A Hymn of Hope.

BY DANIEL J. DONAHOE.

Father, Thy little ones' land and sea,
Lift up the mellow song of love to thee
In joy that shall not die for evermore.
Thy mercy is our law, Thy love our light;
We walk in Thy sweet visions day and night,
And chant Thy love with Angela evermore.

Sorrow and sin and evil are of earth;
But thou hast brought Christ, to heavenly birth,
Love's innocency that lives for evermore;
And sorrow, sin and evil, touched by love,
Rise glorifying God, and like a dove
Peace broods o'er all the world for evermore.

Unto Thy name, O God, we bow the knee;
At morn and noon and night we cry to thee;
Thou art our strength and stay forevermore.
With saving hope Thou cheerest every heart;
Let not the beauty of thy light depart,
But be our hope, our trust forevermore.

We are Thy children, Father; let us be
As little children playing at Thy knee,
But strong in bonds of love for evermore;
Let not Thy faith depart from us, O Lord;
Let hope be kindled by Thy flaming word,
And be Thy love our law for evermore.

St. Catharines Well.

In St. Catharines, the Garden City of Canada, eleven miles from Niagara Falls, on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway, is situated the historic "St. Catharines Well," about which is woven many a romantic Indian legend, and whose curative properties are known far and wide throughout North America. The water of this famous Saline Well is considerably denser than sea water, but clear, sparkling and odorless, and is remarkable for its penetrative qualities. These waters are a great specific for such diseases as rheumatism, gout, scrofula, neuralgia, liver trouble, skin disease and cases of nervous prostration, or as a tonic pure and simple. The treatment is conducted on the broadest possible lines, the idea being to assist nature as far as possible. The use of the "waters" is the chief remedial agent, accompanied by static electricity, massage, exercise and rest. All treatment is in charge of house Physician. The baths are in a separate building connected with main building by a glass covered corridor.

Full information descriptive matter, and all particulars may be had on application to G. T. B. H. G. P. & T. A., Grand Trunk Railway System, Montreal, Canada.

"In Chicago," says the Western Watchman, "the striking carriage drivers will not allow as dead to be interred. Heretofore St. Louis, some time ago, unions served notice on physicians and restaurant-keepers that they must not wait on seabs. Unionism, in its worst, has no respect for the dead."

Says the Pittsburg Catholic: "Federic Couderc, the eminent lawyer of international repute, and whose works are standard authority, is recently deceased, was a Catholic in religion. He exemplified in his career that his religion was no bar to advancement or preferment. His abilities were recognized and appreciated, and the honors and emoluments that came to genius properly applied, were his in profuse abundance. He never minimized his Catholic faith. In his practices he was as a docile child, obedient to his Father, true to his Church. God's commandments and his precepts modeled his life. Here is an instructive lesson."

Hoarseness.

Helen Decker, Jordan Ferry, N. S., writes: "A few months ago I had a severe cold in my throat and chest and became quite hoarse. A bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup soon relieved the hoarseness and cured the cold."

There will be portraits of the late and of the present Pope, of the principal officials of the Vatican, and the most distinguished cardinals; a series of photographic enlargements showing St. Peter's and different portions of the Vatican; photographic copies of the most famous decorations of the Vatican, including the Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's; sketches of the catacombs and other famous religious relics and monuments in Rome; a collection of coins issued by various Popes; collections of autographs from the archives and the library; a large selection of the work of the Papal mosaic factory, the most famous in the world; maps and documents relating to missions in the Louisiana Territory; reproductions of the Codex Vaticanus, the oldest copy of the Holy Scriptures in existence, and the most valuable book in the world; reproductions of other unique and precious manuscripts belonging to the Pope, and many other selections from the treasures of the Vatican.

The exhibit will also contain many of the relics of Leo XIII from the Vatican collection, including, among other things, a complete set of several editions of his literary works, and probably the vestiments worn by him, together with a copy of his latest photograph.—Sacred Heart Review.

