When asked to describe her jump, Phyllis said, "It was the most wonderful sensation I have ever experienced — like falling through soft cotton wool." She hopes to be present next weekend when the UNB Club hosts the Montreal Sky-Divers.

PARAJUMPERS HIT THE AIR

BEFORE

Twelve UNB students were literally "up in the air" at the Blicsville Airport on Saturday afternoon as the Para-Jump Club swung into action.

For those making their first jumps the chute opened automatically after a fall of six feet. Veteran jumpers like Martin Archer-Shee and Dave Peters experienced what is known as a "free fall", in which they opened their own chutes by pulling the ripcord after falling for several thousand feet.

The only girl jumping Saturday was Phyllis Westbury, who made the first jump of the day and due to an unfortunate landing, suffered a broken leg. However, this has not dampened her enthusiasm and when asked if she would jump again, she replied, "Yes, as soon as I get my cast off." She stressed that it was a freak accident, caused when her chute turned around, making her land with the wind instead of against it, thus increasing her landing speed.

This did not affect the spirits of the eleven jumpers who followed her, several of whom were making their first jumps.

MESSAGE FROM BEAVERBROOK

The Chancellor sends this Message to the Students:

A. J. P. Taylor, great authority on European history, speaks on Wednesday evening at 8:30, October 4th, in the Beaverbrook Art Gallery on the subject "Soviet Russia and the World". Lord Beaverbrook has seen Mr. Taylor in action and under direct fire from an audience. He answers questions with extreme ability and replies with both wit and patience.

His subject for Wednesday evening is so exciting that the Chancellor suggests that the students prepare a series of embarrassing questions for the speaker who, it is certain, will make a case on the left.

Drink Up Buckos... And Then Dig Deep

What is "conduct unbecoming of a student"? Those of you who read last Tuesday's Brunswickan may have noticed that this charge was laid against a student at UNB by the Student Disciplinary Committee. If you read the complete charge you would have noticed that it read thusly: "... has been found guilty of a charge of drunkenness at a student function and conduct unbecoming of a student."

The charge so stated may have given rise to the implication that "drunkenness at a student function" and "conduct unbecoming of a student" are two different and unrelated vices.

This, of course, is not so. Drunkenness is conduct unbecoming of a student. The Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary defines a student as "an attentive and systematic observer." It is a physiological fact that alcohol, taken in such quantities as will cause drunkenness in the consumer, is detrimental to his qualities of attentiveness and observation.

"So what", you might reply, "The accused was not in the classroom at the time he was caught in said state."

In answer to this it can be said that a student is a student, be he in the classroom, at a dance, or marching on Ottawa with the CUCND. If studentdom was restricted to classroom activities we would be unfair in asking to be admitted to the local theatre at a reduced rate. In fact, we would be lying if we called ourselves students without the bounds of the classroom.

It is imperative that we, as students, be always conscious of our behaviour. It is not so much our personal integrity that is at stake as it is the preservation of the reputation of that international body of which we are members... the whole world of students.

Closer to home, we must maintain a sense of high purpose throughout our stay at UNB. Drunkenness and unruly conduct in no way comply with such an ideal.

But if you have $100.00 or so just kicking around your dresser drawer, why don't you kick up a fuss at some campus activity? The SRC needs additional funds.

CO-ED CLAMOUR

Once upon a time, Mr. Benevolent Fox, having inherited a Shovel making enterprise, found himself to be very rich indeed. His only discomfort, in fact, was his being constantly pursued by the poor Hounds who were hunting on behalf of their master, Mr. Growing Studentbody. Mr. Fox did not feel unkindly toward the Hounds. He realized that their quest was an unselfish act and if successful, would result in comfort for Mr. Studentbody.

