MERCHANT TAILORS ARE ALARMED

At the Progress Made by Semi-Ready Tailoring.

The Company Have Now 69 Semi-Ready Wardrobes in Canada.

Referring to the progress made by the new art of men's tailoring a New York journal prophesied that in a few years the old-time journeyman tailor would be as scarce as a brevier compositor in a daily newspaper office.

The police have a mystery on their hands. Friday they got a note saying that they would find the body of the writer, who claimed to be from Detroit.

Henry Bryant was acquitted of the charge of shooting at John Johnson.

It is thought now that Jockey Henderson, who was injured in a mix-up at the Jockey Club last Wednesday, has a good chance to pull thru.

Two games in the Junior O.R.P.U. series were played here Saturday.

The body of Mrs. Embury, a Hamilton woman, was found there soon after the note was received.

From three wardrobes in 1888, the Semi-Ready Company announce in their new booklet, "Manners and Modes for Men."

In every town and city the Semi-Ready Company seem to have no difficulty in getting wardrobes made.

While a merchant tailoring experience is not absolutely essential, the system upon which Semi-Ready tailoring is based appeals more quickly to a man of practical experience.

The Trades and Labor Council is discussing the advisability of running a Labor candidate in East Hamilton.

The waterworks investigating committee will meet Monday evening at 7:30.

It is likely that an assessor to take the place of the late F. R. Hutton will be appointed Monday.

GREYS. BRAVE OLD BATTAL FOR REGIMENTAL MATCHES

152 Plug Away at Targets—Corporal Parker Wins the General.

The city regiments have been in poor luck in the matter of the weather for the annual regimental rifle matches. All three of them have suffered from rain. To this annoyance was, on Saturday, added a cold wave and the Royal Grenadiers who journeyed to the ranges had a miserable day for shooting. But the last day Saturday has clearly demonstrated that Toronto is the home of an enthusiastic and efficient body of riflemen as can be seen from any city in the empire.

In spite of the weather, such as prevailed on Saturday, 153 men of the Grenadiers competed in the matches. Grenadiers Major Gooderham, Major King, Major Brock, Major Montgomery and a number of the company officers were present.

The thanks of the regiment are due to their sister corps for a full supply of range officers and register keepers, of range officers and register keepers, of range officers and register keepers, of range officers and register keepers.

At the close of the regimental matches there was a match for registers and pens. The prizes, the gift of Major Gooderham, were as follows: The scores in the various matches:

ARGUS SWAMPED THE VICS

Small Crowd at Varsity Field—Results Saturday in O.R.F.U. and Other Unions.

Two hundred mallow-chilled spectators saw the Argonauts roll up a score of 21 points to 8 against Victoria on Varsity field Saturday afternoon. Most of the game was played in a brisk downpour of rain, and the ground was little better than quagmire in spots, making good rugby out of the question. The halves on both sides had to contend with a good deal of mudding and fumbling, which was excusable on account of the alloy condition of the pitch, and to be fair, it is to be noted that the Argonauts did not play the mud as best they could. It was not a day for scientific tactics, but a vital play, and a chance had few chances to be electrified at any stage.

On Saturday afternoon the Argonauts were a stronger team than the Vics, particularly in the wing line. The Argonauts' wings broke through almost every time, and gave good protection to the quarter and back division. The team easily outclassed Victoria in the play, and the Argonauts were through the game with good effect. It may be said for the Vics that they presented a somewhat pathetic front. Clark, Palmer and Mins were out of the game through injuries received in practice, and their loss was felt, particularly that of Clark, inside wing. Cotton replaced Toose at full, and Murray and Stollery were substituted for Killard and Gowen on the half line, without much perceptible improvement.

Referee Hugh Hayes of Hamilton was in the field, and kept the players well in hand. He had few chances to penalize, the Lou Barbour and the Argonauts were the best for the rest of the game for punching Holden.

The wind freshened up, favoring Argos, who had it for a few minutes left. The Argonauts were all over their own half, and the Vics were shortly tackled behind the line on receiving staff. The Argonauts were playing well, adding a point. Victoria were being played off well, but the Argonauts scored a try on a dribble behind the line. The slippery ball eluded several Victoria players, and the Argonauts fell on it, and finally Cotton secured the oval, making the tally 21-8.

