BRITISH MAKING EVERYTHING SIDE BEFORE THEY ADVANCE

The Move for the Relief of Ladysmith is Expected to Begin About the End of this Week, When All Will Be Ready.

Her Majesty's Troops Have Reoccupied Naauwpoort, the Last Strong Fighting Position South of the Orange River—Communication With Estcourt Believed to Have Been Cut—Scraps About the War.

An official communication from Ladysmith, dated Nov. 18, says the garrison there is still maintaining its position.

The London Standard has a despatch from Estcourt, which says there is a growing belief there that the relief force will move towards Ladysmith about the end of this week.

There has been some fighting near Estcourt, where the British forces are preparing to move north for the relief of Ladysmith. On Sunday 700 Boers took up a position on the highlands, 13 miles south of Estcourt. A detachment of mounted infantry and the Estcourt Carbineers engaged the enemy. The Boers withdrew after procuring 200 cattle. The main Boer force south of Estcourt is reported to have retired. A despatch received from Durban this morning says that communication with Estcourt is now interrupted.

The British have reoccupied Naauwpoort, the railway junction connecting the Midland with the western system of railways, the former running to Bloemfontein and the latter to Kimberley and Mafeking, connection being made in Cape Colony at De Aar.

General Buller has wired the War Office that three British privates were wounded on Sunday at Naauwpoort during the engagement referred to above.

Col. Baden-Powell sends word from Mafeking, dated Nov. 20, that all was well. The British had a few successful sorties with the enemy. The British loss was two officers and 17 men killed and 4 officers and 29 men wounded. The enemy's loss was heavy. Boer guns continued to shell the town.

President Kruger has refused to allow U.S. Consul Macrum, at Pretoria, to exercise the powers of the British agent there. The U.S. Embassy is no longer able to secure information regarding the British prisoners.

London, Nov. 22.—(5 a.m.)—The announcement from Durban that communication with Estcourt is interrupted seems to confirm the belief that a Boer commando has established itself at Willow Grange, or near the Mool River, and has cut the telegraph wires. Nevertheless, and has cut the telegraph wires. Nevertheless, and has cut the telegraph wires. Nevertheless, and has cut the telegraph wires.

It is certain that, owing to heavy work of debarkation and entraining at Durban, the preparations for the advance of the relief force are in no wise so far advanced as had been supposed. This may also be due to the necessity of pushing stores and provisions to the front in needful quantities before the troops are sent. On the other hand, the quickness with which troops are being rushed forward from Cape Town equals tend to show that all such preparations regarding forage and provisions were already well advanced before the troops arrived at Cape Town. Gen. Methuen's baggage has arrived at De Aar, addressed to "Lord Methuen, via De Aar, Cape Town."

Good news for the British. The reoccupation Naauwpoort is good news for the British. It is not known here from what point the troops came, but it is presumed they were from De Aar, in which event they would have been in Stormberg also is reoccupied. Naauwpoort commands the gap in the Kirkcubright, the last strong fighting position south of the Orange River, and was admirably suited to Boer tactics.

Col. Royston's despatch from Ladysmith finally disposes of all reports of another great British victory there last Wednesday. The Duke of Portland has contributed 10,000 for Red Cross Society work in South Africa.

A Lie Nailed. The Times announcement that it is authorized to deny the statement recently made by a French newspaper that Prince Louis Napoleon, who is a colonel in the Russian army, desired to join the Boers, and asked Emperor Nicholas for permission. As a matter of fact, he never had any such idea.

LADYSMITH HOLDS OUT. Garrison There Was Maintaining Its Position All Right on Nov. 18.

London, Nov. 22.—The Daily Mail publishes the following despatch from Plietmaritzburg: "An official communication from Ladysmith, dated Nov. 18, says the garrison is maintaining its position. "A Boer force is reported to the rear of Baston, about a day's ride from here."

Ladysmith Awaits News. Durban, Nov. 21.—The Government has received the following advice from Col. Royston, commander-in-chief of the volunteers at Ladysmith, under date of Nov. 18: "All the volunteers and police are well, and there are plentiful supplies for man and horse. All was quiet yesterday (Wednesday), and the same condition exists this morning. There has been no further loss."

RELIEF FOR LADYSMITH.

A Belief at Estcourt That the Advance Will Begin at the End of the Week.

