the report printed in the United States that the Aquitania has been commandeered for war service.

LONDON, July 30.—Applications for passports at the foreign office this week have exceeded all records.

LONDON, July 30.—The transfer of troops from Ireland to England was begun. The Cornwall Regiment left Newry tonight.

LONDON, July 30.—The Daily Mail's Semlin correspondent, an eye-witness to the shelling of Belgrade by the Austrians, says in a dispatch that only three piers of the Semlin-Belgrade bridge on the Austrian side of the river now remain. He adds that the Serbian fire was ineffective. Beautiful weather, he says, prevails.

BERNE, July 30.—The Swiss Government has authorized the issuance of 20-franc notes of the international situation.

ODESSA, July 30.—The bourse has been closed for three days. The greatest activity prevails in the corn market.

LONDON, July 31.—War risk insurance reached almost panic rates in London yesterday. Twenty shillings per cent was paid on specie from the United States on the liners Oceanic, St. Louis and Bluecher.

BERLIN, July 30.—State railroad employees, armed with rifles and ball cartridges, were placed on duty today at all the railroad bridges throughout Germany.

LONDON, July 31.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times fears that there is little to be hoped from Sir Edward Grey's latest mediation proposals, and declares that the question of peace or war is to be decided within a few hours.

RUSSIAN TROOPS READY FOR WAR

Mobilization Declared by Correspondent To Be General and Absolute.

LONDON, July 31.—The Chronicle's St. Petersburg correspondent declares that though described as only partial, the Russian mobilization in effect is general and absolute, and that the sailors of the Baltic and Black Sea fleets have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for immediate service. The Morning Post, in an editorial, follows the lead of the Times in declaring that Great Britain must, if needful, take up arms to prevent Germany from crushing France.

EUROPE'S FATE IN HANDS OF GERMAN EMPEROR

LONDON, July 30.—[Canadian Press.] With the exception of official reports from Vienna, given in the briefest form and thus far dealing with the bombardment of Belgrade and the capture of several Serbian vessels on the Danube, little reliable news has been received in London concerning the course of hostilities.

Numerous reports are current that battles are in progress at various points, including one from Milan tonight that a heavy engagement is raging south of Belgrade, but according to Serbian official accounts all attempts on the part of the Austrians to cross the river have been repulsed, and the reports of the occupation of Belgrade are considered premature.

Little Hope of Negotiations. While the news of the actual developments in the Austro-Serbian war is unsatisfactory the general situation is one of growing menace. There is a vague report that Austria and Russia are still engaged in diplomatic negotiations through the medium of Berlin, diplomatic intercourse between these two countries having been suspended, but slender hopes are entertained of success in this direction.

Germany has addressed a note to Russia requiring an explanation of Russia's mobilization, and in the reply it is feared Germany may take steps of a belligerent nature. It is understood that on the failure of his confabulation scheme Sir Edward Grey invited Germany to suggest some way out of the difficulty, and all eyes are now turned to the German Emperor as the man upon whom Europe's fate depends.

Kaiser Can Bring Peace. It is believed that if the German Emperor desires it, peace will be maintained. The German view is that it behoves Great Britain and France to bring pressure to bear upon Russia to allow the two principals to settle their differences without outside interference. In the meantime every nation in Europe is taking active steps to be prepared for any eventualities.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Vienna, who is often the mouthpiece of the Austrian Government, says that Sir Edward Grey's mediation proposal must not have the object of modifying the peace terms agreed upon by the belligerents.

Austria Is Determined. "The Austro-Serbian conflict in all its phases from the wording of the note to the ratification of a peace treaty," he says, "is deemed to be a matter which concerns those states alone, just as Count Von Aehrenthal (the late Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs) refused firmly to discuss the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina with any power but Turkey, and accepted the suggestion to come to a conference only on the express condition that this question should be eliminated from the list of topics to be dealt with."

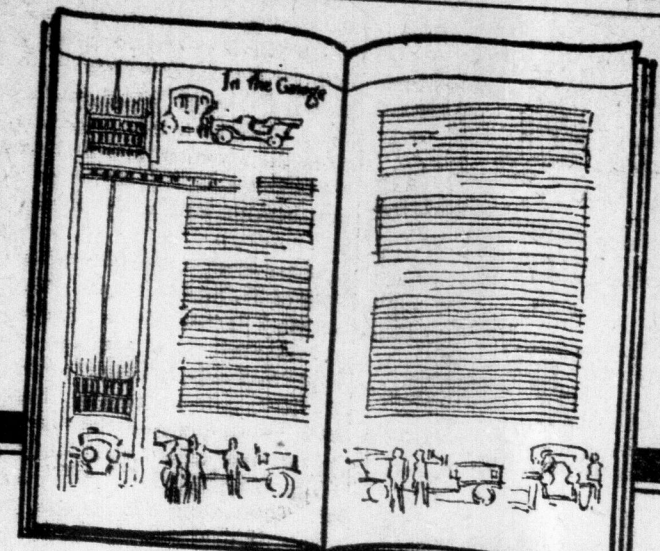

"So will Count Von Berchtold decline to admit any interference between Austria and Serbia when the conditions of peace are being settled, signed and ratified."

