Good Roads Movement Explained By Minister

Hon. Dr. Reaume, Minister of Public Works Was in the City Yesterday—Details of the Meeting.

Yesterday afternoon Hon. Dr. Reaume, Minister of Public Works, under whose jurisdiction the good roads movement comes, addressed a meeting at the Court House attended by members of the Township Council of the Brantford Motor League and others interested in the good roads movement. About 30 were present.

Short Addresses.
County Clerk, A. E. Watts, chairman of the meeting introduced Dr. Reaume who made no introduction. Mr. Watts apologized to the speaker for the small attendance, after which he called upon several to speak.

Mr. Chris Cook was the first to speak who stated in part that the good roads movement was about to be discussed at the cost he believed the present issue. He expressed himself as being of the opinion that Brantford and Brantford was a little behind in the good roads movement. His discussion which was about to be given would no doubt give the movement a good start. Mr. Cook said the main thing was to get to work.

Mr. Schultz of the Brantford Motor League apologized for the absence of many of the Motor League members. He said that he thought all agreed that good roads are a necessity, and that every county should have it.

is a question of who should pay and what kind of roads should be built. Mayor Patterson of Paris, stated that there was a feeling in Paris, as there was in Brantford, and Brantford County, that the roads should be better. Mayor Patterson spoke of the movement some seven years ago. The great difficulty then was to get the Townships to co-operate. He stated that he believed Paris was willing to bear its share, making special mention of the Board of Trade and the Paris Council.

W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., said that ever since he had been member he had been trying to make the County Council see the necessity of good roads. He expressed himself as being glad to see the different sentiment than that which existed seven years ago. He believed the County should fall in line with the offer of the government. He expressed himself as believing that the Dominion Government will take up the roads as it did with railroads. Mr. Brewster said good roads would help the cities by bringing them nearer together and would help the farmer by increasing the value of his land and the value of produce.

J. W. Westbrook, M. P. P., while speaking said: "We are famous for our roads." The minor municipalities, Mr. (Continued on Page 10)

Other Member of Supposed Party Working Trains is Given Six Months.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
LONDON, Ont., July 9.—Anil Dubon, who was arrested a few days ago with Charles Crowley charged with picking the pocket of George Malakoff, near Brantford, was yesterday sentenced to six months in Central Prison. The parties were passengers on a Grand Trunk express en route from Montreal to Chicago, on which it was said a large gang of pickpockets operated.
Dubon was convicted as the man who took the money from Malakoff's pocket and, according to the victim, Crowley and Ethel Foley, a woman travelling with him, were accomplices. Dubon, when threatened with arrest on reaching London, slipped a roll of money back into Malakoff's pocket, and in addition gave him $15 to say nothing. Yesterday Dubon claimed that his wife and two children are living in Philadelphia. He says that he came a year ago from Odessa, Russia, where he was an actor.

A SHOWER OF ROCKS

[Canadian Press Despatch]
MADRID, July 9.—Deputies from Valencia report the occurrence of a phenomenon in the form of a rain of fire that reduced to cinders the district outside the village of Grocer, the inhabitants of which took refuge in a church. Three terrific detonations were heard about the same time and one of clear sky a violent tempest broke over the villages of Benavites and Cuartel, some miles away, accompanied by a shower of stones, the largest of which weighed about two pounds.

BECOMES LAW IN YEAR 1915

The Home Rule Bill—Duke of Connaught May Go to Ireland

SOME VIEWS EXPRESSED

Serious Opposition in Ulster is Scouted in the British Press.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
LONDON, July 9.—The hope is expressed by The Daily News, a supporter of the Liberal administration, that the Duke of Connaught may be Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, when the Home Rule Bill, passed for a second time by the House of Commons, becomes law.

In a forecast of the procedure as regards the institution of Home Rule, The Daily News also says: "On the Act becoming operative it is understood the King will be advised to send for John Redmond, who will be asked to form a government. On the final passage of the bill Irish Privy Counsellors will be conferred on Messrs. Redmond and Dillon and their leading colleagues. In due course, Mr. Redmond will retire from the active leadership of the Nationalists in the House of Commons and will doubtless be succeeded by T. P. O'Connor."
The Daily News adds that Redmond's policy will be conservative and "will respect the susceptibilities and pay due honor to the high character of the Protestant countries."
After scounting the idea that Ulster opposition will be serious, The Daily News concludes: "It is anticipated that the royal assent to the Home Rule bill will be signified about the month of June next year. The act comes into operation on the first Tuesday in the eighth month after this comes into effect, which would be the first Tuesday in February in 1915. By an order-in-council the Imperial government can ante-date the operation by seven months or postpone it seven months, and it may be assumed that the operation of the act will not take effect until after the general election of 1915, for the United Kingdom."

CLERK FRAIMED UP ROBBERY

He Said He Was Robbed
But Was Later Caught
With Goods.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
NEW YORK, July 9.—Miss Freeman, the 18-year-old clerk, who was found bound and gagged in his employer's jewelry store in Maiden Lane yesterday, told a story of having been attacked by a pitted customer, was arrested last night charged with grand larceny. Jewelry valued at $4,068 and $92 in cash were missing after Freeman "recovered consciousness" and was released.
According to Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, Freeman confessed he entered into an agreement with a second man to rob his employer's jewelry store and company, August Sachs, 10 years old, a clerk in the jewelry district, was arrested, accused of robbery. He was Freeman's assailant, the police say. The jewelry has been recovered.
Several hours later Henry Rosofski, wearing the full uniform of an American sailor, was arrested on a charge of receiving stolen goods. All of the jewelry was found in a room occupied by Rosofski, according to the police.

Some hot air artist started the rumor that the Cayuga Indians of the Six Nation Reserve had been awarded $1,000,000 in connection with a claim against the State of New York. It was news to Major Smith, Superintendent, who wrote the department at Ottawa and has now received this reply: Ottawa, July 8th, 1913.
Sir:
In reply to your letter of the 3rd inst. in regard to the claim of the Cayuga Indians against the State of New York, I beg to say that the matter has not yet been considered by the pecuniary claims Commission at Washington, and no decision has been arrived at in the matter so far as this department is aware.

