

ONE OF TORONTO'S BEST CITIZENS DEAD

Sir Casimir Gzowski Passed Away at an Early Hour Yesterday Morning—His Memory Will be Cherished Throughout the City and Dominion—A Career Without Spot or Blemish—Tributes From Prominent Residents.

Yesterday morning, just as the terrific thunderstorm had subsided and the morning sun was peeping over the eastern horizon, the spirit of one of Toronto's most illustrious citizens took flight.

Sir Casimir Gzowski died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at his residence on Bathurst-street. He had been ill for about three months, and the end was not unexpected.

The funeral will not be a military one, though the deceased would have wished it. The family desire a quiet funeral.

Biographical Sketch. Sir Casimir Stanislaus Gzowski was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, March 5, 1815, where his parents were making a short sojourn.

Important provincial improvement, and nearly every county in Upper Canada bears upon its surface the impress of his great industry and engineering skill.

In 1853 the deceased formed a famous partnership with the late Sir A. T. Galt, L. H. Holton and Sir David Macpherson—the greatest firm Canada ever saw—formed of Canada's four biggest men.

He was a great promoter of all harmless sports and recreations. For many years he was accustomed to shoot out on the western prairies of Illinois, always taking with him his own dogs, and having James Spooner in attendance.

Wanted to Better Himself. Mr. Mackay had been private secretary to Mr. Wm. of the T. H. & B. and had held other important positions, but was anxious to better himself, and on July 8 was introduced to Middleton.

Magnanimity in Carload Lots. Mackay was to receive $50 for his first month's work, and after that $60, but before he had been on the road long his employer became magnanimous and made him manager of the B. & W. at $125 a month.

He was several times wounded, and so often narrowly escaped capture. After the capture a Russian deserter, the master, in letters, was compelled to wheel a barrow through the streets.

For Canada's Defence. During the excitement consequent upon the Trent affair, Sir Casimir went to England and laid before the Government a proposal respecting the defence of Canada.

Gozowski in America. In 1853 Sir Casimir landed in New York, but found himself completely at sea, for he did not understand a word of English.

NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE

To Counteract the Anglo German Influence in Morocco.

It is Announced That a Treaty of Alliance Has Been Signed by Spain, France and Russia-Patriotic Spaniards Regard the Suggestion With Much Favor.

London, Aug. 24.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: One paper here declares boldly on the authority of an anonymous French diplomatist that, owing to M. Hanotaux's exertions, a treaty of alliance has been signed by Spain, France and Russia, with the object of counteracting the Anglo-German influence in Morocco.

The idea of a permanent rapprochement between France and Spain is certainly in the air, and may in time assume considerable practical importance. It had its origin in France's role in the peace negotiations and reports of a treaty of alliance over Spain's military activity in the neighborhood of Gibraltar.

Many patriotic Spaniards who appreciate further sacrifices during the forthcoming peace negotiations regard the suggestion of a French alliance with much favor, especially as French help would be very useful, also in the great work of financial and economic re-organization which Spain must undertake directly peace is concluded.

At the same time it must be noted that the protocol, signed under French auspices, has produced a great deal of popular dissatisfaction, mainly making the loss of the Andalus irrevocable. It may also result in the loss of the Philippines.

It remains to be seen whether France will render effective assistance. The recent article in The Paris Temps on the situation is regarded as very significant. It is asked whether the word "gratuitously" in The Temps' statement that "France has no interest in maintaining herself gratuitously as a hint that France might be induced to do more for a substantial consideration.

COAL MINERS ON STRIKE.

At Pana, Illinois, and Negro Workmen from Alabama Have Been Put in Their Places.

Pana, Ills., Aug. 24.—Sheffield Coburn assembled 125 deputies to-day, and gave them instructions to arm themselves and a number of negroes expected to arrive from Alabama to work here in the coal mines. Ten negroes arrived in Pana last night to take the places of striking white miners.

The negroes were escorted to the city limits by a company of miners, and induced to leave town. The strikers are being reinforced by union miners from out of State. The strikers to-day, in large bodies, awaited the arrival of the negroes. During the day a special train arrived from Birmingham, Alabama, with 200 negroes. The train was rushed through the city to the Spruce Knob mine, where the negroes were unloaded under the guard of deputy sheriffs.