If this correspondent's statement represents the Austrian policy, as probably it does, war with Russia appears to be inevitable.

SUSPENSION ANNOUNCED OF COTTON BROKERS

New York, July 31.—The suspension of H. S. P. & Co., cotton stock brokers, was announced on the floor of the Cotton Exchange today. The suspension of the cotton brokerage firms of F. J. Frederickson & Co. and Homer Howe & Co., both small concerns, was announced. The market was unaffected by the announcement.

THE MOBILIZATION PLANS

Mines To Be Laid in St. Lawrence Ports if England Is Involved.

OTTAWA, July 30.—As a consequence of a message from the British War Office an emergency meeting of the Canadian Militia Council was held today. Minister of Militia Hughes made a hurried trip to Ottawa to preside. Should England become actively engaged with France and Russia against Germany, Austria and Italy, Canada will offer aid to the motherland.

Parliament will be called to meet in special session, and from twenty to thirty thousand men will be enrolled, formed into regiments, and sent across the Atlantic to serve with England's army in Europe. The Canadian headquarters staff has plans prepared for mobilization, and calculate that ten battalions, each of a thousand men, can be raised, armed and put on transports within three weeks.

25,000 Trained Men. Hon. Col. Hughes states that Canada will be able to forward 25,000 armed and trained men within two weeks. Canada has an active militia enrollment of 80,000, and a reserve of half a million men, who have had militia training. No difficulty is anticipated in obtaining 25,000 volunteers for service abroad.

The first Canadian contingent of 20,000 men will probably be commanded by Col. Hughes, the minister of militia, who had considerable experience on active service in South Africa, where

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Cairncross & Lawrence under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Canada sent 8,000 men to the aid of British arms against the Boers.

Premier To Shorten Tour. Col. Hughes left tonight for Bracebridge to address a political meeting. He will return to Ottawa again immediately. Premier Borden is also expected to cut short his holiday and return to the capital that he may be in close touch with the British Government during this anxious time.

It is understood that the defense of Canadian cities against the attacks of raiding cruisers has been considered and that while Halifax is considered impregnable, the lack of defenses at Quebec and St. John occasions anxiety. It is understood that the St. Lawrence and Bay of Fundy ports will be mined should England become involved.

Niobe as a Scout. Steps will also be taken to put the cruiser Niobe into commission for service. The boat is now tied up at Halifax, without a crew. While it would be difficult at this juncture to obtain trained men to man the guns on the cruiser, there would be no difficulty in getting men to run her as a scouting vessel. The Niobe will be put into dry dock at Halifax and cleaned by way of preparation.

Rainbow in Readiness. VANCOUVER, B. C., July 30.—It is reported here today that the summer cruise of the D. G. C. Rainbow, in Behring Sea, has been postponed, in view of the threatening war situation.

With 200 of the crew on board, composed chiefly of regular service men from England, and from the crew of the cruiser Niobe, with a party of 50 naval volunteers from Vancouver and Victoria, the Rainbow is now waiting, with steam up, in Esquimaux harbor.

A week ago she was in Vancouver attending to the case of the Hindu steamer, Komagata Maru.

DAILY PAGE FOR ADVERTISER WOMAN READERS

MEN, WOMEN AND MONEY

Every man and woman has his or her little pet extravagance (says an American writer). But there are usually a good many points in favor of woman's economy in the long run. She usually spends more money than she does.

Two causes particularly tend to prevent women from being extravagant. In the first place, both Nature and training give women the idea of taking care of things—a strong point leading to economy. In the second place, women are not usually well off in respect to the position which they are trying to uphold. Consequently they are obliged to think a good deal about spending what they do to the best advantage. This is true of the very rich as of the very poor.

There is hardly a woman in existence who is not constantly striving to reach a higher plane of social life. To this end she must study how to get the most out of every shilling she can command. To do this she must have good habits, and a greater amount of common sense.

