THE FARMER'S LABOR BANK WILL SUE GUARANTEE CO.

Liquidator Will Enter Action To Recover $50,000 For Which The Former Manager, W. R. Travers, Was Bonded.

Toronto, June 6.—The Farmers Bank of Canada, through its liquidator, G. D. Clarkson, has instructed its solicitors, Bickell, Bain and Strathay to issue a writ for $50,000 against the United States Fidelity and Guarantee Company, of New York. The purpose is to recover the amount for which W. R. Travers, former general manager, was bonded in the company against any default for which he might be responsible. The curator's contention is that Travers was bonded for $25,000 in 1909 and for the same amount in 1910, the creditors are entitled to collect the full $50,000 on the ground that the general manager violated his trust during both years. The company on the other hand, holds that under any circumstances it can be held liable for the amount of one year's bond only, $25,000. That amount, however, was not forwarded to the curator pending the settlement of the disputed point. Now the company will be pressed for double the sum through the medium of a Canadian court and the courts of New York state.

SENATE WILL CONSIDER TODAY ON RECIPROcity

The Canadian Agreement Now Being Privately Considered By Finance Committee Of United States Senate.

Washington, June 6.—Executive consideration of the Canadian reciprocity bill was begun today by the senate finance committee although no vote was made to reach a vote on it before tomorrow, the date fixed last week by the committee as the time when the bill and proposed amendments thereto will be voted on. Secretary of State Knox, who was asked to appear before the committee today to explain whether the Root amendment to the paper section of the bill was in accord with the agreement, was unable to be present at the morning session of the committee, but is expected will appear later in the day.

A decided majority of Democrats are favorable to reciprocity, but until comparatively recently many of them, disposed toward political advantages, made the condition that the Canadian pact should receive no consideration except in connection with the pet Democrat measure. They have abandoned that attitude and announced before the committee their opposition to all amendments of whatever nature. They have even gone to the extent of rejecting overtures from the progressives, who are coupled with a promise on the part of the latter to tack the free list onto the reciprocity bill. "We want a vote on the free list," they say, "and shall insist on it."

While in this position Mr. Latouche lost his balance and both he and the child fell into the yard. The other members of the family rushed to their aid and summoned Drs. Sanson and Leclerc. The medical gentlemen found that besides other injuries Mr. Latouche had the drum of one ear broken, but they expect that he will be around in a few days. BATHTUB MURDER DUPLICATES DEED OF FICTION CRIMINAL WHO DESTROYED DEAD BODY WITH ACID

New York, June 6.—Henry A. Scheib, chauffeur, is held here on suspicion of having killed Elizabeth O'Grady Scheib, wife, and placed her body in a bathtub filled with acid. The case parallels that of Dr. Crippen in many respects and also follows in detail the Melville Davison Post's story, "The Corpse Destroyed."

On Jan. 13 she was last seen alive. On Feb. 3 Scheib told one woman that his wife had gone away for a visit. Later to different people he said that she was ill in the hospital, that she had died, that she was in California, that she had eloped.

On March 2 he left their apartments and rented a furnished room for himself and continued to pay rent for the apartment, explaining that his wife might be back any day.

Toward the latter part of May people in the neighborhood noticed a peculiar odor. The odor led to Scheib's bathroom door.

Since his arrest it has been learned that Scheib spent much of his leisure time taking girls out for drives. He had many letters from different girls, most of them breathing love.

In the Post story Samuel Walcott, a rich clubman is about to marry a New York society girl. Walcott and his fiancée are guests at a dinner. A note is brought to Walcott. He reads it, and then abruptly rises, announcing to seek out Randolph Mason, his friend and a man of wonderful knowledge of the law's loopholes.

His real name is Richard Warren. Years before he had met a Samuel Walcott at the gold mines of California. The Mexican woman had come and fled with the latter's Mexican wife to New York, assuming Walcott's name and fortune.

Next day Walcott announced his intention of cruising in his yacht three months, and the yacht sailed away as though he were aboard. A wagon load of cases of wine were delivered at the Mexican woman's house. That evening Walcott, disguised as a Mexican sailor, tapped on a side window and was admitted by the woman.

With a cry she flung herself into his arms, caught him around the neck and pressed his face up close against her cheek. "Oh! Dick, Dick!" she sobbed, "I do love you so! I can't live without you! Not another hour, Dick! I do want you so much, so much, Dick!"

The man shifted his right arm quickly, slipped a great Mexican knife out of his sleeve, and passed his fingers slowly up the woman's side until he felt the heart beat under his hand, then he raised the knife, gripped the handle tight, and drove the keen blade into the woman's bosom. The hot blood gushed out over his arm and down his leg. The body, warm and limp, slipped down in his arms.

His actions after that were deliberate. He carried the body to the bathtub, carefully cut it to pieces and closed the outlet pipe with a porcelain disk to which was attached a long platinum wire. Then from the cellar he fetched up case after case of the wine bottles and poured their contents over the remains. The liquid in the bottles was sulphuric acid. The final case was wine, enough to pour some into all the empty bottles and destroy the odor of the acid.

He arranged gas burners under the tub to heat the solution, went out and closed the door. In four hours he entered the room and extinguished the gas burners. In the tub was nothing but a thick, murky liquid. He pulled out the plug with the platinum wire, allowed the tub to empty, cleaned up all traces of his work and went downstairs to change his bloody clothing for clean. At the foot of the stairs two policemen seized him.

