During the long wars which followed the outbreak of the French Revolution, Newfoundland attained an unprecedented prosperity. All competitors in the fisheries were swept from the seas: the markets of Europe were exclusively in the hands of the merchants of the country: the fisheries were unusually successful, and the price of fish trebled. Wages of fishermen rose to a high figure, and emigrants flocked to the country. In 1814, nearly 7000 persons arrived in Newfoundland. The laws against colonisation could no longer be rigidly enforced. A post-office was established in 1805, and the following year the first newspaper, the Royal Gazette, was published. In 1815, the population had increased to 80,000. Strenuous efforts were made to supply the spiritual wants of the Protestant portion of the population, and Roman Catholics were not less zealous. In 1805, Newfoundland was annexed to the newly-created bishopric of Nova Scotia, and in 1839 was constituted a separate see. Wesleyan Methodism was introduced as early as 1786, and attained a vigorous growth. At last, in 1811, the restriction against the erection of houses was removed, and the shores of St Johns harbor were divided into building and water lots, and thrown open, by lease of thirty years, to public competition. The capital now made rapid progress; and though repeatedly destroyed by fire, has risen, phœnix-like, brighter and better from its ashes. The laws against the cultivation of the soil were at length repealed; and even the merchants began to see that the fisheries would be best carried on by a fixed population; and the Government discovered the delusion of strengthening the navy by men trained in the fisheries. The years 1816 and 1817 were memorable for fires that destroyed a large portion of St Johns, and caused an immense amount of suffering. But the spirit and energy of the people rose superior to their misfortunes, and the town was speedily rebuilt. In 1824 circuit courts were instituted; and in 1825 the first roads were constructed around St Johns. In 1832 the colony obtained the boon of representative government, similar to that of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. An Act for the advancement of education passed the local legislature. In 1846 a terrible fire destroyed three-fourths of St Johns, and an immense amount of property. Once more the city rose from its ashes, improved and beautified. In 1855 the system of "responsible government" was inaugurated. In 1858 the first Atlantic cable was landed at Bay of Bull's Arm. The census taken in 1869 shows the population of the island, along with that of Labrador, to be 146,536; of which 85,496 are Protestants, and 61,040 are Roman Catholics. The value of the exports in 1869 was 6,096,799 dols.; that of imports, 5,254,152 dols.

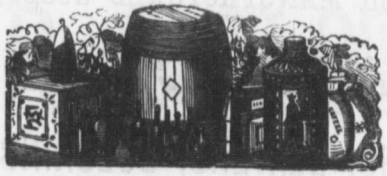
ESTABLISHED 1810.

JOHN P. GLEESON, Furnisher of American Hardware and Agricultural Implements, 122 Pearl Street, New York.

EXTENSION OF BUSINESS.—The CLUB HOUSE, on Water Street (three doors East of the City Mansion of the Hon. AUGUSTUS HARVEY), is now in the possession of the Proprietors of GLEESON'S IRONMONGERY STORE, and is named PORTO BELLO HOUSE, or, FISHERMAN'S EMPORIUM, where are to be had Fishing Lines, Hooks, Twines, Bultow Hooks—Genged, Cordage—Manilla, Spunyarn, Marline, Housline, Paints, Oils, Stockholm Tar, Resin, Pitch, Oakum, Charcoal, &c.

The Lines and Twines Manufactured at the North Mill, Bridport, are of that Superior Style and Finish as to have acquired for its Proprietors, HOUNSELL & Co., a world-wide reputation, and is honorably represented in this City by our old and faithful citizen, JOHN BOND, Esq.



The large, commodious, and elegantly-finished CLUB ROOM, is, for the present, used as a FURNITURE STORE, where are exhibited Iron Bedsteads—of grand and plain finish, Children's Stationary and Swinging Cots, Youth's and Young Ladies' Bedsteads, Iron Stretchers, Chairs—Rocking, Fancy, and Plain.

The Ironmongery and Sporting Depot is, as heretofore, heavily supplied with Anchors, Chains, Grapnels, Cod and Dipnett Irons, Nails, Wires, Chisels, &c. 100 Packages just received by the new Clipper Barquintine Maranee, Laurenson, Master, from Liverpool; and landed in as Sound, as Clean, and as Bright condition as when the articles came out of the Furnaces of BIRMINGHAM AND SHEFFIELD The Founders of the Colony are not forgotten by GLEESON, for he has imported for the MEN of DEVON and DORSET, Fussell's Scythes, well-known to all professional Mowers throughout the West of England; and here has met the approval of that well-known Blandford Mower, Mr SAMUEL DAYMOND, House Steward and Farmer to our worthy far-seeing Premier, the Hon. C. F. BENNETT.

