"To-morrow's Car To-day"

Greer's Motor Mumbles

By EDWIN GREER
 (President Greer College of Automotive Engineering, Chicago.)

IS THE DRIVER OR PEDESTRIAN TO BLAME?

Who is to blame for the numerous accidents reported every day in the papers, the automobile driver or the pedestrian?

The correct reply is "both." There are many careless drivers who violate every common-sense rule and there are thoughtless pedestrians who blindly walk directly in front of a machine, trusting to Providence to save them. If the majority of pedestrians were not naturally careful when crossing a street and the majority of drivers didn't unconsciously observe safety first rules there would be hundreds of more accidents every day.

I have drawn up a few simple "don'ts" for pedestrians and drivers which I think would go a long way to eliminate scores of accidents. They are as follows:

For Pedestrians:—

1. Don't step off the curbing to cross the street without glancing both ways.
2. Don't try to read your newspaper crossing the street or stop to argue with a friend half way over.
3. Don't walk behind a street car.
4. Don't try to run if caught between two automobiles. Stand still until the machines have passed.
5. Don't try to cross a crowded street if the police signal is set for the opposite direction.
6. Don't cross in the middle of the block.

7. On crowded downtown streets use safety lanes marked on the pavement.

For Auto Drivers:—

1. Don't turn a corner without sounding your horn.
2. Don't try to talk to someone in the back seat when making a turn.
3. Don't cut corners.
4. Don't get interested in something going on half a block behind you when making a crossing.
5. Don't try to break speed records going around a corner.
6. Don't try to dodge around the left side of a street car to get out of a blockade.
7. Don't try to cut too close to women and children, who are liable to get rattled.

"SHOW ME A CAMP OF BOYS THAT CAN SING AND I WILL SHOW YOU A CAMP THAT CAN PUT MOST ANYTHING ACROSS."

Says Prominent Canadian Worker Among Boys.

(From Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music, Ryrie Building, Toronto.)

It is becoming widely recognized today that group singing—or community singing as many people term it—makes for closer co-operation, kinder feeling and more effective work. This is evident on all sides.

At trade conventions, at clubs' functions, in industry, in religious life, in boys' organizations, etc.—wherever people congregate—community singing undoubtedly has the above effect.

This idea was brought out very forcibly not long ago by a prominent worker among Canadian boys. He was speaking before a boys' work leaders' training class, and here were his words:

"Group singing should have a real place on our program. Not the kind of hit or miss singing that we so often hear, but sing that has back of it a purpose."

"Group singing is something that you cannot secure without cooperation. That is why the members of a church camp or group that sing well, also work well together. Show me a camp of boys that sing well and I will show you a camp of boys that can put anything across."

"We should encourage singing on the part of the group, if for no other reason than it develops a group consciousness, a group solidarity, a group spirit."

"Before we can have harmony in our singing, we must learn how to harmonize. Good singing only becomes possible when individuals merge their personalities in the common whole. If singing means any-

"Anyone who has sat around the dying embers of a camp fire and merged their soul with others as they sang in unison some good, old song, will know what a wonderful factor singing is in developing the soul life of a group."

WOMAN IS FREED

BY JUSTICE BYRNE

The Carleton Circuit Court, which opened on Tuesday, May 5, and later adjourned, resumed and finished its business Tuesday, May 12. Mr. Justice Byrne presided.

The case of Hatfield & Co. Ltd., plaintiff and Ernest Rideout, defendant, was settled out of court; Jones and Jones for the plaintiff and R. B. Hanson, K. C., for the defendant.

Mrs. Adelaide Bouchard, who had been found guilty of committing theft of the goods of Francis Cook, was called before the court for sentence. W. J. Best on behalf of the prisoner, made a plea for leniency. The judge remarked that this was the first case of a criminal nature that had come before him since his appointment to his present office. Due to the circumstances surrounding the case he was disposed to be lenient. The prisoner was released on entering into her own recognizance for good behavior for a period of one year.

Sentence was not passed on John Perkins who had also been found guilty of having committed theft of the goods of Francis Cook on account of his being ill and confined to hospital.