The Churches in Manila

A priest writes from Manila his impressions of the churches there: "They are numerous and they are not without legitimate pretensions to architectural beauty. They are landmarks and time-worn. In fact they divide the city into districts which in many instances take their name from the title of the parish church. I am in the Santa Cruz quarter and my hotel looks on Santa Cruz Square. I say Mass daily in the Church of Santa Cruz. It is very large. It is very long without being very high. Wasteful may offend the artistic eye on the external lines, is atoned for by the structural features of the interior. It is one vast stretch of arched gloom, or better, of vaulted gloaming. The darkness is visible. It is in fact the dim religious light we look for in ecclesiastical buildings. It is cool and refreshing and inviting. It tempers the fever in the blood, which it moderates the fire of the passions. It sums up man's best of body, as well as to repose of mind. It has many altars. They are decorated more by the faith of the people than by fanciful taste on the part of the worshippers. Several Masses are said therein every morning. None of them are unattended. I gave Communion daily, to at least a score of Filipino women. Now and then a man was distinguishable. No matter how often I entered any of the churches, I noted matter at what hour, I found adoring. The faith shone out. I had sometimes a Filipino boy, sometimes a Filipino man, for server. They served a little boisterously and roisterously, but they served well."

Pontiff Urges Reform of Church Music.

Press cablegrams from Rome announce the publication by the "Osservatore Romano" of a long letter from the Pope to Cardinal Respighi, vicar general of His Holiness, expressing a desire for a reformation in church music.

The Pontiff says that long musical compositions have been substituted for the devout psalmody of the clergy. They resemble old theatrical operas and are of little worth, only serving to feed the curiosity of the people of minor intelligence.

The Pope enjoins strict observance of the rules of his predecessors prescribing the use of the Gregorian Chant. He condemns the transforming of church services into concerts, and says that the organ is to be used only to support it, not to drown the singers. Long organ preludes and intermezzi are not to be allowed.

The piano must never be used in church nor any other noisy, frivolous instruments, like the drum, cymbal or bells.

Secondly, the Pope enjoins the daily study in all Roman seminaries and colleges of the Gregorian chant in its original and simplest form, so that if a college chapel may stand as models for imitation elsewhere.

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 13th 1904.
 SUBSCRIPTION—$1.00 A YEAR,
 PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY
 JAMES MCISAAC,
 Editor & Proprietor.

We are extremely obliged to those of our friends, who have remitted their subscriptions. Quite a number have been prompt in doing so; but a very great number have not yet been heard from. We sincerely trust these will not allow the year to grow much older when they too shall have discharged this obligation. It does not afford us any pleasure to remind them, in this way from time to time; but this is the season when numerous and heavy demands are made on us for money and we cannot possibly satisfy our creditors, unless all our subscribers strengthen our hands by sending in the small amounts due by them. We feel sure all will be convinced of the justice and reasonableness of these statements, and we trust they will give tangible evidence of their conviction by remitting without delay whatever may be due by them. We would like to have all previous records broken in the matter of remittances for one week. Will each one that owes us a subscription send it in within the next week? We should be glad to chronicle any record breaking proceedings in the matter of remittances. Who will be the first report?

YESTERDAY'S Ottawa advice say:—There will be something doing in portfolio circles this week. Mr. Emmerson has been sent for and when he leaves here again for home it will be as one of His Excellency's advisers, with the prefix of "Hon." before his name. There is much speculation as to whether or not Mr. Emmerson will get the portfolio as Minister of Railways and Canals. In some quarters Mr. Fielding is credited with a liking for the job, and he may be disposed to surrender the Finance Portfolio for the additional prestige and patronage which the Railways portfolio will give him. This may mean that dissolution of Parliament is near hand, or that a session will first be held. In the event of the latter, Mr. Emmerson will have to appeal to his constituents of Westmorland for endorsement before again sitting in the Commons.

OTTAWA advices of Monday say: There was a meeting of the Cabinet on Saturday and although nothing was given out regarding dissolution or holding another session, there does not appear to be any doubt now but that Parliament will be called at an early date and the general election will be postponed till early next summer. This is the best information available at present time, however, and the Premier has not spoken and there is nothing certain. During the present week a ministerial statement is expected. From this it will be seen that the Government seem to be in an exceedingly uncertain frame of mind regarding the dissolution of Parliament and submitting themselves to the verdict of the people. If the Government, a short time ago, did seriously contemplate bringing on the elections, it could be for no other purpose than to obtain, if possible, a snap verdict before the people became fully aroused to the extent and enormity of their political iniquity and if now they have receded from that determination it is only because they have found out the people are ready for them, or because the schemes they depended on to carry the elections have failed, or for both these reasons. The result in North Renfrew doubtless has furnished the Government evidence of what they may expect when the battle of the ballots is called.