The Industrious Ladies of the Island are remembered by our American Furnisher, for he has lately forwarded two cases

Fort Amherst Light at the entrance of St Johns—A light was first established at this station in 1813; in 1850 a new house, lantern, and apparatus were erected. The light burns at an elevation of 114 feet, is produced by a treble argand burner placed in the focus of an annular lens of the fourth order, and in favorable weather can be seen 16 nautical miles. When Cape Spear is enveloped in fog a heavy piece of ordnance is also discharged at this fort every hour during daylight, to assist vessels in making the harbor. In a favorable state of the atmosphere it can be seen 26 nautical miles. George Hewitt, keeper; Thomas Doran, assistant.

Harbor Grace Beach Beacon and Light—First exhibited 11th September 1850. Stands on the point of beach at the entrance of Harbor Grace. It is a double light, as a distinction from Harbor Grace Island Light, one being placed above the other, preserving that appearance for 6 miles, exceeding this distance up to 10 miles the two lights appear blended into one. In sailing into Harbor Grace with a fair or leading wind, bring the Beach Beacon to bear W. or W. by S., and by keeping the light or building a little on the starboard bow it will bring you clear of the bar, on which, at low-water, there is not more than 8 feet of water. It is situated in lat. 47°41'28 N., and in long. 53°12'33 W. Elevation above the sea-level 40 feet. In clear weather it may be seen at the distance of 11 nautical miles. George Brown, keeper.

It was first exhibited in 1857. Henry Roper, keeper; Peter Woods, assistant.

The tower is of brick; the keeper's dwelling a square building detached from the tower, painted white, with the roof red. The light is a cato-dioptric first-class holophotal revolving white light, showing a flash every twenty seconds. It is elevated 443 feet above high-water, and can be seen in clear weather 30 nautical miles, and a lesser distance according to the state of the atmosphere. When the southern end of the island bears N.N.E., the light will not be visible when nearer the island than 8 miles. It was first exhibited in 1858. James Ryan, keeper; John Ryan, assistant.

Cape St Mary's Light—Was put in requisition on the 20th September 1860. It is a revolving cato-dioptric light of the first order, producing alternately every minute a brilliant red and a white light, burning at an elevation of 300 feet above the level of the sea, and will be seen in a favorable state of the atmosphere 26 nautical miles from a vessel's deck. Situated in 46°49'30 N. lat., 54°11'34 W. long. The tower is of brick, and on each side of which stands the dwellings of the keeper and assistant, the sides of which are painted white, roofs red. John Rieley, keeper; William J. Collins, assistant.

St Johns—Two red lights are exhibited every night from sunset until sunrise, intended as leading marks for vessels entering the Narrows—the lower light on the roof of the Custom-House, the other 400 yards in the rear, on a white post, within a few yards of the north-east angle of the Congregational Church, and 180 feet above the level of the sea. These lights will be readily distinguished from any other lights in the town; and keeping them in a line bearing N.W. ¾ W., will lead in the largest vessel clear of all danger. To serve as leading marks also during the day, the pediment of the Custom-House has been painted white; this is to be kept in line with the upper lantern, also painted white. Exhibited 1st September 1863.

years past exhibited at Harbor Grace Island, in Conception Bay, was discontinued on the 1st December 1869. The light at that station is now revolving, showing in every direction two white flashes, followed by one red flash. The interval between each flash in attaining its greatest brilliancy will be 30 seconds. This light, in a favorable state of the atmosphere, will be seen 25 nautical miles. Situated in lat. 46°45'30 N., long. 58°27'0 W. Elevation above high-water, 64 metres. Distance at which the light is visible, 18 miles. The light is hidden at the northward by the high land of St Peter's.

Light at the South Entrance St Peter's — Since 1st October 1862, the entrance of the harbor of St Peter's, called South Channel, has been marked by two small fixed lights, one of which is a white light illuminating three fourths of the horizon, and placed on the battery; and the other a red light, on the plain at the north of the town. The white light has an elevation of 11 metres, and is visible 6 miles. The red light is elevated 19 metres, visible 3 miles distance. The line connecting these two lights indicates the middle channel.

The position of the red light has also been so determined that as soon as it is seen on the left of Cape Eagle, vessels coming from Columbier in beating into the N.E. entrance will have nothing to fear from the shoals of Cape Rouge.

Robert Oke, general inspector of lighthouses.

Money Order Branch.

Superintendent—Thomas S. Dwyer.

Office hours from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Money orders are now interchanged with the United Kingdom, Dominion of Canada, and Prince Edward Island, at the following rates of commission:—

Scale for the United Kingdom—Orders up to £2, 1s.; from £2 up to £5, 2s.; from £5 up to £7, 3s.; from £7 up to £10, 4s.