The prosecution went confidently to trial with a perfect case of circumstantial evidence. There were the man's bloody clothing, the blood matted gown of the woman, the blood pool on the floor, the testimony of a servant who had heard the quarrel and the woman's threat to expose the sailor for a murderer.

Randolph Mason, attorney for the murderer, said he had no evidence to offer, but moved the court for a verdict of not guilty on the ground that the corpus delicti was not proven. And though even the jury protested the judge upheld the motion. A few weeks later Samuel Walcott married his fiancée.

Hand Mrs. Elizabeth Scheib, Henry A. Scheib, and a drawing at lower right hand corner made by the dead woman, presumably picturing one of her husband's women friends.

He pressed his face up close against her cheek. "Oh! Dick, Dick!" she sobbed, "I do love you so! I can't live without you! Not another hour, Dick! I do want you so much, so much, Dick!"

The man shifted his right arm quickly, slipped a great Mexican knife out of his sleeve, and passed his fingers slowly up the woman's side until he felt the heart beat under his hand, then he raised the knife, gripped the handle tight, and drove the keen blade into the woman's bosom.

His actions after that were deliberate. He carried the body to the bathtub, carefully cut it to pieces and closed the outlet pipe with a porcelain disk to which was attached a long platinum wire.

Then from the cellar he fetched up case after case of the wine bottles and poured their contents over the remains. The liquid in the bottles was sulphuric acid. The final case was wine, enough to pour some into all the empty bottles and destroy the odor of the acid.

AMUSEMENTS. "Madame Sherry."

Because everyone all over the country is humming, singing or whistling some numbers of the score of the sensational musical success, Madame Sherry, the impression is in some quarters that the production's charm lies in greater part musical. Report says that the mirth qualities of the play are no less engaging than its score. The love of a man for a maid under odd circumstances, love of the soulful, romantic sort, love that blossoms in the heart of youth and flourishes as true love ever does, when things do not go smoothly, is the reigning spell of the production, according to report, but this love, this courtship is so beset on so many sides, and attended by so many misadventures, that while itself remaining on appealing interest all its necessary situations arouse amusement. Some idea of the fun developed may perhaps be gleaned by a summary of the character of the play which, besides the lovers, include an Italian house janitor, his Irish wife, a lively fun-loving actress, a New York man about town, an excitable Venezuelan, an amusingly whimsical uncle of the maid in love, and others including the pupils of a dancing school and the guests of a yachting party. Madame Sherry will be the attraction at the Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"AS IF OUR OWN"

President Taft—Another very conclusive reason for closing the contract is the opportunity which it gives us to increase the supply of our natural resources, which, with the wastefulness of children, we have wantonly exhausted. The timber resources of Canada, which will open themselves to us inevitably under the operation of this agreement, are now apparently inexhaustible.

SIR WILFRID SHOWS HIS HAND.

The action of the Imperial Conference in approving the Declaration of London and passing a resolution in favor of its ratification has been received with considerable dissatisfaction in the Old Country, especially among business men and marine interests.

The Pall Mall Gazette says—"Sir Wilfrid Laurier's readiness to leave the matter entirely to the discretion of the Home Government contrasts strangely with the 'hostile resolution of the Montreal Board of Trade, which concurs with the overwhelming mass of commercial opinion in this country as to the blow which is being struck at our imperial security."

The Globe, dealing with the same subject, says—"This thing has been done without either the Admiralty or the Overseas Dominions being consulted, but we confess we read with some surprise the contention of 'Sir Wilfrid that it is better for the Dominions not to be consulted in these matters at all, and that the whole responsibility should be thrown upon the Home Government. Did that view depend upon an exaggerated confidence in Downing Street it might provoke a smile, but nothing more, but Sir Wilfrid specifically stated that if a Dominion insisted on being consulted in regard to matters which might result in war, that would imply the necessity that they would take part in that war."

The Times says, in an editorial—"Sir Wilfrid Laurier's argument, if carried to its logical conclusion, means a complete rupture between Canada and the Empire."

THE WAR ON THE TRUSTS.

From all appearances the fight against the trusts in the United States is being extended all along the line. There is a long list of cases in which decisions are to be rendered. Following the Federal Supreme Court's decisions against the Standard Oil and Tobacco monopolies, suits are to be decided in cases affecting dealers in meat, groceries, sugar, butter, eggs and milk; raw cotton, woollens, and boots and shoes; lumber and bath tubs, and coal, electrical appliances and paving brick.

Indictments were returned in April, September and October of last year against the chief meat packers of the United States. The taking of testimony in the Federal case against the Southern Wholesale Grocers is nearly completed. The Sugar Trust paid $3,000,000 for its customs fraud, and the suit for its dissolution is pending. The Chicago Butter and Egg Board is defending itself against Mr. Wickensham, who charges that it controls the interstate prices of its products.

Next fall the Bath Tub Trust will be heard, the members of which, it is said, have neglected to fill their tubs with immunity. The prosecution against the coal roads of Pennsylvania is pending. The Brick and Paving trusts in Illinois and adjacent States are hiding behind their bricks and stones. The General Electric Company and its subsidiaries are defendants, and the Ocean Steamship combination and the barge companies on the Great Lakes have been towed into court.

INDUSTRIAL TRAINING.