C. M. B. A.—On Wednesday last the 7th. Inst., Grand Deputy Brother James McLeese, instituted a new Branch of the C. M. B. A. at Kinkora. The Branch will be known as St. Malachi's Branch probably no. 373. It starts under most favorable auspices and has every prospect of a large membership in the near future. The officers are as follows—Spiritual Adviser, Rev. J. J. McDonald; President, Dr. St. Clair; J. Gallant; 1st. Vice President, Jas. J. Hughes; 2nd do. John M. Shrean; Recording Secretary, Patrick J. Smith; Assistant Secretary, Herbert Mulligan; Financial Secretary, Michael McKenna; Treasurer, Rev. J. J. McDonald; Minutes, Ambrose Monaghan; Guard, Michael Mulligan; Trustees, Patrick E. Trainor, Francis Gallant, Patrick J. Smith, John McShrean, Representative to Grand Council, Rev. J. J. McDonald; Alternate Michael McKenna.

Our Ottawa Letter.

NO SECURITY HAS BEEN PUT UP. The Grand Trunk Pacific contract is as dead as the proverbial herring. The Grand Trunk Railway company has been unable to raise the $5,000,000 in cash or government debentures, which the law says should have been deposited not later than November 23rd, and to date not one cent has been put up to bind the agreement between the government and the company.

Some weeks ago the Grand Trunk did deposit $5,000,000 in Vermont Central Railway bonds, but later on it was found that the securities could not be legally used in connection with the Grand Trunk Pacific, and the depositors were forced to withdraw them.

The next move on the part of the Grand Trunk was to put up $5,000,000 in Grand Trunk treasury stock, a proceeding on a par with the deposit of the Vermont Central bonds. The Grand Trunk's treasury stock under a Canadian statute passed in 1863, is to be used for clearly specified purposes. Only by the consent of the Grand Trunk shareholders and by an amendment to the Dominion legislation which sanctioned the issue of the stock, which the Grand Trunk now seeks to divert from its legitimate channels, can the securities be offered to the Dominion government. The government and the Grand Trunk are engaging in a bluff, which will not go down in the country. They are in very much the same position as John Smith would be, were he to attempt to present Tom Brown with Bill Jones' house. Smith couldn't do it. Neither can the Grand Trunk put up one cent of the security, which has been deposited as an evidence of good faith. The Grand Trunk Pacific contract does not exist, and the people of Canada should not allow themselves to be again taken in by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his followers.

CANADIAN JUSTICE TRAMPLED UPON.

The awful condition of politics in Ontario has now widened itself into a question of national importance. Ever since Sir Wilfrid Laurier, commenced to nurse his right arm by the appointment of the ballot pluggers, Preston, to the second most important office in England in the gift of the Canadian government, people have been doing a lot of hard thinking. The Ross like steal of St. James Division under Sir Wilfrid's own auspices did not tend to improve public opinion in regard to such crime. Then came the appointment of the notorious Jackson to the Canadian agency at Leeds and there was no longer doubt as to a Laurier-Ross pact.

One would have supposed that the conversion of a Liberal majority of 459 into a Conservative margin of 602, in North Renfrew, would have brought the Liberal leaders to their senses.

Not so! Within a few weeks Canada was presented with the spectacle of a crown prosecutor exercising his prerogative to challenge any number of persons, in such a way as to remove every Conservative from a jury, who were to try poor Callaghan, the victim of the Crossin plot.

Now Canada has the disgusting privilege of seeing the Ontario legislature called at 16 days notice in order that Hon. E. J. Davies, whose election trial was to have taken place on January 14th, may be saved, together with four other worthies, whose fate was to be decided from the 14th, to 20th inst. First there is the deliberate tampering with trial by jury and then the temporary suppression of the courts.

Hon. G. W. Ross employs the tools, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier rewards them.

Nothing more disgraceful occurred in the days of the Star Chamber. No longer can Canadians point with pride to their courts or their freedom. Russia enjoys just such justice.

