SRC AGREES TO $1.00 ADMISSION TO FORMAL FINANCIAL BUSINESS NOT YET COMPLETE

UNB students will have to pay $1.00 admission for Formal dances in the future. A motion was passed to this effect last Wednesday evening during a heated SRC Meeting. The question arose as a result of the Financial Committee's recommendation to reduce the Social Committee budget. The final budget was tabled until the next meeting. President MacDonald then suggested that students be charged admission to formal dances in general and to the Fall Formal in particular. Several council members supported this view, pointing out that UNB was almost the only Canadian University that still allowed students free access to formal dances. Jim Mackenzie, past treasurer of the SRC felt that the suggestion would establish an "unfortunate precedent". The motion was passed 9 - 7 by the council.

During the rough budget debates, several organization representatives were called upon to justify their demands. Among those budgets reduced by the Financial Committee was the Drama Society. It appears that the amount was cut in such a way as to affect a reduction in the number of nights the Dramatic Society could hold productions. Stephen Fay, President of the Drama Society, urged the SRC to reconsider their proposal and pointed out that the society could not operate at the proposed reduction. He did point out, however, that a less drastic budget would not seriously hamper activity. Mr. Fay proposed a fifty dollar cut, instead of the recommended $90 reduction. This compromise suggestion was ultimately passed by a comfortable majority of Council members.

The Brunswickan budget was tabled until the next meeting, pending further deliberation on a proposed increase over the original amount submitted two weeks ago. Editor of the Brunswickan, Barry Toole, pointed out that the "Brunswickan" cannot subsist comfortably on the amount allocated it now.

All other budgets were passed as recommended by the Finance Committee.

The Student's Council has had to affect reductions in the proposed budgets because of a shortage of funds. This shortage was implemented by debts totalling $1400.00 incurred by last year's Yearbook and "Brunswickan". However, it was pointed out that the additional revenue imminent from the admission fee at Formal Dances would substantially increase the Financial potential of the SRC.

S.C.M.

At "Open House" this Sunday Dr. Weiner of the University will speak on the book "They Thought They Were Free", which deals with the rise, spread, and fall of Nazism in Germany. This talk, incidentally, is the forerunner of a study group which is soon to commence on this topic. Group discussion will follow the talk.

Included in the programme will be a singsong, refreshments, and a devotional. Come on down, students—an interesting evening is in store.

The place: George St. Baptist Church (corner George and York)
The time: 8:30 P.M.

The Brunswickan

Because of the fact that some copy for the Brunswickan has been arriving late, and is therefore not included in the paper, the Brunswickan announces the following deadline dates.

Letters to the Editor and Features for the Tuesday edition must be at the Office in the Student Centre on Thursday evening. News and Sports articles must be at the office by Sunday evening.

For the Friday edition letters and features must be handed in by Tuesday evening, news and sports writeups by Wednesday evening.

The Brunswickan requests that all material be typed, that there be 66 characters to a line, and that the lines be double spaced.

Employment

Students wishing to earn some pocket money have another opportunity of doing so. There are Christmas trees to be cut and tied in the Hanwell Road and Beaver Dam areas. Transportation to these places is provided. Any interested students are asked to contact C. S. Eastman whose phone number is 2720.

STUDENTS MAIL

The Post Office urges students who are not in the residences to collect their mail from the Pigeon Holes in the Arts Building. There are still many students who are neglecting to do this.

Many Companies Offer Student Employment

Company interviews are now under way on the campus and any students seeking summer employment or graduates desiring permanent jobs should contact the Public Relations office in the Arts Building for information and appointments. Notices will also be posted on the bulletin board outside the Bursar's office.

Following is a list of companies who will be on the campus during November, interviews will be taking place during December and January, and further lists will be published for those months.

INDIAN DIPLOMAT OPENS CAMPAIGN

High Commissioner to Address Students

The local committee of the World University Service of Canada's annual financial campaign is to be opened this year, by an address from the Indian High Commissioner to Canada, His Excellency Mohamed Abdul Rouf. Dr. Rouf will address the student body at 11 a.m. on Monday. Lectures have been cancelled for his speech.

