BOARD OF COMMERCE ORDER TO PREVENT IMPORTATION OF CHEAP SUGAR FROM UNITED STATES

Canadian Consumers Will Be Unable To Take Advantage of Low-Priced Offerings From American Firms — Wholesalers Must Purchase Only From Refiners.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—An order, the practical effect of which will be to stop importation of cheap sugar from the United States, will be passed by the board of commerce this afternoon. The order stipulates that for a period from the time of its promulgation until the end of the present year, wholesalers shall purchase only from the refiners. The order does not exclude purchase from American refiners, but it is fairly obvious that the effect will be to prevent the purchase of any of the large quantities of imported sugar which has been placed on the American market and reducing prices across the line. As a matter of fact it is believed here that the arrangement is one mutually to the advantage of the refiners in both countries. The arrangement is held by the board to be "in the public interest." Just how this is so is not explained, inasmuch as the order will have the effect of preventing consumers in Canada from taking advantage of low-priced offerings from the United States. It is difficult to see how the order can be construed having a practical embargo on imports. It will, however, save the refiners from heavy loss incident upon mistaken speculation, and will give them an opportunity of unloading their stocks on the public at high prices before the end of the year.

Contentions of Refiners.

The refiners in their representations to the Government held that as the Government had embargoed exports at a time when sugar prices were higher in the United States than in Canada it now devolved upon the administration to stop imports at a time when prices had fallen across the border. The Government, however, hesitated to take such a responsibility, fearing the effect of such an extraordinary action on the already vexed public mind, so another method has been followed which will, however, have practically the same effect. It will not prevent individuals or small dealers from purchasing across the line, but it will very effectually prevent the "dumping" of large quantities of cheap sugar in Canada.

The board will permit appeals from its order, but such appeals will not likely have the effect of suspending the ruling.

MEIGHEN FORCES FEARING A LANDSLIDE IN EAST ELGIN

Farmers Are Weary of Mismanagement At Ottawa—Government's Biggest Gun Fails To Make Any Impression in Appeal To Electors—"Giddap," Said Farmer, When Being Introduced to Candidate.

[By Staff Reporter.]

Aylmer, Oct. 13.—Atmospheric conditions are decidedly unfavorable to the vigorous campaign which the Government has opened here in support of John L. Stansell, its candidate in East Elgin. The temperature throughout the riding is so consistently frigid that there is every prospect of the whole business being a complete frost.

The light armed forces of the newly-formed National Liberal and Conservative party, in the form of organizers and staunch Tory supporters, have made practically no progress. From the very first it was apparent that the heavy artillery would have to be brought into play if the Government was to even hold its own ground, much less make headway on the two fronts held by the independent Liberal candidate and the U. F. O. forces.

A Forlorn Effort.

Accordingly the battle was opened with a salvo from one of the biggest pieces of ordnance in the Government armories, Sir George E. Foster. This was followed up Tuesday by a manoeuvre which brought into play the Government's one best bet, the 42-centimetre, long-range run, Hon. Arthur Meighen, prime minister of Canada. Naturally these large scale operations, which are usually the features of a country-wide campaign and not of a skirmish in one small riding, are not being carried out without drawing forth comment from all sides. There are many who resent the attempt to lay down a heavy barrage in the hope that the Government candidate will carry the position under its cover.

Like a Funeral.

This was very apparent when the premier arrived at 1 o'clock Tuesday. It might have been a funeral procession which passed up the street for not a cheer or even a handclap greeted the procession. The only flags in sight were those which the Liberal candidate, W. G. Charlton, had hoisted for the occasion above his committee rooms. A curious, but by no means enthusiastic, crowd gathered around the premier's auto as he stepped out to enter the hotel. A few staunch supporters immediately surrounded him and assured him that he was among friends, apparently fearing that the prevailing coolness might lead him to think otherwise.

As the premier passed in to his dinner the crowd slowly dispersed to the tune of much comment on the lack of enthusiasm and remarks from former loyal Tories, which were nothing else than expressions of open mutiny.

"I thought you were asked to decorate for the premier's visit, one man inquired of a prominent Conservative merchant. "So I was," he responded. "But I don't see why I should. When I go to Ottawa they don't decorate the place for me, and I don't see why I should go to a lot of trouble when he comes here, even if he is the premier."

There was no doubt as to the speaker's affiliations. Only a few moments before he had emphatically refused for political reasons to give The Advertiser representative a lift in his car to Straffordville, where the premier was to speak, although he had several spare seats.

A Pathetic Group.

One pathetic little group was that which gathered about the box stove at one of the hotels. They comprised lieutenants, sergeants and a few of the rank and file of the Government forces.

"Humph," grumbled one of them, "if it was 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' or a circus parade they'd turn out quick enough, but when the premier comes you would think the whole town was away on a holiday."

Following dinner an automobile procession started on its way to Straffordville with the premier in the lead. Once again only the speed of the cortege distinguished it from a funeral. Not a flag was displayed. A few farmers busy in the fields glanced up for a moment as it passed, but did not even wave their hats. Pupils of the rural schools along the route turned out and watched in silence as the procession whirled by and then went quietly back to their studies.

Things were brighter at Straffordville because the occasion was as much a social as a political one. The village was well decorated and arrangements for the reception were well carried out. The meeting at the rink was ably managed. The attendance of 1,500, however, was accounted for as much from a desire to see the prime minister of the Dominion as to give support to his political opinions. The larger proportion, of course, was formed of adherents of the Government policy, but there were many Liberals and representatives of the U. F. O.

Was Not Interested.

A very true indication of the state of affairs in the riding was given by John Stansell, the Government candidate himself. He was telling of his experiences in canvassing.

"I was driving along a sideroad with one of my supporters who knew that section pretty well," he said. "We saw approaching us one of the principal farmers of Bayham Township. We stopped when we met and my friend introduced me to the farmer, explaining that I was a candidate in the coming by-election.

"For what party?" asked the farmer.

"The National Liberal and Conservative," I replied.

"Giddap!" ejaculated the farmer, and drove off at a trot."

C. OF C. STARTS BIG DRIVE FOR MORE MEMBERS

Three Teams Are Busy in Connection With the Campaign.

Team organization for the continuation campaign of the London Chamber of Commerce has been completed, and under the direction of A. Gordon Scott of the Canadian City Bureau, a lively campaign was launched today to secure new members, to re-enroll delinquent members, and in addition secure greater interest on the part of all the members in the activities of the organization.

Lucius Wilson of the American City Bureau, New York, will be the special speaker at the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce in the Masonic Temple this evening.

The following are the three teams who are at work boosting the Chamber of Commerce membership list:

Team number one—E. V. Buchanan and Gerald Pearson, captains:
C. B. King, F. L. Willgoose, F. W. St. Lawrence, W. R. Jarmain, Allan McLean, E. W. G. Moore, Chester Rowntree, T. C. Benson, J. K. Langford, J. K. McDermid, Ward Casselman, G. L. Spry, John Stuart, W. W. Nobbs, E. W. Gairns, A. H. B. Keene.

Team number two—George Wenige and H. B. Muir, captains:
E. W. Gibbert, A. Humphries, Geo. H. Davis, T. A. Faust, Geo. Clarke, Geo. Dicks, T. H. Yuil, Tom Allan, John Cottam, J. C. Beamier, Ben Brick, H. Ranahan, J. Mogritt.

Team number three—C. H. Beard and J. M. Watt, captains:
E. Nichols, Dr. Detwiler, C. W. McGuire, Geo. Copeland, R. J. Webster, D. McArthur, Frank Ashplant, Wm. Martin, Chas. Jones.

VIOLENCE IS FAVORED IN EMERGENCIES, IS SOCIALISTIC VIEW

Resolutions Advocating Dictatorship by Proletariat Are Passed.

Reggio, Nellemilia, Italy, Oct. 13.—Establishment of a dictatorship by international proletariat would be a necessity imposed by special conditions, but is not the compulsory duty of the Socialist party of Italy, declared resolutions passed at the conference of Moderate Socialists, in session here today. Such a dictatorship, however, cannot be framed in every country, the resolutions said, according to plans which would prove efficient in this country.

The resolutions did not condemn the use of violence or illegal means in class struggles, but stated these measures should be adopted "only as the last step against the blind resistance of the bourgeoisie."

In conclusion, the resolutions reaffirmed that, if occasion arises, the Italian Socialist party "will not renounce the conquest of political power in any way which the opportunity of the moment and the international situation suggest."

ASKS IF LINDSAY CRAWFORD LIABLE TO PROSECUTION

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Whether Lindsay Crawford came under the scope of the criminal code in regard to his recent utterances or not was the gist of a telegram sent to Hon. W. E. Raney, attorney-general for Ontario, by the executive of the newly-formed Ottawa Citizens' League last night.

INCREASE TO G. T. R. CLERKS TO BE HIGH AS $50 PER MONTH

Agreement Covering Clerical, Freight, Store and Shopmen Is Signed.

EXCEEDS McADOO AWARD

New Schedule Will Affect Thousands of Employees.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—The agreement covering increased wages for Grand Trunk railway clerks, freight handlers, station, store and certain shop employees was signed yesterday by the general committee representing these employees, and Mr. Bowker, representing the Grand Trunk Railway Company, according to a statement issued to the press today by an officer of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees. The increase in wages to clerical employees will in some cases amount to as much as $50 a month over rates in effect January 1, 1920. The higher rates are brought about by the pooling of the total increases to all clerks, the redistribution of the amount so pooled by committees representing employees and the management of the railway to provide proper differentials. The increase to clerks will in many cases be considerably more than that provided by the United States railway labor board inasmuch as the increases are based on rates in effect March 1, 1920, instead of on rates established in supplement number seven of the McAdoo award, 1918, the basis adopted by the United States labor board. Freight handlers, station, store and shop employees other than clerks will receive increases similar to those provided by the United States labor board decision number two, which is from five to thirteen cents per hour.

The new schedule is signed on behalf of employees, members of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, by J. E. McGuire, Ottawa; Karl Corbin, Montreal; W. Byham, Sherbrooke, Que.

SAFE OF TOWN BANK BLOWN, BANDITS GET AWAY WITH $19,000

Five Masked Men Elude the Posses Sent in Pursuit.

TELLER OPENS VAULT

Forced To Comply With Orders After Taken From Bed.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—(Canadian Press.)—Five masked men, after blowing the safe of the Union Bank at Winkler, Man., at 3 a.m. today, escaped with $19,000.

W. Graefer, blacksmith, who heard the noise in the bank, and attempted to ring the town bell, was shot in the leg by one of the gang, who was outside on lookout.

The five escaped posses from Winkler and Morden.

Claude Williams, the teller of the bank, and the only one in the building at the time, was awakened by the men who compelled him to come to the vault at the point of revolvers. They forced him to open the vault, then tied him up, put him in his bed, and carried him, bed and all, out of the building, and left him at the door.

They then blew the safe with dynamite or nitro-glycerine, and took all the cash in the vault.

Telegraph and electric light cables in Winkler had all been cut before the robbery began.

They were masked and used only flashlights, so Williams was not able to give any description of them. When they were leading him to the vault, one of them said: "Our Government wouldn't give us any bonus after we had fought for you, so we're going to get ours from the Canadian Government."

JUSTICE PROBE STIRS INTEREST

Investigation Into Judicial Matters Begins Here On Thursday Morning.

Keen interest promises to be evidenced in the hearing of the commission of inquiry into judicial practice and administration of justice which will sit at the court house Thursday morning commencing at 9 o'clock. All the officers of the various departments and branches of justice, have been asked to attend and any person who has complaints to make or criticisms to offer of the administration of justice in the province at present is invited to appear before the commission and testify or express his views. E. A. Pocock is the only local member of the commission.

Rush Of Permits For New Homes

Figures Already Are Greater Than During the Whole Month Year Ago.

Although it is not yet the 15th day of the month, building figures have passed the total which was reached in the whole 31 days of October, 1919. Permits issued today made the total for this month to date $180,610, compared with $178,145 during all October last year. The chief permits today were: L. H. Martyn, 1½-story brick veneer dwelling, Waterloo street, $6,000, and the housing commission, for Thomas Fortner, 1½-story brick veneer house on the Wharncliffe road, $4,000.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS ASKS FOR REPORT ON VILNA AFFAIR

London, Oct. 13.—The League of Nations has sent a telegram to Col. Chardigny at Kovno, who is in charge of the League of Nations commission, asking him to report fully on the Vilna situation, and as to what treatment the members of the commission have been given and assuring him of the support of the league.

FIGHT ORDER OF HEALTH BOARD

Chinese Restaurant Proprietors Object To Proposed Placarding.

J. W. G. Winnett has been retained by the Chinese Restaurateurs' Association to fight the proposed regulations of the London Board of Health, under which all the local eating places will be placarded with notices indicating the comparative cleanness and conformity to regulations of each restaurant upon inspection.

In contrast to the action of the Chinese restaurant keepers, the proprietors of a Greek restaurant on Dundas street wrote to the board of health Tuesday urging that a regular system of inspection be instituted, and that all restaurants be placarded as the board proposes to do. This particular restaurant, it is said, was one of the two restaurants, which several weeks ago, upon inspection, was given a clean bill of sanitation by the inspector on their rounds.

The other restaurant, in which satisfactory conditions were found prevailing, was a Chinese restaurant, which, nothwithstanding its creditable standing, appears to prefer to stand or fall with the other restaurants kept by the same Oriental race.

MAY BUILD $200,000 DAIRY PLANT HERE

London Milk Producers Have Big Plans Under Consideration.

If the present plans of the Middlesex Milk Producers' Association are carried out, a $200,000 dairy plant will be erected in London shortly. This matter and other questions of vital importance to dairymen of the district will be discussed at a meeting to be held in the county buildings next Tuesday evening, when R. W. E. Burnaby, president of the U. F. O., will be here and give an address.

J. C. Nichol of Wilton Grove, president of the London Milk Producers' Association, stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that he expects that following the meeting on Tuesday the milk producers will form a company to erect a big plant in London to handle not only milk, but eggs, cheese and butter. There is a big market here, he believes, for high-grade products at fair prices.

Prices Too High.

"Prices have been too high," said Mr. Nichol. "There is, as far as milk is concerned, far too great a spread between the price the producer gets and the price paid by the consumer. I believe that lower prices would mean a larger consumption of milk. I am looking for lower prices as a result of the reductions being made in quotations on feed."

Mr. Nichol gave some interesting figures regarding milk production in this district. Within a radius of six miles of London he estimates that there is produced 70 tons, or 140,000 pounds, of milk every day. Of this amount perhaps half comes to London.

A Rich Centre.

"London," he said, "is one of the richest producing centres in the whole province. There are, I should think, 200 producers delivering in the city. There are about 60 in our association. A great deal of milk produced in this district goes to Windsor, Sarnia and Toronto, and a great deal goes to big consumers, such as the biscuit factories, ice cream manufacturers and bakers. In comparison with some other places prices of milk are low in London. We get $2 per cwt. In Toronto $3.25 is paid for 82 pounds."

Mr. Nichol stated that E. H. Stonehouse of Toronto intends coming to London shortly to discuss with dairymen the problem of delivery, which is one of the big items of overhead expense.

HIGHER SALARIES FOR WINNIPEG TEACHERS

Free Text Books Will Also Be Issued by Board.

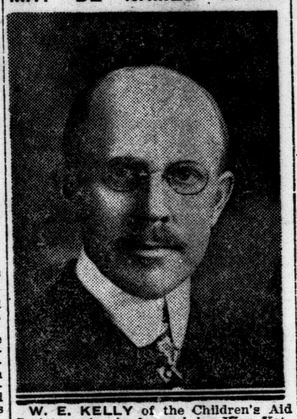

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—At a meeting of the Winnipeg School Board last night it was decided to increase salaries of all principals and teachers by 25 per cent, effective January 1, 1921. The board also will provide free text books for pupils after September 1, 1921.

It is estimated that the new increase in salaries will affect 800 teachers, involving an additional outlay of $250,000 a year. Free issue of text books will cost another $83,000.

FIRE ON GERMAN LINER.

Berlin, Oct. 13.—A telegram from Hamburg this morning reports that a big fire broke out at midnight on the steamer Victoria Louise of the Hamburg American Line in the Vulcan yards there. The message gave no further details.

MAY BE NAMED JUDGE

W. E. KELLY of the Children's Aid Society, who is favored by War Veterans as judge for juvenile court in London.

Send Children On Mission Because They Were Afraid

Washington, Oct. 13.—(By the Canadian Press).—Little girls, carrying banners denouncing Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson as anarchists paraded past the White House yesterday in a kind of demonstration at the back of which it is supposed were Sinn Fein sympathizers, who hesitated to carry the affair out themselves, fearing arrest.

Whether or not the District of Columbia authorities will take any action is unknown at present.

WILL URGE CITY TO BUY COAL

Labor Men and Vets Believe They Have a Bargain.

G. K. Keats and F. B. Lavandar will appear before No. 1 committee of the city council this afternoon as representatives of the trades and labor council and the central veterans' council respectively, to urge the purchase of coal for the civic yards.

Mr. Lavandar stated today that they are in a position to secure 2,000 tons of Bernice coal for the city at a price considerably below that at present prevailing. This, he claims, can be purchased in the anthracite district near Pittsburg at $13 a ton. It is one grade softer than anthracite, but has a greater heating power, requires less draft, and burns to a fine ash, leaving no cinders.

He estimated the freight as $3.85, f.o.b., London, which, with exchange, on the whole deal, would bring the price to $18.23 a ton laid down here. He did not make an estimate of the cost of unloading and delivering.

CAR STRIKE IS NOT EXPECTED

President Currie of Street Railway Is in the City.

Charles Currie, president of the London Street Railway, is a visitor in the city today. He is here on official business in connection with the railway, and is holding a consultation with Manager C. B. King and the company's solicitors, Ivey & Ivey. It was rumored that he is here in connection with the employees' mass meeting next Saturday, when the men will try and arrange a plan whereby than can receive 52 cents per hour.

It is not likely that there will be a strike is the opinion of the majority of the men. They claim that in all their strikes they have not been able to get the amount they were after. Another strike, it is not believed, will help matters. Some of the men are of the opinion that if the matter is left over until the people have a chance to vote on the question that it will be the only solution to their troubles.

TWO MURDER CASES ON WELLAND DOCKET

Welland, Oct. 13.—Not for many years has such a large docket been listed for hearing at the supreme court of Ontario as will come before the Hon. Justice Kelly next week. Up to the present there are four criminal cases, two for murder.

Undoubtedly the case that will attract the most attention will be the trial of David McNeal, who is charged with the murder by strangulation of little Margaret Boucock, at Thorold.

The other murder charge is against Rosario Sacco charged with the murder by stabbing of Dominico Sarafin at Thorold.

WOMAN FOUND UNDER BRIDGE IS LONDONER

Identified As Maggie Sullivan and Also Known As Maggie Smith.

The remains of the woman found under the Pere Marquette bridge at St. Thomas were positively identified at noon today by Sam Harris, a colored resident of this city, as those of Maggie Sullivan, colored, also known as Maggie Smith, a resident of London.

Hundreds of people from St. Thomas and the district have viewed the remains. Prior to leaving for St. Thomas this morning Mr. Harris stated to The Advertiser that from the description he was certain that the dead woman was Maggie Sullivan.

She was in the city on Saturday, and, it is stated, appeared to be very depressed. One of the last places she was seen was around the market, and it is stated that apparently she was under the influence of Florida water,

WELLS SAYS HE IS SEEKING SAME IDEAL AS THE COMMUNISTS

British Novelist Declares Russia and Britain Love Each Other.

London, Oct. 13.—H. G. Wells, the British novelist, who is visiting Russia, is reported in a Moscow dispatch to the Daily Herald, organ of Labor, as saying in a speech before the Petrograd soviet on October 7, that he, with others sharing his opinions, was working for the same ideal as the communists. This ideal, he is declared to have asserted, was the creation of a "universal realm of social equity, serving every citizen according to his needs."

"My government," Mr. Wells is reported to have said; "has caused, and is still causing, destruction and misery in our country, but the welcome you have given me shows that, notwithstanding your immense hardships, you can understand our difficulties. Russia and Great Britain, despite mistakes on both sides, can still love and understand each other, and will work together for the benefit of humanity and for the new world which is being born amid darkness and calamities. The British people desire peace with Russia and will not cease agitating until that peace comes."

BOLSHEVIKI RETAKE IMPORTANT SEAPORT

Constantinople, Oct. 13.—The reoccupation by the Bolsheviki of Mariupol and Berdiansk, on the Sea of Azov, is announced.

(This represents a setback for the forces of Gen. Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander in South Russia, who recently was reported in possession of Mariupol and in virtual control of the entire Sea of Azov.)

REDS CLAIM SUCCESSES.

London, Oct. 13.—Successes for the Russian soviet forces all along the line south of Minsk to the Crimea are reported in the Russian soviet official statement of Tuesday, received here today by wireless. The annihilation of two companies of a Polish division in the Alexandrovsk district of the Crimean front is claimed in the statement.

Airship Hovers Over London As Prince Arrives

American Officers Anxious To See Celebration in the British Capital.

London, Oct. 13.—Much mystery surrounded the appearance over the city of the great dirigible R-32 during the celebration attending the arrival in London of the Prince of Wales. The presence of this air leviathan was not a part of the official program.

The Manchester Guardian explains that the R-32 is being used as a training ship for the United States crew, which will take the dirigible across the Atlantic to the United States. The Americans were determined to see the prince, and in order to take no chances they journeyed in the air from Howden in Yorkshire. Incidentally the R-32 was one of the features of the celebration, as she was a magnificent spectacle, with her silver sides glistening in the sunshine.

REVELSTOKE VOTERS CHEER WHEN LIBERAL LEADER DEMANDS THAT A GENERAL ELECTION BE HELD

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King Delivers Address to the British Columbia Electors—Large Portion of Audience Consisted of Women Who Listened Attentively As Liberal Party's Principles Are Outlined.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Revelstoke, B. C., Oct. 12.—An official welcome from the mayor of the city was awaiting the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King when he arrived in Revelstoke late this afternoon. There was an important delegation of local citizens to greet the Liberal leader as he stepped from his car. The principal event of Mr. King's visit here, which lasted for only some few hours, was the mass meeting held in the evening in the largest theatre of which Revelstoke boasts.

The building was packed to the doors when Mr. King arrived to be greeted with hearty cheers from the audience. Mr. Duff, M.P. of Lunenburg, was the only one of the visitors who spoke besides Mr. King, whose exposition of the principles of the Liberal party was listened to attentively by an audience in which women formed a notable proportion.

Mr. King's assertion that the present Government had outlived its mandate and was in honor bound to go to the country for a renewal or a refusal of confidence, was greeted with enthusiasm. Supporting Mr. King on the platform were Senator Bostick and Dr. Sutherland and J. Buckham, members of the Provincial Legislature.

NEW YORK DOCTORS BELIEVE MACSWINEY IS BEING FED

Medical Men in America's Greatest City Point Out That a Man of MacSwiney's Build Could Not Live 61 Days Without Food—Grape Juice, Said To Have Been Given Prisoner, Has Considerable Food Value, Declare the Physicians.

New York, Oct. 13.—(Canadian Press).—That Terence MacSwiney, hunger-striking lord mayor of Cork, is being fed in Brixton Prison, London, is the view of a large number of representative medical men of New York, according to the Herald today. Yesterday was the 61st day of MacSwiney's reported fast.

The Herald took the trouble to interview many doctors on the Brixton phenomenon and the unanimous view of these men of science was that the lord mayor of Cork must have been taking nourishment of some kind, in addition to water.

In authentic medical records, the longest fast known to these physicians was that of Dr. Tanner, a generation back. He went 41 days without food of any kind. The practitioners point out that a man can lose only a certain percentage of his original weight in the process of starvation, and that when this point is passed he must die. The percentage they place at about half his normal weight. A stout man can outfast a thin man because the fatty tissues are consumed first. MacSwiney is of slender build.

The statement in yesterday's news cables that the prisoner has been given grape juice explained many things to the New York doctors, who say that the prohibition cocktail has considerable food value.

MIND NOT SO CLEAR.

London, Oct. 13.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, does not have a very good night at Brixton Prison, according to a bulletin issued early today by the Irish Self-Determination League. It is declared a doctor in attendance found him perceptibly weaker, and that his mind was not as clear as it has been since he began his hunger strike.

"I feel I am about played out" is a statement repeatedly made by the lord mayor, according to Father Dominic, his private chaplain, who is quoted by the Herald, organ of Labor.

MacSwiney today began the sixty-second day of his hunger strike.

To Investigate Existence Of "Booze" Market

Large Deals in Liquor Are Reported in the Bowery.

New York, Oct. 13.—Frank L. Boyd, supervising prohibition enforcement agent for New York State, has received orders from federal headquarters in Washington to investigate the alleged existence of a "curb market" in contraband liquor in the Bowery, it was learned here today. According to published reports, the traffic in liquor in this section has become so thriving that the bands of bootleggers engaged in supplying saloons and "speakeasies" have hit upon the plan of modeling their market after the curb market of the financial district in order to facilitate transactions.

Within a short distance from police headquarters large transactions in liquor are said to have been made, the actual supplies being kept elsewhere in trucks ready for immediate delivery. "The market" is said to be open from late evenings until the early morning hours, and the "brokers" change its location occasionally in order to avoid detection.

NOTED EVANGELIST EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Charles Alexander Made Tour of World With Dr. Torrey.

Birmingham, Eng., Oct. 13.—Charles McCallon Alexander, an evangelist known throughout the world particularly in Canada and the United States, died suddenly at his home here this morning.

Charles M. Alexander was born in 1867 at Maryville, Tenn. Early in life he engaged in evangelistic life directing his activities with great skill and success to organizing and conducting large chorus choirs. He accompanied the Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey on an evangelistic tour of the world which occupied from 1902 to 1906 and included Canada. Mr. Alexander made a second tour of the world with his wife, formerly Miss Selina Cadbury of Birmingham in 1906 and 1907.

HON. GEO. P. GRAHAM WILL PRESENT CUP

Half Holiday Is Being Observed at Tilbury On Thursday Afternoon.

Tilbury, Oct. 13.—Thursday afternoon will be a local half-holiday this week, when on Memorial Park, Hon. George P. Graham will present the Tilbury Baseball Club, the champions of the Essex County Baseball League, with the silver cup he donated. At the conclusion of the presentation, the Essex team, strengthened by two ex-American Leaguers, Frankie Fuller and Marty Kavanagh, will clash with Tilbury in an exhibition game, which will conclude the baseball season for this year.

'PUSSYFOOT' JOHNSON WILL TAKE ACTION AGAINST DISTILLERS

Scotch Manufacturers Advertise Business With U. S.