It is not for the people of Ontario alone to put an end to this prostitution of justice, but every elector, during the coming Federal campaign, should remember that the Dominion government is in every way promoting the welfare of those who do the dirty work.

generosity is altogether confined to the people's money. In private life an entirely different Mr. Sifton is encountered. Amazing economy is to be found in his management of his private funds. In 1898, when he commenced to spend public funds so freely, Mr. Sifton was privately encumbered with a number of embarrassing judgments held by the City of Winnipeg. Today, he not only stands free from any such burdens, but is reckoned as one of Ottawa's wealthiest men. He owns the most beautiful residence in the Capital; drives the most costly turnout, and entertains most lavishly. He spends the summer in a beautiful cottage on the banks of the St. Lawrence, near Brockville, and owns a yacht which one of Canada's wealthiest distillers found too expensive a luxury. He is a large stockholder in leading institutions. And the latest move contemplated by this Cross of Canadian politics is the construction of a private half-mile race track, a project which would stagger an ordinary company.

Conservative Meeting at Cardigan.

Notwithstanding the very stormy weather and the extremely bad condition of the roads a large number of delegates and electors attended the Liberal Conservative Convention at Cardigan on Saturday last, held for the purpose of choosing candidates in the opposition interest for the next election. It was a rousing and enthusiastic meeting, attended by representative electors from every section of the third electoral district of King's County. The meeting was held in the hall, Mr. D. D. Morson, convenor for the district, presided and opened the proceedings by explaining the preliminary steps leading up to the convention. He made a very feeling allusion to the death of the late representative, James E. McDonald, and paid fitting tribute to his memory. Dr. Allen then moved a resolution in relation to the deceased gentleman, which was duly seconded and unanimously carried. The resolution is as follows:

Whereas having now assembled to select a candidate to fill the place so worthily filled by the late James E. McDonald, it is proper that we should dwell for a little time on the sorrow that pervades our ranks since the hand of death has taken from amongst us our respected friend and representative, who departed this life on the 1st day of October last. And whereas this association sadly deprecates the loss of a gentleman, who was respected by all classes of the community, for his honesty and gentlemanly conduct, which were always prominent in his character, therefore be it Resolved, that, while we call to mind and review the many good qualities that so distinguished our deceased representative, yet it remains for us to bow in submission to the decree of an all-wise Providence.

Resolved that this association hereby respectfully acknowledge the very great services rendered to the Liberal Conservative association by our deceased friend, who was always ready and willing to promote the best interests of this country.

Resolved that we tender to his grief-stricken widow our heart-felt sympathy in her trial and affliction, and trust that her days of anguish may be somewhat alleviated by the knowledge that while among us he led a Christian blameless life and enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him, filling the important offices to which he had been elected, with satisfaction to the electors and credit to himself.

Resolved that this resolution be inscribed on the minutes, this meeting as a lasting tribute to the memory of a good man, published in the CharloTTetown papers and a copy be presented to his bereaved widow.

After the passing of this resolution the meeting was ready for the nomination of candidates. Mr. Patrick Kelly, of Montague, was unanimously chosen as the convenor, candidates to fill the place of the late James E. McDonald and W. A. O. Morson, Esq. the present representative was unanimously renominated as assembly man. Mr. Kelly was unavoidably absent; but it was known that he was prepared to abide by the action of the convention, whenever might be the candidates chosen.

Rousing speeches were then made by Mr. W. A. O. Morson, Mr. James McLeese, Mr. Patrick K. Ryan, Mr. E. Saville and others. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed and Cardigan may be depended upon to give a good account of itself when the time comes. A picture of the late lamented Cyrus Shaw, for many years the representative of the district was hung over the stage and the chairman stated that it was desirable to have the picture of the late Mr. McDonald placed side by side with it. A voluntary contribution to cover the cost was asked for, and immediately those present generously contributed more than sufficient to defray the necessary expense. The meeting then closed amid enthusiastic cheers for the candidates.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

CROWDED EVERY DAY!