Scale for the Provinces—Orders up to £5, 1s.; from £5 to £10, 2s.; from £10 to £15, 3s.; and from £15 to £20, 4s. No single order can be granted for more than £20. No halfpence to be introduced in the orders.

Money orders are in sterling money.

SYSTEM.

1. Money orders are made out in forms supplied for the use of the money order offices.

2. Persons applying for money orders are recommended to use printed "application forms" printed for that purpose.

3. Place of payment of a money order may be changed in accordance with instructions provided therefor.

4. Alteration of payee's name may be effected, by issue of a new order and payment of commission thereon.

5. Applicants for money orders are expected to observe due care in the examination of the same, relative to filling and stamping; defect in orders, when presented for payment, may cause difficulty and delay, for which the paying office is not to be held accountable.

6. Postmasters should be particularly careful to obtain from the person who presents a money order, whether the rightful owner or not, full information as to the Christian name, surname, and address, of the party who originally obtained it, unless such party be a firm, when the name of the firm will suffice. The only exception to this rule is—When an order is presented through a bank, in which case it will suffice that the order, being properly signed, be also crossed with the banker's name.

7. As, however, after once paying a money order, by whomsoever presented, the office will not be liable to any further claim, the public are strictly cautioned—

1st, To take all means to prevent the loss of the money order.

2d, To be careful, on taking out an order, to state correctly the Christian as well as the surname of the person in whose favor it is be drawn.

3d, To see that the name of the person taking out the money order is correctly known to the person in whose favor it is drawn.

8. Payment of a money order must be obtained before the end of the sixth calendar month after that in which it was issued, otherwise a new order will be necessary, for which a second commission will be charged; and if the order be not paid before the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued, all claims to the money will be lost.

Neglect of the foregoing instructions will risk the loss of the money, besides leading to delay and trouble in obtaining payment.

The money order offices are—General Post Office, St John's; Post Offices at Bay Bulls, Bonavista, Brigus, Burgeo, Burin, Channel, Carbonear, Ferryland, Fogo, Greenspond, Harbor Breton, Harbor Grace, Placentia, Trepassey, Trinity, Twillingate.

9. Postmasters should recommend the use of money orders for the transmission of money, in preference to such transmission otherwise.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND DIRECTORY.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND was discovered on St John's Day, 1497, by Sebastian Cabet, who named it in honor of that saint. By an act of the Colonial Legislature it received the name it now bears in 1798, "to perpetuate the grateful remembrance of that peculiarly auspicious and happy period of the island having been under the command of Lieutenant-General H.R.H. Prince Edward," Duke of Kent, who was also at the head of the forces in Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, and Newfoundland. From its fair agricultural capabilities, the island is not unfrequently styled "the garden of British North America." It is about 140 miles long, 30 in average breadth, and contains an area of 1,250,000 acres of land, nearly all of which is capable of cultivation. It is well wooded and watered, largely intersected with roads, and indented with numerous bays and harbors. Scarcely any part of the country is more than 10 or 12 miles from a shipping place. The surface is level or undulating, the highest hill not exceeding 400 feet, and the verdure in summer closely resembles that of Ireland. The soil, a light red loam, is naturally fertile, easily worked, and when properly manured, yields abundant crops. The climate—cold and bracing in winter, warm and pleasant in June, July, August, September, and October—is favourable to health and longevity. Bright clear skies prevail throughout the year. Fogs are all but unknown. As a resort for summer visitors the island offers many attractions. The scenery in many places is very fine. At Stanhope, and elsewhere on the north shore, excellent surf bathing may be had. The rivers and harbors abound with mackerel and trout. Salmon, too, are caught at Bedeque, Morell, and Winter River. Brant, geese, ducks, plover, and snipe are abundant, and with partridge, woodcock, and rabbit offer recreation and pleasure for the lover of field sports.

Communication with the mainland is maintained, during the opening of the navigation, by means of two large steamers belonging to the Prince Edward Island Steam Navigation Company. One of them runs regularly between Charlottetown and Shediac, calling at Summerside going and returning, and the other plies to and from Pictou. A weekly line of steamers keeps up the connection by sea with Halifax and Boston. In winter small open boats, drawn by hand over the ice, crosses almost daily between Capes Tormartine and Traverse. A submarine telegraph cable underlies the streets at the same place, and is carried overland to Alberton, and eastward to Charlottetown, whence it is in contemplation to extend the line to Georgetown. Offices are already established at Cape Traverse, Crapaud, Summerside, and Alberton. Tiguish and Port Hill will probably ere long have one each.