While in Fredericton Dr Rouf will pay formal visits to the governor of the Province, The Honourable David Lawrence MacLaren, and the Premier of the Province the Honourable Hugh John Flemming. After his talk to the student body His Excellency will be entertained at a lunch given by the government of the Province in his honour. The University will be represented at the lunch by Dr. Colin B. Mackay, the president of the Student Council, Jim MacDonald, and members of the executive of the local WUSC committee.

Dr. Rouf was educated in India and England, and holds an honorary LL.D. from the University of Dublin. He has been in the diplomatic service of India since 1946. He has been the Indian Ambassador to both Burma and Japan. Before he entered the Foreign service of his country he was a high court judge in Rangoon and Allahbad.

The Indian High Commissioner has been interested in WUS for some years, and it was for this reason that the local committee invited him to open the campaign.

Dr. Rouf will speak at one other gathering while he is on the campus, the WUSC meeting on the same evening. Jane Banfield, the National Executive Secretary of the Canadian organization will also address the meeting, which begins at 7.30.

Government Experts Visit Campus

Representatives of the Department of External Affairs and of the Department of Trade and Commerce, Foreign Trade Service, will be visiting the UNB Campus in November. An opportunity will be provided for all interested students to hear the Government experts speak on their respective topics.

The first representative, Mr. Frank B. Clark, will on Nov. 5 speak to all students interested in the Trade Commission Service. Following the speech, students who are in doubt about the opportunities provided and who may wish to enter the service may speak to Mr. Clark for further information. Mr. Clark has served for the commission in Mexico and in Venezuela and is now on a tour of Canada. Mr. Clark in his speech will tell the story of the Canadian Trade Commission as a Career. It is being given prior to the examinations which University students may write and is to serve as an introduction to them. The dates of the examinations are November 30 and December 1.

The second of the two speakers to visit UNB will be Mr. Arthur J. Andrew, Assistant Director, Planning and Development Branch of the Civil Service. On Nov. 8 he will address the students on the nature of the work done by Foreign Service Officers in the Department of External Affairs at home and abroad. Mr. Andrew, a former Maritimer, is well qualified, having served in the Department at Bonn, Germany from 1950 to 1953. In 1953 he was named Chargé d'Affairs at Vienna. He returned to Canada in 1954 and has remained here since. Mr. Andrews is particularly interested in meeting members of the faculties of Arts, Political Science, Economics and History.

"Wages of Fear"

The film, "Wages of Fear", originally scheduled for Oct. 28, will be shown Sunday, Nov. 4 at 8.30 p.m. in the Memorial Hall.

The Film Society executive regrets any inconvenience this may have caused members. "Wages of Fear" is a truly superlative film, and members will undoubtedly be pleased to learn that it will be shown this Sunday.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

October 30, 1956

The Editor
The Brunswickan,
UNB

Dear Sir,

As a student at UNB I am taking this opportunity to reply to a letter to the editor, written by a representative of the Student Body and published in the October 30th issue of your paper. I refer, of course, to Mr. Ritcey's outburst against 1. The SRC and 2, The Campus Police.

From this letter I would gather that little thought was actually given the subject by Mr. Ritcey himself. It would be inconceivable that such a large body of the students should set out on a trip of this nature with no responsible persons in charge. Therefore we used campus police for organization and control; chaperones were used for obvious reasons. Mr. Ritcey's opinion seemed to be that our campus police should consist of volunteers. (HE DID NOT VOLUNTEER).

If Mr. Ritcey had been on the train, he would realize that these boys worked. It is no mean feat for any person to be continually on his feet for 24 hours. Had Mr. Ritcey been present during any part of the trip, and in possession of an open mind, he would most certainly have been impressed with the efficiency and effectiveness of this small group of men. Also, in favour of these men, I would like to say that it is rather difficult for any person to make a trip of this nature, with many of their personal friends present, to refrain from joining these friends in their pleasures. And yet, as a person who was present I can honestly say that no evidence of such a large breach of discipline occurred.