Edinburgh, Scotland, Oct. 13.—Advertisements appearing in Scottish newspapers in which it is charged certain distillers claim, in substance, their business with the United States has greatly increased since the 18th amendment to the United States constitution went into effect, will be brought to the attention of the department of justice at Washington. William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, prohibition leader, addressing a meeting here last night, discussed these advertisements and asserted he would take this action regarding them.

He charged that, if the advertisements told the truth the distillers were "violating the laws of a friendly nation."

Sing Sing Prison Is Now Bone Dry

Ossining, Oct. 13.—Sing Sing Prison went bone dry today. An order was issued forbidding the use of bay rum, toilet water, perfume, witch hazel or any other preparation containing alcohol either in the barber shop or by the inmates. Soap and talcum powder only will be permitted for shaving purposes in future. The new order, it was stated, is a precautionary measure to prevent prisoners from obtaining alcohol.

G. W. V. A. DECIDES TO ASK HARRY WRAY TO RESIGN HIS POSITION

Will Protest Appointment As Officer At Ontario Govt. Employment Bureau.

A. E. POCOCK ATTACKED

Result of Byron Breeze Transfer—Soldiers Want Money To Bury Comrades.

Fiery speeches, hot arguments and many resolutions, approved and otherwise, marked the regular meeting of the G. W. V. A. held in the basement of the Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening.

Much excitement prevailed toward the end of the meeting, when Comrade Barney Devlin started making charges against certain men. After heroically containing himself during the early routine of the evening, during which time he devoted his time to persuading members from leaving the hall until the fireworks had started, he suddenly burst forth in a bitter attack on Harry Wray, a governmental employee in the local employment bureau, and E. A. Pocock, member of the G. W. V. A. and former editor of the Byron Breeze, the publication of which has been discontinued. Neither of the men were present to defend themselves.

The attack on Wray was the direct result of his appointment to the position in the employment bureau here. The Hon. Mr. Rollo, minister of labor, came in for a great deal of cirticism, because, it was claimed, that he had appointed a man who had not served out of Canada during the war in preference to a man who had served in France.

It was unanimously decided that a resolution should be sent Mr. Rollo acquainting him with the facts in the situation. A resolution was passed requesting him to resign the position. A copy of the resolution will be forwarded to him personally.

Unconstitutional.

A. Pugh, B. Devlin and other members of the organization claimed that A. E. Pocock should not have disposed of the Byron Breeze, which was primarily a soldiers' paper, indorsed by the organization, to the labor people, without first having consulted the G. W. V. A. Amid a great deal of excitement a resolution was moved by A. Pugh asking his expulsion from the organization. He called for a vote, but this was declared by the chairman unconstitutional.

A few of the members made a plea for fair play for Mr. Pocock. They did not believe that it was British methods to attack a man without giving him a chance to clear himself. Acting on this, the president stated that he would abide by the constitution, and so would appoint a committee of three to investigate any written charge made against Mr. Pocock. He would be asked, it was stated, to personally appear before the committee to answer the charges.

Ask Burial Money.

Perhaps the most important business of the evening was a resolution which was passed unanimously, and which will be forwarded to the Federal Government, calling for further assistance in the burial of veterans of the war who have since died. The Government will be asked to grant at least $150 towards the funeral expenses in each case, over and above all other grants, which may have been provided. The Government will also be asked to supply a gun-carriage, a firing party and a band at all funerals.

This step was the outcome of a mild attack on the G. W. V. A. Band. In defence it was claimed that it could not be expected that the members of the band would turn out to all funerals, when they would have to lose a half day's work without remuneration.

A communication was received from the Central Veterans' Council asking the members of the organization to sign a petiiton protesting against the appointment of Mrs. Graham to the Mothers' Pension Board. It was doubted that the council had power to make such a request, so the letter was filed.

Wait For Applications.

An attempt was made by A. Pugh to place the G. W. V. A. on record as supporting W. E. Kelly for judge of the juvenile court, which the executive of the association believed was an assured thing for this city. The resolution had already gone to the meeting, when Comrade Reason protested. He felt that it would be unwise to support anyone until all applications for the position had been received. In this way the organization would be able to support the best man. Acting on his motion it was decided not to support anyone until all applications were in.

It was announced by Comrade Reason that the executive of the Liberal Club had offered the use of Hyman Hall as a meeting place of the veterans on every second Tuesday night, free of charge. The offer was gratefully accepted, and a vote of thanks was passed. It is thought that the Hyman Hall will be infinitely more comfortable than the basement of the Masonic Hall, which Comrade Reason compared to a dug-out.

Barney Devlin was again in the limelight, when he attacked the policy of the executive committee when it elected Secretary J. Cunliffe to the office during an executive meeting. He contended that such an election should be held in an open meeting, otherwise the constitution would be over-ruled.

Devlin also made the charge that in spite of the fact that he had been elected to represent the G. W. V. A. in the Central Veterans' Council he had been told by a fellow-member that he was not wanted. As a result of a motion put to the meeting it was decided to have the charges put in writing and submitted at the next meeting.

The following men were elected to represent the organization on the Central Veterans' Council: Comrades Reason, Finlayson, A. Pugh, B. Devlin and C. Butler.

LEADS IN LONDON.

The City of London, through its teachers of music, has centered very largely on the Heintzman & Co. piano. A recent sale was to Mr. A. D. Jordan, the new Director of the Institute of Musical Art, he having bought a beautiful Heintzman & Co. Semi-Grand for his own use in this institution. Other leaders in music, who have made this piano their choice, includes F. L. Willgoose, Mus. Bac., A.R.C.O., Principal London Conservatory of Music; E. G. Quantz, Teacher of Music in the Public Schools; Charles E. Percy, Organist and Choirmaster, St. James' Church; Miss Jennie Steele, F. L. C. M., London Conservatory of Music; Clarence Gilmore, Organist and Choirmaster, St. John the Evangelist Church, teacher of piano; B. Weir, Organist and Choirmaster, Centennial Church; Mrs. L. Francis-Vining, F.L.C.M., Gold Medalist, London Conservatory of Music. Warerooms of Heintzman & Co., Limited, are situated at 242 Dundas Street, London. b

HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF BEEF CATTLE ARE BEING MADE

Seeding Is Later in Many Districts This Season Than Usual.

The following is a summary of the weekly reports made by the agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture:

There are fewer beef cattle on hand than usual. Bruce reports that a considerable number of live stock have been shipped recently, and that stockers are being brought in and sold by auction at 11 to 12 cents a pound. Frontenac states that one drover has been shipping one or two carloads of cattle weekly to the United States by way of Cape Vincent. Grey says that three carloads of live stock were sent out of the county in each of the last two weeks. Oxford reports that four carloads of heifers were shipped to Saskatchewan during the week to the order of the live stock commissioner of that province. Waterloo states that during the last week four carloads of western stock were brought in by one drover.

Referring to the closing on a very short notice of a number of milk receiving stations in connection with powder factories, the Oxford representative says: "The blow has been a severe one to the milk industry in this county."

Lambs are being marketed freely, but prices are not encouraging. Grey, however, points out that wool has gone up to 35 cents a pound, where only 15 cents was offered two months ago.

Splendid Oat Yields.

The threshing of oats is revealing some large individual yields. One man in Frontenac reports 110 bushels to the acre.

Fort William speaks highly of the appearance of the potatoes raised for certified seed. Some reports in older Ontario are not so favorable regarding the quality of late potatoes, as some rot has appeared.

Most of the corn has matured splendidly with the comparatively warm fall weather, but it is difficult to get men and machinery to handle the crop quickly. Renfrew complains of some frozen corn.

Grey says: "Some yields of sweet clover seed run as high as 18 bushels to the acre, while others go only about eight bushels. One man who brought in about sixty bushels was paid $8 a bushel.

Sugar beets are now being dug and shipped to the factories. They have done well. Recent dry weather, however, is said to be telling on turnips.

In the Niagara Peninsula grapes are selling at from $85 to $100 a ton.

Some representatives say that the drop in the price of wheat is causing an increased haul to market, while others state that the effect has been to bring marketing almost to a standstill.

Lincoln reports that some market gardeners are quitting land operations to work on the canal at 85 cents an hour.

Sowing Is Later.

Later sowing than usual of fall wheat has been a feature of the season. Kent says: "Farmers have been sowing all week and are not through yet. This is the latest seeding in the county for years, but the weather is favorable."

Fall plowing has been more or less delayed by the hard condition of the soil, heavy threshings, and the desire to get the silos filled before the frost comes. In this connection the opinion of several representatives is voiced by Frontenac: "Farmers are experiencing the lack of machines for threshing and silo filling. The situation in regard to threshing is especially acute, for the reason of the abundance of straw, some farmers having from two to three days' threshing when one day would have been sufficient last year. The tendency will be towards the securing of outfits to meet the demand for threshing and silo filling by farmers in small groups."

SPLENDID HARVEST IN MORAY DISTRICT

Farmers Are Very Busy Just Now Filling Silos.

Moray, Oct. 13.—An abundant harvest has been gathered in in this district, and threshing is nearly finished. All grains are yielding well excepting spring wheat, which was almost a failure. The quality of the fall wheat, oats and barley is good, as a rule. Corn is also an excellent crop, and cutting and silo-filling is now in full swing.

Melvin Durr, a returned soldier, is taking a medical course at the Western University, London.

Mary, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock of the 20th concession of McGillivray, died on Friday from heart trouble. The funeral took place on Monday to Parkhill Cemetery.

U. J. WALKER IS FEARFUL OF THE SAFETY LEAGUE

Says He Is Doomed If League Keeps Up Its Activities.

Declaring that his very existence is threatened by the vigorous Safety League campaign now in progress, U. J. Walker today made a vociferous protest against the activities of the organization.

"I am doomed if this sort of thing keeps up," he said. "There was a time when I was one of the most prominent features of the city. Wherever traffic was congested or automobile drivers were having difficulty to avoid accidents, I was to be seen right out in the centre of things. I provided more thrills than the loop-the-loop artists in the circus. People used to gasp as they watched automobiles whizz past me so close they would have struck me if they had another coat of paint. Motormen on the street cars used to get palpitation of the heart when I appeared right under their noses in the middle of a block. In fact, athough I was in considerable danger myself and was often endangering the safety of others, I rather enjoyed the notoriety of it.

Not Intentional.

"Of course, I did not always do it intentionally. Quite often it was just pure carelessness o n my part. I admit, I would step off the sidewalk and cross the road just whenever the fancy took me, and never take the trouble to look for the traffic.

"Now the Safety League has entirely changed the fashion, and if it has come to stay I must go into oblivion."

Mr. J. Walker's cousin, O. U. Jay, also had some remarks to make on the campaign. He is a simple-minded fellow and is continually getting into trouble on the down-town streets. Only special providence has preserved him thus far, as he has been the central figure in more near-accidents than anyone else in the city.

In Greater Danger.

Just how simple Mr. Jay is can be realized when it is known that "Safety Week" placed him in greater danger than he was ever in during his whole lifetime. As everyone knows, the Safety League has had a number of signs painted on the pavements and sidewalks, just to remind people to do their share in preventing accidents. Mr. Jay saw one of these signs in the middle of the road and, being near-sighted, he wandered out to have a look at it. He was busily engaged in this task when he suddenly realized that there was a great commotion near at hand. An automobile had been stopped only two inches from him by means of strenuous use of the brakes.

The driver never imagined that Mr. Jay or anyone else would stop right in the middle of the road like that, and he was almost on top of him before he could bring his car to a standstill.

Mr. Jay was thankful for his narrow escape, and promised to keep his wits about him in the future. He shows signs of a big improvement.

Encouraged by their success with him, the Safety League is vigorously prosecuting its campaign. C. B. King of the Safety League executive stated today that the progress was most satisfactory, and that good results were expected.

One accident was reported which was largely due to the heavy fog last night. A buggy driven by A. W. Geen, 147 Mamelon street, was struck by an automobile near Hyde Park. He was thrown from the buggy, but not injured. While he was being assisted to his feet by the driver of the motor car his horse broke loose. City and county authorities are now looking for it. The name of the motorist was not learned.

NEW RECTOR TAKES PRINCETON CHARGE

Rev. C. R. S. Pike of Alvinston Opens His Pastorate Sunday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Princeton, Oct. 13.—The Bishop of Huron has appointed Rev. C. R. S. Pike of Alvinston, as rector of St. Paul's Church, Princeton, and St. Bartholomew's, Falkland. Harvest thanksgiving services will be held by him in Princeton next Sunday. Mr. Pike came to Princeton today, and will shortly take up his residence at the rectory.

Mr. Rehder has grown 8,000 cauliflowers for the salting station on half an acre of his land.

The pupils of Princeton continuation class gave a very pleasant at home to the Drumbo class. There were between 40 and 50 young people and their teachers altogether. A fall fair, with a fake program, was a great source of amusement, also guessing contests and indoor sports. Small prizes were given to the winners.

GREENWOOD SAYS GOVT. WILL CONTINUE WITH ITS HOME RULE PLAN

Belfast, Oct. 13.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, in a speech here today, announced that he, Viscount French, lord lieutenant for Ireland, and Sir Frederick Neville Macready, commander of the military forces in Ireland, were in complete accord and did not contemplate resigning.

He declared that the Government intended to continue with the home rule bill, which it had prepared and would enlarge it in the most generous manner, especially in the direction of finances, thereby making a complete and final settlement of the Irish problem.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Centralia, Oct. 13.—One of the heaviest electrical storms of the season passed over Centralia yesterday, and caused considerable damage in the surrounding country. The lightning killed one of John McFall's cows on the 2nd concession of Biddulph, and one horse and injured another belonging to Hector Taylor of Zion. It also struck the school house at Eden, but did little damage. Several telephone poles and trees in the village were splintered.

DIAZ ORDERED DEPORTED.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 13.—Gen. Felix Diaz, who has been ordered deported, sailed last evening from Vera Cruz on board the French steamer Flandre. He will be accompanied until he reaches Havana by Capt. Cortez of the Mexican military police. It is said that Diaz will go to New Orleans.

LOCAL NEWS

WAS NOT CHARGED.—Frank Lewis of 265 Talbot street, son of William Lewis of Biddulph Township, near Lucan, wishes it understood that he is not the Frank Lewis charged in police court recently with assaulting a street railway employee.

BANQUET TONIGHT.—Considerable interested is being manifested in the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce to be held at :30 this evening. A business session will follow, at which plans for the ensuing year will be made up, and a new directorate will be elected.

SOCIAL EVENING.—About fifty of the members of the Friendship Adult Bible Class of Hale Street Methodist Church met at the home of their teacher, Edwin McLeod, to get together and boost the class. The evening was spent in addresses, singing, and instrumentals. The ladies provided a lunch after which the class thanked Mr. and Mrs. McLeod for their hospitality, and a very pleasant evening ended.

AUXILIARY MEETS.—The monthly devotional and business meeting of St. James' Anglican Church W. A. was held in the schoolroom Tuesday afternoon, with a good attendance. Mrs. Sage, diocesan president, gave an interesting talk on the work the Women's Auxiliary is doing in foreign and domestic fields, after which tea was served and a social half-hour was spent.

COON HUNT.—Residents of Ottaway avenue, near Victoria Hospital, enjoyed an unexpected coon hunt last night, when a newly-captured racoon escaped from its cage. The owner already owned one coon and secured another for the purpose of starting a farm similar to the black fox farms in the maritime provinces. However, the new arrival did not like his quarters and paid a visit to the hen coop next door. Everything here was satisfactory, especially six hens, which he killed, but was unable to eat before the arrival of Mr. Moorhead, the owner, who gave the alarm. A crowd was soon in pursuit of Mr. Coon. He was eventually captured in the large vacant lot facing Nelson street, which is covered with burdocks, and as a coon-coat proposition his skin would be dead loss, being matted with burrs. Mr. Moorhead threatens to sue the owner of the destroyer for the value of the six chickens.

PASTOR'S BAD BOY STEALS DAD'S AUTO

Cell and Woodshed Await the Joy-Riding Youngster.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—While Rev. R. Keene Ryan, pastor of Garfield Boulevard Presbyterian Church was delivering a sermon on the text, "Thou shalt not steal," to his congregation last night, his son, Addison H. Ryan, aged 16, and a student in high school, stole the pastor's new automobile which he had parked in front of the church, and left with a party of boy friends for parts unknown.

The boys are believed to be on their way to Kalamazoo, Mich. One of the party called his sweetheart over long distance telephone from Three Oaks, Mich., today, and told her they were having a lovely trip. The girl told her mother, who notified Rev. Dr. Ryan. The minister has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of his son and also for Daniel MacCormack, one of his son's chums, who is known to be in the party.

"I propose to teach my boy a lesson he will never forget," said the pastor. "He has never done a thing like this before, and I intend it shall be the last. I shall prosecute him in court and in addition, I will see that he gets the old-fashioned woodshed treatment when he arrives home."

BORDER MERCHANTS DEMAND INCREASE OF POLICE FORCE

WINDSOR, Oct. 13.—With petty crimes and burglaries steadily on the increase on the border, the campaign of the Border Cities Retail Merchants' Association for a reorganization of the Windsor police department, and the addition of a sufficient number of patrolmen to provide adequate protection of the city has gained great impetus. Within the past twenty-four hours four cases have been reported to the police, and no arrests have been made. The complaints included two store robberies and two cases of pocket-picking.

Ordered Deported.

Picked up on Windsor streets early this morning, Harry Graham of Chatham, arraigned in Windsor police court today on a nominal charge of vagrancy, was ordered deported when he confessed to being a drug addict. Graham admitted taking from six to eight grains daily.

Colored Girls Held.

Blanche Davis and Violet Smith, colored girls, came up from Toronto to witness the famous encounter between Man-o'-War and Sir Barton at Kenilworth today. They were picked up on the streets on a charge of vagrancy, and are being detained in the cells, pending investigation of their purpose here.

GOLD AND SILVER.

New York, Oct. 13.—Bar silver—Domestic, 93½c; foreign, 97c per ounce.

STANDARD STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—Trading on the mining exchange this morning was slow in all classes, with prices holding fairly firm at yesterday's close. McIntyre sold at 202 for a 1,000-share lot and extra 100. Dome Extension at 40 was another Porcupine feature which showed a little life. The Cobalts were practically unheard from in the list of sales.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Oct. 13.—Morning sales: Dome Extension, 3500 at 40; Dome Lake, 200 at 5; Holly, 100 at 570, 100 at 575, 100 at 585; Keora, 2500 at 17; Kirkland Lake, 500 at 46, 300 at 45; McIntyre, 1700 at 202; Porcupine Crown, 1000 at 23, 1000 at 22¾; Preston East Dome, 100 at 2; McKinley, 600 at 55; Temiskaming, 1000 at 34; Trethewey, 300 at 24, 2000 at 24½.

CHINA OPPOSES CONTROL.

Pekin, Oct. 13.—China is opposed to international control of Russian concessions and interests in China, as suggested by the diplomats, on the ground that this would be illegal and unprecedented and involve a breach in treaty stipulations.

CONSERVATION NOT REVENUE IS AIM OF NEW POWER CHARGES

Manager Buchanan Maintains That Hydro Is Not After Money.

Proposed increases in electric rates are to prevent the use of heaters and not to bring additional revenue to the Hydro-Electric system, E. V. Buchanan, general manager of the local system, mainitained today. He claimed that criticism of the proposed measure from that standpoint was altogether unjust.

"We can't stop the manufacturers making heaters or the dealers from selling them, but in the interest of all power users we have to limit the use of them. We have enough troubles of our own without assuming those of the coal men and the gas company. People who can't obtain coal or who do not wish to pay the increased gas charges are turning to electricity, and it is making a heavy demand on the system.

"The method to prevent this has not been officially adopted yet, and no date is set for it to go into operation. No rate has been adopted yet either.

"The assumption that we are to fix the maximum rate on summer consumption is not correct. If the scheme is put into operation the maximum amount of power allowed at the regular rates will be three kilowats per 100 square feet. The average house is rated at 2,000 square feet, which would mean than they could use 60 kilowats without coming under the higher rates. The average consumption in London for the whole year is only 25 kilowats, so I think that we are allowing a generous margin. In order to make it more fair, however, we are averaging the consumption between June and September. Where it is found that consumers exceed the maximum of 60 kilowats during that period we will advance their maximum sufficient to take care of it. There is no objection to the use of cook stoves and other appliances, as these usually are operated in peak hours, when there is plenty of power to spare."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

FUNERAL OF "DINTY" MOORE.

Chatham, Oct. 13.—The funeral took place to Maple Leaf Cemetery this afternoon of Clayton L. Moore, son of Robert Moore. He died at Windsor on Monday. "Dinty," as he was known, enlisted in 1917, and went overseas in the 67th Battery from Guelph, later transferring to the 18th Battalion. One year later, having contracted tubercular trouble, he returned from England and spent some months at the London Sanatorium. Three weeks ago he was removed to Windsor. He was 21 years old, and is survived by his father; one brother, Gordon, of Kingsville; and one sister, Vila, of Detroit. His mother predeceased him six years ago.

DEATH OF REV. GINGRICH.

Preston, Oct. 13.—Rev. Jacob Gingrich, aged 80, one of the best-known Mennonite pastors in this district, is dead at his home in Waterloo Township, near Doon. Ten years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis while in his pulpit, and ever since has been living retired.

FURTHER PARLEY BEFORE MINERS' DISPUTE ENDS

Ballots Show "Basic Line" Principle Will Be Heavily Rejected.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—It is virtually certain now that the miners' dispute will not be settled without further negotiations and balloting on the "basic line" principle, making the wages dependent on the output. The proceedings of yesterday and today are not yet completed, but it is already shown that the principle will be rejected by a substantial majority. The result will be officially announced Thursday, when the national delegation of the conference of miners will meet and consider the position, and will probably again suspend the strike notices which expire Saturday.

The leaders had advised the men to accept the "basic line," and are disappointed over the result of the ballot. It is believed they will try to induce the men to accept reference to an independent tribunal, as previously proposed by the Government. The belief is still general that there will be no strike.

LINWOOD FARMER KILLED BY LIGHTNING

SUGAR PLANT CLOSES.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 13.—Many employees have been laid off at the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, and it was stated here yesterday that the plant may be practically idle for a month.

VICTIM OF ALCOHOLISM.

Truro, N. S., Oct. 13.—Sumner Neil was found dead after excessive drinking yesterday, and his wife is critically ill from apparent carbolic acid poisoning. They had quarrelled over the husband's drinking habits.

MURDERS HIS SWEETHEART.

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—Clara Shuminski, aged 20, is dead with bullet wounds in her breast, and Robert Gilb, chauffeur, aged 22, is under arrest, following a lovers' quarrel in the parlor of the girl's home here last night.

REPLACING RAILS.

Worn rails in the vicinity of Harrisburg in the local division of the G. T. R. are being replaced by reclaimed steel.

Plan To Erect Big New Factory

Main Building of W. T. Rawleigh Company Will Be Six Stories in Height.

Secretary Gordon Philip of the Chamber of Commerce received word today from the head office of the W. T. Rawleigh Company of Freeport, Illinois, regarding the new factory to be erected in this city. The main building will be six stories in height, 200x72, and it is planned to erect several smaller buildings. Owing to the difficulty in obtaining cement it will be impossible to proceed with the plant this fall, but work, it is stated, will be started as early as possible in the spring.

PREDICTS RUSH OF IMMIGRANTS

Great Number of Inquiries Are Being Received, Says Inspector.

An enormous immigration from the British Isles is available for Canada, according to John Riggs, Canadian immigration officer here. Inquiries in considerable number are being received from families wishing to emigrate, and in addition many communications are being received from friends of families now en route, asking that they be met and located upon their arrival.

From Poland and Russia also many people are looking to Canada as a desirable place to emigrate, but close compliance with immigration regulations is being insisted upon in the cases of all immigrants from Central and Slavic Europe.

Considerable numbers of Italians are also coming to Canada, Mr. Riggs states.

APPROACHES OF HIGHWAYS TO CITY TO BE BEAUTIFIED

Landscape Inspector Pays Visit To Railway City—Makes Recommendations.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 12.—The approaches to the city on the roads leading out to connect with the provincial system of highways will be beautified and the landscape made attractive by the planting of trees and shrubs and the roadside levelled and sown with lawn grasses.

Provincial Landscape Inspecter H. J. Moore, Toronto, conferred with representatives of the council, the board of education and the Horticultural Society and visited prospective approaches, Pinafore Park and scenic points of the city.

His recommendations of the proposed improvements were promised the support of the two municipal bodies and President Bennett of the Horticultural Society.

The Zoo Unsightly.

Inspector Moore condemned the site of the municipal zoo in Pinafore Park, and advised that it be moved farther back and a row of trees be placed in front of the habitation of the animals and birds, and have the blot on the lovely surroundings hid from the driveway. He also suggested that the back of the grandstand in the diamond be hidden by trees or other foliage.

The entrance to the park was also declared by him to be dangerous to people driving, as well as pedestrians.

East Talbot Street Condemned.

Mr. Moore condemned the construction of Talbot street east of Balaclava street, and would like to hear the opinion of the inspector of highways when he came to St. Thomas. The inspector considered the narrowing of the street instead of making the highway of uniform width from end to end of the streets as actually "criminal." In this direction St. Thomas was 50 years behind the times.

He did not see a way by which the escarpment at the west end of Talbot street could be improved on account of its formation.

The party accompanying Mr. Moore in his tour of the city were Aldermen Meehan, Butler, Chairman Rev. J. W. J. Andrew, President Bennett, City Solicitor Doherty and George Geddes.

Case of Extreme Cruelty.

Wilfred Weaver, a drover of Belmont, has been summoned by the inspector of the local Humane Society for driving a cow suffering with lump jaw from Belmont to Glanworth. The charge is made that at intervals on the journey the cow would fall on its knees, and when the poor beast could go no further it was loaded upon a wagon and hauled to Glanworth and shipped to Toronto, the inspector states, but died before it reached its destination. The accused will be heard on Friday afternoon.

Company Changes Hands.

The Nobility Chocolates Company has changed ownership, the holdings and equipment having passed to George D. Fisk, a Toronto candy manufacturer, and Peter Kolb, the city manager of the Nobility company. It is understood the consideration is $100,000, less the mortgage liability to the city of $35,000. The new company will be known as the Nobility Chocolates Company, and will take possession tomorrow. The company will not limit its operations to chocolates, but will manufacture other grades of sweets. There will be no change in the management of the St. Thomas plant, but the staff will be increased to 75. Mr. Fisk is connected with the Rockland Cocoa and Chocolates, Toronto.

Charter Cancelled.

