PROCEEDINGS OF THE 14TH ANNUAL MEETING

The following is a synopsis of the proceedings of the meetings held upon October 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th, 1897 :

Tuesday, October 5th.

10.30 a.m.—Administration of the Holy Communion, with an inspiring address by the Right Rev. Dr. Sullivan.

He dealt with the primary aim and object of the Christian ministry. He mentioned (1) the loftiness of its origin, as a divine gift, the result of the Pentecostal outpouring of the Spirit ; (2) its duration, to be exercised in some of its aspects only till Christ's coming ; hereafter perhaps there will be a ministry of edification, and (3) its sacredness. Then he stated what the ministry was not. First, its primary object was not the promotion of intellectual culture, although the ripest scholarship should be consecrated to religion. Second, it was not a sacrificial priesthood. This would demand a propitiating priest, an expiatory victim and an altar. To this theory Christ and the Apostles give no sanction whatever ; the Prayer Book, from cover to cover, uses not a sentence in its favor, and the Reformation of the sixteenth century is a standing protest against it. Everywhere in the New Testament the Apostles seem to distinguish themselves from and break off the connection with the priestly system of the Old Testament ; they rather connect themselves with the prophets. It is by word, and not by sacrifice, that they deliver God's message. The New Testament is absolutely silent about the perpetuation of the sacrificial system of the Old Testament. That system is regarded as belonging to the past. The term "sacrificial priest" is never in the New Testament applied to the Christian minister. In the Prayer Book, priest is only a contraction for presbyter. This omission from the New Testament of the sacrificing priest as a title of the minister must be because it was the mind of the Holy Ghost that it should not be used. Positively the primary aim of the ministry may be briefly expressed in the phrase, "A ministry of reconciliation," for the diffusion of God's message of love, peace, and reconciliation.

12 noon.—The business session was opened with prayer led by Rev. F. J. Lynch.

The following members signed the roll :

At this point considerable discussion originated from the contents of a letter received from Mr. N. W. Hoyles, Q.C., questioning the expediency of continuing the work of the Deaconess and Missionary Training House. The outcome of the discussion was the passing of the following motion :

Moved by Rev. O. G. Dobbs, seconded by Rev. F. B. Hodgins, that from the report of the Deaconess and Missionary Training

House presented to the Alumni, they are more than ever convinced of the divine origin of, and of God's continued presence with, the work : they recognize that the burden has hitherto rested too much on the shoulders of the few, and that this has been partly due to the want of information regarding the work ; they wish to assure Mr. Hoyles and the committee that the discussion arising from his letter has aroused our sympathy and awakened our conscience, and that we will endeavor to show our conviction in a very practical way.

The scattering of the graduates of the Home by marriage and missionary calls we believe does much to spread the principles of the work.

We believe that the systematic training of missionary women, Sunday-school teachers and Christian workers generally, is an absolute necessity, and not only would they deeply deplore the curtailment of the work but they pledge themselves to further it in every way possible."

The report of the Nominating Committee was received, and with a few changes was adopted as per list :

The Committee on Diocesan Information was appointed as follows :

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Report of "Parish and Home" Editorial Committee.

The publication of Parish and Home has gone on regularly for another year. We are not yet satisfied with the paper and can see many ways in which our work might have been better done, and the publication made stronger and better than it is.

Yet we feel that Parish and Home, under God, has filled a useful place in the world of Christian literature.

It has brought words of comfort, cheer and encouragement to many homes, has warned some of the dangers of sin, built up some in the truth, and to many has brought good, wholesome Sunday reading, to lead their thoughts into pure and ennobling channels.

In not a few cases, and from various quarters, have come testimonies as to the use and helpfulness of the paper.

Amid the vast amount of reading that is disseminated and devoured in these days, and alas too much of it of that kind which enervates and weakens (even where it does not demoralize and debase), it becomes the bounden duty of the lovers of truth to scatter broadcast and sow the land thick with that which builds up and strengthens and above all leads men to seek after and know the Christ.

We have tried, and in some cases succeeded in getting about one-third of the copy original, and thank those who have so kindly and faithfully contributed. We would especially thank the Rev. Messrs. W. J. Armitage and H. R. A. O'Malley for their regular help, also we are indebted to the Rev. H. T. Miller, of Beamsville, for a number of contributions. We trust that many of our graduates who have not been sending us in anything will at once set their pens to work and begin to do so. And also that every graduate, who at all can, will get at least a few copies taken in his parish.

We would like also to express the debt the committee and the whole Alumni Association owes to the Rev. Bernard Bryan, who succeeded in making such excellent business arrangements that the cost of publishing is now about fourteen dollars ($14) a month less than it was, and we have thus been enabled to reduce our indebtedness by some $75.00.

