

LAST HOPE OF FOUR GUNMEN VANISHES

Judge Goff Has Declined to Re-open Their Case.

TO DIE AT DAWN THIS MORNING.

Governor Glynn Refuses to Stay Execution—Nothing in New Evidence to Justify Reprieve He Says.

Ossining, N. Y., April 12.—Harry Horowitz, Louis Raseburg, Frank Croft, and Frank Seldenshies have spent their last day on earth. As the gunmen whose picturesque aliases were famous on the continent after the murder of the New York gambler, Herman Rosenthal, die at dawn in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison, convicted of that murder.

New York, April 11.—The last hope of the four gunmen condemned to die on Monday for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was seemingly blighted tonight when Supreme Court Justice John W. Goff, to whom a final appeal for a new trial had been made, declined to re-open their case.

At a prolonged hearing today Justice Goff, who was the presiding judge at the trial of the gunmen, listened to the testimony of new witnesses produced at the last moment by counsel for the doomed men. Late in the afternoon, after District-Attorney Chas. S. Whitman had been given his opportunity to effect a newly-offered testimony by the witnesses of his own, Justice Goff took the case under advisement, announcing that he would render a decision tonight.

For more than four hours the justice tolled over the record of the day's proceedings. Then, at a moment or two before ten o'clock, he appeared at the door of his chamber and briefly and quietly announced to the waiting gunmen that he had decided to grant a new trial, adding merely that his opinion would be given as soon as copies of it could be prepared.

C. G. F. Wahl, the gunman's attorney, was told that the application had been denied when waiting in the corridors of the judge's chambers. He immediately went to his office and met all the newspaper men that he had gathered there. He announced that the men must die both the men and the women in the crowd broke down and wept. They all believed the gunman would be granted a new trial when the new witnesses were discovered.

Judge Wahl declared he would go to Albany early tomorrow morning and would make another personal appeal to Governor Glynn. He said he would take all the affidavits which were presented to Justice Goff and place them before the governor for his consideration. "I shall fight until the end," declared Judge Wahl.

Albany, N. Y., April 11.—In the executive chamber of the state capitol Governor Glynn heard the final appeals of two attorneys for the convicted slayers, C. G. F. Wahl and H. L. Kringle, for a stay of the death sentences, and then again and for the last time refused to interfere with the executions.

A written statement was later issued at the executive chamber stating the governor's answer that there was nothing before him to justify his interference with the course of the law.

MRS. HELEN F. MOWAT OF ST. ANDREWS PASSED AWAY ON SATURDAY

Was Daughter of Late Dr. W. Brydon Jack — News of Death Causes of Deep Regret to Wide Circle Friends in Province.

St. Andrews, N. B., April 12.—A beautiful life came to a close and the moral and spiritual life in this community was made poorer when Mrs. Helen Forbes Mowat, widow of Charles E. Mowat, passed peacefully to her rest at nine o'clock on Saturday evening last. Mrs. Mowat had been for some weeks, and although her death was unexpected, the end brought unspeakable sadness to her very wide circle of friends who knew her well and loved her much for her many noble and Christian virtues.

The late Mrs. Mowat was a daughter of the late Dr. W. Brydon Jack, for many years Chancellor of the University of New Brunswick. Her husband predeceased her in October, 1885. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Miriam Marguerite Mowat at home, and one son, Reginald Culbert Mowat of Montreal. Two sisters and three brothers also survive. They are Mrs. G. B. Fraser of Chatham, N. B., and Mrs. Louis Millidge of St. John; Arthur Brydone Jack, a barrister, and Dr. Brydone Jack, both of Vancouver, B. C., and Ernest Brydone Jack of Winnipeg, an engineer with the place of the funeral services will take place on Tuesday afternoon from Greenock Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Mowat was a very faithful and devoted member.

FORMER WIFE OF CAILLAUX ON THE STAND

Says Editor Calmette Never Offered Her Money for Documents Relating to Finance Minister.

Paris, April 11.—Mme. Gueyran-Dupre, former wife of Joseph Caillaux and her son Françoise Dupre testified today at the inquiry before Magistrate Boncompagni into the case of M. Calmette, editor of the Figaro, by Mme. Caillaux, that M. Calmette never had offered them directly or indirectly money for documents relating to M. Caillaux; Mme. Gueyran-Dupre said she had never been approached by anyone with a view to arranging an interview with M. Calmette. She also affirmed that she had not communicated to M. Calmette the contents of letters or documents of any kind, and declared that she had been surprised at the publication of the "Thy Joe" letter. The witness said that at the time of the publication of this letter she had telephoned M. Caillaux and that he had told her that he knew she was too loyal to have given it out.

M. Soucaud had summoned the Princess De Mesange-Estrader, former society editor of the Figaro, to confront Mme. Gueyran-Dupre at the proceedings today but the princess was out of the city. The princess some time ago testified that at the time of the divorce of Caillaux and Mme. Dupre three letters were destroyed by agreement in the presence of notaries but Mme. Dupre had retained photographs of the letters. M. Calmette, she continued, knew of the existence of the photographs and offered $6,000 to a person to arrange an interview with the holder of the photographs. This offer was refused. The princess said M. Calmette made a similar offer to her, but she refused it.

END OF COAL STRIKE LOOKS NEAR NOW

London, April 12.—As the result of the prolonged discussion of the coal board's proposals by the council of the Yorkshire Miners' Association on Saturday at Barnsley it is expected that the coal strike in that county will soon terminate. The meeting was private, but the decision reached was that the council recommended to the members that proposals be accepted and that an individual ballot be taken by the members on the subject of the union's response to the board's proposals. The sum of £60,000 had been paid out in strike pay up to the end of the week, and this has made the miners' position upon the union's resources, which fact has undoubtedly been a factor in bringing about the conciliatory spirit shown. Another influence towards peace is the fact that although the English section of the Federation of Miners promised both moral and financial support, they would not favor the calling of a general sympathetic strike. The dispute, which involves some 100,000 men, arose out of the alleged wrongful reduction of wages as being contrary to the award given by Sir Edward Clarke, which raised the minimum six pence per day.

REBUILDING CHURCH BURNED BY MILITANTS

London, April 12.—Whitkirk church in East Lothian, recently burned by the suffragettes, is being rebuilt. An influential Scottish committee, of which Lord Roseberry is chairman, has set out to raise a fund of £10,000 for the new church, of which £2,000 has already been subscribed.

SCHOONER IN COURTNEY BAY

Charles Augusta Struck on Round Reef and Blew up into Mud Flats -- Rudder Smashed.

About the time Saturday night that the schooner Conrad S. was being driven ashore at Black Point, it was not known by those who happened to be along the harbor front that there was another vessel being stranded. It was not known until after daylight that a vessel was ashore in Courtney Bay. It proved to be the Charles Augusta, a Boston schooner of about eighty tons. The little schooner was loaded with pine lumber and bound to this port from Boston. Late Saturday night the vessel was being sailed into port when through the heavy wind and sea her commander ran too close to the round reef with the result that the vessel struck, her rudder was carried away, her main boom was broken, and a section of her keel and stern was carried away. The vessel was thus left helpless. She pounded over the reef and as the south west wind was driving into Courtney Bay it carried the disabled craft ahead of it. She went between the space at the end of the new breakwater and the western shore and did not bring up again until she had reached the flats midway in Courtney Bay and about opposite the Municipal Home. The schooner was dropped, and at daylight when the opportunity arrived the schooner's captain got on shore and cried to obtain the services of a tug to tow his disabled schooner out of the bay to a place of safety. The seas were too rough, however, for a tug to attempt the feat, and the schooner will perhaps be made today to tow her out.