The Ontario Gazette has it that by an order-in-council dated September 27, the charter of the St. Thomas Construction Company has been ordered to be cancelled. The company during the war manufactured many cargoes of ammunition in the building on St. Catherine street.

Judge Colter Revising Officer.

Judge Colter has been appointed revising officer for Aylmer and will hold court 21 days before the election to complete the voters' list for that municipality. Under the new election act registrars will be appointed by Returning Officer Huntley to compile the votes in the towns, villages and townships of East Elgin, and outside of Aylmer the lists prepared by the registrars will be final, and beyond an appeal

Violated the M. V. A.

Alex. Degroat was fined $15 and costs today for a breach of the motor vehicle act. Mr. Degroat was held responsible for the collision of the car of Miss Nellie O'Brien and his on Saturday evening at the cornor of Horton and Talbot streets.

Barns Burned.

The barns of Daniel Coughlin, town line, Yarmouth, were destroyed during the electrical storm last evening, entailing a loss of from $6,000 to $8,000. Mr. Coughlin succeeded in saving his horses and some implements, but there was no saving the building and contents. About 1,200 bushels of wheat and oats were stored in the building. The loss is partly insured.

Death of G. W. Heard.

The death of G. W. Heard took place today at the residence of his son, Homer N. Heard, 78 East street. He was in his 70th year, and was born in Pickering. Mr. Heard had been in the lumber business and helped to clear the area of Camp Borden. Three sons, eight brothers, and six sisters survive. The remains will be taken to Barrie for interment.

BROADENING SCOPE OF BOYS' WORK HERE

Leaders Appointed For Many Groups by City Churches.

The outlook for the broadening of the Trail Rangers and Tuxis boys' groups here in the city is excellent, according to reports from several of the leading churches which recently organized their boys into the different groups. So far this year the interest shown by the boys for the formation of these groups has been exceedingly keen. Several churches, which before did not take any part in these groups, have banded their boys together and plan to make the Canadian Efficiency tests this winter a huge success. Knox Presbyterian Church organized this week and appointed Stanley Cahill as leader. St. James Presbyterian Church also formed a Tuxis group and elected R. Wheable as chairman. Hamilton Road Presbyterian formed both the Tuxis and Trail Rangers' groups, and Mr. Sceafe will direct the boys in their tests. Chalmers Presbyterian appointed their pastor, Rev. Reid, to lead the boys, and Hill Street Methodist, with the two groups, elected Harold Reavely as chairman.

The Y. M. C. A. is assisting in the formation of these groups in the churches and arranging a program of tests both for their own groups and the outside ones.

WOMAN FOUND

of which, it is alleged, she drank considerable quantities.

Wanted Lodging.

About a week ago she entered the Y. W. C. A. building and asked for a night's lodging. Every room was occupied and the house mother found it impossible to give her a room for the night, but told her that if she went to a hotel or found accommodation anywhere to return and tell her and she would give her the money.

At this juncture the woman threatened that she would ddo away with herself, and opened her purse, stating that she had no money. The house mother noticed a pair of glasses in the purse. It was thought at the time that she was under the influence of liquor. She went out and did not return to the Y. W. C. A.

Threatened Suicide.

On Thursday morning of last week, talking with two local colored men, she said that she was going to St. Thomas or "do away" with herself. It is thought that she went to St. Thomas to see a man with whom she had one time been keeping company, and who had since married and gone to the Railway City.

Her sister, Mrs. Mackie of 308 Rectory street, stated that she claimed to have married a local man and to have been rooming on King street, thoug this was over a year ago. Her sister said that the last time she saw her two weeks ago when called and did not have very much to say, and went away without stating where she was going.

Mrs. Mackie said her sister had worked in boardinghouses and hotels in the city, but did not know very much about her, as they had not been very friendly.

"She used to come here now and again, and I used to talk to her about living right and tried in every way to make her og the right way, but she would get mad and walk out of the house and not come back for months after."

Mrs. Mackie had not read about the missing woman, but when told the details of the case said that it was probably her sister.

Mrs. Mackie is the only relative she has in the city. Another sister resides in Pittsburg. The age of the woman was judged to have been between 35 and 40 years, but her sister says that she is about 46. Inquiries at the various places where she had been tallied with the descriptions in the daily papers, and this led to the identification.

The post-mortemhe ld by Dr. A. A. Turner on Tuesday afternoon showed that the woman had been operated upon for appendicitis, and had at one time fractured her ankle. As to whether any medication of the woman having been foully dealt with, he would not say until the inquest.

Inquest on Monday.

The inquest will be held on Monday evening in the town hall at 8 o'clock. Several residents of Southwold who saw the woman wandering in the vicinity will be called. Those who saw her said that she asked the direction to London, and was shown. They state that at the time she was under the influence of liquor. She was last seen in London at 4 o'clock.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—Further reports regarding the unstable condition of the sugar market and the possibility of a crash in the price of the commodity in Canada, that broke down the solid front presented by traders in Atlantic Sugar, the price of which has been kept fairly steady for weeks past. Opening weakly, 4¾ points below yesterday's close, the stock sold down 2 more points to 113, but before the close a little buying sent it back to 115.

Apart from this stock, the market was quiet, and there were few changes of any importance. Maple Leaf issues sold off, the common to 143 and the preferred to 95, while Brazilian, again the market leader in point of activity, was steady at 35¾. Steel of Canada continues to decline, selling at 65½.

Ford of Canada was called on the exchange for the first time, but no sales were made. The bid was 330, with 340 asked.

MAYOR POINTS OUT NEED OF WATERWAY FROM LAKES TO SEA

Toronto's Chief Executive Presents Argument Before Joint Commission.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—Further arguments for the deepening of the channels of the St. Lawrence River to provide a highway from the Great Lakes to the ocean were presented by strong delegations before the International Waterways Joint Commission at the city hall today. Mayor Church of Toronto, after reviewing the arguments advanced by both those for and against the scheme, pointed out that it was a national or international duty to develop waterpower wherever possible, and to complete a natural highway to the sea. Speaking of the proposed St. Lawrence route, in comparison with that of the Erie Canal and other routes, he said: "It is the shortest, and by some hundreds of miles, from any of the lake ports to Liverpool or Northern Europe."

The mayor said that Toronto's port had been rebuilt at a cost of $26,000,000, and a lot of it would be wasted without deepening the Welland and St. Lawrence Canals.

"We had a vision of both these, or we never would have started our great harbor developments," said the mayor.

President Kennedy of the Gutta Percha and Rubber Company testified to the advantage of having his raw material brought to Toronto at $15 per ton, where it was now brought only to Montreal at the same rate, and railway freight of some 40 cents per 100 pounds.

The opening of the canals would be of as great benefit to Montreal and other eastern ports, as it would be to upper lake ports, as they would benefit by the transport of lake business.

Mr. John Guthie, secretary of the national waterways commission, addressed the international commission, presenting very many arguments showing the mutual benefit to both Canada and the United States to come from the canal deepening. The all-water freight route was the cheapest, the all-rail route the dearest. Traffic could be carried at one-third the cost of rail transportation. The railways had not proved equal to the task of trade requirements. He declared the opposition of the state of New York was selfish and unwarranted. The Erie Canal would not suffer, but rather benefit by the increased trade at Buffalo.

PEKIN GOVERNMENT IS OVERTHROWN; MONARCHY HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED

Shanghai, Oct. 13.—Gen. Chang Tsao-Lin, governor of Feng Tien, has overthrown the Pekin government and proclaimed a monarchy, according to a rumor current in this city. This rumor has not been authenticated, and no details have been received here, but Chinese officials have been profoundly stirred by it.

Gen. Chang Tsao-Lin was probably the strongest military leader during the recent conflict between the Chili-Anfu provinces. He played a leading part during that trouble, and was accused of being a tool of the Japanese.

It is the supposition here that the coup, if it really has taken place, is an effort to restore to the throne the former Emperor Hsuan-Tung, son of Prince Chun.

FIVE CHARGED WITH KIDNAPPING ARE FOUND NOT GUILTY

Estevan, Sask., Oct. 13.—After an all-day trial five men charged with kidnapping F. M. Christopher, O. B. U. organizer, July 3, were acquitted. After hearing the evidence, Mr. Justice Brown dismissed, before the case went to the jury, the charges against Sam Dryden, president of the Estevan G. W. V. A. and Amos Gough. After deliberating half an hour, the jury then dismissed the charges of kidnapping against the others, Ex-Corp. C. Hunter of the Saskatchewan Provincial Police; Tom Moore and Municipal Constable Jim Clark. There was a wild demonstration when the verdict was announced.

GERMAN INDEPENDENT SOCIALISTS FACING RUPTURE IN PARTY

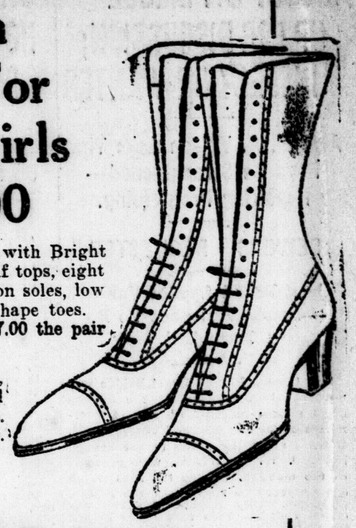

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The German Independent Socialists are facing disunion, it was indicated at yesterday's conference of the party at Halle. A majority of the delegates favor the formation of a German communist party and negotiations for amiable working terms with Moscow. Fears are expressed that a frame will result during the process of splitting.

REPORTS WRECKS OF TWO SCHOONERS OFF ST. LAWRENCE GULF

Quebec, Oct. 13.—Writing to the Quebec Chronicle, a subscriber tells of the wreck of two schooners off the south shore of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, during the gale of October 1. One capsized, he states, near St. Jean-port Joli, all lives being lost. The other was a pulpwood schooner from St. Simron, Capt. Savard, and was beached at St. Roch des Aulnaires, her cargo being unloaded and shipped to Quebec.

GERMAN CABINET RESOLVES TO CUT REICHSTAG'S OUTLAY

London, Oct. 13.—The German cabinet yesterday decided unanimously on a program for reduction of the Reichstag's expenses, putting the burden of the individual states within the confederation, says a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph.

YELLOW JOURNALISM AND IRISH HOODLUMS BLAMED BY PUTNAM

Publisher Says He Expects Yet To Deliver Lecture In New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—(By the Canadian Press).—Major George Haven Putnam, the publisher, ascribes the disturbance which prevented him from lecturing at Erasmus High School, Brooklyn, Monday night, to "an organized band of Irish hoodlums, the apathy of the police and the distortions of the Hearst newspapers."

"The whole thing was based upon Irish opposition to any word in behalf of friendly relations between England and the United States," he said, and added that he would again attempt to deliver the lecture here.

WILL MAKE SURVEY ON EASTWARD FLIGHT

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—(Canadian Press.)—The F-3 flying boat, in which Col. Leckie and Major Basil Hobbs flew from River Du Loup, Que., to Winnipeg in the trans-Canada flight, will be flown back from Winnipeg to Halifax, it was stated at the air board offices today. The object of the eastward flight, it was stated, would be to permit of a survey being made of the territory covered in the flight.

Latest advices reaching Ottawa are to the effect that the snow and fogs in the Rockies, which delayed the journey of Ctpt. Thompson and Commodore Tyle, are still continued, and that conditions are not yet favorable for the hop-off.

PERSONALITY AND SERVICE NEEDED

London Pastor Speaks At a Well-Attended Meeting In Blenheim.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Blenheim, Oct. 13.—Splendid addresses were given last evening in the Presbyterian Church on the proposed continuation of the forward movement. The speakers were Rev. Dr. Wallace of Toronto and Rev. T. A. Symington of London. The former outlined the proposed work as endeavoring to elevate home religion. He quoted the editor of the Birmingham Guardian as deploring the moral deterioration since the outbreak of the war; Judge Mott of Toronto as declaring it as his belief that the home life was responsible for much deterioration, and ex-President Taft as holding that if the race is to be saved from moral shipwreck it must come through religion. He urged that the home life count for more in these days of hurry and bustle.

Rev. Mr. Symington made it clear that education along these lines is very much needed in the home. Personality and service are the great things needed. He defined the first as "putting yourself into something," and service, putting ourselves in the world with with others to help them to live better lives.

The pastor, Rev. Dr. J. F. Smith, presided at the meeting. There were a number present from Ridgetown and other points.

ADVOCATES CHECK ON CAMPAIGN AGAINST FRANCE BY GERMANY

German Socialist In Favor of Better Relations.

Cassels, Germany, Oct. 13.—At the Socialist congress now in session here Herr Coche, a member of the Majority Socialist party, criticized what he termed the campaign of systematic agitation against France, which he charged was led by Vorwaerts of Berlin. Herr Coche declared in favor of loyal acceptance of the Versailles treaty, and pointed out the necessity for Germany to reach a friendly understanding with France.

All the other orators, one of whom was Philipp Scheidemann, former secretary for foreign affairs, protested against the utterances of Herr Coche.

RIDOUT ST. BRIDGE UP FOR DISCUSSION; INSPECTION WANTED

Ald. W. A. Wilson Asks That Rods Be Strengthened—Repairing Progressing.

SEWERS REQUESTED

School Board Applies For One—Smoke Nuisance To Be Remedied.

The famous Ridout Street Bridge was not entirely overlooked in the discussions at the meeting of No. 2 committee of the city council Tuesday night. Repairs are being made to the bridge, but Ald. W. A. Wilson, who presided at the meeting, wanted the rods which are supposed to strengthen the bridge, tightened. City Engineer Brazier declared that the rods that really helped to support the bridge couldn't be tightened, and the other rods, which Ald. Wilson claimed he could shake with his hands, might just as well be taken out of the bridge. This didn't satisfy Ald. Wilson, who insisted upon the city engineer and the other members of the board making a special inspection of the rods, with the chairman present to show the engineer where he is mistaken.

Ald. Gordon Drake advocated the requiring of front and tail lights for horse-drawn vehicles, as well as motor vehicles. The question of turning both ways at Richmond and Dundas streets also cropped up, so a special committee with Ald. Drake as convener was appointed to consider revisions of the traffic bylaws. Aldermen Wilson, Seabrook, Moorhead and Ashton are the other members.

The committee recommended that holidays be granted the city engineer, who wishes to spend Christmas in England.

Straight Path.

It was recommended that the sidewalk be laid in a straight line on Nelson street, east of Clarence street, notwithstanding the protests of one or two property owners, who have up to date been fencing in city property, necessitating a zig-zag in the old sidewalk. A deputation of other residents waited on the committee and asked that the sidewalk be laid in a straight line.

The committee approved of the plans of two new subdivisions, the Main & Collyer subdivision and the Minhinnick property survey on Grand avenue.

The Ontario Government has refused to pay frontage tax for the sidewalk in front of the Hospital for the Insane on the north side of Dundas street. The Government owns two houses on the south side of the street and is willing to pay the frontage tax on these. Dr. H. A. Stevenson, M.L.A., will be interviewed to ascertain if the Government will not change its stand.

Fence Money.

A request from the Western Fair Association that the city pay $701 for a fence along the race course in Queen's Park was referred to the city engineer for a report.

The board of education wrote asking for a sewer on the Hamilton road leading to the new Ealing school, and for a sidewalk on Quebec street between Piccadilly and Oxford streets in front of the new school in that district.

A request from the Standard Paving Company, Ottawa, for payment of two accounts was filed, the city engineer and city solicitor claiming that an account of the pavements in question not being repaired according to guarantee, the city is justified in holding back two payments of $500 and $900 approximately.

The C. P. R. wrote, promising an abatement of the smoke nuisance in the vicinity of the Quebec street roundhouse. The rush business of the past summer was 50 per cent in advance of last year's business, but now the surplus locomotives are being sent west to handle the grain crop, and there will be fewer engines in the roundhouse.

The Central Veterans' Council wrote to interest the committee in the coal question, and stated that arrangements are under way to bring 2,000 tons of coal to London. The coal costs $9 at the mines, and the committee could not see how it would cost less than $22 by the time it reached London. The communication was referred to No. 1 committee.

It will cost $520,956.34, according to the city engineer's estimates to install sanitary sewers in West London and in the vicinity of Anne and Talbot streets, east of the river, now without sewers. J. H. Ward, 272 Wharncliffe road north, wanted a pond drained in front of his property. Mr. Brazier says the storm sewer will probably be extended that far this year to relieve the situation.

ESTABLISHMENT OF HOME FOR SOLDIERS' CHILDREN INDORSED

Voice Support of Juvenile Court—Coal Situation Declared Serious.

Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, London Unit No. 23, went on record last night as being in favor of the establishment of a home for veterans' children. The proposed institution is to be for the use of children whose fathers have been killed overseas and whose mothers are ill; in fact, for any child whose parents are unable to take care of him at home.

Opening of a juvenile court here was also indorsed by the veterans. Nothing was said, however, regarding indorsation of applicants for the position of judge.

No action, it was decided, could be taken to annull the appointment of Mrs. R. M. Graham as investigator for the Mothers' Pension Board. Previously the association protested her appointment, deciding to support a returned nurse.

The coal situation was termed serious, it being said that numerous applications for coal had been made by veterans. Definite word as to whether the city will give aid in the matter is expected by the organiation within a few days.

J. B. Lavender resigned from his position on the provincial executive and his post on the Central Veterans' Council.

COURSE FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL CARETAKERS

Board Committee Thinks Instruction On Boilers Advisable—Pay Insufficient, Opinion.

It was decided at the regular meeting of No. 2 committee of the board of education yesterday afternoon to have all the janitors of the city schools take a course in looking after the school boilers so that they may understand the operation of the boilers and so prevent accidents. It was suggested that the Technical School be used for this training, but no definite plans have been made. One of the members of the committee stated that not a janitor in the city schools understood the technical side of caring for the boilers.

It was also intimated that the janitors are not receiving enough pay for the work they do. This matter was left for a special committee appointed by the board to investigate.

In Mr. Downham's report re the ventilation of the schools, he stated that nearly every school was in fit condition for the pupils. St. George's was not up to the standard for ventilation.

The committee recommended that the sum of $4,000 be paid by No. 3 committee for the rental of schools used by the pupils from the collegiate institute. Princess Avenue, Lord Roberts and Alexandra schools will come in for a portion of this money.

The use of the school in Pottersburg was granted to the Methodist Church there during the time their new building is being erected.

SARNIA TO HAVE NEW P. M. R. DEPOT

Deputation Met President F. H. Alfred At Detroit and Received Promise.

SARNIA, Oct. 12.—It was announced tonight that Sarnia will have a new Pere Marquette depot. A committee representing the manufacturing and business interests of the city met F. H. Alfred, president of the Pere Marquette Railway Company in Detroit on Monday and protested against the repairing of the present station in view of the promises made for six years past that a new depot would be erected. President Alfred gave a categorical promise that contracts would be asked for immediately and the station erected in the spring of 1921, when weather permits, and that it will be a better depot than at first intended. The statement was absolute and quite definite and an announcement by the railway company to the chamber of commerce in writing will follow.

DEATH OF COLLIN M. STABLES.

GUELPH, Oct. 12.—The death took place at Speedwell Hospital today of Collin M. Stables, a former member of the 153rd Battalion, C. E. F., and one of the oldest patients at Speedwell Hospital. Deceased was a native of Scotland, but had lived in Canada for a number of years, enlisting at Fergus in January, 1916. One sister, Miss E. Stables, who survives, is a nurse at the institution.

STATES FORCE CANNOT CRUSH SPIRIT OF IRISH

Griffith Says People's Vote For Republic Must Not Be Overridden.

REFERS TO BELGIUM

Claims Methods of England More Brutal Than Those of Germany.

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Reports that the Sinn Fein organization has become divided against itself were denied here a few days ago by Arthur Griffith, leader of the organization, during a long interview with the Associated Press. He reiterated charges he recently made that raids of reprisal were a result of a "calculated policy of British Government officials," and challenged Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who recently denied these charges, to submit them to an investigation by an impartial tribunal to be appointed by the British Government or the United States supreme court.

"There will be no settlement except upon the basis of Irish independence," Mr. Griffith said. "The British Government authorities are making a special effort to terrorize the Irish people and force them to abandon their claim for independence before the British Parliament reassembles and the presidential election is held in the United States."

He refused to comment on the statement made by Mr. Asquith last week in discussing the Irish question, and asked if the Sinn Fein would enter into negotiations with the British Government, replied:

"The Government has made no proposal, and is trying to ignore our existence. We have a mandate from our people to set up a republic, and until that mandate is withdrawn we have no authority to accept anything less than complete independence."

State of War.

"Is there a state of war in Ireland?" the correspondent asked.

"Ireland in 1918," Mr. Griffith replied, "peacefully and constitutionally registered its vote for independence, according to the principles of self-determination enunciated by America and accepted by England in her hour of need. Since then England has been seeking to overcome the ballot by the bullet. She is waging against Ireland an economic war, reinforced by murder and arson.

"England entered Ireland with methods of warfare far more brutal than Germany used in Belgium. During the last two years hundreds of civilians have been shot down, more than 30,000 houses have been raided, and thousands of men have been thrown into prison, where they have been held for three months without charge or trial. Scores of creameries and factories in dozens of towns have been destroyed, harvests have been burned, and cattle owned by poor people have been killed. England has even kidnapped children in trying to terrify them into making false statements about relatives. For years she has been carrying on this system of sabotage and terrorism, and has used propaganda to uphold her pretentions to the world that she is trying to maintain law and order among an anarchistic people.

Peact and Security.

"The fact is that in all districts where the republic's power is maintained there is perfect peace and security for all classes, but wherever English power is entrenched there is nothing but bloodshed and barbarism."

The correspondent asked what effect recent reprisals would have on the people, and Mr. Griffith replied:

"Wait until next election. You cannot conquer Irish spirit by oppression. Any inconvenience the reprisals have given the Sinn Fein has been less than the difficulty occasioned to accommodate the rush of Unionists to our ranks."

One of the most sensational charges Mr. Griffith made was that many untried political prisoners had been "tortured in prison with medieval methods to force them to give false information against Irish leaders." He declared he would later make these methods public. He described a system called "planking," which he alleged had been adopted recently in night raids.

"The British Government," he asserted, "is sending on these raids men disguised as English officers or Dublin policemen. They are called 'plankers.' They carry ammunition and forged documents, which they place, say, under a bed, and then call in soldiers to search the house where the papers have been deposited."

Assassination List.

Mr. Griffith asserted John Lynch, county councillor of Limerick, who was shot to death in a Dublin hotel on September 22, was on a list marked for assassination. He declared Lynch knew he was going to be shot, but thought it was safe for him to be in Dublin.

In discussing the inquest following the killing of Lynch, Mr. Griffith claimed he had come into possession of part of the evidence taken during the inquiry which was secret. He declared this evidence proved there was not the slightest intention to arrest Lynch and left no doubt that Lynch had no revolver. He challenged the British Government to produce proofs that a warrant was issued for the arrest of Lynch.

Mr. Griffith declined to express an opinion as to what would happen if Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who is now on a hunger strike in Brixton prison, London, should die.

When asked for a statement as to the Sinn Fein attitude toward the Ulster boycott, Mr. Griffith replied:

"The Irish Parliament has decreed that any religious or political test imposed as a condition to industrial employment is illegal. It is a matter of indifference to us whether such a condition is imposed in Belfast or elsewhere in Ireland. There is no Ulster boycott. A boycott was placed on Belfast, Banbridge, Lisburn, Dromore and Gilford, but it will be removed immediately when the illegal conditions of employment enforced there are removed."

Discussing a proposal inquiry to be held in New York City relative to the Irish situation, Mr. Griffith said that in the event witnesses were unable to sail from here, owing to passport difficulties, he would suggest that a delegation be sent to Ireland to take depositions.

GREENWOOD WOULD CUT MAIL SERVICE

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—A statement issued from the chief secretary's department tonight warns the public that if attacks on postoffices and mails are continued the postal services will be curtailed, or even withdrawn altogether in the districts affected.

LETTER THREATENS DEATH IF MILITARY OR POLICE KILLED

CORK, Oct. 12.—The Cork Echo received today an anonymous letter purporting to enanate from "The Supreme Council, Cork Circle of the Anti-Sinn Fein Society," threatening death to Sinn Feiners if the killing of members of the crown forces continues. The society is unknown to the Sinn Feiners, but the letter is accepted as authentic. It threatens the death of two Sinn Feiners for every member of the crown forces killed, and in the event that a Sinn Feiner is not available three sympathizers will be killed, and the reprisal will apply equally to the laity and clergy of all denominations. It also threatens the death of a Sinn Feiner for any member of the crown forces wounded.

Copies of the letter have been addressed to other Cork newspapers and to the parish priest of Bandon, Canon Cohalan, brother of the Bishop of Cork.

COLONIAL OFFICIAL STATES DOMINIONS MIGHT PULL AWAY

Amery Claims That They Have No Right To Secede.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(By Canadian Associated Press.)—Colonel Amery, under-secretary of state for the colonies, speaking at a meeting today of emigration agents, said he doubted if any responsible Dominion statesman would indorse what had been said in the Irish controversy that the essence of the dominion status consisted in the moral right of peaceful secession.

If the peoples of the dominions were willing to sacrifice their privileges and abjure the duties of responsibilities of world-wide British citizenship, there was no power here to prevent them, and in the same way the home country might secede from the Empire, but this power did not constitute a right to do so, however bloodlessly it might be accomplished.

The secession of any one of us, he said, would still be a revolution, an unconstitutional act and a profound moral wrong to the rest of the commonwealth and to all humanity.

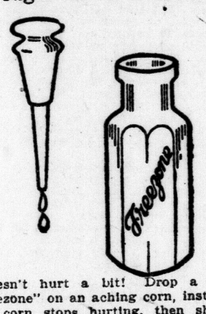

Colonel Amery concluded:

"Let no more be heard of a moral right to destroy the unity of the British Empire and impair the heritage of our own citizenship. The Empire is one, and will and must remain so."

CAMPAIGN TO COLONIZE 20,000,000 ACRES IN WEST

General Conference of Mennonite Church in Session at Kitchener.

KITCHENER, Oct. 12.—Brig.-Gen. H. F. McDonald of Calgary; Col. Spencer, Medicine Hat; Mayor M. A. Brown, Medicine Hat, and Mayor F. J. Ames, of Regina, called on local manufacturers today in connection with the campaign of western businessmen for the colonization of 20,000,000 acres of idle land in the Western Provinces.

Delegates from all parts of Canada and the United States assembled here today for the general conference of the Mennonite Brethern in Christ. Rev. C. I. Scott of Nebraska, president of the conference, is presiding. The sessions are being held at Bethany Mennonite Church.

