Little Beauty Chats

Beware of the Double Chin

WHY do you allow your chin to thin rubber. The straps which keep this belt in place are made of elastic cord. You can now see how easy it will be to duplicate the dainty belt shown in the picture. Do not waste time but make one this very day and don't tonight just before you creep into bed.

let your chin continue in its evil ways. Since it is apparent that there is no place on the beauty calendar for a too fat chin, I suggest that you wear a rubber chin belt every night for the next few weeks, or until your fleshy chin is a thing of the past.
These flesh reducers are made on extremely simple lines, as you can see by glancing at the accompanying illustration. If you have any appetite for sewing, you will be able to make one of these belts inside of an hour, at the most. Lack of knowledge of what materials to use might prove a serious stumbling block, but this is where I can prove of assistance, as I know, even if you do not, that you will need to use elastic webbing for the belt proper and that it should be lined with

FEARFUL DEATH ALONE IN WOODS

Man Caught By Arm in Branch, Cuts Himself Down With Jack Knife

DIES OF LOSS OF BLOOD

The Story Read in Signs About Scene of Tragedy — Lips and Tongue Bitten Through in His Agony

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 20—Some weeks ago a bushman named Michael Daventry left Terriek cattle station, near Longreach, in Queensland. Recently his body was discovered in a lonely spot in the bush with one arm roughly severed at the elbow. Traces of blood led to a large withered tree. The missing arm was projecting from the hollow of a broken bough, in which was a nest of young parrots. There were horse tracks under the bough, and close to the body was found the man's pocket-knife, covered with congealed blood.
The man had evidently ridden under the hollow bough to get at the young parrots. The bough was out of reach, and he stood on his saddle to reach it. Then he pushed his arm into the hollow to feel for the bird. The horse moved away and left him hanging in mid-air, with his arm jammed in the hole of the bough.
In this position he probably remained for a long time. The trunk of the tree was scratched as though by his spurs as he sought to raise himself to the bough in which his forearm was imprisoned. The agony—for his lips and tongue were bitten through—must have been fearful. With his pocket-knife, probably opened with his teeth, he began to saw at the elbow-joint of the imprisoned arm. The crude process of amputation was completed and he dropped to the ground. He staggered a few yards, then fell and died from loss of blood.

FROM MESSENGER BOY TO BECOME MILLIONAIRE
Albany, N. Y., Dec. 20—The estate of Louis A. Heinsheimer of New York, who died three years ago, has been appraised by the state controller's office at $16,000,000. An unusual feature of the appraisal is that it shows that Mr. Heinsheimer had a cash bank balance of $3,500,000, the largest sum of the kind ever recorded here.
Mr. Heinsheimer was virtually unknown outside of the Wall street district. He had spent his life there, rising from messenger boy to membership in the firm of Klein, Loeb & Co. He was forty-eight years old.

Daily Hints For the Cook

YORKSHIRE PUDDING.

Two cups of flour, 2 eggs, a good pinch of salt, 3/4 of a pint of milk. Put the milk in a little at a time and beat well. A little water may be added if too stiff. It must be a thin batter. Then warm about 1 1/2 of a cup of beef dripping in a dripping pan, pour in the batter and bake in a brisk oven, until a golden brown. Cut into squares and serve hot with roast beef gravy.

RAISED DOUGHNUTS.

Mix 3 1/2 tablespoons sugar with teaspoon of salt, add 1 cup scalded milk, 2 1/2 teaspoons lard, and when lukewarm add 1/2 yeast cake dissolved in 2 tablespoons of lukewarm water and flour to make a soft batter. Let rise, add flour to make a soft dough, lard and let rise. Again knead and let rise, then turn onto a floured board, pat and roll to 1/2 inch in thickness. Cut in strips 8 inches long by 3/4 inch wide. Cover and let rise, twist several times, pinch ends, drop into deep, hot fat and fry until delicately browned.

TOWN PLANNING.

Application will be made to the provincial government early in the new year to ratify the appointment of a town planning commission for St. John, which has already been authorized. This decision was reached by the city commissioners yesterday afternoon. There was no discussion as to the personnel of the new body.

Now for the Climax of the Greatest Christmas Season in Years

By J. R. HAMILTON

Former Advertising Manager Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

SOME ninety million people woke up with a great start some time last night, and suddenly remembered three hundred and sixty million things which they had forgotten the day before.