Aviators From Chicago to Detroit Came to Grief
With Machines.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
CHICAGO, July 9.—Two of the best hydro-aeroplanes which started from Chicago yesterday to fly to Detroit were wrecked over Lake Michigan by squalls, and fell into the waves far from land.
Anthony Jannus of St. Louis and his mechanic, Paul McCullough, were picked up off South Chicago by the steam sand dredger. Walter Johnson of New York, flying alone, was rescued near Whiting, Ind., by the South Chicago United States life saving crew. Jannus' machine was abandoned in the squall after the dredger had started to tow it ashore. The life savers brought Johnson's mail to shore, and he may resume his flight.
Backwith Havens, carrying a passenger, reached Michigan City in safety, the only one of the ten aviators originally scheduled to start, who made the first lap.

SMALLPOX AT THE CADET CAMP

Brantford Boys There, But Little Apprehension is Felt About Situation.

Smallpox was rather startled with the news that smallpox was discovered at the cadet camp at Niagara, but the Courier is today that there is little apprehension of the local boys being involved. A despatch from Niagara says: A case of smallpox was discovered among the corps of St. Marie at the cadet camp, and the boys from the Brantford city were immediately isolated and the case isolated. The boys in charge are making every effort to prevent its spread, but it will be some time before it will be known if those exposed to the infection have contracted the disease.
In the meantime the 3,000 land army boys are going ahead with regular camp routine.
Only left yesterday, 75 in number, the apprehension felt as to the danger of a general outbreak.

Minneapolis Through Canada.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 9.—Dominick Pittori, a leper, who was sent to the Diamond Point quarantine station from Minneapolis several months ago, escaped Saturday, and is believed to be making his way back to Minneapolis by way of Canada.
John Early, the Spanish war veteran, who was declared a leper, and appointed an attendant at the quarantine station knew of Pittori's escape but failed to report it until yesterday. Since Early has been at the station, he has acted strangely, at times becoming violent.
A Toronto Case.
TORONTO, July 9.—Five-year-old Irma Rubenstein, living in the Simcoe apartments, was reported missing last night. The children were apparently subjected to no ill treatment.

SALVATION ARMY OUTING

Annual Picnic Was Held
Yesterday at Dundurn
Park, Hamilton.

The Annual young people's excursion of the Salvation Army was held yesterday at Dundurn Park via T. H. & B. Railway. Over 200 filled the three cars to their utmost capacity, and there has seldom been seen such a happy crowd of young folks bent on having a good time. A number of the bandmen accompanied the party, playing selections at the grounds. Y. P. Sergt. Major Osborne and his helpers worked hard to make this the event of the season. In addition to the corps officers being present, there was Brigadier Adby, Adjut. and Mrs. Kendall and Esigay Layman of Hamilton, Esigay Hammon of California. After the children saw the animals and went through the museum, dinner was partaken of and then games and races for old and young alike. The party returned, leaving Hamilton at 6.30, very tired but very happy. Several photographs were taken on the grounds. The prizes were won by the following:

Terrible War in the Balkans
Exact a Very Heavy Toll.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
LONDON, July 9.—Reports of the evacuation of Kocchana and Istip by General Kovatcheff's army are confirmed by a Sofia despatch to The Times, which says scarcely less than 30,000 killed and wounded. The Bulgarians made the most desperate fighting and performed great feats of heroism before they were routed, suffering the severest losses.
Nothing is apparently known concerning General Petroff's army or the position of General Boyadjieff, who was sent to reinforce General Kovatcheff.
A telegram from General Ivanoff at Serres to-day declares that the town has not been occupied by the Greeks as previously reported.
According to high authority, the total casualties on all sides since the war was resumed, have been fully 50,000. General Tosheff's army stormed the Serbian position on the heights of Sulanete on Monday, capturing six guns.

LIBERALS IN CAUCUS

[Canadian Press Despatch]
MONTREAL, July 9.—That a quiet but carefully arranged congress of Liberal leaders is in progress in the city with a view to putting the opposition force in first class fighting trim, is inferred from the number of secret meetings that have been held and are to be held here between Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, Hon. Sidney Fisher and the Hon. G. F. Graham.
To-night there will be a dinner at Ritz-Carlton Hotel, to which prominent Liberals of the city and district have been invited, and Friday night Sir Wilfrid will be the guest of Mr. A. R. McMaster at the Canada Club. It is expected that the close of Sir Wilfrid's visit will see the appearance of the first numbers of the new Liberal newspaper, The Daily Telegraph.

Is Mazie Lynch Here?

A despatch from Niagara Falls, N. Y., says:
The police on the American side are beginning to believe that Mazie Lynch, a 16 year-old girl who disappeared last Friday night, went over the falls. It was at first thought that she left the city with the Carnival Company now playing Brantford, but the police there to-day reported their inability to locate her. The girl's friends say she threatened suicide by the cataraact route.
Efforts to locate the girl with the Ferari Shows here have failed, none of the attendants knowing anything about her.

IMPROVEMENTS TO PORT DOVER HARBOR

The following from the Canadian Manufacturer will further bring home the importance to Brantford of the Port Dover Improvements:

Supplementary estimates brought down in the House of Commons provide for the expenditure of $50,000 on improvements on Port Dover harbor. The vote on this was but a preliminary one to permit of work being started this year. It is estimated that the proposed improvements will cost between $300,000 and $350,000.

The harbor is to be dredged to a depth of 18 feet, which will make possible the landing of all lake freighters and also of the big car ferry which the Lake Erie & North ern Railway proposes to operate between Erie, Pa., and Port Dover.

All goods brought over on the car ferry will be hauled to Brantford and distributed there, making that city the distributing point for coal steel and other products from the Pittsburgh district. Shipments by boat to the west will also be possible, which will mean a big saving in freight rates to manufacturers in that district. The most modern loading and unloading facilities are to be installed at Port Dover.

THE BOUNDARY MATTER

The Expositor denies the statement of this paper that at this time the boundary extension matter is in the same defunct class as the late lamented Julius Caesar.

It is, all the same.

Our cotem, during the course of some other remarks, says:

The arguments which our contemporary advances in opposition were as operative 20 years ago, when Eagle Place and Terrace Hill were brought in, as they are to-day. Does the Courier wish the residents of these important sections of the city to understand that they are unwelcome additions to the family, and that a mistake was made in bringing them in? If dare not say so.

The above is a characteristically unfair attempt to insinuate something which the Courier never even thought of.

It would be just as fair to claim that the Expositor was anxious to bring more Township residents into the city because it considered that they are at present in a benighted and deplorable state.

However, this paper is not in that kind of insinuation business.

Now as to the facts of the matter. The last extension was a desirable thing at the time, and received hearty support in these columns. The terms then were these:

1. Properties brought in remained at the low Township rate of assessment (that is low as compared with city ratings) for ten years.