Excavations were started today for the new Y. M. C. A. building. The old building is being removed to the rear of the lot.

Superintendent Pequegnat, of the local waterworks, announced today that for the first time in years Kitchener has more water than it needs. The slackening in the rubber industry is largely responsible.

Kitchener's period of freedom from contagious disease did not last very long. Acting Medical Officer of Health Dr. Honsberger reported one smallpox case today.

BOARD OF COMMERCE PLACES "O. K." UPON GUELPH COALMEN

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(Canadian Press.)—The board of commerce in a statement issued tonight gives its findings following an inquiry into complaints that unduly high prices have been charged by the coal dealers of Guelph for domestic sizes of anthracite coal. The board finds that the consumers of Guelph on the whole have been more than fairly treated by their dealers in the past, and that during the present crisis the latter are doing all that possibly can be done to secure sufficient tonnage to meet all wants at the best possible prices.

WEDDING SERVICE HELD IN PRESENCE OF LAW OFFICERS

Officiating Clergyman Surprised by Receipt of Double Fee.

CHATHAM, Oct. 12.—Two fees for one marriage ceremony was the unique experience of Rev. Mr. Smith, Presbyterian minister, of Blenheim, today. Some weeks ago August Demeer and Sidoni Christ came to Chatham and secured a marriage license and returned to the home of August, where they lived happily for a short time. A quarrel arose, during which Demeer told Sidoni they were not married, and the woman returned to her own home at once.

Sidoni's brother notified the authorities, with the result that a warrant was issued for the arrest of Demeer. Yesterday the man surrendered himself to the Blenheim police, and this morning, after a night in the cells, was taken before Magistrate Whittington at Blenheim.

After the hearing of some of the evidence, Crown Attorney Smith intimated that if the two would be legally married the charge would be dropped. The two agreed to the proposal and Rev. Mr. Smith was sent for, with the result that the knot was tied in the courtroom.

After the ceremony the magistrate, crown attorney, County Constable Peters, the groom's solicitor and some of the others present contributed $1 each to a fund to be given the minister for his services. The groom watched the proceedings in silence, and when the minister was handed the money he produced one lone bill, a five-spot, and handed it to Mr. Smith.

An auto was secured and some small boys, who had got wind of the unique event, tied the usual wedding decorations to the vehicle and the happy couple left amid showers of confetti produced by Chief of Police Lowes.

LONDON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

DIRECTORS' REPORT OF ACTIVITIES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

TO THE MEMBERS, LONDON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE:

In presenting this report, the Directors elected to administer the Chamber's affairs draw attention to the fact that the activities undertaken were mainly initiated or suggested by members, either in the program of work compiled from their expressed wishes, or received from time to time. The undernoted items, selected to indicate the trend, rather than amount of work attempted, in some instances deal with activities started during the first year since reorganization, the object of the report being to indicate generally the Directors' interpretation of the wishes of the membership, so that further instructions may be received by the incoming Board for the direction of the Chamber's affairs in the future. Following the publication of this Report opportunity will be given to all members to suggest what they think should be done in the future to improve living and business conditions of all citizens, and to advance the City's interests. It is very desirable that members of the Chamber should bear in mind the fact that it is their privilege to direct and guide the Association's activities, and that the function of the Directors is, as far as possible, to carry out what the majority of the members ask them to do. Members are especially urged to attend group meetings, which will be convened immediately, for the purpose of providing clear and definite directions for the new Board.

Under the Chamber's Bylaws, seven of the fourteen directors retire annually, and cannot succeed themselves consecutively. Among these who will retire this year is our worthy President, Mr. Geo-ge M. Reid. We are glad of this opportunity to publicly acknowledge our appreciation of his splendid services to the Chamber and the City of London. During his two years of office, the greater part of his time has been devoted to public service, and to his tireless energy and unbounded enthusiasm may be attributed, to a very great extent, any success which has attended our efforts as an organization. In partial recognition of his devotion to the office he has so ably filled, and in order that the new Board of Directors may benefit by his experience and ability, we suggest that at the Annual Meeting Mr. Reid should be elected an Honorary President of the Chamber, following the precedent already established by the appointment of Mr. F. E. Leonard to this position.

Acknowledgment must also be made at this time of the excellent work done by committees appointed during the year. All duties assigned have been expeditiously and carefully executed. With the completion of a new Program of Work, entailing new investigations, reports and recommendations, there will be greater opportuntiy for service in this important part of Chamber of Commerce work during the coming year.

In so far as Chamber of Commerce activities deal with matters relating to the administration of the City, the Directors' efforts to assist the constituted authorities have been well received, and hope is expressed for the continuance of harmonious relations and good-will, so that a united effort may be maintained to make London an ideal Canadian City, famed not merely for commercial prosperity and enterprise, but for genuine efforts made to obtain the highest development of and best living conditions for all citizens.

EDUCATION AND SOCIAL WELFARE.

HELPING WESTERN UNIVERSITY.

Co-operated with the Western University Board of Governors towards realization of London's aspirations in making this one of the foremost educational centres of Canada.

Conducted campaign for Bylaw by which the ratepayers voted $100,000 for new Medical School building on January 1st, 1919.

Pledged support in $2,000,000 campaign for buildings on new site for the University.

Secured indorsement of the University's new Course of Business Administration by leading businessmen of London and Western Ontario.

PRIZES AWARDED.

Awarded scholarship to Collegiate Institute and presented Western Ontario Interscholastic Sports Trophy.

CO-ORDINATED WELFARE CAMPAIGNS.

Organized the United Welfare Fund Association of the City of London, by which $150,000 was raised and annual maintenance provided for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., House of Providence, St. Joseph's Orphanage, Protestant Orphanage, Child Welfare Association, London Health Association (Byron Sanatorium), Women's Sanatorium Aid, Salvation Army Relief Work, Social Service Council, Victorian Order of Nurses, St. John Ambulance Brigade, Soldiers' Aid Commission (Welfare Department), and substantial sums to the building accounts of the Women's Christian Association (Home for Incurables), the I. O. D. E., Children's Hospital, and Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army buildings.

CITY SURVEY.

United with the Social Service Council and other civic bodies in preparation for a community survey to find out where remedial measures may be applied in our social and economic civic life. This survey, it is hoped, will reveal the cause or causes which militate against public health, help us to deal more effectively with infant mortality and reveal any tendencies towards overcrowding, inadequate transportation, etc., and provide a basis for future studies in zoning.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT.

CITY ADMINISTRATION.

Supported effort made by the City Council to secure improved form of City Government by co-ordination of spending bodies, which was approved by the ratepayers, but refused by the Provincial Government.

EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENT.

Recommended equalization of assessment, reported upon by a special committee and adopted by the council. Mr. J. G. Richter has been appointed to assist the Assessment Department in the work which will commence immediately.

RESERVOIR BYLAW.

Campaigned for the waterworks reservoir bylaw, which was indorsed by the ratepayers on January 1, 1919.

SUPERVISED PLAYGROUNDS.

Along with the Social Service Council, advocated supervised playgrounds for children, which also found favor with the ratepayers, with the result that several playgrounds were established during the year.

INITIATED TOWN PLANNING.

Town Planning in London, initiated by the Chamber, secured a majority vote of the ratepayers, and is now occupying attention.

TOWN PLANNING LEGISLATION.

Support was given to the effort made by the Town Planning Association of Southwestern Ontario to secure Provincial Legislation to protect Town Planning, and which will, it is expected, be enacted next year.

RAILWAY REPORT.

That our railway situation in London may be fully realized, report was received from Mr. Nolan Cauchon, eminent railway expert, which, it is believed, will help us to protect our interests when grade separation and new G. T. R. station become possible.

HOUSING.

Housing situation in the city investigated and recommendation to the City Council resulted in the appointment of a Housing Commission, under the Housing Act, with the result that about 80 houses have already been constructed and more are planned.

BOARDING-HOUSE SURVEY.

Survey of boarding homes for girls completed, with co-operation of the Y. W. C. A., with the result that additional accommodation for girls has been secured in city homes.

FIRE PREVENTION.

In so far as our limited authority permits us, the Chamber has a watchful eye to the City's interest in the matter of fire prevention. A local branch of the Provincial Fire Prevention League has been formed, and opinion expressed regarding the necessity for investigation into the cause of the Collegiate fire.

NEW $1,000,000 HOTEL.

The need for a new hotel has been apparent for many years, and plans have been completed and arrangements made whereby a million-dollar hotel will be erected within the next twelve months. Of the issue of $400,000 Second Mortgage bonds, $250,000 has been sold to London citizens, $150,000 will be taken up by those who will operate the new hotel, and $600,000 7 per cent First Mortgage bonds have been issued. All citizens will be given opportunity to invest in the latter, which will be issued in $250, $500 and $1,000 lots.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT.

INDUSTRIAL AREA.

In the field of industrial development, very satisfactory progress has been made. The necessity for concentrating improvements on one area being realized, the Chamber advocated the purchase of an industrial area, and this was approved of by the ratepayers. Some 64 acres have been secured at a price of $50,000 in a favorable location in the annexed area, and will, when improved, greatly assist in placing new industries.

W. T. RAWLEIGH COMPANY.

Among the new industries secured during the year is the Canadian branch of the W. T. Rawleigh Company of Freeport, Ill., manufacturers of spices, health remedies, disinfectants, etc. They have secured nearly two city blocks on the C. P. R., on Adelaide street, and will put up the first unit of their new buildings next spring.

SIMMONS BED COMPANY, LIMITED.

The Simmons Bed Company of Montreal, associated with the United States firm of the same name, have also been assisted in the purchase of considerable acreage on the C. P. R., west of Adelaide street, and have already erected a warehouse and showroom on the front part of their property. It is understood the remaining land will be used later for the factory buildings.

RUGGLES MOTOR TRUCK COMPANY, LIMITED.

Resulting from an effort made as early as November, 1918, through negotiations at that time with the Republic Motor Truck Company of Alma, Mich., London has been made headquarters of a Canadian truck company, headed by Mr. Ruggles, and the men who, with him, made the Republic Truck Company a phenomenal success. A sum of $300,000 has been raised locally, by sale of stock, and land has been secured next to the McCormick factory on Dundas street east. The building, already started, will be completed this year. The company are about to assemble trucks in temporary premises, and will, when established, give employment to several hundred men.

SERVICE TRUCK COMPANY.

The Service Truck Company of Wabash, Ind., who have been negotiating with the Chamber of Commerce since midsummer this year, have, without doubt, been influenced by the decision of the Ruggles Truck Company to start here, and have purchased 51 acres of the Franks estate. It is understood that the foundations of their new buildings will be in place this year. When this industry is finally established it is expected that it will be one of the largest in the city, employing in the neighborhood of 1,500 men, as it is intended, as far as possible, to manufacture all their truck parts in Canada.

ALLIED INDUSTRIES COMING.

These two industries will give London a fair start as the leading truck manufacturing city in Canada, and to become the centre for allied industries making castings, pressed steel and other parts, and accessories. Negotiations for the construction of factories of this character are already in progress, and it can safely be said that this year will be remembered as the start of a new era of industrial development in the city.

LONDON BOND CORPORATION, LIMITED.

Completed arrangements with the investment banking house of Nesbitt-Thomson Company, Limited, of Montreal, for incorporation of the London Bond Corporation, Limited, in which a number of prominent local men have become interested. The purpose of the new company is to finance new and established high-class industrial enterprises in London and Western Ontario, or, in other words, "to offer home investors opportunity to invest in home industries."

IMPROVEMENT OF MANUFACTURING AND TRADE CONDITIONS.

UNITED STATES CONSUL SECURED.

Probably the most important accomplishment in this direction is the securing by the Chamber of Commerce of the appointment of a United States consul for this city and district. Representations started a considerable time ago have resulted in the appointment of Mr. G. R. Taggart as Consul, and Mr. C. E. B. Payne as Vice-Consul here. The London Consular District extends from Lakes Huron and Erie and half-way to Windsor and Hamilton. This will be a great convenience to business houses dealing with the United States, and the Consular Office here will report to Washington, and to all inquirers, regarding commercial activities and prospects in London and this Consular District.

ASSISTED "MADE IN CANADA" WEEK.

Assistance was given to the Advertising Club in a "Made in Canada" week, and a moving picture film of the parade was sent by the Chamber to the British Industries Fair at London, England. Another picture film, subscribed for by manufacturers, illustrating women's work in industries in London has been exhibited throughout Western Ontario.

EXPORT TRADE SECURED.

The Chamber has been able to demonstrate to manufacturers able to handle export business that there is unlimited demand for every article manufactured, particularly in the British Overseas Dominions. Government trade representatives have pleaded with us to supply them with even a small percentage of the output of our factories, and London manufactured goods are favorably known in all parts of the world.

SHIPPERS' COMMITTEE.

Shipping matters are in the hands of a special committee of the leading shippers, and assistance is rendered them when necessary. Several important matters affecting shipping have been accomplished, including the extension of express delivery limits.

RETAILERS' COMMITTEE.

The retailers have also a committee of their own, and we have been prepared to assist them in any reasonable way when asked to do so.

CUSTOMS REFUND SECURED.

The interests of London merchants and manufacturers have been carefully watched and guarded throughout the year. Recent representations made to the Customs Department at Ottawa have demonstrated local importers' right to secure refund of duty paid on invoices on normal instead of depreciated currency values, since July 22 last.

HIGHWAYS AND TRANSPORTATION.

PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY.

Everything in our power has been done to promote the construction of good roads. The London Chamber of Commerce and City Council were represented on a large deputation, to which the Minister of Highways announced the route of the Provincial Highway, and representations made from time to time have have been favorably received by the Provincial Minister.

MICHIGAN PIKES ASSOCIATION.

The Michigan Pikes Association tour, primarily to encourage good roads, was hospitably received this summer, and its organizers given opportunity to state their views in the matter of good roads.

ROOSEVELT HIGHWAY.

The marking of the Roosevelt Highway from Windsor to Niagara Falls is being looked after, with the co-operation of members of the Chamber and London Motor Club.

PORT STANLEY HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

A strong deputation has urged upon the Department of Public Works at Ottawa the necessity for improvement to Port Stanley Harbor. Certain necessary dredging has been done, and a program of improvement indorsed by the Government engineers, which will be carried out at an early date.

CLEVELAND STEAMER.

Representations made in July, 1919, to the Cleveland-Erieau Steamship Company by the Chamber and the St. Thomas Board of Trade resulted in Port Stanley being made the Canadian terminus for the Steamer Roosevelt summer passenger service, instead of Erieau. This service was started again this year, following visit of deputation to Ottawa, which secured necessary dredging in the harbor.

BAGGAGE INSPECTION HERE.

Application, through the Michigan Central Railway, to the United States Government, for customs inspection at London instead of St. Thomas, of baggage of passengers to United States points, was successful, and baggage is now cleared by a customs officer here.

GREAT LAKES TO SEA MOVEMENT.

Keen interest is being taken in the Great Lakes to the Sea movement, and representatives of the Chamber were sent to add our indorsement of the plan to all conferences, both here and in the United States. The international Commission met at London during the year, and was supplied with evidence compiled by the Chamber regarding the importance of this development from the point of view of London and district.

ADVERTISING THE CITY.

One of the best means of making known our attractions and opportunities is that of securing conventions. Considerable assistance was rendered the local Oddfellows in securing their big convention this year, which brought between 800 and 1,000 people here for practically a week. The Chamber of Commerce presented a trophy to be competed for by uniformed patrols, and were able to help them in other ways, including billeting of hundreds of visitors.

INFORMATION BUREAU.

During Western Fair Week the Chamber of Commerce was the City Information Bureau, and several hundred visitors were directed to suitable rooms, after the hotel accommodation had been exhausted.

OTHER CONVENTIONS SECURED.

The Dairymen's Convention met this spring, and will meet again next year. The Women's Institute Convention, which brings four to five hundred women to the city for two or three days, will meet again at London this year. The Architects' Association was entertained by the Chamber of Commrce and Rotary Club, and Imperial Chambers of Commerce delegates, about 80 in number, were entertained quite recently at the Hunt Club and shown the city.

PUBLICITY FOR NEW INDUSTRIES.

Advertising of the city's industrial advantages is done in well-selected journals and publications from time to time, but generally a more intensive method is used by direct correspondence with the manufacturers, whose names are obtained from up-to-date United States and English manufacturers' directories.

ALL INQUIRIES ANSWERED.

Replies to all inquiries received are sent out promptly, entailing a large number of letters every week, and frequently exhaustive research when required. Statistics are compiled and forwarded to statistical bureaux, where they are likely to be published, and illustrated and other literature is prepared and disseminated in many ways.

RURAL RELATIONS.

AGRICULTURAL IMMIGRATION.

As the commercial centre of Western Ontario, the Chamber of Commerce has thought it advisable to take an interest in agricultural problems affecting the whole peninsula, and warmly supported the efforts of the Western Ontario United Boards of Trade, Farmers' Clubs and Municipal and Township Councils in movement to secure additional agricultural immigration.

STRONG PROTEST LODGED.

Strong protest has been lodged against the closing of the Soldiers' Settlement Board office at London, and the immigration office. Those matters are still, it is hoped, not finally decided, and effort is being made to protect Western Ontario's obvious interests. The Soldiers' Settlement Office was opened here owing to representations made by the Western Boards of Trade, and over 300 ex-service men were settled on farms and Western Ontario.

The most cordial relations exist between us and our neighbors in the county and adjoining townships, and it is hoped that all together we may advance our mutual interests along agricultural lines.

COMMUNITY LOYALTY AND SERVICE.

We recognize that this, so far as the Chamber of Commerce is concerned, is a matter of building confidence in this institution from the centre outward. We are able to report a large increase in the number of enthusiastic workers for the city's good, but these, unfortunately, represent only a small percentage of the man-power available which could be utilized. The Members' Council of this organization have it in their own hands to arrange meetings as they see fit, and have had many speakers on topical and national subjects. It may be that through this medium we will obtain the interest of a larger number of our members in the future, so that we may advance the city's interests to a greater extent.

MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITIES.

VICTORY BOND PRIZES.

Members of the Chamber gave considerable assistance in the last Victory Bond Campaign, including the subscription of $1,500 for prizes awarded to induce sales.

TECUMSEHS' BENEFIT GAME.

The successful effort of the Tecumseh Baseball Team was recognized in a fitting mauner, and incidentally several hundred invalided soldiers were provided by the Chamber with free admission to one of the final games of the season.

GRENFELL MISSION HELPED.

The local branch of the Grenfell Mission was supported in assisting an international movement to provide an endowment to carry on the work of "The Labrador Doctor."

The Chamber has now secured the services of a legal adviser, and will apply for incorporation under the amended Boards of Trade Act.

CONVENTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS.

A Meighen organ wonders why "the proceedings of the (Liberal) convention, apart from the platform, have never been published." It is pleasing to note this dawning of intellectual curiosity. Most of the people who follow unswervingly its course of politics have not shown the desire to read, mark and digest the Liberal platform, let alone troubling themselves about the proceedings which led up to that platform. They are blissfully indifferent to the fact that the hole-and-corner leaders of Canadian Conservatism choose to have no conventions, no proceedings, no light of day, no platform beyond the interests of the oligarchs that pull the wires.

Imagine, if possible, a Tory convention elected like the Liberal convention by the people. Then imagine the proceedings, the plain and open exposition of motives actuating the elements that profit by Conservatism, the conflicts and compromises of the selfish interests, the bewilderment of mere ordinary delegates brushed aside and ridden over by those who know what they want. Bring on your Conservative or Nationalist convention, and let us see the Jolly Rogers flying from several interesting masts.

THE LEAGUE IS FUNCTIONING.

A large section of the American press which supports Harding daily sneers at or attempts to make appear ridiculous the League of Nations. But while they are most violently reviling, denouncing or mocking it, the league is functioning with excellent results. Thanks to its intervention, war between Poland and Lithuania has been avoided, and the world has been furnished with a vivid demonstration of the league's ability to act as peacemaker, which, of course, is the main reason for its existence. Opponents will contend that it is the issues between the big fellows that are too difficult and dangerous for the league to solve that really count. In view of the short time that has elapsed since the league was launched, this opinion is unfair and unreasonable. It was silly to suppose that the signing of a covenant was all that was necessary for the settlement of troubles and differences between nations, whether of a pre-war or after-war nature. The great war left the world in a welter of chaos and confusion. Suspicion, jealousy, revenge were everywhere ruling motives. Before the league could begin to operate there must be a cooling of international enmities. Hasty action on the part of the league might easily have started a new and more terrible explosion. But the league has been steadily feeling its way, and by the prevention of a little war has taken a good step towards the ending of war generally. The success of the league in the case of Poland and Lithuania will supply a powerful argument for its mediation on a larger scale. Furthermore, the masses of the peoples having this evidence that the league can and does function successfully, will have little patience with such statesmen or politicians who refuse to accept its offices.

To date, all things considered, the league has done admirably.

A CLOUD DISPELLED.

Nothing could be more reassuring than the recent overthrow of the Russian armies by the Poles. It is a good thing for the Russians themselves, castigating their unveiled eagerness for the loot of Warsaw and abating their insolence. Fears were beginning to trouble the western world that we were in for another rampage of military imperialism like that of France a hundred years ago, with Trotzky in the role of Napoleon. But all that is happily over, most of all probably in Trotzky's own mind. He sees himself a very cheap imitation of the Corsican.

Two months ago fears were entertained that not only Poland, but Caucasia, Persia, Asia Minor, and even possibly India, would be overrun by Bolshevist armies and their allies. Then the modern Tamburlaine would proceed to threaten directly the crumbling fabric of central Teutonic Europe. But all that nightmare is over. The Russian forces have probably not lacked in military leadership, personal bravery and militant enthusiasm. But discipline was undone in Russia in the collapse of czardom and the visionary system of Kerensky, and the Bolshevist despotism has not been able altogether to restore the old cohesion. Then the blockade has withered up the equipment so necessary for modern war, or modern living for that matter. Trotzky has found out what Napoleon had to learn, the invincible might of England's naval power, working slow but sure. It crushed Napoleon because it goaded him to his suicidal invasion of Russia in 1812. It has brought to nought any dream of world power that vapored up in the minds of the blood-stained tyrants of Moscow.

ANOTHER EVOLUTION CONTROVERSY.

A sermon preached by Rev. Canon E. W. Barnes before the British Association meeting at Cardiff on the last Sunday in August has stirred up a tremendous controversy in England, and is filling the columns of the newspapers with letters for or against the views that were advanced. In his sermon Canon Barnes accepted the evolutionary hypothesis of the origin of all species, including man, and made the statement that such a view must make belief in the early Genesis narrative of the Fall impossible. In the Manchester Guardian, Canon Barnes amplifies his statements, and makes yet more definite the views that he holds.

The Adam and Eve narratives of Genesis he classes as "unhistorical," and cites George Adam Smith and other writers as authorities for their origin in the primitive folk-lore of the Euphrates Valley. The Book of Genesis, moreover, he regards as a compilation in which earlier works have been rather drastically edited and combined by a relatively late priestly editor. While this writer purified the earlier legends from grossness and polytheism, there were inconsistencies left and fragments of two somewhat opposed accounts of the Creation. The Tree of Life feature he regards as having been more prominent in the earlier legend than in the narrative as it has come down to us.

Those who have been writing to Canon Barnes and to the newspapers and religious journals have almost all contended that the doctrine of Redemption is incredible to those who refuse to accept the narrative of the Fall The answer of Canon Barnes is that > "No fall, no redemption is a sequence which becomes plain nonsense if written out more fully as "No fall, no sin, no redemption." After six years of war and inestimable peace one would have thought that irrespective of the fall the fact of sin was patent to all. And the Christian claims that in the struggle against sin man must get the aid of the indwelling spirit whom, with St. Paul, he identifies with the risen Christ."

Canon Barnes thinks that there is reason to believe that harm results from an insistence on the allegorical character of the story of the Fall, since "youth in its arrogance tends to regard an allegory as an ecclesiastical synonym for a falsehood which it is expedient to deny." Christians, he says, are in no such unhappy predicament as was Plutarch. Their inheritance of Jewish myth can be discarded without any apparent loss, and with with the certainty of real gain.

> "But were it otherwise our duty would be plain. We claim to give men a complete philosophy of life, convinced as we are that 'the gospel of Christ is not a religion but religion itself in its most universal and deepest significance.'" Dr. Inge's words may be conjoined with quotations from John Stuart Mill and St. Paul: "There is no philosophy possible where fear of consequences is a stronger principle than love of truth. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Among the monarchs due for a fall is the king of barnyard fowl. His lease of life expires next Monday.

Scientists say that the next war will be more terrible than the late one. If they are correct, positions in the Home Guard will be at a premium.

IMPROVE THE SILOS.

[Peterborough Examiner.]

The recommendation of Deputy Fire Marshal Bishop, after investigating the terrible fire at Ennismore in which two lives were lost, that silos be built with a ladder running up the inside and down the outside, is one that should receive the serious consideration of the authorities. Constructed as many of them are, the average silo is a fire-trap, and some better means of egress in the case of a fire would seem to be a necessity. The men who were trapped in the Ennismore blaze had little chance for their lives, whereas had the silo been equipped with a ladder such as suggested they would have undoubtedly been able to make their escape. Fire Marshal Bishop's recommendation should be acted upon. It might avert a repetition of the tragedy which has shocked the whole community.

WORKING FOR PROHIBITION.

[Montreal Star.]

"Pussyfoot" Johnson has nearly been called on to try conclusions with another English mob. Last time the crowd caught him, and as a result of the mauling he got he had to have an eye removed; yesterday he got away by a back entrance and a graveyard. It is a safe bet, however, that the symbolism of this will not daunt Mr. Johnson. Whatever qualities he may lack, courage does not appear to be among them.

Whatever may be the merits or demerits of prohibition in England, it is questionable wisdom on the part of the antis to manhandle "Pussyfoot." As has been said, the man undoubtedly possesses courage in abundance. The cause he advocates is opposed by a large proportion of the population, among which is to be found an element which will take extreme measures to end the prohibition propaganda if it can do so. Moreover, the fact that Johnson is a foreigner will cause much more resentment than would be directed against a native of the country.

There is in the British character a strong admiration for pluck, even when it is considered that this quality is misdirected. "Pussyfoot's" ruined eye and his consequent sufferings were the strongest possible advocates he could have secured. Persecution is a fine stimulus to any cause. Beating up "Pussyfoot" is not the sort of anti-prohibition argument that will appeal to the average Briton.

ARE HAVING HARD TIME.

[Ottawa Journal.]

