CUBAN REBELS DEFEATED IN SEVERE ENGAGEMENT

Lost Seventeen Killed and Many Wounded--Victors Had One Casualty

Government Issues Amnesty Order to Those Bearing Arms Against Them--Revolutionary Leader Declares He Will Never Surrender Till Last Election is Annulled--Has Plenty of Supplies But No Money.

Havana, Aug. 27--At the moment today when the government was issuing its proclamation offering pardon to rebels who would lay down their arms, its forces were dealing the most telling blow that has yet been struck against insurgents in the field. For several days it has been stated that General Guzman's force of insurgents, which was variously estimated at from 200 upwards, contemplated an attack on Centurion. Colonel Valle, with a detachment of rural guards and volunteers, was detached to Centurion for the purpose of engaging Guzman and breaking up the bands. The encounter of the two forces today resulted in the worst disaster which the insurgents have sustained up to this time. They lost 17 men killed and many wounded, while the loss to the government force was one man killed.

Offer of Amnesty. The government's offer of amnesty which was issued this afternoon is variously received. It is impossible to say what its effect will be upon those to whom it is addressed. Alfredo Zayas, president of the senate and leader of the Liberal party, stated tonight that, in his opinion as a lawyer, Secretary Montalvo could not legally issue such an order, for the constitution provides that only the president may make such a proclamation which must be countersigned by some member of the cabinet.

CZAR BIDS FOR PEASANTS' SUPPORT

Issues Ukase Granting Them 4,500,000 Acres of Land--Terrorists Still Active.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27--The distribution of crown appanages, the first part of the administration's Agrarian programme by which it is hoped to win the peasantry to the support of the government at the coming elections, was put in effect today, when an ukase was published transferring the 4,500,000 acres of appanage lands mentioned in the Associated Press despatches Aug. 23, to the Peasant's Bank, for distribution to the peasants. The urgency of the situation is such that the ukase which was signed the day of the attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin, is being distributed and waiting for final decision as to the method and terms of payment. The principal question, whether the payment shall extend over 33 or 60 years, has not yet been decided. The announcement on this point and of the transfer of 10,000,000 acres of crown lands will be made later.

AMOR FOR DICTATOR AGAIN

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27--The open campaign against the government which the social revolutionists inaugurated with the attempt to kill Premier Stolypin Saturday and the assassination of General Mikhlin yesterday, has produced such feeling of resentment that Petrof, that the spirit of a dictatorship has been revived. The government, it is said, can only rely on force to fight the terrorists, as the morning press, in spite of the killing of a score of innocent persons, remains coldly indifferent. Indeed, while expressing formal words of condolence, the hidden satisfaction at the fact that the object of the campaign is to strike terror into the heart of the government is hardly concealed. Only the Novoye Vremya and the Official Messenger denounce the terrorists as enemies of society.

Several opposition members and others met the leader here, and the by-elections were talked over. An effort is being made to induce Major Hugh Clark, M. L. A., of Centre Bruce, to resign and contest the federal seat of North York.

DEATH OF WIFE HAS UNNERVED LAWSON

Rumors Afloat That Financier May Never Be Able to Return to Desk

BODY STILL UNBURIED

Casket Lies in Cottage on Scituate Estate, Waiting Tomb's Completion--Watches Beside Remains Both Night and Day.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 27--The Herald today says: That Thomas W. Lawson is in a state of mental and physical collapse in consequence of his wife's recent death, supported by details of the extravagant forms in which his grief has been manifested, and given verisimilitude by his prolonged absence from his office and abstention from all business, is the story that has been quietly whispered about State street during the past two weeks, and has gained wide credence, many of those who have been in contact with him in his manifold financial activities having reached the conviction that he will never again resume his former occupations and be the picturesque and striking figure he once was in the life of the street.

It had been supposed that Mr. Lawson would return to his office this morning. This expectation has been entertained for some days past. It is certain, however, that this expectation will be disappointed, for even his most sanguine friends admit that it will be at least a month or six weeks before he is able to take up the cares of business, and there will be some surprise among those who claim to be his friends when they learn that he is still in the cottage on Scituate estate, waiting for the completion of his tomb.