Mr. Ritcey's letter seems to have two themes: 1. Money; 2. Policing in the MKVD style.

In answer to the first point it may be pointed out that the Mount Allison Campus Police, The Sackville Town Police, the Restaurant Proprietaries in Sackville, UNB Faculty present at the game, the chaperones and the CNR have expressed great satisfaction with the effectiveness of the Campus Police.

As regards the second point. At no time have I heard from any student any hint that the Campus Police Organization operates in this manner.

In summing this up, it would seem that possible damage was avoided and that the prestige of our student body has been greatly enhanced.

In closing I would like to say—

Congratulations to the Campus Police!

Yours very truly,
George McAllister

The Editor of The Brunswickan,
University of New Brunswick.

Dear Sir:

It had been my intention that this be a letter congratulating the U.N.B. Campus Police on a most efficient job done during the recent excursion to Mount Allison; however, since the appearance of a letter in the Brunswickan of October 30, this must also be a letter in their defence.

All those who travelled to Mt. A. last week-end must have noticed the well-organized and effective action that our CP took during the various encounters between the most enthusiastic supporters of both universities. These eight fellows, especially the Campus Police Chief, Bill Baker, are to be commended on their tireless yet good-natured performance.

It should be remembered that the eight worked not only at the game itself but from the time the train left Fredericton until it returned, some twenty-five hours later. These fellows should not be abused for receiving payment, in fact, now might be the time to review their pay schedule. Mt. A. pays their CP $1.00 an hour while U.N.B. pays only $.65 an hour. It seems reasonable that our

YELLOW JOURNALISM

October 23, 1956

Mr. J. Barry Toole
Editor,
The Brunswickan,
University of New Brunswick,
Fredericton, N.B.

Dear Sir:

Though a newspaper editor lays himself open to criticism by commenting on another's efforts, your issue of Friday, Oct. 19, has prompted me to write a few remarks.

The front page of the issue named, carried, under a banner headline with no by-line, a highly biased story concerning the NFCUS Life Insurance plan. This letter is not written to support or attack NFCUS. It was written to point out to the students of the University of New Brunswick that no newspaper has the right to influence their thinking by running editorial comment in the lead story. No style of journalism, this side of the yellow press, can justify it. If the Brunswickan wishes to attack NFCUS, the place to do it is on the editorial page, not the lead story. The news in any paper should contain no editorial comment (a state easier desired than obtained) and though some does creep in, a story which so obviously tries to prejudice students against organizations can hardly be excused on these grounds.

I would like to have this letter printed in your paper as a letter to the editor. I am sure there are some students at your university whose interest in honest journalism, if not of fair play, will prompt them to support my allegations.

Yours truly,
Gary Thaler
Editor, The Silhouette
McMaster University

Mr. Gary Thaler,
Editor,
The Silhouette,
McMaster University,
Hamilton, Ontario.

Dear Sir,

I can do nought but applaud your extraordinary concern for the welfare of the students at UNB. It is, surely, a matter of some significance when a person of such undeniable merit and unquestionable integrity, as yourself, should generously give part of his time to the betterment of both the student body at UNB and the "Brunswickan". Should you continue to pursue this admirable project, however, I feel compelled to point out that any improvement on our part will be vastly outweighed by your hard work and earnest effort. If, then, I sound unappreciative at any time, I beg to be excused on that account.

Since you are unconcerned with the merits of NFCUS, I can only gather that your solicitude involves the journalistic worth of the "Brunswickan"; a touching regard that will not soon be forgotten. I have taken note of the various advice you offer, and have been astonished to discover, in all humility, that it is none of your business. As regards the thinking of our students, a fact, which I note you generously take for granted, I might point out the following — that the "Brunswickan" has had such a difficult job in influencing it in the past, that any attempt on the part of another paper to do so, can only indicate a somewhat unjustifiable optimism.

