HELD SLAVE FOR 29 YEARS

LOS ANGELES — A near unbelievable tale of slavery and mental domination in which a Negro woman was held prisoner 29 years by a prominent New England family began to unfold here last week.

A direct violation of the 13th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, first case of its kind since 1900 was brought to light by FBI men who were tipped off as a result of a family feud.

The victim is Miss Dora L. Jones, 57, who knew the friendship of her "mistress" for 13 years, and who has been her captive since 1918. The offenders are Alfred Wesley Ingalls, former Massachusetts legislator and army officer, and his wife Mira E. Kimball Ingalls, who swung from the role of missionary teacher to that of slave mistress.

Accused By U.S.

Arrested and booked in San Diego county jail at the request of Asst. U.S. Attorney William Ritz, the Ingalls were released Tuesday on $2,500 bond each. They say the charge is "ridiculous," and will be "cleared up in due time."

Ritz says he will seek true bills against the society couple before a federal grand jury this week. Meanwhile, Miss Jones, over whom Mrs. Ingalls exerted amazing mental influence, is being held as a material witness in protective custody in a private San Diego home.

The bizarre tale, sounding much like a "Dr. Horror" movie, was unfolded by FBI Agent William Murphy.

Teacher, Pupil Become Friends

In 1904, Mrs. Ingalls, then single, a missionary school teacher, took up a post at Athens, Ala. There she met and befriended 15-year-old Dora L. Jones. The friendship grew, and three years later, when Mrs. Ingalls left for Washington, she took the young woman with her as a maid.

In Washington, Mrs. Ingalls married an army officer, Walter Harmon. The marriage ended ten years later in a divorce. About the same time her friendship with Miss Jones ended, although the circumstances are hazy.

A year later the divorcee wed Ingalls, and Miss Jones' long period of slavery began. Miss Jones received no wages. She was not allowed away from the Ingalls' home, except trips with them, and then she was forced to sleep in their automobile. She was prevented from going to church, or having friends, and has never seen a talking picture.

Completely Cowed By Threats.

All during this time, she was kept from leaving by the threat of exposing some indiscretion that occurred many years ago. What the act was is not yet known, but exposure was supposed to carry great disgrace and the possibility of being placed in an institution.

It was not learned whether the Ingalls beat Miss Jones or not.

Last fall, the Ingalls drove to Cal-

LOSE LICENCES IF ANY RACE, CREED BARRED

TORONTO—The licence of any Toronto hall, rink, theatre or other place of amusement which refuses admission to any one because of race, creed or color will be cancelled.

A special section to this effect was added Friday by the board of police commissioners to the by-law governing the licensing of public places in the city.

The new section was passed unanimously without public comment by the three members of the commission.

ifornia, and while they were visiting a daughter, Mrs. Richard Roberts, in Berkeley, a similar involuntary servitude complaint was lodged against them. Local police dropped the charge when Miss Jones agreed to accompany them to Coronado.

U.S. Attorney Ritz will seek an indictment charging the Ingalls with violating U.S. Code 18, sections 51 and 443, which list the punishment for conspiracy to deprive a person of liberty without due process of law, as well as punishment for the act. The conspiracy carries a maximum penalty of 10 years' imprisonment and $5,000 fine. Depriving a person of liberty carries a five-year jail term and $5,000 fine.

Honour Ex-Slave

PHILADELPHIA — (A.N.P.) — Abram Lee, a former Virginia slave, celebrated his 100th birthday Sunday, with the congregations of two churches assisting in the festivities.

Still in good health, being over six feet tall and erect, Lee, who was born a slave in Charlottesville, Va., is the father of 13 children, of whom he has outlived seven.

Coming north in 1881, he settled in Conshohocken, near Philadelphia, eight years later, working as a coachman for U.S. Rep. John Woods. He was one of the founders of the Galilee Baptist Church of Roxborough, where he still is an active member.

A son, the Rev. Marshall W. Lee, is pastor of St. Paul's Baptist Church of Conshohocken, one of the leading churches in the suburban area.

