BEYOND THE THIRD TRENCHES

Review of Month Shows Tangible Results in Guns, Prisoners and Points.

By Henry Wood.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.] GRAND HEADQUARTERS OF FRENCH ARMIES, SEPT. 20.—In first fifteen weeks of the Somme offensive the French and British have captured more ground than has been taken by Germany in more than six months of battling at Verdun.

Held 92 Square Miles. A survey of results of the great drive, halted temporarily yesterday by a terrific downpour of rain, shows that the Allies have reconquered 255 square kilometers of French territory (about 92 square miles), exceeding by fifteen kilometers the territory gained by the Germans at Verdun.

Forty-five villages, each one organized into a veritable fortress by the Teutons, have fallen before the battering of the French and British artillery. In every instance the German position was so strong that it had to be broken down by shell fire before the infantry could storm it.

A total of 62,000 prisoners, 255 cannons, half of which are heavy pieces, and more than 1,000 machine guns have been taken.

PREMIER SAYS NO WANT

Reduction of Food Has Taught Nation to Go Hungry, So to Speak.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 30.—The food problem in Hungary is represented in unofficial dispatches as pressing. Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent reports that Premier Tisza informed the Hungarian chamber that the Government's calculations regarding crops had been upset by continuous bad weather, and that in consequence the situation was difficult, as the quantity of grain was not sufficient to meet the normal consumption. The premier assured the chamber, however, that the amount of food available would be sufficient to save the population from want, as during the last two years the people of Austria and Hungary had accustomed themselves to consume less than before the war.

The premier accepted the responsibility for seeing to it that the shortage of foodstuffs did not interfere with the fighting capabilities of the monarchy. He announced the organization of a department to control the distribution of food. The chamber adjourned until December 7.

SUMMARILY DISMISSES CREW SO STRONGLY CONDEMNED BY JURY FOR THEIR INHUMANITY

General Manager of London and Port Stanley Declares Their Actions Unexplainable and Most Brutal Ever Drawn to His Attention During His Railway Career.

Characterizing their acts as the most inhuman and incomprehensible that had ever been brought to his attention in his railroad career, General Manager J. E. Richards of the London and Port Stanley Railway has summarily dismissed the three members of the L. and P. S. crew so strongly condemned by a coroner's jury in St. Thomas on Thursday night in connection with the death of Earl Oliver.

The dismissed men are: MOTORMAN FRANK SLATER, CONDUCTOR MCGINNIS, TRAINMAN DILTZ.

The general manager made the announcement of the summary dismissal of the crew in leaving the body, and the remainder of the crew went to St. Thomas. The injured man was not dead, but no attention was paid to him by the crew. Trainman Diltz swore he heard Oliver say, "I have never anything like it. As soon as I completed my own investigation I will let you know."

BANDS PLAY TOGETHER

Greek Garrison Taken at Kavala Fraternize With Germans.

Patras, Greece, Thursday, Sept. 28.—Via London, Sept. 30.—4:48 p.m.—The evening newspapers of Patras today published a report that a general mobilization had been decreed. Reservists rushed to arms, presenting themselves at the barracks to be equipped for a host. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

The colonel in command of the Patras garrison, an adherent of former Premier Venizelos, ordered the reservists to disperse, saying King Constantine would never make war on Germany. This angered the reservists, who surrounded him, shouting: "Long live the king! Hurrah for war against Bulgaria!"

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Sept. 30.—Via wireless to Sayville.—The arrival at Gorlitz, Prussian Silesia of the first contingent of troops of the Fourth Greek Army Corps from Kavala who had been sent to Germany to remain during the war, is reported in a Gorlitz dispatch to the Overseas News Agency today. The contingent, which comprised 50 officers, 600 men and 15 carloads of baggage was accompanied by several Greek women and children.

Empress William, adds the dispatch, sent Adjutant Endorf as his personal representative to meet the party. The adjutant handed a written communication from the emperor to Col. Chathopoulos, who commanded the contingent. The women of the party were greeted by the lord mayor of Gorlitz, who presented them with bouquets of flowers.

Sofia, Sept. 29.—Via London, Sept. 30.—1:05 p.m.—Bulgarian troops, after repulsing a Serbian attack on the Kaimakalan heights, on the Macedonian front, made a counter-attack and captured a trench forming a part of the principal Serbian position, the war office announced today. No change is reported in the situation in Dobruja. The statement follows: "In the Florina Valley there was weak artillery action. "On the Kaimakalan heights the cannonading was sharp. We repulsed a night attack by the enemy and, counter-attacking, occupied a trench of his principal position. "In the Moglenia valley there was weak artillery firing and mine combat. "On both sides of the Vardar and in the Belashtice Planine there was calm. "On the Struma there was minor artillery action and patrol engagements. "Off the Aegean littoral the enemy fleet continued very active. "Along the Danube calm prevails. In Dobruja there has been minor artillery action. "Russian warships ineffectually bombarded the village of Kamardjoug for one hour and twenty minutes. "An enemy aeroplane coming from the south passed over Sofia this morning at a great altitude, dropping five small bombs, which killed a street sweeper and two horses, and slightly wounded a woman and a child. The material damage was confined to a broken window."

ACTIVITY OF AUSTRIANS GROWS MORE INTENSE

Driven Back by Italians When Surprise Attack Is Attempted.

Rome, Sept. 29.—Via London.—"In the Adige valley the activity of the enemy's artillery and infantry detachments is increasing," says the official statement from the war office today. "Our batteries replied effectively. "In the Asiatic valley we continue to handle the summit of Monte Cimone under our artillery fire. "Yesterday afternoon enemy forces, under cover of a thick mist, attempted a surprise attack against our positions at Punta del Forame, at the head of the Felpon valley of the Boite. "On the Carso the enemy failed completely in repeated attempts during the night to approach our lines."

BRITISH LOSING 3,800 MEN A DAY

London, Sept. 30.—10:53 a.m.—British losses in September were at the rate of more than 3,800 a day. The casualties on all fronts reported in this month were: Officers, 5,489; men, 114,110.

Heavy as were the British losses in September, they were lighter than those of August, which were 127,945, a daily average of 4,127. In July, the first month of the Somme offensive, the losses were about half those of August or September, notwithstanding the fact that in July the British stormed the first line German defences. The losses in that month were 59,675, so that the total for the three months of the Somme drive is 307,169.

