SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 19, 1873

Town and County News.

Mr. F. DALBY retires from the Dalby House, Elora, on 15th May, in favor of Mr. James Allan, for some years favorably known as landlord of the Harrison Hotel.

The Montreal telegraph company has opened an office at Orchardville. Being within twelve miles of Mount Forest and Durham, business between it and these offices comes under the fifteen cent tariff.

We notice that J. C. Macklin & Co. have bought the extensive stock of Mr.
Wm. Galloway, which consists of dry goods, clothing, millinery, &c., and from the way they generally rush off stocks, we imagine great bargains will be given.

The officers of the Athletic Base Ball Club, Elora, for this year are: President, James Henderson; Vice-President, James Anderson; Secretary and Treasurer, Andrew Smart; Directors, William Hele, John Dalby and Andrew Smart.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.—Gad now he had at Anderson's. It contains striking illustrations of incidents connected with the wreck of the Atlantic, in addition to other illustrations of general interest.
The reading matter is fully up to the mark.

GOLDIE'S DREAM.—We understand that Mr. Goldie is making preparations to erect a temporary dam, so as to utilize the water, until such time as the water is low enough to put in a permanent structure. He expects to have it ready by the end of next week. We sincerely hope that he may be successful in his endeavors.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH.—We beg to remind our readers that the new St.
George's Church will be formally opened for public worship on to-morrow. His Grace, the Bishop of the Diocese, will preach at morning service, and the Rev.
Provost of Trinity College, in the evening. Service at 11 a.m., and 7 p.m.
Seats free. Collections will be taken up in aid of the building fund.

SOMETHING NEW.—We have received from Mr. Day a specimen of "The American School Slates," the object of which is, apparently, to do away with all copy books. The slate is encased in a handsome varnished wood, round which, on one side, are engraved the alphabet, large and small letters, together with a number of proper diagrams, as head lines, which are very full and attractive. There is a very full catalogue of the same.
On the reverse side are some examples of drawing, for such pupils as show a talent in that line. The idea seems a very good one, and will certainly save an immense amount of spoiled ink, spent in writing, on the part of the pupil. The slates, we believe, are arranged progressively. Call at Day's and see them.

Y. M. C. A. BAZAAR.—The second meeting of the ladies in connection with the above object was held yesterday afternoon in the Association Rooms. There was a very full attendance. The Committee, who were present gave a very satisfactory report of what had been done since the last meeting. As most of the friends are already aware, the object of the proposed bazaar is to raise money to start a building fund for the young men, and also to erect a building which shall be a credit to the Town.
The end in view is one worthy of the support of the Christian community, and we are glad to know that it is already so well supported that the bazaar need not fail to be an entire success. The general committee will meet in the Association rooms on the last Thursday of each month at 3 p. m. to transact business in connection with the bazaar.— Mrs. RAYBORN, Secretary.

Chief Constable with allowing his pig to run at large. Case dismissed.

A DARING HORSEWOMAN KILLED.

(From the Somerset Edition.)
Last week a young lady named Eliza Stewart, whose mother resides on the Farm of Mr. Clay Irwin, near Macon, in this county, started out to take a ride on a wild horse. Being a reckless rider, and without any of the exercise, she laid with to the animal and was soon falling at a pace. As she went, riding in a full gallop, until she came to a sudden turn in the road, when the saddle turned so the horse was in the act of making the descent and she was dashed headlong against a tree and fell listless and mangled to the ground, never to rise again.
Her chest was completely crushed.

The Roman Catholic cure of St. Genevieve committed an assault on Mr. Ronbillard, an old man, and his church warden, a few days ago. The attack is characterized as brutal. It was thought about by a hot dispute. The war was issued a warrant for Father Perrault's arrest.

Cricket.