London, Nov. 22.—The war correspondent of The Standard at Estcourt telegraphs as follows, under Monday's date: "No actual confirmation can be obtained of the report that General Joubert has moved from his position in front of Ladysmith. Our patrols and spies have ascertained beyond a doubt that several small commandos are working southward. There is a growing belief here that we will move toward Ladysmith about the end of this week."

MORE FIGHTING NEAR ESTCOURT. Boer Commandant Was Killed by Major Thorneycroft's Detachment—Boers Withdrew.

Durban, Monday, Nov. 20.—Seven hundred Boers from Weenen took up a strong position on the highlands 13 miles south of Estcourt Sunday, occupying Turner's farm, northeast of the Mool River. Major Thorneycroft, with a detachment of mounted infantry, and the Estcourt Carbineers engaged the Boers, of whom three were killed, including their commandant. The Boers withdrew, taking 200 head of cattle, captured at Turner's farm. The main Boer force south of Estcourt is reported to have retired.

BRITISH OCCUPY NAAUWPOORT. The Junction of the Branch Line to De Aar on the Road to Bloemfontein.

Cape Town, Nov. 21.—The British troops reoccupied Naauwpoort. Naauwpoort is the junction of the branch line of De Aar, 60 miles from De Aar, and connects the Midland with the Western system of railways. The latter road runs north to Kimberley and Mafeking.

Boers Repairing Bridges. Cape Town, Nov. 21.—It is announced from Naauwpoort that the Boers are repairing the bridges recently destroyed by them. This, according to the Cape Times, is because the Boer invasion of Cape Colony was against orders. The authorities assert that no defence of Bloemfontein is intended.

Care of Boer Prisoners. The United States Consul General Stowe, who has just visited the Boer prisoners on board the Penelope at Simonstown, is interesting himself to secure good treatment for the prisoners at Pretoria, and has authorized Mr. Macrum, United States Consul there, to the requests of British officers to the extent of 1500 roubles generally to do his best in their behalf.

Farmers in Greytown Defiant. Durban, Nov. 21.—The Natal Witness says: "The German farmers in the Greytown district have rejected the Boer ultimatum to swear allegiance or to quit their farms, and have defied the Boers to oust them from their homesteads."

LATEST NEWS FROM MAFEKING. A Few Successful Sorties, 10 British Killed and 33 Wounded—Enemy's Loss Heavy.

London, Nov. 22.—Late last evening the War Office made public two despatches from General Buller at Cape Town. The first had been received from General Buller on Monday, Nov. 20, and announced that three privates were wounded the previous day at Mool River.

The second was from Col. Baden-Powell, dated at Mafeking, Nov. 6, saying: "All well here. We have had a few successful sorties. Our loss is 2 officers and 17 men killed and 4 officers and 29 men wounded. The enemy's loss is heavy. His numbers are decreasing, but his guns remain, and we are keeping out of the range of our small guns. Have had no news from the outside since Oct. 20."

KRUGER A SIMPLE FAKIR. The Old Man Objects to Macrum Acting as British Agent—Kruger's End is Near.

London, Nov. 21.—President Kruger's refusal to allow United States Consul Macrum to exercise the powers of British agent at Pretoria has resulted in great dissatisfaction. There were many calls at the United States Embassy in London, who were informed that the United States was no longer able to forward messages or secure information regarding the British prisoners. Though Mr. Macrum apparently remains the nominal agent of Great Britain, he is practically deprived of all powers pertaining to the position. It is understood that President Kruger objected to Mr. Macrum representing Great Britain, saying the United States claims to neutrality were prejudiced by her evident friendship for Great Britain. All communications to the British prisoners now go through the ordinary military channels, which render their ultimate delivery doubtful and certainly slow. The British Government so far has not taken any steps to ameliorate the present condition of the prisoners.

GATACRE ADDRESSES HIS MEN.

Once the Forward Movement Starts It Cannot Be Stopped, the General Says.

Cape Town, Monday, Nov. 21.—General Gatacre, commanding the British column assembling at Queenstown, Cape Colony, told the troops there today that the regulars should watch and learn from the irregulars who were acquainted with the country and the habits of the Boers. Once the forward movement should be begun there could be no question of stopping it and he asked all to do their best, adding: "I will never ask you to do anything I am not willing to do myself."

Free State Boers Very Fresh. Proclamations Issued at Bloemfontein Tuesday, Nov. 14, declare that the whole of Griqualand West, except Kimberley and the Free State, are annexed to the Cape Colony. The proclamations are signed by C. H. Wessels, President of the Volksraad.

