WOLFVILLE HAS INTERESTING VISITOR

On Monday Wolfville had an interesting visitor in the person of Rev. Fr. Pacifico, missionary to the Micmacs of the Maritime Province, who came from Saint Anne de Restigouche, Quebec. While in town, Father Pacifico was a guest of Dr. N. McL. Rogers, who met him in Restigouche, while looking up the Micmacs. He is a member of the Franciscan Order, and wears the brown habit of the order and the long beard.

Born in France, he has spent between thirty and forty years among the Indians of the Great Lakes. He now has a complete mastery of the Micmac language and publishes a newspaper in this language called "Le Messager Micmac".

His purpose in coming to Wolfville was to examine the Dr. Silas Rand manuscripts, some of which are the original copies. These he found in Canadiana of the Micmacs here. Father Pacifico is a recognized authority on early Acadian history.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CAMP MEETING

Services at Berwick Ended on Sunday—Dr. Patterson One of Speakers at Patriotic Rally on Monday

The annual Camp Meeting at Berwick ended a very successful series of meetings on Sunday last. After the rain of the preceding day the weather was delightfully fine and cool and it is estimated that only five thousand persons were in attendance. It is said that no less than six hundred cars were parked in the enclosure during the day.

The speakers on Sunday were Rev. Dr. Chapel, and Principal McKinnon of Pine Hill, both of whom delivered excellent addresses which were listened to attentively by the vast numbers who were present. As on the other days the Lotus Quartette assisted materially in the services with a fine musical program.

A Thank Offering was taken during the day which amounted to $500.

On the Friday evening previous to the annual business meeting was held at Rev. A. B. Higgins was elected president and Rev. W. H. Rochman secretary for the coming year.

Following the Camp Meeting a patriotic rally was held on Monday afternoon in which the following addresses were given by Rev. Dr. Patterson, president of Acadia University, and Rev. Dr. McKinnon. The former defined patriotism as the love of an invisible ideal. "The task of patriotism," he said, "is to make real in the life of the nation the things that are ideal." "The true patriot is the man who incarnates in his own life all that he wants his country to be."

In the evening the Lotus Quartette gave a grand concert which was listened to by an audience that packed the large area that surrounded the auditorium. The program of popular music was artistically rendered. Mr. Earl Spicer gave two selections which were enthusiastically received, as were also the readings given by Miss Alice Farris, of Ayer, and Mrs. Smith of Bermuda, rendered excellently. The program provided herself an efficient and skillful pianist.

CONCERT GIVEN FOR BENEFIT OF ACADIA

Last Thursday Evening in University Hall—Varied Program Much Enjoyed by Audience

Notwithstanding the unfavorable state of the weather a good audience assembled at University Hall last Thursday evening when the annual "Acadia Concert" was put on by the Social and Benevolent Society of the Wolfville Baptist church. The platform was appropriately decorated with red and white roses and hydranges and presented an attractive appearance.

President Patterson presided in his usual graceful manner and introduced those who contributed to the program with fitting remarks. The speakers who participated, representative graduates from different parts of the country, included: Arthur Hunt Chute, Rev. D. B. Henneon, D.D., E. W. Robinson, M.P., Rev. E. M. A. Bleakney and Rev. E. D. Webber, D.D., a former pastor of the Wolfville Baptist church. All expressed their loyalty to Acadia and their devotion to the ideals which it has ever upheld.

In addition the following program of entertainment was rendered and greatly enjoyed by those present:

Vocal duet—Miss Frances DeWolfe and Miss Amy Prescott.

Piano solo—Miss B. Rockwell.

Reading—Miss Kathryn McLean.

Vocal duet—Misses Ena and Melba Ross.

Reading—Miss Mona Parsons.

Vocal solo—Miss Frances DeWolfe.

Reading—Mr. Doane Hatfield.

Piano solo—Miss Lucy Cogswell.

Interpreted in the program a number of college songs were given in which the audience was invited to join. Miss Nita Trethewey presiding at the piano. The national anthem brought to a close a very pleasant entertainment, after which an opportunity was given any who wished to do so to inspect the building.

THE BOYS AND GIRLS OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH AT CAMP

On Monday last the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs of St. John's church completed an enjoyable week at camp. The weather during the most part was perfect and while the camp was small in numbers the amount of enthusiasm more than made up for this.

The two famous teams, the "Thunderbolts" and "Corps-makers," had most interesting games of baseball, cricket, water polo and water polo. It was decided that while the "Thunderbolts" could eat the most, the "Corps-makers" were, in spite of their ominous name, the best cooks.

During the present week the "Brownie" class of St. John's S. S. has been under the leadership of Miss Frances Brown. These girls are learning to swim and to row a boat.

Mrs. W. R. Foote and son Charles are visiting Mrs. Brown at the log cabin at Summit Lake and rendering most valuable assistance with the boys and girls.

GASPEREAU

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stevens and son, Mr. and Mrs. VanScivers and daughter, motored from New Jersey last week end with Mrs. Lila Stevens. Mr. Bryant Stevens with his wife and family motored from Truro to meet his brother whom he had not seen for many years.

Congratulations to Miss Hilda Schofield, who was successful in obtaining her B.S. certificate.

Mrs. Edward Gould and two children, of Ellershouse, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Emery Coldwell.

Mr. Judson Westhaver, of Digby, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Earl Duncanson.

MELHINNEY-HARRIS

CANNING, August 12.—A wedding of more than usual interest took place in the United Baptist church here this afternoon when Miss Josephine Elizabeth Harris, eldest daughter of Colonel J. A. and Mrs. Harris, was united in marriage to Mr. Gerald McElhinney, son of Mr. G. W. McElhinney, of Windsor, N.S. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. G. Heiser, took place under a beautiful arch of golden rods and ferns. Mrs. Clifford Bowley, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ. The bride looked ravishing in a gown of white crepe de chene with the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses, and entered the church with her father. They were preceded by the bridesmaids platinum bar pin. The gifts received by the young couple were many and beautiful, including a silver cake plate from the Basketry Club and a silver casserole and pie plate from the choir of the Methodist church. The bride's going-away dress was a sand ensemble. The happy couple left later for an auto trip throughout the province.

KING VISITED THE CANADIAN EXHIBIT

MONTREAL, Aug. 12.—His Majesty the King visited the Canadian Exhibit at Wembley this afternoon, according to cabled advices received today by the Canadian National Railways headquarters here. His Majesty viewed the moving panorama of Canada and he recalled the scenery in and around Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton, which had impressed him on his visit to this country several years ago.

His Majesty characterized as most ingenious the giant electric map of Canada, showing the various railway routes.

The first shipment of apples from Berwick this season was made on Saturday last by S. B. Chute. This is a week earlier than last year.