TO ASSIST SUFFERERS

Newfoundlanders in St. John Raising Money to Aid the Grief Stricken Families.

There was an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of St. David's church when R. H. Tall, of St. John's Newfoundland, and who is attending the King's Law School, presided over a large gathering of natives of Newfoundland. The purpose was to discuss and take action in the matter of obtaining funds for the relief of the sufferers in the recent disaster to the steamer Southern Cross, and to the large number of seafarers from the steamer Newfoundland. It was shown that Halifax, Toronto and other cities had subscribed large amounts. Among those who attended the meeting were some who had relatives who had been lost. The 280 souls on the Southern Cross are thought to be lost, and 65 bodies had been found from the steamer Newfoundland and 36 more are missing.

Among those attending the meeting who subscribed 25 and pledges amounting to more than this were made. A committee of three were appointed to wait on the Mayor and Commissioners to request that the city give a grant, and a committee of five were appointed to make collections for the aid of the sufferers. This committee are J. Puddington, 94 Carmarthen street; James Donnelly,

FOR PEACE IN IRELAND

Solemn Service in Carleton Presbyterian Church Last Evening -- Rev. Dr. Morison on Home Rule.

"Do thou, O God, grant a spirit of wisdom, patience and of the fear of the Lord to the King's ministers, to the members of Parliament and to every servant of our empire; may peace and unity and concord and brotherly love be maintained and prevailed."

So prayed Rev. John A. Morison, D. D., in the Carleton Presbyterian church last night in response to the appeal for prayers issued by the leaders of the church in England, that a peaceful solution of the Irish crisis might be found, and as the preacher uttered these solemn petitions the members of the congregation that filled every seat bowed their heads in silent supplication, and then the preacher proceeded to talk to the people of the subject of Home Rule for Ireland, and for fifty minutes the congregation listened to his inspiring words as he told the story of Ireland's fight for Home Rule during the last forty years.

In opening his address Dr. Morison pointed out that he believed in home rule and he thought the Irish, who had produced men and women high in the various callings of life, were well qualified to govern themselves. It had been suggested that two parliaments be given to Ireland, one for the north and the other for the south. This could not be adopted because the reason for home rule was based almost entirely on sentiment, and that was the unity of the Irish race.

There was a very strong opposition to the Home Rule Bill by Ulster but the difficulty was not that of race or religion, although with some individuals this may find emphasis, but the real difficulty was a constitutional question. He thought that a solution of the difficulty might be found if the parties interested got together upon the elemental principles involved. "Ultimately," said the speaker, "sooner or later Ireland must be granted Home Rule and there must be no civil war."

ONE KILLED, SIX HURT, IN TRAIN WRECK

New Britain, Conn., April 11.—One man was killed and six persons were injured when a suburban train on the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, eastbound, was wrecked at Clayton, two miles from the city, today. Five of the injured were passengers and none suffered seriously. Engineer Frederick Benson of East Hartford, and Fireman Henry Carroll of North Redding, Conn., were taken from the wreck unconscious and removed to a hospital, where Carroll died soon after. The cause of the accident has not been determined.

DREDGE FOR COURTNEY BAY

No. 3 Dredge for Norton Griffiths Co. arrived in Port Saturday night--Stormy Voyage.

When Captain Shaw of the big Boston ocean going tug Underwriter, arrived safely in port about 9:30 o'clock on Saturday night with the large dipper dredge No. 3 owned by the Norton Griffiths Co. he and the crew on the tug were happy persons. The tug and her tow left New York a week ago last Tuesday and had fairly good weather making the run to Rockland, Maine, in five days. The tug and dredge remained in Rockland early Friday morning, when the chances looked favorable for them to leave that port for St. John. Everything went along well and the big tug made good progress with her heavy tow until Saturday evening, when coming up the bay, then the wind sprang up and caused a heavy sea. At times it was thought that the heavy strain, as the tug and dredge surged about in the sea, would cause the hawsers to part, but they held secure and the tug arrived in port about 3:30 o'clock on Saturday night. The tug and dredge were docked at Reid's Point wharf.

The tug Underwriter is 327 tons, and although she has been in port on a number of previous occasions she was visited by a large number of persons yesterday.

The dredge is about the size of the dredge Beaver and is powerful looking and it is expected that when she gets to work will make great headway in the removing of material. Workmen will commence immediately to get the big No. 3 into shape, and it will not be very long before she will join the other dredges in Courtney Bay.

ANXIOUS FOR SHIPBUILDING PLANT AT LEVIS

Quebec, April 12.—While the Borden government is ready and desirous to give every reasonable encouragement to the promotion of the shipbuilding industry in Canada and will insist that all vessels for the Canadian services must be built within the confines of the Dominion in future, it has no intention of establishing a precedent by subsidizing wealthy and powerful British citizens who interviewed him with regard to the establishment of a branch of the Armstrong firm at Levis, where the new drydock is to be built.

Hon. J. P. Pelletier answered that his government fully recognized the importance of encouraging this industry and all government vessels would be built in Canada. He would do everything to help the industry and was glad to hear that the people of Quebec and Levis were negotiating with the Armstrongs and hoped to induce them to establish a branch at Levis. The Armstrongs were a rich and powerful concern and needed no monetary assistance from the government. Besides, the people of Canada are giving the subsidies to wealthy outside firms and thus discriminating against the existing Canadian enter-

WEATHER FINE FOR EASTER PARADE

SUCH COLORS NEVER WERE SEEN BEFORE.

Principal Churches of Metropolitan Crowded With Worshipers at Easter-morn Services.

New York, April 12.—A shift in the wind early this morning drove the rain clouds away and gave New York one of the fairest Easter Sundays it has had in years. Blue skies, brilliant sunshine and a breeze that savored almost of June-time made a perfect setting for the historic fashion parade on upper Fifth avenue. And there were paraders by the thousands women handsomely attired in the latest modes of fashion and men immaculately clad in the vestments of the sartorial experts had decreed most proper.

Color ran riot throughout the entire ensemble. Never before in the history of the famous parade have such hues in solid colors and variegated been so much in evidence. From midday's neck ruchings to the frill at the bottom of her skirt everything was borrowed from the hues of the rainbow. Puffs, panniers, ruffles, gathers, frills and flounces, stripes and strapings, all had their places in the toilette. On hats feathers were taboo and flowers and ribbons were the only decorations. These, however, were with the gowns in multi-colors.

Prior to the fashion parade all the principal churches of the city were crowded with Easter-Sunday worshipers. St. Patrick's Cathedral, Trinity, St. John's, St. Thomas and St. Bartholomew's all had elaborately decorated and had elaborate music programmes.

R. E. ARMSTRONG REMEMBERED BY FELLOW CITIZENS

St. Andrews, April 11.—Mr. R. E. Armstrong the retiring editor of the Beacon, ex-Mayor and president of the Board of Trade, who is about to remove to St. John, received a surprise on Saturday night when at a mass meeting of citizens Mayor Greenlaw on behalf of the townspeople presented Mr. Armstrong with a magnificent gold watch. It bore his initials on the bezel and the inscription, "R. E. Armstrong, from the citizens of St. Andrews, N. B., 1839-1914."

