LONDON LIBERALS WILL MEET IN CONVENTION ON AUG. 14

Rousing Meeting Was Held Last Night in the Hyman Hall—
Committee Named to Interview Prospective Candidates and Submit Names to Liberals—Reciprocity With U. S. Indorsed in the Speeches.

A convention to nominate a Liberal candidate for the coming elections will be held in Hyman Hall on Monday, Aug. 14. In the meantime a committee composed of Messrs. F. G. Ramsay, F. E. Leonard, T. H. Purdon, R. C. Col. J. W. Little, Philip Pocock, T. S. Hobbs, ex-M.P.P., J. M. McEvoy, Geo. S. Gibbons, H. F. Ramsay and Dr. H. T. Henson will interview prospective candidates and secure their consent to go before the convention. There was a large crowd at the meeting last night when this decision was arrived at, and it is absolutely certain that the Liberals of London will make a great fight for the riding, with every prospect of redeeming it.

Organization work has commenced, and the various committees will be put in shape in the coming week. The hall rooms will be opened every day from 9 a.m. until 11 p.m., and every voter who desires information will be able to obtain it from the secretary and his assistants, who will be constantly in attendance.

Full of Fight.
Several short addresses were delivered before the business of the meeting was discussed. Mr. F. G. Ramsay, president of the Liberal Association, occupied the chair. He was glad to see so large a representation of Liberals present. The old fighting

DETROIT OLD BOYS ARE COMING WITH A MILITARY BAND!

It Is Stated That 200 Former Londoners Will Be in Uniform—
"Colonel" Sullivan Will Carry the Flag—Depart
at 9 o'Clock Sunday Morning.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 5.—President George Moore, of Detroit London Old Boys' Association, received telegram from Colonel Harry Abbott, chairman of committee, which has charge of arrangements for London Old Boys' Reunion to be held in that city Aug. 17, denying reports that American flags and bunting were ordered taken down from where they had been draped in London streets.

The Story in Detroit.
"The story is absolutely without foundation," said Mr. Moore last night, "and I do not know what purpose could have actuated the authors. From what I know of London the needless feeling prevails for United States. We had far more American than British flags in our decorations last Old Boys' reunion, three years ago, and nothing was thought of it." It is estimated that fully 1,000 Old Boys and their wives will attend the reunion from Detroit, and large numbers will be on hand from Chicago, Cleveland and other parts of the United States and Canada. The Detroit members of the London Old Boys' Association are preparing to demonstrate their loyalty to the country of their adoption as well as to their oldland in noticeable manner at the reunion.

EALING HAS 1,067 PEOPLE

The Population Is Sufficient To Allow of Village Incorporation.

500 NOW IN POTTERSBURO

Outside of the Asylum Population, and
It Does Not Look as Though
Incorporation Can Be Secured.

The village of Ealing will probably be incorporated.
A special census was taken by the county council to see if there was a population of 750 within 500 acres, which is necessary for incorporation as a village.
The enumerator has discovered that there are 1,067 people in the prescribed area, and as a result there is nothing whatever to prevent the incorporation of Ealing, if the people are so desirous.

The same is not the case with Pottersburg, or Eastmount. The enumerators found about 500 people there, but 145 additional at the asylum, attendants, etc. This is not a sufficiently large number to permit of incorporation, so Eastmount or Pottersburg will have to wait for a time at least.

FIRE FIGHTER STRANDED.
San Bernardino, Aug. 5.—An unidentified fire fighter, fatally burned, was found by a patrol yesterday lying where he had fallen exhausted on the San Bernardino Mountain fire line. As the government makes no provision for the care of disabled fire fighters, a subscription was started to cover the needs of the injured man. At least one hundred sick and disabled fire fighters, whose homes were burned from their feet and their bodies, are now stranded here.

THE NEW COOKERY; USE PAPER BAGS

Unique Invention of the Famous
French Chef, M. Soyer.

A CULINARY TRIUMPH

How to Use the Bags—Will Cook in Any Kind of Stove.

The Advertiser promised in its last issue to tell its readers more about paper-bag cooking, a topic of peculiar interest in hot weather, when the ladies will specially welcome anything that lightens the work of the kitchen.

