Registration.

Important Information That All Citizens of London Should Be Cognizant of.

The registrars appointed to perfect the voters' lists, upon which the polling will take place for the Provincial elections on March 1, will begin their duties on Friday next, Feb. 4, at 9 a.m. The registrars will sit from that hour until 10 p.m., with in termissions from 1 to 2 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.

'Any man, 21 years of age, will be entitled to vote on coing personally before the registrars of his ward, and declaring-1. That he is a British subject.

2. That he is 21 years of age.

3. That he has lived in London three months. 4. That he has lived in Ontario twelve months.

Persons who own or tenant premises in the city may not be on the lists now made up. They may have been left off accidentally by the civic officials, or they may have come to the city since the lists were

All such persons are, however, entitled to vote if they declare before the registrars, as above.

The safest course, indeed, for any citizen, who did not vote in the recent municipal elections, is to see the voters' lists at the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' block, and ascertain if his name is on the list before the day of registration. If not, he must attend, and get it put on. It is an easy, simple law to secure a full vote of the entire electorate, and all should aid in perfecting it.

See about your own vote at oncefand also urge your Liberal neighbor to mompt action.

JUBILEES VS. COLLEGIATES. About 700 people went out to the Jubilee rink on Saturday night to see what was to have been the first game in the second series of the amateur city hockey league contests between the London Collegiate Institute and Jubilee team's.

The same was supposed to start at 9 o'clock, and when both teams appeared on the ice at that time the maority of the spectators present thought that the L. C. I.s had resurrected the old London team to take their place. They had Bob Lind and Frank Reid, ex-members of Londons; Clark, of the Bank of Toronto, and, on account of net being able to get a cover-point good enough in London, they secured the services of Bell, the crack forward who played with Ingersoll against London last Thursday. With such a combination as this they wanted to play a purely local team. Mr. Smith, the donator of the silver cup, gave the trophy under certain conditions, and one was that only local players could compete for it, and on these grounds the Jubilees refused to go on with the game if the Collegiates insisted on playing these men. The Collegiates would not give way, so the game was declared off, and the executive committee will decide whom it shall go to. Rather than disappoint the large crowd present an exhibition game was arranged for, the Collegiates agreeing to drop Bell, who acted as referee. At 9:40 the game started, and it proved to be an exhibition of hockey that eclipsed all the games that have been played here this winter. It was scientific throughout, some fine combination work being done on both sides. Every man played his position. The Collegiates scored the first goal after one minute's play, and two minutes later Lind added another to their After a fine rush Carrothers passed the rubber to Sippi, who shot the first goal for the Jubilees, and ten minutes later they tied the score. For this fine work the small boys of the east end brought about 50 tin horns into play, which made such a noise that to carry off blue ribbons. The London Hunt Club has won at many of the horse shows, and recently at the big by good work got two more goals in rapid succession. Lind and Carrothers started after the puck at a fast rate. Carrothers reached it first, and in the attempt to throw it, his stick accidentally struck Lind a terrible blow in the face, almost knocking him over. After a delay of ten minutes Lind resumed play, but had to retire in the second half, and Ashplant took his place. Carrothers scored the first goal for the Jubilees in the second half, after five minutes' play. After a rush Ashplant scored on a long shot the last goal for the Collegiates. Five minutes later the Jubilees scored again, and they tied the score for the second time ten minutes later.

The star play of the game was made by Stinson, two minutes before time was up. With the score a tie he captured the puck in the center of the rink, and from that position shot the last goal for the Jubilees, leaving the score 6 to 5 in their favor. The contesting teams were:

THE TURF. LONDON HUNT HORSES AT DE-

TROIT. One of the most attractive features in connection with the annual horse show of the Detroit Riding Club next April will be the turnout of the London Hunt Club. Not only will this wonderfully successful organization be present in a body, but there will be many excursionists accompanying the party and swelling its numbers to almost 200. Special cars will bring the Chicago affair, horses from that town, ridden by ladies, beat the best hunters in the Windy City. Favorable re-sponses from Cleveland indicate a large shipment from that city, and the Detroit Riding Club proposes to welcome its visitors in a novel and pretty way. One night will be set apart for "our guests," and the programme will be made up of inter-club ompetitions.-Detroit Free Press.

A Specimen Slander From Hamilton, in Which London Is Interested.

[Hamilton Herald, neutral.] Much is being made by Conservative journals of the fact that Adam Hope & Co., hardware merchants, of this city, supplied the Hamilton asylum for the insane last year with some flour under contract, the amount supplied being 1,462, barrels and the contract price $6,286 58. A specimen of the comments being made on this transaction is the following from the Toronto News: "The effect of this method of doing business was made plain in Hamilton, where the flour required for the asylum was purchased from a hardware merchant. He had no flower to sell, of course, so he bought from a good Liberal miller in London. The result was the ordinary retail profit for the miller and a substantial rake-off for the hardware man. Thus the province paid for the flour for the Hamilton asylum two prices, and the beneficiaries were Liberal workers. If that is not a case of bribery will some honest Liberal give it a name? And is that a principle of business that any AFTER YEARS OF AGONY.