Crowds to the right of us,
 Crowds to the left of us,
 Crowds all around us,
 For Bargains they clamored.
 Bravely our clerks worked and well,
 'Tho' oft'times they wished Bargain Sales were in---Well
 What is the use though? they wondered,
 Ours did not start the row,
 Ours hadn't to, nohow
 And w're going to do or die---
 Die, or serve this twice six hundred.

You can rely on getting properly served by our capable and obliging clerks, even if they are overworked. Is it Dress Goods, Furs, Skirts, Silk Waists, Ready-made Clothing, or any of the hundreds of bargains we are offering? Just give them an idea what you want; they'll help you courteously and efficiently. Ask to see those lovely Skirts, opened a few days before the sale began. They are made in Spring Styles, and no two alike. Ladies say they are the dressiest ever shown here. They're selling fast at 67 cents on the dollar. Read below.

And the latter we have no intention of doing at the present time, not even to suit any of the "Smart Alec" type who resort to such methods in the rush of holiday trade to work off their old stock. There is no need for us to slaughter goods, as they were moving out as fast as we could wish, and as we have never learned the trick of making them up too high, these discounts mean a heavy loss to us. We are convinced our gain will come in afterwards in the increased patronage of the store.

Had we the accumulation of years in our store it would pay us to pick them out and offer them to you at sweeping reductions, as goods which have become shopworn are certainly not worth what they once were; but as you all know, there was a clean sweep made previous to the dissolution of the old firm, and our stock is all new, good and desirable. However, to protect our custom and in order to circumvent some of our very unbusiness-like competitors we will give the same discounts. We will even go one better, and offer several desirable lines

The general efficiency returns of the Canadian Artillery have been published at Ottawa. Of the field batteries, the Second of Ottawa is first with 899 points out of a possible 910. Sydney battery is second, 883. In the Garrison Artillery competition the following are the results. 4th E. E. 1, Regiment, No 1 Co., Capt. A. A. Bartlett, Ch'town, 309, No 2, Capt. A. G. The social aid of All Saints, Cardinal, postponed from Monday of last week was held on Saturday evening last. Notwithstanding the bad roads in consequence of the storm during the day there was a very good attendance. An excellent musical and literary programme preceded the sale of baskets. Rev. Dr. McMillan presided and opened the proceedings with an interesting address.

On Thursday evening last, Mr. A. F. M. Linn of Carpenter's Union, No. 336, Dorchester, Mass., gave a forcible address on organization to a large audience in the Laborers' Union Hall, in this city. Mr. McMillan is an Islander; but has been in Boston and vicinity for some years and understands the working to labor organization. He spoke of the prosperity of the country and the increased cost of living. He thought while everything else was going up the price of labor should rise. He showed how the railway men had bettered their condition; not because the Government particularly loved them or wanted to better their condition; but because they were a thoroughly organized body, who stood shoulder to shoulder for their rights. He claimed that organization would better the lot of the neighboring man in every particular; socially, economically, financially. Referring to the question of strikes, Mr. McMillan said, experienced union men do not strike and do not want to strike. They can generally attain their object by standing firmly by their side. A vote of thanks to the speaker for his excellent address, was moved by Mr. Ephraim Gallant, seconded by Mr. Harry Corcoran and supported by Mr. James Paton, chairman of the street committee. The speakers all made very complimentary references to the excellent address of Mr. McMillan, and the vote on being put to the meeting was unanimously carried by a standing vote.

However nothing definite has been decided on and until such time as the ministerial statement is made, it is not safe to predict with certainty as to what course the premier intends taking. The talk today has been all election while heretofore it has been all election. Next week will dispose of this uncertainty.

Address and Presentation.

A committee representing the congregation of St. Peter's parish, Head of St. Peter's Bay, waited on their pastor, Rev. R. J. Gillis, at the beginning of the New Year, and presented him with a magnificent set of robes, a well filled purse and a suitable address. The Rev. gentleman, though taken by surprise, made a most suitable reply. Following is the address: Rev. R. J. GILLIS, M. P.

Rev. Dear Sir,—During this joyous and festive season, a most opportune time indeed, we approach you on behalf of the congregation of St. Peter's to convey to you our appreciation of your services as Parish Priest among us.

Your strenuous efforts both for spiritual and temporal welfare, extending as they do over a period of seventeen years have done much to commend you to the people of this parish and we trust that measure of success which has attended you in the past may be a gentle stimulus to renewed zeal in our behalf for the future.

