

NOT ONLY OIL, BUT CONTAINERS, PAY NEW TAX

Retail Grocer Voices Grievance—Not Justifiable, Say Imperial Oil.

TO BE AMENDED

Many complaints have been voiced lately by small retail grocers on the operation of the one per cent. sales tax imposed by the new budget. The grocers complain that this tax acts unfairly against them in many ways. A small grocer, who deals in oil, complained to The World that he had to pay sales tax on the oil containers, as well as on the oil. For instance, if he bought $30 worth of oil his invoice would read as follows: To oil, $30; to 10 containers, $10—$40. By sales tax, 1 per cent, 40 cents. Total, $40.40. Credit by 10 containers returned, $10. Balance due, $30.40. The grocer contends that his $10.40, the grocer contends that the oil and not on the containers and the amount should be 30 cents, not 40 cents, for the tax.

With a view to clearing up the matter The World yesterday saw the Imperial Oil people, who frankly said that the statement of the grocer was correct and his complaint justifiable. The oil company were bound to comply with the budget act, which said that the tax was payable on the total amount of the invoice, and they were compelled to charge it. They got nothing out of it—it all went to the government. The oil company understands, however, the clause in the act to be amended by the finance minister so as to provide that "packing and packages and containers which are returnable, shall be free from sales tax." When that is done the grocer's grievance will be removed.

LARGEST DEMONSTRATION EVER HELD IN QUEBEC

Quebec, June 11.—The honoring of the Feast of the Sacred Heart here tonight is estimated to have been the largest religious demonstration ever held in this city. The celebration was marked by a monster procession, in which upwards of 40,000 men and women, while double that number of women and children lined the streets. The streets were brilliantly illuminated and decorated for the occasion and at various points large arches were erected.

Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, the lieutenant-governor, Sir Lomer Gouin and most of his ministers, Mayor Samson and the members of the city council, as well as all the city members of the legislature walked in the procession.

HEAR PARLIAMENT AT PERTH PICNIC

Speaker Says Drury Legislation Not "Class"—Biggs Outlines Road Policy.

St. Mary's, Ont., June 11.—Hon. Peter Smith, Hon. F. C. Biggs and Speaker Parliament of the legislature were the principal speakers at the Perth U.F.O. picnic held here today.

A. Hicks, the government whip, although announced to be present, did not come, much to the disappointment of some who had looked for some explanation of the serious charges of attempted bribery he had made against lobbyists in his address in London on Wednesday.

Mr. Parliament who was elected as a Liberal, reviewed the work of the session. Much of their expenditure was uncontrollable being a legacy left them by their predecessors. The government from its name may appear to favor class legislation, their actions, however, dispelled any such fear on the part of the public. No man's business was more diversified than that of the farmer and during the session every member made an honest effort to meet as far as possible the needs of the people.

Tells Highway Policy.

Mr. Biggs dealt largely with provincial highways. The most essential thing today was production and what could be done that would be of greatest aid to production asked the speaker that good roads. He said that the work would be slow owing to the scarcity of labor and the high cost of material and that stone and gravel would be the materials used for the present.

DOMINIONS REALIZE NEED OF SEA POWER

London, June 11.—Admiral Viscount Jellicoe, speaking as a guest at a dinner given by the Colonial Institute today, said that as his report on his recent naval mission was still unpublished, he could say nothing about it, but in regard to the impressions received he found in the dominions a great realization of the fact that sea power was all-important to the British empire, meaning not only a supreme navy, but also ability to make full use of the sea by the mercantile marine, both in war and peace.

The dominions appreciated these facts and showed a growing anxiety at the gradually diminishing strength of the mercantile marine relatively to the other countries. That anxiety was justified and should be shared at home.

STEFANSSON WILL HAVE BIG PRESERVE

Musk-Ox and Reindeer to be Demonstrated in Baffin's Land.

Ottawa, June 11.—It is proposed by the department of the interior to lease the south half of Baffin's Land to Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, for a musk-ox and reindeer preserve. For fifteen years he receives this territory free, and after that pays about $10,000 per year for another 15 years. He proposes also to domesticate the musk-ox.

This immense territory is north of Hudson Bay and had always been supposed to be barren and useless. Stefansson claims that he can greatly augment the work of the supply by putting into effect his scheme.

WATERWAYS INQUIRY SESSION AT LONDON

Windsor Man Criticizes the Banking System of Canada.

London, Ont., July 11.—(By Canadian Press).—Windsor, Sarnia and Chatham representatives occupied this morning in giving evidence before the Canadian Waterways Commission, now sitting here under the chairmanship of C. A. Magrath. Senator C. D. Clarke and Sir William Hearst are the other members of the commission.