TARIFF RETALIATION

W. F. O'Connor, known a few years ago as "that man O'Connor," who has announced his intention of being a candidate in the coming election for Wright, Que. His platform will be the putting into force against the United States and other protectionist countries of their own tariff, schedule for schedule, except in cases where it will be to Canada's benefit to vary the rule.

BIG INCREASE IN VALUE OF CROPS

This Year's Harvest in Canada Expected to be Worth Nearly $400,000,000 More Than in 1924

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—Canada field crops this year will be worth nearly $400,000,000 more than in 1924. The actual value of the 1924 yield was $918,730,000, while the value for the present year is estimated at $1,318,664,907. The volume of the 1925 crop is computed on the basis of the official report of the condition of crops on August 1. The value is computed from the prices of grains at present values for October delivery, and the estimate of the value of the other crops is based on the average price over the last five years. There are a few more than 600,000 agricultural families in the Dominion, which means that each family will have added a little over $200 to the country's wealth, as compared with last year.

This year's wheat yield will, it is estimated on the basis of October delivery prices, be worth $544,335,800 as compared with the actual value of $320,368,000 in 1924; oats $223,168,500, as compared with $200,688,000; barley $76,120,000, as against $51,760,000; rye $15,486,744, as compared with $13,678,000; flax $20,625,318, as against $18,849,000, making the total estimated value of the five principal grains this year $878,766,362, as compared with last year's actual value of $615,537,000, or a gain of over $260,000,000.

Of the other field crops for this year the largest increase will be in hay and clover, the estimated value for this year being $282,118,550, as compared with an actual value in 1924 of $165,000,000. This year's value shows a considerable gain, this year's value being estimated at $7,479,400, as compared with $4,965,000 last year. Other field crops showing gains are: Peas, $6,533,422, as compared with $5,676,000 last year; beans, $3,701,555, as compared with $3,306,000; mixed grains, $24,805,000, as compared with $22,636,000; turnips, $25,682,250, as compared with $17,884,000. Four yields this year will show slight declines in value, according to present estimates. They are as follows: Buckwheat, $10,135,600, as compared with $10,145,000; corn, $12,724,000, as compared with $14,227,000; alfalfa, $13,722,003, as against $14,705,000; and sugar beets, $2,056,560, as compared with $2,268,000.

THE MAYOR ANSWERS

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN,
Dear Sir,—In reference to your inquiry of last week, I may inform you that all Police and Municipal court fees and fines are paid into the general funds of the town and reported upon in the financial statement of the Council each month. This financial statement is audited by the regular auditors appointed by the town for that purpose.

We have invited the ratepayers on many occasions to be present at our monthly Council meetings, in order that they might become better informed in regard to the financial and general work of the town, but so far very few have availed themselves of the privilege.

Yours truly,
J. D. CHAMBERS,
Mayor.

SPEAKING OF EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Visualize a happy married couple entering the lobby of a hotel on their wedding night. Turning from the desk counter registering, the happy bridegroom encounters an old "fame" who greets him effusively, almost kisses him in her joy and coquettishly accuses him of being a night hawk and hiding on her for a month.

The scene is one of the big laughs in the new Paramount picture, "Tomorrow's Love," due at the Orpheum Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Agnes Ayres is the star in the production. Pat O'Malley, who appeared opposite Miss Ayres in "Worldly Goods" again heads the cast as the uncomfortable bridegroom.

The picture is an adaptation of the Saturday Evening Post story, "Interlocutory."

The strike in the coal mines of Nova Scotia came to an end last week and work was resumed on Monday. About 6000 men have been re-engaged, of whom nearly 4000 are now at work.

CELEBRATED FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Rev. and Mrs. Noble Crandall Were "At Home" to their Friends Monday Afternoon—Five Children and Thirteen Grandchildren Present

An occasion of unusual interest occurred on Monday afternoon, when at their pretty home on Main street west, Rev. and Mrs. Noble Crandall celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Rev. and Mrs. Crandall have been for many years popular residents of the town and their many friends here are pleased to tender hearty congratulations.

Rev. Mr. Crandall is a son of the late Young Crandall and Henrietta Noble Crandall and was born at Moncton, N.B. Mrs. Crandall was formerly Laura Francesa Rand, daughter of the late Ebenezer Rand, of Canning, for many years Collector of Customs at the port of Cornwallis. They were married on August 10th, 1875, at the Rev. E. B. Kempton, pastor of the Canard Baptist church. The bridesmaid was Miss Cornelia Crandall and the groomsmen Mr. Benjamin Rand, now Dr. Rand, of Harvard University, brother of the bride, who was unable to be present at the anniversary because of his absence in England.

The first fourteen years of their married life was spent in St. John and Sussex, N.B., coming thence to Windsor, and later to Wolfville, where their children were educated. Mr. Crandall, even while in business, devoted much of his time to mission work in neglected places. He was one of the pioneer mission workers on the South Mountain and it was largely through his efforts that the Tabernacle Mission church was erected in Wolfville some twenty years ago. About fifteen years ago he was ordained to the ministry and gave all his time to Christian work, becoming pastor of the Baptist church at Bedford.

The children are Charles F., manager and director of the British United Press Montreal; Mrs. Frank Stephens, Halifax; Mrs. Noble, banker and broker, New York; Mrs. C. M. Denise, Pittsburg; Mrs. Clifford Wilson, Halifax; Mrs. W. R. B. Luger, Kentville. There are sixteen grand-children, thirteen of whom were present. One son, Charles F., was unable to be present, being on his way to Australia. Rev. and Mrs. Crandall were "At Home" to their friends in the afternoon from 4 to 6. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and gold. A large wedding cake, beautifully decorated with fifty golden candles, adorned the centre of the table.

Mrs. Alexander Stephens, Halifax, and Miss Frances Eaton, Wolfville, both of whom were present at the wedding fifty years ago, poured, and the grand-children served.

Mrs. Crandall was assisted in receiving by her four daughters and Mrs. Chas. Crandall and Mrs. Noble Crandall, Jr. Natalie Crandall, a granddaughter, of New York, sang during the afternoon.

In the evening a dinner was tendered to Rev. and Mrs. Crandall and the other members of the family by Mrs. Noble Crandall, Jr., at the Acadia Villa Hotel. The dining room was decorated in gold and a sumptuous menu was served. Music was furnished by an orchestra from Kentville. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Noble Crandall; Mrs. Charles Crandall and Jim, Dave and Ruth Crandall; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stephen and Jack, Don and Frank Stephen, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Noble Crandall, Jr., and Benjamin, Charles, Burr and Laura Crandall; Mrs. C. M. Denise and Charles Denise; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson and Joan Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. B. Luger and Raul Luger; Ann Fairweather, Mrs. Alexander Stephen and Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick Rand.

GRAND PRE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The August meeting of the Grand Pre Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Fred F. Mitchell, with the president in the chair.