M. Soyer, the French chef, who has done so much to popularize paper-bag cooking, and who invented the Emaline bag, has given full information to the public. These bags are in three sizes, and may be got at The Advertiser office for a price which merely covers the cost of handling them. This is not a money-making scheme on The Advertiser's part. This journal has taken it up as an advertisement, and as a news feature. It is something which will interest the women readers of The Advertiser, as it directly concerns the home. Any reader can get a sufficient number of bags by presenting the coupon printed below. The cost, as will be seen, is merely nominal.

M. Soyer's Instructions.

Here are M. Soyer's instructions for the use of the bags:

1. Select one that "fits" the food intended to be cooked.
2. Grease slightly the inside of the bag, except in the case of vegetables or when water is added. For beginners it is advisable. Butter, lard or dripping may be used.
3. When the food has been prepared for the bag, place the same on the table and lift the uppermost edge of the bag while you insert the contents.
4. Fold the mouth of the bag two or three times and fasten with a clip. It is desirable to fold the corners of the bag so as to secure as near as possible a hermetic closing. Ordinary pins will serve for clips, if the latter are not at hand.

It may occasionally happen that a bag may leak, in which event it is not necessary that the food should be emptied and transferred to another bag. Simply put the bag within another.

The meat should be placed on the grid that is contained in every oven, so that the hot air may circulate. When the meat is cooked the meat essences for the making of gravy will be found at the bottom of the bag, which is impervious to water or grease.

We have now secured a joint, the flavor of which will be improved beyond imagination—with a minimum of labor and cost, but not least, a freedom from grease or odor.

How many people are debarrred from the delights of fish owing to the strong odors that are always attached to the cooking? These fastidious people may have the bag brought straight from the oven to the table with an entire absence of smell.

The cooking of vegetables is more interesting, peas, for example, are moistened with water, sealed in a bag, and cooked in the oven.

HALES HIM TO COURT

THEN FIGHTS FOR HIM

Wife Whose Husband Harassed
Her to Harrow Withdraws Prosecution.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Aug. 4.—A touch was given to a case which came up before Recorder Desjardins in the Hull courts yesterday.

Some time ago Mrs. George Papillon, of 69 Catherine street, took action against her husband for a separation, and the date was fixed for the hearing of the case. When the recorder ascended to the bench and the case was called, Mr. Charles Papillon, son of the defendant, entered the courtroom and advised the recorder that the case would have to be dropped as his father had been run over and killed. The dramatic end to the case caused somewhat of a sensation.

TO BLOCK CURIOUS

WITH 150-FOOT FENCE

New York Banker Determined to Secure Privacy.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Aug. 5.—Plans for a fence 150 feet high have been filed with the New York building department by a wealthy banker, who expects thus to maintain the privacy of his uptown residence, despite the encroachment of apartment houses in the neighborhood.

"I learned a few days ago," said the banker, in explaining his scheme, "that a blue-story apartment house was going up shortly on the lot to the west of my home. Already a tall building blocks me to the east. I decided to protect the privacy of my home, which my family has occupied for more than seven years, and there was no other way that I could conceive but a fence high enough to shut off all the curious eyes of my apartment house neighbors. The fence will be of ornamental brick, and as artistic as possible under the circumstances."

ENTERTAINING TOGO.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 5.—The United States Government has through President Taft, Secretary of State Knox and Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop, today officially honored Admiral Togo, an almost continual round of entertainments has been planned for the Japanese admiral.

LONDON OLD BOY OF 102 YEARS COMES HOME FOR THE REUNION

MR. JOSEPH MANTLE.

The oldest London Old Boy, Joseph Mantle, of Peterboro, arrived in London Friday, and is now with his daughter, Mrs. Keith Colquhoun, of 9 Duke street.

The gentleman who holds this distinction is now 102 years old, and is still in excellent health. Mr. Mantle came from Peterboro unattended, and takes frequent trips about the country alone.

He usually visits London each summer, but this year was particularly anxious to attend the reunion. Mr. Mantle was born in England, and came to London 75 years ago. He conducted a shoe business here up until his removal from this city 20 years ago, and has since resided in Tilsonburg, Brantford and Peterboro. His most remarkable good health is considered phenomenal.

SIR WILFRID'S TOUR OF ONTARIO

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will open the federal campaign at the town of Simcoe, Norfolk County, on Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 15, and will be accompanied by the Hon. William Patterson, minister of customs, and the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, postmaster-general.