The members of the Guelph Cricket Club held their annual meeting in the Queen's Hotel on Friday evening; which was very well attended. In the absence of Mr. Hogg, President, Mr. Geo. Murton, Vice-President, was called upon to take the chair. After some congratulatory remarks relative to their uninterrupted successes, their list of victories was read to the meeting. Mr. Murton concluded by tendering Mr. A. Hogg's resignation as President, which he said he could not but feel sorry to do, as we were saying good bye to one of Guelph's oldest and most respected cricketers. As Vice-President Mr. Murton resigned, and was chosen as their late President's power.
Mr. A. Sharpe was called upon to take the chair when the following officers were elected.—Mr. F. J. Chadwick, President; Mr. G. Murton, Vice-President, and Mr.
W. H. Fitzgerald, Secretary and Treasurer.
Messrs. H. Oliver, G. Lockless, J. Mitchell, F. M. Hall, F. G. Light, and J. G. were duly elected as a working Committee. Mr. J. Nichols was chosen as Captain for the coming season, but in his absence the majority of the eleven chosen for that match were to select their own Captain. The following gentlemen were chosen as the retiring officers of last season, and make matches and choose a eleven to play in such matches.—F. J. Chadwick, G. Murton, W. H. Fitzgerald, J. Nichols, and J. Mitchell, providing there was a majority of them to govern.

The Secretary was ordered to draft an address to their late President, Mr.
Arthur Hogg, expressing the deep feeling of regret felt by all present at his retirement from the official position held by him till that evening. After some animated debating and general routine business a vote of thanks was passed to the retiring officers of last season, and also to Mr. A. Sharpe for his impartial action in the chair. The meeting adjourned sine die.

THE EXPLOSION IN LONDON

LATEST PARTICULARS.

The boiler explosion on Friday morning at Hymans's tannery overshadows all local topics. Crowds of people gathered in the neighbourhood all day gazing at the ruins, and discussing the sad circumstances connected with the event. It appears that the boiler was of iron, and was scalded his arm yesterday and laid off work. Sullivan supplying his place.
Daniel Sullivan and Philip Ryan were standing near the boiler when it exploded. The former must have been instantly killed. When found, his head and face were covered in blood, and he was dead. One of the workmen, Ryan, was alive when discovered amid the ruins.
One arm had been blown completely off, and close to the shoulder, and he was otherwise desperately injured so that it was impossible for him to survive. He died about 4 p. m. Jeremiah McCarthy, another of the workmen, was found badly bruised about the head and body and face. One thigh was almost broken, and his injuries appeared so serious that at first it was thought he too must die, but under medical treatment he improved considerably, and his life is not at present despaired of. Narrow escapes were numerous. The fright occasioned in the vicinity by the crash accompanying the explosion was great. Women and children ran screaming from their houses into the streets, believing an earthquake had visited the place. Dining-room girls, and others in the Tennyson House, a block distant, startled by the shock, jumped from dining-room windows to the sidewalk. The cause of the accident can, of course, only be conjectured. The boiler, a forty-horse power, had been built four years in New York, and was conveyed to London by the Tennyson company, of the best material, and had always given satisfaction. Sullivan, Ryan, and McCarthy are married men with young families, and the distress of wives, mothers, and children would move the stoutest heart. An impost was conveyed at 7 p. m. by Coroner Moore to investigate the cause of the disaster, and after the jury had viewed the bodies, adjourned till Monday evening.

Strange Shooting Case in Toronto.

A case of shooting took place early on Friday morning last in Toronto, that has a flavor of the practice in some of the most advanced circles of society in New York. A married man named Armstrong, residing on the corner of Bay and Richmond streets, where he keeps a grocery store, and among his domestics a maid of all work. Mrs. Armstrong had for some time past been suspicious of a closer intimacy than was proper existing between her husband and the domestic.
Prompted by some misgiving of the same time early in the morning took a revolver and proceeded to a room, where she found the paramours. The infuriated wife fired at the girl, the particles of shot with which the pistol had been loaded striking her on the forehead, and one of her eyes being penetrated, the left eye, which it is probable will be destroyed. The wounded woman, whose name is Mrs. Wynham, was taken to the Hospital yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Armstrong, who made no attempt at escape or denial, was detained last night in No. 2 Police Station. She is a quiet, sensible, and gives as the one reason for the determined policy she adopted that she had overheard a conversation between her husband and Mrs.
Wynham, in which a preliminary gathering up of all the available funds was to be suggested by the slight of the pair.
The injured wife has succeeded in spair-ing this part of the programme, at least.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Affairs in Spain.

