TWENTY-FIVE NEGROES LYNCHED IN SIXTY DAYS

How Long. Asks Booker T. Washington, can our Christian Civilization Stand This?--A Powerful Arrangement of American Injustice.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 20--The World today prints a signed statement from Booker T. Washington, made at Baltimore today, in which the negro educator comments at length upon the recent lynchings in various parts of the country.

"Within the past sixty days twenty-five negroes have been lynched in different parts of the United States. Of this number only four of the twenty-five were even charged with criminal assault upon women. How long can our Christian civilization stand this? I am making no special plea for the negro, innocent or guilty, but I am calling attention to the danger that threatens our civilization."

"For the negro criminal and especially for the negro loafer, gambler and drunkard, I have nothing but the severest condemnation, and no legal punishment is too severe for the brute that assaults a woman."

"No doubt the people who engage in lynchings, and excuse them, believe that they will have the effect of striking terror to the guilty. But who shall say whether the persons lynched are these persons?"

13 Scrofulous Lumps

Inherited Disease—Eyes Affected—Weak, Could Hardly Walk—Life of Suffering.

Still Another Great Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla

The following letter is from Mr. Geo. A. Zirkle, School Teacher in Mt. Horeb, Tenn., well-known all through that county, where he was born and has always lived.

"Mt. Horeb, Tenn., Jan. 10, 1906. "C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

"I have suffered all my life, until lately, from inherited scrofula. When a mere babe I had a scrofulous sore back of my ear. At 21 I had 13 scrofulous lumps on my neck. As the disease assumed a new and tantalizing form. My eyes were affected so that I could not read after sunset, and when I closed them it was difficult to reopen them. There was always intolerable itching all over my body. Then a tumor on my neck changed to the front of my neck, suppurated and was followed by others, until six had formed and broken. I became so weak I could scarcely walk, and could hardly attend to my teaching. All the medicine I tried failed to help until I began the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In less than three months the sores healed, my troublesome catarrhals disappeared, and the scrofulous habit steadily grew less apparent. Today I am in the best of health, though more than ever in my life. Do you wonder that I believe in Hood's Sarsaparilla? It can do no less than recommend it everywhere and every day."

A Valuable Remedy. "I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as a valuable remedy for purifying the blood. As a spring medicine it is invaluable. I am using it for rheumatism and it is doing me good." Mrs. BELLA, 37 Hermit St., Montreal, Que.

Now the chance use of that language, no less than his perfect accent, went a long way toward removing the manager's suspicions. A boy who was so well educated must be quite out of the common. Perhaps some eccentric parent or guardian encouraged him to act independently thus early in life. He might be the son of a rich man coming to London for a special course of study. The name Anson, was an aristocratic one. But his clothes—they were odd. Good enough, but not the right thing. "I am recommending a good tailor," said Philip. "I need a complete outfit of wearing apparel, and it will save me a lot of trouble if somebody will tell me exactly what to buy and where to buy it."
His uncanny trick of thought reading disconcerted the manager greatly. Undoubtedly the boy was a puzzle. Never had this experienced manager met anyone more self-possessed, more direct, and yet, with it all, exceedingly polite. "I take it that you want the best?" he inquired, pleasantly.
"Yes."
"Are you lunching at the hotel?"
"I would like something sent here, if you please, and, there again, your advice will be most gratefully accepted."
The manager felt that a generation was growing up of which he knew nothing, but he simply answered.
"I will see to it. Do you—take wine?"
Philip laughed, that pleasant whole-souled laugh of his which instantly secured him friends.
"Not yet, Monsieur."
"Forst is my name."
"Well, Monsieur Forst, I am far too young as yet for either wine or tobacco. I promised my mother, I would touch neither until I am twenty-one, and I will keep my word. I think I would like some cafe au lait."
"I understand. Your dejeuner will be sent up in ten minutes. By the time you have finished, I will have people here from two or three establishments who will meet all your requirements in the shape of clothes and the rest."
An hour's talk and the payment of checks on account worked wonders. Before many days had passed Philip was amply provided with raiment. His presence in the hotel, too attracted no comment whatever. People who saw him coming or going, instantly assumed that he was staying with his people, while the manager took care that gossip among the employees was promptly stopped.
As for the ragged youth with the diamonds, he was forgotten, apparently. The newspapers dropped him, believing, indeed, that Isaacstein had worked some ingenious advertising dodge on his own account, and Messrs. Sharpe & Smith never dreamed of looking for the lost Philip Anson, the dervish from Johnson's Mews in the Pall Mall Hotel, the most luxurious and expensive establishment in London.
That afternoon, Philip visited the Safe Deposit Company. He had little difficulty of course, in securing a small strong-room. He encountered the wonted surprise at his youth, but the excellent argument of a banking account and the payment of a year's rent in advance soon cleared the air.
He transferred four of his portmanteaux to this secure abode—the fifth was sent to his hotel. When the light failed, he drove to the East End, and made a round of pawnbrokers' shops. Although some of the tickets were time-expired, he recovered nearly all his mother's belongings except her watch.
The odd coincidence recalled the inspector's implied promise that he should receive one as a recognition of his gift.