Several hundred miners from the United Depot to meet the negroes, but were unable to do so. All the grounds at the mine are under guard, and no negro is permitted to pass. The strike leaders have requested Governor Tanner to take action regarding the mining inefficiency of the negroes, and he has answered that he will send State mine inspectors to examine the men.

The Hopedale Murder Case. In the case against Andre Hopelle for murdering L. Boyer, Crown Attorney Coyette addressed the court on the case for the Crown.

Mr. McDougall, for the defence, made a very strong appeal for Hopelle, showing that the action of the accused was not that of a man who was guilty of murder. He pointed to the evidence, which showed that Boyer's death was from an accidental cause. The case is closed and Magistrate Chagnagne said he would give his decision on Friday.

German Army Increase. Berlin, Aug. 24.—It is understood that the contemplated increase in the German army will amount to 25,000 men, involving an extra annual outlay of 16,000,000 marks, besides additions to the artillery and other services.

Here Richter, the German Radical leader in the Prussian Reichstag, condemns the increase as unwarranted by any equivalent action of neighboring nations.

TOOK THE WHITE VEIL

Interesting Ceremony Yesterday at Loreto Abbey—A Worthy Institution.

Pretty and impressive was the ceremony yesterday by which the young ladies were received into the community of Loreto. Those that viewed the ceremony were composed of friends and relatives of the principals. At 9 o'clock sharp, the fair devotees who were forswearing earthly frivolities for the serious mission of the veil, wended their way in procession up the aisle of Loreto Abbey, dressed in the bridal costume and accompanied by their little maids of honor, and were received by the administrator of the diocese, Very Rev. J. J. McCann, V.G.

After prostrating themselves before the altar and publicly accepting the rules of the order, they retired, henceforth to be dressed as nuns of Loreto. The Rev. Father McCann of Guelph, a brother of one of the young ladies who made her final vow, celebrated mass. Very-General McCann preached the sermon, welling eloquently upon the noble mission in life accepted by those who had just gone through the ceremony.

Regarding the work that had been done educationally, not only Catholics, but Protestants and Methodists, pointed to the noble result accomplished by the Loreto nuns.

The young ladies who received the white veil were: Miss McGuire of St. Louis, in religion Sister M. Pius; Miss Davis, Toronto, in religion Sister M. Francis; Miss Pearce, Dublin, Ireland, in religion Sister M. Bernadine; Miss Lynnet, Guelph, Sister M. Melba. Those who took their final vows and were professed were: Miss Boland, Sister M. Genevieve; Miss Dewan, Sister M. Celestine; Miss Connors, Sister M. Carmelita; Miss Hill, Sister M. Eucharistia; Miss McKeown, Sister M. Monica; Miss Mahoney, Sister M. THE BEAUTIFIED GRAND

This Banner Theatre Fitted Up With Exceptional Elegance—Special Features.

The patrons of the Grand Opera House will be well pleased this season if the attractions are in keeping with the many improvements that have been made in the house during the past three months. Manager Sheppard has had his popular house renovated from pit to dome. The work of decoration has been carried on under the personal supervision of Mr. W. H. Elliott, the Elliott & Sons Company. He has been assisted by a corps of artists working night and day to give the interior a new and improved appearance.

The Rich Interior. The coloring in rich red cream and ivory, with an abundant use of gold. The dome of the theatre has been entirely changed, and is now designed in coffered panels, with enriched mouldings. In the ceiling a splendid dome is supported by a catouche ornament, set off with numerous incandescent lights, and together with the chandeliers and gasoliers above lends a pleasing effect. Around the ceiling is a complete of classical plaques, and a series of gasoliers. As a relief to this, hangings of flowers, the proscenium arch also presents a beautiful appearance with a handsomely carved and gilded archway. "The Wars of the Roses," executed by Mr. Elliott's leading artist.

The interior of the boxes is furnished with Marie Antoinette silk effects, and the outside draped with handsome curtains. Much attention has also been paid to the entrance and foyer, which are triumphs of the decorator's skill. The illuminating and ornamentation in this portion of the theatre has been thoughtfully blended to make a charming effect. Entering off Adelaide-street will be seen a combination of olive and gold, while the ceiling is heavily painted in Italian style, with figures in the central panel. The box office lobby has been re-furnished to admirably elegant taste, and is decorated in electric silver and blue.