SCOTCH SOLDIER INVENTS WONDER OF ALL SURGERY

Utilizing Current of Body, Goes "Deeper" Than X-Ray.

SHOWS LIVING TISSUE

All Diseased Areas Are Shown on Plates Finished From Tracings.

USED WITH CASUALTIES

Marvelous Results of Medical Corps Man's Idea Being Achieved.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 30.—The British Medical Journal announces that a remarkable scientific discovery is now on trial at one of the casualty clearing stations in France.

The new discovery, says the Journal, appears to succeed just where X-ray photography fails. It takes up the task of producing pictures of structures, hidden far below the surface of the body just at the point where X-ray photography ceases to perform it effectively. In other words the new work attempts a delineation not of dense structures such as bone, but of living soft organs.

Shows Details of Organs.

By means of this discovery it is possible in broad daylight to obtain details of the structure of any organ or body, brain, liver, kidney and spleen, and to see at a glance by what gross lesions they are affected. Thus it is possible to see blood vessels in the brain, to detect a blood clot in that organ, to observe abscesses in the liver, and wounds or cuts in any organ. In one case a splenic artery in the appendix was seen clearly when the picture was complete.

"Human" Electricity Used.

The miracle is achieved by utilizing the currents of electricity which the body is believed to generate. Two electrodes, each ending in a perforated zinc plate or zinc wire screen, are employed. These are connected with batteries in the ordinary way, but are not placed in contact with the patient's body. One screen stands on a pedestal in a vertical position near the patient. The other is hung horizontally at right angles to the first one. In this way an electrical field coming from the first screen is always at right angles to that of the second.

Patient's Current Released.

The patient is placed with the part to be examined quite close to the first screen and directly under, but at a distance from the second. The current is turned on. Then the third electrical field is allowed on the purchase price of the leather requisitioned.

CHIMNEY COLLAPSE CAUSES DEATH OF THREE AT CHATHAM

Two Chicago Men and Resident of City the Victims.

SIX HAVE CLOSE CALL

Cement at Bottom, Which Had Not Set Properly Caved In.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chatham, Sept. 30.—Two men were killed and a third died from injuries received when a cement chimney which is being erected at the American Pad and Textile Company, Queen street, collapsed this morning, precipitating the men from the top of the chimney, a height of 80 feet.

Foreman Dies Later.

The dead are: Samuel Milburn, foreman in charge of the work for the Webber Chimney Company of Chicago; Nick Kitch of Chicago, an employee of the firm; Oliver Butler of Colborne street, Chatham, a laborer. Milburn died half an hour after the accident. He was terribly mangled.

The contract for building of the cement chimney was in charge of the Webber Chimney Company of Chicago. It was practically completed, with three men working on the top of the structure and getting the forms ready for the cement, when the cement of an underneath form, which had not properly set, suddenly caved in.

Buried in Debris.

The men were carried with the falling cement and buried in the debris. All were mutilated beyond recognition. Six other employees were working at the base of the chimney, but managed to escape. The chimney is part of a forty thousand dollar extension which is being made at the present plant. An inquest will be held this afternoon.

Not Out on Bail and Not in Custody, Claims Mr. Wilson.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 30.—After a brief hearing this morning, further consideration of an application to discharge from custody on habeas corpus proceedings to jail for alleged contempt of the Galt commission, was deferred until next Friday morning by Mr. Justice Haggart.

C. P. Wilson, K.C., appeared for the crown. He made a brief statement as to his attitude, and then left the courtroom. He declared the proceedings were irregular and intimated he would be prepared to uphold the Galt royal commission before the court of appeal. He stated that the parties named in the order of commitment were not on bail, nor in custody, and said it was his own idea that for that reason they could not ask for a discharge under habeas corpus.

Are in Custody? A. J. Andrews, K. C., appearing for Edward Beck, B. W. Deacon and Stanley Beck of the Winnipeg Telegram and Krohn, Masse of the Winnipeg Saturday Post, defended the procedure of the release of his clients and (Continued on Page 3, Column 5.)

Troops of "New Army" Are Reported To Have Showed Great Resolution and Endurance in Severe Fighting—Thiepval Position Improved.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 30.—Unusually heavy fighting occurred yesterday on the Somme front in consequence of German counter-attacks.

A division of the new British army was engaged. The official account of these operations follows: "During the night the enemy shelled heavily our battlefront south of the Ancre. We consolidated the ground won yesterday at Destremont Farm, northwest of Le Sars, and improved our position in the Thiepval area.

"Enemy counter-attacks were beaten off in the neighborhood of Stuff redoubt and Hessian trench. The fighting in this section yesterday was very severe, and our troops engaged—a division of the new army—showed great endurance and resolution.

"A successful raid was made by a London territorial battalion south of Neville St. Vaast, where the enemy's trenches were entered and prisoners were taken."

LABOR BOARD IS OPPOSED TO CONSCRIPTION FOR DOMINION

Record Antagonism to Compulsion in Any Form.

REGISTRATION ALSO KNOCKED

Trades Congress Passes Resolutions on Vital Subjects.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Sept. 30.—The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada does not favor conscription. That body went on record this morning without a dissenting voice as opposing conscription in any form or even registration. The entire morning session was taken up with consideration of the report of the executive committee, and resolutions referred to that body. There was a maximum discussion over the proposal to secure permanent quarters for the council at Ottawa, and a motion finally passed leaving the matter in the hands of the executive committee.

The striking difference in the position of officers and men was opposed, and the Government urged to remedy this condition.

A lengthy discussion took place over the proposal to select delegates to attend the international peace congress proposed some time ago by President Compton of the A. F. of L., owing to the attitude of the British Trades Congress, in which a number of prominent men expressed the sentiment that they could not sit in any conference where were seated Huns, Austrians or Turks, there was a sharp difference of opinion as to the attitude the Canadian congress should take. The delegates felt that the voice of labor should be heard, and Discredit Canadian Labor, of Albert Robbins disapproved of taking part in any conference in which representatives of the central powers should take part. He thought any such action would discredit the Canadian labor movement.

James Simpson told what took place at the British congress, where there was a great conflict of opinion. The resolution was finally referred to the incoming executive for action.