Play continued fairly even for a while, but the Argonauts were a good deal better than the Vics, and appeared to have a good chance to score. The Argonauts were playing well, adding a point. The slippery ball eluded several Victoria players, and the Argonauts fell on it, and finally Cotton secured the oval, making the tally 21-8.

On changing ends the wind dropped, lessening the advantage of playing down wind. The Argonauts were playing well, adding a point. TYPES E F G.

Nature, plus habit or mode of living, are the bases of our system of physique types.

The well fleshed type of physique is usually he whose lines have fallen in pleasant places, or his fleshiness may be the result of a sedentary occupation—or a condition of the blood—a degeneration that produces fat more than ordinarily quickly.

From the construction of the body, because of the rib arrangement, the stomach is not contained by any other than walls of flesh and skin.

As the skin is an elastic covering it becomes stretched, and the abdomen increases in size. Because of this fact, and since the growth of the size of the abdomen is not regular or in proportion to the growth of the other parts of the body, the types E F G are grouped by themselves with the increase or diminishing in size of the different organs in a proportion peculiar to this group.

For stout or thin men we tailor Semi-ready to the fitting stage only. Each suit is made with outlets—the whole suit basted together simply. Made to fit perfectly and delivered two hours after.

LET INDUSTRIES DEVELOP. If the city council is prepared, as it ought to be, to take a broad and reasonable view of the opening of Toronto to individual enterprise, it will have no hesitation in passing the decision of the board of control regarding the erection of a tanning factory on Carlaw-avenue.

Sectional interests, unless supported by actual and prospective local conditions, should not be permitted to interfere with the development of the city as a manufacturing centre.

Indeed, there should be no difficulty in laying down a general principle for future guidance, and a still better course would be to take advantage of this opportunity to settle, once and for all, what districts are to be considered residential, and therefore, immune from the erection of factories and public works.

Judged by any legitimate standard, it can hardly be held that the locality affected by the erection of Clarke & Clarke, should be barred from industrial enterprise. As matter of fact, one factory has already been built on it, and others are in contemplation, and no part of the city is better adapted for the purpose.

The argument that the district might be made a residential one proves too much, since its practical effect would be to limit factories to the points where their presence already prevents its application.

Any district may be made residential if the city chooses, but some discrimination must be exercised, and if it is, the erection of this particular factory should certainly be sanctioned as a general proposition.

The objection that a tannery is offensive and unsanitary, not borne out by the experience of the residents on River-street, and in any case there are efficient ways and means of avoiding anything in the nature of a nuisance, and no doubt the applicants are prepared to meet the council on this point.

But on the main question of the suitability of the district, there should be no difficulty thrown in the way of the city's development as an industrial and manufacturing centre.

ONTARIO AND BRITISH IMMIGRATION. Advantage should undoubtedly be taken of the interest aroused in the United Kingdom regarding Canada as a field for emigration, to advance the claim of Ontario upon the British agriculturist.

Complaints are now being made in the older provinces that the action of the Dominion Government in concentrating its energies on the exploitation of the wheat-growing west has not only caused the stream of immigrants to flow thru them towards the prairie lands, but has caused a direct drain upon their own farming population.

No doubt homesteads in New Ontario are being created to some extent, and excellent land is available for settlement, with prospects alluring enough for farmers accustomed to Canadian conditions, but nothing of very little is being done to secure South Ontario against the loss occasioned by the drift westwards, northwards and citywards.

Farms in the neighborhood of the great centres of population are not increasing in value as they ought to do—indeed are not even maintaining their value. This is not a desirable state of affairs, and the readiest and best means of remedying it is to demonstrate the opportunity Old Ontario offers to the small farmer of the mother country, who desires to better his condition.

This contention has recently received valuable support from the result of an investigation into the situation of Canada as a field for the British emigrant, recently made by Ernest Terry. During this summer Mr. Terry was sent here by the distress committee of Leeds, Eng., to enquire into the system of sending emigrants, and as to the advantages or disadvantages of using the repayments money for that purpose.

He remained in Canada about six weeks, traveled over a large portion of the Dominion, and a month ago contributed an article to the Yorkshire Evening Post, "giving brief and an unbiased description of what I found were the conditions prevailing, and the prospects for the future, so far as the British immigrant is affected." While, in some respects, not quite so flattering as Canadians are accustomed to expect, his review of the situation in the Dominion is not on the whole unfavorable.