The Liberal chieftain will continue meetings in Ontario as follows:
Monday, Sept. 4—Alexandria, Glenora County.
Tuesday, Sept. 5—Cobourg, Northumberland County.
Wednesday, Sept. 6—Collingwood, Simcoe County.
Thursday, Sept. 7—Sudbury, Nipissing district.
Friday, Sept. 8—Stratford, Perth County.
Saturday, Sept. 9—Place under consideration.
The speakers to accompany the Prime Minister will be announced later.
Sept. 18, 19 and 20 are reserved for consideration.
The arrangements are in charge of F. G. Inwood, the general secretary, who will actively co-operate with the various riding associations.

LONDON LADY TERRIBLY BURNED FELL DOWN STAIRS WITH A LAMP

Mrs. James Georgeson Met With a Probably Fatal Accident at Her Home Last Night—Suffered Very Serious Injury.

Mrs. James Georgeson, of 417 Ottawa avenue, a middle-aged woman, fell down stairs while carrying a kerosene lamp at her home last evening and as a result of serious burns and other injuries sustained, is now in a precarious condition at her home.

Mrs. Georgeson stumbled at the head of the stairway and fell to the floor at the bottom. The lamp was broken and burning oil spread over her body, burning her badly about the chest, face and arms. A twelve-year-old nephew, who was alone in the house with the lady at the time, succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Mrs. Georgeson was removed to Victoria Hospital this morning, and although she is suffering considerable pain, and cannot be moved much, it is not thought that her burns will prove as serious as was at first anticipated.

MR. BRODEUR GOES TO BENCH SUCCEEDED BY HON. MR. LEMIEUX

Postmaster-General Becomes Minister of Marine and Will Be Succeeded by Dr. Bland, the Member for Beauce.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—The cabinet changes for tomorrow some time ago in connection with the retirement of Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries and of Naval Affairs, to take the position of the supreme court bench, rendered vacant by the death of Justice Gauthier, will take place next week.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur is now winding up pending matters of departmental administration in connection with his portfolio, so as to have things in good shape for his successor, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, the present postmaster-general. Dr. Henri S. Bland, the Hon. Geo. Graham and Hon. W. L. Mackenzie-Bain, will enter the cabinet as young, able and popular members of the government.

JOYOUS SWAINS FINED FOR MALICIOUS DAMAGE

Strathroy Men Paid $2 Each for Tearing Down Decorations.

Norman Evans, George McCutcheon, William Ditchfield, Joseph Hall and Charles Bethel, five young men from Strathroy, who came to town yesterday to see the circus, each paid $2 in the police court this morning when they were found guilty of having torn down flags and decorations from the front of Richmond street stores and other places.

Among the flags torn down were Union Jacks, a Greek flag and small American flags.

P. C. McCullough, who arrested the quintette, told of being on duty on Richmond street at 3:30 this morning and of seeing the men carrying flags and talking loudly about the good time they were having.

When they saw him coming they slipped the flags under their coats. He took them to the station and then went back with Sergeant Lucas for the others.

Flags were found hidden in a lavatory on a train and some others were thrown down an alleyway. Young Evans told Chief Williams that he had six bottles of beer before going out to the circus and five or six after. He denied tearing down any flags, but P. C. McCullough swore to having found one on him, and a Greek swore that it was one he had put up in front of his place.

Another one of the party said he had thrown away the flags he had become tired of, and the magistrate, "and some of you must have done it. I will fine you each $2."

THE ALLEGED FLAG INCIDENT IS NOW HAPPILY CLOSED

London Old Boys Are Sure of a Magnificent Welcome—
President and Secretary of Home Guard Sent Out
Reassuring Messages to Different Cities.

The alleged flag incident given so much prominence during the past two days in certain quarters is now happily settled. Yesterday Col. Harry R. Abbott, the president, and Mr. J. O. Weldon, the secretary of the Home Guard, received telegrams from Chicago and Detroit, and other places, asking for information regarding it.