To Regain a Healthy, Girlish Complexion. If you would have a clear, fresh, girlish complexion, one ounce of ordinary mercurized wax will add you in this direction more than a dozen full of cosmetics. It produces a natural beauty. This wax, procurable at any drug store, completely absorbs a bad complexion, revealing the healthy young skin underneath. Its work is done so gradually, day by day, that no inconvenience is caused. The wax is applied at night, like cold cream, and removed in the morning with soap and water. Another valuable rejuvenating treatment—this for wrinkles—is to bathe your face in a solution of powdered salicylic acid, 1 oz. dissolved in 1/2 pint, with lard. This has a remarkable action in smoothing out the lines and "firming up" the loose tissue.—Adv.

TWO MORE LONDON SOLDIERS SUCCUMB TO THEIR WOUNDS

One Caused by Accident, Says Official Message.

MORE CASUALTIES LISTED

Pte. Gibbs of Ealing and Pte. Powell of West London Latest to Die.

Two more London soldiers have been reported died of wounds in the latest casualty reports sent to London from the militia department at Ottawa.

Pte. Edward A. Gibbs was reported on Friday as having died of wounds in No. 41 Casualty Clearing Station. The message came to his wife, who lives at 66 Glenwood avenue, Ealing. The dead soldier was well known in East London, and before enlisting was employed as a molder in McClary's. He was a member of one of the first battalions ever formed in London, and had been overseas for more than a year.

In addition to his wife, two small children survive him. "Accidental contusion" is given as an explanatory note in an official message received by Alfred W. Powell, late of 28 Grosvenor street, West London, 43, that announces the death of Pte. Alfred Powell, infantry, in No. 3 Casualty Clearing Station, on September 21. Mr. Powell now lives east of the city, and the message announcing his son's death was sent to his home there.

Capt. Eric Nelles, son of J. A. Nelles of this city, has been reported as a subaltern from the young officer who was received by his father today, and it contains the reassuring message that the casualty is not serious. Major Harry Nelles of the 1st Battalion, and went overseas with the 7th Battalion, and was attached to a Highland battalion at the front city.

Before enlisting he was in the employ of the Huron and Erie Mortgage Corporation. He has been admitted to the Annetonian General Hospital, Rouen. This casualty occurred on September 18.

Notified of Death. Chief Engineer Robert McCormick of the Springfield pumping station today received the official report of his son's death on August 11 last.

Pte. J. J. McCormick died in action on that date, but private letters from the war zone were received from him through the War Office.

Was Raped Here. G. M. Paulds, an old Middlesex boy and brother of J. F. Paulds, barrister and P. A. Fields, was in North Northamptonshire, and he enlisted there. He was killed in action in France on September 17, after having been on the firing line but a few days.

G. M. Paulds was the youngest of six brothers, who were raised in Carleton Township, and was the only one young enough to enlist. A son of J. F. Paulds was serving with the mechanical transport in East Africa.

London's Brother Killed. Pte. B. H. Hancock of the 33rd Battalion and brother-in-law of Pte. Benton of the 142nd Battalion was killed in action in France on June 14, yesterday word was received that his brother, Pte. Benton, of the Royal West Yorkshire Regiment had also been killed. REINSTATED AGAINST OPINIONS OF HIS SENIOR OFFICERS

Commander of London's Own Resumes Duties at Borden.

CHANGE FOLLOWS VISIT Trip To Political Fountain Is Successful for Temporary Officer.

Though Major-Gen. W. A. Logie, commander of Camp Borden, declared there was no alternative but to accept the resignation of Pte. J. J. Graham, Lt. Gwatkin declared that the circumstances were such that dismissal alone would meet the requirements of the law.

It was announced in The Advertiser of Friday that Pte. Graham had been reinstated to his position. His proposition, according to his friends, was that the battalion be sent overseas at once, and that the only way to keep the men up to date, he should be allowed to return to Canada and to retire with his rank of lieutenant-colonel. Details of the reinstatement followed this visit.

His proposition, according to his friends, was that the battalion be sent overseas at once, and that the only way to keep the men up to date, he should be allowed to return to Canada and to retire with his rank of lieutenant-colonel. Details of the reinstatement followed this visit.

Local militia headquarters has so far received absolutely no information as to the reinstatement of Lieut.-Col. C. M. R. Graham to the command of the 142nd Battalion, which was expected, as Lieut.-Col. Graham is not under the supervision of this district, the late commander of London's Own promised to notify the local officers as soon as anything was decided. He has as yet not sent any information.

Took Command Today. Lieut.-Col. Graham, by long distance telephone, informed The Advertiser that he had taken command of the 142nd Battalion today. He did not say who it was that had secured his reinstatement nor did he mention the probable fate of the two other principals in the sparking episode.

According to the story of Pte. Belanger, Col. Graham promised him that if he were reinstated he would see that Belanger was taken back to his regiment. This statement is not exactly in keeping with the apparent facts, so far as other officers at Camp Borden are concerned. It has been repeatedly reported that the two London soldiers had been discharged, but if they have been, headquarters here is in ignorance, as witness the attachment of the men to the special service company today.

CHIEF ORGANIZERS OF FRENCH RELIEF TAG DAY READY FOR MORNING CANVASS

MRS. J. B. MCKILLOP AND MRS. THOMAS GILLEA, joint conveners of the tag-day committee that supervised the campaign to secure relief for the French. Mrs. McKillop and Mrs. Gillea headed the efficient organization that covered the city so well, and were "snapped" as they were leaving on their first tour of inspection to see that all workers were in their places and properly equipped with flags.

FRENCH TAG DAY BRINGING IN GOOD RETURNS TO AID ALLIED NATION'S REFUGEES

Whole City Being Canvassed by I. O. D. E. Volunteer Workers, and $700 Reported at 2:30 as First Partial Return From Vigorous Campaign That Is to Leave No One Untagged.

Seven hundred dollars has already been counted, with many boxes not yet touched, and many workers who have, as yet, not reported at all. This was the latest bulletin received by The Advertiser just before going to press this afternoon, from the French relief flag day headquarters in Cronyn Hall.

The much-heralded tag day for French relief has come at last, and everybody knows long before this that never before has there been such a wonderful or such a wonderfully popular tag day in all the history of London. Probably in all the history there has been such a thorough educational campaign in the way of preparation. Never before has there been a more perfect day, a larger and more enthusiastic throng of workers and a more generous public.

In order that nobody might be overlooked who desired to contribute, the whole city for this occasion has been mapped out in districts, each strongly manned with captains and taggers. Not only have the laity little French flags, the appropriate tag chosen, been available on the streets, if Mahomet and Mrs. Mahomet have refused to come out to drop coin in the boxes, flags, money slots and all have been taken right through the front door to their very hearthstones.

