NAUGHTY LITTLE ROSIE

BY MAUD WALKER.

Little Rosie was six years old, and a most naughty little Miss, she was, too. Indeed, I doubt very much if any of the little girls who read this story ever knew so naughty a child as Rosie.

But, listen, and I'll tell you why Rosie was so naughty. She was spoiled—yes, spoiled! She had no brother or sister, and she had a very devoted mother and father and a doting grandmother and grandfather. So, you will readily understand why Rosie felt that she was the only little girl in the world and that everyone should run at her beck and call.

Her mother and father meant well by their little girl, but—well, some parents are quite foolish, you know, and instead of rearing their children to be unselfish, sweet-tempered and loving towards others, both old and young, they are blinded by their love for their children and think them better, cleverer, and more beautiful than any other children on earth. So, the children are not entirely to blame, I say, for thinking as their parents think.

"I want to eat with the party," she cried out, her temper making her face ugly.

And so it was with Rosie. She would matter what Rosie wanted to see was one of the parents or grandparents to see that her wish was granted. If Rosie got ugly tempered—which she did very often—her mama never reprimanded her, but on the contrary, gave up to the putting girl's demands, no matter how absurd they were, or how unbecoming. And at times Rosie had both parents and grandparents busy with tempting her with toys, sweetmeats, and coaxing to induce her to stop her naughty crying. But in vain did they coax: Rosie screamed and kicked and fought till she felt she had done so much that she was tired, and then she would stop, get up, and say, "I want to eat with the party."

On the afternoon of the party Rosie's mother dressed her little daughter in a sweet white frock and lovely pink ribbon sash, her brown curls also being adorned by pink ribbon bows. Rosie was a most pleasing child. At the hour stated for the party, Rosie, with huge doll in one arm and a new Teddy bear in the other, arrived at the home of Laura. She arrived at the same time with several other little girls, but in a very rude way she pushed the other guests aside and walked into the parlor without so much as ringing the door bell. She found the seat which she liked best and perched herself upon it, not waiting for an invitation.

CASIMERE A FASHIONABLE MATERIAL FOR SIMPLE DRESSES.

The Vogue of the jumper or overvested dress and the little one piece frocks, which are now so much the fashion, has brought back to favor the old time casimere, more beautiful in lustre and softer in weave than they ever were. The adaptability of this material to the present modes is strongly exemplified in the pictured dress of pearl gray casimere. The skirt is of simple length as tucked in clusters over the hips and finished above the hem with two very wide tucks. The skirt is cut to a very simple overvest pattern.

to be good, and play merrily with your little comrades," asked Mrs. Davis, a determined way, for Rosie had worn out her patience.

Rosie looked into Mrs. Davis' eyes and saw there a look that she had never seen in her own mother's eyes, so she knew she must abide by that lady's decision. "I'll stay and be good, if I—"

"But please let me play to the party."

As it may seem, she remained at the party and behaved very nicely, too. All she needed was a firm and determined voice to make her know her place. And that day's lesson was never forgotten by Rosie, either, although she may not have been benefited so much by it. Her mama learned the lesson, too.

A PLEASANT FUNCTION

Bangor Firemen Present Group Picture to No. 1 Company.

There was a very pleasant function in No. 1 Engine House last night when E. L. Jewett, in behalf of the Bangor contingent to the recent firemen's tournament, presented to the men of No. 1 a large group photograph of the department of the Maine city.

Speeches were delivered by Chief Kerr, H. W. DeForest, Director Wisely, Capt. R. W. Frink, J. H. McAuley, secretary of the Bangor department, Charles F. Brown, Bangor engineer, and Messrs. Vanwart, Bullock and Willet and Lieut. Harry Irvine.

Proceedings opened with a speech of welcome by Chief Kerr. Then followed a banjo quartette by the Messrs. Hoyt, Frink, and Stone. Director Wisely then made a few remarks, after which Louis Emmet gave a vocal solo. Captain Frink next made a speech, then E. L. Jewett, in behalf of the Bangor contingent to the men of No. 1. The foreman of the company, E. J. Keen, made a fitting reply in accepting the gift. The picture will be exhibited in the window of the hall.

