Q

PREFACE.

The publisher by persevering in an annual issue of the Quebec Directory, believes that he is pursuing the only course that can result satisfactorily to those who use the work for reference.

He has only to remind his subscribers and the public, that such annual issue entails a considerable amount of labor and expense, and he trusts that in succeeding years he will receive a rather more liberal support than has this year been accorded to him.

Quebec, July, 1862.

By this charter, which bears date December 8th, 1852, no change was effected in the constitution of the Seminary itself; but a Council composed of the Directors of the Institution, and the three senior professors of the several faculties, was empowered to possess and enjoy all the privileges granted to the Universities of the United Kingdom, and especially that of conferring degrees in the Faculties of Divinity, Law, Medicine and Arts. His Grace the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec is, by virtue of his office, Visitor of the University. The superior of the Seminary, for the time being, holds the office of Rector.

The Collegiate Department is the Seminary as it was till 1852, and is under the control of a board composed of a Superior and at least four Directors. It is divided into two parts called the Grand and the Minor Seminary.