Mr. Armstrong made a feeling response. Short sympathetic addresses were delivered by Judge Cowburn, G. W. Babbitt, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia; T. R. Wren, collector of customs, and others. The meeting broke up with singing of Auld Lang Syne.

Mr. Hugh Kelner, chief engineer of the city waterworks, Windsor, Ontario, and Miss Louisa May, of Woodstock, England, were wedded at St. John's Saturday evening by Rev. R. W. Weddall.

RAILWAYS ARE EXPECTED TO FILE APPEAL

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, April 12.—It is fully expected that the railway companies will appeal to the Governor-in-Council from the judgment of the railway commission which last week ordered a reduction in western freight rates. No appeal has yet been entered, but the companies have one month in which to do so. While no opinion can be obtained as to what the result of such an appeal might be it is pointed out that the railway companies have hitherto shown little disposition to interfere with the decisions of the board. It is also known that the government has great faith in the judgment of Chairman Drayton of the commission.

In this connection it is interesting to note that whereas it has been originally contemplated to disallow in the new railway act all appeals from the decisions of the board on questions of fact, and leave only the right of appeal to the supreme court on questions of law and jurisdiction, the new measure as drafted preserves the right of appeal to the governor in council.

AUTO AND BARN ARE BURNED IN YARMOUTH

Parrsboro, April 12.—An automobile belonging to E. A. Vaughan, caught fire and was destroyed just after it had been put in his barn and in a short time the barn was also in flames. The firemen soon got the fire under control but both the barn and automobile were badly damaged.

The fire was caused by a gas leak from the engine. The automobile was a 1913 model and the barn was a two-story structure. The fire started at about 10 o'clock and was extinguished by the fire department at 11 o'clock. The cause of the fire is being investigated by the fire marshal.

DOESN'T AGREE WITH TRIPLE ALLIANCE PLAN

Berlin, April 11.—The North German Gazette in an article published today says: The ambassadors of Great Britain, France and Russia, having written to Berlin, Vienna and Rome the principles of their government in answer to a Greek note concerning South Albania and the Aegean Island question. This communication conflicts with the proposal of the powers of the Triple Alliance, which had as an object the speedy evacuation of South Albania by Greek troops. An exchange of ideas is now taking place among the powers over the proposals and there are in such form that an agreement of all the powers concerning the answer to be given Athens will be reached without difficulty.

MUSIC AND IMPRESSIVE SERMONS IN CHURCHES EASTER SUNDAY

Exceptionally Fine Programmes of Sacred Music — Churches Beautifully Decorated with Lilies and other Flowers — Many Forceful Addresses Marked Occasion.

Special services marked Easter Sunday in the local churches when sermons appropriate to the occasion were delivered, and splendid programmes of Easter music rendered.

Leinster Street Baptist. Special services marked the celebration of Easter at the Leinster street Baptist church. In connection with the services there was a fine musical programme. At the morning service the pastor Rev. Wellington Camp, baptized three candidates, and at the evening service twenty-four persons were admitted to fellowship in the church—eight by letter and sixteen by serious baptism.

Carmarthen Street. The Easter services in Carmarthen street Methodist church were marked by special music of high order rendered by a choir of about seventy voices. The decorations of Easter lilies and cut and potted flowers of many kinds presented a beautiful appearance, reflecting great credit on the ladies who had the preparations in charge.

Queen Square Methodist. Easter Sunday was observed as "Go to Church Sunday" at the Queen Square Methodist church, and the services both morning and evening were largely attended. A great many strangers were present at the services including visitors to the city and many who seldom go to church. The musical service was specially prepared for the occasion, and the work of the

Weak, Nervous Condition After Baby's Birth

Tried Tonics and Doctor's Medicine in Vain, and Found in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the Means of Restoring Health and Vigor.

The womanly system calls for an abundant supply of rich, red blood. As related in this letter, many a woman finds, after the birth of her child, that her system is entirely run down, and for lack of red blood she is unable to regain strength and to supply proper nourishment to her baby.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food taken in moderate doses has proven a great blessing under these circumstances. It sharpens the appetite, restores digestion, and gradually and certainly rebuilds the wasted system. Being mild and gentle in action, this food cure does not upset the natural functions of the bodily organs, but certainly insures their healthful working.

Mrs. Dyer, 38 Pape avenue, Toronto.

Methodist church yesterday was marked by impressive sermons and excellent Easter music by the choir. At the morning service the pastor, Rev. W. H. Barracough, spoke from the subject "Joy and Sorrow." Besides the regular music the following Easter music was sung: "Blow Golden Trumpets," by Osgood; anthem, "As I Began to Dawn," by Vincent. At the evening service the special music was as follows: anthem, "Sing Oh Heavens," by Sullivan, D. B. Piddison rendered a sacred solo. Rev. Mr. Barracough preached from the subject "Heartburnings."

Congregational church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, cut flowers and potted plants and presented a beautiful appearance.

Main Street Baptist. Twenty-eight candidates were baptized at the morning service in Main street Baptist church yesterday by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson. The sermon by the pastor was on the subject of baptism. In the evening the regular Easter service took place. The special music included the following: Organ voluntary—Miss Bessie Farmer. Anthem—"He is Risen." "They Have Taken Away My Lord," "Forth Into Joy." Solos—"Alleluia" Mrs. B. L. Gerow; "The Resurrection," Miss Audrey Hall. Duet—"Forever with the Lord," Miss Fay Scribner and Harry Shaw. Benediction and threefold Amen.

ADVOCATES CHURCH WORK EXTENSION

J. S. Woodworth, of Winnipeg, before Centenary and Germain Street Brotherhoods.

The members of the Centenary and Germain Street Brotherhoods united in a meeting in the Germain street institute yesterday when J. S. Woodworth of Winnipeg addressed them on social service subjects.

Mr. Woodworth first took up the matter of immigration and pointed out that many foreigners were coming into Canada. Only last year nearly half a million was added to the population by immigration. These people formed one of the greatest problems of the country. The Christian people had to deal with the problem. Some thought that these were only foreigners and that anything was good enough for them. The Canadian people were responsible for the country and must do something in the way of giving these new citizens a wider range of life.

He spoke of the conditions in the foreign districts in large cities and urged the need of better housing conditions. Every workman should be entitled to a house of his own and he thought that many of the problems of this country would be solved when this was brought about. In St. John there were no houses in the district and the housing problem was quite acute here.

Church Work Extension. He made a strong plea for the extension of church work along broader lines. At present in many towns and cities there were no places of recreation for the young people outside of the hotels and pool rooms and the moving picture houses. A advocated picture shows in the school buildings. These pictures could be of the instructive kind and would help to teach the people in general some of the methods of improving the community.

Town planning was another feature that would help to solve some of the great housing problems. Our forefathers built the towns in a haphazard way and very little attention was given to recreation spaces. The speaker had heard one banker say that these swimming pools were not required now. In his time the old mill pond was good enough. This man had not kept track of modern progress for he evidently did not know that in the modern towns and cities there were no mill ponds for swimming pools.