Girls working under the direction of Mrs. P. J. Greenway have been going door to door, carrying a white badge and a book by every car, a white badge giving them free transportation. As one car drew into St. Thomas at the Talbot street station, a man who had been tagged pointed to another man on the platform. "That's the mayor of St. Thomas," he said. "Get after him."

Tag St. Thomas' Mayor. Not only did the mayor of St. Thomas receive the London visitors most graciously and himself consent to be tagged, but he insisted that everyone in the neighborhood should also be tagged, giving out, and looking after the return of the boxes.

There are people in London today who have not been tagged once, but three, four, five, half a dozen, and in some cases, even a dozen times. A young man was seen on the street with the whole front of his hat hidden by flags, while his companion looked as if he were wearing all the decorations in the gift of the French republic.

Mothers tagged their babies, and the little ones who toddled beside the mothers cried to be tagged also. The people who were tagged seldom, even if they had rips in their coats and their suits were several seasons old. They were happy because they were helping others in much worse plight, the heroic people of France, who have been called

His brother, Pte. Vincent, enlisted with the 135th, but transferred to the 70th just before that unit left London. Some weeks ago Pte. Vincent was reported wounded, but has returned to the trenches and is again on duty.

Pte. George Wheatcroft, a son-in-law, enlisted in the 135th and went overseas with that battalion. He was a cigarmaker in London before he joined the C. E. F.

Pte. Harold Snelling, the oldest of the three boys, is also a member of the 135th, and returned from Michigan to join it when he learned that his younger brother had signed up.

Bandsman Ganney, the second son-in-law, crossed with the 33rd. He was a farmer near Bonnington before he came to London to join the 33rd. He was married after his enlistment.

Mrs. Snelling is proud of her soldier sons and soldier sons-in-law. Her two daughters are living with her while their husbands are serving overseas. She and all are hoping for a speedy conclusion of the war that will bring their loved ones home to them.

Continued From Page One SCOTCH SOLDIER element, the current from the patient's own organs, is released. "The inventor," says the British Medical Journal, "believes the results are primarily due to the fact that the process interposes between two alternating electric fields of equal strength, one at the positive point, where the positive potential force is thus released and can be converted into dynamic power."

Shows Living Tissues. The third field is made to operate a sensitive needle, which works upon a revolving cylinder carrying a waxed paper, tapping out little holes in the wax, and when later the wax is held up to the light a diagram is seen which precisely resembles the outline of the brain substance, lying vertically below the second screen.

This diagram can be converted into an ordinary photograph by process of photography. The actual outlines of the brain substance, and show bloodvessels in the brain in detail, also wounds, but not the actual brain substance. In other words differences, such as diseased areas, are shown. Works While Life Lasts. The apparatus works as long as the body is alive and even until molecular decay has occurred. After that it does not work.

ASKING COURTS TO DECIDE IF CARTERS ARE LIQUOR AGENTS

License Board Lays Charge to Test the Law.

DEALERS' CONTENTION Claim They Are Entitled to Representatives in This Province.

Whether persons acting as carters in Ontario for liquor firms with headquarters in Quebec are to be considered as agents, and whether such firms are entitled to have agents here, will be decided when the decision in a test case being made by the Ontario License Board is given out. The board will make a charge against a former shopkeeper who has been acting as an agent. The liquor dealers contend that they are entitled to have a representative in various parts of the province for the purpose of transmitting orders. A local brewer stated to The Advertiser that as far as he knew there were no actual agents of outside liquor firms in the city. Shopkeepers and others, he stated, kept supplies of blank order forms, but the purchaser forwarded the order himself. "Other shopkeepers have become carters," he said, "and merely deliver goods ordered from outside places. Their licenses entitle them to deliver all kinds of goods, but in the majority of cases 95 per cent of their delivery is liquor." It is stated that the license board is also notifying the holders of export warehouse licenses that they cannot sell to anyone in the province, whether the would-be purchasers are legally entitled to buy or not. John Garvey Jun. of John Garvey & Sons, the only holder of an export license in this city so far has received no notification from the license board. He stated to The Advertiser that he had not interpreted the new law in this way, but would, of course, have to abide by the legal decision.

COMPLETES TERM AS LICENSE INSPECTOR HERE

A. R. Galpin, After Eleven Years' Service, Turns Office Over to Successor.

A. R. Galpin, for the past eleven years license inspector for the city of London, Friday afternoon turned over office and books to the newly appointed inspector, J. Keenleyside. Mr. Keenleyside has been fulfilling the duties of inspector since September 18, but before finally turning over the books an audit was asked by Mr. Galpin which was made by the provincial department and just completed yesterday. During his eleven years service as license inspector, Mr. Galpin has seen many changes in the liquor and hotel situation in the city. Previous to the going into effect of the Ontario Temperance Act, the greatest change in the situation was made a year ago when a reduction of four licenses was made by former Inspector Galpin. Mr. Galpin was appointed treasurer of the Canadian Order of Foresters during its convention held in the city in June. He leaves on Monday for Brantford the home of his order, and will assume the duties of his new office at once. He will not move his family to Brantford until the end of this year.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE Is This a Square Deal? To the Editor of the Advertiser:

We read in the press that Graham, Renton and Belanger are dismissed from the army, and then again we read that such is not the case, and so it goes. As one who believes that, ordinarily, military discipline should be a law sufficient unto itself and end there, I also believe it is my right, duty and honor to voice my protest against such a course. It is a disgraceful and degrading thing to see a man, who has served his country with honor and distinction, dismissed from the army, and then again we read that such is not the case, and so it goes. ORGANIZING LEAGUE TO BRING FATHERS INTO SCHOOL WORK

"Home and School" Do-Operation Planned by Staff.

PARENTS SYMPATHETIC New Scheme to Foster Closer Relationship Announced at Staff's "At Home."