The one who has had the editorial charge only took it because, for the time being, those who had greater literary ability and more experience were not able to add this duty to their other already pressing ones, and now gladly hands it over into the hands of someone to whom has been given the "pen of the ready writer."

Thanking God for having used the paper to His glory and the good of men, and asking for the hearty co-operation of every graduate in making it an ever increasing power for good, we hand in our charge, and give account of our stewardship.

C. H. MARSH.

Report of Business and Circulating Committee of "Parish and Home."

Your committee beg to report that Parish and Home is now or the first time in its history upon a paying basis. Praiseworthy efforts have been made during the past year by a number of graduates to extend its circulation by becoming responsible for a number of copies each. It is to be hoped that this good example will be followed by others this year, and that all the old helpers will put forth renewed efforts to still further extend its circle of readers. The circulation at present is not quite so large as at this time last year, owing to the unexpected dropping off the list of All Saints', Toronto, and All Saints', Windsor. However, the Church of the Ascension, Toronto, and St. George's, Ottawa, have lately been added, with a prospect of increasing the number of copies taken. It is probable also that the Rev. Bernard Bryan has secured new subscribers during his trip to the maritime provinces. The falling off in subscriptions has been partly counterbalanced by a substantial reduction in the cost of publishing, the Bryant Press having reduced their rates from an average of $52.00 per month to $37.50 per month, a monthly saving of $14.50.

All of which is respectfully submitted. On behalf of the committee,

F. J. LYNCH, Convener.

Report of the Deaconess Committee.

To the Members of the Alumni Association of Wycliffe College :

Your committee beg to report that the personnel of this committee was never so large or so strong as at the present moment. Not the least amongst our gains this year is the sympathy of Bishop Sullivan, Rector of St. James'; Rev. H. C. Wallis, Assistant Minister, and Rev. J. Gillespie, Rector of the Church of the Messiah. The congregation of St. James' have this year taken a practical interest and supplied our need for one month.

We do not mention our friends of the past ; suffice it to say they are still working for us.

The present list of graduates is as follows :

| NAME.                              | ADDRESS.                                                                      |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Miss Cross .....                   | Head of Deaconess House, Toronto, Ont.                                        |
| Miss L. Sandys .....               | Long Island Hospital, New York, N.Y.                                          |
| Miss Rae .....                     | China.                                                                        |
| Mrs. Cowan (nee Miss Downie) ..... | Vancouver, B.C., expects to assist in mission work in the parish.             |
| Miss M. Darling .....              | Resident Deaconess, Deaconess House, Toronto, Ont., and Deaconess at Trinity. |
| Miss Louy Thomas .....             | S. A. Missionary with Rev. Saddleir, Chili, S.A.                              |
| Miss Tilly .....                   | Church of the Ascension, Toronto.                                             |

(Presented to the Bishop for ordination by the Chaplain with consent of the committee of the House.)

Of the above, six have been set apart to the Diaconate of women.

List of those who, though not graduates, have attended lectures or are now training in the House for work in various fields :

|                              |                  |
|------------------------------|------------------|
| Mrs. Margaret Durnnell ..... | North West.      |
| Mrs. Hunter .....            | Algoma.          |
| Mrs. I. O. Stringer .....    | Mackenzie River. |

Eliza Smith.....Children's Home, Belleville, Ont.
Miss Hessian.....Mr. Blake's Bible Class, Deaconess at Sackville Mission.

List of candidates now in the Home for training: Miss Annie Archer, Miss Eleanor Shepherd, Miss Ida Collins, Miss Maria Allworth.

Much success attended the courses of lectures, opened to the women teachers of our Sunday-schools, which were given last year. About thirty-eight availed themselves of the lectures on "Christian Doctrine," "Epistle to Romans," "Missions," "St. Luke," "Joshua."

This year a most enthusiastic gathering of teachers was held in St. James' Schoolhouse, and the classes which have now opened are being more largely attended. It is our strong conviction that this branch of the work has been opened by God and that He will use this agency to give the women of our Church a sound grasp of the faith and fit them to be capable workers in the Sunday-school and as District Visitors. We have already begun to make our mark upon the teaching given by many of our teachers and we intend to carry it on by God's help until once more Evangelical teaching shall be the most general, if not the only instruction imparted to our youth. What God did at the Reformation He can do again to-day.

We would draw attention to this branch of our work and point out that should any of those attending lectures offer and be accepted by the C.C.M.A. (as we hope and pray that some will), they would not need to wait two years but may fill out the time required for the additional lectures to complete the course, saving at least six months, and it might be in some cases even the two years' time and expenses.

In closing, let us remind the Alumni that great doors are open to us; pray for us that we may have courage to go forth and that women of faith, piety and love only may be sent, who shall do great things for God.

Miss Cross is still at the head of the House, retaining the respect of the candidates in residence and meriting more and more the confidence of the committee and of the Christian world.
