DRESS and MANTLE MAKING

The Fashionable West End.

To the Ladies:

We have during the past two years contemplated the establishment of a Dress Making Department, in connection with our other branches. The difficulty of obtaining a suitable person to take charge has, up to the present time, only prevented us from doing so.

We have now great pleasure in informing you that we have secured the services of Miss Morrison, of Toronto, a lady of first-class abilities, highly recommended to us, and we believe eminently qualified to give complete satisfaction in every respect. Miss Morrison has for the past ten years occupied the position of cutter and fitter in one of the leading Fashionable Dressmaking Establishments in the City of Toronto.

Miss Morrison is also an experienced Mantle maker, and all orders entrusted to her will be executed in a style equal to anything that can be obtained in the largest cities.

Orders for these departments will be received on and after Monday next, the 27th of May.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 27, 1873

Town and County News.

OCEAN TO OCEAN.—We have received through Mr. T. J. Day a copy of this interesting book. Extended notice to-morrow.

A CURIOSITY.—Da Brook yesterday showed us a live alligator, which Mrs. Brook brought with her from Florida. The young monster is nearly four feet long, and appears to be quite comfortable, though far away from his native haunts.

CHALMERS' CHURCH BAZAAR.—The ladies of Chalmers' Church have decided to hold a bazaar in aid of the building fund on the day of the next December monthly cattle fair. Meaning those willing to contribute articles may leave them at the Manse; at Mrs. Wm. Stewart's, Liverpool Street; or at Mrs. Wright's store, Wyndham Street.

TIMBER.—The amount of timber of all descriptions that is just now passing down the W. G. & B. Railway from the upper country is very large. Heavily-loaded trains passing our town at all hours. Squared timber, lumber, ties and rails, constitute the chief portion of freight on these trains. It is also said that this description of freight will be largely increased when the southern extension is opened.

We observe by a Mount Forest paper that on Monday night last a couple of wolves entered a field on the farm of Messrs Malcolm and Joseph McIntyre Lot No. 14, 4th concession, Egremont, and played sad havoc in the sheep fold. Out of a flock of thirty, comprising eighteen sheep, seven ewes, and five lambs, not one escaped. The throats of all were cut by the ravenous brutes—three only of the bodies being partially eaten. They paid a second visit the following night and completed the dissection of one of these.

THUNDER STORM.—A very heavy thunder storm passed over this place last night, though much to the chagrin of Guelphites, we only received a sprinkling which lasted but a few minutes. To the south and west of us it came down in torrents, but we had to be satisfied with what we got, and like Oliver ask for more. "Old Probabilities" has been raising our expectations for some time, and last night was only another illustration of the blessedness of him who expects nothing, for he is rarely disappointed.

PRESENTATION AT FERROS.—On Monday at 11 o'clock Mr. A. D. Fordey, Secretary of the Bible and Tract Society of Fergus, was the recipient of a beautiful easy chair, a Doveport, and lamp, accompanied by an address, to which he replied in suitable terms. The presentation was made in St. Andrew's Church, Rev. Messrs. Mullen, Smellie, Laird, Fessenden, and Barker, and Mr. George Moner making short addresses. Mr. Fordey has held the position of Secretary of the Bible Society for some twenty years, and of the Tract Society thirteen years.

CHICKEN MATTERS.—We learn that the Secretary of the Guelph Cricket Club has received instructions from the President to call a meeting of the members of the club for Thursday evening the 5th June, to arrange matters of pressing importance. Trinity College, Toronto, have challenged Guelph to a friendly game on the Guelph grounds on Saturday, 7th June, which has been accepted. The match with the Toronto club is expected to take place on the 11th of the same month, in Guelph. There are many other matches on the tapis. Next Friday, the 30th inst., has been chosen as a day for practice, and it is to be hoped that our cricketers will not allow the hitherto successful name that our eleven have borne to be lost for even a time, through want of practice. The old adage "practice makes perfect" should in this case be borne in mind.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.—On Monday afternoon a little boy about six years old, son of Mr. P. McKague, was playing about the head of the flume at Allan's mills, when he fell into the water. The little fellow was by the force of the current carried through the open sluice at the bridge, under the roadway, and intervening space between it and the mill, and but for the iron grating which is placed in the flume where the water enters the mill, he would have been carried on and crushed to death between the ponderous arms of the wheel. At this point he got hold of some projecting beam, and held on bravely in the hope of being rescued. Meanwhile the alarm was given, the mill was shut down, which caused the water to rise in the flume, but nowdays daunted by this, a young man, named John Conway, son of Mr. P. Conway, stripped, and wading nearly up to the neck in the water, reached the poor little fellow, and brought him safely to land, after being for a considerable time in this dangerous and dangerous position. This ought to be another warning to boys to keep clear of the river.

