11 THUMBS DOWN BRUNSWICKAN

ENUMERATION - YOU?

Little slips of paper appeared Monday in U.N.B. mailboxes as enumerators prepared the voting lists for the April 8 federal election. The initial lists will be posted in about a week for the purposes of correction.

The Brunswickian today interviewed Chief Returning Officer Norman Pearson in order to assist U.N.B. students in preparing to vote. If your name is not on the lists (i.e. if you have not got an enumeration slip), you can have it added within the next two weeks by calling Mr. Pearson at GR 2-6710.

According to the Returning Officer, anyone at U.N.B. who is a Canadian citizen and who will be 21 on or before April 8 has the right to vote. In addition, any British subject who has been in Canada since February 6 of 1962 will be able to vote. This includes students from all the Commonwealth countries.

There will be at least two polls on or near the campus available to students, whose location will be announced later. If you have any difficulties concerning the election, you can phone either the headquarters of the party of your choice or Returning Officer Pearson. Either will be happy to give you information or assistance.

LAS VEGAS

What is the Monte Carlo, you ask? It's Canada's answer to Las Vegas. You can beat the roulette wheel, take the house at black jack, become a millionaire at a roll of the dice or at any of the many other games available. For a rest from gambling you can dance to nice, dreamy music.

Again this year the free-wheeling fun will be in the gym. The show gets on the road at 8:30 p.m., Friday, March 1st.

Of course you are probably wondering how much it costs. Actually we pay you! You pay $0.50 at the door and we will give you $5,000 worth of Monte Carlo money. A better bargain you'll never find.

So everyone come to an evening of fun. You can dance or gamble or both if you wish. If you miss it — ridiculous, no one misses this major event of the year! We'll see you Friday, March 1st at the annual Foresters Monte Carlo. You will have fun!

S.R.C. NOTICE

In compliance with Article V Section 18 and 19, the S.R.C. shall require all campus organizations except the Brunswickian and Yearbook to hold their elections of officers not later than March 15. The staffs of the Brunswickian and Yearbook shall elect their officers not later than March 25, subject to the approval of the Applications Committee and subsequently to the S.R.C. The president and heads of all above organizations shall submit to the S.R.C. names of the officers they have elected.

Devils, Saints, Tie 3-3

In a lack lustre game played Monday night in which four goals were scored in five minutes of play, the U.N.B. Red Devils scored a clutch goal with less than two minutes to play to tie St. Dunstan's 3-3.

The game was characterized by lack of spirit and poor passing, with the Devils showing signs of their actual capabilities only in the beginning and dying minutes.

34 - 28 - 7

A survey was conducted Sunday evening in the Lady Beaverbrook Residence, to ascertain what percentage of the men were virgins. The subject had arisen in a bull session, and some of those present set up the survey.

Ballots were distributed to every house member available, with the instruction that they were to be marked in secrecy, and that the answers had to be honest if the result were to mean anything. Of the 69 ballots collected, the results were:

34 Virgins	(49.3%)
28 Non-Virgins	(40.5%)
7 Did Not Answer	(10.2%)

The organizers of the survey requested that the results be published, so that any of the other seven residences might conduct similar surveys, thus arriving at a more accurate result through a broader sample.

QUEBEC, SI? . . .

What are the causes of Separatist sentiment, and how can it be countered? Is Separatism the sentiment of most of the French, or it is only the feeling of a vocal minority? What changes are taking place within French Canadian society, and what effect will they have on the nation? Can we ever be one Canada, or will we always be English Canadians and French Canadians?

You are invited to hear these and other questions discussed at a panel discussion entitled, "The French Canadian Revolution", which will take place Tuesday, February 26th in the Tartan Room of the Students' Center. The panelists will be student representatives from four French Canadian universities in Quebec and New Brunswick.

Each student has been asked to speak on a particular aspect of the subject; after each speaker has spoken, the floor will be open to questions from the audience. The panelists are well acquainted with the subject, so their answers should be interesting and to the point. Plan to attend, and prepare questions in advance.

This discussion is being organized by the NFCUS at U.N.B. as our first step in increasing contact and understanding between the French and English people of Canada. As the provincial university in a province which is roughly half English and half French, the University of New Brunswick has a unique status, and is the natural place to begin such a program; we believe that this discussion will be a successful beginning of this program by introducing English people to French views with which they seldom otherwise come in contact.