Canada's Royal Commission on Industrial Training and Technical Education recently visited the Old Country for the purpose of gathering information for their work, and while in Manchester, their chairman, Dr. James W. Robertson, of Ottawa, gave an interview to the Manchester Guardian which has much of great interest in it to Canadian readers. Dr. Robertson is also chairman of the Committee on Lands and an active member of the Commission on Conservation, so the scope of his remarks was national, and dealt with the purpose of all three of these new but important bodies, whose functions are of necessity interrelated. The province of the Commission on Conservation he explained by stating that Canada consists of 'big areas, vast, varied and valuable beyond anybody's apprehension, but the people's knowledge of them is very inaccurate and badly arranged, and hence the need for a commission to inquire into what this great estate consists of and how it can best be conserved for its growing people.'

And by conservation, he goes on to say, is not meant keeping out of use, but rather taking the largest toll out of the resources now and leaving them not only unimpaired but extended and improved by wise use. The education of the farmer to a scientific knowledge of the land means a vast increase in productivity even without bringing a single additional acre under cultivation. But even more important than the wise utilization of material resources is the effective training of the younger generation of Canadians, the raw material out of which the Nation itself must be built.

Dr. Robertson sums up his ideas clearly and concisely: "Children should be trained to observe closely, think clearly, and manage without waste and with good will." A particularly wasteful course is to allow boys to leave school and training to go into unskilled employments, such as the messenger service, which will rather unfit them for any adult occupation; this kind of work leads the boy into a blind alley.

In order to learn how to deal with this and kindred problems, the Commission on Industrial Training and Technical Education visited all the important industrial establishments and educational institutions throughout Canada, and at each took testimony under oath, so that they might learn what the country possesses, what it needs, and how the needs may be met. The end in view is to better conditions through bringing up the standard of efficiency in both men and materials. "This," Dr. Robertson says, "will mean better chances for the children, better schools, more leisure, better business and a higher standard of living."

The object of the Commission's visit to the Old Country is to learn from the technical schools there what may be apt and helpful to meet new conditions here, and to further, promote the extension of manufacturing and commerce. Manual and technical training to supplement the present public school education Dr. Robertson thinks is urgently needed for boys; and for girls a better knowledge of home sanitation, cooking and domestic economics.

A UNIQUE CELEBRATION.

The one thousandth anniversary of the founding of the Duchy of Normandy is just now being celebrated in Rouen, France. It was in the year 911 that the treaty was signed between Charles the Simple and the Norse seafarer, Rollo, by which the latter received a tract of land, with Rouen as its centre. The settlement of Rollo at Rouen grew into the Duchy of Normandy, which, through his successor, William the Conqueror, was united in the eleventh century with England. The celebration of the Millennium of Normandy, therefore, interests the English people as well as the French, and many visitors are flocking to Rouen for the festival, which opened on June 3 and will be continued until June 8.

Under the honorary presidency of M. Fallieres, President of the French republic, a distinguished committee arranged for the commemoration. The city is decorated and illuminated, there are land and water festivals, historical processions, jousts, and tournaments, theatrical gais, fire-work displays, and sports. The influence of Normandy upon the history and literature of the world is being illustrated by a congress and by fine art exhibitions. An influential English committee has been assisting in promoting the success of the celebration.

Current Comment

(Winnipeg Tribune.) A very old puzzle has been worrying up-to-date brains. It has been resurrected by the son of a well-known statesman. He asked his father, "What is it, dad?" and handed him the problem: "Luke had it before. Paul had it behind. Matthew never had it at all. All girls have it once. Boys cannot have it. Old Mrs. Mulligan had it twice in succession. Lloyd George had it before. Dr. Lovell had it before and behind, and he had it twice as bad behind as before." Of course, the answer is "the letter L."

(Toronto Mail and Empire.) The Hardwood Record, a journal circulating among the lumbermen and other timber operators in the United States, exhibits in its last number a cartoon labelled "Canadian Resiprocity." Figures representing the United States and Canada confront each other from opposite sides of the boundary line, and the question is asked, "What is the objection to increasing the population of the United States by nine million people?" Assuredly Uncle Sam knows of none.

(Hamilton Herald.) The London Times is of the opinion that the logical effect of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attitude towards Imperial business is the separation of Canada from the Empire. But the London Times judges only by Sir Wilfrid's actions. It should take into account his after-dinner speeches.

(Kingston Whig.) No need of a stated case before any judge as to what a teacher may do to maintain discipline in the school. The principal must rule. He can either whip the pupil into obedience and respect, or he can suspend him. Suspension does not cure any boy of bad habits. It puts him on the street among the loafers, and helps to ruin him.

(Kingston Standard.) Thirty desertions from our own Canadian navy have been reported within the past two weeks, thanks to the tyranny of the officers and the poor food provided. It's the old story. All the good things are going to the men higher up, while the ordinary worker is, in the vernacular, "getting it in the neck."

(Ottawa Citizen.) The police magistrate of Chatham, Ont., decides that a man may legally turn his mother-in-law out of the house, if she does not use violence. Unless the Canadian variety of mother-in-law is radically different from the usual kind we fear that the bench is trifling with a serious subject.

(New York Mail.) In this quest for the ultimate, one wonders what is the greatest discrepancy. As we view it, it is the difference between an employer's estimate of a man's worth when he wants a rise in salary and when he asks for a day off.

(Denver Republican.) If aviators ever find what it is that makes the straw hat sail on the wind so readily, and apply the principle to the aeroplane, all difficulties in aerial navigation will be smoothed over.

WEDDINGS.