Loyalists Will Be Protected. Durban, Nov. 21.—General Grey, acting under instructions from General Buller, has issued a proclamation, announcing that the Government will exact full compensation for damage done to the property of loyalists.

FROM BOER SOURCES. Report from Joubert's Headquarters in the Transvaal Council of War.

Pretoria, Nov. 21.—(Via Lorenzo Marques.) Monday's report from General Joubert's headquarters, which was presented to the Transvaal Council of War today, says: "Heavy gun firing was heard in the direction of Estcourt on Saturday, and continuous rifle firing is proceeding south of Ladysmith. A small sortie from Ladysmith this morning was repulsed. The Transvaal heavy guns fired a number of shells into the town this afternoon."

LONDON MAIL MAN ARRESTED. By the Boers While Carrying a Letter From Premier Schreiner to President Steyn.

Cape Town, Nov. 21.—Mr. Collet, the correspondent of The London Daily Mail at Stormberg, while bearing a message from Mr. Schreiner, the Cape Premier, to President Steyn of the Orange Free State, with Sir Alfred Milner's sanction, was arrested by the Boers in the mountains and conveyed to Bloemfontein. It is understood that Mr. Schreiner's letter was a protest against the imprisonment of British subjects in Cape Colony.

THE UNITED STATES WARSHIPS Will Be Given a Hearty Reception When They Arrive in South African Waters.

London, Nov. 22.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "Preliminary arrangements are being made to give the United States a hearty reception in order to emphasize the appreciation by the colonists of the meaning of an American naval display in South African waters at the present juncture."

BRITAIN HAS A FREE HAND. There is No Longer Any Anxiety Regarding Ladysmith, Estcourt or Kimberley.

New York, Nov. 21.—Lord Salisbury's family bereavement will bring an end to any consultations between the two countries and convert the Emperor's visit into a strictly family affair, says The Tribune's London correspondent. But there can hardly fall to be a strong reflex influence upon each other.

Britain Has a Free Hand. Meanwhile the war in South Africa, for which England is believed to have obtained a free hand in advance from the German Emperor, is dragging on in the dark, but there is no longer any public anxiety respecting Ladysmith, Estcourt or Kimberley. The relief column can hardly be prepared to advance from Estcourt before the operation of another week, but the Ladysmith garrison is clearly secured, and the Boer artillery is no longer dreaded.

British Campaign is Beginning. The Tribune's despatch speaks of fresh records of Baden-Powell's good generalship at Mafeking and of indications that the

DEADLY COAL GAS VICTIMS

Father and Daughter Lying in the Hospital at the Point of Death.

STOVE DOOR LEFT PARTLY OPEN. Retired on Saturday Night and Not Discovered Until Yesterday Morning.

Lying in the Emergency Hospital at the point of death are Thomas Conder and his daughter Thillie. They are both unconscious as the result of inhaling gas, which escaped from an open door in a stove at their home in the rear of 108 Chestnut-st. Physicians have been in constant attendance on them, but it is feared that they will not recover.

Lived Alone. Mr. Conder and his daughter live alone in a little frame cottage. A son, Thomas Conder, counsellor at law, lives at 112 Agnes-street, where his sister is employed as a domestic during the day time. On Saturday morning the brother thought she was not to her own home. That was the last seen of her until yesterday afternoon, when her brother discovered her. When she did not return to her duties on Monday morning the brother thought she was busy at home. His father did not call that evening for his paper as usual, still he did not think anything was the matter.

Son Makes a Search. Yesterday morning Thomas, Jr., went to his work and on returning at 1000 hours was told by his wife that up to that time nothing had been heard of his father or whether he was in the house, which he was on, and on finding the front door locked, he entered the house and found his father lying on the floor in the rear room. He raised her up and seeing signs of life placed her in bed, turning the rear room, where his father was lying, he picked him up and placed him back in bed also. Although only in the house a few minutes he was beginning to feel the effects of the gas which still pervaded the house, so he ran out into the open air.

A Doctor Called. He then threw open the doors and windows and summoned Dr. Johnson of Elm-street. The physician worked with the unconscious victims for about an hour, and the ambulance was then called and they were taken to the hospital.

Mr. Conder is 65 years of age and for many years has been a resident of this city. His daughter is 34 years old. They have been living at their present home for the past two years. Shortly before they moved to that part of the city Mrs. Conder died while her son Thomas was en route to the Old Country.