Sunday, the combined congregations of the Galilee and St. Paul's churches paid tribute to his birthday at a special service at 3 p.m. in the latter church.

Deeply religious, Lee attributes his longevity to faith in God, reading his Bible and regular exercise. His main interest now is awaiting spring so he can once again work and till his own garden.

He has two other sons, Edward, a policeman, and James F., of Norristown, in addition to three daughters, Mrs. Mary V. Smith, Mrs. Effie Dean and Mrs. Sally Monroe, all of Philadelphia.

RHAPSODIZES OVER HUSBAND

By Wessely Hicks

Hazel Scott, the 26-year-old pianist, who treats the classics and boogie woogie with equal facility, is first a wife, second a mother, and third one of the most audience-pleasing piano virtuosos of her time. Today she skipped lightly over Hazel Scott to talk at length of her congressman husband, Adam Powell III.

"Adam is the minister of the largest Protestant church in the world," she said. "His church on 138th St. has more than 11,000 members. It has a credit union which lends money to church members at a very low rate of interest, and Adam is always telling people not to buy on credit but to borrow the money from the fund and then pay in cash. That way they save money."

Miss Scott says her husband's one fault is that he tends to overwork. "Last year," she said, "he tried to do three jobs. He was congressman, minister of the church, and editor-in-chief of the People's Voice," a Negro newspaper.

Apart from a community house and an old folks' home which are run in conjunction with the church, Miss Scott says her husband has a people's committee which works actively on community problems. "And I have a women's action committee which works with him," she said.

"He comes right down out of his pulpit and leads his people, just as his father did when he founded the church, where Adam has preached for the last 10 years. A while ago Adam walked in a picket line on 125th St. The merchants along there wouldn't employ Negroes, so Adam picketed them. They hire Negroes now. Adam wins victory after victory."

NO COLOR LINE AT VIMY TORONTO, — On Easter Monday

In the year 1917 the 78th Grenadier Guards went over the top at Vimy Ridge. By evening many were dead, hundreds wounded. In a trench lay a Canadian soldier, painfully shattered. He remained there a full day before he was found by stretcher-bearers. He was taken by ambulance to Cologne Hospital, where gangrene made necessary the amputation of both arms and both legs. He became what the medics termed a "basket case," and was brought back to Canada to Kingston Military Hospital. He recovered; went on living. In 1920 he left the hospital and got married and settled at 1421 Lansdowne Ave.; had one son who was to serve and survive in the Second Great War. At 62; in spite of his handicap, he still plays cribbage with his old friend, Mr. Campbell, using the stumps of his upper arms to turn the cards. He's a proud family man, and glad he's a Canadian. His name: Curly Christian, a Negro.

HALT TAKING EXTRA JOBS

TRINIDAD, BWI—(ANP) —Two thousand underpaid elementary school teachers throughout the colony were recently told by director of education, Sidney J. Hogben, that they may not engage in any other occupation or business, without permission of his department.

The order was included in a circular which also forbade elementary school teachers to instruct in private schools. The directive was issued following criticism of the preparation elementary school students have been receiving.

Every year, 700 Negro, Portuguese, East Indian and Chinese students apply for scholarships for higher education. In order to prepare their children for the competitive grants, parents often engage public school teachers as private tutors. Parents unable to pay for supplementary training have been complaining of the preparation their children have been receiving for the past five years.

Another phase of the problem is the inability of teachers to live on their salaries, a situation which forces them to seek other employment. Although Hogben has been pressed with constant demands for pay increases, his new order made no provision for higher salaries. The inevitable has happened, and trained personnel, many of them with degrees from English universities are leaving the profession for more lucrative fields.

Average teacher pay here runs from $30 to a top of $160 for head teachers with 25 years' service. Women do not always get the same salary as men in the same classification. Hogben, who has seen fit to halt teachers in supplementing their salaries, draws a monthly wage of $500, plus a travel allowance and a free house. He also gets $60 monthly for censoring films. He is slated to explain his circular at a meeting of the Trinidad and Tobago Teachers' Union, soon.

