REV. DR. RAYMOND TAKES FEAR AS SUBJECT

Rector of St. Mary's Continues His Course of Sermons on the Ministry of Healing.

In continuation of his series of sermons upon the Ministry of Healing, Rev. Dr. Raymond spoke in St. Mary's church last evening on the subject of Fear, to a very large congregation. The text was a double one, Matt. xiv-30: "But when he (Peter) saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid, etc.; and 1 John iv-18: "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath torment."

There is, he said, a false impression abroad today that religion has little to do with the ordinary affairs of life. The duty of man is to be a Christian, not to be a saint. The ordinary duties of life are not to be neglected, but to be done in a Christian spirit. The Christian who does not count the every day ways of men does not count for much. The true Christian is one who has his feet on the ground and his heart in heaven. He is not afraid of the world, the flesh, or the devil. He is not afraid of the future. He is not afraid of death. He is not afraid of anything. He is not afraid of anything. He is not afraid of anything.

There are those who tell us that the dark shadows of these gloomy days are upon us. They tell us that the world is in a state of confusion. They tell us that the people are in a state of despair. They tell us that the future is dark and gloomy. They tell us that the world is in a state of confusion. They tell us that the people are in a state of despair. They tell us that the future is dark and gloomy. They tell us that the world is in a state of confusion. They tell us that the people are in a state of despair. They tell us that the future is dark and gloomy.

The preacher appealed to the young people who were present to be brave. He told them that they should not be afraid of the world, the flesh, or the devil. He told them that they should not be afraid of the future. He told them that they should not be afraid of anything. He told them that they should not be afraid of anything. He told them that they should not be afraid of anything.

Now the purpose of fear is to stimulate, not enslave. A healthy fear of indignity will lead to prudence, industry and thrift. But the man who would let this morbid fear become the curse of his life, making his heart hard, closing his ears to the cry of distress, degrading the whole man into a grasping, money-grubber makes him poor indeed. The Emmanuel movement has as one of its axioms "Moral thoughts can be driven out only by other and healthy ones." There is need of re-education, morally and spiritually to meet such cases as these.

In man the principle of fear is wider than in the animal. Fears that arise from sense, from conscience and imagination mark our people. There is one fear that is absolutely universal—the fear of death. Man is able to project himself into the future and to know a little of the mystery of dying. The fear of death for millions takes the seat out of existence and makes the heavens gray. But to the Christian and the one who could say "I believe in the resurrection of the body and the life of the world to come" there was no slavish fear for St. John has said "perfect love casteth out fear." To the childlike mind death was surrounded by a halo of mystery. "The King of terrors." Yet medical science assures us ("and the observation of my own ministerial life confirms it," the preacher added) "no special misery is brought by the dying in the vast majority of cases. Not as much conscious pain and suffering as the great majority of people have endured many a time in their lives. The 'death-agony,' so called, was a misnomer. Professor Oiler states that in 200 carefully recorded cases only ninety persons showed consciousness of acute suffering at the last and in every case this was connected with the disease and not with the death-agony." Christian death and

HESTIA ARRIVES AFTER MANY DAYS

Donaldson Liner Long Overdue Reached Port Yesterday—She Was Delayed by Bad Weather.

The steamer Hestia, in command of Captain Sealby, arrived in port yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from Glasgow, after a very rough and stormy voyage. She brought five passengers and a general cargo. The steamer left Glasgow on Jan. 9, and for the first nine days made very slow progress; in one day she made only thirty miles against a heavy sea and head wind; other days she advanced only forty, sixty and eighty miles. The whole passage was hasty and the crew were fatigued.

THE SOUTH AFRICA MEN'S LAND GRANTS

M. M. Reynolds, of Halifax, is at the Royal. He is here in the interests of the South African Veterans' Mutual Protective Association, Ltd., and today will meet P. Jones, B. Armstrong and G. W. Triggs, who represent the New Brunswick Veterans, and discuss what arrangements can be made to raise the necessary funds to participate in the plans of the association. The Hestia is now at the Corporation pier.