But Mr. Fox was getting old and could no longer survive the chase effortlessly. He cunningly devised a plan to end the pointless chase. Instead of playing the usual game of hide and seek, he armed himself with Shovels and confronted the Hounds. Mr. Hound Leader was so impressed with Mr. Fox's bravery that he immediately dubbed Ben "DR." Fox. The fame of DR. Fox spread far afield and soon "sly as a fox" was a common expression. Rumors were heard that the latest thing in modernist architecture would be called the "Fox Hole". DR. Fox was so flattered that he offered to supply the Shovels to dig the holes.

The Hounds were so pleased with their new hero, but unfortunately, Mr. Growing Studentbody did not appreciate the value of a Fox Hole. During the 1928-1961 portion of the War For Higher Education in Upthehill, Pte. Mr. Studentbody often found rest, warmth, and finally food in one Fox Hole or another, but never once considered this anything but his just due.

One day, the ranks at the front were suddenly filled and Pte. Mr. Studentbody found himself without a Fox Hole. Mr. Studentbody found the war colder, hungrier and more uncomfortable than he had ever imagined. After his M. D. (Medical Discharge) from the Army, Mr. Studentbody enthusiastically joined the SPESE (The Society for the Prevention of Exposure of Students to the Elements), whose president was Dr. Fox. Mr. Studentbody had been taught his lesson by the sternest professor, Experience.

P.S.—The Hounds lived happily ever after chasing other, more elusive foxes.

NEW ART CENTRE

Soft chairs instead of stools—pottery instead of balance scales—paintings instead of Blackboards—hi-fi music instead of frantic mutterings... There've been some changes made! The 'old' Art Centre has migrated from the 'Hut on the Hill' to a former Physics lab. in Mem. Hall. The new location is smaller but better equipped to handle exhibitions of little theatre, music listening, receptions and painting classes. Replacing the old gray walls is an acoustic tile arrangement which permits paintings of nearly any size to be hung from floor to ceiling.

Opening night for the Centre was Monday, featuring an exhibition of paintings on loan from a number of university art patrons. These paintings represent the work of artists who have taught at the university and contributed greatly to the development of the Art Centre. They are the works of the late Pegi Nicol MacLeod, Lucy Jarvis, Fritz Brantner, Alfred Pinsky, Goodridge Roberts, Molly Bobak and Bruno Bobak.

Students do not need a special pass or membership card to attend Art Centre functions. Events are planned by the Centre and Creative Arts Committee to stimulate interest in the arts on campus and are free for all.

Mr. Donald K. Reichart, a Winnipeg artist, has been invited to be Resident artist. He will be teaching two evening classes per week. Mr. Reichart succeeds Bruno and Molly Bobak, who are in Europe this year. They will return in the Fall of 1962 to assume the directorship of the Centre. During this year, John Corey will be in charge of the Centre and he is planning a full program of lectures and exhibitions for the college year.

New Hi-Fi equipment is being installed and there are new LP's in the record collection. All students are free to use the record player from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. The old hut is gone. Its home, intimate atmosphere has vanished. This is inevitable if the Art Centre is to meet the growing needs of a growing campus. A studio workshop is planned for 1962 with Mr. Bobak's return. This will permit students to work and gain instruction in the various media of art, be it sculpturing, painting, drawing, printing or lithography. This broadening of Art Centre activity should make the new accommodation a more vital and creative centre.

When the Right Honourable Vincent Massey visited the 'old hut', he said, "This centre is an important thing you have here. Never lose it." The Administration has lost sight of the increasing need for such activities as can be keenly sensed when you visit the new Art Centre in Memorial Hall.

A. J. P. TAYLOR

The University of New Brunswick welcomes to its campus this week, A. J. P. Taylor, who will be receiving an honorary Doctor of Civil Law degree at Convocation. Mr. Taylor is one of the many distinguished lecturers whom the university has the privilege of entertaining each year.