Women are accustomed to a daily handling of matters of detail which teaches them the exact price of things; and even when induced to make some little unnecessary expenditure, they usually manage to get the most for their money.

Penny Wise.

On the other hand, some women are as the old English saying has it, "Penny wise and pound foolish." Witness this fact on a pouring wet day. A woman will gather her skirts about her and stand in the wet, entirely ruining a best dress, when a man will hail a cab, and reach his destination in half the time; but the very next night he will spoil our good opinion of him by staying in town when caused by an engagement too late to go home and expending his earnings on a handsome dinner; when a woman in such circumstances would content herself with a cup of tea and a sandwich, and be several shillings ahead.

Habits of carefulness arise in women from the fact that for generations men have gone to the wars, and women have had to make do with what they have lawfully earned, while women have for the same generations been obliged to get along on the mere pittance doled out to them. Of course, we are changing all this, but the fact, nevertheless, remains that woman's extravagance is yet in its infancy.

An Auction Sale.

Dear Miss Grey.—We want some funny articles for auctioning off at a party. Could you suggest any? The idea is to have them labelled some high-sounding name and the inside of the parcel to be a joke. If you could name ten or twelve it would be a big help.

ARBITUS.

Ans.—Here is a list that may help you a little.

1. A masterpiece — "Whistler" (a whistle).
2. Study of a head — (a cabbage).
3. Glove press — (a small fashion).
4. Souvenir from Ireland — (Irish potato).
5. Relic from Japan — (a wrecked Japanese parasol).
6. Patent skirt lifter — (chocolate mouse).
7. A pennyworth of comfort — (a clay pipe).
8. A woman's weapon — (hatpin).
9. A marble bust — (broken marble).
10. A reminder of a needy friend — (sponge).
11. Emblems of justice — (scales).
12. Tear extractor — (onion).
13. The nomenclator — (tooth bath tub).
14. Educators in profanity — (hammer and collar button).
15. A pair of nippers — (two clothes pins).
16. Ode to a sitting hen — (china nest egg).
17. A perfect foot — (a foot rule).
18. Maid of Orleans — (stick of candy molasses).
19. An instrument of torture — (toy cornet or banjo).

RECIPES FOR NEVA.

Dear Miss Grey.—Please give me a recipe for oatmeal cookies, also spiced currants. I will be very grateful to see these in your column.

Oatmeal Cookies.—Beat one egg light, add a quarter cup each of sugar, milk and thin cream; then add half a cup of fine oatmeal, two cups of flour, two teaspoons baking powder, and one teaspoon salt, mixed and sifted. Toss on a floured board, roll, cut out, and bake in a moderate oven.

Spiced Currants.—Wash and drain the currants and remove them from the stems. Weigh them and use in the proportion of one part currants to two-thirds part brown sugar and one-eighth part vinegar. Put all in a preserving kettle, add ground cloves and cinnamon, tied in a bag, using in the proportion of one tablespoon spice to each two pounds of fruit. Cook slowly for about an hour and a half. These spiced currants should be stored in a stone jar in a cool place.

BLEACHING PINK HOSE.

Dear Miss Grey.—Since you are so patient with inquiries, I guess I will trouble you.

1. I have a pair of pink lace hose (cotton) that I would like to make white. Can you help me out?
2. Can you tell me if there is a sequel to the book "Christie's Christmas," written by Pansy. If so can you give me the title?

Hoping I have not bothered you too much and wishing you a very pleasant vacation, I am,

Ans.—1. Make a chloride solution of one tablespoon chloride of lime to a basin well filled with water; drain off the liquid and soak the stockings for half an hour; then put over the fire with a little soap shaved fine and enough water to cover well. Boil for an hour, rinse through two or three waters and then hang in the sun to bleach out.

2. Do any of your younger readers know if there is a sequel? I must confess ignorance on the subject. Thanks for words of the song.

The Horoscope

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1914.

Good influences dominate today, according to the reading of astrology, for both the sun and Uranus are in beneficent aspect.

There is a fortunate sign for railways and all connected with them. Journeys are likely to be attended with pleasant experiences. The outlook for business relating to freight is said to be most encouraging.

Inventors are subject to a helpful relief during this aspect, which is believed to increase originality and resourcefulness.

As Uranus is supposed to produce fondness for the society of persons of opposite sex, the government today is read as especially favorable for romance and love affairs. Summer resorts and week-end parties are said to be under influence tending to sudden infatuations.

Owing to the sway of Uranus the seeds declare that interest in all psychic subjects will be quickened and discoveries of great moment will be recorded, they declare.