MAIL TISSUE TO LABS IN FIGHT ON CANCER

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — A phase of the proposed Florida cancer control program already developed by the State Board of Health, is the tissue mailing service.

This service is available to all physicians in the state. It encourages the more frequent use of the biopsy, a test used by physicians where a small piece of tissue is removed from a suspicious cancer lesion.

Anyone medically indigent can now go to his family physician for a test and receive an expert diagnosis from any one of the pathologists to whom the specimen is submitted.

Development of this service promises to be an important factor in the early diagnosis of cancer. Once cancer is discovered it can be cured if found early enough.

CONTENTMENT

To be content in body, mind and soul is one of the firetest blessings which we poor mortals can possess. It comes as a result of a sound, healthy body; a body free from ailments and disease, wholesome living. It comes from having found our place in the world and from knowing that we are giving to the world the best that is in us to give; from a knowledge of the fact that we have developed to the fullest extent the best there is within us. Contentment comes as a result of having done well our portion of the world's work. Contentment of soul comes as a result of pure motives, right thinking, unselfish devotion to high ideals, faithfulness and loyalty to some religion and from looking upon all men equally as our brethren. Such a state is the common heritage of all.

But there is another kind of contentment which is both false and misleading. There is the kind which comes as the result of inertia, as the result of a lack of energy to push forward and struggle for the best things in life. It is expressed in that oft-repeated saying, "let well enough alone."

I fear too many colored Canadians are affected with such contentment. In attempting to make economic and industrial conditions better for our boys and girls you will find many of our colored citizens who will exclaim, "What's the use of establishing colored business places?" They are contented to help build big business enterprises for other races in which their sons and daughters can never expect to find employment. There is also the "self-sufficient" and contented "business man" who, when asked to cooperate in race building, will point you to the GREAT success he has achieved single-handed. "Let the race do as I did," is as much cooperation as can be had from him.

A little education is sometimes a dangerous thing. A little success is sometimes detrimental. A little liberty is sometimes disastrous. Some colored Canadians have run away with the idea that because we are accorded full justice in the courts of law, because we enjoy many privileges denied our race in the republic south of us—that because of these equalities, our economic and industrial condition is a thing not to be concerned over. They are content in their own ignorance. They fail to see that as the years go by the sphere of our industrial opportunities becomes more narrow. They fail to see that Canada is only in the making and that the attitude which this country will in the future assume toward us depends very largely upon the attitude which we assume toward ourselves. If we are willing to see without a protest opportunities which are rightfully ours passed on to others, no one will protest for us, no one else will offer any serious objection. The problem is our problem and we must play the major part in solving it.

NAACP PROVIDES AID TO "RUNAWAY SLAVE"

EL PASO, Tex., Mar. 12th—Elizabeth Coker did not know why she was "given away" when she was eight years old. She knew she had been left with a white family, the P. R. Franklins in El Paso. She scrubbed and mopped and cleaned the house at 1114 East Rio Grande Street all day. She never received any money. She wore canvas shoes and the cheapest kind of clothing. She was never inside a church, she never saw any kind of entertainment whatsoever.

In 1938, when Elizabeth was ten years old, Mrs. Franklin had her charged in El Paso County Court with insanity. Dr. A. W. Branch of El Paso testified that Mrs. Franklin had told him the girl "would come walking across the floor and suddenly turn around and say, 'Let me alone, get away from here, and no one would be there.' Obviously of unsound mind, said the doctor.

Mrs. Franklin testified: "I got her through a colored preacher here in town. She lived with a family in New Mexico and they were so mean he asked if I would take her. We got attached to the youngster and she was apparently so smart, but she gradually began to fail. For three nights she laughed and talked all night long. When she would catch me looking at her she would cry and last night she sang and danced all night, that is, moved her body as if dancing."