The American authorities are having a hard time attempting to make and keep the United States bone dry. It is not as easy for Americans in the interior of the country to obtain regular beverages as for those along the border, and in large numbers they have turned to home manufacturing. The exchange of "recipes" for home-made wines and distilled spirits has come to be a regular social custom. Wild grapes, elderberries, choke cherries and domestic fruits are in great demand, and it is said that some very creditable results have been achieved. Merchants display special bottles for the proper preservation of the home-made articles. For those who don't care to bother about intricate methods of manufacture, the cider mill suffices. Cider, when allowed to follow nature's course of maturation, develops a lucky kick. The authorities, knowing this, would like to interfere. A few years ago, when a pure food campaign was on, the American Congress enacted legislation at the instance of its pure food experts prohibiting the use of such chemicals as salicylic acid and benzoate of soda in foods for preservative purposes. They were held to be harmful. These chemicals helped to keep the food from souring or fermenting. Now the authorities have turned to these agencies as a means toward the prevention of the production of effective cider. They have ordered that all cider that is not intended for use as vinegar should be treated with one of these chemicals. Obviously, however, such a regulation will be difficult of enforcement. The American citizen who is looking to cider of some hardness as a substitute for the product of wheat, rye, corn and barley is not likely to let his regard for the law persuade him to interfere with the course of nature in the cider barrel by using chemicals which experts have long declared harmful to the digestive system.

WHY IMPORT REVOLVERS?

[Toronto Globe.]

The Globe a few days ago quoted official figures showing that revolvers are being imported into Canada at a rate that will aggregate 6,400 in one year. Why? What are the authorities doing to see that these weapons do not come into the possession of persons who have no right to carry them?

WAR WIDOWS WED.

[London Daily Mail.]

Remarriage at the rate of 2,000 a month is solving rapidly and in human nature's best way the problem of the multitude of girl-wives widowed by war. Wisely, the state endows the war-widow who weds again—especially now when soaring prices make men hesitate. The state's wedding gift of a year's pension, together with a year's allowance if there are children, is a nest-egg which means much in starting a new home and opening a second chapter of married life.

From Here and There

MILLIONS STARVING.

[Quebec Telegraph.]

It is a harrowing story that comes to us from the famine-stricken provinces of Chihli, Shansi, Honan and Shantung, in China, where it is said that from one-third to two-thirds of the population are only subsisting on leaves, chaff, etc., and that more than half are destined to perish. Bishop Lewis wires from Peking that thirty million people are suffering, and that there are a thousand deaths daily, with conditions growing worse. Details have been cabled to President Wilson by the American minister at Peking, Charles R. Crane. Many families are reported to have sold their female children in order to have means to buy food. Others are threatened with death from cold because they have had to sell their clothing to provide food.

THE RESULT OF LAZINESS.

[Washington Times.]

Dishonesty, control of winning clubs by gamblers, is declared by a grand jury to exist in baseball. Nobody need be surprised, for where there is laziness, corruption always comes in. Sitting on a bench watching somebody else take exercise is naturally a lazy occupation. When thirty thousand men go to see a baseball game they lose thirty thousand chances to do something worth while, such as digging a ditch, sawing wood, or otherwise exercising their muscles. They prefer to watch others do what they cannot do, taking their exercise vicariously, as the Roman mobs that watched the gladiators took their fighting vicariously. A lazy sport breeds dishonestly. Baseball, racing, prize-fighting, all sports run merely to be watched, are demoralizing.

THE AMERICAN ELECTION ISSUE.

[Minneapolis Daily News.]

All the tumult and the shouting to the contrary notwithstanding, the real and vital issue of the presidential campaign is not embraced in the League of Nations question. Nor comprehensively in the slush fund question either, although the facts here are straws that show the way the wind blows. The people of this country are herded into two major groups that as such have long since ceased to mean anything; and, anyway, the device on the other fellow's party banner is not what most of us are thinking about. The real vital issue of the campaign is as old as American politics. It is the issue progress has always taken with reaction. It is the theory of liberalism and humanity in government vs. the theory of the iron fist and the interests.

THE TWO TRINIDADS.

[London Daily Express.]

Besides the colony where the Prince of Wales landed, there is a South Atlantic island named Trinidad, whose very existence is ignored by some standard works of reference. For many years it was ruled by a wealthy Frenchman, Baron James Harden-Hickey, who styled himself King of Trinidad, and lived in royal style, surrounded by courtiers in gorgeous uniforms designed by King James himself. He also floated a company to prospect for a treasure hoard said to have been buried on the island, but all attempts to find it proved fruitless. In 1895 the British Government claimed Trinidad for the purpose of a cable station, and King James, who was quite as crazy as his brother boulevardier, the Emperor of the Sahara, eventually committed suicide.

SMUTS'S GREAT TRIUMPH.

[Johannesburg Times.]

We think that both within parliament and without many people who do not belong to the South African Party realize that that party's policy is sound, and recognize that its leader is the only man to whom the government can be intrusted with any degree of confidence. Men who did not sit on the ministerial benches voted for the government in a crisis simply because they saw that a change would not benefit the country. In experience, knowledge of world affairs, and administrative ability there is no man in South Africa so well fitted for the premiership as General Smuts. The session was a personal triumph for him. He smoothed over difficulties, handled criticism with unwearying patience, and displayed a desire to meet those who did not see eye to eye with him.

HARD TIMES IN JAPAN.

[Tokio Times.]

London papers depict long queues outside the theatres and a general rush for amusements as one of the features of modern life in the British metropolis. It used to be so, too, in Tokio during the war years; but the summer's economic depression has brought theatre-going to a sudden end, and people are now more concerned with how to obtain money than how to spend it. Hard times have hit Japan. The flush and open-handed ways of wartime are no more; and all places of amusement and public resort, as well as dealers in luxuries, are feeling the pinch.

APPROVES THE GREY SCHEME.

[Syracuse Journal.]

The sentiment of America is for Irish freedom; so is that of England. The trouble lies in deciding upon the exact form. It is almost an established fact that the grant of governmental freedom must come by one or more steps, unless it is to be argued that the Sinn Feiners can ultimately succeed in crushing the British Government, and that is beyond sound reasoning. Therefore why should not the Grey plan be the first and greater step in briging about a satisfactory peace which every friend of Ireland and England and every advocate of world peace hope for? It would do honor to the Sinn Feiners; it would honor Britain.

MORALS AND THE MOVIES.

[Washington Post.]

Recently on both sides of the Atlantic the movies have been under fire. At the conference of Catholic charities held last week in this city, much was said of the bad effects which a certain class of screen drama is liable to have on the youthful mind. Particular stress was laid on the suggestiveness of scenes which, while not necessarily lascivious or libidinous in themselves, are yet likely, in the case of the unsophisticated boy or girl, to arouse passionate emotions or to impart undesirable information before due time. There is force in this contention, and film censors everywhere ought to give it proper consideration before issuing a license to any production.

THE MODERN VIEW.

[Perth (Australia) News.]

There may be persons even now who regard a university as a superfluous luxury, a sort of social frill, as a source of "unproductive expenditure," and who would like to see the university grant diverted into road and bridge making, railway construction and public works channels. Such short-sighted individuals fail utterly to grasp the most pregnant truth that has been forced upon the intelligence of the whole civilized world in the last half-century—namely, that national effectiveness and success are dependent upon education. Furthermore, the higher education is carried, the higher and more powerful becomes the national force and character.

LITTLE OLD BROADWAY.

[Ottawa Journal.]

Greater New York, with a population of 5,620,048, is less inclined to brag about its growth in this respect than it used to be. The problems attending the congestion of large numbers of people in restricted areas are growing more serious every year, and the conditions under which the bulk of these people live are not conducive to the creation of envy among outsiders. Life in many of the pretty little incorporated villages of New York State is far happier and pleasanter than life in the big city of the same name, despite the alleged attractions of "Little Old Broadway."

PENNY POSTAGE.

[Kingston Whig.]

Sir Gilbert Parker's motion for penny postage within the Empire was unanimously adopted by the Imperial Press Conference. The United States has gone back to two-cent postage. Why should not the nations forming the British Empire revert to pre-war conditions?

Poetry and Jest

THE SPLENDOR OF AUTUMN IN ONTARIO.

[By T. B. Parkinson.]

When the harvest days are over,
And the fall comes on apace,
The green of spring and summer
To the rainbow hues, gives place.

In the golden glow of autumn,
We see Dame Nature's pride;
For she clothes most of her children
More flashy than a bride.

There's a lesson in this beauty
That should come to you and me;
That the close of life's not sadness,
We all must plainly see.

The rich colors of the rainbow
Are spread o'er hill and dale,
On every plant, and bush, and tree,
These lovely tints prevail.

When the artist filled his paint pots,
He well knew where to go,
For such wondrous shades of color,
The rainbow does bestow.

If these deductions taken
From Nature are so true;
What means it, to our lifetime—
What does it mean to you;

The springtime has its beauty,
When Nature gives new birth,
But the ripened fruit of harvest,
With bounty fills the earth.

Let us apply the table
Of math'matics to our plan;
For the great increase of autumn,
Shows the benefits to man.

When life's autumn comes to us,
And we've passed its cares and strife;
May we see in the golden sunset,
The happiest days of life.

A REAL CONFUSER.

Doctor: "What was the most confusing case you ever tried?"

Judge: "A case of champagne. I hadn't got halfway through it before I was all muddled up."

FLOWERS' NAMES.

[Marigolds.]

As Mary was a-walking
All on a summer day,
The flowers all stood curtesying
And bowing in her way;
The blushing poppies hung their heads
And whispered Mary's name,
And all the wood anemones
Hung down their heads in shame.

The violet hid behind her leaves
And veiled her timid face,
And all the flowers bowed a-down,
For holy was the place.
Only a little common flower
Looked boldly up and smiled
To see the happy mother come
A-carrying her Child.

The little Child he laughed aloud
To see the smiling flower,
And as he laughed the Marigold
Turned gold in that same hour.
For she was gay and innocent—
He loved to see her so—
And from the splendor of his face
She caught a golden glow.

LIKED HER MOTHER.

Six-year-old Margaret often played with Nellie, a neighbor's little girl. One rainy day, the two were just starting across the clean kitchen floor at Margaret's home, when the latter's mother, seeing their muddy shoes, headed them off and sent them out to play on the porch. After a moment, Nellie remarked:

"My mother don't care how much I run on the kitchen floor."

There was a long interval of silence. Then Margaret said:

"I wish I had a nice, dirty mother like you've got, Nellie."

THE JOY OF BEING.

[By John Kendrick Bangs.]

Whither my road is leading me
Perhaps I do not know;
But, oh, the path is fair to see,
And sweet the winds that blow!
In sun or storm, by day or night,
If skies are lowering or bright,
The highroad holds so much delight
I run with heart aglow.

The lanes may thorny be, and lead
To steeps heart-breaking high;
The forests wild with bush and weed
My strength may mortify;
Yet, with resolve to do and dare,
I hold within my soul small care
For hazards spread o'er pathways where
The goals worth winning lie.

It is enough to live and plan,
To joy in earth and sea;
To do what things a mortal can
With spirit blithe and free;
To prove one's strength of soul, and will
To meet and overcome the ill,
And in the end to gain the thrill
Of manful mastery!

A DAY AND A BOOK.

[Copyright, 1920, by Edgar A. Guest.]

Old Brown was one who used to say:
"Much like a book is every day—
A book you want to read clear through
And find just what its people do;
The story starts and causes doubts,
But you must know how it turns out;
The hero gets in trouble and Appears to lose his sweetheart's hand,
But in the closing pages you
Find happiness and marriage, too."

I like his notion. Every day
I start a story just that way.
And as I stand before my door
I wonder just what is in store—
What joy or sadness shall be mine
Before I reach the closing line?
What new adventure shall I make?
What different road be mine to take?
But though the writing may be bad,
I trust the ending will be glad.

Now here's a book begun
This morning with the rising sun!
Here wait perhaps adventures bold,
A thrilling tale that must be told,
Someone perhaps may rise to fame
And I may proudly speak his name.
Across the current of my life
May blow the changing winds of strife,
And I may clearer come to see
The answer to life's mystery.

With interest the tale is filled;
Men dream and toil and plan and build
And ever with the human race
Some wondrous change is taking place.
I want to live this glad day through,
To know what friends of mine shall do,
To learn, where now I stand in doubt,
Just how the problem shall work out—
To read this book of joys and woes,
And know the story to its close.

SUNSHINE.

[Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler.]

What wonders sunshine works upon the world!
It turns the hillside to an emerald throne,
The sullen ocean to a sapphire stone,
The clouds to crimson bannerets unfurled;
Beneath its spell the meadows are bepearled
With dew-drops bright in glory not their own;
The land is girded with a golden zone;
The rose's dainty petals are uncurled.
When sunshine doth such wondrous beauty bring
As makes our worn old world awhile to glow
With brightness borrowed from the realms above,
It typifies to us that higher thing
Which makes this earth a very heaven below,
The Sunshine of the soul—we call it Love.

THE RUBE.

[H. McKenzie.]

Oft had he gazed through leagues of dark
Where hangs the haze o'er bog and brake,
And heard the hungering hellish bark
Of some lean wolf across the lake.
'Twas his to camp 'neath copper moon,
On slope of some spruce-scented hill,
And hear the whirring wings of loon
Boom down the night aisles dark and still.
To see the eagle cleave the gloom,
Or crane swoop through the fall of dusk,
Or where the trembling timbers loom,
The yellow gleam of cougar tusk.
Not his to push the puny pen,
Nor reason with the rule and line,
Nor mingled he with meagre men
Of lights and women, song and wine.

Every Man For Himself

BY HOPKINS MOORHOUSE.

He laughed with skepticism, but plied his paddle again. He was not as concerned about the launch as he pretended, of course; at the worst it probably meant that Stinson had been entertaining some of his friends on the sly. He had no intention of handing his mysterious passenger to the police. But was he to let her laugh at him and disappear unchallenged into the fog out of which she had come?

Phil Kendrick's experience with the opposite sex was very limited, he had to confess. He had been too completely absorbed in athletics to afford girls more than passing attention. Those of his social set—those he had met—had failed to impress him. One or two of them were attractive enough in a general way, he realized; some were amusing to him and some very very tedious. It was a new experience to him to find himself actually interested in a girl—or rather, her voice! He wished he could get a look at her till he remembered the poor showing he would make with his blackened eye. Then he was thankful for the darkness.

Phil planned to land her at the Queen City Yacht Club at the foot of York street, or at the Canoe Club; either would provide an easy landing. They must be well across the bay now; but it was hard to say just where they would come in. Ordinarily he could have steered by the illuminated dial of the City Hall clock and the spire of St. James'; but the fog obliterated all landmarks.

They were both very damp from exposure to the mist, but it is doubtful if either of them was aware of it. He made several further attempts to discover her identity without avail; at every turn she evaded him skillfully and it was beginning to look as if she would step ashore and vanish into the fog without leaving behind her a single clue for him to follow. This illusiveness was an added spur to his desire to know this girl. He did not believe that she was a married woman at all. It was a conclusion which seemed to be justified by her elaborate precautions to make him think otherwise. Because of some foolish notion of the conventions she intended to go as she had come, taking advantage of the fog to write down the night's adventure in a book which must be closed to him for all time and forgotten.

Deliberately Phil held back the canoe. They were within a few strokes of the landing now.

"Listen to me very carefully," he began. "I am going to ask you for the last time to tell me your name or the name of some friend whom I can get to introduce me to you properly. Isn't that fair? I have told you the truth about myself and will hand you my card to prove it. You must play equally fair with me or—"

"Or what?" she demanded haughtily as he hesitated.

"Or—well, take the consequences," he finished lamely.

"Which are—? Be explicit, Mr. Kendrick."

"Well, I might turn around and paddle you back to the island and leave you there, for one thing. The circumstances are not such as entitle you to the consideration I have shown you. For all I know, you may be an ordinary crook. Think it over, madam. Is there any reason why I should not call you 'kiddo' and help myself to a kiss? Is there?"

"Yes—the fact that Philip Kendrick is a gentleman. I dare you to prove it otherwise!"

"It is kind of you. If you are so sure of it, why don't you give me a chance? Come on, be a sport. I will promise anything you wish to meet you legitimately, and I really would regret it very much if I thought—"

"I have told you already that it is impossible," she interrupted coldly. "I always understood it was a woman's prerogative to choose her acquaintances. I am grateful for your services tonight, of course; but beyond that—The fact is, I do not care to know you, Mr. Kendrick. Please put me ashore and say good-bye."

A cold fire of resentment burned in Kendrick's eyes as he drove the canoe to the landing with a few skillful strokes. Why had he been so foolish as to tell her his real name? Why didn't she want to know him? Without a word he caught the canoe in one hand and stepped out. He felt along the gunwale to the bow and fastened the painter to an iron ring in the planking, then handed her out safely. He retained his grasp of her hand.

"A moment ago you dared me to kiss you," he said gravely. "I am not in the habit of taking dares from anybody."

"Let go my hand at once, sir. You know very well you cannot so far forget yourself as to take such a liberty. I dare you to prove yourself no gentleman."

"I warn you—!"

"I dare you!"

"Very well! On your own head be it, then! The boatman is worthy of his hire," he paraphrased and laughingly he seized her in his arms and kissed her.

The next instant he received a resounding slap in the face. It had young muscles and indignation behind it and it found him unprepared. He started back automatically, tripped, lost his balance and fell into the water.

"Oh, you—you miserable — fresh Aleck!" came her mortified cry.

She lingered only long enough to make sure that he could swim. As he drew himself out of the water the sound of her running feet died out on the pier.

With chattering teeth Kendrick cast loose, seized his paddle and drove it deep into the water. Ye gods, what a fool. Very angry at himself, he set out across the bay once more, guided by the derisive bawling of the foghorn at the Eastern Gap.

CHAPTER III.

"No Matter What Happens."

At no time had it been Phil Kendrick's habit to entertain an inflated opinion of his own importance. On occasion he had ridden around the gridiron on the shoulders of idolatrous students; but his modesty had been one of the factors underlying his popularity. Despising conceit in others, he was too prone, perhaps, to take himself to task for those little mistakes which every young man is liable to make from time to time.

It is safe to say, however, that never in all his life had he arraigned himself upon the carpet of his own condemnation so severely as now while paddling across the bay for the second time within the hour. If the McCorquodale incident earlier in the evening had lowered his opinion of his own judgment he was now ready to concede that he had no judgment whatsoever. It was of little use to tell himself that it served her right, or that she had dared him deliberately to do what he had done. That did not alter the fact that if he ever met her again—it was not likely that he would, of course, but if he did—somewhere, sometime—he had erected a barrier to her good will which would preclude all hope of her friendship. His status in her sight was that of a "miserable fresh Aleck!"

Thus, as a relief to his feelings and in part to keep warm by exertion, did Phil come home through the fog at headlong pace in a high state of discontent, a veritable bear with a sore head. As he lifted the canoe to its place in the boathouse something pricked his finger, and by the light of a match he found a dollar bill pinned to one of the canoe cushions with a tiny brooch. His hire! —the only reward he had had any right to expect! The sight of these souvenirs did not tend to restore his peace of mind, and there was little mirth in the short laugh which he bestowed upon them as he thrust them into his pocket; yet it is interesting that he looked upon them as souvenirs, even while deciding to dismiss the whole matter permanently from his thoughts.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.

Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years. Now made in Canada.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

Your Working Partners

SUCCESS, in almost any line of endeavor, depends upon team work. Those who work with you to carry out your plans are, to a great extent, your business partners. You can plan, organize and direct, but most of the actual work must be done by others.

Among your business associates should undoubtedly be included those who provide your telephone service.

Private branch exchange operators, "central" operators, repairmen, linemen and other telephone workers perform a most important service in keeping open your "lines of communication."

They realize the importance of their work, and do their best to serve you efficiently and well. The Company uses every means in its power to choose its operators and other workers carefully, and to train them thoroughly for their work.

The Company and its employees are extremely anxious to give you as good service as you get from your most trusted employees. If at any time our service does not fully satisfy your requirements, you may be assured that at such a time it has fallen below the high standard we set for it—a standard we are always striving to maintain.

With your active, friendly, helpful co-operation and good-will, the standard of service can be upheld.

The more you know about the Telephone the better it will serve you

OXO GENERATES HEAT

Concentrated Beef Cubes Fortify Body Against Chills.

An Oxo cube dissolved in a cup of hot water is a splendid thing to take before going out in the cold or damp, or on coming in, if one feels the slightest ill effects. Besides its nourishing and invigorating properties, Oxo acts as a fuel in the body, generating heat that the system requires.

Oxo cubes—in tins of four and ten cubes—have endless possibilities. For soups, sauces, gravies, savory dishes and meat jellies, they do all that meat could do, and do it quicker and with less trouble. Use Oxo cubes with "left-overs" and oddments for new, delicious dishes.

There is nothing better than Oxo for building sturdy boys and girls.

A unique way of raising money for the Children's Hospital has been found by the women of Clandeboye, Ailsa Craig and the district round about. They come into London tomorrow laden with home cooking and fancy-work, which they will sell from the Westman store on Dundas street, beginning to show their wares early in the morning.

Among the delightful pre-nuptial functions given in honor of Miss Ada Nash, who became the bride of Mr. A. P. Stevens of Detroit last week, was a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Anderson, of Adelaide street. The guests present were the members of the Victoria Hospital Class of 1913, to which the guest of honor belonged, and the house decorations were carried out prettily in purple and gold, the school colors.

The Wortley Road Mothers' Club meeting held last night took the form of an autograph party, to which the teachers of the school were invited guests. Each guest was given a bag into which she put as many coppers as there were letters to her name and had to pronounce her name as she handed it in to fill the club coffers. A reading and dance by Miss Margaret Christopher, and a vocal solo by Miss Gladys McEvoy were included in the program.

Mrs. John Gemmell, who returned home on Monday night, after spending a delightful four months and a half visiting friends in Scotland, found her house a bower of flowers, the gift of the various mothers' clubs of the city, who wished to welcome her back. Last night's concert was given by the staff of the college, and included such artists as Mr. Stanley Oliver, organist; Miss Helene Allen, violinist, and Miss Marian Henry, reader.

Mr. Martin's program included delightful Chopin and Liszt numbers.

McLARTY—MacDIARMID.

The Baptist parsonage, Ridgetown, Ont., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, October 9, when Rev. O. D. Priddle officiated at the marriage of Miss Isabella Jennie MacDiarmid, daughter of Mrs. Eliza MacDiarmid, Talbot street, to Mr. Ernest C. McLarty of Howard Township. The young couple were attended by Miss Lulu McDiarmid and Mr. Owen L. McLarty.

Mr. and Mrs. McLarty left on the noon train for Toronto and points east, and on their return they will take up their residence on Talbot street.

KENNEY—JORDAN.

At St. Mary's Church on Tuesday morning a very pretty wedding took place, the Rev. Father Dignan officiating, when Miss Ellen Jordan, daughter of Mrs. G. Jordan, Stratford, Ont., became the bride of Mr. William J. Kenney, son of the late Mr. Edward Kenney of Logan. The bride, who was gowned in navy georgette over satin and wore a pretty picture hat, was attended by her cousin, Miss Hanna Watters of Stratford, who was prettily gowned in taupe satin, while Mr. Ben Jordan assisted the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a pair of silver bracelets, to the bridesmaid a brooch, and to the groomsman gold cuff links. After a short honeymoon in Detroit and Denver, Col., Mr. and Mrs. Kenney will reside in London. Among the guests present at the wedding were Mrs. J. Henderson, Miss B. Jordan, Stratford, and Miss A. Kenney.

MILLER—POCOCK.

On Saturday, October 9, at St. Peter's rectory a quiet wedding was performed by Rt. Rev. Mgr. McKeon, when Mercia Veronica, youngest daughter of Mr. E. A. Pocock of this city, became the bride of Mr. Gordon Miller, youngest son of Mr. M. Miller, also of London.

The bride looked charming in a tailored suit of navy blue with hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and orchids. The bride was attended by Miss Violet Paton, also of this city, wearing a pretty tailored gown and corsage bouquet of American Beauty roses. Mr. H. Delaney of Windsor assisted the groom.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother on Wilson avenue.

The happy couple left on the 4:30 train for Toronto and points east, and on their return Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside in London.

TURNER—HOUSTON.

A wedding took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Houston, sixth concession of Chatham Township, when their daughter Sadie became the wife of Mr. Garnet Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Turner of Wabash.

The Rev. Fred Cralk of Dawn Mills performed the ceremony, the bride being becomingly gowned in taupe duchess satin with overdress of crepe de chine. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations tied with streamers of white satin ribbon.

They were attended by the groom's sister, Miss Nellie Turner, and by the bride's cousin, Mr. James Dunlop.

The bridal couple entered the parlor, while the Wedding March was being played by the bride's sister, Miss Emma Houston. The day of the wedding was the 25th anniversary of the wedding day of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner will reside on the groom's farm, concession 7, Chatham Township.

DEAN—STANFIELD.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stanfield was the scene of a pretty autmn wedding on Saturday evening at 7:30, when their eldest daughter, Nettie K., was united in marriage to Mr. Clayton Dean of London, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Dean, the Rev. Mr. Willans officiating.

The bride, attired in a handsome gown of embroidered georgette, beautifully draped and wearing a corsage of Sunset roses, entered the drawing-room, leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin played by her cousin, Miss Gladys Tilley. Miss Verna Stanfield, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a becoming gown of white satin and a corsage of Ophelia roses, while Mr. Wm. Parker of London was best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check, to the matron of honor a rope of pearls, to the best man a Masonic tie pin set in pearls, to the soloist a cameo brooch set in pearls, and to the pianist a pearl necklace.

During the signing of the register, Miss Vivian Ferguson sang "Until."

Mr. and Mrs. Dean left on the 10:15 train for Chicago and thence to California, the bride traveling in a costume of brown broadcloth, large black hat and a wrap of ermine. Many handsome gifts were showered upon the bride and groom.

SPENCE—WILLIAMS.

A very interesting and fashionable wedding took place on Thursday, Oct. 7, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Bloor street east, Toronto, when Irma De Maine Williams, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Williams, became the bride of Mr. Clarence Armstrong Spence, son of Dr. and Mrs. Spence of Lucknow, Archdeacon Cody officiating. The decorative scheme was beautifully carried out with palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums, tall green standards topped with chrysanthemums and ferns and festooned with southern smilax marking the guests' pews. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of kitten's ear crepe with bodice and skirt of point lace worn by her mother on her wedding day. Her veil of filmy tulle, was caught with a Russian coronet of pink lace and sprays of orange blossom, and her bouquet was of orchids, white roses and Sweetheart roses. Mrs. Gordon Hunter was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Armore Drynan, Miss Eunice Fudger, Miss Margaret Laird and Miss Marjory Warwick. The bride's sister, Miss Madiline Williams, was maid of honor.