About forty-five million people who thought they were all through shopping have suddenly discovered today that they have hardly begun.

However, it is all right, for about ninety thousand stores knew perfectly from long experience that this was going to happen, so they are all prepared for the biggest climax in the history of Christmases.

If you will do your share they will do theirs.

You may depend upon it that the stores that are advertising for your trade today are prepared to handle it. They have the organization and they have had the experience. Therefore they are the safe stores to deal with at a time like this.

From now until every door is closed on Christmas eve they will have such a throng as has never been known before on Christmas. So it may be just as well for you to get up with the larks (if you happen to be in touch with any larks these winter days) and get down to the stores as early as possible.

But the first thing to do, of course, is to go over the advertising in this paper and map out your route of attack.

Read every ad, little and big. Make up your mind about each place you are going to visit. Check off each article you want to see.

Get the location clearly in your mind. And last, but by no means least, be sure to state plainly and clearly your name and address to every sales person of whom you purchase, if you wish your goods to be sent.

It is just as easy for the purchaser to get his or her buying down to a science as it is for these stores to get their selling in shape.

This advertising is a key to a profitable day in the stores.

If you will turn to your advertising now, make out your list, and outline your shopping tour, the biggest, busiest Christmas season in years will also be the happiest one.

WOMAN TOILED FOR 119 HOURS A WEEK

Shocking facts have been brought out by the investigation now going on before the New York Factory Commission, Mrs. Florence Kelley, Miss Frances Perkins and scores of other witnesses have testified to what they have personally seen and know. Some of the statements in regard to overwork by women and the employment of young children were challenged as incredible, whereupon Zevas L. Potter, a member of the State Factory Investigation Commission and chief of the cannery investigation, writes to the New York Times: 'I know that 1200 children, ranging from three years old to sixteen, were found at work in the canneries. Mr. Potter continues: 'A woman worked in one cannery 119 1/2 hours in a week. We have the canner's sworn statement to that effect. Another woman worked 115 hours in a week. We have her pay envelope in the office. Another worked 117 1/2 hours in a week, and 21 1/2 hours a day. We have her time card, with the time checked off by the cannery time-keeper. We know that women work extremely long hours in the canneries, because we have complete transcripts of the canners' own time records for two years back from approximately seventy different factories.'

PROVISIONING AN ARMY

(London Answers)
Big battles have been fought on all sorts of ground. Before Agincourt our troops had nothing for days of fibbers and roots dug out of the hedgerows. Omdurman was won on bully beef and biscuits; the Turks before Plevna, had nothing but maize porridge, and very little of that.

LETTERS BEGIN TOMORROW

The Telegraph tomorrow will publish the first of a series of letters from New York written by Mr. Arthur Stringer, a Canadian who has become famous as a novelist and short story writer. Music, art, literature and the drama will be dealt with in the letters, which will be written from the Canadian viewpoint, and will continue until the end of the dramatic season in the United States metropolises.

LETTERS BEGIN TOMORROW

BY GENTLE PERSUASION.
It was the first time that John Willie, aged four, had ever faced the camera—at least, since he had begun to take a live interest in things.
'Now my little dear,' said the photographer, 'if you'll just keep still a moment, we shall soon have a pleasant picture.'

HAD RHEUMATISM

Mr. W. H. Riley, Ruddell, Sask., writes:—'It is with the greatest pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, as I am strong and active since taking your valuable medicine.'

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Easy for Walsh. Albany, N. Y., Dec. 17.—Jim Kendrick of England had not recovered sufficiently from the beating Frankie Burns gave him in Brooklyn on Saturday night to be able to fight here last night, although he presented himself at the ring-side, where he was matched to fight Jimmy Walsh of Boston. Therefore, Young Sheppard of New York, a semi-final fighter, was put on as an eleven-hour sub, and Walsh toyed with him, hitting him whenever he wished, but allowing him to stay in for ten rounds of two minutes each.

Refused $2,000. Ottawa, Dec. 19.—Today it was announced that Manager Rose, of Sydney, had offered Fred Lake $2,000 for the season, but Lake was out with the Ottawas tonight as well as Westwick and Lesieur, both of whom had offers.