In his view, it is at present the country of the young man. One of his points immediately touches the effort The World is making to get Ontario brought under the notice of the prospective British emigrant. Speaking of the difference between British and Canadian conditions, he strongly advises any emigrant purposing to take advantage of the free homesteads offered by the Dominion Government, not to do so until he has had a couple of years' experience on a Canadian farm.

"I would suggest," he says, "that, instead of going west, he would do wisely to settle in Ontario, where wheat-growing and mixed farming is carried on. Here the conditions more nearly approach English life. A man is more in touch with his fellows, and the depressing solitude of the far west is not experienced."

Altho Mr. Terry is not in this passage speaking specially of the selling of emigrant lands, all other things being equal, the advantages he emphasizes to the ordinary emigrant allured by the land advertisements of the Dominion Government and the emigration agencies appeal with greater force to the skilled agriculturist with capital enough to take up an improved farm. In South Ontario a settler of this kind can find substantially similar conditions to those with which he is accustomed, and his experience will be commensurate at once available. No doubt this class of emigrant is, of all others, the most difficult to influence when the question put to him involves removal from his home land to a different environment, even tho it be found in another British state, and containing much with which he is in natural sympathy.

Mr. Terry refers to the way in which the agriculturist in Britain is handicapped by the system of land tenure, and it is on this side that the British agriculturist can be most easily reached. The knowledge that the annual sum paid in Britain as rent alone would suffice to purchase a farm, offering him more favorable opportunities, would be an inducement in the nature of a special appeal. There is no reason, indeed, why the process which is bringing United States farmers into Western Canada should not be duplicated, to some extent, at least, in Ontario. They are selling out at good prices and establishing themselves on cheaper and better land in Canada, where their capital and experience ensure bigger returns. So, with a growing demand for the improved farms of South Ontario, farmers accustomed to local conditions will be at liberty to move into the newly-opened country and aid in extending the resources and industry of the province.

A POINT WELL TAKEN. Editor World: I wish to direct your attention to the following paragraph in Saturday's papers:

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 5.—As prizes to the best boats in three weeks' racing during the Jamestown Exposition, King Edward of England, Emperor William of Germany, President Roosevelt and Sir Thomas Lipton will offer cups. The Exposition Company will also offer three cups, making a total of seven. Surely the Canadian public is aware that King Edward is King of England (and other parts of the world too numerous to mention), and also that there exists only one Emperor William, Germany, surely need not be specified, or, if it may be, then why not inform them that President Roosevelt is president of the United States. It should, moreover, be pointed out to them that Sir Thomas Lipton, an excellent sportsman, and not either a king or an emperor.

Possibly the wording of this paragraph has escaped notice, but I feel sure that either Punch or Fliegende Blätter would see the humor of it and appreciate it.

An Imperial Canuck. The Busy Man's Magazine is a local publication, but perhaps it would be better known. For its contents are really worth the money, providing a variety of reading, selected from leading periodicals and papers, in the way of entertaining sketches of successful people, splendid short stories, articles on political and commercial affairs, science and invention, travel, of interest to workers and to women, etc. In fact, it is just what its name indicates.

In a case like this, by a few ad interim presentments for perjury. The great defect in our criminal system, however, lies in the fact that no less than three separate prosecutions take a hand in the various stages of every case.

Heretofore our procedure has been sufficient for the grosser crimes and the more common criminals. It is lavishing upon a petty offender, however, all the machinery of the law, and imposing upon him a burden of expense and delay which is entirely unnecessary.

A BOY AS A BURGLAR. Aged 9, Accused of Breaking Into Simcoe St. Office. Nine-year-old Otto Teger of 213 Richmond-street is on the bad-boy list. There was a bold burglary on Sunday night at the place of R. J. Lovell & Co., stationers, Simcoe and Richmond, and crayons, sample pads and ink were stolen. The boys were caught in it, but Otto was the only one caught. A couple of others who are implicated are going to the gaol.

ELLIOTT HOUSE SOLD. Lawrence Shea of the Windsor Secures the Property. The Elliott House at Church and Shuter-streets, has been bought by Laurence Shea of the Windsor Hotel.

It is said that $60,000 was the figure which turned the transaction, but Mr. Shea says that it has been agreed to keep the price quiet. He seemed well satisfied with the deal, and said he had bought the house for his own use, and would take possession about Nov. 1. There is a deal now on for the sale of the men wearing of the sword in it is vacating, and it is expected to close it up this afternoon.