A "Ryerson School Home and School League" is a probability of the near future. The object is to promote a better understanding between parents and teachers and to insure closer co-operation. From the fact that both fathers and mothers will have a part in this co-operative movement, its advantages have been pointed out, even over the Mothers' Clubs, which have rendered such service in connection with the other schools of the city. The suggestion in regard to the "Ryerson Home and School League" was made by Principal Alex. McKay in an address of welcome on Friday evening, when the staff of the school was "at home" to the parents of the pupils. Inspector C. B. Edwards, Chairman A. E. Silverwood, of the board of education and several members of the board also being present. About 300 in all attended, and, after being received by the principal and teachers, assembled in the auditorium for a program of addresses and music. The speakers, Inspector Edwards, Chairman Silverwood, of the board of education, Thomas Rowe and Rev. Dr. P. The senior, representing the city ministers, all referred to the importance of co-operation. Mr. Silverwood emphasized the benefits to be derived in the program of better understanding between the parents and the school. He stated that the school is a place where the child is to be trained in the habits of industry, order and cleanliness. BUSINESS THRIVING, LABOR IS SCARCE IN CITY AT PRESENT

London reports to Bradstreet's say that Western Ontario business is unusually active. Country trade is especially brisk, and with record prices being paid for products of all kinds, farmers are buying liberally. Hardware, groceries, boots and shoes and millinery lines are experiencing a thriving trade. Local retail business is brisk. Both cottons and woollens are scarce, and some lines of woolen goods are commanding a price 100 per cent in advance of that obtained before the war. Butter and eggs as well as cheese are selling at higher figures than have been obtained for years. Labor is scarce. Collections continue to be good.

LONDON PRESBYTERIAL DOUBLES SUBSCRIPTION

Sends $3,074.35 to W. M. S. in Past Year, as Against $1,525.56

Since January 1 the sum of $3,074.35 has been forwarded from the London Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society to the treasurer of the provincial society. In the same time last year, the best financial year in the history of the London Presbyterian, only $1,525.56 had been sent. This encouraging statement was made Thursday afternoon at the quarterly meeting of the executive held in the First Presbyterian Church by Mrs. McEachern, the treasurer. One contributing factor to the large increase was a special Easter fund offering to help in wiping out a deficit of the general fund. This amounted to $1,161. Though the amount raised in Ontario last year was in advance of former years, in the western provinces, where conditions were not so prosperous, the savings fell off, accounting for the deficit, which Ontario was called upon to help to remove. Owing to the fact that she is leaving in the near future to make her home in Guelph, the resignation of Miss Hannan from the office of Missionary Messenger secretary was regrettably accepted. Miss MacDonald was appointed to take her place. Resolutions of sympathy were moved to Mrs. Stevens of Melbourne, a member of the board, in the loss of her husband, Rev. Mr. Stevens, and to the wife and daughters of the late Rev. Dr. Kelson, who was a prominent member of the London Presbytery. Among out-of-town members who attended the meeting yesterday were Mrs. S. H. Eastman of Port Stanley and Mrs. Norman Anderson, Westminster.

LONDON ARTISTS SCORE IN CONCERT

Make Good Impression at Port Rowan Program.

Five London artists received quite an ovation at Port Rowan Thursday evening of this week, when they gave a concert in the Princess Theatre there. These included Miss Florence Eggleston, violinist; Gladstone Paul, cellist, and F. G. Killmaster, pianist, of the London instrumental trio, which made for itself a most enviable reputation in the city last winter, and as assisting talent, Miss Luta Laymon, contralto, and Miss Lorna McGillivray, harpist, a recent graduate with high honors from a Tennessee college of music. Gladstone Paul, who has done excellent trio work, made his debut as a soloist, delighting by the beauty of his tone quality and his artistic rendering of his numbers. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Paul, this city. An enthusiast over music, within the last couple of years he has taken up cello playing in time not interfering with his business, and his progress has been so rapid that a successful career is predicted for him. The trip to Port Rowan and back was made by motor.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home. Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eyestrain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses, and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me. A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything became clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow the water to stand for five minutes. Your eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation will quickly disappear, if your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. Note.—Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist, and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." DISEASE OF SICK HORSE CAUSED SUDDEN DEATH

Caused Infection of Well-Known Township Dairyman.

Illness contracted from treatment of a sick horse caused the sudden death Friday of Chas. Spettigue, lot 22, concession L. Westminster Township, a well-known dairyman and farmer. Bursting of a blood vessel was the actual cause of death, but Mr. Spettigue's illness was caused from his treatment of a horse. Mr. Spettigue was born 65 years ago, and had been a long residence of the township. As a young man he was in business in Detroit, but returned to the farm, which he worked with his brother, Frank. Six children, a widow, and two brothers survive him. The brothers are Frank of the farm, and William of this city. Two of his sons, Edgar and Osmond, live in London, and two are at home—Jack and Bert. The daughters are Louise and Beattie at home. The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon from the family residence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. It will be performed at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. E. Holmes of the Ridout Street Methodist Church.

RELIEF FROM INDIGESTION

The Most Common Cause of This Trouble is Poor Blood.

All conditions of depressed vitality tend to disturb the process of digestion. There is not a disturbed condition of life that may not affect digestion. But few causes of the trouble are so common as thin, weak blood. It affects directly and at once the process of nutrition. Not only is the action of the gastric and intestinal glands diminished, but the muscular action of the stomach is weakened. Nothing will more promptly restore digestive efficiency than good, red blood. Without it the normal activity of the stomach is impossible. Thin, pale people who complain of indigestion must improve the condition of their blood to find relief. The most active blood builder in such cases is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They make the rich, red blood which quickly restores the digestive organs to their proper activity, and the dyspeptic who has hated the sight and smell of food now looks forward to mealtime with pleasure. As proving the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing indigestion, Miss Edith M. Smith, R. R. No. 4, Perth, Ont., says: "I can honestly say I owe my present good health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My stomach was terribly weak and I suffered from indigestion and sick headache, and was always very nervous. I was troubled this way for nearly three years, and in that time took a great deal of doctors' medicine, which, however, did not help me. I could not eat anything without experiencing the most agonizing pain. My sick headaches were most violent, and I could not rest night or day. I was asked one day by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and consented to do so. After taking them some time I found they were helping me, and I continued to take them steadily for several months, until I found that I was completely cured. While taking the pills I gained both in strength and weight, and I feel it impossible to praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly. You can procure these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

PHILLIES LEAD NATIONAL; DODGERS LOSE A.M. GAME

Great Hitting by Luderus and Fine Pitching by Rixey Shake Brooklyn From Top of the League—Pfeffer Hit Hard.

