

SWEEPING THROUGH GALICIA ON RELENTLESS DRIVE CZAR'S ARMIES CAPTURE KOLOMEJA KEY TO LEMBERG

Town of Obertine and Several Villages Fall Before Russians---Austrians in the Region of the Dniester in Retreat and Abandon Supplies in Their Panic.

Occupation of Obertine Represents a Further Gain in the New Drive of Over Twenty-Five Miles of Front.

Petrograd, June 30, via London, July 1.—The Russians have captured the town of Kolomeja, in East Galicia, according to the Russian official communication issued today.

Petrograd, June 30, via London.—The war office announced today the capture of Obertine, south of the Dniester river, and villages north and south of that point.

In the region south of the Dniester we are pursuing the enemy. The Austrians panic-stricken in their flight, are leaving behind a large number of convoys. Military material and more prisoners have been brought in.

"According to telegrams received here, the town of Obertine was taken after a fight as well as villages in the neighborhood north and south.

"Northwest of the confluence of the rivers Lpa and Str, our detachments under command of Col. Grembecky approached unperceived the settlement of Coveban and a village of the same name and took possession of the village. After having put the garrison of Coveban to the bayonet we took possession of the village to which the enemy had fled in panic. Some prisoners were taken by us."

London, June 30.—Obertine, the capture of which is reported in today's official Russian communication, is 14 miles northeast of Kolomeja. Its occupation represents a further gain in the new drive over 25 miles of front which, according to yesterday's Russian and Austrian communication forced the Austrians to retire on a part of the front.

German Yarn.

Berlin, June 30, via London.—The official report says:

"Southeast of Tabor, and near Matson De Champagne advancing French detachments were sanguinarily repulsed."

"On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) we made progress on July 30. On the right bank of the river there was no infantry activity. The total number of prisoners taken by us since June 23, and during the repulse of the great French counter-attack was 70 officers and 3,200 men."

"On the evening of June 27 Lieut. Boelke shot down his nineteenth enemy aeroplane, near the Thiaumont farm, and yesterday Lieut. Parschau brought down his fifth enemy aeroplane, near Peronne. In the region of Bourouilles, in the Argonne, a French biplane was brought down by our anti-aircraft guns."

"Eastern front: Apart from an encounter which resulted in our favor north of Lake Ilsen southwest of Drinak, nothing of moment is reported from the northern portion of the front."

"Army group of Field Marshal Von Linsingen: Counter-attacks made on positions from which our troops recently drove the Russians were futile. We captured more than 100 prisoners and 7 machine guns."

"Balkan front: The situation is unchanged."

Casement Degraded Of Knighthood By Order of The King

London, June 30.—The appeal filed in the case of Sir Roger Casement alleges three reasons for setting aside the verdict of guilty of high treason, found against him, under which he was sentenced to death, as follows:

First—That no crime had been committed under the statute of Edward III, by which Sir Roger was tried, because no such crime as treason "with out the realm" was perpetrated in the statute.

Second—That the Lord Chief Justice erred in the use of the term "aiding and comforting the enemy."

Third—Because the Lord Chief Justice, in his charge to the jury did not properly set forth the defendant's side of the case.

Sir Roger was today transferred to Pentonville prison. Patrick Francis Doyle, his counsel, found him in a cheerful mood when he visited him. It is expected the argument on the appeal will be heard within three weeks.

The home office announced today that King George had directed Sir Roger be degraded from his order of knighthood.

BRITISH ARE SHOWING ALLIES NEW TACTICS

Methods Now Employed Last Word in Scientific Warfare.

IMMEDIATE SUCCESS NOT TO BE EXPECTED.

Results May Seem Small to Uninitiated but Men on the Scene Can Tell Different Story.

Paris, June 30.—The plan of operations now being used by the British troops on the French front and which the French seem to be adopting, is the "last word in scientific warfare," declares a French officer who has been in close touch with operations since the beginning of the war.

"The nocturnal expeditions of British patrols into German first line trenches," he said, "which seem to many of the uninitiated as without result, become the essential feature of the attack on lines fortified as those held by the Germans on this front. The first thing in order is the destruction, by heavy artillery, of the concrete shelters perfected with consummate science. The second is to reconnoitre and make sure that the destruction is complete, for a single machine gun left intact under a shelter can inflict upon an infantry assault. The third is the destruction of the barbed wire defenses and it is only then that infantry can be prudently ordered to attack."

"The only means in gaining the objective assurance of the first object attained is to go to the spot, and in these operations British troops are showing the Germans as well as the French, something new in the tactics of siege operations."

"Personally," added the officer, "I think important results will be obtained."

The sporting aspect of these raids and the indefiniteness of the results so far made known puzzles the public, which anticipated rapid developments. Military experts caution against the hope of immediate and sweeping success, as the demolition of defense works is a long operation and must be effected over a wide front before an advance can be undertaken. It is calculated that 30,000 shots from field guns are required to make sufficient breaches in barbed wire defenses to permit a single army corps to go through, while the fire of the heavier guns necessary to level trenches and destroy the concrete shelters and machine guns is far more extensive.

HIS INJURIES PROVED FATAL

Charles J. Stackhouse, Injured in Saw Mill Thursday Died in Hospital this Morning.

Charles J. Stackhouse, who was so badly injured in Randolph & Baker's mill on Thursday, died in the hospital early this morning. The opinion of men who have been employed in the I. C. R. for years, and others living in the neighborhood of the burned structure was to the effect that it could not have been accidental as there was no fire in the building and the watchman saw no signs of any earlier in the night.

BRITISH GUNS HURL MILLION SHELLS A DAY AT ENEMY

Sweeping German Line Like Tornado, British Bombardment Demolishes First and Second Lines, Cuts Barbed Wire and Plays Havoc with Enemy—Sky at Night Illuminated for Thirty Miles.

British Headquarters in France, June 30, via London, 2:47 p. m.—Along the British battle line the bombardment was maintained with great severity throughout yesterday and last night. Patrols have reported that German trenches at several places were deserted and that the defense works and wire entanglements were damaged badly.

At other parts the German line is strongly held. Great alertness and spasmodic bursts of machine gun fire and rifle volleys indicate a condition of apprehension.

British infantry carried on raiding as usual and brought back prisoners from several places. Hostile artillery retaliation, although heavy, in one or two localities, for the most part has been of a half-hearted character.

The weather is dull but showed signs of clearing this morning.

I.C.R. WAREHOUSE BURNED TO GROUND AND PIER BADLY DAMAGED; LOSS $100,000

BELIEF THAT FIRE WAS OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN AS NO PERSON IN SHED AFTER 6 O'CLOCK—A SPECTACULAR BLAZE—ALL APPARATUS OF CITY PROPER CALLED OUT TO FIGHT BLAZE.

Between 12.30 and 3 o'clock this morning the big warehouse owned by the Intercolonial Railway and known as No. 13 warehouse on the wharf adjoining York Point slip was totally destroyed by fire. The wharf itself was badly burned and the loss will run well into $100,000. Whether the fire was of incendiary origin was not established this morning. The opinion of men who have been employed in the I. C. R. for years, and others living in the neighborhood of the burned structure was to the effect that it could not have been accidental as there was no fire in the building and the watchman saw no signs of any earlier in the night.

About 12.30 smoke was seen coming from the shed and an alarm was sent in from Box 8. This brought a portion of the apparatus, a second and third alarm brought to the scene all the fire fighting apparatus the city possessed and soon twelve streams were in operation, the engines fighting the fire from the wharveside while a scow moored at Starr's wharf did effective service as an impromptu fireboat.

The flames, however had gained such headway that it was impossible to successfully combat them, and although there was a good water pressure and the firemen worked like demons, the blaze practically burned itself out. It was 2.30 this morning before it was under control, and at one time it was feared that the brick warehouse owned by Mr. Robertson and the McIntyre vinegar factory adjoining would catch. The efforts of the firemen, however, were successful in preventing this.