2. Whatever the tax rate, the newcomers paid 10 mills less than the rest of us, for fifteen years.

We now have a very large city area, a good deal bigger than the average, and the people feel—that it would be a good deal better for some time yet to develop what we have. With heavy financial responsibilities on hand, such as improvements at the waterworks, the hospital, and so on, it would be a foolish thing to assume new extension burdens on a differential plan.

And when the time does arise for enlargement, the newcomers should enter the fold on the basis of city assessment and city taxes.

Business is business in such matters, just as much as it is between individuals.

AS TO DICTATORSHIP

A curious feeling of wonder must take possession of all who reflect upon the possible outcome of our democratic system, when they note that one result is the production of a statesman of Sir James Whitney's methods of action. Do the people love a Dictator? How long will they tolerate one, although of their own creation? The story of modern Ontario politics enable us to understand a little better how the people of past days allowed tyrants to rule over them. Have we so greatly improved upon our forefathers in this respect?—Ottawa Free Press (Liberal).

Sir James, like all men who attain high office, has a mind of his own, and without that affinity neither he nor any other leader would ever get to such a position.

Sir John Macdonald had a like quality, and so has Sir Wilfrid Laurier; in fact, the latter, when in power, proved himself to be, without any question, the most absolute dictator Canada has ever produced.

Woe betide the man who ever thwarted him when he had the opportunity to wield his snicker-snee. Tarte, to whom Sir Wilfrid owed more than any one man in the matter of attaining power, had the temerity to express some views of his own regarding protection, and off went his head in a flash.

Hon. Mr. Blair, then Minister of Railways and Canals, was ignored by Laurier in the matter of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway because he did not agree with the terms proposed, and then he uttered some criticisms. Result: Another head in Wilfrid's guillotine basket.

He also decapitated Sifton, Hyman and one or two others.

Then in the matter of the proposed Reciprocity treaty, Laurier was so puffed up with his own idea of himself as a czar that he absolutely ignored his own followers in the matter of the negotiations, and the announcement of what had been done, in the language of the Brantford Expositor (which sometimes blunders into political frankness), fell on them like "a bolt from the blue."

And yet this boss dictator of them all is revered and worshipped by the Ottawa Free Press with the intensity of the young man suffering from his first love spasm.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN

Hon. Joseph Chamberlain yesterday celebrated his 77th birthday, and the pity of it is that this undoubtedly foremost man has for some years been incapacitated from public duty.

It would be difficult to find a parallel in British public life to his great personal power and popularity. "The People's Joe" has long been his sobriquet, and is yet.

In the Birmingham area of constituencies his say-so always obtained. He used to carry the bunch for the Liberals, and then when he became a Unionist he did the same thing for that side.

In the House of Commons he had a similar power. Morley, in his great "Life of Gladstone," admits that the latter never realized Chamberlain's undoubtedly tremendous abilities until he found him in opposition. Then he realized to the full the great mistake he had made in estranging such a doughty lieutenant. Who that has ever had the privilege of hearing him, monocle in eye, and the inevitable orchid in buttonhole, will ever forget his keen and rapid skill in debate? And on the platform, in discussing big questions with a marvellous and broad-minded vision, he was equally effective.

It has been charged that he deserted Gladstone over the Home Rule debate because he hoped for leadership on the other side. Those who are at all aware of the facts know that this is not the case.

Gladstone, when, in 1886, he introduced a land bill and Home Rule bill for Ireland, was an old man—in fact, in his 77th year. The only two likely successors to him were Lord Rosebery and Chamberlain, with odds in favor of the latter, for Rosebery did not relish leadership.

On the Conservative side the Marquis of Salisbury, then the leader, was only 56. Next to him for undoubted succession, had he not, in order to displace Salisbury, made the fatal blunder of resigning the Chancellorship of the Exchequer, came Lord Randolph Churchill, then 37. And next to him again was A. J. Balfour, aged 38, who later did become Premier.

How on earth could Chamberlain, then 50 years old, humbly expect to supersede them? Such an idea is a rank absurdity on the very face of it.

Without doubt, Chamberlain broke from his old leader on a basis of principle, and that alone, for he had, personally, nothing to gain and all to lose by changing his party allegiance.

His foresight and deep Empire sense have always been remarkable. When he became Minister of the Colonies in 1895, under Salisbury, his activity and broad-mindedness placed that position on an entirely new basis, and rightly made that post rank as one of the most important in the Cabinet.

There will be many kindly thoughts in the world over of the old man now as he sits in his invalid chair, far removed from the scenes of former conflict, in which he was such a gladiator, although his name is still one with which to conjure.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Our cupola-cornet cotem. is hugging a dead duck to its mainly booserman in agitating boundary extension at this time.

John D. Rockefeller has just celebrated his 74th birthday. It is understood that his credit still stands good at the corner grocery store.

Speaking of the present Balkan scrap, where are the Turkish atrocities now? The truth of the matter seems to be that the folks thereabouts all seem to be tarred with the same mutual killing brush.

Proudfoot seems to take huge delight out of his recently-achieved prominence as the man who impugned the honor of Sir James Whitney and Hon. Mr. Hanna. He is welcome to all the ingrowing feelings of pleasure which he can get out of the incident, for they won't last long, anyway.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Deaths By Drowning.

Montreal Star: A curious light is cast on our death rate by drowning by some figures given at the last meeting of the Dominion Medical Association by Dr. Helen Mac Murchy of Toronto. Out of 34,000 deaths in Ontario in 1911, no less than 300 were due to drowning. The drownings, she said, numbered more in proportion to the population than the deaths from deadly snakes in India; and she added, that in the Maritime provinces death by drowning was almost unknown. Is this due, we wonder, to the greater caution of the Maritime Province people; or is it due to the fact that more of them know how to swim? Perhaps it is due partly to both.

Slaughter of the Babies.

Toronto News: In ten days 60 children under four years of age, 40 of them being less than six months old, died in Toronto. This period did not include the days of excessive heat, poverty, over-crowding, insanitary food and ignorance take their toll of child life throughout the year.

A Grand Old Man.

Woodstock Sentinel-Review (Liberal): Sir Charles Tupper was born on July 2, 1818. He, therefore, celebrated his ninety-second birthday on Wednesday. He is said to be enjoying excellent health in his English home.