Plan to attend this discussion; it should prove to be one of the most interesting panel discussions heard at U.N.B. for a long time. Your presence and questions will be welcome, and the answers should be interesting.

ATTENTION HOCKEY FANS

At the Feb. 4 meeting of the SRC, the president was asked to obtain approximately 50-75 reserved seats for the coming U.N.B.-St. Thomas hockey game in Chatham.

The St. Thomas student's union has kindly replied to this wish—"We will reserve the required number of seats until the commencement of the first period of play. After that time the seats will be open to the public." I would like to thank St. Thomas for their assistance.

Tom Calkin, SRC

Eleven members of the SRC turned thumbs down on the Brunswickian at the last meeting. They voted to stop publication at the break-even point.

The Brunswickian went to the SRC to inform them that they would be about $500.00 in the hole. This was caused by an unforeseen avalanche of national ads to the paper which had to be printed. Ad rates were raised by the Brunswickian last year, but not enough. Also, the amount of copy which had to be printed necessitated larger papers than had been anticipated.

An attack on the Brunswickian representatives was led by Vice-President Sandy LeBlanc, Dan Mersich, Brian Copeland and the Treasurer Dave Munson, two of whom said, before the meeting, that they "were going to give Bell a rough time." These people felt that any deficit would endanger next year's council. They also maintained that the SRC had no money.

The Brunswickian felt that stoppage of the Brunswickian three issues before the end was unfair to the readers. Next year's Brunswickian was placed in jeopardy because they will be forced to break contracts signed at the beginning of the school year. The Brunswickian was given an unrealistic "unforeseen" in its original budget, of $20.00. Radio UNB had been given several hundred dollars over their budget, the week before. It was also felt that it was more of a personal attack on the editor, than a financial issue.

SLAVES?

Yes, each year the slave trade returns to U.N.B. and it is that time again — Saturday next, February 23rd in Lady Dunn Hall dining hall. Everyone must come and bid for a slave whether for the group or for yourself.

The object is to auction off as many people as possible at the highest bidders. The funds raised all go towards U.N.B.'s donation to the international programme of World University Service. These proceeds meet the needs of student lodging, student health, educational activities and facilities, and individual emergency aid. There are millions of students in the world today who are so much less fortunate than ourselves. Why should they be deprived?

Pool your savings, buy a slave and have your laundry done, that essay typed, your apartment cleaned, or any other useful undertaking. This is a real auction — everyone bids, not just you but why not get the group together (remember Jones House last year?) The more the merrier!

Let's see everybody at Dunn Hall to bid for all the girls (about thirty of them), a few brave professors (how about an extra tutorial) and even some fellows (for the girls). Your slave is required to work for you for three hours at a convenient time. A good deal? You bet! (I mean bid). And a good cause too! See you there!

IT'S UP TO YOU!

At the SRC meeting, Sen. Rep. Fred Beairsto said that he did not think that the SRC decision concerning cutting off the Brunswickian was the wish of the student body. He suggested that the only way to correct this was to organize a petition to the Council.

If you want to see the Brunswickian for the next four weeks, then we publish below a petition form. It is designed to be cut out and attached to a sheet of paper, with the signatures of all those who want to see the paper continued. The completed petitions must be handed to the people listed below by FRIDAY NOON.

Fred Beairsto, CE5
Jim Wallace, Jones House
Charlie English, Aitken House
Barb Taylor, Lady Dunn
Desmond Green, Harrison House
Ed. Bell, L.B.R.

Any member of the Brunswickian staff.

The completed forms are to be delivered to the Brunswickian office as soon as possible after Friday noon. People are requested to sign only once. 450 signatures is the minimum needed to force the SRC to either reconsider or hold a referendum.

We, the undersigned, want to see the Brunswickian continued to its regular cutoff date. We ask that the SRC reconsider its decision, as per Article X, Sec. 7 and 8.

COSMOPOLITAN U.N.B. AT NEWMAN CONVENTION

by STEVAN D. KARON

Last week's column was completely contorted and unrecognizable from my original since it had to be cut due to lack of space.