INTERESTING ITEMS

Ungar's teams are constantly on the go in every street in St. John. Half one and know what it is to be unburdened of your wash. You are not obliged to go very deep in your pocket for the best 35¢ suit or overcoat made to your measure; $10.00 will do the trick at Pigeon's custom department, corner Main and Bridge streets.

STION GAUMONT FEATURE AT "STAR"

The new Star Theatre in Union Hall, North End, has a particularly strong picture-features for tonight and tomorrow in Gaumont's new drama "Married The Second Time," a social play with a unique plot. The firm of Gaumont, Paris, is the best rival of Pathé Freres, and its production factor in the independent film makers now merged with the motion picture trust. The picture is beautifully photographed and cleverly enacted. The other pictures are: "The Bewildered Professor" and "The Vain Wife." Miss Van Brundage has a new song and the same bright sparkling music will rule.

WILL SUE CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY

C. P. R. Suing the City for Some $8,000 in Connection With Union St. Landslide—City Will Fight Case.

At the monthly meeting of the common council last night the principal feature will be the report of the reorganization committee recommending the appointment of a board of control. It is understood the question of the exemption of small incomes will not be taken up but will be made the subject of a report to be dealt with at a special meeting. A summons out of the supreme court in the suit of the C. P. R. and the city, in which the company claims $8,000 damages in connection with the reconstruction of Union street, Carleton, is among the communications to be considered. Following a recent decision of the recorder the city is willing to pay $4,132 and will contest the balance of the company's claim.

BABY KILLED BY MOUNTAIN LION

California Mother Saw Her Two Year Old Child Torn to Pieces by Savage Beast.

Balboa, Cal., Jan. 31.—A mountain lion cunningly hunted and mangled body of her two-year-old boy, was the sight that greeted Mrs. Chris Brown last night when she entered the family tent, four miles to the hotel Delmar, after a short walk. The mother in despair, rushed screaming at the beast. The lion growled savagely and backed slowly out of the rear of the tent, its mouth dripping with the baby's blood, and disappeared. The lion had partly dismembered the child after she was taken to the tent. The Brown family arrived from Delmar two weeks ago.

CHICAGO MARKET REPORT

Chicago Market Report. The general situation, both financial and commercial, without anxiety. The dullness in trade is only comparative as to what was expected after election. The tariff consideration is evidently holding back operations in all directions where a change in duties would be of importance, thus limiting purchases to all immediate needs. In line with this the tariff has no effect, business is proceeding with gratifying regularity.

N. Y. STOCK MARKET

N. Y. Stock Market. Monday, Feb. 1, 1909. New York Stock Quotations, Chicago Market. Twelve industrials declined 3 1/2 points. Twenty active rails declined 38 per cent. New York—The floating supply of stocks in Wall Street is enormous, larger than it has been in several years and the indications are that the buying power of the public is pretty thoroughly exhausted. Of course the market may rally, but in our opinion it will recede to considerable lower prices and should be sold on all rallies.

TO PREVENT TUBERCULOSIS

Scientists who have made a study of the cause and cure of the Great White Plague seem to be united in the belief that the disease receives its greatest impetus from the unsanitary conditions which generally prevail in the congested districts of the centres of population. The old style tenement is regarded as a favorite breeding place for the deadly germ. It is also an accepted fact that the habit of a great many people in treating a common cold as of little consequence tends to invite the disease. At the first indication of a cold steps should be taken to check it at once.