Mr. Ched Egerton, of Chicago, sent the following wire:
"Mr. J. O. Weldon, Secretary of London Old Boys' Association:
"What is there to the flag incident as given in press reports today? Our members are very indignant, and protest vigorously against taking down the flags of our adopted country. Please wire answer immediately."
Mr. Weldon at once sent this reply:
"Mr. Ched Egerton, Secretary London Old Boys' Committee:
"This will assure you that there is nothing in report re American flags. American flags are flying in profusion here. All American flags welcome as the Old Boys."

Col. Abbott received a similar message from Mr. George Moore, president of the Detroit Old Boys. They wanted information as to what had been done in London.

The colonel wired at once:
"This will assure you there is nothing in report regarding American flags. They are waving here now. All American flags and Old Boys are alike welcome."
These telegrams put an end to a lot of silly talk, and have reassured the visitors that the very best treatment will be accorded them when they arrive in London. There was a rumor that some of the excursions would be cancelled, but the telegrams have made it certain that the Old Boys will be home in large numbers.

"I answered the telegrams, and I think they will give the American Old Boys the assurance they need," said Mr. Weldon. "I deplore the publicity given London in this matter. It certainly did a lot of harm, and there was no foundation whatever for such sensational yarns. I think everything is now satisfactorily settled, and I sincerely hope we have heard the last of it. I have had hundreds of telephone messages condemning those who circulated such a story. In my opinion, there will be many times more American flags shown on account of this affair than there otherwise would have been."

All Well Now.
"Everything is straightened out now," said President Harry R. Abbott. "We will have no further trouble. I sent a telegram to the Detroit Boys, putting the matter straight with them. We should never have been placed in this position. The reunion is going to be a grand success, make no mistake."

The majority of the citizens are much put out at the undue publicity given the affair.

A Detroit Story.
The Detroit Free Press has the following story today:
Continues on Page Eleven.

TRAVELLERS OWN THE PORT BIG PICNIC BEING HELD TODAY

Knights of the Grip to the Number of 500 Paraded Streets
With Two Bands Previous to Leaving for the Lakeside.

The Travellers own Port Stanley today. This is their annual picnic day, and thousands of the Knights of the Grip are entertaining their friends at the Port.

This morning they assembled at the Masonic Temple, and marched up King to Talbot, up Talbot to Queen's, down Queen's to Wellington, down Wellington to Dundas, and by way of Dundas and Richmond to the Grand Trunk station.

The Seventh Regiment Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Slater, headed the procession, and many of the officers of the Travellers' Association, President E. H. Harley, John M. Dutton, A. E. Ferte, and others, led the procession.

The Scottish Pipers, under Sergeant Macdonald, brought up the rear of the procession, and were given a great reception.

About 500 commercial men were in line, and they certainly made a fine appearance.

The feature of the programme at the Port was the ball game between Grips and Travellers. The sports programme is an excellent one.

ELDERLY MEN THROWN FROM A WAGON

John Newton and John Taylor
Slightly Injured.

John Newton and John Taylor, two elderly gentlemen who reside near Springbank, escaped with slight injuries in an accident which might have had a much more serious ending at the Harrison Hotel on King street this morning.

A wagon on which they were driving overturned in the hotel yard. Both were thrown heavily to the ground, one rear wheel passing over Mr. Newton's body, while Mr. Taylor suffered cuts about the head. Mr. Newton sustained a severe injury to his shoulder.

POLICE WILL STOP THE TALCUM THROWING

Fair Warning Is Given People of London and All Visitors.

The police wish to give all citizens and incoming Old Boys and Grips the strictest warning that all persons going about the streets throwing talcum powder, or any other powder, or perfume in people's faces will at once be locked up and charged with being disorderly.

"The practice is a very dangerous and reprehensible one," said Chief Williams to The Advertiser this afternoon, "and the police have been given the strictest orders to at once arrest anyone they see doing it. Too many serious accidents have been caused in this way."

Another Warning.
The police also wish to warn everyone to guard their pockets closely and watch all the time for pickpockets. A number of the light-fingered gentry are almost certain to come with the crowds, and the detectives warn everyone that they cannot be too careful.

People are warned particularly against leaving valuables about the house, and going out to watch parties and leaving back doors and windows open.

LABOR LEADER DEAD

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 5.—Matthew J. Hart, president of the National Federation of Weavers and Textile Workers, died at the hospital here today following a brief attack of intestinal trouble.

MR. GRAY NOT NOTIFIED AND TROUBLE IS BREWING

Local Conservatives Will Meet
Tonight to Name Candidate.