In Upper Canada. Montreal, Dec. 20.—Big hockey will be inaugurated in Upper Canada tomorrow night, when the Canadiens and Wanderers will clash in Toronto in an exhibition game. The line-up is provisionally selected as follows:

Canadiens—Goal, Veinay; point, Dubois; forwards, Laviolette, Lalonde, Donald Smith and Payne. Dewey, Berlaquette, Denney will also be worked out.

Wanderers—Goal, Boyes or Cahoon; point, Art Ross; cover, Sprague Cleghorn; forwards, Gordie Roberts, Ernie Russell, Otis Cleghorn, Harry Highland and Miley. Miller will also be worked in this match. The little battle in Ottawa for the services of Fred Lake is not exciting. N. H. A. officials here, The Gazette says.

The offers stated to have been made to Ottawa players by Manager Murphy of the Halifax club sound like a winter dream, when it is known that the game gentleman while in Montreal offered him $40 a week with transportation to and from Halifax, to two of the Westmont players. He is said to have offered $2,000 to an Ottawa player.

Nothing Won.

There was a somewhat remarkable game of pinochle in New York the other night between August Herrman, president of the Cincinnati club, and Sam Lichtenstein, president of the Montreal club. The game took place at the Waldorf-Astoria while the baseball magnates were in session. Ten games were played for $400 a game and a side bet of $2,000 on the series. In addition, Lichtenstein bet Barney Dreyfus, president of the Pittsburgh club $800 on the result of each game, the Pittsburgh man taking the Herrman end of the proposition. Several other baseball men also wagered on the side, and it is estimated that more than $100,000 hung on the result of the encounter.

To make the story good, it was said that Herrman won seven out of ten games and cleared up $2,400, but the truth of the matter was that they split even, neither holding to nor withdrawing from the size of the several hundreds.

Three Have Signed.

Steve Yerkes and Forrest Cady, who surprised all in the world series, were the first to drop their contracts in Jimmy McAleer's mail box. Neal Ball, who beat all records by drawing down about $4,000 for striking out, ran third. Being now on the regular payroll it is a safe guess that Yerkes and Cady received a boost from the treasury, and eagerly grasped the opportunity of expressing their thanks over their signature. Ball, having leaped unexpectedly from the ranks, as it were, into a fat bonus, could not help but express his gratitude.

Doyle for Scott.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Jack Doyle, former first baseman and manager of the New York Nationals, has been signed by the Chicago American League club as a scout. Doyle umpired in the International League last season.

Aquatic May Race Champion.

New York, Dec. 19.—No item of swimming news has in years created such a stir in aquatic circles as the recent report that a match race at 100 yards would take place this season between C. M. Daniels, the idol of American watermen, and Duke Kahanamoku, the Olympic 100-metre champion and record holder.

Daniels had already announced his permanent retirement from the competitive field. It looks now as if the hosting would be arranged.

King George Honorary Member.

New York, Dec. 20.—King George V, of England was elected an honorary member of the New York Yacht Club last night. Dallas B. Pratt was chosen commodore, succeeding C. Ledyard Blair.

OLD AGE PENSIONS IN SWEDEN Outline of Contributory System Devised by a Commission Stockholm, Dec. 20.—Sweden is to have a contributory system of old-age pensions, the future pensioners paying two-fifths, the state two-fifths, and the local authorities one-fifth of the total cost. The pension is to become due at the age of sixty-seven in any case, or earlier in the event of disablement by illness or otherwise; the rate of payment is to vary according to earnings and additional voluntary payments may be made to secure an eventual increase of benefit.

The state contribution is to be compulsory on all persons whose annual income is under 6,000 kroner, or about $1,000, and it is estimated that when the system is in full working some 600,000 inhabitants out of more than 2,500,000 will be receiving pensions paid for by their own insurance money, while 200,000 will get the additional allowance paid by the state. This is an outline of the scheme devised by a commission appointed to examine the subject in 1907; it remains for the ministry and the Riksdag to carry it out.