On Saturday the son of Colonel Isaacson, of Montreal, was accidentally killed by a companion on an excursion party to Carillon. The careless handling of a revolver placed a ball in the head of the young man.

A collision occurred at Verenes on Sunday morning, between the steamer Medway, of the Temperley Line, and the Missouri, by which both were injured. They are at present in Montreal harbour.

The Tiebome claimant will soon appear to the public again to raise money for his defence.

Local and Other Items.

Winnipeg has a cricket club. They played their first game on the 17th inst.

Berlin and Waterloo Village both contemplate the purchase of a chemical fire-engine for protection against fire.

A MUSKALONG weighing 14 lbs. was seen in the Saugeen River near Paisley a few days ago. The fish was going at full speed when struck.

OCEAN TO OCEAN.—Sandford Fleming's Expedition from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with sixty maps and illustrations received. For sale at Anderson's bookstore.

G. B. Spencer, Esq., Collector of Customs, after a residence of twenty years in Hamilton, left for Manitoba on Monday morning, to take charge of the Customs Department there.

Steps are to be taken to obtain the co-operation of cities and towns in the Dominion to form in the procession and be present at the funeral of the late Sir Geo. E. Cartier, which is to be of a grand and impressive character.

THE TIMBER TRADE IN PARRY SOUND.—The first drive of timber that ever came down the Saugeen river, in all about a hundred thousand feet, went over the slide at Parry Sound on Monday. It is of excellent quality.

THE AIR LINE BRANCH of the Great Western Railway is to be re-opened to-day for freight traffic, with five trains a day each way. Passenger cars will be attached for the convenience of the travelling public.

Wool.—Very little is doing in Canadian wools, the prices of which are nominal and unchanged. A cargo of Australian wool to arrive in Montreal has been placed on private terms, and a small lot of the same description was sold at 30c.

CHANGE.—The contemplated change in the proprietary of the Port Wherry and Port Perry Railway has been effected. Under the new management, backed up as it will be by ample means, there is immediate hope of a good finished road, to be speedily well-equipped and extended.

ELECTION OF REEVE.—The election of Reeve for Brampton took place on Monday to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. J. Coyne. The candidates were R. Chisholm and Dr. A. Pattullo. The result at the close of the poll was 238 for Mr. Chisholm, and 25 for Dr. Pattullo.

RESIGNED.—The St. Catharines Times says that the Rev. Mr. Bridgman has resigned his connection with the Wesleyan Conference. Whether he proposes retiring from the ministry entirely, or uniting with some other Church, we have not heard. One thing is certain he has ability enough to succeed at anything he may energetically apply himself to.

SHOT-GUN ACCIDENT.—The Hon. Colin Inkster, while shooting with a companion a few days since, was shot at by his comrade, who only seeing a portion of Mr. Inkster's person, mistook him for fox. Several grains of shot entered the face and body of Mr. Inkster, and a number of his teeth were knocked out. "We are happy to be able to state that he is recovering rapidly."—Manitoba Free Press.

WINNIEPESCHOOL.—The following is the report of the Winnipeg Public School for the month ending April 30th: Number on school register, 67; daily average attendance, 13.33; number of days school was open during the month, 17; number in practical arithmetic, 40; in mental arithmetic, 20; geography, 14; grammar, 14; writing on paper, 40; on slates, 20; from dictation, 14.—Manitoba Free Press.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Orangeville "Sun" says:—As Mr. James Lindsay, of Mono, was driving down the Notawaga Hill, near Hockley, on Thursday, his horses ran away, and in his efforts to check them, he was drawn in front of the buggy, the wheels of which passed over his neck and body, inflicting injuries of which he died on Friday. Mr. Lindsay was a thrifty farmer, and was highly respected by all that knew him.