Paysant—Church. Windsor, N. S., June 6.—A very pretty wedding took place at an early hour this morning at the home of Mrs. Constant Church, Falmouth, when her youngest daughter, Miss Carrie Church, was married to Benjamin D. Paysant, son of the late Mr. John M. Paysant, Falmouth. Both were unattended. The bride looked very pretty in a tailored suit of blue broad cloth. She wore a large white veil, officiated and Miss Evelyn Smith, of Melvern Square, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march as the bride entered the drawing room with her brother, Mr. Edward Church, who gave her away. The rooms were beautifully decorated with foliage and white blossoms. Only immediate relatives were present. Among those from outside were: Mrs. A. M. Beamish, Miss Caroline Church, Halifax; Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Wolfville; Mrs. Owen Wheelock, Middleton; Mr. A. Hardy, Kentville. A dainty luncheon was served before Mr. and Mrs. Paysant left on the train for a trip to Boston and New York. Many beautiful presents were received in china and cut glass. The groom's presents to the bride was a pearl harvest moon brooch.

Emery—Holland. A very pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Rev. A. W. Mahan united in marriage with Nuptial Mass, Miss Eulalia Greaves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Holland, 42 Clarence street, and Wm. S. Emery, chief operator with the C. P. R. Telephone Co., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Emery, 48 Exmouth street. The bride looked charming in a dress of Duchesse satin with silk fichu net overdress, trimmed with pearls and lace. She wore a veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Kathleen Hurley, cousin of the bride. She wore pink silk, decorated and illuminated, and a large picture hat. She carried pink roses, Margaret and Helen Stanton, little nieces of the bride, acted as flower girls. They wore pink silk and carried baskets of flowers. The groom was supported by his brother, Andrew Emery, and S. Hurley and Leo Holland acted as ushers. Arthur S. Gaudet, the organist, rendered Wagner's Bridal Chorus, from Lohengrin, as the bride party entered the church, and the wedding was performed by Rev. Theobald Breathed O'er Eden, was rendered at the offertory, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played. Wedding breakfast was served to immediate relatives at the bride's home, where a reception is being held this afternoon. The house was decorated with ferns, apple blossoms and cut flowers. The happy couple will leave on the Montreal train for a trip to Niagara Falls and intermediate cities. The officiating minister is Rev. Theobald Breathed O'er Eden, who will reside on Queen street.

Roberts-Northrup. The wedding of Miss Annie May, daughter of Mrs. Annie B. Northrup to John Harold Roberts, of this city, took place at 8 o'clock last evening at the residence of the bride's mother, corner Elm and Main streets. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties, and afterwards a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will reside in the North End.

White-Hazlett. The wedding of Stanford E. White, of the North End to Miss Eliza A. Hazlett, took place at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Hazlett, Whitehead, Rev. J. F. Easty of Long Reach, officiating. After the wedding luncheon Mr. and Mrs. White drove to St. John and will leave by the E. S. S. Line this morning for a trip to Boston and New York. Mr. White is bookkeeper for P. Nasse and Sons, and on their return the young couple will reside on Millidge avenue.

MEETING OF THE TELEPHONE CASE

Boston Expert Examined Before Public Utilities Commission in the Affairs of the N. B. Telephone Company.

After an interval of several weeks the investigation into the N. B. Telephone Company's affairs was resumed yesterday before the Public Utilities Commission. The session had been set for 10.30, but as O. M. Melanson could not reach the city until 11 o'clock, and H. A. Powell, who represents the petitioners, had to appear in the Equity Court, at that hour the connection with the affairs of the Neplaguit Lumber Company, it was decided to adjourn until 2 o'clock p. m.

The session was resumed in the afternoon Dr. H. V. Hayes, Boston, was placed on the stand and examined by Mr. Teed. His qualifications as an expert were throughout by the Public Utilities Commission. His experience since 1855 and the important positions which he has held, the latest being that of consulting engineer, were noted by the commission on the work of nationalizing the English telephone service.

The witness has been engaged since April of last year in making an inventory of the property of the N. B. Telephone Company and has just completed the work which was done by the most careful and conscientious methods. He submitted a statement showing the valuation of the plant throughout the province, the total being about $1,200,000. This corresponds very closely with the figures published in the company's annual statement.

He informed the court that the New Brunswick plant was in good condition and giving good service as any of the average plants. Witness also defined the terms found in the inventory.

In reply to Mr. Teed, the witness stated that in the inventory which he had made of the company's plant, he had followed the usual plan adopted for the purpose of allowing of about 2 per cent. There was also a percentage for engineering and head office expenses, in addition to five per cent. for time during the period of construction. Fire and casualty insurance were also important items to be considered, but throughout he had followed the standard method.

Questioned by Mr. Teed regarding the practice of allowing a percentage for depreciation he informed the commission that this practice is in vogue practically throughout the country. On underground systems the depreciation would be less rapid than in pole systems. He had always held, that there should be an allowance of about 12 per cent. income each year, for depreciation and current repair, or about 7 or 8 per cent. for depreciation.

The witness was then examined by H. A. Powell regarding the various items contained in the inventory. In reply to Mr. Powell, Dr. Hayes said that there are 8,843 poles in the St. John city exchange. These poles vary in size, those found in the city being generally taller than those in the rural districts. Regarding the appraisal of the cost of poles, the witness said the total cost of the pole placed in position and ready for the wiring was about $10.40 per pole. In St. John there are 354 miles of silicon bronze wire and the total cost is about $11,346. There are 19.11 miles of aerial cable, 2,153 miles of conductor in these cables. The matter of office equipment was then taken up by Mr. Powell. Witness considered that the switchboard was the most important part of the plant. Mr. Powell said he found the plant in good operative condition, and, judging by appearances, it could be kept in excellent operating condition on an expenditure of about five per cent. He estimated that the average life of the plant as a whole would be about twelve years.