"Yes'm," nodded all present—all save Rosie. "Now, Rosie," said Mrs. Davis, "what game do you wish to play?"

Rosie, with lips still out, stood silent a while. Then she said, "Let's have refreshments first. I'm hungry."

"Oh, but we can't have them yet," explained Mrs. Davis kindly. "You see, the tea has not arrived, and we are here for another hour. Only the sandwiches and cakes are ready. And they are not yet placed on the table. You see, I'm going to let you all have lots of fun playing while we are preparing the luncheon."

"I want to eat first," declared Rosie. "I'm hungry. When I'm hungry mama always allows me to eat. If I can't have some cake I'll go home."

"All right," said Mrs. Davis. But a motherly eyes. "We've your will go to the dining room and you shall have some cake while the others go out with their game of Blind-man's buff."

She took Rosie by the hand to lead her from the room, but the naughty Miss rebelled against such procedure.

"I want to eat with the party," she cried out, her temper making her face ugly. "If I can't eat with the party I'll go home."

"Then my dear, you must wait till the table is ready," said Mrs. Davis, gently but firmly. "See, if you'll name some game that you like the children will help you play it."

For a moment Rosie stood as if uncertain what to do. Then, enraged at not being allowed to have her own way, regardless of the plans of Mrs. Davis and the wishes of others, she burst out crying angrily. In vain Mrs. Davis tried to pacify the naughty child, her cries rose higher and higher. There was no such thing as playing games or having the fifteen other little guests. A number of them whispered their disapproval of the naughty Rosie's conduct, and all looked their condemnation of her.

"Well, if you will not play, nor will I," said Mrs. Davis, a bit sternly. "I shall have to put your hat and jacket on you and take you home to your mama and grandmama. You see, my dear child, there are others here who must be considered, and you are spoiling their pleasure."

"But I don't want to go home," wailed Rosie. "I want to stay to the party."

"Then you must stop crying at once and be a nice child like the other children," said Mrs. Davis. "Now, shall you be acting so naughtily? Now, shall I take you right home?—or will you try

ST. JOHN MAY HAVE SERIOUS MILK FAMINE

Apothiqui and Sussex Farmers Will Not Send Milk in Unless Advanced Price is Paid.

Apothiqui, Nov. 11.—(Special)—At a meeting of the Kings County Milk Producers' Association, held here tonight an agreement was signed whereby those present bound themselves not to send any milk from here tomorrow morning. A. E. Macanay, secretary of the Milk Dealers' Association in St. John, was present for a short time, and submitted a proposition. He said he would pay thirty-five cents a can from now till March 1, and twenty-five cents from then till April 1, and twenty-five cents the balance of the year. This was refused, the dealers holding out for thirty-five cents from Sept. 1 to June 1, and twenty-five cents for the balance of the year.

There were twenty-five or thirty of the local farmers present, besides George Raymond, of Bloomfield, president of the association, and James Floyd, of Bloomfield, a director, and E. A. Schofield, of Hamilton. H. A. Corbett was elected chairman and Edwin Criggs secretary.

The business of the meeting was not entered upon. Mr. Macanay, who could be present only between trains, first submitted his proposition. A long discussion followed, during which it was claimed that the lowest possible cost of production of the present time is thirty cents a can, and that even this allows a value of only a ton for hay and $30 a ton for milk. It was unanimously decided to reject Mr. Macanay's offer. Instead an agreement was signed by nearly 20 present that they would not send any milk to St. John for nine months, and twenty-five cents for the remaining three. Failing receipt of the advanced price, they also agreed to send any milk to St. John tomorrow morning.

There are about twelve men who send milk from here. All of these, with the exception of two, signed the paper. About 150 quart cans are sent each day, the reason given by the two men for not signing is that they are under contract for a year.

Mr. Raymond told the meeting that the milk producers around Sussex had also come to their decision to send any milk to the city. He said, however, that the company, he said, had refused to come in. There are four of these and they are the largest producers there—Andrew Alton, David Alton, J. T. Prescott and George Dobson. David McKnight, of this place, also refused to sign, saying that he is already getting his price.

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 11.—(Special)—A strike is on in earnest here between the milk producers and the milk companies. Tonight when the Sussex express arrived the farmers were lined up at the east side of the station where they usually get their empty cans, but when the agents for the different companies offered them cans they simply refused taking them unless they would be paid at the rate of 35 cents a can in future.