However, do not allow me to discourage your splendid evangelical spirit, prompted, as it must be, by an irreproachable concern for the morals and opinions of others. There is the slight danger, however, that the students would not accept your "allegations" in the illustrious spirit intended. They might even be prompted to regard their author as ill equipped to make these assertions. But, then, this is all beside the point; we are well aware of the note of authority that so abundantly characterizes your letter.

Since you are probably extremely busy ensuring the excellency of the "Silhouette", it is somewhat unlikely that you will again find time to devote to UNB? In any case, any future correspondence on your part will be met with unrestrained, but benevolent silence.

Yours truly,
J. Barry Toole, Editor

The Bulldozer

by Red 'N Black

Editor's Note: The Bulldozer was included on the Editorial Page because there was not sufficient room on the Features Page.

We are back with you this week—we hope! The Engineering column is having difficulty reaching the pages of the Brunswickan. The reason for this difficulty is a feeling on the part of the Brunswickan staff that engineering is of no interest to anyone but engineers. This column has tried to print engineering news. We realize that engineering news may not interest other students but the primary function of this column is to represent the views of the engineering faculty and secondly to include other material of general interest. However, since engineers make up almost fifty per cent of the student body, news for them interests at least half the student body. Few items of any sort will interest more than half the student body!

We notice the appearance of a new Paul Bunyan (or is it Jos. Laflamme) on the campus this week. Every dog must have its day and the foresters — their week. We wish the Forestry Association a most successful week. It is encouraging to see other university associations with some spirit.

Here's a fact that might be of interest to some of you. Of all Canadian universities having engineering faculties, U.N.B. ranks third, percentage-wise, in the number of student engineers holding membership in The Engineering Institute of Canada.

Last Friday, the senior engineers toured three of St. John's industries. Accompanied by Professor Stevens, the boys visited St. John Drydock, Simms Brush Factory — believed to be the largest in the British Commonwealth, and Red Ball Brewery — where an enthusiastic welcome awaited them.

Now, two closing notes. Don't forget the drawing for a free engineering jacket. Details are available at the engineering store. TONIGHT, attend the smoker at Woodridge's Cabins. We'll see you there.

Editors Note:

WHAT! NO EDITORIAL!

Because of the large (almost overwhelming) number of letters this week, we thought it best to attempt to print them all, to the exclusion of an editorial. A paper at its best is a forum of student opinion. Whatever may be a judgment of this particular number of the "Brunswickan", it certainly carried a wide range of opinion.

GIVE GENEROUSLY NOVEMBER 5-15

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OCTOBER 31, 1956

In recent years the World University Service of Canada has played an increasingly significant role in the life of our universities throughout much of the world. With its promotion of a better understanding and good will among those who go to make up the total university community, and by the provision of an increasing measure of material assistance to a large number of university students, it has created a good record of worthwhile service. Further, in the organization of lectures and seminars it has provided a forum for free and frank discussion on many problems affecting the university community.

The World University Service has active and energetic organization on this campus, and I feel that its worthwhile efforts merit the support of both students and faculty.

Colin B. Mackay,
President

What W.U.S.C. Does

The International Programme of Action is the hard core of the total programme. It is the outcome of a genuine desire to work for mutual assistance and understanding, rising above differences of race, religion, and creed. It is the means through which the individual efforts of countless students and teachers combine to help where needs are greatest. There is none so poor that he has nothing to give, and none so rich that he has nothing to receive: thus the future of all is interlinked with the future of each.

The WUS mutual assistance projects are designed to meet urgent needs of universities and their members. Their implementation calls for the combination of international and national action to secure essential material aid and ready access to knowledge and experience already gained in meeting similar needs in other parts of the world. As ventures of inter-university action, these projects are also a valuable means of promoting international understanding and co-operation. They are undertaken in the following categories of need:

"Student Lodging and Living, which includes assistance in the development and equipment of hostels, common-rooms, canteens, and aid to student co-operatives."

"Student Health, which involves assistance in the establishment of health services, clinics and sanatoria, and the provision of medical supplies and equipment."