A BAD FIRE IN A QUEBEC VILLAGE

Calumet, Que., June 6.—Twenty-two families, comprising one hundred men, women and children, are homeless as the result of a fierce early morning fire, which broke out here shortly after 2 o'clock this morning in the residence of Timothy O'Leary, or, before it had burned itself out, had destroyed the seventeen houses in which the families lived, and caused damage estimated at $20,000. Although the fire spread with extreme rapidity, in many cases consuming the furniture which had been taken from the dwellings and piled in the streets, no one was injured. There were many narrow escapes, however, the family of J. Desbrais, living next door to the Cayer house, where the fire started, having to jump from the windows to safety.

Calumet is a lumber village of about 750 inhabitants, and the fire is the worst blow that it has ever had. The people who are homeless are all hard-working laborers in the mills of the Horden Paper Company, and the House Book Companies Works, and can ill afford to meet with such a reverse. The property destroyed was purely residential, although one or two small stores were included in the path of the fire. The insurance on the property is slight. Most of the dwellings were owned by their occupants.

Monthly Meeting of The Board of Trade

Policy Outlined in Regard to the Hydro-Electric Power Question—Resolution to be Forwarded to Dominion Government in Connection with the West Indian Line Contract.

Twenty-four new members were elected to the Board of Trade at the regular monthly meeting held on Tuesday afternoon last. The report submitted from the council outlining their policy with regard to the Hydro-Electric project, referring to the West India line contract, the license on harbors and the Maritime Board of Trade.
A resolution was adopted condemning the West India contract and suggesting an amendment to it. As the president and vice-president were out of the city, H. B. Schofield was elected chairman of the meeting. After the minutes of the meeting had been approved, the secretary read a summary of the proceedings of the meeting and the following resolutions were adopted:
The Electric Proposition.
The special committee, appointed at the May meeting of the Board to consider the application of the New Brunswick Electric Company for a license to generate and distribute electricity in the county of Kent, held several meetings and has submitted the following report to the council:
To the Council of the St. John Board of Trade.
The committee appointed by the St. John Board of Trade to consider the application of the New Brunswick Electric Company for a license to generate and distribute electricity in the county of Kent, met on the 3rd inst., and after careful examining of the application has the honor to report as follows:
That while recognizing the value to the city of cheap power and feeling that any proposals to further that object should be given every opportunity of being considered by the Board of Trade, we at the same time feel that it is equally important that the rights of the city should be safeguarded, and therefore recommend that the council of the Board urge the Council of the city of St. John:
1.—That the provincial government when granting privileges to the said Electric Power Co., to amend Section 7 of the application so as to provide that before any electrical licensing or otherwise disposing of the property, franchises, assets, etc., of the company, the city of St. John should be notified in writing of its intention to buy or lease such undertaking, franchises, etc.
2.—That there should be a limit...

Good Programme at Nickel.

The pictures for today are exceptionally good. The Haunted Sentinel, a comedy of an old-fashioned comedy, and the sentimental love for the daughter of a haughty Governor General. The drama is enacted within the confines of a grim old tower in Cuba, and takes one back to the days of the Spanish grandees. "A New Life," a Pathé American picture, is full of dramatic incidents and treats the restoration to useful citizenship of a burglar who entering to rob meets with conditions so unusual that they change his attitude toward society. "Misplaced Jealousy," is a comedy of the usual Biograph excellence. Some funny situations develop which are likely to make trouble for hubby, but which will be however and he is saved embarrassment. "Cupid's Joke," deals with a love match in which a little deception is used with effective result. The Trenton quartette will be heard in the tuneful melodies which have made so much favorable impression. Also Marie Hoan in illustrated songs. New numbers by the orchestra.

THE SUNSHINE FURNACE

EASY MATTER TO REMOVE GRATES. If necessity requires, it is an easy matter to remove the grates from the Sunshine. Just loosen the cotter pin (see the top arrow pointing at it) and the grates on the right can be lifted out. Repeat the operation on the left, and you can do the same with the remaining grates. Could any operation be easier or simpler? These four grates are made of heavy cast-iron with the strongest kind of bull dog teeth. Heavy and strong enough to grind up the biggest clinker into particles small enough to sift through the narrow openings between the teeth. What's left in the ash-pan is not worth sifting. Frederickton, 10; Woodstock, 3

Woodstock 6.—The first game in the N. B. and Maine League was played this afternoon between Frederickton and Woodstock before a large crowd and it was no surprise for Frederickton to win by a score of 10 to 3, as it was felt that the home team was weak, owing to the absence of four of the regular team, Stinson, Urquhart, Paquet and Allan, the former two being pitchers, none of whom can report for duty for ten days yet.

Duval and Lewis were the battery for the visitors and Sharkey and Mayo for the home side. The latter of the six innings, Sharkey retired in favor of Bosworth. Eleven hits were made off Duval, six of Sharkey and five off Bosworth. The best playing for the locals was done by Perley, who got three hits and made some phenomenal catches at centre. Following were the players and the score by innings:

error, managed to make five runs.

This gave them a lead of eight to four.