PARIS "BEAU BRUMMELS" ARE AT WAR Millionaire Restaurant Man and Noted Actor The Rivals

ONE SAYS $6,000 YEAR NEEDED The Other Remarks Cuttingly That it is Not How Much One Speaks But How One Buys—A Pigmy "Topper"

(Times Special Correspondence.) Paris, Dec. 6.—The two "best dressed" men in Paris are fighting for their reputations. Le Bary, one of the greatest of French actors, and Alexandre Duval, millionaire proprietor of a score of eating establishments which have become institutions in the French capital, are at daggers drawn over the question of good taste in dress. The first named some time ago declared that he found it impossible to garb himself satisfactorily unless he spent at least $6,000 a year; and now the second declares that it is not how much one spends, thereby letting it be known that he questions the good taste of his great rival.

Le Bary recently made his appearance in Bataille's new play "Les Flambeaux," at the Porte St. Martin. He was long the shining light of the Comedie Francaise where Sarah Bernhardt and Coquelin won their great renown; but like his two famous predecessors, Le Bary finally quarrelled with the management and left in disgust. Now he is being sued for $20,000 damages and the courts are being asked to prevent him appearing elsewhere. Besides being universally admired as an actor and revered as a man of fashion, he is worshipped as a genuine idol by the fashionable women of the French upper class. Some time ago he shaved off his mustache, which was at once the joy and the envy of those who looked to him for guidance in matters of fashion, and now half Paris has taken to the unadorned upper lip.

In matters of dress he is a conservative. His clothes might have been made in Savile row, London. He never sets a new style, but it is impossible to find fault as he is so anxious in his dress. He refuses to dress like anybody else in the world and as soon as any of the many styles he attempts to set become the vogue, he drops it like a four-headed wasp. Some years ago he caused almost a riot by appearing on the Boulevard with a "buggy" high hat, believing that the abbreviated crown was much more beautiful than the tall stoup-tops then being worn. Much to his delight no one agreed with him; hence he has been splendidly faithful to his weird headgear.

His latest "bomb" thrown among the fashionable youths who frequent the saloons of the French aristocracy, calls for the abolition of the broadcloth swallow tail for evening wear and the substitution of velvet for semi-dress and of silk for great occasions. With the latter he declares his intention of appearing in silk trousers that fit his fine leg almost like a glove; white silk gloves and low shoes, showing between their tops and the trousers, just a peep of lilac silk socks.

To remove grass spots from a carpet, place a tablespoonful of ammonia in a pint of hot water, scrub the spots with this using a hard brush. Then cover with a paste of fuller's earth, and cold water. Leave till dry, then brush off, and the spots will disappear.

PRESENTATIONS TO RETIRING TEACHER

Two Fine Gifts For Thomas Power in High School Today

An interesting feature of the exercises this morning in the High School was the expression of regret by the departure of Thomas E. Powers from the staff, and also of appreciation of his services and worth as a teacher. He has been a member of the staff since the High School was opened and his efficient services have been fully realized by all those with whom he has come in contact. That this is so was ably attested when two presentations were made to him, one by J. S. Myles, principal of the school, and one by J. Wilfred Tait on behalf of the pupils of the class of 1913, in connection with both of which sentiments of regret at his leaving and the best good will extended for his future.

Mr. Myles on behalf of the superintendent and teachers of the High School presented to Mr. Powers a handsome and valuable pair of field glasses, and Mr. Tait on behalf of the scholars of the class of 1913 read an address and presented a solid leather traveling bag. Mr. Powers responded feelingly, expressing his thanks, and as he concluded three hearty cheers were given by the large gathering of boys.

The address presented was as follows:—
Mr. Powers:—
We, the class of '13 have learned with regret of your decision to leave the teaching profession. During the time you have been with us you have caused us to respect you for your strict impartiality and the interest you have always taken in our welfare. No matter what the difficulty was, we always felt we had a friend in you, who was ever willing to assist us. As you go forth to a new sphere of endeavor, you go with the best wishes of the class, and we know that the same qualities which have contributed to your success in the teaching profession will enable you to realize your highest ambition.

As a tangible evidence of our goodwill, and esteem the class of '13 asks you to accept this traveling-bag, and when you have occasion to use it, may you think of the class of '13 of the St. John High School, who will ever remember you with the kindest feelings.