The island belonged to the French until 1758. With the fall of Louisburg in that year, it was ceded to Great Britain, in whose possession it has remained ever since. It was annexed to Nova Scotia in 1763, became a separate government again in 1771, and continued to be ruled after the old family compact style, which prevailed in all the North American Provinces, until 1851, when responsible government was, after repeated refusals, granted in compliance with the well-understood wishes of the people. Since then a new era of prosperity has dawned upon the island. A long and abortive agitation for the abolition of the rent system assumed a new and more practical direction. The island was originally divided into three counties, and sixty-seven lots or townships, containing between 18,000 and 20,000 acres each. These sixty-seven blocks were in a single day, by lottery, distributed among imperial servants and crown favorites. This entailed upon the colony an absentee ownership, eventually engendered discontent among the settlers, discouraged immigration, and retarded the progress of the colony. The "broad acres" thus acquired were not always a source of profit to the owners; for in some cases they had to send out money from home to pay the land-tax. The conditions on which the townships were given away were never fulfilled, but the crown, which imposed, claimed and exercised the right to relax them. A court of escheat was refused, and led to much popular excitement. Agitation having accomplished nothing to relieve the people, the Hon. George Coles, then leader of the Government, and one of Prince Edward Island's ablest sons, in 1852 introduced his famous Land Purchase Bill. It placed £100,000 in the hands of the executive of the day, and authorised them to invest the money in purchasing out the claims of proprietors willing to sell. The maximum price was fixed at 5s. sterling per acre. The first two estates which came under the operation of the new law were those of the late Charles Worrell, Esq., and Sir

Hunt J. Walsh in 1854, containing 83,259 acres, for which, including all arrears, the sum of 80,000 dols. was paid. So much of the land as was held under lease was re-sold to the occupants at prices ranging from 4s. to 8s. sterling, according to the quality and situation of the soil, and payable in ten annual instalments, with interest. When the last instalment is paid, the tenant gets a deed in fee-simple, and becomes an independent freeholder. Within the last twelve years 361,986 acres have been purchased by successive governments, and disposed of in the same way. On the several estates thus bought the arrears due to the proprietor have been remitted. The wild lands are being disposed of gradually, under the provisions of a homestead law. Such is a brief sketch of the land question of Prince Edward Island. The purchase system has been so far attended with the best results. One estate, that of Earl Selkirk, has more than repaid itself; and though others are not likely to do so, still any loss incurred in removing an agrarian grievance of such long-standing will be more than counterbalanced by the growing industry, contentment, and prosperity of the people. The total amount disbursed for township lands is 482,175 dols., a sum which to-day exceeds the public debt of the colony. In 1860 the differences between certain landlords, who agreed to a reference, and their tenants, were entrusted to a royal commission for adjustment. The commission proved a partial failure, inasmuch as the award was not in law binding upon the proprietors, who accordingly repudiated it. A compromise followed, which gave the tenantry who were to have been affected by the award the right to the fee-simple of their holdings at fifteen years' reserved rent in one payment, with a remission of all arrears due prior to 1858, amounting to over 250,000 dols. Enabling as it did well-to-do farmers to become freeholders at any time within ten years, it held out to the consenting proprietors the uninviting prospect of being stripped of all their best lands, and left with the poorest and worst-paying class of tenants on their hands. The greater part of the land subject to this culling process has since been sold to the Government.

Another beneficial measure—the Free Education Act—was placed on the statute-book in the year 1852. Before that time, the people in the different districts throughout the country established and maintained schools by voluntary contributions, aided by small grants from the Government to licensed teachers. This limited education to the oldest and most prosperous settlements, so that thousands of children were allowed to grow up who could neither read nor write. When the new law came in force there were only 160 schools on the island for a population of 68,000; now they number 330, besides 3 county grammar schools, 13 district grammar schools, Prince of Wales' College (public), St Dunstan's College (Roman Catholic), and a Wesleyan academy, in course of construction. The working of the educational machinery is under the control of a Board of Education, consisting of eleven members—two of whom are examiners of teachers—and a school inspector for each county, whose duty it is to visit the schools twice a year. The salaries of the teachers are wholly defrayed from the public treasury. In some instances these allowances are supplemented by contributions from the people. Last year the sum expended for educational purposes was 66,735 dols.; in 1855 it was 39,900 dols. A part of this expenditure is raised by a land tax, collected by Government, of $66\frac{2}{3}$ cents per 100 acres, and the balance comes out of the general revenue. School districts are three miles in length, with the school-house in the centre.

The trade of the country has kept pace with educational progress. Shipbuilding, owing to the clearing away of the frost, is on the decline, but this is more than compensated by the increased products of the soil. The exports of the undermentioned articles for the last fifteen years were as follows:—

Year.	Oats.	Potatoes.	Barley.	Turnips.	Pork.	Eggs, bbls.

