork on the mountainous waves. The engines were slowed down, but the wind increased, until between 8 and 9 p. m. Sept. 29 word was passed along that the ship was foundering. The boats were made ready and the crew was lined up on deck. Owing to the heavy sea it was found impossible to launch the boats, but the passengers and crew got into them and awaited the sinking of the steamer, hoping that they would chance to float when she went down. Despite the darkness and the danger, there was an entire absence of panic. The officers did their duty calmly, while the Chinese passengers and crew calulated the officers by their courage in the presence of death.

TEST CASE BROUGHT AGAINST THE INTERNATIONAL MERCANTILE AGENCY.

Prominent Canadian and U.S. Men Being Sued by McClure Adjustment Company.

New York, Oct. 8.—The World to-day says: A suit, an echo of the sensation attendant upon the collapse of the International Mercantile Agency a year ago, was begun yesterday in the Supreme Court by the McClure Adjustment Company against sixteen prominent business men in the United States and Canada, and also against Thomas X. McCauley, the Canadian who organized the corporation. Each of the defendants was a director of the agency, and it is alleged by the McClure company that each conspired with McCauley, who disappeared soon after the failure, to sell to the investing public its stock, which they knew to be worthless.

of Branford; John Platt, of Toronto [?], and Delos P. Phelps, of Chicago. The McClure Adjustment Company, the plaintiff, was organized a little while ago to undertake such cases as that of the International Mercantile Agency. It holds now $1,200,000 worth of stock of the McCauley concern, which was purchased by the public, and which it alleges was sold for the interest of the defendants named. This stock has been assigned to it, and the complaint in the case sets forth in substance that each one of the defendants was a director of the International Mercantile Agency at the time of its organization. McCauley became such at the solicitation of the defendants named. This stock has been assigned to it, and the complaint in the case sets forth in substance that each one of the defendants was a director of the International Mercantile Agency at the time of its organization.

MONTREAL SCHOOLS.

SHOCKING CONDITIONS REVEALED BY A REPORT.

Medical Inspection Neglected, and Pupils Suffering From Measles, Tumors, Defective Eyesight and Tuberculosis—Little Regard to Sanitation.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—Inspection of schools has been a burning question in Montreal for a long time, but it was not until recently that the Council could be prevailed on to appoint enough medical inspectors to cover all the ground. Appointments, however, were made a short time ago, and after one day's inspection a report has been sent to the Health Committee revealing in some instances rather revolting conditions. Following are a few extracts from the report:

signs of tuberculosis, and insufficient nutrition." Most of the foregoing evils were found in private schools. Dr. Laberge, Medical Health Officer, said today that from the reports made by medical inspectors it was proven, in the most conclusive manner, that such inspection ought to have been made years ago. It was his intention to see that all the facts were laid before the committee. He believed stringent laws would be passed by the committee to put an end to a condition of affairs that was a disgrace to the city. Come what would, the schools, both public and private, would have to be made thoroughly fit for occupation.

DEEPENING OF A CHANNEL.

STARK TELEPHONE COMPANY FOR WELLAND.

A St. Catharines, Ont., despatch says:—The Board of Trade at Port Colborne has forwarded to Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals, and to W. M. German, M. P. for Welland County, strongly worded petitions asking for the deepening of the shallow channel between the piers at Port Colborne so that laden vessels may enter without risk or damage. Because of this shallowness, the petition says, boats laden with grain and intended to be lightered at Port Colborne, are subject to lengthy detention and serious damage by grounding. The bottom of the channel is composed of rock and occasionally the steel grain carriers have had their bottoms punctured. The petitioners are of the opinion that this condition is likely to affect the volume of trade through the canal, they therefore ask that the channel be widened to the full width of the basin and deepened to a uniform depth of 22 feet, thus enabling boats to Colborne by at least fifty per cent. It would give the local millers a

THE MURDER IN MONTREAL.

TENANT OF HOUSE WHERE MURDER WAS DONE MISSING.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The inquest on the body of the Italian named "Torrey," who was killed mysteriously on Clatham street here over a week ago, was resumed to-day. The police have been searching for several days for one Ernesto Marano Aila Gualpini Buccino, who was tenant of the house in which the murder was committed. Marano and his wife and children seem to have utterly disappeared, and no trace of them can be found. The police do not hold that Marano was the murderer, but think he knows something about the mystery. It is suspected that he is a dangerous character, an ex-convict from Italy, and despatches from Stubbenville, Ohio, say that a man of his name is wanted there for the murder of a compatriot some three months ago.

SCHOOL TEACHERS.

FIVE HUNDRED OF THEM COMING OVER ON A VISIT.

New York, Oct. 8.—Alfred Mosely, the English educationist who sent a commission of Englishmen interested in education to America in 1902, is coming here at the end of this month preparatory to bringing over 500 teachers of English schools. They will start coming in batches of fifteen or twenty soon after his arrival. A committee of ten from the department of education is preparing a classification of the public schools of New York in order to make it possible for each visitor to see the kind of school in which he or she is most interested.

MISSIS HUDSON ARE WANTED.