Alexander Simmers of Windsor gave a clear summary of the comparative costs of transportation with and without water facilities. Transportation holds up on the part of the railroads, he blamed the high prices and sought to blame the banking system, which allows about 18 men to control the circulation of Canadian money. The gold standard of value was all right, he said, but gold should not be the basis of circulation of money any more than land or other commodities. Large water frontages held back by the railroads prevented lake boats in many large cities from finding adequate loading facilities.

KING ADVOCATES WAR TAX ON WEALTH

Hamilton, June 11.—The significance of the present period of transition at Ottawa, as it appeared to him, was outlined by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, at the banquet given in his honor by the Ontario Women's Liberal Association at the Royal Connaught Hotel tonight. Liberalism, he declared, had suffered a setback by the war, and coalition had also an adverse effect upon the party.

The present administration, he declared, showed an indifference to the will of the people, and was extravagant and unwilling to retrench. The government forced through its biggest piece of business, the acquisition of the Grand Trunk, fully aware that the people were unacquainted with the facts, he said.

"It was the autocratic government. A liberty taken with the rights of the free people in times of peace," he said.

Washington Appointment.

Regarding the appointment of a Canadian representative at Washington, the speaker said requests of the opposition to leave parliament were ignored. Great powers were given to the director of coal during the war, members of the cabinet developing into so many rubber stamps, he charged. He scored the government for many of its war time actions, and urged a parliament elected on a basis of franchise, above suspicion. The government should place the burden of taxation on the shoulders best able to bear it, not on shoulders already overburdened, he said, pointing out that there had been no war tax on wealth, vast quantities of which had been amassed. The government had increased the cost of living, instead of relieving it, and had increased the cost of doing nothing to encourage it. It had no policy regarding the cost of living or increased production.

Eulogy of Liberalism.

"There have been differences," he said, in closing with an eulogy of Liberalism, "but we should forget these differences. If we are truly Liberals in spirit, we will be tolerant in our attitude towards the other side. There is a hope in the introduction of women into public life greater than we have dreamed of."

Mrs. Harry Carpenter, president, tendered the thanks of the meeting to the leader of the opposition, and made a strong plea for unity. At the conclusion of the address delegates made the personal acquaintance of Hon. Mr. King and Hon. Hartley Dewart.

EUROPE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

New York, June 11.—Problems and difficulties arising from the war are being dealt with satisfactorily in England, France and Italy, according to Otto H. Kahn, banker, who returned today from Europe. Prediction that they will be overcome is justified, he said. For the last year, Mr. Kahn declared, Europe has been suffering less from the effects of the war than from peace.

England is prosperous and is going ahead, Mr. Kahn said, and talk that the world's financial center is shifting to the United States is premature. It is also at work, the banker found, Italy is making a good progress, curtailing imports and increasing exports. Industries are developing to a remarkable degree.

Russians, with whom the banker talked, are still suffering from the effects of the Bolshevik oligarchy within eight months, but they believe Russia will remain a republic, he asserted.

BARRIE REDEEMS DEBENTURE DEBT OUT OF REVENUE

First of 236 Ontario Municipalities to Cover Hydro Obligations.

Light Bought Cheap

Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario announced yesterday that the town of Barrie had made complete provision for the redemption of its debenture debt on Hydro account. This is the first of the 236 Ontario municipalities associated with the Hydro-Electric enterprise to cover all its obligations out of revenue. As a result of the achievement, the commission has approved further reduction of ten per cent in the service rates. Barrie now has the lowest house lighting rate in the province.

Success of this clear case of successful public ownership, Sir Adam declared, that the rates adopted from time to time for each co-operating municipality were sufficient under normal conditions to meet the fixed charges on the debentures, to provide for depreciation and contingencies, and still to leave a surplus. The Barrie system had built up a profitable business and its surplus revenue had been large. The valuation of an old steam plant, about $44,000, had been written off. Debentures of a total value of $52,000 had been redeemed, and there was still a surplus of $40,000 to set against a bonded indebtedness of $14,000. While Barrie was the first of the associated municipalities to provide for all its Hydro obligations, there were a number of others which would soon be in a similar position.

The Barrie system began operations in April 1918, securing its power from the Severn system. It is now supplied from the commission's generating plant at Big Chute on the Severn system.

SIR EZEKIEL McLEOD DIES OF PNEUMONIA

St. John, N.B., June 11.—Sir Ezekiel McLeod, retired chief justice of the United States, died of pneumonia at 7.15 o'clock this evening at his home in Hampton. He had been ill seriously only a few days although for a week or two previous to an attack of pneumonia he had not been in the best of health.

Sir Ezekiel became quite well known in the Dominion when he represented St. John in the house of commons and his name came into greater national prominence when he played an important part in the investigation of the sinking of the "Canadian Pacific" liner "Empress of Canada," which collided with the Norwegian cargo carrying steamer "Stordal" in the St. Lawrence River in 1915.

He was born at Benobscquis, Kings county, October 28, 1840.