The methods of Sir Charles as a political fighter did not always commend themselves to his political opponents; but for several years now he has occupied his undivided place as one of Canada's Grand Old Men. The memories of the past have lost their bitterness. Canadians, to-day, of all classes and parties, are glad to honor him, not merely as a Father of Confederation, but as a Canadian who really believed in Canada, who was blessed with sufficient vision to see something of Canada's future when the immediate present seemed to hold out no very great promise, and who devoted the best years of a long and energetic life to the work of making his vision of Canada's future come true. It may be that he will never return to Canada again as a living force, but his name and his deeds will have a permanent place in Canada's History.

Mr. A. P. VanSimeren, St. Paul's Avenue, left on Saturday evening for Montreal, where he will await the arrival of his two sisters from Northwood, Middlesex, England, this week.

The Test.

Detroit Free Press: "Is she a good musician?"

"Very. She knows when to quit."

Good Manners in Business.

St. Thomas Times: President Finley of the Southern Railway, addressing members of the traffic department of his system, pointed out the importance, the positive commercial value, of good manners. Courteous and considerate treatment of the patrons is one of the first aids to dividends, as a good many service corporations have demonstrated.

The customer who is made to feel that the store, the railroad, the bank or the wholesale house is his personal friend is the one who is not only most certain to come back again with his business, but, the best possible drummer for trade.

Paris News

PARIS, July 9.—The Methodist church, Paris, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, July 9th, when Miss Mary Alberta, youngest daughter of Mrs. Isabella Strachan, became the bride of Mr. William J. Kempthorne, of Detroit.

At two o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of "Lohengrin's wedding march" played by Mr. M. A. Aver. The bride, who was given away by Mr. A. Scruton of Brantford, looked very handsome in a gown of white Duchesse satin trimmed with baby Irish lace and seed pearls; her wedding veil was caught with orange blossoms and her bouquet was of bridal roses. The maid of honor, Miss Etta Chrysler, niece of the bride, was gowned in apricot broadcloth silk, trimmed with dewdrop and pearl fringe, and little Miss Thelma Kempthorne, who acted as ring bearer, wore a pretty dress of white embroidery and Valenciennes lace and carried a calla lily tied with white ribbon.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. L. Kerruish of Fergus, rector of Paris. At the conclusion of the service, Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered.

Later in the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on Walnut street, which was decorated very prettily in white and gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Kempthorne left on the 5-43 train for Niagara, the bride travelling in a suit of brown Bedford cord with Bulgarian trimmings and hat to match. On their return they will reside at 420-Fourth-avenue, Detroit, Mich.

"Beware of the tickle summer girls, my son." "Oh, I don't mind being tickled a few times, father." "That's just it, boy, your mother was a summer girl, and I reckoned on her tickling me, and see how I came out!"

Social and Personal

Dr. J. W. Willson, Mrs. Willson, Master Wesley and Miss Gertrude Willson, Detroit, Mich., were motor guests on Sunday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willson, Alfred St.

Mrs. A. McKinnon has returned to her home in Toronto after spending two weeks vacation at the home of Mr. Robert Brown, Cayuga street, city.

Mr. A. P. VanSimeren, St. Paul's Avenue, left on Saturday evening for Montreal, where he will await the arrival of his two sisters from Northwood, Middlesex, England, this week.

Mr. Alva Johnson and Mr. Archibald of Woodstock were in the city yesterday and looked over the Ferris shows, which go to Woodstock week after next. They stated they were well pleased with the shows.

The party of Brantfordites who left on Sunday evening by motor to enjoy a couple of days' fishing trip at Long Point in company with Mr. C. A. Thompson of Granby, Quebec, arrived home again last evening, reporting a most enjoyable outing, lots of fish and good sport generally.

Major J. E. Hamilton leaves this evening for Montreal, sailing to-morrow via Allen line for "Scandinavia," for England and Glasgow. Mr. Hamilton will be gone about five weeks altogether and is planning to return via St. John's, Newfoundland, in August.

One of the most enjoyable of this season's days at the Brantford Golf and Country Club, was spent yesterday by the members on the occasion of the visit of the Galt players who arrived by motor in the city about two o'clock, some twenty-three strong to engage in a friendly game over the local links. The club has looked very attractive with its huge bowls of brown-eyed Susans, and white daisies, the closed in verandahs claiming many devotees to the ever popular "bridge"—and a delicious buffet high tea served to between fifty and sixty people about 6:30 p.m. The visitors won out (by just one point, however), and left for Galt again about half past eight, our Brantford people rather envying them their ride home through the lovely summer evening.

A Fresh Attack LONDON, July 9.—A fresh Unionist attack to place a further obstacle in the way of enactment of the home rule bill for Ireland was announced by the Marquis of Lansdowne, leader of the Unionist party in the House of Lords, in that chamber this afternoon.

When the bill is submitted to the House of Lords for second reading on Monday, Lord Lansdowne will move "that this House declines to proceed with the consideration of the bill until it has been submitted to the judgment of the country."

The Unionists believe they have discovered a flaw in the parliament act which provides for the passage of bills over the heads of the peers within a specified period. Their contention is that if the House of Lords postpones dealing with the Irish Home Rule bill by an adjournment to a date beyond the life of the present parliament, the Liberal Government will be powerless to force through its legislation, as the parliament act overlooks the possibility of the Upper House giving itself a prolonged vacation and going on a virtual strike against legislation.

It seems probable that the Marquis of Lansdowne's motion is a preliminary to the taking of some such step.

