

SIR CHARLES AT THE FAIR

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER IS PLEASED WITH WHAT HE SAW. And makes a speech in the Art Gallery. Forty thousand people on the grounds. A great display of fireworks. The horse at the fair yesterday was Sir Charles Tupper and Montreal's mayor and aldermen.

AN UNFINISHED FIGHT.

THE DETECTIVES SURPRISE FULL-JAMES AND GILMORE. Sudden departure of Spectators—A Prize Fight—The fugitives arrested—Only two hours to finish. While Canada's great fair was in full blast yesterday afternoon, while the streets were thronged with people, and while the stores were crowded with customers, a slight affair apparently only known to a select party on the fringe of the program in the outskirts of the city.

COOKING THE RETURNS.

The Health Authorities of Montreal. Special Report Regarding the Smallpox. MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—The official report at the health office this morning showed that there were 23 deaths from smallpox in the city yesterday. Forty-nine new cases were reported; 12 cases were authenticated. Twenty new cases were reported from St. Canage.

BIG JUMBO SLAUGHTERED.

BY A FREIGHT TRAIN ON THE AIR LINE AT ST. THOMAS. The Famous Elephant Makes a Gallant Attempt to Get Out of Bangor's Way, but is Too Slow of Gait. The rumor published in The World yesterday morning that Jumbo, Barnum's famous elephant, had been killed by a freight train late on Tuesday night at St. Thomas, turns out to be true. This will be sad news to many thousands of people both in America and Europe.

ANOTHER CASE OF SMALLPOX.

A Young Lady Brings it with Her From Montreal—Vaccination in St. Paul's Church. A Miss Featherston left Montreal Saturday evening last and went to her mother's residence at 31 Bellair street, yesterday afternoon. The medical health officer was informed that the young lady was suffering from smallpox. Upon inspection this was found to be the case, and the patient was at once removed to the smallpox hospital.

THE YOUNGER LIBERALS.

DECLARE FOR A MODIFIED INDEPENDENCE. A Lively Discussion—The Older Liberals Show Their Hand—Mass Meeting in the Evening. The young liberals' convention is over. Among the resolutions carried by them were: Manhood suffrage; abolition of the veto power exercised by the dominion government; right to make our own treaties; right to amend our own constitution; to make the senate elective; general reciprocity with the United States; a plebiscite on prohibition; abolition of dominion judges; the provinces; provincial control of the electoral lists; provincial judges to be chosen by the people.

OLIVIER PAIN'S PAIN.
Full Text of the Letter on which Roche-Porter Basis is Change.
Below is given in full the most talked-of letter of Roche-Porter, to which frequent and brief references have been made in recent cable dispatches—the letter which Henri Roche-Porter lately published in his Journal, L'Intransigent, purporting to be a corroboration by an eye witness of Roche-Porter's charge that Olivier Pain was executed by the British in Egypt. Roche-Porter thus introduces the letter:

These are the facts that we promised yesterday to our readers. They are communicated to us by G. Selkowitz, a distinguished orientalist, who was led by a desire to make research concerning the Egyptian diet and hygienic to accompany the staff of the English army in the Sudan in the capacity of an interpreter. M. Selkowitz, who has resigned this temporary office and just returned to Europe, brings us this testimony spontaneously, which we refrain from weakening by the slightest comment.

PARIS, August 14, 1885.
MORSE.—The Foreign office has just declined in an official letter that it has no knowledge of the fate of M. Olivier Pain.
This is one more to place to the account of the British government, as the death of your compatriot is one stain more on England's honor.
I affirm that M. Olivier Pain was assassinated by order of the staff of the English army in Egypt.
I affirm that the Gladstone ministry authorized the crime, with the circumstances of which before and after his execution it was acquiescent.
I affirm that the British government, in the person of the chief of staff, Sir Owen Lanyon, received himself from General Evelyn Wood, to whom they had been directly sent by the commander-in-chief, Lord Wolseley, at Cairo.
Let us come to the facts.
On the 15th of April two spies came to give information to the camp at Debbah, where I was then located, that they had met six miles from camp a Frenchman (Euro-pean), who, although dressed like a native, had great difficulty in making himself understood in the Arabian tongue.
When these spies had given the description of the traveler and made known his mysterious bearing, Major Kitchener, to whom I was attached as interpreter of the two Sudanese, cried: "This is the famous Pain!" and he disappeared like a flash to carry the news in triumph to the general staff of the English army.
Immediately the orders were set at work and communication established by telegraph between Debbah, Cairo and London. A dozen Bash-Bazuks on horseback were started in all directions to give chase to the "French spy" in the desert, the capture of an isolated and defenceless traveler pursued by a whole corps of the English army.
On the next day, April 16, Kitchener sent for the chief of staff, a sort of Derbish whom the English paid for all sorts of work, and gave him the order to start the following note, written in ordinary Arabic:

Dispatch, whose characters looked like veritable hieroglyphics. They were in such a hurry and had taken so few precautions that the dispatch entrusted to the orderly had not even been put in an envelope. Thus it was that I was able to read with satisfaction the copy of the information setting a price on the head of Olivier Pain, which the staff at Debbah had officially to London.
On the 17th of April a telegram reached the Camp from Abou Dom, a station near Debbah. The arrival of this dispatch created a great commotion at headquarters, but soon an order from the general was sent to Captain Colburn, commander of the garrison at Debbah, ordering him not to communicate the mysterious dispatch. "Not to be circulated," said the order transmitted by the colonel, Sir Owen Lanyon.
It referred to the measures concerning Olivier Pain. Officers and soldiers were ordered, as much to each other.
I ran at once to the tent of the Shik Khalil to get information. He, with great and tears, before I could put a single question, asked me to draw up a petition for him in English.
He wished to protest, he explained to me, against the injustice committed towards him in obliging him to share the 150, "honestly earned by himself alone," with these rascals of Bash-Bazuks, who had nothing to do with the matter.
"Let us see," said I, "to what do you refer?"
"Do you know that I captured yesterday the Frenchman who wanted to kill Wolseley? You know the Grand Father, Wolseley, who has so many guns?"
"Where is the Frenchman?"
"He is at Debbah."
"Is he the key Kitchener seen the French prisoner?"
"Oh, yes! yesterday."
"And what will they do with him?"
"Oh, you know very well; inasmuch as he has killed a British officer, he will be shot."
"But he will not be shot," said I, "he will be sent to the camp at Debbah to be interrogated."
"It is necessary to add that they shot the Frenchman with a bullet from the Bash-Bazuks, and a fantasia on the English staff to thank it for having so generously paid the blood money."
G. S. SELKOWITZ, Interpreter of the English army in the Sudan.
P. S. General Wood and Major Kitchener are now in England, but I don't know in what city.
Colonel Owen Lanyon, promoted to brigadier-generalship, is at Portsmouth.

—Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked, get delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it is so promptly and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.
—For all scrofulous disorders, for syphilitic and mercurial diseases, the best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
—Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a specific cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaints, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children and travelling. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating curries, fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine on hand.

—West Toronto Junction is within a few minutes walk of the Union station by the train of the Ontario and Quebec and the Grand Trunk or the Northern. Real estate in the neighborhood has steadily risen in value and promises to advance still more rapidly. Some of the best lots in West Toronto are to be had from Geo. Clarke, 266 Yonge street.
—PAIN KILLER.—The testimonials borne to the efficacy of this valuable medicine are sufficient to warrant its introduction into every house. Our own opinion is that no family should be without a bottle of it for a single hour. In such cases, aches, pains, sores, etc., it is the most effectual remedy we know of. A bottle will last for a very long time, and its low price places it within the reach of all. News, St. Johns, C. E.

—An honest medicine is the noblest work of man, and we can assure our readers that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is not only reliable, but is almost infallible to cure cholera morbus, dysentery, catarrh of the stomach and bowels, and the various summer complaints, whose attacks are often sudden and fatal.
—For fever and ague, and all miasmatic diseases, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a positive remedy. Warranted.
—A. S. Smith, the hat manufacturer, has adopted the patent steel wire for the edge of the brims or curls, which is a light but will retain its shape and the hat fit as easy as a soft hat. Instead of a heavy silk you have a feather weight hat either in a silk or peltier hat. To keep the hat cool you must wear a light weight hat.
A. S. SMITH, Over Corcoran's, merchant tailor.
—It is remarkable fact that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is as good for internal as external use. For diseases of the lungs and throat, and for rheumatism, neuralgia, crick in the back, wounds and sores, it is the best known remedy, and much trouble is saved by having it always on hand. Jacob Lookman, Buffalo, says he has been using it for rheumatism. He had such a lame back that he could do nothing but one bottle entirely cured him.
—Mr. H. F. Jackson, one of Montreal's prominent druggists, says the Lotus of the Nile perfume has taken splendidly. Every one of my customers who have tried it speak in the highest terms of its great delicacy and richness, which are unusual qualities to find in a perfume of such strength.
—It is filling boots and shoes across corners. Holloway's Corn Cure is the article to use. Get a bottle at once and cure your corn.
—Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, Warren Co., N. Y., writes: "She has been troubled with asthma for four years, had to sit up night after night with her. She has taken two bottles of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to see it as agent among her neighbors."

A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES.
Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state, and country, and among all people, as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
The following letter from one of our best-known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:
"Eight years ago I had an attack of RHEUMATISM. Rheumatism, so severe, without help, I tried several remedies without much relief, until I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. By the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Here and there quantities of your Sarsaparilla, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The most notable case I am affected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public."
E. F. HARRIS,
River St., Brookland, Mass., May 19, 1882.
SALT RHEUM. GEORGE ARTHUR, of the Lowell Carpet Corporation, writes for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell attacked with Salt Rheum in its worst form. He was actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1884.