In the eighth inning the Marathons with two hits and a base on balls, got two more runs. The St. John's were blanked in this inning. It looked like a win for the St. John's, but in the last inning there was a surprise. Britt furnished and Graverson got to first. Parle fled out to Britt. Donnelly hit to Mahoney at short, who muffed and Graverson scored. Mahoney hit safe to left and Donnelly tied the score. Lynch hit out, pitcher, Riley hit safe to centre and scored Mahoney. Nelson struck out.

The St. John's came in for their last inning. Ramsay fouled out to Nelson. McNutt hit safe to left. Britt hit a liner that was captured by Parle and McNutt was doubled on at first. The game was tied 9 to 9.

The following is the score and summary of the game:

FREDERICKTON GETS A NEW FAST CATCHER.

(Frederickton Gleaner.)

The Frederickton management are working hard to keep their teams well up to the standard and whenever they hear of an available player who will strengthen the team, they don't waste any time in getting in touch with him. At present they are in touch with several pitchers and may add a left-hander to the staff.

It has been decided to carry two catchers so as to be prepared for accidents and this evening Johnny Murray will arrive from Boston to hold down one of the jobs. He has had six or seven years' experience with the fastest independent teams around Boston, having caught for the Deweys, Quilty and the Old Colony League, the fast Salem team and this year he has been with the Lowell team of the New England league and lately with the Athletics, another fast independent team. Murray comes here with a reputation of being one of the fastest catchers outside the leagues from Boston and vicinity and is a good stickler as well as a good catcher and thrower. He will probably catch for Frederickton on Thursday.

FAMOUS JOCKEYS DESCRIBE THEIR GREATEST RACES

(By Bert E. Collyer.)

Jockey George Mountain, with the possible exception of Skilling the best rider now left on the American turf and who recently was so painfully injured at Lexington, is the most recent to add to the laurel wreath of Collin, James K. Keene's magnificent and undefeated son of Commando, Mountain, it will be remembered, rode Collin on the memorable day when Beaucaup made the mighty one exert himself to the limit. Let Mountain tell the story.

"Collin was easily the greatest horse I ever rode. I will also add that he was the greatest. This latter sterling quality was particularly asserted that day he met and defeated Beaucaup. On the occasion of the latter race, Collin had buried shins, in fact, was in such bad shape that I would say that Trainer Rowe sending him to the post.

"There was no secret about the ailment that this was the greatest. I rode him before and after that race, and he never was fully extended.

"Beaucaup, the horse Collin defeated by such a scant margin, was in my opinion the next best horse of that year. The effort to beat Collin all but broke the colt's heart, and when he came back, but I don't believe that he ever was as good a horse as on the day I speak of.

Running Water-Dandelion.

Speaking of memorable races, game finishes and superb jockeyship, brings to mind the whistler finish at Gravesend in 1907, when Dandelion best Running Water the scantest margin on the wire. Jockey George Archibald, in recounting the race said:

"Dave Nicol was on Dandelion and Walter Miller then in his prime, was astride of Running Water, one of the greatest mares that ever looked through a bridle. Prior to the race there was almost a new record set for speculation with these two carrying 50 per cent of the wagers.

"The start was almost perfect, the two contenders breaking head and head. Down to the half mile ground their head to head, to the far turn muzzle to muzzle they kept on, with jockeys indulging in every subtlety in their repertoire. Turning for home the cry went up, 'The mare's got him,' only to reverberate back, 'Dandelion is coming again.'

"Entering the final furlong and with every muscle in upwards of 36,000 spectators strained to concert pitch, the two superb animals dashed for the wire. A sixteenth out Nicol was seen to call on his mount for a supreme effort and the gelding responding, barely showed his nose in front in the final strike. It was easily the greatest race of the year. For the two were so evenly matched. Personally, I believe that Nicol in that final effort outrode Miller; otherwise there would have been a dead heat."

Thomas Kiley, in his day rated one of America's best riders, and now a trainer of thoroughbreds, is authoritative for the statement that Terra Cotta, winner of the St. Louis Derby of 1887, was the best horse he ever rode. Kiley was first jockey to Edward Corrigan when the ex-master of Hawthorne was transferred from Hawthorne, Chicago. Mike Dwyer, who owned Ben Brush, came on to see his horse perform—incidentally to back him heavily.

"So heavy was the betting on this race that the start was delayed several minutes as a consequence, with the Dwyer money, of course, predominating. Soup's Perkins, one of the best colored riders who ever threw a leg over a racer, was up on Ben Brush, and, although I did not hear the instructions he received, I am sure it was something like this: 'Get off well and race their eyeballs out.'

"Soup" got off well all right, but he failed, or rather Ben Brush did, in the balance.

"The two horses raced as one for almost the entire trip, with the balance of the field strung out for a sixteenth of a mile. In the last four strides Prince Lief, by an almost incredible effort and one of the grandest displays of gameness ever witnessed anywhere, shook off the favorite, to win by the shortest of margins. They may have had better races since, but I have never seen them."

THE SCHOOL ATHLETIC LEAGUE

The two events in the Sunday School Athletic League last night were a 50 yards dash for the older boys and a running broad jump for the juniors. The winners in the dash were 1st, J. Porter (Queen Square church) 4th.

The standing of the different Sunday schools in the league to date is as follows:

HE IS NOT AFRAID OF LANGFORD

A rare discovery has been made. A fighter has been discovered who not only professes that he is not afraid of terrible Sam Langford, but who goes one better and states that he is being consumed with an overpowering desire to get into the same ring with Black Sammy and fight him to a finish.