All the attendants were gowned alike in frocks of love-in-the-mist blue georgette over palest pink and silver, with girdle sashes tied at the side in palest pink and shading to a deeper color to match their bouquet of Ophelia, Columbia and Russel roses. Their hats were the same lovely blue with lace and silver crowns. Mr. Wilfred Stratton, Mr. MacKenzie Walters, Mr. Max Haes, Mr. P. Crean and Mr. Augusta Bolte were the ushers, and Mr. Kenneth Sinclair attended the groom as best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests motored to the home of the bride's parents at 7 Cluny avenue, where a reception was held, the bride and groom receiving friends standing under a white wedding bell in the bow window of the drawing-room, a veritable bower of flowers. Mrs. Williams was wearing a handsome gown of taupe georgette brocaded with velvet, over coral pink, a French taupe hat, fox furs and a corsage bouquet of Sunburst roses and violets. Mrs. Williams, sr., was in black charmeuse with cut steel trimmings and black hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Spence went to New York for their honeymoon, the bride going away in a dark blue tricotine suit, a flame colored hat of duvetyn and fox furs. On their return they will reside at 8 Crescent road.

DUNNING—McEWEN.

Mellow-toned autumn flowers and delicate fronds of palm and fern were intermingled with delightful effect in the quaint little Church of St. Anne at Byron yesterday afternoon, when Amy Isabel, daughter of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Robert McEwen, became the bride of Stanley Covert Dunning, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunning of Cambridge, Mass., the rector, the Rev. V. M. Durnford, performing the ceremony. About forty guests were assembled in the pews, roped off with white satin ribbons and marked by clusters of pure white asters.

Promptly at 4:30, as the beautiful strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin sounded forth from the little church, the youthful and charming bride appeared on the arm of her father. Her nuptial robe of ivory charmeuse was made with bouffant hips and irridescent panel in front, while pleated from the shoulders fell a long court train behind. Lined with pale pink, the train turned over as it touched the floor and was caught with orange blossoms worn by the bride's mother. A simple tulle veil, prettily draped from a Juliet cap, was adorned with orange blossoms. A huge armful of Madonna lilies and crimson roses, from which fell a shower of ribbons and rosebuds, completed her costume and she wore the groom's gift, a gold wrist watch.

Miss Dorothy Heath, in a charming gown of pink georgette with black velvet picture hat and an armful of Russel roses, attended her as bridesmaid, also wearing the groom's gift, a platinum friendship circle. Little Miss Helen Dunning of Cambridge, Mass., in a picturesque frock of white organdie and carrying a basket of Sweetheart roses, acted as flower girl, while Master George Kennedy, cousin of the bride, in a white sailor costume, made a quaint page. Mr. Burton Covert of New York was best man, and the ushers, Mr. Hazard Dunning of Cambridge and Major Allen McEwen of Montreal. The groom's gifts to the best man and ushers were silver pocket knives.

After the simple but impressive service, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Fox-Hewton sang "The Psalm of Love," Mrs. Ormond presiding at the organ.

For the reception at "Alloway Lodge," the home of Col. and Mrs. McEwen had been abundantly decorated with Ophelia roses, and supper was served in buffet fashion. Mrs. McEwen, mother of the bride, was wearing a handsome gown of black charmeuse with georgette overdress and corsage of Sunset roses, while her guest, Mrs. Rain, was also in black charmeuse and wore a black sequin hat.

Mrs. W. A. Dunning, mother of the groom, wore a charming gown of turquoise blue velvet, and Miss Helen Dunning of New York was in black panne velvet. The other out-of-town guests included Mr. W. A. Dunning of Cambridge, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Hazard Dunning of Cambridge, Mass., Miss Margaret Jackson of Seaforth and Miss Marjorie Sinclair of Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunning left last night for the Bermudas, where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a smart suit of brown duvetyne, with small hat of brown velvet and beaver stole. On their return they will reside in Cambridge, Mass.

THE MARRIAGE OF ANNE

BY MAY CHRISTIE

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XXVIII.—Simplest Things Are Sweetest.

It was very pleasant strolling in the meadows. My immaculate buckskin shoes got rather damp and stained with morning dew. I stumbled once on my heels, and my companion caught me for a second closer to him. I could feel the nice tobacco smell on his rough coat.

"Where is this cottage?" I asked hurriedly, embarrassed.

"Just over there, behind the trees. There's a dear old couple live there. Quite a Darby and Joan. When I marry, I'd like to feel——"

He broke off, with an awkward little laugh.

"You'd like to feel?"— I wanted to hear more.

"Oh, just that it must be splendid to go on caring like that, for fifty odd years or so."

I thought of Fred. But somehow, where Fred and I were concerned, I couldn't see the picture that he'd conjured up. Fred and I—grown old together—in a country cottage—both quite poor—immensely happy——

"Darby and Joan are lucky," I said, slowly; "but it seems to me that few modern marriages work out that way."

We had reached the cottage now, and walked up the flagged pathway to the door.

Neil Saunders knocked. An apple-cheeked old woman opened to us. Her whole face lit up at sight of my companion. It was obvious that he was a favorite here.

"Come in. Come in." She led the way into a sweet-scented little parlor. Through the window, honeysuckle peeped. "I'll bring you new-laid eggs and bacon. Yes—and coffee." She bustled off.

I seated myself beside the open window. In a little plot of ground below, rose tall Madonna lilies. Flaming clumps of hollyhocks surrounded them. 'We had the loveliest breakfast. Home-made bread, and home-made butter, new-laid eggs, and raspberries and cream. In the centre of the little table by the window was a great bowl of roses, red and pink and white and yellow.

"What a sweet little place" I cried, enchanted.

Neil Saunders smiled at me, and said: "I think the simplest things are always sweetest. Don't you agree, Miss Anne?"

I thoroughly enjoyed that cottage breakfast, sitting by the open window, within sound of the birds' singing, and within scent of the honeysuckle and the roses and Madonna lilies.

"You look much happier now, Miss Anne." My companion leaned back in his chair, and regarded me intently. "May I smoke? You don't mind, do you?"

I nodded my assent. And he produced a weather-beaten pipe, filled it carefully and applied a match.

"Extraordinarily peaceful here. I often come to have a chat with the old folks. Joan—as I call her—was my nurse, you know, in the dim and distant days of long ago."

"Your nurse? But you haven't always lived in this part of the world?" I felt immensely interested.

He shook his head. Then, taking a long draw at his pipe, he said:

"No, I've roamed around the world considerably since those days. I was born just outside New York. At fifteen I went abroad with my father. To South Africa. He expected to make his fortune, in the gold rush. But he didn't. His dreams are buried with him—in the veldt."

I murmured something sympathetic. But I do not think that my companion heard. His fine eyes had a dreamy, reminiscent sort of look in their blue depths.

"I loved South Africa. I spent some considerable time out there. A rough life. Guess I did everything for a living—from transport driving on the veldt to working in the mines."

"You made many friends?" I ventured.

He nodded.

"Lots of 'em. Some good, some bad, some false, some true. Men are pretty well the same all over the world, you know."

A pause.

"It's a glorious country, and climate. Air heady as champagne. And most healing sort of sunshine. Pure gold. After a long day's trek, I used to camp beside some rushing river, with a huge fire lit to keep the lions off."

"I can remember lots of glorious nights, when the moon was at the full, and the air filled with the sweet scent of gardenias and a thousand flowers. Grape harvest, and a big white moon!"

"Away in the distance we could hear the jackal's call. Eerie to a degree. We'd sit around the campfire, and tell yarns. And then, dog-tired, we'd fall asleep with the sound of rushing waters in our ears, crooning a gentle lullaby."

Tomorrow—Reminiscence.

Is a picture that no painter has the colorin' to mock—
When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock."
—James Whitcomb Riley.

HALLOWE'EN.

As I have had numerous requests for assistance in giving Hallowe'en parties regarding decorating, preparing lunches, games, etc., I will give some suggestions below. Those who sent stamped envelopes for replies will find, I think, all the help necessary in this article, and I have put their stamps in the C. H. F.

For decorating one may use autumn foliage, cornstalks, pumpkins cut into Jack-o'-Lantern faces and orange crepe paper with black figures of cats and witches pasted on it. This paper makes excellent lamp shades, as it throws a pretty mellow light. A very attractive centrepiece for the lunch table is made by hollowing out a pumpkin and filling it with grapes or rosy apples, or it can be filled with little favors wrapped in tissue paper and tied with narrow ribbons, radiating to each plate. At a given signal each guest pulls a ribbon and the packages come out.

A dainty menu consists of nut sandwiches, or Brownie sandwiches (brown bread with pea-nut butter filling), chicken and celery salad, cookies with eyes of raisins and mouth and nose of citron; fortune cake containing a ring, dime, thimble and key. The ring signifies a happy wife or husband, the dime wealth, the thimble single blessedness and the key that the one obtaining it opens all hearts. Coffee or sweet cider, nut-fudge, nuts and popcorn may be served in the course of the evening.

Fortunes may be told with peanuts, by taking out the nuts and putting into the shells tightly folded strips of paper on which are written such words as journey, wealth, success, brunette, blonde, etc. Ducking for apples is an ancient custom, as well as dropping a fork from a height into a tub of eating apples. The three dishes is another game. Fill one with clean water, one with dirty water and the last is left empty. The guests are blindfolded and in turn led to the dishes. If he dips into the dirty water he will marry a widow, if into the clean water he will marry a maiden, and if he should place his hand in the empty dish he will be a bachelor. Much amusement may be had by providing each person with a pencil and paper and ask them to draw an apple and half an apple, giving a prize for the best drawing. A masquerade is excellent fun, leaving on the masks until the costumes are judged and giving a prize for the bast costume or for the one who conceals his identity the longest. Where a masquerade is held one could have a ghost greet the guests at the door, holding out a hand with a wet chamois glove to be shaken. So here's hoping that all your parties are a success.

Requests.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am a new writer to your column. I wrote before but did not see my letter in print. Inclosed my mite for the S. C. H.

I would like to correspond with a girl of my own age. I am 12 years old and I am in Junior Fourth class.

I read the letters in the Mail-Box after I get home from school at night. I am sorry that I bring no help, but promise to do better next time. I will close now. Best wishes from

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make 16 ounces—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

OLD DOG BUD.

Part Two.

It was very nice in the country, but Bud did not like to think it was. How nice the people had tried to be to him, too, but he refused to make friends with them. He had been there for two whole days, and he had not eaten a bite of food or taken as much as one drink of water.

It was a quiet country village, where Bud's new master lived, and Bud had been used to the city all his life. His new friends coaxed and coaxed him to eat, and did their best to make him happy, but he just moped and moped, asking himself over and over: What was his master doing at home? Were they missing him? What would they do when no little dog came when they called "Buds, here, Buds, here?" It was indeed horrible to be away from them, and he wished something would come to carry him back to where he belonged. He was getting weak for the want of food, and he felt sure he would die.

"What are you doing there, young fellow?" said a voice from the next yard.

Bud walked over to the fence and peeped through a crack. There stood a big black collie peeking through at him.

"I'm not a young dog, and it's none of your business what I am doing here," was Bud's impolite reply. "Dogs in the city wait until they are first spoken to before speaking to their elders."

"Do they indeed?" said the collie in wonder. "It's a pity I'm not there, for I'm the oldest dog I ever heard of around here."

"Then you haven't heard of me. I'm six, almost seven," Bud spoke up proudly.

How the black dog did laugh. "I'm fifteen," the collie told him. "Why, you are a mere infant compared to me."

"Fifteen!" cried Bud. "Why, how old does a dog live to be?"

"Some live to be twenty if they take proper care of themselves," the collie replied. "I expect to live longer than that."

"Oh, me, oh, my," sobbed Bud. "Will I have to live and suffer all that time? I can't put up with it in the country," and with that the little city dog burst into tears.

"Come, come," said the collie, "tell me your troubles."

Bud forgot to be dignified, and just told his troubles as fast as he could. When he was through the collie dog looked at him in wonder.

"And you intended to starve yourself, because your ungrateful master did not love you enough to keep you with him always. Why, he wasn't a master worth loving half as much as you have loved him, and as for his mean sisters they will be punished for their meanness to you—just mark my words! Now you run right in and eat your dinner, and then make friends with your new master and his wife. I'll show you how to enjoy life; why, your good times are just to begin."

And would you believe it, Bud obeyed, and scampered for his food like a puppy. We'll hear more about him tomorrow.

Famous Three-Year-Old Who Won $75,000 Matched Race At Windsor Yesterday

MAN O' WAR.

Man-o'-War Wins Thoroughbred Race

Defeats Sir Barton by Seven Lengths At Kenilworth Park Tuesday Afternoon—New Track Record Established —Witnessed by Large Crowd—Movies of Race Will Be Shown in London Shortly.

WINDSOR, Oct. 12.—(By Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)—Sam Riddel's Man o' War, champion three-year-old of America, won the thoroughbred championship of the American continent this afternoon from Sir Barton, owned by J. K. L. Ross, over a course of a mile and a quarter at the Kenilworth track. Man o' War's time was 2:03.

The victory netted his owner a $75,000 purse (American money) and a gold cup donated by the Kenilworth Jockey Club, valued at $5,000. Approximately 30,00 persons saw the big race. Man o' War, by his cleverness, broke the record for the track by 6 2-5 seconds. The track record is 2:09 2-5. The American track record for the mile and a quarter is 2:00. Man o' War was ridden by Jockey Kummer and Sir Barton by Frank Keogh. Man o' War bounded to the front when the barrier was released, and was raced at a fast pace the entire trip. Keogh went to the whip before they had gone a quarter, but was unable to improve his position. The winner was well in hand at the finish. The fractional time was exceedingly fast. The first quarter was stepped in 23 seconds flat, the half in :46 5-8, the five furlongs in 59 1-5, the three-quarters in 1:11 4-5, the mile in 1:37 2-5, and the mile and a quarter in 2:03. Man o' War was never headed, and won by seven lengths.

The courage Commander J. K. L. Ross displayed when he agreed at Havre de Grace in September to race Sir Barton against the all-conquering Man o' War is the subject of much commendatory comment in Windsor tonight. Few racing folks believe that Sir Barton or any other horse of any age now living in America can take up scale in weight with Man o' War and beat him at a mile and a quarter or at any other distance. The theory that Man o' War is the greatest thoroughbred ever foaled on the American continent, if he is not the greatest horse that has ever lived, seems to be accepted as true. In any event, his victory today showed that he is a most marvelous horse.

The admirers of the son of Fair Play and Maherbah believe that Man o' War could waive his weight allowance and pack top weight with Sir Barton and beat him again at one mile and a quarter or any other distance easily. This opinion is held without prejudice to the past performance of Sir Barton. If Commander Ross had insisted when he and Sam Riddle signed up for the match race that Man o' War waive his weight allowance and pack top weight with Sir Barton surprise at the making of the match would not have been so general.

Man o' War has been called the greatest horse of the century, and his defeat of Sir Barton has proved it. The only defeat he has suffered in a career that began at Belmont Park in June, 1919, was in the running of the Sanford Memorial Stakes at Saratoga last summer.

Because of a bad ride by Jockey John Loftus, Man o' War was beaten in the Sanford Memorial by Upset, a horse he had always beaten before the running of the Sanford stake, and which he has since trimmed half a dozen times. He won nine races last season, an overnight event at Belmont Park, the Juvenile, Keene Memorial, Youthful, Tremont, and Belmont Park Futurity, earning the substantial total of $83,500. Since coming to the races as a three-year-old at Pimlico in May, Man o' War has won the Prekness, Withers, Belmont, Stuyvesent, Dwyer, Miller, Traverse, Lawrence, Realization jockey club stakes and the Kenilworth cup and $75,000 purse, earning a total of $172,000. His gross earnings in the course of nearly two seasons of racing amounted to $255,000. He has exceeded the American record of earnings, $193,550, which is held by Domino. He would have passed Domino's record ere this if his owner, Sam D. Riddle of Philadelphia, had not elected to retire him last fall immediately after his victory in the Futurity Stakes at Belmont Park. Man o' War might have easily raced through the last fortnight of September, all of October and part of November in Maryland and Kentucky and earned a matter of $50,000 or $60,000.

Man o' War had met all the three-year-olds of the season that call for anything and beaten them all. One by one, Upset, On Watch, John P. Grier, Yellow Hand and others have bowed to his superior speed. He has been headed but once. For a stride or so in the running of the Dwyer at Aqueduct in July John P. Grier got his muzzle in front of that of Man o' War. This was about an eighth of a mile from the finish. Jockey Kummer laid the whip on Man o' War's flank once, and the great chestnut bounded away to win handily. In the $10,000 Potomac Handicap, run at Havre de Grace on September 19, Man o' War conceded 30 pounds to Wildair and beat him handily.

It was no long-eared mule that Man o' War defeated, but a splendid, game horse over a distance that he liked. They carried weight for age, the winner 120 pounds, and Sir Barton 126. Both have followed the ten furlong trail in 2:01 4-5 with 120 pounds up, at Saratoga. The weights made no difference, however, in this race. Sir Barton was selected for the race because it was thought that if any living horse had a chance to beat Man o' War under the conditions named he was the logical choice.

Now the racing world conceded Man o' War as the champion of champions. The start of the race was good and little time was consumed at the post. Man o' War, although given a free run for the first sixteenth of a mile was a good two lengths in front when they passed the judges' stand the first time and he increased this margin slightly around the lower turn, and into the back stretch. Sir Barton picked up a little in the back stretch, but as they thundered in. Man o' War was a good four lenths ahead. Down to the wire, the Riddle horse, running as smoothly as an electric motor, pulled away and won by seven lengths, according to official reports. Jockey Kummer on the winner, gave him a good ride, but this was practically unnecessary, owing to the superior sped of the horse. Sir Barton never faltered and gave the very best in him. Frank Keogh, who at the last moment was substituted for Sande on Sir Barton, got all there was to get from his mount. Betting on the race was tremendous in volume. Probably $200,000 was wagered in the mutuel machines alone.

LONDONERS TO SEE RACES.

The moving pictures showing the complete race will shortly be shown in this city at the Allen Theatre. The rights for the pictures are controlled by Commander Ross, owner of Sir Barton, and arrangements have been made for showing them in London as soon as possible.

Field Day Postponed

Owing to inability to secure Queen's Park for Friday of this week, the Western University annual field day has been postponed for two weeks. This will give the boys a better chance to get in condition, and there should be some interesting competition for the Brock Shield, emblematic of the individual championship of the university.

Batteries—Brooklyn, Grimes and Miller; Cleveland, Coveleskie and O'Neill.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—The Cleveland American League club won the supreme baseball title here this afternoon, when the Indians defeated the Brooklyn Nationals in the seventh and deciding game of the 1920 world's series by a score of 3 to 0. Tonight Cleveland is celebrating in a manner in keeping with the honor.

The shut-out victory was chiefly engineered by Stanley Coveleskie, the spit-ball pitcher of the local team. Backed by air-tight defence at the crucial moments of the game, the Shamokin (Penna.) coal miner let the Robins down with five hits. But two Brooklyn players reached second base during the nine sessions at bat, and but five of the invaders' batsmen were left on the bases all told.

Coveleskie's feat in winning three of the five games necessary to clinch the championship for Cleveland will go down as one of the outstanding features of world's series history. The Brooklyn batters accumulated but two runs off the moistened slants of "Covey" in the 27 innings in which he officiated on the mound. He let the Robins down with one run in the first game at Brooklyn on October 5, allowed them a second tally on Saturday and shut them out today. It is doubtful if a more masterly exhibition of pitching has been seen in any world's series since 1905, when Christy Mathewson, then at the zenith of his twirling career, with the New York Giants, shut out the Philadelphia Athletics in three games.

Great as must be the credit accorded Coveleskie for his remarkable feat, the general offensive and defensive work of the other members of the Cleveland club cannot be dimmed by the individual glory of their star boxman. The Indians, as a team, grew more impressive as the series progressed, and their feat in winning four straight games from Brooklyn after getting away to an indifferent start stamps the club as one deserving of all the support and enthusiasm which their efforts have evoked in this section.

In shutting out the National Leaguers in the final clash this afternoon, the Indians, led by Manager Tris Speaker, rose to playing heights which bore out the complete confidence of the club backers and fans. They reached the spitters of Burleigh Grimes, the National League star deliverer of this type of pitching, for seven solid hits, clinched the game before the half-way mark, as it ultimately proved, and topped the play with several pieces of baseball strategy that demonstrated the possession of mental alertness which marks the difference between keen-thinking and a mechanical-playing baseball club.

That these outstanding features were appreciated by the Cleveland followers of the club and the Middle Western section of the country generally has been apparent since the day the team returned from Brooklyn. But today the demonstration which marked the final putout of Myers and clinched the championship for the Indians surpassed any similar scene in several seasons. Thousands of men, boys and women poured out of the bleachers and stands, and simply engulfed the victorious players like a human avalanche. It was a continuous battle for the members of the team in their march toward the dugout, scores of fans endeavoring to shake their hands or pat them on the back.

BROOKLYN IS THROUGH WITH RUBE MARQUARD

Ebbets Says He'll Release Marquard Because of Fine For Ticket Scalping.

LEAGUE PARK, Cleveland, Oct. 12.—Rube Marquard cannot play baseball with the Brooklyn club again, Charles Ebbets, owner of the club, declared this afternoon.

Having been found guilty of ticket scalping, Marquard will be released by the Robins, Mr. Ebbets indicated. There would be no attempt to withhold Marquard's world's series money, he added, saying he believed the Rube had been punished sufficiently by the notoriety he has been given.

Marquard was fined $1 and costs in the local municipal court this morning on a charge of violating the exhibition ticket ordinance. John A. Heydler, president of the National League, who was in court with Marquard, stated that as the violation was merely technical, he would take no further action in the matter.

Mr. Heydler said, however, he did not believe Marquard would be in the National League next year.

"Marquard has hurt Brooklyn and he has hurt the National League by his action," said Mr. Heydler. "Baseball does not want men of his calibre, and I do not think he'll be back in the league next season, although I probably will not take any official action myself."

Marquard, who had asked for a special hearing of his case, in view of the fact that he might participate in today's game, appeared in court, accompanied by Joseph Heintzman, attorney for the National League. The case was quickly disposed of.

Judge Silbert, after listening to testimony of the detective who arrested Marquard and the statement of the pitcher himself, said he felt that Marquard had been sufficiently punished by the nation-wide publicity following the act, and that he would fine him $1 and costs.

It was brought out during the testimony that Marquard had but 24 tickets for the Cleveland games and that when approached by a Brooklyn friend who asked him if he had any for sale, made a semi-joking remark that he had, at a price several times their face value. Marquard's statement was overheard by a detective, who, when he saw the tickets in the hands of the pitcher, arrested him on a charge of speculating.

Judge Silbert said that following the recent baseball scandal, in connection with the 1919 world series, the good name of the game had been injured and that it was a shame that a foolish action on the part of Marquard should have occurred at this time.

LEVINSKY PUT OUT IN FOURTH BY CARPENTIER

The French Champion Scores Knockout in Bout At Jersey City Tuesday Night.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 12.—Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion, made his initial bow as a fighter before an American gathering of pugilistic enthusiasts here tonight and knocked out Battling Levinsky, who held the American light-heavyweight title, in 67 seconds of the fourth round. Carpentier, who holds the light-heavyweight title of Europe, is now the world's title-holder of that division.

Early in 1918, Jack Dempsey, who subsequently won the world's heavyweight championship, knocked out Levinsky in three rounds at Philadelphia. Tonight the French champion failed to equal Dempsey's time in finishing Levinsky, but he is the only one outside of the champion who has knocked Levinsky out since the latter became prominent as a fighter.

FIRST ROUND—Carpentier led left and right, landing lightly. Levinsky sent left and right to the body at close quarters. Carpentier landed a hard right on the forehead and blocked a right cleverly. Carpentier sent right and left to body. Levinsky countered right on head. Carpentier crossed his right to face and hooked left to stomach. Both were very cool and sparring at the bell. Carpentier's round.

SECOND ROUND—They exchanged body blows. Carpentier stood off and motioned Levinsky to come in. Carpentier sent right and left to face. Then he drove his right to head and followed with left and right to the jaw, sending Levinsky down in his corner for a count of eight. Again, with stiff lefts and a right swing to the head, Carpentier sent Levinsky down for another count of eight. Levinsky was groggy, but weathered out the round.

THIRD ROUND—Carpentier rushed and landed his right to head. Levinsky clinched. Carpentier missed right and left for the head. Levinsky jabbed three lefts to face and Carpentier swung right to head. Carpentier left to face and slowed up a bit, while Levinsky kept him off with light lefts. Carpentier was waiting for an opportunity when the bell rang. Carpentier's round.

FOURTH ROUND—Both fiddled for 30 seconds. Then Carpentier drove Levinsky across the ring, landing lefts and rights at will, finally sending Levinsky down in a corner for the full count. Levinsky was not unconscious, but he was tangled up in a corner on the ropes while he was counted out.

Time of round, 1:07.

LEXINGTON FEATURE TODAY.

Included in the entry list are Princess Etawah, King Watts, Walnut Frisco, Dagastan, Arion McKinney, Bonnie Del, Willie Irwin, Kilowatts and Tootie Toise. The race, which is one of the oldest fixtures of the Lexington trots, has a value of $2,000.

Only two other races are scheduled. The first is the 2:15 class pace, in which Abbie Dryad, Crystal Knight, Dan Eiser, Charley Sweet and N. J. L. are entered, and the second is the 2:09 pace, including Pat Pointer, Captain Mack, Lillian Silkwood, Loyal W., Jay Brooks, Phil Patch, Hazel Kuestner and Ruth Patch. The meeting here closes tomorrow with the running of the 2:03 class pace, the 2:05 trot and the 2:17 trot.

SARNIA TEAM TO BE BOLSTERED FOR BIG CLASH NEXT MONDAY

Petrolea Will Play Return Rugby Game At Imperial City.

SARNIA, Oct. 12.—"Had" Karns' split ear, while still in pretty bad shape, has ceased to cause further worry, and his presence in the Thanksgiving Day game is now assured. Bossenberry is nursing a sore knee. "Hack" Smith has a nasty bruise on one leg. Cole and Lyle Smith are nursing bumps, and practically every player on the team has some memento or other of the trip to Petrolea last Saturday, due in a large measure, to their lack of condition, and the hard ground of the Petrolea playing field. From now on the players will be taken in hand by the training squad and special attention paid to their conditioning. Manager Vanalystyne already making plans for this end of the practicing requirements.