There is no raw material for a scandal in the facts relating to this flour contract. The government, in the usual way, advertised for tenders for the supply of flour for the Hamilton asyium. Several tenders were submitted. Among the tenders was the firm of Adam Hope & Co., whose tender proved to be the lowest, and was accepted.
Upon the surface it appears strange that a hardware firm should tender for a flour contract; but a little explanation will show that there is nothing in the facts upon which to base a suspicion of crooked or unfair dealing. The real tenderer in this case was the milling firm of Hunt & Co., of London, Ont. The senior member of that firm (a Conservative, by the way), is an intimate friend of a member of the firm of Hope & Co., and as a matter of friendship it was arranged that the Hamilton man should act as agent of the London firm, no doubt receiving a complishment. certain commission for his trouble.

The foreign and colonial offices are beginning to see daylight through the darkness which has long been enveloping the far east, West Africa, the Upper Nile and India, and unless signs fail and information from the best informed circles is faulty, Salisbury and Chamberlain will divide the honors, and Great Britain will secure about all she asks. So far as China is concerned, this view in connection with the speech of Mr. Curzon, the parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, at Bolton on Tuesday, and the reported acceptance of the British loan, is generally regarded as correct. Mr. Curzon foreshadowed the probable success of the loan negotiations, the achievement of Great Britain's purpose in keeping the ports free to the whole world, and the maintenance of treaty rights whereby "spheres of influence are rendered impossible."
The Russian proposal of a loan on the same terms as Great Britain was not

A SALE OF CORPSES. A wonderful collection of corpses is to be sold at auction in London. The authentic remains of Ptolemy II., Philadelphus, King of Egypt; Antiochus Soter, King of Syria, and Alphina, wife of Selucus, Queen of Babylon, will come under the hammer. These distinguished remains were imported from Egypt 35 years ago, and sketches of the hieroglyphics taken from the tombs were brought with them, but are now lost. However, two letters go with the imperial "lot No. 232" in the catamummies. One letter is from Dr. Birch. that he considers them so valuable that they ought not to be allowed to leave the country. NOTES. The health of King Humbert of Italy is again causing uneasiness, the fainting fits having recurred. The returning animation in the west end streets of London betokens the approach of the parliamentary season and the hegira to the Mediterranean. The Monte Carlo carnival season has already set in, the battle of flowers at Mentone occurred last week, and the carnival at Nice will begin on Feb. 10. Sir Squire Bancroft will sail next Saturday to repeat in Eastern Canada the readings from "A Christmas Carol," by which he has aided many worthy charities in London.

East Middlesex.

The Liberals of East Middlesex put a good candidate in the field on Saturday afternoon in the person of Dr. McWilliams, of Thamesford. He was put in nomination by Mr. John Gilson, seconded by Mr. Elisha Ironside, in spe bes which were highly eulogistic and . Trmly cheered by the large audience of delegates. The doctor's address, in accepting the nomination unanimously tendered him, proved him to be a man of brains and sound common sense. He is now in the prime of life, and, if elected to support the Government, as he will in all probability be, it is certain that he will do good service for the riding in which so many of his interests lie. Dr. McWilliams will make a splendid run on his own merits, but in the campaign he ought to have the hearty co-operation of every Liberal and supporter of good government. It is absolutely necessary that his friends should see to it that there is thorough organization. It is a soldier's battle, in which every man, whether he is captain or private, should take a part.

Our city contemporary, the Free Press, shivers and shakes as it reflects on the prospects of the Opposition in a campaign that must end on March 1. It really would like to have Mr. Whitney's discomfiture postponed till June.

Two Provinces Contrasted. On the eve of a general election for the Province, the people of Ontario may well consider the whole question of how their affairs have been administered in the past, in comparison with the record of other provinces. We cannot better illustrate the difference between careful, economical government, such as we have had in this Province, and government of the plunging, prodigal, average jury's aversion to convicting scandal-breeding character, of the stamp that for years was meted out to the people of Quebec. Why Mrs. Sternaman Gets a New Trial.