THE INTERCOLONIAL "The most commonplace kind of humor is that which deals in exaggeration. It is sometimes very funny and very effective. Not always, however. For example, when the editor of Collier's Weekly, Canadian edition, applies it to the Intercolonial Railway as he does in last week's issue, one is not disposed to laugh at the result—especially if one is at all conversant with the facts. The editor of Collier's, after stating that commercial travellers speak of the I. C. R. as the "tanbark route," asserts that it is "the tedious knock of finding out the greatest distance between two points," and "goes zigzag, like a snake fence, so that it won't miss a flag station." He asserts that the I. C. R. is "a million dollars a year overmanned and about that much underpaid."

It has a sumptuous passenger service. Its first-class coaches may easily be mistaken for palace cars. It supplies a dollar-and-a-half dinner for twenty-five cents. It runs three trains where two ought to do. Its freight rates are arranged so as to displease nobody. It isn't grouchy, like other railways, about passes. There is much free travelling on it at all times, and more around elections. There are four great events in every Bluenose's life—his birth, death, marriage, and a free ride on the Intercolonial. If he didn't get the free ride he would consider that the other three had happened in vain. The Intercolonial is something more than a railway. It is a college of manners for trainhands. The brakeman, for example, is a deep thinker on public questions, and is never too busy to leave his duties and talk politics in the smoking compartment. Also it is a charitable foundation, an ark of the covenant, a house of refuge for decayed gentlemen from the maritime provinces who have not found their work congenial elsewhere.

This is not humor. Printed as part of the leading editorial, in a weekly which professes to have a wide circulation and some influence, it is misleading and injurious. It grossly misrepresents both the management and staff of the railway, and also the attitude of the people of the maritime provinces toward the road and its management. If the editor of Collier's seeks a fitting subject for satire or burlesque, those earnest and patriotic souls who inspired the agitation to have the government railway turned over to a company should not escape his arguings. The people of the lower provinces have good reason to complain that their attitude toward the Intercolonial is misrepresented. They have never insisted that it should be part of an expensive political machine, operated for their sole benefit. They have held, with perfect justice, that it, as well as the canals, is an important part of Canada's transportation system, and that it should be extended to serve a larger territory. They do not object to the application of sound business principles to its management.

AN EX-ALDERMAN AS A LIFE SAVER

(Fredericton Herald.) Ex-Alld Kelly, who serves the city letter boxes, was the means of saving the life of an unfortunate on Thursday night. He was driving down Charlotte street, at a late hour, when his attention was attracted by a dark object lying in the gutter. He made an investigation and found that the object was a man loaded to the neck with liquor. He was lying in the snow and would undoubtedly have perished had not the ex-alderman played the part of the good Samaritan and removed him to the police station. The fellow came around all right, and the following morning paid $3 for his night's lodging.

A REAR END COLLISION

During the blizzard at McAdam on Saturday, a rear end collision occurred between two freight trains. The rear van and one box car of one train and the head light of the engine on the other were smashed. The line was blocked for some hours. The Boston train was delayed in consequence, and did not reach the city until five o'clock Sunday morning.

Too much time is wasted in trying to reform things that are not worth reforming.

position to misrepresent to the public abroad the real spirit of the Canadian people. This country Canadianizes those who become citizens. It has been much influenced in its development by its neighbor to the south, and this influence will continue; but when an intelligent man settles in Canada and comes to realize its immense resources and vast possibilities, he becomes a Canadian, and has no thought of being Americanized. He knows that great as the country to the south may be, there is boundless opportunity on this side of the border for a distinctive development, related to its neighbor only by the ties of mutual esteem.

The Conservatives of British Columbia must be deeply humiliated by the exposure of the fraud perpetrated in connection with the Borden telegram. The people on the Atlantic coast of Canada were treated to an affidavit, and those on the Pacific coast to a telegram. In each case an effort was made to mislead the public, and in each case it was a Conservative plot. The Victoria Colonist has just told the story of the forged telegram. That paper was misled. The real telegram was taken from the telegraph editor's desk and the one which was printed was a counterfeit. The Colonist apologizes to its readers for permitting itself to be deceived. In view of such exposures as this, the Conservative party is at a great disadvantage in parliament and in the country. Mr. Borden must bear the burden of the political sins of his followers.