Anyway, I would like to bring up a smouldering problem which has been completely forgotten in the recent months. The subversion and guerilla tactics of the Viet Cong against the South Viet Nam government is really nothing new, in that it has been going on since the French left that area. A few months ago, the U.S. government which has committed its support to President Diem, introduced the "strategic hamlets" system in that area. With its establishment everyone seemed to believe that the Viet Cong rebels had been beaten. Since that plan is similar to the kind the British used in Malaya to flush out and beat the Red guerillas in that area. Unfortunately this is quite misleading since the British operation in the Malayan jungles differs with the conditions the Americans are up against.

The major difference is that in Malaya the rebels were Chinese as to the Malayan natives while in Viet Nam such distinction is not present. Secondly the Malayan plan deals with a jungle area and therefore villages are a vital source of supply. In Viet Nam, protective hamlets will not cut off the Viet Cong as it did to their jungle brethren since they can get supplies from neighbouring Laos. Besides that, the people of Viet Nam have endured constant warfare for twenty years now. So that they really don't care either way but just want to be left alone.

This puts the U.S.A. in a very awkward position. They have committed themselves to support Diem yet are afraid to over-do it. This gives the U.S.A. only two choices; either leave the area and let the Reds have it resulting in the loss of the whole South-East Asia area or bring in massive aid and military support. The latter will blacken American foreign policy yet it is the only way if they want to prevent that area from becoming Communist. It is a tough choice, but it will have to be done now while there is still time for success. The Reds want us to lose interest which will result from more procrastination. I hope the U.S.A. won't disappoint the Viet Nameese as they did in Laos.

The Atlantic Regional Convention of Newman Clubs convened in Halifax Friday, January 25th with over twenty visiting delegates in attendance. Representing the U.N.B. club were Frances Guest, Monica McDonald, Madeleine Therriault, John Gatien, Pierre Hebert and Richard Lord. Delegates were also present from Memorial University, Prince of Wales College and the Dal-Tech Newman Club.

The convention consisted of a series of lectures, group discussion and workshops all centered on the main theme, "A POSITIVE APPROACH TO RELIGION: A DIRECTION FOR THE FUTURE". Various aspects of this theme were presented by Msgr. John McCarthy, Rev. J. O'Connor, S.J. and Msgr. Gerald Murphy.

Social highlights included a guided tour of the city of Halifax and an informal gathering Friday evening. Most Reverend J. G. Berry, Archbishop of Halifax, spoke briefly to the delegates at a banquet Saturday evening which was followed by a semi-formal dance.

At the annual business meeting, Ross Wayland, Eastern Regional Vice-President of the Canadian Federation of Newman Clubs, and President of the Dal-Tech Newman Club, was delegated to represent the Atlantic Region at the National Convention in Vancouver next September. Richard A. Lord, President of the U.N.B. club, was elected next year's national CFNC vice-president for the Atlantic Region. Next year's regional convention will be held in Fredericton under the auspices of the U.N.B. Newman Club. The national Newman Clubs' publication "CROSS-LIGHT" was thoroughly discussed and full support lent to its continuation.

Visiting delegates were particularly impressed by the outstanding hospitality of the Halifax Newmanites and their families and the excellent programming under the direction of the convention chairman William Fitzgerald. The convention concluded with a Communion Breakfast on Sunday morning, January 27th.

Canadian students travelling abroad can obtain student price concessions in 28 countries with the presentation of their International Student Identity Card. The Card enables students to use student hostels (unoccupied university residences), charter flight facilities between major European cities, and gain free, or reduced) admission to many museums and art galleries. Cost: $1.00.

The Handbook on Student Travel is a valuable pocket guide providing information to the independent travelling student. It lists student hostels and restaurants, and contains other information concerning charter flights within Europe, discounts on rail and bus travel, general price concessions available to students, and information covering hundreds of cities throughout 28 countries. Cost: $1.00.

The "Travelling Student" includes complete information regarding student flights, transport by bus and special student trains operated within Europe by the different European student travel bureaux. Fare reductions of 30 to 65% are listed in the booklet. Free.

These booklets and many others are available from:

Player's Please

to the BRUNSWICKAN readers . . .

