Trouble at Skagway.

A crew of non-union, men was obtained to discharge the cargo of the Danube, as told in Sunday morning's issue, and she was gotten away at 6 o'clock in the evening, which was tinct misfortune. The fact has long about the time Agent Dunu expected to get her out before the labor difficulty arose. When the Al-Ki of the Pacifi Coast company, came in Sunday Agent Kelly had a crew ready to proceed with the unloading of her and the cargo which consisted of lumber, shingles and general merchandise was taken out iu good time. _

The Dolphin was provided with 22 non-unionists by Agent Frank E. Burns and he says there were more applicants

The fight, however, is not over, ac cording to some of the union men They think the surplus labor in the city will be greatly reduced in a few days now that navigation is open, and then they expect the steamship companies, which will be doing a big busipess in freight, much of which will have to be handled expeditiously, will be more ready to consider a proposition must be attributed in a measure at least |ed by the strikers.