This is a day that should bring success to those who make public announcements of big plans. Political declarations are said to be "in the air." There is a prophecy that a leader of a political party will expose a national scandal within 60 days.

The rule is an auspicious one for seeking new positions or making requests for promotion in any line of employment.

The month of August is declared by astrologers to be an exceedingly evil time for the King of Spain.

Toward the end of the month trouble in Bengal is foreshadowed. The victory of India is warned of personal danger.

The elevation of Mars above the sun and other celestial bodies at the time of the new moon in Constellation is interpreted as a menace to the life or the power of the Sultan of Turkey.

Toward the end of the month there is a lucky omen for the year. There is an augury of change, which will be beneficial. The influences are particularly good for those born in 1856, '60, '64, '65, '68 or '84.

Children born on this day have the prognostication of happiness and success. Boys may meet with such opposition if they establish themselves independently in business or in a profession, but the omen is fortunate for places as employees. Girls may be inclined to marry too young.

OLD SONGS AND POEMS

Annie's Tryst.

[Requested.]

Your hand is cold as snail, Annie,
For cheek is wan and white,
What's aye ye tremble for, Annie,
What's aye ye e'en see bright?
The snail is on the ground, Wullie,
The frost is cold and keen,
But there's a burnin' fire, Wullie,
Say will ye tryst me then?
The spring will come again, Annie,
An' chase the wintry showers,
An' ye an' I will walk, Annie,
Among the summer flowers,
When a' the snail is gone,
But my heart misgives me, Annie,
Oh, will ye tryst me then?
I'll meet ye by the burn, Annie,
That whistles doon the glen?
I da' na' tryst ye here, Wullie,
But we'll ha' o'er tryst in heaven,
Wullie
In the springtime of the year,
SENT BY "ELSPETH"

OUR FOLKS' CORNER

If there is one class of individual who, more than another, is, we think, deserving of our heartfelt sympathy, it is the woman unfortunate enough to have caught a cold during this summer weather.

COLD

It is perfectly bad enough to have to endure a red nose, watery eyes, and raspy throat—all accompaniments of a "bad" cold, but to have to receive the condolences, commiserations and recommended remedies of your friends, one and all, is, to use the vernacular, "the limit."

We can speak from the bitter depths of a personal experience. It is so comforting and pleasant to enter a roomful of people and be greeted with: "Oh, have you a cold?" from all sides, when you are only too well aware that your poor proboscis is shining like a beacon light and the cold sore on your upper lip is assuming the proportions of a walnut. Of course you have a cold; isn't it plain enough without having the fact rubbed in? Your very voice betrays you raspy and stuffy and so thick that you scarcely recognize it! Yet on the street, in the bar, down at the office, anywhere and everywhere that your walk in life leads you the question is the same, "Oh, have you a cold?"

"Still more soothing is it when, after you have retired into a quiet corner of a room, there to 'mop up' with a 'handkerchief' sufficiently large to be of real use, to hear snatched remarks like this just on the other side of the arch: "Here's another of her fearful colds!" "Looks very bad!" "She's weak lungs in her family!" "She should take care," and so on.

Then there are the interminable people who never fail to offer remedies for colds. Their names are almost legion. A thousand times a fool! "How long ago did this happen?" "Ten years this coming April." "And now, after all this time, you want to go cold?"

"I have wished to go back many times, but never had money enough. I can't afford to go now. Oh, I made it home!" "Smiling in oil, at home. Here's a cutting from a Rangoon paper."

The other read it carefully. It was romance, romance such as he liked to read in his books, but which was mighty bewildering to have at his elbow in actuality. What a life the man must have led! And here he was, with no more evidence of his conflict than might be discerned in the maleness of his face and the breadth and depth of his shoulders. He dropped the cutting, impatiently.

"Don't you believe it?"

"Believe it? Oh, this? Yes," answered the consul-general. "What I cannot believe is that I am awake. I cannot quite make two and two equal four."

"That infernal!" Well, you do not look like a man who would rob his employer of eight thousand dollars.

"Parrot & Co. It's odd, but I recollect that title. You were at Udaipur during the plague."

"Warrington brightened. 'So that's gone about,' happened."

"If you keep on throwing stones at me, I'll turn the bears on you and they'll eat you up." And they did, and he did, and the bears did.

It's a Bird

Harold MacGrath's New Story Parrot & Co.

Copyright, The Robb-Merrill Company.

"My first and only misstep. I was a careless, happy-go-lucky young fellow. The sky outside also had attraction for Warrington. A thousand times a fool!"