One of the most important questions to be answered at the enquiry concerning the boulders at No. 6 berth on the West Side, is this: Why was not the dredging done before the winter steamers began to arrive? Those boulders did not grow, nor were they suddenly thrust up by seismic disturbance. They were left there by the dredges, and a survey of the bottom would have located them immediately after the dredges ceased work. There was gross negligence on the part of somebody, and the responsibility should be placed on this investigation. By the way, does the board of works propose to investigate itself?

It is announced that the Salvation Army will continue its work of bringing immigrants to Canada. So far as we know, the only objection to the class of immigrants brought out by the Army has been made by Labor Organizer Trotter, and as Col. Howell observes, it is not well sustained in Canada to shut the door in the face of thirifty and hard-working settlers.

The result of today's meeting of the city council will be awaited with much interest by the citizens, who desire to know whether there is to be any important result from all the consideration and discussion of improved methods of civic government. There is also much curiosity to learn what the alderman will do with the proposed disfranchisement of some thousands of citizens.

The address by Professor Leacock on the external relations of Canada, to be delivered before the Canadian Club tomorrow evening, will be one of great interest. Professor Leacock has made a tour of the Empire since he was last heard in St. John, and his outlook has been broadened by that experience. His message should be well worth hearing, and filled with valuable suggestions.

The American house of representatives has voted half a million dollars for army experiments with balloons and airships. All the great powers are making such experiments and the balloon is certain to play an important part for observation purposes in future wars.

Mount Royal, which lies behind the city of Montreal, is described by some scientists as an extinct volcano. Possibly this explains the earthquake shock which was felt in that city last night.

In view of the exposure of the fraud in connection with the Borden telegram, Hon. Mr. Templeman should be elected in Connoix-Atlin by a record majority.

THE STORY LAND

Come, little boy, with the smiling face, Climb to my knee in the old old place. And hold me the vision you would behold. Glimpses of musical places fair, Under the stars and the sun's strand. Shuggle close and we'll journey there, Into the wonderful Story Land.

Now we enter the fairy dell, All set to a dreamy croon; Under sweet Cinderella— Yes, we'll pay her a visit soon. Sweet Peet Riding lives back there, Just at the edge of the forest grand, Down where the wild flowers blossom fair, Out in the rollicking Story Land.

Clasp me close with your baby hands, Softly now! for we're gliding down Into the bay of the Bayou Land, Just at the borders of Slumberland. Here is the garden where once there grew Jack's huge beanstalk, to wondrous height; And the magical goose that flew With the old woman who swept the sky.

Can't you see in the freight's place, Shadowy visions of a time? Ghosts of Storyland's dreamy days? Hark, little dreamers, to strains of song! Synthetic notes from fairy land, Drifting drowsily from sleep's Story Land.

Softly the wearied eyelids close, Folded over the hands so fair, Lulled by the lullaby croon, Smiling into the Dreamland there. See, and wonder, the dead Man comes, Tripping lightly across the strand, Glad to refrain from sleep's Story Land.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO BENEFIT YOUR CITY? Rev. A. B. Cohoe Asks This Question in Address at the Every Day Club Last Evening.

"St. John a better city because you live in it?" was the searching question put by Rev. A. B. Cohoe at the Every Day Club last evening. Mr. Cohoe led up to this question by a thoughtful discussion of the relation of the people of a city to each other, and the influence of the conduct of each upon the general welfare. He applied his remarks to men and women, and to young and old, and to each of them put the question quoted. He pointed out not only the evil effects of intemperance, but of that sober selfishness which contents itself with taking everything that is offered and giving nothing in return.

Mr. Cohoe led up to this question by a thoughtful discussion of the relation of the people of a city to each other, and the influence of the conduct of each upon the general welfare. He applied his remarks to men and women, and to young and old, and to each of them put the question quoted. He pointed out not only the evil effects of intemperance, but of that sober selfishness which contents itself with taking everything that is offered and giving nothing in return.