VICTIM IN COURT

(Special to The Telegraph.) Toronto, Aug. 27--Referring to Mr. Fielding's election and tariff revision the Toronto Star says: "As to the election trial, there is nothing to be said except that the law must take its course in the case of a minister exactly as it would in the case of a private member of parliament. As to the tariff, there is no such urgency as is represented. The people are not clamoring for tariff changes. ST. MARTINS.

St. Martins, N. B., Aug. 23—Rev. Mr. Bacon, of Monquash, held service here in Holy Trinity church on Tuesday evening, Aug. 21. His sermon was listened to with marked attention, and highly appreciated.

The church has been without a regular pastor since the Rev. A. E. Barham left for Ontario about a year ago.

It is understood that Mr. Bacon will assume charge some time in October.

The heavy shower of rain on Thursday morning was a great relief to those who were in dread of the forest fire which, for several days, had been raging in the vicinity of the village.

Many for the first time feared a repetition of May 30, 1900, when the forest fire, which has been very ill for the past six weeks, is through the skillful treatment of Dr. R. C. Ruddick, and the attention of her many kind friends, on the road to recovery.

Miss Mary Ann Welsh quite recently narrowly escaped being fatally poisoned by eating canned salmon.

Miss J. Villa Hodemsky has been very ill for the past four or five weeks, but she is also convalescing now under Dr. Ruddick's care, and her many friends entertain strong hopes of her early recovery.

It is reported that whooping cough is very prevalent in the eastern part of this parish.

On account of the very warm weather it is said that the schools in this village will not reopen until about Sept. 1. Miss Haines, very efficiently taught the intermediate department for the past two or three years, resigned at the end of term; her place will be filled next term by Miss Bertie Brown, of West Quaco.

COLLINS JAILED HERE; DENIES ALBERT MURDER

Articles Found in Valise Looked Upon by Police as Significant

Man Who is Held on Suspicion of Murdering Miss MacAulay in Albert County.

where rests the shadow of the blackest of crimes, and on the way to this city he even sang.

"He has a good voice," said Chief of Police Clarke, "and his songs were comic and otherwise."

The Contents of the Prisoner's Grip.

Beneath the rest of the chief's carriage in which the chief, Detective Killen, and the prisoner drove in, was the letter's valise which had been held at Councillor Deane's. Nothing of importance as evidence, it is understood, was found on Collins, but in his valise were articles to which the police attach some significance.

The goods include a new and clean razor, a number of ladies' handkerchiefs, a few suits of men's underwear at least two sizes too large for the suspect, and the cloth is all of excellent and fashionable material.

"It has been heard from yet," one would inquire of the other.

"Yes, the team was passing through Fairville twenty-five minutes ago, and it was late in the day, and a little after 12 o'clock."

"Time they were here, then?"

"Then the watches would be consulted, and glanced at towards King's square. One rarely heard the prisoner referred to as Collins or the suspect. It was always 'he' and 'everybody' even down to the newest looking six-year-old kid the significance of the gathering thong."

About 3:30 o'clock there was a sudden movement from the square toward the station building. Men hurried up the station steps and, turning about, looked anxiously toward the corner of the jail building.

The Arrival of Officers and Prisoner.

Small boys roved down the street, chattering and pointing. There was a common objective point, and that was an open carriage approaching from Sydney street. Sitting behind the single seat was Detective Killen and in front was Chief Clarke and a rough boyish looking stranger with a brown straw hat in his lap. He was leaning comfortably back and seemed to regard the somewhat informal reception as something not worth worrying over.

Pushed back on his head was a blue cap. Around his neck was a soiled and wrinkled muffler. The crowd parted, but soon closed again around the carriage.

There was but little talking, and if there was any excitement it was well suppressed. There was a long, long united gaze, but before Collins did not will. He waited until the chief had alighted, then he jumped briskly out, and in the escort of the deputy chief, disappeared within the station. As he ascended a slight hump was noticeable, and as he went on into the guard room the lameness was more pronounced.

