ACCOUNT  0 F

NOVA SCOTIA.

NOVA SCOTIA is the moft northerly, and eafterlyProvince of all the Englijb Range on the Continent, and confequently, the neareft to Europe.
It was called Nova Scotia by Sir William Alexander, Secretary of State for Scotland, under King fames I. and afterwards created Earl of Stirling. By Means of Sir Firdinando Gorge, Prefident of the New-England or Plymouth Company, he obtained a Royal Grant for this Tract in 1621 . When the French got Poffefion of it, they called it $L^{\prime}$ 'Accadie, in Allufion to Ar cadia in the Grecian Peloponnefus; but with what Propriety I cannot pretend to determine.

A very exact geographical. Defrription of a rude uncultivated Country is not to be expected: But the Boundaries of this are not difficult to fettle, as it is on three Sides furrounded by the River of St. Laurence, the Gulph of the fame Name, the Gut of Canfo Cape Sable Sbore on the Atlantick Ocean, and the Bay of Fumdy. The Divifion from New-Engiand has been fometimes laid down by the Courfe of St. Fobn's River, which rifing from the Lady Mountains, at no great Diftance from the River of St. LauA 2 rence, rence, has a long fouth-eafterly Courfe into the Bay of Fundy. But a late Order of Council fixes the Boundary at the River of Holy Crofs, which falls into the Bay more on the South.

Nova Scotia extends betwixt 60 and 66 Degrees Weft Longitude from London, and $4 \frac{1}{2}$ and $49 \frac{1}{2}$ Latitude North. Annapolis Royal, at prefent the only Fortrefs in the Country, ftands in Lat. almoft 44 Degrees 40 M. Weft Long. about 65. The fouth-eaftern Part is a large Peninfula, extending from South-weft to Northeaft, and joined to the Main-land by an Ifthmus a little above the Gut of Canfo.

The French, fince the Property of this Country has been vefted in the Englifb, affect to confine the Name of Acadia to the Peninfula only: But their own Maps made before the Ceffion of this Province, give it the Limits we have now affigned. I will add, that the Words of the Treaty do not contract it within narrower Limits than were before allowed to Arcadia.

According to this Defcription, Nova Scotia will be found to contain about 420 Miles in Length, and 380 in Breadth ; which is an Extent of Land much larger than that of Old Scotland, or North Britain.

As to the Climate, it is not, indeed, fo agreeble as in the fouthern Pars of France, tho' 'ituated in the fame Degrees of Latitude, becaufe it is fubject to fevere Colds, and thick Fogs; but it would certainly grow better and better every Day, in Proportion as the Woods are cut down, and the Country cleared and improved; and when the Country to the North of it comes to be a little inhabited and cleared, it may, perhaps, become one of the pleafanteft Spots upon the Globe; for, according to Cbarlcvoix's Ac-

to the il fixes which count, there is not a Country in the World of its Extent, where we meet with finer natural Harbours, or which more abundantly produceth all the Conveniencies of Life. In Confirmation of which he fays, that near the Harbour of La Haive, one fingle Grain of Wheat produced 150 pretty Ears of Corn, and each of them fo loaded with Grain, that they were forced to inclofe all the Ears in a Ring of Iron, and fupport them by a Pole; and that near the fame Place there was a Field of Wheat, where every Grain of the Seed, even thofe that produced the leaft, put forth eight Stalks, every one of which had an Ear of at leaft half a Foot long. In fhort, fays he, there is no where to be feen more beautiful Forefts, or Forefts that produce Timber more proper for the Building of Ships. And befides thefe Advantages, which are to be met with on the Surface, there are, 'tis faid, in the Bowels of this Peninfula, feveral Mines of Copper and of Coal; but as they have great Plenty of Wood for firing, they have no Occafion to fearch or dig for the latter, and 'rill the Country is tully inhabited, they can make no Ufe of the former.
Then as to that Sort of Provifions, which may be got without any Induftry, no Country in the World abounds more than this. In their Forefts there is an infinite Number of wild Beatt, fuch as Beavers, Elks, Bears, Otters, and Hares; and of wild Fowl, fuch as Buftards, or wild Turkeys, Partridges, Ducks, Teal, $\xi^{\circ}$ c. and their Rivers fwarm with all Sorts of Freh-Water Fifh, particularly Salmon and Trout ; but what is of the greateft Confequence, is the rich Fifhery upon the Coaft, which abounds with Cod, Makarel, Herrings, Pilchards, Sturgeon, and feveral o:her Sorts of Fifh, befide great Numbers of Sea-calves and Whales; and this Fifhery might be the more eafily carried on, becaufe the Coaft is full of natural Harbours, many of which are fit for receiving the largeft Veffels, and might be eafily fortified.