Elizabeth Coker was committed to the insane asylum at Austin. Three years later, Mrs. Franklin went to Austin, brought the girl back to El Paso and put her back to work.

When the Franklins built their home on Buena Vista Drive, Elizabeth was forced to carry rock and dig ditches for the foundation all day from 6 a.m. At night she worked in the house to 10:30 or 11 p.m. She slept in the chicken roost. On Sundays Mrs. Franklin took her to apartment houses which the Franklins owned and she scrubbed and polished floors all day without lunch unless the tenants gave her something to eat.

Once Elizabeth carried an empty cement sack into the house and a little cement sifted to the floor. Mrs. Franklin tried to hit her with a stick but the girl dodged. Mrs. Franklin told her husband about it when he came home. He slapped the girl and he and another man pushed her down the cellar stairs, hurting her back. They kept her there until the police arrived. The police took her to jail for six weeks. Mrs. Franklin went to the jail, brought her home and put her back to work.

The first ray of light that had ever penetrated into Elizabeth Coker's miserable life came in January of this year, when the girl was around nineteen. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson, who lived in the Franklin's apartment house at 3308 North Piedras Street, learned from the girl that she had never been paid for her work, had never been to school or to town, and they asked her if she would run away and live with them. She said she would. That night Thompson and his son drove near the Franklin home. Elizabeth had come out to the road about a quarter of a mile from the house. They picked her up and took her with them.

Informed of the situation by the Thompsons, the El Paso branch NAACP engaged the services of Attorney H. T. Faulk, who gathered evidence and turned it over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI is now investigating.

PROTEST QUERY IN INSURANCE BLANKS

New York, March 13th—The legal department of the NAACP today demanded that the question, "Are you a White Male?" be struck out of the application blanks of the Commercial Travelers Mutual Accident Association of America, an insurance company.

The protest, in the form of a letter to the Department of Insurance of the State of New York, stated in part:

"It is clear from reading this application that the purpose of this question is to discriminate against non-white applicants in the granting of membership in the Association. In view of the fact that the public policy of the State of New York, as indicated in our civil rights statutes and our insurance law, is opposed to discrimination based upon race, we feel that your Department should be made cognizant of the practice of this company and should take steps to have this company immediately desist in the use of such a question."

PROTEST ESTABLISHMENT OF JIM-CROW HOSPITAL

New York, March 20th—A vigorous protest against the erection of a jim-crow hospital in Mound Bayou Miss., was registered today by the NAACP with President Harry S. Truman.

The statement, prepared by Roy Wilkins, assistant secretary, declared, "The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has learned of your approval of a 200-bed veterans' hospital to be erected at Mound Bayou, Miss. Respectfully we register a most vigorous protest and reiterate the position stated in our telegram of June 20, 1946, opposing establishment of hospitals for veterans segregated on the basis of color. American soldiers were hospitalized during the war without segregation and at the present time in army hospitals throughout the nation, including southern states, there is no separation on the basis of color. The Veterans Administration should follow the same policy and we trust you will rescind your approval in the above case."

The NAACP previously protested the establishment of such a hospital in June and at that time received a reply from David K. Niles, Administrative Assistant to the President, stating: "I have your telegram of June 20, addressed to the President with reference to the reported construction of an all-Negro hospital at McComb, Mississippi. I have queried the Veterans Administration relative to the reported announcement and I am informed that no such announcement has been authorized, made or contemplated."

"However, there have been, as you undoubtedly know, Congressional hearings regarding a hospital for the Mississippi-Alabama area. . . . I am

BANK WITHDRAWS OFFENSIVE AD

The NAACP has affected the withdrawal of an advertisement with a caricature of a Negro, placed by the Bank of America in the New Yorker, it was revealed today by Madison Jones, administrative assistant.