J. WILFRED TAIT,
Class 1913.

INSURANCE LOSS IN YARMOUTH $35,000

Fire Did Less Than $50,000
Damage is Report of Adjustors—Many Companies Interested

C. E. L. Jarvis and F. S. Whitaker, who acted as adjustors for the insurance companies interested in the Yarmouth fire, have completed their report. It shows that the total loss was less than $50,000 and the insurance loss was $35,000. This is a large loss for the companies compared with the total loss, but the people of Yarmouth were evidently well prepared for a fire, at least as regards insurance.

The losses are split up among more than forty companies, some of the companies' shares being as low as $10.

QUINN GOES FREE

Frank Quinn, who was before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court yesterday on the charge made by Daniel Mitchell, who said that Quinn held his arms while another man assaulted, was before the court again this morning, and after the evidence of several witnesses was taken was acquitted. He said yesterday that he saw Mitchell and another man fighting in Sydney street, and that he merely went over and parted them. He was corroborated by several witnesses this morning. The witnesses who gave evidence were William Kyno, Frank Burton and Policeman Sullivan.

Alphonso Savard, who was arrested several days ago on the charge of stealing liquor from the C. P. R. shed at Sand Point, was sentenced to five months in jail with hard labor.

Alexander Brayley, charged with being drunk and shouting in Mill street, was fined $8 or thirty days in jail.

Two prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $4 or ten days in jail, and another, charged with a like offence was fined $8 or thirty days. One other also charged with drunkenness, was remanded.

Taken Before Judge Landry Today—Probate Court Matters

On application of Geo. H. V. Belyeo, Mr. Justice Landry this morning made an order for a writ of certiorari returnable before the supreme court on the second Tuesday in February, to take up the proceedings and conviction of David Kesie, who was fined $40 and costs by Magistrate Allingham, of Fairville, on charge of keeping liquor for sale contrary to the provisions of the liquor license act. The ground of appeal is that the defendant had nothing whatever to do with the liquor that was stored in his mother's barn.

Probate.

In the probate court today the matter of the estate of Mrs. Bertha Louise Colwell, late of the West Side, wife of Charles E. Colwell, came up. She died intestate, leaving her husband and twelve children. On the petition of the husband joined in by George W. Noble, accountant, the two were appointed administrators. Real estate is $1,000; personal $800. W. H. Harrison is probator.

The matter of the estate of Michael McCarthy, victualer, was taken up. He died intestate in 1886. His wife Mary McCarthy was appointed administratrix, and she died without having transferred the title to a leasehold property. They had three children—Margaret McCarthy, Ellen, wife of Philip O'Connor, and John McCarthy. The two daughters transferred their interest in the leasehold to their brother. Both the daughters and their children have since died. In order now to give the title administration de bonis non is issued to John McCarthy. There is no realty, personal property, consisting of leasehold, amounts to $2,000. It has since been sold. E. T. C. Knowles, R.C., is probator.

In the matter of the estate of William D. Foster, the Royal Trust Company, the executor and trustee, filed further accounts with petition to pass them. A citation was issued returnable January 20 at eleven a. m. W. H. Harrison, is probator.

In the matter of the estate of William T. Pipes, late of Amherst, barrister-at-law, E. Bright Pipes and Edgar N. Rhodes, both of Amherst, who were appointed administrators of the estate within New Brunswick, filed their accounts with petition to pass them. A citation was issued returnable on January 20 next at eleven a. m. W. H. Harrison, is probator.

SUSSEX MAN IS NOW MAYOR OF CALGARY

Herbert A. Sinnott Scored Great Victory For Clean Government

Calgary exchanges announce the election of Herbert A. Sinnott, as mayor of that city by a majority of 2,200. He made the right one for clean government, and had opposed to him the liquor element, the fight against saloons and gambling joint men. Every leading newspaper of Calgary was for Sinnott, and his victory dominated Calgary for some time. Stanley G. Eytson, formerly of Annapolis, is another Kings county man, who will sit on the council board. Like Mr. Sinnott he had a big majority.

Calgary's mayor-elect is a son of the late David E. Sinnott, for many years councillor of Stuholm. He attended school in Sussex and later took up teaching. He was for some years principal of the Moncton school and about ten years ago went there for some time but resigned and went into real estate, in which he amassed a fortune. For some years he was admitted to the bar of Alberta. When it was decided by the citizens of Calgary to break the clique who controlled the city's affairs, Mr. Sinnott was selected to head the reform ticket.