There have been plenty of boxers willing to take on the Boston negro in a short bout, depending on money, skill to keep them away from the hay-makers for six or ten rounds, but those who have shown willingness to battle to a finish with Sammy have been as scarce as Mexican federalists in Juarez.

Imagine the surprise in boxing circles when "Cyclone Johnny" Thompson unburdened himself of a challenge to Langford and let it be known that the fight must be a long one.

The Sycamore chicken farmer says he will consent to take on Sam at 165 pounds ringside, a weight Langford has confessed he can make. Johnny, however, wants the bout to last twenty rounds at the least, but would prefer a finish race.

HOLY TRINITY WINS FROM THE ST. PETER'S.

In the Inter-society league last evening the Holy Trinity team defeated the St. Peter's team 7 to 6. The game lasted six and a half innings and was very interesting. The battery for the winners was Pratt and Cullinan and for St. Peter's Quinn and Sharkey.

The result of 75 years' experience.

HEAVY TONE IN NEW YORK STOCK MARKET THE STOCK MARKET

New York, N. Y., June 6.—A heavy tone characterized today's stock market and trading was lifeless. The market moved in a hesitating way and in no important instances were the losses material, but the sagging tendency which developed yesterday still prevailed today, and to an extent which suggested that recent upward movement had expended itself, for the time, at least.

In financial as well as speculative circles some disappointment was expressed at the failure of the public to show greater interest in the anti-trust cases, was made known, there would be a pronounced revival in trading and for a time there were indications that this change had taken place.

Prompted by knowledge of this condition, the short interest continued its operations for the decline, but stocks were taken so readily at concessions that the bears were exceedingly wary.

The hesitation of the market may be attributed to some extent to a desire to await the forthcoming government crop report, which is expected to exercise considerable influence upon sentiment.

Securities of the American Tobacco Company moved upward today, the common stock having declined 120 points since the rendition of the Tobacco decision, recovered 24 points.

Bonds were irregular, with some heaviness in speculative issues. Total sales, par value, $5,455,000. United States twos and fours declined 3/8 and the three 1/2 on call.

THE COURTS. King's Bench Division.

His honor then sat in chambers, and heard the motion for a foreclosure and sale of the Nepsiquit Lumber Company by the Adams Burns Co., the mortgagee. After listening to the arguments of numerous counsel, his honor made an order for the immediate sale of the property.

NOKOMIS IS GROWING. Considerable interest is being taken in the report that the Canadian Northern is to extend its line through Nokomis. The report, Canadian Northern time-table shows this proposed line running through Nokomis and connecting with the Calgary branch. It is understood that Nokomis is being favorably considered as a divisional point on this new line of the Canadian Northern, as the mileage is about right and Nokomis affords an abundant supply of good water. Nokomis is situated midway between Winnipeg and Edmonton, in the centre of the province of Saskatchewan, and is an important railway centre is assured. Five large implement warehouses, a flour mill and the Imperial Oil Co. now use Nokomis as a distributing point. The lead taken by these institutions is about to be followed by others of similar importance. As a distributing point Nokomis affords advantages which manufacturers and jobbers will not overlook. It will command a large part of the jobbing trade for a considerable distance up and down the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway and the two important branch lines which will centre there. Its shipping facilities like it an especially advantageous location for manufacturers. It has been demonstrated that an abundance of water for factory use is obtainable. Five grain elevators at Nokomis and one flour mill are taxed to the limit of their capacity to handle the grain grown in the vicinity of Nokomis. The report is that the Canadian Northern is to extend its line through the Grand Trunk Railway and the Canadian Pacific railways, Nokomis affords splendid transportation facilities to the farmers of the Last Mountain Valley. Practically every line of business is represented at Nokomis. It has a planning mill, blacksmith shops, three lumber yards, five implement warehouses, two banks—the Northern Crown and the Canadian Bank of Commerce—a local telephone system, three well appointed hotels, five grain elevators, four mill, heavy stables (one of which is said to have been built at a cost of $16,000), tanks of the Imperial Oil Co., and a well edited newspaper—Winnipeg Free Press, May 27, '11.

JAIL PRISONERS RIDE IN STYLE. Tucked comfortably in the bus "Partridge Island," the "Rock Candy" gang had their first ride to work yesterday morning. By what arrangement the prisoners were given the spin is not clear as members of the sub-committee who have the matter in hand were not aware that the fine, warm weather of today was to be taken advantage of for that purpose. One of the members of the sub-committee said this morning that the Councilor Donovan, representing the municipal council, had reported that he could procure a van or bus that would be suitable and he was told to go ahead and arrange for its purchase. The idea was that a pair of city horses could be utilized, taking the men to the city line and calling for them in the evening. It is supposed that in the meantime Councilor Donovan made temporary arrangements for transportation. Mr. Donovan could not be located, consequently no explanation can be had.

West Madden, of Union Street, Departed Without Leaving His Address—Several Creditors are Mourning.

West Madden, who has conducted a saloon on Union street since last fall, has left the city and while there are a number of people who are very anxious to see him he failed to leave his future address for their benefit. Madden took over the bar at 193 Union street formerly conducted by the late Otzen Campbell. He had previously been employed as bar tender at the three-mile house and before that he came from Moncton. He has been doing a rushing business at his new stand, but was doing a bit of rushing himself and apparently the pace became too hot. He was last seen on Friday night when he closed up at the usual hour.

As Saturday was a holiday the place was closed, but when it remained closed on Monday it attracted some attention. Yesterday P. M. O'Neil, who held a bill of sale on the stock, took steps to protect himself and took possession. He found that beside the fixtures there was not a dollar's worth of stuff in the shop, everything having been removed. There are a number of others to whom Madden owed sums of money of various amounts. Mr. Madden is not expected back at present.