CALLS UPON LABOR TO SAVE LIVES IN IRELAND

Montreal, June 11.—A strong stimulus to the American Federation of Labor to pass a resolution in favor of Irish independence was provided by Frank P. Walsh, D.C., who addressed a largely-attended meeting in the Windsor Hall tonight on "Ireland Today." Mr. Walsh claimed that the passing of such a resolution would save more innocent lives in Ireland than the Red Cross Society had saved in any sector of the battlefields, and his suggestion was received with loud applause.

Alderman Dixon, representing Mayor Martin, was present, and said he had been authorized by the mayor to say that the French-Canadian people were heartily in sympathy with the people of Ireland in their struggle.

TRADE THROUGH CANADA IS SHOWING REACTION

Winnipeg, June 11.—(By Canadian Press).—Trade through the Dominion has fallen off somewhat during the last two weeks, says the weekly report of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association. Reports received from ten of the principal centers in Canada show wholesale houses finding things rather quiet compared with the corresponding period of 1919, although on the other hand, manufacturing plants are, as a rule, on the busy side.

Toronto and Ontario districts report wholesale business as being quiet. Travelers are finishing their trips, and the usual summer slackness is supplemented by a hesitancy in buying.

COMMUTE SENTENCE OF NIAGARA MURDERER

St. Catharines, June 11.—The death sentence of Fred Fountain, who was to have been hanged next Wednesday for the murder of his wife and two children at Niagara Falls, Ont., has been commuted to life imprisonment at Kingston penitentiary.

Word to this effect was received at Welland last night from the minister of justice by W. M. German, K.C., who defended Fountain in his last trial. The Widings were at once communicated to the prisoner in Welland jail, who heard them with little or no evidence of concern.

Paris Fashions In False Teeth

Paris, Mar. 3.—We may safely predict for the coming season that styles in artificial teeth will include their being worn snug-fitting and smoothly cushioned in place by means of the dental plate compound—powder Coreg, procurable at drug stores and dental dealers.

This antiseptic adhesive powder gives a pleasing sense of security to wearers of false teeth. It allows complete massaging of foods with ease, relaxes facial muscles and prevents sore gums.

property of Edward H. Robins, it having been written for him around the personality of genial Tom Wise.

"The Birth of a Nation."

Apart from the wonderful representation of the assassination of President Lincoln, one of the most striking scenes in the historic drama, "The Birth of a Nation," there is a succession of events of compelling interest. Beginning with an exposition of early slavery days of the civil war, but each dread happening is placed in contrast to delightful romantic scenes and the horrors of war are relieved by the little human touches that Griffith knows so well how to give. There will be two performances every day at the grand next week, promptly at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m. The management again wishes to impress upon the public the great convenience of buying seats in advance.

"Father and the Boys."

Another comedy treat is in store for the many patrons of the Robins Players when for the week of June 21, Edward H. Robins will present Tom Wise in the comedy ever written by the Hoosier humorist, George Ade, "Father and the Boys." This comedy, which has been seen locally in New York, pokes satirical fun at the younger generation, which thinks it is smarter than their middle-aged fathers.

At Loew's Next Week.

Alice Brady plays the part of a New York society girl with the charm and grace for which she is famous in "The Theatre and Winter Garden next week, "On Manila Bay," featuring Teddy McNamara, and eight talented players, in a mechanical-electrical comedy novelty features the vaudeville, which also embraces: Gehan and Gehan, eccentric equilibrist; Snyder's performing goats; Alie Ripon, Scotland's premier ventriloquist; Gene and Minnie, in a merry cycle of melodies, and Moore and Fields, the original jazz boys. The added film feature introduces Larry Semon in "Solid Concrete."

At the Allen.

A double bill, which will cater to every taste, will be given at the Allen, commencing Monday, presenting two of the most popular stars of the present day screen, Pauline Frederick's latest picture, "The Palliser Case," from Edward Salts' novel of the same name. This dramatic tale concerns the murder of a wealthy young man as he sits in his box at the opera. Who killed Monty Palliser and re-darkened the eyes that saddened and moved the lives of three people? The conclusion of the Palliser case, after memorable scenes in the Metropolitan Opera House and in the police court, solves a mystery that is as thrilling as it is baffling.

One of the strongest human interest and dramatic pictures he has yet had is "The Call Me Jim," adapted from the popular novel by J. C. Holland. It is filled with pathos and humor. There are tense, dramatic moments and it is a vehicle just suited for Rogers' personality and ability.

At the Strand Next Week.