FRENCH FORCES HAVE WON BACK THIAUMONT WOOD

Carry the Position by Brilliant Attack in Face of Heavy Curtain of Fire from Enemy Guns—Germans Redouble Efforts to Expel Them, but Driven Back with Heavy Losses

FRENCH WIN BACK THIAUMONT WOOD.

Paris, June 30.—The French forces, fighting in the region of Verdun, have recaptured from the Germans the Thiaumont Wood, northeast of the fortress, according to the French official communication issued tonight. The communication says:

"On the left bank of the Meuse the bombardment continues in the region of Hill 304, but no infantry action took place."

"On the right bank of the Meuse stubborn fighting was in progress all day. In the region of Thiaumont this morning about ten o'clock our troops, in the course of a very brilliant attack, carried the Thiaumont wood, notwithstanding the heavy curtain of fire brought to bear by the enemy."

"This afternoon the Germans multiplied their efforts to expel us. In the course of this offensive they sustained considerable losses. Toward three o'clock the enemy succeeded in re-entering the fort, but a vigorous counter-attack enabled us at 4.30 o'clock to regain complete possession of it."

"A particularly violent bombardment occurred today in the Fumin and Chenois woods."

"The Belgian communication:

"On the whole front the artillery actions increased in intensity. We carried out a very efficacious and destructive fire on German trenches near Dixmude, Driegraeten and Steenstraete. The enemy repelled especially to the south of Dixmude."

Bavarians Refused to Sacrifice Themselves on Verdun Front

Through raids, covered by a continuous bombardment the British this week have taken prisoners by whom they have identified every German battalion opposite their lines. Some of the prisoners say that the British fire has been so heavy that it has destroyed the communicating trenches, and that the Germans have been unable to bring up food to their front line trenches for their troops for three days.

It is stated that the Germans have withdrawn from their Verdun front the 11th Bavarian Division and the 22nd Reserve Corps, and from their Champagne front the Tenth Corps for the reinforcement of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg on the Russian front.

It is said that it is probable also that three additional divisions were sent to Russia from the British front recently. One report has it that the 11th Bavarian Division refused to attack Verdun again, whereupon an order was issued that every tenth man be shot, but that the King of Bavaria intervened and Emperor William decided that the 11th Division should go to the eastern front.

There has been no cessation in the British bombardment, along the whole line from the Ypres salient to the Somme in the last twenty-four hours. The weather continues overcast, with now and then rain squalls. Wherever the correspondent has gone along the line, the British have appeared to be firing two shells to the Germans' one. At some points in the face of the British concentration the German guns have seemed strangely silent, as if awaiting events.

The Official Report.

London, June 30.—The British official communication issued this evening says:

"Our patrols and reconnoitering and raiding parties have continued active on the whole front, and have entered German trenches at many points and captured some prisoners. South of New Chapelle a strong raiding party penetrated to the German support lines."

"During the night we successfully exploded a mine south of Auchy Les La Bassée and occupied the crater. Under cover of a heavy bombardment the enemy attempted a raid in the same neighborhood, but was driven back by our rifle fire. Northeast of Ecurie and about Hohenzollern and Givency the enemy exploded mines without damage."

"The weather yesterday was unfavorable for aerial work. As the result of one of the few air combats, however, an enemy aeroplane was killed with a damaged engine."

"German heavy artillery has been in action during the day on the front between Souchez and the Hohenzollern redoubt, and also about Otzelle."

COMMISSION TO STUDY THE RAILWAY QUESTION CHOSEN

Personnel will be Announced Tuesday—Mr. Underwood of Erie System Said to be One of Men Selected.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, June 30.—Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Frank Cochrane's mission to New York in connection with the Canadian railway situation was evidently successful as an official announcement of the personnel of the commission of inquiry will be forthcoming on Tuesday. At the same time the government directors for the Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk Pacific will be announced. The western representative on the Canadian Northern board will probably be W. J. Christie of Winnipeg, and on the Grand Trunk Pacific board Peter McCra, former mayor of Regina. It was originally intended to appoint Sir John Eaton, Toronto, and Mr. Huntley Drummond, Montreal, as eastern representatives on the Canadian board and J. L. Englehart, Toronto, and Mr. H. Leaporre, Montreal, to similar positions on the Grand Trunk Pacific directorate, but Messrs. Englehart and Drummond were unable to act so that the government has had to secure others, whose names will be announced on Tuesday. It is believed that the mission of Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Frank Cochrane to New York was to consult with Mr. Underwood of the Erie system and that they succeeded in securing his services for the commission of investigation.

RUSSIAN DUMA PASSES PERMANENT PROHIBITION BILL

Petrograd, June 30, via London.—The Duma today passed the bill permanently prohibiting the sale of drink containing more than one and one-half per cent. of alcohol. The measure must be passed by the Upper House and signed by the Emperor before becoming a law.

According to the terms of the bill strong drink means any liquor containing more than 1/2 per cent. alcohol, and therefore includes light wines and beer. Amendments proposing a change in the definition of "strong drink" to liquor containing more than 8, and even 13 per cent. alcohol, were summarily rejected by the Duma and the bill was passed in its exact form, as drawn up by the committee.

Passage of the bill by the Upper House and its approval by the Emperor means that all Russia will be come forever a strict prohibition country.

Battle Near Kut.
Petrograd, via London, June 30.—An official statement today says: "An action is in progress near the village of Pletyna, northwest of Kut (Galicia). In the course of one of the combats here Gen. Count Keller was wounded."

"Near the village of Solovine, between the rivers Stokhod and Styr the troops advanced and consolidated to the west of Sokul, the Germans attempted to take the offensive, after emitting clouds of gas, which failed to reach our lines, and which were partly blown back in the direction of the enemy. The German air was repulsed, but an artillery duel continued."

"Yesterday morning enemy aviators dropped thirty bombs on Lutsk. On the Dvina front the enemy artillery has bombarded our positions southeast of Riga and the bridgehead above Ikskul. North of Ikskul the Germans last evening attempted to move forward, but were thrown back by our gunfire."

"On the evening of Wednesday light and heavy German artillery opened a violent fire on our trenches in the Niemen sector northeast of Novo Grodek. Under cover of this fire the enemy crossed the Niemen and occupied the woods east of the village of Ghesheste."

"Caucasus front: In the direction of Genuchaban, the Turks at dawn of June 28 took the offensive in great strength against our advance guards, and pierced the latter's front, penetrated to the rear."

"A very hot fight ensued, but our troops recovered themselves and drove back the Turks, who suffered heavy losses. Pressing on the enemy's heels our troops advanced and consolidated the ground won."

STRANGE CASE IN PEMBROKE, ME.

Strange Woman Enters House at Night, Attempts to Murder Owner, Then Cuts Own Throat.

Special to The Standard.
St. Stephen, June 30.—County Attorney Dudley, of Calais in Pembroke, Me., this evening, called there by a somewhat remarkable story of crime.

A man named Brown of Pembroke, was alone in his own house, or thought he was last night. During the night he was the victim of a murderous assault by a strange woman, who had arrived by train from Boston yesterday, getting off the train at Ayers Junction and walking to Pembroke, three miles away. The story is that she entered Brown's house when the house was empty, and concealed herself underneath the bed, and when he was asleep assaulted him with a razor, inflicting a long cut in his throat, and then went into the next room where she cut her own throat and both wrists.

The place is a remote part of the country and particulars are hard to get at present, but at last reports both the man and woman were alive.

TO COMMEMORATE DECLARATION OF WAR

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has received a communication from Mr. Henry Cust, chairman of the Central Committee for National Patriotic Actions, London, which reads as follows:

34th May, 1916.
Dear Sir,—You will remember that on the 4th August last meetings were organized throughout the United Kingdom, the great self-governing dominions, the colonies, the crown colonies and the dependencies, at which an identical resolution was passed, affirming the determination of the Empire to carry the war to a successful conclusion. These meetings were held with the direct approval of the Prime Minister, and the Secretary of State for the Colonies; and by the kindness of the governments and authorities throughout the Empire, the success achieved was very great and the result most impressive and inspiring.