No sooner was Saturday's game over in Petrolea before plans for strengthening the blue and white fourteen were under way. A determined effort is being made to have "Polly" Parrott, "Ace" Vanalystyne and "Punk" Hollard don the moleskins and be ready to go into the second game of the schedule against Petrolea here next Monday. "Sammy" Stokes will likely come out for a backfield berth before the week is out, and Forbes, who has been under the weather lately, will be out to practice next week, it is expected.

With a bolstered line and spares that can be relied upon both for line work and the back division, the local squad are banking on putting a team on the field during the next two games that will be able to carry back a lead to Petrolea for the last game that will prove an insurmountable wall for the hard oils to hurdle.

ROSS WILL NOT GIVE UP BECAUSE SIR BARTON WAS BEATEN

Man o' War Is Hailed As the Champion of Champions.

Windsor, Oct. 13.—(By the Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Windsor this morning is quiet after the running of the big turf classic yesterday at Kenilworth track between Sir Barton and Man o' War. The Windsor and Detroit papers hail Man o' War as the champion of champions, but also eulogizes Commander J. K. L. Ross for his exceptional courage in agreeing to a match with the champion thoroughbred, Man o' War. Mr. W. E. Burke, writing in the Border Cities Sun, says, in part:

"Will J. K. L. Ross become the Sir Thomas Lipton of Canada? It is the second time in his racing career that he has tried to send a champion to winter quarters. Will he return to the struggle?

"In our mind we believe that Mr. Ross will be undaunted at the defeat of his charger. He has spent a vast fortune in the way of sires and fine-blooded mares, and also has established breeding farms both in the United States and in Canada to produce and develop some of the best thoroughbreds.

The defeat of his great horse yesterday was no disgrace. He met the greatest horse that ever looked through a bridle, and we believe that we can safely say that it will take ages to produce another horse of the same calibre. Mr. Ross is not ignorant of the powers of the horse that his trick was going to meet, and we have to give him the credit of being a game man for giving his consent to the match, and it is the feeling of the general public that Mr. Ross may have the opportunity or pleasure of owning a champion of champions before the next racing season comes to an end. There are only a few men of the Ross calibre that dabble in the great game known as the sport of kings."

WHY DO WOMEN SUFFER

When There is Such a Remedy for Their Ills as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Mishawaka, Ind.—"I had such a severe female weakness that I could not do my work and I could not get anything to relieve me. A physician treated me, but it did no good. I had been in this condition for three months when I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound (tablet form) and it cured me. I keep house and am able to do my work now. I certainly praise your medicine."—Mrs. SUDA OLDFATHER, 548 West Second Street, Mishawaka, Ind.

Women who suffer from such ailments should not continue to drag around and do their work under such conditions, but profit by the experience of Mrs. Oldfather and thousands of others who have tried this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief from such suffering. If complications exist write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. TRUCE SIGNED BY POLES AND RUSSIAN REDS

Fighting Will Cease At Midnight, October 18.

Riga, Oct. 12.—A preliminary peace treaty and armistice was signed by the Polish and Russian Soviet peace delegates here at 7:10 o'clock tonight.

The armistice actually becomes effective at midnight October 18, that is, 144 hours from midnight tonight.

M. Joffe, head of the Soviet delegation, described the Riga peace as "a peace without victory and without vanquished," in a brief address before the signing of the treaty. That describes the Riga agreement accurately as it appeared to disinterested onlookers.

It was a peace of give and take, which those who have followed the course of events fear will not be very popular either with the Bolsheviki or the Poles.

But it is undoubtedly a triumph for the two chairmen who made it, and the spirit of conciliation with which M. Dombski and M. Joffe handled the explosive questions that disrupted the Minsk conference is likely to win for them the gratitude of a war-exhausted world.

The Riga armistice will put the Bolsheviki at peace with all their Baltic neighbors within 144 hours from midnight tonight and leave the Wrangel movement as the only great military operation against the Soviets.

MANY DIFFICULTIES.

M. Joffe called attention to the many difficulties encountered in arranging the armistice, and also to the harmonious manner in which the delegations carried out the negotiations. He also expressed the belief that the foundation has been laid for a permanent peace, as both nations are absolutely tired of war and unwilling to assume responsibility for continuing the strife.

PILES

A 35-cent bottle of delightful "Danderine" freshens your scalp checks dandruff and falling hair. This stimulating "beauty-tonic" gives to thin, dull, fading hair that youthful brightness and abundant thickness—All druggists!

WRANGEL OPENS UP NEW OFFENSIVE

Sebastopol, Oct. 12.—Gen. Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader, has launched his expected offensive against the new sixth army of the soviet forces, sheltered behind the Dnieper. Gen. Wrangel is carrying out a pinching movement converging on the town of Kakhovka, northeast of Kherson.

BOLSHEVIKI SEEKING PEACE.

London, Oct. 12.—Conditions along the South Russian front have assumed a serious aspect for the Russian Soviet Government, according to advices received here. Gen. Baron Wrangel's troops are continuing to advance north of Crimea and the Sea of Azov and Nikolaiev, the principal Russian naval station on the Black Sea, is said to have been captured by anti-Bolshevik insurgents. In spite of the fact that an agreement looking to an armistice has been reached with Poland, and large numbers of soviet troops are in a position to be rushed to South Russia, the soviet government is reported to have made peace proposals to Gen. Wrangel.

ACCUSES POLES OF BREAKING TRUCE TO SET UP GOVERNMENT

London, Oct. 12.—M. Tyzkelicz, charge d'affaires of the Lithuanian Government in London, in a letter to the London Times this morning says the Poles "under a treacherous pretence of mutiny," broke the armistice agreed to with the Lithuanians on October 7, and set up a government in Vilna, headed by M. Abramowicz, a well-known Polish Nationalist, and leader of the left faction, together with three other Poles. The letter concludes by saying the Lithuanian Government is determined to defend its independence and that it still has faith in the Allies and in the prestige of the League of Nations.

High Cost of Foodstuffs in Detroit Causes Attempt At Suicide.

DETROIT, Oct. 12.—High cost of foodstuffs in Detroit restaurants were a factor in the attempt of Sylvia Kocian, 20, of Chicago, to end her life Monday night.

Chicago has been conducting a campaign on the profiteering restauranteur, and inflated prices have been cut.

Believing a similar situation existed in Detroit, Miss Kocian came here on Sunday in search of work. She was fortified with what she thought would be sufficient money to pay for meals and a room for at least a week.

The cost of a breakfast dispelled this delusion, and when Monday night came and all but 25 cents had gone for meals, she purchased a bottle of liniment and drank it.

A patrolman found her at Jefferson avenue and Randolph street, semi-unconscious, and sent her to Receiving Hospital, where it was said Tuesday she would recover.

MEIGHEN TRIES TO STOP SLIDE IN EAST ELGIN

Tariff and Explanation of His Regard For Farmers' Topics of Speech.

A COOL RECEPTION

Premier Declares Farmer and Liberal Parties Lack Definite Policy.

[By Staff Reporter.]

STRAFFORDVILLE, Oct. 12.—Declaring the tariff policy of the National Liberal and Conservative party to be the only one which was clear-cut, while those of both the Farmer and Liberal parties were vague and confused, Hon. Arthur Meighen, speaking in the rink here today, opened the election campaign of John L. Stansell, Government candidate in the riding of East Elgin.

The premier made the tariff question the theme of practically his whole address, except for a slight digression, in which he again sought to explain that he did not class the farmers with the Bolsheviki.

Apart from the political side of his visit, the welcome extended by Straffordville to the prime minister was a generous one. The main street was effectively decorated, an evergreen arch forming the central piece. A band headed the reception committee while the march to the rink was led by the pupils of S. S. No. 10, arrayed in handsome blue sashes and caps and directed by their teacher, Miss Grass. An address in behalf of the municipality was presented by Reeve Alfred Neville.

Aylmer's Reception Cool.

Aylmer, where the premier and his wife dined, was not so enthusiastic in its reception. In fact, the only decorations in sight were those above the committee-room of W. G. Charlton, Liberal candidate. The cheering was noticeable by its absence. Not discouraged by this, however, the premier's party again stopped at the town on their return journey, when a reception took place in the town hall and other demonstrations were held.

Speaking at Straffordville Mr. Meighen commenced his address with a reference to the late David Marshall, by whose death the riding became vacant, declaring that he was a man of generous mind and habits, and respected by all who knew him.

He then launched out in support of the Government candidate, Mr. Stansell, asserting that he had shown his fitness to represent the riding by his private life and his adherence to a public policy by which alone the country was to fulfil its destiny. As his hearers knew Mr. Stansell better than he did he made no further reference to him and proceeded to outline the Government policy.

"It is of the utmost importance to every person that the course this country takes be a true and proper one," he declared. "If we go wrong through any prejudice then not one class but all classes suffer, and the farmers and the laborers pay the earliest and the heaviest."

Dodges War Record.

The speaker then proceeded to dodge a defence of the Government's war record by declaring that the voice of criticism had veered from this point to the trade policy, "If our critics think we should not go out of office because of our war record, but because we have chosen the wrong course in our trade policy, then I take up that gauntlet, and I ask the electors to decide whether our line is right or whether the line that our foe is on is right—if you can find that line.

"We are as we have always been, and I have no regrets for either the principle or the practice of our trade policy. The Government stands by a policy of reasonable and moderate protection applied to an extent that is sufficient for the expansion of our industries. We believe that we should ascertain just where protection is essential, and ministers of the Government are now employed in gaining that information first hand. By that process alone can any government find out what is the essential tariff policy to maintain Canadian industry."

Charges Lack of Policy.

Continuing he charged the representatives of the Liberals and Farmers with lack of a clear-cut policy. The Farmers, he believed, stood for free trade. That did not imply that there would be no tariff, but that there would be a tariff only on goods which were not manufactured here. Protection, on the other hand, placed the tariff on goods which were manufactured in the country. No one knew whether Mackenzie King wanted the first or the second policy. Crerar, the leader of the Farmer group, could be given credit for sincerity, as he undoubtedly stood for free trade.

Apparently, however, this was not the policy of all his party, as farmers testifying before the tariff commission said that they did not want to drive out the industries which they believed would happen if protection was withdrawn entirely.

Asks For Information.

"Where is Mr. King?" he asked. "Does he stand for one policy or the other? He says it is not a question of free trade or protection. I say that it is. There is no medium principle, and when he throws up his hands and says he is for tariff reform I tell him he is humbugging. Any public man knows whether he is for free trade or not. If he wishes to reform the tariff on what principle does he wish to reform it, free trade or protection? Will he reduce the tariff in any class of goods so that that industry will be driven out of the country? If not he is a protectionist. He declares at one place that he is in favor of free trade in farm implements, and at the next town that he is taking into account the needs of industries. How can he reconcile these two aims? The fact is you can't stand for two principles. You have to stand on one foot or the other."

He then proceeded to attribute Canada's growth in the past 40 years to the policy of protection. He argued that free trade would not prevent rural depopulation, and declared that in Great Britain agriculture had suffered most heavily from the policy, farmlands decreasing in value 50 per cent, and the farm population dropping from 29 per cent to 20 per cent. Under protection Canadian farms had increased in value, he claimed.

Lauded Laurier's Policy.

Continuing, he lauded the tariff policy of the Laurier Government, but claimed that it embodied the principles of protection. The average tariff under the Liberals was 28.3 per cent, while the tariff today was 22.5 per cent, he claimed. He argued that it was the country and not the manufacturers who would be hurt by wiping out protection. They would go elsewhere and would not lose financially, but the workingmen would be compelled to sacrifice their homes, while the farmers would lose a market which absorbed 80 per cent of their products. He urged that protection was the only policy which would restore the balance of trade and bring the exchange rate to normal.

Criticized Newspapers.

Leaving the tariff discussion he tried to blame the newspapers for the confusion of farmers with Bolsheviks. Mr. Meighen claimed that attempts were being made by certain hostile journals to attribute to him language that reflected on the fidelity of the farming and laboring population to British institutions. He asked that newspapers would be good enough in attempting to criticize his utterance to quote nothing but has own words. He thought he knew the farmers of Canada as well as the newspaper editors. If there was any class he ought to know both from his own experience and from association it was the agricultural population. If he had given utterance to sentiments which unscrupulous journals had sought to read into his words he would have made a very bad speech indeed.

Seeks Farmers' Friendship.

"I did not," he declared, "state in the Eastern Townships that there was trailing behind and allied with the Farmers' political party a class of people who didn't care about British institutions and had no anxiety about responsible government. I distinctly stated as well that the farmers themselves and their leaders also were just as concerned about responsible government as I was. If any one wants to challenge my assertion that the farmers' political party was joined in recent political contests by the very class of people I have described then I will take up the challenge and prove his words to the letter. When a party goes into politics it is no longer sacrosanct. It is entitled to the truth, but no more than the truth, and every word I said was true and every word I am prepared to establish by name and quotation."

Candidate Speaks.

John L. Stansell, the Government candidate, spoke briefly, declaring the prevention of rural depopulation was one of the vital issues of the day. He said that depopulation of the land was due largely to the introduction of machinery which took the place of farm help. He admitted that it would be better if there were more people on the land, but claimed that this would reduce the prices of farm products. He did not see why this would appeal to the farmers. The practice of farm women buying supplies from city department stores meant that the children of farmers followed the money to the city. This held true in regard to the tariff. If it were wiped out and supplies were purchased from the United States, then it would not be long before their sons and daughters would be going to build up their southern neighbor at the expense of this country.

E. A. Miller acted as chairman. Hon. T. W. Crothers, former minister of labor, also spoke briefly. He advised against the policy of group government.

Twenty-Five-Inch Vein of Anthracite Discovered Near Shelburne.

OWEN SOUND, Oct. 12.—While drilling for water at J. F. Lyon's farm, one mile north of Shelburne, a vein of good anthracite coal is reported to have been discovered 25 inches in thickness. Mining Engineer Chamberlain is on the job, and has a thousand acres under option. This will greatly increase the value of land in Shelburne.

Nature's Mirror

When a woman is well and healthy—there's a sparkle in her eyes, a rose tint in her cheeks, and she has rich red blood. There's elasticity in every movement and a spring in her step. Love comes to every woman who has bounding health, but when she is pallid, dull eyed, languid, she has no magnetism nor does she appeal to any man.

Such a change in feelings and looks!

After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weaknesses of her sex—with eyes sunken, black circles and pale cheeks—such a woman is quickly restored to health by the Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce. Changed, too, in looks, for after taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the skin becomes clear, the eyes brighter, the cheeks plump.

Druggists sell it in tablets or liquid. It is a medicine that's made especially to build up women's strength and for women's peculiar ailments—an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nervine; purely vegetable, non-alcoholic, and perfectly harmless.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

The Controlling Factors in Price Making

ON September 29th we announced a sweeping reduction in the list prices of our motor cars. At that time we stated that there was no economic justification for this action and it could only mean a very substantial loss to this company.

This loss we very cheerfully accept in the interests of a worthy movement to decrease the excessively high costs of living. But no business can remain permanently on a non-profit basis and, unless commodity prices do actually decline, our experiment will merely prove to be an expensive failure.

In brief, materials and production costs must come down in the very near future, or the price of Paige cars must inevitably go up. These two elements—materials and production costs—are the controlling factors in price making, and upon them rests the entire manufacturing structure.

We have stated the facts in a blunt, straightforward way. Paige cars are today selling for less than the cost of production and you, of course, realize that such a condition cannot continue indefinitely.

It merely remains to affirm that we shall not, under any circumstances, depart from the high standards of quality which have always characterized our vehicles. Irrespective of cost, the Paige will continue to be a fine mechanical product—worthy of your complete respect and confidence.

The Human Clock usually Breaks Down Instead of Runs Down

"IT has long been a favorite idea of mine to compare the human body with my old clock here."

"Without proper attention the old clock gets run down and stops until I wind it up again and then it ticks away just as heartily and regularly as ever."

"And so it is with the human body, but the great difference I find is that the human clock usually breaks down instead of runs down, because people neglect to take proper care of their health."

"Through all these years I have managed to keep well and to keep young by using restorative treatment whenever there are indications of the system becoming run down."

"Fortunately I learned the value some years ago of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and to its use I largely attribute my healthful condition at this age."

"When I hear people talking about being unable to sleep, or of suffering from nervous headaches, indigestion or worn-out feelings, I ask them, 'Why do you not use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to increase your nervous energy?'."

"So many people, as age advances, suffer from a lowering of the vitality, from high blood pressure or hardening of the arteries, but I have found that the use of this restorative treatment, when required, keeps my health at the high water mark."

Illustrated Conversational Style.

Before beginning the next series of advertisements to tell people about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, we want you to help us to decide on the style of our advertising.

The use of testimonials has always been favored in medical advertising, but with an effort to make our advertisements more interesting we have during the last few years used attractive illustrations and the conversational style of reading matter.

You will find samples of both styles of advertising on this page. What we want to know is which style appeals most strongly to women, because it is on the wife and mother mostly that rests the responsibility of looking after the health of the family.

If in addition to reporting that such a style of advertising is most interesting to you, you can say, "I have made inquiry among 25 of my friends and find that 16 have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as the result of reading your illustrated advertisements, 7 on account of reading testimonials and the other two have never used it," your answer would be much strengthened.

By adding further particulars as to various cases which have come to your attention your letter would be made more interesting and more likely to win a good prize. Your name will not be used publicly without your permission.

The Questions to be Answered

1. Which style of advertising interests the most people in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?

A. The use of testimonials?

B. Human interest advertisements with illustrations and conversational style of copy?

2. For what ailment do you find that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is most frequently used?

Both these questions can best be answered by making inquiry among your friends. Then write a good letter telling what you found out by your investigation.

$300.00 in Cash Prizes

$100 for the best letter.
$50 for second best letter.
$25 for third best letter.
$5 each for succeeding 25 best letters.

For your guidance we would suggest that you clip out this advertisement and start in at once to make an investigation among your friends and neighbors.

The competition closes Nov. 15th, 1920, but in case of two letters being equally good, the first one received will have the preference.

Was given Few Months to Live Is Now Strong and Well

Miss E. W. Ehman, School Teacher, Libau, Man., writes:—"Four years ago, while living in Regina, I was afflicted with fainting spells, nervous headache, and became very thin and pale. I sought medical advice and was treated for consumption, and given only a few months to live. I had to sleep on the verandah and was told not to go to public places for fear of spreading germs.

"A newspaper advertising Dr. Chase's Nerve Food fell into my hands. I bought six boxes and after a few weeks began to increase in weight and feel better. Under this treatment I gradually regained my health, and now weigh 165 pounds. I enclose a picture I had taken while ill and my photo of to-day, so that you can see what a difference there is.

"The reason for my writing this is the hope that this statement of mine will fall into the hands of some poor sufferer who can be benefitted, may be saved, by the steady, regular use of Dr. Chase's preparations.

"I often use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to keep my kidneys and liver in shape. I have recommended Dr. Chase's medicines to a great number of people for kidney trouble, lame back, appendicitis, shortness of breath, indigestion, nervousness, and in fact for every sickness I am asked advice about."

CURRIE KILLED TRAPPER, SAYS SUDBURY JURY

Court Registers Conviction in First of Three Murder Charges.

SUDBURY, Ont., Oct. 12.—James Arthur Currie, 25 years of age, was convicted at the assizes here today of the murder of Michael Donohue, a trapper, on January 19 last. Currie will be sentenced later in the sittings of the court.

This was the first of three murder cases on the docket for the present assizes. The second murder trial, that of Jim Lum, a Chinese restaurant keeper, who is charged with killing Omer Laduranty, a resident of Sudbury, in Lum's cafe at Sellwood, Ontario, on July 15, was begun today.

LONDON MAN HURT BY FALL FROM TREE

Ab. Kennedy So Seriously Injured He Cannot Be Taken Home.

ILDERTON, Oct. 12.—The Ilderton fruit growers started a packing gang last week, and two more gangs will be needed soon in order to handle the big crop of apples.

While helping to pick apples in his brother's orchard, near Ilderton, Ab. Kennedy of London was seriously hurt by a fall from a high tree. It is thought no bones are broken, but he is unable to be moved to his home in London.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weir, Iona, was the scene of a large gathering last week, when 60 young people gave Miss Gertrude Weir a prenuptial shower. A pleasant evening was spent in music, games and dancing. Miss Weir has been an active Church worker, both as a member of the choir and office holder in the Sunday school, and her absence will be much felt.

NIGHT WATCHMAN PENSIONED FOR LIFE

Marshall Anderson's 40 Years' Service Recognized by Woodstock Council.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 12.—Following a service of 40 years as night watchman in the city, Marshall Anderson has been superannuated by the city, and will receive $500 a year as long as he lives. Mr. Anderson has never been a paid official of the city, having been paid by the merchants. However, he rendered valuable services in protecting citizens and their property, and the granting of $500 a year to him is popular.

UNITED STATES MAY RECEIVE IRISH MANDATE

America's Bluff At Interference May Be Called, Declares Windsor Man.

IMPORTANT TO CANADA

James Smyth, Former Home Ruler, Has Changed His Opinions.

WINDSOR, Oct. 12.—"Unless interference on the part of the United States in the Irish situation does not stop, America may have its bluff called by being asked to exercise paternal control over Ireland, furnishing some guarantee of an Irish policy of non-interference with Great Britain, and with England reserving the right to raise a tariff wall against Irish imports if she feels justified in so doing."

This was the startling message brought to the border today by James Smyth, formerly prominent in the home rule movement, who returned to resume his duties as an assistant principal on the local board of education after an extended trip to Ireland.

Ardent Home-Ruler.

Previous to his departure to the Old Country, Mr. Smith was one of the most ardent home rule advocates in Canada, and had become embroiled in numerous serious controversies as a result of his extreme views on the question. Personal inspection of conditions in that country on his first trip there since 1914 have utterly changed his mind in regard to the problem. He came back today a strong supporter of Empire integrity.

Knave or Fool.

"The man today who says that the Irish question is of no importance to Canada," declares Mr. Smith, "is either a knave or a fool. Ireland is a keen competitor of Canada in the English market, and as such should pay her full share of war debts. She is not doing this. In a conversation I had with Prof. John McNeill of the University of Dublin he gave me to understand that the recent war was a foreign struggle, in which the Irish were not interested."

Commenting on the Sinn Fein movement, Mr. Smith said it was not thoroughly representative of the people, in that methods adopted in the recent election by supporters of the so-called Irish republic outclasses the worst instances of the ballot box stuffing in the history of politics.

Canada Interested.

"The home ruler of 1914 and the Sinn Feiner of today are as wide apart as the poles," he said. "And John Redmond and his following who are trying to break up the Empire are as much detested as the Orangemen.

"The Irish Sinn Feiner, whether illiterate or educated, has a very narrow viewpoint, and is not interested at all in Ireland as a part of the British Empire. It can easily be seen that Canada should be interested in the Irish question from a standpoint of the integrity of the Empire."

FOG INTERFERES WITH TRAFFIC ON RIVER

SARNIA, Oct. 12.—A heavy fog again hindered traffic up and down the St. Clair River today. A long line of boats dropped anchor in the river opposite Marysville and Sarnia, and several held up before entering the rapids from the lake. The steamer Wauketa of the White Star line did not leave this city until 10 o'clock on the Detroit trip.

Excavation in the Black River opposite the Detroit Edison plant is being made by the barge Atmosphere. A new 36-inch gas main and electric cables are to be laid.

TURNKEY IS MADE GOVERNOR OF BRANT COUNTY JAIL

Application of Returned Soldiers Ignored by the Provincial Govt.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 12.—John Cook, for five years past turnkey at the Brant County jail, was notified today of his appointment as governor, succeeding Chartis Jones, St. Julian veteran, who was recently discharged by the Government on account of unsatisfactory service.

The position of turnkey is rendered vacant by the appointment of Mr. Cook. The appointment is the second made recently by the Provincial Government, for which numerous returned soldiers wer applicants, but whose claims were not recognized. The matter is being taken up by the local veterans.

REPRIEVE FOR MAN SENTENCED TO HANG

QUEBEC, Oct. 12.—Joseph Remillard of Levis, sentenced to be hanged on October 22 for shooting Capt. L. Morisette, who called at the prisoner's home to ask for the address of a friend and was mistaken for one of the prisoner's mother was today granted a reprieve until February 25 by Mr. Justice Desy. On behalf of Remillard it was pleaded that his father, who urged him to shoot morisette, had been found guilty of manslaughter only. Pleas for a stay of execution and a new trial were submitted. His lordship rejected the latter.

Curling Hair Like This Promotes Its Health

For those whose hair is straight and lank nothing better could be recommended than the silmerine method. This insures a beautiful curliness which is perfectly natural in appearance, and the health of the hair is not affected as where the heated iron is used. A few ounces of liquid silmerine—which can, of course, be had at any drug store—lasts a long time, so it is quite economical to use. It is pleasant to use, too, being neither sticky nor greasy, and is easily applied with a clean tooth brush. The hair should be moistened the full length before doing it up. The pretty wavy effect in evidence in three hours is surprising to those who try this simple method the first time. The liquid also serves as an excellent dressing, giving the hair a delightful gloss.—Advt.

REFINERS WANT GOVT. ACTION TO PREVENT LOSSES

Contend That Restrictions Left Trade Liable To Suffer.

PRICE WAS FIXED

Claim This Prevented Canadians From Invading U. S. Market.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—From information which can be gathered unofficially the representations of the sugar refiners to the Government are roughly as follows:

It is contended that in contemplation of a sugar shortage in the Dominion the Canadian refiners were strongly encouraged by the Government to stock up in raws even at a time when raws were fairly high. They did so, securing the raws direct from Cuba, partly with the assistance of the Canadian mercantile marine and not indirectly via New York as formerly. They paid, however, in New York funds.

At a time, however, when refined sugar was selling high in the United States, the Board of Commerce fixed a price for sugar in Canada, and for three month at the beginning of the year the Canadian refiners were prevented from invading the United States market and taking advantage of the increased prices, plus exchange by the imposition of an embargo against Canadian exports.

Wouldn't Mind Loss.

The refiners claim that they wouldn't mind bearing the loss of a normal drop in prices. The present drop in the United States, however, they contend, is not normal. It has, they hold, been brought about by the unexpected importation into the United States of large quantities of sugar from Java, Argentine and Czecho-Slovakia. This, it is said, was designed for sale in Europe, but Europe cannot buy, hence the drop in prices.

Urge Protection.

Apparently, therefore, the attitude of the refiners is that the Government in the first place having exerted artificial influence on the trade, should now do something to protect the trade against inevitable loss resulting from such influences.