Jones stated in a letter to the Bank of America that the picture of the Negro wheel chair attendant was offensive and derogatory. Jones said, "It represents a gross exaggeration and a stereotype which tends to ridicule the Negro." Jones requested that the advertisement be withdrawn from future circulation and also asked for assurance that the policy of the Bank of America is one which would be fair to all Americans. The Charles R. Stuart Advertising Company which handles advertising for the bank, replied in a letter which said in part: "May we say at the outset neither Bank of America nor this agency would ever intentionally include anything in its advertising which might be offensive to any group of people. We are therefore glad to comply with your request."

OUR WORLD

The world of entertainment, story, dance and music, is founded on the highest hopes of men, the greatest dreams of artists, the fullest freedom of thought and action. Yet there is a blot upon our world; behind the footlights, upon the screen, over the air and in the printed word. It is the blight that warps all American life—Jim Crow, discrimination, the rating of citizens as superior and inferior.

It is against this menace to cultural workers, Negro and white, that we address this call to action.

We believe that as long as Negroes are less than full Americans, it is impossible to talk of real freedom of the arts. Such freedom is a sham and the roles to which Negro performers are relegated, or their almost total exclusion from some of these fields, makes us of the entertainment world ashamed. For ours is an industry that teaches and persuades, that moves and inspires. If it teaches democracy we are proud—but if it inspires degradation and discrimination then we, who are part of it are guilty, too.

And where the Negro has not been excluded, he has too frequently been relegated to the role of the stereotyped, razor-wielding, eye-rolling, subservient "Uncle Tom." This is true in the films, the radio, the theatre, advertising, literature—in every form of mass art. Only the rarest of geniuses, the Paul Robesons, the Marian Andersons, are able to pass through this "iron curtain" of the arts to roles of dignity and importance. And even genius brooks the insufferable: the rides in rear elevators, the polite refusals by hotels, the denials by the management of restricted theatres.

And who has made a richer contribution to American song and dance and theatre than our Negro brothers and sisters, Negro artists and performers? Yet here are a few shocking facts:

1. In Theatre: In our nation's capital, while Negro actors can perform in the National Theatre, no Negro can gain admittance to the theatre to see them.

2. In Radio: of 30,000 employees, some 200 are Negro, and the majority of these in menial jobs.

3. In Screen: In the home offices of the major motion picture companies there are 3000 workers. Seven of these are Negroes.

4. In Publishing: of 2000 books published last year, 28 were written by Negroes.

5. Of 400 Night Clubs in New York City, 386 discriminate against Negro performers and 397 against Negro customers.

These facts cannot be separated from the other shocking facts of life for Negroes in America. The battered hat of Uncle Remus, the toothy smile of Aunt Jemima and the "lovable" bowing and scraping—these are counterparts in the entertainment field of the openly violent program of the Ku Klux Klan and the Columbians.

What have we done to end the blot upon our stage, screen, radio and literature—that is a part of the blot upon our nation? We have not done enough, we have scarcely begun to act. The brilliant beginning by the AVC Theatre Chapter, the outstanding statement of the playwrights of America, the actions of other isolated groups or individuals have brought results but the issues call for more. The issues ask united effort.

We are calling this conference to consider and adopt appropriate measures to combat discrimination against Negro talent, to guard against discriminatory content in the arts, and to launch the Cultural Division of the National Negro Congress as the medium through which this job can be done.

NAACP ASKS PUBLIC HARINGS ON ANTI-JIM CROW TRAVEL BILL.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Mar. 5th—The Washington Bureau NAACP called on Congressman Charles A. Wolverton (R., N.J.), Chairman of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, to hold early public hearings on the Powell Anti-Jim-Crow Travel Bill, HR-280.

Congressional action to end segregation as it applies to passengers in interstate travel was urged because of developments since the U.S. Supreme Court decided the Irene Morgan Case last June. The decision declared unconstitutional state laws which require segregation on bus and trains carrying passengers between the states. However, it did not prohibit the bus companies and railroads from themselves adopting regulations requiring Jim-Crow seating arrangements. Accordingly, most of these carriers now enforce their own rules against Negroes and whites sitting together.