The high death rate among children was also deplorable in Canada and modern towns and cities there were no parks. The speaker said that "God in His wisdom had seen fit to take the little one to Himself" was not just right. Many of the children who die are preventable. In many foreign sections it was necessary to illustrate the truth of cleanliness and moving pictures were a great help.

In closing Mr. Woodworth pointed out that the people of the churches should take Christianity into their every day life. Many men thought that because they went to church on Sunday that they were Christians. They liked in business but now we had a broader view and Christianity was as much in business as anywhere else.

Besides she carried several big consignments of boneless dry fish route for the upper provinces. This gives some idea of the fish traffic through St. John, though it does not include imports from Nova Scotia made by St. John firms which sell extensively in the markets of the upper provinces.

TEA SPOILS WITH AGE. No tea is fit to drink after it is two years old. That is the age limit of tea quality and benefit. The best tea is the freshest. "Salada" Tea owes much of its world wide reputation to its sale fresh from the plantation. The leaves are fresh picked every week of the year, then dried, sorted and packed in airtight lead packets. Every five weeks a new picking of "Salada" comes fresh from the plantation to the purchaser.

Bulk teas, carried year after year, lose their freshness. Use "Salada" and benefit by getting a cup of tea that is a pleasure to drink.

BREAKWATER DAMAGED BY HEAVY GALE

Structure on West Side of Courtenay Bay Partly Torn away by Seas on Saturday Evening.

The winds and heavy sea of Saturday evening caused considerable damage to the C. R. breakwater on the west side of Courtenay Bay and near the foot of Orange street. This breakwater is in connection to the C. R. track running around the bay from Barrack Point to the cotton factory, and it was estimated yesterday by a carpenter contractor that as it stands now it will cost in the vicinity of two thousand dollars to put the breakwater in the condition that it was before it was broken and torn away by the heavy sea.

Previous tides during the fall and winter have caused destruction to the breakwater. A hole had been torn in the side of it, and this gave the water a chance to wash in and loosen the above portions of the structure. The strong high tide and gale of Saturday evening completed the destruction. In past years it has been necessary to repair this breakwater about every year, but the last time it was repaired more care was taken to try and prevent the entire destruction. It will be necessary now, however, to spend considerable money in the reconstruction in order to give the protection that was before afforded the track running around the bay.

The sea on Saturday evening washed right through the breakwater, scattering the heavy rock filling and the upper uprights and strong hardwood timber were washed away. As it is now the outer end of the breakwater a stretch of about one half its length is a mess of scattered stones, all the upper woodwork having been scattered and at high tide the sea washes through the protection wall.

THE TEA PLANT. The tea plant reaches its highest perfection in the climate and soil of Ceylon. The plant matures in four years in high altitudes and the leaves are plucked week by week the year round.

The plucking is done by women, and the light touch of their fingers is the only touch that the human hand gives "Salada" Tea.

When you open the airtight package of "Salada" you inhale the fragrance of tea just as we should serve it if you were our guest on a Ceylon plantation.

Your grocer sells "Salada" so that all you have to do is to insist on getting the genuine in sealed lead packets with the name on each, this is your safeguard.

A Misunderstanding
In The Standard of Friday appeared a paragraph to the effect that a number of merchants had escaped probable loss through a misunderstanding of the Pinkerton Detective Agency. There seems to have been some misunderstanding in regard to this, as there are in reality two concerns using the name of Pinkerton. One of these is the Pinkerton National of New York, while the other is Pinkerton & Company, United States Detective Agency, with commercial departments having head offices in Chicago. Both are said to be responsible institutions.

Mrs. Margaret Ann Arthurs

THE ALGONQUIN HOTEL AT ST. ANDREWS, PREY TO FIRE SATURDAY

Concrete Wings all that Remains of Magnificent Hotel—Started from Spark Getting Under Shingles of Wing—Hard Work of Fire Fighters Saved all Cottages but One—A Spectacular Blaze.

Special to The Standard.

St. Andrews, N. B., April 12.—If it had not been for the concrete additions which were made in recent years there would be nothing left of the stately Algonquin Hotel today but a heap of smouldering ruins. Every atom of wood work about the great building, including the central section, the roofs of the concrete wings, the wooden stairways and partitions, etc., was completely destroyed in the fire which began at noon on Saturday and raged throughout the afternoon.

The fire originated from a charcoal spark which had gone beneath the wing, whilst some repairs were being made by workmen. Smouldering on the tarred paper it worked its way to the woodwork while the men were at dinner, and a great conflagration was the result.

Water Supply Turned Off.

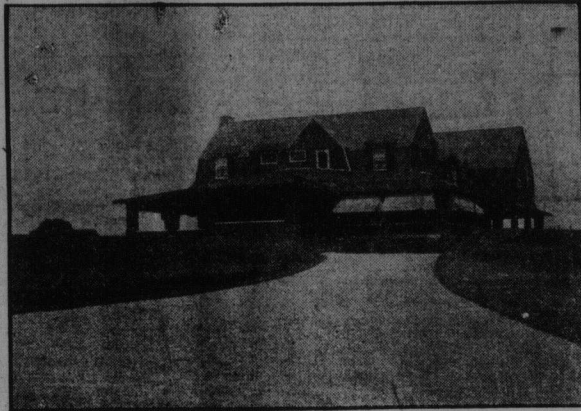

The water supply which had been turned off for the winter had not been restored, so that there was little to fight the fire with except buckets. In less than an hour after the fire started, fanned by a westerly gale, the flames had eaten through to the four story central section of wood. Being highly inflammable it burned with great fierceness, the sparks being carried miles away. Some of them even set fire to the grass alongside Sir William Van Horne's summer home on Minster's Island. George Chase's farm buildings a mile away were fired by these wind blown sparks, but the fire was speedily extinguished. Half an hour after the flames had taken hold of the wooden section it was completely destroyed together with the board verandah in front.

Then the fire penetrated the western concrete wing which was built two years ago. Everything of an inflammable nature in its five storeys was burned. It was feared that the explosion of the ammonia tanks near the refrigerator would result in possible accident to human life, but happily this did not occur. The fire burned in this section like a great furnace for several hours. It was a spectacular conflagration, and had it occurred at night would have been seen for many miles.

Construction men say that the concrete wings have suffered little damage, and that they can be used again taken out before the fire reached it and were safely removed to the casino, but with this exception little of the contents of the hotel were saved. Manager Allerton was away at the time having gone to Boston on

RESIDENCE OF SIR THOS. SHAUGHNESSY

Which was within danger zone but escaped.

when the hotel is being restored. There were many beautiful summer cottages within the fire zone, but with the exception of No. 1 Algonquin cottage, which stood immediately to the north of the hotel, all the cottages were saved. The summer cottage of George B. Hopkins, of New York, which was separated from the hotel by only the width of the street was on fire several times, but the firemen by desperate efforts succeeded in saving it. Had it burned the summer houses of Mr. Gill, of Ottawa, Mr. Southern, of Ottawa, Mr. Douglas Seel, of Montreal, Prof. Smith, of Cambridge, and possibly the summer residence of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy would have been destroyed. Nearly all the interior furnishings on the lower floor of the hotel were

Friday night to ensure his help for the season. It is the prevailing belief that while the destruction of the hotel has been a great loss to the town, it will lead to the construction of a more modern and more beautiful hotel. The Algonquin hotel was opened in 1889 with Mr. F. A. Jones, of St. John, as its first manager. Since then it has been greatly enlarged and improved, the C. P. R. having spent nearly a quarter of a million upon it in making additions and in supplying it with modern equipment. The entire value of the hotel and furnishings was about three quarters of a million. It had accommodations for over 400 guests. Many enquiries for rooms had been received this year and a successful season was anticipated.