A New Curtain. A new drop curtain has also been put in. The scene is a framed picture of Mount Salvatore of Northern Italy, with Lake Maggiore in the foreground. Over the frame hangs beautiful drapery. The painting was executed by Mr. William Drake, the theatre's scenic artist, and the work is a model of beauty. The house has been newly carpeted in antique pattern, purchased from Messrs. John Kay & Co.

The Staff. The official staff remains the same as last season, and is as follows: Manager, O. B. Sheppard; Treasurer, Herbert Sheppard; Assistant Treasurer, Charles Leach; scenic artist, William Drake; leader of orchestra, Frank P. Jennings. Mr. Jennings has just returned from a visit to New York, where he secured a plentiful supply of the latest music. The theatre has been thoroughly renovated and appropriately decorated. A successful season is in store for the Grand.

his partner in the enterprise, and that the C.P. was the controlling spirit. Imagination Got Loose Way. Under date of June 23, 1888, the register of the Oxford shows an entry, "Capt. R. L. Middleton, Montreal," this name being that of our railroad builder and lady friend. The following day that he was explained to Proprietor Pyne that he was a railway magnate, and afterwards reported that his light overcoat had been taken from the G.C.R. station. He was sorry he had lost it, but he was more grieved because in its pockets were some valuable papers connected with his proposed railroad. The matter was reported to the police, but subsequently Mr. Middleton reported that the thief had generously forwarded the papers to him at the Kirby House, Brantford, but the coat had been retained.

Didn't Fool the Banks. Woodstock, Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Middleton's motives are hard to understand. He is expected to make money out of his schemes cannot be explained. He didn't secure any discounts from the banks here. Detective Greer arrived in town to-night.

TORONTO KNOWS ALL. People Who Read the Papers Can Connect the Story of Middleton and His Crimes. The paper-reading citizens of Toronto have heard practically all there is to be heard of Mr. Launceston Middleton and his crimes. The names of the gentlemen attached his name is placed at present at four.

Last evening The World interviewed the lady Middleton first married. She was an attendant at the Unitarian Church on Jarvis-street, where she met her future husband, and had come only recently from the Old Country, and spoke with a broad Yorkshire accent. He was tall and dark, and of handsome build. He gave out that he had influential relatives in the Old Country, and his manner was prepossessing, and his tongue fluent.

The lady in question received The World man at her home. Her eyes and hair are red. She sat in a reclining chair, quite ready to answer any question, but a troubled expression, and the suspicion of a tear in her eye.

"Launceston Middleton was an extremely clever young fellow, who said he was just from Yorkshire, and had obtained a university education from the best schools, and possessed of many accomplishments; his handwriting was like copper-plate, and he frequently seen him write a letter, and at the same time give out a continuous conversation. He was magnetic; he seemed to possess a personal charm with the faculty of drawing his listener, whether woman or business man, into his confidence, and forcing her to view questions from his point of view.

"He said he had traveled, but then one could never believe what he said; he was a born liar. He would just tell you a falsehood when the simple truth would have answered his purpose much better.

"Where did he acquire his technical knowledge?" enquired The World. "In England, I presume, if he was ever there; though we have not seen him here, I am sure, I have not seen him for five years, though indirectly we have kept traces of him, as he has written his villainy, father tried in every way he could to keep other people on their guard against him. He was a very clever fellow, and to-day he has prostrated telegraphic communication, and Pine Knot cannot be read, and the aviator cannot give verified.

Her Forearm Fractured. A woman giving her name as Mrs. Salianski and living at 37 Centre-avenue was taken to the hospital, suffering from a fracture of her forearm. After having the injury dressed, she left without stating how the mishap occurred.

Passed Away at St. Michael's. Miss Minnie Fitzhenry died last evening at St. Michael's hospital, after a long illness. She was the daughter of William Fitzhenry, 422 Front-street east. The body was removed to her late home.

THE HIGH COMMISSION.

Caucus Held by the Canadian Delegates—Hon. Mr. Dingley and Sir James Winter Have Arrived.