A week ago tonight the SRC made a close decision to cut off the Brunswickan publication this year. The story on the front page tells part of the story of what happened at that meeting. But not all of it . . .

The editorial staff of the paper went to the Council to tell them that we would likely be over our budget at the end of the year by about $500. We have now revised that figure to about $1,000, if we are to produce a good readable paper.

We explained to the SRC the reason for this deficit. First of all, we have received twice as much advertising as we expected. To accommodate it, we had to put out larger papers . . . and the cost of that extra size was not met by the increased advertising revenues. We have recommended that the advertising rates be raised next year, to prevent a recurrence.

There was nothing the Business Manager of the Brunswickan could have done to foresee this. We can only guess at the amount of advertising we will get, so our budget was not accurate. But the Council last fall permitted us to budget for $20 unforeseen . . . in a budget of over ten thousand dollars!

These are the arguments which we put forward for letting us publish until the end of the year:

—We think we can perform a valuable service to the readers.

—We have signed contracts with some of our advertisers and with our publishers. If we break them, we are putting next year's paper in serious jeopardy. This is especially crucial re some of the advertising agencies, who advertise in small college newspapers more as a courtesy than anything else.

—If we go to the end, we can publish a special year-end review donated by our publishers.

—Our mistaken forecasts this year, and our solutions to eliminate them in the future, will make a saving for the paper next year.

The SRC did not consider these arguments important; in fact the four most opposed would not even take the trouble to consider them. They accuse the Brunswickan of "moral wrong" in overspending our funds. But this is the same Council who raised the fees by over $6,000, when in the words of the Treasurer, "We only need to raise them to 19 dollars." And now that same Council is so broke it cannot even afford a party for itself!

This staff has tried to put out a paper with something for everybody. We have worked hard, and we hate to see the whole thing end up three issues short. To continue will cost about 44 cents per student, or 11 cents per paper. If you want to allow us to do that, there is a petition on Page 1. If not, our sincere thanks to everyone who has worked to make the paper a success . . . up to now.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Every year during and at the completion of our football season we continually hear of and read of dissatisfaction with the results of our team's performance on the field of play.

We, as coach and captain of next year's team are also dissatisfied — not with our team's efforts, but with those students who could have helped to achieve success, but chose to sit and watch, rather than work and play.

If you happen to be one of those students dissatisfied with our football program, the opportunity to do something about it is now at hand.

We feel that the recruiting of football talent in distant parts of the country is unnecessary. The football talent of which we speak is available here on our campus, and it is our desire to see it taking part.

On behalf of the University of New Brunswick Red Bomber Football Squad we would like to extend to all students, with or without experience, the invitation to lend support to the 1963 edition of the Red Bomber team.

All interested students are requested to attend a spring football meeting to be held in mid-March, and further information pertaining to next season's football program may be obtained from either of the undersigned.

Donald K. Nelson, Head Football Coach

Score 10 for you — good show!—ed.

Dear Sir:

The purpose of this letter is not to aggravate any particular person but merely to pose a few questions and perhaps insert a few suggestions concerning various campus matters.

The first matter has to be with Radio UNB. In the light of the S.R.C. meeting of Feb. 4, '63, the fact was brought out that Radio UNB had illegally overspent their allowed budget of some $400.00 which the S.R.C. was left to pay for. For a while there was talk of punishing the whole club or the members responsible, but nothing came of this. However, the point which I fail to see is how Radio UNB can afford to make a donation of $700.00 to the practically decadent Building Committee, but could not afford to pay its own debts. In effect, this bad debt helped to curtail the activities of other clubs who at the same meeting were requesting additional financial aid but were turned down due to the lack of S.R.C. funds.

While on the matter of the Building Committee, it is so beginning to appear that the efforts of the Committee are very little, due to the fact, that they cannot convince the student body to any positive action. At the present, I believe the Building Committee has some $2,700.00 in funds and is merely waiting for the student body to decide on what it wants. Unfortunately the Build-

Radio U.N.B. presented a faite accompli to the S.R.C. maybe we should have too.—ed.

Isn't it wonderful:

—that McConnell Hall has enough salt and pepper shakers to provide for every third table.