CHARLES KAIZER & SON, Furriers, 126 Granville Street, Halifax, N.S.

JOHN D. DEVOE, Wines and Spirits, 34 Water Street, St John, N.B.

The principal part of the barley, turnips, potatoes, and pork went to the Lower Provinces. The eggs nearly all go to the United States, as did the oats during the continuance of the Reciprocity Treaty. We shipped over one million bushels of oats to that country in 1864; last year the quantity fell to 48,406 bushels. As a market for this cereal, Great Britain now takes the place of the neighboring republic. Eggs and pork are fast becoming important items in the export trade of the colony. The value of the imports and exports (exclusive of shipping) was in 1859	1,173,390 dols.	893,400 dols.	1865	1,905,060 dols.	1,512,825 dols.

1862	1,056,200	752,750	1869	1,815,135	1,450,960

The revenue and expenditure were in

	REVENUE.	EXPENDITURE.		REVENUE.	EXPENDITURE.
1859	137,020 dols.	149,025 dols.	1869	296,630 dols.	321,220 dols.
1864	221,080	192,870

The debt of the colony on the 31st January 1869 was 486,285 dols. From the taxes is defrayed the expense of roads, bridges and wharfs, education, jails and court-houses, inland and foreign mails, public lands, lighthouses, legislation, and all other departments of the public service.

The population of the island was 80,857 in 1861, of whom 62,846 was native born. It is now estimated at 95,000. The rate of increase will appear from the subjoined figures. Of late years immigrants have been few and far between. The number of inhabitants was, in 1797, 4,500; 1833, 32,292; 1841, 47,034; 1848, 62,678; 1855, 71,496; 1861, 80,857; and in 1870 (by estimation) 95,000.

Divided into denominations, they stood thus in 1861:—Episcopalians, 6,785; Presbyterians, 25,862; Wesleyans, 5,804; Roman Catholics, 35,852; Baptists, 3,450; Bible Christians, 2,061; other denominations, 749.

By the census of 1861, there was grown, manufactured, or owned in the island in the previous year, 2,218,578 bushels oats, 346,125 bushels wheat, 223,195 bushels barley, 50,127 bushels buckwheat, 2,972,335 bushels potatoes, 348,784 bushels turnips, 19,307 pounds of clover seed, 31,088 tons of hay, 426,616 yards home-made cloth, 109,223 pounds of cheese, 711,485 pounds of butter, 1,239 fishing boats, 176 saw mills, 141 grist mills, 9 brick kilns, 856 threshing machines, 159 churches, 55 tanneries.

The next census will show that the present condition of the island is far in advance of what it was in 1860. The application in recent years of mussel mud to the soil has given a strong impetus to agriculture. Progress and improvement are visible on every hand. In 1861 we had for every 100 inhabitants 23 horses, 74 cattle, 132 sheep, and 88 pigs.

The Legislature consists of a House of Assembly of thirty members, elected for four years, a Legislative Council of thirteen members, six of whom are elected every fourth year, and an Executive Council of nine members. The Supreme Court comprises three judges, who hold two issuable terms in each county, besides two non-issuable ones in Queen's. Crime among the people is exceedingly light, the worst class of offences being almost unknown. It is not unusual to find only one petty larceny on the criminal calendar in a year for a population of 30,000.

The following is a list of the lieutenant-governors and chief-justices of Prince Edward Island:—

Lieutenant-Governors.—1770, Walter Patterson; 1786, Lieut-General Edmund Fanning; 1805, Col. J. F. W. Debarres; 1813, Charles Douglas Smith; 1824, Colonel John Ready; 1831, Sir Aretas W. Young; 1836, Sir John Harvey; 1837, Sir Charles A. Fitzroy; 1841, Sir Henry V. Huntley; 1847, Sir Donald Campbell; 1851, Sir Alexander Bannerman; 1854, Sir Dominick Daly; 1859, George Dundas.

Chief-Justices.—Peter Stewart, Robert Thorpe, Cæsar Colclough, Thomas Tremlet, George W. Archibald, Edward J. Jarvis, Sir Robert Hodgson, Knight, administrator of the Government since October 1868.