AMUSEMENTS:
ITALIAN EARTHQUAKE AT THE NICKEL TODAY:
The first reel of the depicting the consequences of the awful earthquake and tidal disturbances in Sicily a few weeks ago arrived in America last Thursday. Today this wonderfully interesting picture will be shown at the Nickel with explanations and additional motion pictures of Messina before it fell a prey to the catastrophe. The Nickel management asks patrons to send their children in the afternoon and to see early themselves in the evening, as they are expected to be great.

The earthquake pictures will include: Reggio, its 100 feet long and 100 feet wide under the debris; Reggio entirely wiped out, with a long series of scenes throughout the country; Panormus of Messina before and after the "quake, tour of the city in its present state, scenes in demolished Stannus, What the Great Tidal Wave Did in Reggio and Messina, The Rescue Work of soldiers and Men-of-Warships, Relief Camps, The Grievous Cemetery. The film is more than 97 feet long and with the additional pictures in Messina prior to the earthquake the tour will be nearly 1,000 feet or a matter of twenty minutes.

The remainder of the Nickel's programme will show the three selections by Miss Earle, harpist-vocalist; the song, "Shining Star," by Miss Forrester; the song, "Take Me Home," by Mr. Cairns, and a travel film and comedy by Pathe Freres of Paris; orchestral interludes.

CAMERAPHONE TONIGHT AT THE OPERA HOUSE:
The cameraphone will open a new engagement tonight; meantime every day commencing tomorrow. Monday and Tuesday's programme will include Election Day on the Bowery, giving a glimpse of New York politics. Next on the programme are Mack and Hill, in German character sketches; Baron and Worthly, in songs from Cupid's Wedding Bells. Blossom Row, an excellent song specialty; another first class number. Dalton and Walton in their funny black face act, will conclude the bill. This programme will commence at 7 o'clock tonight and is for Monday and Tuesday only. Patrons are asked to be in the Opera House as early as possible to see hundreds of people to attend.

A MUSICAL TREAT:
All who enjoy band music are looking forward to a treat in the concert to be given by the 62nd band, assisted by the Carleton Cornet band, in the Opera House on February 4th. An excellent programme has been prepared, including some of the special numbers played at the Quebec centenary.

FELL THIRTY FEET; NOT BADLY HURT:
While trying to perform an acrobatic feat on a banister in the Carleton city hall on Saturday evening, Frank Armstrong, youngest son of James Armstrong, fell nearly thirty feet from the railing to the floor, and narrowly escaped being killed.

He was found in a semi-conscious condition and removed to his home in Rodney street, where Dr. F. L. Kenney attended him. His injuries are not of a serious nature.

Mrs. John Joyce, of Prince street, Carleton, was taken to the hospital yesterday afternoon in the ambulance, suffering from appendicitis. She was operated on during the evening and was reported last night to be resting comfortably.

THE PROBLEM OF THE NEBRIBUTE

Thoughtful Article in a Toronto Paper Dealing With One of the Greatest Problems of the Age

(Mail and Empire).

An interesting report has just been issued by a Departmental Committee on the English Inebriate Act. Last April the committee was instructed to investigate the problem of the drunkard, especially the possibility of the State forcing inebriates to submit themselves to treatment by drugs, with a view of destroying the drink habit. The committee believes that it would be an impossibility to enforce drug treatment by Act of Parliament, and points out that those who have been treated, successfully or otherwise, are not the most likely to have the courage to surrender themselves to the management of a doctor or specialist of their own free will. The committee thinks, to force a man to take a cure against his will, is a matter of which the State should not be anxious to be cured and who make a mental effort in sympathy with the action of the drug are, presumably, the most likely to have the courage to surrender themselves to the management of a doctor or specialist of their own free will.