Leslie Perry, speaking for the NAACP, told the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee that: "Jim-Crow travel practices have caused endless inconvenience, humiliation and hardship to hundreds of thousands of Negro citizens traveling between the states."

"In spite of the fact that colored passengers pay the same fares as whites, the accommodations assigned to them are always inferior. They are tired of riding in the back of baggage cars; they are tired of riding over the wheel on the back of buses; they are tired of not being able to get a meal on a dining car without being hidden behind a curtain."

"Your Committee has the power to make a full-scale investigation of this entire situation, and we respectfully urge that you schedule public hearings at an early date on the Powell bill."

STRESSES AID OF NEWSPAPERS.

Sidney R. Williams, executive director of the Chicago Urban League, described his relations with the Cleveland press and his hope that the Chicago newspapers will continue to be as helpful to the league in the future as they have in the past, at a luncheon last week.

"If I've had any success as an Urban League secretary," Williams said "a good portion of the credit goes to the daily and weekly press. I've used the daily press to interpret to the general community the problems of the Negro community and their significance and implication with respect to the welfare and progress of the community as a whole."

"The Negro segment of the weekly press has been used to interpret to the Negro people their own problems as viewed by the Urban League and to point out to the Negro community the significance for them of internal and national developments which might be overlooked because they don't carry a racial label, but which have a direct bearing upon the welfare of American Negro people."

"The labor press has been used to point out the common ground between most of the problems affecting the Negro community and most of those confronting labor. The foreign-language press likewise has brought into focus the similarity of problems which confront the foreign born and those which confront Negro-Americans. The moral implications of inequality and discrimination suffered by Negroes have been pointed up by the religious press," he said.

NAACP APPLAUDS SENATE ACTION ON PRESS GALLERY

New York, March 20th— Admittance of Louis Lautier, correspondent of the Atlanta Daily World and the National Negro Press Association, to the Senate Press gallery was hailed today by Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, as "a forthright action . . . of nation-wide significance."

In a telegram to Senator C. Wayland Brooks, chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, which overrode the standing committee of correspondents governing the Capitol press galleries, subject to Congressional rules, and ordered the admission of Lautier, White stated:

"The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People warmly congratulates you and senate rules committee on directing standing committee of correspondents to admit to Senate press gallery Louis Lautier. Forthright action to enforce principles of democracy in Senate press gallery of nationwide significance."

The National Board of Directors of the NAACP had previously strongly protested the barring of Lautier from the press gallery in telegrams to each member of the Senate Rules Committee. The telegrams stated the belief of the NAACP that Lautier had been barred solely on the basis of race. Senator Brien McMahon telegraphed: "Reurtel appreciate having your views on Lautier case prior to hearing. Am studying the case."

Senator William F. Knowland replied in a letter: "Your telegram of March 11 has been received and I have forwarded a copy of the same to Senator C. Wayland Brooks, Chairman of the Senate Rules Committee with a request for full information concerning the situation." Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., also replied.

At the time of the unfavourable action by the Standing Committee of Correspondents, the NAACP also warmly complimented Griffing Bancroft of the Chicago Sun, only member of the committee to vote in favor of Lautier in the 4-1 count. The correspondents declared they were barring Lautier because he did not clearly give his "chief attention" to daily telegraphic reporting. The Senate Rules Committee unanimously voted to admit Lautier as a qualified correspondent of a daily newspaper and took no action on a proposal for revision of the rules.

NAACP SECRETARY PRAISED FOR AID TO HAITI ON LOAN

New York, March 20th — The Republic of Haiti, American neighbor and former ally, congratulated Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, on his almost single-handed fight to obtain the approval of the State Department for a loan to Haiti.

The message, from the National House, Port au Prince, said: "On the occasion of your brilliant and courageous intervention in favor of the Haitian nation, a victim in spite of international pacts and agreements of the most odious politics of racial discrimination and imperialism of the most ferocious kind, the Senate of the Republic of Haiti extends to you its warmest felicitations and liveliest thanks."