Considering the inclemency of the weather there was a large gathering. We were pleased to have with us Mrs. Childers, Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Cox, the president, vice-president, and secretary of the recently organized institute at Avonport.

The report of the Bazaar was given. Although the proceeds were less than last year those in charge are thoroughly satisfied. We cleared $340.00 making a total of $1575.00 in the bank toward the Community Hall Fund. The various booths were all attractively decorated and made a very pleasing appearance. Afternoon tea was an attractive feature. The annual picnic will be held at the Experimental Farm on August 20. There will be an informal meeting in the afternoon, at which Miss Stuart, president of the Federal Institute, will give an address.

The program this month was furnished by the Public Health Committee. Health rules were distributed and roll call response. Miss Edith Tremblay read an appropriate poem and Mrs. Ayrton Johnson read several short articles from the Public Health Year book. Then a round table was conducted, telling what to do in common emergencies.

The meeting next month will be held at the home of Mrs. Woodman. The Home Economics Committee will have charge of the program.

The High School graduating class of 1925 made an exceptional record in Latin in the Provincial Examinations this year. Eight of the twelve class members made high marks, Helen Ingraham leading with 72—the highest mark on record here for several years. Mary Chase, Bernice Portey, Ruth Forsythe and Evelyn Reagh followed very closely. In addition two who were successful in Grade X Latin passed this year's examination.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

THE WELL disposed among the people of this province are hoping that one of the benefits of the change in government may be a proper enforcement of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act. There are those who claim that there has for some time been evident a determination on the part of some to render this law ineffective and bring it into disrepute. Certainly those entrusted with the carrying out of this law have shown very little energy and have given no evidence that their heart was in the work.

The law is a good one and if given a fair chance would soon prove its efficiency. At any rate we are convinced that the people will demand a more thorough test before agreeing to the changes which are being quietly urged by certain interests.

Referring to this important question the Halifax Herald editorially makes this statement which THE ACADIAN is very glad to reproduce:

The people of Nova Scotia will not be stampeded into a change of the law. They will resolutely oppose any such proposal until governments have convinced them of three things: First, that there is sincerity and determination back of enforcement; secondly, that every resource in support of law is put into effective operation; and thirdly, that the law enforcing machinery is worked to its utmost in genuine efforts to crush lawlessness. After these matters are satisfactorily disposed of, the people will want to know how much better, and wherein, a drastic change of public policy will be of advantage to the Province.

The talk about "beer and wine" current in a few places is beside the point. The Rhodes Government has no mandate from Nova Scotians to introduce such a policy. The people who proposed it during the elections were deluged with adverse votes. Who, in such circumstances, has any authority from the people to even suggest such a policy as one which the Government should forthwith adopt? When the people want beer and wine licenses they will inform the Government. Until then the Government will be wise if it pays heed to the mandate which the people did give it—to strengthen the existing law and enforce it without fear or favor; and thus give it a fair trial.

HAMMERS

A HAMMER is a most useful and necessary tool in the hands of a carpenter or anyone who has a legitimate use for it. With it you may drive a nail or bruise a finger. When one needs a hammer he needs it badly. It is really a household necessity. To bring to the hammer is a term often used when one is compelled to sell at auction his personal property. The carpenter then and the auctioneer as well use the hammer. The miner uses a hammer to drive his drill. The circus man uses a hammer to drive the stakes for the tent ropes. The stone-cutter uses it to guide his chisel. There is the riveting hammer, the tack hammer, blocking hammer, brick-layers' hammer, steam hammer, trip hammer. Hammers of stone are still found in the relics of antiquity and are still in use among barbarians. There is the piano hammer, the gun hammer and the dental hammer, the blacksmith's hammer, and the gorges' hammer. There are more kinds of hammers than anything else in the world. In mythology there is Thor's hammer, by the throwing of which thunder and lightning were caused. Everhorne of these hammers, even the mythological one, has some good and legitimate purpose, but there is just one hammer in the world that is the opposite of all these others, and that is the hammer which the professional knocker wields with such malicious and fatal results. That is one hammer which should forever be cast out from the line of ancestral hammers of fame and dignity. If you are toting a hammer like this, throw it away. Bury it so deep that you will have to go around on the other side of the globe to resurrect it. This kind of a hammer should never be used. The man who wickedly and wantonly wields the knocker's hammer should be forever silenced with a well directed blow on the head with a sledge hammer. Boost—Don't knock.

THE GAME OF CRICKET

THAT A revival of interest in the grand old game of cricket is apparent in many parts of Canada is a matter for satisfaction to those who are familiar with this form of athletic activity. It is claimed in favor of foot-ball that its influence is beneficial in that it teaches self-restraint, and if this be so it is equally true that cricket tends to the promotion of a proper and courteous deportment.

In cricket it is regarded as good ethics not to take cognizance of a bad play on the part of an opponent, and to be generous in applauding any display of ability. Cricket has long been the popular game in the old land, and is responsible, we fancy, to a great extent, for the genialty and good manners which the Englishman as a general thing displays on every occasion.

On the other hand there are games in which it is considered perfectly proper to resort to any means in order to "rattle" a player on the part of either participants or onlookers. The influence of such games especially among the young is plainly apparent and much to be regretted. Cricket in the old days was a common and popular pastime and of late is again winning favor. Anything that will cause it to continue to grow in popularity should receive commendation on the part of the public.

MARKETING YOUR CROP

AT THIS TIME of year it is very important that shippers know definitely just what fruit they are going to handle. Without this knowledge they are not able to market their output to as good advantage as with it. It has been the practice with many growers, not definitely affiliated with any shipping organization, to hold off until the last moment before deciding to whom they will sell or through whom they will ship. This is a very wrong practice and easily results in forced sales.

A local shipper the other day described this as "a stupid practice among growers which invariably results in forced sales", much to the detriment of the fruit industry in general. When a shipper suddenly finds that he has a larger tonnage to handle than he originally planned for, he must at the last moment go hunting for buyers. Such a movement on the part of the shipper has the tendency to cause buyers to hold back and to weaken the market.

Make your marketing plans now, and also make an accurate estimate of your crop.

WHY LIVING IS COSTLY

It is the custom today to complain of the scarcity of money and the high cost of living, but we do not often stop to reflect that, in the final analysis the level of living costs is established by our own standard of living.

Of course, the prices of commodities are an important factor but not nearly so much so as we like to believe. Were our purchases limited to necessities and were real thrift generally practised, the burden of the household budget would be found to have eased itself in a surprising way.