There is liable to be trouble in the Conservative party over the convention called for tonight.

It seems that Mr. William Gray is president of the association. He was not consulted about the meeting whatever, it is said, and did not know a convention had been called until he saw the announcement in the newspaper. As president of the association, he considered that he at least should have been consulted, and he immediately began to ask for reasons why he was overlooked.

So there will have to be some explanations tonight, and it is rumored that Mr. Gray will have something to say. His friends say that it is possible that he will go to the convention and make an effort to secure the nomination.

Three names are prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination—Major Beattie, William Gray, and A. H. Marshall Graydon.

BORDEN FOR ST. MARYS

Opposition Leader to Address Conservatives of Stone Town.

St. Marys, Aug. 4.—At the Conservative organization meeting held here last evening it was stated that Mr. R. L. Borden, leader of the Opposition, and other prominent Conservative leaders would probably address the electors of St. Marys in the near future.

THE following graphic narrative of an episode of the Mexican revolution is the pen of Mrs. Carr-Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dolan of this city. She writes from her home, Sonora, Mexico:

For some days we had known the Insurrectos were not far from us. We had heard this so many times that we found later that they were not far from us. On Thursday we were told that they were at the Ojo de Agua or nine miles away, where the mining station is located which we used with water. They day morning told me he thought we should go to all some tubs with water. The Mexicans in towns and villages do so in case the supply should run out. So I filled the big porcelains and fastened a sheet across to keep out the dust. Not long passed. The Federal soldiers still stayed at the barracks. The night the bridges on the railroad were torn here and there. The general, which cut us off from the means of communication with the side world.

An Interrupted Bridge

On Friday afternoon the British met at half-past two, and we were waiting for one member who was were talking revolution and dance at the club, and the topics of more or less interest when the telephone rang. Minutes our hostess appeared, announced that the United States (whose wife was the target player for whom we were) had telephoned to say that notification had arrived that were on the way toward town. Warning was sent to enable to get out of danger.

I have always enjoyed Byron's "Night Before Christmas" in the midst of all the brightness and "sound of a night" in Belgium's capital bugle call, "The Advance March" will always mean just a little from this time. No more Byron. We all scrambled home as possible, and then we were. What to take and what to leave.

I had often wondered why should do in the case of fire, a few minutes to the good, seemed in a fair way to answer the question. First word to my husband, who at the miles, away, in the called up the time office of where I knew he should be hope of having him to the ground to find him. No one. I called three offices at the mine; still no answer. I he telephoned the mining office down town.

Finally someone answered mines, who proved to be his staff, who went and to him out my tale of woe. He can't understand the situation said: "Yes, I've sent a while he will be up after a while."

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 4.—About 12:15 o'clock today, the Fort Erie track special, carrying 160 passengers from Toronto, collided with a freight train on the main line of the G. T. R. near Dundas Park. The freight was on the main line, and the fact that the passenger special was running at a low rate of speed, alone prevented a serious, if not a fatal, accident. When the crash came, the passengers were jolted from their seats, but no one was injured. The rear car of the freight train, thrown from the tracks and turned over on its side, while other cars of the train also left the tracks. The overturned car caught fire and much excitement prevailed.

EDDY COMPANY AND WHOLESALE GROCERS

Mr. Rowley Explains Why He Deals Through Wholesalers.
NO RESTRAINT OF TRADE
An Argument Against Cut Prices—The Contract Selling Arrangement.

The Canadian Grocer contains the report of an interesting address by Mr. Rowley, the head of the E. B. Eddy Company, of Hull. Mr. Rowley said:

"The policy of the Eddy Company for over half a century has been, and now will be, as long as I am in charge, to cater largely to, and to sell through the medium of, our friends among the wholesale grocery and jobbing trades of Canada. By this means, the labor and the cost of distributing the wares we make, among the retail trade and the large number of smaller purchasers is minimized, in fact, almost entirely avoided."

"Although we have more than a score of branches, agencies and depots placed advantageously in all the largest and the most important cities throughout Canada, these establishments are used chiefly as delivery distributing points to, and in the interest of the wholesale trade. By this means, we avoid the employment of an army of commercial representatives and travellers who would otherwise have to employ, and who when so employed, would go over the same ground, perform the same work, and come into unnecessary contact with the travellers and the representatives of our wholesale friends."