"Sit down there," said Deputy Jenkins, pointing to the locker, and Collins did as ordered. He seemed thankful to be seated, and with quick glances took in practically every part of the room.

Collins is not a murderer suspect, according to the man whose name was Douglas Spinyee. He has a ruddy face, and a powerful wind. He sat, with one eye closed, and the other, composed and attentive.

No third party was admitted to the deputy chief's private office, but twice during the time they were together Collins was escorted to the court room upstairs, and he was held in the central police station at 3:40 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The photograph was taken once—once with the cap on and once with it off. As he stood up, just preparatory to descending the stairs, Chief Clarke, who had heard of his athletic prowess, and particularly of his ability as a wrestler, asked, with uplifted arms:

"Is this the way you put up the arms in the old country?"

Collins for a moment looked amused. He seemed flattered that some reference had been made to his skills.

"Oh, I know both ways," said he.

Says Housekeeper Censured Him.

It has been ascertained that what took place in the deputy chief's office is as follows: After being measured, he gave a story in detail of his movements at New Ireland from Thursday until the morning he left.

He said that on Aug. 9 he was twenty-one years of age and that he had been from the Fenians, in Liverpool (Eng.). He said that ever since his first meeting with Father MacAulay he had never had an opportunity to pass upon his merits as a man, but that he had been her custom, he said, to refuse him food until he had performed his duties to the best of his ability.

To Deputy Jenkins, Collins said that he had been on the Numidian, a ship of the Dominion, three years ago he was at that port as a sailor on the Numidian but he did not travel far from the ship.

BOMB WRECKS STOLYPIN'S HOUSE; THIRTY KILLED

Terrorist Hurlled Missile Amongst Notables Present at Reception

Russian Premier's Daughter Had Both Legs Broken But Father Escaped—Victims Blown to Atoms as Well as the Assassins—Force of Explosion Terrific—General Min Assassinated by Girl at Railway Station—Revolutionists Serve Notice That More Will Meet the Same Fate if Government Doesn't Change Its Policy.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—Thirty persons are dead and twenty-four wounded as a result of a dastardly attempt late last afternoon to assassinate Premier Stolypin with a bomb while he was holding a public reception at his country house on Artelskiy Island. The premier was slightly wounded in the face and neck by flying splinters.

Among the badly injured are the premier's fifteen-year-old daughter, who had both legs broken by the explosion and little hopes are entertained for her life; Gen. Zaretsky, the premier's personal secretary; M. Khvorostoff, former governor of the province of Penza; Colonel Fedoroff, chief of the premier's personal guard; Count Chamberlain Davidoff and Voronin and Aide Doubovoff, and four women and two children.

The wounded included M. Stolypin's three-year-old son, who is seriously though not fatally injured, and a number of persons prominent in the official and social world.

Of the four conspirators who engineered the outrage, two were killed with their hands, while a third, who acted as coachman for the party, and the fourth, who remained inside the carriage, were badly wounded and are now in the St. Peter and St. Paul fortress.

Whether the assassins who entered the crowded reception hall threw the bomb, or whether the bomb had been thrown from the entrance of the ante-room adjoining the reception room, during the course of which the terrorist disguised as a gentleman dropped a bomb, which exploded, destroying the ante-room, the adjoining guard room, part of the reception room, and also the balcony of the first floor. The premier was receiving visitors in a private room and was not injured.

The principal loss of life occurred in the ante-room. Altogether there were sixty victims.

Immediately after the outrage the long avenue of Lino Trees, in which the villa was situated, was blocked at both ends by cavalry.

When Stolypin accepted the premier's offer, he was conscious of his personal danger. One of his remarks at a recent interview was—

"I have no doubt that attempts will be made upon my life, but I hope that order will be restored and stability established in Russia before they are successful."

An Eye-Witness Story.

She looked over her shoulder.

"If I," she said, "were as unwavering in my duty as you I should call Jean back."