Carlists Cutting the Railways.
The Late Bishop McIlvaine.

The Modoc Troubles.

Death of Commodore Watson.

Murder of an Italian Widow.

London, April 19.—One hundred thousand sovereigns were taken from the Bank of England yesterday for New York. Apprehensions exist that further shipments will lead to an increase of the Bank rate of discount.

The Times, in referring to the arguments against the Erie dividends, says that any other policy than that of President Watson is equivalent to an appropriation of the shareholders money without their consent.

London, April 18.—A report from Berlin that the Pope died this morning is not credited here.

The remains of Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio, who died recently in Florence, have reached this city, and are now lying in Westminster Abbey, awaiting shipment home. The funeral services take place today.

Paris, April 18.—The wife of Henri Rochefort is dead.

Madrid, April 18.—The Railway between Barcelona and Tarragona has been cut by the Carlists, and travelling between those cities is temporarily suspended.

The Carlists have seized Tamarit, in Henza, and the insurgents announce their intention of holding them until a sum of money which has been demanded of the town shall have been paid.

San Francisco, April 19.—Commodore Watson died in a fit of apoplexy yesterday.

Ambrosia Corrie, on Thursday shot and instantly killed M. Loreto Garcia, widow of the late Don Rafael Garcia.
Corrie ran a short distance and then shot himself.

San Francisco, April 18.—Private despatches from Dr. Lenoig, at Lava Bed, last evening, says the Modocs have fled to the hills south-east of Lava Bed, and the cavalry is in pursuit. Sergeant Forest captured a Modoc battle flag, and took the scalp of Scar-Faced Charlie.
The savages fearfully mutilated the body of Eugene Hovey, who was killed, and whose body fell into their hands. Commissioner Meacham is improving rapidly.

Erie, Pa., 19.—There is no ice in sight of this harbour, and the port may fairly be considered open for the season.
Several sailing vessels and propellers left yesterday and to-day for the upper lake ports.

Dreadful Railroad Accident.

Fifteen Persons Killed.

(Special to The Evening Mercury.) SROUSKOTOS, Conn., April 19.—A dreadful accident occurred to a steamboat train on the Stonington & Providence Railroad. A train from Stonington for Boston fell through the bridge at Richmond switch and six cars were precipitated into the river. Fifteen persons are supposed to be killed. Six bodies have been recovered. The accident was caused by the frost.

POPE PIUS THE NINTH.

Statement of his death, and assertion of his improved health.

LONDON, April 18.—A report from Berlin that the Pope died this morning is
not credited here.

ROME, April 18.—The Pope is somewhat better. He arose from his bed today and remained up for several hours, during which time he transacted business.

ROME, April 18, evening.—The Pope is better, but still confined to bed.

OTTAWA, April 18.—A private telegram received here this evening announces the death of Pope Pius IX.

Fire in Port Hope.

(Special to The Evening Mercury.) PORT HOPE, April 19th.—A fire was discovered in the conductors' room of the Midland Railway Station here about 1:30 this morning, and before the fire engines arrived it rapidly spread to the telegraph department, and in a short time enveloped the whole building in flames and burnt it to the ground in less than an hour. The