Mr. Taylor is a Tutor of Modern History and a Vice-President at Magdalen College, Oxford. Educated at Bootham School, York, and Oriel College, Oxford, he was for a time a lecturer in Modern History at the University of Manchester. More recently, he was made a Fellow of the of the British Academy in 1956, and he has appeared regularly in British television on the program "Free Speech". An even more noteworthy accomplishment of Mr. Taylor's was the delivery of the first series of lectures ever given on television, in which he dealt with the Russian Revolution of 1917.

In addition to his activities in the lecture room and on the television screen, Mr. Taylor has found time to write a number of books and essays in the field of modern and international history. He has contributed the latter to such well-known British journals as the Manchester Guardian, the New Statesman, The Observer, and the Sunday Express. His writings have ranged from earlier treatises pin-pointing brief periods; such as "Germany's First Bid for Colonies, 1884-85", published in 1938; to major historical texts; such as "From Napoleon to Stalin", published in 1950.

spent five years working for the "Home Rule" Movement in India. He is an ardent believer in freedom from alien rule for any country and has championed the cause of the Hungarians and the Algerians.

In 1924, Menon went to England where, in addition to teaching school, he graduated from the London School of Economics. He later obtained an M.A. in Psychology from University College, London, and an M.Sc.

in Economics from the London School of Economics. He practiced as a Barrister in London for several years.

Menon founded the India League of London in 1929 and spent the next eighteen years as its General Secretary. It was sometimes felt that he was working against the British while in their midst because he worked so ceaselessly to enlist British support for India's freedom. Menon was active in English

SIR JOHN ROTHENSTEIN

Sir John Rothenstein was educated in England and received his degree from Oxford in Modern History. Following this he emigrated to the U. S. A. Here he strengthened early convictions on art by working as Assistant Professor of Art at the University of Kentucky and Pittsburgh. Returning to England, he received his Ph.D. from the University of London.

Appointed Director of the Tate Gallery (The National Collection of British Painting, of Modern Foreign Painting, and Modern Sculpture) by Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, he became, at 36, the youngest director in the gallery's history. Under his twenty years of guidance the Tate Gallery has been transformed by the radical expansion of its collection and the inauguration of a continuous series of exhibitions.

Sir John has published a number of well known books on British and Modern painting, including: "An Introduction to English Painting", "Augustus John", "Manet", and "Modern English Painters". More recently he has written an assessment of Sir Winston Churchill as a painter.

Sir John will be receiving an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at Convocation, tomorrow.

Bombers Lose Again

by BRIAN ROSS

Halifax, September 30 — Before a crowd of approximately 2,000 fans, the Shearwater Flyers completely humiliated the University of New Brunswick Red Bombers by a 40-6 score here at Wanderers Grounds, Saturday. The game, the Bombers first in the A. F. C. 1961 schedule, was marred by Shearwater's continual execution of touchdowns.

The game was not all dark for the UNB contingent. Early in the first quarter, Bill Boyd, a speedster from Cornwall, Ont., after receiving two key blocks, ran 97 yards for a Bomber touchdown. This proved to be the most exciting play of the game, and was proof that there is potential in the Bomber's offense. From here on in, however, the Bombers could not get off the ground.

Mid-way through the 1st quarter, Richard Scott recovered a Flyer fumble, but the Bombers could not capitalize, as they themselves fumbled twice in a row and were forced to kick.

The Flyers took possession of the ball on their own 28-yard line and started a march downfield that lead to a touchdown. Their offense varied from off-tackle plays to roll-outs around the end, and as was the case last week, deep backs Paul Arsenault and Norm Bolitho were called upon to make key stops. Finally the Flyers' Walker passed to McLeod on a roll-out play for the first Flyer touchdown. Score at the end of the first quarter was 6-6.

During the second quarter the Flyers pressed their attack and produced two more touchdowns.

The first came from a screen pass which seemed to catch the Bomber defense 'out for tea'.