MR. HENRI K. JORDAN IS ENJOYING LONDON

The following letter from Mr. Henri K. Jordan of Old London, will be read with interest by music lovers in Brantford.
"Since arriving in London I have been fortunate enough to hear so much good music that I think it selfish not to pass it on as far as possible to those at home.
Last Sunday we went to Albert Hall to hear Alma Gluck, soprano, of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, who was to make her initial appearance here; Kreisler, the noted violinist, and De Pachmann, the pianist. We arrived at the hall half an hour before the program was to begin and found it thronged with people, although it is an immense building—so large, in fact, that the people on the opposite side appeared like dolls. We secured seats behind the platform, where the chorus is placed when there is one. We could see everything and hear splendidly. The building is a huge arena, oval in shape, with seats on every side and has no less than five galleries. One excellent feature of these concerts is that those who cannot afford to pay are admitted to the upper gallery free, they having to stand, though, while seats cost all the way from 25 cents to box seats at $75.
The hall was built in 1857-71 at a cost of over a million dollars, as a memorial to the Prince Consort, and seats ten thousand people comfortably.
When Kreisler appeared he was warmly greeted, and immediately afterwards, as he raised his violin, there was the most profound hush. In all that audience of over ten thousand people there was absolute stillness; it was oppressive. He began to play, and throughout the five selections comprising his first number he had my attention such as it has never been my pleasure to see before. Selection (a) was La Chasse, written by J. B. Cartier (1765-1841); it was thrilling: Based on the familiar intervals associated with the hunting horn, and effectively designed to suggest the coming and passing of a hunting party, it was one continuous example of double stopping, practically perfect in intonation, played like a master. The audience waited until the last note was completed, then a roar of applause rolled up and around that mighty dome, continuous and persistent, and he had to repeat the number. After his last selection he was recalled four times.
Alma Gluck was second on the program, and won the favor of the audience at once. She was in good voice, and was recalled several times. Kreisler again appeared and played "Hejre Kati." It was delightful—such harmonies, like drops of liquid music. Oh, the applause! For a moment after he had finished it was like the stillness of death, and then a max of enthusiasm before. I have no words left to describe the pandemonium that broke loose when he finished. Applause, cheers, everyone standing, handkerchiefs waving. He came back and played again—I must be brief. He was recalled time after time. The audience was crowding to the platform, hundreds had climbed upon it, until during his last encore (I really could not count them all), he was surrounded by an admiring crowd of thousands, many of them close up to the piano. They stood quietly until he finished, then the cheers broke forth. Men shook him by the hand; the ladies tried to kiss him. It was an ovation such as I have never witnessed before.

It is no wonder people from these Isles are musical—they have such opportunities.
I will write in a few days of a wonderful service I heard at the Abbey this afternoon. HENRI JORDAN.

Sporting Comment

Brantford plays at Berlin to-morrow.
Harry Donovan will pitch to-day at Peterboro.

Brantford won a game yesterday, thanks to Chubby Coose. Whenever the Red Sox hit hard they win games.

It would be rather remarkable if Brantford were to start a winning streak. The Sox have won already for one consecutive day.

All the Brantford rinks are down at the Niagara Tourney with the exception of Husband's rink of Heathers, who are sticking it out in the Consolation.

We were asked this morning to decide the running of a pool in one of the shops, over which an argument had started, as a result of yesterday's mix-up at London. A number of men have a pick of the different teams for the highest score during the week. London should get credit for 9 runs in yesterday's game, and Guelph none.

COOSE RIGHT THERE AGAIN

Brantford Pitcher Won His Own Game—The Sox Hit Ball Hard.

PETERBORO, July 8.—Good hitting by the Brants and bad breaks on close decisions for the Petes allowed the visitors the second game yesterday by 9 to 4. Three doubles Iver's error and a single gave the Petes four runs in the second. Brantford went scoreless till the sixth, when with two gone, four singles and Coose's double scored four runs. With three on in the seventh Tesch's single scored Kane and Ivers, and Sleming sneaked home while the Petes were protesting a close decision. Burrill's single, Wagner's double and a bad throw made two more in the 8th. Score:

WON UNDER JACK WHITE

Berlin Defeated Hamilton by Score of 3 to 2.
BERLIN, Ont., July 8.—The locals got away to a fine start under the leadership of Jack White, the new manager, to-day by capturing a nip-and-tuck game from Hamilton by 3 to 2 before a large crowd. White was given a great ovation when he came to bat in the first, and responded by cracking out a single which scored two runs, making himself solid with the fans. The locals were hitting the ball, fielding sharply and playing with new life. It was not until the ninth that the game was in doubt, one down Stroh doubled and Auld beat out a bunt. Dinsmore grounded to J. Murphy, who threw poorly to the plate, and Stroh scored. Smith started to pitch for the Hams, but was batted after the first frame. Carlow finished, but he was touched up for safeties in every chapter but the second and eighth. The visitors did not perform up to the mark in the field, while White's outfit gave Auld splendid support. The Toronto club was after pitcher Bradshaw, the youthful marvel of the local club, and have asked for a price on him.

ONE INNING ENOUGH

St. Thomas Defeated Ottawa by Five to Two.
ST. THOMAS, July 8.—The saints took the Ottawa champs into camp here again to-day, one big inning again doing the trick. With the score 4 to 0 when the locals went to bat in the fifth, they secured four runs on three hits, a couple of sacrifices and two bad throws. The visitors could only get one afterwards, although they hit Brodie frequently, but he kept them well scattered, and was given splendid support. Lill started for the Senators, but was replaced by Rogers, who was effective, and stopped further scoring.

Manager Shaughnessy to-day released Pitcher Merchant, recently purchased from Detroit, and signed Reilly, formerly a member of the St. Thomas club.
The score:—
Ottawa..... 000011000—3
St. Thomas..... 00014000x—8

COOK'S ACTIONS BRINGS FORFEIT

Leaf's Manager Had to be Carried Off Field by the Police at London.

Fans Had Money Trouble

LONDON, Ont., July 8.—The second game of the London-Guelph series ended in a riot at the conclusion of the second half of the fourth inning this afternoon, Manager Louie Cook, of Leafs, being forcibly ejected from the grounds by the police. Before Umpire Daley called a halt and forfeited the match to the Tecumsehs by the usual score of 9 to 0 the score at the time was 1 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

During the early part of the game Cook showed that he was particularly strong for objections to-day, and frequently complained to the umpire about decisions. Daley was possibly not in a good nervous state, for he gave scant audience to players from either side.

A long wallop that fell about ten feet outside of the flag at the end of the third base foul line would possibly have gone for a home run had it been straightened out in the second period, and Cook attempted to bluff it through for a "fair" decision. In the second half of the fourth Linneborn went out on a hit to second, the throw beating him into first. Matesson followed with a long two-base plate. His hit to Behan at short started the eruption. Matesson left second, but when he saw where the ball was falling he attempted to return. Behan followed with a long two-base plate. He was completing a double simply touched the sack and not the base runner. Daley upset matters by ruling that Behan had batted the ball off the ground.

Accordingly both men were safe. Behan's roar caused him to be chafed, and Cook, doubly riled, stated his opinion of such umpiring. Daley commanded him to leave the field within two minutes and held his watch. Cook in the meantime passed some remarks, and proceeded leisurely to change his shoes at the visiting players' bench.

Police Sergeant "Bud" Lucas was requested by the umpire to eject the Guelph manager and found some difficulty in complying owing to Cook rolling on the ground and refusing to make any move believing that he was being made a fool of. Threats were made against the umpire, who promptly met the situation by forfeiting the struggle to London.