Deadly Coal Gas. The cause of their condition was the gas which escaped from a self-feeder stove in the dining room. When found the door of the stove was open, and the gas had entered the room. It still contained a quantity of red-hot coal. Neighbors in the vicinity say they saw the stove on Monday night, and they were overcome by the gas. It was evident that there had been a struggle, as the father was lying out of bed, and the daughter was lying on the floor when found. The bed clothes were also scattered about the room.

THE SHIPPING OF MONTREAL

A Falling Off of Considerable Proportions in Number of Vessels for This Year.

THE TONNAGE NOT YET MADE UP. But a Decrease is Also Expected in That When the Figures Are Completed.

Montreal, Nov. 21.—(Special.)—There are still three vessels to arrive in the port of Montreal, and ocean navigation will then be over for the season. The Bengore Head, over from the Atlantic and Asia, have arrived today, leaving only the Dunmore Head, Anderson and Mayflower, which will arrive in a day or so. The Manchester Enterprise was also on the list, but it was ascertained today that she had foundered.

The total number of vessels which have arrived in port this year, counting the three yet to come, is about 800, as compared with 888 last year. This is a serious decrease—about 65 vessels of all kinds. The tonnage returns are not made up yet, but there is certain to be a large falling off in tonnage also, though not so great as in the case of the vessels. The number of vessels in 1907 was 796, about the same as this year. In fact, the shipping all round is about the same as in 1907.

NO GREAT WEALTH TO SPEAK OF. Great Slave Lake Region Found Not to Contain Any Great Mineral Deposits.

Winnipeg, Nov. 21.—Dr. Bell, assistant director of the Geological Survey of Canada, reached here today from Great Slave Lake, north of Edmonton, where he had been dispatched by the Dominion Government to examine alleged mineral deposits in that district. He reports the existence of no precious metals of great value, and says many men are returning disappointed and poorer. There will be suffering all along the route this winter.

Mr. Mann, in these days it is the merchants and the railway magnates who are the real ambassadors, don't you think?

THE DEWEY HOME

The Nation Gave it to Dewey, He Gave It to His Wife, Who Gives It to the Son.

MANY SUBSCRIBERS INDIGNANT.

The Hero of Manila Has Put His Foot in It—Has Greeted His Picture.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Papers were to-day drawn up by Mrs. Mildred Dewey, wife of Admiral Dewey, transferring all right and title in the Dewey home to the admiral's son, George Goodwin Dewey. The deed will be recorded this afternoon or to-morrow.

A Disgraced Committee.

Buffalo, Nov. 21.—A Washington despatch to The Times says: The members of the Dewey Home Committee are a disgraced lot of men. They will not talk for publication, but individual members of the body have expressed themselves very forcibly in characterizing the action of the admiral in disposing of his home. While there is a disposition to be lenient to the members of the committee, there is nothing silent or secret about the Washington subscribers to the fund, nor are the every-day language used in expressing their sentiments.

A Great Sensation.

No incident in many years has caused such a profound sensation as the transfer of a house bought by the admiral to his wife. Not a champion has arisen to combat the admiral, but on the subject of goods, but that firm does not think that the goods ordered would be on the Enterprise, as they are in the hands of the admiral. The admiral's name is the highest terms of the Manchester Company and their steamers.

WHAT THE ADMIRAL SAYS.

The Desire in Making the Transfer Was to Make the Succession Secure.

Washington, Nov. 21.—In explanation of the transfer of the Dewey home to-day a relative of the Deweys made this statement to the Associated Press: Admiral and Mrs. Dewey have transferred to the former's son, George Goodwin Dewey, the title to the home provided to the admiral by the people of this country. Plans to be the admiral's and Mrs. Dewey as long as the admiral lives. It is to be desired that the admiral and Mrs. Dewey to provide for a proper succession to the property. The admiral's will completes the transaction begun yesterday and is carrying out only of the original intention of both the admiral and Mrs. Dewey. By all those interested in the matter the best and wisest that could have been adopted.

The Holy See's official edition makes this announcement, and adds: "The Pope declined to follow their counsel, because England had never given the church any diversity of policy, and because an anti-British policy would check the movement in England in favor of good relations with the Vatican and affect a number of conversions to Catholicism."

THE EXPERIENCES OF

A Visit to the Royal Smallarms Factory at Enfield, Near London.

MAKING OF MAXIMS THE MAIN WORK.