REVOLVER VS. SWORD. The Military Gazette: The main argument of those who recommend the continued wearing of the sword by officers lies in its significance as a badge of authority. The revolver, nearly as well as the sword, is a hundred-fold greater. We feel assured, too, that officers in camps of instruction would take a keen interest in revolver practice. Why not give the revolver a chance? Why not let it displace the sword as a part of the equipment of an officer of the Canadian militia?

A Held Up on River Street. Trouble followed a few sociable drinks imbibed by Ambrose McTernan, 8 Blevins-place, John Pearce, 54 Duchesne-street, and Ed Nicholson on Saturday. The former couple were arrested by Police-men Hawthorne and Fairweather on a charge of holding up Nicholson on River-street and taking his valuables. The prisoners are locked up in No. 4 police station.

May Be Fair Thieves. In connection with the wholesale thieving which is going on in the Brampton district and at Bolton and Cookville fairs, two more arrests have been made.

The prisoners are George McGrath, 2 Adelaide-place, and Arthur Nunns, 28 Dorset-street. They were taken in by Detective Archibald.

The police know them pretty well, and the charge against them is vagrancy.

TOO MANY BRANCH BANKS MAKES OVER-BORROWING

Speculative Fever Seizes Western People, But General Conditions Are Sound, Says Financier.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—(Special)—E. S. Clouston has returned from a trip thru the western provinces, including British Columbia, and he says that Senator Forget was quite in the right when he expressed a recent opinion that there are too many branch banks in the Canadian Northwest.

The vice-president of the Bank of Montreal stated the great multiplicity of banks in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan brings into question the institutions in the districts in which the banks are located will derive little or no benefit from the banking competition as it creates an over-borrowing tendency amongst the people. However, he did not mean that the speculative fever had seized upon many western people. This was one of the features in the growing west which did not impress him favorably.

NEW ELEMENT FOUND. Discovery May Show Metals to Be Complex.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Consul R. S. E. Bergh of Gothenburg reports the discovery of a new element by a Swedish scientist. He writes to the state department that J. R. Rydberg, professor in physics at the University in Lund, Sweden, has a new theory about chemical elements. In working on this hypothesis he came to the conclusion there must be an element having less atomic weight than any element heretofore known, in fact, only a small fraction of the atomic weight of hydrogen.

It is further stated that such an element, the electron, was known before, but that Professor Rydberg has explained it does not consist of any separate kinds of material. It is thought this discovery will show that metals are not simple elements but are composed of electrons. It will follow also that electron, as the new element is called by Professor Rydberg, is a universal gas which forms an atmosphere which prevails throughout our solar system.

It is also expected the new discovery will lead to full scientific explanations of many things which up to date have remained doubtful or unexplained, as, for instance, the magnetic storms in connection with the sun-spot periods, the northern lights and terrestrial magnetism.

KILLED BY YARD ENGINE. Kingston, Oct. 6.—John McDonald, a sailor, whose home is in Gerrard-street, met a terrible death at noon to-day while under the influence of liquor. Each group will illustrate the lord mayor and sheriffs of a century, and will be dressed in the costumes of that particular time.

New York Gives Poor Response to the Announcement—Local Speculation in Cobalt.

World Office, Saturday Evening, Oct. 6. To the fact that the Bank of England rate was not raised this week, the continuing strength of the market is at least partly attributable.

The leading interest usually retain a strong card to be used in case of emergency. For four years this topic has been discussed, but it has not been discussed in the past.

It is truly a wonderful market, in which the one idea sought to be kept to the front is that prices should be kept as low as possible.

The right money problem has been at least temporarily solved by the market and time loans have returned to a reasonable level.

No startling developments have occurred in the Toronto stock market. The general range of quotations is higher than a week ago, and one or two days' business showed an increase in speculation.

The small local following in N. Y. was disappointed with the result of the annual meeting, so no much account of the dividend as from the belief that the president's statement implied that no new rights to common shareholders would accrue for some time to come.

SUBSCRIPTIONS GO ASTRAY MISSIONARIES ENDANGERED

Some Peculiar Incidents Which Will Be Further Ventilated To-Night

Any suspicions entertained by the Christian Workers' general mission board as to Rev. G. E. Fisher of Lipincott-street, and his management of certain sums of money entrusted to his care for delivery to missionaries in Northern India will be ventilated to-night in an open special meeting to be held in their church on Clinton-street.