"Wherefore, by this means we do not have to employ travellers, and pay a large number of travelling representatives, it is but right and fair, that reasonable profit should go to the wholesale grocery and jobbing trades who undertake the care, the cost and the trouble of the final disposition and distribution of our wares to the retailer, and to the consumer."

"In carrying out this policy and plan, we say to the wholesalers: We will sell you our product at our list prices, subject to certain discounts on a certain terms for a minimum stated quantity, with well understood conditions as to delivery and payment on the understanding that, in selling our goods, you adhere rigidly to our list prices, and handle our goods exclusively, and certify to us periodically that you have done so; then we will allow you an extra loyalty quantity discount."

"I have been doing this for more than twenty years, because it is an advantage to us (as it is an advantage to any manufacturer), that the price of the wares we make should be as stable and as uniform as possible. Also so that our regular customers may feel that all such customers are treated alike, and are entitled to fix prices for our own wares, and to stipulate, when we sell them, that the purchaser in reselling, should not do so at a cut price, or at lower than the price fixed by us from time to time in our list."

"No restraint of trade. No gentlemen, pray listen carefully to what I am now saying. There is no restriction of trade at all. In the way of conducting business, there is no 'restraint of trade' in any of our carrying on your various businesses in the same way."

"The only preliminary statement of fact, may I now say that having a long experience in this matter, and having given the subject most careful attention for many years, I am fully convinced that our plan is a fair and square, simple way of protecting the honest wholesaler, the honest traveller, the honest retailer, and the honest manufacturer, against the losses, ill or evils that have been the result of the same of some other lines of manufacture."

"No self-respecting manufacturer will allow the price of any of his wares to be cut, or allow his business to be disturbed, and the joy of living made a burden to him by some ill-advised effort to get the better of some other manufacturer, or trader, by cutting prices when all the manufacturers are cutting prices, and the trade who are straight-forward in the matter, and are willing to, can secure a proper, profitable margin on the goods we make or you handle."

Profit to Each.
"There is always rivalry among, and opposition between, the manufacturers of the very best results, a fair price must be made by the manufacturer and a fair profit must be made by the manufacturer. Out of that price, and out of that profit, I am willing to the whole sale grocery and jobbing trades to receive their fair share, and in the distribution of our wares throughout Canada, through this medium of the wholesalers."

"We realize that to get the undivided service of any reliable wholesaler firm that has to be given a good profit, because the undivided services of a firm who divides its time in selling lines of goods in opposition to those of the manufacturer, and who are intended to and sometimes do interfere largely with the profits of the wholesaler trade and with the returns received by the manufacturers for their wares, so let me make it plain to you all, that notwithstanding the way we strive to get the undivided support of the wholesaler, that is not all that is necessary."

The Successful Producer.
"A guaranteed quality is a prime essential—the very first—but the successful manufacturer has also to make a large assortment, has to have it well distributed, has to make prompt delivery; all these are essential, and then his prices must be right."

"The successful manufacturer must also have facilities and must get the best good will, the hearty support and the best selling power of the wholesaler."

"The manufacturer has all this, he ought to be able to supply through the medium of the wholesaler trade—to the retailer, user and consumer, at a better article at a lower cost to the user than it is possible for any manufacturer to sell, distribute and deliver satisfactorily to the retail trade direct."

"Many years' experience in distributing has taught me that it is worth a lot to us to have the good-will and the selling power of the wholesaler and jobbing trades."

legion of travelling salesmen, and who, so far as the Ontario branch is concerned, have an office and staff devoting their energies solely to the sale and distribution of the manufacturers' wares; anyhow, to be quite frank about it, and without in any way wishing to flatter the Guild members, or the wholesalers, and not because I am a great here today, and am talking to you by special invitation, I have no hesitation in saying that we regard the wholesalers as the best connecting line between the manufacturers and the retailers and the consumer."

Contract Selling Plan.
"The contract selling arrangement is now becoming more general in use with manufacturers, so let me tell you our plan."