Just what the protection asked for is, cannot yet be ascertained. It is scarcely conceivable, however, that the refiners should expect an embargo on importations of cheap sugar from the United States, or even a reduction of the dumping margin.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER TOWN IN ARKANSAS

FIRED REVOLVER ON PUBLIC STREETS; IS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Alex Ostachuk of Sarnia Also Pays $61.90 For Being Intoxicated.

SARNIA, Oct. 12.—Alex Ostachuk was committed for trial at the police court today on a charge of carrying an offensive weapon for purposes dangerous to the public. According to evidence given Astachuk on Sunday night fired three shots from a revolver on Chippewa street, one of which passed near Constable Frank Essoms. On the charge of intoxication, of which he was convicted Monday Ostachuk was assessed $50 and costs, $11.90. The fine and costs were paid.

The prisoner through his counsel, A. Weir, elected trial by jury when arraigned and the evidence of Police Constables Esson and Woodhouse was taken, the latter exhibiting three bullets found on Ostachuk when he was searched. The accused offered to make a voluntary statement and through Interpreter Lampel told the court that while on his way from the Pere Marquette an Englishman had asked him to buy a revolver and had given him the three bullets.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

PRICES OF POTATOES ARE COMING DOWN; HAY IS VERY SCARCE

Apples Are Plentiful At 50 to 80 Cents a Bushel.

There were heavy offerings of potatoes on the market today, and although sales were brisk prices were much easier. Prices ranged from $1.20 to $1.35 per bushel and 35 to 40 cents per peck. By the bag they sold at from $1.75 to $1.90. There is every indication that prices of potatoes will be much lower, as the yield all over the district is the greatest in years.

Apples are now selling at 50 and 80 cents a bushel. The quality is very good, but the demand slow.

A further drop in peaches was recorded. The slow demand brought them down to 60 and 85 cents per 11-quart basket, while 6-quart baskets sold for 50 cents each.

Onions, which have been selling at from $1 to $1.25 per bushel, went up to $1.75 and $2.

Very few loads of hay have been offered this week. Prices of $29 and $31 per ton went up to $30 and $32 per ton. One of the largest loads that has been weighed on the city scales was sold today for $32 a ton. It belonged to Harry Allen and weighed 6,170 pounds. The wagon weighed about 1,500 pounds. There will be a brisk demand for hay for the remainder of the week owing to the holiday on Monday.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—Wheat opened ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower for October at $2 23½@2 23; November 1¼c higher at $2 22½, and December ½c higher to 1c lower at $2 11¼@2 10.

October oats opened unchanged at 63¾c; December ⅛c lower at 63⅜c, and May ⅛c higher at 58½c.

Rye 1c lower for October at $1 74.

Flax ¼c lower for December at $3 07.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Opening: Wheat—Dec., $2 05½; March, $2 01¾.

Corn—Dec., 86½c; May, 90¼c.

Oats—Dec., 56¾c; May, 60⅝c.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Wheat prices today in Chicago reflected the decline of values yesterday in the Northwest while the market here was closed. Later, however, something of a rally took place in connection with gossip that one of the largest millers in the United States had made an investigation which showed that domestic producers were holding between 65 and 70 per cent of their wheat. Opening prices, which ranged from 1¼c to 3c lower, with December at $2 05@2 06, and March at $2 01½@2 02, were followed by moderate upturns from initial bottom figures.

Corn went lower with wheat. There was general selling in small amounts by commission houses.

Oats were easier as a result of the weakness of other grain, and displayed but little power to recover.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

Montreal, Oct. 13.—The local stock exchange was exceedingly active during the first three-quarters of an hour this morning. The feature of the early trading was Atlantic Sugar, which opened at 119 this morning after closing at 120 last night, and then immediately dropped 4¾ points to 114¼. Brazilian went up a quarter point to 35½; while Abitibi lost a half point to 77. Brompton was practically unchanged at 80½, as was Laurentide at 110½. Breweries lost ½ point to 63. Riordon was strong, rising 2¾ points to 221.

Spanish River went down 1 to 110, while Wayagamack remained unchanged but steady at 140. Other issues were quiet.

FATHER BURIES TWO DAUGHTERS ALIVE IN MUCK

Michigan Farmer Confesses To Revolting Crime To Sheriff.

USED CHLOROFORM

Girls Two and Three Years Old Victims of Act—Bodies Recovered.

LANSING, Oct. 12.—"I just thought I would put the two little girls where I know they would be happy, and I would stay here and suffer for it."

Earl Roop, 29, Ingham County farmer, thus explained why he buried alive his two little daughters, Bernice and Dorothy, aged 2 and 3 years, in the muck near the Red Cedar River, on his farm Monday afternoon.

Sitting in a big easy chair in the sheriff's office here after he had been arraigned in the city court Tuesday morning, he smoked cigarettes, and told in a cold, unfeeling manner the details of his crime, his alleged troubles and the motives back of it all.

Had Fought It Off.

"I got the idea of killing the two little ones into my head first about a year ago," he said. "The notion to do it had come to my mind many times since then, but I fought it off until yesterday. I decided then to do away with them, so I went to the drug store in Okemos, where I bought some chloroform.

"I took the girls with me to the field near the river. Then I chloroformed them and got busy digging a hole in the old abandoned river bed.

"By that time they had partially come to. The older girl walked to the hole. I carried the younger one. I put them both in the water at once, and held their heads under so they would not suffer. Then the muck began to ooze in and soon the girls were buried."

Roop, who lives between Lansing and Mason, walked into Sheriff Silsbee's office Monday evening, and announced that he had murdered his two daughters.

Two hours later Coroner Floyd Estes, accompanied Roop to his farm, where the bodies of the girls were found.

Strangled to Death.

Coroner Estes said death had been due to strangulation.

Roop's wife, ill, and with a 6-day-old infant at her breast, is in a serious condition since being informed of the tragedy. It is feared she and the baby may die as a result of the shock.

Coroner Estes says in view of the confession no inquest will be necessary.

Neighbors of the Roop family are loath to believe the father guilty of committing the crime while in full possession of his faculties. They declare he has been despondent over poor crops and the advent of another child for which to provide.

Seemingly without emotion, the man entered the sheriff's office at 5 o'clock. "Sheriff, I've killed my two little girls," he remarked.

The official at first believed Roop was attempting to joke, or was demented. Then, as the story was unfolded, its horror gripped the sheriff. He sent for Coroner Estes and investigated the man's tale.

The two children accompanied Roop into a field Monday afternoon to be with him while he was at work. At 3 o'clock Roop returned to the house alone, and went to the bedside of his wife. He handed her some money and remarked that the children were safe out where he was working.

Came to Sheriff.

Two hours later he appeared at the sheriff's office in Mason with the story of the double murder.

The young farmer spent the night in the village jail at Okemos, a short distance from his home. The community had not learned details of the crime before this morning, when Roop was taken to Lansing for safekeeping.

The Roop family came to the farm near here from Lyons, Mich., two years ago. Roop has been forced to struggle to make ends meet, it is said.

Crowds flocked to the "murder farm" today, but sympathy for the suffering mother, who is only 21 years old, restrained their curiosity to some extent. Neighbors are seeking to console her and prevent, if possible, her death and that of her infant son as a sequel to the tragedy.

MAJOR-GEN. SMYTH KILLED WHILE WITH PARTY OF RAIDERS

DUBLIN, Oct. 12. — Major Gen. Smyth, brother of Commissioner Smith of the Irish constabulary, who was assassinated in a clubhouse in Cork, where he was sitting with friends last summer, was killed last night during military raids in Drumcondra, County Meath. The killing occurred while the military was raiding the home of Professor Carolan of All-Hallowes College. The family of Major Smyth was notified of his death this evening.

Major Smyth long had been in the British army and had been decorated with the D. S. O. and the Military Cross. At the time of the assassination of his brother he was serving in Egypt, but shortly afterward returned to Ireland and had been stationed in Dublin for a short time.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.—Advt.

MARY PICKFORD in "SUDS"

Mary Pickford Says:--

"No Home is Complete Without a Blue Bird Electric Clothes Washer"

The darling of the screen appearing at Loew's in her latest United Artists Production, "SUDS" has a BLUE BIRD in her new Douglas Fairbanks home.

MR. MAN, help "her" retain the bloom of youth in "her" cheeks, the sparkle in "her" eyes, and the ability to enjoy life and participate in the worthwhile things of HOME, unbroken by the ordeal of the washboard.

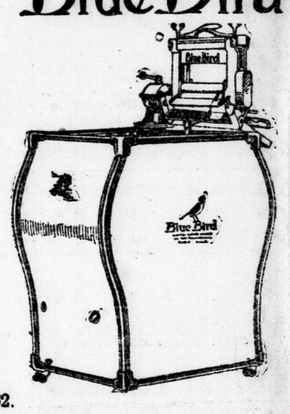

"A Blue Bird on wash day keeps the wrinkles away."

IT SEEMS STRANGE that the only method in washing clothes from time immemorial has been that of rubbing the clothes on a rock in a riverbed. The modern washboard is but a manufactured and slightly improved rock, and the tub of water but a part of the river brought into the home. Bring the Blue Bird, the emblem of health, comfort and happiness into the home.

LADY DEMONSTRATOR, DIRECT FROM THE BLUE BIRD FACTORY, WILL BE AT OUR STORE TODAY, EXPLAINING THE MERITS OF THIS IMPROVED, MODERN ELECTRIC METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES.

METHODIST CHURCH SURVEY WILL OPEN HERE IN NOVEMBER

Commission Will Also Sit in Other Western Ontario Cities.

TORONTO, Oct. 12.—A new move in church work was begun here today, when the Methodist Church survey commission appointed recently to study the work and needs of the Methodist Church in Canada and Newfoundland, arranged a schedule. The four departments of the church are co-operating in the survey, missionary, educational, Sunday school evangelism and social service. J. H. Gundy of this city is chairman. The information sought will be obtained by personal interviews and conferences, instead of by questionnaires.

The commission will open the personal work in London, Ont., on November 1, and will remain in that city throughout the week. From London the commission will go to Woodstock, Palmerston, Stratford, Montreal, Sherbrooke, Brockville, Smith Falls, Pembroke and Renfrew.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN FROM PRESTON GARAGE FOUND

Car Located in Brantford, But No Arrests Have Been Made.

GALT, Oct. 12.—The automobile stolen from Dahon Bros.' garage in Preston on Sunday night has been recovered in Brantford, but so far no arrests have been made in connection with the theft.

Celebrated Columbus Day.

Columbus Day in Galt was marked by a grand ball held by the Galt Council of the Knights of Clumbus in the armories, their first social event. There was a large attendance, visitors coming from all the surrounding places, and special cars were run to Kitchener and Brantford. Krug's Orchestra of Kitchener provided the music.

Six Liquor Cases.

Liquor cases prevailed at the police court this morning, when six Preston cases came up, four of which were settled out of court, while the other two were again adjourned. A. Swartz of the Breslau Hotel was fined $500 and costs, but a second charge was not pressed owing to the fact that Mr. Swartz recently lost his wife and child, who were fatally burned in a coal oil explosion.

De Laval Separators

Are By Far the Most Economical!

Real economy is never short-sighted. It never confuses PRICE with VALUE.

PRICE is what you pay for an article.

VALUE depends upon the amount and quality of service the article gives you.

You get by far the greatest actual value for your money when you buy a De Laval—BECAUSE a De Laval will give you much better and longer service than any other cream separator.

From the standpoint of its greater durability alone the De Laval is the most economical cream separator to buy, and when you also take into consideration its cleaner skimming, easier running, greater capacity and less cost for repairs, the price of the "cheapest" machine on the market is most exorbitant compared with that of the De Laval.

And there is no reason why you should let its FIRST COST stand in the way either, because the De Laval may be purchased on such liberal terms that it will actually pay for itself out of its own savings.

Call on the nearest De Laval agent, or write our office.

W. A. O'Dell, Talbot street, London; Charles Axford, Ingersoll; W. A. Barons, Belmont; Thomas McEwen, St. Thomas; A. C. Finch, Aylmer; Alex. McRae, Tillsonburg; J. L. Beaman, Tillsonburg; William Boyer, Harrietsville; C. Loughead, Putnam.

COMMITTEE WILL LOOK INTO MATTER

Presbytery Decides To Investigate Affairs At Knollwood Park Church.

At the afternoon meeting of the London Presbytery, a committee formed of Rev. W. J. Knox, Rev. T. A. Symington, Rev. M. F. Cree and David Ross and J. Stuart was appointed by the home mission committee to investigate into conditions of the Knollwood Park Church.

A petition from the congregation of Knollwood Park for an investigation into affairs concerning the church was received by the London Presbytery this morning at a special session in the First Presbyterian Church. The resignation of Rev. Frederick Hirst at the last meeting of the presbytery is the supposed foundation for the investigation. The matter was put into the hands of the home mission committee.

It was found necessary to write to the home mission board at Toronto for a grant of $300 to assist the financial condition of Chalmers Church. An investigation was made into the finances, and it was found that this amount was needed to carry the church over the year's work.

Family Worship.

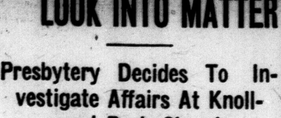

Rev. W. J. Knox and Rev. T. A. Symington gave addresses on the importance of the home co-operating with the church. The need for a greater amount of religious knowledge being imparted to children in the home, and more family worship, prayer and Bible reading was emphasized. Rev. J. Anthony of Fingal, in the absence of Rev. J. N. McGillivray, made an appeal for more recruits for the mission fields and the ministry.

A report of the investigation into the Knollwood Park Presbyterian Church will be made at the next meeting of the Presbytery.

A call was received from Mahone Bay Presbyterian Church in Nova Scotia to Rev. J. H. McLean of Aylmer in the London Presbytery. The call will not be considered until the regular meeting. A committee was appointed to visit Melbourne Church regarding finances.

Rev. W. G. Wallace, D.D., of Toronto in connection with the spiritual phases of the forward movement, addressed the presbytery, emphasizing the need of a greater spiritual atmosphere in the world today.

Rev. N. W. Campbell spoke on the subject of "Developing a Praying Congregation." Rev. D. C. MacGregor of St. Andrew's and Rev. H. E. Thornloe of St. Thomas took part in the discussion. Rev. Mr. MacGregor declared that the church was regarded by too many people as a sideline instead of one of the greatest things on the highway of life.

At The Theaters

"EXPERIENCE" AT THE GRAND TWICE TODAY.

"Experience," aptly described as the most wonderful play in America, now in its seventh season of remarkable prosperity, will be presented by F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest at the Grand twice today, closing the London engagement.

The career of "Experience" in the past few years has been little less than remarkable and the announcement of the coming of this big dramatic and comedy success is sure to result in capacity houses. Seven years ago Messrs. Comstock and Gest produced this play for the first time and since then it has played in most of the big cities of the United States from coast to coast, and has enjoyed remarkable indorsement from press and clergy everywhere it has been presented. Now for its seventh season the managers have provided a complete new scenic production and new costumes for the ladies in the company. The cast has been selected with great care and will be one of the strongest that has ever presented this wonderful morality play.

"ON THE HIRING LINE" AT THE GRND TOMORROW.

Almost any doctor will tell you that laughing is fine for the system, and perhaps that is one reason why good comedies like "On the Hiring Line," which plays here at the Grand Opera House for three days, October 14-16, gets such big houses, but at least one woman who saw this screaming farce in Toronto feels that you can get too much of even laughing. In the third act of this piece, when things get so tangled up that it looks as though they could never get straightened out again, and laughs follow one another so fast that you do not get a chance to stop, a woman in the middle of the house got hysterical and couldn't stop. She finally had to leave for a few minutes to get her breath, and she told the manager of the house she was afraid to go back again because her sides ached so. From all reports Harvey O'Higgins and Harriett Ford have produced a comedy that pretty nearly takes the record for laughs and the piece is sure to draw crowded houses during its stay here. May Anderson has brought the original New York production to Canada and it is one of the prettiest sets seen in this country.

MARY PICKFORD AT LOEW'S LAST TIME TODAY.

Mary Pickford, the darling of the screen, will be seen for the last time today at Loew's in her new joy-bringing picture, "Suds," from the Charles Frohman production of "Op o' Me Thumb." Mary does her best work in "Suds," which is one of the most delightful screen stories that Mary has appeared in. A funny Sunshine comic with many a laugh, and the popular Loew's Pictorial World Events in picture, with Loew's supreme vaudeville rounds out one of the most enjoyable programs of the season at London's popular amusement centre.

"PARLOR, BEDROOM AND BATH" AT LOEW'S TOMORROW.

"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," a Metro all-star production from A. H. Wood's stage comedy success from the pen of C. W. Bell, who by the way, is a well-known Hamilton barrister, and Mark Swan will be the feature photoplay attraction at Loew's for the last three days of the week. "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" is a hilarious and piquant story of a young wife who wanted a wild man for a husband, and in getting one she got really more than she bargained for. An excellent cast of screen favorites, including Eugene Pellette, Ruth Stonehouse, Kathaleen Kirkham, Charles H. West and Henry Miller will be seen in this screamingly funny farce.

A funny comic, Loew's Pictorial and Loew's supreme vaudeville will complete the bill for the balance of the week, and should bring out capacity audiences at every performance.

"THE DEVIL'S PASSKEY" BECOMES SENSATION OF WEEK AMONGST LONDON THEATREGOERS.

When a picture by its own merits, becomes a popular success and a film sensation, then it must be worth while indeed, and there have been few pictures which have played this city during the present season, which have created more of a sensation than Von Stroheim's "The Devil's Passkey," which is showing at the Allen today for the last time.

A picture of Paris, that wonderful wicked city of endless pleasures; of scandal, and notoriety; centre of fashion, and of society. Paris after the war, with all its old-time spirit of enjoyment reawakened; that is the setting for "The Devil's Passkey."

The greatest of all of Woman's Temptations; the lure of luxury, of pretty clothes, and lovely gowns. The trouble which scandal-wagging tongues may start, even over most innocent incidents. This is the story of "The Devil's Passkey," and these settings, this story, and Von Stroheim's exceptional direction, have made it the notable production which is drawing the capacity crowds to Allen's.

Overture, "Irene," and many interesting added film attractions. Presented tomorrow Friday and Saturday will be Constance Talmadge's newest production, "Good References." You know Constance, but you do not know her as she appears in this comedy romance.

PATRICIA.

Carmel Myers, in "Follies' Trail," bubbles with the joy of living. Here's a picture whose only purpose is to please and satisfy—and its objective is admirably attained. For it's one of the sort of pictures that audiences like, for its all-round excellence—an offering in which the human qualities blend with attractive color, in such harmony as surely to make itself felt with the motion picture world. The vaudeville feature presented with this feature is Nellie Bennett Company, presenting "Mit and Mat Manouviers"; Hoot Gibson, in "The Champion Liar," and a Century Comedy, "The Profiteering Blues," completes an excellent program to be shown at the Patricia for the last time today.

ARRIVES HERE AFTER SERVING OVERSEAS

Capt. Wilford Hodgins Contracted Heart Trouble in Murree, India.

Capt. Wilford Hodgins, 165 Ridout street, arrived home from Murree Hill, India, at noon yesterday. Capt. Hodgins went overseas in the fall of 1914 and served as a doctor in a hospital in England. He returned later to complete his course and then went to Mesopotamia, where he took charge of a hospital. He was later transferred to the military hospital in Muree Hill, which is in the northern part of India.

About three months ago he contracted heart trouble, which resulted in his being forced to take a furlough. He left India on August 26 on the steamer Assay and arrived in Liverpool at the end of September. He left England a week ago Sunday on the steamer Megantic, arriving in Montreal on Monday.

Capt. Hodgins was born in Lucan. His parents lived there up to a short time ago, when they moved to this city.

PLUMBING LAW IS SUBJECT FOR TALK

Health Board Has Long Discussion, But Fails To Reach Decision.

Discrepancies between the city and provincial plumbing regulations constituted the basis of an extended discussion at the meeting of the London Board of Health Tuesday afternoon, but the board did not come to any decisive stand in the matter.

E. H. Russell expressed the opinion that it was doubtful whether any contractor could collect payment in a court of law for work not done according to the provincial specifications.

City Clerk S. Baker said that the provincial regulations had not yet been signed by the lieutenant-governor of the province, but Mr. Russell held that they became effective as soon as approved by the Provincial Board of Health.

An Oxford street resident sought the support of the board to prevent his former landlord from collecting another month's rent in lieu of the usual month's notice of intention to move. The tenant complained that the house was insanitary, the plumbing bad and the place infected with vermin, of the species commonly known as "bedbugs." The question was raised whether the insects were proof of insanitary conditions, and Dr. Downham stated that they were carriers of typhus germs. Apart from this they are reputed to be very excellent scavengers. The board decided not to take any action in the matter.

THE GREAT AUSTRALIAN SOPRANO, MME. FRANCES ALDA, SINGS AT THE GRAND WEDNESDAY EVENING. OCT. 20.

Premier Soprano of the Great Metropolitan Opera Company Will Open the Series of Four Great Concerts To Be Given by the London Musical Art Society.

Mme. Frances Alda, gifted soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will open the series of four great concerts under the auspices of the London Musical Art Society at the Grand Opera House Wednesday evening, Oct. 20.

The sale of course tickets is now open and the advance sale bids promise of one of the largest audiences of the year being in attendance. The course ticket sale will close this week and all reservations for seats for the series should be made through Miss Doris Werner at phone No. 2.

The public seat sale for single tickets will open at the Grand Opera House on Monday morning next. Those securing course tickets will, however, enjoy having the same seats throughout the entire series.

The Greenville Piedmont, South Carolina, in reviewing a concert given by Mme. Alda in that city some few weeks ago, says: "Mme. Alda gave one of the most delightful concerts ever heard in Greenville. It was such singing that will remain in the minds of her audience for many a day to come. Mme. Alda was charming, with a piquant grace that had the distinction of high breeding, and as for her singing, there was an exquisite beauty of tone and endless variety of shading to match the meaning of the word; a viruosity baffling description and only to be believed because we heard it with our own ears and through it all the spontaneous spirit of the music, that it was done just for the pure joy of it."

That a rare treat is in store for music lovers of London is undoubtedly assured with the recital that Mme. Alda will offer Wednesday evening, Oct. 20.

ALGONQUIN PARK.

A through sleeping car is now operated between Toronto and Algonquin Park, leaving Toronto 8:45 p.m., Tuesdays and Fridays, arriving at Algonquin Station (The Highland Inn), 11:52 a.m., Wednesdays and Saturdays. Returning this car leaves Algonquin Park Station, 3:30 p.m., Mondays and Thursdays, arriving Toronto, 7:30 a.m., Tuesdays and Fridays. This will give those desiring to visit the Park during the fall months comfortable means of transportation to this most delightful region. The "Highland Inn" will be open all winter for the reception of guests. For all information inquire of Grand Trunk Railway System Agents, and for reservations at the "Highland Inn," apply to N. T. Clarke, Manager, "Highland Inn," Algonquin Park Station, Ont. O.-9,13,16,20.

EDUCATION MINISTER FOR ALBERTA VISITS MIDDLESEX COUNTY

School Teacher At Lobo 26 Years Ago—Twelve Years in Legislature.

Hon. George P. Smith of Camrose, Alberta, minister of education for the province of Alberta, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, has been a visitor for some weeks past in Lobo and adjoining townships. It is his first visit to Western Ontario in ten years, and he is combining a pleasure trip with an investigation of Ontario educational progress, with a view to gathering ideas for improving his own department.

Hon. Mr. Smith, who 26 years ago taught school in Lobo Village, left 23 years ago for the West, where he named the town of Camrose, an abundance of wild roses in the vicinity partly suggesting the name. He has been twelve years in the Alberta Legislature, and for three years has been a member of the provincial cabinet, previously to his present position having been minister of health and provincial secretary. He will attend the inter-proincial conference on technical education in Ottawa next week.

While in Middlesex Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been the guests of Dr. P. L. Graham of Lobo Village, Mrs. Arthur Scott, and other relatives and friends in Ailsa Craig, Maple Lodge, Lieury and Strathroy.

KILTIES PLEASE.

A committee of Trinity Church, Chelsea Green, expressed itself as well pleased with the entertainment staged in the McClary dining hall Monday evening. Mrs. Henderson's Scotch Kiltie Company was secured for the occasion, and delighted the large audience. The rendition of the various selections was of the highest order.

BODY OF WOMAN STILL UNCLAIMED

May Prove To Be a Squaw—False Teeth May Prove Clue.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 12.—The body of the unidentified woman found under the P. M. R. bridge is still at Undertaker Williams and will remain until word can be received from the Oneida and Muncey reservation if any woman is missing from there. A squaw looked over the remains today and thought she saw a likeness to a friend of hers, and she will at once communicate with the home of her associate. This companion of the squaw's had considerable white blood. The false teeth of the dead woman were removed and a local dentist advised that the plate could easily be identified and the finding of the maker not an impossibility.

4 THOMAS THOMAS THOMAS THOMAS THOMAS THOMAS 4
Announcing
4 BIG Smashes
--At Thomas'
Catching second breath, as it were, in this Pre-War Price Sale, the stage is all set now for four successive campaigns. Low prices, it is felt, will do more to bring the public and Thomas to an understanding than anyth ing else. Smash No. 1 comes tomorrow.
Sale Really Just Starting
Thomas brought low prices to London first—indeed, for that matter, the first to lower prices in the entire Dominion; that is, genuine reductions. 30 per cent off is no mean discount.
Thomas saw what was felt to be an unprecedented opportunity to place the name Thomas before all the folks of Western Ontario by actually taking a loss on the entire stock—a straight cut from the inflated war-time prices.
So much encouragement has Thomas received from the public in the way of purchases that the means have been more than justified. No, no, it is not a fly-by-night sales plan to reduce stock. On the other hand, the sale is an honest endeavor to reduce the world's high price problem.
The mere fact that in the next three weeks four big smashes are scheduled shows that we are here to stay—and we'll do more in the way of low prices. All we ask is your co-operation. Indeed, you may have a few suggestions.
SMASH NO. 1 WILL BE ANNOUNCED TOMORROW
Three Others To Follow
The story comes to us that several of London's businessmen interviewed the head of the bank with which we deal, asking the bank to use its influence to "stop Thomas price-cutting."
This happened two weeks ago. What the idea could have been, we cannot tell. At any rate, the results were nil, for the banker replied, "All I can say to Thomas is 'Good-day!'"
Criticism ever was a tonic, and lately we have had a great deal of tonic—not alone from London merchants, but from one end of Ontario to the other. Our answer to this is four big smashes on very much needed household commodities.
Articles have been chosen on which everyone knows the standard prices, so, you see, the reductions will be easily recognized as bona fide.
Thomas are now in a position to justify any action. Not alone four big smashes, but more will follow.