Quebec, Aug. 24.—The Canadian portion of the High Commission held a caucus this morning in the Chateau Frontenac to discuss matters, while the Americans devoted their time to making themselves acquainted with the city.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier entertained the commissioners tonight at the Garrison Club. Hon. Mr. Dingley arrived last night. Sir J. F. Winter, the Newfoundland member of the International Commission, arrived at the Chateau Frontenac this afternoon. He is accompanied by Mr. P. T. McGrath, editor of The St. John's Evening Herald, and a secretary.

There is talk of an adjournment for two weeks in order that Mr. Dingley may take part in the electoral campaign in his state. Senator Fairbanks promises that the Canadians will be met half way in the matter of concessions.

To Open New Grounds. The Patrie Athletic Club of Guelph will formally open the new athletic grounds on Labor Day, Sept. 4, by a long list of bicycle races, which will be run on the new track in Canada. The course is 1.5 mile and is built after the style of the island track, but is much faster, riders do not have to pedal. Valuable prizes are offered, over $300 being given in pretty and useful articles to the winners. It is needless to say that the meet will be one of the most successful ever held in the state. The Royal Hotel will make accommodations for 2000 people, who will attend the meet. The public are invited to bring their visitors who stay at this well-known house.

In Marriage a Failure? Last night saw a dense crowd of men and boys following up a strange couple. They were man and wife, the wife leaning on her husband's arm, and the husband, while her short husband was walking, turned his head and kept looking at the straight path. A policeman mildly inquired the cause of the commotion, and the husband answered that his wife had been into several joints drinking and he was trying to get her home. The policeman, however, turned him about, and Mary Ann, who had not even interrupted her course when her husband was being taken to the hospital, was a bystander, and received a bullet in the temple and on the eye.

Assassinated at Political Gathering. Launceston Middleton was an extremely clever young fellow, who said he was just from Yorkshire, and had obtained a university education from the best schools, and possessed of many accomplishments; his handwriting was like copper-plate, and he frequently seen him write a letter, and at the same time give out a continuous conversation. He was magnetic; he seemed to possess a personal charm with the faculty of drawing his listener, whether woman or business man, into his confidence, and forcing her to view questions from his point of view.

"He said he had traveled, but then one could never believe what he said; he was a born liar. He would just tell you a falsehood when the simple truth would have answered his purpose much better.

"Where did he acquire his technical knowledge?" enquired The World. "In England, I presume, if he was ever there; though we have not seen him here, I am sure, I have not seen him for five years, though indirectly we have kept traces of him, as he has written his villainy, father tried in every way he could to keep other people on their guard against him. He was a very clever fellow, and to-day he has prostrated telegraphic communication, and Pine Knot cannot be read, and the aviator cannot give verified.

CANADIAN COMMERCE AND THE TARIFF.

The Globe of Monday published some important statistics relative to the foreign trade of Canada for the year ending June 30, 1898. While the figures afford gratifying evidence of a considerable increase in the commerce and prosperity of the Dominion, they very clearly show that this result has not been produced by, but rather in spite of, the changes in the tariff of 1897.

One Man's Idea of Rosland's Output by 1900.

Mr. Heavis of Spokane thinks it will be the biggest city in British Columbia and have a monthly pay roll of $300,000 in less than two years.

Mr. John H. Heavis, a well-known mining man of Spokane, Wash., is quoted in a Western contemporary as prophesying that the Rosland camp will soon be capable of producing 2500 tons of ore per day.

The following information is furnished by Marston & Marion, patent attorneys, Montreal.

The number of applications for patents received during the year 1907 is, as has been stated, the largest in the history of the office.

Unsatisfactory Stock Broking. The following editorial from the Rosland Miner will be appreciated by many of the local sufferers.

A letter has been received in this city from a prominent citizen of Toronto, who, while not a stockbroker, keeps in close touch with the Rosland share market.

The points raised by the Toronto man are well taken, but the local stock brokers have the same complaint to make.

On the other hand, if there is fair dealing and a disposition to stick to bargains, the lack of all sharp practices built up in the brokerage business here, for the era of speculation in shares is only in its infancy.

Mining Stocks. Deer Park and White Bear were the features on the local mining exchange yesterday.

He Wants His Children. At Osgoode Hall yesterday a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Mr. Justice Falconbridge, upon the application of S. Alfred Jones, on behalf of James Findlay, in an action against his father-in-law, James Tracy, for the recovery of Findlay's two children.