The agents told them that they could not give this. There was more or less discussion between them, but the farmers went home without their cans, and unless there will be no milk shipped from here on Wednesday morning. The regular shipment will go out tomorrow morning.

If the farmers hold out this will mean quite a tie up for the dealers in St. John as the average shipment from here is 300 cans of eight quarts each day.

Mr. Floyd, of Bloomfield, was here this evening and announced that there would not be a pound of milk shipped from there tomorrow morning.

GOVERNOR TWEEDIE TO SPEAK TONIGHT

He Will Address Canadian Club on Forest Preservation.

No little interest has been aroused in the address to be delivered before the Canadian Club in Keith's assembly rooms this evening by Lieut-Governor Tweedie. The club members, with Governor Tweedie as their guest, will sit down to luncheon at 6:15 o'clock, and at the close his honor will speak on Our Forest Lands and Their Preservation.

There is a talk of legislation affecting New Brunswick forests, recently Ontario has adopted new regulations and the dominion parliament is to be asked to enact legislation tending to preserve the forest wealth of the country. In all it is a big question and one of great importance. Governor Tweedie has given much thought to the New Brunswick forests and forestry, and his address is expected to be one of the most valuable yet heard by the St. John Canadian Club.

The luncheon will be provided by the King's Daughters, who will have fifty young ladies as waitresses. The sale of tickets to the members will be continued during today, but early application is asked for. A very large attendance this evening is hoped for.

CHILDREN HAD MUMPS MOTHER TROD ON RUSTY NAIL

Every mother knows how fretful the little ones are when they develop mumps, and the many nights rest she is called upon to give. Dr. S. A. Hammond says: "If three children have had the mumps, and I used Zam-Buk for all of them with excellent results. Zam-Buk did my children a world of good, and I will always keep it handy as a household remedy. I would recommend it to all mothers, and think that no home should be without it."

BLOOD POISON AVERTED!

A punctured wound, properly treated, will heal quickly if Zam-Buk is applied according to directions, but if carelessly neglected may result in death through blood poisoning. Mrs. Hammond (the mother of the children who had the mumps) says: "I used Zam-Buk when she trod on a rusty nail. She says: 'I trod on a rusty nail, which caused a painful sore. Two applications of Zam-Buk ended the pain and removed the inflammation.' No wonder she decided to do what thousands are doing viz: 'Keep Zam-Buk handy as the household remedy.'"

A BOASTFUL PROPHET

Mr. Gaylor Wilshire, the Socialist, is plunging himself upon the fulfilment of certain of his predictions. A year ago he wrote that "an industrial cataclysm," the result of over-production, would occur in the United States within twelve months.

Mr. Wilshire may not be aware of it, but many who were not Socialists, predicted the business reaction. They perhaps, did not foresee the panic in Wall Street, which was not due to over-production, but there was a very general feeling that the turning point in a cycle of great prosperity was near at hand.

THE TWO-CENT RATE

The two-cent rate, despite the stout assertions of the Toronto World, has not worked out satisfactorily on all railways. An American exchange submits this statement in evidence:

"Disclosure was made recently of the interesting fact that the governors of several of the southern states, whose legislatures reduced railroad rates this year, were making an energetic effort to reach an amicable settlement of the rate difficulties precipitated by the enactment of the rate laws. The governors principally concerned were those of North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Virginia. The course of events in the last few months apparently demonstrated to the officials of the states as well as of the railway companies the desirability of finding some practical way out of the controversies that arose from the legislation affecting rates. A disposition to make concessions made itself apparent at conferences recently held between some of the governors and certain railroad officials at the national capital, and the suggestion for a general conference was the result. It was reported a few days ago that a tentative agreement had been reached between the governors which contemplated the setting aside of the low rates and the substitution of a uniform rate of 2 1/2 cents a mile instead.

THE NORTON ACCIDENT

Jury in Henderson Case Asks for a Number of Necessary Improvements at Norton Station.