A COMPLETE INVESTIGATION

It is the inalienable right of every British subject that he shall not be condemned until proven guilty. In the case of the charges against Premier Fleming this fact seems to have been lost sight of and this is the more remarkable when it is remembered that nothing has been proven and the charges consist merely of assertions very largely from men whose public records do not warrant the presumption that their statements are to be received with the greatest amount of credence.

The fact of making charges, however, is enough, in itself, to require a full and searching investigation, especially when the gentleman affected is the head of the government of the province. The party in power in New Brunswick has kept itself absolutely clean and therefore is in a position to welcome the fullest possible investigation. It considers such a course to be its constitutional duty and proposes to turn on the allegations the greatest light.

People may speculate about the charges as much as they please but at the same time they can be assured with every degree of certainty that there will be no "dark lantern" brigade at Fredericton and no gag rule will be applied. The government courts and demands the widest investigation and that all the facts shall be brought to light. Until this is done, however, it is hardly the part of decency to condemn anyone.

The course of demanding a complete inquiry into the charges must stand out in direct contrast to that adopted by the Dominion government when charges were preferred in connection with the construction of the National Transcontinental Railway, and when there was abundant and well supported evidence that there had been the rankest sort of graft, waste and misappropriation of public funds. Yet, when the inquiry was held, and the charges proven, the very man who, in the provincial capital, is now exerting every effort to condemn in advance the Premier of New Brunswick, stood up in his place in the House of Commons and whined like a spoiled child that the inquiry into the N. T. R. deal was unfair and partisan. One of the most cringing and cowardly of the opposition speeches on the Guelph-Staunton report was delivered by Mr. Frank B. Carvell of Carleton county, the man who achieved some undesirable notoriety as the prime-mover of the dark lantern gentlemen who moved to keep hidden the scandalous record of the Laurier government.

In the present case the people may be sure that every charge will be probed to the bottom. The days of the methods of Carvell and his companions have departed from Canada forever.

DISGUSTING TACTICS

There has been no more nauseating event in connection with the present session of the Dominion Parliament than the attempts of the opposition members to use the Irish Home Rule question as a pretext for arousing sectarian prejudice against members and supporters of the Borden government. Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes has been the chief target for the despicable shafts of the men behind Laurier. It has been claimed by them that he despatched messages of sympathy to Sir Edward Carson and stated that the government would make no move to prevent men who wished to fight against the home rule cause from leaving Canada to take up arms in Ireland under the banner of the anti-home rulers. Of course, Col. Hughes made no such statement but if he had done so he would merely have stated a fact which a moment's reflection will prove to be obvious. How could the government prevent men from leaving this country to fight either in favor or against home rule if they desired to go? But even though this is the case Col. Hughes did not state it.

Hon. Frank Cochrane, now abroad, was also accused by these high minded patriots of having attended a demonstration in Ireland, the chief feature of which was the presentation of a sword to the leader of the anti-home rule forces. The latest man to come into the limelight in this connection is Captain Tom Wallace, an officer in the Canadian militia and member of parliament for Centre York, Ontario. Captain Wallace is a son of the late Grand Master of the Orange order in British America. Possibly it was on this account that the Grit strifes promoters fixed upon him as a fitting and likely subject for attack, and demanded to know what action Col. Hughes would take because of a message Captain Wallace was said to have sent to Sir Edward Carson assuring him of sympathy.

Quite properly the Minister of Militia replied that the matter did not come under the jurisdiction of his department. Captain Wallace, he said,

Diary of Events

HISTORIC DAYS IN CANADA

Sir John Schultz, one of the ablest of the pioneers in the development of Manitoba, died in Winnipeg eighteen years ago today. A native of Ontario, he adopted the profession of medicine, and upon receiving his degree began practice in the frontier village of Winnipeg. He also engaged in the long stretch of travel widely over the West, making many important contributions to scientific knowledge of the soil, climate, flora and fauna of the country. When Riel began his first rebellion in 1869, Dr. Schultz organized a body of half-armed troops to oppose the halfbreeds. After a gallant resistance, Dr. Schultz and his men were forced to surrender to the rebels and were imprisoned at Fort Gary. The young physician was sentenced to death, but although wounded in the leg, he managed with the aid of a small party through the assistance of a sick wife, to escape his captors. Later Dr. Schultz made his way on snowshoes and foot over the long stretch of wilderness to Duluth, Minn., and from there he travelled by train to eastern Canada, where he became a prominent and influential member of the Liberal party. His story of Schultz's narrow escape from death at the hands of the rebels and his long tramp across the solitude with starvation as his companion, is one of the most thrilling in the history of the conquest of the West. After the rebellion had been suppressed, Dr. Schultz was elected to the Dominion Parliament from Lisgar, serving in that body from 1871 to 1882, when he was appointed to the Senate. In 1888 he became Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba, and held that position until shortly before his death at Winnipeg, April 13, 1896.

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

Today the Democratic party of the United States will present a solid front to "the enemy." Yesterday there was division in the ranks, and tomorrow the discussion of differences of opinion as to party policies and principles will be resumed, but this is the day dedicated to party peace and union, when Hoar and Tamm, Ham Wilson and Champ Clark, body carrier and multi-millionaire, drink from the same loving cup to toast the memory of Thomas Jefferson, who was born on this day, April 13, 1793, in one State, Alabama, Jefferson's birthday is a legal holiday, but in all others the anniversary is observed with banquets and oratory.

With the passing of the years the reverence in which Jefferson is held by the American people at large, as well as by the Democratic party, has increased rather than diminished. There have been iconoclasts who have sought to prove—and have built up a very large following—that Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence popularly attributed to Thomas Jefferson, and other iconoclasts have sought to show that "Jeffersonian simplicity" was a myth, and that Jefferson really lived the life of an aristocrat. It is doubtful if the most unworldly or stupid children in our public schools are in that class because of defective vision.

In these days of early education it is important that you should know the condition of your child's eyes. If the child apparently has good sight but is backward in his school work, or if there seems to be any strain in his efforts to read or study, you should have us examine his eyes at once. Neglect of this important duty may result in a lifetime of eye troubles, while in some cases the wearing of glasses for a few years in childhood will obviate the necessity for wearing them in later years.

Two Doctors Said He Had Consumption.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED HIM.

Mrs. John Elvid, St. John's West, Ont., writes: "My little boy was very bad with whooping cough and severe cold. I went to two doctors with him, and they said he had Consumption. I could get no relief from them, he would cough all night long, with a dry hacking cough. I was persuaded to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and was surprised to see the first bottle did him good. I have had five bottles, and they cured him. He rests well at night now, and is well and hearty. If he gets a cold we always give him Pine Syrup and he is soon better. I did not think I could raise him but I am thankful to say Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup saved him from being a consumptive."