CRICKET MATCH.—A game of cricket was played on the grounds of the Brantford Club on Saturday, the 24th inst., between the Brantford and Galt clubs, resulting in a victory for the latter, with one innings and twelve runs to spare. The score stood—Brantford, 1st innings, 24; 2nd do, 55; total 79. Galt, first innings 91. The bowling of Mr. George Simpson, of Galt, was particularly noticeable, he having taken three wickets in one over. On the conclusion of the game at 4.30, the Galt Club, and the Gallionsians who were present, were entertained at the Kirby House by the Brantford Club to a capital lunch, washed down with excellent sherry and champagne.

TEST OF AN ENGINE IN BERLIN.—A very successful trial of the Chemical Fire Engine was made in Berlin on the Queen's birthday by Mr. Nann, of Belleville, in presence of the citizens and a number of insurance men and manufacturers. An immense bonfire consisting of coal oil, tar, varnish, boards, &c., was got under control in five minutes, and completely extinguished in three minutes more. Only about forty gallons of water were used. At least five hundred gallons would have been required by the ordinary hand engine to subdue the same. The test was made at the request of the Council with a view to purchasing two or more of the engines.

The Prince Edward Island delegates from Ottawa reached Charlottetown on Tuesday. They were received by a torch-light procession.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

The "Alabama" Award.

Yacht Club Race at New York.

More Indian Troubles.

London, May 26.—In the House of Commons to-night, while in Committee of Supply, they took up the items for the payment of the Alabama Award. Balfour declared the Government policy on this question had been humiliating and degrading. The Government should have broken off negotiations at a time when no sense of shame would have been felt. England in this arbitration was the greatest monument of human folly. It could not be considered otherwise than as a national degradation.

Sir Stafford Northcote admitted that during the negotiation of the Treaty he had not examined the consequences for British subjects of fixing the end of the war at the time of Lee's surrender.

Mr. Gladstone said the advancement of the Indirect Claims by the American Government was a gigantic error. In all other respects he defended the course the arbitration had taken. The debate here closed, and the item was agreed to.

Topeka, May 26.—The Neuse River has overflowed its banks, doing much damage to the Missouri, Kansas, and Texas Railway and to farm property.

New York, May 27.—Twenty-five boats took part in the Philadelphia Yacht Club Race, yesterday. The "Kate Leary" won the first prize.

San Francisco, May 27.—Company A, first cavalry, sent from Prescott by Gen. Crook, to operate against the Apache and Mohavis, found a band at the head of Dale Creek, on the 6th of April. A fight ensued in which five Indians were killed and all their provisions and blankets were captured. Just after the battle, orders were received to go to the Mojoc country.

Reports from Arizona indicate danger of another general Indian war, should the First Cavalry be withdrawn from the Territory.

Four thousand Indians from all parts of British Columbia, have assembled at New Westminster, in council. Dr. Powell, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, will meet them to-day to hear their grievances.

New York, May 26.—Arrived, S.S. City of London from Liverpool.

The Queen's Birthday in Hesperia.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The Queen's Birthday was right royally celebrated on the 24th by the inhabitants of the village and surrounding country, and a sprinkling from Guelph, Galt, Preston, and other more remote towns and villages. The programme for the day appears to have been "A royal salute and ringing of bells at sunrise, a Calitrumpan Procession at 9 a.m., boat races at ten a.m., and games and sports for the rest of the day." Everything went off agreeably, no quarrelling or fighting, and but little drunkenness disgraced the day and the occasion. Any one visiting the streets in the evening would have found everything as quiet and peaceable as upon any other day of the week, with the exception of a few boys indulging in the nuisance of setting off firecrackers, greatly to the annoyance and somewhat to the danger of persons passing in waggon or carriage. It is to be wondered at that the "Powers that be" do not take the matter in hand and prevent a clump of boys from taking up their position on the side walk and pitching ignited firecrackers into the streets just as teams are passing, thereby endangering life and limbs.

The jumping and running compared favorably with the scores of other years, and the judges succeeded in awarding the prizes so as to give general satisfaction. The popular race of the day was the "fat man's race," for which there were four competitors, each weighing at least 190 pounds. The prize was won by a sturdy Teuton, amid enthusiastic cheers from the crowd. The proceedings of the day were enlivened by the dulcet strains of the Preston Brass Band.

The volunteers, under Capt. Pin, were out at target practice. The highest score was made by Private Reid.

The amusement of the children was deputed to Mr. Christian Pabst, of the Germania House, who, with a basket of prizes on his arm, extemporized games and sports suitable for little folks, awarding the successful competitors liberally, and encouraging the unsuccessful by "better luck next time" until he had crowded six months' amusement into two hours of the youngsters' time, and his basket full of prizes into their pockets.