Norton, Nov. 11.—Coroner Pearson, of Sussex, held an inquest here today in the case of Joseph F. Henderson, who was killed by a train at this place on Saturday morning. The man left his home in Queens county on Wednesday last, saying he might go from St. John to Portland in search of work. Instead of doing so he left St. John for home on the 11:25 train Friday night, and was assisted from the train at Norton by a brakeman and cautioned on account of his condition. He was lying on the platform after the train left, and afterwards he got up and walked a short distance, but evidently he was struck by the west-bound train an hour or so later.

E. H. McAlpine, K. C., represented the I. C. R. at today's inquiry, and Counselor F. E. Sharp appeared for the Henderson family. The crews of two trains, Dr. Polkins and other witnesses were heard. The verdict was: "We the undersigned unanimously agree that the body found at the railway crossing at Norton station was that of Joseph F. Henderson, who, we believe, was instantly killed by being struck by a moving train on the morning of Saturday, Nov. 9. We attach no blame to the train officials, but we strongly recommend having a night operator and open station or waiting room at Norton, also light at the railway crossing near there."

Local sentiment strongly supports the jurymen in asking for an open waiting room and a lighted crossing.

AN AWFUL RECORD

St. Pierre Fishermen Made Great Catch But at Awful Cost of Life

Canso, N. S., Nov. 11.—The death of Captain James Creaser, of the schooner Maderia, took place under very sad circumstances on board his vessel on Saturday morning at anchor in this harbor last night. The Maderia, in company with a number of vessels, arrived here on Saturday from Richibucto, loaded with lathe bound from New York, and anchored here waiting for a fair wind.

On Sunday evening Captain Creaser went on board the schooner Fredonia and chatted until 9 o'clock with Captain Rice, saying then he would go on board his own vessel before the moon went down. After reaching his vessel, Captain Creaser lay down on the lounge in his cabin and smoked and talked with his crew until 10 o'clock, when he became suddenly ill and the port physician was immediately sent for, but on arrival found that Captain Creaser was dead. Heart disease was the cause.

Free-Postal Delivery Ottawa, Nov. 11.—A report from W. L. Mackenzie King, to secretary of state, says that a final adjustment has been made of all damage claims of the Japanese in Vancouver in connection with riots of last September. Mr. King has awarded damages totalling $10,775 on the fifty-six claims presented. The total amount awarded for was $13,500, but in a number of instances it was found that the actual loss sustained was considerably less than the amount claimed. The awards, as made, are considered satisfactory by the Japanese and a cheque for the total amount due will be forwarded tomorrow by the finance department to Mr. King, and payment will be promptly made to the Japanese.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux is expected to arrive at Yokohama tomorrow or Wednesday and he will be informed by cable of the settlement of the claims made by Mr. King. The post office department is arranging to inaugurate free letter carrier delivery service in Port Arthur, Fort William and Windsor in the near future. Instructions have been sent to Charlotte-town to begin the free delivery system there at once.

HANNAH STARTS A NEW CHAIR; A TRIO--IN SHARPS AND FLATS. Editor Times: SIR—It was this way—I cut ice in winter, store it, sell it to suburbanites in summer, it's a sure crop. The other day I went to the mill for sawdust—got home at early evening. Miss Fly met me at the door, and told me a stork had left three little boys during the absence—the gave me a long list—got these things, she said and hurry all you can. I drove the old horse to the limit, and in the store bought camphor, cotton batting, soothing syrup, etc. When I returned I went to Hannah's door. Miss Fly would not let me in. Hannah said let him in. In the cradle were three little red lumps—crying in trio Hannah said "This is Nature's first song." I said, "Hannah, I'm sorry for you."

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, Weep and you weep alone. This is old earth. Must borrow its mirth, It has sorrow enough of its own."

Miss Fly thinks she's an expert on babies. She suggested I should walk the floor with the babes. My heart broke. I told Hannah of the soothing syrup, etc. Miss Fly told me to bring. I suggested to get a little of every thing—Felix's Killer, camphor, Johnson's liniment, etc. then wrap the three kids up in cotton batting and put them in the cradle. In the cradle were three little red lumps—crying in trio Hannah said "This is Nature's first song." I said, "Hannah, I'm sorry for you."