David Graham Phillips, the famous novelist whose powerful and entrancing stories are known to all readers of popular fiction, wrote "The Cost," the picture of which will be shown at the Strand Theatre next week. It is the story of a girl, who, becoming infatuated with a young man unworthy of her love, marries him against the strong advice of her mother. Tragic and strikingly dramatic events follow her discovery of his continued unfaithfulness after marriage. The cost of her mistake is heavy. The husband not only wrecks his home but indulges in a mad, unscrupulous chase for dollars. The story is given in variety and liveliness by the scenes at the beginning. There are also exciting stock exchange scenes as the story approached its climax. The ending is surprising and happy and inspiring. "The Cost" is a masterpiece of dramatic production and beautiful Violet Hanning heads the capable cast.

The last showings of "My Lady's Garter" take place at the Strand today.

"Haulan's Point."

There is always a cool breeze to be had at Haulan's Point just across the bay. The ferry service from the foot of Bay street is a boat every few minutes for the balance of the summer. Every amusement at the point is now in full swing, all the rides going, the dance hall with its jazz orchestra and a new floor is proving more popular than ever before. The open air band concerts are again this season a feature. One of the best military bands of the district will be heard this afternoon and evening, also tomorrow afternoon and evening. The first of the free outdoor acts for the present season will begin an engagement next Monday afternoon. This is Van's comedy circus, dog and pony show. At White City, Cleveland, this act was one of the prominent features. The performances will be given every afternoon and evening all next week.

This personal application has resulted in a better understanding when credits are being arranged. It has thus meant taking full advantage of business opportunities.

Incidentally, it has meant also improved collections—and a more courteous and friendly spirit in handling ordinary banking transactions.

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 12.

No Unfriendly Disposition Towards the United States.

No unfriendly disposition toward the United States prompts the government to ask for legislation licensing and regulating certain exports from Canada. In the matter of newspaper, for example, the Canadian publishers only ask for 15 per cent. of the entire output of the mills. They realize that the big market for paper is in the United States, and they are quite willing that 85 per cent. of the newsprint manufactured by Canadian mills should go to United States newspapers.

During the coal famine the United States quite generously treated Canada as one of her own family, and we got a certain percentage of the output of the American mines. No one in the United States, however, would have suggested shipping all the coal out of the country and permitting the American people to freeze. So no one could seriously urge that we should export all our paper to the United States and cease to have any publications of our own in Canada.

There is no dog-in-the-manger spirit about the proposal of the government. No paper will be retained in Canada unless it is needed and unless there is a market for it at the market price. The only restriction upon export will be that the manufacturers cannot export their entire output to a foreign country and refuse arbitrarily to meet the demands of the home market.

Czardom's Poverities.

Except of our own family, the royal news is rather depressing to those who grieve over nothing so much as the falling stars of monarchy. When Czardom comes into court to pick up a little money, the divine right has indeed fallen on hard times.

The perfidious Ferdinand of Bulgaria, who was expected to throw in his chances with the allies, who lost his gamble, and is rusticated somewhere in Switzerland, is applying to the English courts for restoration of funds he had invested there, and which were forfeited because of his enemy condition.

The Fox of the Balkans (that was makes an affidavit, which is truly unique in the documentary history of modern monarchy. He says "Please, sir, it wasn't me." In the time of a mendicant who has forgotten that once he held a sceptre. He avers that neither as prince nor as czar of Bulgaria did he have absolute power. He was controlled by his ministers, who were really responsible for Bulgaria's share in the war, and he doesn't want to lose his investments in England because of the late infidelity between friends. Ferdinand may get his money, but his stock won't go up.

There is a background of pathos to the report of application for the administration of an estate of twenty-five hundred dollars, in support of which an affidavit has been sworn by the Grand Duchess Xenia Alexandrovna of Russia. The estate represents the possessions in England of the late czar of Russia, and the administration has been granted to his sister, who is now living at 23 Draycott-place, a not very exclusive section of Chelsea. In her affidavit the grand duchess declares that the czar died on July 16, 1918, at Ekaterinburg in Russia, domiciled in Russia, intestate; that neither his wife nor any child of his survived him, and that under Russian law his mother (who survived him) has no interest in the estate or in the grant of letters of administration, which interest vests in his two sisters who survive him.

Ten years ago it would have been thought impossible for a czar's sister ever to proceed publicly to obtain five hundred pounds, of which she could only receive half, after expenses were paid. The majesty of English law is such that even when it is applied to the affairs of majesty its regular forms must be observed. The grand duchess has had to give a bond for a thousand pounds for the due administration of this little piece of property.

Her situation can be judged from the fact that two others had to go on her bond. One was Col. Sir Arthur Davidson, "of Marlborough House," "of Marlborough House" means that Sir Arthur is equerry to Queen Alexandra, the aunt of the grand duchess, whose mother is her sister.