I have consulted the Prime Minister and Mr. Bonar Law as to whether the resolution should be repeated on the coming 4th August. They are both very strongly of opinion that this should be done and see no reason why the resolution should be altered. May I therefore ask for your good will and active co-operation in the furtherance of this undertaking? As the long and unflinching endurance of the Empire is more and more severely tested, a visible demonstration of its changeless resolution victoriously to achieve our high and solemn purpose, will be of equal power and value in the faith and purpose of our own fellow-citizens and in the eyes of hostile and neutral countries.

Believe me, Yours faithfully,
(Signed) HENRY CUST.

The resolution which was moved at the meetings throughout the Empire on August 4th, 1915, and which it is proposed to have adopted at meetings on the 4th of August next, and which meets with the approval of both the Prime Minister and the Colonial Secretary, reads as follows:
"That, on this the second anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this meeting of the citizens of the Empire records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of those ideals of liberty and justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."
It will be necessary for each community to make such arrangements for the celebration of the day as they think most fitting. His Honor expresses the hope that the city and county officials, as well as other prominent men, will take an active part in endeavoring to make this a successful and especially that the leaders of the different religious bodies throughout the province will hold such religious services as they consider most fitting for impressing on the public the useful and solemn lessons of this terrible war.

J. BAOCN DICKSON,
Private Secretary.

Mr. Cyril Maude, the noted English actor, who recently returned to England for the marriage of his daughter, has expressed his intention of returning to America in August next. Mr. Maude will open in New York in a new play by Mr. Michael Morton and Mr. Stephen Leacock.

STATEMENT ON CHURCH UNION WILL BE READ

Winnipeg, June 30.—Rev. Dr. Baird, moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, has prepared a brief statement on the church union question to be read in all Presbyterian churches throughout Canada on Sunday.

Dr. Baird points out that no steps for the final consummation of union will be taken until the close of the present war and that meanwhile a special committee will seek legal advice about the legislation required and will confer with similar committees from other parties to the union.

CALAIS MAN A VICTIM OF FOUL PLAY?

Two Doctors Claim Vernald Fraser's Death Not Due to Drowning, but Coroner Holds Different View.

Special to The Standard.
St. Stephen, June 30.—The body of Vernald D. Fraser, the Maine Central employee who was found drowned in the St. Croix river at Millerton, yesterday and handed over to the Calais authorities, was examined by Dr. Holand and Dr. Bunker of Calais, today. Both doctors have expressed the opinion that the man was dead when the body entered the water, as they found no water in the lungs, but did find a depressed fracture of the skull. They have also expressed the opinion that an investigation into the matter is warranted and the matter has been placed before County Attorney Dudley of Calais. Coroner Lawson of St. Stephen viewed the body and considered an inquest unnecessary, and adhered to the opinion that death was due to drowning. Considerable difference of opinion exists on both sides of the river as to the manner of death.

I.C.R. WAREHOUSE BURNED TO GROUND

Watched by Thousands.

When the fire was at its height it presented a magnificent spectacle, tongues of flame and vast columns of dark colored smoke poured high into the air and illuminated against the midnight sky presented the appearance of a monster beacon. Thousands of people gathered awakened by the alarms and with their curiosity stimulated by the sight of mounting flames and at one time the surrounding streets held great crowds.

There is much to commend the theory that the fire was of incendiary origin. In the first place it started well out on the wharf and in the lower part of the warehouse. Before smoke or flames became visible outside the blaze had already eaten its way well into the walls of the structure and then it was impossible to save it from total destruction. As far as could be learned this morning there were no persons in the warehouse during the evening, there were no goods there that required handling and, consequently, no need of workmen. The shed was on fire about four or five years ago and at that time it was believed to have been the result of the activities of a firebug.

The burned structure was about 250 feet in length and 125 in width. It was of wood, one storey in height and after the same pattern as the older sheds on the wharves at Sand Point. It had been used for storage purposes. At 2:30 this morning the roof collapsed and the frames of the side walls sank slowly to the wharf. At that hour the wharf was still blazing fiercely and it is believed the last embers will not be extinguished until well into today.

The shed is used largely as a storehouse for flour, but had very little in it last night. The Smith Brokerage Company had about $500 worth of flour and barley stored in the eastern end of the shed. This was not burned, but was considerably damaged by smoke and water. In the western end of the shed there was stored about 2,000 cases of tea belonging to the T. H. Estabrook Ltd. This will be a total loss and it could not be ascer-

ITALIANS FAULT AUSTRIANS FOR THEIR MAIN THE TR

When the firemen arrived it was impossible to get near the blaze as it was under the shed, and the doors were locked. All the apparatus was called out and the fire was fought from Mill street, Smythe street and Pond street. One stream, which was very effective, was worked from a scow in York Point slip. The scow was allowed to swing out in mid-stream, three men went out on it and probably saved the shed on the Star wharf from catching. There was very little wind blowing, or otherwise there would have been a different story to tell, and it would have hardly been possible to confine the fire to the one building. This is the second time this shed has been on fire. About five years ago a fire was discovered in about the same place as this one.

Why He Was Late.
Dr. Philip Cox has good cause to feel aggrieved at the dual system of time prevailing in some St. John hotels. He was due at the Teachers' Institute yesterday afternoon to read a paper, but as his watch was set according to Atlantic Standard time, and the hotel clock on the same system, while the teachers' meetings were conducted on daylight time, he was one hour late. When he arrived at the High School he found that the teachers, after waiting an hour for him, had just adjourned their session.

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer

These days the face needs special care and attention. Flying dust and dirt, the beating sun, are severe on any skin. Their despoiling effects are best overcome by the application of pure mercurized wax. This keeps skin and pores in a cleanly condition, the complexion beautifully white and spotless. Discarded, freckled and rough-skinned cuticle are actually absorbed by it. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drugstore, is sufficient to completely renovate a soiled complexion. It is used like cold cream, allowed to remain on over night, and washed off in the morning.

As the skin tends to expand in warm weather, causing wrinkles to form, a good astringent lotion should be used. Dissolve 1 oz. powdered salicylic in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Bathe the face in this during the heat of the day or before going out for theatre or social affairs. It is a remarkable skin tightener and wrinkle eraser.

ITALIANS FAULT AUSTRIANS FOR THEIR MAIN THE TR

When the firemen arrived it was impossible to get near the blaze as it was under the shed, and the doors were locked. All the apparatus was called out and the fire was fought from Mill street, Smythe street and Pond street. One stream, which was very effective, was worked from a scow in York Point slip. The scow was allowed to swing out in mid-stream, three men went out on it and probably saved the shed on the Star wharf from catching. There was very little wind blowing, or otherwise there would have been a different story to tell, and it would have hardly been possible to confine the fire to the one building. This is the second time this shed has been on fire. About five years ago a fire was discovered in about the same place as this one.

Why He Was Late.
Dr. Philip Cox has good cause to feel aggrieved at the dual system of time prevailing in some St. John hotels. He was due at the Teachers' Institute yesterday afternoon to read a paper, but as his watch was set according to Atlantic Standard time, and the hotel clock on the same system, while the teachers' meetings were conducted on daylight time, he was one hour late. When he arrived at the High School he found that the teachers, after waiting an hour for him, had just adjourned their session.