"I am indifferent," I answered. "I do not value my life enough to shrink from fighting for it."

"You are very young, Guy," she said, "and you talk like a very young man. You must go your own way."

"I do not understand you, Duaine," Lord Chelsoford said slowly.

"I am not a servant to be a faithful and valuable servant to your country, you know very well that your services are not likely to be forgotten. I want you only to be a student. I must know from whom you received this packet."

"I cannot tell you, sir," I answered. "It was a terribly dark night, and it is not easy to identify a hand. Besides, it was snatched away almost at once."

OUR CITY AND PROVINCE AS SEEN BY A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

being in one of the institutions of the United States, and later, for a long time, in a responsible position in Montreal. In view of the enterprise visible everywhere in St. John, at that visit I was somewhat surprised at the absence of several of the facilities now common in Scotland, England and the United States.

On this recent visit I was delighted to notice the improvement in several respects the work of decorating and rearranging as it progressed. Having had a long experience upon boards of managers of such institutions I can easily believe that with such intelligent superintendence and the continued cooperation of the government, these hospitals, whose sites are unparalleled, will in a few years become a powerful educational force in humanitarian work.

The River St. John, at certain points four or five miles wide, attempts here to make its way into the sea through a channel only 450 feet wide, and hemmed in by limestone cliffs 100 feet high.

The explanation of all these extraordinary phenomena is this: the tidal wave comes in from the ocean with a broad Part of Panama the tides rise nearly twenty-three feet, while thirty-seven miles distant, on the other coast of the isthmus, the ebb and flow are scarcely perceptible.

DISASTROUS STORM ON LAKE ONTARIO

Many Wrecked Driven Ashore and Rescued—Heroic Rescue of Crew by Life Savers.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—The heaviest storm in four years dashed the waves of Lake Ontario against Toronto Island this morning. The three-masted schooner Ruben Dowd, the property of the Conger Coal Company, ran aground in the lake off Ward's Island. The crew were heroically rescued by Captain W. W. Hodges, of the tug Lillian.

The Duke waved his hand as though in salute, and turned apparently with the object of coming to meet us. At that moment, without any apparent cause, he dashed over towards the cliff side, and we saw him fall. Lady Angela's cry of frenzied horror was the most awful thing I had ever heard.

Another important feature is the definition of grades. Formerly only one grade was defined. There was, therefore, no uniformity about any of the other grades, and many complaints were received from foreign countries as to the confusion of the new amendments.

The Duke struck a match, and a moment or two later we saw him strolling along the cliff side, smoking a cigarette, his hands behind his back. He was dressed in a suit of grey, and he looked as though he were a man of the world.

PIPE LINE IS NOW COMPLETE

Lake Latimer Connected With the Mains at Little River Reservoir

McArthur & McVay's Final Estimate to Be Passed Early Next Month and Contract Price Will Then Be Paid—Then Come in the Claims for Extras.

The work of constructing the pipe line of the water extension is now completed. On Wednesday at 11 p. m. McArthur & McVay finished the last section of the 405 feet of intake into Lake Latimer, and yesterday closed the small gap in the reinforced concrete aqueduct at Enderby Brook, by this means making the pipe line complete to the junction with the present mains at Little River reservoir.

The difficulties encountered by the contractors in constructing the intake have kept the work in progress since the early spring. For the first 350 feet of trench, which started at a depth of 22 feet below the surface, ledge was encountered, and the advance was slow. A coffer dam was found necessary for the last eighty feet, and in the final fifty feet, a tracheus quicksand, was met with.

The end of the 36 inch intake pipe will be about fifteen feet below the surface of the lake when the water has regained its normal level of 300 feet, and is eight feet lower than the corresponding pipe on the Mooney section on the opposite side. It is estimated that in order to reduce the lake to the level at which it now stands more than 800,000 gallons of water have been drawn off, and some three weeks or a month must elapse before sufficient Loch Lomond water can be run in to bring the level up to the normal.