"How long ago did this happen?"

"Ten years this coming April."

"And now, after all this time, you want to go cold?"

"I have wished to go back many times, but never had money enough. I can't afford to go now. Oh, I made it home!"

"Smiling in oil, at home. Here's a cutting from a Rangoon paper."

The other read it carefully. It was romance, romance such as he liked to read in his books, but which was mighty bewildering to have at his elbow in actuality. What a life the man must have led! And here he was, with no more evidence of his conflict than might be discerned in the maleness of his face and the breadth and depth of his shoulders. He dropped the cutting, impatiently.

"Don't you believe it?"

"Believe it? Oh, this? Yes," answered the consul-general. "What I cannot believe is that I am awake. I cannot quite make two and two equal four."

"That infernal!" Well, you do not look like a man who would rob his employer of eight thousand dollars.

"Parrot & Co. It's odd, but I recollect that title. You were at Udaipur during the plague."

"Warrington brightened. 'So that's gone about,' happened."

"If you keep on throwing stones at me, I'll turn the bears on you and they'll eat you up." And they did, and he did, and the bears did.

THE NOMAD.

Mrs. Agnes Hovener Timme, owner of the Milwaukee Baseball Club, is said to be studying for grand opera.

To remove a rusty screw, first apply a very hot iron to the head for a short time, then immediately use the screw-driver.

"There's not much venter to him. He fooled me unintentionally. He was quite evidently born a gentleman, of a race of gentlemen. His is not an isolated case. One misstep and the road to the devil."

The consul-general's wife sent a startled glance at Elsa, who spun her sunshade to lighten the tension of her nerves.

"He confessed frankly to me this morning that he is a fugitive from justice. He wishes to return to America. He recounted the circumstances of your meeting. To me the story appeared truthful enough. He said that you sought the introduction because of his amazing likeness to the man you are going home to marry."

"That is true," replied Elsa. "Uncle Jim, I have travelled pretty much over this world, and I never met a gentleman if Warrington is not one. There was unconscious beligerence in her tone."

"Ah, there's the difficulty which a woman will never be made to understand. Every man can, at one time or another, put himself up his good behavior. Underneath he may be a fine rascal."

"Not this one," smiling. "He warned me against himself a dozen times, but that served to make me stubborn. The fault of my conduct," added, "was not in making this parrot's acquaintance. It lies in the fact that I had nothing to do with the other passengers, from the moment that I was introduced to you. But why should I put myself out to gain the good wishes of people for whom I have no liking, people I shall probably never see again when I leave this port?"

"You forget that some of them will be your fellow-passengers all the way to San Francisco. Now, if you think as well as I do that there are some laws which the Archangel Michael would have to obey did he wish to inhabit this earth for a while."

"Poor Michael! And if you do not obey these laws, people talk."

"Exactly. There are two sets of man-made laws. One governs the conduct of men and the other the conduct of women."

"And a man may break any one of these laws, twist it, rearrange it to suit his immediate needs. On the other hand, the woman is always manacled."

"Precisely."

"I consider it horribly unfair."

"So it is. But if you wish to live in peace, you must submit."

"I notice that that principle I have no wish for. This man Mallow lives within the pale of the law; the other man is outside of it. Yet, of the two, which would you be quickest to trust?"

"The consul-general laughed. 'Now you are appealing not to my knowledge of the world, but to my instinct.'"

"Thanks."

"I have seen Mallow dozens of times. I know him to be a scoundrel of sorts, but I doubt if bald sunlight could make him blink. Lars have first to overcome the flickering and wavering of the eyes."

"He said that."

"Who, Warrington?" puzzled.

Racing Is Popular in Western Ontario

That the harness racing game is growing in popularity throughout Western Ontario is becoming more and more apparent. Striking evidence of this was afforded last night, when The Advertiser editorial rooms were besieged for a goodly portion of the evening with telephone calls from many points throughout the district, as to the day's results of the Grand Circuit racing now on in Detroit. In addition to numerous calls from the city, inquiries were made by racing enthusiasts in Woodstock, Stratford, Ingersoll, Listowel, Seaforth, Aylmer, St. Thomas, Lucan, Glencoe, and other points.