Canadians are not yet as extravagant as are the citizens of the United States, but in this, as in too many other failings, there is a tendency to imitate them, and it may be instructive to scan over their last year's bill for luxuries, as computed by government accountants. Here are the items:

Tobacco	$1,847,000,000
Non-alcoholic beverages	820,000,000
Theatres, movies, etc.	334,000,000
Candy	689,000,000
Jewelry	453,000,000
Firearms	67,000,000
Musical instruments	440,000,000
Sporting goods	431,000,000
Perfumes and cosmetics	261,000,000
Chewing gum	87,000,000
Toilet soaps (half since same are essentials)	76,000,000
Furs (half since some are essentials)	176,000,000
Radios	150,000,000
U. S. tourists abroad	600,000,000
U. S. tourists at home	1,000,000,000
Total	$8,631,000,000

The foregoing represent only what the modern generation regards as luxuries. But how many of its supposed necessities would not have been classed as luxuries by the generation which preceded it; how many of them are not really luxuries in disguise, as the Quebec Telegraph. We have outgrown the age of the market basket and patched clothing is a rarity. We sit in the office, at home or in the hotel and telephone for service. Gone is the day of personal shopping, of small profits and quick returns, of prices based upon prompt, if not cash payments. It is useless to sigh for the old cost of living as long as we purchase expensive commodities without selecting, or even seeing them, as long as we have them charged to our accounts and delivered by auto service.

There used to be a kitchen garden and the head of the house did many small repairs about the house. We lived on plainer and better and more wholesome, if less picturesquely wrapped, food. In the days of cheaper living one of the family were not ashamed of journeying by foot a long way to the store with the good old opened faced market basket. Now most of us do as little as possible around the house and seldom know home pleasures or home produce. The automobile is king and we are mostly too occupied to even do much personal shopping. Gardening and home labor are abandoned wherever possible—to get out in the car. Food is brought in costly cans and nicely colored boxes and printed wrappers. Prepared foods are in demand and the automobile has re-established the delicatessen business. On the top of all these added costs of the upkeep and the overhead expenses of the family we have added today—actually tabulated as a necessity—the automobile itself. We have now raised the standard of living up to the balloon tined pitch and each one of us is still trying to keep up with the Jones'.

INDIRECT BENEFITS OF WEEKLY NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY

Besides the widely recognized direct benefit that the town merchant receives through judicious advertising in the community weekly newspaper, says the Walkerton Telescope, there are indirect advantages which are not generally recognized.

For instance, many manufacturers are assisting their local dealers to market their product locally through nationally-placed advertising in the local newspapers with dealers' names attached. In placing this advertising the national advertisers are looking to the local retailer to do his part in aggressive publicity and are placing it in local newspapers that appeal to them through their carrying already a good volume of live local advertising. It is newspapers of this character that are getting the bulk of the national advertising that is helping the local retailer to sell his product.

Another benefit of live local advertising has to do with the mail order situation. Mail order houses at the present time find that their catalogues run into big money. They have to plan carefully where they place them in order to get the best results. In studying a district, there are two things they consider chiefly. One is the buying power of the community and the other consideration is the way in which the district is being served by its home merchants. This can be sized up most easily through the appearance of the local newspapers. If the merchants show indifference and lack of enterprise in their advertising, the mail order people see an opportunity for gaining a larger foothold by an aggressive flooding of catalogues and mail order advertising. This statement of the situation is not mere theory, but can be verified by addresses on the subject which have been made by specialists in mail order advertising. The mail order system of advertising is expensive and they have to watch their step. The quickest and least expensive means of reaching the local field would be through the local newspaper. The big city houses realize that, and would be in the country newspapers in a minute if they could get there, but time and again they have been turned down by rural publishers who in loyalty to their own community have refused tempting contracts. The live local dealer is just as quick as the mail order advertiser to recognize the value of his local medium and is making the best of his opportunity in that direction.

DIARY OF MARGARET D. MICHENER

Feb. 9, 1851. Sunday evening is here again. Rebecca Elder stopped with me last night; we are reading "Religion, Natural and Revealed". Rev. McKean preached twice today. Mrs. Whitman Holmes died yesterday morning. Her brother William and wife got there a short time before she died, and Henry Marsters whose wife died on Monday—she being Sarah's sister. It has been very cold weather since Friday and is now snowing. Brothers John D. and Michener and sister Ann are here. I have just finished a letter to brother Robert.

10th. I had school this forenoon. Father called for Ann. We went to the funeral this afternoon; Rev. Grant preached from the words "Be Ye also ready". Surely it is a call to the living; may God impress it upon our minds and cause us to improve it for good. The house was filled, although the walking is bad; there was a great train of mourners. I went over to the Post Office to mail a letter and Sophie Harris and Maggie Ellis came home with me. Mrs. Beckwith and Warren have spent the evening here. They are good company.

13th. Well, I have been up nearly all night. I awoke and thought it was near morning so got up and made a fire, then I read a while waiting for it to come daylight. I went up to prayer meeting last night. We had a good meeting. I felt to receive a blessing. I am reading a book called "The Mourner". I think it a dear book, calculated to comfort the afflicted.

15th. Mary spent the day on Thursday at Olivia's; Lydia and family and Emily Ann also were there. Dear Simeon and I used to go visiting with them a year ago, but I feel more like staying at home now. I called at Mrs. Peter Barker's yesterday. They thought she was dying. She is better today. I am going over to sit up there tonight. The wind is rising and has such a melancholy sound. Sometimes I think Simeon's spirit is hovering near, and feel to wish I might be so spiritual as to discern it. A year ago tonight we were to meet together, now I am alone and he is with a more happy throng. I trust. Yes, I have the hope that his name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

16th. I went to Mrs. Barker's last night to stop, but Mrs. Holmes was there so I came to Mary's and stayed with Ann. I went to meeting this morning and heard Rev. Grant preach a good sermon from the text "Thy Kingdom Come". O let this be my prayer that it may come, not only in my heart but in the hearts of all around. I went up to father's after meeting. Mr. Grant called and talked a while. Went to Mary Sam's. I had not been there since before dear Simeon went away and he was with me. Rebecca Elder came and we called at Mrs. Barker's, then Mrs. Fuller's and Betsy Davidson's. We then came home and spent some very pleasant hours in reading and conversing. I was so engaged that the hour for meeting passed by unheeded. As she went home I accompanied her as far as the meeting house and then called in to Mrs. Barker's to sit up with her.

18th. I have spent this evening at Abigail's. Emily Ann was there all day. We came home a little after nine, found John at Mary's. He came over and read a while then went home. Mary and Emily Ann got letters tonight from their husbands. They were in the West Indies and all were well. Brother Robert likes the sea.

20th. The weather has been fine all this week. Adah and Sarah stopped last night with me as Joe and Olivia were up to father's. I arose early this morning and went up home. None of them were up so I crawled in at a bedroom window and made a fire. John soon arose. I then got some milk and came back home before daylight.

The contents of a small boy's pants pockets will always be a mystery, but we think it is just as peculiar how many things a woman can get into the drawers of a sewing machine.

DID YOU EVER TRY

To mend a leak in the aluminum utensils without success? Just tap around the hole with a small machinist's hammer, using the ball head. This will draw the edges together and close the hole.