COMOX-ATLIN DATE IS SET

Nomination is on February 8 and Polling on Feb. 20—Conservative Paper Advises Against Contest But One Will Be Held.

Winnipeg, Jan. 31.—The Comox-Atlin campaign has started, according to a despatch from Victoria (B. C.), and Hon. Mr. Templeman and William Sloan are touring the district. Nominations take place at Prince Rupert on Feb. 5 and election Feb. 20.

The leading Conservative daily of British Columbia, News-Advertiser, published at Vancouver by F. Carter Coster, a member of the McBride government, comes out editorially in support of Templeman. It says it would be ungenerous to oppose him after the way Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sloan acted in seeking to make the retention of the portfolio in the province possible. This seems to be the view of most of the Conservative leaders, but the rank and file are anxious for a fight. Michael Manson, of Cumberland, will likely be the Conservative candidate.

The Victoria Colonist explains the change in Borden's telegram in the following statement: "We find on investigation that Borden's telegram of 24th Oct. was taken from the telegraph editor's desk shortly after it was received and was never returned to the Colonist office. It was nearly midnight when the telegram was received, and about that time a transcription of the report from notes was taken to a photo-engraving plant for the purpose of reproduction.

"We cannot excuse ourselves for being remiss in allowing the telegram to be published in this manner. We should have satisfied ourselves of its bona fides by going to the C. P. R. telegraph office in the absence of the original and securing a certified copy. We would then have discovered the regrettable alteration and put it right at once.

"We must, however, assume the responsibility of inexcusable neglect and endeavor by exercising greater care in the future to protect our paper and its friends."

WAS NEARLY CHOKED BY A PIECE OF MEAT:
A young man named James Albert Walker, who is employed by Fred. Duncanson, about three miles from Fairville, met with a mishap on Saturday night, but for the prompt assistance of Dr. M. L. Macfarland, might have had serious results. He was eating dinner when a large piece of bone and meat slipped down his throat, choking him.

Mr. Duncanson quickly drove Walker into Fairville, and when Dr. Macfarland's office was reached the unfortunate man was gasping for breath. It was only after considerable difficulty that the obstacle was removed. By that time it was half way down the piece was about the size of an egg. Walker left with Mr. Duncanson, apparently none the worse for his experience.

The Donalson Hotel Concerts called from Glasgow for St. John last Saturday morning.

Hon. Robert Maxwell last week visited the Provincial Hospital, Lancaster, with Architect H. H. Mott, who will at once prepare plans for rebuilding the burned portion. Mr. Maxwell said last night that the part of the west wing destroyed will be built probably very much on the old lines. The commissioners may decide to make a few minor changes, but he was unprepared to say what they might be.

A PLATE YOU CAN EAT WITH; HELD IN POSITION BY OUR NEWLY IMPROVED QUADRUPLE ATTACHMENT. People don't want artificial teeth to carry around in their pockets nor keep at home in their breast drawers so they will come where to find them when the door bell rings, they want teeth for service.

If you have a plate that no dentist has been able to make fit, why not try us; we have satisfied thousands and why not you? Our teeth are so natural in size, shape, color and the expression they afford to the features as to defy detection EVEN BY A DENTIST unless closely examined.

One new attachment holds them as solid almost as though they were riveted in the mouth.

ST. JOHN SCHOONER TOWED INTO BOSTON

Boston, Feb. 1.—The schooner Tay, from St. John, was towed into the harbor Friday with about everything on board frozen up. Before the anchor could be let go it took every man in the crew an hour from New Brunswick on the 13th of the month. See what happened:

She was driven into Machias by a furious hurricane, and she had just poked her nose out when an even worse battle with the seas began. Captain Salcan couldn't put back, and when he was running for shelter in Bass Harbor, the craft struck the bar and began to leak. The pumps wouldn't work and the water gained in the hold. When she got over the bar a tug was sent from Boston to tow her the rest of the way.