Charlestown, the capital of the island, is pleasantly situated on a short neck of land between the North and Hillsboro rivers. It contains a population of (say) 8000 souls, whose civic affairs are managed by a mayor and ten common councillors, with a small police force. It is well laid out, the streets being very wide, and crossing each other at right angles. It has five squares, in one of which stands the Colonial Building, St Paul's Church, the County Market-House, and the Courts of Law and General Post-Office. At the western end of the city is Government House, a two-story wooden structure, fronting the harbor, and Government Farm, containing about 75 acres of land. Georgetown, the capital of King's county, and Summerside, the commercial capital of Prince county, are seaport towns. As will be seen by reference to the pages of this Directory, several villages and business places are scattered over the country. There are one semi-weekly and four weekly newspapers published in Charlottetown, besides the Royal Gazette, and a bi-monthly single sheet, issued by the Presbyterian body. Summerside has two weekly newspapers.

GRAND DIET OF WORMS!

DISSOLVED BY

WATSON'S SCHOLEDION,

Which is offered to the Public as a perfectly safe, pleasant, and efficacious Expeller of Worms from the human system.

As this preparation contains no mineral ingredient, the administration of it to young children is not followed by the dangerous, and—in many cases—fatal consequences resulting from the use of many of the Vermifuges at present before the public.

A compliance with the directions accompanying, will prove that it deserves the character claimed for it above; while the promptness and painless character of its action renders it the cheapest and safest remedy for Worms hitherto discovered.

Charlottetown, 21*st Sept.* 1869.

W. R. Watson, Esq. has informed me of the composition of his "Worm Candy," and I can unhesitatingly recommend it as a safe and efficacious vermifuge.
JAMES N. FRASER, M.D., L.R.C.S. Ed.

Having prescribed "Watson's Scholedion" in a large number of cases, in which Worms were indicated, we have much pleasure in stating that we consider it a very safe and efficient form of Anthelmintic.
Charlottetown, Sept. 22, 1869. Messrs JENKINS & BRINE, Physicians and Surgeons.

Summerside, August 10, 1869.

Dear Sir,—I shall feel obliged by your making known, for the benefit of others, my opinion of your "Scholedion." The use of it in the case of my infant child has satisfied me that it not only merits the character claimed for it in your advertisement, but also that the advertisement does not do adequate justice to a most valuable remedy. Yours truly,
Wm. R. Watson, Esq., Queen Street, Charlottetown. Wm. M. HOWE.

The above Remedies having been found, by the experience of years, to possess the remedial qualities claimed for them, are confidently recommended to those suffering from the complaints for relief of which they are respectively intended.

The Proprietor guarantees that they are the best of their kind ever offered to the public. Innumerable certificates of the highest authority might readily be adduced as to the efficiency of each, but the celebrity they have obtained throughout the Island, where they are manufactured and best known, and most extensively used, renders the publication of such testimonials unnecessary.

XI. For the better and more effectually securing the several duties, fines, forfeitures and penalties arising by virtue of this or any other Act relating to the revenue, now or hereafter to be in force, the chief justice, or, in his absence, any judge of the Supreme Court, is hereby authorised and empowered, on application made by the Attorney-General, or any other officer prosecuting on the part of the Crown for that purpose, to grant a bailable writ or warrant against any person liable for the said duties, penalties, fines and forfeitures, and such person shall be imprisoned or detained in the county jail until he shall have given bail to answer the judgment and cost in any action to which he shall have rendered himself liable, or then commenced or pending against him, for such duties, fines, forfeitures and penalties.

XII. XIII. Any revenue officer having reasonable cause to suspect goods liable to forfeiture to be in any particular building, may, in company with any justice of the peace for the county where the building is situate, who is hereby required to accompany him, enter such building at any time between sunrise and sunset, but if the doors are fastened, then admission shall first be demanded and the purpose for which such entry is required, when declared, if admission shall not be given, the justice shall order the officer forcibly to enter, and when, in either case, entry shall be made, the officer shall search the building and seize all forfeited goods.

XVI. It shall be unlawful for any person, during the continuation of this Act, to distil, extract or manufacture spirituous liquors in this island, without having first obtained such license as aforesaid, and any person or persons who shall so distil, extract or manufacture spirituous liquors, without having first obtained a license therefor, for every distiller, as hereinbefore required, shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay to Her Majesty a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, to be paid into the Treasury of this island for the use of Her Majesty's Government.

XVII. The owner or owners of any distillery, or other person or persons who shall manufacture any distilled spirituous liquors in this island, and in case such distillery shall be conducted or carried on by any servant or servants having the care and management of the same, such owners, masters or servants, respectively, shall, on the first Monday in June, and on every first Monday in every alternate month thereafter, in each year, during the continuance of this Act, render a just and true account, in writing, to the nearest collector of impost and excise, of the quantity of all spirituous liquors distilled or manufactured by him or them for the two months then last past, and shall also, in such account, state whether the spirituous liquors therein referred to have been distilled from molasses, or barley or grain, and how much from each, respectively, and shall make and subscribe, before the said collector, the following oath, which oath the said collector is hereby required to administer:—

"I, A. B., do swear that the account which I have now rendered and subscribed, contains a just and true account of all the rum, brandy, gin or whisky distilled by me (or if entry be made by foreman or servant, for any person or persons, since the day of last past), and also that the substances from which the same have been extracted or manufactured, are truly mentioned and stated in the said account. So help me God."