Summer Pastime Installment No. 40

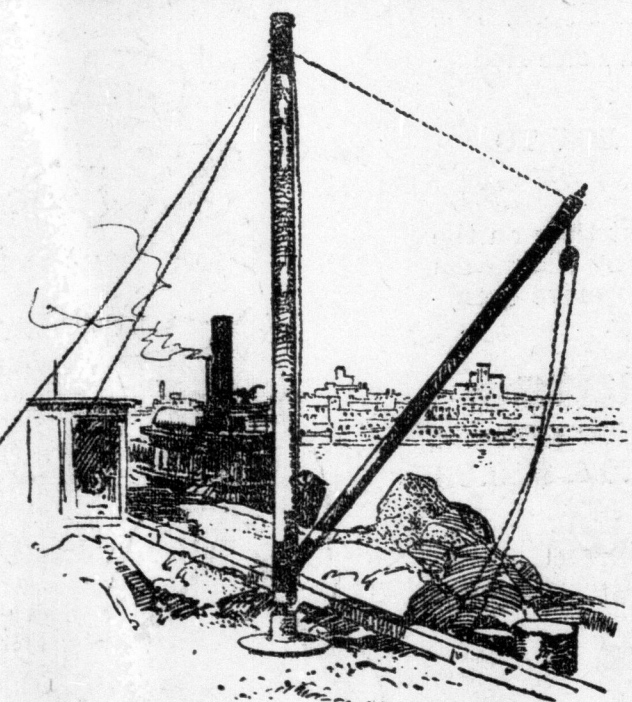

What CAN It Be?

No, this picture is NOT a mistake. It really DOES represent a name. Players of baseball, football, etc., certainly possess queer names, sometimes. And sometimes the names are ordinary.

We know a way for you to help yourself to win. Buy the Summer Pastime Handbook. Price 25 cents. The Handbook can also be had free, upon presentation of new six months' paid-in-advance subscription to The London Advertiser.

Twenty-five cents represents a pretty good investment, when compared with the valuable aid the Handbook constitutes towards earning one of our 85 cash prizes.

LASSIE M'GREGOR DRIVEN BY MURPHY WON M & M STAKE

Free-for-All Pace Went to Flower Direct After Five Heats — Hal B. Junior's Sully Was Smashed and McEwen Thrown in a Mix-Up.

DETROIT, July 30.—Lassie McGregor, owned by Henry Oliver, of Pittsburgh, and splendidly driven by Tommy Murphy today won the seventh and deciding heat of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Stake, which was carried over from yesterday, after six heats had been run off. Linda Wrona was left far outside the flag, and so failed to get any part of the prize, in spite of her great performance of yesterday, when, in winning the second heat, she set a new mark of 2:09 1/4 for the stake. While the decision of the M. & M. held the centre of interest, the Free-for-All pace, won in five heats by Flower Direct, turned the sensation of the day's Grand Circuit program. In the first heat of this race, Directum led for half a mile, then Earl Jr. rushed around the field into first, bunching up as they reached the three-quarters. Earl Jr. broke, and swerved in front of his field. There was a bad mix-up. Cox was thrown from his seat, his horse, Del Rey, running away. A tire was torn from Earl Jr.'s sulky, while Hal B. Jr.'s machine was smashed. Del Rey stopped after passing the stand, and no horse or driver was injured. Directum I. won the heat, and Hal B. Jr., who was led in the second heat, led all the way in the second heat, but Flower Direct took the next three, after a keen racing and whipping finish.

With the Trotters and Pacers

Today is getaway day at Detroit.

The Blue Ribbon meet in the City of the Straits was the most successful held since the members of the Detroit Club entered the grand circuit.

A number of the Canadian racing stables are shipping to the American half-mile tracks.

Any horseman who has a fast one is foolish not to pay the fee at the nearest track meeting and put a standard mark on it.

No less than five of the new 2:10 trotters carry the blood of McKinney. 2:11 1/4, Belwin (4), 2:06 1/4, is a son of McKinney, who, in turn, is a son of McKinney, who, in turn, is a son of McKinney. 2:08 1/4, Esperanza, 2:09, and Virginia

Barnette (3), 2:10, have one cross each of his blood, and Alarich, 2:09, has two crosses of it.

In the Ohio Fair Circuit entries will close as follows: Carthage (August 12 to 15), August 7, with D. L. Sampson, secretary, Room 30, Wiggins Block, Cincinnati, O.; Pikeon (August 12 to 14), August 8, with S. S. Daly, secretary, Pikeon, O.; Zanesville (August 11 to 14), August 8, with E. Y. White, secretary, Zanesville, O.; Urbana (August 11 to 14), August 7, with J. W. Crowl, secretary, Urbana, O.

August 8 is closing date for the six $40 purses for open classes for the Albany County Fair meeting at Altamont, August 18 to 21. Willard Pink, Altamont, is secretary, and will gladly send entry blanks to all applicants.