THE BIBLE

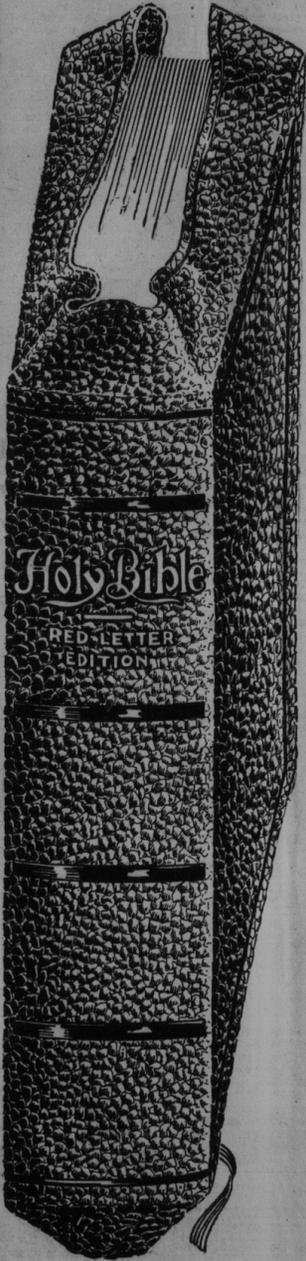

A nation-wide newspaper revival of Bible reading is now going on all over this country, regardless of sect, creed or faith. A universal reading of the Bible is bound to make for better citizenship, is bound to make for a plainer, stronger simpler, honest speech in daily life, and a higher standard of ethics in the dealings of men. A return to Bible reading in these stressful times of world disturbance is needed as never before in our history and is bound to add to the moral and mental equipoise of this entire nation.

BIG PRINT RED LETTER BIBLE

All the Words and Sayings of Christ Printed in Red

This Book of Books

This Bible—this miraculous Book of All Books—luminous with the light that dwelleth not on land or sea—this noblest and most beautiful Thing in all the world—what is it—whence cometh it—what means it?

It has made and unmade Nations. It has uprooted Kingdoms and Empires. It has diverted the mighty tides of History. It has crumpled ancient Faiths and Superstitions. Because of it fell Pagan Rome. The antique Systems of India and the Far East have bowed their heads to its enlightened sway.

Only ignorance scoffs at the Bible! The greatest rulers—the greatest statesmen—the greatest scholars—writers—orators—scientists—soldiers—and the untold millions of the Common People, whose collective genius outweighs them all—have thrilled to its Divine Wisdom.

China and the Orient now first awoken from their sleep of thrice a thousand years, and follow their sister nations of the Occident—whose feet are guided by one sole lamp—the sacred flame of which was kindled by the inspired Hebrew Prophets, and fed for all time by the Lord and Master of the Golden Rule.

Its lyrics of unfathomable tenderness—its orations of compelling potency—its contemplative prose of preter-natural grandeur—have never been equalled. Its emotional depths and its intellectual heights make it the one and only Book of Books, vouchsafed for the guidance of mankind throughout the ages.

A Column Which Is Supposed To Be Of Interest To Women

Herein are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

WOMEN'S WORK

DUCK COVE RED CROSS.

The Duck Cove Red Cross Circle, which was so successful last summer, was reorganized yesterday. The following ladies were chosen to fill the offices: President, Mrs. A. W. Adams; vice-president, Mrs. C. H. Ferguson; secretary, Miss Lily Kimball; assistant secretary, Mrs. Courtland Robinson; convenor of cutting out committee, Mrs. Daye; convenor of tea committee, Mrs. A. Morrison; convenor of hall committee, Mrs. George Ellis; music committee, Miss de Soyres; Miss Magee and Miss Ford.

Miss Mildred Murray, daughter of Mr. S. C. Murray of Albert, Albert Co. Miss Murray stood third in the list of prize winners in The Standard Travel Club with a total of 73,194 votes, and will be a member of the excursion trip to Alaska, leaving St. John on July 15th.

Pantry Sale.

A pantry sale was held yesterday afternoon in the store of Wm. Fox, Fairville. Mrs. H. M. Stout, Mrs. A. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. Merritt, Miss Ethel Wilson, Miss R. Peterson, Miss O'Brien, Miss B. McColgan and Miss G. Cole were in charge. The proceeds of the sale will go to Miss Deinstadt, at Arc-en-Barrois Hospital.

Toys for Christmas Sale.

The Women's Canadian Club have decided to open in November "a little shop" for the exhibition and sale of goods and toys similar to those shown during the past three days at the Soldiers' Club. The idea is to further encourage the very decided interest and skill shown in many of the articles exhibited and to develop an infant industry in the province. The articles shown by the soldiers, which were made at the Pacific Convalescent Homes, can all be duplicated by the women whose work was unusually good. Arrangements have been made with Mr. H. Mont Jones for the display in his shop window on King street of these toys and for their sale.

DUTY.

Duty makes us do things we don't want to do, but it makes us do them beautifully. —Phillips Brooks.

New Collar Line.

The lamphade collar is just what it sounds like—a round, plated arrangement exactly like a lamphade, and laid across the front and back of the bodice in a new line. The shoulders are partly bare, and framed in a high, upstanding ruche of silk or organdie, and very becoming to some types of women. A ruffling below the band which surrounds the top of the blouse corresponds to the one over the shoulders.

Women's Parade in Toronto.

The women in Toronto are today parading to express their patriotism and willingness to help the Empire in any way. A number of the prominent organizations of women have promised to take part, having floats, symbolic or showing the practical work of the clubs. The Daughters of the Empire, Women's Canadian Club, Women's Patriotic League, the Teachers, Nurses, Girl Guides, the Secours National, the Belgian Relief, the Ladies' National Guild for Sailors, the Women's Conservative and Liberal Clubs, the women of the labor unions, the Red Cross and Blue Cross, and many more are planning their part in the parade. The two girls who have undertaken to drive a Red Cross ambulance will also be in it. There will be a "munition" float, showing what women have done in that work and many other floats. Flags and maple leaves will be the fitting emblems of Dominion Day, to be carried or worn or used in decoration. Wives, mothers and daughters of soldiers will also walk in the procession.

SATURDAY'S POEM.

Growing Old. A little more tired at close of day; A little less anxious to have our way; A little less ready to scold and blame; A little more care for a brother's name; And so we are nearing the journey's end, Where time and eternity meet and blend.

A little less care for bonds and gold; A little more rest in the days of old; A broader view and a saner mind; And a little more love for all mankind; A little more careful of what we say; And so we are faring a-down the way.

A little more leisure to sit and dream; A little more real the things unseen; A little bit nearer to those ahead; With visions of those long-lived and dead; And so we are going where all must go.

To the place the living may never know; A little more laughter, a few more tears; And we shall have told our increasing years; The book is closed and the prayers are said; And we are a part of the countless dead; Thrice happy, then, if some soul can say, "I live because she has passed my way." —Selected.

This is rather an ideal age, and a frame of mind that younger people might well strive to attain. It is the attitude which William Cullen described in the familiar lines beginning "So live that when thy summons come," "As one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

The deep cape collar gives the "different look" to this summer frock.

Advices The Use of "FRUITATIVES," The Famous Fruit Medicine.

MR. ROSENBERG, 588 Casimir St., Montreal, April 29th, 1915.

In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as "Fruitatives." I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, Music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis, with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try "Fruitatives," and now for six months I have been entirely well.

I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try "Fruitatives," and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage—Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

IMPERIAL.

Dollars and The Woman was dramatized from the story "Dollars and Cents," by the well-known writer of much magazine fiction, Albert Payson Terhune. It tells the story of a young married couple, (played by Ethel Clayton and Tom Moore), their fall from wealth to poverty, while the young husband, Dan Hilver has an invention which is worth a fortune if he can only get it accepted by some large concern. The wife, "Madge," in desperation appeals to an old friend, Arthur Crewe (Crawford Kent) who aids her, and then the plot is well started. The picture goes to prove that there is such a thing as disinterested friendship in the world, also that in plays from "Othello" down to modern movies, husbands are ready to believe evil of their wives on the slightest provocation, while in real life you would hardly believe of a stranger even much slighter fallings. The acting throughout is splendid, and many of the parts wonderfully emotional, particularly one hospital scene and her climax. One pretty little bit at the first shows "Love making in the Park," with Ethel Clayton on most friendly terms with the squirrels and pigeons. His Lordship the Baby plays his part in a very natural manner, and was applauded by the afternoon audience. The family reunion has a very pretty touch.

Ward and Harold Holland.