The Bomber offensive unit could not move the ball out of their own end of the field during the second quarter. At one point the Flyers were knocking at the door of the Bomber 5-yard line, attempted to gain a first down in a third down situation with about one and one-half yards to go. The attempt was stopped cold by the Flyers who had packed the center of the line. The Flyers took over and seconds later they raced over for their third back-breaking touchdown. Score at the end of the half, 19-6.

Except for Boyd's touchdown run, the Bomber offense showed poorly. The defense worse.

A costly Bomber fumble early in the third quarter on their own 25-yard line, and a 'face guard pulling' penalty, now placing the ball on the Bomber 6-yard line 'gave' the Flyers another touchdown on a pass play. The convert was good giving Shearwater a healthy 26-6 lead.

The Bomber offense still could not get rolling, and like last week were continually forced to punt. Gord Foster, who turned in a fine game, came up with many key defensive stops. Before long, the Flyers were again pressing on the Bomber 8-yard line, however, Jack Dedman came up with a tackle on a third down attempt giving the Bombers possession deep in their own territory. The offensive moved the ball but finally had to kick from the Flyers 45-yard line.

The Flyers took possession on their own 15 and began another march downfield. This march was highlighted by a long pass and run play which was finally halted on the Bomber 23-yard line by Jim Merritt. Minutes later the Flyers scored again, 33-6.

The Bombers threw a couple of passes in the fourth quarter, a few traps, off tackles and looked alive for a while. But, as was the case all afternoon, the Flyers were again in Bomber territory scoring another touchdown along the ground. The convert was good. The final score, 40-6.

To analyze what really happened Saturday is somewhat difficult. The Flyers linebackers were 'red dogging' all afternoon resulting in many plays being stopped behind the Bomber line of scrimmage. More passing may have kept them honest. Both the defensive and offensive line must 'Jell'. Both lines were weak, until they strengthen, the Bombers will be in trouble.

We only had about eight players out there Saturday who had their hearts in the game. Jim Merritt, Paul Arsenault, Norm Bolitho, Gord Foster and Doug McKinley turned in fine games in spite of the defeat.

We have potential in the offensive backfield with Labonte, Boyd and Cottrell. What we need is spirit, hunger and desire.

We are not ready to give up the Bombers. Possibly, just a bad game out of the way. The big game we're looking for is next Saturday against the 'swamp rats' from Sackville.

Girl's Tennis

Following two days' play in pre-tournament matches, the girls' varsity tennis team has been chosen. The matches on Saturday and Sunday were held for this purpose, as the MWIAAU tournament is to take place on October 14. Ann Bishop will represent UNB in the singles division, and Winnie McPherson and Mary Jean McNichol will form the doubles entry.

There were eight entries in the singles class with Ann Bishop and Linda Lee reaching the finals, which Linda won 6-2, 6-2. However, due to ineligibility, she was not considered for the team.

Five entries competed for the doubles championship.

The UNB team will contend against entries from Acadia, Dalhousie, Mount Allison and Kings at the MWIAAU tournament, which is to be held in Fredericton, either in Wilmot Park courts or in Queen Square.

NOTICE

Due to the near-sightedness of our Advertising Manager, Sports Scope will not appear in this edition. —Sports Ed.

Varsity Field Hockey

Miss Shaw, coach of girls' sports here at the college, is introducing this year for the first time Womens' Varsity field hockey. All girls who are interested are asked to attend the first practice to be held October 5, at Buchanan Field from 5-6 o'clock. On Tuesday there will also be a practice from 5-6 at Buchanan Field. Fridays and Mondays practice will be held under the lights at College Field from 7-8 o'clock.

There is a possibility of some exhibition games being played this year and there is the hope that UNB might enter a team in the MWIAAU in 1962 with the other college teams — Mt. Allison, Acadia, Dalhousie and Kings.

This is a new sport for all the girls on the campus so there should be a good turnout.