TIGERS BEAT SENATORS AFTER POLICE RESERVES WERE CALLED

One of the Most Disorderly Scenes Ever Enacted Took Place in Detroit Ball Yard—Police Were Summoned to Stop a Riot, Spectators vs. Players.

DETROIT, July 30.—One of the most disorderly scenes ever witnessed on the local ball field was enacted during the ninth inning of today's game between Washington and Detroit, which the home club won 3 to 2 in the tenth inning. The riot started when Morgan was called out at first by Umpire Sheridan. In recovering himself from a slide he started toward the umpire. Sheridan struck Morgan, and several Washington players joined in the argument. Catcher Alsmith is said to have then struck Sheridan, who was being held by several players from both teams. Sheridan ordered Alsmith and Morgan off the field, and as the two players were passing the grandstand, a spectator said something which Alsmith resented. He jumped into the stand, and blows were exchanged. Catcher Henry attempted to pull Alsmith from the stand, and a chair thrown by spectator struck Henry on the head. The crowd from the bleachers and grandstand then rushed onto the field and across to the scene of the row. Police reserves had been hurriedly summoned. They took charge of the situation, and after considerable difficulty succeeded in driving the crowd back into the seats, and play was resumed.

Coveleskie was invincible after the first inning and struck out eleven men in the second, and was carried off the field with the bases filled, allowed the winning run to be scored. Score:

DEFENCE MEASURES
TAKEN IN NOVA SCOTIA

[Canadian Press.]

HALIFAX, N. S., July 30. — Preparations for the defence of strategic positions in Nova Scotia against raiding forces were in progress all day.

Four hundred men of the Royal Canadian Artillery manned the outer fortifications of the defences. The Royal Canadian Infantry, which were at the Aldershot instruction camp, one hundred miles away, were ordered back, and are due tonight. A detail of one hundred and twenty-five infantrymen leaves early in the morning for Canso to protect the Hazel Hill cable station.

Another party of one hundred and fifty leaves for Cape Breton to guard the cable station and collieries there.

Fear Austrian Residents.

There are about three thousand Austrians in Cape Breton, who are working in the industries there, and the authorities anticipate possible trouble from this source. It is generally expected that the three city militia regiments will be ordered out on duty tomorrow for test purposes.

In the scheme of defence for the Halifax fortresses the city artillery regiment man the main torpedo batteries in several of the smaller forts, while the heavy guns in the out-forts are manned by the regulars.

Expect a Muster.

The Sixty-Third Rifles and the Sixty-Sixth Fusiliers also have stations assigned them in the general defence plan, and while the headquarters office will say nothing of the plans, the artillery corps expect a muster for the purpose of seeing how quickly the city regiments can get on duty.

Details of army service corps, ordnance corps and medical corps are to accompany the detachments to Canso and Cape Breton.

The Canso detachment of the R. C. R., in charge of Capt. Langford, leaves by the Dominion Government steamer Stanley at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The detachment from Sydney, in charge of Capt. Costin, leaves by train at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning.

No Word at Sydney.

SYDNEY, July 30. — The officer commanding the artillery here has heard nothing regarding calling out the battery, but understands that military surveys are coming here to go over the ground, with a view to eventualities.

BELGRADE HAS FALLEN
AUSTRIANS MARCHING TO CENTRE OF SERBIA

Attacking Forces Said To Have Crossed the Danube at Two Points—Losses On Sides Reported Light.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, July 30.—A Semlin dispatch to the Standard says: "The Austrians crossed the Danube 30 miles to the east of Belgrade and the Save River, ten miles to the south. Belgrade has been captured and is now occupied by Austrian troops, and the force which invaded Serbia at Semlin is advancing along the roads which lead to Osiponica and ultimately to Nisich."

"The occupation of Belgrade was carried out without serious difficulty. The invading troops crossed the river, partly by means of the remnants of the railway bridge, which was blown up by the Serbians, and partly by a pontoon bridge constructed under its cover, and approached the Serbian capital from the south. The attacking forces advanced by a steep hill, driving the Serbians before them. The Serbians retreated partly by the road leading to Grocka, and partly towards Popovica. The losses on both sides appeared to have been comparatively light."

"The invasion of Serbia at Semlin was a much more difficult task. The Austrians built a pontoon bridge under the cover of darkness, from an island in the middle of the Danube, where the current is swift, and approached the Serbian capital from the north. The construction of the bridge was a hazardous operation. The work was perceived from the Serbian shore, and the Serbians opened fire. The attacking forces were aided by artillery and infantry along the south shore of the island, and succeeded in completing the bridge over which they passed."