This is a case contrary to the request of Mr. Fisher's solicitor, who, it is said, declined a proposition to allow a board of independent arbitrators to make an audit of his client's books, arguing that nothing could be done anyway on the findings of such a court.

To-night the general board will present a lengthy report summing up the situation from their point of view. W. T. Pepper of the general board said last night that the board did not intend to take any legal action, as was first contemplated, but the board thought that a contributing public had become curious to know why missionaries whom they had taken under their care were persistently writing personal letters, enquiring why the funds had discontinued, while at the same time the secretary held receipts for the amounts in question, and verbal assurances that they had been forwarded in due course, and that same public should learn the straight facts.

The general board had been compelled to scurry around, and by special appeal, raise a considerable sum recently to get their own missionaries out of the bondage of Indian officials for wages due to hired natives. A missionary had written a most appealing letter, saying that the appointment was many months overdue, and imporing help in God's name, lest the natives, who were terribly wrought up, should take their lives.

Mr. Fisher, to whom all money was paid, when asked about it, had volunteered that the mistake must have been made at the other end of the line, for he had mailed the amount promptly.

"Since that time the general board's collections have been sent direct," said Mr. Pepper, "and Mr. Fisher has been asked repeatedly to show his books, but without avail."

TORONTO JUNCTION. Toronto Junction, Oct. 7.—The Epworth League held rally services at the Davenport Methodist Church today. Rev. Mr. Bowles, a recently appointed missionary to China, occupied the pulpit in the evening.

The school management committee will meet on Monday evening, and the public school board on Tuesday evening. The field day committee of the public school board will meet in Western-avenue school on Monday night.

Ex-Mayor Laughton and bride returned home on Saturday night from spending their honeymoon in Albany and New York.

As a result of Saturday's rain there is a pool of water on St. Clair-avenue near the corner of Albany-road 100 feet long, 20 feet wide, and from 1 inch to 1 foot in depth. It is some weeks past since the council proposed to grade the street.

The new steam heating plants at Carlton and Annet-street schools will be in operation to heat the schools for the first time on Monday morning.

There is a light run of stock in the Union Stock Yards to-night, only 35 cars on hand for Monday's market. All the street lamps are burning in town to-night, the result of the mill race of the power company at Humvale being full of water.

The trustees of the collegiate institute will meet in the town hall on Monday night. There are several broken planks on the sidewalk on Western-road bridges in a dangerous condition.

Weston. Owing to the downpour of rain on Saturday the directors of the York-Township and Weston Agricultural Association decided to postpone the Fall Fair until next Saturday, Oct. 13, when the original program will be carried out.

It is rumored that the town council will be asked to submit a local option bylaw at their next meeting.

North Toronto. The Davisville Young Men's Athletic Club will hold a social at the Methodist Church school room to-morrow night.

Harvest thanksgiving services were celebrated at the Eglington Methodist Church yesterday, for which occasion the church was profusely decorated and every service was largely attended.

The morning service was conducted by the Rev. A. C. Curtis, M.A., D.D., and the evening service by the Rev. D. C. Hossack, M.A., LL.D., of the Deer Park Presbyterian Church.

The congregation of the Davisville Methodist Church had a variety of preachers at yesterday's harvest home services. At 11 a.m. the Rev. Richard Hobbs, president of the London conference, an Englishman, preached.

At 3 p.m. the eloquent young Irishman, C. Jeff McCoombe, assistant pastor of the Elm-street Methodist Church, spoke, especially to the Davisville Young Men's Club and the Sunday school scholars. In the evening Rev. Mr. Tom, a Scotchman, expressed the Peterboro conference.

Speculation is rife in town since the announced sale of the McGillivray farm at Bedford Park to a syndicate for $100,000. It consists of 210 acres of land, of which about 50 acres will hardly be fit to turn into building lots, as the Don River diverts its course nearly every year, while the hills are also steep. It is said that if that farm is laid out in building lots the cheapest price the syndicate can get is about $10 a foot. If they are to get their own back again. At the present time there are many lots on the market at Eglington, a mile nearer to the city, at from $6 to $30 a foot, according to location, with only two car fares into the city. Instead of three from each ward from three to two, while a live delegation from Ward 3 will ensure that the railway extension asked.