XVIII. And the said owner, master or servant, after taking and subscribing the before mentioned oath, shall forthwith pay, or secure unto the said collector of impost and excise the amount of duty imposed and due on such liquor so manufactured as aforesaid during the two months then last past, the same to be paid or secured as directed by this Act, in the case of liquors or other goods and merchandise imported into this Island.

XIX. If any person shall neglect or refuse to make such return, or shall make a false return of the quantity of spirituous liquors so manufactured or distilled by him, or of the substances from which the same have been manufactured, or shall refuse to pay or secure the amount of duties on such liquors, such person shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds, and shall likewise forfeit the license to manufacture or distil, so granted to him as aforesaid, and no license shall or may be granted to any person whomsoever, to manufacture or distil in the distillery of any person whose license shall be so forfeited and cancelled, for the period of six months next after the same shall have been so cancelled.

XX. For the better detecting persons distilling, extracting, or manufacturing spirituous liquors without license, as aforesaid, and also the better to enable the officers of the revenue collecting the duties imposed by this or any other Act of the Legislature on the distillation, extraction, manufacturing, or importation of such spirituous liquors, or other dutiable articles, it shall be lawful for any collector of impost, controller of the navigation laws, preventive officer, or other person appointed for collecting, securing, or protecting the revenue, and he is hereby authorised to enter into and upon all houses or other buildings and premises wherein he may have suspicion, and of the sufficiency of such suspicion the officer shall be the sole judge, that spirituous liquors may have lately been or are being distilled, extracted, or manufactured without license, or without the duties imposed by this, or any other Act, having been paid or secured therefor, or wherein he may suspect any goods, articles, or spirituous liquors liable to duty under this Act, or any other Act of the Legislature of this Island, and illegally manufactured, distilled, or extracted, imported or landed, are, and if, on investigation, he shall find such to have been, or to be the case, he shall, and he is hereby authorised and required, to seize and carry away the same and sell the same at public auction, within fifteen days after such seizure, unless the owner of the spirits or other dutiable articles, shall prove, to the satisfaction of the officer making seizure, that no breach of this, or any other Act in force relating to the importing, distilling, extracting, or manufacturing of spirituous liquors, has been made, or that the duties payable in respect thereof, have been paid, and the officer making the seizure shall be entitled to the same proportion of the amount of the sale as in the fifty-fourth section of the Act of the nineteenth Victoria, chapter one, is awarded to preventive officers and landwaiters making seizure, and a similar amount to that also pointed out in the said section of the said last recited Act, shall be paid into the treasury of this Island for the use of Her Majesty's Government.

XXI. Any distiller, or his agent or servant, or other person, who shall be convicted of having wilfully and fraudulently made a return short of the real quantity of liquor made by him, or shall make a false return of the substances from which the same has been made, or who shall be convicted of having refused to account for or pay, or secure the duties at the times prescribed by law, or who shall have delayed his return or payment, or security therefor, for more than ten days after the expiration of the two months from the day wherein he last accounted, shall, on conviction thereof, over and above the aforesaid penalty, be held not entitled to distil for six months from and after the day of such conviction, under the penalty of five pounds for each and every day he or those employed by him shall so distil after such conviction.

XXII. The treasurer shall publish a list of the persons licensed to distil spirituous liquors in the Royal Gazette newspaper, once in each and every month, instead of quarterly, as prescribed in and by the sixty-fifth section of the hereinbefore recited Act of nineteenth Victoria, chapter one.

XXIII. Any person or persons who shall, after the passing of this Act, give to any collector of excise, or preventive officer, or to any justice of the peace in this island, information of any unlicensed distillation being carried on within this Island, or of any spirituous liquors which have not paid the duties imposed upon the same by the laws of this Island, and which shall be liable to seizure, such person or persons shall, on the conviction of the parties so carrying on unlicensed distillation, or on the condemnation and sale of any such spirituous liquors, which shall have been seized in consequence of the non-payment of the duties payable thereon, be entitled to receive the half of the fine which shall be imposed on any such distiller, or one half of the proceeds of any spirituous liquors which may be condemned and sold as aforesaid.