—that they developed a conventional dressing to go with at least one meal a day.

—that glasses are so quickly washed that they contain added flavour for the next serving.

—that they have facilities to make enough desserts (of the same kind) to last at least four days.

—that there is "cold" water available in order to double the quantity of soup.

—that the Irish introduced potatoes (large and numerous).

—that jackets and ties are required for the weekly Saturday night banquet: cold, uncooked hotdogs and beans.

—that they supply one ash tray for every second table.

—that only half the cooking facilities work so that we get a variety of delicacies: overcooked, raw, or frozen and occasionally even wet.

—that they get their bread a week ahead of time so that they can freeze it and serve it cold.

—that McConnell Hall has many different sweet aromas to give further enjoyment while eating.

It's a wonder you live.—ed.

Dear Sir:

I write in praise of the McConnell Hall . . . that body devoted entirely to the physical nutrition of six hundred U.N.B. students, all of whom are extremely enthusiastic in their support and praise of the extraordinary creations upon which they daily feast.

The quality of the food served at this place of culinary delights is incomparable to any other in the world, and many students are so overcome with rapture that they refuse to eat for fear of spoiling a perfect meal. Fortunately, our beloved chefs never seem offended by this gesture, in fact, nothing seems to prevent them from producing each day those supreme examples of nourishment and delight for which they are famous.

If I may cite one example, I would select the day that our revered chefs perfected their world-famous method of preparing meat as the most serendipitous occasion this university has ever witnessed, and I am of the opinion that an anniversary should be observed to commemorate this auspicious event. As far as I have been able to determine, their method involves selection of the finest of preserved meats — cost is no object and methods of preparation formerly unknown to any but the originators of the art of cooking, and which have remained undisclosed to all but a few since their discovery one and one-half years ago.

I could go on to describe such masterpieces as the incomparable boiled potatoes, the everpopular beans, the delicious, steaming mounds of cabbage and turnip, which melt in one's mouth, and the best Jello in the world, but I realize that space is limited, and even if it were not, I could never say enough in praise of those wonders and pieces des resistance which are daily placed before us.

Sincerely yours,
Garett Estey

Dear Students:

The following is a brief summary of why the S.R.C. voted to stop publication of the Brunswickan.

The finance committee recommended to the S.R.C. that the Brunswickan be stopped at the break even point in order to prevent a debt which would be the responsibility of the incoming Council.

As of this issue the Brunswickan will be approximately $500. in debt. If publication continues until the end of the year, the total debt will be roughly $1100. These figures are a bare minimum.

Yours truly
David Munson,
Treas. S.R.C., Chairman
Finance Committee

ON STAGE

STUDENT OPINION — ON NECKING

A play which has won both movie and legitimate stage acclaim, The Diary of Anne Frank, will be produced by the University of New Brunswick Drama Society for the provincial Regional Drama Festival being held in Bathurst March 20-23.

Michael Gordon, director of the U.N.B. Drama Society's festival production, said that this production will be staged in Fredericton on March 9, 11, 12 before going to Bathurst for the provincial drama competition.

"The Diary of Anne Frank", Mr. Gordon added, "is a very challenging and ambitious effort for the society to undertake. But I believe that with the co-operation of all society members it will be possible for us to mount the show."

The play is based on the equally well known book, Anne Frank; Diary of a Young Girl. The play has won virtually every coveted prize in the theatre, including the Pulitzer Prize and the Critics Circle Award. There are five men and five women in the cast.

Action takes place in German occupied Holland during the second world war. The story involves two Jewish families who have hidden themselves in a warehouse attic to avoid the persecution of the Nazi gestapo.

The most important point the play makes, Mr. Gordon said, is the triumphant ascendancy of the human spirit when the individual is placed in jeopardy. The world of Hitler and fascism is seen through the eyes of a small Jew-

"What is your opinion on students necking in the students' centre during the day?"

"What we do as students at this university reflects on the student body as a whole — why should a few ill-mannered couples be allowed to display such actions in public for all of our distinguished visitors to see and view as a typical student behaviour."

"Let's face it — necking has been going on in the students' centre since it was built and will go on even longer. I personally find it relaxing. It soothes my nerves between classes. What I would like to see in the student centre is soft light and romantic music so that necking may be encouraged even more."