Intramural Field Hockey

Girls Intramural field hockey begins this Wednesday, October 4, 1961. Games are scheduled for two days a week — Wednesdays and Mondays, and will be played at Buchanan Field and Queen's Square from 5-6 o'clock. There is still room for more girls, so sign now with your WAAA House Managers. Schedules will be posted on the bulletin boards of the various houses. Ed. also trounced Civils 25-4.

"Duke" Reynolds led the 2nd Phys. Ed. team to two decisive victories, 23-0 over 1st Bus. Ad. Saturday afternoon and 23-11 over Arts Sunday. Arts split their Saturday games winning 19-2 over 1st Bus. ## Redmen Defeat St FX

by JIM DOLEMAN

Antigonish, Sept. 30 — In the long awaited game between a power of the Senior Intercollegiate Football League and the best in the Maritimes, St. F.X. was soundly defeated 21-7 by the powerful McGill Redmen before an avid homecoming crowd of 5000 people at Memorial Field in Antigonish, bringing a celebrated 19 win streak to an end.

Answering a long-debated question, a Montreal sports writer expressed his feeling that St. F.X. lacked the strength to compete with Queen's, Western, or Toronto, the other teams of the Intercollegiate Big Four.

The Redmen, under the helm of Bruce Coulter, are defending Canadian Intercollegiate grid champs. After dropping their first three last year, the Redmen gained momentum to complete the season with a 6-3 record. Their strong club is built around some glittering post grad talent from U.S. Universities, of whom Tom Skypeck, all-Ivy League quarterback from Cornell, is likely the best known.

The X-Men appeared to be doomed from the opening whistle as Skypeck, getting tremendous protection, completed a series of passes down to the X 38. However, X-Men safety Sommerville intercepted an aerial of his own 10, unable to run the ball against the solid McGill line, X was forced to kick. X recovered a fumble on the punt return and penetrated the McGill territory to the 36, where they finally gave the ball up on downs.

An X miscue in the closing moments of the first quarter set the stage for the first score. The Redmen recovered a loose ball in the X backfield at the St. F.X. 24 yard line. 2 completed passes to LH Willie Lambert for 14 and LE Taylor for 6 placed the ball on the 4.

On the first play of the second quarter Skypeck, finding himself blocked at the line of scrimmage, lateraled wide to the left flanker Haukkala, who bulled over for the TD. A Haukkala convert made the score read McGill 7 St. F.X. 0. The only other scoring play in the quarter came from a rouge on a 70 yard punt by Giguere of the X-Men.

Despite the McGill TD, the second frame was all St. F.X. On two occasions they penetrated Redmen territory to the 16 and 20 yard lines. However, in both instances, passes were intercepted at the goal line and in the end zone. The half ended McGill 7 St. F.X. 1.

Up to this time X had fought the Redmen on fairly even terms and the highly partisan crowd had hopes of a possible X victory.

The tide turned in the third quarter. McGill went to the ground taking advantage of its much heavier line which outweighed X by almost 15 lbs. per man. At the kick-off the Redmen marched from their own 36, covering 74 yds, in 7 plays and featuring 5 off-tackle plunges by LF Ian Monteith. The TD was counted by RH Remier on a 22 yd. gallop around left end. Minutes later, a second drive commencing on the X 34, was climaxed by Skypeck with a 5 yd. keeper over centre for the tally. Haukkala, former Mt. A. star, converted both TD's.

St. F.X. only got the ball twice in the quarter and gained but one first down by virtue of a roughing penalty.

The third quarter saw X have more success in moving the ball.

Midway through the period St. F.X. switched to a short punt formation on offensive, giving QB Simpson more time to elude the blitzing McGill linemen. Simpson directed the X-Men 88 yds. in 9 plays, sparked by tosses of 35 yds. and 15 yds. to Joe Lamorre. Simpson culminated the march by skirting left end 13 yds. to paydirt. The try for the extra point was wide, the final score McGill 21 St. F.X. 7.