AUSTRIA BECOMES PESSIMISTIC
OVER THE ATTITUDE OF RUSSIA

[Canadian Press.]

VIENNA, July 30.—Opinion concerning Russia's attitude in the Austro-Serbian situation is becoming extremely pessimistic. The feeling of pessimism was strengthened today by the news of Russian preparations which were regarded here as meaning a complete mobilization of the Russian forces. It is well known here that the peace efforts of the European diplomacy will not succeed if Russia considers her long-foisted plans at last ripe for realization.

The only news thus far received from the Serbian side concerns the damage to the Semlin-Belgrade bridge. This bridge was regarded as neutral and its destruction is, therefore, considered a breach of international law.

A semi-official dispatch received here tonight concerning the movements of the Austrian troops says: "The covering line of our troops on the river Drina has been pressed forward to the main arm of the river. There was some fighting during this advance, but not of a serious character. One man on the Austrian side and about ten Serbians were killed. Bands of Serbians vainly attempted to harass the Austrians at Bjelina. Bjelina is in the north corner of Bosnia, between the rivers Save and Drina."

Emperor Francis Joseph's arrival here today from Ischl was the occasion for one of the greatest demonstrations ever witnessed in Vienna. A crowd estimated to number 30,000 had gathered at the station and cheered the Emperor with frenzied loyalty. The Emperor appeared to be in better health than for a long time past and was deeply moved with the warmth of his reception.

Cafes, restaurants and other resorts are now deserted of evenings, and the main streets are filled with singing and cheering processions.

From all parts of the monarchy comes news of old officers and soldiers volunteering for active service.

The volunteers include numbers of men of Bosnian origin, who display patriotism equal to that of the Austrians.

GERMANY'S ACT
INCREASES FLAME.

LONDON, July 30.—Germany's act today in giving Russia a time-limit of 24 hours in which to declare her intentions in connection with the mobilization of her army, added one more danger point to the gravely critical European situation, already sharply acute.

The nervous tension in all the countries of the old world had almost reached its utmost limits when this fresh peril cropped up.

At the same time it was announced that orders had been sent to all the officers and men of the German reserves to hold themselves in readiness. As it had been pointed out a few days ago that Germany would not draw back when she once started, the situation was felt in diplomatic circles to have reached a point where the slightest false move would set millions of armed men in motion.

JAPAN IS READY TO HELP ENGLAND'S CAUSE

TOKIO, July 30.—Japan's attitude on the European crisis may be described as one of watchful waiting. Should Great Britain become involved in the war, and British rights and interests in eastern Asia or India be menaced or attacked, it is said that Japan, in fulfillment of the terms of her alliance with Great Britain, will assist that country. However, if the war is limited to Europe, Japan probably will remain neutral.

Several of the newspapers say the withdrawal of Russia's forces from the far east would afford Japan an opportunity to extend her influence in Asia. A suggestion has been made here that Japan and the United States simultaneously essay mediation in the European crisis.

The first Japanese fleet is lying in Tokyo Bay. The second fleet is engaged in torpedo practice off the coast of Korea.

HAMBURG-AMERICAN
SAILING CANCELLED

Owing to Political Situation,
Imperator Disappoints 800
First Class Passengers.

LONDON, July 31.—The Hamburg-American Steamship Company announced that the sailing of the steamer Imperator from Hamburg today has been cancelled.

The Hamburg-American Company sent notices to the 800 first-class passengers waiting here for the Imperator that the company had been compelled to postpone the sailing of the vessel owing to the uncertainty of the political situation.

The passengers, of whom about 80 per cent are Americans, returning from European trips, have been left by the company to make their own arrangements. The company, however, says the moment the situation clears up the Imperator will sail for New York, and the passengers will be given due notice of the date of her departure.

Put Bovril
in your soup

Skilful cooks know the value of a touch of Bovril. Just a spoonful stirred into the soup or stew, just a little mixed in the gravy will make a wonderful improvement in the dish. You can see the difference in colour, you can taste the difference in flavour, and you know that Bovril makes the dish more nourishing because its body-building power has been proved to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken.

OF ALL STORES, ETC. 1 oz. 25c.; 4 oz. 40c.; 8 oz. 70c.; 16 oz. $1.25. Bovril Cordial. Large, 31.25; 5 oz. 40c.; 10 oz. Johnston's Field Beef (Vimbo), $1.20.