"It is a wonderful idea. But there is not enough intimacy there. I suggest that the student centre should be divided into small rooms—just for two! However I prefer that the residences should be open for girls. It is much more convenient there than on the hard chairs of the Student Centre."

DUMP MEMORIAL IN EXHIBITION TILT

Led by two goals off the stick of Dave Peterson the U.N.B. Red Devils skated to an easy 6-2 win over the Memorial University Beothuks Friday evening in the Lady Beaverbrook Arena. It was the second game in as many nights for the Newfoundland squad. The previous night's action had seen Mount Allison drop Memorial 7-1 as an opening highlight of Mt. A.'s Winter Carnival.

The Devils were never in any serious trouble throughout the entire game as Claude "Smily" MacKinnon put the U.N.B. squad ahead to stay as he notched the opener at the five minute mark of the opening period. The first period saw the locals go two up on the visitors and match the Beothuks two goals in the second frame. In the third the Devils played the type of hockey they are capable of and added two more to their total to come away with a four goal margin.

Besides Dave Peterson's two goals and Claude MacKinnon's opening marker Joel Violette, Richard Clark and Rollie Beliveau notched singletons in the winning cause. Carl Pynn and Tom Collingwood scored the two goals in the Memorial cause.

It was rather a pleasant surprise to see a familiar face with the Memorial aggregation — that of former U.N.B. football and basketball star Ed Browne. Ed is now on the staff of Memorial University in the Physical Education Department.

With the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League rapidly drawing to a close I will have to agree with my contemporary in the Dalhousie Gazette, Gerry Levitz, who says that New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island teams have certainly shown their superiority in the new league. There is no doubt that the league has been an instant success in its first season.

Saint Francis Xavier has proved to be the power in Nova Scotia as the powerful X-men are still undefeated by other Nova Scotia competition. Certainly it will be X who again forms the opposition from across the border. Saturday's encounter with the Tommies in Chatham should prove to be the climax of the season as both will be gunning for a win and the right to represent the N.B.-P.E.I. in the Maritime finals.

This will be the last year for their method of selection for the two finalists. Plans for the future call for the two top teams, no matter where they come from — be it two teams from Nova Scotia or the other section, it will be the two best teams playing off for the title.

The 11th of March will see the official league all-star team being released but before the official statistics are released I would like to second guess the official voting by listing what I would consider the best in the league.

HATS OFF TO RAIDERS

This year has been a highly successful year for Don Nelson's Red Raider Basketball Squad. They have treated us to some of the highest calibre of basketball to be witnessed here by a college team in some years. Our congratulations are sincerely extended for the creditable performance of this year's team and it is hoped that as many as possible will be out to attend the Red Raider's last start of the season. They will be entertaining Aroostook State Teachers' College this Friday evening in the Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium at 8:30 p.m.

Typical of Friday night's rough action sees Rollie Beliveau fighting for the rebound from Ken Marchant's shot. Memorial's goalie Tols Champan, however, puts the stop to the scoring threat as he covers up neatly.

SWIM TEAMS VICTORIOUS AT MT.A.

MERMAIDS TOP MT. A. BY 20 POINTS

The U.N.B. Mermaids picked up their third consecutive win over the weekend as they defeated teams from Mount Allison and Memorial at Mount A.'s Winter Carnival.

Carol Scarborough, Pat Martin, Janet Skelton and Jill Robinson had to settle for a close second place in the 200 metre medley relay behind Ruth McVetty, Andrea Vaines, Aileen Barker and Sally Steele of Mount A.; the winning time was 2:47.2. A time of 36.5 win the 50 metre freestyle for Brenda Bergman of Mount A. over Susan Campbell of Memorial and Judi Ritchie of U.N.B. Pat Martin of U.N.B. won the 50 metre breaststroke in 47.5; second place went to U.N.B.'s Nancy Kilburn and third to Andrea Vaines of Mount A. The 50 metre backstroke proved to be one of the closest events of the meet, and was won by Ruth McVetty of Mount A. in 44.2. A time of 44.3 earned second place for Carol Scarborough of U.N.B., while Marilyn Lutz of Mount A. placed third in 44.4. Aileen Barker of Mount A. won the 50 metre butterfly in 39.6 over Jill Robinson and Janet Skelton of U.N.B.