Two months' stress cannot be laid upon the admonition to all persons affected by the earlier stages of throat and lung trouble, as failure to take hold at once will cause many years of suffering, and in the end that terrible scourge "Consumption."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is without an equal for all affections of the Throat and Lungs. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Manufactured only by The T. M. Barr Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

del early developed a passion for music, and at the age of seven he was placed under the tuition of Zachau, organist of the Halle Cathedral. His first opera, "Almira," was composed when he was still in his teens. Although his operas were successful, it was by his oratorios that he obtained his enduring fame, and his "Messiah" is considered by most musicians to be the sublimest work of his kind ever composed. Handel lost his eyesight some years before his death, but continued to perform in public and even to compose. He died in London 155 years ago today, on the anniversary of the first public performance of his initial oratorio, and was buried in Westminster Abbey.

Those long side walls as you enter from the street are gradually filling up with handsomely framed enlarged photos of the most popular actresses and actors that appear on the Star's screen.

A very brilliant transparency designed to represent the blue sky with the big north star surrounded by numerous smaller stars with suitable wording has been placed on one of the glass panes of the big show case outside the theatre door. A flag pole is to be erected next week that will soar a Union Jack floating in the breeze from the highest point in the North End.

Painters and carpenters are touching up a few extras and with the big improvements in December of the interior the little North End Star is bound to shine. Easter Monday opens at 2.30 with the big two-reel feature "The Flower of Destiny." The balance of the programme has been specially arranged for the Easterites.

MANY FINE NUMBERS FOR LYRIC PATRONS

Vaudeville and Picture will Entertain the Easter Crowds.

Both in the vaudeville and picture department the Lyric Theatre will excel this week as the management has made a special effort to secure attractions worthy of the honor of the celebration of Easter week.

The first half will be devoted to the modern duo Foley and Pleading who will submit the latest spring styles of the different dances with Jolly Easter melodies. Foley and Pleading have been meeting with much success in their line of work which is novel and cannot help but find favor. The Majestic Co. will be seen in a sterling two part drama of the vices of the underworld entitled "The Thief and the Book." One might be justified in calling this photo play a modern version of "Oliver Twist," except for the fact that electricity plays an important part in the story. "The Weekly News," always a feature. The picture program embraces four excellent subjects.

WILL COURT THE INQUIRY INTO CHARGE

Hon. John E. Wilson says Royal Commission will Probably Deal with Matter—Supreme Court Judges.

(St. John Globe, Saturday.)

Hon. John E. Wilson, who is home from Fredericton for the Easter vacation, was asked today if he had anything to say with reference to the Valley Railway and other charges made against the government. In reply he said that he was a member of the government party that there should be a thorough and complete investigation, free from all partisan bias, so that the whole country will be satisfied as to its fairness. To that end he favored, and he believed most of the members favored, an investigation before a Royal Commission of two judges of the Supreme Court, rather than by a committee of the legislature. He said that there are only two opposition members in the legislature. One of these, Mr. Dugal, who has preferred the charges, and therefore cannot be on any committee of investigation. Therefore any committee could have only one opposition man on it and there would always be opportunity for complaint of unfairness, no matter how impartial the committee might try to be. No such complaint could be made of an investigation before two judges, and he believed the country would regard such an investigation as the most desirable.

Speaking of the charges themselves, Hon. Mr. Wilson said he had never found reason to doubt the honesty or honesty of Hon. Mr. Fleming and he felt satisfied the most searching investigation would leave a honor to be attained, but whatever the result and whoever suffered, it was the desire of the government and of the party that opportunity be given for a thorough investigation. Then if there is shown to have been fraud or wrong-doing the party will face the new situation and grapple with it in such a way as will leave no doubt in the minds of the people that their intentions are honorable.

Speaking of the Valley Railway legislation, Hon. Mr. Wilson said it must be borne in mind that the bill now before the house is only making provision for the completion of the road, and that it is necessary to make so that the summer may not be lost. The measure provides machinery for continuing the present contract, for giving the work to new contractors or for the government carrying it on. There was no doubt, Mr. Wilson said, to force matters in the face of the investigation, but it was necessary to have the authority now sought so that the whole summer would not be wasted. The public could rest confident that while the authority for action is secured, nothing will be done to prejudice the public interests.

EXPOSITIONS NEEDED

To the Editor of The Standard:

Sir,—I believe that the single tax appeal to every citizen who has given the matter consideration as the only true way of dealing with the taxation question and that it must come sooner or later, just as sure as the sun is to rise. If this is the case the sooner we have exponents of the single tax in our civic affairs the better. It is of no use putting off when we realize the only way; the only thing to do is to act upon it. Thank you for the space in your paper.

I am yours truly,
F. W. DANIEL.

It is possible for a man to have too many friends, but it takes him a long time to realize it.

EASTER PICTURES FOR THE UNIQUE

Fine Array of Features Secured for the Cosy Charlotte Street House.

The opening of the spring season at the Unique Theatre will be marked with photo plays of distinction and merit, as a special line of features have been secured for presentation starting today. A real good old-fashioned mystery detective drama by the Thannuser Co. will be the star attraction for Monday and Tuesday called "The Elusive Diamond." In this production Miss Mignon Anderson escapes from an old castle by swinging from the window to the ground by means of a large tree branch. While performing this rather difficult task Miss Anderson suffered a severe ankle strain which resulted in her being unable to work for some time.

Wednesday and Thursday are expected to be red letter days in the history of the Unique, as the first of the much heralded "Our Mutual Girl" series will be shown in the mid-week programme. The first instalment of the fifty reels shows Our Mutual Girl leaving her country home, her arrival in New York, and her subsequent visits to famous places are exploited and her visit to Lucille's Fashion Parlor, where she looks over the coming styles. It is an introduction to a most interesting series of photo plays and will be shown at the Unique every Wednesday and Thursday.

For next Saturday afternoon the Reliance Children's feature, "The Girl Angel" or "The Two Slaves" will be presented for the kiddies.

SAY TURN FOR THE BETTER COMING

F. Nash & Co Say Break in C.P.R. has more than Discounted any Loss in Revenue Company may Suffer.

Montreal, April 11.—F. Nash and Co. say of the drop in C. P. ## THE HISTORY OF BLACK FOXES NOW HOUSED AT RENFORTH

Alaskan Strains, Combined with Best Blood Obtainable in the East, have Produced a Remarkably Sturdy Stock — Russians Selected Early Specimens — Muskrat, Marten and Beaver will also be Reared by Fundy Fox Co. Ltd.

HANDSOME PROFITS PAID LAST YEAR

The foxes, which are being sheltered and protected on the ranches of the Fundy Fox Co. Ltd. at Renforth, include among their numbers many of the aristocrats of the fox world. Within seven miles of St. John the Fundy Fox Co. Ltd. has its chief ranches and more than one hundred foxes of the best breeds in existence are housed there. Among these are forty high pedigreed silver blacks, which are among the best specimens of foxes in the world.

"Woodrow Wilson" and "Black Pilot," male silver blacks of high degree are possessed of the bluest blood of any foxes in captivity. They are at present at Renforth. They, as well as the greater number of the silver black foxes at Renforth, were bred in the far northwest and their forebears, hundreds of years ago, were known to the old Russians, who inhabited Alaska before that territory was taken over by the United States, and who sought in the wilds for the best furs to adorn and protect the members of the Russian royal family.