"It is a simple arrangement with each wholesaler house separately, on the understanding that the arrangement shall be carried out in perfect good faith, we depending on the honesty of the wholesaler firms as distributors, as much as we depend on the honesty and integrity of our resident managers and agents. The arrangement being made, both parties have a right to see that it is carried out with faith and in its entirety—that is, has a right to rely absolutely on the rigid carrying out of the arrangement. It is not a new thing, and it is not a new thing for a manufacturer to control the goods he makes, and it is no new thing for the wholesaler and the jobber to join in order to control the goods of special or proprietary goods, or any line of manufacture."

"This is merely a matter of fair dealing, and a good understanding, but it is essential that there should be absolute honesty, integrity and loyalty on both sides."

"There is no doubt whatever about the right of any manufacturer to sell the wares he makes to whom he chooses, at whatever price, and on whatever terms he chooses."

A Celebrated Case.
"I have had a long and extended experience in this, and have looked into these matters for many years, from all the different points of view, and without wishing to take too strong a position, I am of opinion that the manufacturer should come in a different way, still I would like anyone who may be timid or uncertain about this, to refer to the well-known case of Eddison vs. Carington, a report of which will be found in the English chancery court reports of 1901, Vol. 2, Chap. 276."

The Object of What is Known as a 'Contract Selling Plan.' with its accompanying conditions, is, in fact, an approved by the highest courts of the land, and is a form of contract, and has carried out straight-forward and honest, and successful operation for over a quarter of a century, and is a plan I heartily recommend to every wholesaler as a protection to his firm, and to every manufacturer as an aid to a better understanding between all parties, as it is a plan which will result in profit and advantage to all concerned."

"Every manufacturer has a right to handle his goods."

"Every manufacturer has a right to ascertain the character of a man he is dealing with, and has a right to say, 'I will not sell goods or to have dealings with a man who breaks his contracts.'"

"Everyone has a right to see that arrangements with selling agents, upon which he shapes and molds his business and distributes his wares, are honestly and straightforwardly kept and maintained."

"When a contract of this sort is broken, it not only affects one's business, and reputation, but it affects one's temper, and one's health, so it is not intended to carry on business or to make a man's life a misery, and to people who break their agreements. This is the position the Eddy Company took years ago, and it intends to hold to, so I say to you wholesalers, that you are loyal to us, we will be loyal to you, and we will help you carry on your business by the best methods and as honest traders, you have a right to give us, our assistance, and we intend to continue to merit your constant, hearty and loyal support."

To the Retailer.
"The reason he did not sell direct to the retailers was that he could sell more advantageously to himself and retailers, through the channel of the wholesaler. He recommended all branches of the trade joining for discussion and hoped that at future conventions there would be a larger number of manufacturers present."

Excursions to Western Canada.
The Grand Trunk Railway System announce that on Tuesdays, June 12 and 27, and July 11 and 26, Aug. 8 and 22, Sept. 5 and 19, 1911, Homeseekers' Excursions will be run from Montreal in Ontario and Quebec to Western Canada via Chicago and Duluth, or via Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and round trip fares."

The well-known double track line of the Grand Trunk from the east to Chicago appears to be the most direct and the superior train service that is offered by this line, including the famous International Limited, from Montreal daily at 8 a.m., and which is the finest and fastest train in Canada, many passengers will be attracted this autumn to the route to Chicago, a most interesting one, taking passengers through the principal cities and towns in Canada and in the States of Michigan and Indiana.

In addition to this, a choice of seven lines between Chicago and St. Paul and Minneapolis is offered.

Owing to the great number of Canadian who reside in Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, and other cities en route, there is no doubt that the Grand Trunk will find many patrons who will take advantage of the opportunity thus afforded them for a brief visit at the stations with their friends.

Canadian citizens are exempt from so-called immigration examination, and there is no detention at any point.

Baggage is carried through the United States in bond without requiring any special attention on the part of the passenger. Inspection is not necessary at any of the points at the border.

Another feature that will appeal to the homeseeker is the comfortable transfer at points like Chicago, St. Paul and Duluth into freshly ventilated, clean cars, avoiding the necessity of travelling a long distance in the same car.

In addition to the above routes, the sale of tickets is also authorized via Sarnia, and the Northern Navigation Company's magnificent steamers, across Lake Huron and Lake Superior.