I suggested to get a little of every thing—Felix's Killer, camphor, Johnson's liniment, etc. then wrap the three kids up in cotton batting and put them in the cradle. In the cradle were three little red lumps—crying in trio Hannah said "This is Nature's first song." I said, "Hannah, I'm sorry for you."

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, Weep and you weep alone. This is old earth. Must borrow its mirth, It has sorrow enough of its own."

Miss Fly thinks she's an expert on babies. She suggested I should walk the floor with the babes. My heart broke. I told Hannah of the soothing syrup, etc. Miss Fly told me to bring. TWO LONG SESSIONS NEEDED TO TRANSACT CITY BUSINESS

City Council Met Yesterday Afternoon and Again Last Evening --- Report on Suspension of Chamberlain is Adopted---The Clarke Wharf Reported Satisfactory.

Two lengthy sessions were necessary yesterday to dispose of the business transacted by the common council. It was decided that no tenders for wharf extension should be called for. The report of the treasury board on the suspension of the chamberlain was adopted, and consideration of changes in connection with the date of the assessment year was deferred to a special meeting when the draft of the assessment act and the petitions received will be taken up. The report of Edward Bates, that the Clarke wharf is satisfactory, was adopted. It was decided to hear all parties interested in the question of the double tracking of Union street, at a special meeting. All the aldermen, the mayor, the clerk, Marshal Coughlan, and an attorney, were present, with the common clerk. The mayor before calling the meeting to order referred to several matters of interest that had been under consideration lately. He had refused to sign the contract with G. S. Mayes for the Sand Point dredging because of certain sections with which he did not agree, and he thought the council should approve of them first. He thought also that the board of works and the treasury board were going beyond their powers in dealing with the matter. He had before the meeting consulted the city's chief magistrate. The special report of the treasury board on the suspension of the chamberlain was first taken up. The report was as follows: Your board report that in consequence of information given to the chairman by one of the auditors appointed to audit the books and accounts of the chamberlain and receiver of taxes for the past year, that upon a balance sheet he found there should be cash on hand to the amount of $1,038.06, leaving $11,618.16 to be accounted for. The chairman immediately suspended Mr. Sandall and reported the matter to the board, which action your board endorsed. Mr. Sandall, chartered accountant from R. A. MacIntyre, chartered accountant from Halifax, to audit the accounts, which he now believes done. Your board then instructed the recorder to call the London Business Accident Company Limited, of the action of the board of works, with the consent of the said company authorized the recorder to take over from Mr. Sandall $1,000 cash and securities in addition amounting to $5,000 with the understanding that the company upon its liability to the city on the guarantee of the said company, the city on the guarantee of the said company, the present they have approved. The board of works, in consequence of the action of the board of works, and requested the chairman to act in his stead until further orders, and they were accordingly approved in this respect. Your board further report that they have authorized the chairman to apply for guarantee bonds of $10,000. Your board will report further on this matter. Ald. Bullock, the chairman, in asking for your approval of the board's action, I want at this stage of the proceedings to disburse your mind or knowledge of wrong doing or any irregularities on the part of the chamberlain. The auditors having submitted to me a draft of their report, I must admit, after reading it, my convictions were that his bonds should be cancelled, if certain irregularities were not explained to the satisfaction of the guarantee company. The section in the auditor's report to which I refer was as follows: We feel it to be our duty as auditors to call the attention of your board to the fact that a considerable sum of money, to wit, $1,038.06, has been cashed in the chamberlain's daily deposits in nearly to the amount of $1,000 throughout the year 1906, after the bank deposits on any particular day had been made. The amount of $1,000 remaining to be accounted for, and the amount added upwards in January to $1,038.06 at the close of the year, and the amount of $1,038.06 charged in the cash book as deposited on the 1st of January, 1907. That amount, cash account for the year 1906. That amount, however, was not actually deposited until the first banking day after the close of the year, and as we suggested would likewise relieve your auditors of much uncertainty. Before concluding our report we desire to acknowledge our indebtedness to the chamberlain and each member of his staff for their ready and willing cooperation with our audit in connection with the work of our audit. We also feel that we would be doing an injustice to the chamberlain and to each member of his staff should we fail to express in our report recognition of the vast amount of work that devolves upon the chamberlain and his staff, and the enormous amount of work, and yet very imperfectly representing the staff, it is worthy of special notice, it being, especially, a matter of a really remarkable degree. In concluding our report we beg to respectfully suggest to your council that considering the amount of work to be done, and the fact that the chamberlain and his staff are ever they may be—and their responsibility in connection with the work of our audit, it is our opinion that a more liberal allowance as compensation for their services might consistently be made by your council than that established by the common council some years ago when the operations were by the chamberlain were so much more limited than they are now. R. MURRAY HOYD, Auditor. I. OLIVE THOMAS, Auditor.