The vital statistics for the town for the month of October show: Births 12, marriages 1, and deaths 2. The finals in the East Toronto Tennis Club, which had been already twice postponed, were again adjourned yesterday.

Norway. The harvest home services held in connection with St. John's Church yesterday morning and evening were most successful. In the morning Rev. Mr. Seaborne of St. Mark's Church, West Toronto, preached, and in the evening Rev. J. Fotheringham, late curate of St. John's, Rev. W. L. Baynes Reed, and rector, assisted at both services. Music was furnished by the surplised choir of the church. The altar and chancel were decorated with all kinds of fruit and flowers.

The post-school trustees have called a meeting in the schoolhouse for Saturday evening next.

"TAY PAY," THE FAMOUS IN CITY SATURDAY NEXT Irish Parliamentarian and Journalist Will Be Given a Reception.

Thomas Power O'Connor, Nationalist M.P. for the Scotland division of Liverpool since 1886, and known the world over for his literary and journalistic attainments, will visit Toronto on Saturday.

Last night E. J. Hearn, acting president of the local branch of the United Irish League, received a telegram announcing that "T. P." would be in Montreal on Thursday, Ottawa on Friday and this city on Saturday. Arrangements will be made at a special meeting to-night for his reception at either Massey or a sub-editor on when it is hoped that Hon. Edward Blake will also be able to be present.

Mr. Blake was to have accompanied Mr. O'Connor to the big meeting in Philadelphia last week, but ill-health compelled him to cancel the engagement.

Mr. O'Connor is 58 years of age, and is an Irishman born, a native of Athlone, where he was educated at the College of the Immaculate Conception, at Queen's College, Galway (M.A.), B.A., in 18th year, and senior scholar history and modern languages, 1856.

In 1857 he entered journalism as a junior reporter, and three years later migrated to London in search of a position and became a sub-editor on the Standard. In 1860 he entered parliament as member of Galway, and in 1865 was returned for both Galway and Liverpool, and has since represented the latter ever since.

He founded and was first editor of The Star, Sun, Weekly Sun, M.A.F. and T.P.'s Weekly. His publications are a biography of Lord Beaconsfield, The Parnell Movement, Gladstone's House of Commons, Some Old Love Stories, Napoleon, The Phantom Millions, and numerous articles and essays. His recreations are cycling and sports.

On Saturday Mr. O'Connor called on President Roosevelt.

Deny That King's Niece Is Betrothed to Russian Story That Princess Patricia Will Wed Grand Duke Michael is Premature.

London, Oct. 7.—An emphatic official denial of the report of the betrothal of Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Emperor of Russia, and Princess Patricia of Connaught, niece of King Edward, was issued here today.

NOT YET. St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—A formal denial has been issued here of the report that the betrothal of Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Emperor of Russia, and Princess Patricia of Connaught, niece of King Edward, was announced through semi-official news agencies in Europe what was accepted yesterday as fact in court and diplomatic circles here.

It now appears the discussion of this alliance, which is bound up with far-reaching political consequences, has not reached the stage of an actual betrothal. The intimation that such a marriage was contemplated erroneously developed in court circles into a premature announcement of the betrothal as an accomplished fact.

THE STANDARD OF VALUE IN MEN'S SHOES

We are proud to say that the quality of leather, the quality of workmanship and the quality of all the other factors which go to make up the Victor Shoe is as good and better to-day than ever it was.

But have you had any occasion to note the steady rise in the price of leather since the opening of the great Russo-Japan war? Have you any business with leather at all? Whether you have or not, the fact is that leather is "sky-high" and still soaring. You need no further proof than is witnessed by the scramble of other brands of shoes to cheapen the cost of their production and to raise their selling prices.

VICTOR PRICE REMAINS THE SAME. VICTOR QUALITY IS STANDARD.

This store takes up any extra burden due to the increased cost of leather. Victor Shoes are sold at $3.50 per pair and always have been. But they have always been worth more than other $3.50 shoes and are still more so now that other shoes are cheapened.

THAT JEWEL ROBBERY.

There were no developments yesterday in the theft of jewelry from Mrs. Deur, a resident at the King Edward. Mrs. Deur, resident stating that the amount of loss was not $3000, and that details of the occurrence, but imperfectly secured for publication, would not discuss the matter, nor would T. P. Galt, her solicitor, who referred all inquiries to the police. And they, too, were not communicative.