The photography is under the chief supervision of Homer Scott, who is responsible for many of the beautiful effects displayed in recent productions. "Faust" to be filmed. With the final scenes of Beatrice Michelena in "The Woman Who Dared" completed, announcement is made by the California Motion Picture Corporation that it now has in preparation a pretentious adaptation from the opera "Faust" and that Miss Michelena is playing the role of Marguerite, says Motography. It has frequently been intimated that Beatrice Michelena contemplated this characterization for the screen, for it was known that when she came to pictures from the opera, where she was recognized as one of America's most celebrated prima donnas, she brought with her a decided longing to see "Faust" adequately done in film. The idea has stayed with her and grown in its details until the forthcoming production is to be the result. This adaptation by the "California" people should be a notable one and well in keeping with their present attempt toward something out of the ordinary in the picture-producing art. No role could be better suited to Miss Michelena's beauty and emotional powers as a screen actress than "Marguerite."

er classics, which she finished this winter in Florida, and which are easily the most elaborate ever attempted by the Thanhouser people. It so happens that Valyrin, who is based all over the locale in Norway where the "business" of the Ibsen drama is laid, and her director is finding her a valuable aid in securing the proper atmosphere and settings.—Motography.

Just to prove that it can be done, and all the fond "bogies" of film-lore be banished, in Lubin's "Dollar and the Woman" there is no villain, and not even a vampire woman; no one chokes the leading lady nor steals the baby; not even a bomb is planted, nor a safe cracked open with talcum powder, yet it is dramatically vivid and strong. Like spineless cactus, thrillless movies may become practical. At a dinner which she gave recently in honor of her fellow-player, Alice Joyce, Naomi Childers presented Miss Joyce with a twenty-pound box of fine candy. Statistics show that 70 Motion Picture theatres are named after the late John Barry; 22 claim Maurice Costello as their patron saint, and Mary Pickford has been the godmother of at least 50 more. And now comes Holbrook Blinn, who is having a theatre named after him right in the most expensive part of New York. ALICE FAIRWEATHER

Iron Claw.

The Vanishing Faber. "He comes and appears and goes away again," as the small boy behind me said, Margery learns to use a heliograph and it comes in very usefully. We think Davy really needs a rest, as he is looking very thin and positively peaked after these long months of strenuous rescuing. The excitement in these last chapters runs high, and an enthusiastic audience to see the hero and his villain and his dog, and the fox terrier proves an important personage in the cast. Margery's social activities are entertaining (no pun intended). It is worth the while to see the interest in this serial has kept up, and it speaks for the excellence of the scenario and the production. Miss Ball's playing delighted large audiences. Her programme has changed for the week-end.

Valyrin in Ibsen Play.

Valyrin, the Danish screen diva, who has been the Thanhouser star on the Mutual program for nearly a year, has begun work at the New Rochelle studios on a new Thanhouser classic entitled, "The Lady from the Sea," a five-act adaptation of Ibsen's famous drama by the same name. The difficult part of the female lead in this searching social drama was tendered Valyrin by Edwin Thanhouser in recognition of her splendid and illuminating performance in "Hidden Valley" and "The Image Maker of Thebes," the two great Thanhous-

FEATURE OF MOTION PICTURES.

There is an interesting article in the July issue of the Motion Picture Classic by Robert Gran entitled "Are Moving Pictures Getting Better?" He decides that they are. An argument that might be used in the discussion which has been raised in St. John by a recent paper read at the Provincial Teachers' Institute by Dr. Kierstead is: Take the farthest motion picture actress who almost undoubtedly is Mary Pickford. In all her plays there has never been a suggestion of anything the slightest bit objectionable and look what a crowd she attracts. Certainly that is a good sign of the times.

Dr. Kierstead's paper was broad and fair in many respects but there is the difficulty of deciding whether all pictures and plays shall be put down to the level of children's intelligence while moral lessons may be shown by the presentation of certain films for adults, or shall plays with only absolutely perfect human beings as actors be the rule, thus giving a false idea of life?

The public should, as Miss Eleanor Robinson so well expressed it, realize their responsibilities and praise, or protest. The managers of our theatres are answering for the public and honestly trying to please. They are only too willing to eliminate anything objectionable in film or vaudeville as has been proved.

Another Goodrich Subject For Morocco.

Closely following the release of "The Making of Maddalena" on the Paramount program, the Oliver Morocco Photoplay Company announces that Edna Goodrich, who portrays the chief role in that photoplay, has commenced work on her second vehicle under his banner, "Body or Soul," stirring dramatic subject by L. V. Johnson is the title of the new Goodrich photoplay on which activities have already been started under the direction of William D. Taylor. Several sets are now being built for "Body or Soul" which the producers promise will even outdo any of their own previous records. Among the most elaborate sets now being erected for the new Goodrich production is an outdoor theatre which necessitates considering the fact that it will be used in only one scene. The structure is being built in the private garden of a well-known multi-millionaire in Pasadena under the personal supervision of William D. Taylor. The stage is to be a duplicate of the type used in the Roman period on which several hundred rarely bedecked actors will appear in an immense section. It is readily anticipated that in "Body or Soul," the star will more than duplicate her success in her first Morocco-Paramount film. Supporting the star is a typical Morocco cast, including such talented players as Juan de la Cruz, Kathleen Kirkham, Herbert Standing, Lucille

THE MOTION PICTURE PRESENT

Interesting Paper on "The Use and Abuse of Motion Pictures" Prepared by Prof. Keirstead and read at yesterday morning's session of the Educational Institute.

The subject as presented for our consideration implies in itself an interpretation of the function of the motion picture. They have a use and a misuse, that is its implication. Many parents will not receive universal endorsement as there are some who deny them any real use, and others who are unwilling to admit any misuse. The little boy said "that plus had saved thousands of lives by people not allowing them," and some people think the only good service that can ever come from the movies is by people keeping away from them. They regard motion pictures as their right and inalienable property, and that they appeal to us in only an indirect evidence of our human depravity. On the other hand there are those who act as if there were no danger in the moving pictures. Many parents allow their children to attend any picture show that they desire, and have no sense of responsibility in the matter. Many of the large film manufacturers object to any censorship on the ground that motion pictures do not need censoring. The opposition of these great corporations to the educational bill recently before the United States Congress was based on the right to judge for himself and not the entering wedge of the State domination that should logically include the muzzling of the Press, the censoring of all books and of all stage performances.

THE MOVIE, THE PICTURE, THE LIFE OF GREAT TEST PRESENTENCES FOR GOOD OR EVIL

Interesting Paper on "The Use and Abuse of The Movies", Prepared and Read by Prof. Keirstead of the University of New Brunswick—Feature of Yesterday Morning's Session of Teachers' Institute.

The following paper on "The Use and Abuse of Motion Pictures" was prepared by Prof. Keirstead and read at yesterday morning's session of the Educational Institute.

The subject as presented for our consideration implies in itself an interpretation of the function of the motion picture. It is not a question of whether it will receive universal endorsement as there are some who will deny them any real use, and others who are unwilling to admit any misuse. The little boy said "that pins had saved thousands of lives by people not allowing them," and some people think the only good service that can ever come from the movies is by people keeping away from them. They regard motion pictures as thoroughly and irredeemably bad, and that they appeal to us in only a depraved evidence of our human depravity.

On the other hand there are those who act as if there were no dangers in the moving pictures. Many parents allow their children to attend any picture show that they desire, and have no sense of responsibility in the matter. Many of the large film manufacturers object to any censorship on the ground that motion pictures do not need censoring. The opposition of these great corporations to the educational bill recently before the United States Congress was based on the ground that there was no need of censorship, since the financial interests of the manufacture would guarantee the production of good films. Further, censorship was a violation of the liberty of the individual, robbing him of the right to judge for himself and it was the entering wedge of the State domination that should logically include the muzzling of the Press, the censoring of all books and of all stage performances.

cover these subjects: agriculture, art, biography, geography, physical, general industry, history, home economy, music, literature, including sacred literature, science and nature study, travel, welfare and sociological subjects. It might perhaps be well if several Provinces unite in securing some series of moving pictures to be shown after the manner of Wisconsin and use them in our important High Schools. At the same time it may perhaps be just as well to allow the moving picture to remain in the ordinary theatres and to co-operate with them in securing the better classes of films. A great many of the large manufacturing companies are making special efforts to secure pictures suitable for children and also those of an educational character. The president of the Universal Film Co. writes me as follows:—

"We have installed an educational department which is in charge of Mr. George Serew. The specific purpose of this department is to classify, catalogue and render available for immediate use the subjects suitable for educational, instructional and sociological purposes which the company has realized in the past. They are now in negative form and are stored in our eastern vaults. We are in a position to give immediate service through our exchanges to the projectors of children's performances and in a short time expect to have a supplementary service for schools, colleges, churches and institutions which have standard service machines etc. Our company is embarking upon an ambitious project of providing extraordinary travel films on its regular program. We have spent a quarter of a million for the exclusive rights."