"Educational Facilities and Equipment, which implies action to overcome the shortage of text-books, laboratory and study materials and problems of educational techniques, including exchange of experience."

"Individual and Emergency Aid, which through grants and scholarships, emergency aid including food, medicines, and clothing, and counselling services, assists refugee and other individual students in completing their studies. Special efforts are directed toward enabling refugee students to reintegrate, with an adequate opportunity to become useful members of society, in a new environment."

Dear Fellow Student

It was drawn to my attention that one of the projects in the WUSC International Programme is to provide assistance to Refugee Students in Hong Kong.

Having been away from Hong Kong only since last July, I can still remember the vital need for such assistance. Every month a certain number of students from the Mainland pour into the overcrowded Island. Their wish is simply to be able to study and to get a job to support himself. I must point out the fact that it is extremely difficult to obtain employment. Whenever a position becomes available, there are always two or three thousand applicants. Naturally the most highly educated person will be accepted, which makes education a vital and necessary pre-requisite for anyone living in Hong Kong.

On behalf of my fellow students I wish to endorse this campaign and the work in which W.U.S.C. participates in many countries in the world. It is my sincere hope that the students of U.N.B. will respond generously to this appeal.

signed: Henry Shen

JACK ERNST - 1956 SEMINAR PARTICIPANT

As winner of one of the World University of Canada Scholarships to the International Study Seminar, held in Germany last summer, I was UNB's representative—I had an opportunity to take part in one of the many projects which are being carried out by WUS.

While there, I spent roughly three months travelling and studying in Europe, I also had the opportunity to attend an international student conference—the 4th World Student Congress of the International Union of Students—as an observer for the SCM of Canada. IUS is of course communist dominated and to the 600 students from all parts of the world which were present in Prague, many were communists. However, communists or not, their problems are the same as those of their fellows whom they came to represent, and delegation after delegation stood up in commissions and plenary sessions and cried out their needs.

At one point in the sessions, Canada was called upon to speak and to tell the Conference of the problems and needs of Canadian Students. We had been criticizing the system of Education existing in certain of the Iron curtain countries, and the conference felt we should leave this to the representatives of those countries and speak of our own problems. As one delegation pointed out a trifle sarcastically: "You must have some problems". Yes, but what were they? consider for a moment telling a meeting like that, students who are fighting for the very right to a higher education; who are dying every day because there are not sufficient, if any, health centres to handle the fantastic number of T.B. cases which exist in such places as Japan today; who have no inadequate housing facilities. Have you ever considered telling people like that your big problems are the high cost of board, of getting discounts for students; getting the use of the gym for the Winter Carnival dance of the Engineers formal; getting ice time for the Curling club?

But these students are not just sitting back crying about the whole thing. They try to do something about it, and this is where we come in. We can "Help Them, To Help Themselves".

No one likes or wants charity, the students of Africa and Asia least of all. The hope which World University Service offers to these students is on the basis of self help.

I like to commend the WUSC Financial Campaign to your support. When you are asked to contribute then do so, and do it with the knowledge that you are sharing some of what you have with one of your fellow students who is not so well off.

OCTOBER 31, 1956

It is with great emphasis that I ask all members of the Faculty and Students to consider seriously the requests of the W.U.S.C. canvassers for your $1 donation to

From Nigeria

To many who live in this part of the world, education in Africa has always been associated with the missionaries. In most parts of the continent this is correct, but there is room for doubt when this is said of Nigeria as she is today. Until a few years ago mission schools and colleges outnumbered State and provisional ones, but today the reverse is the case. The missionaries did a wonderful job, but for some time now the federal government has been carrying out projects which will eventually wipe out the large percentage of illiteracy that exists in the country.

Our students carry on as good as they can with the poor facilities that one so often hears about. Books and other necessities such as desks and pens are nearly always a financial burden to the students. Most of the schools and institutes are poorly equipped, and what little there is has to be shared by many students. Libraries are unheard of in many parts and laboratory equipment is needed to a great extent. The student population is growing every year, and the concomitant shortage of teachers adds to the student problems confronting the student body of the nation.