A new conspiracy thereupon developed, for the irate fans had seen less than half a game and demanded their money back. Directors of the home club were pursued around the grounds, and finally, for the sake of peace, and to avoid a threatened onslaught on the box office, agreed to pass out rain checks. The concession was made with poor grace, and especially because of the fact that a double-header had been called for tomorrow. Threats were again made

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT FOR THE GIANTS

New York Rallied in the Seventh and Defeated Chicago.

Boston Beat St. Louis by 6-2

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Giants ran their winning streak up to thirteen games yesterday when they took the first game of the Chicago series by a score of 6 to 5. Lavender, who broke Marquard's run of victories at the opening game, pitched a strong game for the visitors, but received very poor support, especially in the seventh inning when New York scored four runs. The Cubs hit Ted Ryan hard and freely, and their batch of four runs in the sixth came on clean hitting, two doubles and three singles. Marquard pitched the last two innings for New York and held the visitors without a hit. The score: Chicago..... 100004000—5
New York..... 01000140x—6

MILLER'S HOMER DID TRICK
Pittsburg Defeated Brooklyn by a Score of 6 to 4.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—Jack Miller's home run drive in the tenth inning, scoring two men ahead of him, enabled Pittsburg to take the opening game from Philadelphia yesterday 6 to 4. The Pirates came from behind, covering the Phillies' two-run lead, tying in the ninth, then winning on Miller's furious drive. Gravath made his eighth home run of the season when he scored Magee ahead of him with a tremendous club over the right field fence. The score:—
Pittsburg..... 0005010113—6
Philadelphia..... 0200000101—4

REDS BEAT SUPERBAS

Brooklyn Were Defeated by the Score of Two to One.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Three former Giants—Leon Ames, Josh Devore, and Heine Groh—appeared in Cincinnati uniforms at Ebbets Field yesterday, and the Brooklynites, particularly due to their efforts, were triumphed by a 2 to 1 score. Ames' last of the full route and held the luckless Dodgers to eight hits, three of them credited to Jake Daubert. Score:—
Cincinnati..... 000010010—2
Brooklyn..... 000001000—1

Griner Went to Pieces in the Seventh When the Braves Made Five Runs

BOSTON, July 9.—Griner blew up in the seventh inning, and Boston won from St. Louis yesterday 6 to 2. The Cardinal pitcher gave three bases on balls in this inning, forcing in two runs, and with the bags full Radtzen doubled, scoring three more. Mowrey was spiked by Meyers in the fourth and retired. He was only slightly injured. The score:—
St. Louis..... 010000001—2

ROCHESTER DEFEATED MONTREAL BY A SCORE OF 5 TO 4

ROCHESTER, July 9.—Rochester nosed out Montreal in the tenth yesterday, 5 to 4, after a pitchers' battle between Keeffe and Mattern. In the tenth after Zinn had singled, and had been sacrificed to second by Conroy, Mattern walked Jackitsch purposely to get a whack at Keeffe. Keeffe responded with a safe single, scoring Zinn and winning the game. The score:—
Rochester..... 1000010201—5
Montreal..... 0000300100—4

OLD GERMAN LAGER
HURRY up with a bottle of Kuntz's Old German, said the man from New York. "It's worth a trip to Canada to get a drink of this corking brew. There's nothing like the 'Old German' flavor in the United States, you know. Perhaps because the 'Old German' process of brewing is so very costly. Anyway, you Canadians ought to feel proud of Kuntz's for brewing such a superb beverage. And I guess you are from the number I see drinking Kuntz's Old German."

MARIE ANTOINETTE'S TOMB

It is located in "the Saddest Spot in Paris"

A contributor to the Manchester Guardian has been visiting the Chapelle Expiatoire, in the Rue des Mathurins, which he describes as "the saddest spot in Paris." He had got it into his head that the remains of Louis Seize and Marie Antoinette had entirely disappeared, but he was deceived.

had gone. The traffic penetrated not to this barren and almost secret cell. I was alone with the injured dead, with the irresolute king who was his own worst enemy, with the frivolous, fascinating, suffering, martyred queen in whose behalf the 10,000 swords for which Burke cried out in his agony never leaped from their scabbards—alone with the poor remnants of perhaps the most historic woman in history.

This spot is seldom visited. "You wonder," says the writer, "how much the people on the boulevard a few yards away know or care about it all."

Cinema Film Bursts Into Flame Owing to the coolness of the officials there was no panic at all on the outbreak of a fire at the Tower Picture Theatre, Mill street, Ancaster, Manchester, on Monday night. Just before the close of the first performance, and whilst the star picture, "The Hero of the Mountains" was being shown, the film burst into flame, whereupon the operator promptly applied the automatic "cut-off," and the fire was extinguished almost at once.

Attempt to Wreck Express Just after a motor train had left the Devonport station, on the London and Southwestern Railway, the other day, the driver saw a sleeper lying across the tracks close to the entrance to the tunnel which carries the line under Devonport Park. Immediately applying the brakes he stopped the motor only a few feet from the obstruction. On alighting to remove the sleeper he found a second sleeper lying across the down line.

Pathetic Motor Car Tragedy A child of four, Cyril Frank Scott, was killed by a motor car on Monday at Seven Dials, Brighton, when running across the road to give a penny to a dustman who had shown his mother the way.

Raid on Bats in Belfry So many bats had made their home in the belfry of Holbeach Parish Church, Lincolnshire, that it was decided to make a determined assault upon them. Sulphur was burnt over stoves and the bell ropes whirled round in the tower. Thirty-three bats were killed in one evening.

Biscuit Makers Annual About 7,000 of the employees of Huntley and Palmer's biscuit works and their families took advantage on Monday of the annual excursion from Reading to Brighton or Bourne, south of the former resort drawing about 3,000 of the party. Sed Merchant's Tragic Death A stern Samuel Yarde, who was Mayor of Northampton in 1911, was discovered at his farm at Billing 1 1/2 miles Northamptonshire, on Monday, with his head blown off and a gun by his side. Motor Car Charges Window Hubert Thorp, of Parkhead, Cumberland, near Huddersfield, was at Claxson fined $5 and costs for being drunk in charge of a motor car at Hadfield on the evening of June 7. The chief constable of Glossop stated that the defendant was driving the motor car, which contained two other persons. The car crashed into the window in Station Road, Hadfield, all three being more or less injured.

Ex-Soldier's Fatal Delusion A verdict of "suicide while insane" was returned at an inquest at Gelsmoor, near Ashby, on William Cooke, thirty-seven, a farmer. A sister said her brother fought with the Leicestershire Yeomanry in the Boer war and contracted fever. Since then he had delusions, and would in imagination go through terrible incidents in war. Finally he imagined he was to be court-martialed and shot as a traitor, and he cut his throat.