Hesperia, May 26th, 1873.

THE NEW GERMAN GUN.

The Prussian military journal, Neue Militarische Blätter, contains some interesting information respecting the adapted Mauser rifle, which is being served out to the garrisons and is to constitute henceforth the destructive firearm of the German army. It appears that at long ranges the rifle is remarkably true, but at short distances it requires an exceptional low aim. Its best distances is said to be 300 metres, or about 250 yards. It requires just half the time for loading that the needle gun did and less (as three to four) than does the chassapott. Eighteen shots per minute may be delivered by single man and twelve shots

Bragging Without Good Cause.

Some of the Government organs are quite jubilant at the repeated triumphs which they claim for the Government during the late session, and delight to represent the Opposition as demoralized and disheartened at their numerous defeats. But if we carefully examine the record of work and the votes, we will find that they have not so much cause for bragging after all, and that in many instances the Government to escape defeat, either withdrew their opposition to measures which they had formerly voted against and opposed, or were afraid to bring forward bills which had been promised. Take a few instances. They were pledged to obtain the sanction of Parliament to the land clause of the Pacific Railway charter, but though questioned about the matter time and again evasive answers were given, the matter was always put off, and at last fearing a discussion on the whole Pacific Railway policy—and with the double discouragement attending the failure to raise the required capital in England—they lost courage altogether, they never brought up their land clause bill, and thus left the scheme incomplete. Then look at their policy in regard to the continuance of the Insolvency Law. At first they decided to let the bill lapse by the expiry of time, but when the motion was brought up to go into Committee of Supply, a portion of the Cabinet voted against the Government motion and in favour of an amendment to continue the law for the present. Again, in 1872 Sir John Macdonald moved and carried the three months' hoist to Mr. Tremblay's ballot bill, but this last session the House passed the Bill and compelled the Premier to incorporate it in his new election bill, thus forcing him and his Government to re-consider the principle against their own convictions. The same may be said of one of the most important features of the election bill. In 1872 the Premier carried a motion to throw out a bill providing that all the Dominion elections be held on the same day. Yet in 1873 that same provision was included in his own election bill. Will the organs of these instances triumph for the Government?

But these are not all. Mr. Miller for the abolition of Dual Representation was defeated by the efforts and influence of the Government. This year the Government dared not oppose the bill, and it was passed by the House. Then they were obliged to withdraw a most objectionable bill for settling with the Northern Railway, by which the country would have lost a large sum of money. The whole scheme was a skillful contrived job, but it was exposed in time, and the Government for very shame had to drop it. They also sustained a defeat on the New Brunswick School question. They were defeated in their attempt to fill the pockets of their pet printing contractor by a proposition to give him fifty per cent. more than he had last earned. This sum was cut down to twenty seven per cent, and even this proposition was only carried by a majority of one. They were compelled to allow the legally elected member for Muskoka, Mr. Cockburn, to take his seat, though if they dared they would have kept him out of the House, and turned his case over to a partisan Election Committee. They were compelled to throw out the proposition against Mr. Wilkes, for General Toronto, by a majority of four against them, when the motion was brought up. Such are a few instances of the so-called triumphs of the Government. We hope the organs feel happy over the contemplation of such triumphs.

The New Ministry in France.
The change of rulers in France has been effected without disturbing the peace of the country. The new Ministry has been formed under McMahon, and have already settled down to work. Ex-President Thiers has quietly given up the cares and responsibilities of office, and again takes his seat simply as a member of the Assembly. The new President's policy is very pacific in its tone. The complete restoration of order will be his great object. He promises to follow the pacific policy of his predecessors in his dealings with other countries, and will devote the whole energies of the people to regain for France her position among the nations of Europe. He expresses his determination to make his internal policy conservative in every respect, which is a good guarantee that nothing will be done to excite the people or divert them from the work of restoring their country to its former position. This is very reassuring, and will be hailed as good news by all the European powers interested in the condition and future of France.

GREAT COMMOTION IN THE DRY GOODS TRADE
and a Tremendous Rush at our Mantle and Millinery Rooms.