The foxes of which the silver blacks of the Fundy Fox Co. Ltd., are the direct descendants inhabited one of the islands of Western Alaska which formerly belonged to Russia and was kept especially protected in order to produce black fox and other pelts for the exclusive use of the Russian royal family. Among the treasures of the Russian Czar today are furs which were formerly the pelts of the direct forebears of the silver black foxes now at Renforth.

Before the foxes were placed on the Alaskan island the emperors of the Russian Czar secured the haunts of the silver black foxes and selected only the animals that were nearest perfection for the breeding station and it can be easily seen that the foxes today on the island are the best that can be secured.

The Russians have always been noted for their good taste in matters concerning furs and they have always been considered experts in these matters.

The silver black foxes on the island which the Fundy Fox Co. Ltd., now controls were specially guarded by the Russians and the underbrush that might injure the furs or pelts was carefully removed and every protection given to make the furs perfect. The offspring were carefully watched and any that showed signs of defects were removed from the island before others could be contaminated. This process of building up went on for years until the Alaskan territory was given over to the United States, when the Russians withdrew and the foxes were left to themselves.

A fleet of schooners equipped with auxiliary power is maintained in the Alaskan territory in order to carry supplies to the island ranch and it is also in use in connection with the shipment of foxes to the other ranches of the company.

The company also has a ranch at White Horse, Yukon Territory, and foxes from the original Russian strain are being reared there.

There is a fine brook which offered exceptional advantages for the breeding of muskrats and beaver. Marten, mink, fisher, raccoon and other fur-bearing animals will be placed on the property and it is expected that these will prove a paying investment.

While the number of foxes at present held at Renforth is about 100 it is expected that the litters soon due will triple this number.

Already options have been given on many of these pups but enough will be retained by the Fundy Fox Co. to insure the proper amount of stock being retained on the ranches.

The men connected with the company feel assured that the business of rearing foxes for breeding purposes will be paying handsome returns for ten years yet and then it will be many years after that before the market for furs and pelts can be anything like adequately supplied.

The whole province of New Brunswick is specially suitable for the rearing of foxes. St. John and Kings counties on account of their long formations have advantages not possessed by some of the other counties.

The young foxes need lime for the proper development of their bony structures and the maturing of their fur and pelts. This element is found at Renforth in drinking water and it has been found that the young foxes do not have to be given doses of artificially manufactured lime water as is the case in many of the Prince Edward Island ranches.

New Brunswick foxes are practically free from rickets and do not suffer from any of the other diseases common in many of the ranches in other provinces. At the ranches of the Fundy Fox Co. Ltd., the animals are all in good health and have become quite tame so that their keepers handle and pet them like dogs.

As an investment New Brunswick foxes present many advantages over all others and the investor can be assured that from a breeding standpoint alone the business will be returning handsome profits for at least ten years yet and then there will be good money in breeding for pelts.

WESTERN ALASKAN FOXES WERE CHOSEN

When the promoters of the Fundy Fox Co. were looking for stock for their ranches they heard of this great northwestern game preserve and after careful enquiry arrangements were made with the United States government for the establishment of a ranch on the island originally used by the Russians as a fox breeding ground. Foxes were still found there but many had been slain by hunters who had gone into Alaska shortly after the United States took possession and the stock was quite low but the specimens remaining seemed to be the best of the strain. Several of the animals were captured and a suitable ranch was provided. The foxes soon settled down to civilized ways and seemed quite content with the Canadian's care.

Besides this old Russian strain the Fundy Fox Co. has other animals of the best breeds procurable and from these has built up the best strain of silver black foxes in existence. At the Renforth ranches the foxes, both silver blacks and crosses, are all healthy and appear quite content with their lot in life. Their furs seem to be as near perfect as it is possible to have them.

The Fundy Fox Co. has been in operation for several years but it was not till January of the present year that it was incorporated under the provisions of the New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies' act with a capital stock of $400,000.

Starting with small capital the success of this company has been phenomenal and clearly shows that under capable management the business of fox breeding is bound to be a profitable one.

CAPTAIN AND TWO LOST.

Newport News, April 10.—Bringing the dead body of the Captain and 11 survivors of the crew of the Norwegian bark Orelan, which she rammed and sunk off Barneset, N. J., last night at 10 o'clock, the American steamer Peter H. Crowell arrived here tonight from Boston.

Two men went down with the Orelan and the captain was dead when taken from the water.

Captain Johannesson, who was 65 years of age, was dead when taken into the life boat and his death is thought to have been due to heart disease aggravated by the excitement of the rescue.

Two members of the crew failed to leave in the boats and went down with the ship. Whether they misjudged the time the vessel would stay afloat or were left to die aboard the bark could not be learned tonight.

In their haste to leave the bark members of the crew did not stop to get their personal belongings and some were scantily clad and all were half-frozen from their stay in the water between the time their boats were swamped and the time they were picked up by the rescue boats.

The Orelan was 57 days out from Boulogne, France, for New York and

HON. MR. HAZEN SCORES GENTS' FOR BAD WORK

NATIONAL TRANSCONTINENTAL DEAL A FEARFUL LEGACY TO CANADA.

Hon. J. D. Hazen and Hon. John E. Wilson delivered addresses before the meeting of the St. John Conservative Club on Saturday evening. The meeting being the closing one of the series of Saturday evening gatherings held during the winter. It was not expected that there would be speeches, but when Hon. Mr. Hazen came in, in response to an invitation from the officers of the club to pay an informal visit to their rooms the members had gathered in force, and he was given a rousing reception and called upon to make an address.

In opening his remarks Hon. Mr. Hazen expressed his pleasure at being present at the gathering, regretted that he had not had more frequent opportunity of mingling among his St. John friends since being sent to the Federal cabinet, and hoped that during the coming summer he would be able to spend more time at home. He then went on to give an interesting resume of the work of the session, the legislation adopted, outlining the policy of the government and the attitude of the opposition.

Grits on Defensive

Instead of being able to uphold the traditional critical attitude of opposition the Liberals this session had been kept in the unique position of being always on the defensive, said the minister. Confronted with the record of Liberal mismanagement in connection with the Transcontinental, the opposition had had the heart taken out of them and were very sore over and heartily sick of the whole subject.

Continuing, the minister spoke of the striking contrast between the promises made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding in regard to the building of the Transcontinental and the actual results. Sir Wilfrid had estimated that the whole charge upon the country would only be $13,000,000, while Mr. Fielding had declared that the cost would not exceed $60,000,000, but when the affairs of the Transcontinental were straightened out the ultimate cost would be $250,000,000.

Liberal Legacies

Mr. Hazen said the most difficult problems that the government had had to contend with this session were legacies from the Liberal administration, and the most important and troublesome of these legacies were the Transcontinental and the Canadian Northern problems. The government had tackled these matters with vigor, and was trying to settle them in the best manner possible in the circumstances.

The minister also discussed some of the more important features of the legislative activities of the session, including the tariff changes and the purposes they were intended to subserve. In conclusion, he said that the Conservative party in St. John was united and strong, and declared he would continue to do everything in his power for the city and province.

The minister was heartily cheered as he sat down.