Saved by Her Corsets Millicent Cadman, a servant girl employed by the clerk to the Nunaton Guardians, was attacked on Sunday night by a man who dashed out upon her from the cover of a railway arch. He lunged at her with a knife, but the weapon fortunately caught a steel of her corsets, which deflected the blow, and saved the girl from serious injury, if not from death. By a great effort she reached home, where she temporarily collapsed from the shock of the adventure.

The assailant, who had previously molested two other young women, catching hold of one round the neck, until her screams frightened him away, was pursued by a young farmer, who was passing at the time, but got away. The assailant is described as "tall and well dressed," and was noticed to be wearing soft rubber shoes at the time of the outrage.

SMART POLICE PRAISED

Clever Capture of Thieves Who Robbed Cloak Room by a Trick

High praise both of metropolitan police officers and of railway police was heard at the London sessions on Wednesday from Mr. R. Wallace, K. C.

Joseph James, twenty eight, dealer; Charles Schiefer, twenty one, clerk; and Frank Keehner, twenty-six, chauffeur, were indicted for having stolen a case of jewellery and antique silver, valued at £3,300, from the cloak room at the King's Cross terminus of the Great Northern Railway.

James and Schiefer pleaded guilty, and Keehner not guilty. The result of the case was that Keehner was acquitted, and sentence on the other two was postponed.

Shrieffer at the time of the robbery was in the service of the prosecutor, Mr. Henry Freeman, antique dealer of Charterhouse Buildings, Goswell-road, E. C., and James had formerly been in his service. By means of a messenger boy they got the box from the cloak room, and it was removed to Euston Station on a four wheeler. There it was placed on a motor-car driven by Keehner, and it was taken to an address in Stratford, where it was broken open.

Some of the stolen goods were afterwards traced to the cloak-room at Liverpool-street Station. Mr. Wallace said he would like to draw attention to a recommendation by the grand jury, which read:—"We submit to the court that the officers concerned in this complicated case have shown unusual astuteness in their investigations and great ability. They appear to us to be very valuable members of the detective force, and are worthy of recommendation."

"May I say," continued Mr. Wallace, "how completely I agree and endorse what the grand jury have said? The officers in this case I have known for years. They are some of the most valuable members of the force. The work they have done in this case is, as it always has been, worthy of the highest recommendation."

Detective-Inspector Neil: The result was brought about through a combination of the railway police and the metropolitan officers.

AVIATOR EXPECTS TO GET UP TO-DAY

He Has Had Hard Luck in Getting Right Kind Off Propeller.

Aviator Carlstrom was a much chastened young man yesterday. His new propeller arrived from Chicago, and he immediately journeyed to the big field in the Holmedale to make his flight. He had not taken the pains, however to unpack the propeller, until he got to the field. Then he found that it was the wrong one. His order had not been filled properly. He immediately returned to the telegraph office and the wires were hot. It is expected that the missing part will arrive on an early afternoon train.

In the meantime Carlstrom is struggling to get the propeller wrongly shipped to work so as to meet the emergency. He likes flying and promises two flights daily, if he can break the hoodoo. Mr. Victor Levitt, manager of the carnival, expressed keen disappointment and frankly admitted that any brand of airships gave him dyspepsia. The carnival last evening was a hummer, several thousand people being in attendance.

With sinking heart Mr. Sutherland let his eyes drop from this flying figure to search for the man whom a little while before he had seen following impetuously behind his son. He was following him still and hastened by the house just as Mr. Sutherland's glance fell on him, so that whatever was strange or pitiful in the foregoing scene must have had this man for a witness.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Bradley's Health - Her Own Statement.

Winnipeg, Canada. "Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth. The doctors said it was a tumor and could not be removed as it would cause instant death. They found that my organs were affected, and said I could not live more than six months in the condition I was in."

"After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life."

"I highly recommend it to suffering women." - Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Avenue, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

Why will women take chances or drag out sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

That he would be quiet also did not speak of what he had that night seen. Why, then - But to the hope thus given in this honest gentleman would yield no hearted, and seeing a duty before him, a duty he dare not shrink, he brought his emotions, violent as they were, into complete and absolute subjection and, opening Mr. Halliday's door, entered the house. They were old neighbors, and ceremony was ignored between them.

Flinding the hall empty and the parlor door open, he walked immediately into the latter room. The sight that met his eyes never left his memory. Agnes, his little Agnes, whom he had always loved and whom he had vainly endeavored to call by the endearing name of daughter, sat with her face toward him, looking up at Frederick. That young gentleman, who had just spoken to her, or she had just received something from his hand, for her own was held out, and her expression was one of gratitude and acceptance. She was not a beautiful girl, but she had a beautiful look, and at this moment she was exalted by a feeling the old gentleman had once longed, but now dreaded, inexpressibly, to see there. What could it mean? Why did she show interest, devotion, passion almost, at this special moment of her life, when in all the years that had gone by, and when it was the dearest wish of his heart to see these two united, she had never betrayed in all their intercourse anything but distrust, if not an uneasy dislike? It was one of the roots of the trouble - penetrates where an oil liniment cannot go. Remedy for Ants Dear Mrs. Lincoln: As I am a constant reader of your Talks and see how much you help others I come also for a little help. My pantry is infested with ants and as they get into everything it is annoying. Can you tell me what to do to rid of them? THANKFUL

Buffalo Oil of lemon, which may be procured from any druggist, is a safe remedy for the ant pest. Put a few drops of the oil about where they are most troublesome and insects will soon depart.

PARALYZED BY LUMBAGO Manual labor or even light exercise is impossible with lumbago. The muscles stiffen out like steel - to move means agony. Only a powerful remedy can penetrate deep enough to help. The surest relief comes from rubbing in Nerviline. It sinks into the very root of the trouble - penetrates where an oil liniment cannot go. He Got the Guinness

A pretty story is told of a noble man whom his barber left half-shaved and in a great hurry. His lordship thought the man was mad, and sent to enquire after him. He returned in person and thus explained himself: "I was not mad; my lord; but the sight of that heap of guineas on your dressing-table, and the remembrance of my starving family so affected me, that if I had stayed another minute I should have cut your throat."

"After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life."