As we all know W.U.S. has been doing some wonderful work all over the world, and this year they are sponsoring the "African Medical Scholarship Trust Fund". This fund will be more than welcomed, I know, and I want to thank them on behalf of my fellow students back home. It is with great sincerity that I wish them luck with their work of creating better understanding between students the world over, and I hope they will succeed in attaining their goal of $1,200. during the financial campaign.

assist in the achieving of the $1,200 objective of our annual financial campaign. This $1,200 will be the U.N.B. contribution to the $20,000 World University Service of Canada international programme of action for 1957.

Many of you will consider $1 as too much to give, but after some contemplation on the relative luxury in which you live, compared to the great need of your fellow-students elsewhere in this world, you must realize how little it is to have 54 cigarettes or 2 movie shows a year less.

Carolyn's Comments

By CAROLYN SOMERVILLE

The trip on the special train to Mount Allison was a great success. Over three hundred sleepy students piled on the train at the early hour of 7.30 last Saturday morning. At first it seemed that the trip was going to be quiet, but within a very short time things really got under way.

Most of the passengers spent a great deal of the time visiting in every other car but the one in which they themselves were seated. Part of the band supplied music for the gathering and the cars rang with all kinds of college songs. Campus Police were on hand to look after a few who might get out of hand.

Upon arrival at Sackville the fans from UNB staged a grand street parade from the station up to the football field. A rousing "New Brunswick" and "We want blood" resounded throughout the quiet of streets of the town.

But Alas — A Loss

The win of the Mounties was a great loss to the Red Bombers. All hopes at UNB were really high for winning the game. The supporters from Fredericton showed excellent spirit throughout the whole game. The cheerleaders should be congratulated for doing such a wonderful job. The team itself seemed to be lacking something but as the game progressed they seemed to improve. Mount Allison seemed to have improved since the last game but the Bombers kept on fighting till the end.

The goal posts were the things in the minds of the UNB fans directly after the game. People swarmed onto the field before the game had finished either to take the goal posts or to protect them. A few people received black eyes or minor bumps on the head. The attempt was worth while because in a short time the posts fell to UNB.

Following a dance sponsored by Mount Allison the UNB train left for Fredericton around one-thirty. The trip back was longer than usual due to a delay of about one hour in Moncton. The trip back was very quiet as most of the tired students felt more like sleeping than making a noise.

By the way, for those still curious, here are some of the vital statistics of the game itself.

Gymnastic classes will be held at the Lady Beaverbrook Gym every Monday night again this year. First class in the series is scheduled next Monday at 8.30 o'clock.

A university team is being formed. All who are interested in trying out for the squad are asked to turn out for the practices.

This year, instruction classes will be divided into two sections. One will be for beginning students, the other for advanced students.

Instruction for beginners will be given by Don Nelson of the athletic department. No previous experience is necessary for those wishing to register for these classes.

Fundamentals will be covered, including work on the mat, flying rings, parallel bars, high bar and box. Then the students will move on to more advanced work.

From the advanced students, who will be coached by Rock Poulin, the university's senior team will be picked. Competitions and exhibitions have been lined up for the selected athletes.

"If anyone has had any previous experience in gymnastics, we would like very much to see him at the first workout," says Coach Poulin.

From Indonesia

Friends: The republic of Indonesia with a population of 81 million has several universities, supported by the State. There are eight university centres with a total of about 18000 students, a small percentage compared to the Western world. Yet it is a very hard thing for our young government to provide all the needs of these universities, while the number of registering students is much too great for the available means. In spite of the poor financial conditions a large number of foreign professors have to be "imported" every year. We receive however great help from WUSC in the form of books, medicaments and other highly necessary study materials. Plans have been made for a student T.B. ward near Bogor and for student hostels in Djakarta and Surabaya. Already WUSC has promised us financial aid to help get these plans realized. Attempts are being made to relieve the book problem by making use of duplicating machines to copy books which are then distributed among the students. It is this book problem which to a large extent prevents students from passing their examinations. B.B. Madethen