Philadelphia captured the lead in the National League pennant hunt this morning, defeating the Brooklyn 7 to 2. Manager Robinson sent his star pitcher, Pfeffer, to the mound to check the Philadelphia's advance, but he was hammered hard and consistently, and his service failed to baffle the bats of the visitors. Luderus helped himself to two two-baggers and a home run. Brooklyn could do little with Rixey's delivery. The game was played on a wind-swept field.

PARKHILL FALL FAIR MAY SHOW DEFICIT; BAD WEATHER CAUSE

Crowds and Exhibitors Brave Fierce Roads.

RACES ARE DECLARED OFF

Fewer Cattle and Horses Are Shown, But Quality Excellent.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PARKHILL, Sept. 29.—Even the most unfavorable weather cannot spoil the Parkhill fair. On Wednesday night it poured rain, but the bad roads on Thursday and the threatening weather did not mar the enthusiasm of the directors nor the patrons, who came today in goodly numbers.

The display did not fall much short of banner years. The falling off was most noticeable in the quantity of women's work, many of the smaller exhibitors being absent, but the quality of work was good, and all articles displayed were of the useful, sensible variety.

Considering the drought which was keenly felt in Western Ontario this year, the exhibit of roots, vegetables and fruit were excellent. Potatoes were medium-sized and smooth skinned, as were tomatoes, beans, pumpkins, cabbages and all other vegetables in the same classes.

James Hall was the largest prize-winner in these classes, and Miss Hall shone in the women's work.

Mrs. Walter Hill of McGillivray, the noted butter-maker, carried off the prizes in butter, and she and Mrs. Emory tied on honors for cooking.

Mrs. Hill's exhibits of jellies and pickles were artistic and beautiful, and Mrs. Emory's collection of fourteen pies would tempt an epicure.

Women's Institute Competition.

In the exhibit of vegetables, canned and raw, for which the Women's Institute gave prizes, the honors went to Misses Sanderson, Campbell and Emery.

The seeds for these vegetables were given out by the department of agriculture, and the prizes for the best gardens in the competition go to Misses Sanderson and Campbell.

Messrs. E. Robinson and L. Martin did a land office business taking guesses on the weight of a three-story fruitcake and the Princess Pats' pictures, the proceeds for the 13th boys. Cakes, candy and cake sold freely.

The crowd was about half that of other years.

S. S. No. 12, McGillivray, took the prize for the best-dressed school. Highland pipes and two little dancers were the chief entertainment attraction.

An exhibit of grapes and other fruit by Jas. Hall, and one by J. T. Elliott were in heavy demand. The principal exhibitors were C. Bean & Son, Arch Barrett, John Sererube, H. Harton and J. D. McIntosh; roaster team, W. T. Waseley and W. Buttry; carriage team, John Currie, Donald Johnson won special for Sir Otto Cott and the sweepstakes.

Fewer Cattle Shown.

There were fewer cattle than any previous year. Shortbarns, A. Barrett, Herford's, J. Demery; grades, John Nilcock and Rich Barrett.

A uniform exhibit in the 3-year-old grade steers was a steer owned by H. Spennell, which was shown hitched by collar and harness to a truck wagon. The steer was awarded first prize. It is of good size and good quality. The steer and wagon are familiar figures on the streets of Parkhill.

There was only one load of hogs and one load of sheep on the grounds.

The track was slow and heavy and all races were declared off. It is expected there will be a large deficit.

LITTLE BOY NINE MONTHS OLD HAD DYSENTERY

Dysentery is one of the worst forms of bowel complaint. The pains in the bowels become intense, the discharges occur with great rapidity, and are very often accompanied by blood, and the sufferer becomes very weak and languid. Unless these discharges are checked, death may ensue in a very short time.

There is only one remedy to use in all cases of dysentery, and that is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It will cure when all other remedies fail.

Mrs. J. Leslie McKee, Rodgers, Sask., writes: "I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for my little boy when he was about nine months old. He was awfully bad with dysentery. I had not laid him down for three days and nights, only when his father took him for a few minutes. He had both the diarrhoea and vomiting. I had tried everything until my husband got 'Dr. Fowler's', and three doses cured him."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy you want. Don't take any other when you ask for it. Manufactured only by the T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 25c.

BRAVE EDITORS IN BELGIUM CONTINUE TO STING THE HUNS

Issue Papers Flaying Germans and Are Not Found.

HAVE MARVELOUS SYSTEM

Paper and Engraving Secured, Distribution Accomplished Despite Frantic Hounding.

Brussels, Sept. 29.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The Belgian Government authorities here have received information of the continued appearance of patriotic newspapers at Brussels and throughout Belgium, in defiance of the German censorship and despite all the efforts of the German military police. It is one of the mysteries of the German occupation of Belgium how these secret papers can be published, where they engrave their cartoons ridiculing the Germans, and how they cut the type and circulate the papers.

Price on Editor's Head.

There is a price of 50,000 marks on the head of the editor of the Free Belgium, but it keeps on appearing just the same. Several of the supposed editors are said to have been shot. One man was sentenced to twelve years' hard labor, others to three and eleven years, and a woman, Madame Scheepens, to five years. But each time that a supposed editor is imprisoned, the Belgian authorities feel the trouble is ended, the paper appears the following day more lusty than ever with a cartoon making fun of the prosecution.

"Kidding the Germans."

A file is kept here of these secret papers, as a matter of curiosity. Free Belgium, which has given the most trouble, prints the following notices under its title:

"A bulletin of patriotism, submitting to no censorship whatever."

"Price per copy elastic, from zero to infinity."

"Business office: Not being handy to have an established address, we are installed in a movable automobile cellar."

"Advertisements: Business being nil under German domination, we have suppressed our advertising page, and counsel our patrons to keep their money until times get better."

"Telegraphic address: Care of German Commandant at Brussels."

Shows German Cruelty.

A recent issue of Free Belgium gave a cartoon by Raemker, adapted from Gustave Doré's Scenes in Hell, showing women and children in agony as they were trampled down by a soldier in German helmet, the face of the soldier being evidently meant for that of the Kaiser. Another cartoon, entitled "Love's Chariot," shows Gen. von Bissinger, the military commander of Brussels, trying to find the editor of Free Belgium in cellars and attics, while the editorial rooms, business office, etc., are depicted as a big sun, labelled "Free Belgium," smiles down derisively at Von Bissinger's vain efforts to capture the editors.

"Barbarians and Liars."