On all hands we hear of dull trade: "Nothing doing," says Tom, Dick, and Harry, but it is not so at THE LION. Still great bustle and activity at the leading house. The spring trade is opening beautifully, thus encouraging us to greater endeavors in the public weal; and the reason of our success is apparent. Our Goods are all direct from the manufactory, and none can do a successful business only those who buy from first hands, for which our Establishment has long been noted, and has raised the standard of our House (combined with the energy of the proprietors of the firm) to the present proud position, and more especially for the last two years, so that our daily sales are almost equal to the combined trade of the same character in the Town of Guelph.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Our Millinery is a complete success this spring, the taste inherent displayed by Miss McDonald is captivating all hearts, and places her high in the ranks of first-class Milliners. Combined with the genuine popularity of Miss Sutherland, thus making our rooms the centre of attraction.

5 cases New Hats and Bonnets, registered styles, secured only for our House; 3 cases, third lot, of those splendid Black Silk Parasols, supplied with the double sword—the only ones in Guelph.

$4,000 WORTH OF New Plain and Shot Silks, lovely shades, combining all the latest tints, amongst them will be found many of the new azorean green, real genus in color and brightness.

Another arrival of 500 pieces more of the best Prints, light and dark, worth 16 cents: we will sell them off at 12 1/2 cents.

In case of neglect, the Station Master is subject to a fine of $20, recoverable before any Justice of the Peace.

ANNABEL

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE TERRIBLE REVELATION.

Amid the perfect silence which reigned in and around the solitary house at Dugden, Annabel slept profoundly, and to a late hour on the following day. When she awoke she felt thoroughly refreshed and strengthened, yet so deep had been the slumber which had sealed her senses that the sight of the strange room in which her eyes opened, filled her for some moments with astonishment. Presently, however, she remembered the events of the previous night, and knew where she was.

The one window of the chamber being small, with ivy creepers trailing over its exterior, the light was so dim that she deemed it to be yet early morning. She was therefore in no hurry to stir, but lay surveying the old-fashioned furniture and appointments of the room, which were of a style such as she had never seen. Besides being queer and ancient in shape, they wore a dull aspect of neglect. Damp and dust were plainly discernible everywhere. In many places the paper hung away from the wall in mouldering tatters, while very black and very thick cobwebs held grim possession of the corners—all suggestive of a place long forsaken and unvisited.

The feeling with which Annabel regarded the interior of the chamber in which she had passed the night was that of faint curiosity. Deeming not that it would ever have a personal relation to herself, or that she would ever see it again, the objects which met her view were noticed with no strong interest. How very different would have been her scrutiny had she known that the chamber had been destined as her prison for life, that she had been introduced to it for the purpose of being immured in it, and therefore that it was to be daily before her, and associated with a misery and suffering beyond all power to describe. As yet she was in blissful ignorance of this terrible fact, and manifested a composure of mind corresponding to this ignorance.

The utter stillness, the unbroken quiet, strengthened her supposition that the hour was still early; nevertheless, as she did not feel inclined to sleep again, she rose, and approached the little ivy-shrouded window to peep forth on the scene without. The glass was encrusted with dirt till it was rendered almost opaque, and it was only by dint of much rubbing that she cleared a space sufficiently large to enable her through the interstices of the ivy to obtain a glimpse of trees and of the opposite bank of the ravine, overhung by a small patch of blue sky. Evidently the window commanded no more extensive prospect, and having discovered this she resolved to dress and find her way outside, there to walk and enjoy the morning air till those in the house should be astir.

Finding no materials for washing in the chamber, she had to do without this very refreshing operation, and having finished her toilet, she lifted her watch to put in the bosom of her dress, when to her amazement she found that it pointed to the hour of eleven. At first she thought it must be standing, but she remembered that she had wound it up before going to bed, and that then it was past midnight.

"Eleven o'clock," she ejaculated, in astonishment. "Can it possibly be only one hour from noon, and Dick has not sent the woman to awake me? How provoking. We might have been many miles on our journey by this time."

She moved forth with the intention of finding her way below, that she might see Dick and hasten his departure. The door of the room opened to her touch, and, crossing the threshold, she found herself in a long corridor, lighted at one end by a narrow slit in the thick wall. Before her was the stair up which she had come escorted by the woman whom Dick had called Moll, and down the stair she now made her way, till the closed door at its foot staved her progress. She grasped the handle in the expectation that it would open as the other had done, but it remained immovable. Again and again she tried it, but with the same result. Still she did not imagine that it had been purposely fastened outside, but supposed that her inability to open it was caused by the stiffness of the rusty catch, or by her ignorance of the peculiar method of the handle.