Nova Scotia has many Kivers, fome of them now navigated for a long Courfe by the Natives. But for Bays, Harbours, and convenient Creeks, it is inferior to no Country in the known World. The Cape Sable Shore, which lies next to the finhing Banks, is peculiarly happy in this Refpect.

The Bay of Cbebutto, and the River that falls into it, bid fair, in the Opinion of fome, to become, in time, the principal Port of Nova Scotia, and the Seat of its Metropolis. There is, over Land, good Communication by Wheel-carriage with the Bay of Minas, at prefent the chief Settlement of the Frencb, with the Rivers of Cobaquid and Pifaquid, and the beft eafterly Parts of the Province. It is true, Annapolis Royal lies upon a fine Bafon, and is more commodious for large inland Vent and Confumption: But the Country round it is bad, and the Tide's of the Bay of Fundy render the Navigation difficult.

Upon the oppofite, or wefterly Shore of the Bay of Fundy, are the Rivers of Pafamaquady and Holy Crofs, being about 17 Leagues N. W. from the Gut or Entrance of the Bafon of Annapolis. The River of Holy Crofs, or St. Croix, (as the French call it) was the old Boundary laid down betwixt Nova Sotia Government and Sagadobock, formerly the Duke of York's Property, but now annexed to the Nerw England Government of Maflacbufel's Bay.

Further northward, upon this Shore is the River of St. $70 b n, 10$ Leagaes diftant from the Gut of Annapolis. This is a very ufeful River, of long Courfe and has a confiderable Tribe of the Abnaqui Indians fettled upon it: But they are at prefent, from the Neglect of the Nova Scotia Government, in the Intereft of the Canadan Frencb. There are prodigious Falls of Tides in this River, near its Mouth, of not lefs than 30 Fathom; not properly Cataracts occafioned by a Courfe over Rocks, but the Effect of the great Head of Water above, the Channel being here pent up betwixt two fteep Mountains. By this River, and the Help of fome Land-carriage, there is a Cominunication with the River of St. Laurence, and a-crofs that with Quebeck, the Metropolis of Canada.

[7]

More Northerly is Cape Doré, or Gilt Cape, about 30 Leagues from Annapolis. Here is plenty of mineral Coal for Firing, which mult be efteemed a very great natural Advantage. Some Years ago a Company was fet on Foot in New England, in order to work thefe Mines: But tho' that Project was foon dropped with Loofs, a better Ufe will, doubtlefs, be made of this Treafure, when Nova Scotia itfelf comes to be inhabited. About the fame Cape are fome fender Veins of Copper Ore, fome thin Laminze of Virgin Copper, and a Gold Sulphur Marcafite.

Upon the Eafterly Shore, or Gulph of St. Laurence, after we are paft the Point, is the Gut of Canfo, and a fhort and fafe Paffage from the Britijh Settlements to Canada River, and to all the other Ports of Nova Scotia on this Gulph. This Gut is fix Leagues long, and only oneLeague broad: The Navigation of it is very good, as appears from the Journals of Captain Gayton, who paffed it in 1746 , on a Cruize to Green Bay.

[ 8 ]

Twenty-five Leagues beyond the Gut is Tatamaganabou, a confiderable Diftrict or Settlement of the Nova-Scotians, and a good Road for Veffels.