The Grand Box Office. The Grand box office opens to-morrow morning for Ward & Vokes, in their successful tour, which will give a fair return, and the roots, although not so good owing to the dry weather, should yield an average crop.

AT THE CITY HALL

No Quorum for Richardson-The Mayor Dismissed-Building Permits-Other Things.

Ald. Richardson could not get a quorum together yesterday afternoon to take up his manifesto on the local improvement system. Ward 1 was well represented, however, having three of the four members present. Ald. Leslie and the chairman went over the proposed changes, but nothing of importance was done.

Look at a Petition.

Barrister J. E. Cooke and others in favor of an asphalt pavement on a Major-street, were down at the City Hall again yesterday morning looking over the petitions, which were sent before the Board of Control at noon today.

A New Cattle Market.

Ald. Dunn waited on the Mayor yesterday to get some information about the proposed site for a new cattle market. The warden said that a representative of a large Chicago packing firm was in the city, and wished to purchase a site in the western part of the city.

Wants a Refund.

The Toronto College of Music has written to the Mayor, asking for the refund of all taxes paid by the institution, and also for exemption from taxation. The claim is based upon a provision in the Assessment Act exempting all educational institutions.

Building Permits.

City Commissioner Northwood issued the following permits yesterday: For a three-story brick building at the northwest corner of Bloor and Yonge-streets, to cost $12,000, and to H. C. Scadding for a two-story and attic brick building on Bloor-street, to cost $4,000.

The Mayor Not Satisfied.

Mayor Shaw is not satisfied with the progress on the stairway at the new civic buildings, and has asked the contractor to put on a larger force of men.

Other Points.

City Engineer Rust is preparing plans for the ferry to be used at the Queen's wharf, to convey passengers across the water to the homes on the other side.

Yesterday the City Clerk received a sufficiently signed petition for a sidewalk on Leopold-street.

E. P. Roden of the City Engineer's Department is confined to his home through illness.

DOWN AT THE DEPOT.

Excursions - Meetings - Arrivals - Winnipeg Cheap Rate - Another Batch of Farmers for Manitoba.

General Superintendent Leonard of the Ottawa & Quebec division of the G.P.R. left for the east yesterday morning. The G.T.R. will issue a single fare return rate at $3.25 to Winnipeg via Chicago by the Dominion bicycle route on Labor day.

W. E. Davis, general passenger and ticket agent, and Mr. John W. Laid, general freight agent of the G.T.R., arrived in the city yesterday.

The City Comfort Fishing Club from Pennsylvania passed through the city last night en route to their homes on the other side.

A conference was held yesterday afternoon in Superintendent Fitzhugh's office, when the special rates to the Fair were considered. Those present were: A. E. Dyson, superintendent of Buffalo division; W. D. Burns, superintendent motor power, St. Louis, and H. J. Moffett, master mechanic, St. Thomas.

At the Exhibition the G.T.R. will have on view in a special gallery a collection of pictures showing the scenes along its various lines.

An earlier batch of harvesters left yesterday morning for the Northwest by the G.T.R. They went by way of Chicago and no interference at Port Huron is anticipated. The incident last week in which several harvesters were turned back by the lumbermen's officers has caused no end of labor feeling.

Vegetarians Stronger Than Meat Eaters.

Bystander in Weekly Sun. In a seventy miles walking race in Germany the vegetarians have shown endurance over the eaters of meat. There is nothing new in this; extraordinary journeys are made by the Hindu pantheists, whose diet is rice and fruit. There is probably a gradual tendency on the whole to vegetarian diet. It does not appear that animal food is absolutely essential to any function of the human body or brain. No man did a better day's work than the British farm laborer when he had no meat but a taste of bacon. No man ever did a greater amount of brain work than a monastic saint, who was forbidden meat by the rules of his order. No man ever produced higher fruits of the imagination than Shelley, who was a devout vegetarian. A much greater amount of vegetable than of animal food can be produced on a given area. The inclination of taste as human nature grows more refined points the same way. Homeotic heroes ate masses of meat, apparently with fruit to make it palatable, but the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. Those persons are not aware that they can indulge to their hearts' content if they have on hand a box of Dr. Kellogg's cereal. Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief and is a sure cure

Wall-street stocks exhibited much irregularity to-day. London cables were weak and there was heavy realization through commission houses. The Grangers and other railway stocks held their own, however.