True the first years of your ministry among us were under the direction of that revered prelate the late lamented Bishop McIntyre; but so impressed was he with your pastoral merits, so imbued were you in your work, so zealous in the Master's vineyard that after a curacy of three years he appointed you our parish priest.

For one so young in priestly years to be appointed to an incumbency is rare; but the executive and financial abilities you have displayed, the almost insurmountable difficulties you have overcome and conquered, and the success attending your arduous pastoral duties are the strongest testimonies of the wisdom of His Lordship's choice.

Knowing your incessant disposition would achieve all attempts at notoriety we forbear giving an outline of all you have accomplished in the parish. Suffice it to say the completing, decorating and furnishing all in harmony of the interior of our grand church are peculiarly yours and stand forth invariable evidence and proof of your exquisite taste and untiring energy. An all offering this testimony of our love and affection, slight in intrinsic value though it be we ask you to accept it as a token of our esteem and admiration, trusting the Giver of all good may grant you many years of unalloyed happiness and bless you with health to perform your temporal and priestly functions in our ardent wish.

By order of Committee.

Farmer's Institute Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Red House Farmer's Institute was held in Sailer's Hope school house, on Saturday, December 26th.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p. m.; the president, Mr. James A. E. McDonald, who read the annual report.

The institute during the past year, has held two educational meetings and handled goods to the value of $793.22 made up as follows: Farm goods $21.00, Paper Green $21.75, Binder twine $150.50.

The secretary, in presenting his report, explained that no stock had yet been purchased owing to the fact that the funds of the institute were not available up to the present, but that a balance of $104.05 was now on hand for that purpose.

Mr. R. A. McDonald was then appointed chairman and Jos. K. McDonald, secretary of the meeting. The following officers were elected: President—John Howlett, Vice—Henry Williams, Sec. Treas.—A. D. McDonald. Directors—R. A. McDonald, Jas. E. McDonald, E. G. McKie, Jas. A. McDonald, Wesley Keefe, James McKinnon. The chairman then called on Mr. G. E. Saville of Dundas, who was present, to explain the action taken by the Dundas institute in the matter of steam communication between Grand River, Sydney, Pictou and Charlottetown. The matter was discussed by Messrs John Howlett, James A. E. McDonald, A. D. McDonald and Jos. K. McDonald.

The following resolution was moved by Jos. K. McDonald, seconded by A. D. McDonald and carried unanimously.

Whereas; At the present time enormous sums of money are being spent in other sections of the province for public works.

And Whereas: The time has arrived in the history of our province when it becomes necessary to have our farm products placed on the markets in the quickest manner possible.

And Whereas: Our rapid growth as a producing centre causes us to feel keenly the want of better facilities.

It is therefore Resolved: That, in the opinion of this meeting, the time has arrived when the interests of those sections of Kings County, drained by Grand River, demand that sufficient subsidies be granted by the Dominion and Prince Edward Island governments to enable a steamer to run on the following route: From Charlottetown to Pictou, from Pictou to Georgetown, from Georgetown to Bridgetown, from Bridgetown to Annapolis, from Annapolis to Souris, from Souris to Sydney, calling at other ports, if time will permit, and return over the same route weekly.

And further resolved; that we request our representatives in the Dominion and local houses to press our claims.

And further resolved; that we appoint the following gentlemen to act with the committee appointed by the Dundas Institute—Erwin McFarlane, George McDonald, A. D. McDonald and John Howlett.

The meeting then adjourned.

To the Electors of the City of Charlottetown.

At the request of many citizens I have decided to offer as a candidate for the Mayoralty.

I take this opportunity of soliciting the votes of the citizens. If elected I shall exert myself to promote the interests of the city to the best of my ability.

Yours respectfully, FRED'K F. KELLY. Jan. 13, 1904.

Aching Joints

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism—that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

"I suffered dreadfully from rheumatism, but have been completely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, for which I am deeply grateful." Miss FRANCES SMITH, Prescott, Ont.

"I had an attack of the grip which left me weak and helpless and suffering from rheumatism. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and this medicine has entirely cured me. I have no hesitation in saying it saved my life." M. J. McDONALD, Trenton, Ont.