Green Bay, or Bay Verte, lies 14 Leagues farther, and is fhallow Water. This is the Land-ing-place from Canada, where Ditturbance from the Frencb is chiefly to be apprehended, and ought peculiarly to be guarded againft in the Settlement of Nova Scotia. There are only four Miles Land-carriage from this Bay to Cbigneezo River, which runs by the French Town of the fame Name into the oppofite Bay, dividing the Ifthmus in the narroweft Part. It is proper here to take Notice, that on the fide of CbigneEZo Bay the Tide flows in Fathom: But on the Gulph of St. Laurence, or Green Bay Side, the Swell is not above 4 or 5 Feet.
Farther upwards, before we reach Ine Bonaventure and Ine Perce; where the French, by the Treaty of Utrecbt, have a right to cure and dry Cod-filh, we come to Miramicbi Port, at the Mouth of a long River of the fame Name, where I do not find any Settlement. There are fome other fmall Bays betwixt this and that of Cbaleurs (fo called by the Frencb) which runs a great way into the Land, and has a fmall Inand at the Bottom of it, befides feveral others near the Entrance. Then proceeding towards the River of St. Laurence, below the South Entrance of that River, lies the Bay of Gafpeé, which is a deep and good Harbour. Here the French, contrary to Treaty, have continued to carry on their Fihhery, and pretend to affume to themfelves a Right over the Country behind it, which they diftinguifh in their modern Maps by the Name of Gafpefie. This Name they do indeed fometimes times extend fo far, as to take off the greatert Part of Nova Scotia, and leave us little, if any thing, more under the Title of Accadie, than the Peninfula before-mentioned. Such a Paper Encroachment, if not well-attended to, may, in time, be conftrued into a fort of Claim by Prefcription: But as this Province is now thought worthy the Regard of the Adminiftration *, it is to be hoped the true and ancientLimits of it will be properly afferted: For tho' we may not fuddenly fettle more of it than the Peninfula, yet an In. dulgence to our Rivals, in the other Parts, will be a great Check to the Induftry of our new Colonians.

Nova Scotia is at prefent divided into ten or twelve Diftricts. Each Diftrict annually chufes one Deputy to be approved by the Commander and Council at Annapolis: He is a fort of Agent for his Countrymen, the French, in that Diftrict, and reports the State of it from Time to Time; but in what Manner we need not be at a Lofs to determine. There is, in Fact, no Civil'Power, either legiflative or executive. The Frencb Miffionaries, who are not only appointed by the Bifhop of Quebeck, but abfolutely under his Direction in their feveral Diftricts and Villages, act as the fole Magiftrates or Juftices of the Peace: But all Complaints may, if the Parties think proper, be brought before the Commander in Chief and Council at Annapolis: A Liberty, which, if we confider the State of thefe People, and their Prejudices to the Englifh, we may be certain is not often made Ufe of.

the Jurifdiction of the Province of Nova Scotia. It is 35 Leagues S. E. from Canfo to the Middle of this Inand, which lies low, with fmall rifing Elevations of Sand, called Downs. The Form of it is like an Arm bent, the hollow Part towards the N. E. The Bite to the Northwards is about 20 Miles in Length, and narrow. By reafon of Shoals of Sand, fmall Tides of only five or 6 Feet, and a great Surf, it is inacceffible, except in this Bite, where Boats may land. It has been fatal to Ships, and formerly fome People of Humanity put Cattle a-fhore to breed on it, for the Relief of thofe, who might have the Misfortune to be there caft away. Thefe Cattle, by multiplying a-pace, fully anfwered, for fome Time, that Benevolent and Chrittian Purpofe : But at laft, fome wicked People from the New England Continent, guided by the moft brutal Motivcs, fitted out an Expedition againt the poor Animals, and deftroy'd the whole Race of them, for the Lucre of their Hides and Tallow.

There are on this Iland abundance of Foxes and Seals, and fome Pieces of flanding Water. The Snows fall heavily here in the Winter, but lie not long on the Ground.