Once the water reaches the 300 foot mark it will be retained at that point, or nearly so, by the gravitation flow through the pipe from above the Robertson dam, and it will be only at certain dry seasons that the lake itself will need to be drawn upon.

Lake Latimer cold, it is claimed, kept the city supplied with all the water required for at least four months with the Loch Lomond supply shut off, so that the danger of a shortage at any time in the future is non-existent.

Now that the pipe line is completed, nothing but some trimming remains to be done. This may take the contractors a week or ten days longer. It is expected that H. G. Hunter, the corresponding engineer, will be able to pass his final estimate early in September, and when this is paid the work, as far as the contract is concerned, will be finished.

The last and not the least interesting feature in connection with the matter will be the claims for extras which will be put in in the course. There has been much sympathy with the contractors on account of the many difficulties they have encountered during the various stages of the work.

WEDDINGS

Estabrooks-Steeves. The home of Mrs. Elizabeth Steeves, of Hillsboro, Albert county, was the scene of an interesting event Wednesday noon, the 22nd, when the marriage of her youngest daughter, Emma Jane, to R. Ernest Estabrooks, of Woodstock (N. B.), was solemnized by the Rev. A. H. McArthur of James Lee, Richmond, the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was tastefully gowned in white tulle with trimmings of baby Irish all over an insert, Arthur carrying a bouquet of white sweet peas. After a dainty luncheon had been served, the newly wedded couple drove to Moncton and took their train for a short trip. The bride went away in a tailor-made suit of light grey, trimmed with green broadcloth and braid, with black and white gloves. After the party of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooks will reside in Woodstock, where Mr. Estabrooks is engaged as teacher.

Lipsitt-Stevenson. A quiet wedding took place Saturday at the home of James Stevenson, Frederick street, when the marriage of Miss Henrietta, was married to John A. Lipsitt, who conducts a grocery at the corner of Exmouth and Brunswick streets. Rev. W. C. Raymond performed the ceremony, in the presence of only a few of the more intimate friends of the contracting parties. Both young people are well educated and a large number of handsome presents were received. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Lipsitt left on a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls, New York and Boston. On their return they will live at 100 Exmouth street.

Bohan-Lee. In the Cathedral Monday morning, Miss Julia Teresa Lee was married to Thomas Bohan, of Bath (N. B.), by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride, who is the second daughter of James Lee, Richmond street, was dressed in a beautiful costume of white silk with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Lee, who also wore white silk. Arthur Godwin, who acts as groomsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Bohan left on the 11 o'clock train for a two weeks' honeymoon trip in upper Canada, then, during the ceremony, they will reside in this city. The popularity of the bride and groom was well shown by the great number of handsome presents received.

McLeod-Vans. A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Rev. R. G. Vans, Maple street, Vernon (B. C.), on Monday morning, the 15th, when the marriage of the youngest daughter of the Rev. R. G. Vans, was married to Leonard G. McLeod, formerly of New Annan (N. S.), now of Calgary. The ceremony was witnessed only by relatives, was performed by Rev. R. G. Vans. The bride was becomingly gowned in white, with charming embroidery. Arthur Godwin, who acts as groomsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Bohan left on the 11 o'clock train for a two weeks' honeymoon trip in upper Canada, then, during the ceremony, they will reside in this city. The popularity of the bride and groom was well shown by the great number of handsome presents received.

Successful Hampton Picnic. Hampton, N. B., Aug. 27.—The picnic under the auspices of St. Alphonse church, held here today, was largely attended. The following were the prize-winners: Men's 100 yards dash—First prize, silver fern dish, won by Fred Boward; second prize, pocket knife, William Gilliland.

100 yards dash, boys under sixteen—First prize, vase, won by Edward Clark; 2nd prize, silver berry spoon—won by Miss Yeomans. Points race, shaving set—William Garriehill; 100 yards race, silver bread—William Garriehill.