THE GREEK TYPE OF DRESS.
Charming gowns of the Greek type are voile, Marquisette or any other silken fabric of semi-transparent order. They are made in contrasting shades as brown over mauve, gray over rose and blue over green. The Greek robes are not so scant as are the Directoire, and their skirts show many graceful long-line effects. On most of them scarfs are worn, sometimes swathing the waist and falling in fringed ends at one side, and again draped diagonally across the shoulders, caught together at the waist and falling almost to the skirt hem at the front.

"The Nigger in the Wood-Pile."

Thousands of people go through life feeling more or less miserable without ever knowing the reason. They suffer from headaches, indigestion, pains in the back, and at the slightest chill get rheumatism or neuralgia. They try to cure these separate outbreaks, never suspecting that the root of the whole trouble is the failure of the bowels to move regularly, and in many cases the sluggish action of kidneys and skin. The result, of course, is that the whole system gets clogged with impurities, which soon turn to poison, and show their presence in various ways. "Fruit-tives"—fruit juice tablets—promptly stir up the sluggish liver, regulate the bowels, and stimulate the kidneys to do their work properly. Thus they cure all these troubles by removing the cause, and make it possible to really enjoy life. Six boxes for $2.50. Trial size 25c. Fruit-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WAS JESUS A JEW?

Professor Haupt Contends That the Redeemer Was Not Born in Bethlehem.

Berlin, August 19.—It remained for an American delegate to provide the principal theme of contention at the International Historical Congress, which has just concluded its session here. Professor Paul Haupt, of Baltimore, created a storm of discussion among German theologians by his address of "The History of Galilee," this title only veiling his real subject, which was based on the question: "Was Jesus a Jew?" Professor Haupt answered negatively, stating that Christ was not born in Bethlehem, according to the early Christian tradition, but in Nazareth. He contended that the assessment which necessitated Joseph's journey to Bethlehem occurred eleven years after Christ's birth. After a succession of arguments, Prof. Haupt put forward the contention that it was improbable that Christ was a descendant of David. It was probable, on the other hand, that he was a descendant of the Arayan Colonists of Galilee. Possibly, if his genealogical tree could be traced far enough, it would be shown that he was a descendant of Zoroaster.

It was at this point that a war of words ensued between Professor Haupt and the German professors. Professor Haupt's arguments were attacked in detail, and perhaps because it was a question of one against another, he did not waver. The leading German Biblical expert present expressed the pith of the German idea, when he said it was impossible to decide scientifically whether Christ was a Jew by race. The point of importance was that Christ was unquestionably a Jew by religion. Such a violent discussion was produced that the chairman's efforts to calm the controversialists were for a long time ineffectual.

ROOSEVELT AND OTHERS. President Roosevelt recently wrote the following letter to the boys and girls of Washington: "Through Dr. Curtis I learn many of you are taking an active part in athletic events. I am glad to see this. I believe in work and I do not believe in sacrificing work to play, but I most emphatically believe also in play. A boy or girl who has a healthy body will be all the better fit for serious work and if the health comes through vigorous sports pursued in an honorable, straightforward manner, not only the mind but the character is benefited."

IN LIGHTER VEIN. GOT WHAT THEY WANTED. A good old Georgia brother, who had decided to leave an unremunerative career, finding it impossible to collect his share, said in his farewell sermon, "I have little more to add, dear brethren, and the manner in which you have treated me proves that you have got it."

HOW HE GOT IN. An Episcopal rector travelling in the south, met a native, who, in his own profession an Episcopalian, asked the rector, "What confessions do you make?" "None," replied the rector. "But didn't you tell me you were an Episcopalian?" "Oh, yes," said the old man; "and I'll tell you how it is. Last spring I went down to New Orleans visiting. While I was there I went to church, and I heard a man say they had left undone things they'd ought to do. I said to myself, 'That's my fault, I calculate. I didn't do it right.' I calculated, and so I've been an 'Episcopalian' ever since."

THE SYDNEY FIREMEN. The Sydney firemen have made a slight change in their uniforms, by having the letters on their caps changed. The letters originally were "S. F. D." but owing to the confusion which arose at several St. John tournaments, owing to several departments having the same letters, "S. F. D." on their caps, namely, Sussex and St. John's fire departments, the committee decided to have the letters "S. Y. D. N. E. Y." placed on the caps, which has now been done, and besides distinctly showing the name of the department makes the whole uniform more attractive.—Sydney Post.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL BUREAU.