HER NERVES

Received Much Benefit by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chatham, Ontario.—"I started to get weak after my second child was born, and kept on getting worse until I could not do my own housework and was so bad with my nerves that I was afraid to stay alone at any time. I had a girl working for me a whole year before I was able to do my washing again. Through a friend I learned of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took four bottles of it. I gave birth to a baby boy the 4th day of September, 1922. I am still doing my own work and washing. Of course, I don't feel well every day because I don't get my rest as the baby is so cross. But when I get my rest I feel fine. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and am going to keep on with it until cured. My nerves are a lot better since taking it. I can stay alone day or night and not be the least frightened. You can use this letter as a testimonial and I will answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound." Mrs. CHARLES CARSON, 27 Forsythe Street, Chatham, Ontario.

Mrs. Carson is willing to write to any girl or woman suffering from female troubles.

DEAFNESS OF BEETHOVEN

AFFECTED HIS PLAYING

(From the Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music.)

There is a false notion that Beethoven in his later years was able to play beautifully, despite his deafness. This seemed so incredible to one who has always insisted with his piano pupils "that the ear is the greatest guide to good pianoforte playing," that he carried his investigations to the contemporaries of Beethoven. Finally, a trustworthy account of his playing was found in the autobiography of Ludwig Spohr—unbiased because Spohr was a great friend of Beethoven. Beethoven did not play well after he had lost his hearing. The following is translated somewhat literally from Spohr's autobiography. Spohr went to a rehearsal at which Beethoven played one of his trios. He writes:

"The impression was bad since Beethoven from the very first played the piano very poorly. It was obvious that Beethoven heard literally nothing and also that there was no remnant left of the virtuosity he possessed when he had the full power of hearing. In forte passages he played so loud that the wires clashed and in piano passages so softly that whole groups of notes were entirely inaudible. Deafness is a terrible affliction for anyone, but for the master it is beyond comparison."

NORWEGIANS TO GATHER AT TWIN CITIES

Fifty Thousand Canadian-Norwegians Will Attend Norse-American Centennial at Minneapolis and St. Paul in June.

King Haakon, President Coolidge and Lord and Lady Byng Invited.

Professor Gisle Botne.

In June next, between three and four hundred thousand Canadians and Americans of Norwegian origin will gather at the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul to celebrate by a great national gathering the hundredth anniversary of the landing in America of the first organized party of Norwegian settlers on the Continent. It was in 1825 that the little sloop Restaurationen, of 45 tons, set sail from Stavanger carrying a little band of adventurers who settled in New York state and ever since that time there has been a steady stream of newcomers to this continent from their homeland.

The coming gathering and its purposes were recently discussed at the head offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, by Professor Gisle Botne of the Minnesota state University at Minneapolis. The professor stated that the Legislatures of Minnesota had endorsed the gathering and had forwarded through the Secretary of the State of Washington, invitations to President Coolidge, King Haakon of Norway and the Governor General of Canada. President Coolidge had already accepted and Lord and Lady Byng have given assurance that they will attend. It is expected that about 50,000 Norwegians now living in Canada will attend the Norse-American Centennial.

The gathering will be opened on June 6 next and about forty "Bygdelags" or Norwegian Clans will hold meetings during the first day. On Sunday June 7 the Bishop of Oslo, Christiania, will hold a divine service and the succeeding days will be given up to meetings, field sports and musical competitions, and an historical pageant depicting the Viking activities of one thousand years ago and the history of Norwegians at home and abroad up to the present time, portraying their contributions to civilization, in discoveries, science, agriculture, industry and commerce, in art and literature will be staged. The costumes will be magnificent and in brilliancy of technique, in magnificence and splendour the whole array will rival anything of its kind that has heretofore been produced. The other features of the Centennial are being prepared on the same elaborate scale.

It is already arranged that a large delegation from Norway's parliament will be present and there is some hope that the Norwegian Crown Prince may attend. Five Norwegian-American universities are closing for the summer early so that their faculties and students may be present. Professor Botne pointed out that the Norwegians had done much in the building up of the central western states and their influence was shown by the fact that the governors of no less than five states were of Norwegian birth or descent. It has been proposed that the Canadian Department of Colonization shall have an exhibit at the convention.

In the course of the interview professor Botne stated that undoubtedly the new United States immigration laws would result in large numbers of Norwegians coming to this country during the next few years.

"If the winner of a balloon race starts from St. Joseph, Mo., and lands in Reform, Ala., what," ask the Chicago Tribune, "does that prove?" The wind was north-east.