The war has left many deep scars on royalty, our own not excluded. Queen Alexandra and the ex-Empress Dagmar, daughters of King Christian of Denmark, belonged to a singularly happy family, whose gatherings at Copenhagen were remarkable for their unaffectedly domestic pleasures. And now the bitterest stage of having poor relations has been reached in the palace of the august. The sadness of the episode in Marlborough House when the queen mother's equerry was asked to go on a grand duchess' bond for a thousand pounds to guarantee that she would properly administer half that sum must have been a poignant reminder that all the casualties of the Armageddon that was loosed by another relative of Queen Alexandra were not confined to soldiers who fought in the field. "The czar's last five hundred" is indeed a pathetic reminder of the war and the Russian revolution.

Where Chivalry is Found.

Some things they do better in France—public men acknowledge openly services rendered by the press. Some things they do better in England—public opponents sometimes proclaim one another's personal and public virtues. Public life in Canada would be frightened out of its wits if public men were to take to eulogizing their political foes. The latest example of the chivalry which the old-liners regard as suicidal foolishness in Canada comes from Oxford, where the lord chancellor unveiled a bust of Mr. Asquith in the debating hall of the Oxford Union, of which he was president nearly fifty years ago.

The bust is alongside those of Mr. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury, also former presidents of this nursing home of eloquence.

These Englishmen really do say decent things about their political rivals. "Galloper Smith," the breezier name for Lord Birkenhead, spoke like this of a former prime minister whom he has impersonally assailed myriads of times:

"No subordinate minister ever served a leader more generously, more sympathetically, or more chivalrously. Not the least of the services he rendered was to carry a measure of censure at the moment he did it, almost complete approval. It was time for the stream of ignorant and malignant criticism to be swept away forever. When the ultimate historian dealt with the period of the great war, he would decide that there was enough glory for all in those days charged with crisis. The roll of ex-presidents of the Oxford Union would never contain the name of a man of whom it could be said that he was a greater or more single-hearted citizen, a loyal friend, or a worthier officer of the society."

Some members of parliament attending session at Ottawa, for the first time have marveled at the courtesies exchanged between opponents. Some vehement partisan visitors in the galleries, observing amenities on the floor, have thought that there was a base betrayal of the animosities that inevitably belong to political strife. But who there is much personal friendliness in the arena, there is not enough of courteous confession of the merits of opponents in public. There is more than there was, but there is plenty of room for improvement.

FRONTENAC FARMERS PROTEST WOOL PRICES

Kingston, Ont., June 11.—(Special.)—Sheep shearing is proceeding at a lively rate. There is bitter complaint over the prevailing price of wool. Farmers, who brought fine fleeces to Kingston, this week, were offered thirteen cents a pound, and some took their wool back home. They say the price should be considerably higher, because there is no reduction in price of wool, yarns, underwear, socks and that they should receive a fair price for their material.

SAYS U. S. INTERESTS TAKE CANADA'S GRAVEL

Chatham, June 11.—(Special.)—A government investigation into the removal of gravel from the River St. Clair by American interests was demanded by the Kent County Council, when it adopted a recommendation of the legislation committee to that effect this afternoon. The report said that the committee's information is that gravel is being practically exhausted, and that the extent of operations carried on in Canadian waters is rapidly depleting Canadian deposits.

A resolution was also passed, authorizing the county engineer to prepare specifications and secure an estimate of the cost of a bridge at Prairie Siding to replace the present inadequate ferry system.

The next leg of Lieut. Roget's flight is to Bucharest, after which he will attempt to fly to Constantinople, Athens, Rome and then back to Paris.

THE FORT FRANCES FRANCHISE.

Editor World: Speaking from recollection I would like to set out a few facts about this one famous but rapidly becoming notorious hydro-electric franchise.

In 1904 the Ross government, on the still unquestioned assumption that the river bank at Fort Frances, and the international water power in part, were owned by this province—gave by order-in-council a hydro-electric franchise to a company organized by Mr. Backus of Minneapolis, on condition that one-half of all the power developed should be available for use on the Ontario side of the river. In 1905 the terms of the grant were modified to the extent of allowing the Backus company to use on the Minnesota side all the energy produced until it might be required in Ontario. Meanwhile the company, because it was an international corporation, was constrained by the Dominion government charter to accept conditions approximating very closely to the original conditions of the 1904 franchise; and, somewhat later, as the consideration for an extension of time to the company, the late Hon. F. Cochrane insisted successfully that the latter should consent to being put back into the same position as to the distribution of produced energy.

I do not know whether these facts have any bearing on the present issue, but it seems to me that the point is to be finally determined by the authorities of Ontario and not those of the Dominion. It has never been disputed that the Niagara power franchises have been granted rightfully by Ontario, and it is not likely that Ontario will fail to assert her right to grant and control such franchises along the international part of the improved St. Lawrence. If the great scheme goes thru, Onlooker,

FERGUSON PREPARES TO MEET ACCUSERS

Former Minister and Medical Adviser, Dr. Godfrey, Are Back From South.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson and Dr. Forbes Godfrey, who have returned from British Guiana, where the former minister went in search of health, accompanied by Dr. Godfrey as his medical adviser, strongly declare that the former's absence was in no way connected with the inquiry into timber limits.