PROPOSITIONS FOR THE DISPOSAL OF GARBAGE

Board of Health has Three Plans Submitted to it and these are Referred to Committee.

Three propositions for the disposal of garbage were submitted to the Board of Health at their monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, and a committee was appointed to report on their suitability.

The chairman, Thomas Gorman, presided, and there were present Dr. Daniel, John Kelly, the Medical Health officer, Dr. Melvin; Inspectors Howard and McConnell, and Secretary T. M. Burns. For the consideration of the incinerator project, Aid. McGoldrick and J. B. Jones of the civic committee and City Engineer Murdoch were also present.

The secretary submitted communications from eight cities containing information regarding their methods of dealing with the garbage problem. Those reporting were Montreal, Toronto, Vancouver, Portland, Worcester, Lowell and Boston. Three communications were received from citizens on the street. One offered a site for an incinerator, another offered to dispose of the refuse by towing it to sea and dumping it, and the third was a project for utilizing the garbage in making fertilizer and using the ashes, etc., for filling in waste land.

The chairman was authorized to act with the committee of the Common Council in investigating these propositions, and their report will be given at a special joint meeting of the board and committee.

The chairman and secretary were appointed a committee to make arrangements for the disposal of night soil, the old arrangements having been suspended.

The nurse engaged in work among tuberculous patients submitted her monthly report on the work accomplished.

Dr. Melvin made his first appearance at the board since completing his course at McGill University, and was welcomed by the chairman.

WILL BRING LIBEL SUIT AGAINST THE TELEGRAPH

Robert Crawford, City Constable, Askes $2000 Damages for Alleged Libellous Statement in Local Newspaper.

Robert Crawford, city constable, is bringing action against the Telegraph Publishing Company for $2,000 damages for a statement, alleged to be libellous, published in the Telegraph yesterday morning. The statement in which objection is taken occurs in a synopsis of a communication to the common council from H. W. Robertson in which the latter made certain complaints about the constables. The objectionable sentence is: "He complained that Robert Crawford had not settled for money collected some months ago."

The complaint was merely that Crawford did not return the executions according to law and Mr. Crawford asserts that the police court clerk says that the documents were properly backed under the circumstances which were that they were not executed. He has retained McInerney and Trueman to act for him and the writ will be issued today.

A Pleasant Concert. In the vestry of the Ludlow street Baptist church an enjoyable entertainment was held last evening under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Aid Society. Rev. W. R. Mr. Campbell; instrumental selection, Miss Mabel Sharpe; readings, Lillian Turner; solo, Miss E. Langton; reading, Miss A. Rotherough; solo, Marion Langton, and piano solo, Elsie Belyea. An interesting address was delivered by R. F. Bishop. The annual meeting of Ludlow street church will be held in the vestry of the church this evening at 8 o'clock.

OPPONENTS OF EARLY CLOSING PLAN ACTIVE

Meeting for Organization will be Held Tonight and Law will be Fought to the Finish.

The opponents of the early closing law are active and are organizing a meeting for tonight. A meeting of those interested in the defeat of the legislation has been called for this evening and Keith's Assembly rooms have been engaged for the purpose. All who are willing to join the fight are invited to attend and steps will be taken to organize an active campaign for the accomplishment of their purpose.

A delegation representing the early closing movement waited on Mayor Prink on Tuesday afternoon to inquire why the violators of the law were not being punished. They were informed that summonses had been issued for those reported and that further action will follow the decision of these cases.

Mr. MacDonald said yesterday that it was his intention to fight the matter to a finish. They maintained that the law was ultra vires the local legislature and the common council, and if the decision goes against them in the police court they will appeal to the Supreme Court of the province.

INSPECTOR KENNEY TO GET AFTER THE HOTELS

Factory Inspector Says Proprietors of Hotels in Province Must Install Proper Fire Escapes.

There is trouble ahead for some of the hotels in this province unless they pay a little more attention to the warning issued last week regarding the necessity of installing fire escapes.

At the last session of the legislature a law was passed requiring the hotels to install fire escapes on the outside of their buildings and to place a coil of rope in each sleeping room as an additional safeguard. The enforcement of the law was placed in the hands of John Kenney Jr., the factory inspector. Mr. Kenney sent out notices to over 200 hotels, but so far only seven have paid any attention to the matter. The law goes into effect on August 1st, and any hotel owner who has not complied by that date will be liable to prosecution.

Mr. Kenney starts today on a trip through Carleton, Victoria, Madawaska, Northumberland and Restigouche counties to inspect the factories and while away will take up the matter of fire escapes with the hotel owners of those counties.

CASES OF TONSILLITIS REPORTED IN CITY

Many Cases Reported During the Last Couple of Months, but Figure is now Nearing Normal Mark.

During the last couple of months the city was swept by an epidemic of tonsillitis. Some of the doctors report having seen little more than the usual number of cases which they expect every spring, but others told of being kept busy for several weeks with cases of this disease. The worst of it has passed and the number of cases are now nearing a normal figure. In some sections of the city the disease took a form which was new to the local practitioners. In these cases the patient complained of feeling the usual symptoms but an examination failed to show any trace of the trouble. The disease gave evidence of being rheumatic in origin and responded to treatment based on that diagnosis. It is said that the new type of illness was imported from Boston, where it has been very prevalent.