Bench Warrants Issued by Judge in Phillips Case.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—Crown Attorney Drayton applied to Judge Winchester for warrants for the arrest of Lillian and Gertrude Hudson, former employees of the York County Loan & Savings Company, who acquired considerable notoriety for their relations with Phillips in the intricate transactions revealed at the enquiry into the company's affairs.

OH! 'T WAS PLEASANT CHANGE.

London, Oct. 8.—Sir Henry Seton Kerr has been detailing the hardships of ranching in Canada. He said that a manager had been killed in a fight with one of the cattle boys, and for three weeks he had to turn out at 3 o'clock in the morning and spend his days driving cattle. To a sympathetic remark, Sir Henry replied, "Oh, it was a pleasant change from Westminster."

"NOW LET PLATT PAY FOR MY BEAUTY"

Senator's Wife Says He Married Her for Her Good Looks and it is Up to Him to Pay.

New York, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Thomas C. Platt is coming to New York to-day for the avowed purpose of seeing her husband. Senator Platt admitted that his wife had notified him she was coming, and said when she reached New York they would talk over the matter and then take steps to get redress for "a pack of lies that have been told." "I have not bothered my head about them," he said, "further than to deny them and denounce the man who circulated them, but I guess she is pretty mad, and some action will be taken to secure denials and redress." It will be their first meeting since the first publication of the amazing story of the trip to San Francisco, the estrangement, and the part of J. K. Hedges, the Platt coachman, in the whole affair.

STOP MOURNING TO LYNCH A NEGRO.

Mobile Citizens Cease Lamenting Cyclone's Victims to Hang an Assaulter.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 8.—Mobile citizens who yesterday were mourning for the victims of the great hurricane to-day were in a frenzy over the crime of a negro, and in an attack upon the jail one man was killed and several wounded. Gov. Jenks, who hurried to the city, at once ordered out three companies of militia, and they now are on their way to the scene. There were three hundred men in this party, and they declared their intention of lynching the negro.

WAS BLIND BUT NOW SHE SEES.

Remarkable Operation Performed on a Little Girl's Eyes.

New York, Oct. 8.—The light that faded three years ago and left Margaret Huber, then seven years old, stone blind, has been restored by a series of operations which ophthalmologists declare remarkable. The knife was used in an extreme case of iridocyclitis, the chances seemed to be 100 to 1 that the irritation from which the blindness arose would be increased. The accepted authorities on eye diseases state that in such extreme cases operations are rarely successful.

"NOW LET PLATT PAY FOR MY BEAUTY"

Senator's Wife Says He Married Her for Her Good Looks and it is Up to Him to Pay.

London, Oct. 8.—Lord Rosebery, in a speech opening a new insane asylum for Edinburgh, discussed remedies for the ever-growing number of cases of insanity. He said he believed the idealists' plan for checking hereditary insanity by preventing the marriage of members of families tainted with the malady would be excellent if it were practical. Unfortunately it was not. Perfect sanity, he declared, was a rare quality, and was the possession not of the majority, but of a trifling minority. It was useless, therefore, to think of suppressing the marriage of those mentally tainted. He believed the only remedy was the teaching of higher and better systems of life, and preventing incessant restlessness, whether by the use of automobiles, which were the worst manifestation of restlessness, although he occasionally used one himself, or the use of railways.

Death of Mrs. Lewis King
With sincere regret the many friends of Mrs. Lewis King, in both village and country, learned of her death, which occurred on Monday last.
Her disease was of a nature that left no hope for her recovery, and during the months of her illness and weeks of confinement to bed her husband and children were most devoted in their attentions to her every need.
Mrs. King was one of whom it could be truthfully said that she looked well after the affairs of her household—a model housekeeper, a loving mother, a worthy helpmate and companion to her husband.
Besides her husband, nine children are left to mourn, viz.: Daniel, of Dawson City; Morgan, of Fruita, Col.; Fred of Menominee, Mich.; Bertha (Mrs. W. A. Eaton) of White Plains, N.Y.; Helen (Mrs. W. McDonald) of New Rochelle, N.Y.; Ed of Brockville; Marcus of Lansdowne; Charles of Carleton Place; and Isaac at home.
The funeral is taking place in the Methodist church to-day.

A Furrer for Furs
Experienced buyers say it pays to go to a furrer for furs, because you get the benefit of his expert knowledge in the stock he carries and his reputation is involved in what he sells. This, in part, accounts for the prosperity enjoyed by the firm of Robt. Craig & Co., Brockville. While, perhaps, better known as hatters, their fur business has attained large proportions and a visit to their show-rooms is something that no person should omit who contemplates buying a piece of fur or a fur garment. From the skins to the finished article, the goods may be inspected at every stage of manufacture.

You Needn't
You needn't keep on feeling distressed after eating, nor belching, nor experiencing nausea between meals.
In other words, you needn't keep on being dyspeptic, and you certainly shouldn't.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia—it strengthens and tones the stomach, perfects digestion, creates a normal appetite, and builds up the whole system.

Dyspepsia

Is an indication that the stomach and other digestive organs are weak, tired or debilitated. It causes no end of aches and pains and is most common where people bolt their meals and hurry and worry as they do in this country.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia—it has a "magic touch" in this disease. For testimonials of remarkable cures see for Book on Dyspepsia, No. 3, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.