A correspondent in the St. John Globe complains that Mrs. Sternaman, who was convicted of the murder of her sented in husband, should have a new trial. The American method of administering justice in the case of persons convicted of murder as very prejudicial to the moral well being of that community. There it is a common thing to see the carrying out of the death sentence imposed deferred for several years, and in many instances the law defeated and the convicted party liberated. In a woman of murder is too well known to need further comment. After the conviction by the fury an appeal was made to the properly constituted court, Age Company, Boston, and receive the dence a new trial was refused; thereupon an appeal was made to the Minister of Justice, who granted a new trial. show that the spirit of its founder still lives; but they show more. Their contents are gleaned from a wider field, and there is an up-to-dateness in the articles which evidence renewed Nomination day three weeks from life and vigor. The recent enlargement tomorrow. Election day four weeks from of the magazine, the addition of new tomorrow. The provincial fight is thus by the introduction of translations by the introduction of translations one of the shortest on record. All will from prominent continental authors on topics of present interest, and the presentation of American literature, are evidences of enterprise that will be appreciated by its readers, and furnish what was needed to make the Living Age a complete compendium of the world's best current literature. Space will allow for the enumeration of a few only of the many papers prethe January number. These include "Brunetiere's Impressions of America," from the Revue des "We in Canada have considered the American method of administering "Ramozan," by Prof. J. P. Mahaffy; "Ramozan," by Hugh Clifford; "Black-Deux Mondes; "The Unrest of the Nawoodiana," by Herbert Maxwell; "The Dual and Triple Alliance and Great Britain," by Francis de Pressense;

"Heinrich Heine: A Centenary Retrospect," by Edward Dowden; "Women at Oxford and Cambridge," from the Quarterly Review," and this instance the convicted woman ap- by St. George Mivart. The publishers' offer of the eight numbers of 1897 containing the opening chapters of the serial "With All Her Heart," free to Age Company, Boston, and receive the benefit of this offer.

"Talk about candles being worth $1 50 apiece in Dawson; it's all wrong," ment, or even pardon the woman, said Charles Way. "I wintered on the west fork of Stewart river in '94 and '95 with a party from Sitka. We went into winter quarters early, having good prospects on a bar directly in front of our log cabin. We had plenty of supplies that we hired Indians to bring in for us via Dyea. Among other things we had a gross of tallow candles. Things went along nicely until Oct. 22, when at noon it began to grow cold. You could feel it settle down. The water in the boxes wouldn't run more than twelve feet without getting thick, so we quit work and went into the camp. We loaded the stove up with birch wood, and somebody lighted a candle. It burned all right for a minute or two, then the light commenced to grow dim, and in all appearances went out. I was surprised upon examination to find the wick was still burning, but the tallow was not melting. I watched the wick as it burned, the fire burning itself right into the candle until the wick was consumed clear down to the bottom, meiting a hole about the size of a lead pencil through the tallow, but useless as a light, and we had to go to bed in the dark. Candles are not worth $1 50 each when the weather is real cold, for they won't burn."

Moberly, Mo., Jan. 21, 1896.

Radway & Co.:

Dear Sirs—I have been keeping in the house your Hadway's Ready Relief for the last six years, I have used it in every way, and found it to be the best on earth. Six years ago I was slok; I tried all kinds of medicines, but they did me no good. My father naw the advertisement in the paper; he told me to try a bottle. I did so, and by using it three days I was able to be out. I have ke; t it en hand ever since, and have told my neighbors about it. My wife has been troubled with toothache. I gave a trial of the medicine and it cured her pain instantly. I was gathering corn and got my hand saught between the wagon bed and standard and mashed it badly. I ran to the house and poured on a let of Radway's Ready lielief and had no more pain. I tied my hand way's keady Relief, and in an hour I was ready to take hold of my work again. I cannot be thankful enough. I could write a great deal more, but this raper would not hold half of what I could write. Yours truly, JOCOB J. KAPPLER, Moberly, Mo., Jan. 21, 1896.

Dr. Radway & Co.—I have been a sufferer from rheumatism for more than six months; I could not raise my hands to my head nor put my hands behind my hands to my head nor put my hands behind me, nor even take off my own my hands behind me, nor even take off my own shirt. Before I had fluished three-fourths of a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief I could use my arms as well as ever. You can see why I have such great faith in year Ready Relief. Yours truly, W. C. Bright Outlook in the Constituen. cies for the Government.

More Nominations of Candidates - Meetings This Week.

THE OUTLOOK.

Toronto, Jan. 31.—The Globe this morning prints dispatches from its correspondents presenting the political conditions as they exist in different parts of the province. While it will be seen that here and there complications have arisen because of the pres-Buckwheat, per bu36c to 381/2c field, the general situation is such as to give the utmost confidence to all who desire a continuance in power of the Hardy government. In almost every constituency strong candidates have determination to win. If the present indications are trustworthy, achievement will be one unparalleled in the long list of glorious victories which have crowned their efforts in behalf of sound principles and honest administration during the last quarter of a century.

MEETING IN EAST ELGIN. Alymer, Jan. 31.-A large and enthuslastic meeting was held in the town hall Saturday afternoon in the interests of Mr. D. McIntyre, the Liberal candidate for East Elgin. Dr. Sinclair acted ably discussed the policy of the government, dwelling especially on the benefits which had been conferred on the dairying and fruit growing indusschool system, which he claimed to be the best in existence. The meeting came to a close with the usual cheers. IN WEST NORTHUMBERLAND. Cobourg, Jan. 31.-The Liberal convention held here on Saturday was the largest that ever took place in Cobourg. Sam Clark, merchant, was chosen as the candidate. Rousing speeches were made by leading men. OTHER CAMPAIGN NOTES. Mr. Whitney will this week hold meetings at the following places:

Brockville, tonight; Kingston, Tuesday; Ottawa, Wednesday; Cobourg, Thursday; Bowmanville, Friday; Markham, Saturday. Mr. Hardy will address a mass meeting of electors at Kingston tonight, and tomorrow he will speak at Brock-

In Halton, Lieut.-Col. Kerns (Conservative); South Wellington, Mr. Henry Hortop (Conservative); Stormont, Mr. John Bennett (Independent), were nominated on Saturday.