XXIV. From and after the passing of this Act, instead of the credit mentioned in the seventy-eighth section of the said recited Act of the nineteenth Victoria, chapter one, to be given for duties on goods, wares, and merchandise to the importer thereof, as therein mentioned, the following terms of credit for duties shall be given—that is to say: If the said duties shall exceed the sum of ten pounds and not amount to more than thirty pounds, a credit of three months shall be given therefor, and if the said duties shall exceed thirty pounds, a credit of six months shall be given for the payment thereof; and no longer time than six months shall, in any case, be given, and all bonds and recognizances hereafter to be entered into for securing the payment of duties on goods, wares, and merchandise of any kind whatsoever, shall bear interest on the amount thereof at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum, and such interest shall be computed and paid and payable from the day of the date of such bond or recognizance until the payment thereof; provided always, that nothing in this or any other Act contained shall be held or construed to entitle or give any person or persons any right or claim to a longer term of credit, for the amount of any bond or recognizance than the time therein mentioned for the payment thereof.

XXV. The warrant of attorney by law required to be taken by the Collector of Impost, in addition to the recognizance directed to be entered into as security for the payment of duties of impost and excise, shall, as well as the defeasance thereon to be endorsed, be in form of the schedule to this Act annexed, marked (B) or in such other form as the Lieutenant-Governor, or the present or other administrator of the Government for the time being, in Council, may from time to time direct.

XXVI. It shall be competent and lawful for any of Her Majesty's Queen's Counsel in this Island, when called upon so to do, in the absence or in the event of the incapacity from illness of the Attorney or Solicitor General, or when either of those offices shall be vacant, to sign all necessary declarations, pleas, bail pieces, and other papers required to be signed, in order to enter up judgment in Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, on any warrant of attorney heretofore taken by collectors of impost and excise, in addition to the recognizance by law directed to be taken as a security for the payment of duties of impost and excise, notwithstanding that such warrant of attorney shall be directed to the Attorney and Solicitor General only; also to issue execution on the same, to take all necessary steps to perfect execution, and to acknowledge satisfaction under any such circumstances as aforesaid, when payment has been recovered or received.

XXVII. All warrants of attorney which have heretofore been taken by collectors of impost and excise, in addition to the recognizance by law directed to be taken as security for payment of the duties of impost and excise, shall, notwithstanding that the same shall not, in all cases, be found to have been strictly taken in accordance with the directions contained in the statutes in force respecting the same, or the taking or form of such warrants of attorney, be held and deemed to be good and valid, and to be sufficient to enable and authorise judgment to be entered up thereon in Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, as of the term of the said Supreme Court in Queen's County, next preceding the date of entering up judgment or otherwise, as the case may be, and execution to be issued thereon for the recovery of the amount purporting to be secured thereby and by the recognizance taken at the same time therewith.

Attention to the following remarks by those who are in the habit of sending money by mail is strongly recommended:—

Registration is applicable to all description of letters and parcels, whether they contain articles of value or not. Registration is not an absolute guarantee against the miscarriage or loss of a letter; but a registered letter can be traced when one unregistered cannot, and the posting and delivery or non-delivery can be proven. A registered letter is thus secured against many of the casualties which, from incorrect address, forgetfulness of the receiver, or other error, may affect an unregistered letter against actual dishonesty on the part of the post-office employees. A registered letter is incomparably more secure than an unregistered one. An unregistered letter leaves no trace behind it, whilst passing in the great stream of ordinary correspondence, though its presence as a money letter, and the nature of its contents, are, to any person accustomed to handle letters, as manifest as though the letter had been singled out and marked by the registered stamp. If the consequences were limited to the mere risk of the loss of the money so sent, the senders of money in unregistered letters might reasonably urge, that if they choose to encounter the risk, they are free to do so; but higher considerations are involved, and the chance of loss to the

PAPER COLLAR MANUFACTORY,

CANTERBURY STREET,

ST JOHN, N.B.

THE attention of the Trade is directed to the COLLARS, CUFFS and BOSOMS made at this Factory. The Patterns which have attained a standard character are, in turn-downs, the

and in stand-ups, the

JULIAN AND PRINCE ARTHUR.

The superiority of the COLLARS made at the Paper Collar Manufactory over all others consists in—

A clear space for Tie without injury or stretching.
Every Collar can be buttoned without damage to the edges or points.
They fit the neck perfectly.
They are made of waterproof material.
They are finished without the aid of poisonous pigments.
The facing looks like LINEN and not like coarse COTTON.
Perspiration marks can be sponged off without detriment to the surface.
They are made in styles that can be obtained nowhere else.
They are perfectly white, and never change their color.
They are as soft as silk.
They cost as little as others that possess none of these advantages.

For these reasons, those who wear them once lose all desire to try any other make, and will be satisfied with nothing else.

☞ Beware of spurious imitations. All Collars made at the Factory have our TRADE MARK on the band. Be sure and get the right article.
