THE SUPPLY EXHAUSTED. There was once an old minister who was always deploring deeply the want of proper judgment in the members of Pariament in the selection they made in ar pointing magistrates.

He thought they should be intelligent, Christian men, when in most cases reverse was the case. Very soon after a number of men throughout the country had been appointed to his office, the old minister was riding out in a nice covered buggy, and was met by one of these newly appointed magistrates; who addressed the old minister in those words: "Indeed, Mr.-, you are out in style to-day; why don't you do as your Master

"How is that?" said the minister. "He rode on an ass." "O, I cannot do that," was the reply.

"Why can't you?" asked the magistrate "O, I cannot get one, because the Government has just made magistrates of them all."

Further than that the Doctor imposed on the credulity of his audience by announcing the Scott act a howling success in Fredericton. There are not many men who would care to place their lives or their property in the hands of a juror of that description. If the Doctor was not so extreme in his views, and ludicrous in his gestures, his oratory would increase considerably in Amuse General Herbert and a Select effect.

Another view perhaps that strikes the public is that a juror who is feed at the rate of ten dollars a day and expenses by one of the parties in the suit, is not altogether an indifferent juror as between the litigants. Some people make temperance pay, but perhaps Dr. McLeod is influenced entirely by philanthropic motives.

KEARSAGE STOCK GOES UP. McConnell's Nellie G. Makes a Record at Fredericton horsemen were pleased with the news that came from the St. Stephen races Wednesday evening, for it brought tidings of a great victory for Nellie G., the Kearsage mare reared by Alex. Gibson, jr., of Marysville, and now the property of John R. McConnell. Nellie G. had trotted in the St. Stephen races last week, but was not a winner. It is stated, however, that she was timed in one heat at 2.28, and her Calais record of Wednesday is not up to that. She trotted in the three minute class against J. O. C., Monte Mack, and Alice B. There were four heats, J. O. C. winning the first in 2.30½, but Nellie G took the next three and the race, time 2.281, 2.30 and 2.32. The Telegraph's report says that after the first heat the crowd intimated that Nellie G. The old gas lamps have been removed could do better, which proved correct, for she led from start to finish in three succeeding heats, jogging easily under the wire each time. Nellie G. was driven by John McCoy. Mr. McConnell bought her only the other day from Mayor Gibson for $300, but her value is probably doubled since her Calais performance.

The man who was most delighted by the mare's victory outside of her owner, was John H. Reid, the veteran Fredericton sport, and the owner of Nellie G.'s sire. Mr. Reid swears by Kearsage stock, when he swears at all, and to a knot of friends on the street Wednesday evening, he extolled Kearsage virtues. He thought Mr. Gibson made a mistake in selling Nellie G. so cheap He should have seen the mare through Her Calais record made her worth at least $1500, and perhaps more. "Where are the Wilkes' now?" enthusiastically enquired Mr. Reid. "One of them, Katrina, has a record of 2.251," broke in Hans Hawthorn, who is enough of a sport to like a good horse race and to know something of trotting records. "Ha," replied John H., 'but Katrina couldn't do it again." It may be here explained without prejudice to John H. and Kearsage, that Katrina's record was got when she was only four years old. Nellie G. has turned six, but nevertheless Fredericton and Marysville are proud of the latter's Calais victory.

POETRY.

DON'T QUARREL WITH THE PAST.

Don't pick a quarrel with the past, My friend, whate'er you do. Do not annoy it; let it be, And it won't trouble you. But if you plague it long enough, Sometime vou'll stand aghast To see how 'twill avenge itself, Don't quarrel with the past.

Don't pick a quarrel with the past, My friend, but go your way; And if you must a quarrel have, Come, quarrel with to-day; To-day is nearer to your size, The past, a monster vast, Invulnerable, and all untamed, Don't quarrel with the past.

Don't pick a quarrel with the past, My friend, for if you knew. The past has other foes enough To fight and so have you. But if you willfully persist, You'll surely be out-classed, And all your other foes will laugh, Don't quarrel with the past.

HIS is a well-made, practical machine, writing capitals, small letters, figures, and punctuation marks (71 in all) on full width paper, just like a $100 instrument. It is the first of its kind ever offered at a popular price, for which the above claim can be truthfully made. It is not a toy, but a Typewriter built for and capable of REAL WORK. While not as rapid as the large machines sometimes become in expert hands, it is still at least, as rapid as the pen, and has the advantage of such simplicity, that it can be understood and mastered almost at a glance. We THREE SHEET POSTER cordially commend it to helpful parents and teachers everywhere.