Six of These Terrible Death-Dealing Instruments Turned Out in a Week—The Tempering of Swords.

From the London Daily News. The craft of bayonets, the clash of sword blades in every stage of evolution, the rush and roar of great forests of machinery, the clang of forges and the dull thud of steam hammers are almost as impressive and suggestive of hurried warfare preparations on the banks of the Thames at Woolwich. The Royal Small Arms Factory is not so Titanic in its power, or so gigantic a scale as Woolwich Arsenal. It has a staff of somewhere about 2,000 men engaged pretty steadily the year round in making swords and bayonets, rifles and pistols, and as an adjunct to these through its great buildings, full of the rumour of anvils and lathes, and drills and planes, and revolving wheels, one gets a sense of being in the thick of the military bustle of which the papers are full. In these shops down by the side of the sluggish Lea one may get a glimpse into the evolution of a rifle from a solid lump of steel and a log of wood, or may watch another blade of a bayonet being tempered after it emerges as a glittering cavalry sword or a murderous-looking saw-sword; or may see the whole business of putting together those mechanical death-dealing instruments, which are the diabolical gear over the desolate plains of South Africa.

His Holiness Values Britain's Friendship Too Much to Take Steps to Break It.

Rome, Nov. 21.—The correspondent of The Berlin Tagblatt in Rome learns on good authority that Italian circles that an influential group tried to influence the Pope against the British policy in South Africa. The Holy See's official edition makes this announcement, and adds: "The Pope declined to follow their counsel, because England had never given the church any diversity of policy, and because an anti-British policy would check the movement in England in favor of good relations with the Vatican and affect a number of conversions to Catholicism."

THE EXPERIENCES OF

A Visit to the Royal Smallarms Factory at Enfield, Near London.

MAKING OF MAXIMS THE MAIN WORK.

Six of These Terrible Death-Dealing Instruments Turned Out in a Week—The Tempering of Swords.

From the London Daily News. The craft of bayonets, the clash of sword blades in every stage of evolution, the rush and roar of great forests of machinery, the clang of forges and the dull thud of steam hammers are almost as impressive and suggestive of hurried warfare preparations on the banks of the Thames at Woolwich. The Royal Small Arms Factory is not so Titanic in its power, or so gigantic a scale as Woolwich Arsenal. It has a staff of somewhere about 2,000 men engaged pretty steadily the year round in making swords and bayonets, rifles and pistols, and as an adjunct to these through its great buildings, full of the rumour of anvils and lathes, and drills and planes, and revolving wheels, one gets a sense of being in the thick of the military bustle of which the papers are full. In these shops down by the side of the sluggish Lea one may get a glimpse into the evolution of a rifle from a solid lump of steel and a log of wood, or may watch another blade of a bayonet being tempered after it emerges as a glittering cavalry sword or a murderous-looking saw-sword; or may see the whole business of putting together those mechanical death-dealing instruments, which are the diabolical gear over the desolate plains of South Africa.

OUR BOYS WILL GET A SHOW.

Col. Aylmer Says They Will Be Sent to the Front After Putting in Some Drill.

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—Col. Hon. Matthew Aylmer, Adjutant-General, who is still suffering from the accident to his foot, gives the following views of the Transvaal war. He says: "The country is large and the intention to send out a contingent, and the intention was to send out a contingent of 10,000 men. It is a matter of time before the British will be required to bring in a large force of men to the Cape, and that they are working for a stock, as a business man would express it, or to supplement the mechanism of the war."

Devoted Specialy to the Interests of our Women Readers.

Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

Dear Katherine Leslie—That far famed country, which we told is parved with good intentions, must present a curious aspect. There are doubtless some knobby cobbles stoner so thresome to walk over...

Again I procrastinated as I thought of writing to you several weeks ago when you uttered several reasonable opinions with regard to bazars. My reason this time was that I was so much occupied in preparing for the very event, namely, the days slipped by without my carrying out my intention.

Nobody likes bazars. I do not, who am going to advocate them. But my objection does not arise from scruples or so-called conscientious motives. I don't like them because they entail a great deal of hard and sometimes unpleasant work.

Deliberately Planned the Deed and Said it Was Because of the Father's Cruelty. Dexter, Mo., Nov. 21.—Elijah Moore, aged 35, who had been held under suspicion for the assassination of his father, Rev. Jesse Moore, was indicted yesterday by the grand jury after making a full confession. Young Moore said he had planned the assassination two weeks previous to its commission. His father had been cruel to his family, and allowed his children no pleasure. Young Moore got up at 3 o'clock in the morning, shot his father by moonlight, and hid the gun in a rack on the front porch and went back to bed.