Mr. White detailed the situation in his Sunday column for the N.Y. Herald-Tribune and held a lengthy correspondence with Spruille Braden Assistant Secretary of State, and Willard F. Barber, Chief, Division of Caribbean Affairs, on the subject. Mr. White pointed out that one of the advantages of such a loan would be that it would help to answer the charges being made in other parts of the world that the United States has imperialistic designs on smaller and weaker countries, particularly if they are inhabited by persons of dark skin.

Welcome the Tourist . .

Thousands of visitors from the south are expected in Canada this year. Sometimes we Canadians are accused of being somewhat formal and aloof. Let's show our American friends this year that it just isn't so.

What Can I Do ?

Well, everyone has his own way of showing hospitality . . . whatever we do let's be sure it means "You're welcome! Come again!" Here are a few suggestions from an Ontario hotelman famous for his friendly welcomes.

1. Know the places of interest and beauty spots in your district and tell people about them.
2. When you write your friends in the States tell them about the places they would enjoy visiting.
3. Try to make every visitor glad he came.
4. Take time to give requested information fully and graciously.
5. In business dealings, remember Canada's reputation for courtesy and fairness depends on you.
6. To sum it all up, follow the "Golden Rule."

LONDON NOTES

It seems certain that Rev. T. Dawson, General Superintendent of the B.M.E. Church found his annual visit a pleasing and an accomplishing one. While in the city Rev. Dawson visited old members and the sick of the church. He gave stirring messages on Sunday morning and evening both of which were well attended. On Monday evening the ladies of the church prepared a delicious lunch which was served at the banquet in honour of the General Superintendent. Guest speaker of the evening was Rev. T. Dawson. With all who attended gathered around him, Rev. Dawson first thanked the London congregation for their thoughtfulness during his period of sickness and encouraged the young people of the church to come closer and to attend more church meetings with true sincerity. The main topic of the evening was the Memorial Foundation Fund for the aged and helpless. From the fund a home situated in the old Wilberforce School, last headed by the late Geo. Gant, on King St. in Chatham, is to be built, and from Rev. Dawson's talk, it would appear that remodelling of the building will soon be underway.

Rev. Dawson spoke of the charges in a number of different cities and of the possibilities of a growing field in Nova Scotia. Great praise was given to Deaconess Addie Aylestock for her notable work in Montreal, and for Rev. J. M. Lawson, of Montreal for his fine work there. Rev. Dawson concluded his address with offering the London church the first opportunity of sponsoring a touring concert, benefits of which are to be used in the M.F.F. Rev. S. C. Johnson, pastor of London B.M.E. responded to Rev. Dawson's address by accepting the concert for which plans are being made and thanking him for his visit.

COMPLETE UNIFORM RENTAL SERVICE

NAACP CHARGES VA DISCRIMINATES

The NAACP today directed a strong protest to the American Red Cross over the case of a Negro veteran who lost his leg in the war and whose claim for vocational rehabilitation was denied by the Veterans Administration.

The veteran, Pete Brown, now at 369 Nostrand Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., presented his claim while he was living in Jackson, Miss., with the local Red Cross office holding his power of attorney. Brown applied for vocational rehabilitation and a disability pension. He was granted a 40 per cent disability rating, plus the statutory award for a single amputation, but his application for vocational rehabilitation was denied.

Franklin H. Williams of the legal staff of the NAACP, declared in his statement of protest to the Red Cross, "It is obvious to me that in this case there has been a gross and most disgraceful miscarriage of justice. I would go so far as to say that there appears to have been a clear violation of all the administrative practices and legislative ideals of the Veterans Administration as they have been explained to me many times.

"In view of the locale of this adjudication and considering the almost ludicrous grant given to this veteran, there is no doubt in my mind that the decision upon this claim was substantially affected by rank racial prejudice existing in the minds and hearts of the Veterans Administration's officers in Jackson, Miss. To hold that a veteran who has suffered the loss of a leg as the result of honorable service to his country is no qualified to receive vocational rehabilitation is almost unbelievable. In my judgment, it would appear that any individual who has had one of his major extremities amputated is qualified for such rehabilitation without concern for his prior training, profession or type of employment.