Interviewed at his home in Kempton, Ont., Hon. Mr. Ferguson declared himself ready to meet all accusations arising out of the timber probe. He states that after he has read the evidence presented before the Riddell-Latchford commission he will enter the box, and he declines to make any lengthy statement.

Asked whether there was anything in reports that he had taken a number of documents away with him, he said he had no recollection of having done so.

Asked about the alleged shortages of timber cuts made to the government and the Doyle rule, he replied: "As regards the Doyle rule, that has been the custom for years. At one time I suggested there should be a change from that, but Aubrey White, who had been deputy minister for years, advised against it, as that had been the rule for many years, and it would be inadvisable to change."

Mr. Ferguson explained that when timber was not so valuable as it is now, the Doyle rule worked well, because only the best of lumber was used. But now, when all lumber is lumber, it makes a difference.

Dr. Godfrey said: "Hon. Howard Ferguson never ran away from anything in his life, and I know that as well as anyone, and the whole thing is contemptible. But he is back now, and he is going to fight back. He wanted to come back repeatedly regardless of his health, but as his medical adviser I prevailed on him to stay, and have come back with him in good health."

CALGARY PRESBYTERIANS SAY MINISTERS UNPAID

Calgary, Alta., June 11.—The protest lodged by Rev. W. J. Kyd, of Alberta, at the session of the Presbyterian General Assembly at Ottawa, on Thursday, regarding the minimum salary for ministers, found ready sympathy from a number of leading Presbyterian ministers of Calgary when interviewed today. "I cannot conscientiously invite a young man to enter the ministry," declared Rev. A. McTaggart, of St. Andrew's, "because of the low salary and the prospects offered him. It is but a profession of poverty," he said.

A WONDERFUL JUNE.

Chapter 108.

"I'm sure you are going to be out at the Model Farm this summer," Alice had said the evening before, when David kissed her goodnight. "The tide has turned—everything went against us before, now everything will go for us."

So when that Monday evening, David came up to the house after the early supper hour, she was not surprised at the smile of satisfaction on his face.

"You did get it!" she exclaimed.

"I did," he answered. "That is, I'm a sort of assistant handy man. I'm to run the farm accounts, and give five lectures a week, and spend the rest of the time as over-seer in the fields. I had to find a place for myself. Really, their staff was filled, and I'm not making any salary to speak of."

"Oh, and Alice's tone was sympathetic. Lack of money was a thing she could easily understand.

"You don't think I need it, do you?" David laughed, putting his arms around her and holding her close for a minute. "You're a funny impractical little child for all your grown-up common sense. My dad was poor enough, but fortunately for me, my mother had a lot of money and it all came to me."

"Well, of course, you always seemed to have plenty—but I have no sense about those things," Alice admitted. "I still think anything over $25 a week is great wealth and I'm constantly amazed that they pay me $15 for running children's classes at the Settlement House."

David laughed at her, and his eyes were tender.

"You'll change that point of view soon after we're married," he said. "Which is, I suppose, a shame. Still it will be fun to see what you'll do, as a rich man's wife."

"Live in your nice apartment in the city all winter," Alice decided promptly. "And go to ever so many concerts and operas with you and shows with splashy colors with pretty ladies. And we'll dine at hotels where they play gay music—that is, sometimes. Mostly we'll dine at home in a room with a large tapestry hanging, a Flemish oak sideboard—I saw a picture like that once," she added naively.

David laughed.

"My dining-room has no tapestry, but it's easily acquired," he told her. "And then what?"

"And we'll sit at home lots of evenings in comfy big chairs by a low fire, and I will look admirably over at you and think how strong your profile is."

David laughed.

"The man nodded, his arms tightening around her.

"But," Alice added, questioning. "If we can't be married now, the best thing is to be engaged in June, isn't it, dear?"

"Yes," David whispered and leaning down, kissed her mouth.

The End.

COMPULSORY KNIGHTHOOD

There was a time when to refuse a knighthood not only aroused the ire of the monarch but the official responsible for the collection of revenue. In 1254 all men holding land in Great Britain of the annual value of £10 were ordered to present themselves for knighthood or pay a lump sum for exemption from the honor. As knight-hood then entailed serious military responsibilities, the crown reaped a handsome revenue from this order. Edward I. imposed the obligation afresh, and so did James I. almost as soon as he came to the English throne. The Long parliament abolished compulsory knight-hood in 1641. Its reason for doing so being to prevent

WOMEN IN ITALY MUST "GO SLOW"

Italy is determined to retain her hold on a wonderful and quite dead past and to be satisfied with progress that does not progress unduly.

The Italian government has just issued an order that excludes women from some 50 classifications of government employment.