A CORNWALL LADY FROZEN TO DEATH. Cornwall, Jan. 29.-Miss Kate Kinnear, a well-known resident of this town, who had been visiting friends in Roxborough, started to walk home to Cornwall. The weather was bitterly cold, and it is supposed that the old lady was overcome by the cold and exhausted. Her body was found on the road near St. Andrews the following morning, frozen stiff. The deceased lady was about 65 years of age.

A DINNER PILL.-Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indiges-

In the evening several excellent choruses were rendered, Miss Inez Smith taking the soprano solos in superb voice. A duet by Miss Smith and Mrs. Harvey was also a feature.

At Knox Church. Next Wednesday will be the sevenof the Young People's Society of Chrisdeavor throughout the world. Rev. J. G. Stuart, of Knox Church, took occasion last evening to preach a special sermon on the aims, objects and progress of this valuable adjunct to church work, and clearly set forth the far-reaching effects of the organization, with is varied branches of labor, so divided among the members to best suit their individual talents. The reverend gentleman made a special appeal to the young people not already en-rolled to at once connect themselves with the organization and assist in increasing the good that is being done through its instrumentality. During the service the quartet, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" (Ambrose) was sung by Misses Street and Kemp and Messrs, Irwin and Fewings.

Mr. Hobbs' Denunciations. Rev. Richard Hobbs, in his sermon last night in Askin Street Methodist Church, denounced the lack of moral teaching in the public schools. He also nounced Sabbath breaking; liquor drinking; benefit societies, because they put the societies first and the church last; dancing; card playing; the skat-ing rink; prize-giving for the skater who can make the biggest show of hiself. With the skating rink he included curling and hockey.

Gratifying Progress. At the First Presbyterian Church yesterday Rev. W. J. Clark said: "When the present pastoral relation was formed on the 2nd of July in the He was followed by Mr. McIntyre, who year 1890, there was a debt against the church of $4,300. By the time the new church building was planned for this had been reduced to $2,500. The cost of the new building added to this made tries. He touched on the provincial a total debt against the congregation of almost $28,200, so that the total liability against the congregation in these seven and a half years has been $30,000. The present debt is $13,000, so that in that length of time, besides all running expenses and contributions to charitable and mission work there has been $17,000 paid off, or $4,000 in excess of the present liability. It must also be remembered that at the beginning of that period the membership of the congregation was under 200, whereas it stands today at 475. I have heard it said that this is a wealthy congregation, but that is not true. With the exception of one or two cases the most of our people are in modest circumstances, while a few are in straited circumstances. As to the offering of last Sabbath, the following is an analysis of the amount received. There were some 209 contributors altogether, divided as follows: Three gave at the rate of $50 each; one at $30; six at $25; and the entire church is now raising two at $20; four at $15; one at $12; 21 at $10; one at $7; one at $6; 55 at $5; is the mother church of the mission, three at $4; sixteen at $8; two at $2 50; and has given it generous support. one at $2 25; 34 at $2; one at $1 25; 41

Baby's skin

Freed from all Eruptions, Made Pure and White by DR. CHASE'S CHITMENT.

Mothers take a pride in having their Infants' skin of that delicate pink and white-soft as velvet. When torturing and disfiguring eruptions seize upon the little body, they want a remedy that will not disappoint nor fail. Time and again Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven itself a specific for all skin diseases to which babies are peculiarly subject.

MRS. CHAS. K. MOSS, of Berlin, Ont., had a little baby 6 months old, with itching sores on her body. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured her when everything else failed. Another mother who holds Dr. Chase's Ointment in high esteem is MRS. JAS. BROWN, Molesworth, Ont. Her baby boy was covered all over the face, sides and hips with Eczema. The first application of the Ointment stopped the itching, and

The Southern Congregationalists. Owing to lack of space, but brief mention was made on Saturday of the annual meeting of the Southern Congregational Church. This church is prospering finely. There has been during the year a marked increase in the church attendance, the average now being 150. The treasurer's statement showed an increase in the receipts of $205 67, there having been $1,205 raised for all purposes. The new church cost $7,000, and on it the congregation still owes $4,500. Mr. Allen, chairman of the financial board, expressed the sentiment of the church as a whole in some urday excepted. brief remarks. When the pastor, Rev. W. H. Claris, came four years ago, he said, the prospects were not bright, but by his faith, energy, patience, perseverance and sanctified common sense, he had helped them over many difficulties, and they had now one of the cosiest little churches in the city. The pastor Deadly Poison Administered to mill dam the congregation, but cutside of it, as was evidenced by his chairman of the Ministerial Association. The report of the Ladies' Auxiliary showed that by socials, etc., the sum of $52 % had been raised. There are 20 members. The junior Endeavor Society has 10 active and 4 associate members. The Sunday school report showed a gain of 6 scholars, the average attendance now being 128, and the total 183. The total amount of contributions was $76 36. In the evening several excellent choruses were rendered, Miss Inez Smith taking the soprano solos in superb oice. A duet by Miss Smith and Mrs. Harvey was also a feature.