The general stock market continues in the trading area with special movements up and down as suggested would be witnessed. Daily operations should be governed by individual positions expecting extension to move either way. There is a great deal of manipulation with the least to continue. There is a catering to the short interest which of course invokes uncertainty and special weakness, with over sold rallies may develop. On heavy activity after reactions purchase may be made for turns with the protection in the stock, while "weak states" may be sold on rallies under like conditions.

J. J. HILL WOULD AID TRADE WITH CANADA
Time Favorable for Movement Toward Reciprocity, Declares Railroad Man.

James J. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern Railway, makes a strong argument in favor of reciprocity with Canada.

"The present time is a favorable one for a practical movement toward better trade relations with Canada," said Mr. Hill.

"During her infancy Canada was always anxious for better relations with her southern neighbor. After she had been shut out and forced to rely upon herself she carried forward plans for self development that have fostered a feeling of independence.

"Let us for a moment drop political theories and all the prejudices and preconceptions trailing after them and look at the situation as a plain business problem. Great Britain is our best foreign customer. Germany next and Canada third. Under these conditions she is a neighbor to be well considered and taken note of."

EXHIBITIONS SHOW WHO ARE ENTERPRISING

Exhibitions show something besides the Goods of the Merchant, the Product of the Manufacturer and the Harvest of the Farmers.

Exhibitions show WHO ARE THE Enterprising Men in the Country—Look over the lists of Entries in the Exhibition the last Ten years and you will find the names of concerns who are wide awake who are looking for business—and find it.

This is part of the work of Exhibitions. They afford Business Men chances to show what is in them—to show that they are alive—wake not only to their own interest but to those of their Communities.

Did you ever think about it in that way?

The Bankers and the wholesalers as they walk the streets pass the business places of customers—They are quick to note Enterprise and eager for it's success wherever they see it.

The men who see what you are doing in the Exhibition may not be your bankers or those you buy from, but they are likely to be more important still. They will be the people who buy from you, and it's up to you to make good, to show that you have the spirit and enterprise to take part in a Great Public Exhibition promoted for the benefit of business—the business of the manufacturers, the farmer and the merchant.

The St. John Exhibition—September 12th to 19th will be a great success—a great unqualified success.

Are you going to help it along and get some of the benefit yourself.

R. H. ARNOLD, Manager.

RESULT OF YESTERDAY'S SHOOTING AT SUSSEX

Capt. Smith Wins the Prince of Wales Cup and E. F. Gladwin the Association Match--The 62nd Get the Sinclair Cup.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 19--The range was crowded with leading shots of the province all day and the presence of many of the fair sex lent additional interest to the proceedings. What promised to be an ideal day for shooting the wind in early stages being light and gusty--turned out to be a hard one on shooters. By 1 o'clock the wind freshened to a marked degree and became tricky and for a time it looked as if rain would spoil the afternoon scores.

In the big Association match--one of the most important of the meeting--the shooting was away off on the 200 yard range, and leading shots made small scores at this distance. Getting back to the 100 and 50 yards ranges the shooting improved wonderfully and some fairly respectable cards were turned in through Gladwin's 88 is not a first class score under the conditions, which, up to the end of the match, were all that could be desired.

The team prize in this competition was won by the Moncton rifle club, with a score of 291, much to the disgust of the members of the St. John Rifle Club, whose members made 304 but, through an error, their entry was overlooked. The full results in the Donville match are:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes names like Pte. S. J. Burlock, Sgt. A. Mearns, etc.

This match was at 1,000 yards, 10 shots and the tricky wind played havoc with some of the combatants.

W. J. Kennedy, Moncton Pleasant R. A. is making excellent showing. He has won the Donville cup and in the shoot-off with Mr. Duncan captured the Kinross plate which now becomes his property. He is second in the McLean match.

The Sinclair cup for teams entered in the association match was won by the 62nd team, of St. John, who became owners, having taken it twice in succession.

Captain E. A. Smith, of St. John, won the Prince of Wales cup. He and W. J. Kennedy tied at 63 on Tuesday but Kennedy did not appear for the shoot-off.

"AMATEUR" BALL TO BE LOOKED INTO

Montreal Teams Use Term "as an Ornament"---C. A. A. U. to Grapple With the Matter.

Montreal, Aug. 20--The state into which so-called "amateur" ball has got itself in regard to amateurism has been a topic of conversation among sporting men for a long time. Recently, however, the subject has received the attention of some of the men in authority. Before very long it will undoubtedly be sufficiently before the general public to warrant the application to it of the term, "a real live threat."

Now comes a hint of the drawing of a line. From a remark dropped by one of the governors of the C. A. A. U., the amateur standing of the players in the city and other senior baseball leagues throughout Canada is being quietly investigated by the Registration Committee of that body.