DON'T FORGET FRIDAY NIGHT AT 8.30 O'CLOCK

The Baseball Club are going to put on a real good entertainment that night and you should be there. It is going to be something out of the ordinary and there has never been anything like it in the Town of Hartland. Your co-operation will assist the boys and they ask you to attend. In former years the Baseball Club has been a drain on the people and this year the boys realize that money is scarce and they are putting forth every effort on their own part in order to have baseball here this summer.

Tickets will be sold like Tag Day and these tags will cost 25c for adults and 15c for children. Your tag will admit you at the door.

Come and enjoy yourself and have a pleasant evening. The boys deserve it and you will not be sorry that you came.

ANDOVER METHODIST CIRCUIT REPORT

The official board of the Andover Methodist Circuit met on Tuesday evening, the 18th, inst. at Kilburn, a large number of members from the various appointments gathered together to hear the statements from the stewards which gave them great encouragement. The work of the circuit was found to be progressing favourably and special mention was made of the renovation of the Kilburn church.

The financial report was found to be the best in the history of the circuit which is much to the credit of those living in farming communities especially in these depressing times. An unanimous invitation was extended to the pastor, Rev. E. E. Pytche to remain another year which was accepted subject to the will of the conference.

Publicity is not always indispensable to success. Words don't get their pictures into the seed catalogues.

her of visitors were present. The building was appropriately decorated for the occasion. Graduation of nurses also took place, when the following received diplomas: Miss Gladys M. Hayward, Miss Gladys M. Lewis, Miss Marjorie B. Sampliner and Miss Lillian R. Kerr.

The Sunday School rally which was held at Windsor on Thursday was well attended, a good many from the Hartland Sunday schools were present. An interesting program was carried out.

Mrs. Albert Hovey of East Brighton, who is one of the R. F. D. drivers, had quite an accident which might have proven very serious, on Saturday. While she was driving into town to get the mail her horse took fright at an automobile with the result that the wagon with its occupants were thrown over quite a steep bank. There were two others beside Mrs. Hovey and a child in the wagon. They sustained quite a shaking up and a few bruises. The wagon was quite badly broken.

On Friday evening, Mrs. MacIntosh gave a party in honor of her sister, Miss Margaret Belyea, the occasion being Miss Belyea's birthday. The following were the guests invited: Misses Edthe Hayden, Helen Dunham, Muriel Miller, Inez Smith, Dora Hatfield, Clare Kelly, Florence Britton, Marjorie Neales, Edna and Harriet Harris, Mona Lipsett, Anna Carpenter, Ruth Boyer, Jennie Boyer, and Mrs. K. W. Keith; Messrs. Al Baker, Bill Baker, Fred Dickinson, Allan McIntosh, Bill Hayward, Ross Carr, Joe Campbell, Harlan Estey, Gordon Anglow and Clinton Clark. Music was furnished by Mrs. K. W. Keith. Miss Jennie Boyer and Miss Ruth Boyer assisted in serving.

SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR THOSE TRYING TO INCREASE BOYS' INTEREST IN MUSIC.

From the Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music, 1400 Bank Building, Toronto.

The following are a few suggestions which may prove helpful to those engaged in advancing the interests of music among boys at mid-week group sessions or meetings:

If you have a pianist, spend a few moments every now and again singing some of the songs that appear on your song sheet.

Try an informal sing song around the piano after the meeting proper is over. Some boys are very shy at hearing their own voices in song, and the advantage of the informal approach is that it is liable to make the boy feel more at home.

Coincidence with the better known songs.

Find out what they know well. Discourage hollering, but do not be too academic.

Close with one of the finer songs, such as "Just a Song at Twilight," or a good old hymn that the boys know, such as "Faith of Our Fathers" or "I Need Thee Every Hour."

In connection with sacred songs, try and put more content and meaning into hymns. Link them up, if possible, with the lives of the men who wrote them. Make the boys acquainted with the circumstances under which they are written. A hymn will mean far more to a boy when it has been linked up with the finer element. A hymn that once was meaningless suddenly becomes purposeful under this method.

Other suggestions might be added but the above if closely followed should tend to improve the individual boy's taste along musical lines.

The Right Way to Boil Potatoes

Put the potatoes in an SMP Enameled Potato Pot. Cover with water. Add salt to taste. Boil until soft. When finished, drain off all the boiling water through the strainer spout. No danger of steam scalding the hands because the handle securely locks the cover on. If your family uses potatoes, you require one of these.

The warm weather fashions which are adopted at the smart Winter resorts are sure to be smart through the coming season.