It is affirmed that the Italian holding conservative views on the appearance of women in public life, are alarmed at the possible extension of feminism in their country and are now taking steps which as the above to prevent it.

But it would not be fair for the suffragist to point to countries to blame the Italians for this, as the northern does not understand to what extent the Italian now exists in Latin countries.

The Mohammedan regard for women is not particularly flattering and the Italian is merely too polite to go as far. Therefore it is that the curious tradition has grown up in Italy, or has been handed down on it from the east, that the woman is best kept in a pen or compound, and is not to think very much, and every now and then some unruly Italian woman breaks out into a thinking spell, to the grief of the conservative Italian male and the horror of the traditionalist. It is regarded as a sin, however, that the Italian government, with a stern sense of duty and an heroic sense of the minority, is going to rally round the Latin tradition, a tradition that sheds a lustre as even did upon the Latin man as it does upon the Latin woman.

BASEBALL Akron 8 Leafs 3

ANOTHER BEATING FROM AKRON CREW

Ryan Hit Hard and Leafs Argue and Field Poorly.

The Akron Nautics continued their terrific hitting again yesterday at the Island and as a result, slipped a beating to the Leafs again. The score was 8 to 3.

The Leafs' hitting was not up to their usual good form and they found it a hard task to bunt hits on Barnes. The Leafs batted to the front with two runs in the opening inning, but this was the only fun they had.

Webb was again dangerous for the Nautics, with a triple and a double. Jim Thorpe poked out a home run.

Hamilton, a big semi-pro left-handed pitcher, who has been highly recommended, will join the Leafs at Jersey City Sunday.

At Buffalo, N. Y.—(International)—Buffalo won a game from Rochester today with none of the home team in the last frame.

At Jersey City—Jersey City won its third straight game from the Browns. The visitors could do little with Greville while Harschbar was pounded hard in the fifth inning.

At Reading—Baltimore was powerless before the pitching of Brown, getting only one hit after the first inning and lost to the Marines for the first time this season, 9 to 3.

The final in the series with Akron will be played this afternoon and as this contest will be the last that the Leafs will figure in for some weeks at the Island, there should be a big turnout.

London, June 11.—The football betting bill, intended to stop the system of coupon betting on football results, was read a third time in the house of commons today.

At Reading—Baltimore was powerless before the pitching of Brown, getting only one hit after the first inning and lost to the Marines for the first time this season, 9 to 3.

TOLLEY OF OXFORD WINS GOLF FINAL

War Veteran Beat Gardiner After Extra Hole for English Championship.

Muirfield, Scotland, June 11.—Cyril J. E. Tolley of Oxford University, and a former officer in the British Expeditionary Forces, won the British amateur golf championship today. He defeated Robert A. Gardner, Chicago, in the final after a hard-fought, sensational match, which was all square at the 36th hole, and necessitated the playing of an extra hole.

Tolley, who is 34 years old, served in the British Tank Corps, and was a prisoner in Germany for thirteen months. The title had not been contested since 1914, when J. L. C. Jenkins won it. He was eliminated last Wednesday in the fourth round.

Today's match was a battle royal from the start. At the end of the first round the American was 3 up on the second round, however, the young veteran fought doggedly, and made it all square at the 36th, only to lose the extra hole.

This was the second time in the history of the British championship that a United States entry had reached the final. Walter J. Travis beat Edward Backwell for the championship in 1904.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantage of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It fades, turns gray and looks streaked. Just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of recombinant ready-to-use preparation, because it dardens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it dardens so naturally soft brush with it drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

TO STOP MANUFACTURE OF COMMERCIAL PLANES

New York, June 11.—The Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Corporation, claiming three-fourths of the output of the entire American aircraft industry, announced here today it would "virtually" abandon manufacture of commercial planes because of failure of congress to protect the market from dumping of British machines. Manufacture of airplanes, motors and accessories at the Buffalo plant will be stopped before July 1, and the factory turned over for manufacture of other products, it was said.

RED-HEADED NEGRO SHAMROCK'S MASCOT

Mother of the Boy Makes Offer on Sir Lipton's Arrival in New York.

New York, June 11.—Sir Thomas Lipton, owner of the Shamrock IV, which will try to lift the America's Cup in the coming yachting classic, arrived here today on the steamship Celtic.

Sir Thomas said he was confident his vessel was the superior of either Vauclife or Resolute, her American rivals, and had no doubt he would carry the coveted trophy back to England with him. He expressed impatience to see the Shamrock IV, under sail and asked many questions about the yacht's preliminary trials.

Sir Thomas brought with him a golden eagle, formerly a part of a saloon decoration of the Yacht America, which was presented to him by two friends. The eagle as an emblem of "good luck," will be placed on board the challenger.

Sir Thomas, brown as a berry and beaming with good nature, greeted his friends with a smile of confidence. "I now have the best outfit that I ever sailed," he said. "I feel that I should lift the cup as I have now reached my majority—21 years—in yacht racing."