LET THE COUNCIL REPUDIATE THE DEPUTATION AND APPEAL TO THE COURT.

The true inwardness of the Metropolitan deal was as follows: The Metropolitan lobbyists got control of the York County Council. They took a deputation of the County Councilors down to Ottawa, where the latter came in contact with Hon. Wm. Mulock, the member for North York. The Metropolitan wire-pullers represented that the farmers of North York were desirous of having the Metropolitan Railway connected with the C.P.R. The deputation represented the same thing to their member, Mr. Mulock. Concurrently with the fixing of the County Council, a scheme was put in action to neutralize any opposition that might arise from the City Council. It was part of the scheme that the city deputation should proceed to Ottawa without being definitely instructed as to their line of action. This left them free to make any kind of a bargain they saw fit. It was also part of the scheme that the deputation should be composed of only such aldermen as would favor the Metropolitan and Mr. Mulock. Mr. Mulock was anxious and eager to gratify the wishes of his constituents. One member at least of the aldermanic deputation was ready to go any length to oblige the Postmaster-General. The result of the deal was that the city's interests were sacrificed for the personal advantage of Mr. Mulock. The Postmaster-General allowed Toronto to be robbed of its rights in order that he might curry favor with his constituents. But, as far as the City of Toronto is concerned, the chief culprits in this swindle are, primarily, the members of the deputation, including the aldermanic members of the deputation and the whole Council. No alderman should have accepted a position on the deputation unless he knew what the city's interests were and unless he was prepared to fight for those interests to the last. The excuses put forward by the City Solicitor and the aldermanic members of the deputation are, in the rank and file, disloyalty and treachery. While the members of the deputation are protesting their innocence of any jobbery, we know as well as they know themselves that they were part and parcel of a general conspiracy to deprive the people of Toronto of their rights. Behind their snivelling and slobbering we read treachery in big black letters.

We doubt, however, if so outrageous a disregard for the law and the rights of the people will be countenanced by public opinion or by the courts. The matter has already been placed in court by the Toronto Railway Company, whose interests under its agreement with the city are affected by the decision of the Railway Committee. If the case ever comes before a jury the deputation and the conspiracy will be divulged and a deplorable revelation it will be. Independently of what the Toronto Railway Company may do, the City Council must take immediate action to nullify the order of the Railway Committee. The first step to have the Council formally repudiate the action of the deputation. The latter exceeded its authority, and the Council cannot too soon put itself on record as being opposed to the action of the deputation in consenting to the order.

Canada will take advantage of the litigation that has been started will be to solve the Yonge-street traffic problem as the people wish to see it solved. What is desired is not the turning of Yonge-street into a freight railway and shunting yard, but the improvement of the trolley system on that thoroughfare. What is wanted is direct trolley connection between the country and suburbs and the city. The people who live up Yonge-street ought to have a direct and uninterrupted trolley service to the centre of the city and the people of Pleasant Cemetery and other points up the street. If the deputation that went to Ottawa had defended our rights we could have compelled the Metropolitan Railway Company to place the Yonge-street traffic on a business-like and up-to-date basis. It is not too late even now. By repudiating the deputation and by appealing to the courts the city may regain its rights and compel the trolley companies to give the people the service they really want.

LOW FARES AND BIG PROFITS.

The experience of cheap street railways for the same purpose has been satisfactory both to the company and the people. A few weeks ago the Chicago General Railway Company reduced its rates to six tickets for a quarter on its main line and twelve tickets for the same purpose on its branch lines. Since the inauguration of the reduced rates there has been a very large increase in the number of passengers carried, while the gross receipts have increased 16 per cent. The company is making more money and the people enjoy the benefit of cheaper fares. The same idea might be applied very profitably to other enterprises than street cars. A two-cent per mile rate on the railways would pay better than the existing three-cent rate. Reductions in the price of gas and electricity would lead to a much larger

Canada as a Nation.