IRISH-CANADIANS TO BRING BACK ENGLISHMEN

Appley and Duncan, Crack Runners to Come Over for Canadian Association's Field Day.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 19--The L. C. A. C., with the object of working fresh interest into their athletic meet in the middle of September, are moving to bring out the English crack distance runners, Appley and Duncan. These men have been written to, and they say they will race with Tom Longboat at any distance from ten to fifteen miles.

M. A. A. A. DIRECTORS BACK UP THEIR PRESIDENT IN LONGBOAT PROTEST.

Montreal, Aug. 19--The M. A. A. A. directors at a meeting held Monday night passed the following resolution:

HARRY NILES JOINS RED SOX. President John I. Taylor of the Red Sox has traded Frank Laporte for Harry Niles of the New York club.

GOING TO JOB IN NEW YORK. Toronto, August 19--Thomas McLaughry the West End Y. M. C. A. runner, who accomplished the feat of running the 778 mile distance in 24 hours, 22 minutes and 22 seconds, expects to go to New York next week as an officer in the 22nd Street Police.

THE NICK NAMES OF THE MAJOR LEAGUE TEAMS. How They Got Them--Information That Will Interest Followers of the Game.

All of the teams of the big leagues have their nicknames and most of them are known better by their names than by the cities they represent.

AMERICAN LEAGUE. Boston--Red Sox. Cleveland--Naps. New York--Highlanders.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. New York--Giants. Brooklyn--Superbas. Cincinnati--Reds. Philadelphia--Phillies. Pittsburgh--Pirates.

Wolverine was dropped for the Tigers. The team managed by Hugh Jennings last year certainly lived up to its name, for it was the fighting spirit of the club that made the winning of the pennant possible.

A number of years ago in the day of the Brotherhood, the National League and the American Association, one of the teams in Philadelphia was known as the old name in order to distinguish its club from the National League.

The Cleveland team is known throughout the baseball world as the Naps. When referring to the local club the fan invariably says the Naps rather than the Clevelanders.

The Washington team had a million names until some one handed the club the alias Nationals, and it stuck. The fact that Washington is the national capital evidently caused the inspiration.

Chicago--Cubs. Philadelphia--Phillies. Pittsburgh--Pirates.

Smith and Burlock of St. John Tie in the McLean Match.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 20—(Special).—The county match, with five teams shooting—Carlton, St. John, Kings, Victoria and Westmorland—was the feature this morning. The light was good. This match will be shot at three ranges, 200, 500 and 800 by teams of eight men.

Scores posted in McLean match show a tie between S. W. Smith and S. J. Burlock, both of St. John. They will shoot off for the cup and divide $18, ten to the first and eight to the second. Results in McLean match were:

HON. DR. PUGSLEY PRESENT AND TAKES PART IN THE CENTRAL RAILWAY CASE

Dr. Pugsley asked if this was in evidence, and on being told it was, he inquired as to what page.

Mr. Powell said it appeared in an order-in-council, which he thought had been drawn up by Dr. Pugsley.

While Mr. Powell was looking up the evidence Dr. Pugsley asked the witness if he knew that some rails which were bought from the Dominion government had been paid for in cash. Senator King said he did not know, but Mr. Carvell stated that the item appeared in the statement prepared by Mr. McAvity, which would be produced later.

Dr. Pugsley at this point was handed a copy of the order-in-council, and having examined it, said it showed that the $13,000 was to be deducted from the subsidy.

Mr. Powell said that this had not been done, as Mr. Babbitt's evidence showed it had been paid twice.

Dr. Pugsley said he could not accept that statement until he had looked into the matter himself. He thought Mr. Babbitt was mistaken.

As it was 1 o'clock, the enquiry was adjourned until 2.30 this afternoon, when Geo. McAvity and John A. Wheaton will probably be examined.

A BOGEY MAN

That the two north end lads, Randolph Fish and Harold McIntyre, could not have seen a dead body on Monday as reported by them is the opinion of Police Sergt. Kilpatrick, head of the north end division. He believes that the boys were badly frightened by something and their imagination has run riot. The Sergt. tells of going down into the hole pointed out by the boys as the place where the body was seen, and making careful examination. He could find no marks in the earth or near by and at the hole was some eight feet deep there would naturally be some evidence of the body's removal. Further, he considers it impossible that a body in that state as indicated could long remain where it was without being detected by the odor of decomposition, as the place is continually frequented by berry pickers at this time of year.

THE CASE OF E. OUGLER

Editor Times:—Sir:—Last January our things were taken for rent as my husband was out of work. He never sold a thing for liquor since ever he drank. He has never abandoned me or my children only on occasions of being away to work. He was foolish when he was drinking but outside of that he has been a good, kind husband. I have no fault to find with him. I have never wanted for anything. What he hasn't provided his father and mother has. He has never ill-used me. He has always been kind to me, only he took a glass of liquor as many another man has done and got in with a bad woman who wanted his money.