He said that he would give his immediate attention to his two yachts now here, and added that he had received an offer for a new mascot—a 15-year-old negro boy described as being "as black as the ace of spades and having red hair." The offer, he said, came from the mother of the boy, a resident of New Rochelle.

REPUBLICAN POLICY AFFRONT TO LABOR

The American Federation of Labor was preparing tonight to take revenge upon the Republican party for ignoring labor's platform demands.

The matter will be placed before the annual convention of the federation here tomorrow for action. Labor leaders announced they said that the first step would be the condemnation of the Republican party. It is then proposed to appeal to the Democratic party, promising organized labor's support, if it will accept labor's policy, in its platform.

President Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders were in session here tonight, discussing the situation and preparing a plan of action to be placed before the convention.

Labor leaders close to Mr. Gompers, however, asserted tonight that the action have no effect on the non-partisan political program, and there was not the "slightest possibility" of labor putting a party in the field this year.

Plumb on Railways

The Plumb plan of public ownership of the railroads with Democratic control was outlined to the convention by Glenn E. Plumb, of Washington, originator of the plan, in an address in which he asked the endorsement of his proposal by organized labor.

The solution of the whole railroad problem, he declared, was in the hands of organized labor—men who had neither wealth nor power, but only the good of the community and fellow-workers at heart.

James Simpson of Toronto, vice-president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, said today that if the federation wants to discuss Ireland, "that is their privilege."

LESSONS IN REVENGE.

"I was once 'tred' out of school for fighting with the teacher," said a writer in a New York periodical. "But it taught me one of the first lessons I ever learned. I was then only a little shaver and he was a great big giant. My heart was more in the out-of-doors than in books, and I've no doubt I was at fault. But he gave me such a vicious kick downstairs that I vowed to myself that giant who he was, I would some day get even with him."

"Shortly after I graduated from the mechanical engineering course at Yale, my father died, and I visited Detroit. Meanwhile, I had entered the Pennsylvania Railroad shops at Altoona as a special apprentice, and as I had stretched up to over six feet, weighed one hundred and seventy-five pounds, and had muscles well hardened by heavy work, I felt fit to tackle the fellow who had kicked me out of school so brutally. But when I ran across him he was not the giant of my boyish conception. He was just a little bit of a shriveled-up chap, and instantly all my thirst for revenge vanished.

"Then and there I decided that revenge was a thing not worth while; that it was senseless and even despicable. That first lesson has guided me ever since in all my relations with men. Revenge can hurt only the man harboring it."

The more money you save the more respect your heirs will have for you.

GENERAL HERRERO ADMITS TREACHERY

Says He Has No Personal Knowledge That Carranza Committed Suicide.

Mexico City, June 11.—Admission by General Rodolfo Herrero, who has been charged with responsibility for President Carranza's death, that he did not have personal knowledge that Carranza committed suicide, but that he was told so by one of the president's officers, featured the hearing last night before the federal court investigating the chief executive's death. A clash occurred during the session between Herrero and General Francisco Murguía, former minister of war, when the latter denied the statement that he had offered Herrero money. The court stopped the dispute.

Herrero declared that the officer who gave him the information that Carranza had committed suicide was only a cub.

BUSH FIRES STILL SERIOUS IN THE COBALT DISTRICT

Cobalt, June 11.—A change in the wind brought a little rain to Cobalt overnight, but the bush fires in this district are still raging. At Loon Lake, four miles from here, lumber camps are threatened, and fire rangers are fighting the fire with a pump brought from Temagami. Near Latchford some lumber has been destroyed, and the fire along the Montreal river are reported serious.

Ernesto Herrero, his cousin, who brought him the pistol with which he was alleged the president shot himself.

Herrero admitted having professed loyalty to Carranza and to having afterwards ordered his forces to attack the president, but said this was done to obtain information regarding the strength of the presidential escort. He stated he had received orders indirectly from Obregon to take Carranza alive. The president's forces however, learned of the intended attack and began firing, preventing his capture.

Corri Receipts Likely to Increase—Heat May Hurt Oat Crop.

Chicago, June 11.—Although absence of selling pressure led to a material upturn today in the value of corn, loans afterwards unloaded freely and brought about a reaction.

The close was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to one cent higher, with July $1.74 1/2 to $1.74 3/4, and September, $1.62 1/2 to $1.62 3/4. Oats gained 1/2 to 3/4 c. In provisions, the outcome was unchanged to lower.

Most of the demand on which the corn market advanced came from shorts who were uneasy at finding no signs of general bearish sentiment, despite apparent likelihood of somewhat larger receipts next week.

Planting was reported as rapidly nearing completion, with a liberal acreage almost assured. Chances of crop damage from hot weather tended to give independent strength to the oats market. Provisions were inclined to sag.