After she was pumped out the journey began again. But even at the end of a hauler the going was so bad that the crew had to run into Boothbay to save herself from a frightful beating. Thursday the mighty blow, and a steady gale was blown to bits. And to finish things up about right, the seas froze as soon as they struck the ship coming across the bay and all hands turned to and chopped their way out of the icebergs. She will go on the railway for repairs.

The Tay left this port on the 13th inst. with 1223 tons plank and boards shipped by A. Cushing & Co. for Boston, and P. McIntyre, of this city, is her managing owner.

AFTERMATH OF SUNDAY'S FIRE

Reid Bros. Stock Will Be Total Loss—Believe Electric Light Wire Caused Fire.

Reid Bros' store, King street, which was gutted by fire early Sunday morning, presents a desolate looking sight today. The front of the building is scarred and blackened, windows are out, the roof is gone, and huge icicles adorn the building and electric light wires. Inside is a mass of ice-encased charred wood and stock. The stock will probably be a total loss. The fire is believed to have originated on the second floor from an electric light wire. A temporary office has been opened by the firm in Fraser, Fraser & Co's building, corner King and Germain streets. The insurance amounts to $11,000.

Dunlop, Cooke & Co's store was damaged considerably by smoke and water, but the stock was all safely removed. Geo. W. Cooke, a member of the firm, arrived this morning from Halifax to look after affairs. This firm carried $4,000 insurance, which will protect them from loss.

A. O. Skinner's carpet warehouses were invaded by the dense smoke and considerable damage done.

GIBBS MET TROUBLE IN THE WEST INDIES

New York Safesman Spent Four Weeks in Jail in British Guiana on False Charge of Theft.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 31.—George W. Gibbs, New York safesman, reached here today on board the steamer Korona from the West Indies. He was held for four weeks in strict confinement in a jail in British Guiana, having been falsely accused of robbing a Santiago, Cuba, bank of $2,000. A friendly guard smuggled out a letter to his friends which called their attention to his predicament.

Gibbs went to South America last October, and concluding his business engagement, prepared to leave British Guiana on December 22, when he was arrested. Notwithstanding that his passports and baggage and other evidence submitted by him, showed that it was a case of mistake, Gibbs was remanded to prison for sixty days and was not permitted to cable or write to his country. He managed to get paper and pencil from the guard and wrote to this city. His release, through intervention of the state department, followed.

Speaking of his experience in the jail, Mr. Gibbs said:—

"My arrest was an outrage, and I purpose laying the facts before the state department at Washington, in order that the British government may properly be called to account in the premises. The outcome may lead to greater security of the freedom of American travelers abroad. The British government should be compelled by congress to hold United States passports more sacred, instead of practically ignoring them."

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

Rockefeller Might Have Been Pope, Harriman Would Have Trimmed, Caesar and Roosevelt Could Have Discounted Luther's Revolution.

Detroit, Feb. 1.—Rev. S. S. Marquis, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, created amusement at a meeting of laymen, men when he arose to speak on the "Elements of Success."

"My particular line is fire insurance," he said. "I am in the business, just as you are in your work, to assure people against the damages which may occur in the future."

"If John D. Rockefeller had bent his energies to the priesthood, I have not the slightest doubt he would be occupying the Vatican today."

"If Harriman had lived at the time of Caesar and had set out to overthrow that monarch, it would have been nip and tuck between them."

"If Roosevelt had taken up religious work, Martin Luther and his little reformation would not have been in it for a minute."

THE MISFORTUNES OF A NORTH SHORE MINISTER

Chatham, N. B., Feb. 1.—(Special)—The death occurred this morning at St. Luke's Methodist parsonage of Mary Dawson, aged ten, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Dawson. The child had been ill with scarlet fever for a few days. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Dawson and family. This is the second child they have lost since the epidemic broke out, and the parsonage in that time has been quarantined five times.