Other companies are doing similar work and already have considerable films of an educational character.

It would seem as if the educational interests in this province could be better served by educationalists co-operating to secure a higher class of films for the ordinary theatres than by any effort to introduce the motion pictures into the school-room. If in this way we could secure films especially suited for children, and those in harmony with the work of our schools we could make the present theatres supplement in a degree, at least, the instruction of the schools and perform in addition a higher service to the community.

But recognizing the useful function that motion pictures can perform, we must at the same time face the fact that they can be, and unfortunately are, seriously misused.

The remarkable advance of movies, I doubt if, on the whole, is more than a human face was seen in the motion picture theatres are not doing more harm than good, and there is grave need of an enlightened public sentiment that will demand the elimination of objectionable material. We will co-operate to secure the right quality of films. The magnitude of the industry urges this action. It was only in 1889 that the first photograph of a human face was seen in the motion picture, and today the movie has penetrated every part of the known world. It is the fifth industry in the United States, with a yearly income in that country of over $300,000,000, and a daily attendance of from five to twelve millions. The National Board of Censors claims that one seventh of the people of New York city, and one-sixth of the people of the neighboring Republic, then, too, the movie appeals to all classes of the population, and calls out all ages. One-half million school children in the city of New York attend daily and the National Censors estimate that fifteen per cent of those attending are children (that is 12 years of age or under), and when there are added to these the youths in the most impressionable age of life, we get the percentage of immature as high as thirty-five.

The nature of the motion picture is such as to account for its popularity and influence. It shows living beings in action; a presentation that rivets attention, arouses emotions, and has an intensely and reality that things read about can never get. The little boy reads the story of Robinson Crusoe with enjoyment, but throw upon the screen the story of Crusoe's fight with the savages and its realism is shocking and overpowering. This is the reason that censorship is demanded in one case rather than in the other.

In most cases the action of the persons are of the most exciting character, and call out the elemental im-

WHY?

Frank B. Carvell, Member of Parliament for the County of Carleton, N. B., and George W. Kite, Member of Parliament for the County of Richmond, N. S., have made serious allegations against a responsible minister of the Canadian Government and responsible Canadian officials.

These allegations and comments upon them by the men named and the Liberal press have had the effect of defaming Canada and of arousing throughout the world a contempt and prejudice against this country.

Free and full investigation of the allegations made by Carvell and Kite has shown there was no corruption or dishonesty on the part of the Minister of the Canadian Government or the Canadian officials referred to.

Why should Frank B. Carvell, Member of Parliament for the County of Carleton, N. B., and George W. Kite, Member of Parliament for the County of Richmond, N. S., be permitted to remain in Canadian public life?

"THE MOVIES, THEIR USE AND ABUSE."

The Standard devotes considerable space this morning to the publication of the full text of a very excellent paper dealing with this subject, prepared by Dr. W. C. Keirstead of the University of New Brunswick, and read by him before the Teachers' Institute which closed yesterday. The subject is of very great general interest and worthy of serious thought, for the wonderful development and progress of the motion picture from the first crude efforts to present photographs of moving objects, to the beautiful and, for the most part, highly artistic masterpieces presented daily to millions of people, make it a force in the life of every community that it would be folly to deny or underestimate. How best to use this force for the benefit of the community and the race has been given consideration by hundreds of thoughtful men and women and they have reached very different conclusions.

It must be admitted that the state has the same right to control and regulate the motion picture that it enjoys in connection with any other form of public amusement—no more and no less. It is no more wise to say that the producers and exhibitors of pictures should be permitted to have free rein in the subjects they offer for the entertainment of the public, than that promoters of the spoken drama should be allowed to produce any play offered to them that they believe might prove commercially profitable. In exercise of this right the state has appointed censors to view and pass upon the subjects offered for exhibition on the motion picture screen, and those censors are responsible for the class of pictures presented. But the position of the censors should not be misunderstood or their powers over-estimated. They can keep out immoral or bad pictures but they cannot furnish good ones and the material finding its way before them in the first instance is merely what has been produced for consumption elsewhere and has already passed before other boards of review.

Some producers of motion pictures object to censorship claiming that, after all, the public are the best and most competent judges, and will not patronize or make commercially profitable pictures which are immoral or unfit for public gaze, but the majority of the producers favor a reasonable state control of their product. It has been said: "Why have picture censors, when the spoken drama is not obviously censored?" The answer is generally, first, no manager of a reputable theatrical company would permit characters in his productions to speak lines that would give offence to his patrons. If he did the success of his productions would be very brief. The picture is more subtle than the spoken drama, for immorality, or indecency, can be suggested by the photographed reproduction of an action or scene, staged in the comparative privacy of a producing studio thousands of miles from the field of exhibition. Again, the picture theatre has reached a stage of development never dreamed of in the fondest imaginations of the promoters of the older amusement attractions, the low price of admission has opened this field as a regular weekly, semi-weekly or even daily amusement to hundreds of thousands to whom the ordinary theatrical performance was a luxury of comparative rarity. A very large proportion of the patrons of picture theatres are children, and he would indeed be bold who would say that the usual child should be permitted to select its own amusements any more than its own books or the articles of food it best likes. Pictures are produced, passed by the censors, and exhibited which would not be considered fit food for a child's eye or mind. This is admitted, but, in itself, is no reason why all pictures should be brought to the child's level. A father or mother who would not permit his or her child to read the writings of some of the greatest masters of English, can nevertheless get much enjoyment, and mental stimulus from perusal of those same works. So with the picture, what might be absolutely unfit and dangerous for a child patron would be suitable and enjoyable for adult audiences, but any statement that the average motion picture is unfit for exhibition is no more correct than to say that the average book is unfit to read. At the same time it is wisely recognized that so long as children are permitted to attend picture theatres indiscriminately, just so long must there be a rigid regulation of the programmes offered.

Prof. Keirstead's suggestion that there should be a Federal censorship is a good one, but it is doubtful if it will give perfect satisfaction. The New Brunswick Board of Censors has rejected pictures that have been passed in Ontario, Quebec, and other provinces, and have passed pictures which have not been judged suitable for exhibition in these centres; so, after all, it is largely a matter of individual judgment and local conditions. In this province the public is fortunate in that the class of pictures shown is distinctly good. Possibly some are not suitable for children, but this cannot be remedied until arrangements are made whereby children and adults are offered programmes suited to their individual requirements and tastes.

Some provision such as this is the logical development of state regulation of the motion picture. When it comes there need no longer be complaint that the pictures shown are unfit for children, but to say that all pictures should be censored down to the level of the child would be just as foolish as to claim that juvenile fiction alone should occupy the shelves of our public libraries. Properly handled and regulated, the motion picture theatre is distinctly an influence for good. The little evil there is in it can easily be regulated.

CANADA FIGHTS AS A NATION.

There was a mighty outcry against Sir Sam Hughes in the Liberal press because of the latter having written a letter to the late Lord Kitchener bearing upon the expediency of holding the Ypres salient. Sir Sam had intended taking the matter up with the British Secretary of War, when he was called home from England to answer the Kite charges. Nothing further came of it, and the Canadians have held on, with recent losses, it is now estimated, of 12,000 men. There has since come information from the British Government that the salient is deemed to be essential ground. Whether the Canadian minister's opinions would have had weight, had he personally presented them, no one now may say. But this much is sure: That Canada had a right to speak through her minister, and that those Canadians who tell us that "Hughes was trying to tell Kitchener how to run the war" are mistaken in their view of Sir Sam's attitude.