It was decided to consider the new assessment act at a special meeting of the general committee. The section requiring all heads of departments and other officials receiving salaries to make returns to the chamberlain's office daily was adopted. The section recommending that successful applicants for relief before the appeals committee should pay forty cents, the execution fee, caused some discussion, and eventually was struck out. The last section, instructing the appeals committee not to interfere with taxes against real estate unless recommended by the department and other officials receiving salaries, was also struck out after some remarks by Ald. McGoldrick, who claimed that no remedy would be left the applicants unless the assessment was given permission. The report of the board of works was taken up section by section. Section 1, authorizing the appointment of watchmen at No. 5 shed and recommending that the transportation companies repair the doors of the warehouse, were adopted. The section relating to the extension of the west side wharves was as follows: Your board recommended that they be authorized to call for tenders for such wharves, and also to have necessary to complete the extension of South Rodney wharf. After considerable discussion the recommendation was voted down, only Ald. Baxter, McGoldrick, Baskin and Christie voting in favour of it. The meeting then adjourned until the evening.

On resuming the recommendation to purchase for $800 the land owned by Mrs. Ellis Paradise Row, was agreed to, the understanding being that arrangements for the purchase of the land should be made with the St. John Railway Company to the amount of $800 should be made. Considerable discussion took place on the recommendation to grant Mr. Rudolph the privilege of placing his scows in Wiggins slip at the rate of $500 a year. Ald. Frink claimed that the city had no power to pass a public slip and eventually the section was referred back to power to act.

Ald. McGoldrick, in moving the adoption of the report of the west side committee, reported that Edward Bates had reported that the D. C. Clarke wharf was satisfactory. It had not been built entirely in accordance with the plans, but the work was equally good. The report was adopted.

The report of the safety board was taken up. The section recommending full pay to Policeman Goshine during absence on leave on account of the death of a relative, was referred back. Ald. Baxter drew attention to the lower part of the Carleton city hall being occupied for school purposes.

Ald. Baskin said a report had been given that it would cost as much to remodel it as to build a new one. Tenders for feed, for three horse sheds and the policeman's overcoats were authorized.

Ald. Frink called attention to the want of proper sanitary conditions in the chamberlain's office. He suggested that the safety board have the committee rooms across the hall prepared in readiness for the proposed increase in the staff and that the committee should meet on the upper part. He moved that all the rooms on the ground floor be adapted to the use of the chamberlain, and that the board should be authorized to make the necessary expenditure.

The matter was discussed at length and it was finally decided that the safety board should submit a plan for alterations and an estimate of cost. The reports of the water and sewerage board and the claims committee were adopted without amendment.

The auditor's report was referred to the treasury board to be printed. It was decided to hear all parties interested in the question of the double tracking of Union street, at a special meeting of the general committee. The St. John Railway Company was given until Dec. 10 to complete the west side tracks.

After deciding to obtain the opinion of the recorder on the question of liability for an accident to a horse owned by Charles N. Huggard, who has commenced a suit against the city, the council adjourned.

MORE ROOM NEEDED FOR THE SCHOOLS

As a Result of Over Crowding It May be Necessary to Rent Zion Church Basement.

The result of the work that is being done in the city by Trustee Officer McMahon was shown by figures submitted at a meeting of the school board Monday. The secretary reported for October a total enrollment of 7,517 pupils, with a daily average attendance of 6,613. While these figures show an increase of only 150 in the enrollment, they also show the average total of 400 more in daily attendance than in October, 1906.

The superintendent reported that since the last meeting of the board twenty more pupils have been enrolled in the Winter street school, making a total of 638 children in the building at the present time. On the suggestion of Mr. Day, an effort will be made to secure the use of the basement of Zion church, pending the erection of an annex to Winter street school, as it is understood the trustees of Zion are open to negotiate.