La Patrie is another of these secret newspapers. It announces under its title that it is a "non-censored journal, appearing how, where and when it pleases." Another line states that it is the second largest publication in Belgium, the standing line carried at the head of its editorials, referring to the Germans as "barbarians and liars always." A recent number showed a cartoon "en route for Calais" by way of the Yser River, with the bodies of German soldiers slaughtered by the Belgians, floating in the water.

"Echo, another of the secret journals, announces that it prints 'what censored journals dare not and cannot say.' A recent number gave the speech of Premier Aynard in the House of Commons, declaring that Belgium would remain neutral until Belgium was free. The editorial was headed: 'Teuton Pirates and Vandals.'

The Belgian Story.

Other secret newspapers, La Verite and the Flemish Lion. There is also a Weekly Review of the French Press, giving articles which have been prohibited from being published in Belgium. Illustrations also continue to appear, with handsome engravings and colored maps, giving the Belgian story as against the Germans.

Even a secret press bureau has been set up at Brussels, which issues typeset from the official press bureau at Paris and London. The editing is well done, showing that there must be capable men to gather the material and put it in shape. The sheets, mechanically, are even better than those issued at Paris and London, showing there must be a large and first-class duplicating process somewhere beyond the power of the Germans to discover.

A Marvelous System.

The Belgian officials themselves do not know how this work is done, and it is simply incomprehensible how all this editing, publishing, printing, circulating, getting the requisite white paper and ink, drawing cartoons, engraving and lithographing and all the innumerable details of getting out newspapers, weeklies, books and a press service, can be accomplished in secret with the German police straining every nerve and offering prizes on the heads of the editors. It takes courage and ingenuity to be an editor in Belgium under these conditions.

SPAIN IS CONSIDERING HOW TO STOP HUNS

Question of Submarine Raids Raised in House of Deputies.

MADRID, Sept. 29.—Via Paris, Sept. 29.—Count Romanones, the Spanish prime minister, upon the resumption of parliament today, was questioned in the Chamber of Deputies by Senor Nouguas as to whether the Government would insist upon respect being shown to international law by the Germans and whether they would be prepared from torpedoing Spanish ships.

The premier replied that it was impossible to speak upon this question at the present time. "The Government," he added, "has taken into account the importance of this problem, and is studying how it may be solved for the best interests of the country."

Senator Danlos asked a similar question in the upper house.

DAYLIGHT-SAVING PROVED A SUCCESS IN THE OLD COUNTRY

Today Is Last of New Time in British Isles.

FARMERS ARE RECONCILED At First Objected, But Now Admit That It Was Beneficial.

London, Sept. 29.—The summer time closes today, the last day on which the clocks will register time an hour ahead of the standard.

The daylight-saving plan, introduced last spring by an act of Parliament, is generally considered to have proved a success, even the farmers who at first objected to it having become reconciled to the innovation.

However, the Government has appointed a committee to consider the social and economic results, report whether it is advisable to repeat the experiment, what modifications, if any, should be introduced, and the time it should remain operative.

GERMANY FOLLOWS SUIT. Berlin, Sept. 29.—(By London, Sept. 29.)—Germany will return to normal time Saturday at midnight, when all timepieces in the country will be moved back one hour.

Opinions vary greatly regarding the advantage of the so-called summer time. Farmers are opposed to it, as also are some of the theatres and commercial classes favor it.

As a result of the variance in sentiment, it is uncertain whether the experiment will be renewed next year.

Come in Promptly, Declares Chief.

LOCAL SITUATION GOOD Could Not Be Improved On, Says Head of Force.

Approximately two hundred alien enemies, all residents of the city, are reporting monthly to Chief of Police W. T. Williams.

THE LOCAL MARKET

Rain on two market days throughout the week was responsible for a good local market this morning. Hay, however, was not plentiful, the price remaining unchanged at $12 to $14 a ton. Only a couple of loads of straw were offered, with the price steady at $8 to $8.50 a ton. Both old and new oats were brisk, as few were brought in. The old brought from $1.85 to $1.92 a cwt., and the new from $1.62 to $1.63.

Potatoes were steady at 45c a peck, and tomatoes were unchanged at 40c a bushel. Cabbage were firm at 60c to $1.50 a dozen. Green corn ranged from 15c to 20c a dozen.

Although the season for pears is almost closed they were plentiful at 30c to 70c a basket. Pears were unchanged at $1 to $1.25 a bushel, but a peach dropped to 75c a bushel. The highest price was 75c a bushel. A large number of canteloupes sold at $1 to $1.50 a dozen. Few grapes sold for more than 25c a basket.

Dairy products were firm at 40c a pound retail for creamery butter, and 35c for dairy butter in rolls. Butter in casks retailed for 37c a pound. Eggs closed at 42c, November at 42.50, and 35c to 38c wholesale. There was no change in honey, which sold at $1.10 to $1.40 for 10-pound pails.

Live chickens were sold at 15c a pound wholesale, and old fowl at 14c to 15c. Dressed chickens, a pound, wholesale, brought 15c to 20c a pound. Dressed chickens were sold at 15c to 17c, and May at 15c to 17c. Flax closed 7 1/2c to 10 1/2c higher, with October at 8 1/2c, November at 8.50, and December at 8.75.

After opening strongly, wheat advanced rapidly by an apparent reason around 12:45 o'clock the Chicago market broke, and the local pit followed suit. Although the market failed to follow yesterday's late decline here tended further to handicap European stocks were light for this time of the year.

Opening prices, with December at $1.55, 61 1/2c, and May at $1.45, 61 1/2c, but something of a reaction.

Speaking at a social evening held in Foresters Hall last night by Trafalgar Chapter, I. O. O. HELP FOR FRENCH IS URGENTLY REQUIRED, SAYS MRS. SMALL

Thousands of War Sufferers Need Immediate Assistance. AID FOR THE HOSPITALS Londoners Will Have Chance Today To Do Their Share.

Notwithstanding the downpour of rain, a large number of people were present yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at a public meeting in Cronyn Hall to hear the story convincingly told of the pressing need of French relief, both in the way of hospital supplies and for the refugees and other war sufferers.

Mrs. Sydney Small of Toronto, chairman of the women's executive of the Secours National of Ontario, the organization looking after French relief, arrived in the city Friday to address the meeting, accompanied by another speaker, Mrs. E. B. Beatty, chairman of the sewing committee of the same society, mother of a son who has won his D. S. O.