Now comes the Manitoba Free Press (Liberal) with the statement that Canada is not being recognized at the battle front as she ought to be! Says The Free Press: "Canada, we cannot but think, would have done better for herself and for the cause of the Allies if from the very beginning she had gone into this war as a principal, not as an assistant; as a nation, not as a colony."

Our Western contemporary likens Canada in size to Serbia, Belgium and Bulgaria, and asks why we should not have been able to play our part as independently as these nations. We think that The Manitoba Free Press is wasting a lot of valuable space with its pretense that Canada has not had that prominence in the conduct of the war that belongs to her. We have quoted its reference here in order merely to show how absolutely impossible it is to satisfy the anti-Hughes critics in Canada. One minute they are crying out that Sir Sam is "telling Kitchener how to run the war;" the next instant they seem to want agricultural Canada to be immediately as self-sufficient as Belgium, as Belgium, Bulgaria and Serbia had required even centuries to become. The nonsense of this is self-evident. Canada is content to play her part at the side of the motherland, and in close union with the sister nations within the empire.

Moreover, Canada did go into this war as a nation, and not as a colony. We have been absolutely free agents throughout. We are free agents today. Were it thinkable, Canada could withdraw from the war tomorrow, it is time that Canadians get closer together. To find a great Canadian newspaper like The Winnipeg Free Press raising the issue of our independence in this war is most discouraging.

THE GREATEST OFFER EVER MADE BY THIS N.W. PAPER TO ITS READERS

The Most Remarkable Bible Offer in History

The Most Remarkable Bible Offer in History. A very striking announcement appears in the advertising columns of this paper today, offering to its readers the famous Big Print Red Letter Edition of the Bible, bound in limp leather, with silk marker, and containing many pages of helps, maps, beautiful illustrations in colors and halftones reproduced from photographs, and informative maps of Bible lands, also in colors. The special feature, however, is the printing of all the words and sayings of Christ in red, so that the eye is attracted over the pages in search of the Master's own words, can find at once the quotation it is in search of. The usual price of Bibles of the character described is from three to four dollars—so that this paper's offering is practically in the nature of a gift—it asking only a small distribution expense in addition to the cost. Nor could this be effected without the active co-operation of hundreds of donors throughout the United States and Canada, which are engaged just now in the worthy purpose of distributing the Red Letter Edition of the Bible among the great masses of the people. We urge every one of our readers to avail themselves of a very unusual opportunity, and to clip the coupons which will appear daily in this paper, until further notice.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? One of the most ardent supporters of the Griffen is a woman and toward the end of last season when the Senators were out of the race she showed her loyalty to the team by naming a kitten after the nine regulars. She took the first two letters in the names of Moeller, Milan, Shanks, Foster, MacBride, Morgan, Gandil, Johnson and Almsmith and made a name—out of it.

ONE OF THE NEW SERIES OVERLAND MODEL 75B TAKES BUCKHORN MOUNTAIN ON HIGH. Another demonstration of the power of the modern light weight cars took place near Altoona, Pa., several days ago when one of the New Series 75B Overlands went up Buckhorn Mountain, one of the highest elevations in Pennsylvania, on high gear. This is a feat that has stumped many six-cylinder cars in the past. Naturally, this accomplishment has given the light, economical 75B greater prestige than ever in the eyes of the automobile world. Buckhorn Mountain, just outside of Altoona, Pa., is a long, seven-mile hill full of steep grades, that reaches a height of 2,850 feet. A number of six-cylinder motor car manufacturers use it as the experimental grounds for their products.

To thoroughly test out the New Series Model 75B, just received from the factory, J. L. Bender, Overland dealer at Altoona, decided to put one through its paces up Buckhorn Mountain. As the accompanying photographs show the feat was a light task, but the New Series Model 75B came through with flying colors, doing the entire seven miles up hill and down dale at an average of twenty-five miles an hour.

This demonstration of the power of the new 75B's motor is entirely in keeping with the reports being received from all over the country. Almost simultaneously with the report of the climb up Buckhorn Mountain came word that a similar feat up Lookout Mountain near Chattanooga, Tenn., had been accomplished. Up in Maine, a New Series Overland 75B passed over a road that had not been in use for forty years without a scratch or mar. A match salesman in Texas reported crossing "Big Sandy," a five-mile desert of sand between Red Rock and Rosanky, Texas, in a New Series Model 75B without the aid of mules, a stunt that has rarely been accomplished.

With such reports from dealers and owners, The Willys-Overland Company has reason to feel confident that in this new model it has a car that should prove the most popular design it has ever placed on the automobile market.

ROW IN BOSTON-WASHINGTON SAME, RED SOX CATCHER ARRESTED

Scrap Between Washington Captain and Boston Pitcher Nearly Led to a Free Fight.

Washington, June 30.—A row between Captain McBride, of the Washington team, and Mays, the Boston pitcher, precipitated a clash in the third inning of today's game here that threatened for a time to develop into a general fight among the players of the two clubs. The police restored order and after Agnew, a Boston catcher, had been arrested and Captain McBride and Manager Griffith of the Washington's put off the field, the game was resumed and Boston won, 4 to 1. The score: Boston 010000104—6 8 1

SHAMROCKS WON EASY GAME FROM THE ROSES

Last Evening's Contest in St. Peter's League Called in Sixth Inning.

The Shamrocks had an easy time with the Roses last night on St. Peter's grounds, defeating them by a score of 3 to 2. Owing to the shower and threatening weather the game was called in the sixth. At no time during the game were the Roses at all dangerous.
Joffy Harrington was swatted for for ten hits, Elliott and Howard trimming him for two baggers.
Elliott was on the slab for the Shamrocks and only allowed one hit, McGarrigle doing the trick. Elliott certainly showed great class in the box, and to him was due to a large extent last night's victory.
A one hit game in the St. Peter's league is a big honor for any pitcher to have, on account of the difficult work fielding. Likewise at bat Elliot surpassed all his team mates, coming through with three hits out of three times up.
Notwith standing that the Shamrocks won they are credited with the largest number of errors.
Murphy made two bad boots last night, something unusual for the snappy first baseman of the Shamrocks. However, he redeemed himself to a certain extent in the eyes of the fans by his base stealing and run getting, crossing the plate three times.

STEEL ISSUES WERE AGAIN LEADERS

Favorable Conditions of the Past Few Days are Expected to Prevail for Some Time.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, Que., June 30.—Another session of strength in prices during which some additional rallies were recorded prevailed in the stock market today. On the eve of the holiday the tendency of traders was to hold back, but the greatly improved tone in Wall Street, and the advance in railway leaders, which included Canadian Pacific, led to a strong undertone.
Confidence, which was somewhat interrupted by the recent weak spell, received considerable reinforcing as the result of the action of the market during the past few days and many are looking for a continuance of present conditions unless some unforeseen event intervenes to unsettle things again. Steel issues were the leaders in both morning and afternoon sessions but were less active than yesterday.

No "New Models" in Mid-Season

THE Chandler Type 17 was a perfected car January 1st. It had back of it three years of refinement, three years of making good. There is no reason to change it or modify it or call it by some new name in mid-season.

Chandler Values are Permanent

The Chandler Type 17—thousands of them on the road today from coast to coast and giving the most satisfactory service—is distinctively the medium priced car of the year.

It's the car of a perfected motor, and the most beautiful body design. It is the car of greatest all around value and no marked up price. There is ample excuse for an advance in price, but it would not add to the value to increase the price.

We could not give more in this great car just by asking you to pay more.

King George's Navy CHEWING TOBACCO

Is Absolutely Good

It is made from leaf tobacco that has enough elasticity against the teeth to keep it together, instead of granulating in the mouth as most plug tobaccos do.

It has a delicious non-irritating, palate-ticking sweet taste—because medical authorities agree that the ordinary "strong", unsweetened plugs are injurious.