From this indication, we may be sure that the ensemble suit will be prominent for Spring, and that red and white is a good color combination.

The ensemble suit above is of kasha. The white frock is banded with red at the neck and cuffs, and the white coat is lined with red, which shows at its turned-back lapels. The little hat is of white felt.

"Eczema All Over Arms Suffered for 12 Years"

Mrs. Murray Hough, Warton, Ont., writes:

"I had eczema for twelve years. Every once in a while it would break out and spread all over my arms. I tried all kinds of treatments to relieve it, but without success. One Spring it broke out and nothing gave me relief, even the salve I got from the doctor did no good. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and it healed the eczema in a short time. That is over a year ago, and I have had no return of the trouble."

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 8

The Consumption of Tea

Tea as a beverage is used in nearly every country in the world. It is estimated over 200 billion cups are consumed annually. Australia leads in tea drinking with an annual per capita consumption of about nine pounds, which means that every Australian consumes from six to eight cups of tea every day. The consumption per capita in England is 8½ lbs., and in Canada nearly 5 lbs. In the United States, it is less than 1 lb., but this is largely because Americans have not been able to get fine teas until comparatively recently. "SALADA" is considered one of the choicest blends on the market, and is the largest selling tea in either United States or Canada.

BURN IT TO KILL MOSQUITOES AND FLIES

Mystery it is said, is the keynote of the north. Mystery and silence. And because of its mystery there will always be an attraction, something to draw men on and hold them. For it is no mere legend that the north ever calls back those who have once lived in the snow and the mountains, or through an Alaskan summer. What is true of Alaska is also, to a very great extent true of the east and western shores of Vancouver Island and of the northern mainland shoreline. Scarcely has one left Vancouver or Victoria than there dawns the feeling that here is a new life opening out. As everywhere there is charm, so also is there mystery. One steps off at little coastal villages to explore, or perhaps to fish or hunt, or study native life or industry, and the first thing that one runs into is the mysterious totem pole, that Indian "family tree", which has great significance in the aboriginal history and life of the Indians of the Coast, but which conceals its strange tales from the uninitiated white man.

Two striking examples of Indian art, totem poles which are said to be among the best on the Pacific Coast because of their excellent design, legendry and historical importance, have been brought from the west coast of Vancouver Island to Vancouver, B.C., where Mr. C. Bannister, who secured them from the Indians, has erected them in front of his home. They were made by the Hesquiat Indians and illustrate native legends and tribal history.

The Hesquiat Indians lay claim to being the first natives to see the white man in British Columbia. The tribe's legend of the seeing of these men dates back to 1788. The story told by these Indians is:

"Two Indians were travelling along the west coast in canoes and in a light mist. Suddenly out of the mist there loomed a giant canoe with white wings and skulls hanging from them. All over the decks of the boat scrambled strange-looking creatures such as they had never seen before. They had white faces and stone feet.

"One of the strange palefaces took a long stick and pointed it in the air and it spouted fire. Immediately a seagull fell dead.

"The two Indians in the canoe never recovered from the shock of this quick succession of strange and terrifying scenes and died on the spot."

The totems which Mr. Bannister has secured exceed twenty feet in height and have been set in concrete bases. The Great Eagle on the top of one of the poles was looked upon by Indians as a deity and is seen bringing the whale, which is also an emblem of great strength, to the powerful chief, Cee-Ta-Ka-Nim who was famous as a whale hunter.

When a potlatch, or great giving away feast was held, all of the people of the tribe would gather in the lodge of the chief and a human skull thrown in amongst them. The man who was able to get out of the lodge with the skull was the hero of the potlatch and received the greatest measure of gifts and attention. Cee-Ta-Ka-Nim evidently accomplished this feat as he is seen holding the skull in his hands. The large killer whale beneath is part of his family crest or emblem.

On the other pole the top figure is the official dancing mask of the Hesquiat chief. Beneath is depicted the legend of the Kingfisher and the Great Bear.

The kingfisher was looked upon as a great prevaricator and boaster. One day the bear was walking by a creek where the kingfisher was fishing. The Great Bear said "Tam-Moo-Kee, you are always boasting to everybody of what you can do, yet you never seem to do anything. Now you never hear me boast, but I will show you what I can do." He stood up on his hind legs and started to draw a serpent out of his stomach much to the astonishment and amazement of the kingfisher.

In nearly all Indian legends the characters took on a dual personality, and were able at any time to change themselves into birds, animals or fishes.