At Knox Church. Next Wednesday will be the sevenof the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor throughout the world. Rev. J. G. Stuart, of Knox Church, took occasion last evening to preach a special sermon on the aims, objects and progress of this valuable adjunct to church work, and clearly set forth the suit their individual talents. The reverend gentleman made a special appeal to the young people not already en-rolled to at once connect themselves with the organization and assist in in-creasing the good that is being done through its instrumentality. During the service the quartet, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" (Ambrose) was sung Misses Street and Kemp and essrs. Irwin and Fewings.

Mr. Hobbs' Denunciations. Rev. Richard Hobbs, in his sermon last night in Askin Street Methodist Church, denounced the lack of moral teaching in the public schools. He also nounced Sabbath breaking; liquor drinking; benefit societies, because they behalf of sound principles and honest administration during the last quarter last; dancing; card playing; the skatering rink; prize-giving for the skater who can make the biggest show of With the skating rink he included curling and hockey. Gratifying Progress.

At the First Presbyterian Church yesterday Rev. W. J. Clark said: "When the pres ETROLIA, Jan. 31.—Oil opened and closed He was followed by Mr. McIntyre, who year 1890, there was a debt against the church of $4,300. By the time the new church building was planned for this benefits which had been conferred on had been reduced to $2,500. The cost the dairying and fruit growing indus- of the new building added to this made tries. He touched on the provincial a total debt against the congregation of almost $28,200, so that the total liability against the congregation in these seven and a half years has been $30,000. The present debt is $13,000, so that in that length of time, besides all running expenses and contributions to charitable and mission work there has been $17,000 paid off, or $4,000 in excess of the candidate. Rousing speeches were remembered that at the beginning of that period the membership of the congregation was under 200, whereas it stands today at 475. I have heard it said that this is a wealthy congregation, but that is not true. With the exception of one or two cases the most of our people are in modest circumstances, while a few are in straited circumstances. As to the offering of last Sabbath, the following is an analysis of the amount received. There were some 209 contributors altogether, divided as follows: Three gave at the rate of $50 each; one at $30; six at $25; two at $20; four at $15; one at $12; 21 at $10; one at $7; one at $6; 55 at $5; three at $4; sixteen at $8; two at $2 50; one at $2 25; 34 at $2; one at $1 25; 41 Yesterday morning, the pastor of the at $1; eleven at 50 cents; five at 25 mission, Rev. Mr. Sawyer, preached cents; while over $30 was given by in the Dundas Center Church, and friends who did not see fit to give their made an earnest appeal for continued $1,152 29; in 1895 the sum was $1,012 69; in 1896 it was $1,006 98, and in 1897 it sustaining. was $1,056 94; so that this year the high water mark has been reached in these anniversary collections, and that notwithstanding the fact that both in this year and last year, on account of unfavorable weather, our congregations have been smaller than average congregations, instead of being larger, on account of the special services. This giving has been in quite a number of cases the fruit of real self-denial, but where it has been so the givers are to be envied rather than pitied, for they have been tasting the blessedness of forgetting self for a worthy object, and that is one of the sweetest joys vouchsafed to men and women. The congregation paid the late pastor $1,200 a year, while they now pay $2,100. so that there have been other advances." Mr. Clark then went on to say that he brought these figures before them in hand in hand, emphasizing the differno spirit of boastfulness, but of gratthe spirit of boastfulness, but of grat-itude. There was room for advance-ment yet and martisular, of grat-ment yet and martisular, ence between "sincerity" and "the truth." He spoke of the remarkable the missionary work of the church at large he hoped to see them take a long step forward. He especially urged the Freed from all Eruptions, Made Pure and White by DR. CHASE'S CINTMENT.

Mothers take a pride in having their Infants' skin of that delicate pink and white-soft as velvet. When torturing and disfiguring eruptions seize upon the little body, they want a remedy that will not disappoint nor fail. Time and again Dr. Chase's Cintment has proven itself a specific for all skin diseases to which babies are peculiarly subject. MRS. CHAS. K. MOSS, of Berlin, Ont.,

had a little baby 6 months old, with itching sores on her body. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured her when everything else failed. Another mother who holds Dr. Chase's Ointment in high esteem is MRS. JAS. BROWN, Molesworth, Ont. Her baby boy was covered all over the face, sides and hips with Eczema. The first application of the Ointment stopped the itching, and 3 boxes effected a complete cure.