She stood hesitating whether to knock for release or wait the coming of Moll, which must, she thought, be very soon now, but as she stood an approaching footstep caught her ear. She heard it on the stair leading from the kitchen; then on that immediately above, and finally in the corridor without, coming directly to the door within which she stood. There it paused, and she distinctly heard the undoing of a bolt outside, thus giving her to understand why she could not let herself out.

She was under the first emotion of this unpleasant surprise when the door went back and Moll appeared carrying a tray with provisions for breakfast. The sudden appearance of Annabel standing at the foot of the stair startled Moll excessively, and sent her staggering back with a recoil which, but for being brought up against the opposite wall, would have caused the tray to drop from her hands. As it was, the dishes rattled with a great clatter, and tottered against each other while Moll uttered a frightened ejaculation.

HER MAJESTY'S BIRTHDAY IN CHICAGO.—The committee appointed to arrange for a proper celebration of Queen Victoria's birthday, on the 24th of this month, met at 177 Monroe-street, last week, Mr. Charles in the chair. The gentlemen who were appointed to invite the co-operation of the Scotch, Canadian and other societies reported that their invitations had been cordially accepted, and that the Cambrian, Caledonian and Dominion Societies would unite in the celebration. The President said that he had found a native of Sidney, and another from New Zealand, who would attend the banquet, and hoped to find natives of other colonies.—Chicago Int-Ocean.

EXTENSIVE FIRE.—On Saturday, a fire was discovered in the store and dwelling-house of Messrs. Armour & Heartwell-Jarvis. The flames spread rapidly, and soon covered the whole building. Mr. J. Smith's hotel and stables soon caught and were totally destroyed. The fire continued spreading, and two-thirds of the town was consumed. The cause of the fire is not positively known, but it is thought it was caused by fire-crackers. The total loss is very heavy and hard to estimate. Messrs. Armour & Heartwell are insured for some $6,000, or $7,000, all the rest are poorly insured. No fires were lost. At 6 p.m. the fire was under control.

New York is enjoying warm weather... there was a case of sun-stroke on Sunday.

The number of immigrants who arrived at Quebec within twenty-four hours last week was 2,070.

A terrible tornado passed over part of Iowa on Thursday, causing great destruction of property and loss of life.

Heavy rains in the vicinity of Quebec have swollen the St. Lawrence river to about 5,000,000 feet of lumber have gone adrift.

A woman named Courtney, residing near Halifax, gave birth to four children on Thursday, being the second time in two years.

The attempt to blow up the bows of the wrecked steamer Remond in the Lachine Rapids, which is obstructing the channel, with dynamite, was unsuccessful.

It is understood that the Russian Government have assented to the proposition of Ferdinand de Lesseps for the construction of a line of complete railway communication across the continent from St. Petersburg connecting with the English Railways to India and Calcutta.

SILVER MINES.—The latest news from Thunder Bay more than exceeds the expectations that had been formed of the mineral richness of that locality.

The mine at Silver Islet had fairly outdoors itself, the product in a single day having been all the value of over $6,000, from the labor of but twenty-five men.

The company has on hand ore raised this winter to the tune of $650,000, which is to be shipped down upon the opening of navigation.

Three mines have also given evidence of lasting richness, and in other directions experience shows that well directed labor is all that is needed to develop a most extraordinary mineral wealth.

One hears on every hand of preparation being in progress by persons intending to go up and settle this spring, some in one capacity and some in another, and all may be assured of useful and profitable occupation.

To obtain good locations near the centre of commercial operations is now a matter of growing importance.

Breakfast.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition.

Men make steam engines of themselves from morning till night, and vice versa, dream of gold. The fearful strain upon the nervous system by thus taxing the mind produces not only Heart Disease.

Dyspepsia and Lung Maladies, but is often the direct cause of Apoplexy, Insanity and Suicide. It is very remarkable that during the world's progress discoveries are made suitable to the times.

Hardly had man become prepared for speedy transit when the railroad and steamboat were introduced, and the desire for rapid intelligence developed the telegraph.

Coal is usually discovered as wood becomes scarce, and now when men's minds are being taxed to the utmost in order to secure and enjoy the luxuries of an extravagant age.

Fellow Hypochondriacs appear, that they may by artificial means keep up this mental strain to an indefinite extent.

Manufacture of Cocoa.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Easton Road, London."