In vain to remove letters from flour sacks so you could use them for towels? Next time soak them in lukewarm water, spread on washboard, soap well and sprinkle with salt; roll up and in from ten to fifteen minutes the letters should wash out easily.

Almond extract in the mockcherry pie? A teaspoonful will give almost the real cherry flavor.

Eggs baked in small tomatoes or poached in rice? Both are delicious.

Dipping the scissors in very cold milk when cutting marshmallows? You will be able to cut at least ten pieces before the marshmallows will stick to the scissors and you have to dip them in milk again.

Lemon to remove those ugly stains on your fingers after peeling apples and onions. Squeeze the juice of a lemon into the palm of the hand and rub thoroughly into the fingers.

Creaming the butter by pressing it through the potato ricer? It will save time and labor.

"When I was in India," said the club bore, "I saw a tiger come down to the water where some women were washing clothes. It was a very fierce tiger, but one woman, with great presence of mind, splashed water in its face, and it slunk away."

"Gentlemen," said a man in an arm-chair, "I can vouch for the truth of that. After the incident I was walking down to the water. I met this tiger, and, as my habit, stroked its whiskers. Gentlemen, those whiskers were wet."

Mrs. Duffee's many Wolfville friends regret very much her departure from our town, where she is deservedly popular.

Miss Margarita Cutten, who is spending her vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Cutten, at Camp Cedar, Yarmouth county, was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tufts. Miss Cutten is an Acadia girl who has made good at her chosen work. After leaving Acadia, she graduated from the School of Social Work, Smith College, in Psychiatric Social Work. She next spent a year in Boston as Community Supervisor of the Feeble minded in the State Department of Mental Diseases. Last year was spent as Director of the Child Guidance Clinic, in St. Paul, Minn. From this, Miss Cutten has been promoted to the position of head of social work.

Mrs. Chase, of Los Angeles, was a guest over Sunday at Acadia Villa. Formerly Miss Emma Eagles, daughter of the late Wellington Eagles, she was one of Wolfville's most popular girls in the older days. Her father was a well known and successful sea captain sailing from this port at a time when sailing vessels from Nova Scotia visited all parts of the world. It has been ten years since Mrs. Chase last visited her old home and at that time she was accompanied by her husband, since deceased. Old time friends, who still remain were delighted to again welcome Mrs. Chase, only regretting that her stay among us was so short.

SUCCEEDS CARDINAL

His Grace Mgr. Paul Eugene Roy, who has been appointed Archbishop of Quebec to succeed Cardinal Begin, is the fourth son of a French-Canadian farmer family of twenty children. He has four brothers who are priests and three of his sisters are nuns. He has been ill at St. Francis d'Assisi hospital for the past three years.

Prof. and Mrs. A. B. Balcom left last week on a trip to points on the South Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ford and daughters are spending the month of August at Evangeline Beach.

Miss Emily Roach, of Halifax, is visiting at the home of her brother, Dr. J. T. Roach, Linden avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Prescott and family are spending some weeks at their cottage at Evangeline Beach.

Dr. and Mrs. Scott, of Halifax, are occupying the home of R. O. Chisholm, Gaspereau avenue, for the summer. Dr. Scott is a professor of Romance Languages at Dalhousie.

Mrs. G. E. DeWitt and Miss Kathleen are spending a month at Tidnish, Cumberland county, with Mrs. DeWitt's daughter, Mrs. Wylie Manning, at her summer cottage.

Mrs. (Rev.) John Johnson and maid, of Maccan, who were in attendance at the Camp Meeting, are visiting at the home of the former's son, Mr. George A. Johnson, Summer street.

Rev. E. D. Webber, a former pastor of the Wolfville Baptist church, and Mrs. Webber arrived last Thursday from Daytona Beach, Fla., and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Starr, Starr's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Marchant, of Wolfston, Mass., are visiting in Wolfville, guests at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. C. A. Patriquin, where her aged mother, Mrs. Thomas Craig, now makes her home.

Mr. Theodore H. Rand, who is Fruit Observer on Fruit Despatch Co. boats sailing between New Orleans and Central and South American ports, with headquarters at New Orleans, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Rand, Linden avenue.

Hon. James Murdoch, Minister of Labor, accompanied by Mrs. Murdoch and daughter, spent a few hours with E. W. Robinson, M.P., and Mrs. Robinson on Tuesday. Mr. Robinson drove them through Grand Pre, Gaspereau, and took them to Kentville, where they boarded the Bluenose for Digby and St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wheaton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Collins, of Port Williams, left this morning on a motor trip to Sackville and other points in New Brunswick and northern Nova Scotia. They will be gone some days and if present weather conditions continue should have a most enjoyable outing.

Mr. A. M. Hoare, of Halifax, a former resident and business man of Wolfville, was in town for a short time on Wednesday. Mr. Hoare is Grand Scribe of the Sons of Temperance and was in attendance at the quarterly session of the Grand Division at Port Williams the previous day. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hoare and their little son. While in town they inspected the new Acadia building, with which they were greatly pleased.

Dr. J. A. M. Hemmeon and Miss Ethel Hemmeon were on a motor trip to Chester this week.

Mrs. Robert Spicer and her little grandson, Chester Connor, left on Friday last for Boston, where they will spend a few weeks, visiting friends.

Dr. Wetmore arrived in Wolfville on Monday from Harvard University, after spending several weeks at his old home, Yarmouth. Dr. Wetmore held a National Research Fellowship worth $2,500 last year, working on the Cytology of the Aster and Golden Rod. He is doing further work along these lines before the opening of the University, when Dr. Wetmore will be added to the staff, in the Biology department of Acadia University.

MISS DRESSER FEATURED IN "THE CITY THAT NEVER SLEEPS"

Louise Dresser is featured in the leading feminine role of the new James Cruze production for Paramount, "The City That Never Sleeps", coming to the Orpheum Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. Other principals in the cast include Ricardo Cortez, Kathryn Williams and Virginia Lee Corbin, the last named in her first grown-up role.

"The City That Never Sleeps" is an adaptation by Walter Woods and Anthony Coldevey of the story, "Mother O'Day", by Leroy Scott. Miss Dresser plays Mother O'Day in the screen version of the story. Here is the role of a proprietress of a Bowery Cafe, which, with prohibition, becomes one of the most popular cabarets of New York's night life. The story opens in 1910 and continues right on down to the present day. It's timely and unusually entertaining, with as fine an all-star cast of supporting players as you've seen in some time. And, remember, Cruze, who made "The Covered Wagon" and "Merton of the Movies", made this one. If you want to do some free advertising see our announcement on page eight.

TAX FACTS

Every manufacturer must add taxes to the selling price of his product.

Every merchant must add his taxes to the selling price of his goods.

Every farmer must add his taxes to the selling price of his produce.