For further particulars apply to any agent of the Grand Trunk Railway System, or write to Mr. J. Quinlan, district passenger agent, Homeseekers' Excursions, Mr. A. B. Duff, district passenger agent, Union Station, Toronto, or Mr. R. E. Ruse, C. P. and E. A. London.

CHICAGO LABOR SLUGGERS ARE FOUND GUILTY

Gang That Has Been Terrorizing Chicago May Get Long Term.

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, Aug. 5.—Peter Gentileman, Edward Storgard, William Connors and Arthur O'Connor, labor sluggers, were last night found guilty of assault with intent to kill Morgan Bell, a non-union steamfitter, whom they had driven from work at the point of a revolver.

The verdict of guilty was brought in by a jury after nearly four hours' deliberation. A motion for a new trial was entered.

The four men convicted are said to be members of a slugging crew that has terrorized Chicago for many months, and among whose members there have been numerous slugs.

The charges on which the four men were convicted is punishable by imprisonment of from one to fifteen years.

CHRISTY ROBBED FISHER OF MODEL.

While Brother Artist Is Enjoying Vacation, Painter 'Puts One Over On Him.

New York, Aug. 5.—Howard Chandler Christy, painter hitherto of fair and brawny dunces, has 'put one over' on his fellow-artist, Harrison Fisher. Christy has robbed Fisher of his prized model, Miss Lucy Cotton.

Fisher is working on a book of 'Types of Fair American Women.' Miss Cotton was to be his sweet, winsome type. He had been saving her up, as it were, in the Hotel Hardgrave, on West Seventy-second street. He had no chance to pose her when he started on his vacation two weeks ago. When he again enters his studio he will find his model has flown to Zanesville, O., the artistic habitat of Christy.

Revelation to Fisher.
It came about because Miss Cotton has a sister Ruth. She is tiny and a blonde. Lucy is slim, tall and a brunette. Fisher felt that in Lucy he had discovered a prize. But along came Christy from Zanesville with the announcement that he was tired of painting the muscular woman, and desired to try the 'modest violet' type.

"I've just the girl for you," said Fisher. "Her name is Miss Ruth Cotton, and she lives in the Hotel Hardgrave."

"Thanks," replied Christy, and out he went.

When he reached the Cotton apartment Miss Ruth was not in, but Miss Lucy was. As she described the meeting to a reporter, Christy sat silent for several minutes.

Then, her story ran, "he spoke up with, 'Why, you've got pretty regular features yourself, haven't you?' Of course I had to admit I had. We started talking about our trades, and discovered we were both Christian Scientists. That seemed to clinch things with Mr. Christy."

He said to me, 'and come out on the next train to Zanesville. I positively refuse to have any other model but you.'"

"But I couldn't leave at once like that, so Mr. Christy had to go away without me. But I'm going to leave late this week or early next week. No, Mr. Fisher need be back by that time. I'm afraid he'll say something awful when he hears the news."

Mrs. Christy, though living in this city, visits Zanesville often to see her daughter. There are rumors that the Christys are to be reconciled soon.

Mob Besieges Police Station and Policemen Use Revolvers.

A mob of several hundred rioters entered a hotel in search of strike-breakers. They then attempted to push a car into the river after battering out all the windows, but were held back by the police.

Strikers next gathered around the police station and demanded the release of one of their number. The police had to use revolvers.

GOOD STEADY TONE TO BUSINESS HERE
London reports to Bradstreet say a good tone is noted to general business here. Stocks of wholesale lines are moving fairly well and local jobbers and manufacturers are expecting a good fall trade as a result of the splendid western crops. Trade in the surrounding district promises fairly satisfactorily, although nothing in the way of a phenomenal season is to be expected, as crops are of only average quality and yield.

While Brother Artist Is Enjoying Vacation, Painter 'Puts One Over On Him.

New York, Aug. 5.—Howard Chandler Christy, painter hitherto of fair and brawny dunces, has 'put one over' on his fellow-artist, Harrison Fisher. Christy has robbed Fisher of his prized model, Miss Lucy Cotton.

Fisher is working on a book of 'Types of Fair American Women.' Miss Cotton was to be his sweet, winsome type. He had been saving her up, as it were, in the Hotel Hardgrave, on West Seventy-second street. He had no chance to pose her when he started on his vacation two weeks ago. When he again enters his studio he will find his model has flown to Zanesville, O., the artistic habitat of Christy.