The Southern Congregationalists. Owing to lack of space, but brief mention was made on Saturday of the annual meeting of the Southern Con-gregational Church. This church is prospering finely. There has been during the year a marked increase in the church attendance, the average now being 150. The treasurer's statement showed an increase in the receipts of $205 67, there having been $1,205 raised for all purposes. The new church cost $7,000, and on it the congregation still owes $4,500. Mr. Allen, chairman of the financial board, expressed the sentiment of the church as a whole in some urday excepted. brief remarks. When the pastor, Rev. W. H. Claris, came four years ago, he said, the prospects were not bright, but by his faith, energy, patience, perseverance and sanctified common sense, he had helped them over many difficulties, and they had now one of the cosiest little churches in the city. The pastor was respected and beloved, not only by the congregation, but cutside of it, as sen chairman of the Ministerial Association. The report of the Ladies' Auxdilary showed that by socials, etc., the sum of $52 96 had been raised. There are 20 members. The junior Endeavor Society has 10 active and 4 associate members. The Sunday school report showed a gain of 6 scholars, the average attendance now being 126, and the total 183. The total amount of contributions was $76 36. A novel departure was street, died in great distress last ev-

The mission is only 3 years d, but has met with great success. There was an attendance of over 100 at the morning service and 200 at the evening. The membership is 70. The mission has apparently ts. er a new lease of life and has a circle of King's Daughters, an Epworth League, and other progressive agencies. The circumstances attending the fatality were very sad. The child, lie Holland. who was only 6 years old, had not been well for some days, and about 7 o'clock her foster mother gave her what she supposed was santonine, a worm powder. On taking the medicine the little one told her mother that it was bitter, and Mrs. Barrows took a pinch of the powder herself. It seemed bitter to her also, for sand tonine, but she thought there could be no mistake. She had taken the powder from the shelf where the san- subscribed towards the new skimming no doubt but that it was what she supposed it to be. The unfortunate mistake was quickly evident, however. In a few minutes the child was in convulsions, and as the time advanced the spasms grew worse. Dr. Macklin was sent for and recognized in the from the time he arrived life had bbed from the little body. Coroner Ferguson will hold an inquest in the case. Mrs. Barrows was at a loss to understand how the poison

The poison had been bought for rats, but Mrs. Barrows did not reember where. She had not purchased any for a long time. Mrs. Barrows keeps a boarding house, and all the boarders speak in the highest terms of her devotion to her adopted daughter. She gave the little one every attention and care, and was very much attached o her. The poor woman is almost distracted, and her grief is most pathetic. The mother of the dead child died a few years ago, and the father is supposed Detroit. Other relatives are said to be living in Essex Center.

The Nilestown Royal Templars all sympathized with Bro. John Edwards, in the recent loss of his mother. The remains of Mrs. James Cahill were interred at the Wardsville cemetery. She was the mother of Thomas Cahill, who was a well known canductor on the C. S. R., and later on the Chicago and Alton Railroad.

Mr. John Creighton, of Nilestown, is having serious difficulty with his mill dam again. A good share f it has gone down stream with the recent rising of the water. It means a big loss to Mr. Creighton, as it will likely be impossible to construct any repairs till spring. In that case the mill rould have to lie idle or secure steam power.

[London Mail.]

Fifteen months and more ago there was recounted in these columns the genesis and growth of a threatened bagpipe boom. For a time the craze flourished, and promised to do much; then it languished, and the young ladies and gentlemen who had bought such beautiful sets of bagpipes forsook their hobby and sold their instruments at a loss, or laid them in the garret along with the old spinnet and the once fashionable banjo. But now presto! something has happened. It has happened a long way off-out in India, in fact-but it has given such a fillip to the popularity of the bagpipes that at this moment of writing their fame is greater-infinitely greater—than at any time since the "bonny skirl o' 'The Cock o' the North' swept proudly o'er the bloody plain of Waterloo." Who cares whether the story of th gallant piper at the recent charge of Dargai is true? Who dares to say it is not? Are there not at 500 music halls in London and the provinces twice 500 pipers nightly enacting the scene as it was described by Reuter's correspondent-to the intense enthusiasm of the audiences and of all Englishmen-we beg pardon-Great Britons and Irishmen throughout the civilized fingers trembled so sadly while she held it, that Gabriel gently took it and opened it for her; Hervey, waiting beside them, felt his heart sink with fear. The telegram was from Miss Henderson at Westleigh Towers, and these were the words it bore:

"At Mr. Keith's request, I send this to stop your return here. For you in your delicate health, and for Mr. Mydelton, after his voyage, it would be highly unwise to come. Ask Mr. Myddelton to let us know where you stay, and I will write. Mr. Keith even wished me to leave him, too. It is aggravated typhoid fever, Dr. Franklin fears, but he has telegraphed for further advice. We can easily guess by what it has been brought on, and indeed by what accelerated since. Of course I shall not leave. I will write, but do not be alarmed if you do not hear very soon. Every minute of my day is too little to give him."