Canada will some day be on equal footing with any of the big nations, but the tendency is to make it a commercial country, rather than to concentrate the building of warships and war material on the coast. The day is not far distant when the nations of the earth shall learn war no more. The building up of the Dominion develops practically upon the business men of the country. Our industries, both large and small, are furthering the prospects and uplifting the future of Canada. We have a practical illustration of this in the Swiss Laundry, an institution that has made for itself a lasting reputation. The growing demands on this business necessitated the enlarging of the premises, and to-day it is replete with the newest and best machinery the world can produce. The building operations handicapped us a little, but now we are ready for any emergency. Nearly a score of wagons at your service—a moment's notice brings one to your door. DILATORY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

Complaint is made of the delay in the publication of the Dominion Insurance report for 1908. It is later this year than usual, the report generally appearing in October. Both the Ontario and Dominion Governments have much to learn from the United States in the publication of official reports. The Americans are away ahead of us in this respect. In the State of New York, where they have a hundred times as much insurance business to report upon as in Canada, they issue their annual report in April, or within three months of the ending of the statistical year. A little more expedition in the issue of reports in Canada would be appreciated by the public.

CARED FOR BY THE POLICE.

A Boy Charged With Stealing a Bicycle—Domestic Charged With Theft—And Other.

Miss Maud Addison of 76 Harvard-avenue rode down town yesterday afternoon to do some shopping at the big stores. While making some purchases at Eaton's, her bicycle disappeared. She reported the matter to the police. Constable Dalby of the Wilton-avenue division last night met Samuel Miller, a 15-year-old lad, with the bicycle in his possession. Miller was then taken into custody and charged with theft. He lives at 133 Bolton-avenue. Mary Johnson, a domestic, who says she is employed by a man connected with the case, was arrested, charged with theft. The prisoner is alleged to have stolen a quantity of groceries from Harry Golding's store at 906 West Queen-street. P. C. Ross (106) made the arrest. Two lads, Albert Taylor of 510 Yonge-street, and Harry McLaughlin, 95 Parliament-street, spent the night in the quarters set apart for youthful prisoners at the Court-street station. They were arrested by Constables Cross and Dalby on a charge of doing malicious injury to property at 85 Jarvis-street, by cutting their names on the door. Old Rachel Gough was found wandering around the west end last night. The woman could not tell where she lived and Constable Ross (119) took her in charge, pending some enquiries which will be made to-day.

The police are investigating, and Hare in the meantime is detained at police headquarters.

Samoan Negotiations Have Gone Through and Only Await Formal Acceptance. London, Nov. 21.—The statement contained in a special despatch from Washington reporting a hitch in the final settlement of the Samoa agreement, is denied here officially. It is said that the United States Government signified its assent to the agreement prior to the publication of the terms, and that, while this has not yet been formally given, it is understood that the matters pending between the United States and Germany are unimportant details, in no way threatening a successful termination of the agreement, and by no means constituting a hitch.

SWORN TESTIMONY

In the matter of cure by ELECTINE KIDNEY BEANS of Patrick J. Williams, of Dundas, Ont.

I, PATRICK JAMES WILLIAMS, of the Town of Dundas, in the County of Wentworth, do solemnly declare and swear that the statement I have made this day is true and correct.

I have been troubled with kidney and bladder disease for five years, growing worse, medicines failing to relieve me, giving up hope of relief on August 15th at my place of business. I took them. The burning, scalding sensation which was so painful when I made water began to be relieved, although I had suffered in that way for a year, and the pain in my back that I could at times scarcely turn over in bed.

Declared before me at the Town of Dundas, in the County of Wentworth, this 6th day of Nov., A. D. 1899.

SALT RHEUM. B. B. B. cured Mrs. E. H. Cox, of Victoria, N.B., of itching Salt Rheum of the face over 6 years ago and she is perfectly well to-day. It is a well-known fact that such severe skin diseases as Salt Rheum or Eczema, Psoriasis, Tetter, Shingles, etc., are prone to return unless the impurities in the blood causing them are eliminated completely from the system.

My wife was a sufferer from an itching form of Salt Rheum which would break out on her face. She tried many things, including doctors' medicines, but nothing did her much good. About two years ago she commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters, when to our astonishment her face began to get well, and by the use of two bottles she was completely cured. As to the truth of the above statement I would refer you to J. B. Bowser, General Merchant of this town. From whom I bought the two bottles of B.B.B.

The following letter recently received, shows that the cure has been permanent one: "I am happy to state that my wife has been cured of Salt Rheum of the face some years ago. The cure was effected by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, a well-known medicine in the market. I have known a number of people to use it, and they all say it does them good, especially if they have any blood disorders. I can't say enough for it, and I would recommend it to my friend of B.B.B."