The Modoc War.
It appears from the various dispatches received that the war of extermination against the Modocs is being vigorously pushed forward, and that no quarter whatever will be given to the Indians. They are being gradually closed in upon, and we will doubtless soon have word of a decisive action having taken place. No effort, according to the dispatches of Col. Gillem, will be spared to make the punishment of the Indians commensurate with their crime, and, if possible, no Indian shall boast that either he or his ancestors murdered General Canby; and later dispatches show that this determination is being carried out to the very letter, and that the Indians are being driven to the immediate vicinity of their strongholds. The treacherous murder of Gen. Canby has inflamed the soldiery—with whom he was a great favorite—and they at least, will take ample revenge for his death. In fact the war is one of vengeance and extermination, more than it is of justice, and notwithstanding the namby pambyness of certain papers, which affect a pious horror that such should be the case, we imagine that all right-thinking persons will agree that the Modocs have brought it all upon themselves, and that they thoroughly deserve the inevitable fate in store for them. There is a retributive justice which knows naught of mercy, and as the Modocs have proved themselves incapable of showing mercy to others, it can scarcely be expected that any mercy should, under such circumstances, be by others shown to them.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.
Ottawa, April 18.
After routine business, some time was taken up discussing the question raised upon a motion by the member for Cardwell for the passage of the Bill, whether the House had power to confer upon the Committee charged with the enquiry into the Pacific Railway scandal the power to examine witnesses upon oath. The debate showed that Ministerial hacks were put up to throw doubts upon the power of the House in the direction in which the Bill lay.
The second reading of the Bill was passed, and its further consideration will take precedence on Monday.
The motion by Hon. Mr. Tilley to legalize the issue of debentures for the completion of the ship channel in Lake St. Peter was opposed by the Quebec interest as a local work to which the Dominion was not called upon to lend its credit. Mr. Cauchon resumed his debate on the Grand Trunk Arrangements Act. He contended the railway company for mismanagement, and supported the view he had taken by lengthy extracts which he read from reports of the proceedings of the Company.
The Speaker, before Mr. Cauchon had time to resume, declared the second reading of the Bill carried.
Mr. Cauchon resumed.
The Speaker continued him, and there arose a scene, several members spoke to the point of order, all supporting Mr. Cauchon against the Speaker. The House manifested a determination nearly unanimous to preserve to the speaker his rights, and the Speaker finding that the House was so decided against him, extracted the proceedings he had just affirmed in the most positive manner, and declared the subject still open. The Bill will undoubtedly get its second reading, but it must now wait its turn.

After adjourning some important business a motion was made by Mr. Cauchon to refer to a Committee on the subject of the Allan Line of steamers.
The bill was read the first time.
By consent, the second reading of the Centennial Elections Bill was taken and referred to a Committee of the whole on Tuesday next.

Mr. Ross, of West Middlesex, made an excellent speech on the defence of the liberty of the press attacked by Ministerialists on Thursday night. He is a good addition to the debating talent of the House, and spoke with great force and precision.

On Friday a deputation from Manitoba presented the Governor-General with addresses from both Houses of that Province and from the Council of the North West, congratulating him on his appointment and requesting him to pay Manitoba a visit, promising him a grand reception.

Wreck of the Atlantic.
The Commissioner's Decision.
Halifax, April 18.—The Commissioner convened the Court of Enquiry into the loss of the Atlantic this afternoon, and rendered his decision. The course of Capt. Williams in ignoring the Atlantic is commended to the public. The ship had not sufficient coal on board at the time of sailing for a ship of her class. The coal was of inferior quality, of which she consumed 70 tons per day, thus giving her less than thirteen days' supply when leaving port. Had all the circumstances of her passage been favorable this quantity of coal undoubtedly would have carried the ship and the passengers safely to New York, but the passage across the Atlantic in winter without more or less unfavorable weather is an exception and not the rule; contingencies of low rate of speed resulting from head winds and fog weather ought to have been provided for. The conduct of Captain Williams and the officers, after the ship struck, was all that could be demanded of men in their trying situation. The management of the ship is commended from the time of changing course at 1 p.m. Monday, until the time she became a wreck. The fact of no lights being seen can only be accounted for by want of vigilance. A gross error must have been made in estimating the speed of the ship, from incompetency or carelessness in calculating on the part of those attending to the log. The conduct of Captain Williams in leaving the deck at midnight is commended as imprudent, and calculated to create the impression in the minds of the officers on duty that they were not so near land.

