The animal was first noticed by PostMaster Cooper who resides near Presten.
Mr. Cooper had to go through a small piece of wood to reach his horse.
When half way through he was startled at seeing a huge creature some distance in front of him standing erect. It leoked, he says like a gorilla. The height of it was nearly seven feet. Mr. Cooperwho is a reliable person—went home another way and with others returned armed to the place where he had seen the strange creature. It was gone, however, but its footprints were plainly visible. Richard Owen saw the same animal. His description is similiar to that given by Mr. Cooper. Gordon Kulin and his son also saw the animal the same day. Persons residing in this vicinity have become alarmed.

Perhaps Tennyson has written no-thing which appeals to the heart of all who read his poems more than the lyric of "Too Late." The burden of the sad of "Too Late." The burden of the sad refrain comes home with telling force to the hearts of those who have lost friends by that dread disease—Consumption. They realize "too late," the result of neglect. They feel that the dear one might have been saved if they had heeded the warning of the hashing cough, the pallid cheek, and weaksning aystem. They feel this all the more keenly because they see others being rescued from the grasp of the destroyer, and they think what is assing others might have saved their loved one. When the first signal of danger is seen, take steps to avert the catastrophe—Be wise in time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will drive away consumption. Do not wait until too late before putting its wonderful efficacy to the test. It succeeds where other remedies fail.

She is still enjoying the best of health, but one of her years is liable to be called at any time and the grief she now feels at the death of her favorite grandson will not postpone the dreaded event any. The Prince of Wales who is now past the half century mark is not a robust man and it is within the limits of probability that Prince Eddie might have reigned King of England and as a moderately

The question as to the succession to the crown is the subject of considerable comment. Prince George of Wales, the deceased younger brother is now next in line. He is well known in Hatifax and Montreal and was the physical superior of his dead brother He has many traits in his character which make him dear to the people. In the event of his death the heir presumptive would be little Miss Dut, the eldest daughter of the Duke and Duche-s of Fife, and granddaughter.

GLENGARRY.

The third by election came off at The third by election came off at Glengarry, Ontario, on Thursday last Jan. 21 Richmond, N. S. and resulted in the return of Major 26 Victoria, N. S. R. R. McLennon, Conservative by majority of 336, an increase of 15 votes over that given him last march This victory is a serious blow to the hopes of the Liberals. Their victory Feb. in Richilieu had the affect of causing great rejoicing, and they claimed that visions of a long and interrupted line of by election victories appeared to them The victory at Richillen has a peculiar significance. It is that Thomas Mc-Greevy, who was expelled from his seat in the House of Commons, and Nicholas Connolly who is now on trial Feb. 11 E. Since. Nichosas Connolly who is now on trial for obtaining money illegally from the government, joined forces with the opposition candidate and elected him. Both these gentlemen are interested in the Ontario and Richilleu Navigation Company, a corporation controlling about 300 vote. It was the polling place where these votes were polled that elected Bruneau. Both these worthes must be made of forgiving material, The gritz called and are yet calling on the government to punish its robbers, and when the first opportunity arrives they forgive them and cast all their power towards sending an enemy to Ottawa. No doubt both McGreevy and Connolly would like to see the Liberals in power, the atmosphere would be more congenial to their pockets.

The New Toilet Gem— Philoderma owes its immense success to the fact that it is radically different from any preparation in the market. Death of Duke of Clarence-Cardinal Manning and Cardinal Simeoni.

Almost within the same hour Thursday there passed away from earth three lives that will be mourned wherever the news is known. Albert Victor Duke of Clarence and Avondale, elde son of the Prince and Princess of Wales and heir presumptive to the British throne died at Sandringham Palace the residence of his father of congestion of the lungs. For some time previous to his death the Duke of Clarence had been suffering from a serious pulmonary affect tion which later developed itself into congestion of the lungs. A few days only before his death did it appear that the illness was of such a serious character and daily bulletins kept the anxious ones posted as to the royal patients con- This is your chance to secure dition. During the last day of his life an extra Bargain as we do not his symptoms varied with the hour. At times he would appear to be stronger and then he would relapse to revive and then he would relapse to revive a later, and give the watchers a faint ray of hope that he would recover. But on the 13th it was seen that there were no grounds for hope. The Prince became deliricus and at times appeared to suffer great agony. His nearest and dearest friends never left his bedside and his fiance Princess Mary Victoria of Teck whom he was to marry on February 27 was the niost constant and sorrowful watcher of all. As the night wore on the hourly bulletins from the sick chamber gave the worst news and at fifteen minnourly bulletins from the sick chamber gave the worst news and at fifteen min-utes after nine on Thursday morning the news of his death was flashed around the world. The bulletin signed by the three attending physicians was as follows:

His Eminence, Henry Edward Mann-

The Cardinal continued to grow weak-er during the night until finally his pros-tration became complete. He was able, however, to join in the prayers which were being offered at his bedside. His were being offered at his bedside. His Eminence continued these supplications for divine mercy until 7.30 o'clock, when he became unconscious. His death was calm and he pessed away evidently without pain. Telegrams of regret from all parts of the world are being received. Cardinal Manning was born at Hartfordshire, on July 15, 1808, the son of William Manning Esq., M. P., merchant of London. He was educated at Haward and Oxford as a member of the Angelican church and was chosen as one of the select preachers of Oxford University. He preached until 1851 as an Angelican minister, when he gave up his preferminister, when he gave up his preferminister, when he gave up his preferminister.

Giovanni Simeoni, formerly papal Secretary of state and prefect of the propaganda died at Rome on the 14th. He was born in Italy in 1816, created Cardinal by Pius IX in 1875 and was during his long life an ardent worker in the Roman Catholic church.

The originator of Estey's Emulsion spent several years of his life in perfecting this preparation. Not a bottle of it was put on the market until he was satisfied that it was the best ever introduced for the cure of coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all wifsting diseases. Thousands of Bottles have been sold, and he has never heard a complaint regarding it.