"Although it is true that your office may press this matter until it is ultimately rectified by granting the logical amount of disability and vocational rehabilitation rights, I believe that the original adjudication was such an obvious injustice and farce as to warrant your reporting this matter to higher authorities in the Veterans Administration, and if necessary, to General Omar Bradley himself.

SENATE RESTAURANT 'WHITES ONLY' POLICY UNDER FIRE

Washington, D.C., Mar. 12th — The Washington Bureau asked Edward F. McGinnis, Sergeant at Arms of the United States Senate, for a statement of policy regarding the use of the Senate restaurant by Negro employees of the Capitol.

The query came as a result of a story reported by Drew Pearson last week in his column, "The Washington Merry-Go-Round", charging that McGinnis had told Thomas S. Thornton, a Negro employee and war veteran, "Not to eat in the Senate Office Building Luncheonette or in similar places any more." It appears that Thornton had previously eaten a sandwich and coffee there over the objection of restaurant officials and had been reported to McGinnis.

In a letter to the Sergeant at Arms, Leslie Perry wrote: "Last year the Congress appropriated $35,000 of the taxpayers' money to subsidize Senate restaurants. But that is only one of the reasons why Negro citizens should be free to use every public and semi-public facility in the Capitol without being discriminated against and subjected to humiliation and intimidation.

Hope Renewed Easter 1947

The Church, the dove, the Easter lilies—all symbols of Eternal Peace—are ours this new-dawning Easter. Our hopes and prayers have been answered once again, we become humble before our Lord and worship Him by our devotion and reverence this anniversary of Christ's resurrection into Heaven.

WEST INDIAN REVEALS COL-OR-SOUND DEVICE

New York — (ANP) — Randolph Fitz-Henley, a native of Kingston, Jamaica, has on the market a new device which he believes will alleviate illiteracy, particularly among the people in his country, which may become a universal language.

He calls the system "Kromofonix" (color-sound system) which combines the two points of nature color and sound which will also enable physically handicaps to take advantage of accelerated learning.

A graduate of St. Georges College in his native state and the only certified teacher of the Pitman system in his home town, he writes shorthand in Italian, German, French and Spanish at the rate of 250 words a minute. Fitz-Henley holds the unique position of senior official shorthand reporter to the court of appeal, the highest in Jamaica.

He has had years of journalistic experience having worked for the "Daily Chronicle," "Jamaica Standard" and "Daily Gleaner."

Sensations Through Fingers

A traveler of note he worked overseas for the National City bank of New York the Port-au-Prince branch and was Spanish-English-French stenographer for the Compañia Electrica de Santo Domingo.

The educator's Kromofonix system is the result of a conception which originated some 25 years ago and embraces 26 names and 104 sounds and may be acquired by anyone able to receive sensations through the fingers.

Fitz-Henley is of the opinion that the African race in order to survive must be united by a universal language which he hopes may soon be achieved by his new device.

WEST INDIES

SEEKS FREEDOM

The West Indies is petitioning its American friends for aid in launching a proposed all-West Indian conference the latter part of this month to consider the question of a federation of islands.

The West Indies, like many other segments of the British Empire, is emerging to a newly-found freedom from the yoke of imperialism. In order to launch a program of development and independence, representative of progressive political groups in the area proposed to hold an all West Indian conference, out of which a federation of islands might be formed for their mutual benefit.

The conference is to cost approximately $15,000, of which the islands can contribute $3,000. Since the political groups are of recent origin and spring from the poverty-stricken masses of the area, their development and maintenance has been hampered by lack of funds.

To secure the remaining amount, the Peoples National Party of Jamaica, headed by Norman W. Manley, distinguished barrister, appealed to the American West Indian Association here, for aid. According to Bindley C. Cyrus, president of the association, the conference cannot be held if expenses are not met.