Every builder must add his taxes to the selling price of the building he constructs.

Every railroad must add its taxes to the selling price of passenger tickets and freight charges.

Every landlord must add his taxes to the rent of his houses.

Every clothier must add his taxes to the selling price of his garments.

It makes no difference whether it's labor, or materials, or service that is sold, the taxes must be added, and they are added.

Unless taxes are added to selling price, all industry, farming and business, would cease to exist.

This is simply the operation of a natural law.

Every one must and does pass along taxes to the consumer. We are all consumers. Hence everybody pays taxes! Decreased taxes mean lower cost of living.

ANOTHER WAVE OF IMMIGRATION

Sir Henry Thornton Says Arrangements Have Been Completed by the Railways

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 9.—"Canada is about to experience another wave of immigration," Sir Henry Thornton, President of the Canadian National Railways, stated on his arrival Saturday. "This will follow the conclusion of arrangements which have just been reported between the Canadian Government, the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the Canadian National Railway, by which much of the red tape governing immigrants and their selection in the countries of origin will be done away with," said Sir Henry.

TREMENDOUS COST OF WAR COMPUTED

London, July 25.—After several years' work, the League of Nations has finished the first complete assessment of the material losses of the world war, officially compiled from all the nations that participated.

9,998,771 known dead.

2,991,800 presumed dead.

6,285,512 seriously wounded.

14,002,039 otherwise wounded.

$186,333,637,097 direct cost of the war.

$29,960,000,000 property loss of the war.

$33,551,276,280 capitalized value of loss of life.

In assessing the last item, the League figured the value of a human life for war purposes at $4720 for Americans; $4140 for British and $2900 for French.

HARRIS-WOOD

A wedding of interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, Woodville, Kings county, on Wednesday, August 5, when their niece, Mildred Lorenz, became the bride of Clayton Edward Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, of Hillaton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Schurman, on the beautiful lawn, beneath an arch of white and green.

The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. George Wood, was very lovely in a gown of white brocade satin, with conventional veil and lilies of the valley, and carried an arm bouquet of bridal roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Brown, of Woodville. The flower girls were Mildred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harris, Upper Canard, and Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanford, of Woodville, who wore dainty gowns of pink and blue. The ceremony was a double ring service, the ring bearer being Harry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark, of Woodville.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at which more than 75 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Harris left on a motor trip and on their return will reside at Woodville. The bride and groom were the recipients of many lovely gifts, and previous to their marriage were guests of honor at a delightful shower. The bride is a member of the teaching staff at a school in Woodville. Both bride and groom were favorites in church and social activities, the groom being, until his removal last year to Woodville, a member of the choir of Canning Methodist church.

A CORKING IDEA

Whenever you have an empty bottle that has contained something harmless such as vanilla or other extracts always remove the cork before throwing the bottle away. I have a little cloth bag and I put all of my nice clean corks in that and hang it up in the store room for future use. So many times one breaks a cork in trying to remove it from a new bottle. Then it requires only a second to find a new one to replace it when you have a supply on hand.

Home-made moth-proof bag. Take two sheets of heavy brown wrapping paper and line them with newspaper, stick around three sides and you have a good moth proof bag. Put clothes on hanger, place in bag and then stitch the top leaving hanger hook free to hang on cloth rod. Moths abhor printers ink.

CONFESSION OF A DIME

I am a smooth-slick dime. I am too small to go to the movies. I am snubbed at a soda fountain. I have little prestige in a candy store—but oh boy, when I go to Sunday School, I'm a big league performer.

A Simple Shampoo

A simple and inexpensive shampoo, and one which leaves the hair soft, glossy and with a delicate aroma, is to take a basin of warm water and make a free lather using Baby's Own Soap. Rub well into the scalp, rinse with warm and then cool water. Dry in sun and wind if possible.

This simple shampoo is excellent for hair and scalp and costs very little as Baby's Own Soap is sold at 10c a cake by most dealers.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT

During his period of office in Canada it is said that he told British Columbia Indians that if they did not secure satisfaction in Canada, to come to London. A FIRM OF ENTERPRISE AND PROGRESS

Messrs. Gerald Da Costa

Wherein lies the subtle attraction of Covent Garden, an attraction whose potency is felt and acknowledged not only by the many millions of people throughout the world, whose interests are connected or associated with fruit, flowers or vegetable markets, but admitted also by the general public of every civilized country.

The very name of Covent Garden possesses an appeal, a fascination which is all its own, unique and unrivalled among the markets of the five Continents. Possibly when analysed the answer may be found to exist in the fact that this almost magnetic fascination is not confined simply and solely to one particular aspect or interest of the trade, but, on the contrary, is found to exercise a powerful and almost irresistible influence over altogether different and varying types of mind. Rich in historical traditions, endowed with the continuity of position, high reputation, enterprise and achievement, surrounded by the glamour bequeathed and upheld by the very names of the great and leading business houses of the past and present age, dwelling side by side with the associations and drama—these are but a few, a very few, of the fundamental reasons which have made the leading market of its kind in the world the Mecca of every traveller to the shores of England.

The one outstanding building outside the market proper, which is sure to claim and rivet one's attention and interest, is Floral Hall. This edifice is known throughout the world and is the headquarters of several of the leading market firms, whose names and whose influence radiate in almost every country of the world. Here daily may be found buyers from all parts of the country, and for imported produce it may be said that prices obtained here form a working basis for the market proper, and for the many provincial markets in the United Kingdom.

The house of Messrs. Gerald Da Costa, of world-wide repute, whose interests and operations are reviewed in this issue, occupy a prominent position in this centre. It is interesting to note that for three generations the house of Da Costa has been associated with the commercial life of the trade. The name of the late Mr. Michael Da Costa will be remembered by many, and the names of the present owners—Mr. Gerald and Capt. Richard Da Costa—are synonymous with the world-wide reputation of the firm.

This business house handles and distributes fruit, flowers and vegetables from practically every producing country of the globe, and have taken as their slogan one that is well known in America—"The World—our Orchard, Our Market—the World." Possessing their own branches in all the principal markets of Great Britain, and having their appointed agents throughout the European Continent, America, Canada, Australasia and South Africa, not only do they receive the fullest information as to the world's produce, but they have facilities for handling all classes of fruit, which, without exaggeration, may be termed exceptional and almost ideal. Modern and up-to-date methods that are adapted to the organization are a guarantee to shippers that the most efficient and inexpensive handling of their produce is at all times assured.