The certificate of Capt. Williams is suspended for two years, and that of the fourth officer, Brown, for three months. The agent of the White Star Line publishes a statement denying that the Atlantic went to sea short of provisions. Though she took on board the average amount of coal, it seems to have burned with unprecedented rapidity. From this cause alone and not from any fault of the managers of the line, a shortage of coal was apprehended, and Captain Williams decided to bear for Halifax. He receives decision on the latter's notice pending the report of the court of inquiry. A gentleman who returned here from the wreck reports her as now off the shore on her beam ends, with her spars resting on the surface of the water and completely submerged at high tide. She is broken in twain just about the fore-rigging, the bottom is entirely torn away for twenty-five feet, and the bow is separated some sixty feet from the vessel and lies among the rocks. Everything has been washed out of it and picked up by the wreckers.

ACCIDENT.—Thursday night a tailor from Wellington Square, named Richard Gray, while attempting to jump on the midnight train going west, slipped and fell between the cars. He was taken out insensible and conveyed to the waiting room, where he was attended by Dr. Alexander. Although considerably bruised about the chest, he was able to proceed by the one o'clock train next afternoon.

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XIV.

MRS. LANGTON DEVISES A SUBTLE TRICK, WHICH MEETS THE APPROBATION OF BARNARD HAYES, AND OPERATIONS ARE BEGUN TO CARRY IT OUT.

"I thought of that, and questioned her. She has no distinct impression of the man's face, and says she could not identify it."

"Nothing will prevent suspicion if she is able to recognise him. And to obviate the possibility of such a thing too early, we must manage it so that she does not see him before she leaves England, and as little as possible during the journey."

"We need care nothing then," said Augusta, rising to go, for all that could be arranged in regard to their noble and cruel plot was now settled.

"This last consisted of the following different manoeuvres: She began to impress Mr. Langton with the idea that Annabel's health was beginning to fail; that separation from Philip and anxiety on his account were preying upon her; and that a change of scene would be requisite to cheer and occupy her mind, as well as to preserve her physical frame from sinking into a state of debility."

With Annabel herself Mrs. Langton required to take a different course. It would have been impossible to convince the young girl herself that she was ill, or weak, or in a state of unsatisfactory health, and she was too sharp-witted to try to.

And while Mrs. Langton was thus cautiously doing her part at Rockstone, Barnard Hayes was conducting equally necessary operations in Liverpool, and a constant though secret correspondence was being kept up between them.

As the lawyer's going was still more important in kind, and more exciting and interesting in character, it will be necessary to narrate these more in detail, and this we shall do in the following chapter.

BASE BALL.

A WORD ABOUT THE BOYS—BY OUR BASE BALL REPORTER.

The season for Base Ball having arrived, our boys seem determined to lose no time in making all arrangements for the season's sport. Immense piles of catch are to be seen round town daily on all sides, and bystanders would think to look at some of their movements that "he was no great shakes if he could not catch all balls thrown." Whilst there is no harm in this recreation, there is no small amount of amusement to the initiated who stand and "look on; and, as far as our boys are concerned, it isn't much use for anybody to come to Guelph without first learning to "take a fly," or stop a "red-hotter." Meetings are being held nightly in all parts of the town, "inns" are being talked of, and arrangements have been made to meet the ball about the first of next month. Of course our bookstores and other dealers are laying in base ball material enough to supply all the Clubs in the County, and flaming advertisements (they are all talking wall paper just now) announcing the fact, will soon be seen. For our part, we don't care a straw where they are bought—Day's or Anderson's, or Anderson's or Day's (we suppose Mr. Ashley is a base ballist, too)—like the old market-roman, "you pays your money and takes your choice."

We didn't intend saying anything about the Champions, our article being more intended for the boys; but in commencing we might as well say that the above gentlemen are all alive, and looking forward to a healthy season. Practice is to commence as soon as the weather permits, and no doubt the long line of spectators that went their way to the practice ground every fine evening will convince them that their efforts are appreciated.