Hon. John E. Wilson

Hon. John E. Wilson who followed referred to the good work Mr. Hazen had done for St. John and New Brunswick since he entered the Dominion government as well as while leader of the local government. "Any citizen of St. John who looks around him and sees the works in progress at Courtenay Bay, the work on the new wharves on the West Side and at the new marine depot, the grain conveyer, etc., all started since Mr. Hazen went to Ottawa must be prepared to acknowledge that Mr. Hazen has done a great deal for this constituency and to give him his support unless blinded by partisanship," said Mr. Wilson.

Undoing a Crime

Mr. Wilson also spoke of the work done by Mr. Hazen to promote and assure the completion of the Valley Railway, a railway rendered necessary to undo the crime committed by the Laurier government in routing the Transcontinental to Moncton. A few months ago, I made the statement that the Valley Railway would come to St. John by the east side route. Some people doubted what I said, because they thought the cost of the bridges across the river would be too great. But now the Federal government has come forward and undertaken to assume the extra burden of building the bridges, another thing for which we have to give credit to Mr. Hazen. Members of the delegation who went to Ottawa in this connection in submitting their report to the members of the legislature were emphatic in their expressions of what Mr. Hazen had done to render their mission successful.

Believes in Mr. Fleming

Continuing, Mr. Wilson referred to the charges made against Premier Fleming and declared there would be the fullest investigation. He believed implicitly in his leader, Mr. Fleming, and predicted that the investigation would prove that the charges were unfounded.

Speaking of the criticism being directed against the local government on account of its proposal to increase the guarantee of bonds to the Valley Railway, Mr. Wilson said that when the

SALES NEAR TERRIBLE FEROUS STORM

Captain Hagan and Crew of Schooner Conrad S. Forced to Desert Ship when Towing Hawser Broke - Tug Wasson Lost Charge in Gale - Schooner on Black Point.

There was a narrow escape from loss of life in the Bay Saturday night when the captain and crew of the three-masted schooner Conrad S. were obliged to abandon their vessel and take to the small boat and make their way through a high sea into port. Those on the vessel were Captain J. M. Hagan, and the crew James Goring of the West Indies; John Johnson, West Indies; John Willibald, Russia; Paul Christian, Denmark; and Peter Weir of Prince Edward Island.

The Conrad S. was loaded with hard pine consigned to Joseph A. Likely of St. John and was bound to this port from Jacksonville, Fla. On Thursday night Captain Hagan got his vessel into trouble. As he stated, to the change of lights on Seal Island and Grand Mannan, when the schooner went ashore on Cannon's Ledges at Three Islands, near Grand Mannan. The vessel's bottom was badly damaged and she lost her rudder while pounding on the rocks. Word was sent to the tug Wasson, Captain Morrell, was sent to her assistance. On Friday the tug managed to pull the vessel off the ledge. The strain on the heavy water having about twelve feet in her hold. The tug towed her to Eastport on Friday.

Captain Hagan was accompanied on the voyage up from Jacksonville by his wife and at Eastport Mrs. Hagan went on board the tug which was more comfortable.

Caught by Gale.

Saturday morning the Wasson left with the schooner in tow for St. John. Everything went along well until Saturday night when the wind blew up strong from the south southwest and as it increased the sea became very bad. The strain on the heavy water was used for towing the vessel, became stronger every hour, as both the tug and the vessel pitched badly. The tug and her tow reached Nigger Head, which is five or six miles down the coast, when all of a sudden the schooner gave an extra pitch in the sea and the tug was unable to hold her. Owing to the high sea it was impossible for the tug to get near the schooner again and Captain Morrell had nothing left to do but abandon the Conrad S. and make for port as best he could.

Fireman Hurt.

When the tug broke clear of the schooner she tossed about in the sea in a terrible manner and the crew on board found it hard to hold their footing. Joseph Thepstead, a fireman on the tug, lost his footing and was thrown against the crank wheel in the engine room with such force that one of his arms was very badly lacerated. When the tug arrived in port it was thought that the man's arm had been broken. It was taken to the hospital as possible on board the tug and he was sent to the General Public Hospital for treatment. There it was found that his arm had been torn very badly and will necessitate his remaining in the hospital for some time.

Take to Life Boat.

When Captain Hagan and his crew on the abandoned schooner saw the hawser part they knew that they were helpless on a rudderless craft which was full of water and unmanageable. Captain Hagan wished to stick by the vessel but his crew had apparently had enough of being wrecked and they made for the vessel's lifeboat and the captain went with them.

The captain and crew were unable to save any clothes other in which they stood. They finally managed to get in the boat, but before John Johnson, the cook, who is sixty years of age, was washed overboard and only saved himself by catching hold of the gunwale of the boat. He was pulled up by his fellow sailors.

The helpless schooner was left to the mercy of the wind and sea and the life boat being supplied with gasoline engine, power was turned on.

Liberal government at Ottawa was being urged to build the Transcontinental down the St. John valley the engineers reported against the valley route on the ground that it would be too expensive to construct a railway along the edge of the river. That was the reason the Liberal government save for not building down the St. John valley, and yet in face of the fact that the Transcontinental cost $70,000 a mile, Liberal papers were now saying that the Valley Railway could be built for $28,000 a mile.

A. D. H. Wilson, president of the club, presided, and during the evening there were songs by H. S. Hayes, and Ernest Job, and a recitation by Roy Harding.

MINISTER OF MARINE IN ROUSING ADDRESS

Hon. John E. Wilson tells of Hon. Mr. Hazen's Good Work for St. John - The Valley Railway.

Hon. J. D. Hazen and Hon. John E. Wilson delivered addresses before the meeting of the St. John Conservative Club on Saturday evening. The meeting being the closing one of the series of Saturday evening gatherings held during the winter. It was not expected that there would be speeches, but when Hon. Mr. Hazen came in, in response to an invitation from the officers of the club to pay an informal visit to their rooms the members had gathered in force, and he was given a rousing reception and called upon to make an address.

In opening his remarks Hon. Mr. Hazen expressed his pleasure at being present at the gathering, regretted that he had not had more frequent opportunity of mingling among his St. John friends since being sent to the Federal cabinet, and hoped that during the coming summer he would be able to spend more time at home. He then went on to give an interesting resume of the work of the session, the legislation adopted, outlining the policy of the government and the attitude of the opposition.

Grits on Defensive

Instead of being able to uphold the traditional critical attitude of opposition the Liberals this session had been kept in the unique position of being always on the defensive, said the minister. Confronted with the record of Liberal mismanagement in connection with the Transcontinental, the opposition had had the heart taken out of them and were very sore over and heartily sick of the whole subject.

Continuing, the minister spoke of the striking contrast between the promises made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding in regard to the building of the Transcontinental and the actual results. Sir Wilfrid had estimated that the whole charge upon the country would only be $13,000,000, while Mr. Fielding had declared that the cost would not exceed $60,000,000, but when the affairs of the Transcontinental were straightened out the ultimate cost would be $250,000,000.

Liberal Legacies

Mr. Hazen said the most difficult problems that the government had had to contend with this session were legacies from the Liberal administration, and the most important and troublesome of these legacies were the Transcontinental and the Canadian Northern problems. The government had tackled these matters with vigor, and was trying to settle them in the best manner possible in the circumstances.

The minister also discussed some of the more important features of the legislative activities of the session, including the tariff changes and the purposes they were intended to subserve. In conclusion, he said that the Conservative party in St. John was united and strong, and declared he would continue to do everything in his power for the city and province.

The minister was heartily cheered as he sat down.