The accommodation possessed by Messrs. Gerald Da Costa in Floral Hall is excellent. There is ample room for the stacking of goods in bulk and for advantageously displaying all samples. Sales are confined principally to the London and provincial wholesalers, whilst above the premises there is office accommodation for the headquarters staff. The Julilee Market, occupying an excellent position, has been brought up to date by the installation of four electric escalators, two on either side of the building, fitted in such a way that goods can be unloaded from the sides of a vehicle and carried to their position on the floor with a material saving not only of time and labour but without fear of damaging the fruit. Two electric lifts are also available for use in times of pressure. The space at the firm's disposal here is considerable, there being sufficient accommodation for approximately 60,000 bushel cases of fruit. Messrs. Da Costa's aim is for buyers to inspect bulks with the least possible difficulty, and with the space at their disposal here, which is undoubtedly superior to that of any fruit

North of England port in relation to the fruit trade, for it is here that the United Kingdom receives the bulk of its American and Canadian apples and supplies. The premises of Messrs. Gerald Da Costa in this port are situated at No. 18, Stanley Street, the centre of the fruit trade, and they have here an excellent showroom for the display of growers' and shippers' fruits, whilst the Mersey Dock and Harbour Board provide excellent facilities at the ship's side for the sorting and delivery of the bulks to buyers. The principal sales days of Liverpool are Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and buyers from all parts of Northern England attend. Messrs. Da Costa have in a few years built up an extensive and increasing connection with northern firms. It will be remembered that a reproduction of the accompanying photograph of Messrs. Da Costa's Stanley Street premises recently appeared in a contemporary under the disguise of samples of the s.s. "Medic" fruit.

Manchester, as a distributing centre, ranks on almost equal terms with the Metropolis. Their sample rooms at Deansgate, Manchester, are directly facing the Commercial Auction Saleroom, and is an ideal position for the disposal of consignments. Hull, with the increased shipments

In South Africa the representative of Messrs. Gerald Da Costa are Messrs. Newton and Du Toit, of South House, Green Market Square, Cape Town. Messrs. Newton and Du Toit are in close touch with all growers throughout South Africa, and the rapidly increasing consignments received by Messrs. Da Costa afford ample testimony to the efficiency of the service rendered by their organization. Shippers Messrs. Gerald Da Costa this year have increased 600 per cent. over 1924 season.

Australian shipments, which form considerable and important a percentage of the total apples consigned to world's markets, require very careful organization. Messrs. Gerald Da Costa sell exclusively on behalf of the Commonwealth Government, and for several years have been the most important growers and shippers in Australia and Tasmania.

Fruit publicity. After so much publicity work this has now become the fashion. Messrs. Gerald Da Costa, who recognized as being the pioneer in fruit publicity, have been good enough to supply us with a photograph of a fruit exhibit arranged by them in conjunction with Australia House seasons ago, and which we will publish in a later issue.

This is a photograph of the display and sale of Nova Scotia apples conducted by Messrs. Gerald Da Costa at the Wembley Exhibition last year. This firm also had an exhibit of Nova Scotia apples exclusively at the Imperial Fruit Show at Birmingham. This exhibit was in charge of Mr. J. Elliot Smith, of Wolfville, and was very attractive.

to Hull, Messrs. Gerald Da Costa received requests from so many of their shippers that they established themselves at No. 17, Humber Street. Their premises here are—commodious and daily consignments are received and sold to the fullest advantage.

Southampton today occupies a position of being one of the principal ports of call for American liners, and in consequence direct shipments are being landed there. Although Southampton could not be called a market port, it is essential that arrivals are handled with every care, and consequently, the firm have an office on the docks, to distribute economically and expeditiously to the main market centres.

Spate of our disposal will only allow for brief mention to be made of the interests outside the United Kingdom of Messrs. Gerald Da Costa, but it must be borne in mind and emphasized that the aforementioned branches are, without exception, real live selling organizations controlling sales, etc., independent within their own sphere of influence and operations.

In New York, their offices are situated at No. 2024, Franklin Street, and here their staff deal with the inspection and distribution of all fruit received for export to the United Kingdom. Examination is made previous to the shipments going forward, and every care is taken to see that proper stowage is arranged for. These services relieve growers, shippers and buyers of anxiety on this all-important point.

Agencies established by Messrs. Gerald Da Costa are as under—

Jersey and Guernsey (Channel Islands), Scilly Isles, France, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Belgium, Hamburg (Germany), Copenhagen (Denmark), Oslo (Norway), Stockholm and Gothenburg (Sweden).

America—Winchester (Virginia), Waukesha (Wisconsin), Hood River and Portland (Oregon), Seattle (Washington).

Canada—Nova Scotia, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia.

Australasia—Fremantle (Western Australia), Adelaide (South Australia), Melbourne (Victoria), Hobart (Tasmania), Wellington (New Zealand).

Such is a brief recapitulation of the interests controlled and directed by Messrs. Gerald Da Costa in relation to the fruit trade. The world-wide policy of the firm, unlimited in sphere and action, the genius of creative organization, the vast personnel required, the truly immense resources at the disposal of the firm, are a few of the factors which will impress themselves upon the mind and imagination of every reader of this article, and which have combined to establish the name and prestige of Messrs. Gerald Da Costa throughout the Empire and in all countries of the world.

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Miss Mildred and Dorothy Lloyd, of East Sable River, who have been in Port Williams for the last few months, received word last week of the serious illness of their mother and both went home, Miss Dorothy expecting to return later.

Dr. Edwin Morse, with his wife and children, are at present guests of Mr. G. H. Illey.

Mr. Donald Chase, who has been spending his vacation in the Canadian West, has returned home. While away he visited his brother, Mr. Albert Chase, also his sister, Mrs. Patterson (nee Miss Margaret Chase).

Capt. J. E. Faulkner, of the S. S. "Canadian Mariner", is spending a well earned vacation at his home, enjoying the companionship of his family, which is denied to many sea captains.

Miss Laura Hanson, of Duncan Ferguson Co., Stratford, Ontario, spent a few days here recently. She will be remembered by many, outside of Port Williams, as the former very efficient saleslady of the firm of George A. Chase.

Miss Hanson was warmly welcomed by all.

Several of the residents from here attended the Acadia concert recently held in University Hall, Wolfville. Those who contributed to the program were graduates of Acadia, among them being one of our own young ladies, Miss Lucy A. Cogswell.

Mrs. Shaffner, of Lawrence town, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. N. Chipman.

Mr. Donald Ellis, Belcher Street, is visiting in Truro for a few days.

Miss Irene Gates spent the week end in Amnapolis, motoring down on Saturday and returning on Sunday.

Several people from here attended camp meeting at Berwick on Sunday and enjoyed the services very much, especially the "Lotus" quartette.

Miss Ethel Shaffner, of Lawrence town, spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. O. N. Chipman, and while here she very kindly sang at the Sunday evening service. Her solo was enjoyed by a large audience, and we hope to hear her again. Miss Shaffner possesses a very musical contralto voice, and her phrasing and enunciation was splendid.

Mr. Tobin S. Lockwood is spending his vacation at Margarettville.