"Oh, Gabriel!" cried his wife, clasping her hands about his arm when the telegram fell from his fingers, "what shall we do? Oh, poor, poor Roy!" "There is but one thing for me to do," said Gabriel, with intense sorrow in his face and voice; "but, dear wife, where can I leave you?" "How-do you mean-?"

his company unneeded) seconded the idead so warmly, and made the arrangements with such promptness, that the plan was carried out almost as soon as proposed. Mr. Romer himself returned, by his own particular wish, Westleigh Towers; and though Gabriel fancied he went as guide to him, the real reason was the rector's earnest wish to be with Royden now. They traveled only half-way by rail, and then, finding no fast train would take them on, and no train at all would stop at Westleigh that night, they posted; and, having four strong horses, they could see the castellated towers of Royden's home rise before them in the melancholy light of the July mid-Just at that hour Gabriel's wife sat bright, sweet smile, "I am the nearest relation your husband has; and should like to be a near friend of yours.' There was a wonderful contrast between the two girls, as they bat together before the pleasant little fire which Honore had ordered, because the midnight air was chill, and Alice (partly in fear, and partly in weakness) had been shivering downstairs. Not in the features alone was this contrast evident, but, more strongly still, in the natures which looked from their eyes. The strength and stead-fastness of the one, the perfect oblivion of self and the wide thought for others, and the gentle helpfulness, no less than the rich and radiant beauty, made more evident the nervous timidity, the shy, mistrusting reticence, and the shrinking from responsibility, no less than the fair, fragile prettiness of the

-That so much talked about,

Ralston's Health Club Breakfast Food = -

It was in Germany, nearly twelve years ago—you have heard of the old gentleman who left his name and property to Mr. Keith? It was just before that time that I met him first. Since (seven years before) we had been children together, and near neighbors in an English county. He was a barrister, though he was not practicing just then, and his name was Royden Sydney. We went to America after that on the same vessel-he and my father and I. He was a very rich man then, and going to the New World for pleasure. On that voyage—"

"Do not tell me tonight," put in Honore, with a gentle caress, as she "Yes, I would rather tell, please. On that voyage my father died quite suddenly, and I was left entirely alone in the world, for I had no other relation-I had even no friend. What a friend he was upon that voyage, and afterward, I never could tell you. His care and friendship did not cease when we had landed, and it was only through his help (exerted in so many ways) that I obtained a livelihood, for my father's income died with him, and I was almost penniless. One day—I remember it as if it might have been today—there appeared at the house of the gentle-man whose wife had, at Mr. Keith's request, taken me to be her companion, a young man who, not having found the master at the office, had come on to the house, and been admitted among us all. That very evening Mr. Kekh returned from Peru, and he happened to be with us when this young man entered. I saw him watching the scene

He had told me all the story of old Mr. Myddelton's murder, and of the trial, every word, before he won my promise to marry him; and go, for neither he nor I had any English friends; but again our one true friend came to the rescue, and he brought me to his own beautiful home. That was two years ago, and I have the fact that I am honestly and thorsince. Now that Gabriel has come, I know that I shall soon be quite strong again. I found, one day, in that foreign land, an old friend of my mother's, who, through loss of her property invested in mines, was living a struggling life out there; and-quite unthinkingly—I told Gabriel, in Mr. Keith's presence, of how I traced her. Royden remembered this—as he remembers and opportunities for kindness and, when the question arose about my going to England, and he said he was returning, and gave me that offer of a home, he begged that she should come too, and—you know the rest. Another Splendid Convention in This City.

Confident Speeches by the Candidate and Other Liberals.

Dr. McWilliams Eulogized-His Strong Interests in East Middlssex-The Riding to Be Thoroughly Organized.

The East Middlesex Liberals had another fine convention in this city on Saturday afternoon. Although called The merchant would not engage a clerk eral rooms were again besieged beyond specially for delegates, the Young Libwho came with no testimonials and no their normal capacity by electors from recommendations, unless he could give security for £200 I saw the quiet all over the riding, many of whom could President McConnell, of Dorchester, took the chair at 1:30, and called upon Mr. S. B. Gorwell to speak for the committee appointed on the previous Saturday to wait upon possible candidates and report the result to the delegates. Mr. Gorwell announced that the committee had interviewed Dr.McWilliams, who replied that he would make known his decision at the convention. Mr. John Gilson, who was cheered, moved the nomination of Dr. McWilliams in an eloquent speech. He said that Dr. McWilliams was a man of education, of strong common sense and blameless character. He urged the electors to organize thoroughly and put their enthusiasm into practical form. Mr. Elisha Ironside, of Ilderton, seconded the nomination in a strong address, in which he pointed out that the splendid record of the government was a strong power behind any candidate. The nomination of Dr. McWilliams was confirmed unanimously, and with the greatest enthusiasm. Dr. McWilliams, on rising, was received with renewed cheers, and modestly acknowledged the honor. "I accept the nomination," he said, "and if we do not win, it will not be my fault. (Cheers.) This is the county of my birth, and consequently has my affec-tions. I have some most valuable property in the east riding of Middlesex, which gives me a further claim on it. Again, one-fourth of my business and practice also lies in this riding. These are my only claims, apart from oughly a Liberal. (Cheers.) I try to lay aside prejudice. I know that our affections, especially in those who have been born and brought up in a political creed, are apt to become prejudiced; but I always try to banish such feelings, because in so mixed a community mixed in religion, mixed in politics, mixed in other ways-it is necessary for one to be strictly fair and judicial (Cheers.) I feel that I have succeeded in doing this, and that, so far as a man can be, I am independent. Convention!