Janet Skelton swam to victory in the 75 metre freestyle with a time of 59.0. Teammate Judi Ritchie was second and Mount A.'s Brenda Bergman was third. Pat Martin and Nancy Kilburn again placed first and second in the 75 metre breaststroke while Andrea Vaines of Mount A. was again third. The winning time was 1:16.0. Carol Scarborough won the 75 metre backstroke for U.N.B. in 1:08.8, followed by Marilyn Lutz and Ruth McVetty of Mount A. Mount A.'s Aileen Barker won the 75 metre butterfly in 1:07.6 while second place went to Nancy Kilburn of U.N.B.

In another extremely close race, Jil Robinson won the 100 metre freestyles for U.N.B. in 1:56.6, while Sally Steele of Mount A. finished in 1:15.7; Judi Ritchie of U.N.B. was third.

Jennifer Adam of U.N.B. won the diving followed by teammate Elaine MacEwan and Nancy McCarthy of Mount A. Mount A.'s Sally Steele won the 100 metre individual medley followed by Carol Scarborough of U.N.B. and Susan Campbell of Memorial. The 200 metre freestyle relay was won by Judi Ritchie, Lori Foster, Jill Robinson and Janet Skelton of U.N.B. after Aileen Barker, Brenda Bergmann, Ruth McVetty and Sally Steele were disqualified for illegal procedure. An exhibition team composed of Nancy Kilburn, Elaine MacEwan, Jennifer Adam and Carol Scarborough of U.N.B. placed second, and another exhibition team including Pat Starr, Andrea Vaines and Marilyn Lutz of Mount A. were third.

Following the meet, Mount A.'s Winter Carnival Queen Genesta Hartling, presented a trophy to Judi Ritchie, captain of the winning team. The final scores were U.N.B. 64, Mount A. 44, and Memorial 4. High point winners were Aileen Barker of Mount A. with 11 3/4 and Carol Scarborough of U.N.B. with 11.

The next meet for the Mermaids is on Saturday, February 23 against the powerful Halifax Y Neptunes.

BEAVERS WIN BY COUNT OF 210-126

Saturday afternoon saw the U.N.B. Beavers swamp the Mount Allison Gold Fish at Sackville, 210-126; finishing third was Memorial University with 46.

Leading U.N.B. was perennial winner Chris Robb who swam the 200 M freestyle in 2:25.7. Robb's other win was in the 400 M freestyle which he took in 5:22.6 while lapping all his competitors. In the 400 M Relay, Robb swam the first leg against Memorial Coach Dennes Sveltko, former Hungarian Olympic swimmer, and finished only 1 second behind Sveltko's fine time of 58 for the 100. An added attraction in the relay were two exhibition teams from U.N.B. starring Diver Mike Hutchins. McDonald, Rowe, Colpitts and ack finished second while Sawyer, Hutchins, Pentland and Meth finished third.

Mike Hutchins of U.N.B. placed third. Bruce McDonald had little trouble in the 200 M breaststroke as he beat Mount A.'s John Reade in 3:16.3. Bob Jack was the only competition for Don Sawyer in the 100 M butterfly, but he could not beat Sawyer's impressive time of 1:11.8. Jack was a close second again in the 200 M individual Medley, this time to Preston Thom, who beat out his teammate by 3 seconds, winning in 2:48.8. Steve Mosher's time of 3:06.6 was better than any other swimmer could show for the 200 M backstroke.

Bill Rowe took the 50 M freestyle, although his time of 28.2 was 2 seconds slower than that of Sveltko, who was swimming exhibition. In the final freestyle event, the 100, Bill Warner was tops with 1:01.6. Warner teamed up with Mosher, McDonald and Sawyer to win the 400 M medley relay in 4:50.3.

Next week the Halifax Y.M.C.A. Neptunes come to U.N.B. and will provide the top competition available for U.N.B. in the Maritimes. The following weekend, the Beavers go to Camp Gagetown for the New Brunswick Open Meet. The Beavers conclude the season on the weekend of March 9, when they compete in the Maritime Intercollegiate meet at Mount A.