"Our object in coming," said Mrs. Small, "has been to show our grateful appreciation of the efforts being made to help in this most needy work, through the organization of a French Relief fund for Saturday. The very best piece of news that we have ever received came to us from London from the conference of L. O. O. F. workers of No. 1 military district a few weeks ago, the information that the order of the London district had decided to work specially for French relief during the coming year. This is simply splendid, and appreciated more than I can possibly tell."

Continuing, Mrs. Small told of the many sides of the work of the Secours National, in the first place furnishing with supplies the French hospitals, in several of which Canadian soldiers receive their care, and secondly, forwarding relief to the refugees and orphans of France. This society is now undertaking to look after tuberculous French soldiers, 20,000 or so more than can be cared for by the French hospitals. "This is work," she emphasized, "which we simply cannot neglect, because of the debt of gratitude we owe these men."

Open-Air Hospitals. "We propose to establish open-air hospitals under able direction in order that these incapacitated soldiers may be able to return to their homes and to their work, and to their families. Under the circumstances, it is impossible for them to go back to their homes and to their work can prove more really helpful than the best medical treatment."

Announcement was made that with the advance of the Allies it is intended that the peasants shall again settle on their recovered land. Buildings have been destroyed and the Secours National is assisting with portable houses. Before the French relief tag day in Toronto in July 1914, 900 in money and supplies had been forwarded. The tag day fund now amounts to $33,000 and this is being held, awaiting developments from the home government. "This is rapid enough," stated Mrs. Small, "the money will be required for portable houses. We are waiting to hear whether portable houses of canvas or beef will be most urgently required."

Meat is Needed. Both Mrs. Small and Mrs. Beatty who followed her emphasized the need of meat in France, tinned meat of every description, the request usually being for corned beef. Warning was given against sending cereals or other bulky packages, which take up a lot of room considering their food value.

Forwarding through the Secours National in Toronto gives an added advantage of shipping direct, free of charge. The Secours National has been granted a right of way on the Canadian ammunition boats to France, a privilege not enjoyed by any other organization.

Two touching letters of gratitude were read, one from St. Malo, the birth-place of Jacques Cartier, and another from Southern France, where supplies had been sent to very small and poor hospitals.

Back From France. Mrs. Beatty, who has just returned home from France, while there had the privilege of meeting many French women engaged in relief work and from them and personal observation had an opportunity of obtaining first-hand information in regard to the needs there. These needs, she declared, had been understated, not overstated, in the way of needs of hospital supplies, of food, of relief of every description, and of socks for the soldiers. "When I was there," she stated, "it was impossible to buy wool. Unless you could go there and see for yourselves, you could never understand what the war means, she added. "I didn't see a single young man who wasn't in uniform, and the women were all in mourning. Paris, once the gayest city in the world, is now the saddest, and yet, the people are so brave and uncomplaining. Requests made to me were never personal, but all for the country, for the soldiers. 'The civilians can get along' was what the women said. 'We must look after the soldiers.' The French woman would be ashamed to have it thought she was wearing a new garment. At the outbreak of war the women of Paris gave every bit of their linen. They haven't even dusters and floor cloths now."

Other Cities Have Been Forced To Stop Before. NO DEMAND FOR BONDS Other Issues Pay Higher Rate of Interest Than Municipal.

Although other cities have been compelled to call a halt on capital expenditure, the city of London has gone on with enormous outlays of money, regardless of conditions.

There will be large money bylaws submitted to the people in January, rumor has it, and other large sums will be demanded of the city without the sanction of the ratepayers.

The city of Toronto has had to stop the expenditures, and it is expected that London will have to do the same. There is not so much demand for city bonds now that other issues will pay a larger rate of interest, and this may deter cities from rash expenditures.

London is rapidly reaching the limit of its borrowing powers, and the necessity for retrenchment has been brought home to the city fathers.

It is probable that this condition of affairs will be called attention to on Monday evening at the session of the council. No official action has been taken as yet.

Patricia Pavilion DELIGHTED DANCERS AT GRAND OPENING London's Fine New Hall Made Hit With Crowd. FILLED TO CAPACITY Appointments Complete and Up to the Minute in Every Detail.

If the crowds which thronged the new Patricia dancing pavilion for the opening last night are any standard by which to judge, it bids fair to be the pleasure ground of London throughout the coming season and seasons following as well. Even before the opening hours of the pavilion, the building, which is situated on Park avenue, only a short distance from Dundas, was crowded with pleasure seekers.

There was no disappointment awaiting them on their entry, the large maple floor, planned to a glassy smoothness and surrounded by walls dark green in color, relieved by the light green of the entrance, the large maple floor, planned to a glassy smoothness and surrounded by walls dark green in color, relieved by the light green of the entrance, the large maple floor, planned to a glassy smoothness and surrounded by walls dark green in color, relieved by the light green of the entrance.

Ideal Lighting. The harsh glare usual in most pavilions was obviated by the new system of lighting, which does not cast the light directly upon the spectators and dancers but diffuses it into a gentle glow which lights all parts of the pavilion evenly. A subdued, moonlight effect was also noted.

The board of trade at its meeting last night agreed to assume the burden of making arrangements and carrying into operation a plan to raise $71,000 on October 19 for the British Red Cross Society.

The plan will be to raise the fund by methods adopted at the time of the patriotic fund canvass by organizing teams and doing the work in one day. Circular letters will be sent out to all and an extensive advertising campaign will be conducted in advance.

It is probable that this condition of affairs will be called attention to on Monday evening at the session of the council. No official action has been taken as yet.

Teils of Objects. A communication from C. H. Blackmore, secretary of the British Empire Union of Canada, was read, in which the objects of the union were outlined. The mission of the society, the latter stated, is to carry out in Canada an anti-German policy similar to that of the union in Great Britain, first by protecting Canadian industries against German competition, secondly, by putting an end to German influences in commerce, finance and politics, and third to combat German aggression, both open and secret.

Accompanying the communication was a pamphlet entitled "No Trading with Germans," written by Prof. H. T. F. Duckworth, dean of Trinity College, Toronto.

In his arraignment of the German system, he writes in part: "But trading with Germans in order to enable the Germans to pay their debts will only mean that we shall be paying those debts, in part, at least, and at the same time helping on German preparations for the postponed day of German world-control. If there are any stocks in our markets which our own people cannot occupy, let them be reserved for traders from the nations in alliance with whom we have fought and suffered.