The only communication received was from R. W. Frink re the insurance on the boiler in the Albert building. It was referred to the building committee. The report of that committee, which was adopted, contained the following recommendations: That Mr. Oldford, the janitor of the Victoria school, be reinstated in his rooms in the building at a salary of $450; that the salary of the janitor of Douglas street school be advanced to $450; St. Malachuk, to $360; Victoria annex, to $300.

The chairman reported for the committee, appointed at a previous meeting to interview the trustees of Leinster street church re their application for a larger allowance for fuel, that a new boiler had since been placed in the building and is giving every satisfaction, and that their application for more money is still under consideration.

On motion of Mr. Russell, the matter of the Winter street school was taken up. He referred to the overcrowding there as being serious, and said he would not like it if a fire broke out, as it now takes two minutes to get a half to empty the building at fire drill.

The superintendent reported that since the last meeting of the board twenty more pupils have been enrolled, making a total of 638 children there. These twenty, he said, were not of outside families but city people returning from the country.

The chairman said that Mr. Day had suggested that the use of Zion church basement could be secured from its trustees for the winter, and it was decided to enter into negotiations with that end in view pending the erection of an annex.

Mr. Allan at this point mentioned that a larger fire ring was needed in Albert school, as well as a clock and some other small matters.

Mr. Russell also wanted a porch built at the Dufferin school. These matters were left to the building committee to look after.

On motion of Mr. Bullock, it was decided that the secretary should, at the next meeting, bring in a statement of the expenditure of the board to date together with the amount of the estimates.

Dr. Bridges announced that owing to the lack of furniture, he had not been able to open the new school in the Albert building as intended, and it was agreed to let the matter lie over till after the Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Skinner next referred to the sudden death of Miss Helen, a teacher in the Protestant Orphan Asylum, and the length of time she had served the board. She thought it would only be a fitting thing for the board to send a letter of condolence to the surviving sister.

It was decided on motion that the superintendent should send such a letter. Trustee Officer McMahon then made a report, after which Dr. Bridges drew attention to a matter with which he said the board would have to deal sooner or later. This was the question of what should be done about school boys who have been convicted of stealing or other crimes in the police court and discharged with a reprimand. He went on to show the embarrassing position in which it put the teachers when they have to receive such pupils, and expressed the opinion that ultimately a trust school will have to be provided as a home for the large cities in the States. The board seemed of the opinion also that such an institution will have to be provided, but in the meantime it was pointed out the only way possible is to enroll the boys.

Those present at the meeting, besides Mr. Old, who was in the chair, were Messrs. Bullock, Russell, Day, Nase, Allen, Mrs. Skinner and Mrs. Dvor, Dr. Bridges and Trustee Officer McMann.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 11.—A very successful temperance meeting, under the auspices of the Young People's Society, was held in the vestry of the Methodist church this evening. Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. J. Collier, J. E. Berry and Dr. McLeod. The latter, in the course of a vigorous address, came out strongly against the members of the police force for their failure to enforce the Scott act, and went so far as to say that they were in collusion with the liquor dealers of the city.

To Suffer From Headaches Makes Life Miserable

It takes a person that has had and is subject to headaches to describe the suffering which it entails. The majority of cases are caused by constipation and dyspepsia. The dull throbbing, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cases which brings it on, purely indicating that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels.

M. G. Murphy Now in Spokane in the Interests of the Canadian Pacific.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 12.—M. G. Murphy, of Winnipeg, general traveling passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has been making a tour of the northwestern states to acquaint himself with conditions in the territory in which the connecting lines, is of the opinion that the only change which will take place in the general prosperous condition in all lines of commerce and industry in the northwest will be for the better.

At no place where I have been have I heard any fears on account of the financial situation. The people are all taking a calm view of the state of affairs, realizing that the scarcity of money has been really brought about by the extraordinary prosperity, and that the way to relieve the stringency is to adapt themselves to the plans being worked out by the bankers for the relief of business.

High prices for products and financial disasters do not keep company with crop conditions. The farmers have the products of the soil and they are in demand to a greater degree than ever before.