Miss Alice Lockwood, of Jensen & Mills, Halifax, is spending her vacation with her sisters, the Misses Frances and Jessie Lockwood, Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dodge, with their young son Gordon, are spending their vacation at Margarettville.

Miss Jean Murphy, who has been spending her vacation at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Murphy, has returned to Halifax. Miss Murphy was accompanied on her return by Miss Purcell, of Halifax, who spent the week end as Miss Murphy's guest.

Rev. Robt. Wilson, of Flemingsburg, Kentucky, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday evening and was greeted by a large audience. Mr. Wilson has not been here for almost twelve years, and his many friends, both old and young, gave both him and his wife (nee Miss Bessie Kidston) a very hearty welcome.

Mr. A. N. Coulstan, Mrs. Coulstan and family, are spending their vacation at Margarettville, enjoying with others the cool sea breezes.

The Misses Grace and Greta Murphy are visiting in Halifax, the guests of their sister, Miss Jean Murphy.

Mr. Edwin West, of the staff of Mr. George A. Chase, is enjoying a well earned vacation.

GREENWICH

Miss Georgina Beil, R.N., of Massachusetts, accompanied by a friend, arrived the first of last week and are guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Ada Forsythe. She is welcomed by many friends here.

Mrs. Lee Bishop and little daughter Doris have been guests of her sister, Mrs. Lohnes, wife of Councillor Ira Lohnes of Windsor, for some time, at her summer cottage at Aberdeen Beach. Miss Hilda Johnson is spending some time in Wolfville, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Franklin.

Mrs. Tufts, of Melvern Square, has been a guest at the home of her brother, Mr. T. Andrew Pearson, the past two weeks.

Mr. William Bishop, of Greenwich Ridge, a most successful man with his vegetable garden each year, has already been selling prize cabbage, one or two weighing over eleven pounds. Can this be beaten?

Mrs. Frederick Baker, Wolfville, spent the day last Thursday a guest of her friend, Mrs. George L. Bishop.

On Thursday evening, even though it rained, about 65 gathered as a "Surprise party" at the home of Messrs. W. H. and H. R. Bishop, and a most enjoyable evening was spent very socially, yet expressions of regret could be heard on account of this family leaving here so soon to make their home so far away in New Jersey state. Also many expressions of good wishes were heard for them. During the evening two presentations were made on behalf of their friends by Councillor G. L. Bishop, each being accompanied by a worth-while speech, a bit "spiced up" with humorous remarks. The first, a gift of a nice steamer rug, to Mr. Humphrey Bishop, then a nice club bag to Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Bishop. A suitable response was made by Messrs. Bishop, also an invitation extended for any of their friends to visit them by Mr. Hazen Bishop, at their new home far away, and enjoy some of their "fine peaches and new laid eggs."

Toward the close of the evening delicious ice cream and cake was served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Bishop, of Wolfville; Mrs. William Pudsey and children from Upper Canard; and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Forsythe and family from Cambridge.

Mrs. Jessie Borden has been seriously ill the past week, but is now some improved. Miss A. M. Cogswell, Port Williams, is the nurse in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Simpson, of Melancon, are living in Rev. Mr. McCabe's house here.

Mrs. Wallace, of West Gore, and Mrs. MacDonald, of Dartmouth, are guests at the home of the former's brother and the latter's uncle, Mr. G. I. Fraser.

Mr. Charlie Fenwick, of Bear River, spent the week end at the home of his parents here.

Miss Annie Pearson spent the week end with friends at Evangeline Beach.

Messrs. Philip and Robert Bishop gave a party in honour of visiting young people in the place.

Messrs. Murray and Ormond Forsythe motored to Berwick on Sunday in the former's auto, where they attended camp meeting for the day.

Messrs. Philip Bishop and Aleck Andrew motored in the former's car to Kingston and were guests on Sunday of their friend, Mr. W. R. Ward, our school teacher.

A good number from here went over to Port Williams Sunday evening and enjoyed the service at the Baptist church, the speaker being a former Port Williams boy, Rev. Robert Wilson, now of Kentucky.

Mr. Allison Pudsey, of Upper Canard, spent Sunday with relatives here.

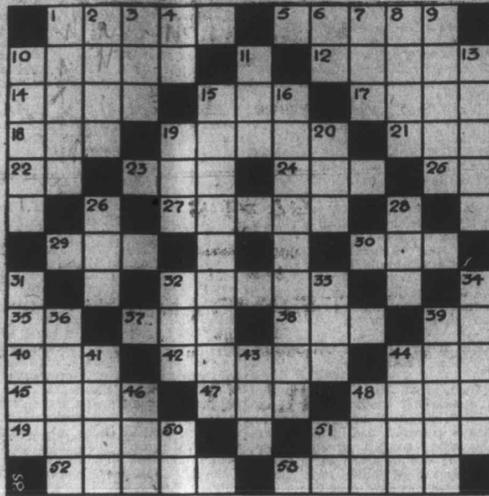

A few of our residents saw the eclipse of the moon beginning about 11.20 on Sunday evening. We understand it was very plain and over half covered for some time.

Miss Bertha Spidell, of Lexington, Mass., arrived on Monday and will visit for two weeks with relatives here, being now at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Forsythe, with her mother, Mrs. Spidell.

Sam, in dreamy slumber, rests in the sweet conviction that he is building American prosperity by shutting out the peoples of the world, Canada is perfecting plans to make a new bid for the American farmer. During the last few years, lean for our tillers of the soil, Canada has focussed her attention on winning immigrants from England and Continental Europe, and our exclusion act has enabled her to pick the very cream of foreign home seekers. The Canadian mind never seems to sleep. "Our man on the street looks for the abandoning of our farms when poverty and poor crops drive the American to seek fresh fields and pastures new. Poor crops, however, mean an inability to meet the expense of moving, on the part of the renter, and an inability to sell on the part of the farm owner. Consequently the American farmer quits, not when he wants to quit but when he is able to quit.

"In the last three years Canadian immigration from the United States has declined, but the figures are beginning to show marked increase. From 1910 to 1914 no less than 600,000 renters and owners abandoned farms in this country and went across the border. In 1913, alone, 139,000 farmers marched to their new homes, and let it be remembered they took with them $125,000,000 of American money. These figures shrank to 20,521 in 1924. Now with active buyers in sight there is a rush of applications for Canadian lands, and the Canadian government and the Canadian railroads are taking off their coats to handle the expected rush across the border.

"Apart from the depletion of American farm lands, our restriction of immigration has seriously affected the field of manufacturing, as it has affected the home problem. Whether the resulting high individual wage more than offsets the increased cost of living, the curtailing of manufacturing, and the slowing up of building operations may be debatable. But that it will be well for the national congress to review the situation is beyond question."

"Long ago I figured it out that if the mail man stopped to fight it out with every dog that barked at him, he'd never get his mail delivered."