Liberals of London Will Bring Out a Candidate Tomorrow Night.

This Evening the Delegates Will Be Chosen by the Several Wards.

It has been arranged that a Liberal convention to bring out a candidate to represent the city in the next legislature of the province shall be held tomorrow (Tuesday) night, at the club rooms, Oddfellows' block. This evening the Liberals in the various subdivisions cuss the questions vitally affecting the will meet at the places named in an welfare of the people and the progress advertisement in another column to select delegates to represent them at the convention. As it is highly desirable that the convention should be as representative a body as is possible, all Liberals are requested to attend the preliminary meeting this evening, and aid in the task of appointing representatives to the central gathering.

WHERE TO REGISTER.

One Booth in Each Ward Appointed by the Council.

The appointment of six registration booths in connection with the coming provincial election was a matter dealt with by the city council Saturday afternoon.

A Plea for Mrs. Beckett-The City Council Considers the Question-Referred to a Committee.

When the late Mr. Crawford Beckett met his death in the city hall disaster he and Mr. Wade had not quite completed the construction of that portion of the new sewerage system for which they had contracted. One block on South street, between Maitland and William, still remained to be done. Mr. Wade has since carried the work from Maitland street to the London and Port Stanley railroad track, but both he and the widow of the late Mr. Beckett now wish to be released from the contract for the remainder of the work. Applications to this effect were pressed before the council at a special meeting on Saturday afternoon, but no decision, for or against, was arrived at. There were many facts and possibilities to be considered, and the aldermen were far from unanimous as to the proper course of action. Their strong sympathy for the grief-stricken widow struggled sharply with their sense of responsibility as guardians of the city

The matter came up in connection with a second petition from South street residents, asking the council to prevent the construction of the sewer any further on that street, as they did not need it, and did not wish to increase their taxes thereby.

Mr. M. D. Fraser, who accompanied Mrs. Beckett as her legal representative, said that had it not been for the terrible accident in which Mr. Beckett lost his life, the contractors would would have already completed their contract. Mr. Beckett was the practical man of the firm, and superintended the work, while Mr. Wade supplied the brick. The latter would not have touched the job himself. The contract price was $10,890, and up to Dec. 30, $10,084 had been certified to, of which 25 per cent was held back, according to the usual custom. There now remained unfinished about haif a block, and Mr. Fraser strongly urged the release of the contractors from their agreement for this work, pointing out that they were supported in their application by the petition of the rate-

Mr. Frank Love appeared in behalf of Mr. Wade. He could not see that the city would suffer any loss by releasing the contractors. That the sewer was not actually needed was evident from the petition, which was signed by all but one ratepayer—a non-resident, who could not be reached. It would be a question of years and years before a sewer would be needed there. Ald. Carrothers, in Mr. Beckett's lifetime, had made the suggestion to have the sewer end at Maitland street. Ald. Taylor moved, seconded by Ald. McPhilips, that the council comply with the request of the petitioners by releasing the contractors from liability. A report from the engineer was called for, and Mr. Ashbridge stated that the sewer was completed for all but, 560 feet. Up to the present the work had been comparatively easy. Quicksand now made it difficult, and it was probable the balance of the contract would cost far more than the difference between the amount certified to and the total amount. At the rate they were going, the cost to finish the job would be between $2,000 and $3,000.

mountable difficulties? Ald. Greenlees-Is the completion of this block necessary to the completion of the system? Mr. Ashbridge-It is necessary to the completion of the proposed system to the east. Replying to Mr. Fraser, the engineer said a large tile sewer might do for that one block. It was shown that Beckett & Wade's tender was $2,000 lower than the other tenders for this

Ald. Carrothers said they were in an awkward position. They didn't know what the board of health would do if they stopped the work. Last year he supported the petition of the ratepayers, because he thought it better for the sewer to be carried to the east along Hill street. That was not done, because Mr. Beckett urged to be allowed to finish his contract, and now considerable work has been done on South street. The speaker did not feel that they could release the contractors, although for Mrs. Beckett's sake he