"I highly recommend it to suffering women." - Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Avenue, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

Why will women take chances or drag out sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

That he would be quiet also did not speak of what he had that night seen. Why, then - But to the hope thus given in this honest gentleman would yield no hearted, and seeing a duty before him, a duty he dare not shrink, he brought his emotions, violent as they were, into complete and absolute subjection and, opening Mr. Halliday's door, entered the house. They were old neighbors, and ceremony was ignored between them.

Flinding the hall empty and the parlor door open, he walked immediately into the latter room. The sight that met his eyes never left his memory. Agnes, his little Agnes, whom he had always loved and whom he had vainly endeavored to call by the endearing name of daughter, sat with her face toward him, looking up at Frederick. That young gentleman, who had just spoken to her, or she had just received something from his hand, for her own was held out, and her expression was one of gratitude and acceptance. She was not a beautiful girl, but she had a beautiful look, and at this moment she was exalted by a feeling the old gentleman had once longed, but now dreaded, inexpressibly, to see there. What could it mean? Why did she show interest, devotion, passion almost, at this special moment of her life, when in all the years that had gone by, and when it was the dearest wish of his heart to see these two united, she had never betrayed in all their intercourse anything but distrust, if not an uneasy dislike? It was one of the roots of the trouble - penetrates where an oil liniment cannot go. ## Good Roads

(Continued from Page 1) Westbrook believed had done all they could, but he thought the time had come when the work had gone beyond that stage. He was strongly of the opinion that there should be a united effort to secure good roads.

At the conclusion of the addresses Mr. Watts, in order that Dr. Reaume might know the sentiment of the several Township Councils, called upon members of the respective councils to speak.

Township of Brantford.
Warden Kendrick speaking on behalf of the Brantford Township Council said that the main thing is to get the other townships to come in. He did not believe there was one member of the Brantford Township Council who was not in favor of the good roads movement. He thought some of the other Townships were willing to come in. Mr. Kendrick believed the county should get its share of the money being expended by the Government for good roads.

Burford Township.
Councillor Milmine of the Burford Township Council did not speak very favorably towards the movement. He said he understood that the County of Oxford had taken up the good roads movement. He had not heard of any roads this year, but were repairing the roads already built.

South Dumfries.
Councillor Waite of the South Dumfries Council, reported the council to be favorable to the movement and would do their share towards good roads. He mentioned Oxford Co., as did Mr. Milmine, and also stated that there had been complaints in Wentworth County.

Onondaga Township.
Councillor Simpson of the Onondaga Township Council, said that the people were divided as regards the movement, the lower part of the Township being in favor. He did not believe the people of Onondaga would object as long as the Township got its fair share of the money granted.

Oakland Township.
Councillor Cook of Oakland Township, said that Oakland was not very much interested because of the smallness of the township, and owing to the abundance of material for road building in the township, and the roads were good. He said that Lincoln county had asked the Government to take over its road built by the Government.

Councillor Davidson of Paris, was of the same opinion as Mayor Patterson. He believed that toll roads and statute labor should be gotten rid of.

At Suddaby believed the cement road cheaper than the macadamized roads.

Hon. Dr. Reaume
Hon. Dr. Reaume assured the meeting that he was delighted to have the opportunity of discussing such a very important question. He was glad to have heard the representatives of the various municipalities. He said that this district had good representatives to the parliament, and that Brant is a splendid county. When one is travelling from East, West, North or South, he generally knows when he strikes Brant county roads. Dr. Reaume stated that he was not coming in the capacity to coax. The Government contributes one-third, and have the say as to where the road shall be laid and the material is to be constructed. Dr. Reaume speaking briefly of the importance of good roads, mentioned the advantage to the farmer. As there was not very much gravel in Brant County, the stone would have to be secured elsewhere. Dr. Reaume spoke of the tendency to lay the matter over from one council to another. The Doctor said the councillors are in the council one year and generally gone the next. The speaker suggested that the Motor League show the people what was needed. He suggested the making of the matter an issue at a January election.

Speaking of the cost, Dr. Reaume said the roads were costly but were worth while. Dr. Reaume cited Fork and Middlesex as two counties where the good roads movement was highly approved. York spent $300,000, and came back for more money, and Middlesex spent $500,000 and came back for more; Oxford county also came back for more money. Speaking of Lincoln, which was cited as an instance where the roads had not been a success, Dr. Reaume said the roads were being destroyed by automobiles from the United States. The Motor League, stated Dr. Reaume, should be ready to go down in their pockets and assist. There has been set aside to develop Northern Ontario $5,000,000, and the same amount has been set aside for Ontario. A commission will report at the next session of the parliament as to the building of a state highway. If the road is built, the counties can construct their highways to it. In considering the good roads scheme the county must consider it as a whole. When there was a great deal of traffic, cement was recommended as the proper road. In his closing remarks, the Doctor recommended that the Motor League meet the councils, and with a proper scheme to come to the government.

Miss Ruby Crandell entertained a few of her girl friends on Friday last to a tea party in honor of her guest, Miss Pettit of Brantford.

Miss Alex Secord and Miss Letta spent the last two weeks at Mr. Isaac Oles' and Mr. Bothwell of New Durham.

As the question as to whether a grant could be secured without the work being under the direction of the government had often been asked, Mr. Watts asked Dr. Reaume to answer it. Dr. Reaume stated there was no provision for it in the Act. It was shown by the Doctor that the building of the roads under the direction of the counties would not give a continuous highway.

Mr. Schultz stated the motorists would only be too glad to have good roads, even at the increase of their license.

The building of a sample road was brought up. This can be done. Mr. Brewster thought it would be a great educator.

Previous to the closing of the meeting, Col. Fraser spoke briefly.

All reserves who have been excused from military have been called out and they responded readily, it being that the whole future of the an nation is at stake.

"A more cheerful view prevails to-day. Instead of a defeat, which General Kovalevich's messages were supposed to indicate as the motive for the action of Kitchana, it appears fighting has occurred in that in the last two days, which has occupied by the Serbians in ing their dead and wounded, evacuation was due to strategic sons. The troops have now up strong positions from which will be difficult to dislodge.

PRINCESS AT LAW OVER WILL
LONDON, July 10.—The Princess Royal and her daughter, the Duchess of Fife, have broken the rule which keeps differences among members of the royal family of England away from public scrutiny, by asking the court to pass on the disposition of the property of the Duke of Fife, who died in Egypt as result of a chill in the wreck of the steamer Delhi on the coast of Morocco, last year. The greatest efforts have been made to keep the suit secret. Mr. Justice Melville, in the Chancery Division, heard arguments in his chamber, and no newspaper representative were admitted. It is understood that the question is so intricate that it will take long time to reach a decision.