The other races were not run on account of the rain and getting in. Bean toss, prizes French fork and silver fish knife and fork, both won by Arthur Leitch. Hells choosing—First prize butter cooler, Fred Boward; second, razor, Percy Yeomans. The lottery prizes were a silver water pitcher and mug, and a barrel of flour, neither of which had been awarded at 6 o'clock. Dancing and refreshments are still in full swing, and although many had to leave to get to their homes by the train east and west, the rink is well crowded, and despite the rainfall, the day's enjoyment will probably continue for some hours. The whole affair has been a great success.

Old Couple's Trip to Boston. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carpenter, with their grandson, Gillis, who sailed for Boston on a recent trip of the steamer Calvin Austin to visit friends, after a smooth and delightful voyage, were met upon their arrival and driven in an automobile by F. C. Stimson, of Everett (Mass.), to the home of their relatives, 19 Kerwin street, Dorchester (Mass.), where they will reside the most of their stay in Boston.

Mr. Carpenter has passed his eighty-third birthday, and Mrs. Carpenter will soon celebrate her seventy-seventh. On Jan. 9, 1906, they passed their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary at home on the Washademoak Lake, where they have lived the greater part of their lives.

Mr. Carpenter is well known by those interested in shipbuilding, as he devoted his entire life to that trade until twenty or twenty-five years ago. He served in the capacity of foreman builder of many vessels that sail the briny ocean. Yet, strange to say, that neither Mr. nor Mrs. Carpenter had ever been more than 100 miles from where they were born, until they had taken this trip. They will return about the last of September.

Harvey Telephone Company. The only farmers telephone system in the province, the Harvey Telephone Company, is composed of farmers and storekeepers in Harvey Settlement. Three lines run from Harvey Station to York Mills, a distance of seven miles, and a branch line to Tweedside, a distance of four miles. Ten long distance telephones have been installed with the following: Dr. Keith, Dr. Dugan, Dr. Harvey, Dr. S. W. Smith, Jas. Swan, Wm. Mosser, Geo. Swan. There are nearly 100 farmers subscribers to the company, and it is the intention of the company to have a free service as no charge is to be made for use of their line to any person wishing to use it for business or social purposes. James Hunter, telephone engineer, of St. John, supplied and installed the system and it is now completed. The farmers hope to get connected with the N. B. Telephone lines which will give them St. John and other parts of the province.

HONORABLE JOHN COSTIGAN New Brunswick's "Grand Old Man" comes out strongly in favor of "Fruit-a-tives."

Who has not heard of the Honorable John Costigan? He is to-day one of the most powerful, as well as one of the oldest, figures in Canadian politics. He was one of Sir John Macdonald's ablest lieutenants, and for nearly 20 years held various portfolios in the cabinet.

Today at the age of 71, he is the idol of the electors of New Brunswick, and a power to be always reckoned with in Parliament. His rugged eloquence—biting sarcasm—and ready repartee—made him at once the dread of his opponents and the delight of his conferees.

When a public man of the Hon. John Costigan's position voluntarily testifies to the marvelous cure effected by "Fruit-a-tives," it is bound to carry convincing weight with the whole Canadian people.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 8th, 1906. You know what a fearful trouble I have had all my life time from constipation. I have been a great sufferer from chronic constipation for over thirty years and I have taken many kinds of proprietary medicines without any benefit whatever. I took a pill for a long time which was prescribed by the late Dr. C. K. Church, of Ottawa. Also for many months I took a pill prescribed by Dr. A. F. Rogers, of Ottawa. Nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally I was advised by Dr. Rogers to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I feel I am completely well from this horrible complaint. I have had no trouble with this complaint now for a long time and I can certainly state that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine I ever took that did me any positive good for constipation. It can conscientiously be recommended "Fruit-a-tives" to the public, as, in my opinion, it is the finest medicine ever produced.

Was ever medicine put to a severer test than this? Here was a great Public Official, who had suffered for more than 30 years with Chronic Constipation. The leading physicians of Ottawa prescribed for him without affording any permanent relief. Finally, as a last resort, "Fruit-a-tives" were ordered. And in THREE MONTHS, Mr. Costigan WAS WELL!