The Junior Championship seems now to be the only thing talked of by the boys. The "Unions," as most of our readers are aware, went to London last year to win that honor from a conquering club, and came back rejoicing; but then that naughty Woodstock Club seems determined not to give in beat, as only a few days after the "Unions" return from London a dispatch appeared in the Globe announcing that the Woodstock "Excelsior's," "junior champions," had beaten the Ingersoll "Victorias" by a score of 7 to 5. Now, very much doubt if this game ever took place, as no such score was ever made in Canada by any Senior Club, and it would be impossible for any ordinary junior club to play a match game of nine innings resulting in any such score unless it were a made up thing. But then we are happy to be able to announce that at a meeting of the "Unions" last Monday evening it was determined to settle it this summer, and we understand a valuable cup is to be put up by a member of that Club to be competed for in Guelph, and we have no doubt if the "Unions" attend to their practice well, and carry things on in a right way they will be able to retain their trophy through the season. Another member of the Club has also promised a prize of $5 for the highest number of 1st base hits made by any member during match games. This is a good idea, and we hope the Secretary will be able to give us a good account of their doings at the end of the season. We understand that the handsome suit purchased by private subscription last summer has been kept in good order all winter, and looks as good as new at the present writing. Another meeting of the Club is to be held in the course of a few days, when business will be settled.

But whilst we are on the subject, it wouldn't be fair to omit to mention other town clubs existing, and in course of formation. The "Regulators" have already formed; the "Independents," "Stars," and "Ontarios" are moving, and no doubt will make things lively for the "Unions." There are also good clubs from a distance coming to test their metal—the Georgetown Club is composed of first-class players this year, and we understand a match is to be played with the "Unions" on the 24th prox. Then there is the London, Mora, and Ingersoll Clubs, which all feel an interest in the championship, and shows that the "Unions" must not allow themselves to be caught napping if they intend to retain their laurels.

We intend noticing all matches of interest this season, and we ask the Secretaries of the various local clubs to hand us in their reports as soon as possible. In concluding, we would say to our juniors, don't waste too much of your time in base ball, remember that all good boys do their work first and play after. No matter, we believe, would object to any boy having an hour or two's recreation now and then if he attended to his work faithfully in business hours.

VULGARITY.—We commend the following extract to the thoughtful study of the young—"Nothing is so disgusting and repugnant to the feelings of the noble and the good as to hear the young or even the old use profane, low or vulgar language. The young of our town are particularly guilty of profanity. Incur it, it seems the "boy" unless that he can excel in this great sin, is considered "childish" by his companions. We would guard the young against the use of every word that is not strictly proper. Use no profane expression—alude to no sentiment that will put to blush the most sensitive. You know not the tendency of the profane—using indecent and improper language. It may never be obliterated from your heart. When you grow up you will find some expression at your tongue's end which you would not use for money. By using care you will save a great deal of mortification and sorrow. Good men have been taken sick and become delirious. In these moments they used the most vile and indecent language possible. When informed of it after their restoration to health they explained the cause; they had learned and repeated the expression in their childhood, and though years had passed since they had been indelibly stamped upon the heart. Think of this you who are tempted to use improper language and never disagree yourselves.

GALT AND BERLIN RAILWAY.—The Berlin Telegraph says the assistant engineer of the Grand Trunk Railway, Mr. Brotherhood, was over the Galt and Berlin Railway on Tuesday last, inspecting the work, which we are glad to be able to say is progressing as fast as possible. The completion, and if anything will stand in the way of the opening of the road at the time contemplated, it will arise from the want of ties. It is due, however, to Mr. Ker, the Mayor of Galt, to say that he is making every exertion to procure these, and it is to be hoped that no delay in the opening of the road will arise from this cause.

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London.—See article in Cassell's Household Guide, 12th Edition.

A late number of the St. John Morning News contains a lengthy article concerning Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites: "Mr. Fellows is certainly entitled to high credit for his energy and enterprise in working up his valuable discovery so successfully, and the presence of such gentlemen in any community is a matter on which that community should congratulate itself."

The St. John Telegraph and Journal says: "The invention of Fellows' Hypophosphites has become one of the valuable industries of the country, unique of its kind, and a credit to the Dominion of Canada."