To this Account we fall add the following Paflage from the Old England Journalit, who, after applauding the Scbeme, now going to be executed, of fettling Nova Scotia, and ereeting a Civil Government there; 乃ewing the terrible Conjequences of a Military Government, and feverely condemning the iniquitous Practices of fucb as would make a Private Jobb of every laudable IJndertaking for the Publick Good; goes on tbus : venturers will be altogether free from the Difficulties,

[ 11 ]

Difficulties; which ufually attend others in the like Circumftances. They are not going in fearch of an unknown Country to fettle in: No new Seas to explore, or untrodden Climates to rik the:r Healths in : No snhabitants to fight with and drive away; and very little, if any, lncertainty to encounter with. On the contrary, they fet out for a Country long fince difcovered, well known, and familiar to many among us, within the moderate Diftance of fix Weeks fail from Lendon; in a great meafure fettled and peopled already with Europeans, to the Number of 7 or 8000 , and confequently improved in fome Proportion: A wholfome Climate, well agreeing with a Britibl Conftitution; abounding with all Neceffaries of Life, the Seas and Rivers with Stores of excellent Fih, and the Woods with Plenty of winged Creatures and Quadrupedes fit for the Table : The Soil very capable of Improvement, infomuch, that the Hußandman and the Fifherman may well vie with one another for Succefs in their refpective Vocations, and fet their Induftry in Competition, to attain a grateful Retreat for the Decline of Life.
'Tis true, the prefent Nova-Scotians (except the Garifon of Annapolis, and a few Miles about that Town) are Defcendants of thofe French Inhabitants, who became fubject to the Brilifb Crown, when that Country was ceded to us by the Peace of Utrecht. This, with their being profefs'd Roman Catbolicks, inclines them of Courfe to the Intereft of France, which they have adhered to from the Beginning, and affifted in all Enterprizes upon thatCountry. They joined in their late Deftruction of Canfo, and likewife in an unfucceffful Siege of Annapolis. They correfponded with the Gallo. Bretons at Livilbourg, and B 2 tranfported trannported their Cattle to them, which rendered Provifions very dear at Annapolis and Can/o.

As they are naturally attached to our Enemies, they will of Courfe efpoufe their Caufe, and take every Opportunity to join them, and fupport their Intereft. This is the only Inconvenience, that, in all Appearance, will affect our own People ; and is really fo great as to require the Interpofition and Wifdom of the Legillature to remedy. The uncharitablenefs of their Religion, and the Craftinefs of their Priefts, will, I doubt, render a Coalition impracticable; more efpecially, as Cape Breton is fo near, which, while it continues French, will always encourage them to keep up a Spirit of Oppofition and Dillike. To difpoffefs them would not, perhaps, be fo unjuft as unpolitick; for thofe who forfeit their Allegiance, forfeit the Protection of the Government they are under; and if they act as Enemies, they ought to be treated as fuch : But the Mifchief of difpoffeffing them, is, that it would be an unpopular Tranfaction, and againft the Faith of Treaties, and mult inevitably embroil us with France, who undoubtedly have a Right to fuccour them, in Virtue of the Treaty of Uirecht. But that is not all; for as the Country wants Inhabitants, the Lofs of fo many would become in a manner irreparable, as a Country is reckon'd wealthy in Proportion to the Number of the the People.

This is a very nice Affair, and requires deliberate Attention. Varieties of Religions are productive of various Evils, Dinike, Murmur, Enmity and Malice; and yet we find the Penfluanians live in great Amity together, notwithftanding their various Ways of Worfhip, and the Profeffions of all the Religions in Eurofe among Thefe People entertain a laudable and religious Charity towards one another, and confider, that tho' they "fer in Form, they are all in Motion towards be fame Point; and who worfhips in Sincerity in any Way whatfoever, is efteemed a good Man and honeft Neighbour. If it were practicable to bring over the Gallo-Scotians into a Senfibility of univerfal Charity in Religion, like the wife People of Penfylvania, and to entertain a good Opinion of Britifb Government, Nova Scotia would become altogether as happy, But how to effect it, is the great Point to be confidered. I own I defpair of Succefs, as well from the Tenets of their Religion, and their natural Propenfion to France, as from the Vicinity of the French Garifon at Cape Breton, which will always countenance and fupport their Separation: But however if they continue untractable and carry on an illicit Commerce and Correfpondence with their Countrymen, fo as to difturb or prejudice the Peace and Welfare of the Colony, I fee no Reafon why they fhould not be put under the Reftraint of fuch Laws, as may reduce them into proper Obedience, and the Condition of Hcwers of Wood and Drawers of Water, under the natural Subjects of the MotberCountry.