It is not affected by artificial heat or old age—does not get hard—because it is protected by a highly glossed tobacco leaf envelope.

BEDTIME STORIES FOR THE CHILDREN

Uncle Wiggly and Susie's Earrings. BY HOWARD R. GARIS.

Uncle Wiggly Longears, the nice old gentleman rabbit, was hopping along through the woods one day when he heard a sad little voice saying: "Oh, dear! Ouch! How it hurts! Oh, it feels like a burn!"

Riddles

In Amsterdam, it's common, and Holland wants it still. It is every mountain but not in any hill. It is all sorts of metal, but not in land or sea, it is in all sorts of timber, but not in any tree.

MY NIECE'S WEEKLY RECIPE. Maple Fudge. Two cups granulated sugar, one cup brown sugar, one cup milk, small piece of butter, mix all together and cook until it will form a soft ball.

Something for Boys to do. By Uncle Dick.

In the Children's Corner recently there has often been mention made of what girls are doing, in the way of the Allies Aid, the Red Cross, the League, etc., and also what they might do, such as making cakes, and fudge from the recipes which have been given.

When Rubbing Out Marks.

When you are taking a mark off a piece of paper, with an eraser, the paper is apt to rack up badly leaving some unsightly creases.

Around the City

Charged With Assault. Stanley Mavor was given in charge by William Moore yesterday for assaulting him in his house on City Road.

Building Permits for June. Building permits for the month of June total $26,250 as compared with $27,000 for the corresponding month last year. The total for the six months of this year is $301,950 as compared with $169,950 for the same period of 1915.

Civic Work at Lancaster. A start has been made by the water and sewerage department on the work of laying a main about 500 feet long through what is known as Carleton Place, Lancaster. A sewer will be laid at the same time by the owners of the property.

Is a Prisoner of War. It has been definitely settled that Capt. Morris Scovill is a prisoner of war, a friend of his in England having received a postal card from him containing words "Safe, a prisoner." His many friends will be glad to know that the report of his capture was unfounded.

The Special Companies' Tax. Arthur W. Sharp, who is in charge of the collection of the Special Companies' Tax, has received word that the time for making returns to Ottawa under this act has been extended to July 15th. The date previously set was July 1st. Mr. Sharp has now visited all parts of the province except Charlotte county, and is getting well along with his work.

St. John's Trans-Atlantic Trade. The trans-Atlantic trade of the port of St. John continues to show a gratifying increase, the number of sailings for June of this year being about 20 per cent. greater than last year. Sixteen ocean steamers sailed from the port last June, and this year the number was nineteen. Prospects are bright for the coming month and the summer season is expected to be considerably better than last year.

Died of His Wounds. Sergt. Harold G. Raymond, who was wounded and admitted to No. 19 Stationary Hospital, at Bologna, died of his wounds on June 28, was well known in the city having been a member of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce here. A brother, Corp. Ralph B. Raymond, is at present time in an English hospital suffering from wounds received in France. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond of Norton have the sympathy of the citizens of St. John in their bereavement.

A Fine Floral Showing. A great deal of attention is being directed these days to the display of flowers arranged on the first floor window of the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Co., King street. Walter Stewart, sales manager, had the idea that he could brighten up the premises by trying some such stunt as this and had one of the members of his staff make boxes which were filled by a local florist. The improvement thus made in the Consolidated Building might well be copied by other business houses along King street and elsewhere.

The Holiday. Fine weather alone is required to make the observance of Dominion Day today a great success. There is so lack of attractions. For those who wish to remain in or near the city the War-Sports on the Barrack Square, the picnic at Seaside Park and the horse races at Moosepass offer varied enjoyment, while the theatres will, of course, be prepared to offer choice bills for their holiday patrons. The St. John Power Boat Club excursion to Belses's will doubtless afford a popular outing for club members, while all the river and lake resorts will receive their due share of patrons. With Sunday following the holiday it is expected a particularly large number of people will go out of town.

TEACHERS CLOSE SESSION AND TOUR ST. JOHN BY STREET CARS

Educational Institute, Which Ended Yesterday, Voted One of Most Successful Ever Held—Text Book Committee Appointed—Resolution on Death of Principal Crockett

One of the most successful of the 28 Teachers' Institutes held in the Province of New Brunswick was brought to a close yesterday afternoon. The morning session of the third day of the Teachers' Institute was devoted to papers by Dr. W. C. Keirstead and A. M. Belding and the election of the executive committee, and a representative to the Senate of the U. N. B. At the afternoon session the result of the balloting for the text book committee was announced. The resolution committee brought in their report, and Dr. H. Y. Bridges introduced a resolution of appreciation of the services of the late Dr. Crockett in the educational life of New Brunswick. Owing to some misunderstanding the paper which was to have been presented by Dr. Philip Cox on "The Public Schools in Relation to the Mineral Resources of Canada," was not read as Dr. Cox had not arrived at the hall at three o'clock. At 2:30 the Institute was called to order by the chairman, Dr. Carter, the hall being filled with teachers. The first paper was that of Dr. W. C. Keirstead, of the U. N. B., whose paper on "Use and Misuse of Motion Pictures," which will be found in full on another page of this issue, was listened to with great interest by the large audience present.

A. M. Belding, who discussed "Schools and Social Centres," brought to the notice of the teachers, with the expert judgment and skillful arrangement and treatment, a new problem in civic life. Mr. Belding illustrated his talk by facts gathered from centres in both Canada and the United States and aroused keen interest in his important work. Miss Edith Magee took exception to some of the things Mr. Belding said in his paper, and a rather spirited debate took place, and Miss Magee presented some good arguments for her side of the case. She does not favor social centres.

At the close of the addresses, the fifth session of the Institute was devoted to the election of an executive committee and to the choosing of a representative to the University Senate, with the following results: Executive, Dr. H. S. Bridges, H. H. Hagerman, W. J. S. Myles, Dr. C. B. Foster, Miss Ella Thorne, G. J. Oulton, Miss Bessie Wilson, W. M. Barker, Miss Stella Payson and G. J. Marr. Representative to the Senate of the U. N. B., Mr. J. Frank Owens, B. A., Principal of St. Patrick's Hall, West End, and graduate of the U. N. B. A. S. McParlane, the retiring representative to the U. N. B. Senate thought that the Institute should advise their representative in the Senate as to action to be taken in their interest, and contended that the term of office was not long enough for the best results.

Afternoon Session. At the afternoon session the first business taken up was the passing of the following resolution, introduced by Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, principal of the Normal School, Fredericton: Whereas it has pleased Divine Providence to remove from this life William Crockett, formerly president of this Institute, full of years and honor. Therefore resolved that this Institute place on record the high appreciation of Dr. Crockett's distinguished career in New Brunswick, both as teacher and administrator, in the cause of education, and also the deep regret felt by all interested in the work of teaching and instruction at the ending of a career which has influenced for good perhaps more than any other in the province.

N.B. TAKING POLICE RAID MORE THAN IT CONTRIBUTES "DOPE" JOINT

Executive of the Patriotic Fund in Session Yesterday—No Action on Question of Raising More Money.

A meeting of the executive of the Patriotic Fund was held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms. Matters of routine were talked over and the question of more money for the fund was discussed, but nothing definite along that line was done.

One county in the province was mentioned as drawing over $500 per month from the fund and all they had contributed was $2,000. E. A. Schofield said that money from Kings county would soon be coming in now as they had sold the bonds issued for the contribution to the Patriotic Fund and would have the money shortly.

A letter was read from H. B. Ames in regard to the fund and calling attention to the fact that New Brunswick was taking out more than it paid in. While admitting that the province was taking more than it had paid in, Mr. Allan said that the amount was not as large as claimed by Mr. Ames.

While the wagon was coming down King street the front axle suddenly snapped and the wagon tumbled over toward the north side of the street.

She practically never regained consciousness after the accident. She was a daughter of Rev. J. W. Currie and was very popular with the younger members of the community in which she lived.
